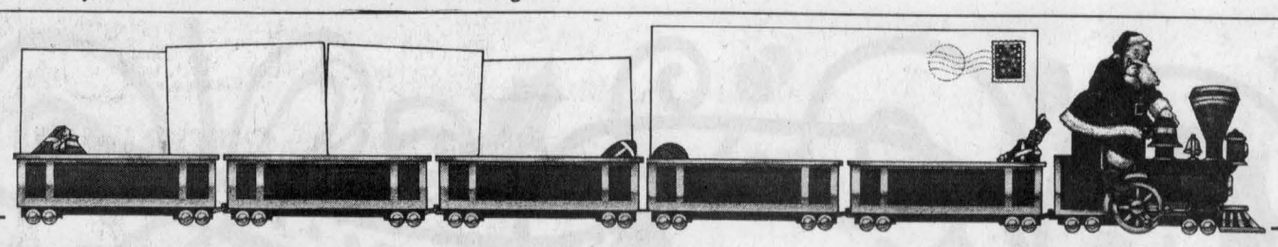
The Glengarry News



We've got letters...

It's that time of year again, when children's minds are filled with the joy and wonderment of the Christmas season. To help give you a glimpse into those minds, we once again present our annual Christmas greetings section, brought to you by the many patrons sending you their best wishes for a wonderful holiday, published in this edition.

As in past years, we have been deluged with mail for Santa. This year, however, we have been able to put aside enough space to be able to run every letter. As well, we also have space for some of the recipes from readers that we were unable to run in our Cookbook issue.

We would like to thank the principals, teachers and, of course, the children for submitting the following material in so timely a manner.

Have a wonder and safe holiday.

Alexander School

Dear Santa,

We like your reindeer. We like your elves because they make the toys you give us. We have been good this year. We listen, we help and we do what we are asked.

Here are the toys we would like.

We will say a prayer for you. We wish you a safe trip.

Daniel: a baseball.
Brennen: a tennis racket.
Beau: Hot Wheel car.
Kelsy W: Barbie doll.
Nicholas H.: Rescue Hero airplane.
Jamie: a big tractor.
Jacob: a race track set.
Kayla: Make-up Mindy doll.
Brandon: Hot Wheel Key car.
Amanda: Rose Princess Barbie.
Nicholas R.: a big truck.
Kelsey S.: a tool bench.
Tristen: a car.

Joshua: a Hot Wheel Key car.

Thank you Santa!

Nanny Patsy's Home

Dear Santa,

We are all at Nanny Patsy's home in Alexandria to write this letter to you. We stay with her from Monday to Friday while our parents are at work. We have tried to be good boys and girls all year and especially for Nanny.

This year for Christmas, we would like starting with the youngest:

Joel Scherer is three and is asking for a robot.

Justin Scherer, his twin brother, is asking for a dinosaur.

Trystan MacPherson is four and would like Bob the Builder.

Tishanna Leroux is five and she would enjoy a Barbie.

Tiana Salmon is five and wants a doll care system.

We are looking forward to having you come to each of our homes on Christmas Eve. We are going to leave you some milk and cookies. And Santa, please don't forget all our cousins.

Well it's that time again, the birthday of Jesus. We all know He's no longer the little baby Jesus, but He's the Almighty Saviour of human kind. Have you made Him Saviour of your life? You know He loves us so much that He will not force us to believe. My prayer for the year 2002, is that we may open our hearts to accept Him, then shall we receive all the blessings that He has prepared for us. There is still hope in this world and it is found in the name of Jesus.

Merry Christmas

Bonjour Père-Noël,

Comment ça va? Nous ça va très bien. Nous avons été très sage toute l'année (ou presque). Nous espérons que toi et tes rennes êtes en pleine forme et que vous êtes prêt pour votre long voyage. Nous vous attendons impatiemment. Nous allons te laisser un petit goûter lorsque tu viendra nous visiter; des biscuits pour toi et des carottes pour tes rennes. Prends bien soin de toi Père-Noël et nous t'aimons beaucoup.

Les amies et les amis du jardin de l'école Terre des Jeunes.

P.S. Nous avons décidé de t'écrire tous ensemble, puisqu'à cinq ans c'est un peu difficile de le faire tout seul.
P.S. Fait bien attention et surtout n'oublie pas nos cadeaux!
