From them to you . . .

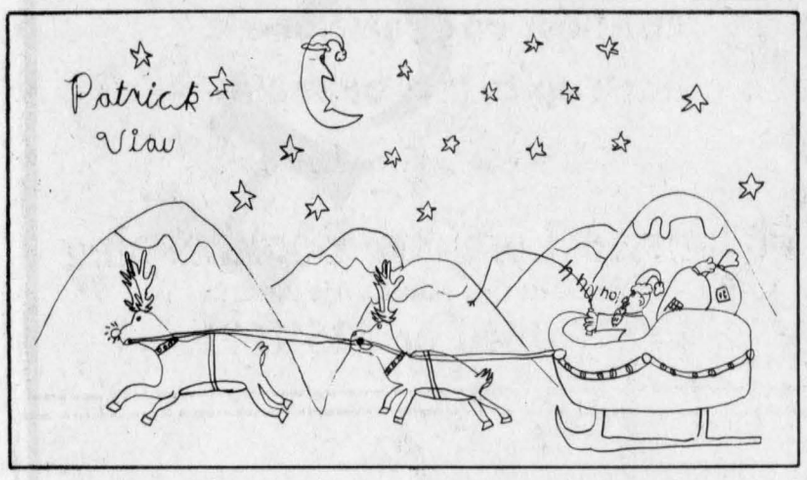
The spirt and meaning of the Christmas season can often be seen in the eyes of children — and in their words.

With this in mind, The Glengarry News has again this year let our county's school children tell us all about Christmas in this year's greetings section, through poems, essays, letters to Santa Claus and, of course, artwork. To keep letters, essays and poems authentic, they were not edited for spelling or grammar.

Regrettably, we couldn't fit in all of the submissions we received from Glengarry's schools. However, we assure those children who sent letters to Santa that they will be forwarded to the North Pole for proper 'processing'.

We hope you enjoy this 1992 Christmas greetings supplement, and we, along with all of the businesses which have sponsored ads in the section, wish you a joyous holiday season.

—The editor



Christmas Time

It's cold and snowy outside
We must hurry to put up the Christmas tree
Because Christmas is tomorrow.
We have to get dressed up to mass
Today was a long day . . .
Finally mass is over and we get ready for bed.
During the night Santa Claus comes
When we wake up we open all our presents.
After this we go to gramma's for dinner.

La neige

Il fait froid dehors,
La neige gèle notre corps
La neige est blanche,
Les feuilles sont parties des branches.

C'est le premier jour de l'hiver,
La neige est belle et claire
Les flocons sont beaux et blancs,
On court dans les champs.

Poème composée par les élèves de la 3e, Ecole Sainte-Marie,

Noël

Noël est une fete,
On met des guirlandes sur la tête
Les cloches sonnent,
Et elles résonnent

A Noël on reçoit des cadeaux,
Il y en a des petits et des gros
On décore notre sapin,
Et on y met des lutins.

Noël c'est la fête de Jésus,
Que est né à Bethléem
Cet enfant qu'on a attendu,
On prie pour lui car on l'aime.

Composé par les élèves de 3e année,
Ecole Sainte-Marie,
Green Valley

Noël Noël

Noël, Noël, j'aime Noël parce que j'ai beaucoup de cadeaux.
Noël, Noël, j'aime bien le Père-Noël.
Noël, Noël, j'aime aller visiter mes grands-parents.
Noël, Noël, j'aime Noël on va jouer avec mes cousins et coussines, après avoir manger.
Noël, Noël, j'aime jouer dans la neige.
Noël, Noël, Jésus est né.
Noël, Noël, tout est blanc comme des lapins.
Noël, Noël, les trois mages viennent voir le nouveau-né.
Noël, Noël, les rennes du Père-Noël arrêtent chez moi.
Noël, Noël, les familles se réunissent pour fêter la naissance de Jésus.

Christmas Morning

On Christmas I leave some milk and cookies for Santa. When I wake up I stay in bed thinking about the wonderful presents I will get. I look in my stocking. Mom takes pictures of us opening our stocking. Then we open our presents.

Christmas Morning

I wake up when it's still dark outside. I wake up my sister. I tiptoe to the kitchen with my sister to make breakfast. I lok in my stocking. My sister and I put on the kettle for my mom. And then we go to the living room and set the table for my mom and dad. Then my mom and dad wake up. I close my eyes and open a present and then carefully open all of them. And I give them out to whoever it is.

Trying to be good

We are all at Madame Patsy's to write this letter to you. We all stay with her from Monday to Friday while our Mommy's and Daddy's are at work. This year for Christmas we would like the following, starting with the youngest.

—Christine who is seven months old, for her first Christmas would like a doll.

—Dalton who is eight months old, and for his first Christmas would like a red wagon.

—Mathieu who is 2½ years old wants a car.

—Josée who is 3½ years old wants a Barbie doll.

—Alex who is 4½ years old wants a skateboard and a G-I-Joe.

After school, Mathew who is 6½ years old comes in, from the Alexander School, and he wants a Game Boy. This year, we all tried to be good children, especially for Madame Patsy, but some days sure is hard. We are looking forward to have you come to each of our homes on Christmas Eve. We are all going to leave you some milk and cookies. Oh yes, please Santa, don't forget all our cousins and friends!

We love you.

Christmas morning

When Christmas arrives I am the first to awaken. I always have to wake up my brother and sister, my mom and dad. I sometimes pass out presents. I don't realy buy the presents. I make them. My grandmother says that making a present is better because it comes from the heart.

Dear Santa:

My name is Adam and I have a new baby sister called Stacie. My mommy and daddy are Lorna and Keith. Sometimes I am a good boy and sometimes bad. Please bring my sister and I some toys for Christmas. I would like a flashlight just like my daddy's and also a microphone and a train set. Could you bring my sister Stacie a doll and some clothes for her because she's too little to play with toys. Please Santa don't forget all my cousins and my little friends.

Love, Adam and Stacie Massia,
P.S. I will leave you some milk and cookies for your long trip.

Dear Santa:

This year I would like a tether ball and a Game Boy and a football and a skateboard and please some golf clubs and a new bike.

Christmas is white snow falling from the sky.

Christmas is presents that people give out to others.

Christmas is Jesus when he was born.

Christmas is carols people love to sing.

Christmas is a love feast that people have on Christmas.

Christmas is Jesus in the manger.

Christmas is God our saviour.

Christmas is singing praises to God.

Christmas is a tree with lights in the corner of the house.

Christmas

It was Saturday night every one was sleeping. Dad and mom were up watching. Where was Santa? It was 10:40 the news came on. It had a map on TV. Santa was in London. They were watching their favorite TV show for 20 minutes. Then it was a 11:00. The map came back Santa was in town. 30 minutes later they were asleep. Santa came. In the morning they could smell hot soup. They could see footsteps. They could hear snow falling, falling from the sky. They tasted cocoa. Tom closed his eyes and felt his presents. He was happy.

Just a few things . . .

Dear Santa:

I know there are a lot of children who want a lot of things. This year I only want a few things for Christmas. My friend Jeff said there's no such thing as a Santa Claus. He said that his mother gives the gifts, and he said we're too old to believe in you. I think that know mater what age you are you can still believe in Santa Claus.

My mom said that if you believe in the spirit of Christmas, inside your hearts, there is really a Santa Claus. Well let's go on with the letter.

For Christmas I would like: Esy 2 do, gimp, clothes sweet Valley kids books, and that's all. But me and my family realy want a computer.

Well how are y our reindeers? And how about your elfs? Well me and my sisters and mom and dad are fine. I hope you get my letter before Christmas. Here's a poem:

Roses are red
And trees are green,
But I know someone very clean
His name is Santa
Oh yes it is in case
If you're looking for him
Just pop on in
It's tea and cookies
Santa's favorite
Don't you miss it
Because it's the best!

Christmas morning

On Christmas morning my sister Alanna comes to wake me up and we go down stairs and open our presents. When mom and dad wake up they open their presents. Then we get dressed and go to my nannies. There's usually more presents there when we're there we go down stairs and tear open our presents and then we have breakfast. About three hours later we have lunch and then about five hours later we have supper. Then it's time to go home and then we play with all the presents we got.

Soirée de Noël

Une journée avant Noël, nous avons decoré notre sapin de Noël. Nous avons déposé des cadeaux sous l'arbre. Après cela, nous sommes allés magasiner. La soirée arrive, nous allons à la messe de minuit. Un heure après, nous sommes à la maison. Nous avons été nous coucher pour se lever le lendemain très tôt. Le matin arrive et nous sommes exités. Que voyons-nous devant nos yeux? Des cadeaux tout partout . . . Des cadeaux qui remplissent tout le salon. On commence à trier les cadeaux. C'est amusant parce qu'il y a un beau sapin décoré et des cadeaux partout. Trois heures plus tard, mes parents se lèvent. On mange des bonnes crêpes. Après, la visite commence a arriver et on commence à célébrer Noël.

Un Noël triste

Noël s'en vient de plus en plus proche. J'aimerais te dire une histoire à propos de Noël. A peu près une semaine avant Noël mes parents Lynne Quenneville et Réjean Quenneville allaient acheter des, cadeaux de Noël. Mais sortant l'auto de l'entrée il y avait un homme qui n'était pas sur le bon côté-du chemin. Mes parents était dans ce stupide accident d'auto. Mais ils sont encore vivants.

à Noël l'enfant
Jésus est né.
Nous avons des beaux cadeaux. Les enfants et parents aiment jouer dans la neige. Moi j'aime Noël parce que la veille de Noël j'ai toujours beaucoup de plaisir. On attend minuit et quand minuit arrive
C'est Noël. Le soir de Noël, il y a toujours de la neige. C'est beau! Nous allons à la messe. Noël c'est important parce qu'il faut faire des paniers pour les familles dont leurs parents n'ont pas assez d'argent. Mais dans le temps de Noël ce que j'aime le plus, c'est décoré l'arbre de Noël et la maison. Et avec toutes

The first Christmas

It was many years ago that Jesus was born. I remember every detail. It was the day when I was moved in the barn. I'll tell you my version of the first Christmas.

It was getting late. I was just getting settled in when the door opened. In came a woman and a man. I was puzzled. They don't work here. The man took the hay of me and put it on the floor. I was about to shout at him but then I remembered humans aren't allowed to see mangers move. So I let the man take the hay. Then I looked at the woman, she was unusually fat. I had read about that somewhere. I was trying to sound out the word prrreegg. Oh well! All I knew was that it was something to do with a baby. Hours past. I eventually got sleepy. I was soon in a deep sleep. Suddenly I felt something heavy being put on me. I looked up and saw the cutest little baby I have ever seen. I heard the mother call the baby Jesus.

That's how the first Christmas went in my eyes.

The first Christmas

Once upon a time there was a girl and boy called Mary and Joseph.

They were told by an angel that they would have a boy called Jesus. So they went to Bethlehem. They went to the inn. But it was packed. They asked if they could stay in the barn. The innkeeper said yes. Mary had Jesus. They wrapped him in cloth and lay him in the manger. Three wise men came to worship him. They gave Jesus myrr, frankincense and gold. Shepherds came. A whole bunch of people came to worshop him.

The end.

Le bas de Noël

Il était une fois, une petite fille qui s'appelait Sophie. A chaque Noël, elle allait toujours au sous-sol fouiller dans la boîte de Noël.

Elle savait que Noël arriverait bientôt alors elle alla fouiller dans la boîte de Noël. Elle trouva son bas et l'accrocha en haut du foyer décoré.

Quatre jours plus tard, elle dit: "J'ai hâte à ce soir car c'est la veille de Noël." Le soir arriva et Sophie prépara une assiette de biscuits et un verre de lait. Après, elle alla se coucher.

Le lendemain matin, Sophie alla voir dans son bas mais elle n'a rien vu. Elle était très déçue. Sophie alla voir ses parents et elle leur dit qu'elle n'avait rien eu. Mais ses parents avaient mis quelque chose dans son bas. Sa mère lui dit: "Va voir ton frère peut-être qu'il t'a volé ton cadeau. Alors Sophie alla voir son frère. Elle dit à son frère: "As-tu volé mon cadeau?" Et son frère lui dit: "Oui, ah! je t'ai volé ton cadeau."

Sophie alla voir ses parents et leur dit: "Eric a volé mon cadeau." Ses parents lui dirent: "Ne t'inquiète pas, on va t'en acheter un autre. Elle leur dit: "Merci papa et maman!" Et Sophie alla jouer dehors dans la neige.

Le soir de Noël

Il était une fois un soir de Noël sombre et mystérieux. Tout à coup un ange m'apparut. Il me dit: "Je suis ton ange Gardien." —Mais qu'est-ce que tu veux me dire au juste? "Je veux te dire qu'à minuit tu iras devant ta porte et tu regarderas."

Quatres heures plus tard, il est temps que j'aille. Je suis en avant et je ne vois rien. Dix minutes plus tard, ah! je vois quelque chose, c' est une lumière jaune et brillante. Mais c'est le Père Noël! "Bonjour mon garçon! Je vais t'amener faire un tour."

—Où suis-je? "Tu es chez moi." —Comme c'est bizarre ici. Tiens, c'est vous qui fabriquez vos propres jouets.

"Oui mon garçon, c'est nous qui fabriquons nos jouets. Viens on va aller distribuer les cadeaux."

Comme c'est beau dans le ciel! Quand on a fini de distribuer les cadeaux il me ramène chez moi.

"Réveille-toi," dit maman.

—Oh maman! J'ai fait un beau rêve!

Santa's Christmas accident

It was a long time ago when Santa was delivering gifts. He saw the same old chimney. But it had an insert. He was half-way down when he saw the insert. He tried to get up but he couldn't. All the reindeer had to help him out. He had to come in by the window. At all the other houses he dropped down a stone to see if it had an insert. Most of them did. A lot of windows must have been open. I hope Santa remembers next year.

Santa's chimney disaster

Last Christmas Santa had a terrible disaster! He was next door and our neighbors had blocked their fireplace. When he got down their chimney he found his path was blocked! So he used fireworks to send a message to his elves. The message was HELP! The elves rescued Santa by throwing a rope down the chimney. Santa climbed up the rope and decided to use the door for a change. He was fed up with chimneys!

Talking about Christmas

Soon it will be Christmas. We put up the Christmas tree and decorate it. We can put some Christmas balls, plastic apples, plastic Santa faces, and some bells. Then we go to bed. And when we get up, there are presents under the Christmas tree.

by Stephanie St. Louis, Gr. 4, St. Joseph's School, Alexandria.

C is for Jesus Christ
H is for happy children
R is for littered cars
I is for Ice
S is for Santa Claus
T is for toys
M is for more little toys
A is for away in a manger
S is for Santa's sleigh.

I like Christmas because . . .

I like my Christmas tree because it does not say gee. I like Christmas because there are a lot of presents, but we never get any pheasants. I like red, because it's the color of my bed. I like snow because it falls low. I like Marie, because she's like a fairy. I like Christmas because the people are always smiling, they must be loving. I like songs, because they are long.

I like the word Advent because it rhymes with vent. I like gold because it rhmes with fold. I like yellow because I have a fellow. I like green, because it rhmes with bean. I like pink because in a pen is ink. I like the name Chantal because it rhymes with pal. I like my car because it's the color of a star. I do not like silver because it rhymes with killer.

Jennilee Hamelin, Gr. 4, St. Joseph's, Alexandria

The Christmas Accident

It was Christmas eve. Santa was packing up the sled and Rudolf's nose was shining more brightly than ever before. But what Santa was about to experience I'd rather not say. But I will anyways. It was 12:15 and Santa reached the house of the insert. They landed on the roof. He said "I hope they like their Christmas presents as much as last year." Then he wiggled his nose and went down the chimney. He slid down alright but . . . He thumped down on something hard.

"Oh my gracious" he said, "I can't see a thing." Then he realixed he was in an insert chimney. He called to his reindeer. "Go back to the North Pole to get some help." So the reindeer flew back to get some help. Meanwhile Santa tried to get up the chimney but he fell down again. Back at the North Pole the reindeer got some elves and set out for Santa. Santa was still trying to get out of the chimney. He got a lot of bumps and bruises. When the reindeer came back with the elves and the emergency rope, they hooked the rope on Rudolf and went down and hooked it on Santa and pulled him up. When they delivered all the presents they took Santa home and patched him all up and put him to bed. Santa will be more careful next year.

A Santa Story

Once upon a time a witch hated Christmas. So she cast a spell on Santa's elves. The elves ruined Santa's house. So Santa moved and the witch moved to Santa's house. Santa moved to the other side of the earth. Santa found some elves. The elves made a camera and a helicopter. They attached them together. Two elves went in the helicopter and flew over the witch's new hideout. They took pictures of the hideout. The witch saw them. She was trying to cast a spell on them. She was getting weak. The wand blew up. The witch died. Santa moved back, and his old poor elves came back to normal.

The end.

Santa Yoshi

The little Yoshi kids were very happy because Santa Yoshi was visiting Yoshiland. But in Koopa kids were sad because Santa Yoshi had not come to visit them. King Koopa decided to dress as Santa Yoshi. This made the Koopa kids very happy.

The end.

Dear Santa:

I like you. I'd like my ears pierced, and new ear rings, and some thing like nail polish. Please bring a surprise for mom and dad and other surprises for me.

December night

One night on December 25, 1983 Santa Claus went to his first pick-up. Santa didn't know the fireplace had an insert. So Santa went down the chimney about half way when he noticed that there was an insert. And there was also a little fire. Uh Oa! He slipped! He fell right down and in to the fire, but there was no fire anymore. Where did it go? Then he noticed a little face peeking around the corner. It was Jessica. Jessica didn't say anything. Santa thought she might have turned the fireplace off. Then Jessica walked over and unlocked the insert. Santa went straight to work when he was finished he laid his finger beside his nose and up the chimney he rose.

Noël

Noël est une fête importante parce que c'est la date de la naissance de Jésus. Noël est ma fête favorite parce que j'ai beaucoup de cadeaux et je vois mes oncles, mes tantes, mes cousins et mes cousines. J'aime aussi les bonbons, que je reçois. Une autre raisons pur lequel, j'aime cette fête c'est que mon anniversaire est proche.

Santa's late night visit

On our door
There's a very tiny light,
For when Santa Claus comes
In the middle of the night.
My sister and I are waiting for
The man called Santa Claus
She tinks it's such a bore.
He rounded the corner
And came to a stop,
He had a bunch of toys
From his busy workshop.

Nut Meg to the rescue

T'was the night before Christmas
In Santa's workshop
Elves were cleaning up
When they heard "kerplop!"

Santa Claus fell
And hurt his leg
He cried and cried
For little Nut Meg.

Nut Meg ran in
And bandaged it tight
Then Santa was ready
For the historic flight.

He got in the sleigh
And rode fast away
He said Ho Ho Ho
Have a Very Merry Day.

The First Christmas
Reader Mary

"Hi" my name is Mary. I am here to tell you what really happened on the first Christmas.

Long, long ago, when Joseph and I had just arrived Bethlehem we went to many inns. We had given up and borrowed some shelter. It was a stable. Then not long after that I had a young boy named Jesus. Then an Angel had gone to some poor shepherds and told them "The Savior has been born. He is in Bethlehem and he and his parents are in a stable." So the shepherds came to the stable, with a special present. It was a baby lamb. They gave it to the Lord Jesus. Then three wise men came with frankinsence, myrr and gold.

There is more but it's another story.

The end.

When Santa burned his boots

Once upon a time there was a family that got a new stove. It was right before Christmas so when Santa Claus came he had all the toys. He got out of the sled with the Thompson's toys. And started down the chimney. He got three-quarters down and got stuck. He could not get out. He couldn't see the opening. It was getting hot so he felt like a boiled egg. After a little bit of thinking his boots started to burn and so he rushed out and went in the front door. He asked the Thompsons "What happened?" They told him. They bought a new fire insert. Then they all sat around the fire and had cookies. Then Santa left to the next house and they lived happily ever after.

Noël

J'aime les beaux cadeaux
Comme des cassettes de Nintendo
Quand on va visiter le monde
On danse on fait des rondes.

J'aime Noël comme c'est amusant
On voit beaucoup d'enfants
Noël, il y a des lumières
On va chez ma grand-mère.
