Town Council Securing Estimates On New Fire Hall And Police Station

Estimates on the cost of a new fire hall and police station are being secured by town council.

Consulting Engineer G. E. Seguin of Hawkesbury, met with council at Tuesday's meeting and was given specifications for a building that might house a fire hall, police office and cells, senior citizens' room and space for other administrative services. He is to report on probable costs at next meeting when council will consider the project.

Tentative plans are for its erection on the municipal parking lot and the present fire hall would probably be razed following its occupancy.

Tender for the construction of the control dam and spillway at Loch Garry was awarded to the lowest builder, Beaver Equipment Ltd. of Montreal, at $40,740. A start on the dam is to be made at once, with dredging behind the dam to be completed through the winter.

A special meeting of council will be held tonight to open tenders for the construction of storm sewers. As many as seven bids on the contract are expected.

Council will protest to the CNR over proposed discontinuance of local train No. 202 late this month. The Clerk was also instructed to prepare a by-law setting municipal nomination day as Wednesday, Nov. 23rd. Elections, if required, will be held Dec. 5th.

Get Approval For 16 More Homes

Sixteen new homes will be built in Alexandria through the winter by Poirier and Touchette. Ten of the homes will go up in Laporte Gardens, the other six in the St. George Street subdivision.

Approval of the new housing plan was received late last week from Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, reports J. P. Touchette. They will be built for sale to prospective new owners.

A large aerial photograph of Alexandria is on display in the town office. Prepared by an Ottawa firm, it is 16 feet long and is based on 100 feet to the inch.

The original map cost some $500 and council hopes to use it in planning water and sewer lines, etc.

A carrot which sports four fingers and a thumb sprouting lifelike from a rather stubby wrist is an object of interest in our office window this week. It was brought in by Joe Lefebvre of Glen Robertson, who dug the uncanny rabbit food from his garden.

Promoted With RCAF To NATO Post

Group Captain R. A. B. (Bob) Ellis, senior air staff officer at Trenton, has been promoted to Air Commodore in the RCAF and leaves Friday for France.

He will serve as Deputy to the Chief of Staff, Canadian Armed Forces at NATO headquarters, Fontainebleu, France.

Air Commodore Ellis is formerly of Maxville and his wife is the former Flo Ann MacDonald of Greenfield.

Building New Bridge

An all-steel bridge spanning the Delisle River on the counties road at Greenfield is now under construction. Being built by the Counties Road Department the bridge will be 62 feet long and 30 feet wide.

Still Looking Champion 40 Years Later

Kirk Hill's football team journeyed to Greenfield on Friday evening, August 27, 1926, to decide the Gengarry championship. It was the second game of a home-and-home series and Kirk Hill's left wing Eddie Carter dribbled the ball down the left line, kicked to centre field where Neil Blair took charge to drive the only goal of the game through the Greenfield posts.

Forty years later members of that 1926 team gathered in the United Church hall at Kirk Hill to replay the game and have an interesting picture taken. Unhappily, death had removed two players from the current picture.

14 Entries For Lancaster Queen

Lancaster Township's centennial committee has 14 entries for its Centennial Queen competition to be decided at a bingo being held November 4th. The judging will be on appearance, talent and a two-minute talk. Each contestant will be wearing an old-time costume and the winner will reign at all events during centennial year.

D. A. MacLeod Died At Cornwall

The funeral of Donald Alexander MacLeod of Glen Walter, is being held this (Thursday) afternoon from the McArthur Bros. and MacNeil Funeral Home, Cornwall, for service at 2 p.m. in Dalhousie Mills United Church.

A native of Glen Norman, Mr. MacLeod died Monday in Cornwall General Hospital at the age of 77. In hospital since suffering a fall three weeks ago, he had been on the road to recovery when death struck suddenly.

Mr. MacLeod was the last surviving member of the family of Duncan MacLeod and his wife, Jessie Leslie. He farmed at Glen Norman until going into the construction business. Most of his contracts were in road building but in later years he also did some home construction in the Cornwall area.

Surviving are his wife, the former Blanche Louise Baldry; two sons and one daughter, Rae of Toronto; Edgar of Beaconsfield, Que., and Mrs. B. W. Anderson (Marjorie) of Vancouver. Another son, John, was killed while serving with the RCAF following World War II.

Twelve grandchildren also survive.

Wins Nursing Bursary

The Women of the Moose bursary of $300 was awarded to Miss Eileen MacRae, student nurse at Ottawa Civic Hospital. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan A. MacRae, Dunvegan, and a graduate of Maxville High School.

Fire Brigade To Mark Prevention Week

Fire Prevention Week is being observed across Canada next week and the Alexandria brigade has plans to take part. The fire siren will be blown briefly each noon hour starting Sunday and the firemen will visit all local schools to conduct fire drills.

A tag day will be held Friday and Saturday of this week.

Hospital Campaign Organizers Optimistic On Eve Of Kick-Off Next Tuesday

Some 450 To Canvass In Drive

The organization for the Glengarry Memorial Hospital Fund Raising Campaign is now completed, reports C. C. Fraser, chairman of the house-to-house canvass. The workers for the Township of Kenyon and the Village of Maxville met in the Community Hall, Maxville, on Monday night, and those for the town of Alexandria met in the High School Cafeteria on Tuesday evening. These were the last two meetings in the series of regional gatherings that were held throughout the County. Kits were distributed to the canvassers at all meetings, and each meeting closed with an interesting question and answer period. In addition to Campbell Fraser and Denis Ethier, co-chairman of the house-to-house canvass, Wilfrid Menard, general chairman of the campaign, Lloyd McHugh, president of the hospital board, Andre Comeau, campaign treasurer, Eric Gale, hospital administrator, and Jean-Paul Touchette of the special names committee were on hand to address the canvassers.

The organization for the Town of Alexandria is headed by Raymond Rochon and the following district captains:

North Ward—Frank McLeister, Adelard Sauve, Henri Dubois.

Centre Ward—John Proulx, Duncan Morris.

South Ward—Jean Trottier, Adelard Menard.

They have enlisted the help of about 75 canvassers who will cover the entire town.

"Meeting the workers at the Regional gatherings was a great morale booster", states Campbell Fraser. "There was a high degree of interest and enthusiasm among the 450 voluntary workers who came to the meetings. We were all greatly encouraged by the hearty manner in which we were received, and we feel sure that such a fine body of workers will meet with an excellent response from all the citizens of Glengarry."

Arrives From Hungary To Visit Son

Mrs. Roman Laszloné arrived last night from Pecs, Hungary, to visit her son, Dr. Laszlo Roman, here. It is 10 years since Dr. Roman last saw his mother and she will visit with him for six months.

Circulars detailing the aims and objective of the campaign are in the mail this weekend to every householder in the county and members of the central committee express optimism over the results of next week's drive for funds in aid of Glengarry Memorial Hospital.

"Certainly every resident of the county should be aware the drive is on "declared Hospital Administrator Eric Gale. "If enough area people have been hearing the praise of our hospital that trickles back to the personnel I have no doubt but that they will generously support this appeal for financial support."

Wilfrid Menard of Green Valley, general chairman of the campaign, kicked off the drive Monday with a donation of $5,000 and in doing so he appealed to all fellow Glengarrians to make a generous response. "Our hospital has already proved it was needed and it has already served a large segment of our population, Mr. Menard noted. It remains for us to put it in a position to serve even better in the years ahead."

The special names committee has been at work for more than a week and Lloyd McHugh reports it is meeting with generous support, especially along Alexandria's Main Street where most of the early canvassing has been done. "We have yet to meet anyone who is cool to the campaign," he noted.

Some 450 canvassers are ready across the county to start the drive for funds on Tuesday, reports C. Campbell Fraser, who with Denis Ethier, Dalkeith, organized the house-to-house canvass.

The last organizational function is set for tonight when members of the clergy of every denomination have been invited to meet at the hospital and lend their support to the drive.

On Friday Radio Station CJSS of Cornwall will program its entire day from the Hub Restaurant, here, with frequent references to the hospital campaign.

Ross MacGillivray Top Plowman As Rain Marred County Match

Heavy rain and drizzle alternated through Tuesday to curb competition in the annual Glengarry Plowing Match and limit attendance to a minimum of the faithful. Only ten plowmen competed, the lowest turnout on record.

The match was held on the farm of Neil MacLean, RR 1 Maxville, and was followed by the annual plowman's dinner in Dunvegan Hall which drew a larger attendance.

Ross MacGillivray of Glen Sandfield, won the Association trophy for "Best plowed ridge by a resident of the county". He also won the Eaton Junior Championship trophy for juniors using a mounted plow with two or more furrows; this was a repeat of his last year victory.

Malcolm McGregor, Williamstown, won the Royal Bank trophy for "Best plowed ridge in Open classes".

The International Harvester Special for top plowing in a Utility Class, mounted plow with three or more furrows was won by George Hay, RR 1 Alexandria.

Class winners were as follows:

Class 3, Tractor Plows, 2-furrow, Open — Malcolm McGregor, Williamstown.

Class 5—Utility Class. Open to all tractor plows—George Hay, RR 1 Alexandria; Stewart Arkinstall, Dunvegan; Donald Munroe, Maxville; Donald McEwen, Maxville.

Class 9—Tractor Plows, mounted, 2-furrows. open to boys and girls, Junior Farms or 4-H Club Members from Glengarry, 16 to 21 years of age—Ross MacGillivray, Glen Sandfield.

Class 11—Tractor Plows, mounted, 2-furrow. Open to boys and girls under 17—Kevin McCormick, RR 1 Alexandria.

Class 12—Tractor Plows, mounted or trailer, three or more furrows. Open to girls and boys under 17—Kenneth Warden, RR 2, Cornwall; Greg Malyon, RR 1 Cornwall.

Class 13—Tractor Plows, mounted or trailer, three or more furrows. Open to boys and girls, 16 to 21—R. J. McCormick, RR 1 Alexandria.

N.B.—Prize money in each of the above classes: 1st $15; 2nd $10; 3rd $8 and $7 for every other worthy entry.

The following specials were donated and won as noted below:

Cash value of $10 donated by the Glengarry Plowmen's Association, for the "best plowed ridge by a new competitor from the County of Glengarry" — Donald Munroe, Maxville.

Grease gun donated by Vincent Barker, Esso Imperial Agent, Alexandria, for the best "Ins" and "Outs" on the field—Malcolm McGregor, Williamstown.

Case of oil donated by Vincent Barker, for the "best plowed ridge

EDITORIAL

IT'S OUR OPINION

How Much Should We Give?

One of the questions being asked organizers of the campaign to aid Glengarry Memorial Hospital is, "How much should people be expected to give"? At organization meetings several canvassers have posed the question, "What should we answer when someone we have approached asks how much he or she is expected to donate to the drive?"

It is a question that might be answered by a canvasser who has some idea of the financial position of the would-be donor. But the only one who can ultimately judge the capacity to contribute is the actual donor.

What the campaign organizers hope he or she will do is contribute generously, taking into cognizance the fact that donations may be in cash or pledged over a period of years. Contributions are deductible under income tax regulations and spreading payments over a term of years may prove advantageous to some donors.

Subscriptions to any public campaign for funds are certain to vary, according to the income, the generosity and the enthusiasm of the people canvassed. Not many will be in a position to match the five thousand dollar donation this week received from Wilfrid Menard, general chairman of the campaign. It constitutes an encouraging send-off to the drive, however, and if Mr. Menard's generous support is emulated by all friends of Glengarry Memorial there should be no question of the campaign falling short of its $200,000 objective.

The role of publicity chairman of the drive does not give this writer the right to assess donations to any group or individuals. He is only expressing his own opinion when he suggests some guidelines which should assure the success of the hospital campaign.

Most Alexandria businessmen, he feels, should be donating in the $500 to $1,000 range. Some may be in a position to give more; special circumstances may ordain a lesser donation for others. He bases this assessment on the fact that most local businesses are benefiting, either directly or indirectly, from the quarter-million dollar annual payroll, and the furnishing of supplies or services to Glengarry Memorial. A donation in this range, spread over a period of years and income tax deductible, should be absorbable by most men in business here.

Businessmen elsewhere in Glengarry may not know equal economic benefits directly from the hospital's cost of operation but they, too, may have customers among the hospital staff. They are certainly beneficiaries, as are all Glengarrians, of the hospital's potential for meeting an emergency or serving the ill.

None of us knows when accident or illness may demand the facilities and trained personnel available so centrally at Glengarry Memorial. Surely a donation of $100 payable over a period, is cheap insurance for farmers and wage-earners. The fact that we now have a hospital gives us the assurance of a doctor's services in time of emergency —something we might not have been certain of before Glengarry Memorial was built.

In suggesting these guidelines to giving we do not want to leave the impression that $100 must be a minimum for the individual, $500 or more for the man in business. This is a public appeal for support of our hospital and every Glengarrian is free to donate to whatever extent he or she wishes.

We have no doubt but that Glengarrians will respond to what we think is a worthwhile appeal.

Much To Be Thankful For

Thanksgiving is traditionally a time for giving thanks but this last long weekend before Christmas probably will be so hectic we'll be forgetting the purpose for which the Pilgrims brought it into being.

The turkey with all the trimmings is meant to remind us how well-stocked is the larder for a long winter; how bounteous the harvest has been, thanks-be to Divine Providence. Most of us are city or town dwellers today, dependent on the supermarket or the corner store for our edibles. But we of the small towns, at least, are close enough to the soil to know that nature was much more generous to our farmer friends this summer of '66 than was their fortune a year ago. There was no drought, the rains came, pastures were verdant, hay was embarrassing in its second coming for some.

Food will not be a problem this winter, if we can meet inflation's price. And today's prices of foodstuffs have little relation to what the primary producer is being paid for them.

We can give thanks this Thanksgiving for a harvest much more satisfactory on the Glengarry scene at least, than was the case in that drought-ridden summer of '65. The farmer is having a better year and as a direct result we imagine most businessmen are knowing a higher gross, even discounting the inflated prices.

They too, should be giving thanks and a most practical way to show that appreciation presents itself next week with opening of the hospital drive.

Is Viateur Ethier A Stooge?

"If the stooges in the House of Commons don't give us a raise, they won't get their Christmas cards."

Fern Lachance, president of the Ottawa local of the Canadian Union of Postal Workers made the above statement at a public meeting last week, notes an editorial in The Chesterville Record. The editorial continues:

"One wonders if responsible leadership is rated according to the public utterances of men like Mr. Lachance. Since when has the estate of the Houses of Parliament fallen so low that men like Lachance can revile the members with impunity?

"Mrs. Jean Wadds is the member for Grenville-Dundas. We have known her for many years. Never has she been a stooge for anyone, and we doubt if ever she will fall into that category. Neither will the Speaker of the House, the Hon. Mr. Lamoureux, member for Stormont.

"It has been rather tiresome lately to listen to the tirades from some of our labor leaders. The railroad strike was a good example. Defiance of the laws of the land were never written into the contracts yet the non-ops were vocal about not going back to work, regardless of the settlement.

"We will defend the right of the union man to get his just and rightful share of this world's goods. If strikes and similar work stoppages are a lawful course to follow, then that right must not be interfered with. But the right to strike does not contain a built-in right on the part of the union man to be unlawful. The right to ask for a revision of a wage contract does not contain the right to publicly vilify one's employers.

"The postal workers feel they have a case when they demand an increase of some $2,000 per year. The figure seems a bit out of line to this observer. They claim they have as much right to around $6,000 a year as a school teacher. That will have to be proven. We live in a world of post office returns. They come to us from all over Canada as we go about our special mailings. If the posties feel they are equal to a school teacher, then they had better go to night school. Some of the reasons for non-delivery of mail would make a Fourth grader blush; the mails must go through, but only if it suits the convenience of the carrier.

"It is time the government took steps to see that essential services are maintained. Union members who find the thought too much to swallow might think about finding less responsible employment."

Bird Watchers Arise!

The opening of the duck hunting season locally last week was marked by a rather dismal ducking, according to report. The way we hear it, one of our local nimrods had launched a canoe on our sewage lagoons to pick up the ducks he had bagged. When the canoe tipped he earned the doubtful title of being the first man to swim in our town's sewage basins.

Which might suggest a new twist to an old saying: "Don't send a man on a dog's errand".

It suggests something entirely different to us.

Other towns which have sewage lagoons have them posted against hunting. The lagoons apparently have a special allure for birds and if our feathered friends, including migrating ducks, are to be encouraged to stop here on their journeys, they should be guaranteed sanctuary.

There are bird watchers among us and it strikes us they should be insisting that the only shooting in the area of our sewage lagoons should be with cameras.

A FARMER'S LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

An Ottawa reader sent us this clipping from the Scottish weekly newspaper "The Sunday Post", with the thought that our readers might find it interesting. We have no doubt but that they will read it through more than once as did your Rambling Reporter.

According to the Scottish weekly it was sent them by the eldest son who asked that it be published as a tribute to his father.

Farmer's Last Will And Testament

Dear Maggie, a' a wife could ever be,
My sons, the finest ony faither kent—
Wull, Andrew, Neil—now I wad bid ye sit.
And listen tae my will and testament.

Wull gets the farm—his richt as eldest son—
But o' this ever mindfu' let him be—
It is his mither's hame, and here she'll bide,
Until it please the Lord tae close her e'e.

A' that is left I equally divide,
Between you, Andrew, and your brither Neil,
Exceptin' these bequests I hereby name
Tae family, freends, and fowk wha served me weel.

Tak' doon my fiddle frae the parlour wall,
Whaur it has hung since a' o' ye were wee,
Keep it for Wullie's bairn—an', by and by,
Teach him the tunes my faither taught tae me.

My auld gold watch and chain tae Neil will go—
My youngest son—and though he's far away,
May it recall tae him the happy hours lang syne
Spent round the fire wi' us, his family.

Andrew, your mither's heart wis prood
When you a minister o' the kirk becam',
The family Bible's yours—turn tae it now
And read the last verse o' the hundredth Psalm.

Tae Jeemy Gibb I leave a hunder pound—
A finer ploo'man Scotland never knew.
Though straight his furrow, straighter yet by far
The man himsel'—a friend baith auld and true.

My shepherd's crook I've had for 60 year,
Together we ha'e rescued mony a lamb.
Tae the Minister I gi'e it, so it may
Remind him who he serves, and whose I am.

Auld Sweep, the collie's gey near feenished noo.
Ower mony a hill we twa ha'e sougth the sheep.
Gi'e him his corner, meat, and whiles a friendly pat,
Until, like me, he sighs and fa's asleep.

Now sons, my last and earnest wish is this—
Your mither wis the apple o' my e'e.
A better wife nae man has ever had—
Remember her, if ye'd remember me.

FOR MEN ONLY

A few weeks back we acknowledged the gift of a jar of Scotch Whisky marmalade which, incidentally, we have been enjoying on our morning toast ever since. We don't use enough of the stuff at any one sitting to warrant a feeling of intoxication and truth to tell we have yet to detect the taste bud of Scotch; but the flavor of fruit is most satisfactory.

In short, this Scotch Whisky marmalade is good stuff and has your Rambling Reporter's recommendation.

R. G. MacGillivray of Kirk Hill, dropped in last weekend to tell us he's tried it too and that it can be purchased in a specialty food store in Cornwall. He didn't linger long.

in the new Glengarry Hospital at Alexandria. On inquiring at the desk, I learned the patient had been dismissed, so that was as far as I got.

One day last week, I went back to the hospital, this time to see my sister. I was directed by a very courteous, nurses aide, in a blue uniform, to the ward where my sister was. I believe it was A.4 on the first floor, so I did not get very far into the building. But this is my reason for this letter.

I have an eye for beauty and cleanliness and I have never seen anything like I saw in that hospital.

The County of Glengarry may well be proud of their hospital. I am sure, only to be taken into such a beautiful hospital if ill, would be in itself, a cure.

I have been in hospitals in Detroit, Mich., in Montreal, Ottawa, Smiths Falls, Winchester and all the hospitals in Cornwall and none could hold a candle to Glengarry Memorial. The walls, lighting, windows, drapes, and the most beautiful tile floors I ever saw; and the furnishings, the beds were such, as I'm sure one would not find in the most modern motel.

I hope the people of Glengarry are as proud of their hospital as I am. It's one of the finest.

Mrs. Jack MacMillan,

Rambling . . .

enough to explain his statement that it's for men only, and only to be used on Sunday's toast. His parting shot was that after the man of the house has spread his toast with this spirited nectar he should use his brute strength to twist the cap of the jar on so tight his wife won't be able to open it and help herself.

Kinda selfish he sounds, but we can see his point. Scotch whisky is a man's drink and wouldn't it be deplorable if the woman of the house developed a taste for the stuff from eating marmalade? Perish the thought!

But this business of Sunday's toast only, we didn't quite fathom. Was R. G. figuring the better the day the better the spread? Or maybe that's the day he gets his own breakfast and he can sneak some of this stuff onto his toast without his woman being aware.

If that's his reasoning we've let the cat out of the bag and we'll be hearing from him again.

TOWNSHIP OF CHARLOTTENBURGH

CENTENNIAL PROJECT VOTE OF THE ELECTORS

Public notice is hereby given that whereas the Municipality's share of the total expenditure involved in the construction of a Multi-Purpose Building, including a Community Hall and an Arena, as a Centennial Project, on land abutting the Fair Grounds in Williamstown, is now found to be $40,000.00 in excess of $56,000.00 at first considered necessary to carry out the project, the Council of the Township of Charlottenburgh deem it desirable to call for a referendum by the electors, entitled to vote on money by-laws, on the following question:

> Are you in favour of the borrowing of money by the Corporation of the Township of Charlottenburgh, in the principal amount of $90,000.00, by the issue and sale of debentures of the Corporation, repayable with interest in equal annual installments of $7,846.61 over a period of 20 years, for the purpose of constructing a Multi-Purpose Building including a Community Hall and an Arena on land abutting the Fair Grounds in Williamstown as a Centennial Project.

And notice is further given that the vote will be taken upon the same question in the manner provided by by-law at a poll to be opened on the

Rochon In 109-Yard TD Run As High Schoolers Stay In Win Column

(by Angus H. McDonell)

Maxville and Vankleek Hill high school football squads hit the win column on the weekend to create a three-way second place tie with Williamstown while GDHS posted its third straight victory, setting the pace at the head of the Interscholastic league, defeating Hawkesbury here on Tuesday. The Hawks have yet to finish in front on the scoreboard.

Last Friday in Maxville the fans saw a tough hard-hitting game that was in doubt all the way until late in the final quarter. In the first half Char-Lan went ahead on a kick to the deadline and nursed this lead until midway in the final period. Maxville quarterback, Don Pilon, who had been sending fullback David Munro, into the line frequently, caught Williamstown with a surprise maneouver when he faked to Munro and then skirted the left end himself for a touchdown. David Munro converted to give Maxville a 7-1 win.

At the same time in Hawkesbury; VCI, with Ian MacRae running wild, outscored the Hawks 26-1; MacRae, who crossed Alexandria's goal line earlier in the week on a history-breaking run, scored all Vankleek Hill's four td's and kicked two converts.

Here on Tuesday in a driving rain and on a greasy gridiron, GDHS scored three majors and a convert as they maintained first place with a 19-0 win over Hawkesbury. In an unusual quarterback gamble by Barry Bethune with eight yards to go on third down, Paul Rochon carried the pigskin for GDHS to score the first td of the game at the half-way mark of the opening quarter. Jack Denovan was wide on the convert try.

Paul Rochon, at the five minute mark of the next frame, raced the length of the field to earn another six pointer and set a record of scoring on an explosive run in two consecutive games. Hawkesbury had GDHS just one yard out from their goal line. On first down Rochon was called in the huddle to run off tackle and carried out the first of this assignment flawlessly with solid blocking. Campbell MacGillivray then roared down field and took out the last Hawk's tackler with a real key block, freeing Rochon to complete a 109-yard run. Jack Donovan was true with the convert.

Before half time Hawkesbury kicked a single but the local students were tagged with a penalty. The visitors elected to take the down over again but fumbled and gave up the ball and the point.

Hawkesbury continued to press in the third quarter and were twice in scoring position inside the local 20 yd. stripe only to lose the ball both times on fumbles.

In the late minutes GDHS pilot, Barry Bethune, tossed a pitch out to fullback Glen MacSweyn on a 15 yard end run play to score the last touchdown. It was not converted and the final count read 19-0.

END ZONE MEMOS

Sport fans in the Glens will be pleased to learn that young Don (Maxville) Blaney is recovering from a recent accident when he suffered head injuries during a softball game . . . Don is back to school, out of football for this season and no hockey at least until January.

Our apologies to VCI Grade 12 student Ian MacRae for tabbing him last week as Ian MacCuaig . . . Ian is a fine football prospect and knows his way around a rink in any junior hockey company.

In the X-Men '66 roster as St. Francis Xavier met Queen's Golden Gaels recently, number 42 was left back Burns MacPherson, 5'11", 190, age 18, Greenfield, Ontario, 1st year Arts . . . should any of you gals wish to drop Burns one of those cute, shy little notes then its St. F.X. Box 164, Antigonish, NS.

Allan O'Brien, another GDHS grad, is class president in his second term at St. Pat's College while still another, Jeanie Morris, heads athletics at 1st year Ottawa Teachers' College.

Last week we compared Paul Rochon's field scampering in a minor way to Alouettes' one time memorable George Dixon . . . Paul justified our appraisal as he ran on one play in Tuesday's game 109 yards against the Hawks, just like Dixon when he set this CFL record at Molson Stadium a few years ago.

Mr. Hampshire dealt with some aspects of the agriculture, customs and culture of his native land, Australia, and illustrated his talks with several colored slides.

Prizes and trophies won were presented at the banquet by the Secretary of the Glengarry Plowmen's Association, J. Y. Humphries.

Lancaster Curlers Seek New Members

Lancaster Curling Club plans to have its ice ready for play by November 1st and now is conducting a drive for new members.

Publicity Chairman Jim Hill has announced that the following appointments have been made by club president Pete Bonneville: Cecil Shennett will take charge of membership; Bunny Polnicki, ways and means; Harold Moran, ice committee; Mac Edwards, match; Len MacLachlan, building and Mr. Hill the publicity.

By Nov. 1 ice should be ready on the rink in Lancaster and the club hopes to get an early start on enrolling new members and giving them a bit of training before winter sets in and serious competition gets started.

This year the club is making a special effort to attract members from a little further afield than formerly and wants it known that it will be happy to get curlers from areas in and near Williamstown, Bainsville, Cornwall, Summerstown and Lancaster.

Quite a number of social events are held during the season including such highlights as the Scotsman's Night, Frenchman's Night, athe dance and buffet supper on Lancaster fish fry and several others still in the planning stage Applications are open and can be by the ways and means committee.submitted to Mr. Shennett of South First event of the season will beLancaster. MIGHTY GOOD IN FACT — WELL OVER DOUBLE THE QUEBEC AVERAGE OF 1.80 TONS (1964) — DOUBLE AND THEN SOME THE ONTARIO AVERAGE OF 1.76 TONS (1965).

This year (1966) M. Côté took over 90 tons of hay off 20 acres — not half bad! M. Côté doesn't count on luck. He does count on his own good land management and SHUR-GAIN Fertilizers.

To make every acre of hay land produce well over twice the average acre of hay land, this spring M. Côté applied SHUR-GAIN 10-10-10 at a rate of 350 lbs. per acre. The return he got on his SHUR-GAIN fertilizer investment is the return you can get when you use SHUR-GAIN.

See your local Shur-Gain fertilizer dealer for all your fall and spring fertilizer requirements. Ask him too about the Shur-Gain soil sampling service. You'll be glad you did.

Léonard Côté farms near Ste-Brigitte-des-Saults in Nicolet county — good Three Rivers, hay country.

To Make Home In Verdun

ZINTEL—EMBERG

The marriage of Miss Mary Margaret Emberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Emberg of Verdun, Que., to Mr. Henry Zintel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Zintel of Verdun, took place recently in St. Thomas Moore Church, Verdun. Rev. Donald Whitton officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was in an organza gown with lace appliques. Her bouffant veil of tulle illusion was held by a flowered headdress. She carried a bouquet of pink baby roses and white stephanotis.

Mrs. Sandra Birch was matron of honor. Mrs. Sonia Emberg sister-in-law of the bride and Miss Sharon Emberg, Cornwall, Ont., cousin of the bride, as bridesmaids, were in turquoise gowns with matching head pieces.

Mr. Robert Birch was best man. The ushers were Mr. Jack Zintel, brother of the groom, and Mr. James Emberg, brother of the bride.

Following the reception held at the LaSalle Golf and Country Club, Mr. and Mrs. Zintel flew to Bermuda. The bride travelled in a white and brown oyster linen ensemble with white accessories.

Guests attending the wedding were from New Jersey, Halifax, Montreal, Ottawa, Rougemont, Cornwall and Alexandria.

They will reside in Verdun, Que.

GLENGARRY HISTORICAL NOTES

by HUGH MacMILLAN

Early Buildings In Glengarry

One of Glengarry's assets that is perhaps not fully appreciated, is its many fine old buildings. These range from some of the best examples of early log houses remaining in the province, to the many fine residences dating back as early as 1787. We have some of the earliest churches, municipal buildings, and commercial buildings. Of the latter perhaps our early stone mills are the most interesting. Kenyon Township hall is our best municipal building. The old Williamstown public school soon to be a N.W. Co. museum, is one of our better "Georgian" styled buildings.

Prof. William Goulding of the School of Architecture, University of Toronto, spoke at a recent meeting of the Glengarry Historical Society in Williamstown. His subject was the Ontario government's inventory of buildings, built before 1855. This inventory is going on across the province and is being conducted under his direction, by local historical societies and other interested groups. Already, interested persons in the county are at work on this project. Perhaps the person furthest ahead on this worthwhile project is Mrs. Keith Franklin at St. Elmo. She has been quietly going about the county photographing and recording details about many of our early buildings. She is to be commended for starting this project on her own, and after Prof. Gouldings' thought-provoking talk, she will get support from the Historical Society.

As many of us know, a large percentage of our early buildings of architectural merit have over the years fallen down through disuse, or have been torn down to make way for modern buildings, in many cases mediocre in appearance. In other cases fine buildings have been so altered, through the use of insul siding and other modern building materials, as to be almost unrecognizable. It is to be hoped that the publicizing of this inventory will tend to arrest this wholesale destruction of good buildings that could, and should, stand as a memorial to our early craftsmen. It takes in some cases, people from our cities to come in and recognize the merits of these buildings. We see all around us examples of persons from Montreal and Ottawa who have bought up old farmhouses and restored them to their original appearance. Architects and advisers such as Prof. Goulding, Peter Stokes, Napier Simpson, V. B. Blake, Tony Adamson are at work across the province helping in this restoration trend.

One might ask wnere are these good buildings? They are all around us. Alexandria, Kirk Hill, Williamstown, St. Raphael's, Breadalbane, Glen Nevis, Martintown, Lancaster and several other points in the county have some of the most outstanding stone and frame churches in the province.

As for private homes they are too numerous to list, but a few would be, the Thompson-Bethune house at Williamstown and the "Manor House" at the same place. The beautiful French-Canadian style stone house of the late Col. Angus Cattanach at Dalhousie. In Alexandria we have the McDonell house, now the Kinghts of Columbus hall and Garry Fen, former home of Hon. Donald A. "Sandfield" Macdonald. Lancaster has the old Cameron home that was used by the troops during the war of 1812, now owned by Hugh Fitzpatrick, also the "Moose Head Inn". I could go on for pages with this list, but that can be better done by publishing through this paper, the results of the inventory. This will be so extensive it will have to be done over a long period of time.

Most towns in Glengarry have interesting commercial buildings right on their main streets, many of which could stand a facelifting. Not that they are rundown now, but in many cases a few inexpensive changes would restore them to their original elegance. This is particularly true in Alexandria which has many fine Victorian store fronts. A restoration of these by merchants would add to the appearance of the town. The same could apply to the Glengarry golf club house. Here we have an early 19th century house that if restored to its original appearance would be one of the most outstanding golf club houses in the province. It is not every golf club that can boast a club house built before 1820.

Early stone grist mills usually lend themselves to being restored. They were solid buildings to start with. Some have been converted to houses or offices. The publisher of this paper recently came up with an excellent idea in an editorial to use the mill in our town square. It would lend itself to town offices as good, or better, than some modern building. The town might well consider this building for their offices. The earliest mill near Alexandria was about a mile east of town on the McCormick road. Stuart McCormick plans a painting of this scene. Allan Cameron built the next mill in Lochiel about 1817 on lot 8 con 7. A group of touring clergymen in 1864 commented on Alexandria as follows. "The village is not without attractions. Here Donald "Sandfield" Macdonald has his steam flour mill and one of the most neatly laid out farms in the county." This is the building that could be restored for a town office.

DUNVEGAN

A number from this community were in Vankleek Hill on Thursday evening, to attend the annual turkey supper in Knox Presbyterian Church.

Miss Dolly MacPhee, who spent the summer months with her aunt, Miss Sara MacPhee, has returned to Montreal.

Mrs. Forbes MacKinnon, and her daughter, Mrs. Duncan MacDonald, McCrimmon, were in Montreal on Saturday, and visited Mr. and Mrs. Alex Williams and family at Greenfield Park.

Duncan Kennedy of Hallville, and MacRae Kennedy of Carleton University, Ottawa, were weekend visitors with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kennedy.

Mrs. Jessie Reid, and Miss Harriet Campbell, Cornwall, made several calls in the Village on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard MacGillivray and Miss Mary MacGillivray, Cornwall, visited on Sunday with Misses Katie and Christena Urquhart.

PICNIC GROVE

WI MET

The Picnic Grove WI met in the Picnic Grove Home on Sept. 27th with Mrs. Ken Allen presiding. The roll call "name a product made from a Canadian tree' was answered by 13 members. We were reminded of the fashion show of ancient costumes to be held in Cornwall Collegiate Oct. 24th at 8 p.m. Tickets obtainable from the Board of Trade or Mrs. Philips. No delegate was available for the area convention to be held Oct. 19-20th. Mrs. Clifford Wightman reported that her committee had succeeded in finding a contestant for the Lancaster township centennial queen contest, namely Miss Helen MacCuaig.

The anniversary tea committee plans were submitted to the meeting for approval by Mrs. Alex MacNaughton, this tea to be held Oct. 5th. Plans for a bazaar, tea and bake sale to be held Nov. 12th were also discussed.

The standing committee reported with Mrs. Hartley MacCrimmon reading an article on home made quilts. Mrs. Donald MacLachlan read an interesting item on fluoridation of water in Alberta. Mrs. A. Clark led a study on the hand book dealing with the constitution and life membership.

The program was then turned over to Mrs. A. Smith, convener of Canadian Industry. Mrs. George Fourney commented very fittingly on the motto "only he knows perfect joy whose little bit of soil is richer ground than what it was when he began to toil". Mrs. Alex MacNaughton gave a reading on the beauty of Nova Scotia and a little bit of it's history.

A film procured from the Bell Telephone Co. of Canada by Mrs. A. Smith showing the development of "The DEW Line" was then shown.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Stanley Wightman, Mrs. Clifford Wightman and Mrs. Gordon Ferguson served a delicious lunch.

MOOSE CREEK

GRANDMOTHERS ENTERTAINED AT MOOSE CREEK

The grandmothers of the Moose Creek community were entertained at the July meeting of the Moose Creek Branch of the Women's Institute on Thursday evening, July 21st, in the Community Hall.

Mrs. Chris. Walton, 1st vice-president, chaired the meeting. The address of welcome to all grandmothers was given by Mrs. Maurice Razeau and Mrs. E. L. Blair replied.

Community singing was enjoyed by all present with Mrs. Stanley at the piano, Miss Kathy Dore favored with two vocal solos. Miss Lyma Robertson rendered several selections on the accordian. Mrs. Edwin Nelson chose two appropriate numbers in song, accompanied by Mrs. McKay.

Mrs. Menzies McRae conducted a Pie Contest, each person guessing the correct number of pieces cut in a 10 inch raisin pie. The contest was won by Mrs. John Copeland. Mrs. William Urquhart won the contest for the grandmother wearing the most sensible shoes, especially the heels. The judges were Mrs. Menzies McRae and Mrs. Stanley McKay.

Mrs. Elmer McDermid, Historical Convener, read the history of the Roxborough Baptist Church. The church is 101 years old and the history was compiled by Mrs. Currie E. Blair. A contest of tape recording was much enjoyed when the group was divided into small groups for singing, and the voices were heard later on the recorder. The judges for this contest were Mrs. Edwin Nelson and Mrs. Earl MacNeil. The door prize was won by Mrs. William MacIntosh.

Mrs. Currie Blair, president, conducted the business portion of the meeting. The branch will purchase a kitchen stove for use in the Community Hall. Several members plan to attend the banquet in the Cornwallis Hotel, Cornwall in September when the guest speaker will be Dr. Charlotte Whitton, Ex-Mayor of Ottawa. The members accepted the invitation extended from the Cornwall Centre Branch to meet with them on August 9th.

Presbytery Asked To Support Drive For United Theological College

The Very Rev. J. S. Thomson, Montreal, former moderator of the United Church of Canada and a former principal of the United Theological College sought the generosity of Glengarry Presbytery to make a contribution over a possible three-year period towards a building campaign for the college.

Dr. Thomson was a guest speaker at the Glengarry Presbytery held at the Glen Sandfield United Church, Thursday, September 29.

"The church began in a theological college with a Master and His disciples," he said. "It was never more necessary than today that we have a well-educated and well-prepared ministry," he continued.

The United Theological College organized in 1873, is affiliated with McGill University, but the time has come when McGill needs the space utilized by the college.

The Montreal Diocesan Theological College has provided space for the college principal, staff and some of the students until other plans can be made. Through this arrangement the Anglican and United Church are working together in close association achieving a spirit of ecumenicity.

Students meeting together for lectures, in the common rooms, for meals and worship form an agreeable temporary setup, but the needs are vital for a residence offices for administration and faculty, rooms for worship and a social centre for United Chnrch students and their chaplain at McGill.

"We may be looking forward to a time when we can really have an active embodiment which now is a temporal experiment and eventually have a united college, now that the Anglican Synod has agreed to go forward with union", he said. "Even so, there is still a necessity for a building campaign."

"We are going to ask the churches to show their interest and support of the college, by participating in this campaign."

Over a million and three-quarter dollars will be needed although no budget has been fixed to date. The Presbytery of Montreal has launched the campaign with a goal of $500,000, while Ottawa Presbytery begins a 4-year campaign to raise $75,000. Glengarry Presbytery being within the bounds of the college could consider $25,000. 'This is the only theological college that has not made an appeal for funds", Dr. Thomson confided.

A motion was made from the floor to Rev. J. Clare Kellogg, chairman of the Presbytery that the chairman and a committee of two other members accept this challenge and present a report at the next meeting.

Donald Rodney Sheets of Knox United Church, Cornwall, now studying at McMaster University, was accepted as a candidate for the ministry by the Presbytery. Under the Colleges and Students report presented by Rev. W. H. Baugh, assistance will be given to Gary Quart, United Theological College; Dick Schell, Victoria University; and Arnold McDonald, Waterloo Lutheran University, who are also sponsored by the Presbytery.

Three new members were welcomed to the court of the church, Rev. Ernest Barratt, Vankleek Hill; Rev. W. H. Baugh, Newington; and Rev. W. E. Henderson, Maxville.

Mr. Kellogg received reports on Evangelism and Social Service, Publications by Rev. G. E. Macpherson; Property, Communications, Christian Education by Rev. G. E. Clifford; and Missionary and Maintenance by Rev. D. W. Pipe.

Illuminating reports were given by commissioners to the 22nd General Council of the United Church held recently in Waterloo. C. Campbell Fraser who spoke on the physical aspects of the council, also referred to the fact that for the first time in the history of the council, two official observers from the Roman Catholic Toronto attended sessions and were impressed by the democracy of the proceedings. "The spirit of ecumenicity preoccupied the meetings" he said.

Rev. H. W. Giffin spoke on the highlights and Rev. Kellogg reviewed the debates on church union. He said that no one spoke in opposition but there are many searching questions yet to be answered before union. The matter of bishops, the apostolic succession and the organization of women are a few of those under surveillance. "The United Church does accept the principles of union, only on the understanding that they are not final and must be changed in certain ways before they can be adopted by the United Church," he said.

The morning session was concluded with a communion service conducted by Rev. Kellogg and Rev. Leonard S. Woolfrey, the minister of the charge, who was host for the day's sessions. Mrs. D. M. Macleod was organist.

A vote of thanks at the conclusion of the afternoon meeting was made by Rev. John Hurst, Presbytery secretary, to the women of the church who served dinner and afternoon tea.

Training Course For Leaders Studies "Vegetables With A Flair"

"Vegetables with a Flair" is the current topic of interest to six women's organizations in Glengarry County. A training school for leaders for the course was held September 26 and 27, at the United Church Hall, Alexandria. Twelve ladies, representing the six groups, attended the two-day training school.

At the training school, sponsored by the Home Economics Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food, the leaders received instruction in the latest ideas for vegetable cooking. Combinations of vegetables, seasonings, salad suggestions, vegetable garnishes and other points were included in the course.

Some of the recipes demonstrated to the leaders were a grated carrot casserole, squash souffle, oriental asparagus, mandarin peas, a jellied salad, caesar salad and dressing. The leaders enjoyed practising the art of making vegetable garnishes. A filmstrip "A Guide to Vegetables" was shown.

During the next four months the leaders will be conducting classes similar to the training school. On Friday, January 27, 1967, a summary day will be held as a conclusion to the course. The classes in Alexandria were conducted by Miss Barbara Foreman, Home Economist, Home Economics Branch, Ontario Dept. of Agriculture and Food, Toronto and Mrs. Alison Murray, County Home Economist.

Participating groups and leaders were: Lochiel CWL, Mrs. Margaret McCormick, Mrs. Roger Theoret; Glen Nevis CWL, Mrs. Ranald V. McDonald, Mrs. Bernard MacDonald; Alexandria UCW, Mrs. D. J. Baxter; Summerstown WI, Mrs. Oliver McGee, Mrs. Wesley Millar; St. Lawrence WI, Miss Bessie Cumming, Mrs. Lalonde; Martintown WI, Mrs. George Kinloch, Mrs. M. Kennedy, Mrs. E. Sansom.

And we are neighbours at the Co-op . . .
While not exactly next door we are just a short distance away from you. You have probably wondered just who and what the Co-op is.
Well, the Co-op is an organization formed and owned by the people of this community, where they pool their buying power for greater value. Organized co-operation like this has worked since 1917.
Now, this co-operative plan is being offered to "town folk" in the form of the CO-OP Sunglo Fuel Oil Program. We feel sure that you and your neighbours will want to share the benefits of dealing with the local Co-op. A call to us will bring full details about the program, convenient budget terms and the new Summer Fill plan.

double your money with Canada Savings Bonds Centennial Series

Centennial Series Canada Savings Bonds offer you their highest interest yield ever—5.48% a year when held to maturity.

The new Bonds pay annual interest at the rate of 5% for each of the first four years; 5½% for each of the next three years; 5¾% for the following year and 6% for each of the last five years—a total of $72.25 in interest on every $100 Bond.

And for the first time, there is a special compound interest option. To take full advantage of it, leave all the annual interest uncollected until Nov. 1, 1979, and you will get interest on your interest, amounting to $27.75 extra on every $100 Bond.

It all adds up to total interest of $100 on every $100 Bond. It's a safe, sure way to save. DOUBLE YOUR MONEY with Canada Savings Bonds Centennial Series.

This Series retains all the traditional features which make Canada Savings Bonds Canada's most favoured investment.

They are still easy to buy for cash or on instalments where you work, bank or invest. You may buy as little as $50 or as much as $10,000. Every Canadian resident may buy up to this limit. So can estates.

They are still simple to cash, anytime, at any bank in Canada for their full face value plus earned interest. Just fill out the redemption form on the Bond, present it to your bank and you'll get your money right away.

And now they're better than ever to keep with the highest interest yield ever and interest on interest. DOUBLE YOUR MONEY with Canada Savings Bonds Centennial Series.

SPORTS in the GLENS

by ANGUS H. McDONELL

While browsing through the weekend press, we noted a couple items in print and photo that cast a sombre cloud across an otherwise delightful two days of Fall sunshine.

First the News carried the demise of the last local train and added fine editorial comment. Then the Ottawa Journal pictured the demolition of the train shed at the old Union Station. Quite a coincidence but one that was justified as Ottawa-Alexandria and local trains were linked by ties, including sport, other than those anchored in the rock ballast with spiked rails.

This writer's first interests of boyhood were naturally trains and lacrosse as we lived in the then North limits of Montreal noted for Mile End Station, Outremont yards and Shamrock lacrosse grounds. Our affinity with the local station began in the next phase of our youth as we attended public school, Third Kenyon, and frequently met the local trains as dad, a CP engineer, commuted from Montreal to Highland Chief.

In that distant era it wasn't necessary to carry a pocket watch. While working in the fields the CN trains were a reliable time piece. In the early morning No. 2 (Vancouver-Montreal) usually rolled through the Buffalo Cut shortly after seven. You could be certain of 10 a.m. as 48 was rarely late. Even the way-freight, with Borden's (Maxville) milk car next to the van, could be counted on shortly after dinner hour. The pride of the CN (Eastbound) was No. 50, the Washingtonian, due at 4.47 p.m. There was always a diner and chair car on the tail end to accommodate government officials travelling from Ottawa to Washington.

For some unknown reason westbound trains were frequently late. Forty seven met 48 in Alexandria allowing for a short time lapse when necessary. Fifty-one, coupled with the whistles of Munro's and Schell's, were musical notes at six p.m. drawing to a close another day.

But the most important daily was due, for many years, at 11.55 p.m., No. 1, (Montreal-Vancouver) which always stopped to detrain passengers from Montreal and pick up travellers to Ottawa and West.

Webster defines an institution as "A society for promoting any objective." The CN local station society that promoted as its objective, service, good will and public appreciation, seldom equalled anywhere, was headed for several decades by one of the great railway representatives of all time—George Shepherd.

It has been truthfully said that George Shepherd was so devoted to his railway work that he only went home to eat and sleep.

George Shepherd was always nattily dressed in the traditional blue serge with station agent's cap. He had all the answers and if he wasn't in the station you would see him with a freight brakeman lining up the spotting or pick up of cars that served the surrounding area as well as local industries, then booming as today.

George Shepherd had the faculty of attracting personnel endowed, like himself, with railway knowledge and personality. George Layland, who was with him possibly the longest and now retired in Cornwall was an expert at handling express. In addition George was in a class by himself, possessing a combined railway dialect liberally sprinkled with his own adjectives that made him amusing and incomparable.

At one time or another the expressmen with horse and wagon serving the CN were Arnold "Sod" Weir, Jerry and Leonard Gagnier. Among other staff members we recall Donald John "Little Archie" McMillan, Joe (Earl's father) Leroux and Henry Pigeon (now retired in Renfrew).

Among the many, many telegraph operators who served under George Shepherd, Duncan Angus (Alec Roy) McDonald will always be remembered as one who carried out the Shepherd tradition of service to the letter. Especially with reference to arrival time of No. 2. Dunc McDonald always handled the night trick and should you phone early in the a.m. inquiring about No. 2, if Dunc did not know he got in touch with the Ottawa despatcher (before Joe Corbett retired) and the answer you got would be always accurate.

Obviously the CN, trains, station and staff, was one of the main arteries in which the economic lifehood of Alexandria and district flowed. Sport, to a degree, may be added.

Older scouts will tell you of Ottawa Capitals, Montreal Shamrock seconds or Cornwall lacrosse teams arriving on morning trains, then leaving that evening after a game with Alexandria at the Fair Grounds.

8—In Memoriam

FRASER—In loving memory of a dear sister-in-law, Miss Katie Ann Fraser, who departed this life October 9th, 1965.
Beautiful memories are wonderful things,
They last to the longest day,
They never wear out, and they never get lost,
And can never be taken away.
—Always remembered by Sarah.
—Ottawa. 40-1c

MacRAE—In loving memory of a dear grandfather, Kenneth W. MacRae who passed away Oct. 13, 1965.
Though his smile is gone forever,
And his hand we cannot touch,
Still we have so many memories,
Of the one we loved so much.
Those who have a grandfather,
Cherish him with care,
You never know the heartaches,
Till you see his vacant chair.
—Ever remembered by grandchildren, Eileen and Kennie.
Dunvegan, Ont. 40-1c

MacRAE—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Kenneth W. MacRae who passed away Oct. 13, 1965.
There's an open gate at the end of the road,
Through which each must go alone.
And there in a light we cannot see
Our Father claims His own;
Beyond the gate our loved one
Finds happiness and rest,
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.
—Ever remembered by Sadie, Dan, Catherine, Cecil and Neilena.
Dunvegan, Ont. 40-1c

REEVES—In a loving memory of a dear mother who passed away October 5th, 1943.
Life goes on and years pass by
But memories of you will never die.
—Ever remembered by daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Salyme Brunet.
Verdun. 40-1c

VACHON—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Joseph Vachon, who passed away October 10th, 1962.
Calm and peaceful he is sleeping,
Sweetest rest that follows pain;
We who loved him sadly miss him,
But trust in God to meet again.
—Always remembered by wife and children.
Alexandria, Ont. 40-1p
