Three Glengarry council heads lose their seats

The Glengarry News

VOL. 87 No. 46 ALEXANDRIA, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1978 SINGLE COPY 20c

The winds of political change swept through Glengarry County with a vengeance Monday when three veteran politicians were uprooted as heads of their respective councils.

Alexandria Mayor Bruno Massie, Kenyon Township Reeve Albert Faubert and Lochiel Reeve Alex McDonald all fell to defeat.

Massie was soundly clobbered by former Reeve Jean-Paul Touchette. Former Councillor Ken MacLennan scored a decisive win over McDonald, while Faubert was edged out by former Deputy Reeve Hugh McIntyre.

The defeat of the incumbents means that every head of council who had to contest the election in Glengarry, failed to be returned. All other council heads were acclaimed.

While good contests were expected in both Alexandria and Kenyon, McDonald's defeat in Lochiel came as a bit of a surprise. Massie and Faubert are both regarded as controversial leaders and both had to beat back challengers to be re-elected in 1976.

The Lochiel scene appeared relatively quiet in recent years with McDonald having been acclaimed in 1976 and 1974.

Massie swamped by Touchette in mayor's race

Jean Paul Touchette is "King of the Castle" once again in the Town of Alexandria. The polished realtor slid into the mayor's seat with a decisive victory over his nearest and dearest opponent, Bruno Massie, in the November 13 municipal elections.

Campaign fever which had been excitingly prevalent in the town over the past couple of weeks had almost reached boiling point by the time the results were announced in the Alexandria Sports Palace Monday evening: Touchette, 1203; Massie, 769; Arthur Laporte, 52.

Then like a couple of athletes who have just enjoyed another great game, the two politicians shook hands once again.

They have exchanged such congratulations before. In 1968 Touchette defeated Massie in a bid for mayor and in 1972 Massie reversed the decision.

Massie has held office for 16 years, six as mayor, six as reeve, four as councillor.

On Tuesday, it was "business as usual" as Massie still in his capacity as mayor and Touchette in his as reeve, sat down with Ontario Housing representatives for a business luncheon.

The new mayor will take office in December this year, rather than in January as was the custom following December elections in previous years.

His first job will be to fulfill his election promise, says the victorious candidate; to sit down with the police officials and solve the situation in the town which has been a topic of concern for several months.

The new mayor started his political career in Alexandria back in 1962 when he was first elected to council, a position he held for four years.

In a bid for the mayor's seat in 1966 he was defeated by Raymond Periard. Two years later he bounced back into the top position, defeating incumbent Periard, Bruno Massie and Arthur Laporte.

After four years in this leadership, Massie forced him into retirement for two years, when he came back to serve as reeve of the town for the past four years.

Reign over for Faubert

Albert Faubert's 13-year reign as reeve of Kenyon Township came to an end Monday when former Deputy Reeve Hugh McIntyre eked out a slim victory by a 26-vote margin.

McIntyre ended Faubert's 21 years of municipal political service by scoring 729 votes to Faubert's 703.

Norman MacLeod moved up from councillor to deputy reeve by defeating his former council colleague Malcolm Grant 825-527.

Newcomer Lawrence O'Connor topped the council polls with 832 votes, followed closely by incumbent Fred Leroux with 806 and Stanley MacLeod with 677.

Failing to capture a council seat were Joan Siwik with 489 votes and Raymond Dupuis with 294.

Poll by poll results are as follows:

Poll 1 is Bonnie Glen, poll 2 Greenfield, poll 3 Dunvegan, poll 4 Dominionville, poll 5 H. McCrimmon, poll 6 St. Elmo, poll 7 Apple Hill, poll 8 Fourth of Kenyon, poll 9 First of Kenyon, poll 10 Fassifern.

Incumbents are back in Charlottenburgh

All three incumbent councillors have been returned to their posts in Charlottenburgh Township.

Although challenger Lorne Barclay was the only one of the four candidates to increase his vote over 1976, he could not narrow the gap enough to close in on the third council spot held by Don Kannon.

Morgan Major topped the polls with 1,367 votes. Bill Cooper was hot on his heels with 1,331 votes, followed by Kannon with 1,019.

Barclay tallied 783. He was 236 votes out of third place, a spot he missed by 900 votes in 1976.

The campaign took an unexpected turn when acclaimed Reeve Adrian Gadbois took an unprecedented step by urging voters to support the incumbents. In an ad in the Cornwall Standard-Freeholder Saturday, Gadbois asked voters to back Cooper, Major and Kannon.

Gadbois denounced Barclay as a "pessimist."

Deputy Reeve Ewen MacDonald was also acclaimed.

Poll by poll results are as follows:

Poll 1 is St. Raphael's, poll 2 is Williamstown, poll 3 Lancaster, poll 4 Summerstown Station, poll 5 Tyotown, poll 6 Cashion Glen, poll 7 Martintown, poll 8 Munroe's Mills, poll 9 Glen Roy, poll 10 Glen Walter, poll 11 Summerstown, poll 12 former sanatorium building.

Lefebvre wins reeve's chair

Twenty years after his father resigned as reeve of Alexandria, Rheal Lefebvre won the right to carry on the family tradition by defeating his opponent, Fern Seguin, in the bid for the post.

Lefebvre, who had operated stores for some years in the surrounding area, returned to Alexandria last year to assume ownership of the Alexandria Hotel and has no previous experience on the local council. He had, however, served four years as trustee in the Village of Apple Hill so is familiar with problems in the municipal field.

Deputy Reeve Florence Villeneuve polled the highest vote in Alexandria with 1,498 chalked in favor of her third term in the post. Her opponent, Norman Laperle trailed with 424.

Councillor Yolande Viau led the race in the bid for six seats with 1,161 votes. She was followed by Lionel Leroux with 1,056, Bruno Lalonde with 1,039, Archie McDougall with 1,027, John Cormier with 929 and Raymond Jette with 866. Georgette Etherington failed to make the grade with 551 votes.

Viau, Leroux, McDougall and Jette are incumbents while Bruno Lalonde had served former terms. Cormier is the only newcomer to the council table.

Lochiel picks MacLennan

A stunning upset in Lochiel Township has left former Councillor Ken MacLennan in the reeve's chair.

MacLennan toppled incumbent Alex McDonald 852 votes to 693.

Deputy Reeve Maurice Jeaurond had been acclaimed earlier.

Incumbent Councillor Ron MacDonell topped the council poll with 928 votes, followed by Lynda Kennedy with 839 and David Dumouchel with 694.

Out of the money were Armand Beauchamp with 575 and Donald Malett with 194.

Poll by poll results are as follows:

Poll 1 is in Gore, poll 2 in Glen Robertson, poll 3 in Glen Sandfield, poll 4 in Dalkeith, poll 5 in Breadalbane, poll 6 in Lochinvar, poll 7 in Kirk Hill, poll 8 at the township hall, poll 9 on McCormick Road and poll 10 at the drive-in theatre.

Three are returned in Lancaster race

Lancaster Township voters returned three incumbent councillors Monday.

Bernie McDonell scored 643 votes. Right behind was Maurice Desautels with 640, followed by Roger Brazeau with 513.

Failing to place were Charles Sangster with 485, Raymond Ouellette with 386, Gilles Glaude with 336, Wayne Mitchell with 275 and Roy Derrig with 96.

Reeve Paul Legros and Deputy Reeve Mac Roy were acclaimed.

Cattle and barn are lost in fire

Seventy-five milk cows were among the livestock that died in an early morning barn fire at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Denotter of Bainsville last Wednesday morning.

The fire was spotted by a passing police patrolman, Constable Rick Hiuser of the Lancaster OPP about 1:30 a.m. He aroused the owners and Lancaster Fire Department was summoned but the blaze had progressed beyond control when they arrived. Twenty men battled the blaze for four hours.

Damage is so extensive the farmer still does not have a complete count of animals lost nor an exact estimate of loss but a general estimate sets it in the neighborhood of $200,000.

Destroyed with the barn in addition to the livestock were 6,000 bales of hay, new pipeline milker, stable cleaner, one of two silos and various other equipment.

The den Otters had previously farmed on Glen Robertson Road prior to purchasing the farm from Mr. and Mrs. Laurier Charlebois two years ago.

Busy with clean-up and burial of the dead animals, Mr. den Otter has had little time for discussion of his future but says he will rebuild.

Neighbors are organizing a campaign to aid the victims and plan a benefit dance at the Bonnie Glen on December 8 to assist the family.

House is destroyed

A fire in Greenfield last Tuesday night completely destroyed a house and its entire contents. The owner, Francis Beauclair, was not home at the time.

The blaze was noticed by Ivan Flaro who summoned the Alexandria Fire Department but it was unable to save the dwelling.

Loss of the two-bedroom frame bungalow is estimated at more than $20,000.

Residents escape out window

Four Alexandria residents were forced to escape through a second storey window when fire broke out in the building underneath their apartment early Saturday morning.

Mrs. Marlene MacDonald was aroused by the scent of smoke about 3:15 a.m. and awoke to find the apartment above the Cosy Tavern at 23 Main Street North filled with smoke. She called her 16-year-old sister, Karen, who was spending the night with her and they woke the two MacDonald children, Lisa, four, and Evan, 16 months. Mrs. MacDonald's husband, Dale, was in Toronto at the time at a touch football tournament.

Mrs. MacDonald struggled to get the front window open and screamed to attract the attention of Mr. and Mrs. Orville MacRae who live in the apartment across the street.

"There wasn't a soul on the street to call right then," said Mrs. MacDonald. "I never realized the town could be so quiet."

With the help of Mr. MacRae and a passing taxidriver, Rejean Bourgon, the women and children were eased to the pavement.

The fire department was summoned and managed to contain the fire in the tavern premises which adjoin the Cosy Dining Restaurant on the south side. The interior and all the equipment was entirely damaged and while an estimate of the loss is not available, owners Ernie and Georgette Etherington approximate the damage at about $40,000. The couple purchased the business from Archie McDougall last February.

It was the second serious fire loss for the couple. In 1973 fire destroyed a gas bar they were operating at 431 Main Street South.

The MacDonald family are residing with Mrs. MacDonald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wood, as the apartment also suffered heavy smoke damage.

The Etheringtons are operating the restaurant side of the building at present and plan on renovating the tavern as soon as possible.

Letter in English angers local principal

The principal of Ecole Saint-Joseph has registered an angry protest with Alexandria Council because the town fire chief sent her a copy of a report in English.

Chief Gerald Charlebois recently completed a fire safety study on area schools for the SD&G County Roman Catholic Separate School Board and SD&G County Board of Education. As a matter of courtesy he sent copies of the report to all affected principals.

In a letter, presented to town council last week, Francine Richer said all reports sent to her school must be in French.

"I would like to say to you that Ecole Saint-Joseph-Alexandria is a French language school and that we demand our reports in French.

"It is the responsibility of the members of Town Council to see that we Francophones are well served in our language."

Richer's letter, which was written only in French, suggested that council should ensure that a secretary is available to prepare material in French.

Charlebois was furious with Richer's reaction.

He pointed out that he is a volunteer firefighter and was under no obligation to send Richer any report. He simply sent a copy to be polite.

From now on, "I will not be polite. I won't send her a copy," he said.

Charlebois also noted his own efforts in promoting the French culture at the school by obtaining French-language fire safety films.

There was "no letter of thanks" for that effort, Charlebois said.

Council took no action on Richer's letter.

Fire hazards found

Seven out of the nine public and separate schools recently inspected by Alexandria Fire Chief Gerald Charlebois were found to have fire hazards.

Charlebois made several recommendations to the school and listed all of the faults in his report to the school boards.

The most prevalent safety faults were uncharged fire extinguishers and the storage of flammable substances in boiler rooms.

Other problems listed by Charlebois were doors that could not be opened, faulty exit lights, fire bells that cannot be heard in the classrooms and lawn mowers stored with gasoline in the tank.

A letter has been received by the chief from the public school board assuring him that the faults in those schools are being corrected. Copies of the Fire Chief's report are available from the school board for any parent interested in fire safety.

School trustees elected

Separate School Board Trustee for Charlottenburgh and Cornwall Townships, Terry Wheeler, has been re-elected.

He outdistanced Edward Mondoux 1,068 to 672.

Incumbent separate school board trustee for Lancaster Township, Lancaster Village and Lochiel Township, Jean Larocque, went down to defeat, however, at the hands of Henri Giroux.

Giroux, who lost the seat to Larocque in 1976, polled 947 votes to Larocque's 848.

Wheeler's strength came from Cornwall Township where he took 595 votes compared to Mondoux's 162. Mondoux edged Wheeler in Charlottenburgh 510 to 473.

Giroux found his strength in Lancaster, taking 540 votes in the township compared to 288 for Larocque and 118 in the village compared to 15 by Larocque.

Larocque took his home township of Lochiel 545 to 289.

Town receives check for $188,000

The Town of Alexandria has received a cheque from the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation for more than $188,000 to pay for the improvement done to the lagoons.

The cheque will pay for four-fifths of the $235,611 total cost to date. The money is on loan and will have to be repaid by the town within the next fifteen years.

The improvements to the lagoon, begun and completed last summer, include an aerating system, a new sewer main from the pumping station to the lagoon and another pump at the underground pumping station.

Alexander News

BY Denis Lemieux and Elizabeth McCormick

On Saturday, November 11, the Grade 7 and 8 girls of the Alexander School left Bishop MacDonell Senior School in Cornwall in a jubilant air of victory. They had just won the volleyball tournament held there. The participating schools were Iona, Bishop MacDonell, and the Alexander. Our Grade 7s defeated those of Bishop in the best two-out-of-three games with the scores as follows: Game 1, Alexander 15, Bishop 1; Game 2, Alexander 15, Bishop 3. The Grade 8s also managed to win after three close, exciting games. The scores in these games were: Game 1, Alexander 15, Bishop 12; Game 2, Alexander 14, Bishop 16; Game 3, Alexander 16, Bishop 14.

We are very grateful for being invited to this tournament as it proved most enjoyable.

DYER HOSTED EUCHRE

The Dyer Road group hosted a well-attended euchre party at the Maxville Manor last week. Winning for the ladies were Mrs. Mary MacLean, Mrs. E. Waldroff, and Mrs. Jean Chisholm. For the men it was Alfred Harkin, Murdie Campbell, and Albert Cadieux. The door prize went to Aileen Campbell. The next one will be under the direction of Mrs. Mary Sutherland and the 4th and 5th of Roxborough. With all the Christmas activities coming up there will be just two more euchres until after the busy season is over.

PLACES TO BROWSE AND BUY

A couple of interesting things going on this weekend. The United Church ladies are holding their annual bazaar and tea on Saturday, November 18, at the Church Hall at 2 p.m. Should be all kinds of things for the holiday season. And if you don't find all you want there, go down to the Community Hall at 2 p.m., also on Saturday, and see what choice items are being sold at the Glengarry Pipe Band's auction sale.

WOOL STUDY

For anybody interested in spinning and weaving—or just in the choice, care and use of wool—St. Lawrence College is offering a three-day course . . . Nov. 22, 23 and 24 . . . day-long, at the College. This will be taught by Ted Street, and should be a mine of information. Call Joan Sutcliffe—932-2689 for more details.

PLAY, BUY AND EAT

On Thursday, November 23, St. James Parish is having a euchre, crafts, and bake sale, 8 p.m. at the Community Hall. The admission is one dollar, and there will be prizes and a good lunch.

SCOUTS HAVE THEIR DAY

And don't spend all your money before Saturday, Dec. 9. From 1 to 4 p.m. at the Community Hall—the First Maxville Cubs and Scouts are going to be holding their Crafts and Bake Sale. The boys need your support to provide funds for future trips and expenditures, and donations are most welcome. For more information call Lusia Jasiewicz, 527-2044.

WOODEN TOYS

On Wednesday, November 22 at 7:30-9:30 p.m. at the Community Hall there will be a demonstration and sale of wooden toys. These are high quality items . . . little trains, wagons, etc., made by an independent branch of ARC industries in Oshawa, and they range in price from less than two dollars, and up. Very nice gifts for grandchildren. The Play Group is sponsoring this sale, and intends to take its commission in toys for the use of their own children coming in every Wednesday morning.

MDMHA EVENT

For further holiday entertainment, the Maxville and District Minor Hockey Association is sponsoring a wine and cheese party on Saturday, December 2, at 8:30 p.m. at the Sports Complex. Tickets for this event can be had from any member of the executive.

CHURCH SERVICE

On Sunday, December 10, St. Michael's Anglican Church is holding its annual Advent Carol Service at 8 p.m. This year the music for this ecumenical service will be provided by the Pro Musica Group from Cornwall.

OBITUARY

Diocesan CWL meet

by Betty MacDonald

The Fall Diocesan meeting of the CWL was held in Finch on Monday, November 6. Mass was concelebrated by Spiritual Director Reverend Roch Bougie assisted by Fr. John Donihee and Fr. Claude Halle. Fr. Leo MacDonell and Fr. Tommy Villeneuve also attended.

Our president, Mrs. Marie McDonald chaired the meeting. Each convener reported on the activities she had planned for the fall term.

Several boxes of knitted goods for "Project Warmth" were brought in ready for shipping to Sister Simone's Indian Mission at Kenora. Each member was reminded to support Sr. Simone's Penny-a-Day project.

Mrs. Yannick Morin, program assistant from the Vanier Institute of the Family was guest speaker. Her topic was "Institute Views on Family Life." The institute spends its energy on programs to strengthen family life. The members work with regional groups, provincial groups and international groups. They actually do not offer material assistance to the family but they talk—talk on how best to improve the health of family life so they will be able to face any crisis that might occur.

"Talking makes its way. The more people talk about the family the more we realize we are committed to it. It is the foundation of life in our society today—something we don't want to see go down the drain. It is in the family that we learn the skills that stand us in the proper perspective for the rest of our lives. Very few of us are without problems in a family. Many have a crazy aunt, a retarded child or a deserted partner. Nevertheless we all come from families created through love. And what is love but caring and sharing with your family members. As the family goes, so goes society," commented Mrs. Morin.

A social hour followed the meeting.

Dunvegan

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nixon were in Chatham for the weekend visiting with Bev and Linda Nixon and family.

John Keith and Marvel MacLeod and family moved to Laggan on Saturday. We hope they will be very happy in their new home and we wish them the best of luck in their new venture.

Several people attended the dinner at St. Bernardin on Sunday night, and enjoyed the good food.

Johnny Carpenter, together with his friends Charlie and Cyril MacDonell, John Marjerrison, Bill Kennedy, and Leonard Hill were at Maynooth to hunt deer, but came home empty-handed.

Better luck next time!

Mrs. Fred Hampel returned to Pembroke on the weekend, after spending several weeks in Dunvegan.

Congratulations to Norman MacLeod and Stanley MacLeod for their win in the election.

CHURCH SERVICE

The service in Kenyon Church on Nov. 19 will be conducted by the newly appointed interim moderator, Rev. Robert Martin of Vankleek Hill.

Everyone was happy to see Joan Montgomery home for a visit from Calgary, to visit her father, Nelson in the Manor, and her many relatives and friends, and introduce them to her fiance Bert Vass, who accompanied her. Congratulations to the happy couple!

Joan Montgomery honored at shower

A bridal shower was held in Dunvegan Women's Institute Hall on Nov. 9 in honor of Miss Joan Montgomery, daughter of Nelson Montgomery and the late Mamie Montgomery of Dunvegan.

She was escorted in by Mrs. Hilda Campbell, and Mrs. Cassie Campbell escorted Mrs. Mabel Guindon, sister of the bride. Other guests were Miss Annie Campbell, Mrs. Mildred Campbell and Gwen of Ottawa.

The address of good wishes was given by Mrs. Glen MacRae. The bride-to-be gathering was in the form of a money shower, given by the neighbors and friends of the community. The guest of honor expressed her sincere thanks on receiving the gifts. A short program followed and lunch was served.

Greenfield

Hall of Fame assistance offered

by Angus H. McDonell

The Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame Board members didn't lose any time moving into progressive action following their recent inaugural meeting. At their meeting last week the chief topic discussed was drafting a constitution of governing by-laws to guide the present and future destiny of the organization.

Archibald MacDonell, former Charlottenburgh reeve and Counties' warden, outlined the importance of a constitution as did Dr. Don Gamble, another veteran of many years dealing in organization and leadership.

Copies of the Football Hall of Fame and the Hockey Hall of Fame constitutions are being requested to be used as guidelines. The Board requested that during the coming weeks Jim Hill and Angus H. McDonell draft a constitution for the members to scrutinize and adopt by early 1979. The Board will then finalize plans for the first Induction Dinner-dance.

The tentative date of this historical occasion is slated for Friday, June 1, 1979, immediately following the seventh scheduled game of the Stanley Cup finals. The locale will be the Maxville and District Sports Complex. Already a line is out to a noted Canadian sport personality to fill the role of guest speaker.

Among the early positive marks of co-operation besides the complimentary press reviews and verbal opinions of sport fans was a message of congratulations and an offer of assistance by the Brockville office of the Ontario Ministry of Tourism and Industry. In addition and one of major importance, was the assurance of a noted Canadian artist, D. A. "Doug" Fales of Montreal, that after the names of those to be inducted were drafted by the board he would gladly depict on canvas, paintings of the candidates that would enshrine those great Glengarrians for all time.

Mr. Fales has become a Glengarrian by adoption as he is a weekend visitor to his home in the Glens for some years. Like Dr. Senecal of Alexandria, he is an enthusiastic fan of the Highland Games especially the track, field and caber tossing.

It was confirmed that Murray MacQueen had accepted to act as a representative of Dunvegan area and Glengarrians in Ottawa. Murray MacQueen is an experienced executive worker specializing in program detail both in Ottawa and the Highland Games.

Dr. Don Gamble was appointed vice-chairman and will conduct meetings during the winter months.

The directors wish to advise that anyone, regardless of residence, may nominate a candidate to be inducted into the Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame. Your nomination will be greatly appreciated and welcome. Democratic procedure is the theme of this organization. An application is expected to contain the qualifications of the nominee and will be reviewed by the board. If not accepted in the current year, it will be filed and reviewed the following year.

Applicants are requested to mail their nominations to the secretary, Bill Campbell, P.O. Box 370, Maxville, Ontario, K0C 1T0.

Char-Lan Rebels win two more games

by Stewart Fourney

Last Wednesday our Char-Lan Junior C Rebels travelled to Finch to play Osnabruck Township. The Osnabruck team started fast, testing Rebels goalie Ricky Marleau several times with Marleau making four key saves. This started our boys skating and in four minutes, 21 seconds, the Rebels were up to 4 to 0.

Mike Tessier was hit with a lead pass from Lee Sheets, then Kevin Fontaine took a pass from defence partner Bill McBean and split Osnabruck's defence making it 2 to 0. Eighteen seconds later Lee Sheets scored on a goal-mouth pass from Tessier and Julien Derome. Mitchell MacDonald broke in the clear at centre with Kenton Spinks laying a good lead pass on Mitchell's stick ending the scoring in the first period.

At the 13:23 mark of the second period, Fontaine scored his second goal of the game on a solo effort. Mike Tessier got his second goal on passes from Dale Lafave and Lee Sheets. OE Osnabruck boys started fast in the third period. At 13:01 Grant Simpson scored on a set-up by Campbell. One minute, 14 seconds later Blake Barry beat Marleau on a lead pass from Bill Kroeze and Barry Van Allan. With 3:08 left in the game Bill McBean showed his art of stick-handling, putting Char-Lan back in the scoring on a pass from Marc Laperle. Rebels' Lee Sheets finished the scoring with two minutes left in the game as Julien Derome and Tessier again went to work. Coach Wendell Lafave was pleased with an all-team performance from Marleau in goal to a fast skating game, and lots of good passing. Osnabruck took eleven of the eighteen penalties in the game.

Thursday, Cameron McCormick brought his Alexandria C Glens to town and produced a fast game. Both coaches McCormick and Lafave were missing two key players each, McLeod and Danaher for the Glens and for the Rebels Marc Seguin sitting out his last of a three-game suspension on a match penalty. Lloyd Fourney should be back in the lineup this week as he missed the last four games with a back injury, noted coach Lafave.

Char-Lan went ahead with the only goal of the first period, Mitchell MacDonald scoring on a pass from Kenton Spinks, and Ricky Cooper.

In the second Lyle Ross got behind Rebels defence and made no mistake as he sped in from centre ice on a lead pass off Carter MacDonald and Gagnon, tieing the score 1 to 1. Before the period ended Mike Tessier put Char-Lan ahead again on passes from Derome and Sheets.

With just 39 seconds into the third period, Julien Derome scored for Char-Lan assisted by Lafave and Tessier. However, the Glens narrowed the mark as Carter MacDonald beat Marc Gareau with a well-placed shot with Lyle Ross getting the assist. Tessier got his second of the night on passes from Laperle and Lafave. The game went end-to-end as both teams opened up, however Ricky Cooper put the game out of reach with just 2:26 left on passes from Spinks and MacDonald. Alexandria goalie MacDonell stopped 33 shots to 28 for Rebels' goalie Marc Gareau.

Char-Lan Rebels next game will be Thursday, Nov. 16, at Charlottenburgh Arena at 8 p.m. Embrun 72s will be in town, which should make for good fast hockey.

Lancaster scores two wins

by Mike Depratto

Lancaster seems to be back on the winning track with two victories over last place St. Raphael's on the weekend.

Thursday night in Williamstown, Lancaster defeated Cameron McDonald's St. Raphael's team by a score of 7 to 2. The goal getters for Lancaster were Brian Reasbeck and Mike Tessier with two each, Brian Fisher, Glen Bethune and Kerry MacKay added singles. The scorers for St. Raphael's were Denis Jodoin and Carter MacDonald.

Sunday in the second game, these same two teams produced an almost identical score. The final buzzer sounded with a final tally of 8-2 in favor of Lancaster. Scoring for Lancaster were Peter Leroux and Mike Tessier with two and singles were from Mike Ruest, Glen Bethune, Brian Reasbeck, and Brian Fisher.

Jim MacDonald with two was the only scorer for St. Raphael's.

Glen Nevis almost handed Alexandria a repeat come-from-behind performance in Sunday's game. Glen Nevis was behind 5 to 2 with four minutes to go then they scored two goals, but this was not quite enough. Two weeks ago, Glen Nevis had scored three goals in the last minute to defeat Alexandria. The final score this time was Alexandria 5, Glen Nevis 4.

Scoring on the winning team were Garret MacGillis with two and singles came from Peewee Poirier, Howard Cameron and Robert Lajoie. The Glen Nevis goals were by Warren MacKinnon, two; Lucien Brisebois and Tommy MacRae with one each.

Games this weekend: Thursday, 10 p.m. at Char-Lan Auditorium, Lancaster vs Alexandria; Sunday, Nov. 19, 1 p.m. at Glengarry Sports Palace, Glen Nevis vs Lancaster, Alexandria vs St. Raphael's.

Glens 9, Rockland 2

by Gerry Simpson

The Glens played hockey for 60 minutes last Friday night instead of the usual 20 minutes and out-hustled and out-scored the opposition 9-2.

Leading the Glens scoring attack were 2 goals by Luc Poirier, Doug Campbell and John McLeod. Singles went to Leo Seguin, Mike Crack and Sandy MacDonell. Chipping in with assists were Yvan Desautels (2), Doug Campbell (1), Mike Crack (1), Jacques Lajoie (2), Laurie McRae, John McLeod (1), Leo Seguin (2), Luc Poirier (2), Terry Epp (1), Sandy MacDonell (1).

The Glens set the pace Friday night in the opening period forechecking very well and kept Rockland handcuffed and unable to move the puck effectively and they kept taking the play to Rockland forcing them into mistakes.

On Sunday night in Navan the Grads were waiting for the Glens as they out-scored the Glens 4-0 in the first period, scoring 2 goals in the last 40 seconds of the first period.

In the second period the Glens came back to life and out-played the Grads and out-scored them 2 to 1. Glens goals were by Sandy MacDonell assisted by Poirier and by Glenn MacDonell unassisted.

In the third period the Glens were pressing hard for the win but were unable to beat Grads goal keeper Rick Desjardins.

Glens out shot Grads in third period 30-12 but were still unable to score. The Glens must learn that there are three periods to a hockey game, not two. This Friday night Navan is back in town for an 8:30 encounter with our Jr. B. Glens.

Stars win Lake Placid tourney

by Carman MacMillan

The final weekend of October spelled the finish of the outdoor soccer for the Glengarry Stars Soccer Club. The boys travelled to Lake Placid to play in the annual Lake Placid Octoberfest Tournament. This was the second year in a row and again was a two-day affair.

Most of the players who went last season asked again but I only had seven players returning so I picked up eight new ones to play and they played excellently.

We had to play two games on Saturday, Oct. 28. Our first at 1 p.m. against Cornwall United and at 2 p.m. against Char-Lan United who were runners-up in the tournament last season. Both games were played very loose as we had least of the play. In the first game our goaler did not have a shot but we were able to score one goal to win. Also in the second game we came on strong and again played well defensively and again scored only one goal, but that was enough to win.

That night the Octoberfest dance was held in the Olympic Arena as the Olympics are there in 1980 so all the names have changed. The time and dance was bigger and better than ever. There seemed to be about 6-8,000 people there. It continued throughout the night and into the next day and finished at midnight on Sunday.

On Sunday our third game against a Lake Placid team was a must as we had won our first two and so did they. The boys after a good hour's rest the night before took to the field and never played better as we scored five goals and again came away with a big 0. That win put us in the final against Prescott who had won the other division.

At three o'clock we took on Prescott. The boys were ready and for once wanted the cup. We went out again and scored early. By halftime we were ahead 3 to 0 and after that were never in doubt as the score stayed that way to the end.

In all we scored a total of 10 goals to the opposition 0.

Included among our players was the Shutout king in Glengarry this season, Gerald McDonald, who also notched a shutout in this tourney.

The rest of the squad was: Stephen MacDonell, Mark Barlow, Andre Chenier, Rae MacDonald, Pierre Theoret, Norman Laliberte, Ronnie MacPherson, Gerald Chenier, Earl MacLennan, Hugh MacGillivray, Tom Lowe, Ewen MacLeod, Ian MacLeod, Wally Martin, and of course the two people who keep the club going, Manager Gerald Simpson and Coach Carman MacMillan.

The team also picked the improved player over the two days and that went to Stephen MacDonell. He had a great two days while runner-up was Ronnie MacPherson who also had a good two days.

The outstanding player for the Stars in the whole tournament was Pierre Theoret. His ball control and pin-point passing threw the opposition off during the whole game. He also had a great defensive game and again he came up with two goals.

While I am still on the tournament, I would like to thank the four people who took the cars and also we are going to have a Pre-Christmas dance at the Bonnie Glen on Dec. 22 from 9 to 1 with Sylvester MacDonald so we hope to see all the people out there.

I also would like to thank all the players who played at one time or another for me this past season and would like to remind you that within a month and a half indoor soccer again gets underway, so stay in shape.

Jr C Glens split two last week

by Ray McDonald

The Alexandria Junior "C" Glens split its two games last week, losing on Thursday night to Char-Lan 5-2 and beating Chesterville 4-2 on Saturday.

On Thursday night the team travelled to Williamstown to play the Char-Lan Rebels. Although our local team came up short on goals, it was perhaps its best game of the season. The Glens had plenty of scoring chances, outshooting the Rebels 33-28.

Scoring for Alexandria in the second period was Lyle Ross, assisted by Carter MacDonald and Jeff Milne.

In the third period, Carter MacDonald scored on a set-up by Lyle Ross. The third period was also the downfall of the team. The Rebels scored three goals to break the tie and win the game.

Scoring for Char-Lan were Mike Tessier with two and singles by Mitchell MacDonald, Julien Derome and Ricky Cooper.

WINS SATURDAY

On Saturday night the Glens redeemed themselves, outscoring Chesterville 4-2.

Alexandria scored the first goal of the game in the first period on a shot by Johnny MacLeod. He was assisted by Paul Depratto and Jeff Milne.

Alexandria controlled the second period, scoring three goals to the Jets' one. Scoring for the Glens were David MacDonell, assisted by Mike Wray and Bradley Gagnon; Johnny MacLeod, assisted by Jeff Milne and Paul Depratto, and Bradley Gagnon, assisted by Tom McRae.

Chesterville scored the only goal of the third period, with Neil Rittle adding one to Lyle Gervage's second period goal.

Glens' coach McCormick praised the efforts of Johnny MacLeod and Raymond Lefebvre.

The next game for the Glens will be on Wednesday against Osnabruck in Maxville. The next home game is on Saturday night against the Avonmore Aces.

Oldtimers tournament won by Cornwall

The Cornwall Hubs proved to be the superior team in the Third Annual Oldtimers Hockey Tournament held at the Glengarry Sports Palace recently. Alexandria was runner-up in the "A" division, with Hawkesbury and Green Valley first and second in the "B" division respectively.

For the "A" division championship, the Cornwall Hubs had to beat Hawkesbury 5-0, Stormont 3-1 and Alexandria 9-2. Alexandria earned the right to play the Hubs in the finals by defeating Green Valley 3-2 in overtime and downing the Cornwall Civics 9-2.

For the "B" championship, Hawkesbury came back from its loss to hand Vankleek Hill a 3-2 overtime loss and then rout Green Valley 5-0. The Green Valley Rockets had slipped by Embrun 3-2 in the semi-finals.

The Cornwall Hubs ran away with the best player awards, taking all three in the "A" division. Ron Ward was picked for top defence, D. J. Cameron won the best goalie award, and Larry Gabri was the top scorer.

The "B" awards were more evenly distributed. Willie Terry, of the Vankleek Hill Oldtimers, took the top defence award. Green Valley Rockets' Marc Brunet was best goalie and Pierre Berthiaume of the Hawkesbury Oldtimers was the top scorer.

The Master of Ceremonies for the laying of wreaths at the Williamstown Cenotaph was Robert McDonell.

Master of ceremonies at the Lancaster Cenotaph was John McLaren. Taking the salute at the conclusion of the wreath laying was Lt. Col. Douglas McLeod.

A donation of a hundred dollars was given to the Glengarry Pipe Band who led the parade and who always add so much to any occasion.

A lunch was served by the Ladies' Auxiliary at the Legion Hall following the ceremony. Prior to the parade, the first Lancaster Boy Scouts, Guides and Brownies joined the Legionnaires and Ladies' Auxiliary at a church service in Knox Church, Lancaster.

Celebrates birthday

by Mrs. J. Wightman

Mrs. Margaret McCallum, Lancaster, who celebrated her 80th birthday November 2, had a busy day being entertained and receiving telephone messages and flowers from near and far.

A surprise dinner party at the East Wind Inn, Cornwall, given by her son Rae and his wife Louise from Thetford Mines, Que., on Saturday, November 4, will leave her with lingering memories for some time.

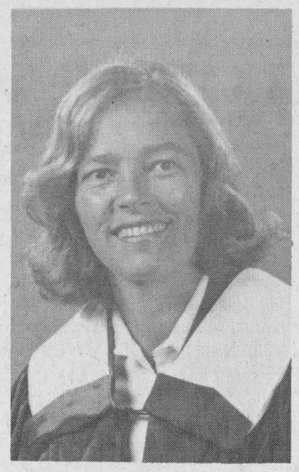
Catherine McRae, sister of Mrs. McCallum, flew in from Pittsburg, Pa., a complete surprise for the birthday celebrant. Other relatives who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Morden McRae, Burlington; Mrs. Marion MacLeod, Richmond; Miss Alix Delahaye, Pembroke; and several of her closest long standing neighbors.

Birthday greetings were received from grandnieces Nora and Helen Johnston, Calgary, a niece Janet, and Bill and family, Gladstone, Man., also cousin Bill and Jean McRae, Sussex, B.C.

Her son, Rae, paid tribute to his mother when addressing the dinner guests and he thanked those who had travelled long distances. A word of appreciation was given also to his wife Louise.

Disconnect power

St. John Ambulance reminds you that someone who is electrocuted may remain firmly attached to the power supply. Before you try to help the victim, disconnect the power or push the power supply away from the victim with a non-conductor such as a dry stick.



RECENT GRADUATE—Audrey Warwick of RR2, Apple Hill, graduated from Ottawa University with her Bachelor of Arts degree at the Fall Convocation exercises held at the National Arts Centre on October 22. A teacher at Roxborough Public School, she is the wife of Forest Supervisor Barry Warwick and the mother of Kim and Tracy.

Moose Creek News

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Brunet celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on September 30 by renewing their vows at a mass held in Our Lady of Angels' Church, Moose Creek. Their two sons-in-law read the Scripture and their godchild, James Taylor served as altar attendant.

A supper was served to the many relatives in the Community Hall, Moose Creek in the early evening, after which a social gathering was spent in dancing with organ music supplied. Mr. and Mrs. Brunet began the party for dancing to the stirring music of the "Anniversary Waltz."

Mr. and Mrs. Brunet were married in Detroit, Mich., on September 29, 1928, Mrs. Brunet being a citizen of that area. After two years the couple came to reside in the Moose Creek community. For a number of years they operated a farm in the 10th Concession of Roxborough Township, after which they came to the Village of Moose Creek where they were the owners of the Central Hotel until retiring a few years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Brunet have two daughters, Mrs. Shirley Tomlin and Mrs. Diane Seguin, both of Ottawa, and two grandchildren. Mrs. Brunet's sister and two cousins attended the gathering from Mrs. Brunet's home town, Murray, Ky. and a sister-in-law Mrs. Daisy Haynes from Detroit. Other relatives and friends were present from Rigaud, Quebec, Smiths Falls, Spencerville, Ottawa and Cornwall.

Plaques were received from Governor-General Jules Leger; Prime Minister Pierre E. Trudeau; Premier William Davis; Bishop Eugene LaRocque and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lumley.

The honored couple was presented with a purse, gifts, flowers and many cards expressing good wishes for future health and happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Brunet are active members of all community activities. Mr. Brunet is at present the president of the Senior Citizens' Club and Mrs. Brunet is a member of the Catholic Women's League, Women's Institute, the Horticultural Society and Senior Citizens' Club.

Bargains available

Farmers can have big savings by bargaining on interest rates, Bill Benson, Second Vice-President of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture told a group of area farmers.

Benson told the regional meeting of the Huron County Federation of Agriculture, many farmers with a good credit rating had recently been able to negotiate a much lower interest rate than was originally quoted. He added, the practice is not just confined to the banks, but is general amongst financial institutions.

Benson urged farmers to be aggressive in their negotiations. "The savings are there but you will never get them until you ask. Farmers should shop for credit just as carefully as they do for anything else," he said.

Benson pointed out interest payments had become an increasing burden for the province's farmers. "Operating costs have skyrocketed and the price of new land, equipment and buildings is nearly beyond belief. When you combine that with the low product prices of the last few years, it means the farmer is now as dependant upon the financial institutions as any other businessman."

The latest figures from Statistics Canada show that in 1977, Ontario's farmers paid $204 million in interest charges. This compares with $187 million the year before. Benson forecast the combination of even higher interest rates and increasing indebtedness would drive the figure still higher in 1978.

Benson said he hoped for the sake of the farm community that the recent increases in farm gate prices would continue. He concluded, "we need the increases just to pay the interest."

MODE—VALLANCE

On Sept. 30 Dr. I. D. MacIver officiated at a candlelight service in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Maxville, for the marriage of Heather Christine Vallance and Donald Drummond Mode.

Heather is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Vallance, Maxville, and Donald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Mode, Vankleek Hill.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Claire Sabourin as matron of honor and Mrs. Marilyn MacLeod and Miss Janet Vallance as bridesmaids. The groom was attended by George Caughill, Timmins, as best man. Ushers were Leigh Mode and Jim Vallance.

Mrs. I. D. MacIver was organist and accompanied Kenneth Johns, clarinet soloist.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of silk jersey featuring seed pearl trim and finely pleated skirt. A chapel veil fell from a seed pearl head-dress. She carried a cascading bouquet of burgundy red roses, white lilies and purple heather. The attendants wore matching gowns of burgundy chiffon.

The guest pews were marked with white bows and sprigs of purple heather.

A reception was held at the Bonnie Glen with Allan Vallance, uncle of the bride, as toastmaster. The Brigadoons provided music for dancing.

For travelling the bride wore a beige silk jersey dress with pleated skirt and burgundy velvet jacket.

The couple are residing in Ottawa.

Prior to their marriage the bride and groom were entertained at a wine and cheese party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark McCuaig, Lancaster. Vankleek Hill friends honored the couple at a party at the Sportsman Inn. Mrs. Joann Sacoutis, Mrs. Claire Sabourin, Mrs. Marilyn MacLeod and Mrs. Alison Franzgrote were hostesses for a bridal shower. Fellow employees at Animal Research Institute, Ottawa, honored the bride with a dinner and presentation of gifts.

Sam F. McDonald dies

A native of Glen Nevis, Sam Findlay "Little Allan" McDonald passed away after a lingering illness in Sacred Heart Hospital, Hull, November 1, at the age of 76 years.

One of the nine children of the late Allan McDonald and his wife Sarah McDonald. He leaves to mourn his loss a brother John A., in Arizona and many nieces and nephews including Mrs. Harriet McDonald, Green Valley; Mrs. Sally Gareau, Cornwall; and Archie McDonald, Ottawa.

Leaving Glen Nevis as a young man, late Sam McDonald worked at the Seigniory Club for over 50 years, retiring in Montebello.

The funeral was held November 3 to St. Margaret's Church, Glen Nevis, with Father Breton officiating. Interment was in the parish cemetery and four grandnephews were pallbearers: Larry Gareau, Allen, John and Rory McDonald.

Assess situation

When you're dealing with victims of a sudden illness or accident, St. John Ambulance advises that it's wise to take a few seconds to assess the situation. Be sure there is no further danger to the casualty or yourself. Examine the casualty to be sure you provide the right treatment and deal with the most serious injuries first.

Tri-County crafts soon to be sold

Tri-County Crafts will hold their annual Christmas sale again this year in the Cornwall Civic Complex.

Following last year's most successful show they will again have a plentiful display of selected handicrafts, to be found during the two day event, such as—pottery, practical, functional and decorative; also, fascinating miniatures; weaving, there will be several weavers, so a diversified selection; jewellery, besides a wide variety of personal adornments, some beautiful clock movements mounted on polished Brazilian agate, Setparian, etc., both beautiful and unusual; dolls, dolls for the young and adults, play dolls, collectors dolls, wooden dolls, cornhusk dolls, small and large dolls, and some teddy bears; doll furniture, large and miniature sizes; macrame, lovely lamps and spectacular wall hangings, as well as the more usual items; Christmas wreaths and trimmings, all you need, again, different and original; candles, hand dipped tapers, Christmas candles, many others; afghans, articles of crochet and knitting, and for that favorite child on your list, jumpers and overalls, and more, much more.

There is one difference in this year's show however. The group will occupy Salon D1 and D2 instead of just D1 as previously.

Each purchase you make will again entitle you to a chance on one of the ten prizes to be drawn at the end of each day.

So be sure to visit the Tri-County Craft Christmas Show, at the Cornwall Civic Complex, Salons D1 and D2, Friday, November 24, 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. and Saturday, November 25, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

To hold farm convention

The 42nd Annual Convention of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture will be held in Hamilton, at the downtown Holiday Inn, on November 27, 28 and 29.

The OFA Convention is the province's Parliament of Farmers. It provides the organization's 23,000 individual members, through their more than 450 delegates, with the opportunity to initiate policy directions and express their concerns, hopes and plans.

The theme is Commitment—Commitment to the industry of agriculture, to a betterment of our environment, to the most efficient methods of production of food in this province—and a commitment to the future of Canada.

Lions celebrate 25 years of service

On Saturday, November 11, the Alexandria Lions Club held a dinner-dance in celebration of its 25th anniversary. Over 250 people turned out at the Sports Palace for the event. Past International President of the Lions Tris Coffin was the guest speaker.

After the call to order by Master of Ceremonies Lorne Lawson, the Lions were led in singing the National Anthem by J. P. Touchette. There was then a toast to the Queen, followed by an invocation by Reverend Leo MacDonell. Lion President Michael Barbara then extended his welcome to all and dinner was begun.

The menu, as listed in the program, was Lion Tamer tomato juice and tail twister salad, followed by roast king of the jungle and mashed potatoes from the den. Roarin' roll with nugget butter were also served and the meal was topped off with tamed coffee, tea or milk and convention fruit cocktail with shortbread.

After dinner Lorne Lawson presented the guests and Alexandria Mayor Bruno Massie greeted and congratulated the Lions on behalf of the Town. He also presented Tris Coffin with a plaque-mounted key to the town.

Mr. Coffin was then introduced by past international director R. E. Zimmerman and was given an oil painting of a Glengarry scene by the Alexandria Lions.

Coffin spoke about Lionism in general and about the great amount of good that service clubs do. Coffin was International President for 1973-74, one of the few Canadians ever to achieve that exalted position.

Born and raised in Montreal, Coffin is bilingual in French and English. He joined the Lions in 1939 and in the last 39 years has personally raised in excess of $100,000 for various activities.

Following Coffin's speech, Lion Doug Baxter called a salute to the charter members and led a two minute silence in remembrance of deceased members.

District Governor Ed Ayoub then presented membership pins to those members who merited them. For 25 years of service, pins were given to charter members Lloyd McHugh, Jim Humphries, John Grant, Duncan MacDonell, Campbell Fraser and Frank McLeister.

Claude Lemay was the only receiver of the membership pin for 20 years. For 10 years of service pins were given to John Cormier, Jacques Joly, Dr. Harry Abbey and Fred Vander Haeghe.

Lions President Mike Barbara then made a few remarks of closing and Reverend James Thompson gave a benediction. The tables were then cleared from the dance floor and the Stardusters orchestra set up to play dancing music for the night.

LIONS HOLD 25th ANNIVERSARY DINNER-DANCE—Past International President of the Lions, Tris Coffin, spoke to over 250 people at the dinner in honor of the 25th anniversary of the Alexandria Lions Club. After the dinner a dance was held with music by the Stardusters.

Lochiel moves up in standing

On Nov. 6, in broomball action, Lochiel edged the Bulls 1-0 on a goal by Roger Jeaurond and the shut-out goaltending of Erwin MacLennan.

On Thursday, Lochiel beat the Glen 2-0. Again it was Erwin MacLennan shutting out the opposition with Jerome Poirier and Leroy Robinson scoring.

In other games, Glen Robertson took North Lancaster 4-0. Scoring for the Glen were Remi Decoeur with 2, Denis Decoeur and Jacques Hamelin each with one.

The North lost its second game of the week to the Bulls 4-1. Gilles Decoeur got the only goal for the North. Pete Champagne, Rick Valade, Joe Martin and Henry Lapensee had a goal each for the Bulls.

Upcoming games: Nov. 16, Glen vs North, 8 p.m.; Bulls vs Lochiel, 9 p.m. Nov. 28, Lochiel vs Glen, 8 p.m.; Bulls vs North, 9 p.m.

Glengarry grandson in Bowl

Glengarry friends had a special interest in the Atlantic College Bowl being played on Nov. 12, at Halifax, between St. Francis Xavier and Queen's. Playing defensive end for St. Francis Xavier is Mark Barclay. Mark, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Barclay, Ottawa, is a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dewar of Alexandria.

MY BATTLE AGAINST INJUSTICE

"What is this paper?", I asked as this nervous young man thrust a paper into my hand.

"This, sir, is a subpoena to appear in court."

Something in this paper must have influence on the central nervous system because no sooner had he handed me the evil document than he relaxed and I became a shaking, quivering leaf.

Holy snappin', what have I done now? My mind went tilt. I began thinking about all my misdeeds. First off, I attempted to catalogue the infinite mass into those misdemeanors for which I had paid in full for their consequences. That time for example, we had disguised ourselves as girl guides in order to attend their weekend campout. Getting left behind in the bush, having to eat pickled snake and onion sandwiches told us we had been discovered even before the camp began. Sufficient punishment there.

That time we put the bat in Mrs. Murray's desk drawer seemed like a good idea at the time, but the dozen servings of strap made writing out those 1,000 lines of "I will never . . ." very awkward. Certainly we had paid in full that time. I guess the bat ratted on us.

Even recently when George and I put the sawdust in Farmer Cain's hog feed the whole joke backfired. The farmer's pigs gained weight; so it can't be that I thought. At any rate, commercial cake manufacturers do it all the time.

I began to get agitated. "What is this paper for?" I asked, "and why am I receiving this subpoena to appear in the courthouse?"

I could feel my feelings of upset rising to the boiling point of 212°. (My system is still on fahrenheit). The last time I was this upset I was in a house but not a courthouse, and it wasn't because of a piece of paper it was because I didn't have any paper.

The clerk of the deputy clerk's office stated sagaciously, "I don't know, I just work there and Mr. Rudden asked us to serve this paper on you." Ahh, the glorious ambiguities of legalese.

Let us move this tale ahead to the courtroom and the nub of the questioning.

"You, Mr. Buckland, have been called to testify on the travel worthiness of the South Branch Road from the McLennan farm to the McLennan farm. Is it true that you once said you thought the road was maintained by the historical society to give us the flavor of primeval pioneer roads?"

"No sir, but I've often thought it."

"I thought so," replied the defense counsel. "And isn't it true that when you said John McLellan had once seen a girl sunbathing in a pothole next to her VW, that it was false?"

"Well sir, he didn't see her in the flesh and she might have been not next to her VW, but next to her VV."

"Did you not know that $50,000 per year is being spent on this road?"

I wondered if anyone knew this and if they did, did they believe it, because it certainly does not show.

"Would you agree, Mr. Buckland, that the South Branch from McLennan farm to McLennan green, like the road of life, should be bumpy?"

He had me on that one, I thought.

"Amen," said the judge and dismissed the court.

Gerry Lalonde, Martintown, doing a good job assisting in the courtroom.

Maurice and Barbara Brunet of Glen Falloch have recently returned from a trip to the old country (Ireland, Scotland, England). Maurice says that farmers there are moving away from traditional cattle breeds such as Shorthorn and Ayrshire. "Everywhere we went, farmers seem to be bringing in the Holstein Friesian."

Maurice drove up the other day on his tractor, with an armload of British newspapers and a new interesting history of Ireland for my reading.

MYSTERIES?

Stories of cows going down at the hands of dogs all around us. Ian McMartin, Irwin Cain, Douglas Murray, Donald Thomson have all lost cows.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

Dorney Express is back in Martintown from a successful tour of the Maritimes. The group was well received all over. Lyle MacMillan was telling me but the best reception was in Fredericton, N.B. Lyle, Jack Smith and Hughie McDonell have been treating downeasterners with their own special brand of music dear to us Glengarrians.

ANOTHER PARTY

Onagh Ross and the Martintown Horticultural Society are holding a Glengarry Ceilidh in the public school gymnasium on Saturday, November 18 at 8 p.m. The show features MacCulloch dancers, Robin Upton, Garry Matthews, Cathy Fraser, Cathy Hay, Lynn Campbell and Jackie Denovan.

NO, NOT BARBERSHOP!

Last Sunday we were privileged to hear the original Martintown United Church men's quartet: Marland Murray, Salem Thomson, Linden Urquhart and Finley McIntosh.

FILTHY RICH

Help!

I need help to spend my latest raise. Now what am I going to do with more money? The bathtub is almost full, the mattress is already lumpy and my old socks are stuffed. While several people have already had a nibble at it, Feds, provincial government, old age pension, hospitalization and so on, some of it actually trickled out of the computer into my pay envelope. All suggestions considered.

JUST FOOLIN'

Somehow, I think of Aunt Joyce and the following story about unneeded items.

"You look positively happy all the time," I said to this unmarried aunt. "I always thought that unmarried women were grouchy."

"Well, I have a dog that growls, a fireplace that smokes, a parrot that swears, and a cat that stays out all night. Why do I need a man around the house?"

OUR FALLEN HEROES

Martintown Mac asks you to remember all our fallen heroes who died, ultimately, to give us all those freedoms we may take for granted in wonderful Canada in 1978.

I am thankful that my grandfather went to war in 1914 and returned home safely in 1918.

I am thankful that my father went to war in 1939 and returned home safely in 1945.

Everyone should be thankful that I have not yet had to go to war.

RIDDLE

Why is marriage not a good schooling for man?

Dr. Algire speaks on rabies at meeting

The Martintown Women's Institute meeting for October was held in the Presbyterian Church, Martintown.

Mrs. Helen McMillan opened the meeting with a poem. There were 30 present.

One of the guests was Mrs. Mary Parry, wife of one of the singers of the Welsh Choir which is presently touring Canada. Mrs. Parry is a Women's Institute member in Wales.

Roll call was "Advantages or Disadvantages of being a farm wife," which proved most interesting and at times most amusing.

The Institute prize for the highest home economics student at Char-Lan High School was won by Miss Shirley Goudie.

Alison Murray introduced guest speaker Dr. Jim Algire with a little anecdote from a book called "Let Sleeping Vets Lie." Dr. Algire spoke on rabies and the value of prevention re: Shots for both farm animals and household pets, from which we all gleaned some information.

Pat Carpenter and Marlene Page put on a dog training show and also showed how to train a dog for a show. They brought with them their respective dogs, Chubby and Missy.

Mrs. Fiola Lambert thanked the guests for their fine demonstration and presented the dogs with dog biscuits.

Following a lovely social hour, Mrs. Helen McMillan thanked the hostesses, Audrey Morris, Margaret Kennedy, Ruthie Trainor and Elizabeth Peters.

Best wishes were extended to Sadie Hinks, a former member who has moved from the district.

Delegates who attended the area convention in Ottawa were Mrs. Helen McMillan and Mrs. Sylvia Thomson.

Mrs. Stennetta Lagroix will answer calls for a grand piano in the Women's Institute Hall. Phone 528-4230 for further information.

The next meeting will be held November 16, 1978 at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Doug Murray.

Ontario Hydro announces 1979 rural system rates

Rates charged to customers served by Ontario Hydro's rural retail system will increase an average of seven per cent in 1979.

Ontario Hydro says the increase is necessary to recover the higher wholesale cost of power as well as slight increases in retail distribution costs.

It was announced earlier that as in 1978, bills based on metered energy will continue to be reduced by an anti-inflation discount during 1979. It now seems certain that the high sales of energy to the U. S. and better than predicted performance by the nuclear plants will result in excess 1978 earnings as measured by the AIB guidelines.

The discount as adjusted from time to time will ensure that the rural retail system's share of this excess is returned to its customers during 1979.

The effect of the increase on individua' customers will vary depending on their consumption and classification. For example, a typical residential customers' monthly bill of $38.25 will increase by approximately $3.

Details of the new rates are being mailed to all rural retail customers.

MTC winter road reporting service now in effect

G.D.H.S. holds commencement

A total of 227 students received diplomas, certificates of training and special prizes at the commencement exercises held for the Glengarry District High School class of '78.

Catherine MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garry MacDonald, led the graduates with four prizes. Laurie Lloyd, daughter of Principal P. T. Lloyd and Mrs. Lloyd, won three prizes, tied for one and got one second.

After the processional, Reverend James Thompson gave an invocation and GDHS Principal Lloyd gave a short welcoming address.

A greeting from the Board of Education was extended by Trustee S. J. McLeod. Director of Education Rosaire Leger then congratulated the students, saying that they were reflective of all Glengarry society and that they were "not just living in the shadow of tradition," but were progressing toward the future.

Vice-Principal Rene Gauthier took over the proceedings to hand out the awards and diplomas. He commented briefly on the word "commencement," saying that it is a "new start," both for the students and the parents.

The winners of the special prizes were:

The Stanley Fraser Memorial Awards, Laurie Lloyd for Grade 12 and Heather McGillis for Grade 13.

The Canadian Legion award, Dianne Larocque.

The Alexandria Lions Club Awards, Catherine MacDonald for communications and business procedures and for stenography; Susan Main for accounting.

Catherine MacDonald also won The Olive Higgins Secretarial Award, and a business and commerce stenography award for 100 words per mintue for typing; winning the awards for 80 words per minute were Pierrette Decoeur, Sylvia Lewis and Lois Nixon.

The Alexandria Richelieu Club Awards for highest standings in Francais were given to:

For Francais 550, second prize, Carole Campeau.

For Francais 551, first Louise Claude, second Roxanne Valade.

For Grade 12, first, Roxanne Valade, second Chantal Whelan.

For Grade 11, first, Francine Larocque and Chantal Sauve.

For Grade 10, first, Dianne Larocque, second Manon Lalonde.

For Grade 9, first Martin Caron, second, Kim Tourangeau and Luc Henri.

Roxanne Valade won the L'Association Canadienne-Francaises award.

The Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation Bursary was won by Colleen Cameron.

The Board Awards for Excellence in grade 13 subjects were won by: Heather McGillis for French 550 and English 551, Chantal Whelan for Physics 550 and Math 551, Richard Pilon for Math 550 and Math 552, Laurie Lloyd for Biology 550, Donna MacGillis for Chemistry 550, Roxanne Valade for History 55F, Carol Duval for Francais 550, Robert Lemieux for Sociology 550, Louise Claude and Carole Duval for Sociology 55F, Lois MacMaster for Geography 550.

The Awards for Best Achievement in the two-year course were won by Jean Viau for Grade 9 and Jacqueline Bellefeuille for Grade 10.

The Board awards for Highest Standing at each grade level for each semester were won by:

For semester one, Lise Bourbonnais, Grade 9, Beth Lloyd and Gordon Hay for Grade 10, Ewan Hartrick for Grade 11, Chantal Whelan for Grade 12.

For the second semester, Bobby Stielow for Grade 9, Ginette Menard for Grade 10, Dianne Wilamoski for Grade 11, Donna MacGillis and Chantal Whelan for Grade 12.

Laurie Lloyd won the Leslie Wilson Bursary of $125.

The Touchette Memorial Bursary of $100 was won by Louise Claude, and the Robert Robertson Bursary was won by Lyle Ross.

The Ladies' Aid of St. Columba Presbyterian Church Bursary was won by Lois MacMaster and the St. Finnan's Catholic Women's League Bursary was won by Robert Lemieux.

The Knights of Columbus Awards went to Andre Claude and Bonnie Smits and the Prix des les Femmes Canadiennes-Francaises was won by Carole Depratto.

A total of 15 certificates of training, 170 secondary school graduation diplomas and 42 secondary school honor graduation diplomas were awarded.

The valedictorians for the class of '78 were Heather McGillis for English and Carol Duval for French. Each gave a short address to the assembly at the commencement held in the GDHS cafeteria.

The eight Ontario Scholars were Louise Claude, Robert Lemieux, Heather McGillis, Richard Pilon, Johanne Ranger, Roxanne Valade, Helen Vander Byl and Chris Whelan.

Grade 13 graduates were: Janice Barker, Mark Barlow, Carole Campeau, Sylvie Charlebois, Louise Claude, France Desforges, Bob Desroches, Marie-Paule Dumoulin, Carole Duval, Terry Epp, James Everson and Penny Filiatrault.

KIRK HILL NEWS

Mrs. Neil Blair

Remembrance Day was observed at Kirk Hill morning service of worship in the United Church with Rev. Lloyd Hylton leading the service. Mr. Hylton asked the question, "Will the day come when wars shall cease and answered, quoting the Book of Micah, "When He comes, they shall know wars no more."

We must realize that this is the word of God. God always fulfills His promises. He is our peace and the only lasting peace is that purchased for us by Jesus Christ the Lord.

The lament for the fallen in the two world wars was played by Mrs. Clarence MacMillan on the violin, assisted by Mrs. A. K. MacPherson on the organ. This beautiful ceremonial lament was played by the massed bands at the opening ceremonies of the Edmonton Commonwealth games in memory of Colonel Davies who designed the flag for the games.

The memorial service followed with Mrs. A. K. MacPherson at the organ, after which a congregational dinner was held in the church at which Mrs. Clarence MacMillan, better known as Edna, was honored for her many years as organist of the church.

After the dinner Lynus MacPherson was chairman for the "hymn sing," opening with Amazing Grace and ending with The Lord's my Shepherd, again accompanied by Ruthanna MacPherson.

Mrs. MacMillan, accompanied by her son, Harold, was asked to come to the front of the hall where W. J. MacGillivray, clerk of the session, spoke words of praise on behalf of the minister and the congregation, testifying to the contribution Edna had made to the church, her Christian testimony and devotion by her faithful attendance, her musical talent at all times for so many years. An AM-FM mantel radio was presented by Alexander D. MacLeod, Elder.

W. R. MacLeod, on behalf of the choir, thanked Edna for her patience, co-operation, unlimited use of her time, her musical abilities and her part in the choosing of the new organ for the church.

Mr. MacLeod voiced the hope that she would become a choir member and as assistant organist be with us. Mrs. Alex MacCuaig presented her with a mohair rug and a pearl stick pin.

Rev. Hylton spoke of Edna's humility and grace of God. Her qualities cannot pay for and the helpfulness as minister and organist, talents given almost gratis, constant input to the church life and her humble underestimation of her accomplishments. He said, "the best must part" and wished her God's blessing on her retirement.

Edna thanked all who had paid tribute to her today. She reviewed her experiences as organist with the several ministers and thanked Rev. Hylton for his consideration in choosing of the hymns. She asked co-operation and help for Mrs. MacPherson as she takes over as organist. She spoke of her years of enjoyment and her love of sacred music and asked Rev. Hylton to read from the preface of the hymnary.

Since the early days of Christianity a crowning glory of the church of God has been the place and the power of spiritual song in her worship and life. The church has come singing through the ages. Through this gracious medium, her people have lifted their hearts and voices in adoring praise, have poured out their inspiration in prayer, have proclaimed the verities of the faith and have expressed the higher emotion of the soul. She said this has been her inspiration down the years.

She thanked all for their thoughtfulness and assistance while she was organist of Kirk Hill United Church and opened her gifts with her son's assistance. A rousing ovation followed.

Get well wishes were signed by the congregation and sent to Mrs. Angus E. MacMillan, who is in hospital in Cornwall.

Her son, Dr. Ralph MacMillan, from Mississauga was unable to be present but sent her a potted azalea to mark the occasion.

IT'S OUR OPINION

Detectors could cut fire losses

"Where there is smoke there is fire." This proverb over the years has become such a figurative expression we take little stock of its literal meaning. Could be that we have become so accustomed to adjusting to fume-filled rooms we don't connect smoke with a cause to call the fire department.

Fire losses in the immediate area this past week have been heavy—a country house, a tavern restaurant in the town, a fully equipped barn containing 80 head of cattle. Could these fires have been controlled at the outset if smoke detectors had been involved?

While residents are beginning to install smoke alarm systems in family dwellings, it would seem advisable to install these warning devices in barns and business establishments which are for several hours at a time left unattended.

The inventions are a fairly new item on the market and the public could profit by films and educational pamphlets on their application in various kinds of buildings.

While some municipal councils are anxious to introduce legislation to make smoke detectors mandatory, we question if this is necessary. Surely if people are concerned enough to buy insurance, they will also take advantage of every means of fire protection which has been proved beneficial.

It looks like an open field for good salesmen to convince property owners that smoke detectors should be as natural a necessity in buildings as the heat and water systems.

Attempts co-operative council

Farmers in the area will be anticipating the outcome of Agriculture Minister Eugene Whelan's efforts to establish a Canadian Agricultural Marketing Council for agricultural and food products.

Whelan put the proposal before a group of national farm leaders and government officials from agriculture, industry, trade and commerce in Ottawa the end of last month. They are to study the proposal and a follow-up meeting is to be a priority in the new year.

The minister proposes that the council be composed of representatives from marketing organizations, producers' associations and provincial governments who would work together to develop marketing strategies for agricultural exports.

If a common language is needed to unite the country, farmers have it, claims Farmer Eugene. The name of the language is "food."

Whelan says he doesn't need a degree to talk about food, just common sense. His effort to keep the agricultural industry progressive is aided by a mere drop in the national bucket.

Less than two per cent of the total government budget is allotted to support the Department of Agriculture, although the most recent figures reveal that the Gross Domestic Product of agriculture stands second only to mining among Canada's five primary industries. The ministry does well considering it must operate on such a shoe-string.

The proposed new marketing council could stand some input from some of our local farm organizations which represent many highly qualified food producers.

The average full-time farmer in this area has at least $150,000 invested. The half million farmers in this country create jobs for close to five million other workers in related industries such as feed, fuels, fertilizer, machinery and the like. This does not include the people employed in processing, transporting, retailing and wholesaling food.

Each farmer creates jobs for almost 20 other workers. Each farmer produces food for 52 other people. Each farmer will be affected by the outcome of the proposed Canadian Agricultural Marketing Council.

All areas of Glengarry will be voting December 2 for school trustees and there will be municipal elections as well in Alexandria, Lochiel and Lancaster Township. Whether or not there will be elections in Maxville will not be known until the weekend. —The Power Authority of the State of New York registered the sole objection Tuesday against an application for diversion of water from the St. Lawrence to improve the Raisin River.—A lifelong and highly respected resident of Alexandria, Wilfred (Bill) McLeister died Saturday night in hospital here.—Carter MacDonald, 8, is making a good recovery in hospital here after suffering second and third degree burns to his face and chest in his Green Valley area home Thursday night. —Trustee seats on the two new counties boards of education are proving popular and Monday nominations saw only two acclamations: Raymond Rochon, Alexandria and Sam McLeod of Martintown. Nineteen candidates will contest six other trustee seats.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

There will be no elections in Alexandria as all seats were filled by acclamation. Mayor George Simon was returned and Lloyd McHugh moves up to reeve, replacing George Lefebvre who retires from that office. Councillors will be John G. Proulx, Sebastien Laporte, Magnus Lemay and Les Fraser. J. A. Sabourin and Rolland Brisson were returned to the PUC.—Alexandria's new fire truck arrived Saturday and members of the brigade spent the weekend being instructed in its operation.—Duncan J. Morris has started construction of a three-storey brick building in rear of the present funeral parlors which will permit expansion of the present two parlors.—Charlottenburgh Township Council has instructed HEPC to proceed with installation of street lights at Green Valley. —Rev. Iver D. MacIver Tuesday was inducted into the Maxville-St. Elmo charge of the Presbyterian Church.

'From the old rail fence'

by Anna Margaret

Unsightly dead trees may blot the countryside but the Ministry of Natural Resources reminds that biologists say these trees serve a valuable purpose.

They attract wood-eating insects. Many creepy-crawlies find the loose bark and crevices good places to hide during daylight or to deposit their eggs. This in turn becomes a natural feeding station for insect-eating birds.

This might lead to a new lovey-dovey expression for brothers and sisters to use on each other. Instead of "Why don't you crawl back under your stone?" they could switch for "Go curl up in the dead elm."

Last weekend was for remembering the "war dead." It seems odd that most of the population who for some strange reason get a holiday to remember are the school-children who in this country don't know much about battlefields.

However, in a national survey of household violence recently presented to an American government sub-committee, Professor Murray Straus of the University of New Hampshire directed the study said: "Violence occurs between family members more often than it occurs in any other setting except with armies at war and participants in riots."

The descriptions included child abuse, husband and wife beating, sexual assault and violence among the children in the family home.

Figures turned up 20,000 homicides in the survey, found that 1.8 million wives are beaten annually by their husbands and 2.3 million children had used a knife or gun on a brother or sister.

Don't have the Canadian figures to compare but we parallel our Southern neighbors quite closely.

It seems unbelievable. Unless you talk to some of the people who deal with the results of such abuse. And mostly we don't want to hear about such monstrous happenings. This way we can pretend the situation does not exist.

New studies are being initiated on the family and next year is the "International Year of the Child."

Have families changed that much in their feelings for each other? Were family relationships some years back all that good? Seems to me I know a lot of grown-up brothers and sisters who don't like each other, who talk to each other only out of a sense of obligation and many who don't talk to each other at all. Maybe they just hated each other in silence as they grew up or were miserable and snarly. People can often hurt others worse with just words than if they beat them with a stick.

While it is so easy to point the finger at others, there are times when we are all fairly cruel. We get upset and take it out on someone we work with or live with.

"Nobody understands what we go through in the course of a day," we wail.

We are a frustrated lot. God understands. And listens. We should talk to Him more.

Perspective

by Bob Roth

Time to start on right foot

The election dust has settled and our elected officials will be back on the job this week. In some places, we have a few new members; in others, we have the same familiar faces. Just the same, they are all "new" councils and what better time to review some of the past accomplishments and failures and set a fresh course of action?

One of the topics raised during the election in at least a couple of townships was that of closed meetings. There is a growing concern among ratepayers that too much business is being discussed in private. While it is true that we elect people to make decisions on our behalf for a two-year term, it is also a principle of democratic rule that these elected people are supposed to be "representatives" of the people. It, therefore, should go without saying that to be representative, you must periodically talk to the citizenry to ensure that your decisions are in tune with public thinking.

I always chuckle under my breath when I hear the standard line, "If they don't like what I'm doing, they can vote me out of office in two years." I chuckle because many of the same people whom I have heard make this statement have also criticized federal politicians for not "representing" the public by bringing back capital punishment.

There are lofty motions calling for a return to the noose, indignant resolutions forwarded to Ottawa condemning unresponsiveness, boisterous calls for a referendum. Yet many of the same people calling for such direct public input into the decision-making structure, would deny their own ratepayers similar input at the local level.

Perhaps the most comical aspect of this closed meeting nonsense is the scurrying around that takes place when someone actually dares to point out that closed meetings exist. Prior to the election, one candidate criticized Charlottenburgh Council, for example, for holding a secret meeting and awarding a $50,000 donation to the proposed community centre. The accusation immediately drew loud rebukes from Recreation Board Chairman Lloyd Rozon and Reeve Adrian Gadbois.

The point here is not whether the community centre is a good idea or not. The point is not even the $50,000 donation. What was being criticized was that a significant decision was made and it was made in secret. Everybody is trying to deny this, but fact is fact. Motives aside, the decision was made at an unpublicized meeting.

Too many decisions are made in secret and the public has no time for input. Although Charlottenburgh Council made the decision October 10, no attempt was made by council to inform the public prior to the election.

Why not?

I know for a fact, from two different sources, that the councillors decided that it would not be politically "wise" to reveal the project during the election campaign and that they made a conscious decision to withhold the information as long as possible.

The councillors were worried that the matter could become a "political football." But by trying to hush the matter up, they, themselves, created the political football.

If a project is sound and something that everyone can be proud of, there should be nothing to fear from early public disclosure. If there are flaws in a project and the public spots these, this should be considered helpful to council.

It may be a cliche, but there is much to be said for the old adage, "Honesty is the best policy." Open meetings and full public disclosure should be an integral part of any municipal operation. We have new councils throughout the area. Now is the time to initiate a new, open approach.

Why take an interest ?

Glen Robertson, Ont.
Nov. 9, 1978

The editor,
The Glengarry News:

I have read and enjoyed Mr. Roth's columns for a long time but to my shame have never bothered to tell him so publicly. It seems then unfair to jump on his column of November 8, "The Book Banners" on the first occasion that I really disagree; but here it is anyhow.

It may be the purpose of Mr. Roth's columns in "The News" to stir up controversy anywhere he sees fit, but one would expect him to be true to his own expressed views at all times. He has accomplished a great deal in making people aware of their rights and responsibilities in the field of municipal government. As a result I personally feel better informed with the goings-on of local government.

The right of people to have a say in the government and to influence policies and laws, in any publicly funded enterprises, is beyond question. That this is done more effectively as a group is also beyond question.

Of course, this right also pertains to school boards and their policies. Parents have the right, singly or as a group, to influence the policies of a school board, including curriculum development. (They sure do, Mr. Roth.)

In expressing this right, parents fulfill their obligations to see their children grow up in the beliefs which they cherish and hold sacred.

A great deal of discussion may be brought about by the questions raised by Mr. Roth. For example:

1. Are certain types of literature destructive of moral values?

2. Should schools reflect all aspects of society?

3. Is an author, because he is famous, also a good educator?

4. Is "telling it like it is" simply a put-on by certain people trying to impose their values on other people?

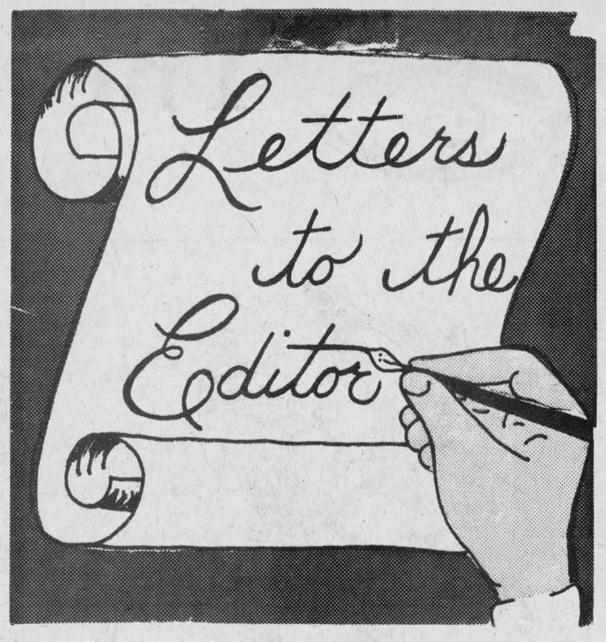
5. Should all our professional educators be trusted with the moral upbringing of our children?

There are many other points that can be and should be discussed, but the main point of this letter is the following:

Why is so much time spent encouraging people to take an interest in their local governments, when the people who do the encouraging hold up to ridicule groups of parents and ratepayers who do take an interest?

I hope I have the wrong impression of Mr. Roth's column where he implies that people who take an interest in what their children read are a bunch of old-fashioned fuddy-duddies or Miss Prim's. There may be a difference between the "real world" for which Mr. Roth attempts to educate young people and the real world which I hope to see young people grow into—a world which treasures respect for human love and its sacredness and moral values. Any attempt to subvert these values would be a betrayal of our trust in our educational system. As parents we cannot leave education to the professionals, even at the Grade XIII level. Perhaps Mr. Roth would see things differently if he had children in school.

Sincerely,
John van Nooten



Thanks folks

The editor,
The Glengarry News:

On behalf of the Executive of the Glengarry Club of Ottawa, I would like to thank everyone, especially the people from Glengarry and other places who travelled some distance, for their support and attendance at the recent Glengarry "78" Concert at the National Arts Centre, Ottawa.

A special thanks to the people who sold tickets: Coronet Gift Shop, Jack McDonald Motors, Cornwall, The Hub Restaurant, Alexandria and Danskin's Gift Shop, Maxville. Also a very special thanks to Lorne Lawson who produced and organized this spectacular and to Max Keeping, News Director for CJOH and MC for Glengarry "78," for promotions. Congratulations Lorne and Max! Last but not least by any means, each and every performer should be congratulated for a sellout performance. (2,326 plus two standing room).

Hopefully we will do it again next year.

Yours truly,
Walter Stewart,

Mail service worse

RR3, Alexandria
Nov. 11, 1978

The editor,
The Glengarry News:

Recently the Postmaster General inferred during question period in the House of Commons that all was well in the mail service after the return to work by the striking personnel. Herewith are two authentic examples of postal service extolled by postmasters general for the past 10 years.

On Monday of last week we visited with next-of-kin in Montreal before our annual trek south. We didn't take a copy of the last News issue, November 1, because we figured the Lapierres had already received their "Letter From Home."

We were astounded to discover that they hadn't, as yet, received their copy of October 25. That paper arrived next day, Tuesday, November 7. Fourteen days from Alexandria to NDG in Montreal.

Don't blame Jacques Joly and his local postal staff. And congratulate Glengarry News General Manager and Publisher Emile Hurtubise for installing the latest in mailing equipment and adding student help to get all the papers immediately after printing to the local post office in time for Wednesday evening trucking to Cornwall.

You are justified in thinking that a 14-day period of delivery, in this instance, is ridiculous. But try this one on for size.

A letter posted in Martintown, Monday, November 6, was not received by the addressee in Alexandria until Thursday.

Now let us turn back the pages of time for at least 50 years. A letter posted in Martintown in the Golden 20's would be conveyed in the "East Bound" mailbag by Les Fraser driving a horse and buggy or cutter to the Apple Hill CPR station. (First name Les may not be correct as this is written from memory, however, a brother of Lorne, River Road, and Sandy of Martintown-Apple Hill tug-of-war fame.)

At Apple Hill, the mailbag would be handled to the railway mail clerk in the mail car of the "Perth Local." He in turn would quickly toss the Martintown letter into the Alexandria mailbag. A few minutes later at Green Valley the mail would be handed an employee of Leo Marcoux livery. The livery stable was across Main Street from the present Alexandria Town Offices. The employee for some time was Johnny "Bun" (Danny Kenneth) McDonald. Johnny drove the horse, a team in stormy weather, with his right hand. His left arm was beneath the sod somewhere in France as a result of being a World War One casualty. I know this is diversion folks, but fitting, as I am writing on Armistice Day.

Now back to the Martintown letter. The mail bags dropped off at Green Valley were promptly conveyed to Alexandria Post Office, now the Police Station. Here Postmaster Peter Ferguson capably assisted by his aids, Grace Cameron and Benny Proulx sorted this mail. The addressee of this Martintown letter, generally speaking, had the letter by noon.

From Martintown to Apple Hill by horse, to Green Valley by train and Alexandria by "old dobbin" and waiting for the addressee to pick up the letter in FOUR hours. Last week it took four days.

That kind of service is far worse than watching Argos play football—it really stinks.

Yours truly,
Angus H. McDonell

Do you know what turns people off?

You probably think you do. They're mostly the things that turn you off, right? Well, see how right you are. Check the habits below you think will turn people off.

☐ 1. Filling up a hot tub instead of taking a shower.
☐ 2. Turning on the floodlights to light up the house all night.
☐ 3. Turning up the thermostat, then opening a window.
☐ 4. Leaving the TV on in one room while you eat dinner in another.
☐ 5. Cooking on an element too big for the pot.
☐ 6. Brightening up the house at dusk by turning on all the lights.
☐ 7. Turning the washing machine on to launder just a couple of things.
☐ 8. Filling the kettle up to make a single cup.

If you checked them all, 1 to 8, you're right. Because waste of electricity, like anything everybody really needs, is a bad habit.

That makes all the habits above turn-offs. Which is a good reason for all of us to avoid them.

Wasting electricity turns people off.

Beaver Club revives customs at meeting

by Angus H. McDonell

In the Nor'Westers' Museum, Williamstown, last Friday night, members of the Nor'Westers' Beaver Club of Glengarry held their annual dinner dance and one of historical significance. They turned back the pages of time to re-enact the traditional dinners and social evenings that were the Montreal Beaver Club custom some 200 years ago. At those pioneer functions, the members gathered to toast and wish "bon voyage" to the departing North-West explorers especially those with a Glengarry tie, like Simon Fraser, Alexander MacKenzie and David Thompson. Their lengthy, hazardous trek would take them from Montreal to what is now known as Western Canada.

Following the cocktail hour and reception, the members were piped to the festive board by Bill Cooper, the official and original club piper. Mrs. Sid Gordon, Williamstown, prepared a delicious buffet dinner that headlined such appetizing delicacies as Hors d'Oeuvres de Coureurs des Bois, Salade Voyageurs, Viandes Froides de Nor'wester, Tourtieres Canadiennes, Coffee and Vin de Lac Superieure. Miss Nettie MacDonald, clerk of the Beaver Club, said grace.

Jim Hill, past Chief Wintering Partner (president) was chairman of the dinner program. Following his usual appropriate opening remarks relative to the occasion, he called on the presiding Chief Wintering Partner (president) Archibald MacDonell. Mr. MacDonell after further words of welcome brought the partners (members) and guests up to date on club matters. Also introducing new partners (members). Dr. Donal Conway is the newly elected Factor (general manager).

Toasts were proposed as follows: "The Queen," by Don Shaw, "The Mother of Saints," by Dr. Harry Abbey, "The Senior Partners," by Joan Johnston, "Our Comforting Squaws," (wives and lady friends of the Nor'Westers) by Dr. Donal Conway and "Glengarry Comrades" by John R. MacDonell.

The singing and dancing portion of the program was a colorful feature. The ladies were resplendent in floor length dresses from the "gay nineties" era with matching chapeaus all the way to the current fashions. This was balanced by top-hatted gentlemen complete with the "swallow tail" coat pattern at the turn of the century. There were also those in the kilt and in contrast the semblance of the Voyageurs and the Coureurs des Bois.

In conclusion a few post-scripts . . . this News representative was pleased to meet old and new acquaintances from down Williamstown way, once the cradle of great athletes in the Glens. The retired principal of Char-Lan, Don Shaw, quite chipper . . . the "Missus" and I enjoyed a reminiscing chat with the mother of Glens Junior "B" coach, Ken MacDonald . . . Mrs. MacDonald is a sister of the late Mrs. Alex (St. Andrews) Chisholm and a one-time resident of Ourtown, Mrs. Jack Berry.

Met Lancaster-Williamstown's "Country Doctor," Donal Conway . . . ditto his charming colleen, Joan . . . you would swear you were near the shores of Galway Bay. Also the Lancaster Minister of Finance and his wife . . . the Paul Clearys . . . the Bank of Montreal guardians . . . we covered the weekly newspaper field in the Cobourg-Port Hope area . . . Paul has a brother who was highly rated in Junior "B" hockey as a goal tender . . . when in the Toronto area, that is better than average marks.

Bill Cooper Sr. of Charlottenburgh political levels plus Tree-Island and the Indian hassle, tells us that his aspiring caber-tossing son must forsake this popular Highland Games' attraction due to knee hinges that are not as sturdy as they should be to compete in this strenuous sport . . . no comparison to his older brother shouldering the bagpipes.

Miss Nettie MacDonald, the club clerk, is a retired U.S. army nurse . . . and Mrs. Sid Gordon, the dinner hostess is the former Helen Larocque, a daughter of "Tav" Larocque, one of Williamstown's and Glengarry's all-time-great goaltenders.

Mrs. Joan Johnston presented Archibald MacDonell with a replica of a beaver. Dr. Abbey is to determine the sex of the mascot . . . the medicos highly represented by Doctors Simon Fraser, Donal Conway, Wilfred Johnston and Donald Grant.

Archibald MacDonell and Ronnie MacDonell looking sharp in the MacDonell kilt . . . and another MacDonell, in contrast, wearing Coureur de bois moccasins . . . this was John R. and Mrs. MacDonell from Eamers Corners and intermediate points to the other Corners, (Harrisons) . . . the master of electronics at GDHS was flitting around in the Indian footwear like Fred Astaire . . . but we would like to see John behind a walking plow in wet clay with those moccasins. Thanks Nor'Westers for your thoughtful invitation . . . we enjoyed the evening despite our late arrival due to a previous assignment.

GO SLOW — PROTECT OUR CHILDREN!

Mrs. Lorna Chapman
874-2408

Mrs. Roy MacMillan has recently returned from a week in Ottawa where she visited Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Nixon and family and Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Sproule and family.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Poirier were Claude and Rita of Cornwall and Corinne Poirier of Alexandria.

Miss Georgette Paiement, Joe and Eva Poirier accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Laureat Decoste to the UCFO supper in Treadwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken McKenna and family and Jean and Ian McEachern were at their home at Kintail Farm last weekend. Their daughters, Brigitte, Jean and Joanne sang and Joanne accompanied them on her guitar during Sunday service here.

Everyone enjoyed their sweetly blending voices in their three selections, "It Only Takes a Spark," "A Modern Setting of The Lord's Prayer," and "They'll Know we are Christians by Our Love."

Jean McEachern, who is also a beautiful reader, gave the Scripture in Gaelic to the delight of the congregation.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert MacRae were Ruth MacRae of Ottawa and Mr. and Mrs. Don McCrimmon of Glen Norman.

County Clerk Raymond Lapointe recently phoned to say that our petition for a stop sign may be presented to the council at 11:30 a.m. on Nov. 27.

Now is the time to stand up and be counted. All those interested should come along and express their interest as well. Everyone welcome.

CHURCH SERVICE

There will be White Gift Service the evening of Dec. 10. Rev. Thompson will officiate at Christmas Eve service at 8 p.m. in the evening.

LEADERS TAKE NOTE

A word of congratulations to those who are re-elected and to the new members of our local council. Let's hope it will be a happy relationship. Good luck to you all.

Cards of thanks

ROZON—Our sincere thanks to friends, neighbors and relatives, for all their acts of kindness shown to us at the time of the passing of a dear wife and mother, Colette. Also visits at funeral home, floral tributes, sympathy cards, donations, prayers and food sent to the home. Special thanks to Dr. Nadeau and staff and Mrs. Jeanne Plouffe.
—Husband Leonide, Roch and Sylvie. 46-1p

CAMERON—I do want to express my sincere thanks to all neighbors, friends and relatives for their kindness, gifts, cards, visits and phone calls during my recent illness. Special thanks to Rev. Dr. I. D. MacIver, and to the doctors and nursing staff on third floor, Hotel Dieu Hospital, Cornwall. All your kindness and help cannot be forgotten.
—Sincerely, Eileen. 46-1p

MICHAUD—We sincerely appreciate the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy offered to us at the time of the loss of a dear husband and father, Lionel Michaud. Thanks to Dr. Jaggassar, Rev. Alston, friends, relatives, neighbors, schools, organizations—just everyone.
—Lena Michaud and Leona, Lynne and Lorye. 46-1c

Cards of thanks

McDONALD—Our sincere thanks to relatives and friends who attended Sam's funeral at Glen Nevis. Also thanks to Fr. Breton, the choir, altar servers, pallbearers, and Morris Funeral Home. Glengarry never forgets.
—Hattie and Angus, Sally and Henry, Annie O'Brien, Archie and Marion. 46-1p

CRAWFORD—I would like to thank Dr. Fay, Dr. Kerr and their assistants, also nurses on Connel Ward 3 north for their good care during my operation and recovery in Kingston General Hospital; Rev. Dr. MacGowan for his visit, Dr. Vaidya, Dr. Rae, neighbors and friends who sent cards of thanks, telephoned and helped in any way after my return home.
—Forbes H. Crawford,
Maxville. 46-1p

CARRIERE—Special thanks and gratitude to all our friends and neighbors for their kindness and donations after our barn fire. We are also grateful to those who organized a benefit dance for us and helped make it a success. Your kindness was greatly appreciated and will always be remembered.
—Adrien and Lucy Carriere. 46-1p

Thank you to Bill Campbell who so capably was Master of Ceremonies, to the Girl Guides and Minor Hockey Assoc. for their presentations and good wishes, and to Clare Besner who contributed to the inscription on the plaque. The beautiful plaque will always remind us not only of the party but of our friends in the Maxville area, and how much we enjoyed our too short residency there. We are now settled in Kingston at 369 Carrie Cres. and would be so happy to have visitors from Glengarry! Thank you all again. 46-1p

In Memoriam

MacLEOD—In loving memory of our dear daughter Connie, who passed away Nov. 15th, 1976.
November comes with deep regret,
It brings back days we will never Forget.
Deep in our hearts your memory is kept,
To love, to cherish and never forget.
—Lovingly remembered, Helen, Dougal, Campbell, Hugh and Carol. 46-1p

MacLEOD—In loving memory of a dear brother and uncle, John Alex MacLeod, who passed away November 18, 1977.
The depths of sorrow we cannot tell,
Of the loss of one we loved so well.
And while he lies in peaceful sleep,
His memory we shall always keep.
—Always remembered and sadly missed by Mary Catherine, Penelope, Royce, Wilma, Rick and Steven. 46-1p

MacCUAIG—In loving memory of a dear husband and father Mack MacCuaig who passed away November 23, 1977.
As time unfolds another year
Memories keep you ever near

A WORD FROM THE CHIROPRACTOR

Few disorders are not susceptible to scientific adjustments. This doesn't mean that every case of illness will yield to Chiropractic method, but it does mean that no matter what the ailment may be, if it results from interference of nerve force through displaced spinal segments, the only permanent relief to be hoped for must come from mechanical adjustments.

Although an illness may be caused by any part of the body, it is most likely that the first cause is mechanical displacement of segments of the spinal column.

Chiropractors do not prescribe drugs. They know it is far more important to trace the nerves affected, and then adjust the cause at its source. Treating the organ or attempting to regulate the function causing pain can bring only temporary relief if the real cause is poor body mechanics.

Adjustments correct abnormal spines, restore body tone and posture, and remove the source of nerve interference.

When it's remembered that nerve force is Nature's rejuvenating power and healing agent, it's obvious why chiropractic gets such splendid results. 29-1c

Char-Lan Crusades

by Allan MacGregor

Once Remembrance Day has passed, it is a sure sign that Christmas is fast approaching. All the outdoor activities have been fairly well completed with a few of the Phys. Ed. classes still braving the late autumn weather. It has been an amazingly warm autumn, but I had better not speak too soon; with my luck at forecasting the weather, by the time you read this, there will be two feet of snow on the ground. In a matter of days, the soccer balls and footballs will be put into hibernation, to rest for a few months while old man winter displays his skills on the Crusader gridiron. Yes, summer has certainly departed, fall is nearly completed, and winter is creeping around the corner.

Well, the senior girls' basketball team, whose chances looked so promising a little over a week ago, now find themselves out of the playoffs. In one week of SD&G League play they plummeted from first to sixth place by dropping their last two ball games. This shows the competitiveness of the league and also the unpredictable nature of sports, an aspect which makes it truly interesting. They are now preparing for the EOSSA playdowns that take place on Tuesday, November 21, which incidently also marks the regular season home opener for the Char-Lan Crusaders boys' basketball teams.

The Junior girls, it seemed, just couldn't get untracked this year. They won one game, lost two more by a one-point margin and yet another one by a two-point deficit. Now, if that isn't bad luck then my name isn't Scottish. The girls this year have laid a solid foundation for a contender in next year's campaign.

The Senior Band is practising hard as of late for our exchange concert with Acton District High School on Friday, December 1, at 8 p.m. Also I would like to make another reminder as well to the community of our Christmas concert which will take place on Friday, December 15, again at 8 p.m. Both concerts will be held in the school gym, so try and make it a point to get out and encourage the band. We need your support!

Government Spending "HORROR STORIES"

by Bob Roth

TALE NO. 57
THE GIFT HORSE GOT AWAY

To correct an error on the part of the Public Archives of Canada could cost taxpayers anywhere up to a quarter of a million dollars.

Last week, a conference on Canadian scientific and technological history called upon the federal government to save "an important part of Canada's heritage" that has been threatened due to "a serious error" of the Public Archives.

The pleas came from 130 academics, archivists and government officials attending the conference at Queen's University.

At stake is a collection of papers that once belonged to Dr. Robert Bell, one of Canada's noted 19th century scientists and a former director of the Canadian Geological Survey.

Bell's estate offered the papers to the Public Archives in 1962.

"It is difficult to understand that they (Archives officials) would not have recognized the value of some of these papers," Archives Director Michael Swift said. "Any idiot would have at least retained things like the Darwin letter."

If the government tries to recoup, it may be costly, however. Montreal Book Auctions Ltd. is selling the papers off in lots of 10. The first lot was auctioned off recently for about $22,000.

The Archives returned a large portion of the papers, however, because officials thought they lacked historical interest. It turns out, though, that the material included letters written to Bell by such internationally-renowned figures as Charles Darwin, Alexander Graham Bell and Thomas Edison.

The letters are now on a Montreal auction block.

The conference has asked Secretary of State John Roberts "to make every effort to acquire these papers. An important part of Canada's heritage is in danger of being scattered and of leaving the country."

Even Archives officials acknowledge the seriousness of the error. Much of the material is invaluable and some papers are "the only tangible links" to important parts of Canadian medical history, one source said.

TALE NO. 58
WHO DECIDES?

In the scheme of things, how do grant-givers establish priorities? That is a question that has perplexed many. How many of the studies commissioned are ever put to use? In fact, how many people even see these reports? It has always been a contention of mine that public funds should only be granted to projects that will give a significant return to the public. Such money should not be used to promote someone's particular hobby or pet project. I, therefore, take exception when I read of a $19,000 Canada Council grant given to someone "to study population and social mobility in Huntingdonshire, England, in the 14th and 15th centuries." Come now, is the Canadian public really going to benefit from this probe? A handful of academics will have some fun with it and it will be shelved away in some university library for the next century.

I'm not suggesting that there is no merit whatsoever in the study. Some worth can be found in almost any project. It's a question of priorities. With financial resources as strained as they are, should we not demand that publicly-funded projects provide a major benefit to Canadians?

Celebrates 95th birthday

Mrs. George Calvank quietly celebrated her 95th birthday on Saturday, October 28, 1978 amidst family, friends and neighbors. Mrs. Calvank is the eldest daughter of the late Hugh MacPherson and his wife Catherine MacMillan and has resided in the Dalkeith area during her entire life except for a short period of time spent in Western Canada as a young bride.

Fondly known to many as Anna Jane, she is the mother of Ena (Mrs. Henry Smith) Scarborough, Vera (Mrs. George Carrie) Ottawa and Leslie Calvank, Dalkeith. Anna Jane has 10 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren, all of whom she holds very dear.

Mrs. Calvank resides in her own apartment at the home of her son, Leslie, doing her own housekeeping and enjoys cooking for herself and others. Enjoying good health and having a very alert attitude she keeps herself up to date on the happenings in the world affairs and the immediate community.

One of her greatest pleasures is to have friends call and chat about current events, family history and school days. There are still three of her classmates from the Lorne School living that she often speaks of, namely her own sister, Mrs. Linda Hendrie of Montreal, Mrs. Flora Dewar, and Mrs. Margaret MacPhee of Maxville Manor.

During her lifetime she has had the privilege of knowing seven generations of the MacPherson side and six generations of the MacMillan side of her family. Anna Jane still enjoys doing her shopping and it is not uncommon to see her in the stores buying her groceries and clothing.

The celebrant enjoyed her numerous visitors, gifts, cards and phone calls received during the week of her birthday celebration. The immediate family shared a nicely decorated birthday cake and tea with "Grandma" on Saturday evening to end a very pleasant day.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

On Friday, November 9, Father Ostler and Mr. St. John from the Legion came to the school for a Remembrance Day Service to honour all those who died in the Wars. The complete student body participated. Each class made a wreath or token in Remembrance which was laid before our Remembrance Day Cross.

A TOURNAMENT

The Grade 7 and 8 girls journeyed to Bishop MacDonell School in Cornwall on Saturday to play there in a volleyball tournament. The three participating schools were Bishop MacDonell, the Alexander School, and Iona. We congratulate the girls who played, and the Alexander School who won both Grade 7 and 8 trophies.

A VISITOR

A recent visitor to Iona on Thursday, Friday and Monday was Constable Gilles Ruest form the Lancaster Police Department. He spoke to us about Vandalism and showed us a film on the topic.

FAMILIAR FACES

Several weeks ago Mr. Lajoie's Grade 8 class wrote encouraging letters to a Kanata family who were being harrassed because of their race. As the class had been working on the topic of "Respect for Others", the family's plight came to their attention. Familiar faces appeared in this weekend Ottawa Citizen as the class had their picture published with a write-up about the family and the class' thoughtfullness in sending letters.

MORE CONGRATULATIONS

Our congratulations go out to several of the students of our school this week. In a Highland Dancing Contest held in Cornwall this weekend, two students, Karen Kennedy and Mary Beth McBean won top honours in their respective categories.

Also, in a recent Pro-Life poster contest a Grade 8 student, Vivian Van Putten won first prize and three Grade 7 students won Honourable Mention: Patrick Dufresne, Carol Glaude, and Colette Lapointe. The posters were made on the theme "Love Life," with the contest being held through the Cornwall and District Pro-Life Organization. Congratulations to all!

SPORTS in the GLENS

by Angus H. McDonell

Now that the area municipal politicians have had their fling telling us in the last News issues why they should be elected or re-elected, we trust that available space is back to normal and we can record some items from the abeyance file.

First, our apologies to old football coaching friends of the high school circuit, Stan Fraser, Jean-Yves Jeaurond, Don Bond and Bernie Julien, for our absence from your final games.

This writer wouldn't want you great guys of this fine, school, fall entertainment to think we deserted your cause due to failure of making the playoffs. That would never be the case, you can be assured.

Even in retirement it is quite possible to run out of time. That was our problem of late. We completed further research and a pre-concert story of Glengarry Celtic "78" for Neil McCormick, Sandy McRae, Francis McDonell, their clansmen and lassies in Ottawa. We, of course, attended this classic entertainment. Then we began missionary work regarding the launching of the Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame. Throw in personal projects and we even had to forsake coach "Junior" and his Glens Juniors of "B" hockey status after a three-game coverage that we enjoyed very much. Our first in almost 10 years.

Having confessed the cause of our absence, we trust the reasons are found to be valid. We will resume this pleasant school football assignment come next September, aided by the consent of Divine Providence.

BEST WEEKEND QUIP

Again from the abeyance file. While in Ottawa for the concert weekend we checked in to a Rideau Street Motor Lodge. Quite central.

Sunday morning we wished to attend mass at St. Bridget's in Lower Town just a few blocks away. The reason. Our old friend of St. Margaret Mary parish in Ottawa South, when he was a curate, Father Lunney, is pastor of the once noted Irish flock in Lower Town.

To learn of the mass hour, we called the residence of Francis McDonell, dubbed by Max Keeping as the Ottawa Club minister of finance. Our call was answered by a cheerful male teenage voice. We asked if this was the home of Francis Hughie Finlay Duncan from the Sixth of Kenyon. A slight pause. Then the best quip of the weekend, "Wait, 'till I ask the maid."

ALS OR RIDERS

The question bandied about this week by football fans is who will represent the East and the West on Sunday the 26th in the Grey Cup final?

On the strength of Calgary's great showing today (Sunday) eliminating Winnipeg, Edmonton will find Stampeders possibly a field goal too much to handle, even allowing for home field and the support of 40,000 fans. Once again Jack Gotta has proven this year in Calgary just why he is rated among the top bracket coaches in Canada. And highly respected in the U.S.

Will it be Als or Riders popping the champagne corks about dusk this Sunday? Based on logic, we are calling Alouettes. Why? Well, there is little difference in the trenches and linebacking support. But Ottawa must check solidly the running of Montreal's Dave Green. If he gets outside, only Bank Street bridge will stop this blossoming sensation from Erie, Penna. Going the other way, on the loose, he could wind up in Ottawa East. Add O'Leary and you spell a lot of trouble for Riders' defenders. Those two, we consider, to have the edge over Ottawa's Green, Holmes and Murphy. Especially from the 10-yard line in when they can sniff the end zone.

Quarterbacking and pass receiving are about equal. Barnes has a gimpy knee but Sonny Wade always comes up strongly when the blue chips are on the table. Wally Buono and especially Sonny Wade can out-punt Riders kicking by enough yards to successfully protect an early lead. So we conclude on the field goal scoring chances. With all due respect to our J.T., he is a couple years away from being a Don Sweet or Dave Cutler. Als by two field goals, based on logic.

Now what about sentiment reasoning. The invisible torch that can fire up a team to superlative play. Especially a team that has been inconsistent despite the fact they finished in first place. That could be the motivation that will upset logic. It is part of Rough Rider football history.

Away back in the days when Alexandria-born Jim McCaffrey became Ottawa manager and Dave McCann handled the coaching, they were great believers in giving gridiron grads from Glebe Collegiate and St. Pats a chance to play with Rough Riders. We can name a list as long as your arm. Those young players had their problems, too. But those budding stars were always retained and later became CFL greats.

The spirit of Jim McCaffrey was hovering around Lansdowne Park last week and history repeated itself. J. T. Hay, as we all know, has had trouble of late finding his early season range of splitting the goal posts. Just like a golfer with his tee drives. But coach George Brancato, as in the days of yore and glory staked Riders' 1978 fortunes by showing his faith and confidence in John Thomas Hay.

On Sunday, if a team leader like Tony Gabriel, a chip of the old Bob Simpson block, hollers in the dressing room, "Ah, come on fellows, forget our bad games this year; this is the big one for the sake of all our loyal fans and on to 'Hogtown' next week," that should fire up a defence that will shackle Green and O'Leary. Tom Clements could thread the needle again to Gabriel and sentiment will overcome logic by J.T.'s field goal in the fourth quarter from the 38-yard line. Make your own decision.

A WATER PROBLEM

Last Saturday we were chatting with Apple Hill's gift to Hydro maintenance in the Glens, Hugh Allan MacDonald. Ordinarily "Hughie" can tell you why Blakeney remained Premier of Saskatchewan, how Mike Cassidy will defeat Bill Davis, and that Oshawa Broadbent will be the next leader of the opposition in the House of Commons. But we were discussing the weather, not politics.

We recalled that in 1928 we enjoyed similar weather to this fall. We plowed with horses and single furrow plow right to the eve of St. Andrew's Ball in the Armouries (spelling of that era), now a dress factory. Then two feet of snow next morning. Hugh Allan countered that 1948 was much the same. But this year's lack of rain exceeded all other autumns.

To prove this point and without batting an eyelid, Hugh Allan told us that their Hydro crew was working last week near a beaver dam. And what do you know, there was a beaver with his teeth clenching the wire handle of a pail and busy hauling water to raise the level above the dam.

There is never any question about the truthfulness of an Apple Hill story—just ask that grand old sportsman, Horace Marjerrison.

BELATED SYMPATHY

It was an unusual coincidence that two well known Glengarry veterans of the thinning old guard of World War One were laid to eternal rest as Armistice approached. Tom Bathurst from Old Dalhousie and John Archie "Baldy" MacDonald, Third Kenyon, Loch Garry. Both carried with distinction the stamp of brave Glengarrians on the battlefields of France, prospecting in the rich mining fields of Canada and being sportsmen of the highest degree.

We were too young to have rubbed shoulders with Tommy and John Archie in their formative years. However, we grew to know their accomplishments and friendship. This will be always cherished in our memory book of Great Men from Glengarry. We extend sympathy to the next-of-kin on behalf of the sports fraternity in the Glens.

Former teacher dies in 72nd year

The death occurred unexpectedly Sunday, November 5 of a native of Cotton Beaver Flora Harriet Proudman daughter of the late Duncan D. MacSweyn and his wife Christy Grant.

In her 72nd year, she was hospitalized for a heart condition in the summer, but had appeared to be making a good recovery.

A well-known teacher in area schools before her marriage to the late Clifford Campbell of Dalkeith, she leaves to mourn her loss her husband Mervyn Proudman, Ottawa; two sons, Allan Campbell, Brockville; Fergus Campbell, Dalkeith; two daughters-in-law; a step-daughter Margo Jarvis and family, Lennoxville, Que., four grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Also surviving are three sisters and a brother: Isabel, Mrs. Fergus McRae, and Christena, Mrs. Dougal MacGillivray, Alexandria; Sarah, Mrs. Lloyd MacMillan, Lochiel and a brother Donald D. on the parental homestead. She was predeceased by three brothers and one sister; John, Grant, Norman, Urquhart and Mary Elizabeth.

Rev. Lloyd Hilton conducted the funeral service in Kirk Hill United Church and interment was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were four nephews Richard Fraser, Ernie MacMillan, Kent and Ralph MacSweyn, Kenneth MacLennan and Ron Jarvis.
