United Junior Choir Gave Fine Concert

Those who attended the concert, put on by the Junior Choir of the local United Church, under the auspices of the Red Cross Society, in the town hall last Friday night, were treated to one of the finest programs ever presented from a local stage.

Colorful lighting effects and lavish stage-settings added harmony to the excellent program, presented by members of the choir and assisting talent. The program was arranged by Mrs. F. G. Johnson, assisted by Mrs. D. F. Blair and Mr. Johnson, who was the accompanist during the evening.

The chairman for the occasion was Mr. Walter Moffat, second Vice President of the local Branch of the Red Cross Society.

In addition to the several choral numbers by the choir, there were violin solos by Miss Sybil Empey; a trio by Misses Doris, Donna and Marion Suffel, of Inkerman; a reading of Robert Louis Stevenson, by Mrs. Johnson, who was accompanied by the choir singing "Silent Night"; solo by Miss Vivian Barclay, accompanied by Mrs. E. Merkley, of Williamsburg; piano duet, "Shepherd Pipes," by Misses Patti Cass and Betty Stewart; choral number, Love's Old Sweet Song," by Misses Erma O'Neil, Patti Cass, Betty Stewart, Doris Armstrong and Daphne Wilkins; tap dance by Miss Helen Cheney; choral number, "Little Baby Jesus,'" sung by Velma Johnston, Norma Armstrong, Marion Loucks and Mary Barclay. Solo parts during the several choir selections were taken by Norman Utman, Melvin Johnston and Gordon Helmer.

Among the distinguished visitors present, were Col. G. L. Jennings, of Ottawa, district organizer for the Red Cross Society, and Mrs. Robert Dorman, of Ottawa, president of the Women's Historical Society.

During the program Col. Jennings, in a brief address, referred to the progress made by Red Cross branches throughout the district and congratulated the Winchester unit on the splendid efforts it had made to date. Mrs. Dorman, during her remarks, stressed the importance of classes for training in first aid.

Another feature, taking place during the program was the presentation of proficiency prizes to Melvin Johnston, Joy Levere and Doris Armstrong, and the presentation of goodwill gifts by the Junior Choir to Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Blair, who had spent much time in preparing the program and training the youngsters.

Following the concert, the visiting artists were entertained at the home of Mrs. J. W. Ault, president of the Winchester Red Cross Society.

On the day prior to the concert, the program was announced over CBO, Ottawa, by Mrs. Roscana Bond during her "Women's World" chat.

Proceeds from the entertainment were donated to the local Red Cross Society, and members of the executive have expressed their sincere appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Blair and members o fthe Junior Choir, for their voluntary contributions.

Kemptville Hotel Destroyed By Fire

Fire swept through the Allen House, Kemptville's leading hostelry, last Friday, virtually destroying it before being brought under control. Damage was estimated at about $20,000.

The Kemptville fire brigade of about 20 men, who operated a gasoline pumper and a steam pumper, to get water from the Rideau River, brought the blaze under control before extra firefighters, sent from Prescott and Ottawa, arrived.

The blaze started in a laundry, set up in a frame building adjacent to the three-storey Allen House. Quickly the flames swept through all three floors of the 30-room hotel, but no one was reported injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fitzhugh, of Cobourg, guests in the hotel, managed to make their way to safety, as did four young men, the only other guests.

Four firemen were knocked down when the north wall of the hotel collapsed, but they were not hurt.

Other firemen managed to get some of the furniture from the first and second floors out of the building. Many spectators helped in piling it in the street.

Goods in the adjacent Capital store were damaged by water.

TO THE ELECTORS OF WINCHESTER TOWNSHIP

Ladies and Gentlemen:—

I sincerely thank all those who so loyally supported me at the polls on Monday last. I shall continue in my new office as Deputy Reeve to still retain as my motto, "Fair Play and a Square Deal to one and all."

Wishing you all a very Happy and Prosperous New Year.

35c. E. B. McMILLAN.

TO THE ELECTORS OF WINCHESTER TOWNSHIP

Through the columns of the Press, I wish to extend my thanks to the electors of Winchester Township who supported me at the polls on Monday. I congratulate Mr. McMillan on his victory and extend best wishes to the 1940 Council. Wishing you all a Happy New Year.

35c. THOMAS J. RALPH.

P. H. Fader Elected Mayor of Leamington

The Press, along with his many friends here, join in extending congratulations to Mr. Philip H. Fader, who was elected Mayor of Leamington by an overwhelming majority at the polls on Monday. Phil. contested the council seat against the 1939 mayor and another prominent Leamington man, and his election was just an evidence that he had retained the popularity which was responsible for his election to the Mayor's chair and other municipal offices on several occasions. His desire to serve, coupled with his proven ability and congenial personality, carried him to victory on Monday, and the people of Leamington made no mistake in their choice of chief magistrate.

Phil. is a native of Winchester and well-known throughout the Ottawa Valley. He is the son of Mr. Martin Fader and the late Mrs. Fader. He started out in life as an apprentice in the Press Office, and his ambitions carried him to be Managing Editor of the Leamington Post & News, which is recognized as one of the finest weekly newspapers in the Dominion of Canada, and which recently won the trophy for having the best editorial page of any weekly paper in the Dominion This was accomplished since Phil. took over the editor's chair. Phil's frequent visits to his home-town have kept him in touch with his many friends here, and all will wish him well in his new field of endeavour.

Minister Inducted At Chesterville Yesterday

The induction of Rev. John Mackenzie, late of Hespeler, Ont., as minister of the Presbyterian church at Chesterville, took place yesterday, with the moderator of the Brockville presbytery, Rev. T. M. Revie, of South Mountain, presiding and inducting the new minister. Rev. Henry Cousens, Brockville, assisted Rev. Dr. N. A. MacLeod, Brockville, who addressed the minister. Rev. W. D. Turner of Winchester, delivered the address to the congregation.

At the close of the Induction Service, Rev. and Mrs. Mackenzie were introduced to the public assembled, after which a social hour was spent and delicious refreshments served.

During the meeting the following expression of appreciation was extended to Rev. Mr. Turner, Interim-Moderator of the Chesterville-Dunbar charge, and pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Winchester:

"We desire to express our appreciation at this time for your many kind services, your time and presence were always available to us at considerable sacrifice to yourself over a long period. We would ask you to accept this purse as a small token of the high esteem in which we hold both Mrs. Turner and yourself."

Signed on behalf of the congregation, Wm. Rae, Carmen McIntosh.

Police Believe Ring Of Thieves Broken

Seven Ottawa and district men, held in connection with robberies in the Ottawa Valley the past few months, appeared in county court at Ottawa last Thursday, and were remanded a week without pleading.

Delvida Lalonde, 24; Lionel Lalonde, 28; Claudias Lalonde, 65, and Anatole Lauzon, 25, all of nearby Eastview, were charged with retaining in their possession $500 worth of stolen goods.

Emilien Jolicoeur, 24, of Ottawa, was charged with receiving stolen goods, and Rene Campeau, 20, and Andre Campeau, 18, of Masson, Que., with breaking and entering.

Four of the men were arrested in Morrisburg, Saturday morning, Dec. 24, and the remainder in Ottawa and district later in the day. Goods valued at $1,000 were recovered in an Eastview house.

The arrests followed some weeks of investigation by provincial police, under the direction of Sergeant R. P. Labelle, and were aided by prompt action of Morrisburg Town Constable Claire Biccum. Becoming suspicious of a car parked outside Casselman's store in Morrisburg, Constable Biccum questioned two young men whom he met in the alleyway. Investigation proved two doors at the rear of the store had been forced open and a quantity of money taken. Two others were arrested later.

It is thought the thirteen men now under arrest may have been responsible for an epidemic of thefts from Eastern Ontario stores. Merchants at Winchester, Russell and Carp have been victimized in recent months, and some of the goods found in the Eastview home are thought to be from there.

Mr. Bessin has identified some of the goods in possession o the Provincial Police, as merchandise taken from his store a few weeks ago.

TO THE ELECTORS OF WINCHESTER TOWNSHIP

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the electors of the Township of Winchester for their loyal support at the polls on Monday. While I lost the contest by only six votes, it is gratifying to know that my services were preferred by a large number of ratepayers. To the new deputy reeve, Mr. E. B. McMillan, I extend my personal congratulations, and to the 1940 Council Board I offer best wishes for a successful year.

Rev. W. D. Turner Has Been Extended Unanimous Call By Hillsburg Circuit

On Thursday evening last Rev. W. D. Turner received a message, informing him that an unanimous call had been extended to him by the Presbyterian congregations of Hillsburg and Bethel in the Orangeville Presbytery. Mr. Turner preached in those churches on December 17th.

Should he accept the call, Mr. Turner will be leaving his present charge early next month.

Mr. Turner came to Winchester 10 years ago, succeeding Rev. H. C. Graham as pastor of the St. Paul's church. During that period he has won many close friends, both within his congregation and throughout the district in general. Not only has he been a devoted minister of St. Paul's church, but an ideal citizen of the town, and is worthy of the best that can come to him.

Needless to say, both Mr. and Mrs. Turner will be greatly missed, and their many friends will be sorry to see them leave Winchester, if they should definitely decide to go to Hillsburg.

THE UNITED CHURCH

The closing services of an eventful year were well attended, and the messages of hope and faith in God, given by Rev. W. S. Atchison, filled the hearts of his congregations with thankfulness that God's judgments have not come upon us, like they have upon so many parts of the world. He spoke in the morning on the "Tragedy of the Almost," his text being Acts 24:25. Felix sent for Paul that he might talk to him about Christ. Paul reasoned with him on the insanity of wrongdoing, but Felix failed to give God a chance in his life and refused to come to the point of consecration to God. The pastor's plea was to make a wholehearted decision for Christ.

Very impressively, the ceremony was carried out for the admission of several members to the church on confession of faith. There were also ten whose membership was transferred from elsewhere. Those who came on confession of faith were, for the greater part, results o the pastor's special services held a few weeks ago in the outlying parts of the circuit and also in the home church.

At the beginning of the evening service, Rev. W. S. Atchison wished his congregation all that might be good for them in the New Year. His message was based on: "Take heed, watch and pray." He spoke of right and wrong ways of measuring time and asked the challenging question: Are we better Christians than we were a year ago. Pictures of a trip on the Empress of Australia were shown at the close of the service.

In the morning the congregation was priveleged to hear a solo: "Lord Make Me Strong," by Mr. J. Foulds of Saskatoon, who also assisted in the anthem: "Arise, Arise, Shine," by taking a leading solo part.

It is of interest to note that Mr. Foulds mother sang in this choir many years ago when she was known as Miss Flora Annable. After that she went West and married and is now deceased. Mr. Foulds will be heard with pleasure should he come this way again. Mr. Johnson presided at the organ.

Rev. W. S. Atchison told of the good effect produced by the Junior Choir in their concert Friday night, paying high tributes to their trainers, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

UNITED CHURCH W. A.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. A. met in session in the Sunday School rooms of the United Church on Tuesday at 2.30 p.m., with the new president in the chair. Her opening remarks were to wish everybody a Happy New Year. The meeting opened with a hymn; scripture was read by Mrs. J. Moffat, and Mrs. Atchison led in prayer.

The key-note of the meeting was "Duty makes a man do his work well, but love to God makes us do better."

The theme of Mrs. J. Ault's talk on New Year Resolutions was to forget yesterday, it is gone forever; tomorrow has not arrived, but today is our opportunity for service to our Master and our fellow man.

It was unanimously desired to divide the Association into four groups. Convenors for the groups are as follows: Group 1, Mrs. J. Utman and Mrs. E. Gilroy; Group 2, Mrs. P. Durant and Mrs. H. L. Hughes; Group 3, Mrs. J. Moffat and Mrs. Wm. Lannin; Group 4, not yet settled.

Light refreshments were served. Mrs. A. Johnston, the new president, brought the meeting to a close, asking all the women to co-operate with her and the convenors to make 1940 a successful year. The meeting closed with the Benediction.

TO THE ELECTORS OF WINCHESTER TOWNSHIP

Although I was defeated in Monday's election for deputy reeve of Winchester Township, I want to express my sincere thanks to the electors who voted for me. I also extend congratulations to the successful candidate, Mr. McMillan, and wish the other members of the 1940 council, success throughout the year. I accept my defeat with a smile and hold no malice towards any of the contestants.

35p. JAMES C. McGREGOR.

Ernest B. McMillan Elected Dep. Reeve

In the contest for Deputy Reeve in Winchester Township on Monday, Ernest B. McMillan, a member of the Council for several years, was elected by a majority of six votes over Ernest R. Summers. The other two candidates, James C. McGregor and Thomas J. Ralph, both members of the 1939 Council, also polled a good number of votes, but are automatically retired from the council board for this year. Each candidate was loyally supported in his own riding. Early returns Monday evening gave the candidates the following totals: McMillan, 215; McGregor, 213; Summers, 212 Ralph, 122. When the returning officer, Mr. Jacob Steen, reported the result of the election, these figures were changed considerable. Th official standing is as follows:

Poll	McGregor	McMillan	Ralph	Summers
No. 1 Limerick	8	90	24	6
No 2 Cass Bridge	8	1	4	29
No. 3 Summers'	5	2	5	73
No. 4 Annable's	7	0	51	4
No. 5 Ormond	104	3	6	9
No. 6 Morewood	26	38	24	55
No. 7 Froods	15	42	6	18
No. 8 W. Springs	2	32	2	8
Totals	175	208	122	202

The complete Council for the Township of Winchester for the year 1940 is:

Reeve: W. J. McConnell.
Deputy Reeve: E. B. McMillan
Councillors: Wm. McCloskey, Wm. Brown and George Beattie.

Election In Kemptville

J. Hamilton Allen, former member of council and reeve, was elected to the reeveship of Kemptville, by defeating T. K. Allan by 171 votes. T. Earl McClenaghan headed the poll for councillors, defeating his nearest rival by seven votes.

Results of the election follow:

For reeve: J. Hamilton Allen, 385; T. K. Allan, 214.

For councillors: T. Earl McClenaghan, 448; Charles B. D. Graham, 439; John C. Sykes, 363; John Christie, 348; Casey Swedlove, 225.

Merrickville

Reeve Stanley Knapp was returned for the third consecutive time in the elections at Merrickville. He defeated Thomas Scott, by a total of 201 to 190.

Councillors elected were: Jack Jakes, 268; A. M. Watchorn, 198; L. Keagan, 192; and Edward Errett, 156. Defeated aspirants were James McConnell, 149, and H. Millar, 148.

Other officials were acclaimed at nominations.

ORMOND B. Y. P. U.

The final Young People's Meeting of 1939 was held in the Ormond church last Friday evening with the President in the chair, and Miss Ada McConnell as leader. Following a service of favorite sacred songs, an average number responded to roll call. The President, Mrs Gibbons, thanked the group leaders and members for their co-operation in the past year, and hoped for a better year in 1940.

Mr. Morgan Swerdfeger read the Scripture, and the topic, "Is there room in my heart for Jesus?" was given by Miss Edith Armstrong. Mr. J. C. MacGregor closed the meeting with prayer

At the close, the new group leaders and members met to formulate plans for the coming months. The leaders are:

Devotional Group, Miss Hazel MacDonald; Stewardship, Stewart MacDonald; Service, Clifford Carkner; Fellowship Mrs. Erwin Cumming; Intermediate, Mrs. Fred MacDonald.

LATE MRS. D. H. MUNRO

The passing of Mrs. Duncan H. Munro at her home, near Cass Bridge, on Wednesday, evening, December 27th, removes from this district a highly esteemed citizen. Deceased had been in goodhealth until a few days prior to her death.

Born at Moose Creek, 78 years ago, deceased was a daughter of the late William Sproule and his wife, Margaret McNaughton, pioneer residents of that place. Her maiden name was Agnes Sproule.

In August, 1886, she married Duncan H. Munro, who predeceased her in July, 1938, two years after they had celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The late Mrs. Munro resided at Moose Creek for 24 years, following her marriage. Nineteen years ago she and her family took up residence on a farm in the Cass Bridge district. She was a devoted member of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church; a life member of the W. M. S., and an active member of the Ladies' Aid Society and Cass Bridge Red Cross Society.

She was a loving mother, a true friend and a highly respected citizen, and her sudden demise will be regretted by a wide circle of friends.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon last, from the family residence to St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, where a very impressive service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. D. Turner.

Interment was made at Maple Ridge Cemetery. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Richard Patterson, Ford Baker, George Coons, Gordon Baldwin, William Cooke and Kenneth Durant.

The late Mrs. Munro is survived by one son, Ernest, of Cass Bridge, and two sisters, Mrs. William McKillican, of Denver, Col., and Mrs. Angel Anderson, of Los Angeles, Calif.

Exhibition Hockey Tomorrow Night

The local hockey season will be officially opened tomorrow (Friday) evening, when the four town league teams swing into action, in an exhibition doubleheader at the Winchester Arena. The Cubs will cross sticks with the Frost & Wood sextette in the first game, while Williamsburg and Metcalfe will provide the excitement in the second contest.

The first games of the 1940 town league schedule will be played on Monday evening, and with all four teams equally matched, some keen competition may be looked for throughout the season.

The two Winchester teams are the "Cubs," managed by Dr. Doug. MacLean and Mr. George Elliott, and the Frost & Wood squad, managed by Mr. Walter MacDonald, who piloted them to a near championship last winter.

Williamsburg and Metcalfe have fine line-ups, with some new players on their lines, and will no doubt give the local teams plenty of opposition before the David Melvin Cup is finally won.

If you want to enjoy yourself this winter, attend the Town League Hockey Games. You'll enjoy this favourite winter sport.

Mrs. Wm. J. Lynch Passes At Ottawa

Many friends will learn with regret of the death at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Percy Ellis, 250 Percy St., Ottawa, on Tuesday, of Mrs. Margaret Lynch, wife of William John Lynch, a former resident of this place.

Ill for some time, Mrs. Lynch was in her 76th year. She was born in Williamsburg township, a daughter of the late Joseph Lapierre and his wife, Catherine McPhee. She was educated there and married William John Lynch. In Ottawa Mrs. Lynch attended the Bethel Pentecostal Tabernacle.

Surviving are her husband, seven sons, Joseph and William Lynch, of McKellar; Bernice, Howard and Hugh Lynch, of Morrisburg; Charles, of Winchester, and Ralph, of Ottawa; four daughters, Mrs. George Markell, of Kingston; Mrs. Geo. Marquette of Winchester, and Mrs. Guy Johncox and Mrs. Percy Ellis, both of Ottawa; and one brother, James Lapierre of Dundela.

The funeral is being held today at 1 p.m. from the above address to Wesleyan Methodist Church, Winchester, for service. Burial will be in Brinston's Corners cemetery. Rev. C. B. Smith will be in charge.

St. Paul's Junior Choir Presents Fine Cantata

A feature of the Christmas Services at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church was the presentation of a very interesting cantata, "The Road To Bethlehem," presented by members of the Junior Choir, under the direction of Mrs. A. G. Suffel and Miss Clara Irving.

During the cantata, the singing was interspersed with an interesting Christmas story by the pastor, Rev. W. D. Turner. Featured during the service was a quartette by Mrs. Hugh Wilson and the Misses Lorna Workman, Lillian Bruce and Mary Brown; a chorus by the Goforth Girls' Group; duet by Marguerite Murdock and Jack Wilson; trio by Misses Mona Robertson, Wilda Barkley and Sybil Empey; reading by Mona Robertson, and a chorus featuring the boys of the choir.

MEDICAL CARE IN THE MILITIA

The development of the medical care of the military forces of Great Britain is of timely interest because today the Army Medical Service Corps occupies so much more an important place than it did years ago.

In 1680 there were only four regiments in the British army. To these, surgeons were attached. Their names appeared in the army list and their pay was 4S a day with a horse to carry their chests. It became possible, some time later, for the medical officer to hold a combatant commission also, purchasing one as an ensign which permitted him to receive half a crown a day for extra hospital service. He had no combatant duty and ranked as a staff officer. In 1685 there apparently was an Army Medical Service, as there is mention of a Surgeon General. There was also a Company of Surgeons of London who examined the surgeons for the Army and Navy. The services rendered at this time were chiefly regimental, but there were general hospitals in the rear. In fact, in 1748 Middleton, surgeon to the forces, introduced hospitals with separate beds, clean linen and trained nurses.

Medical inspection of recruits came in 1745. In 1757 medical officers wore the uniform of the corps to which they belonged. In 1760 a surgeon's pay was 73 pounds, while a captain's was 182 pounds. Surgeons bought their commissions and paid as much as 500 pounds.

This information was recently given by Dr. D. E. Robertson, President of the Academy of Medicine, Toronto, who added, "It may seem strange to us but it is recorded that physicians were highly educated, often University graduates, and were paid very much in advance of regimental surgeons. During a war a surgeon might even be raised to the rank of a physician. The surgeons, however, had some famous men. John Hunter was once Surgeon General and served in Portugal in 1760-1763. During all this time the medical officer was dissatisfied with his position in the army. He did not have the standing of an ordinary combatant officer."

"In 1900, or thereabouts, the Queen approved the Royal Army Medical Corps, and the titles of its officers as known now. "Through all these years," said Dr. Robertson, "there had been a steady fight for the recognition of the army doctor as a man who deserved to rank as an officer. There had been apparently a dearth of men skilled in their profession in the army. It must be understood that most of the above discussion is in relation to regular army service and is therefore a situation that does not apply to Canada. In Canada we have several companies of regular troops and a skeleton permanent medical corps, the medical hospital work of these troops being done by the Department of Pensions and National Health. We have also volunteer militia medical units. One may state with truth that our problem as to medical military service is quite different from that of a country with a large permanent army.

"The medical and surgical problems that beset an army are those of public health and surgery. A well trained physician in civil life is most valuable in military life, while a qualified, active, experienced, civil surgeon is one who is best qualified to apply to military needs the surgical practices of the past and the innovations of the present. The officers of the permanent medical force are trained and skilled in military establishments and in the routine conduct of an army medical organization.

"The members of the non-permanent Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, however, have quite a different background. Some of these are highly trained and skilful practitioners. It would seem that this type have their futures as practitioners to which to look forward, and unless they wish to go into administrative positions they should be employed in a wholly medical capacity. Rank in this instance at once becomes, or may become, an obstruction to the proper organization of an effective unit.

GOVERNMENT BY THE PARTY

J. H. Burnham of Peterborough writes in truth: "Government and all that is under the control of Government is handed by the people at a general election to a party chief, who has outbid his rivals in getting control of the people at the polls.....When we realize that a political party with it own management, campaign fund, patronage, etc., is as separate an organization from the people as any other business concern, we will see the full force of the objection to it.

"It is often said that it is impossible to run an election without organization. Yes, a party election. The party with the best and best-paid organization, other things being equal, will win every time. For whose benefit? There is the rub. So long as parties are striving to get control with all that is beh... them, we know what must happe... happen. When party interest ... and the electors go to the polls in their own interests, the change in the fate of those interests will follow as the day the night."

EDITORIAL NOTES

Now that the municipal elections are over for two years, and possibly longer, we have nothing to look forward to except winning the war—that is unless Prime Minister King decides to give us a Federal election this year.

The hockey season will be officially opened in Winchester tomorrow night, when the four town league teams swing into action in two exhibition games. The regular schedule starts Monday and, judging from past years, there will be plenty of excitement before the David Melvin Memorial Cup is awarded to the 1940 champions.

A machine tool company in Madison, Wis., has cancelled an order for $15,000 worth of supplies received from the Russian government with this statement: "Most corporations want to deal with nations that give a place to ethics and sportsmanship in political transactions as well as in business transactions." Unfortunately, the Reds are usually found wanting on both counts.

Official French sources estimate that more than 50 German submarines have been sunk since war began, the rate of four a week being twice the enemy's replacement capacity. If this destruction continues at the same rate, it may not be long before there is a repetition of the break-down of the German submarine corps that took place during the Great War, when crews refused to man craft engaged in such precarious service, says the Brockville Recorder & Times.

The gallant Finns are certainly putting up a stiff resistance to their Russian enemies. Most countries thought that the mighty Russian armies and air force would have easy picking against such a small opposing force. The Finns may not be as numerous as the Russians but they are made out of the right kind of stuff, when it comes to fighting. "Good things are done up in small parcels" would appear to be the reason why a small Finnish force is putting the large Russian armies to route.

With this, the first issue of the Press in the New Year, we wish to thank all our Advertisers, Correspondents, Subscribers and others who have contributed to the success of this paper during the past year. It is only through such patronage and co-operation that a newspaper can exist, and the editor is extremely grateful to those who have co-operated with him, in this regard, in the past and trusts that he can depend on their whole-hearted support during the coming year. Again we say thank you, with best wishes for the future.

Just when the temperance forces are trying to impress people that alcohol has ill effects on the human mind and body, along comes that radio announcer with the report that so-and-so down in the United States is celebrating his 103rd birthday, and that the celebrant says that "people should not believe that whiskey or smoking impairs their health. Smoke all you want to and take a good drink of whiskey is my advice." In our opinion this man is an exception. We have seen too many victims of the liquor habit, to take his advice seriously—even though he has lived to be a ripe old age.

On Wednesday evening of last week, Henderson Lodge, No. 383, A. F. & A. M., celebrated its Diamond Jubilee. Sixty years is a long period of time for a club or society to exist in a small town, and it speaks well for Masonry in Winchester. The men who conceived the idea of forming a Masonic Lodge here had to make many personal sacrifices to realize their ambition. That they laid a firm foundation sixty years ago is evidence of the progressive state of Henderson Lodge today, which has a membership of over 100 members. It has been said that "all good things flourish," and from what we know about Masonry, that is a logical reason why Masonic Lodges all over the world have been carrying on for centuries, regardless of the changing times. While the local lodge was observing its diamond anniversary, Smiths Falls' Masons were celebrating a full century of Masonry in that town.

"Scuttling" is another word that has become popular since the war began, along with "communique." During the last World War the word "camouflage" became popular and remained in common use during succeeding years. Hitler brought the word "scuttling" into prominence, when he ordered all German ships that were in danger of being captured to be "scuttled" by their crews—in other words "ship-suicide." And speaking of scuttling, it would appear to us that the German Maniac is not only scuttling his ships, but the whole German Empire—too bad the natives of that country cannot see it that way. Goering, one of Hitler's right-hand men, is commencing to realize that the German Fuehrer has made a mistake, according to recent ... despatches. It has been reported that a ... of opinions has arisen between Hitler ...ring, and that the latter has ceased to ...rther conferences with Hitler.

PRINCIPLES VS. JOB

(Almonte Gazette)

In a town not far from Almonte, a life-long Sunday School teacher and ardent prohibitionist, has been appointed vendor in the Government liquor store. Does this show that his principles were not so deep after all or is he seeking, by actual contact with the business, an opportunity to reform it. Time will tell. Meanwhile, many former patrons of the liquor store who are diffident about having their purchases too closely scrutinized, bought their Christmas supply in a neighboring municipality. Probably they will do the same for New Year.

CAUSE TO BE THANKFUL

(Trenton Courier-Advocate)

When you get down to say your prayers in these last days of a dying year you might express gratefulness for several things.

For instance, there is the Maginot Line, the Royal Navy and the Royal Air Force, the first line of defences against the Hun. Nearer home put in a word for the men and the little cruisers and mine sweepers and patrols and the Royal Canadian Air Force that are keeping the enemy off these shores.

And still nearer home you might mention the men of the Royal Canadian Air Force who stand ready at any time, day or night, to go up and meet any Hun airman who might break through our line of defences.

For don't forget that if our line of defence should ever break down and the enemy should break through, you will be wandering around the shambles of your town with a gestapo pressing a bayonetted rifle in your back and you will not be able to wish anybody a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

KNOCKS SUGGESTION

(Leamington Post & News)

There was an item recently in a daily nwspaper that a suggestion had been made by a member of a certain Board of Education that the funds in the Penny Bank of Ontario be given over to prosecute war work. This was only a thought, no doubt, of some zealous person, but one which should not be considered, says the Forest Free Press. This sum of money has been accumulated through very small savings by the children of the working parents. The most of this money has been put away by the children, who, instigated by parents and teachers, are being taught thrift. And these sums stand for, in many instances, the money to be used for the learning of a trade or profession. Far be it from us to knock, in any way, the giving of funds for the welfare of Canada, the British Commonwealth of Nations, or the Allies. Everyone has to give in more ways than one, and will continue to give as long as nations have to settle their disputes by war. But, why suggest that the little children be among the first to give their savings? A much better suggestion would be that every adult in Canada who is earning more than a living wage, give of that surplus.

THE FUTURE AND US

(Alliston Herald)

It lies pretty much within the power of us all to mould it into a good year. We are all, to a large extent, the architects of our own destiny. "There is a divinity that shapes our ends, roughhew them as we may," but we also do some of the shaping. And the making of New Year's resolutions is helpful. Kept throughout the year, they render the twelvemonth well worth while. There is a tendency to treat lightly New Year's resolutions, as being something trivial, which may be due in part or wholly to the fact that so many of them are speedily broken. They have all a good aim and need only to be adhered to vindicate themselves in every way. Who has ever heard of a January 1st resolve that had in it anything of meanness? Let us now ring out the old and everything that it had which was undesirable, and ring in the new with everything with which mortals can invest it that is desirable and profitable and commendable. Our resolves have all the true ring to them; the one important thing is to stand by them.

A WAR TO BE WON!

(Reprinted From The National Home Monthly)

There is a war to win. A war against dictatorship and the theory that Might is Right. It is a war to protect our personal liberties of thought and action. It is not just anybody's war. It is yours—it is mine.

If democracy is workable, and we believe it is, now is the time to show it in action against the dictator's idea of an ordered state. Our greatest strength lies in the fact that we CAN volunteer for service. In the opinion of the dictators that is our greatest weakness. Now is our chance to demonstrate. We can make democracy work and we can make it work without adopting any of the half-baked ideas of the Nazis or Communists in our midst.

If there is any truth in the saying that one volunteer is worth many conscripts, now is our chance to show it. We can fight or we can produce. In this war many of us can play a more important role as producers than we could possibly do in any of the combatant services.

In this war our government naturally takes all reasonable responsibility for the furtherance of Canada's war activities. It mobilizes a navy, an army and an air force. It directs necessary purchases of supplies and ammunition. It raises needed funds through increased taxes or new taxation. It enacts legislation for the protection of the citizens and the prosecution of our war effort. These are the natural and proper responsibilities of a Government, and in them, and because of them, we must all make certain sacrifices of money and our customary freedom. Yet he is a poor Canadian who would not gladly make any sacrifice required to the end that Canada may, with her Allies, be ultimately victorious.

Yes, there is a war to win, and already many of our Canadian manhood have enlisted, voluntarily, in the armed forces of our Dominion. By their enlistment these men have assigned a willingness to give their lives, if necessary, to assure Canada and the British Commonwealth of Nations the liberty so dearly won in centuries past. They are ready and willing to give their all. Again, many thousands of Canadian women have already volunteered their services in one form or another. They, too, are gladly giving their time, energies and ability to further our fight for democracy. These are the personal sacrifices that are being made to win this war.

But what of Canadian Industry?

First it must be remembered that this war is two-fold—a war of man power and a war of material power. In its present stage the latter seems to be the more important factor. With embargoes, blockades and the total disruption of the customary channels of international trade and commerce, that nation which can withstand the strain on its economic and material resources has an immense advantage over its enemy.

With this in mind, it is suggested that Canadian Industry—Manufacturing, Mining and other Natural Resources, and Agriculture—might very effectively offer to contribute, voluntarily, a small portion of their products to the Canadian War Supply Board.

Let us see what this means in more detail.

For example, a manufacturer of motor cars, canned goods, or any other product would give of his product to the War Supply Board when and as needed, whatever amount he feels willing to donate. An oil producer, a mining company, a timber corporation, might similarly give of its product. An apple or other fruit growing association might consider a donation from its annual crop. A farmer might be willing to donate one bushel of wheat out of each hundred bushels he harvested. A flour mill might offer to grind this wheat free of charge as its contribution. And all such donations might be transported free by rail, boat or truck. These are but a few suggestions. All these products and thousands of others are needed to win this war.

There is no thought that labor be given free. All donated products would be produced or manufactured as if for purchase by the War Supply Board, and, of course, processed to proper specifications. The contributors would merely write the Canadian War Supply Board signifying their willingness to donate, and in due course, when they were needed, the War Supply Board would take delivery of the products offered.

What would this mean?

In the first place it is quite conceivable that a tremendous accumulation of supplies would result from the many donations. A total that would not have to be purchased by the War Supply Board, and subsequently paid for by funds raised through war loans with their heavy interest charges—loans that we and succeeding generations would have to pay through taxation. A handsome saving to all concerned, for you and I ultimately must pay the cost of this war—and this when, to all intents and purposes, the last war still stands on our Nation's books as a debt.

Then, too, all companies, corporations, or associations so contributing will have a very real sense of doing something in their own way to further the war that must be won. And it might be well to keep in mind that any contribution made now is but a small part of what would be taken from industry should this war be lost.

Perhaps one of the greatest benefits from such a move would be psychological. The voluntary enlistment of men co-operating with the voluntary contributions of industry displays a united Canada. It would give added impetus to the war effort. It would be good for us at home and a tremendous encouragement to the British Commonwealth and her Allies.

However, the main issue is, what will industry in Canada voluntarily give of its individual products to further the war? Give without having to be regimented into it by legislation or taxation? Give because it wants to share in the need of the hour? Give—because in any disaster visited on a people by flood, or earthquake, or famine, Canadians have given gladly and willingly without thought of anything other than the need for giving; because in this war they recognize a disaster that day by day is increasing more awful, and the need to give in the emergency more necessary?

There is a war to win.

What will Canadian Industry volunteer?

"The worm is always regarded as a rather miserable creature," a naturalist tell us, "but actually it has no need of pity at all." For one thing, it can always make both ends meet.

If people who are in a difficulty will only do the first little reasonable thing which they can clearly recognize as reasonable, they will always find the next step more easy both to see and take.

Did you resolve to do all your shopping in Winchester during the coming year? If you didn't, it's not too late yet to put such a rule into practice. Buying in your own home town will increase its prosperity and eventually you will share in it.

Among your New Year resolutions we hope you included this one: "I resolve to pay up all my subscription arrears to the Winchester Press, together with my renewal for 1940." If you made such a resolution, here's hoping that it's one you'll be sure to live up to.

That $25 donation to the Canadian Red Cross, from a Harvard law student humiliated by Col. Lindbergh's crack at Canada, suggests that Lindy ought to go to bat again. The "penance money" movement might catch on, and the Red Cross could do with a lot of it. So, colonel, here's our jaw; take another sock at us.—Ottawa Citizen.

THE POET'S CORNER

NEW YEAR AT HAND

Awake, ye brothers of our land,
Another year is dawning fast;
The first light streaks in sky at hand
Proclaim that dark is nearly past!

The blackest night for twenty years,
With moaning winds and drizzling skies,
With rain-drops made of blood and tears,
Is now near ended in sunrise!

The bells of dawn will soon resound,
As Tennyson cried years ago:
"Ring out the old, ring in the new,
Ring, happy bells, across the snow."

"HAPPY NEW YEAR, MOTHER"

When on New Year's morn he woke
And his voice was very merry
As the joyous words he spoke.
"Same to you dear" answered mother
Who had waited for her voice,
Knowing well if only Brother
Could speak first he would rejoice
"Happy New Year," shouted Harry.

"That's a splendid greeting, chappy"
Spoke up Daddy to the boy;
"Wishing Mother might be happy
Wishing her a year of joy."

"She will have a happy New Year
If you will help her as you should
She'll be glad the whole year through, dear,
If you're always kind and good."

"I will try, dad," answered sonny
'An' I'll try my hardest too;
Won't it be just awful funny
If I can make one wish come true?"

THE LITTLE TOWNS

The people in the little towns—they have such kindly ways,
They do so many thoughtful things—however full their days.
They surely know the secret of a busy, helpful life,
And have no time for all the ills with which the world is rife.
Now when a body's sick and ill, they think what they can do,
And when they do their baking, make an extra roll or two;
And then they hurry with their work and take a little walk,
And call upon the sick one, with the gift, and have a talk.
Or they go down in the cellar, and they view their cupboards o'er,
And they choose from off the booksh books so cheery and so wise,
And they take these offerings ... them as they call with frien... eyes.
Oh, the people of the ... Pat... so very nice to all,
That I wonder if they're ... they're in a town so s...
Or is the town so nice beca... of folk so grand?
And would I be so nice if ... bought house and land?

A hen is not supposed to have
Much common sense or tact,
Yet every time she lays an egg
She cackles forth the fact.
A rooster hasn't got a lot
Of intellect to show;
But none the less most roosters have
Enough sense to crow.
The mule, the most despised of beasts,
Has a persistent way
Of letting folk know he's around
By his insistent bray.
The busy little bees, they buzz;
Bulls bellow and cows moo.
The watch-dogs bark, the drakes they quack,
And doves and pigeons coo.
The peacock spreads his tail and squawks,
Pigs squeal and robins sing.
And even serpents know enough
To hiss before they sting.
But man, the greatest masterpiece
That nature could devise,
Will often stop and hesitate
Before he'll advertise.

Canada's Army On The Air

The above photographs show some of the war-time activities which were featured during the broadcast of "The Story of Canada's Army," by the Special Events Department of the CBC recently. The various units which go to make up a division were heard in actual training operations across Canada. The actuality items concerned the big guns and a coast defence battery. Various phases of the work of the signals and the infantry in training were outlined. Actual tactical exercises in the field were also a highlight of this timely broadcast.

CBC Spotlight Personalities

As a bewildered generation, the youth of Canada is engrossed with many problems affecting the social structure. With this thought in mind, the CBC is presenting a series of discussions by this group of young Winnipeg citizens. Each week these young men and women gather in the CBC Winnipeg studios for an informal, yet emphatic debate on some of the difficult questions confronting youth to-day. These broadcasts, entitled "High School Forum," are heard over the CBC National Network on Saturdays at 5.45 EST. The above photograph, taken in the CBC Winnipeg studios, shows the discussion group before a recent broadcast. Left to right standing, Leon Dorfman, Charles Walker, Roger Beaufoy, John Graham and Graham Gower; seated, Edna Middleton, Sybil Houston and Louise Gallinger.

GENERAL MOTORS ANNOUNCE EXECUTIVE CHANGES

Important changes in the Executive Sales Personnel of the Montreal Zone of General Motors Products of Canada have been annocnced by Roy D. Kerby, General Sales Manager of the Pontiac-McLaughlin-Buick-GMC Truc k Division. The changes are effective as of January 1st, 1940.

Guy Durocher is appointed Eastern Zone (Sales) Manager of the Pontiac-McLaughlin-Buick-GMC Division.. F B. Peppiatt becomes Assistant Zone Sales Manager for the Pontica-McLaughlin-Buick-GMC Division; and R. C. Smith, formerly Montreal City Sales Manager of the same Division, is transferred in a similar capacity to the Chevrolet-Oldsmobile Division.

Also announced simultaneously with the other changes is the promotion of William L. Grant to Sales Promotion Manager of the Pontiac-McLaughlin-Buick-GMC Truck Division for all of Canada, with headquarters at Oshawa. Mr. Grant, formerly Assistant Sales Promotion Manager, succeeds J. B. Sangster, who has gone to Windsor as Manager of the Retail Store in that city.

Mr. Durocher, a native of Montreal, joined General Motors of Canada in June, 1928, in the Montreal Office of the General Motors Acceptance Corporation, and had risen to the position of Assistant Branch Manager when, in November, 1937, he was appointed District Manager of the Montreal Zone. In July, 1938, Mr. Durocher became Retail Selling Manager for the Montreal Zone in the Pontiac-McLaughlin-Buick-GMC Division in which position he has remained until his present appointment.

Mr. Petppiatt, born in Toronto, has been associated with General Motors since June, 1929, in a wide variety of capacities in the Sales and Service organizations. From June, 1932, to May, 1938, he was Fleet Sales Manager in the Toronto Zone, after which he became Retail Selling Manager in the Montreal Zone for the Chevrolet-Oldsmobile Division, which position he now relinquishes to accept his new appointment.

THE WINCHESTER PRESS

HINTS FOR THE HOME

Bananas.

Bananas may be prevented from discoloring after slicing if they are dipped into fresh orange juice.

Home-Made Furniture Polish.

Why not make your own furniture polish? This can be done very easily by mixing two parts boiled linseed oil and one part turpentine. An excellent polish will be the result.

To Brighten Rubbers.

Dingy looking rubbers can be made presentable by washing with water, containing a few drops of ammonia, and then giving them a thin coat of liquid shoe dressing.

Cleaning Plaster Casts.

The soiled plaster cast can be cleaned by covering with a thick paste of French chalk and water and allowing to remain until dry. Then brush off the chalk with a soft brush or wipe with a cloth.

Draperies.

Curtains and draperies over the radiator in a room are bound to acquire dust very quickly. Be sure to shake them vigorously every time the room is cleaned, and thus prevent any great accumulation of dust.

Eggs.

To soft-cook eggs, put them into a pan of water that is boiling hot. Remove the pan from the fire and let the eggs stand in it from eight to ten minutes. When cooked in this way, the whites of the eggs do not become tough.

Cleaning The Mop.

The mop is such an unpleasant thing to wash that most people rather dread the job. Try boiling it in an old pail half-full of water, to which one tablespoonful of lye has been dissolved. Rinse thoroughly, and the mop will be like new.

The House Plants

When the house plants look somewhat dejected, and water fails to revive them, try putting coffee grounds on the roots about three times a week. Then once a week give them a tablespoonful of olive oil. Do not allow the earth to become hard and dry.

Whitewashing.

Be sure to clean well any surfaces that are to be whitewashed, and free them of any particles that might scale off. Scrub with a stiff brush or broom. It is also well to sponge off the area to be whitewashed with cold water, as whitewash adheres much better to moist surfaces than to dry ones.

LATE MRS. ANN STEARNS

The death of the late Ann Stearns took place on Saturday, Dec. 23rd, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lucinda Boland, Russell, in her 97th year, after a short illness. The former Ann Burroughs, she was born in Huntley Township and was married to Benjamin Stearns, of Russell, who predeceased her fifteen years ago.

The funeral was held on Sunday, Dec. 24th, from the residence at 1.30 p.m., and was conducted by the Rev. Thos. McNaught, of Russell United Church, with interment in Russell United Cemetery.

She is survived by two sons, George, of Springhill, and David of Metcalfe; and six daughters, Mrs. Lucinda Boland and Mrs. Maria Wade, of Russell; Mrs. Bella Rivington, Ottawa; Mrs. Fred Park, Kenmore; Mrs. Sam Craig, City View; Mrs. Sam Stinson, Merivale.

WATERWAY DISCUSSIONS TO BE RESUMED

With an agreement on the power question now approaching completion between the Dominion and Ontario it is expected formal discussions will be resumed with the United States government early in 1940.

Unofficial reports from Toronto, that an agreement with the Dominion was so near complete that an enabling measure was being drafted for the forthcoming session of the legislature, went without Dominion government comment.

Since early October, Ontario and Dominion technicians have been consulting frequently on the power development aspects of the huge scheme which has held the spotlight in affairs between Canada and the United States. most of the present century.

The last time there were formal exchanges between Canada and the United States on his subject was in May, 1938, when the United States government communicated to Ottawa a fresh basis upon which negotiations might be resumed.

Even if an agreement were reached on the $500,000,000 project, and necessary legislative ratification obtained in Ottawa and Washington, it would be about eight years before construction could be completed.

It is understood all the discussions between Ontario and the Dominion have been on the question of power development and distribution.

Canada's First War Loan Coming Shortly

Hon. J. L. Ralston, Minister of Finance, announced that during the past few weeks preparatory organization work has been going on in connection with Canada's first War Loan. Mr. Ralston stated that the Loan would probably make its appearance some time in the early part of 1940 but that as yet no decision had been reached as to the date of offering and obviously the terms and conditions of the Loan can only be considered and decided upon immediately before the loan is announced.

However, as the Loan Campaign will be the first widespread voluntary effort in which the Canadian people as a whole will be asked to play a part on the economic warfront, a great deal of work had been done in planning the organization of the Campaign. In this connection, the Minister stated that there would be a National War Loan Committee which will consist of representattive citizens across Canada and will demonstrate the national character of the first War Loan offering.

On this Committee, of which the Minister of Finance will be Chairman, will be the five former Ministers of Finance now living, namely, Rt. Hon. Sir Thomas White, Hon. Sir Henry Drayton; Hon. Chas. A. Dunning; Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett; and Hon. E. N. Rhodes, and demonstrating the nation-wide unanimity in the purpose of prosecuting the war the provincial treasurer of every province from Nova Scotia to British Columbia has consented to serve. The following are the nine Provincial Treasurers: Hon. Augus L. Macdonald, Nova Scotia; Hon. C. T. Richard, New Brunswick; Hon. J. A. Mathewson, Quebec; Hon. Mitchell F. Hepburn, Ontario; Hon. Stuart S. Garson, Manitoba; Hon. W. J. Patterson, Saskatchewan ; Hon. Solon E. Low, Alberta; and Hon. John Hart, British Columbia.

The National War Loan Committee will be fully representative of the various sections of Canada. It will provide the assistance of a group of citizens who will individually and collectively take an interest in furthering the undertaking and who will be available to plan and assist any activity which may be considered necessary for the success of the Loan.

"While necessarily the formal membership of this Committee is limited, I am confident," said Mr. Ralston, "that every citizen, regardless of his or her walk in life, will regard himself or herself as a member of the nation-wide organization for putting this loan 'over the top'."

SOW OATS SUITABLE TO YOUR DISTRICT

Continuing its drive for increased war-time grain production in 1940, the Ontario Department of Agriculture is advising all farmers to contact the Agricultural Representative in their county as to the variety of oat that will give them the greatest number of bushles per acre in their own particular area.

Much has been heard, and will be heard, of the Vanguard and the Erban oat. In some districts and under certain soil conditions the Vanguard is superior, while in other sections the Erban tops Vanguard. This is where the Agricultural Representative can be of untold value to the farmer. As a result of grain variety experiments on 367 farms in Ontario in 1939, the Agricultural Representative is in a position to give excellent advice on varieties that will do well in given districts. It will pay any farmer to consult him.

The Vanguard is a late oat, resistant to stem rust and has done well in the majority of Eastern Ontario counties. The Erban is a medium early oat and is resistant to Crown or leaf rust.

The Department of Agriculture also points out that farmers who have produced heavy crops from other varieties and who see no reason to change, should make sure they get the best possible seed of that variety. Included in list would be O. A. C. No. 72, Victory, Alaska, Cartier and O. A. C. No. 3.

A FRIEND FROM GOD

He said he was my enemy,
And I believed it for a time,
Thus armed him well with barb and spear:
With hatred, vengeance, grim old fear,
Deceitful greeds and lustful grime,
And subtle darts of rivalry.

Oh, keen the weapons that I made,
And sharp the thoughts which gave
Then, armorless, I surcease sought them edge.
From arrows my own hands had wrought,
In my extremity I prayed.

Dundas-Grenville Presbytery Urges Support Of Weekly Papers

Report of Special Committee of the Dundas-Grenville Presbytery of the United Church of Canada—Set up to Study the Contents of Newspapers Circulating Within the Bounds of the Presbytery.

Morrisburg, Ont., Nov., 1939.

Your Committee has examined three daily, two semi-weekly and seven weeklies, all of which circulate within the bounds of this Presbytery. We are convinced that without exception the papers are friendly to religion, and that on the whole the Editors and Publishers are motivated by the spirit of service rather than the spirit of commercialism.

In some of the papers we have found strong and constructive editorials which should create interest in the questions of our day and stimulate thought upon the pressing problems of society. In a few of them there are educational and inspirational features which should be of immense value to all serious-minded readers. The features cover the fields of humor, domestic science, household problems, agriculture, music, literature, poetry, psychology, health, sport, philosophy and religion.

We note with satisfaction the tendency on the part of most of the local weeklies to give less space to community personals of trivial value than they once did, and more space to features which have a wider appeal. It is true that religious news has a definite place in each one of them, but it is doubtful if the space given to it is in proportion to the number of people interested. This may be due to three things: I, Religious events have come to be regarded as a matter of course. II, The failure of the Church to present its activities in a way that gives them news value; III, The absence of a suitable technique in the featuring of religious events.

We would call upon the whole Church to recognize the potential value of the modern newspaper as in educational, cultural, and inspirational force and as her logical ally in the propagation of righteousness and truth.

We believe that reading does quite as much to influence character in people who have reachd the age of responsibility, as example. It is therefore just as important to have good literature in our homes as it is to have good company. We suggest that ministers preach occasionally upon the spiritual values of good literature and in doing so point out to their congregations the features in local publications which might contribute to the enrichment of spiritual life.

We would urge upon all our people to be both tolerant and discriminating in their choice of periodicals. The fact that a paper differs from us in its point of view, editorially or otherwise, is no reason why we should debar it from our homes. On the contrary it might contribute greatly to the enlarging of our outlook on life if we systematically read papers that voice theories distinctly different from our own. At the same time we must discern the moral and religious effect of all our reading upon our own minds and the minds of our families. Christian people should learn to discriminate against all false ideals and unsound principles.

The children of darkness are often wiser than the children of light in the forwarding of their own devices. They have varied and subtle means of capturing or influencing forces that can be made to serve their ends. For this reason Christian people should give encouragement and wholehearted support to those newspapers whose policies give due recognition to spiritual principles and the place of religion in the life of men.

We therefore advise our people to subscribe to those papers which seem to be doing most to inspire men's lives and forward the cause of religion.

Inasmuch as no paper can survive today without advertising, we would call upon Christian business men to make the survival of our best papers possible by giving them the preference when they have advertising contracts to place.

LIARS CLUB MUST WADE THROUGH STACK OF 6,750 "TALL STORIES"

A new story to top tales of barking dogfish. popcorn-fed chickens and tough mosquitoes is the goal of the Burlington Liars Club in its annual contest to crown the champion liar.

The self-styled shy and retiring gentlemen who make up the club will gather in the office of President O. C. Hulett on New Year's Eve to wade through a stack of stories—they say there are 6,750 of them—entered by aspirants to the "diamond-studded gold medal."

"The most stupendous, monstrous, incredible fabrication," in the words of Hulett, will be announced at the climax of the club's secretarial chores. Any yarn that gets more than a hollow laugh after the judges have sorted 6,750 stories deserves a prize.

Last year's champion was Gilbert Boettcher, of Milwaukee, who related the sad plight of a fishing boat out of coal. Gil said he had brought along a spare dogfish, however, and had the fishermen tickle their finny friend until it began to bark. The crew kept throwing the bark into the engine for fuel, and all hands were saved.

In 1937 the winner was John Zelanek Jr., of Tacoma, Wash., who averred that his wife was so lazy she fed the chickens popcorn so that when she fried eggs they would turn over by themselves.

WHO STANDS FORTH?

Forward they rode from shore and shire,
Choicest of England's fighting sons;
From loom and desk and mine and fire
Splendidly gone to face the guns
They were pioneers and they fought for the breach,
They carved a way where the track ran red,
That the rest might go where they could not reach,
With One Flag lording it overhead!

Who stands forth from those left behind?
Who is for liberty? Who for life?
The victor bugles are on the wind?
The dead are calling from lands of strife!
And never a cannon booms, but you
Must stir in your ease; and never a roar
Of regiments thundering the battle through
But you know they are calling—who went before!

Who stands forth? And was India aflame!
Melbourne and Ottawa rose with a shout!
Shoulder to shoulder, lo! how they came!
Who stands forth? And the Empire's out!
Who is for victory? Who for right?
The Grey Mother's calling from east and from north!
The sea-winds bear it, the stars in the night
Cry, "Who is for libery? Who stands forth?"

—Constance Smith, in London Daily Mail, 1914.

MODERN ETIQUETTE

1. Hasn't pride been called a deadly disease, impossible to cure?
2. Is it untactful to give money to a friend as a Christmas gift, when one knows that she needs it?
3. When passing your plate for a helping of some dish, what should you do with your silver?
4. Is it necessary for a man to rise when being introduced to another man, and also shake hands?
5. What is the meaning of a table d'hote meal?
6. When a bride has received a gift from five members of the office force, how should she acknowledge it?

Answers.

1. It may be called a disease, but it is not deadly. The proverb says, "If pride were a deadly disease, how many would now be in their graves." According to La Rochefoucauld, "Pride is equal in all men; the only difference is the means and manner of displaying it." 2. Yes. This would be very untactful, and likely to be resented. 3. Always leave the silver on the plate. 4. Yes, to both questions, unless, of course, they are so far apart that it would be awkward to shake hands. 5. A meal that is served at a fixed price, instead of so much for each dish. 6. Write a personal note to each one.

CONSCRIPTION OF WEALTH AND INDUSTRY FAVORED BY YOUTH

Delegates to the Older Boys' Parliament, which met at Hamilton recently, went on record as being opposed to conscription of manpower alone without conscription of industry.

At a secret session, members approved conscription of youth accompanied by conscription of labor for industry with regulation of hours and wages, and conscription of wealth with strict supervision of profiteering.

The opposition stated conscription would endanger Canadian unity because of French-Canadian opinion and argued that the rights of minorities would be lost. The government, in reply, said conscription was advocated only as a last resort. The vote was not revealed.

A fellow asked his boss for a raise. He told the boss that he must have one, as several other companies were after him.

Later the boss discovered they were the gas company, the water company and furniture company.

DR. DAFOE WILL SOON RETIRE AS QUINTS' GUARDIAN

Henri St. Jacques, lawyer for Oliva Dionne, said last week he expected Dr. Allan Roy Dafoe's resignation as a guardian of Callander's famous quintuplets which he helped bring into the world, would take place "about the middle of January."

He confirmed reports the doctor had agreed to resign as a guardian and devote himself entirely to caring for the health of the children. The agreement was reached "recently" he said.

"This means," said St. Jacques, "that all suits brought by Dionne against Dr. Dafoe will be dropped. Affairs of the quints will be in the hands of Dionne, Judge J. A. Valin of North Bay, and Percy D. Wilson, as official guardians."

"Now, then," roared the sergeant-major, as he dismissed the men, "you will parade again at 2 o'clock precisely. And when I say 2 o'clock precisely, I don't mean five past; I mean five to."

KNOX W. M. S., WINCHESTER SPRINGS

The December and annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of Knox Presbyterian Church, Winchester Springs, was held at the home of Mrs. Robt. Kirkwood, Toyes Hill. Thirteen members and one visitor were present. With the president, Mrs. Erle Munro, presided, assisted by the secretary, Mrs. I. P. McIntosh The first part of the program was of a Christmas nature. The meeting opened with the hymn. "It Came Upon The Midnight Clear," followed with prayer by the president. Mrs. Elzie Johnston took the Scripture reading from Luke 2, 1-12. Mrs Robert Kirkwood gave a splendid Christmas Bible reading, in keeping with the verses read before. A synopsis of the first three chapters of the Study Book was given by Mrs. Joe Davidson.

The president thanked all for their co-operation during the year. The reports of the different departmental secretaries were given, showing a very successful year's work.

Mrs. W. D. Turner presided over the election of officers for 1940 and Miss Winnie Ball acted as secretary protem. The election resulted as follows: Honorary Presidents, Mrs. W. D. Turner, Mrs. Wm. Connor, Canton, N. Y.; President, Mrs. Erle Munro; Vice President, Mrs. Joe Davidson; Treasurer, Mrs. Frank Nesbitt; Secretary, Mrs. I. Preston McIntosh; Glad Tidings, Mrs. Ross Morrow; Welcome and Welfare, Mrs. Harvey Smith; Supply, Mrs. Thos. Johnston; Organist, Miss Winnie Ball; Refreshment Committee, Mrs. John Morrow and Mrs. Elzie Johnston; Flower Committee, Mrs. Ross Morrow, Mrs. Delbert Casselman and Mrs. Elzie Johnston.

The hostess served dainty refreshments and a social hour was spent.

The members of this Auxiliary wish to thank the Winchester Press for their kindness during the year.

LOCAL AND DISTRICT NEWS

Passes In West.

Mrs. E. R. Summers and Mrs. Nehemiah Summers received the sad news last week that their brother, John Wren, had passed away at his home in Saskatchewan. The late Mr. Wren was a Great War veteran.

Married 55 Years.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Haskins celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary on New Year's day at Spencerville with his sister. Mr. Haskins has retired from railroading with a record of 48 years and now resides in Kemptville.

Industry To Locate.

T. K. Allan, a candidate for the reeveship of Kemptville last week, declares that the village council now has under consideration the location of an industrial plant there which would furnish employment for from 40 to 75 people belonging to the community.

Trustees Acclaimed.

Chesterville public school trustees were given acclamations. Those who will act next year are: George Cross, John Helmer, John Wardell, A. J. Barrie, P. J. Gilroy and J. H. Fulton. In S. S. No. 9, Winchester, trustees for 1940 are: Stanley Sullivan, William Servage and Mack Curran.

No Reactors Found

During the past week 186 head of cattle were tested for tuberculosis in Leeds and Grenville counties with no reactors being found. No cattle were tested in Dundas County. The test is conducted by officers of the health of animals branch, Dominion Department of Agriculture, for the eradication of bovine tuberculosis.

Will Investigate Fire.

Edouard Desjardins of Ottawa, representative of the Ontario fire marshal's office, will carry out a routine investigation into the cause of the blaze which completely destroyed the Allen House at Kemptville on Friday last.

On Saturday Mr. Desjardins visited the scene of the fire, which caused damage estimated at about $20,000. He will continue his investigations during this week.

Reeve For 21 Years.

Reeve W. P. (Billy) Walker, of Cardinal, veteran municipal legislator of Eastern Ontario, and dean of the United Counties County Council, was returned by popular acclaim and acclamation to his 21st consecutive term as chief of the Cardinal Village legislative forces for 1940. Twenty-one years in a row for Reeve Walker and still going strong is a record that cannot be attributed to anything except personal popularity and sound, economic legislation.

Bank Bandit In Court.

Harry Muller, painting contractor of Toronto, who was arrested in that city recently on a charge of armed robbery of the Bank of Toronto branch at Cardinal and theft of approximately $2,225 in cash on Nov. 30th, appeared before Magistrate Wright at Brockville last Friday. The Crown was not ready to proceed with the action against Muller, Harworth Atkinson, county Crown attorney stated, and requested postponement for one week which was granted. The accused was remanded to the counties' jail until this Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Iroquois Marriage.

A quiet but pretty marriage was solemnized on Wednesday of last week at noon at the United Church,, at Iroquois, when Miss Beryl Adams, eldest daughter of Mrs. Alton Locke, of Iroquois, and the late Earl Adams, became the bride of J. Floyd Reynolds, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Reynolds, of Toronto. Rev. Thomas Knowles officiated. The bride was attractive in a street length dress of Hunter's green chiffon velvet with matching turban and accessories and wore a corsage of Talisman roses. The young couple were attended by Miss Rhea Barton, of Ventnor, and Everett Billings, of Spencerville. They will reside in Cornwall.

Started In Prescott.

John C. Shipman, who was recently appointed assistant King's Printer at Ottawa after some years of service as director and superintendent of public printing and stationery there, entered the printing trade back in the eighties as an apprentice on the Prescott Independent, a weekly newspaper. Later, he ran a job printing shop in Prescott. He came to the government printing bureau in Ottawa in 1889 as a hand compositor, and served successively as a linotype operator, foreman of the linotype division, foreman of the hand-composition division, copy editor, chief planning clerk, supervisor of production. In 1933 he was appointed director and superintendent of the big plant.

Parson Fights Fire.

During the Kemptville fire on Friday, fire-fighters there set up by the Rideau river an 1888 steam pump, the type usually drawn by a span of horses in the old days, and although the ancient machine wheezed and snorted, it was able to provide considerable pressure. A small auxiliary gasoline pump was also set up near the same spot and supplied two other lines of hose. Assistance was also given by five members of the Nepean volunteer fire department, of Westboro, the party coming to Kemptville in a private car driven by Rev. John L. Hodgson, of City View, formerly of Shanly. Mr. Hodgson, with the other men, donned firemen's equipment and joined in the fight. A pumper from Prescott in charge of Chief Tom McNeil also fought the outbreak.

Still Works Hard at 86!

Mr. Charles Campbell, veteran farmer of the Ormond district, observed his 86th birthday on Sunday, December 31st. Still in good health and in possession of all his faculties, Mr. Campbell does most of the work about his farm. Last fall he did all the binding on both of his farms, just to keep in trim. On his 86th birthday he attended both morning and evening services in the Ormond Baptist Church. He is the father of Miss Janet Campbell, and a brother of the late John F. Campbell. His father reached the ripe old age of 92. The Press joins with his many friends in extending congratulations to Mr. Campbell, with the wish that he continues to enjoy good health for many years to come.

Portland, Oregon, Walnuts.

Mrs. Ida Ball wishes to thank her nephew, Mr. Fred Cass, of Portland, Oregon, for his annual gift of a six pound box of delicious Portland, Oregon, Walnuts. Mrs. Ball is an aunt of Mr. Cass on his mother's side.

Skating Rink Open.

The local arena was opened to the public on Monday afternoon and skating will be held each night, except on Mondays and Fridays, which have been reserved for Town League Hockey games. Skaters report the ice in good condition. This year's opening was delayed somewhat, owing to a breakdown in the pumping equipment.

First Wedding In 60 Years.

The United Church, Mallorytown, after sixty years. was the scene of its first wedding on Thursday last, at 2.30 p .m., when Florence Lillian, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. McDonald, was united in marriage with Delbert Owen Levans, Pembroke, Ont., son of Mr. Thomas and the late Hannah Elizabeth Levans, of Detroit, Mich.

Jones—Lacey.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Lacey, at Chesterville, was the scene of a Christmas wedding when their daughter, Maude, became the bride of Robert Leslie Jones, Ph. D., of Marietta, Ohio, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones, of Cobden, Ont. Rev. R. C. Tait, pastor of Trinity United Church, performed the ceremony.

Sign On Fire Station.

The sign "Fire Station," has been placed at the top of the new entrance to the local fire station, and adds a finishing touch to the new front which was reecntly built at the fire hall. The letters are about 10 inches high and are easily read from a distance. The color combination of red and yellow makes the sign very attractive.

Casselman—Gordon.

A quiet wedding took place on Christmas Day at high noon in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Kirkfield, Ont., when Margaret Jane Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gordon, was united in marriage to Alfred Merkley Casselman, B. A., of Kemptville, son of Mrs. Rueben Casselman and the late Mr. Casselman, of Williamsburg. Rev. J. A. McMillan officiated.

Fifty Years Married.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C Bennett, of Richmond, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Christmas Day. Mrs Bennett is the former Louisa Jennie Burns, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burns, of Munster. Mr. Bennett is a son of the late Thomas Bennett and his wife, the former Jane Preston. They were married at Victoria Methodist Church by the late Rev. David Winter, and for many years after their marriage, resided at South Mountain, where they are well known.

Gold Tooth In Goose.

Old man Aesop wrote a fable about a goose that laid a golden egg, but Councillor Ernest Stone, of Stafford, near Pembroke, has a better story than that, and he says it is not a fable either. Mr. Stone's goose did not lay a golden egg, but it ate one. While cleaning a goose a few days before Christmas, Mr. Stone saw something glittering in its gizzard and investigation showed it to be a piece of gold—a gold tooth, in fact. Just how the gold tooth come to be included in the fowl's diet is not explained.

Keeps Apple 90 Years

Mrs. James Karr, Gananoque, who will shortly celebrate her ninety-second birthday, has something to prove that as a child she climbed an apple tree and partook of some "foridden fruit." She picked an apple, took it to her home, which was about two and a half miles northeast of Gananoque, and stuck it full of cloves. All these years she has kept the apple, and it looks as if it would last for many more years. Although Mrs. Karr is past the four score and ten mark, she is still able to do most of the work about the house and spends considerable time in the evenings playing euchre. Her husband is now retiring from municipal life, after 29 years of service in the council and water commission.
