Township fighting for schools

Now that two of the township's three elementary public schools are slated to be closed, Roxborough is trying to get the school board to reconsider its decision.

Township Council voted at last week's meeting to request that the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry County Board of Education reconsider its decision to close the Monkland and Roxborough public schools.

The council delegated Councillor Ray Alguire to take the request to last night's school board meeting. Part of the argument against the school closing is an article in the Ontario government publication "Background" which sets forth an argument already used in the campaign to keep the two Roxborough and three other threatened public schools open.

The argument stated that since a school closing is an act that has so many serious effects upon the community in which the school was located, a school closing should only be a last desperate recourse.

As well, Township Clerk W.E. Wright, says three projects recently approved by the provincial government will increase the population of the township near the schools.

Two of the three projects are subdivision developments approved in 1979 and 1980.

Nineteen homes have been built in one of these subdivisions, on Hwy 43, but so far only a few of these homes have been occupied due to legal problems after the death of the subdivision's owner.

The other project is a market gardening complex which Mr. Wright says should bring 40, likely European, families into the area presently served by Roxborough Public School in Moose Creek.

Mr. Wright also says the township will be sending a questionaire around in the next township tax billing in an attempt to gauge public opinion in the matter of the closing.

Firemen respond to three blazes

The Lancaster Fire Department was called out three times in the last couple of weeks.

The department answered the call to two grass fires and to a car fire.

The car fire took place on the evening of April 7, on the edge of old Highway 2 near Curry Hill. The automobile that burned had no licence plates and there was nobody in possession of the vehicle.

The other two fires were grass fires, one near North Lancaster on County Road 18, and the other in the Second Concession of Lancaster. Both fires were threatening buildings.

Fire officials expressed concern about the number of out-of-control grass fires started in the Spring. In Lancaster Township, those who start fires where the Fire Department has to be called in are billed by the township.

Girl dies when hit by auto

A six-year-old girl was struck by a car and killed Monday morning, when she ran across County Road 18 in front of her grandmother's home.

Lise Lebrun, a Grade One student at Iona Academy in St. Raphael's, died after being struck by an eastbound car on the Brown House-North Lancaster road, about two miles east of the Brown House.

Apparently the girl was running to join her older brother and sister waiting for the school bus, which was about a quarter mile away at the time of the accident. The driver of the bus, Claire Major of RR2 Green Valley, was the first to reach the child's body after the accident. Mrs. Major put a blanket around the child and called her dispatcher who, in turn, called the Ontario Provincial Police at Lancaster.

Mrs. Major says that she could feel no pulse when she checked the child's body, but that she had wrapped the girl up because she "just couldn't believe" that the girl was dead.

After the OPP arrived on the scene, the girl was taken by ambulance to Glengarry Memorial Hospital where she was declared dead on arrival.

The girl's funeral and burial were held this morning at St. Margaret of Scotland Church in Glen Nevis.

Lise is the daughter of Gerard and Murielle Lebrun and the sister of Nicole, 12, and Marc, 8.

Lancaster OPP say that no charges will be laid against the driver of the car that struck the child. They also declined to release the driver's name.

Blood donors dropped

The Spring blood donor clinic held last Wednesday at St. Joseph School in Alexandria saw a significant drop in number of sponsors in comparison to the previous year.

This year's turnout of 132 compared to a 1980 total of 190 donors.

The clinic is co-sponsored by the Alexandria Knights of Columbus and the Daughters of Isabella.

"We were somewhat disappointed with the turnout", said Grand Knight Duncan Morris, "because the event was well advertised".

Local milk producers give support to Ontario Milk Marketing Board

Glengarry-Prescott-Russell and Stormont County members of the Ontario Milk Marketing Board aren't beefing about this year's operation of the provincial board.

County representatives endorsed policies on quota, a graduated entry to the Group I fluid milk producers pool, and the switch to somatic cell counts in milk testing at the Region I Spring meeting held last Wednesday at the Bonnie Glen.

Ken McKinnon, OMMB chairman said that this Eastern Ontario Regional meeting was in accord with other regional meetings held thus far. With only two regional meetings remaining, McKinnon said that this year's meetings have been the quietest since the board was formed more than 12 years ago.

The board represents all of Ontario's nearly 12,000 milk producers in both fluid milk and industrial milk production areas.

In addressing the area producers, Mr. McKinnon defended the national dairy policy against criticism from two consumer associations, the Canadian Consumer Association and the Retail Council of Canada, for inflated milk prices.

The pricing controversy has been aggravated by lack of acceptable data on milk production and pricing in different parts of the country, he said.

The chairman told the local dairy farmers that they should consider what direction the OMMB should be taking during the 1980s and discuss it with their county milk committees.

Marina channel plan shelved by Conservation Authority

The Raisin Region Conservation Authority decided Thursday to shelve a $32,000 channel improvement project for the Gray's Creek Marina Area.

Authority Chairman Ken MacLennan suggested it would be "poor business to put any money in because we'll never get it back."

Charlottenburgh Township representative Robert Roth said "it would not be a judicious way of spending our taxpayers' dollars."

Although the provincial government heavily subsidized the original cost of the marina, it has indicated it is no longer prepared to invest money in the scheme.

Last year, the Authority gave the Glengarry Marina Operators Association a three-year contract to run the 50-slip marina.

However, some boat owners complained about the narrow channel and some ran aground on shallow water at the mouth of the Gray's Creek which empties into the St. Lawrence River.

The Authority hired engineering consultants to prepare estimates on alleviating the problem.

The firm, Kostuch Engineering Ltd., estimated the cost of channel improvements at $26,000 if the illegal boathouses were removed and $32,000 if the new channel had to be swung away from the boathouses.

The $32,000 estimate did not include any possible cost of obtaining land from the Cornwall Racquet Club which is necessary to build the new channel.

Mr. Roth said that not only was the expenditure questionable but it would also be unwise to undertake such a project until a decision is made about the boathouses.

The west side of the creek's mouth is lined by boathouses which the province has said it wants removed.

A special committee composed of Cornwall officials and boathouse owners is trying to find ways of complying with the provincial position.

Fatal dog disease found in Alexandria

An outbreak of the fatal canine disease, parovirus, may be imminent following a discovery of a case in Alexandria last week, warns Dr. Harry Abbey.

The Lancaster veterinarian said the case is the first he has discovered in Glengarry but an outbreak in Ottawa last year claimed many dogs.

The disease, which attacks the white blood cells, is "very contagious," the doctor said, and death will occur in 36 hours unless the animal undergoes a blood transfusion.

The disease is spread by the urine, feces or saliva of the dog.

Dogs can be vaccinated against the disease. Two needles must be taken over a two to four-week period followed by annual booster shots.

Dr. Abbey said the disease is similar to the virus which causes distemper in cats.

The virus attacks and destroys the white blood cells making it impossible for the body to combat the disease.

Even injections of antibodies are useless because the white cells are needed to fight disease. This is why a blood transfusion is the only hope, the doctor explained.

The doctor said the case he discovered was north of the tracks in Alexandria around Glengarry Feeds Ltd.

Anyone who expects their dog to be near others should get the vaccination, Dr. Abbey suggested.

Kennel owners should insist that dogs be vaccinated before admitting them, he said, because the disease is so deadly and so easily spread.

Customer always right

Demand brings strippers back

The new owner of the Ottawa Hotel in Alexandria says she "tried to get away from" having unclad go-go dancers at her hotel but the resultant clamor by clients forced their return.

Suzanne Clement said she got rid of the go-go dancers for two weeks, soon after she took over the hotel on March 13. However, because of the uproar from her patrons, Mrs. Clement restored the dancers.

In the autumn of 1980 Gerard Massie and the Knights of Columbus conducted a campaign to ban nude entertainment in Alexandria.

Mrs. Clement says she originally got rid of the dancers because she "just can't see it (as entertainment)".

Mrs. Clement says the demand leaves her with no way out of the situation.

Since she has taken over the hotel, Mrs. Clement has changed the furniture in the lounge, but has no major changes planned in the near future.

Mrs. Clement has kept Hubert Lapierre as Manager. She purchased the hotel from Leroux and Lefebvre Investments.

Town spending $15,000 on new lights

Alexandria has decided to change its lighting system on town streets from Mercury Vapor to Sodium Luminaire—a new type of light which is more efficient.

Council approved a gradual changeover to the new system on Tuesday evening, commencing with a 10 per cent changeover for the current year at a cost of $15,000.

The budget for lighting as set by the Fire and Light Committee recently stands at $32.784 for 1981 compared with $22,700 for 1980.

Two other committee recommendations were passed by council. Firemen will be enrolled in an Extended Health Care Plan on a 50-50 basis and the town will make a donation of $250 to the Iroquois Firefighters' Fund.

The 1981 Fire Department Budget was set at $68,619 for expenditures and $48,500 for revenues, giving a net cost of $20,119 for 1981 as compared to a net cost of $23,021 for 1980.

Business ventures endorsed

Charlottenburgh Township Council endorsed two new business ventures last week.

Rainer Bauer received support for his bid to start an automobile repair shop on Hwy 2 near Charlottenburgh Park, while Robert St. Denis will open a used car sales office on the Glen Road about a mile west of Summerstown Road.

Mr. Bauer said he and his father, Martin, will erect a new building and specialize in transmissions and tune-ups.

Mr. St. Denis said he and a partner, Wayne MacGillivary, intend to sell a few cars as a sideline from the MacGillivary property.

Both men work for Kraft.

Mr. St. Denis assured council he would not be keeping wrecks on the site and said any repair work would be done at an established garage at another location.

Notice

As this Friday is Good Friday, the News office will not be open on that day. The office will open again on Monday, April 20.

Authority assets up to almost $5 million

The assets of the Raisin Region Conservation Authority have mushroomed to $4.9 million in only one year, the 1980 auditors' report shows.

From 1966, when it was formed, to 1979, the Authority accumulated only $1.6 million worth of assets.

General Manager Jay Currier said the massive jump over a one-year period is a result of major projects which the Authority has initiated, such as the Fly Creek channel improvement program in Cornwall and the channelization of the main branch of the Raisin River.

Mr. Currier said the Authority has become very active in water management projects recently in response to requests from its member municipalities.

Alexandria has asked the Authority to embark on a major program to improve the Garry River system.

First phase of the project, to begin this year, is reconstruction of Alexandria Dam.

Information centre open to everybody

A centre that can provide educational services that range from literacy training to university studies and that can provide the community with a full range of educational and cultural events is located in the St. Lawrence College-University of Ottawa Education Centre at Windmill Point.

The Education Centre has been in existence since 1976 when the college and the university signed an agreement to share all non-academic services such as the library, health services, counciling services, etc., as well as the physical facilities at Windmill Point.

Rachel McEwen dies at age of 102

The death occurred on March 26 of Mrs. A. J. (Rachel) McEwen at Bestview Lodge in Cornwall, at the age of 102.

She was born in Scotland at Berwick-on-Tweed, the daughter of Robert Watson and Agnes Taylor. At the age of six the deceased emigrated to Canada with her family and settled in Winchester. Mrs. McEwen attended the local schools and in 1905 graduated from the Women and Children's Hospital in Syracuse, NY. Part of her nursing life was spent in the Winchester area before going to Ottawa. Finally she returned to Maxville where she met and later married A. J. McEwen on April 18, 1913. A. J. predeceased her on February 29, 1928.

Mrs. McEwen nursed in the community of Maxville for a few years then managed the local Bell Telephone Co. office for 12 years She was a faithful member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and the Women's Missionary Society.

There were three children: one son, John Watson who predeceased his mother by two weeks; Agnes (Mrs. D. Archie Campbell) and Catherine (Mrs. Bev. G. McKay). Nine grandchildren and one great grandchild also survive.

The funeral was held at the Munro Funeral Home on Saturday. The service was conducted by Rev. D. N. McMillan of Finch who gave the comforting message of her long life. Interment was in Maxville cemetery.

The pallbearers were four grandsons: Fraser and Murray McEwen; Bruce McKay and Glen Campbell.

Urges conservation

Dairy farmers can save on energy costs by using waste heat from milk to warm water used in washing and sanitizing equipment.

"Milk has to be cooled from 38°C to 2°C for safe storage until it is shipped to the processor," explained Don Marshall, an engineer at Agriculture Canada's Engineering and Statistical Research institute in Ottawa.

"The heat given off in the cooling process is currently wasted but it could easily be used to heat the water needed to wash and sanitize the milking equipment," Mr. Marshall said.

The refrigeration unit used to keep the milk cool is similar to the home regrigerator. A coil within the tank absorbs the heat which is then transferred through the compressor to a second coil outside the tank where it is given off into the air.

Councillor named

Warren Milnes was appointed to fill the vacant seat in Lancaster Village Council at the April 7 meeting. Milnes was runner-up from a group of seven candidates seeking a seat in last November's municipal election. Mrs. Joan Conway had previously resigned before leaving the area.

ST. ANDREW'S EVENING AUXILIARY HOLDS EASTER MEETING

"Darkness and then the Dawn" was the theme of the Easter meeting of St. Andrew's Evening Auxiliary which was held in the school room of the church on April 7. President Mrs. E. Carter welcomed the gathering. Several Scripture passages were read by Mrs. D. F. Munro and Mrs. J. R. Kennedy, and Mrs. N. D. Ferguson led in prayer. Mrs. H. A. Cumming gave the meditation "Prepare for Easter." Mrs. G. Zoellner sang two solos and Mrs. H. Graham was pianist for the singing of the hymns. The minutes of the March meeting were read, the treasurer's report given, and the offering taken. The members were reminded of the supply fund, and the meeting closed with prayer. Mrs. J. R. Kennedy presided over the brief Ladies Aid meeting that followed. The date of the Spring Buffet has been changed—it will now be held on Saturday, May 2 from 5 to 8 p.m. The meeting closed with prayer, and a social hour followed, with Mrs. Graham, Mrs. George Heinsma, Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Eldred Scott as hostesses.

ERWIN SHIELDS CHANGES OCCUPATION

There will certainly be a change on the school bus this Monday morning—Erwin Shields has given up driving the Public School bus, after more than 10 years on the job. He will be sadly missed by hundreds of area children. For a great many of the students in the public and the senior school he is the only bus driver they have ever known. This is also his last year as ice man at the curling rink—Erwin is now employed full time at Doug and Fay Wright's "Home Hardware" on Main Street. His daughter Mrs. Helen MacRae is now working there part-time, too.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Shields were Mr. and Mrs. Alex McConnell of Ottawa, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Shields of Greely.

Guest speakers at Manor

The Maxville Manor March Birthday Party was sponsored by St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church of Maxville. The program was convened by Helen MacLeod. Garnet Zoellner, student minister brought words of welcome to all from the church.

The program included a lively sing-song led by Vera MacEwen accompanied by Wilma MacGregor on the piano. An excellent slide presentation was delivered by Elsie MacMillan from Cornwall. This slide presentation was on the history and literature of the United Counties by Hume Wilkins. Miss MacMillan was thanked by Vera MacEwen. The program concluded with another series of songs followed by a Dutch solo by Honey Heinsma.

The residents who celebrated their birthdays in March were as follows: Bill Sturkenboom, Nora Cummings, Hubert Macdonald, Lillian Seymour-Taylor, Wealthea Weagant, Mansel McDonell and Hughena MacKinnon. As each name was read out by Fairley Kennedy, the president, a few lines of personal history of the birthday celebrants was read.

Wendy Scott presented a birthday gift to each guest. The evening activities were finalized by singing Happy Birthday, a closing prayer, and a delicious lunch. The luncheon was served by the ladies of the Church convened by Marion Cumming.

Resdients, staff and Auxiliary members wish to express sincere thanks to all the ladies involved in presenting this enjoyable evening.

Over the past two weeks the residents have had two special guest speakers, Glen Smith, the Agricultural Representative for the county and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Youngs.

Mr. Smith presented a short slide presentation on the changes in agriculture in the county while Mr. Youngs presented a talk on the maple sugar bush operation. Mr. Youngs brought along a small maple sugar bush operation model that all enjoyed immensely. It was almost like being out in the real maple sugar bush.

We wish to express our gratitude to both men as well as Dorothy Crawford and Kay MacMillan for their lovely homemade doughnuts and cookies for the tea that followed the program.

Ayrshire slides shown

Mr. and Mrs. Maldwyn Watkins presented a beautiful scenic slide show on New Zealand and Australia to the residents of Maxville Manor.

Mr. and Mrs. Maldwyn Watkins went to New Zealand and Australia to attend the World Conference of Ayrshire Breeders—so several of the slides shown were agricultural in nature which interests many residents who once lived on farms.

They brought several souvenirs, as well as many towel wall hangings of different interests. Mr. and Mrs. Watkins also shared their musical talents with the residents by leading a lively sing-song on the afternoon of Monday, April 6.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to you both. Mr. and Mrs. Watkins are the daughter and son-in-law of Daniel Campbell.

In the preliminary round-robin, the Stars beat Cornwall City 3-1 and Ogdensburg 1-0 while the fourth team in the division, Ottawa Royals, failed to show.

In the finals, Glengarry shutout Cornwall City II 3-0 and then edged Prescott 2-1 to capture the tourney title.

Members of the team were Andre Chenier, Gerald Chenier, John MacPherson, Steve Watt, Herbie Maley, Pierre Theoret, Wally Martin, Billy Allison and Bert Massia.

Char-Lan Peewees reach 'A' final

Char-Lan "Lancaster Inn" Peewees made their way to the "A" finals in St. Laurent over the weekend, before losing out to Clarence Creek.

In their first game, the Char-Lan club crushed the Renfrew "As" 8-2, with Gilles Lapointe, Dean Cameron and Blake Hambleton each scoring a pair while Jamie Latreille and Mark Cameron added singles. They then went on to defeat a strong Pembroke team, 5-3. Blake Hambleton with two, and Dean Cameron, Gilles Lapointe and Mark Cameron, with one each, were the marksmen. They ran out of gas in the final game as Clarence Creek posted a 5-2 victory to take the "A" championship. Dean Cameron and Mark Cameron tallied for Char-Lan.

MVPs for the respective games were Gilles Lapointe, Blake Hambleton and Robby Collette.

ROYAL MEMORIES—Former member of the Cornwall Royals and Alexandria native Roger Levert examines Bill Gallant's recently released book, "The Frozen Stage"—a history of the Cornwall Royals hockey club from its founding to the present time. (Staff Photo—Brian Filion)

Area author releases book

Bill Gallant, well known in Glengarry circles as the voice of the Royals, has captured the history of one of Canada's most successful Junior hockey franchises in his recently released publication "The Frozen Stage."

The author, a former Alexandria resident and brother of the well known Ernie "Hoppy" Gallant, introduced his book on April 3 at the first game of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League semi-final between Sherbrooke and Cornwall and there has been a demand for the text ever since.

"The first 500 copies are sold out," reports Ernie, who is acknowledged in the book for his help, "but there are 1,000 more on the way."

The 270-page book took the author in the neighborhood of two-and-a-half years to complete after collecting stats and stories from the club as the Royals radio broadcaster from 1973-78 and following the club since its years as a city Jr. B team back in the early sixties.

A quick glimpse through the pages reveals a stockpile of funny anecdotes, photos, statistics and history of the Cornwall Royals from the early years in the Central Junior League up to this year's prominent play in the Quebec League.

Perhaps of particular interest to local sports fans will be the players' who toiled for the Cornwall club after graduating from Glengarry's minor leagues. Names such as Blair MacDonald, John Wensink, Roger Levert, Michel Boisvenue, Kenny MacDonald and Mike McCormick, are all names which appear.

For those wishing to obtain a copy, they will be available from Ernie Gallant

SATISFYING VICTORY—Yvan Desautels, captain of the North Lancaster team, accepts congratulations from Seaway Valley Intermediate Hockey League President Jacques Lauzon after his club recently edged Apple Hill in the best-of-seven final.

North Lancaster tops Hill in tight seven-game series

North Lancaster "Shur Gain" hockey club claimed the Seaway Valley Intermediate League championship last Monday evening with a 5-4 overtime victory in the seventh and deciding game of their final series with Apple Hill.

The dramatic overtime contest followed an overtime game on Sunday which saw Apple Hill tie the series at three games apiece with a 5-4 overtime victory of their own to force the seventh game.

Jean Luc Desautels was the North Lancaster scoring hero on Monday with the winning goal in the first session of shootout which followed a scoreless 10-minute overtime period.

On Sunday it was Apple Hill's Robert Decoste netting the winner in the third shootout session to give Apple Hill the win.

The league in its fifth year of operation held its year-end banquet on Saturday evening and the following team and individual awards were presented: North Lancaster, league and pennant champions; Yvan Desautels, MVP; Stephen Lalonde, MVP for the playoffs; Paul Dumouchel, top defenceman; Gilles Gareau, most sportsmanlike player; Jim Latour, most sportsmanlike player during the playoffs; Mario Chevrier, top scorer; Gerald Laferriere, best team goaler; Pierre Sauve, goaler of the year.

Etherington wins title

Ronnie Etherington's Beavers won the Atom Division House League Championship on Saturday by defeating Lynn Gallant's Tigers, 3-2. Scoring for the Beavers were Jean Desormeaux with two goals and Andrew Sauve with the winner. Replying for the Tigers were Michel Gauthier and Jamie Levert.

In the second game Arthur Craig's Raiders ended this season's playoff in second-place by upsetting the pennant-winning North Stars, 4-3. Scoring for the Raiders were Kevin Craig with two goals and Kenneth Robinson, Darcy Latour and Simon Nadeau with singles.

Tigers and North Stars ended the season tied in third spot.

Gaels come second

Glengarry District High School girls gymnastic squad, led by the top senior girls performance of Diane Claude, captured second place in the Eastern Ontario High School meet held on Saturday at Queen's University in Kingston.

The second-place team performance followed the Gaels first-place finish at the SD&G meet held on Thursday, March 19 at CCVS in Cornwall.

In capturing the top senior girl award Ms. Claude qualified for the All-Ontario meet to be held at Seneca College in Toronto on Saturday, March 25. Another noteworthy individual performance was recorded by Briny Peachy who came third overall in the Midget girls category.

"The team has worked very hard," said Coach Jacqueline Fraser who has tutored the girls in preparation for the spring meets since last Fall.

Maxville undefeated in News Cup play

by Gerry Simpson

On paper it would appear that Bainsville and Glen Nevis should win their games and advance to the finals of the Glengarry News Cup but paper doesn't always hold up and Maxville is the only undefeated club at press time. The final match-up will probably not be known until the final game of the News Cup double round-robin has been completed.

St. Raphael's team are a demoralized group who have had a hard time getting on track with a zero and four record while the Jr. Glens won their first contest on Sunday, 11-6 over St. Raphael's after three consecutive losses.

Bainsville and Glen Nevis have their own little competition going with Glen Nevis getting great mileage out of their newcomers but Richard Scott's Maxville entry is simply giving the rest of the teams a sound lesson in the basic elements of hockey and with a minor miracle could be the 1981 News Cup champions.

This upcoming weekend will mark the conclusion of the first half of the schedule and will see the teams at full strength to do battle.

Discuss nuclear arms

Nearly 250 women met for the 13th annual meeting of the Seaway Valley Presbyterial of the United Church Women held in Spencerville United Church on Wednesday, April 8. The theme of the meeting was "Reach out in love".

The film "Penny and Ann" was shown while registration was in progress. The afternoon meeting opened with a sing-song conducted by Linda Hawley. The president Mrs. Christine Judge made a few remarks on the theme of the day and the ladies were welcomed to Spencerville by the president of the local United Church Women, Mrs. Lorraine Cleary. The minutes of the last annual meeting were approved as printed in the report that each person was given on registering. The roll call was conducted by Muriel Eastwood, the recording secretary. The treasurer's report showed that $42,281.45 had been raised for the Mission and Service Fund for 1981 plus just over $3,000 for Presbyterial expenses.

The afternoon worship was conducted by the Glen Sandfield U.C.W. and included the offering for Presbyterial funds.

Mrs. Catherine Hanna introduced the guest speaker for the afternoon, Mrs. Gerry Purcell of Jasper. Mrs. Purcell has been blind for many years and has a Dog-guide, Eunice. She told us how she was first introduced to her dog in New Jersey, U.S.A and after a month of instruction brought Eunice back to her home to be her constant companion.

Mrs. Jean Scott read the report of the nominating committee and the new members of the executive were introduced including the new president, Mrs. Edith Jenkins of Maynard. Scrolls were presented to the retiring members of the executive by Mrs. Marguerite Frappier and the new executive was installed by Mrs. Roberta Belfry, the Conference U.C.W. President.

A resource panel consisting of the conveners of the various committees told of their work and books that had helped them. This brought us to supper time when we were given a delicious meal prepared by the local U.C.W. members. At this time Rev. Walter Judge brought greetings from the Seaway Valley Presbytery and Rev. Robert Knight of the Spencerville United Church asked a blessing before the meal.

The evening session opened with music and worship led by the members of Seaway Valley Youth led by Gary Tompkins. Mrs. Edith Jenkins introduced the speaker, Mr. Murray Thompson, the Educational Secretary for "Project Ploughshares". Mr. Thompson told of the nations who have nuclear arms and how devastating they could be in use.

The Lilian Allison Banner was presented to the ladies of the Merrickville, Easton's Corners and Jasper charge by a member from the Ingleside-Newington charge who won it last year. A vote of thanks was extended to the minister and members of the Spencerville United Church for their welcome and hospitality by Mrs. Margaret Casselman of Chesterville and the happy day concluded with a Benediction pronounced by Rev. Knight.

Concert at Tagwi draws crowd of 300

Over 300 people came to see 135 teenage musicians from three different bands perform at Tagwi Secondary School last Thursday.

An enthusiastic audience listened to the Tagwi, I. E. Weldon Secondary School and Glengarry Pipe bands perform in the Tagwi gymnasium.

Besides solo performances by the three bands, the host Tagwi band played numbers with both other bands. As well the two school's stage bands, made up of members of the schools' larger concert bands, performed a number of tunes.

The 21-member Weldon stage band under the direction of Jack Neviss, recently won the Central Ontario Kiwanis Stage Band Festival award and has been invited to perform at the Canadian Stage Band Festival in Edmonton in May.

The Glengarry Pipe Band, under the direction of Pipe Major J. T. MacKenzie, arrived at the 8 p.m. concert after having performed from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the opening of the Loblaws Cup Bantam hockey championship being held at the Cornwall Civic Complex.

The Tagwi band, under the direction of Mrs. Mavis Morris, recently won the high school senior band, level III at the Kinsmen music festival competition in Cornwall, with a score of 93-5 points, beating Char-Lan which came second with a score of 92.

The Senior Concert Band competition at the festival was won by Glengarry District High School from Alexandria, with a score of 97. GDHS came second behind North Dundas District High School in the junior bands competition, scoring 84.5 points to NDDHS's 93.5.

Also, the Char-Lan Girls Choir came in second in the high school choir, behind Cornwall Collegiate and Vocational School. CCVS scored 85 points to Char-Lan's 75.

Martintown won two competitions last week, taking the primary choir competition with a score of 84 points and tieing Viscount Alexander. Both schools had a score of 84.

Mixing dangerous

Two herbicides may mix together physically, but may give reduced weed control because they do not mix biologically.

Jim Hunter, a weed control scientist at Agriculture Canada's Research Station in Regina, Sask., explains that biological problems can show in different ways.

"The incompatibility may increase or decrease the way the plant takes up the herbicide," he said. "Or it may change the way the herbicide moves within the plant or change its selectivity for crop and weed plants."

These changes usually mean that weed control is reduced or eliminated on one or more of the weed species.

The tolerance of the crop to the herbicide may also be reduced, resulting in crop damage.

Dr. Hunter says that some herbicides appear chemically and physically compatible when first mixed, but when applied together in the field, the effectiveness is drastically reduced.

Biological incompatibility can also occur when two herbicides are applied a few days apart. When applied one after another, the results are similar to a tank mixture.

However, Dr. Hunter points out that incompatibility decreases as the time between applications increases.

"The safest way to avoid compatibility problems is to use only registered mixes and prepare them as recommended in the current provincial weed control bulletins," he said.

The 6-ply 4+2 Belt-O-Glass

1 A real brute! Drivers of station wagons and heavier cars will welcome the extra components in the 4+2 Belt-O-Glass. Built with four plies of super-strong DuPont 66 nylon and wrapped in two tough glass belts... that's a total of six under-tread plies. The 4+2 is simply more tire.

Steel belted Turnpike radial

2 You can call this the energy-conserver. Its construction reduces rolling resistance to conserve gas for every mile you drive. Notable casing strength from two steel belts over two plies of DuPont 66 nylon. Slimmer sidewalls permit fast heat dissipation for long mileage.

The Safety 99 4-ply polyester

3 Few 4-ply tires compare with our Safety 99 polyester for road-cushioned ride ... and even fewer tires are in its low-price league! It's a lot of tire for the money. Four full plies of soft-riding polyester provide positive road-stance and handling characteristics.

The Contender II 4-ply nylon

4 Four plies of tough DuPont 66 nylon give Contender II the body strength of tires up to double the prices. Both tread and sidewall gauges are slimmed down for optimum heat dissipation ... deeply siped tread provides sure-footed performance and handling characteristics.

Rompin' Rene

Rene Levesque and the PQ have done it. They're back in power with the clout of a massive majority behind them. Last night's Quebec election results were: PQ 80, Liberals 42, Union Nationale, 0. An impressive mandate indeed. I can't say I'm surprised. In fact, now that I think of it, I probably should have bet on it last Friday night during that heated debate I was involved in.

It's not that the PQ and the Liberal platforms of promises and money, more promises and more money were so different. It's Rene Levesque himself, with his charisma, his passion and his aura of the little guy making good who won this election for the PQ. What a world of difference there is between solid, stolid Bill Davis on Ontario and Rene Levesque of the flashing eyes and even flashier tongue.

The PQ obviously did something right in this campaign. Just to refresh your memories, here are the Parti Quebecois promises in election '81.

1. The PQ's most original promise involves $10,000 loans to families with at least one child who want to buy a new or recently renovated home worth $60,000 to $130,000. The loans would be interest-free the first year, carry 5 per cent interest the second year and 10 per cent interest in following years. $2,000 of the loan would be forgiven for the first child born in the new home, and $4,000 for each subsequent birth. (Estimated cost: $15 million the first year and $215 million over four years.)

2. Extending unpaid maternity leave to a maximum 2 years and forcing school boards to open daycare centres with 45,000 new places. (Cost: $5 million over four years.)

3. Subsidies of 50 to 75 per cent of the cost of research and development in high-technology industries. A related pledge is developing an industry to produce the equipment for Quebec's $1.5 billion water purification program. (Cost: $3 million this year and a total of $75 million over three years.)

4. Job "vouchers" worth $3,000 for students unemployed six months after graduation. Employers could cash in the vouchers after employing the student for a year. (Cost: $30 million a year, starting in '82-'83.)

5. A "community job program" to create new jobs for recent graduates. (Cost: $3 million a year.)

6. A program to create 6,000 part-time jobs in the civil service and 4,000 in private industry. (Cost: $5 million a year, starting this year.)

7. Interest-free loans of $50,000 to young people who want to set up as farmers. (Agriculture Minister Jean Garon says the plan would cost nothing in the first two years, but would cost $32.4 million in the subsequent three years.)

8. A 10 per cent income tax cut over four years for families with only one wage-earner. (Parizeau estimates costs at $120 million a year, but has not said when the cut would begin.)

9. Increasing the number of families eligible for cash bonuses for young children. (Cost: uncertain.)

10. A new English high school for St. Leonard. (Cost: $9.4 million.)

11. Subsidies to farmers for water purification equipment. (Cost: unknown.)

12. Four new 250-bed hospitals and other measures to ease crowded emergency wards on the Island. (Cost: $65 million over four years.)

13. Raising mandatory retirement from age 65 to 70 and paying pension benefits to partly disabled workers who want to retire at age 60. (Cost: $19 million a year, starting next year.)

The total cost of these programs over four years is $627.8 million. Adding the 10 per cent tax cut (timing undetermined) could bring the cost of PQ promises to $968.8 million.

That's a lot of promises that need money to back them up. I guess that's what elections are for, although I never thought I'd see the day when Rene Levesque, the firebrand who seduced a nation with his independence dream, could become the consummate politician, able to quote statistics and spend money with the best of them.

Rene's interesting to watch. The independence issue didn't surface once during this election, although Levesque is reputed to have said that maybe Quebecers would give him "a second chance". Maybe the issue will surface now, with a majority government that seems intent on using a type of seduction other than the dream of independence. Security is the dream offered to Quebecers today. Is financial security the first stepping-stone on the road to a truly independent Quebec? Or is it the only dream Quebecers want?

It will be interesting to see where all those promises lead.

Members of Knox UCW met at the home of Miss Bessie Cumming for their April meeting.

President Mrs. Dorothy Seguin welcomed the members and opened with an Easter meditation.

Miss Cumming was in charge of the devotional portion which was based on Easter. Miss Cumming stated, although it is popular today to state God is dead and all too many homes do not have God in their lives, there are many ways to find Him in our daily living. If Easter is to mean anything to us, we must believe God does live and our task in life is to prove this to the unbelievers.

Six members answered the roll call with a verse pertaining to Easter. The verse for May is one containing a woman's name.

Mrs. Seguin reported on the renovations which have been carried out in the Church and the minor things still to be done.

Mrs. Anne MacLeod gave the financial report. The offering was received and dedicated.

Mrs. Norman Matheson gave a reading "Thank God for little things." Mrs. Seguin reported on cards and visits to sick and shut-ins. Plans were made to hold a card party in the Church Hall on Monday, April 27. All were reminded of the rummage sale to be held May 1 and 2.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, who was thanked for the use of her home. A social time was enjoyed.

Kirk Hill women to write Parliament

The theme of the United Church Women's meeting, Kirk Hill, was "The Cross as a Symbol." The meeting opened by a poem by the president, Mrs. Keith MacMillan.

The worship service was in charge of Mrs. Alexander MacLeod and Mrs. Alex MacCuaig. Responsive reading was taken from John 2, 1:9, followed by prayer by Mrs. MacLeod. Mrs. MacLeod commented on the theme and asked what other symbol offers so much. The cross is a symbol of life. Life in its fullness is found in the cross and God loves with an everlasting love.

The resurrection is a commission to serve. We must not forget the glorious Easter when Christ arose. Today as we think of the multitudes who reject all we considered holy, our task seems too great. But remember the disciples went out and won the people in great numbers. If He is Lord of all, then we must give Him our all by serving. He gave us the way, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel."

Mrs. Russell Urquhart and Mrs. Neil Blair were readers with Mrs. Alex MacCuaig summing up "The Cross as a Symbol." The offering was received and dedicated. This very meaningful worship service closed by prayer by Mrs. MacLeod. Mrs. Clarence MacMillan was pianist.

Mrs. Keith MacMillan gave a report of the Seaway Valley Presbyterial Executive meeting she attended. The roll call was answered by a verse containing the word "resurrection." The change in the Apostles Creed and the neutron bomb were discussed and all were advised to get in touch with members of Parliament to voice their concern.

Mrs. Edna MacMillan compiled a list of names for a missionary exchange letter to missionaries abroad. The president reported on the renovations at the manse. Mrs. Clifford MacNaughton, Friendship Secretary, reported visits and cards sent. A thankoffering meeting of Region I was announced for May 5, 1981 at Vankleek Hill.

Mrs. Keith MacMillan thanked all those in charge, those who contributed food and served at the dinner for the two bus loads of Quebec farmers on tour, and special thanks to all who worked at the manse.

On April 17, at 11 a.m., Rev. Oliver Stevens will officiate at the Good Friday service for the charge of East Hawkesbury. Miss Cathy Fraser, who will be home from teaching in Scarborough for the Easter holiday, will be soloist.

Last service

The last of a series of Lenten Services sponsored by the Presbytery of Glengarry will be held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Lancaster on Friday, April 17 at 8 p.m. Rev. Kerry McIntyre of Moose Creek will be special speaker. All are welcome.

Approaching marriage

MYERS—NUGENT

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Myers are pleased to announce the forthcoming marriage of their eldest daughter, Tracy Lee, to Alexander Thomas Nugent, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Thomas Nugent of St. John's, Newfoundland. The wedding will take place on Saturday, June 6, 1981 at 3:30 p.m. in East Hawkesbury United Church, Ste. Anne de Prescott, Ontario.

Calf is winner

A calf from Martintown took the top price at the Eastern Ontario Holstein Calf Sale held in Winchester last Saturday.

The calf, "Glensprings Senator Iris," owned by Donald Thomson of Martintown, was sold for $3,500 to R. J. Hipkin of Manotick. The calf, sired by "Nelacres Johanna Senator," is from a Very Good dam with 168 to 188 per cent BCA.

At the April 11 sale, held at Fawcett's Sales Arena, 51 calves were sold for a total of $63,525—an average of $1,049 per calf.

Lake Vue residents benefit from grant

The tenants at Lake Vue Residence got organized last January and formed a new activities club calling themselves "The Harmony Club." Under the leadership of Mrs. Edna Dubois, a resident at Lake Vue, and with the assistance of Mrs. Colgan of the Cornwall office of Ontario Housing, they applied for and received a New Horizons Grant in the amount of $6,603. This money will be used over the next year and a half to make improvements for the comfort of the residents.

At this time the tenants would like to thank the organizers, Maurice Berthiaume, the field representative; Fernand A Lozier, Regional Manager; Mrs. Colgan, Mrs. Dubois and anyone else who helped make this undertaking a success.

The appointed purchasing representatives will be visiting the local merchants in the next few weeks to buy the articles they require. It's hoped the merchants will show these senior citizens the same consideration they themselves would expect to receive when they become senior citizens.

Lake Vue's Harmony Club will keep you informed on just how well things are going for them.

A solution to the high cost of education is present in the Glen Falloch Permitz School.

The Permitz School of Languages has an unusual policy that helps keep its costs down: there are no instructors. Only bilingual students who wish to learn a third language are accepted, and the students teach one another.

One class which has just started consists of Sean and five other young people. Two of the six speak Spanish; in fact, each language represented in the class is spoken by two, and only two of the students.

Gretchen, who does not speak Chinese, can communicate with both Ivan and Juan, although Juan does not speak English or German. Wong, who does not speak English or Russian, can understand Juan but not Louise, who doesn't speak English or Russian either. Louise, who doesn't speak French, can converse with Ivan, who doesn't speak Chinese, neither speaks German.

Can you deduce which two languages are spoken by each student?

Why are we only pressing for a bilingual Canada, when such opportunities exist?

Last week Ewen and Agnes McDonald opened their elegant Priests Mill dining restaurant and pub (formerly known as The Hub). The place is designed as a fine century-old home, using authentic Glengarry artifacts.

Both floors have a breathtaking view of the old mill waterfall and millrace. Well worth a visit.

A Scottish concert is coming to St. Lawrence College, Cornwall, (Aultsville Hall) on Saturday, April 25. The SD&G Humane Society is the sponsor. Performers will be Max Keeping, Master of Ceremonies, MacCulloch Dancers, The Brigadoons, Optimist-Legion Pipe Band and Jamie Wood. Tickets are available from Pipe Major Robert (Coronet Camera) Jack (VW' Volvo) MacDonell, and Audrey Morris (Martintown).

Solution to deducing which two languages are spoken by each student:

Louise, who doesn't speak English, Russian, French or German, must speak Chinese and Spanish. Since Ivan doesn't speak Chinese, he and Louise must converse in Spanish. Since Wong can't understand Louise, he isn't the second Chinese-speaking student, nor does he speak English or Russian, so his languages are French and German. He can talk with Juan, who doesn't speak German, so they converse in French. Juan, in turn, can communicate with Gretchen, but not in Chinese or English, his second language must be Russian. Gretchen's other language, in which she can talk with Ivan, isn't German, which Ivan doesn't speak, so it is English. Sean, by elimination, speaks Chinese and German.

4-H club held meeting

by Kelly Olson

About half of all fatal tractor accidents occur on highways, country roads and other roadways. Collision with other motor vehicles is a main cause of death, but a larger number of the fatal accidents involve only the tractor.

Inexperienced operators, unsafe operation, not watching the road, and excessive speed are common causes of tractor accidents on roadways.

A tractor driver must obey all road laws and learn to drive safely in both day and night travel. The main rule for drivers to remember is to practise courtesy, remembering that it is a privilege to operate a tractor on roadways. Being a privilege, farmers should not abuse the right.

When operating tractors, always be sure of your equipment and change worn out parts. Any tractor should be serviced regularly for safety purposes.

The above topics were discussed at the season's first Tractor and Safety Club meeting. The club has nine members. At future meetings, we will be discussing many aspects of tractors and how they operate. The club's meetings will be held once a month over the summer months. During the duration of the club you will be kept informed as to our progess. Test yourself to see if you can learn something too.

EASTER REASON

'Twas early that morning
That morning so still
When those women wended
Their way up the hill

With oil for anointing,
Trickling tears,
Much saddened hearts,
Such hidden fears.

The tomb, though, was empty
Wide open the door
The covering raiment
Lay loose on the floor.

"Are you looking for someone?"
Spoke a voice in the dark,
And all three women
Turned around to hark
By what gentle person
Those words had been said
And there stood their Savior
Returned from the dead.

At his side was the stone
As tall, if not more
Rolled from its station
Exposing the door.

Now if you believe
This Biblical tale
Then how can you honestly,
Possibly fail.

To doubt not one whit
That He will take charge
Of a rock in your path
No matter how large.

You need but two things.
The first is your prayers.
The second is Faith,
The Faith that He cares.

Provide funds for workshops

SD&G County Social Services has provided funding for teaching workshops to be held monthly in Glengarry County.

Through co-ordinating efforts of the local Developmental Services Unit Worker Cathy MacDonald, the teaching homemaker Katie Gellately and the Adult Protective Services Worker C. Depratto, a small group has begun to take advantage of this opportunity to acquire new skills in cooking, budgeting and nutritional meal planning. Also on the agenda are other topics such as personal grooming, hygiene, safety about the home, self assertiveness and many more.

The first workshop was held at Glengarry Sports Palace on Tuesday, March 3, 1981 with the guest speaker Mrs. Debbie Lauzon, a St. John Ambulance instructor. Mrs. Lauzon gave an interesting presentation on basic first aid techniques.

On April 7, 1981 the group met for the second time when Ms. Louise Bazinet, RN, from the Public Health Unit, discussed essentials in personal grooming and hygiene as keys to good health. All those in attendance agreed both workshops were very interesting and informative and the next one has been planned for May 5, 1981.

PEOPLE FIRST

On March 27, 28, and 29, 14 people from Glengarry County attended the first annual "Ontario People First" conference held at the downtown Holiday Inn, Toronto, Ontario.

This conference was jointly funded and organized by David Lincoln, president of the People First Movement and his member ship, the Ontario and Canadian Associations for the Mentally Retarded, the Canadian Organizing Commitee, 1981, and Wintario. The Stormont, Dundas, Glengarry and Prescott-Russell Sub-District Working Groups along with local Associations helped to sponsor mentally handicapped people from our five counties. Through the co-ordinating efforts of Adult Protective Services a bus was chartered and 48 people attended from the area.

The conference began Friday evening with an official welcome to Toronto from the mayor of the city. In the following days there were 12 work sessions where the mentally handicapped listened to and participated in various discussions. Main topics included name change, working environments, human rights for the mentally handicapped (including the issue of sterilization), institutional vs community living, organizing events and groups and many more.

This conference is the first of its kind but if the enthusiastic response of the six hundred in attendance is any indication it certainly will not be the last. Glengarry County was represented by Vivian Laonde, Laure Lacoste, Jacqueline Beyior, Alice Jelly, Heather Urquhart, Lynn Horne, Brian Laflamme, Jerry Lalonde and Michel Rouleau. They were accompanied by several counsellors: Helene Lafleche, La Caravane; Sandra Garvey and Marilyn Brassard, Cedars Group Home; Ann Morris, manager ARC Industries and C. Depratto, APSW.

Three oranges looking for work.

Our B-Series orange Kubota tractors range from 12 to 16 hp, and are available with two or four wheel drive. All have a hydraulic 3-point hitch, standard rear PTO, 6 forward speeds and 2 reverse, and a dependable diesel engine. And all of them can handle a wide variety of implements.

It's foolish firing up a large tractor for a small job. So buy an orange. It'll keep rising fuel costs from making you see red.

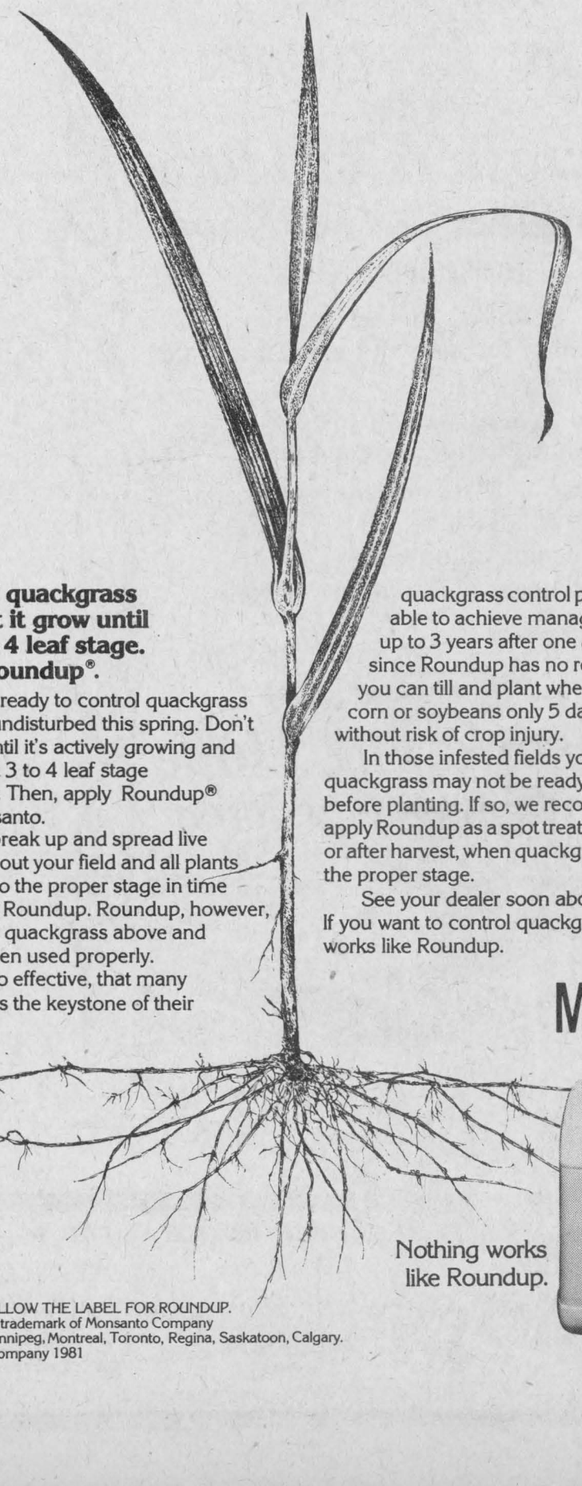
For quackgrass control— Nothing works like Roundup®.



Before you till quackgrass this spring, let it grow until it's at the 3 to 4 leaf stage. Then, apply Roundup®.

You really can get ready to control quackgrass by letting it grow undisturbed this spring. Don't touch it or till it, until it's actively growing and most weeds are at 3 to 4 leaf stage (20 cm in height). Then, apply Roundup® herbicide by Monsanto.

Tillage may break up and spread live rhizomes throughout your field and all plants may not re-grow to the proper stage in time for treatment with Roundup. Roundup, however, controls emerged quackgrass above and below ground, when used properly.

Roundup is so effective, that many farmers, using it as the keystone of their quackgrass control programs, have been able to achieve manageable control for up to 3 years after one application. And since Roundup has no residual soil activity, you can till and plant wheat, oats, barley, corn or soybeans only 5 days after treatment, without risk of crop injury.

In those infested fields you plowed last fall, quackgrass may not be ready for Roundup before planting. If so, we recommend you wait to apply Roundup as a spot treatment in the crop—or after harvest, when quackgrass has regrown to the proper stage.

See your dealer soon about Roundup. If you want to control quackgrass—nothing works like Roundup.

Careers in technology urged

by Don Stephen
Head of Guidance North
Dundas District High School

In our area of the St. Lawrence Seaway and the Ottawa area, we have the main concentration of the high technology industry in Canada. Estimates of growth rates for high tech industry vary, but given proper growth conditions some forecast 100,000 high tech jobs by 1990. Given even the most conservative of estimates it can still be safely said that high technology industry will play an increasingly important role in the economy of our area.

Add to this our many chemical companies, construction firms and paper companies and you can see the importance of exploring a career in the technology field.

The engineering "team" concept has received wide acceptance in Canadian industry today. A typical team may consist of an engineer, two or three technologists and several technicians, all working on different aspects of the same project. The engineer provides long range design planning. The technologist works closely with the engineer on design and development, and as such must have some of the mathematics and theory that engineers possess. However, because the technologist also is responsible for the maintenance and repair of sophisticated systems, he or she needs some of the practical perspective of the equipment operators and technicians, whose work technologists often supervise.

For these two careers, engineer and technologists, a student must take certain courses in order to be able to succeed in the courses offered at University or the Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology. English at the advanced level, mathematics at the advanced level, and physics and chemistry at the advanced levels are musts in your course selections. See your guidance counsellors for detailed information.

A technician is a person who has acquired the ability to perform scientific and/or engineering tasks of a specialized nature that requires mathematics, science, systematized procedures and techniques related to the particular specialty.

The duties of technicians fall between those of the skilled tradesman or craftsman on the one hand and the technologist on the other; the work done involves the use of the instruments as well as tools.

Those interested in being a technician must complete their Grade 12 and gain their Ontario Secondary School Graduation diploma. They must have English, Mathematics and Science to the Grade 12 level.

Courses for assemblers are available at some of our colleges and many companies train their own personnel for work in the technology industries.

The five-year growth in skilled man power in high technology industry is given in a recent government report as: Engineers 257 per cent, technologists 168 per cent, technicians 340 per cent, assemblers 297 per cent, drafts persons 250 per cent and designers 150 per cent.

Interested in getting into this area? Our Colleges at St. Lawrence, Cornwall, Brockville and Kingston Campuses and Algonquin College all have many interesting courses you could consider. See your guidance counsellor for details and plan with him the program you will need in high school.

Greenfield

by Mary Couture

Euchre was held in Greenfield Hall on Monday, April 13, convened by Mrs. M. Couture. Lady winners, Ella Villeneuve, Colombe Raymond and gentlemen winners, Dan O'Bryne, Mac O'Bryne and Gerald Cadieux. Door prize, Jessie Renwick.

The next euchre will be on Monday, April 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Batty and son Gordie of Montreal visited with Mrs. H. Clavette and Mr. and Mrs. A. Couture on Sunday.

Heavy clothing urged for cyclists

In 1979, 75 motorcycle drivers and 10 passengers were killed on Ontario's streets and highways. Another 3,667 motorcycle drivers and 710 passengers were injured.

With the advent of warmer weather, motorcyclists are out in full force. The Ontario Safety League points out to bikers that the use of proper clothing and footwear should be of primary concern to any safety-minded motorcyclist.

Substantial pants and jackets, gloves and boots can successfully reduce injuries. This is purely common sense. Yet casual observance would indicate a growing popularity during summer months for cut-off jeans, tee shirts and running shoes. Frequently, passengers have been noted without footwear whatsoever.

Without proper clothing, the Ontario Safety League suggests, even a minor spill could cause serious injury.

While the mandatory use of helmets in 1968 substantially reduced the number of motorcycle deaths, there seems little point in protecting the head if the rest of the body is exposed. True enthusiasts know this, the League believes, and protect their bodies from the effects of a spill.

Teeth can be saved

Children are naturally active, and accidents can occur.

In contact sports and general playtime activity, a child may lose a tooth.

With advances in dental technology, there is hope for saving the tooth.

Dentists say there is a good chance of saving the tooth if it is put back in its original socket as soon as possible.

Time is the most important element in determining whether the tooth will be successfully replanted or if resorption—dissolving of root fibres—will occur.

If the tooth can be replaced in the socket within half an hour of the accident, there is an excellent chance of success.

Dentists recommend that a knocked-out tooth be either retained in the mouth between the teeth and lower cheek, or be placed in wet gauze while the patient is being rushed to the dental office.

Even if the injury appears minor, a dental checkup is suggested in order to prevent future problems.

EDITORIAL

IT'S OUR OPINION

Reporters banding together

Most honest journalists would admit that the news media is far from perfect. Untrained staff, advertising pressures, personal biases—all can influence the news we read or hear.

Nobody is more concerned about these problems than the journalist himself. That's the major reason The Ontario Reporters' Association was founded some months ago. The Association is open to reporters working in print or broadcast media and it has set a lofty goal of trying to improve the state of the art.

The fledgling association has already made a presentation to the Royal Commission on Newspapers and it is now planning to hold its first province-wide general meeting this Spring.

Specific goals of the ORA are as follows:

1. Upgrade the standard of journalism through educating reporters and the public about the role of the news media in society.

2. To inform reporters about existing working conditions and their rights under the law, i.e. publication of minimum wages and maximum wages offered across the province.

3. To give reporters an organization that can represent their interests to all levels of government on such issues as freedom of information, closed meetings and the treatment of reporters by public officials.

4. To speak out against the increasing influence of advertising on editorial copy and give the reporter a voice independent of these business interests.

Although newspapers are supposed to be the guardians of truth, all too often they bow to the same economic and social pressures that keep individuals quiet.

For example, it is not unusual for people of "status" or influence to keep their names out of the newspaper while others of less noble upbringing are regularly featured.

In other cases, "touchy" news items are ignored altogether.

Indeed, such activities are not supposed to take place in the newspaper business and the industry spends a great deal of time mouthing denials. Those of us in the industry, however, know that such occurrences are real.

Democracy is a fragile institution and its preservation depends on a free press. Just as important, however, is the need for a fully responsible press. The ORA correctly believes we have some distance to travel before we reach the latter goal.

The individual guards rights

"One timid brother did say that just as soon as any woman got a seat in Parliament he would resign his . . . The woman to whom he made it only said that to her this was another proof of the purifying effect that women would have on politics." —Nellie McClung

Suffragette leader Nellie McClung had a sense of humor. In those days, when it was unheard of for women to hold office in the parliament of Canada, a sense of humor was often the only weapon feminists had to fend off the prejudice and discrimination with which so many of them had to contend.

Today, while laws are better, the struggle continues. Working women, in particular, find they must constantly invoke their legal rights to obtain justice. In all too many cases, companies simply will not voluntarily recognize these rights.

Take, for example, the battle begun by the International Association of Machinists some months ago against a company in Ontario concerning that company's under-representation of women in its work force.

Union records showed that over a two-year period, 500 men had been hired and only 35 women, despite the fact that the work is relatively light industry.

Under-representation is one of the hardest forms of discrimination to combat. It is relatively simple, for instance, to prove discrimination when pay is not equal, but when representation is not equal, a greater effort is needed to show that prejudice exists.

According to the Women's Rights Bulletin published by the Ontario Federation of Labor, an equal opportunities committee was set up, composed of women both inside and outside the plant. The committee placed ads in local papers asking women who had been refused employment to phone in, and they received over 200 calls.

One of the women on the committee, the bulletin states had been trying for months to get into the company. She was laid off from a plant where she had worked 14 years in spot welding, assembly, burn-off and de-greasing.

Incredibly enough, she also worked at the company under question during the war years 1942-44 and did any job she was given.

"She says there were lots of women in the plant then and if they did it during the war, they can do it now," the bulletin notes.

There still exists in our society a basic assumption that only men have the right to work. Women have second jobs. This myth continues despite the fact that a huge proportion of women in the work force are single parents and many others are working because inflation makes it impossible to raise a family solely on the father's income.

Many people argue that the woman's salary pays for "frills" when, in fact, at 14 to 16 per cent interest, it is needed to pay the mortgage.

Also, it is generally accepted that a man can work purely to obtain emotional satisfaction, to obtain a feeling of independence and self-worth. A man doesn't have to justify going to work. Nobody ever accuses him of taking a job away from a woman. Nobody ever expects him to stay home and be a "house-husband."

Attitudes change slowly and laws alone do not alter the status quo. Society is slow to move and government is, at best, only a snail's pace ahead of the conventional wisdom.

Women have acquired rights over the decades primarily because individuals such as Nellie McClung stood up to be counted. They were prepared to suffer taunts from friends and foes alike who ridiculed them because they dared to be different.

All the laws and all the theory in the world are worthless unless people put words into action. That is the only way justice has been won in the past and it is the only way it will be secured in the future. B. R.

From under the Williamstown Bridge

by Helen Sloan

Activity under the Williamstown bridge is on the increase lately as both the experienced and the inexperienced try their hand at fishing.

The open season for pike and pickerel has finished, as of March 31. It will reopen the second Saturday in May. According to the Ministry of Natural Resources these dates apply to Division 9 which covers Glengarry County and Division 12 which covers Lake St. Francis.

Fines for keeping a pike or pickerel out of season are settled in court, I was told, and circumstances determine the amount of the fine.

The department explained that the spawning fish are more vulnerable to fishermen and this endangers the species. This explains why the game warden is seen so much lately, especially after dark, stealthily descending the river bank, flashlight in hand. This is part of his job, protecting the fish and this of course is to our advantage.

It seems to be a game of cops and robbers and many are the fishermen that delight in telling stories of how they nearly got caught.

I can remember, as a child going fishing with my brothers in Beaver Creek, with outlawed spears, no less. As I recall, I didn't know one end of a fish from the other and never hit anything other than stones, but I was well rehearsed in one area. I was to keep my mouth shut, look out for the game warden and if he was sighted, I was to drop the spear and run like mad. Other than losing an occasional spear and in one case the dung fork, we were very fair law-abiding citizens.

Two local boys were checking out the pickerel at the lower rapids a few Saturdays ago. Hearing a noise they turned and shone their flashlights in the direction of the noise. Nestled in a little dug-out mostly concealed by branches sat the game warden. What a way to spend a Saturday night!

The open season for small mouth bass in Glengarry will begin June 27 and run till November 30 and in the Lake St. Francis area will run from June 20 till March 31.

Local experts tell me they are good fighters and offer a nice challenge.

For those who like muskelunge the open season in both Division 9 and 12 begins the third Saturday in June. It closes November 30 in Glengarry and March 31 on Lake St. Francis.

As of the date of this writing, April 7, pike have finished spawning and the pickerel are finishing now too. Perch are now going up the Raisin River and the catfish are starting to bite. There is no closed season on these. Perch are supposed to be quite tasty, but many people feel catfish taste like mud.

Once the warm weather comes the fish become wormy so fishing is best the last half of April and the month of May.

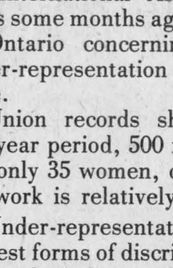
Pike, I'm told, are really boney. Suckers aren't as boney but it seems they are not eaten as much as they used to be.

Time was when you could buy a licence from the warden for a certain area and make a fair bit of money catching and selling suckers.

At the lower rapids, here in Williamstown, the boys would chase them down the river and the men would catch them with a dip net. They would be kept in big wooden fish boxes six feet long by three feet wide. Each box would hold three to four hundred fish and these boxes made of slats would be kept in the water. On the weekends fish buyers and anyone else interested in buying would come from all over. They would sell three for one dollar. Today, however, people seem to like the convenience of store bought frozen fish, so no one has done this for at least 10 years.

The best way to keep fish frozen is packed in containers with water. This prevents them from drying out or getting freezer burn. They will remain very tasty for a year this way.

Where are the best places to fish in Glengarry? Well, I found out that asking a gentleman where his fishing hole is, is as personal as asking a lady to reveal the whereabouts of her berry patch. You will surely be guided in the wrong direction.



Perspective

by Bob Roth

Men's status committee?

Every once in a while, I hear a fellow get upset with talk about women's liberation. I suppose for many men, who are themselves stuck with roles they may not always want, complaints by women activists can become aggravating.

Sometimes, I think it is necessary to put yourself in another person's shoes to understand her situation. The Manitoba Women's Newspaper was recently asked by a man why he didn't have a Status of Men Committee to protect his interests in government the way women have such a committee.

Lynn Brown and Martha Colq houn replied that "you will have a status of men committee when men's accumulated sense of injustice is so great that they raise their collective voice in a protest so well-documented, so carefully articulated, so reasonable, and right that society can no longer turn a deaf ear; when men's sense of grievance at being treated differently for no other reason except that they are men is so great that they say publicly and privately: Enough!"

More specifically, the women note, men will know they need a Status of Men Committee when:

—The majority of voters are men but of 282 MPs in the House of Commons, only 14 are men; of 104 Senators, only 11 are men; of nine Supreme Court Judges, only one is a man.

A Status of Men Committee will also be needed when:

—Fifty-one per cent of working age Canadians are men and their educational level is higher than women's but for every dollar a woman earns, a man earns only 60 cents; 62.7 per cent of men are in job ghettos (sales, service and clerical jobs); only 4.9 per cent of men are in managerial-administrative positions; men are excluded from many jobs because employers fear men will be beaten, raped and murdered by violent women.

In addition, a Status of Men Committee will be needed when:

—Men live seven years longer than average women but four out of five men over 75 are widowed, divorced or single; 70 per cent of the residents of nursing homes are men over 65; three times more elderly men than women live in poverty. (Meanwhile, your wife, and your married children urge you to stay home, bake cookies and babysit the grandchildren because, after all, Mom will take care of you in your old age.)

In other words, there is no Status of Men Committee, because the status of men in our society needs no protection.

Followers are pretty important people

April 9, 1981
RR1, Con. 4,
Lancaster, Ont.

The editor,
The Glengarry News:

At this time of year when the news is full with all the new officers that are being installed for the new year, I would like to have the followers in the volunteer organizations get a bouquet and a boost.

Yes, I am a follower, and I feel I can be a really good follower. I can be as proud as if I were a good leader. After all we can't all be leaders as no one knows any more than I do how great a part there is for a good follower to play. It seems to me that I am always doing some kind of job for the organizations in my community. (A unified body of persons being in the same locality under the same laws.)

You see, we followers are the ones who put the leaders where they are. We determine to whom we can look for leadership, then we put those people where we want them.

If they have good ideas for our organization, we are the ones who get to carry them out. True, they sometimes get the lions share of glory and recognition, but if they are the sort of leaders we go for, they share a lot of that with us.

In addition, we get plenty of satisfaction from the knowledge that we were the ones who did the actual work.

If our leaders turn out to be bossy and fail to give us recognition, when we have it coming, they will suddenly find out that the props have dropped from under them.

No co-operation is forthcoming from members, no loyalty, no willingness, no nothing!

Do you see we actually wield a great deal of power? Really, we followers are pretty important people when you come to think of it.

We realize it takes superior people to be good leaders, but we realize too that it is very important for us to play the particular part of followers.

We have to be intelligent in our choice of leaders and back them one hundred per cent, so let's get to it in 1981 the Year of the Disabled.

The editor,
The Glengarry News:

I am tracing my family tree and wonder if any of your readers would have any information on the following people. My grandfather was Allen McGillis born January 1814 in Lancaster Township. His mother was a McDonald. Possible brothers were Angus Roy, Andre and Donald.

I would appreciate any information on this or on any McGillis families in the area. This family were U.E.L. and originally came from Isle of Skye, Scotland.

Yours sincerely,
Miss Minola McGillis

Bainsville W I held annual

The annual meeting of the Bainsville Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. J. M. Petrie. Twenty-one members and two visitors answered the roll call which was to pay one's dues and to exchange a favorite recipe. AUDITOR'S REPORT — TOWNSHIP OF LOCHIEL

To: The Members of Council, Inhabitants and Ratepayers of the Township of Lochiel

We have examined the balance sheet of the Township of Lochiel as at December 31, 1980 and the statements of revenue and expenditure, capital operations, and reserve and reserve funds continuity and analysis of year end position for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests and other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Township of Lochiel as at December 31, 1980 and the results of its operations for the year then ended in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for Ontario municipalities applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

CROWDING THE BANDS—It may be hard to tell where the crowd leaves off and the bands begin in this photo, but there could be no mistaking the quality performance put on at Tagwi Secondary School last Thursday night. Performances by the Glengarry Pipe Band (not in photo) and the Tagwi band (at right in photo) were excellent, but the performance by the visiting I.E. Weldon Secondary School band (at left in photo) was nothing short of magnificent.

Glengarry senior calf club

At a recent meeting held at Alex D. MacLeod's farm, RR1, Dalkeith, 4-H members had a practice placing four of the MacLeod's first calf heifers in order from the best down, giving their reasons for doing so.

It was decided by the Assistant Ag. Rep., Jean-Denis Methot and the club leader, Peter VanSleeuwen that there would be a class of cows to be judged at each of the meetings, in order to give the members practice in recognizing what to look for in a top-producing dairy animal.

Earlier in the meeting, 4-H members had a discussion on what is to be the topic for the club project (poster) this year.

From the majority of votes, it was decided that the topic would be "The Different Kinds of Calf Housing."

This poster will have to be prepared for the Judging Day held on July 22, 1981, where it will be judged with others from different clubs.

The top three to five posters will be sent to the Williamstown Fair, held on August 7-9 and here the best one will be chosen.

The members this year chosen as club officers are as follows: President Warren MacIntosh; Vice-President Ewen MacDonald; Secretary Sandra MacLeod; Press Reporter Anna Akkermans.

The next meeting is set to be held on May 20 at the home of club member Cory Van Loon, RR2 Martintown.

PEOPLE ON THE MOVE

Weekend guests with Mary and Angus McLeod of Glen Nevis were their daughter Sandra, her husband Bob Peat and infant daughter Courtney Lyn. Joining them for their daughter's christening were: Mrs. Flora Peat, Jim Peat, Peter and Denise Boswell and John and Moira Coull all of Toronto, and Mel McLeod and Pam Robinson of Peterborough. Ted McKinnon and son Kevin of Oshawa also spent a few days with them.

In Memoriam

JOHNSON—Ernest. In loving memory of a wonderful father and grandfather who passed away April 25, 1979.
To know we never said good-bye,
Will always bring regret.
But the hearts that loved you dearly,
To bring you to my mind.
For the day I do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
No one sees us weep,
But many silent tears are shed
And make no outward show
For what it meant to lose you.
No one will ever know.
—Sadly missed and always remembered, Darlene, Roger and Nicole and Sylvie 15-1c

GAREAU—In fond and loving memory of our wonderful mother and mother-in-law, Mrs. Yolande Gareau, who passed away April 15, 1974.
Though it seems like yesterday
Seven years have gone by since that sad day.
Mom, you've left us much too fast
But memories of you will always last.
Your smile, your touch, your loving care,
Somehow we feel you're always there.
—So very sadly missed and lovingly remembered by Emile and Denyse St. Denise and Madeleine Gareau. 15-1p

MacCUAIG—In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, Kenzie MacCuaig, who passed away April 21, 1980.
From our happy home and circle
God has taken one we loved;
Borne away from sin and sorrow,
To a nobler rest above.
—Sadly missed and always remembered by his wife Mary, son William and family. 15-1c

JOHNSON—In loving memory of a dear husband Ernest, who passed away suddenly April 25, 1979.
Quickly and quietly came the call
Your sudden death surprised us all.
There's still a deep ache in our hearts today,
That passing of time will not take away.
A place in our hearts that nothing can fill,
We miss you so and always will.
—Always remembered by wife Doreen. 15-1p

In Memoriam

LAPORTE—In loving memory of a dear daughter and granddaughter Suzanne, who died accidentally April 22, 1978.
Your end came sad, sudden and too soon,
No time to say goodbye.
You were gone before we realized
And only God knows why.
—Sadly missed by mom and Dad, Mr. and Mrs. Henry St. Denis, also sisters and brother. 15-1p

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF BIG FACTORY ALLOWANCES

MASSEY'S MF 640 PLANTER: FAST, ACCURATE AND RELIABLE.

Our new MF 640 row crop planter has an air pressure selection system which gives you more seed in the ground per hour, with accuracy and care.
The seed is dropped into even furrows, uniformly cut by double disc openers that work exceptionally well through heavy trash. Each furrow is closed by a heavy press wheel which firms the soil for fast seed germination. And the MF 640's high-capacity, 1¼-bushel (44 l) seed hoppers are translucent (just like the fertilizer hoppers), so you always know exactly how full they are.
For more about the MF 640 planters, plus parts, service and financing, contact us soon.

ONTARIO YOUTH EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM CONTINUES IN 1981

The Ontario Youth Secretariat has confirmed that the Ontario Youth Employment Program, or OYEP, will be operating again this year under the Ministry of Intergovernmental Affairs.

The program provides a grant of $1.25 for each approved hour of work performed by an employee who has reached the age of 15 and has not yet reached the age of 25 by April 13, 1981. This employee must be a resident of, and be eligible to work, in Ontario. The individual must not be a spouse, parent, child, brother, sister or any other relative who resides with the employer.

The subsidy period of the program begins April 13, 1981 and continues until October 18, 1981. Only 20 weeks of employment during that period are eligible for a grant.

Any farmer who will be hiring an individual under this program should contact the Ministry of Intergovernmental Affairs Subsidy Branch by calling, toll-free, 1-800-268-7592. Inquiries should be made as soon as possible.

CARD PARTY HELD

The euchre party held in the hall on Friday evening had 11 tables in play. The ladies first prize was taken by Mrs. Doris MacMaster and the men's first was won by Clifford Bickerstaff. The draw was won by Norman MacLeod. Hosts for the "do" were Stewart and Lloyd MacLennan. Next euchre April 24. This will be the last one for the season. Let's make it a "biggy." See you there.

LEAVE ON BUS TRIP

Mrs. Gilbert MacRae and Marnie MacRae leave from Morrisburg on Thursday for a bus trip to Nashville, Tennessee. They will return Monday evening. Highlight of the weekend will be the Grand Ole Opry Concert, with all the performers we hear so often on TV and radio. Other area people on the tour are Lois Bickerstaff, Mrs. Munroe MacCaskill and daughter Heather, and Mrs. Rhoda MacRae of Dunvegan. Sounds like fun. Don't you wish you were going with them?

WELCOME NEW ARRIVAL

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapman are pleased to announce the arrival of great grandchild number two, Jennifer Lynn Chapman, born in Montreal April 9, weighing in at 9 pounds even. She's the first born of Glen and Margie Chapman. Mother and daughter are doing well. The proud granddad, Robert Chapman, lives in St. Hubert. She is his first grandchild.

SPECIALSERVICESTOBEHELD

Stuart Johnson of the Canadian Bible Society will conduct the morning worship service in Glen Sandfield United Church, April 26. Such wonderful work is being accomplished by the society, it is always most interesting when a busy representative can find time to come and tell us about the world wide field they cover, and the fascinating people they have within their organization.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MY READERS

This excerpt taken from the Citizen from Dear Abby's column is worth passing along: Next Sunday is Easter. Please do not give a child, who is too young to care for it properly, a living gift. Every year, a shocking number of baby chicks, rabbits, kittens and puppies have been mauled, handled, smothered and neglected to death, by children who received them as gifts and regarded them as 'toys'. Instead give small children stuffed animals. Have a Happy Easter, all!

WOMEN ATTEND PRESBYTERIAL MEETING

Mrs. Margo MacRae, Mrs. Lorna Chapman, Mrs. Ethel MacKay, Mrs. Phyllis Noble and Mrs. Helen Upton of Alexandria all attended the 13th U.C.W. Presbyterial Annual Meeting, in Spencerville on April 8. Glen Sandfield led the worship service on the theme, The Year of the Disabled.

The afternoon speaker was Mrs. Gerry Percell who brought Eunice her beautiful seeing eye dog. She told of how she acquired the dog, of the rigorous training she underwent learning to cope without her husband's arm to lean upon, as she recently lost her husband. She learned how to garden, to pour tea without spilling it and also found that walking out to the corner store can be a very frightening challenge. There was music and a film. Murray Thompson spoke in the evening. He is co-editor of Ploughshares Monitor, which is a working group on Canadian Military Policy, and is sponsored by Canadian religious groups, including the United Church of Canada, and civic organizations. His subject was on nuclear disarmament.

Over 200 people sat down to an evening supper. What a turnout!

TWO PLEAS FOR CONSIDERATION

Please do not pet a seeing eye dog, when you meet a blind person on the street, the bus or anywhere else. You can destroy the closeness needed between the disabled person and the dog. You can distract the dog, and it might pull the sightless person onto the street, into an object or over some obstacle, causing grave injury. So I repeat, please do not pet or stroke that beautiful animal, you might be the cause of an injury sometime because of it. The next time you see that lovely, well cared for animal, admire from a distance please.

Also, if you are talking to any disabled person in a wheelchair for any length of time—"Please sit down." Imagine looking at the ceiling all day, every day. Think how tired your neck would get in that position.

Select '81 candidates, six to be enshrined

The directors of the Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame launched its 1981 program at a meeting last Wednesday evening in the board room of the Maxville and District Sports Complex. The first matter of business was the recording and welcome of noted county sportsman, Duncan A. Macdonell, as a new director.

The major item of the meeting was the selecting of the 1981 six candidates to be enshrined at the induction dinner, July 8, in Maxville.

Eleven nominations had been received for 1981. There were five nominees carried over from 1979-80. Sixteen in all to be reviewed.

After a lengthy discussion of each candidate's credentials, the following were selected:

Peter MacInnes, Greenfield-Maxville. Peter MacInnes is generally recognized as the leading inspiration that founded the Glengarry Highland Games. As tossing the caber, weights, hammer and other athletic, competitive events were the basics of Highland Games centuries ago, long before the feature of massed bands and Highland dancing, as is so prominent today, the directors of the Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame included a by-law in their constitution proclaiming that the men and women, who through their dedication to Scottish culture and athletic traditions made the Glengarry Highland Games known throughout North America, not forgetting Scotland, should be recorded in Glengarry history for posterity by being enshrined in the Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame.

The directors feel confident that the selection of piper Peter MacInnes as the first of the "Games" to be inducted will meet with popular approval by all Glengarrians both at home and far beyond the county boundaries.

Eugene Macdonald: The Glengarry News has since its first issue always given generously of valued space reporting sports events throughout the county. This was the policy of the founding owner-editor, Col. A. G. F. Macdonald.

The late editor's son, Eugene (popularily known as "Gene") Macdonald has carried on faithfully this informative pattern of coverage that of late years included photography.

Gene Macdonald has other laurels to his credit in the realm of sport. The major one being the founder of the Glengarry Golf and Country Club.

Dr. Donald McRae, Dunvegan, now a retired dentist, residing in Montreal.

Among Dr. McRae's many achievements in athletics heading the list is his tenure as commander of the Canadian Bisley team competing in England at the meets of 1947-50 and 1956. He was made a life member in 1957.

Dr. J. A. P. Sullivan. Known from his Williamstown boyhood days as "Paddy" Sullivan. He was generally rated by his peers as the best centre ice hockey player ever developed in Glengarry county. All the way from Williamstown to Pittsburg playing with and against NHL greats of the 1920's.

Hugh D. McDermid, Martintown. "Big Hughie D." as he was affectionately known especially by tug-of-war fans during the era following World War One to the 1930's. He was among the stalwarts that won championships by the Martintown-Apple Hill teams.

J. P. "Joe" Grant: Alexandria's native son who played an important role in a defensive position in hockey and especially with Alexandria's 1913 Lower Ottawa Valley lacrosse champions. Joe Grant was a top ranking boxer in his younger days and was the holder of the Canadian middleweight crown in 1908. He also had a unique war record serving in the Boer War, enlisting at age 16, and World War One.

A charter to incorporate the Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame is in the application stage. Following the granting of a charter the chief objective of the directors will be the launching of a financial campaign to ultimately erect a museum.

Plans for the induction dinner program will be drafted at the next meeting.
