Counties agree to reduce SDG to 12 municipalities

Proposal passed overwhelmingly by 43 to three votes

By Sue Harrington,
News* correspondent

The proposal for restructuring the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry was accepted by counties council at a special meeting held Friday, following months of meetings and discussions.

The proposal reduces the number of municipalities within the counties from 37 to 12, and is effective Jan. 1, 1998.

The motion to accept the proposal with several small changes, passed in a recorded vote, 43 to three, with only Alexandria's Deputy-Reeve John Hope, and the representatives from Chesterville, voting against.

Absent were Alexandria Reeve Francine Richer, and Gwen Morris, the reeve of Kenyon.

Although most of the proposal was accepted without discussion, there were concerns raised over policing, the special status of the Iroquois Library and whether or not all municipalities had to be involved in the amalgamation process.

The village of Chesterville's reeve, James Cook, made a last-ditch effort to prevent his community from being swallowed up by the new Township of North Dundas, when he made a motion to exempt Chesterville from the restructuring proposal.

Reeve Cook said he had not been given a mandate on amalgamation by his electorate, nor did he feel that he should be deciding the amalgamation fate of other municipalities.

Alexandria's Hope, one of the few who voted in favor of the Chesterville motion, which was defeated 40 to six in a recorded vote, asked, "Why do we have the right to say 'in or out' for other municipalities?"

George Currier, the reeve of Maxville, said he found the motion interesting.

"The Village of Maxville was against this for seven months," said Currier. "Al Leach (Minister of Housing and Municipal Affairs) said we don't have to amalgamate. Mr. Drouin (a ministry representative) said we don't have to amalgamate."

Yves Drouin, who was present at Friday's meeting to offer clarification and/or advice, said he had always said, "If the majority decides, then it's on."

Raymond Lapointe, counties co-ordinator, said that Chesterville could not be exempt, because as a member of the counties it was part of the proposal, and the only avenue for it to be excluded would be for the village to separate from the United Counties.

Several municipalities felt that section (viii) of the list of services to be maintained by the county should be dropped from the proposal. Section (viii) reads "Police services if such services become a responsibility of municipal government."

Lapointe said that the majority of municipalities want it to be a county responsibility.

"It has to be one way or the other, county or local," said Lapointe. "It can't be something for one and something else for others."

The co-ordinator did say that later,

Final decision on county names still up in the air

By Sue Harrington
News* correspondent

Although the United Counties restructuring proposal has been accepted and should be on its way to the province within a few days, the Glengarry name issue has not been resolved.

In a strange twist, the municipalities of Charlottenburgh, Lancaster, and Lancaster Township will become known as South Glengarry, while the northern municipalities will be called Glengarry – as an interim name.

Originally the southern muncipalities had intended to call themselves, "The Township of Char-Lan," while the north had decided on "The Township of Glengarry." But public pressure made it clear that the majority of electors in the south preferred a name which included the word Glengarry.

Acting on this, the councils of Lancaster Village and Lancaster Township passed resolutions that the name of their new muncipality be called, "The Township of South Glengarry." Charlottenburgh, however, decided to wait, hoping that the northern municipalities would change their proposed name to "The Township of North Glengarry."

But because two out of the three southern muncipalites wanted South Glengarry, Charlottenburgh was forced to bow to the majority and accept "The Township of South Glengarry," regardless of what the north decided.

The northern municipalities were split on Friday, however, with Hope and Maxville Reeve George Currier willing to change to North Glengarry.

"We fought for a year to keep Glengarry together," said Currier.

"The Village of Maxville would have no problem with "North Glengarry."

Mr. Hope also said he would acquiesce, "if it would get things going. The transition committee will never agree on a name," he said.

Finally, veteran council member, J.C. Whitteker, of Williamsburg Township, who said that the issue should be decided that day, suggested the "Glengarry men take a five minute break to decide this."

Despite doing so, however, the council members could not reach a consensus, and Lochiel Deputy-Reeve, Bill Hagen suggested that the "Township of Glengarry" be left as an interim name.

Yves Drouin, representing the Ministry of Housing and Municipal Affairs explained that it was acceptable to have an interim name as long as an indication was given to the ministry as to when the real name would be chosen and how.

Carnival warms up winter

Sleigh rides, dog races and face painting highlight a great weekend

By Todd Lihou
News* reporter

The Alexandria Winter Carnival has left its mark on area residents.

According to carnival officials and local enthusiasts this year's carnival was a complete success and almost everyone in town was out to enjoy some of the events.

This year's edition of the carnival - complete with sleigh rides, dog races, talent shows and the first carnival queen since 1984 - brought some warmth to an otherwise dismal winter season.

Aline Gareau Hebert, chair of the carnival committee, summed up the festivities in a single breath.

"All I can really say is, it was a complete success," said Gareau Hebert. "The kids were smiling, the parents were laughing. We had lots of positive comment."

The carnival is fast becoming a winter institution in Alexandria, following a comeback of sorts last year when the town celebrated its first winter festival of the 1990's.

Well over 3,000 people attended the four day event, one of the biggest, if not the largest winter carnival in Glengarry's history.

Queen Chantal Dubeau

This year's carnival was sponsored by the Alexandria and District Chamber of Commerce as well as the Business Improvement Area.

"People told us there was something for all ages, not just kids," said Gareau Hebert. "We also had lots of people come up to us and say they enjoyed the crowning of the Queen and thought we did it the very fairly."

This year's carnival queen, 16-year-old Chantal Dubeau, said her coronation was one of the most exciting times in her life.

"I wasn't expecting it, but I was praying for it," said Dubeau. "It went pretty well (the evening of the announcement). It felt unbelievable when it finally happened."

Dubeau and nine other local teens had to sell raffle tickets in order to have their names entered into the draw to become carnival queen. The more ticket books they sold, the more names were entered.

Dubeau sold 64 books and was crowned the evening of the carnival talent show when her name was called three times.

The grade 11 students at ESRG said she was happy to be the first queen since the mid 1980's.

"It was pretty fun. Everyone is sort of looking up to you and people were happy to bring the carnival queen back.

Kenyon boy spends one night behind the scenes

By Todd Lihou
News* reporter

A young Kenyon Township resident has made his first step to the National Hockey League.

Seven-year-old Matthew Collard got to live the dream of his short-life as he got to spend one home game as an Ottawa Senators stick boy.

Matthew was responsible for filling the water bottles between periods, as well as dishing out some lucky handshakes before the game.

The future NHLer could barely contain his excitement before and after the game according to his parents Vincent and Lynne.

Matthew received a Senators game jersey - complete with autographs - as well as a Senators puck.

According to Mom, it was a real chore to get Matthew out of his uniform.

"He wore it for three days and two nights," said Lynne. "Finally I said 'Matthew, I want you to take that off.'"

Matthew said the highlight of his trip, among meeting several players and going into the dressing room, were the fights and being able to sit behind Ottawa goaltender Ron Tugnutt.

He even got to spread a little bit of luck before the game started.

Matthew will tell you the reason Ottawa beat the visiting Washington Capitals 5-1, Jan. 15, was because of a lucky hand shake he and Senators defenceman Steve Duchesne shared before the contest during the practice.

"I gave him a lucky shake," he said.

Matthew won the opportunity to go behind the scenes with the Senators by having his name chosen at

Rest home cuts staff hours

By Todd Lihou
News* reporter

Maxville Manor has announced a number of staffing cutbacks in order to compensate for increased costs and decreased revenues.

While there won't be any layoffs at the charitable home for the aged at the moment, the number of hours worked by staff will be reduced, by as much as 30 per cent in some cases.

According to Dave Lipton, representative for the United Steelworkers Union, the hours are "already cut to the bone. Staff are concerned that they will not be able to care adequately for the residents if they are required to do double-duty in both nursing and housekeeping."

Housekeeping hours will be cut by nine per cent, while janitorial hours will be slashed by 30 per cent.

The union has asked the Ministry of Health to investigate the quality of care at the home for the aged.

Lipton said a memo from the manor cited increased costs and reduced revenues related to a drop in the home's funding formula as reasons for the cutbacks.

"But if they are truly concerned about finances, why are unionized staff, who are lower-paid, getting cut back more than non-union supervisory staff," said Lipton, adding that information from the Ministry of Health indicates that overall funding for Maxville Manor actually increased between 1995 and 1996 and will increase again this year.

Craig Munro, executive director for the manor, said some "necessary" decisions had to be made, but they will not affect the care of the residents.

Because revenue is down and costs, like group insurance, have increased, Munro said concessions have to be made in order to complete a balanced budget.

"Costs have gone up as well," said Munro. "Anything like this is never welcome news. It's not something we look at happily."

Lipton said union members, specifically nursing employees, may be required to perform housekeeping duties in order to maintain an acceptably clean environment.

Munro said in some cases the union is just "blowing smoke" in order to generate sympathy for their cause.

"They're just blowing smoke on things like that. We've reduced housekeeping hours significantly. That's not going to affect care directly," explained Munro.

He also said he is unsure why the Ministry of Health has been asked to inspect the quality of care at the hospital. He suspects it could be another union ploy to draw attention to their plight.

"They're trying to stir the pot up," said Munro. "They're caught and they have little recourse.

"We've spent a fair bit of time working on this. We have a community-based board that looks after this. We would never make any move to put our residents at risk."

Counties Council agrees to plan to cut municipalities under Bill 26, with a majority, the section could be taken out.

Also in the proposal, library services currently being provided by the SD&G County Library Board will be overseen by a committee appointed by the council for the county, and the board will be dissolved.

The question of Iroquois Library, an independent library run by the village, was raised. Council was told that the municipality would like the libary to stay as it is -- hours, librarian, and books.

Lapointe said they would be meeting with the "Iroquois Library people" on Feb. 18 to discuss the matter further, but that "they are coming in the system."

Council members in general had harsh words for the provincial government for pushing amalgamation upon them, but most agreed to work together to see it succeed.

Lochiel Reeve Ron MacDonell said he was not happy the way restructuring had happened, and that he hoped it would work out.

"Bigger is not necessarily better," said MacDonell. "I have some concerns, but I hope it works out. I'll certainly do my best."

Alexandria Home Hardware.

His grandmother, Annemarie Collard put his name and the names of all her other grandchildren into the draw.

Children's names are collected at 18 different Home Hardware stores in the Ottawa region. One store in the region is chosen to draw a name for the prize.

That store in turn draws the name of a child who wins a first prize trip to help out the Senators.

Matthew got to spend the night with a Senators chaperon and another prize winner.

Lynne said it was tough to loosen her apron strings and let Matthew have the run of the Corel Centre while she and her husband watched the game. But she quickly realized Matthew was in good hands.

"We had great seats and the building is so fantastic," said Vincent.

"We were sitting about 50 feet from him. We could see him the whole time."

But Matthew was too involved in the game to worry about his parents.

"He didn't look to find us once," said Lynne.

Matthew said the most surprising thing about the evening was getting a chance to visit the dressing room. He said he's never seen so many hockey pucks in his life.

"They were all frozen," said Matthew. "They keep them in a freezer. I saw tonnes of pucks."

Gilles Menard, co-owner of Alexandria Home Hardware, says he is more than happy to share his good fortune with the public.

This is just the first time this season his store has been chosen as the first prize winner for a lucky boy or girl.

Three prizes are drawn for each home game including a chance to help out the team, a pair of tickets and a hockey stick autographed by the players.

"Sometimes you might get really lucky," said Menard. "One store in Ottawa won the draw four weeks in a row."

Menard said he expects business to pick up once word of Matthew's good fortune circulates.

Education changes could prompt strike: union

Teachers federation issues confidential calendar of job action calling for lessons on cuts of province

By Todd Lihou
News* reporter

Local education officials are considering job action in an attempt to draw attention to the issues surrounding the rash of changes announced during the Ontario government's 'Mega-week' of provincial restructuring.

John McEwen, president of the Seaway district of the Ontario Secondary School Teacher's Federation (OSSTF), said the government has yet to make all of its announcements and teachers are proceeding with caution.

He said the possibility of a one-day strike, and other smaller forms of job action could be implemented to draw more public scrutiny.

"We just had Mega-week and the government has issued a whole bunch of changes really quickly," said McEwen. "As teachers and as citizens we are trying to raise a public debate on a number of issues."

McEwen said teachers in small groups will "pick on" other aspects of the education system, like using their spare time to perform the tasks of a secretary or a janitor, in order to make their cases heard.

The OSSTF has issued a confidential calendar of job action to its 50,000-member teachers, guidance counsellors, janitors and secretaries that calls for in-class lessons for students on how government cuts ill affect them.

McEwen said a one-day strike "is in the list of possibilities" teachers are considering, when the government makes more announcements, including the provincial funding model new school boards will have to work with.

"My interest is getting people focused on the issues," said McEwen.

He said a one-day strike may occur since "all the government's shoes haven't fallen yet. I can see it (a one-day strike) if certain things were done that were a direct affront to teachers, if there was no other way of dissuading the government."

Teachers at Rothwell-Osnabruck Secondary School in Ingleside agreed to spend 30 minutes during their lunch break last Friday to do filing, answer the phone and administer first aid while secretaries were treated to pizza and flowers.

According to Greg McGillis, vice-president of the Seaway district of the OSSTF, teachers will spend the day highlighting the important role that people outside the classroom play.

Karin Dillabough, spokesperson for the ministry of education, said it is "unfortunate" teachers are reacting in this manner.

"We think it is unfortunate these types of activities are taking place," said Dillabough.

"It is taking away from the kids in the classroom."

Dillabough said it could be "a couple of weeks" before the new funding model for restructured school boards is announced.

"As you know there is a lot of work being done right now," said Dillabough.

Town of Alexandria

Council Briefs

The following items were discussed at the regular meeting of the town council of Alexandria on Feb. 10.

More money being injected into sewers

Alexandria Town council has endorsed a proposal to incorporate more money into a sewer inspection and repair contract.

The ongoing work being completed by Sewer Matic is expected to cost an additional $68,000, over and above the already $480,385 contract agreed to by the town and the company.

Clerk Leo Poirier said the money will come from the town's 10-year budget that looks after bringing local utilities up to standard.

There is an estimated $1.8 million left in the budget that has yet to be assigned.

Poirier guesses the project could be completed by late April.

Application made for additional $50,000

Council has advised M.S. Thompson – an environmental consulting firm – to apply for an additional $50,000 from the Ontario Clean Water Agency in order to proceed with the local environmental assessment review.

The original plans held for an estimated $278,000 ceiling for the report, but Bill Knight of M.S. Thompson said an additional $50,000 could be required if costs exceeded the original plans.

Knight said only a "worst case scenario" would require the $50,000.

Drouin endorsed as transition chair

Council has endorsed a proposal that would see Yves Drouin, a municipal advisor with the Ministry of Municipal Affairs, sit as chair of the next transition committee.

The proposed municipality of Glengarry Township is waiting for a response from the province before proceeding with any further discussion regarding amalgamation.

Giant Tigers, magician coming to high school Thursday

By Todd Lihou
News* reporter

The jungle is coming to Glengarry District High School tomorrow.

Claude Haggerty and his illusion show will visit the school for two shows tomorrow, complete with a 200 lb. cougar and a 400 lb. Siberian tiger.

The Niagara Falls based magician has travelled from coast to coast in Canada, toting some five tonnes of equipment along with him.

His shows consist of several grand scale illusions including cutting some of his performers in half with a 30-inch power saw.

GDHS will receive 20 per cent of the profits from the show, which they will in turn donate to the provincial soccer tournament to be held later this spring at the school.

From his humble beginnings as a card trick artist, Haggerty's magic has grown to the point where he uses live animals in his sets.

Haggerty visited several elementary schools in the area and performed smaller shows to build up the attraction.

There will be an afternoon show for students at the school beginning at 2 p.m.

A show devoted to the general public will begin at 7 p.m. Admission is $8.

One-sided lessons don't belong here

We hope this county's high school teachers will not be tempted to follow the initiative of their union, which is seeking to push its political line within the classroom from Feb. 17 to 21. Using teenagers – and for that matter teachers – as political weapons would be a gross misuse of the trust the public gives them.

The Ontario Secondary School Teachers Federation apparently intends to move its political firefight with the province to a new theatre by encouraging its members to use curriculum kits designed by the union, in the classroom, for those four days. The kits contain material of an anti-government bent, material which could well skew students' perceptions of what exactly is going on with education restructuring in Ontario.

There are several reasons why such a repugnant strategy by the federation is wrong, and probably won't work.

First, it places teachers in a conflict-of-interest position. They have a personal interest in the restructuring of the province's educational systems and any re-design of curriculum. In a democratic society, it's legally and morally wrong to use one's position for personal gain.

Second, parents are in no mood these days to watch their children's education hijacked, for any amount of time or for any reason. The nationwide School Achievement Indicators Program (SAIP), which tested 13 and 16 year-olds in science in the spring of 1996, scored Ontario at the bottom of the pack even though the government spends more per student than any other province. While standardized exams are controversial, the SAIP test was designed to measure the success of educational systems – not individual pupils.

Finally, just who is deciding what is being taught in our high schools? We thought the curriculum came from the province and the school boards, and it is the responsibility of teachers to follow it. It seems to us there is a regulatory duty of the education ministry at stake here which, if not protected, opens up the possibility of other curriculums creeping into the classroom that have little to do with good education and a lot to do with politics.

No-one is questioning a teacher's right to open up the classroom to a discussion of current events. But there is no room in the same classroom for one-sided politics more akin to indoctrination than education. Here's hoping this county's teachers agree.

Without recognition excellence is hidden

Recognition is the handmaiden of excellence. The awarding of medals at the Olympic games is supposed to embody that idea on the international stage. But in Lancaster village, it is lived.

Lancaster has become known over the decades as a community that works in every sense of the word, a place full of "doers", where there has never been a shortage of people to lend a hand, to get involved, to make the place a better village. Witness its expansive Santa Claus parade – bigger than towns many times its size – and its collection of village events as evidence.

And because the people who live there know they've got a special place, they go out of their way to honor people and businesses who make it better.

The village's chamber did just that a week ago Saturday, honoring such upstanding citizens as Monseigneur "Father Rudy" Villeneuve, volunteer extrordinaire Marguerite MacLeod and the incredible contributions that Creg Quay has made to the area.

But we learned that same week that yet another Lancaster business, Auld Kirktown, was named Retailer of the Year by the Canadian Gift and Tableware Association in a competition against hundreds of stores from much larger centres from coast to coast.

The standards, philosophies and work ethic of owners Ranald and Madeleine MacDonald have long been familiar to people of this county, and it is appropriate that they should be recognized beyond the borders of Glengarry and Eastern Ontario. The quality of their business, a previous Lancaster chamber winner, is definitely without match here, and now we know, elsewhere.

But what common element is it that has earned these people and businesses such praise from their peers?

Apart from geography, each shares a desire to strive to be the best they can be.

Though Creg Quay and Auld Kirktown derive commercial benefit for their excellence, anyone who knows the owners/managers, being the best they can be is what drives them. Profit is a gauge of that excellence, a standard along with customer satisfaction, but not in itself the sole gauge by which their success is measured.

The spirit of selflessness exhibited by Father Rudy and Marguerite MacLeod is indicative of people who strive for the best in what people can do for people, in how they can influence others for the better, to inspire, to help, to change those things which can be changed for the good of the community.

Taken together, they add up to one outstanding village.

The brain cramp season is here

After Thoughts

by Joe Banks

Here at the Institute of Seasonal Brain Cramps, researchers have discovered that thinking during winter months can be dangerous to your health. Combined with the stress of everyday life, thinking – or the lack thereof – during this time of year can result in some embarrassing, if not downright dangerous, moments.

Actually, the researchers haven't discovered that themselves, as they have been attempting to tie their shoelaces these past few weeks without falling over.

But I can personally attest to this. A few weeks ago, my uncle and I unintentionally drove away from a local gas bar, blissfully ignorant of the fact that I had not paid the attendant for the $15 worth of gas. Later in the day, I was rapidly brought back to consciousness by one of Alexandria's finest, who tracked me down through license plate report by the attendant.

This, of course, was hugely embarrassing (I am still blushing), but not completely unusual. Both the police and gas bar attendants are seeing more of this happening, otherwise honest people forgetting to either pay or, worse, failing to remove the gas nozzle before driving away.

People actually understand when I tell them about the gas incident. They nod knowingly, and say something like, "Oh that. Just a lack of concentration." Little wonder.

Consider the groundhog on Feb. 1. He has been right only 36 per cent of the time in predicting an early spring. And yet, otherwise rational human beings actually get excited when they find out he has or has not seen his shadow, despite a appalling accuracy record.

And what groundhog in his or her right mind would be venturing out of a snugly warm hole in the ground on Feb. 1? It seems this seasonal brain cramp syndrome extends into the animal world too.

That would explain why one of our cats chases reflections on the kitchen wall, leaping and crashing into it as if there will be a moment when he will actually catch and eat it.

It's a fact that newspaper horoscopes are given a great deal of credibility at this time of the year. It's because ordinarily intelligent people refuse to think for themselves, resigned instead to let the fates make those decisions for them.

But a responsible psychic should know better. Every horoscope in the land between the first days of January and the end of March should say, "Do not make any decisions you can avoid. Procrastinate. Wait until the brain cramp season has passed."

With this in mind, the government and financial institutions may do us all a favor by shifting the annual RRSP season to later in the spring, when brain cells are stirring more efficiently.

They are, after all, baffled that only 35 per cent of the country's eligible RRSP contributors take advantage of the tax savings and benefits contributing to an RRSP brings.

But our researchers know better.

People are being urged to make decisions on their future at a time when putting pants on one leg at a time can be a challenge and sometimes dangerous to their health.

Consider that this is a time of year when actual human beings are driving quite large trucks onto ice surfaces without really knowing whether it will hold them.

Now I have nothing against ice fishing, being a fair-weather angler myself. But witness the report of 300 ice fishermen who were "rescued" by helicopter from Lake Simcoe in January, after the ice they were fishing on broke away and drifted from shore.

And this disorder doesn't seem to discriminate on the basis of hemisphere. Those people who sailed around the world via the Antarctic, playing with 50-foot waves, must be just regular people at any other time of the year.

Surely they are in no position to understand the difference between a load and no-load mutual fund.

Or setting their financial goals and governing their savings accordingly. For most people right now, setting financial goals generally means: (1) Get, or keep a job (2) Buy food in order to stay alive (3) Pay the rent or mortgage to stay warm (4) Pay the hydro bill to keep from going blind.

Come, say June, when the weather matches increasing brain activity, we can expect the mental processes to spring forth again, the perfect time to contemplate retirement. It also happens to correspond with the time the greatest number of people would prefer to be away from work.

The RRSP industry would have a field day, or so our researchers tell us.

Letters to the editor

Beware! This could happen to your town

To the editor:

Look out Sudbury area! Be wary Ottawa/Carleton municipalities! Watch your back Timmins and suburbs! Keep your eyes peeled Windsor and area towns! Put your guard up Stratford! Beware Peterborough area!

Look out all Ontario!! No town is safe!

In an effort to download fiscal responsibilities from provincial to municipal jurisdictions, the government of Ontario is planning to create as many super-cities as it can steamroll through the Legislature. It's happening to Dundas, Flamborough, Glanbrook, Ancaster and Stoney Creek right now and it could happen to your community.

Plans are well underway in the Toronto and Ottawa/Carleton areas and talks are beginning in Windsor and Sudbury. The Kingston amalgamation is nearly complete.

And all this is happening without any public consultation of any sort! As a result, Toronto has announced it is having a referendum as are the towns of Dundas, Ancaster, Flamborough, Glanbrook and Stoney Creek. However, Mike Harris, Premier of Ontario, has already said that it doesn't matter what the result of the referendums are, this is going to happen whether we like it or not.

The effect of our town of Dundas is profound, 1997 is our Sesquicentennial year. One hundred and fifty years of history and tradition will be dissolved with a stroke of the pen at Queen's Park as our town's charter is revoked. And no matter how hard we try to keep our community the caring, beautiful, friendly, dynamic town that it is, after a while we will simply become a neighborhood of Hamilton. We will lose our identity as assimilation takes place.

The rationale for this is supposed to be: 1) saving money and 2) ensuring one-stop shopping for services. However no one, not the government, the facilitator, nor the local councils can show us how much money will be saved and whether we would save even more by simply utilizing better business practices. Even the prospect of reducing the number of elected politicians doesn't add up as the new mega-council will be full time and well paid.

Historically, transition expenses run around $50 million. Moreover, it has been determined that Dundas' tax rate will increase 20.7 per cent with some of the other municipalities seeing increases of over 50 per cent! We will lose local decision making and will not have parity on the new mega-council. The only community seeing a benefit from this deal will be Hamilton which will reap our tax base to cover its deficit while enjoying majority representation on the new council.

Small towns are the life blood of Ontario. They are what make Ontario a serene and beautiful place to live and visit. They are an oasis of caring, community minded people. If we wanted to live in an uncaring, crime and poverty infested mega-city, we would move there!

We have to stick together and not be bullied into something we don't want. Think carefully before they come to our community proposing a mega-city. Think about what's at stake, historically, financially, structurally and emotionally.

In friendship,
Pat File,

Highland Paths

by Ken McKenna

In my previous column I included excerpts from some of the many letters received from all over Canada and the States about this column. I mentioned Fr. Malcolm MacDonell, former president of St. Francis Xavier University in Antigonish, N.S. He has been a friend for over 35 years and is one of the most articulate and amusing people I know. He has been an inspiration to both Anne and myself and is one of the chief reasons why we have devoted so much time and energy to the study and promotion of the Gaelic language and the Highland heritage of Canada. We used to meet every summer at Calum Iain and Iona MacLeod's summer cottage in Arisaig, near Antigonish, with people like Fr. John V. Campbell, Fr. Vince MacLellan and Msgr. Malcolm MacLellan. Maj. MacLeod was Head of Celtic studies at St. F.X. and he and his wife, although staunch Presbyterians, often had a houseful of priests enjoying the MacLeods' Highland hospitality. The Major wore the kilt winter and summer. One day on one of the coldest days of winter, the good people of Antigonish were witness to a remarkable sight. It was Professor MacLeod, on his way to the university, holding on for dear life to a telephone pole with one arm while a gale-force wind whipped his kilt up about his ears, his free hand trying to hold it modestly in place; his ever-present cigar clenched in his teeth. Robert Burns' lines spring to mind: "From scenes like these old Scotia's grandeur springs / That makes her loved at home, revered abroad". But to return to our letter writer, Malcolm MacDonell: Just to record some of his accomplishments and to recall some of his wonderful stories would fill a book. I have been trying for many years to entice him to Glengarry to take part in Feis-Glengarry. He would be the life of the party. Here are a few extracts from his Christmas 1996 letter. Talking of the teaching of Gaelic and the Canadian Highland heritage, he says: "The cause is not lost. Things are going remarkably well in this area. The program (of Celtic studies) at St. F. X. is turning out some impressive grads; one to Glasgow and a second one to Harvard last spring with huge scholarships.... Cape Breton and Inverness County are really alive. And study groups are bubbling up all over the place.... On Wednesday I collect Dr. Margaret Fay Shaw Campbell (from the Isle of Canna) at Halifax. She will spend Christmas with us, her husband, John Lorne Campbell having gone on to the eternal pastures last spring. You probably know their outstanding scholarly works on the language of the Garden, of course. She is 93 and livelier than our whole football team... Don't lock the doors too tightly. I am always dreaming of getting into my car and simply wandering along without plan or pattern as all the aging and retired should do. If this happy urge becomes irresistible, your hospitality will be taxed. With loads of good wishes for yourself and Anne and the whole clan, sincerely, le gach deagh dhurachd, Calum MacDonell".

Over the years I have often asked Fr. Malcolm to explain some of the mysteries of our shared culture. On the question of the proper pronunciation of the word Gaelic: "Oh, I don't worry about it too much. I say "Gaylik" when I speak English and "Gah-lic" when I speak Gaelic". On the difference between MacDonald and MacDonell: "Well, you know, there is no difference in Gaelic, MacDhomhnuill is the name, but for some reason the MacDonells of Glengarry spell it that way and say "MacDon-ell" and most of the others use "MacDonald". Our particular family in Judique, Cape Breton, was surrounded by Clanranald MacDonalds and I sometimes think we deliberately stressed our Glengarry MacDonell heritage to show that we were just a cut above them!" The monument on his family grave in Judique has the family tree carved into the granite.

This business of pronouncing names is intriguing. One of the graduates of St. F. X. many years ago was J. Kieller Mackay, who became Lt. Governor of Ontario. He left a large bequest to his old university and a building there is named after him. There is ongoing confusion as to whether the name is pronounced "Keelor Mac-K" or "Kylor Mac- I". The Gaelic for MacKay is MacAoidh, pronounced like "MacCoy", so take your pick.

Letters to the editor

One should invest the fruits of our labors wisely

To the editor:

This refers to Maurice Lemieux' letter re: "Casino would 'jolt some life' into town." Mr. Lemieux asks which part of the Bible refers to gambling casinos.

Although the Bible does not refer specifically to casinos, as such, it does speak about gambling. Exodus 20 verse 10 reads:

"You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or his man servant or his maid servant, his ox or his donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor."

Gambling, in whatever form, including lotteries or slot-machines, is therefore an absolute sin because it breaks the 10th commandment. It causes moral havoc in those who get caught up in it and it appeals to the lower elements of our nature. When we put our dollar or $10 in the pot, we are, in effect coveting to win something that is our neighbor's – the money that all our neighbors have put in the pot.

First Timothy 6, verse 10 states: "For the love of money is the root of all evil."

The success of gambling casinos and lotteries is because people are in despair. Searching for alcohol, drugs, illicit sex and gambling, they hope for the good life and to be delivered from the bondage of this world.

According to Phillipians 4, verse 6, we are not to be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, we are to present our requests to God.

Gambling contradicts the Christian work ethic. We are to be stewards over all that God has given us (2Thessalonians 3:10-12). When we gamble, we throw away what God has given us. Gambling leads us to further temptation which we cannot handle, and may destroy us.

It could also be said that every time we participate in gambling activities, we are identifying with the men at the foot of the cross who bartered for the Lord's garments.

With regard to gambling (church draws, etc.) to support good causes, we should support such causes with pure motives by giving through the generosity of our hearts.

One hundred years ago, the pioneers of this country toiled hard for 18 hours a day for family and God. Do you think for one moment they would have thrown their hard-earned income down the drain for the price of a lottery ticket?

Gambling distorts the sense of values and incubates the eggs of crime. The "prize" becomes the goal – whether it is a million dollars, a shiny new car or a turkey. It appeals to our lower nature to win something.

Today, untold millions are spent by individuals who are supported by government hand-outs. how greater it is to see the fruits of our labors invested wisely for family and for God's purposes in the community.

Sincerely,
C. Bradshaw

What would GDHS be without music

To the editor:

As a graduate student of GDHS, I need to express my bewilderment concerning Premier Harris' cuts to our music program.

In the past few months I read several editorials on the subject at hand. I must share a story with you about my personal friendship with music.

The main character of this story has to be Pierre Vaillancourt. Before my arrival at ESRG in 1990 I had had many bad experiences with the art of studying music, but when I decided to lead myself to room 222 for my first music class in 1991, I met a man who made me love music.

For the next four years I grew through music. I discovered a passion for the art that gave me more than just a love for music. It gave me a goal which I was to achieve at all cost. I developed great determination and self-discipline, and as I achieved the many obstacles I met along the way, I became the person I am today. I got the opportunity to become who I am today through music and I believe that it has molded many other students in Ontario in the past. But if Harris cuts music in our high school what will happen to the mold?

Mr. Vaillancourt took anybody in our school and did not only teach him/her music but also taught all of the above. I believe that if music is taken out of the high schools of Ontario, many students will eventually drop out of school. Many students turn to music to release stress from school, and other stressful activities as adolescents.

I must conclude this letter by saying that music is a very important aspect of our everyday life.

As an aspiring University music student hoping to spread the same love of music to others, I hope that our provincial government will reconsider its options.

If Mr. Harris cuts music he will destroy a very essential part of our learning stage – fun!

Musically,
Luc Martin

Consumer beware

To the editor:

A word of wisdom to computer users in the Alexandria area: If any of your computer equipment breaks down, save yourself time, money and aggravation, by simply calling the manufacturer toll-free and following their instructions regarding the problem.

If you take the problem to a computer retailer who is not authorized to repair it, either your warranty will be invalidated or you will be billed for repairs which, under manufacturers warranty, will cost the computer retailer absolutely nothing! It has happened to others! It can happen to you! Consumer beware!

Two men receive licence suspensions

Police Briefs

Two men were charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol Feb. 6.

One man was apprehended at Brown House and had his licence suspended for 90 days and has been scheduled to appear in court.

Another male failed to provide a breath sample in South Lancaster and also had his license suspended. He will appear in court March 6.

Charged in the first incident is Adrian Lauzon, of Martintown. Charged in the second incident is Kelly Terrence, 34, of Belleville, Ont.

Four-wheeler recovered

Alexandria police have recovered a four wheeler stolen from a private residence in late September of last year.

A 1996 Yamaha 400 CC four wheeler, valued at $7,000, was located in Mercier, Que. on Jan. 19 and was returned to Alexandria.

Charged with theft over $5,000 is a 17 year-old young offender from Beebe, Que. and his 44-year-old father.

The four wheeler was recovered when the thieves tried to sell it without providing the registration.

The man cannot be named because it will identify his son.

Both turned themselves into Alexandria police and will appear in court on March 6.

Man robbed at gun point

Lancaster OPP are investigating an armed robbery on Boundary Road near Cornwall.

Two male suspects drove to a Boundary Road gas bar in an unidentified white full size vehicle and the driver, wearing a mixed colored balaclava asked for $5 in gas.

The driver exited the vehicle and pointed a handgun in the ribs of the male attendant and demanded entry to the gas bar.

The driver took and undetermined amount of money from the till while the passenger stole assorted cigarettes.

The driver punched the attendant in the mouth twice, causing considerable injury. Both subjects returned to their vehicle and left the scene in a southbound direction on Boundary Road.

OPP are still investigating.

Two-vehicle collision

Lancaster OPP are also investigating a two-vehicle collision near McCrimmon's Corners early yesterday morning that sent one man to a Montreal hospital.

At approximately 2:45 a.m. yesterday morning the OPP responded to a motor vehicle collision on Hwy 417 just west of McCrimmon's Corners. in Kenyon Township.

A vehicle driven by Michel Lepine, 36, of Pleasant, Que. struck the rear of a truck operated by Paulo Morais, 25, of Laval, Que.

Lepine suffered injuries as a result of the collision and was taken to Hawkesbury Hospital before being transported to Montreal.

His injuries are not life threatening.

Charges have yet to be laid and the investigation is still underway.

Searching for hemp growers

Seaway Valley Crime Stoppers in cooperation with law enforcement agencies throughout Eastern Ontario are seeking the public's help in locating and reporting marijuana being grown indoors.

The term hydroponics is used for all indoor growing of marijuana and it takes specialized equipment and conditions to grow these plants to produce the desired chemical content.

Sodium or metal halide lighting which produce a simulated sunlight and heat are needed as well as electrical transformers which are required to enhance the electrical output.

Walls can be lined with a reflective material such as aluminum foil to further enhance the sunlight effect.

If you notice the high intensity lights, the shiny wall covering, the buzzing of electrical transformers and the smell of marijuana then you probably have found a hydroponic growing system.

Cultivation of marijuana is a crime.

Glengarrians bowl their way to $8,500 in pledges for Big Brothers, Sisters

Last Saturday's 'Glengarry Challenge Cup' raised nearly $8,500 for the region's Big Brothers and Big Sisters as part of the annual Bowl for Millions fund-raiser.

Glengarry bowlers playing out of the Alexandria Lanes raised $8,490.75 in pledges.

Ingrid Hughes, chairperson, said the annual event raised nearly $70,000 in total through similar events at the Olympia Bowl and Nativity Lanes in Cornwall on Feb. , the Glengarry Challenge and the Counties Challenge Cup at the Chesterville Bowling Lanes on Sunday, Feb. 9.

"The lanes were full at all three locations," said Hughes. "The bowlers had fun and the support of the communities of SDG was shown clearly in the total raised. I couldn't be happier."

This year's Bowl for Millions has attracted 274 teams made up of 1,425 bowlers.

Executive director, Brian Lynch, indicated that Bowl for Millions has been the major fund-raising activity for the local Big Brothers/Big Sisters agency since 1979.

"Funds raised in this year's Bowl for Millions will enable our agency to continue the work of matching children from single parent families in Cornwall and SDG with caring, responsible adult volunteers who serve as a friend and role model."

Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Cornwall and District has 99 children matched, with a waiting list of 68 children.

Hughes reminds bowlers who did not hand in their money at the bowling lanes to do so at any branch of the bank of Montreal in Cornwall, Ingleside, Morrisburg or Alexandria or at the Big Brothers/Big Sisters office at 101 Third St. West by March 4 in order to qualify for the various prizes.

Developer wants to re-zone lake frontage industrial

By Todd Lihou
News* reporter

A land developer is looking at purchasing property from private owners along the St. Lawrence River near Bainsville.

The property - located near Point Mouillee and Bainsville Bay - is currently being used for agricultural purposes, but Marcel Roy of Hawkesbury wants to turn the land into an industrial site with residential complexes spanning the shoreline.

Roy has been actively meeting with Lancaster Township council for over a year looking for permission from both the municipal and provincial government to move ahead with his project.

Currently the property can only be used for agricultural purposes.

Council has agreed to look into proceeding with the first phase of the project – initiating an amendment to the zoning laws surrounding the property.

Clerk Mike Samson said council is looking "favorably" at the proposed project.

Roy and council must receive permission from the provincial government, including the ministries of environment and transportation, before any development can be considered.

They both agree it could be at least another three or four months before any concrete action is taken.

Roy says he has a number of clients already interested in the industrial part of his project.

"There are people already interested," said Roy. "But unless this goes through" Roy says he can't do anything.

He has yet to make a formal proposal to purchase the land, but he may do so on condition the property is rezoned for his requirements.

He refused to comment on just how much the land is worth.

According to Samson, the exact contents of Roy's proposal have yet to be discussed or released to council.

Samson said the number of actual industries along these sites could vary, depending on their size.

"You could have three industries on the sites depending on how big they (the industries) are," said Samson. "That's a variable thing at this point.

Heritage is healthy – and darned interesting

Williamstown

by Sue Harrington
347-2279

It would be a little difficult to be "the man who never was," in present day Canada, not to mention Williamstown. It seems these days that the country has gone heritage mad and sales of big flags, little flaglets and genealogical record books have zoomed beyond wildest expectations.

Rather than hiding our heritage the way some of our ancesters felt they had to in the past, we now celebrate our twenty letter surnames and those with hyphens and apostrophes. I don't have statistics to prove it, but I'll bet that Change of Name Act applications are way down — at least for those wishing to "anglicize" names: there will always be "shady past" applicants.

Yes, heritage is healthy and well, and darned interesting, as students at Williamstown Public School are finding out this week.

Today falls right in the middle of National Citizenship Week at the school. Some events you have unfortunately missed, but others are yet to come.

Tomorrow (Thurs.) will be "Good Deeds Day" at the school and students who have earned the good citizenship stamp or certificate will be recognized at an assembly being held at 2 p.m. in the school gym. All parents and friends in our community are invited to attend this event.

At the same time, special tribute will be given to the Lancaster Optimist Club for all the programs which they sponsor for the students in the community. As a result of the Optimists' generosity, the Grades 1, 2, & 3 at Williamstown Public are able to nip next door to the Charlottenburgh Recreation Centre for two hours of skating each week for eight consecutive weeks. Mme. Joanette has co-ordinated an excellent program for the students, with the help of parent volunteers.

Remember the thrill of valentine boxes when you were a student? Remember counting them up and wondering if the one with the cryptic, "From ?" was really from the current object of your heart's desire? You definitely said it WAS when talking to your friends — especially the jealous ones with whom you shared a passion for the love interest. (Years later you likely arrived at the horrible realization that anonymous valentines usually came from your teachers and that everyone, even the jealous rival, got one!)

On Friday at the school, Grades SK to 6 will be having a valentine exchange and classroom party activities. The Grades 7 & 8 who, in this generation, have graduated from corny cards to corny capers, will be having a dance.

Heritage does not come skidding to a halt just because it's Friday, however. School officials are urging families to carry on with small ceremonies at home over the weekend. Saturday, for instance, is National Flag of Canada Day, and you are asked to participate in a flag-raising ceremony near you, or, in the event of there not be such a ceremony in Glen Donald, Summerstown Station, or on the Kinloch Road, to organize one yourselves! Bake a flag cake and celebrate, is the suggestion.

On Sunday, Feb. 16, you are urged to explore your community by visiting a local heritage or historical site. In Glengarry we are blessed with such sites, and even those in the above-mentioned communities will have an easy time finding pieces of Canadian history almost in their own backyards.

Monday, February 17, is Heritage Day when the school suggests that, as "heritage begins at home," you look through old photos, climb the family tree, or take a family photo or video recording for posterity.

Prior to today, students at the school were busy making the stamps and certificates to be distributed at the assembly on Thursday. They also ravaged closets for red and white clothing to wear on Tuesday's "Show and Tell" when parents and friends visited the school to share with the students their collections of stamps, coins, pins, pencils, flags, etc.

Coffee and pieces of a giant "Canada Cake" were served afterward to the visitors by members of the School Council. Thanks to Gwen Brunette who co-ordinated this event.

This morning, parents visited classrooms to talk about family trips they had taken to all the exciting corners of Canada and to show slides of their adventures. This afternoon a winter carnival will take place on the school grounds.

Our children aren't the only ones celebrating Heritage Week. On Saturday, Archibald MacDonell and Doris Ferguson manned the United Empire Loyalists' table during Heritage Week celebrations held at the Brookdale Mall.

Doris said that the interest in genealogical research seems to be on the rise over other years that she has been involved in Heritage displays at the mall.

Perhaps it's a good thing that we all know where we come from, because we sure don't know where we're going! Joking aside, however, a trip to Ottawa on Saturday showed me just how global our society has become.

Those of you who had the opportunity to visit Winterlude and in particular the ice sculptures, no doubt noted a little irony when noting the countries represented by some of the teams of sculptors. One would expect Inuit or northern Scandavian names to be among the carvers, but teams from California? Venezuela? INDONESIA? Sure surprised me!

Speaking of sunnier climes and times reminds me to tell you that the Green Thumb Horticultural Society will meet this Monday, Feb. 17, at 8 p.m. at the Charlottenburgh Recreation Centre. The guest speaker will be Dr. Philip Fry and his topic will be, "An old field garden." Members are asked to bring their saved seeds from summer to share with other members.

It seems there is heritage among flowers as well.

Girl, boy. Girl, boy, Girl, boy — talk about planning a family! The latest member of the Krol family is Christopher Michael Joseph, born on Feb. 5 to Heidi (Oeggerli) and Michael, weighing in at a hetfy nine pounds, nine ounces.

Sporting "farmer's hands," the new baby is a brother for Sarah, Matthew, Elizabeth, Peter, and Maria, and was born on Heidi's birthday.

Congratulations to you all!

A special "Thinking Day" service will be held on Sunday at St. Andrew's United Church at 9.30 a.m.

All Brownies and Sparks in the area, along with their parents are invited to attend, regardless of denomination.

At St. Mary's Church this Sunday, Msgr. MacDougald will be guest celebrant at the 10.30 a.m. mass — one of several special events being held throughout the year to mark the church's 150th anniversary.

Some members of Charlottenburgh Council feel that the Township of South Glengarry in the County of Glengarry is too much Glengarry, especially if the northern municipalities call themselves The Township of Glengarry in the County of Glengarry.

Said a Glengarrian when the above discussion was overheard, "You can't ever have too much Glengarry for a Glengarrian!"

Word has just been received of the passing of Howard Carey after a lengthy illness. Our sympathy is extended to family and his many friends in the area.

Further to the robust robins sighted recently locally —- apparently some of these birds do not migrate, despite belief to the contrary.

They are easier to spot in the spring, however, when their breasts turn orangey-red when mating season arrives.

Martintown public has active month ahead

Martintown

Kindergarten registration will be held on Thursday, March 20 at the school. If you know of any family in the area with children who might be of age, please have them contact the school.

For registration in Junior Kindergarten, children must be four years of age before Dec. 31, 1997. For registration in Senior Kindergarten, children must be five years old before Dec. 31, 1997. Those children already registered in Junior K need not register for Senior K.

The week of March 30 to 7 the school will be hosting a week of electives. If you or someone you know would like to share their area of expertise with a small group of kids, please contact the school. This can be anything in the line of cooking, crafts, outdoor activities, carpentry, etc.

It is hoped that we can generate interest within the community for their involvement. Cost for materials will be covered by the school, and we hope to get enough interest in this project so that the groups can be as small as six to eight students.

The school council will once again be offering frozen wild blueberries for sale. The cost is $26 for a five kilogram box. The increase in price from last year is due to a partial crop failure in Nova Scotia and the resulting shortage of berries.

You may place your order by calling Diane von Bornhoft at 528-4305 before Thursday, Feb. 20. Delivery date will be Wednesday, Feb. 26 at 7:15 p.m. in the school parking lot. The school council would also like to thank the community; the families and friends of the students for their most generous support in our fall fund-raising endeavors, as well as local merchants.

St. Andrew's United Church, Martintown

Sunday, Feb. 16 at 11 a.m. the regular service of St. Andrew's United Church will be followed by a pot luck luncheon of sandwiches and squares. Soup and coffee will be provided. Our annual meeting will follow lunch. Come and voice your opinions as we plan the coming year. An active church requires the input of all its members.

On March 2, Wendy MacKenzie will be with the church again.

Friday, March 7, the World Day of Prayer Service will be held in St. Andrews Catholic Church, St. Andrews West, at 2 p.m. This is a joint service with both catholic and protestant churches of the area participating.

The Martintown Horticultural Society along with the Cornwall society are planning a day trip to the Toronto Congress Centre for the "Garden Blooms" show. The cost is $40 for the bus and admission to the show. Deadline for booking a seat is Feb. 21 and the trip takes place on Saturday, March 8.

The bus will leave at 6 a.m. and will return at 11 p.m. For booking and more information, please call the Cornwall society at 936-8038.

Sacred Heart Church presenting stage play

Glen Robertson
by Colette Sauvé
874-2076

A warm welcome to Linda and Malcolm Charlton and daughter, Phaedra who recently moved from Montreal and purchased the house from Doug and Florence Jones. We certainly wish the Jones happiness in their new home in Cornwall.

A play you can't miss

The Daughters of Isbella of Alexandria is inviting everyone to a play entitled "Voici l'homme" played by a theatre group "Agapaix" at the Sacred Heart Church in Alexandria this coming Sunday, Feb. 16 at 7:30 p.m. Composed of 50 comedians, the actors are from Montreal. Tickets are only $5 each and they will share with us the main events in the life of Jesus of Nazareth, his day-to-day life, his death and his resurrection and at the same time make a parallel with our actual society.

If you are interested in buying tickets please phone Florence Montpetit at 874-2238 or yours truly at 874-2076.

Optimist bingo

The monthly Optimist bingo will take place this coming Saturday, Feb. 15 at the social centre at 1 p.m. Many prizes to be won.

Carnival 1997

Laurier-Carriere school will be holding its outings for their carnival this Friday which is also St. Valentine's day. Three options are available: downhill skiing at Mont Rigaud, bowling and skating at Alexandria or tube sliding and skating in St. Polycarpe at Le Sablon. For security reasons, those who wish to ski up to Grade 3 must be accompanied by an adult. A dance will be held for Grades 4 to 8 on Feb. 14 from 7 to 10 p.m. while the younger kids will enjoy a dance combined with activities on Feb. 13. Have fun, kids and a happy carnival week!

Lent, Feb. 12 to Easter, March 30

Being Ash Wednesday today and the beginning of lent, we are reminded to prepare this special time with reflexion and silence and, who knows, change a few little habits in our lives.

A good action during lent is to help the poor especially those in Third World countries. Banks will be at your disposal at the back of the church on behalf of Development and Peace which was launched in 1967 by the Catholic bishops of Canada to fund social and economic projects in the Third World and to educate Canadians about the causes of under development. The money that we deposit in those banks won't make us poorer and we won't even notice the difference. But to the poor people in the Third World, it's a matter of life or death for many. Let's make it a better world!

Vous pourrez utiliser l'économie d'impôt pour rembourser une bonne partie de votre prêt.

You wish to save for your retirement and reduce your income tax, but you do not have the cash you need? A low interest RRSP loan may be your best solution, especially since you can use the tax savings to pay back a substantial portion of your loan.

Fire department presented with donation

North Lancaster

by Bernadette Campeau
347-2572

Laurent and Louise Decoeur flew back from the Dominican Republic where they enjoyed plenty of sunshine as you can see by their beautiful tan. We saw them in church Sunday morning and Louise said they left a 40°C to arrive in a chilly -17°C. Welcome to the real world.

It's carnival time in many towns including North Lancaster and Ste. Therese School. As mentioned last week, Friday is Valentine's Day and activities for the carnival will be held on that day. Students will be going to the Sports Palace in Alexandria to enjoy some skating. Take note that the canteen will not be open but there will be hot dogs and pastries free for the kids' lunch. Please bring your own beverages.

Last Thursday, Optimist President Gilles Glaude attended a meeting at the fire hall where he presented a donation for the air compressor on the fire truck which will save precious minutes when leaving on a call.

All Optimist members are asked to be present at the next monthly meeting next Wednesday, Feb. 19 at the Optimist hall. It is very important that you be there.

A card party was held last Sunday evening at the Ste. Therese school where 14 tables were filled. Ladies winning the most games were Juliette Robinson, Dorina Theoret, Marguerite Carriere and Beatrice Fontaine. The men winners were Roger Brazeau, Gerald Paquette, Armand Lalonde, Fernand Rozon and Gerald McGillis.

The 50-50 draw was taken by Fleurette Major, Fernand Rozon, Marguerite McCormick, Leonide Rozon, Helena Campeau, Gerald Paquette, Claire Campeau and Marguerite Carriere.

There were six door prizes and they went to Pauline Roussin, Pauline Leroux, Marguerite McCormick, Laurette Viau, Archie McLeod and Jacqueline Leger. They were donated by Jean-Francois and Marjolaine Besner, Pat McRae, Inez Mallory Franklin, Guy Besner and two from the parish.

I was asked to mention that Aurella Maheu Smith's name had been omitted as a gift donor for the Jan. 26 euchre.

We thank everyone for doing their part and invite you to the next euchre which will be on Sunday, Feb. 23.

Encouraging UCW financial report was well received

Glen Sandfield

by Lorna Chapman
874-2408

Sunday morning worship will be held at 10 a.m. on Feb. 16 in Glen Sandfield United Church with Rev. Allister Rose. On Sunday, Feb. 23 the UCW members will be leading the worship service at 10 a.m., as part of the 35-year UCW anniversary celebration. No minister will be in attendance that morning.

Get well wishes go out to Monique McCracken. She and her husband Sam were in Montreal visiting friends recently.

While climbing a flight of stairs, she lost her balance and fell backwards, accomplishing three complete back somersaults before landing unconscious at the bottom. 911 was immediately called and she was rushed to the hospital where she remained for some time. The doctors told her that they could see the bone in her skull through the gash. There were many stitches and a raging headache thereafter. She is bruised from her lips to her hairline, and certainly very stiff and sore, but there was absolutely nothing broken.

The medics claimed that she could easily have died from such a fall. Her husband stated that he feels that she was protected and I am inclined to agree.

The members of the Glen Sandfield UCW met at the home of Sara MacMillan on the afternoon of Tuesday, Feb. 4 for their first meeting in 1997.

Margo MacRae chaired this time, and she chose to begin by having the business precede the devotional portion because planning the year's agenda usually is quite lengthy. Her encouraging financial report was well received. The small group faithfully continues to meet their rather extensive commitments each year. The members are to be congratulated upon their devotion and continued support of the UCW Presbytery, the local church, the Mission and Service Fund, as well as several other projects. The members will be leading the special UCW anniversary service this month in the church. The treasurer read several thank you notes from those people who had received donations from the group.

The newsletter from Child Haven International was on hand, which mentioned that their status as a charity is now recognized in India. This should make their work run more smoothly in connection with the various government departments. They do not, however, obtain any government grants. Everything is done through contributions by private donors and the work continues with the help of devoted volunteers who pay their own way over to India to serve with CHI.

Nancy Campbell was unable to be present but she had kindly prepared program forms for each member to fill in as the locations and times for meetings, each person's part and the chairman for each month were settled. With the program form ready and only the details to complete, the planing went smoothly and was done in record time. The annual Memorial and Family Sunday service, scheduled in June, has now been advanced to July in order to accommodate the Dewar family who wishes to attend a service in the home church as part of their family reunion. The position of secretary will be taken by different members each month, but the UCW Presbytery contact person will remain Lorna Chapman.

Della MacDonald, in the role of secretary, read a report of the Christmas luncheon gathering at the home of Gail Kronwald. The brief devotional portion was also lead by Della MacDonald and Bessie MacLennan accompanied the singing on the keyboard.

The Stone Croft bible study group met at the home of Barbara Ewing, with Wanda Hay leading the lesson. There were nine women in attendance. The next gathering will be at the home of Marian Fraser on Feb. 21 at 1:30 p.m.

Nearly 30 seniors journey to Winterlude

Maxville

by Gordon Winter
527-2888

Twenty-eight seniors associated with the Seniors Outreach Services program at the Manor enjoyed a special outing last Friday.

Leaving the Manor at 11 a.m., the group travelled by bus to Ottawa and had an excellent lunch at an Elgin Street restaurant. Co-ordinator Julie Barin served as a very competent tour leader.

Next, it was up Elgin Street to Confederation Square to view the ice sculptures. The elaborate display by a Chinese contingent was most impressive with its details and the sizes of the individual pieces. Across the street, the entries for competition were just being started and included those from South American and European countries. Standard-sized blocks of ice are supplied and tools include chain saws, hand saws and chisels.

On Dow's Lake, the snow sculptures were just about completed. All had a theme with a message. The sinking of the Titanic was meant to illustrate the state of Ontario's educational system! Some of the entries had a glazed finish, produced with water and a paint brush at below zero temperatures.

Ottawa's Winterlude with all its attractions deserves your consideration.

In keeping with the season, four members of our Glengarry Curling Club were in Ottawa from Sunday to Thursday last week to compete in the Ottawa Ladies Chrystal Pebble bonspiel. The team consisting of Catherine Kippen, skip, Jean MacCuaig, Elizabeth Stewart and Jean Ivens was one of 96 and met defeat from the Alexandria team that went on to be runner-up in the grand aggregate. The ladies competed in the regular section of about 60 teams, were fine representatives and will be waiting a few years before moving up to the seniors' section.

Cathy Conners, Toronto, was home for the weekend and had the pleasure of entertaining a friend with a trip to Ottawa and skating on the canal: Cathy has been a world traveller and met Masayuki Nakagen on the Trans Siberian Railway. He is a native of Osaka, Japan, has been studying at the University of Calgary for the last five years and flew to Ottawa for this special weekend. It is getting to be a very small world, isn't it?

Armand Cuillerier is recovering well after an operation at the Heart Institute and we wish him renewed good health.

Betty and Neil McIntosh have returned from a week's vacation in sunny and hot Mexico.

Originally after their fire in Dominionville, Dorothy and Art Stangle planned to repair their home. However, plans were changed and now a brand new house is in the process of being constructed.

Russell Dewar was the sole councilor on duty from Sunday to Wednesday. Reeve George Currier and Councillors Ubald Cardinal, Donald Cumming and Herb Holmes were in Toronto to attend the Rural Ontario Municipalities Association Convention. Mrs. Currier, Mrs. Cumming and Mrs. Holmes accompanied their husbands and Village Clerk Connie Charbonneau also went, leaving Carole Williams in charge in the office.

With village business in mind, the tags which all must attach to garbage bags have met with mixed reactions. Some consider this decision unnecessary and a nuisance while others are wiling to cooperate with any move that reduces garbage, encourages recycling and outsiders leaving garbage bags on the streets for pick-up. However, the disposal of garbage bags along country roads still persists. One Kenyon couple has a very interesting story to tell after opening a bag that was left in front of their property.

Elizabeth Brabeck who lives in Maryland who is a landscaper as well as a lawyer has been invited for the second time to be the guest lecturer by the Department of Landscape Architecture at the University of Guelph.

Grace McDermid, a Manor resident will be celebrating her 95th birthday on Valentine's Day and is wished the very best. A former principal of the public school, the wife of a long-time druggist here and an active community worker for many years, Mrs. McDermid enjoys good health.

Michael Marion has been able to purchase an automatic reclining chair through the generosity of the staff and Residents' Council at the Manor, the fire fighters and the Lions Club and wishes to express his gratitude to all.

The members of the Dunvegan Recreation Committee are to be complimented for serving a delicious breakfast last Saturday with a real flair. The meal was served in the committee's hall which used to be the Orange Hall and the centre of all social activities and it was good to see it so nicely decorated with its refinished hardwood floor.

Our recreation committee has its winter carnival organized for this weekend on Friday to Sunday with many activities to warrant your support. A flyer has been circulated through the post office and your attendance at these activities will offer encouragement to the organizers.

Look for the announcement in this paper of the official opening of Muir's Baker on Saturday.

Some time ago, mention was made in this column of the pension review for all retired teachers on pension. Our last newsletter contained an update which reported that the second phase was completed in December with 30,000 pensions reviewed and leaving about 8,000 to be done in 1997. Mine has been done with no change and I haven't heard of any local pensioners who have received considerable amounts in adjustments. No one who had been receiving too much in pension lost the excess.

This mention is coming a bit late but I recently came across another history of Glengarry entitled, "Because People came..." It was compiled and prepared by a group of students in 1974 and revised and reprinted in 1976. It makes very good reading and provokes thought in these days of amalgamation and the use of the name Glengarry for the two new municipalities.

It was in 1979 that Dr. Royce MacGillivray and the late Ewen Ross wrote "A History of Glengarry" a very complete and classic work.

There have been several phone calls and reports on the winter birds.

A snowy owl was spotted along Highway 417 last week and this was a first. While they are here all year, another reader spotted an albino house (English) sparrow at their feeder. Albino birds are rare but last summer there was an albino robin that nested in the village.

A single evening grosbeak appeared at our feeders one day last week. It may have been a scout for a flock, but as of Monday, there has been no reappearance of this species.

The purple finches have been real early this year and we have had up to 30 feeding on black sunflower seeds. While these birds may feed on the ground, they are not considered ground feeders and prefer their seeds from hopper or silo-type feeders. Also, I have never observed them eating suet.

Another caller expressed concern over the scarcity of chickadees at his feeders. I can offer no reason and only suggest that some species tend to concentrate in different parts of the country in different years. Perhaps when I receive the results of this winter's bird survey, the chickadees will receive special mention.

Brown House Circle celebrates anniversary

St. Raphael's
by Serge Dreimanis
347-2353

The meeting of the Brown House Circle, scheduled for Feb. 5, had to be postponed to Feb. 12. The reason: "severe weather warnings" over radio and TV of an upcoming, heavy snowstorm, followed by freezing rain on the morning of our planned anniversary meeting.

I am happy to inform now, that barring unforeseen circumstances, our long awaited anniversary lunch will take place as rescheduled.

Not only will the Brown House Circle meet on Feb. 12; we will also have a very interesting program – a group of children from Iona will be entertaining us with song and dance; the parish committee are preparing and will be serving a delicious lunch, cake and ice cream; and an accordion player will play pleasant anniversary music to members and guests.

Our meeting today, as you can see, will be a lively and entertaining affair. Happy anniversary, Brown House Circle.

A member of our community, Stan O'Brien, residing with his wife Dora on County Road 25, just west of Glen Roy, is now home again after undergoing a heart by-pass operation at the Heart Institute in Ottawa. The operation, we understand, was a success and Stan is now recovering at home. We all wish Stan a speedy recovery and good health in the future.

We wish Anna Szeplabi of the Glen Roy Road a happy and healthy birthday on Feb. 17. Anna has completely recovered from a hip operation last spring. She is already preparing seedlings (lots of pepper!) for their usual, beautiful vegetable and flower garden.

The St. Raphael's Knights of Columbus will be holding a parish fun day on Sunday, Feb. 23. Rides and fun in the snow will start in early afternoon, followed by indoor activities in the hall with bingo, card games and a spaghetti dinner supper. More details next week.

Dunvegan Recreation carnival took the chill off

Dunvegan
by Peggi Calder
527-5293

Once again, the Dunvegan Recreation Carnival was held under beautiful sunny skies.

The hall was just a-buzzing with the breakfast turnout and what an excellent meal it was.

John Dashney and daughter Linda were busy with sleigh rides with John's beautiful team and even had to split the last ride to accommodate those who hadn't been able to sign up.

The sliding hill and skating pond were full and Terry Sweitzer was serving soup, fresh rolls and hot chocolate to take the chill off.

Thanks to Donald Clark who cleared the pond for skating and to James Joyce and Greg Trepanier who put on the finishing touches. The zamboni wasn't available, but they did stellar work.

Rebs restore pride with shootout win over 73's

By J.L. Lefebvre
Sports editor

The Char-Lan Rebels didn't win on Friday night in Kemptville, but a 3-3 tie and a shootout victory just may provide a much-needed tonic as the junior B hockey club tries to shake a pre-playoff slump.

The Rebels haven't won a game on the ice since beating the Morrisburg Lions 6-1 on Jan. 18, but picking up two points against the powerful 73's appears to be a step in the right direction as the Rebels try and get their game in shape for the playoffs, which are now only a week away.

"Psychologically, it was a big boost," said Rebels head coach Jeff Carter. "After getting thumped 10-0 by them the last time we played, it was a tremendous confidence-booster to play a game like that."

Carter says there's a simple reason for Char-Lan's dramatic improvement since their humiliation at the hands of the 73's on Jan. 22 in Williamstown.

"The team was focused and we played a full 60 minutes of hockey. That's really good to see with the playoffs just around the corner."

The coach must have also been pleased to see signs of life from Eric Fontaine. The Rebels captain has struggled offensively in the second half of the season, but it was his shootout goal on Friday that gave the Rebels a bonus point for winning the tie-breaker. It was only goal Char-Lan managed to score in the best-of-five shootout round.

At the other end of the ice, Rebels goalie Shawn Grant turned back five consecutive Kemptville shooters. And we're not just talking about any five schmos here - Andrew McVey, Andrew Williams, Jeff Ricci, Glen Brown and Greg Kealey just happen to be the top five scorers in the St. Lawrence Division.

Three point night for O'Farrell

If Fontaine and Grant were the heroes in the shootout, Kevin O'Farrell was the key Char-Lan performer in regulation time. O'Farrell set up a goal by Nick Brunet and scored twice himself, including the game-tying goal with under five minutes left to play in the third period. O'Farrell netted the equalizer as the Rebels were killing off a penalty.

The game marks the second straight time the teams have tied in Kemptville. The 73's won the shootout on the previous occasion. Last Wednesday in Williamstown, the Rebels suffered their third consecutive home-ice loss when they dropped a 4-1 decision to the Winchester Hawks.

Ryan Nichol and Jason Desormeaux each netted a pair of goals for the Birds while Dan Dupuis was the lone Char-Lan scorer.

Anthony Calhoun was brilliant in nets for the Hawks as he turned aside 43 of 44 Char-Lan shots. Calhoun stopped 32 pucks in the first two

Playoff picture still a puzzle

Alexandria misses out on opportunity to wrap up third place

By J.L. Lefebvre
Sports editor

Don't print those Glens-Rebels playoff tickets quite yet.

After 40 games and four-and-a-half months, the battle for third place in the Eastern Ontario Junior B Hockey League's St. Lawrence Division will come down to the final weekend of the 1996-97 season.

The Alexandria Glens could have clinched third spot and a first-round date with the Char-Lan Rebels by winning in Winchester on Saturday, but the Hawks kept their third-place hopes alive with an 8-6 victory.

Alexandria still leads Winchester by two points, but the Hawks have a much easier schedule to close out the season.

Winchester hosts Brockville (5-34-1) on Friday before travelling to Prescott on Sunday to play South Grenville (11-28-1).

Alexandria, meanwhile, must play the top two teams in the Rideau Division. The Gananoque Islanders (24-13-3) comes to Alexandria on Friday while the Glens play in Athens against the Aeros (25-12-3) on Sunday.

Although Gananoque and Athens have already clinched playoff berths, the games against Alexandria are still meaningful as the Islanders and Aeros are separated by a single point in their battle for top spot in the Rideau.

The one advantage Alexandria holds is the tie-breaker. Should the teams end up with the same record, the Glens have a big edge in goal differential (-4 for the Glens compared to -22 for the Hawks) going into the final weekend.

One of the prior tie-breakers is head-to-head play between the two tied clubs, but the Glens and Hawks split the season series 3-3-2.

McElroy pots winner

A power-play goal by defenceman Ryan McElroy with four minutes left in regulation proved to be the winner as the Hawks beat the Glens 8-6 on Saturday.

McElroy's goal snapped a 6-6 tie and came while Alexandria forward Stephane Loyer was serving a slashing minor.

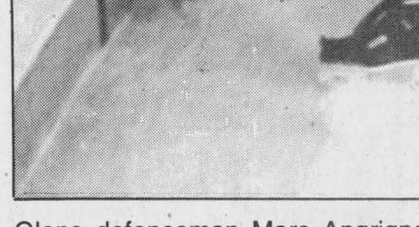
Fern Multari scored twice for the winners while other Winchester goals went to Jeff Leonard, Eric Savard, David Bruyere, Ben Mullen and Shayne Stroughair.

The Glens replied with two goals by Chancey Lajoie and single markers by Christian Cadieux, Yves Ruest, Miguel Delisle and Marc Angrignon.

Stephane Loyer and Marc Menard each had two assists.

After a scoreless first period, the Glens took a 2-0 lead only to see the Hawks score five straight goals and seemingly take control of the game.

Glens defenceman Marc Angrignon and a Morrisburg player take part in a board meeting at the Billy Gebbie Arena on Friday. Alexandria beat the visiting Lions 9-3.



Alexandria scored goals 38 seconds apart with under seven minutes left in regulation to knot the score at 6-6 before McElroy put the Hawks ahead for good.

Glens manhandle Lions

The Glens wrapped up a one-sided season series against Morrisburg by pounding the last-place Lions 9-3 at the Billy Gebbie Arena on Friday night.

The Glens won seven of the eight meetings with the Lions this season.

Alexandria's defencemen played a key role in Friday's victory as Marc Menard and Daniel Methot each scored a pair of goals. Methot added a pair of assists for a four-point night.

Cameron Lajoie, Yves Ruest, Olivier DeMeester, Scott Nielsen and Stephane Loyer also had goals for the Glens, who scored five times on the power-play. DeMeester and Nielsen also had three assists apiece.

The Lions replied with goals by Mike Tournier, Cory Blackburn and Corey McAllister.

Glens notes: Forward Olivier DeMeester missed his first game of the year as he sat out a one-game suspension on Saturday. Miguel Delisle is now the only Glen to play in every game...Marc Angrignon will sit out Friday's game against the Gananoque Islanders after fighting in the late stages of Saturday's loss to Winchester...Jason Poirier will finally be back in the line-up this weekend. Poirier has been sidelined with a suspension since a Jan. 26 fight with Eric Savard of the Hawks. Poirier is on a minor hockey card and he had to serve the suspension with the Alexandria midgets, who have had a very light schedule of late...Darcy MacDonell has missed the last three games with a knee injury. He may return to the line-up this weekend.

Jason Contant (above) and Lee Klazinga led the Char-Lan juniors with nine points apiece, but the Crusaders fell 63-42 to the R-O Lancers.

Char-Lan midgets post back-to-back victories

The Char-Lan midget boys' basketball team recorded victories over the L'Héritage Dragons and the Rothwell-Osnabruck Lancers in Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry high school play last week.

On Tuesday in Cornwall, Matt Evans scored nine points as the Crusaders defeated the Dragons 23-18.

Jonah Leroux netted five points for the winners while Denis Guay had four.

Miguel Delisle scored five for the Dragons.

Char-Lan held L'Héritage to five first-half points.

The R-O Lancers were the midget Crusaders' victims on Thursday in Williamstown.

Matt Evans led the Char-Lan offence again as this time he hooped 12 points in a 40-31 Crusaders win.

Graham Charbonneau chipped in with nine points while David Periard and Chris Reasbeck each had four.

Kirk Gourlay led the Lancers with 13 points.

One up, one down for juniors

The Char-Lan juniors split their games last week, winning at L'Héritage on Tuesday but losing at home to Rothwell-Osnabruck on Thursday.

Chad McDonell's 10 points gave the junior Crusaders a 40-32 win over the Dragons.

Sean Shoniker scored eight points for the winners while Joey Van Loon had six.

Bernard Grenier led the Dragons with 10.

On Thursday, R-O's Jason Zeran torched the Crusaders for 28 points as the Lancers coasted to a 63-42 victory.

Jason Contant and Lee Klazinga each scored nine points in a losing cause for Char-Lan. Joey Van Loon added seven.

Seniors come up empty

The Char-Lan seniors were winless last week as they dropped games to the Cornwall Collegiate Golden Raiders and the Lancers.

The Crusaders lost 68-51 at CCVS on Tuesday.

Chris Kinstler-Primeau scored 15 points to pace the Raiders attack.

Shawn Brabant of the Crusaders also scored 15. Adam McCosham and Rory Blackadder each netted eight points while Trevor Atchison had seven.

On Thursday in Williamstown, a poor third quarter proved costly as the Crusaders fell 65-48.

Char-Lan trailed only 30-28 at halftime, but the Lancers outscored the Crusaders 23-7 in the third period – including an 11-0 run to start the second half – in taking control of the game.

David Frost put the freeze on the Crusaders by scoring 10 points in the second half and 15 overall.

Rory Blackadder had 10 points for Char-Lan. Dan Olsson and Shawn Brabant each scored seven.

Rebels are tuning up

periods alone.

Tuning up for the post-season

So with second place and home-ice advantage in the first round of the playoffs long-ago locked up and with a measure of confidence having been restored with Friday's performance in Kemptville, what's in store for the club as the regular season closes with a pair of meaningless games this weekend?

Carter wants to do a little fine-tuning.

"We just want to work on our power-play and our penalty-killing and make sure everyone knows his role in the playoffs."

The Rebels can't make any specific preparations for their first-round opponent because the identity of that foe is still a mystery. The Alexandria Glens currently hold down third spot, but the Winchester Hawks are still within striking distance.

So 'fess up Coach: Who do you want to play?

"I don't like to say, because that team may turn around and beat us," Said Carter. "I know financially we'd be better off if we play Alexandria and I know the guys on the team want to play them because of the rivalry we have.

"For me personally, I don't care. If we play our game, finish our checks and play tough, we should be able to beat either team."

Rebels notes: The Rebels are winless in their last five appearances on the ice over the last three weeks, but they do have a win in the that stretch of time. Char-Lan was declared a 3-0 winner against Morrisburg on Jan. 31 when the Lions failed to notify the Rebels the date of a scheduled game had been changed...The Rebels earned two points in Kemptville despite playing without three forwards - Tim Corput, Dave Campbell and Jamie Wheeler. Corput has been on the sidelines for the past week with strained neck muscles. He's expected back in the line-up this week...Saturday's home game against the South Grenville Rangers won't mean much to the team in the standings, but it will be significant for one Rebel fan's bank account. The team will hold its $1,000 draw as the regular-season home schedule draws to a close...Feb. 22 (likely the second home playoff date) will be Tim Horton's Night. Numerous prizes will be given away.

Northerners make a move

Now that the Atlantic has clinched the regular-season championship in the Glengarry Indoor Soccer League women's division, the battle is on for second place.

The Springers are currently in second, but the Northerners and Shepherd Sports are both two points back.

The Northerners closed a four-point gap in half with a 1-0 win over the Springers on Wednesday at the Glengarry high school gymnasium.

Sherrill Norman scored the goal while Audrey MacLennan picked up the shutout.

Glengarry sweeps the Saints

The Glengarry girls' volleyball teams had a perfect day against the visiting St. Lawrence Saints in Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry high school action last Tuesday in Alexandria.

The junior Gaels, who have lost only one match all season, defeated the Saints by scores of 15-0 and 16-14.

The Glengarry senior squad also disposed of St. Lawrence in straight games. Like the junior team, the Glengarry seniors are 6-1 in match play this season.

The midget Gaels won two of three games against the Saints, losing the opener 11-15 but rebounding to win the next two games 15-7 and 15-8.

In Memoriam

LAPIERRE – In fond and loving memory of Lionel Lapierre who passed away on Feb. 15, 1995.
We can't have the old days back
When we were all together,
But secret tears and loving thoughts
Will be with us forever.
– Lovingly remembered and loved by Rita and brother Ted and Shirley and family. 6-1p

MacDERMID – In loving memory of a dear son and brother, George, who passed away February 13, 1992.

In our heart the memories keep
For the one we loved and never forget.
– Always remembered by Mom and family. 6-1p

CHOLETTE, Real – In loving memory of a dear husband and father who passed away Feb. 2, 1980.
Time speeds on, eight years have passed
Since death its gloom, its shadow cast
Within our home, where all seemed bright,
And took from us a shining light,
We miss that light, and ever will,
His vacant place there is none can fill.
Down here we mourn, but not in vain,
For up in heaven we will meet again.
– Always remembered by wife Aline and family. 6-1p

SPENCE – In loving memory of Sylvia Mae, who passed away February 13, 1988.
As I sit and ponder,
My mind will often wander,
To the precious times we had
When all of us were glad.
Someday we will see you there,
In God's garden, heavenly square.
– Fondly remembered by grandson Tim, his wife Joanne and great-grandson Philip Spence.

CLASS ENVIRONMENTAL ASSESSMENT FOR THE PROVISION OF A COMMUNAL WATER AND WASTEWATER SYSTEM FOR THE GREATER LANCASTER AREA

PUBLIC COMMENT INVITED

The Greater Lancaster Area includes the Village of Lancaster and developments in the Township of Charlottenburgh and the Township of Lancaster. It encompasses all of the land south of Highway 401 from the Lancaster Inn in the Township of Charlottenburgh, east to Ammandale Bay in the Township of Lancaster and all the property within and adjacent to the Village boundary.
There are deficiencies in both the municipal water and wastewater systems in the village and in the private well and sewage disposal facilities in the Townships that are affecting the residents and resulting in a negative impact on the environment. The problems experienced with these systems are also restricting growth throughout the Study Area.
Alternative solutions to these problems have been identified and the Councils of the Communities are in the process of evaluating the solutions. The project is being planned under the Class Environmental Assessment for Municipal Water and Wastewater Projects. Public input and comment is invited to assist in selecting the preferred solutions. A Public Information Centre is planned to provide further information to the public and to receive input and comments from interested persons. The public is invited to the Smithsfield Hall, 119 Military Road, Village of Lancaster on:

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1997 BETWEEN THE HOURS OF 3:00 PM. AND 9:00 P.M.

A brief presentation will be made by the Totten Sims Hubicki Associates, consultant for the project, at 3:00 p.m. and repeated at 7:00 p.m. This will be followed by an Open House period for viewing of project materials and discussions with project staff from the Communities, the Ontario Clean Water Agency and the Consultant. Following the Public Information Centre, further comments are invited and will be received until Friday, March 7, 1997. Please submit the questionnaire provided at the meeting or provide your comments, in writing, to your municipal office at the address below. This notice first issued February 5, 1997.

NOTICE OF THE PASSING OF A ZONING BYLAW BY TOWNSHIP OF CHARLOTTENBURGH

TAKE NOTICE that the Council of the Corporation of the Township of Charlottenburgh passed Bylaw Number 08-97 on the 27th day of January, 1997 under Section 34 of The Planning Act, 1990, as amended.
AND TAKE NOTICE that any person or agency may appeal to the Ontario Municipal Board in respect of the Bylaw filing with the Administrator-Clerk of the Township of Charlottenburgh, not later than the 27th day of February, 1997, a notice of appeal setting out the objection to the bylaw and the reasons in support of the objection. A prescribed fee must also accompany the appeal. Only individuals, corporations, and public bodies may appeal a zoning bylaw to the Ontario Municipal Board. A notice of appeal may not be filed by an unincorporated association or group. However, a notice of appeal may be filed in the name of an individual who is a member of the association or the group on its behalf.
AN EXPLANATORY NOTE is as follows:
This is an amendment to Bylaw 12-83 which is the Zoning Bylaw of the Township of Charlottenburgh. This amendment will change the zoning of the lands shown on the key map from RSS-1-1 (Special Residential Single Service {Sewer}) to 1-2 Institutional (Special Exception). The subject lands are located on Part of Lot 1, Concession 9 further described as 4168 Main Street (Highway #34) in Green Valley.
The bylaw amendment came about as a result of a request by the owner of the subject land to rezone the property to permit a convent for nuns, a seminary and a senior citizens residence. The present zoning does not permit a convent for nuns and a seminary as permitted uses.
The subject property is located in an institutional node in Green Valley and the proposed rezoning is in compliance with the Township's Official Plan for permitted uses in a Hamlet.

By the time you read this I should be at least "in the air" on my way home from California. So if this column is not up to par forgive me.

Sixteen members and guests braved stormy weather to venture as far as Allison Main's house for a fun evening. That's right! The Bainsville Women's Institute took a holiday from meetings to have a little fun.

Gillian Williams explained the Beetle (Cootie) game to all and they were off to the races. At the end of the night, Donna Bell won the most points and "Lady Luck" had eluded Elsa Hore who won a prize for the least points.

To say that lunch was served is an understatement. Stuffed mushrooms, mint pizzas, dainty sandwiches, cheese cake, squares, and other "you're-off-your-diet" desserts were thoroughly enjoyed.

It was noted that one member, Marguerite MacLeod, was the recipient of the Community Involvement Award. Congratulations are extended from all.

LOSE 20 POUNDS IN TWO WEEKS!

Famous U.S. Women's Alpine Ski Team Diet

During the non-snow off season the U.S. Women's Alpine Ski Team members used the "Ski Team" diet to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. That's right - 20 pounds in 14 days! The basis of the diet is chemical food action and was devised by a famous Colorado physician especially for the U.S. Ski Team. Normal energy is maintained (very important!) while reducing. You keep "full" - no starvation - because the diet is designed that way. It's a diet that is easy to follow whether you work, travel or stay at home. (For men, too!)

This is, honestly, a fantastically successful diet. If it weren't, the U.S. Women's Alpine Ski Team wouldn't be permitted to use it! Right? So, give yourself the same break the U.S. Ski Team gets. Lose weight the scientific, proven way. Even if you've tried all the other diets, you owe it to yourself to try the U.S. Women's Alpine Ski Team Diet. That is, if you really do want to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. Order today! Tear this out as a reminder.

Send only $8.95 ($9.60 in Calif.)-add .50 cents RUSH service to: American Institute, 630 Quintana Road, Suite #136, Morro Bay, CA 93442. Don't order unless you expect to lose 20 pounds in two weeks! Because that's what the Ski Team Diet will do.

•The Counties Council is to build two iron bridges in Glengarry, one over the Garry River in Alexandria and the other across the River Beaudette.

Dalkeith Optimists earn major award

Dalkeith

by Jean MacLennan
874-2385

The Optimist Club of Dalkeith has earned the Distinguished Club Award from Optimist International for the year 1995-96. They are the only club in the East Ontario District to have achieved this.

Past-President Ginette Duchesne accepted the award on behalf of her club at the presentation banquet at the Ambassador Hotel in Kingston on Feb. 8. She also accepted the Jack Mahoney trophy for having founded the SDG Family Support Optimist club with the most founding members for 1995-96. Present in Kingston with her were her husband Hubert and past secretary Helen Levac and Roland. Ginette and Helen were both awarded Distinguished President and Distinguished Secretary certificates.

We wish improved health to all the sick in the area. Michel Duval spent some days in hospital. Jean Hambleton has also been in hospital.

Georgette Paiement, Glen Sandfield, had a wonderful holiday since the end of September with her brother, Roger Paiement, who lives in Eugene, Oregon. His son Raymond, wife Sue, and four children live in Eugene also and they spent the American Thanksgiving at their house. They were joined by Roger's two daughters Lise and Perry Mowery, daughter and new baby boy, Line and Tim Marilley all of Bothell.

Christmas was spent in Bothell, where Doreen Paiement of Seattle joined them.

The day after Christmas Georgette and Roger started off to his winter home in Mesa, Arizona. They drove ahead of that terrible storm and arrived safely. From there they made a lot of day trips to points of interest and visited many of Roger's friends. Then for Georgette it was back home to winter!

Recently Larry Gislason, Foam Lake, Saskatchewan, spent a couple of days with Marion and Allister MacGillivray. While he was here they also visited Christena McKinnon, Vankleek Hill and Moreen and Donald McKinnon, Breadalbane.

Sympathy of the community is extended to Mary MacGillivray, Kirk Hill. On Dec. 27, her youngest sister Annabel MacMaster, R.N., of Laggan died after a short illness. Funeral was held on Dec. 30.

On Jan. 24, her brother Murray MacMaster McBride, B.C., succumbed to cancer. His funeral was held Feb. 1 in McBride. Murray is survived by his wife Anne, two daughters, five sons and 11 grandchildren.

Both Annabel and Murray are survived by sisters Mary MacGillivray, Beatrice MacMillan, and brothers John, Keith, Douglas and Grant MacMaster.

Keith MacMaster, Laggan, and his son Jamie flew west to Murray's funeral and also to visit Douglas, a patient in hospital at Prince George.

Laggan Public School

It's Carnival Week at Laggan. Monday was "Tacky Day" and it is expected that there will be lots of tacky outfits to be seen in the halls that day. Tuesday is Pajama/Silly Hat Day. Wednesday is Past/Future Day where students will wear clothes from the past or dress for the future. On Thursday it's "Fancy Clothes Day" where we all dress up. The senior grades wanted a dance, so this year student council gave our Valentine's Day dance a theme. It will be a dance-a-thon to raise money for juvenile diabetes. We like to do a charitable fund-raiser every year and try to vary the charity, so we've accomplished this with the dance-a-thon. Students learn that they have a responsibility to the large community by participating in an activity such as this.

Along with Carnival Week at Laggan, this is also Canada Week – "Take it to Heart" for all Canadians. It is an annual week-long celebration of Canadian citizenship, symbols and heritage. Students took home a calendar of activities with ideas for family participation.

Last week we gave the wrong date for the Ian and Sally Wilson presentations. The "Gold Rush" and "Arctic Adventures" shows will be on March 18, not Feb. 18. If you've marked this on your calendar, please change the date.
