THE FAIR IS A FAMILY AFFAIR—Traditions are part of country events and with the Shonikers, one of them is to attend the Williamstown Fair. 92-year-old Great Grandmother, Mrs. Mildred Drummond had to resort to a wheel chair but she made it. More than 400 at MacLeod gathering

The fortieth anniversary of the Clan MacLeod Society, Glengarry was marked with holding of the North American Clan MacLeod Gathering here. The first Glengarry Gathering was held in D. D. MacLeod's grove at Dunvegan on July 4th, 1936.

Many Clan members from Britain, the United States and Canada attended the fortieth anniversary and participated in the activities. On Friday evening, July 30th, a reception was held at the SD&G armouries in Cornwall. More than 400 enjoyed the banquet and highland ball. Lyn Campbell, clan piper of the Glengarry Society, piped in the head table guests. Greetings were brought by Mrs. Alice MacNab of MacNab, Scotland; Milton MacLeod, President of Clan MacLeod Society of the United States; Arthur MacLeod Rogers, president , National Council of Clan MacLeod Societies of Canada. Jock MacLeod, president of Clan Society of Central Ontario and Osie Villeneuve, MPP, Glengarry. Rod MacLeod, president of the Clan Society of Glengarry welcomed all clan members to Glengarry and the Seaway area. Jean MacLeod Betts of Hamilton, accompanied by her husband Lorne Betts, entertained with several Scottish songs.

The Glengarry Pipe Band and Stan Hamilton and the Flying Scotsmen, provided music for the ball.

On Saturday, clan members attended the Glengarry Highland Games at Maxville. Mrs. Alice MacNab of MacNab, Scotland, officially opened the Highland Games.

Church service was held in Ingleside United Church on Sunday morning. Rev. Hugh MacLeod of Vancouver, conducted the service. In the afternoon a picnic lunch and ceilidh was enjoyed at Farran Park near Ingleside. Ian McCrimmon, clan piper of Clan Society of Central Ontario, played several pipe selections. Arthur MacLeod Rogers presented Mrs. Alice MacNab, Mrs. Jean Betts, and Rev. Hugh MacLeod with silver bowls in honor of their services.

During the late afternoon and early evening clan members visited the MacLeod settlement cairn east of Laggan—a memorial to the original MacLeod settlers of Glengarry County, and the Glengarry museum at Dunvegan, where they were served tea and oat cakes.

The Clan MacLeod Gathering was brought to a close Sunday evening with a Hymn Sing in Kenyon Presbyterian Church at Dunvegan. Rev. Delbert R. Chatreau welcomed all and especially Mrs. Alice MacNab. Rev. J. Kenneth MacLeod of Vankleek Hill, assisted with the service. In his address Rev. Prof. Donald N. MacMillan of Montreal, reminisced on the numerous occasions when Dame Flora MacLeod of MacLeod had been with the clan members of Glengarry. Special singing by the intermediate girls of Dunvegan church and a duet by Mrs. Barbara Armstrong and her son Alan of Ottawa, were appreciated by all.

Pipe Major Danskin of the Glengarry Pipe Band, accompanied by guest organist Mrs. Rosemary Tustin of Vankleek Hill, played Amazing Grace. As the pipes and organ faded away Godspeed was wished to all who would be travelling home from this North American Clan Gathering.

Project for research-counselling in county

The Glengarry Inter-Agency group has hired two highly qualified people to carry out special work in the county to help the mentally retarded adult population and the people who look after them.

Doing the research and counselling will be Sister Lucille Champagne and Terrence Cooke. They both have special qualifications to deal with the situation and were chosen last week when word was received from the Ontario Government that a grant which had been applied for, would be forthcoming.

Sister Lucille is director of the Caravan Home in Glen Roy which is run along the lines of the Vanier Homes that care for mentally retarded adults. She was a teacher at St. Michael's Academy in Cornwall for several years and was later associated with Ottawa University where she served as chaplain.

Terrence Cooke is a former Montreal school teacher now resident at RR1 Apple Hill. He has a wide range of experience including director of continuing education at the International Branch YMCA, Montreal.

Both these people have pleasant and approachable personalities and should be well accepted in the different homes.

There are 136 mentally retarded adults classified as such in the county. There may be more. Only 20 are attending the Adult Rehabilitation Centre at present where they can be taught by specially qualified people.

Inter-Agency feels the reason many are not attending is because their guardians are unaware of what can be done for them. There are no longer institutions to place them in because the policy of the Ministry at this time is to rehabilitate the persons already in these buildings, back into the community from which they came. They will live as boarders in a home environment or in group apartments with a guardian.

At one time there was no training for these people and they have gone for many years without receiving the kind of help that is now being made available.

The two researchers hired to do the county survey have a big job on their hands and Inter-Agency is confident that many will benefit from it.

Williamstown Fair better as it gets older

A record-breaking number of entries were listed in several of the events at Williamstown Fair last weekend as agreeable weather encouraged the largest crowd ever to come out and participate.

There were 172 entries in the highland dancing class with the competition running well on into the evening.

The mutt show produced 42 dogs out on parade, of varying pedigree and temperament.

The baby show closed with 45 entries but there were almost as many more on hand to enter. This has proved to be one of the very big Saturday afternoon attractions.

There were 30 new exhibitors in the ladies' division and the hall was filled to capacity with specimens of beautiful handiwork and produce.

The English horse show held on Saturday had 109 horses and ponies going through their paces with entries from quite a large area.

At 89, Johnson Raymond was the oldest man in attendance and also the oldest exhibitor. Mrs. Edgar McNaughton at 88 was the oldest lady. Mrs. Taylor from Florida was the visitor from the farthest distance.

While the band expected from the States failed to show, the fire truck led 45 costumed children from the village into the fairgrounds. Garry Silver, a 13-year-old magician from Montreal delighted the children and adults as well with his magic shows on Saturday and Sunday.

The Glengarry Pipe Band put on an excellent show on Sunday afternoon and the antique car display was the centre of keen interest among old and young.

The midway area contained the largest number of booths in the past ten years with several church groups sponsoring several.

Innovations this year were the bike rodeo and mini-Olympics with 12 taking part in the rodeo and 30 in the athletic competitions. This will be an annual event at future fairs.

Ruth Mowat's book, "All's Fair," a history of the Williamstown Fair down through the years, was a "best-seller" at the show.

History buffs get together

Associated in the writing of a book on the history of Glengarry, Ewan Ross of Goderich, and Royce MacGillivray of Waterloo, hosted a dinner meeting last week, attended by many area people who are interested in gathering, organizing and publishing the history of this county. Harriet MacKinnon was organizer of the event, held in the Acropolis Room of the Pizzeria.

Mr. MacGillivray described the book as a comparatively brief compact volume of 150 to 180 pages on the history of Glengarry from a social and economic viewpoint.

It is now at the advanced planning stage and Mr. Ross said the dinner was in part a gesture of appreciation to the Glengarrians who have helped them prepare it.

"Over the years we have wished so often we could actually meet the writers and history enthusiasts of this county, the subject of our book, as a group and just talk about Glengarry history."

Hugh P. MacMillan, liaison officer for the Ontario archives, suggested that Glengarry history is an ample field. "I don't know of any area of similar size and population which sent so many people out into the world who have accomplished remarkable things," he said.

"We've been far too modest about the history of this area," Mr. MacMillan suggested.

Mr. Ross said "Our book will be an attempt to explain the background, social, economic, religious and political, which led to so many Glengarrians who scattered across North America becoming mayors of the towns where they settled, leading physicians or surgeons, important businessmen in many fields, so much so that all across the United States, in the period of the last half of the 19th century, the leading people in scores of communities either came from Glengarry or had connections

Glengarry Olympian athletes of years ago

[Angus H. McDonell wrote the following story for publication in the program for last week's Glengarry Highland Games. There have been several requests for its re-publishing for a wider audience—The editor.]

It has been written in the opening paragraph of this space in a previous program, quote, "Glengarry, the home of Highland Games! Yes, but Glengarry isn't all bagpipes and tossing the caber, there is another side, too, a side that is concerned not just with retaining Scotland's traditional games, but Glengarry's own history". End of quote.

And in part of this history there should be written many chapters of Glengarry athletes' glory in the realm of sport. They stand side by side with the countless other achievements of our native sons who have contributed so much to the building of this great land of the Maple Leaf and our beloved Glengarry County.

Canada has been honored this year as the host country of the 1976 Olympics. And a World Hockey championship series in September. In keeping with this International sport theme, the real beginning of Highland Games, we have been requested to record some outstanding athletic deeds of Glengarrians, past and present, who carry the distinguished characteristics and image of Olympic athletes.

So we will turn back the pages of time and walk slowly through the Glens pausing hither and yon to once again recall the memory of Glengarry's great athletes and their renowned achievements on and off the playing fields and ice lanes.

On such a mission, it is fitting that we head west on the Glen Road from Williamstown, the origin of so many stalwart hockey and lacrosse players. In Glen Donald, near the Archibald MacDonells, we linger for a while at the pioneer home of a world champion in track and field, a successful railway contractor, politician and army officer. This is the birthplace, January 1st, 1842 of Roderick R. McLennan. A descendant of the Farqhar McLennans of Kintail, Rosshire, Scotland, Roderick became Rory and he had the obvious right to develop in stature beyond the six foot level and 240 scale. Hence he was aptly tagged "Big Rory". A truly Olympic athlete, sportsman and gentleman.

Keenly interested in track and field competition in his youth, Big Rory McLennan soon became a regular contestant at field days in his home area of Williamstown-Cornwall. Developing into manhood, his superior strength plus the important natural rhythm of arms and body while throwing "the hammer" stamped him as a potential champion by his many admiring fans in the United Counties.

The prowess of Big Rory McLennan on the athletic field in throwing the weights, 10, 16, and 56, but in particular the hammer, echoed all the way from Montreal to Toronto. Distant points in those far off days. On May 24th, 1865, Toronto sport promoters set the stage for world's championship. They brought the then title holder, Thomas Jermay, from Scotland to meet Glengarry's challenger from Glen Donald.

A gold medal and a $1,000 side bet would go to the winner. Big Rory McLennan won the awards and the world championship that day at the age of 23. In 1870, Big Rory defended his crown against a U.S. challenger while throwing a 62 pound hammer. This feat was accomplished at the Caledonia Games in Toronto. Ross Robertson of the Toronto Daily Telegraph presented the gold medal award. (Note, this medal and others are in the Nor'Wester Museum, Williamstown).

While engaged as a young contractor in Cape Breton, Rory McLennan met and won over his fellow Scots in the same decisive manner at their Highland Games. His success in railway building meant financial gain, too. Rory McLennan founded one of the first private banks in Alexandria. He carried the Glengarry banner for the Conservative party and still found time to earn the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel in the 59th Battalion.

It is ironic that the athletic career of such a world champion, business man and soldier should have ended on a tragic note. While giving an exhibition at a Cornwall field day at Mattice Park, now Montreal Road at Marlboro street, as Big Rory threw the hammer a little girl named Kavanagh edged out from the rope barrier. She was struck by the flying hammer and killed. Thus ended the career of one of the all time greats in Glengarry sport history.

Another Glengarry Champion, espicially in tossing the caber, was "Big Alex" McIsaac MacDonald. "Big Alex", as he was popularly known, was from the Glengarry pioneer settlement of Loch Garry.

Big Alex was smaller in stature than his counterpart Big Rory McLennan, He was a six footer, broad shoulders that topped a sturdy body carried by stocky muscled legs and tipped the scales about the 200 mark. Although his major achievement in Glengarry athletic competition was tossing the caber, he also excelled in throwing the hammer, "56" and the shot putt.

During World War One, Big Alex served his country by enlisting with the 224th Forestry Battalion of Ottawa. Due to his slightly advanced age for combat, army officials capitalized on his knowledge of producing timber so vitally important to Britain at that time. Hence Big Alex McIsaac became a well known figure among the MacLeods on the Isle of Skye. This war work obviously kept Big Alex in top physical condition. This was a great asset to him following the Armistice in 1918.

The Olympic Games had been cancelled due to the war. So in 1919 at Star Cross, Devon, England a Highland Games meet was organized along the Olympic pattern. The caber tossing competition was Big Alex McIsaac MacDonald's greatest day of glory. He won the championship, defeating Scotland's champion, before a multitude of fans including members of the Royal family. Her Majesty Queen Mary was so impressed with his display of graceful skill and strength that a solid gold wrist watch was presented by the Queen to the pride of Glengarry in general and Loch Garry-Apple Hill in particular.

In the twilight of Big Alex's life, the Glengarry Highland Games were launched, 29 years ago. Among the major attractions was tossing the caber. A rookie in this sector of sport was Third Kenyon's Lloyd Kennedy. Lloyd sought and received coaching from the now "Old Master" but still Big Alex. Lloyd was a dedicated student and quickly mastered the technique of picking up a caber, balance, quick pace and proper stance at the moment of toss. At this point in instructing, Big Alex always had these words of advice, "Now laddie, by the gummy give it a mighty heave."

Lloyd Kennedy became a Highland Games' champion and his greatest admirer was "Big Alex McIsaac" MacDonald.

Among other noted Glengarrians who were outstanding in field athletics, we go back 70 years to a Sons of Scotland picnic in Dunvegan. Here Alexandria area Dan Cuthbert set record distances in winning first honors in the hammer throw, "the 56" and 16 pound weights. Another such athlete surfaced in the early 60's when Williamstown's Harold MacDonald won the caber toss at the Glengarry Highland Games three successive years. He returned a couple years later and while holidaying from Vancouver won the caber toss for the fourth time in six years.

Let us now move on to another historical center, Munroe's Mills, the birth place of "Joe" Corbett. In his youth Joe Corbett competed throughout the Glens at field days. However, he really blossomed into one of Canada's top ranking athletes, including football and lacrosse, after he took up residence in Ottawa. He was a train dispatcher with the pioneer Canada Atlantic that became the Grand Trunk and now Canadian National Railway.

In 1900 and 1901 International track meets, Joe Corbett defeated the U.S. entries thus winning for Canada the 100 yards sprint and broad jump. Joe Corbett at flying wing was among the Ottawa Rough Rider stars that defeated Argos for the 1901 Dominion Football championship. The then Grey Cup play.

Another outstanding player with the same Rough Riders was Lancaster's Stewart Rayside. Stewart Rayside and Joe Corbett had followed in the footsteps of "Big Dunc" MacDonald one of the pioneer greats in Canadian football. Glen Sandfield's "Big Dunc" was well tagged as he compared in size, ability and speed to any of our modern day CFL players. After graduating from Ottawa College, now Ottawa University "Big Dunc" was ordained Father Duncan MacDonald and for many years was pastor of Nativity parish in Cornwall. Then came Williamstown's contribution to college and Canadian football, "Tupper" MacDonald. "Tupper" was a gridiron great at Queen's University.

Glengarry's great names in hockey run a parallel course beside soccer. To single out the luminaries over a span of more than three score years, again, is not only controversial but has a writer skating on extremely thin ice.

However, we do not hesitate to record that Ranald "Ran" MacDonald, already mentioned in the lacrosse paragraph, and Williamstown's Dr. J.A.P. Sullivan are in the top bracket of Glengarry greats.

Following the lacrosse season in New Westminster, Ran MacDonald played pro hockey in the Pacific Coast League founded by the hockey immortals Frank and Lester Patrick. It is this writer's good fortune to have known Hockey Hall of Fame Fred "Cyclone" Taylor, of Vancouver. Mr. Taylor, the grand old man of Canadian sport, told us that Ran MacDonald may not have been the best in self discipline off the ice, however, he had few equals patrolling his wing as a back checker and could fire a rifle goal scoring wrist shot like Bill Cook and Gordie Howe. There are no more authentic qualification words to be added.

Dr. Sullivan blazed an enviable college hockey career. Brockville in OHA play paid for his high school matriculation costs. Then he was lured to Pittsburg but only after signing an "amateur" contract that would finance his dental course at the University of Pittsburg. Plus pocket money of course. He graduated as Dr. James Arthur Patrick Sullivan but he was affectionately known as "Paddy". He centered one of the great lines in simon pure U.S. hockey. His wingers were Ottawa's Harold Darragh and Hib Milks. Behind the blue line was Canada's Alltime all round athlete Lionel "Big Train" Conacher. And in goal another immortal Roy Worters. Any Glengarry youngster who learns to skate on river ice, as Paddy Sullivan did, and closes his career alongside Hockey Hall of Fame players as mentioned, then like, Ran MacDonald, no more authentic qualification words need be added.

Briefly in other fields there was Alexandria born Jim McCaffrey who was a lacrosse goal minder but his course in the sport realm was building championship hockey and football teams in Ottawa for over a half century. Then Big Hughie D. MacDermid anchored the famed tug-of-war teams built around Martintown and Apple Hill. Deserving top bracket recognition is Dr. Don MacRae of Dunvegan. Dr. Don's gravel pit turkey shooting started him on his way to the post of Commandant Canadian Bisley Team that competed in England's 1950 Bisley championship. Dr. Don returned in 1956 with the Canadian Cadet rifle team under his command. And still another crack shot in this facet of sport is Maxville's Stanley G. McDonald. Among his many records possibly he cherishes more than any his award medals won as a member of the Canadian International Pistol team.

In the forgoing preamble we have only scratched the surface of a mine, that if developed, would yield a heritage of sport personalities that would make a Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame, on a pro rata basis, second to none in Canada. And where is there a more logical location than right here in Maxville, the home of the Glengarry Highland Games and the Kenyon Agricultural Society. Somewhere, somehow wouldn't such hall space blend in with the present Fair Board buildings and the proposed new arena. And be a unique added attraction for our annual visitors. Especially former Glengarry athletes regardless of their status.

Semi-finals Saturday

(by Carman MacMillan)

On Monday, Aug. 2nd, Lochiel was defeated by Greenfield three to two on goals by Don Morris and John Charlebois, two. Lochiel goals were by J. T. Hay and Mark Kennedy.

On Tuesday, Pine Grove defeated the short-handed Clansmen by a four to one score. Goal scorers were Rondo MacSweyn, 2, Campbell MacGillivray and Hugh MacGillivray with one each. For the Clansmen, Tom Lowe got the lone goal.

On Thursday, Glen Sandfield took a big step toward finishing in second place by defeating Pine Grove on Earl MacLennan's lone goal. Pine Grove now has finished its season while Glen Sandfield has one game left. Both teams at the moment are tied in points, so the last game for Glen Sandfield will decide second place.

On Friday, Greenfield won its final game four to three on a depleted Clansmen team. Clansmen now can only muster enough players to just field a team. Goals were by John Cadieux, Donnie Morris, John Charlebois with two. Clansmen goals were by Tom Lowe, 2, and one by Darcy Gordon.

The four top teams begin a best-of-five semi-finals this weekend.

Saturday, August 14—Lochiel vs Glen Sandfield at Lochiel.

Tuesday, August 17th—Pine Grove vs Greenfield in Greenfield.

Wednesday August 18—Glen Sandfield vs Lochiel.

Thursday, August 19—Greenfield vs Pine Grove.

Lochiel wins two in touch football

In touch football action over the past three weeks, Lochiel moved back into first place with wins over Williamstown and North Lancaster Colts, and Alexandria gained its first victory with an upset win over N. L. Colts.

July 25th—Lochiel 53, N.L. Colts 7. Paul Poirier and J.T. Hay scored two touchdowns apiece in the lopsided win, while Brian Filion, Roch Lajoie and Barry MacSweyn added one t.d. each, in a match for first place.

The lone N.L. Colts (Cathy's Tavern) touchdown was scored by Doug Dumouchel. B. J. MacDonald, Billy MacLeod and Barry MacSweyn had one interception each for Lochiel and Danny O'Brien picked one off for N.L. Colts.

Williamstown 26—Alexandria 21. Williamstown (Hope's Auto Parts) came out on top with a narrow win over a continually improving Alexandria team. The winners had two touchdowns scored by Hubert MacDonell and one each by Kenny MacDonald and Randy MacDonell. Leighton McDonell came up with two interceptions for them. For Alexandria, it was Paul Hurtubise, Luc Masson and Paul Masson (a kick-off return all the way) with one t.d. each.

Aug. 1st—Lochiel 38, Williamstown 18. Lochiel continued on their merry way led by Brian Filion and Theo Oetelaar with two touchdowns apiece, while Keith MacGillivray and Paul Poirier each crossed the goal line to score. Ian MacKay had two t.d.'s for Williamstown and Clair Crawford scored one. There was a total of 12 interceptions in the game, seven for Lochiel, two each by Roch Lajoie and Barry MacSweyn, while Theo Oetelaar, B. J. MacDonald and Campbell MacGillivray came up with one apiece. Leighton McDonell had two for Williamstown and Jerry Plumadore, Randy MacDonell and Hubert MacDonell picked off one each.

Alexandria 33—N.L. Colts 18. Alexandria scored its first win of the season with the help of John Charlebois and Doug Meldrum with their two t.d.'s each, while Paul Masson was open for one touchdown. Danny O'Brien, Wayne Cameron and Jim McCormick scored the touchdowns for N.L. Colts. Denis Massia for Alexandria picked off the only interception of the game.

Aug. 7 and 8th—The Glengarry All-Stars travelled to Kingston this weekend to play in the annual tournament there. On Saturday they met a strong Toronto team which defeated them 38—7, in Class A. The following day in Class B, they were defeated by Kingston 13—7. The All-Stars just failed to pull out a victory in this game as they were stopped on Kingston's 5-yard line in the last minute of play. The team was informed that the calibre of touch football played here must be fairly good, considering that it is only our second year in operation.

The Montreal Panthers won the tournament by defeating last year's Canadian champions, Ottawa (Dan Kelly's) 34—7.

Playing for the Glengarry All-Stars were: Brian Libbos, Barry MacSweyn, Billy MacLeod, Denis Massia, Guy Bellefeuille, Doug Dumouchel and Phil Dumouchel on defense. Brian Filion, Butch McFadden, Bruno Lalonde, Danny O'Brien, Jean Paul Claude, Hubert MacDonell, Kenny MacDonald and Theo Octelaar on offense. Coaching was handled by Henry Dumouchel and Peter Kolada.

History . . .

Campbell Fraser of Glen Sandfield, who has written the history of the Glen Sandfield church and other material, suggested that the evening had something in common with the French salons of the late 18th century when an exchange of ideas led to literary achievements of the highest order.

Elizabeth Blair said there is an amazing number of requests for information on people from Glengarry, their ancestors and accomplishments. She is particularly interested in the United Empire Loyalists and their descendants.

Edwin McDonald is preparing a history of the St. Andrew's area and families connected with it; most of his material is now assembled in card index form ready to be put into manuscript.

Ruth Mowat described her new book All's Fair, on the history of Williamstown and Williamstown Fair, which she had ready just in time for Williamstown Fair last weekend.

Evelyn VanBeek noted that she found the research into history and family background was the source of a great deal of pleasure. She has worked on the history of the MacGillivray family of MacGillivray's Bridge.

Alex Fraser of the Glengarry Genealogical Society explained that he himself got into the field by accident, and finds it is more than a full-time occupation. "If I knew of a dozen more people interested there would be something for all of them to do, just sorting out the MacDonalds of Glengarry."

The society, although only in existence a short time, already has members from Scotland to New Zealand, he said.

Dr. Norbert Ferre of Cornwall, who is interested in compiling a photographic record of the buildings and scenes from Glengarry's past, suggested that the evening might be considered the forerunner of similar annual gatherings.

4-H members competition

The agricultural 4-H members in Glengarry county took part in a judging competition held in cooperation with the Stormont 4-H program. The competition was held in the Newington Fairgrounds on July 28th. The members were divided into junior and senior divisions and all were required to judge and give reasons on a class of crops: barley, corn or hay. They were required to do a 4-H quiz, general agricultural quiz and either an Agricultural I.D. or Forestry I.D. quiz.

In the junior division, the member receiving the highest number of points was Barbara Ann VanLoon, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. VanLoon, Maxville. Barbara Ann will be receiving the C.N.E. Shield at the 4-H Awards Night Banquet in the Fall. The winner of the senior division was Charlene Blaney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blaney, Maxville. Charlene will be receiving the R. S. Wightman Trophy at the Awards Night Banquet.

Had party for 35th anniversary

Saturday, July 31st, Wallace and Rita MacKinnon (nee Lecompte) of Ottawa were honored by a surprise party on the occasion of their 35th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. MacKinnon were married August 9, 1941, at the Sacred Heart Church.

The party was held at the home of their niece Phyllis Stephenson in Cornwall. The address was read by their daughter Diane and presentations made by their son Bill and daughter Debbie.

Guests were from Calgary, St. Catharines, Ottawa, Quebec City, Ville Lasalle, Dorval, Pincourt and Cornwall.

Play-offs continue in fastball

by Jean Luc Menard

Semi-final action is in the thick of things. Dalhousie leads Glengarry Motors 2—1 in their best of five series after posting a shutout on Monday night. ABS have taken the first game in their semi-final with Bergeron-Hope. Chippers were eliminated from further competition when Bergeron-Hope defeated them two straight in the quarters. Action resumes Thursday night with Glengarry vs Dalhousie in game four followed by ABS vs Bergeron-Hope in game two. Both series are best of five.

Results of recent games:

Thursday, August 5th: Kenny MacDonald broke an 8—8 tie in the bottom of the ninth by hitting one through left centrefield for an inside the park homerun to defeat Glengarry. There was a total of 27 hits in the game. Mike March hit a solo homerun in the top of the second. Glengarry came from behind in the sixth with three runs to tie the game but consequently lost it.

In the nightcap, Bergeron-Hope eliminated Chippers with a 6—2 win. Jacques Trottier and Pat Killoran had three hits and an rbi each to account for a portion of the 11-hit outburst. Paul Masson had two hits for Chippers. Killoran got the win by allowing only five hits.

Sunday, August 8th: ABS and Bergeron played eight innings of a tie game but the game was cancelled because of rain and therefore all records were erased.

Monday, August 6th: Coach Bruno Depratto drove in the winning run in the bottom of the seventh to edge Bergeron 4—3. Bergeron initially took the lead but it was a seesaw battle with ABS tieing the game up in the sixth. Serge Vaillancourt took the win while Pat Killoran was tagged with the loss in relief of Garry Thomas.

In the second game, Dalhousie shutout Glengarry 4—0 behind the 2-hitter of Raymond Charlebois. Dalhousie scored three runs in the top of the fifth and from then on coasted to the victory. Dalhousie had nine hits with Jacques Cusick and Hubert McDonell collecting triples.

The cash register rings, the merchandise changes hands, and another young lad fantasizes at becoming a renowned superstar and earning today's inflated salaries. The youngster ties on his new skates and optimistically looks forward to the oncoming hockey season.

Yes, hockey is just around the corner as most summer sports leagues are into play-off format and the battle for league supremacy is on.

For baseball, Dalhousie leads Glengarry 2—1 in their best-of-five semi-finals and ABS hold a 1—0 edge in games over Bergeron and Hope. Bergeron have recently defeated the Chippers in the quarter-finals.

In soccer, play-offs should be starting soon as teams are rallying for better play-off positions in the final games.

Touch football has not entered play-offs yet but Lochiel is favored at finishing in top spot.

Minor hockey should find their enrollment boosted this year with such an impressive building to play in. The minor hockey executive has been busy planning the season's activities and are optimistic that it will receive the support of youngsters and parents alike.

The Glens will be playing in a new league this year which is more local. Hawkesbury and St. Isidore are in this league and rivalries should be pretty keen, and attendance up.

Make it a point to visit our new Sports Palace. It is quite a building.

Low scoring in Alexandria Open held Saturday

A sparkling first round of 34 helped Rickey Duchesneau of Vankleek Hill, capture the low gross honors in Saturday's play of the 1976 Alexandria Open at the local golf course.

Rick added a 39 on the second round for a one over par 73. Second low gross honors went to Rejean Theoret of Lachute, with Bob Ramsbottom of Maxville, third and Tim Taylor, Alexandria, in fourth spot.

Emile Hurtubise, Alexandria, took low net honors with a 70. He was followed by Normand Daigle of Cornwall, Wayne Crack, Alexandria, and Roger Bourdon, St. Isidore, all with net 71.

Fifty-six men took part in the 18-hole play and there were prizes for all due to the generosity of local business people.

Jr. Olympics here today

Two Olympic torchbearers who helped to bring the flame to the Montreal Stadium will re-enact their historic run in Alexandria on Thursday.

Lynn Gallant and Yvette Blanchette will light their Olympic torches once more, to start the opening ceremony at 12 noon of a Junior Olympics Day, at the Glengarry High School.

Under the banners of many nations, over 400 boys and girls aged between eight and 16 will be competing in many Olympic track and field events.

Thousands of youngsters continue to take part in Junior Olympic events under a program sponsored by the Royal Bank of Canada.

Stars lost in Ottawa

On Wednesday, August 4th at Mooney's Bay the Glengarry Stars were defeated by Jadran Croatian by a score of two to zero. The Stars fielded only 10 players due to the lack of desire and the finishing of the hay. It looks like the jinx of Mooney's Bay still holds true to form as the Stars find it hard to put it together there. Our record to date is three wins, three losses and one tie.

On Saturday, the Ottawa Glengarry Stars played in the ODSA Challenge Cup game against the Reserve team Ottawa South Bears. It was no contest from start to finish as the Ottawa team had one shot on goal. The Stars, who should have been trying to play a decent brand of soccer for the upcoming league games, showed everybody how to fool around. This certainly doesn't help the players at all. Players who need work in certain positions did not play there but some place else. Hope this game doesn't go to their heads. Goal scorers were Donnie Morris, 3; Tom Lowe and Earl MacLennan with two while Ewen MacLeod and Allan Byers got one goal apiece.

Our next league game is Wednesday, August 11th in Lochiel against Maple Leafs.

Rev. Skues had visit

Recent guests at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Jack Skues, were Dr. and Mrs. D. G. Hodd. Dr. Hodd served the people along the lonely isolated shores of Quebec-Labrador, being the Medical Officer of Health at the Grenfell Hospital on Harrington Island. He was also Justice of the Peace and Indian Agent.

In his earlier days, before the advent of ski-doos, sometimes it meant a round trip of two hundred miles by dog team to reach the sick and injured, or when the sea ice melted perilous boat trips bringing those living in isolation to the hospital.

The good doctor was known not only for his medical skill, but also as father, friend and counsellor. During the ministry of the Rev. and Mrs. Skues along the coast, a mission boat was built and dedicated, being aptly named, "The Donald Gordon Hodd." This was used in the service of the United Church of Canada by the minister.

Dr. Hodd now living in retirement at Burlington, Ontario, recently travelled to Ottawa to receive the Canada Medal from the Governor-General.

Given in marriage by her eldest brother, Robin, the bride looked lovely in a floor-length gown of nylon over net and satin. A matching train fell from the waistline, and her chapel length veil was held in place by a beaded coronet. She carried a bouquet of pink sweatheart roses.

'From the old rail fence'

by Anna Margaret

In this county of many churches, pastors come and pastors go. And despite the shortcomings of us all, one of which is to expect a great deal more from our pastors than we are willing to measure up to ourselves, we usually become very attached to our priests and ministers. Their departure from their congregations is commonly a very sentimental time, with expressions of sorrow.

St. Raphael's Parish experienced the leave-taking last Sunday of Father Don Scott who had spent the past year there. Father Don is leaving the Diocese to join the Dominican Order of Preachers whose headquarters is in Toronto.

His tribute follows: A reading from the annals in the history of St. Raphael's Parish, a similitude to the writings in "Good News For Modern Man," Math. 25-14-30. "The parable of the gold coins."

And so the Bishop of Alexandria said to his servant Donald Scott "Go to St. Raphael's Parish and take with you this gold coin of your God-given talent and invest it there among the people.

And Don Scott approached this task in humility and trepidation because he did not know the parishioners there and knew not where to start.

But the words of the great Etienne de Grellet kept resounding: "I shall pass through this world but once, if therefore there is any kindness I can show, or any good thing I can do, let me do it now; let me not defer it or neglect if for I shall not pass this way again."

And in examining the priorities he should teach, the leader reflected. "The most important thing in life is to love God and his fellow-man, and this I must try to teach these, my people."

And so it was, he took the "Good News" and related the parable and texts into situations the people could readily understand, identify with and attempt to imitate in their daily lives. And then he set about to involve the total congregation in immersion of the celebrations—in prayer, in song, in banner themes, in study of the word of God.

"We have a very high standard of living in this parish," noted the leader. "Surely these people would be happy to share their riches with another land less fortunate." And so it was he encouraged the parish to share their abundance with the parish of Aratuba in Brazil and their monthly contribution to their adopted parish became another pattern in their lives.

"There may come a time when there will be a need for special assistants in this parish to carry on the work of the Master," contemplated the leader. And in preparation for the day when this might come to pass, he trained ministers to carry out special functions that the sick and shut-ins of the parish might also share in the celebration of the eucharist.

It so happened at this time that Shalom House which had just been donated to the Diocese by the Sisters of Holy Cross was to be included in the leader's work. This was intended to be a place of prayer and renewal, and to launch such a program was a formidable challenge in these modern times. But guided by his great faith in the Holy Spirit, the dedication and zeal of this leader produced a response far beyond what was expected, and this new type of institution became a flourishing establishment, withing the confines of the parish, but for the enrichment of all.

And at this time, another example of modern-day charity was taking hold in the parish, as a home for the adult retarded was experiencing its growing pains. And because of his experience in the Vanier institutions, this leader was again able to reach out and encourage the Caravan Home in Glen Roy to become a sincere and enduring part of our community.

And then the parishioners were to see an entirely unexpected occurrence, as another Iona Convent opened in their midst, just on the doorstep of the one that was closed just a few years ago.

"Truly, good things have happened in this parish under the leadership of this sincere and exemplary man," observed the parishioners. "It is very sad to see this leader depart because we have learned to love him very much."

But then, they pondered one of the lessons their leader had taught them, that to truly love some one, is to let him fly free. And then again, the quantity of time spent with others is not as important as the quality of time.

And so, it was in sorrow, they said good bye to their dear pastor on August 8th, 1976.

But, their resignation was accompanied by thanksgiving, because they knew that the inspiration and joy their leader had brought to them throughout the past year would now be shared with many others as he dispersed his talents among those he was yet to meet.

And sharing, above all, was one of the greatest lessons this leader had taught them.

IT'S OUR OPINION

Main Street traffic one-way?

Cornwall's Pitt Street is now open only to one-way traffic in the north end and city officials are reported to have planned to make it one-way throughout the downtown area. Spirited objections by downtown merchants induced council to limit the one-way section over the protests of city traffic officials.

If Cornwall finds it advisable to make its principal street one-way, the thought occurs that town council might study the possibilities of restricting traffic on Alexandria's too-narrow Main Street. That could be the means of settling a sticky issue; which side of the street should carry the traffic flow.

The problem is business show windows splashed by traffic whenever the street is wet; and council is divided over the issue. A Solomon-like solution might be to make traffic one-way through the entire business area. Allow parking on both sides and voila, there would be no more splashing of windows. Parked cars would act as buffers between street and sidewalks.

It's true that our main drag is part of Highway 34 and the highways department would not permit such an interruption of two-way traffic. If we raise enough of a ruckus, though, Queen's Park might be forced to give us the highway by-pass that is so long overdue.

Then we could move for a Main St. mall.

A continuing success

The Glengarry Pipe Band and the MacCulloch dancers staged the half-time show at the football game in Lansdowne Park, Ottawa, one night last week. That colorful appearance was a foretaste of things to come when Glengarry talent will be entertaining in the National Arts Centre at Ottawa one night in October.

That Tuesday date at the football game came only days after Glengarry's big event of the year, the Highland Games. And their proximity serves as a reminder that if Glengarry boasts a concert group it is the annual Glengarry Games that engendered it. This county has always boasted pipers and highland dancers, but never in the quantity, or of the quality, we now know.

It is the annual Games at Maxville that has triggered this rebirth of interest in Cadedonian entertainment here. The demands on our concert party suggest a future field of endeavor has been opened for Glengarry talent in music, song and dance.

We look back almost three decades to the post-war period when one Peter MacInnes and his Maxville confreres were taking tentative steps to revive the Caledonian games that earlier had been a part of the Glengarry scene. The men who mustered in the old High School here, to organize a Glengarry Highland Games were dreaming in technicolor but they could not envisage the succession of solid successes that they were generating thirty years ago.

Nor could they visualize the effect the Games would have on the very next generation of Glengarrians. If the Glengarry concert party develops the resiliency the Games has demonstrated over the years there will be a whole new field for Glengarry talent in the years to come.

Taxation—too high a price

Coopers and Lybrand, the well-known chartered accountants, wrote recently: "If one accepts that taxes—in any shape or form—are a cost, either of doing business or simply of living, then this country's current efforts to combat inflation are a cruel hoax."

Taxation is the price of government services and unless the price of them is controlled at least within the same limits as wages and salaries and profits, then everyone's disposable income is reduced, writes Kenneth McDonald for the Canadian Federation of Independent Business.

Municipal property tax, sales taxes, gasoline taxes, customs and excise duties, income taxes—unless these are used to provide additional services, their imposition reduces our ability to buy other goods and services. If business profits are held back while income taxes on existing profit levels are increased, business income is reduced. The same with wages and salaries. Yet the tax effect is concealed by the device of excluding the cost of government services from the cost of living index which is used to measure inflation.

Ottawa is fond of shifting the blame for spending to the provinces, and it certainly has a point. Between 1975 and 1976, sales taxes increased by 14 per cent in Nova Scotia, 25 per cent in Newfoundland and 40 per cent in BC. Corporate income tax rates rose by eight per cent in Newfoundland, 15 per cent in Manitoba and BC, and 20 per cent in Nova Scotia. A new 20 per cent surcharge in Manitoba brings the rate of provincial income tax in that province to 51 per cent of Federal Basic Tax on taxable income over $20,000. For self-employed persons in Ontario, the provincial health premium has been increased by 45 per cent. In Quebec it has gone from .8 per cent of income to 1.5 per cent, an increase of 87.5 per cent.

Municipal property taxes are shooting up. With 55 per cent of them going to education, teachers' union settlements of 20 per cent and more are working their way through in taxes.

The Canadian Federation of Independent Business is under continual pressure from members to seek reductions in government spending. There is no question it must be reduced, but when whole communities are dependent on social spending of one form or another, sudden cuts would be disastrous.

What is needed is an unequivocal commitment from Ottawa and the provinces to reduce government spending, over a five year period, at a rate corresponding to increases in spending in the private sector. The two must move in phase—public reduction, private increase—if Canada's social and economic fabric is to be preserved.

Cheaper to fly American

Second son came home from Vancouver for a holiday and he brought with him what he sees as food for an editorial. Its theme—Unhealthy high air rates in Canada.

When he flies back to Vancouver, Alan will go some three thousand miles out of his way and thereby save himself $62 in air fare. If he had purchased return fare from Vancouver to Dorval it would have cost him $366. Instead he took a one-way east and on the advice of his travel agent will return via a United States airline to Los Angeles and then north to Vancouver by CP Air.

That roundabout route using a U.S. line will be $62 cheaper than if he had flown Canadian all the way.

We have heard before that domestic air rates in Canada are much higher than overseas rates, that it is less expensive to fly Air Canada to Europe than to Vancouver. This tale of a reduced rate by adding three thousand miles of travel confirms that fact but it does not explain how the Air Transport Board justifies such price fixing.

It probably does explain why Canadians are reluctant to travel by air.

Sex on TV

(The Port Perry Star)

The storm of protest over violence in TV is at last having an effect that will be evident in future programming. Now another trend needs to be challenged—the fascination with sex.

This is evident in some situation comedies spiced with bar-room humor, leering dialogue and seduction scenes. Unfortunately these shows catch whole families off guard in prime viewing hours. So maybe it's time to raise another chorus of protests and chastise the sponsors of such programs by boycotting the products they advertise.

As for TV movies, which can be pretty gamey, the problem is simpler. Most are shown in later hours to an adult audience. And viewers are often warned in advance that the scenes and language may be offensive.

Such warnings, in fact, may well be used more widely. Theatres showing no-holds-barred films must label them as adult or restricted. But does this prepare decent people for shocking language, nudity and explicit sex? Not at all. Similar warnings flashed on the screen at the start of a picture come too late.

Why shouldn't theatres be compelled to put strongly worded, highly visible signs near the box office to tip off the public as to the true nature of the entertainment inside?

Why not adopt similar cautionary statements on the jackets of lurid novels liberally sprinkled with four-letter words?

In fact, no commercial interests should assume that everyone enjoys highly sex-oriented, vulgar entertainment.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

INCONSIDERATE ACT

Maxville, Ont.

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

It is with concern that I write to you on this subject.

Last Saturday was the day of the Highland Games and a great day it was for many who came from great distances to attend.

They came with their trailers and Winabagos from cities far and wide. Those city people who most envy the farmer's way of life and hope some day to own their own little farm, and who when they own it complain when the farmer next to them spreads manure on his fields for the good of his crops. Yes sir, they complain of the smell.

But what should a person think of the city dweller who empties the holding tank on his house trailer on an entrance road to a farmer's house.

Excrement and toilet paper to decorate a farm entrance?

Concerned Farmer

They'll Do It Every Time

WITH OUR
by Ed.

Remember the good old days? That's when you were young and dreaming of the kind of salary you're hard up on now.

CHEAPENING THE DOLLAR

Out of Washington comes a report that the U.S. treasury department is seriously considering introduction of a "workhorse" $1 coin. Seems a study conducted for the treasury examined a variety of new coin concepts but was particularly impressed with the idea of a new $1 coin.

The present Eisenhower $1 coin was found too heavy and cumbersome. It just doesn't circulate. A Mint spokesman noted people carry a lot of quarters in their pockets. They are the workhorse coin and it was thought a new $1 coin could become as popular in time. The new coin would be bigger than a quarter, but smaller than a 50-cent piece—in both size and weight.

It could be conveniently carried around in one's pocket and could be used in vending machines—an idea backed by some tobacco manufacturers. They could then raise the price of a pack of cigarets to a dollar and do away with having to feed four quarters into the slot.

No decision has yet been arrived at, according to report, but in case Canadian bureaucrats would be copying Washington a year later we have several reservations. Seems silly to introduce a $1 coin that is smaller than a half dollar. And that would be impossible in this country where the four-bit piece is practically the same size as a quarter now. There wouldn't be room for an in-between.

And a "workhorse" $1 coin that people would carry like quarters would demand stronger material for men's pockets. Seems to us they have less wear every year.

The thought of a $1 coin that would buy a pack of U.S. cigarets is rather dismaying, too. We can remember when U.S. tailor-mades were less than 15 cents a pack and this new concept says nothing for the purchasing power of today's dollar.

Rather than planning for cheaper dollars, the Washington government, and ours, should be thinking in terms of harder money and the return of the "workhorse" nickel and dime, even the penny.

What's in a name? We haven't had true dough since before Trudeau.

TOO SELF-CENTRED

We're too wrapped up in our little worlds, muses the columnist in the Humboldt, Sask., Journal. And the thought was inspired by a street incident that has probably happened to all of us at one time or another.

But let him tell it:

We were walking down the street, watching the sidewalk, intent on something that had occupied our thoughts for the past while, and paying no attention to others on the street.

Suddenly our concentration—or lack of it—was interrupted by a cheery, vibrant salute:

"Good morning!"

We suddenly became aware of the one who had greeted us. And at the same time we realized we had been completely preoccupied and oblivious to everything and everyone on the street.

We returned the greeting as quickly and as easily as we could, trying to give the impression we had intended to recognize our friend without passing him by. Perhaps we convinced him.

But what really bothered us was the fact that we might have passed others—how many?—and unconsciously passed them by without recognition and greeting.

Anyway that greeting broke us out of our preoccupation and we began to take notice of things and people along the way . . . A new, attractive window display . . . a cheery wave from across the street . . . the fact that a finally, because I realize that I too have been guilty of apathetic feelings. I am now more aware of a deeper feeling, that of disappointment which has been growing since I first read the article concerning the sale of the Bishop's Palace in Alexandria.

I consider myself very fortunate to have grown up in Alexandria, a parishioner of St. Finnan's, an admirer of that church, its architecture and beauty, the palace, the grotto, and all else that is part of one of the most picturesque corners in the town of Alexandria.

About five months ago rumor had it that the Bishop's Palace was in the process of being sold. Immediately phones began ringing, different people were curious as to the source of this rumor. However, upon approaching people who might be in a position to know the "how" the "why" and the "what" of said rumor these interested people were advised that it was indeed all rumor, that no such deal was in the offing and the palace would not be sold.

Their curiosity was satisfied, their feelings of pride in a landmark erected by their ancestors was reinforced, their apprehension that this landmark might eventually disappear was numbed. Since then, what has happened? Has apathy infiltrated the hearts and minds of these people?

A few weeks ago it was announced that the palace had been sold.

The idea has occurred to me more than once that there are some parishioners of St. Finnan's who are influential citizens—who certainly have more say in the community than I have. —(Incidentally, I have none.) What are they waiting for?

If nothing can be done about the sale of the palace—at least let the parishioners have a logical explanation to some of the questions that must be bothering some of us whose ancestors worked to build such a magnificent structure when many of them didn't have running water or adequate sanitary facilities in their own homes. That must have been faith!

Everyone knows that time waits for no one—and time brings change. It is hoped that in ten years or so the beauty of the palace block will not be distorted by whomever assumes the ownership.

Sincerely,
Grace (Morris) Thompson

former resident was in town visiting relatives . . . the sidewalk being swept at one business place . . . and how dirty it made the rest look . . . a fresh flag flying from the mast down the block . . . the blue of the sky and the fleeciness of the clouds . . . the freshness of the air and the pleasantness of the day.

And we suddenly began to feel so much better and the thing that had been bothering us a few minutes earlier was now unimportant.

We found ourself saying "Good morning" to everyone we passed, and they were returning the greeting.

We hope the rest of the day went as well for others as it did for us.

Guess that's what is needed . . . more recognition and thought of our neighbors and friends and less wrapped up in our own little worlds.

Dunvegan WI studies Bolivia

On July 22nd, Dunvegan W.I. met in the hall. Mrs. Dan MacRae, president welcomed our visiting W.I. branch, St. Lawrence. The motto: "The blending of nationalities enriches the nation." was commented on by Mrs. Russell Morrison.

The roll call, "Name a Canadian Province, the Premier, and floral emblem," had a good response.

Mrs. W. J. Baxter, convenor of Citizenship and World Affairs took as her topic Bolivia. With the aid of flannel graph and pictures she gave a historical review of that country, stressing how the natives had been persecuted by the white men for their wealth. Several articles of native handcraft were displayed.

New drapes added a festive touch to the hall platform.

A social hour followed, the hostesses being Mrs. L. MacKinnon, Mrs. W. Calder and Mrs. L. Nixon.

There were two Austrian Shorthorn breeders in the area looking for stock and two men from out West accompanied them: plus the Pittfield farm manager from St. Justine. They all arrived unexpectedly at the Henry Kronwald farm recently to give their animals the once over. On your toes, Shorthorn breeders, you just never know . . .

Patricia Kronwald of Lachine is a recent visitor to the Henry Kronwalds.

ENTERTAINED AT SHOWER

A miscellaneous wedding shower was held for Gail MacLennan last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. L. MacLennan. There were 35 ladies there. Mrs. Murray MacLachlan, Ottawa, Mrs. Allen Campbell of Brockville and Patricia Kronwald of Lachine were among the out-of-town guests.

After Miss MacLennan had been escorted to her specially decorated chair, she was presented, one at a time, with clues as to where she might find her gifts. All were located, opened and admired. She stood and thanked everyone most sincerely. Games followed, with Alison Barlow winning the Macaroni Jar guessing contest . . . plus the clothes peg contest. Mrs. Roy MacMillan had the most complete assortment of purse items, according to the list and prizes were awarded accordingly.

A bride's book, compiled by Mrs. A. MacRae, was signed by all the guests, as a souvenir of the evening. The book consisted of baby pictures, childhood and high school pictures of the bride to be with smile provoking captions, very prettily covered with lace. It will be a nice keepsake.

Her beautiful gifts were placed on the buffet making a lovely display. A most delicious lunch was served, and during this time, Mrs. D. Howes sat down at the piano, and Mrs. L. MacNaughton took up her violin to entertain everyone with some toe-tapping music . . . rounding off a very enjoyable evening.

Golden anniversary parties

Mr. and Mrs. Dan McCormick of St. Andrew's West (formerly of 6th Kenyon) were honored recently on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. McCormick (the former Isabel MacLean) were married June 29th, 1926, at St. Catherine of Sienna Church, Greenfield.

The couple renewed their marriage vows at a mass celebrated in St. Andrew's church on Sat., July 3rd. Father John Donihee officiated and two grandsons, Ken and Ron Chisholm served the mass.

The couple were later entertained by their children at a supper and social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Chisholm. Special guests at the dinner were brothers and sisters of the happy couple. They were presented with gifts, flowers and numerous letters, cards, telegrams and plaques from Prime Minister Trudeau, Premier Davis, Gov. General Leger, Osie Villeneuve, MPP for Glengarry, as well as many friends who were unable to attend.

One week later, the couple were entertained at the Bonnie Glen. They were piped into the hall by Steve McDonell of Ottawa, formerly of Fourth of Kenyon. While meeting old friends and relatives all enjoyed the music of Sylvester and the Clansmen.

Dan and Isabel have seven children living. They are Allan, Ron and Inez (Mrs. John Kennedy) of Ottawa; Hugh of Montreal; Donald of Alexandria; Bernard and Betty (Mrs. John Chisholm) of St. Andrew's West. Their eldest son, John J. died in 1966. They also have two foster children, Bonnie (Mrs. Bill Switzer) and Brian McGee of Ottawa, plus fifteen grandchildren.

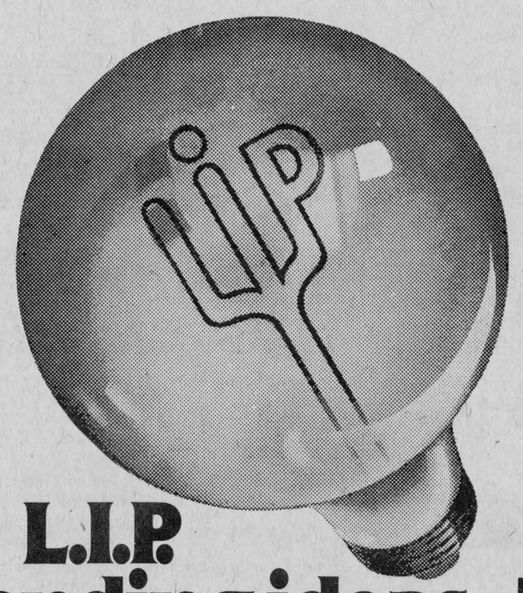
You only have until September 10 to put the initiative into your Local Initiatives Program.



L.I.P. Sending ideas out to work.

You can help fight unemployment this winter by getting to work on an idea this summer. Your Federal Government is asking Canadians to submit proposals for community projects that will help provide jobs for the unemployed. Your idea has to make useful jobs where there were none before, and must employ people registered at a Canada Manpower Centre.

Your L.I.P. program has up to $100,000 for every approved project. Your idea should get underway anytime between November 1st this year and January 31st, 1977.

All applications must be in our hands no later than September 10, 1976. Other than that, it's up to you. If you've got the right idea, we'll help you put it to work.

Martintown Rumor Mill

Art Buckland—528-4261

How proud we all were in Ottawa's Lansdowne Park to see fifty of our MacCulloch dancers perform a mass fling to the stirring pipes of our Glengarry Pipe and Drum band. Twenty three thousand and nine hundred and ninety nine other people enjoyed it also. Even the visiting football players on the Saskatchewan Rough Riders learned to appreciate it too. Some of them ran on the field before the half time show was over and they were stopped for a loss by the determined, majestic and military marching of Pipe Major John MacKenzie leading the pipe band across the field. "Even Angelo Mosca wasn't that hard to get past," I overheard one Saskatchewan Roughie complain.

The Olympics are over and even names of the nationally televised athletes are being forgotten. How much easier is it to forget the prowess of local athletes then. Cornwall has taken steps to ensure that local athletes are remembered; they have established a sports hall of fame. The hall of fame scrapbook used to be at Bob Turner Arena; I hope it moves to the new one. An idea for our own area.

All sorts of cultural publications lately: the Clansmen record, Ruth Mowat's book "All's Fair", Martintown's Rhodes Grant has published Volume II of our history in a delightful book called "Horse and Buggy Days in Martintown." The Brigadoons have just released their new long-playing album, "Canadian Celtic." The record contains two original tunes about Glengarry with lyrics and music by Irene and Bob Taylor. Ewen (Hub) McDonald in Alexandria and Julia Danskin in Maxville have copies as well as Duncan Macdonell in his Atlantic. The album also features a fine sketch of St. Raphael's ruins on the cover.

August 22nd Brigadoons will be part of a youth festival in Maxville. Peter Peers of Dalkeith has organized an excellent program of varied musical talent for that weekend.

Last weekend's Williamstown Fair was very successful. There was something for all. Next year a beer garden perhaps. Congratulations to Wilfred McNaughton and his executive.

Guy Leroux was telling me how friendly everyone in Newfoundland is. On his last trip east, his motorcycle broke down and every car stopped to see if they could help in any way.

Help was something I needed Saturday night after the fair dance and that great party on the South Branch road.

Lorne Lawson and Allan McPhail have returned from Cape Breton; we are fortunate to have them back I hear.

Last week Sesel Lalonde's General Store in Martintown was robbed. The thieves made off with over $1,500. Some of the loot has been found (the cheques). The police questioned Sesel, "Why didn't you use the Night Deposit Box at the Martintown Bank of Nova Scotia?" Have you ever seen it?

Now I waited and waited but I didn't get an invitation to the author's banquet held recently for Glengarry's writers. I had washed behind my ears, changed my socks and long johns and even thought about shaving. My horoscope in the Farmer's Almanac had even predicted an important invitation was to come by mail. So when Barrie McIntyre, our local courier, drove up with a registered letter, I thought, this is it, I'm being recognized as a writer at last without anyone realizing that I steal all my material out of the parliamentary debates in Hansard, and Eugene Macdonald's editorials. 'Twas an invitation alright—an invitation to pay Billy Goat's feedbill at the Co-op or go to court.

The 4-H Calf Club Achievement Day was held on Saturday. The members were required to show their projects in a Calf Class and were also required to compete in a Showmanship Class. The judges for the day were Eldon Connor, Gananoque, judging the Holstein calves and Ross Rodger, Vankleek Hill, judging the Ayrshire calves and the Showmanship classes. NOTICE OF MEETING

The Commission to Review Proposals for Property Tax Reform in Ontario

A public meeting for residents of Prescott and Russell, Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry counties and Cornwall will be held on September 9, 1976 at 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m., 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at Holiday Inn, St. Lawrence Room, 805 Brookdale Avenue, Cornwall, to receive submissions, both oral and written, from local government representatives, property taxpayers and all other interested parties, concerning the proposals that have been put forward by the Government of Ontario as a means of establishing a new system of property taxation based on market value assessment.

This meeting is one of a series which the Commission is conducting throughout Ontario this summer and fall, before submitting its recommendations to the government.

The proposals, originally published in the 1976 Ontario Budget, Budget Paper E, entitled Reform of Property Taxation in Ontario, are as follows:

1. Residences in Ontario, collectively, will bear a reduced share of property taxes.
2. Residential property will be redefined to include only residences and a reasonable amount of land.
3. The present practice of levying different mill rates on residential and commercial properties will be discontinued.
4. Farmland, farm buildings, managed forests and farm residences will be assessed at market value. Farmland, farm buildings and managed forests will be taxed at 100 percent of market value and the taxes will be paid by the Province. Farm residences will be taxed as all other residences at 50 percent of market value and the taxes will be paid by the owner. There will be provision to recover taxes paid by the Province if the property changes use.
5. All real property used for the purpose of a business including government administrative facilities will be subject to an additional assessment of 50 percent of market value for business taxes.
6. All public property except residences will be subject to payments in lieu of taxes equal to full taxes at 100 percent of market value. Public residences will be subject to payments in lieu of taxes equivalent to full taxes at 50 percent of market value. Public utilities will be subject to business assessment at 50 percent of market value.
7. As is the present case, churches, cemeteries, and property held in trust for a band or body of Indians will be exempt. All other presently exempt property will be taxed at 100 percent of market value, except residences which will be taxed at 50 percent of market value.
8. A uniform method of phasing-in the new tax system over a period of up to five years will be available to prevent abrupt tax changes.
9. Assessment rolls will be returned and enumeration will be performed every two years to coincide with local government elections.
10. Assessment on provincial government property will be pooled and assigned between the public and separate elementary schools in the same proportion as the taxable assessment assigned by the owners and occupants of residences.
11. Costs shared among municipalities will be shared on the basis of the assessment on which taxes and payments in lieu of taxes are based.
12. Where assessment is to be used to determine the grant to be paid to a municipality, the assessment used will be the assessment on which taxes and payments in lieu of taxes are based.
13. The provisions of The Assessment Act will apply to the assessment of all real property in Ontario, including areas without municipal organizations.
14. Public bodies which receive provincial grants, such as school boards, will be allowed to include their property tax payments as allowable expenses for grant purposes.
15. Ontario's property tax credits which relate property taxes to the ability to pay will, if necessary, be strengthened upon implementation of the new system.

Copies of Budget Paper E containing background and explanatory information, in addition to the proposals themselves, may be obtained, free of charge, from regional assessment offices or from Mr. Lawrence Close, Executive Secretary, Commission on Property Tax Reform, Fifth Floor, Frost Building South, Queen's Park, Toronto M7A 1Y7, telephone (416) 965-9300. If you plan to appear and present a written or oral submission, please notify Mr. Close in advance, by letter or telephone. We would also appreciate receiving one copy of any written submission, prior to the meeting.

Since the purpose of these meetings is to help ensure that the new taxation system is implemented in an efficient and equitable manner, the Commission hopes that all Ontario residents with opinions and suggestions to offer will manage to make their representations to us.

Ingleside couple to write update of counties history

A new history of the United Counties will be written by Clive and Frances Marin of Ingleside. The executive committee of counties council has been authorized to make an agreement with the couple.

Essentially an updating of the original History of the United Counties by John Graham Harkness, the book will include an introductory chapter to background the history and serve as a link between the two volumes. The main text will feature the period from about 1945 to the present.

The period of the building of the St. Lawrence Seaway and power project will be a major feature of the history, along with the many changes in the area since the Second World War.

The manuscript is to be completed by the end of 1978 and is to be the property of the United Counties, which will then decide on having the volume printed.

Council appointed Keith Graham and Edwin Waldroff to be the committee in charge of the book and the arrangements with the Marins, with the instruction to review progress on the manuscript from time to time. Francoise Laflamme and Carol Baxter will be asked to act as consultants to the committee as the work progresses.

Use hot water wisely Save energy...Save money

Apart from home heating, a family usually consumes the most energy in producing hot water. Here are just a few small things you can do, that can add up to a considerable energy saving. Turn off hot water taps so they don't drip, fill clothes washers to match the size of the load, wait until you have a full load before using a dishwasher and remember showers usually require less hot water than baths. Try not to use more hot water than you need.

Cascade

The Cascade electric water heater will give you a dependable supply of hot water, but it's up to you to use it wisely.

Green Thumbs elect charter executive

A horticultural society recently formed in Glengarry will be known as Green Thumbs.

Prospective members attended the founding meeting in Williamstown, from Alexandria, Green Valley and the Williamstown area.

Ed St. Jean, chairman of the meeting, explained that there was a need for an organization to encompass the eastern part of the county without being limited to any specific area.

The meeting agreed unanimously that boundaries for the club would not be limited.

Green Thumbs executive is: Gordon Turnbull, president, Alexandria; Mrs. Jake Leonard, vice-president, Williamstown; Mrs. Donald Martin, secretary-treasurer, Williamstown; Ed St. Jean, public relations officer, Williamstown.

It was agreed the club should concentrate on the Williamstown Fair competitions.

In Philadelphia for congress

A bus load from the diocese of Alexandria returned Monday morning from Philadelphia where they had been attending the Eucharistic Congress.

Among those making the trip were Bishop Eugene LaRocque and several members of the clergy. Alexandrians in attendance included Angus R. MacDonell, Mrs. Archie McDougall, Mrs. Ursula Kolada, Mrs. Florence Villeneuve, Mrs. Florence Leroux and Nora McRae.

Avonmore seniors given grant

Ed Lumley, Member of Parliament for Stormont-Dundas, announced that the Minister of National Health and Welfare, the Hon. Marc Lalonde has awarded a New Horizons grant for Senior Citizens totalling $13,834 to the Avonmore Diamond Club to establish a club for group meetings.

The Club plans to renovate the room they are currently using to make it more suitable for their full program of social functions, crafts and hobbies, including leather and woodworking, needlecraft, music, dancing and games.

Charlottenburgh calf club met

Two meetings of the Charlottenburgh Junior Calf Club were held during July.

At the first meeting on July 20th at the farm of Donald Thomson, Martintown, was judging of a class of dairy animals, a class of hay, and a class of corn. This was for practice for the judging day at Newington fair grounds on the 28th of July.

At the second meeting on August 2nd at the farm of Bruce Sova, Glen Roy, the members read a lesson on breeding, reviewed about clipping a calf and showmanship. There was also a demonstration for the clipping and showmanship.

The next and last meeting is to be held on August 23rd at the farm of Mrs. Rosetta McRae, RR#1 Apple Hill, where there will be a football game for the 4-H members.

Mrs. Harold Hirst died, 84

A resident of the Alexandria area over the last 20 years, Elizabeth (Bessie) Hirst died Thursday, Aug. 5th, in Glengarry Memorial Hospital. She died at 84 after a brief illness.

Pallbearers were: Lloyd Kennedy, Edward Picken, Gordon Benson, Bobbie Benson, Harold Picken and Bert Picken.

Apple Hill has Happy Hour club

At a recent social evening of the newly formed "Senior Citizen's" organization of Apple Hill a short meeting was held, during which the task of deciding on a name for the organization was brought before the gathering. It was unanimously decided to call the group "The Happy Hour Club".

This title appears to be very appropriate as all present enjoyed an evening of euchre followed by refreshments and a rousing sing-song for which the music was capably supplied by Father "Charlie" MacDonald, who played the piano.

The next social evening was to be held on Aug. 10th at 7:30 p.m. in St. Anthony's Church Hall with a cordial invitation extended to all who wish to attend. These meetings are held every second Tuesday of the month.
