Five Candidates In Riding Invited To Address Joint Meeting

The election campaign in Glengarry-Prescott-Russell continues at a low key with an almost total absence of public meetings. Candidates apparently are concentrating on organization to get out their vote with some personal solicitation at public events taking place in the riding.

Voters may have an opportunity to hear the five candidates at a joint meeting being sponsored by the Glengarry Farmers Union next Tuesday night in the auditorium of Glengarry District High School.

All five candidates are being invited to be present to address the meeting, reports Union Secretary Mrs. Allan McCuaig, and we are hopeful all will accept. The meeting will start at 8 p.m. and it is open to everyone.

The candidates have also been invited to address the students at Glengarry District High School this Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock and it is probable such meetings will be arranged at the other high schools in the riding between now and election day.

A similar meeting is planned at Vankleek Hill Collegiate on October 25th at 2.15 p.m.

Red Cross Hopes For 500 Donors At Next Friday's Blood Clinic

Next week is Red Cross Week in Glengarry with a county-wide canvass for funds opening Friday and a blood donor clinic set for Glengarry District High School next Friday, Oct. 27th.

Based on last year's tremendous success, officials have set their sights on 500 pints of blood next Friday and the mobile clinic is coming with double the number of beds in service last October. That clinic produced a record 440 pints for the blood bank and another one hundred or so people were unable to wait in the line-ups that developed.

This year we hope to be free of line-ups, reports Philip Lloyd, clinic chairman. The larger number of beds and other facilities will permit us to process the donors more speedily, he notes, and student donors will be handled prior to the 2 p.m. opening of the clinic to the public.

Mr. Lloyd expressed the hope all last year's donors will be back next Friday and enough others to reach the goal of 500 pints.

As was done last year, canvassers for funds across the county will be promoting the blood clinic. Gilles Roy is again chairman of the campaign for funds and he is hopeful the returns will be on as generous a scale as last year.

Red Cross funds, he notes, are drawn on to help finance the homemakers' service, the loan cupboard, to help fire victims and other welfare assistance. The Water Safety program at the local beach each summer is also a Red Cross project.

Jerry Adams, administrator of Glengarry Memorial Hospital is president of Glengarry Red Cross and Mrs. Kenneth Allen of Lancaster, is chairman of publicity.

ALREADY ATTRACTING WORLD-WIDE ATTENTION—Delegates from the Association for the Restoration and Preservation of Historic Buildings are seen inspecting the ruins of St. Raphael's Church last Saturday. The architect from the firm which will be doing the restoration told of plans for stripping the plaster to reveal the magnificence of the stone work; replacing the wooden lintels, grouting the crevices and capping the walls. Projected for the interior is an entry platform, maintenance of some of the stone foundations which run the length and breadth of the structure, landscaping and planting to construct a park-like effect. This view is an interior of the front entrance.

Addition To Alexander School Here, Rather Than Use Of Iona Academy Decided

An addition to Alexander School in Alexandria, to accommodate children from Grades one to eight, including senior school facilities, was approved Tuesday night at a meeting of the SD&G Separate School Board. The addition would cost more than half a million dollars.

The motion followed a decision to withdraw from Iona Academy which now houses grades four to ten. The closing of St. Raphael's school, now containing kindergarten to grade three, is also being contemplated.

The vote against the St. Raphael's location was an unrecorded 5 to 3 decision of the trustees. Robert MacDonell, a St. Raphael's resident present at the meeting, told trustees he felt sure the district would want a hearing with the board concerning the move. One trustee replied, "This is our decision at this time, but we would be willing to listen to representations".

While Iona Academy has adequate facilities for the grades now being taught it was the opinion of the board that residents of Alexandria would not like their children bussed out of town. Alexander School now has four portable classrooms and does not have the facilities for grades seven and eight now enjoyed by the French-speaking pupils in these grades at the Rouleau School in Alexandria.

The Board feels they can build only one senior school in the County for Grades seven and eight and that Alexandria is the best location. The Rouleau School accommodates all the French-speaking pupils in the county in grades seven and eight.

St. Alice School in Williamstown, a five-classroom school, now has only 39 French-speaking pupils. The board felt these children could be transported to another school and the students at St. Raphael's could be accommodated there.

Board Chairman, Lindy Latour, reported that discussion to buy Iona Academy had been underway ever since the amalgamation of the board and the trustees felt the Holy Cross Sisters should be given a definite answer should they want to sell the building to some other interest. Hence the motion "That the thought of purchasing Iona Academy be eliminated and that the sisters be so advised immediately".

The second motion read, "That the building project of an extension to Alexander School in Alexandria to accommodate kindergarten to eight pupils, including senior school facilities, be approved and that the request for the approval of the building proposal be forwarded to the Department of Education as soon as possible, before November 17th, 1972.

The Board has a $550,000 allocation from the Department of Education for the new building. To obtain this it must be applied for by November 17th.

"According to present department exigencies", Mr. Latour stated, "it takes 35 pupils to justify the building or purchasing of one classroom. We would therefore require some 200 pupils over and above the present Iona enrolment to consider its purchase. In the light of other existing circumstances, it seems impossible to attain this number."

Expect Early Start On Addition At Square C Textiles

The large addition to Square C Textile plant should be started by late next week, reports Laurent Gaumont, plant superintendent. Target for completion is January 1973.

The addition will rise on the front of the present plant. It was to have been started this week but soil tests called for a revision of plans and forced a delay.

Mr. Gaumont hopes to have full information on plans for next issue.

Bike Rider Injured

A minibike rider, Marcel Blais, 17, of Harrison Street, suffered a broken ankle Saturday morning, when his bike struck a delivery van.

Brian Lessard, 20, driving the Lalonde Foodstore station wagon was emerging onto Main from Peel Street about 11.30 a.m. His vision was obscured by a parked truck and he failed to see the northbound bike

Blais was conveyed to Glengarry Memorial Hospital. Constable Laflamme investigated.

Glen Nevis Winner

Winner of the table setting raffled last Sunday night at the harvest supper in Glen Nevis was Miss Lyse Campeau of North Lancaster.

Red Cross Homemakers Service Proving Needed In Community

Mrs. Enid MacDonald reported on the activities of the Glengarry Homemakers Service to the Red Cross Board.

Pressed into being by the Women's Institutes, the Hospital Auxiliary and interested women's church groups the program started with nine local homemakers last fall.

Taught at Glengarry Memorial Hospital, the curriculum covered First Aid, prevention of accidents and liability in the home, poisons and burns, understanding children, care of the newborn, and the elderly; working with the family, simple physical and occupational therapy, mental health, nutrition and care of the home where the only income is a pension or welfare source.

Duties of the homemaker include care for children and aged, management of the home, meal planning and preparation, light housekeeping and laundry, and simple nursing care under the supervision of a doctor or nurse.

Rates of pay are set by the Red Cross Society, depending on the family's ability to pay. No family is refused a homemaker because of lack of finances. The fee is covered by the Canadian Red Cross and the Department of Welfare. A homemaker may remain in a home up to three months. Hours are worked out to suit the family needs.

The program has been very popular in the community in the past year, and has filled a great need in the rural area. Local physicians have made good use of the homemakers. A new class is being considered. The service is operated on funds collected in the Red Cross Fund Drive.

Archie MacDonell Died Last Night

A resident of the Bridge End area throughout most of his lifetime, Archie (Alex Rory) MacDonell died in Cornwall General Hospital last night.

To mourn his loss he leaves a family of five: Ambrose, Montreal; Angus, Kingston; Anna Margaret, Mrs. Mervyn MacDonald and Olive, Mrs. Rene Seguin, both of Green Valley and Geraldine, Mrs. Melton Tibbals, India.

Three brothers and one sister also survive: Rod of Cornwall; Jim of Glen Nevis; Dan of Montreal and Madelyn. Mrs. Jim Kendrick of Norwalk, Conn.

The funeral will be held from the Morris Funeral Home to St. Finnan's Cathedral for service at 11 a.m. Saturday with burial in St. Telesphore.

Loan Cupboard In Wide Use

Mr. L. MacKinnon reports all items in the Red Cross Loan Cupboard have been borrowed extensively in the past year.

Available are six hospital-style beds with mattresses and sides, five wheelchairs, two walkers, and 12 pairs of crutches. Donations of wheelchairs, walkers or extra long crutches would be very useful. Already donated is a wheelchair from the Alexandria Branch of the Legion.

A verbal order from the family doctor should be obtained. Items can be picked up at the Glengarry Memorial Hospital. A small fee is charged and refunded when the article is returned. In some cases a community-minded local firm has generously agreed to deliver large items free of charge.

Mr. L. MacKinnon and Mr. A. Lauzon of the hospital staff have taken responsibility for the care and maintenance of the loan cupboard.

This community service is sponsored and supported by the local branch of the Red Cross Society.

Child Died

The death of three-months-old Calvin Roy MacPherson occurred suddenly at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold McPherson in Dalkeith on Tuesday, October 10th.

The infant is survived by a sister, Grace, his parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent McPherson of Dalkeith, and Mr. and Mrs. Rod McRae of Chute a Blondeau.

Service was held at the home on October 11th with burial in the cemetery, Dalkeith. Pallbearers were two uncles, Howard McRae and Keith MacPherson.

Architects See Blending Of Old And New At St. Raphael's

Delegates from the Association for the Restoration and Preservation of Historic Buildings toured the ruins of St. Raphael's Church on Saturday. The group were currently on convention in Toronto and were on tour in this area, visiting Upper Canada Village and Cornwall. Two bus loads made their way out to the Nor'Westers Museum in Williamstown and to St. Raphael's.

In the chill weather it was difficult to interview many of the visitors but among those contacted were engineers who worked on the restoration of the fortresses and buildings in Louisburg and Philadelphia; the restorations in Quebec City, Winnipeg, Vancouver and parts of Spain and Europe.

Larry Ryan of the Ontario Heritage Foundation in Toronto, present to help conduct the tour, stated that this was the only community he knew of in North America which was erecting a new church attached to an antique structure, hence its unique feature. The blending of the ancient with the modern was his suggestion, made on an earlier visit.

Stig Harvor of the architectural firm of Harvor and Menendez, in Ottawa, who will be doing the restoration of the old church as well as designing the new structure to blend in harmony with its stone-faced walls, was also present to point out unique aspects of the ruins. He elaborated on the superlative work of the early era craftsmen who constructed such an edifice entirely by hand. Some of their work left interesting queries—how, for example, did they impregnate the orange coloring in the plaster around the arch-top windows set in the circular stone?

The project to restore the walls as a memento to the early settlers was undertaken by the parish council of St. Raphael's following the destruction of the church on August 10th, 1970. It took several meetings with government officials to have it recognized as a worthwhile endeavor. On May 31st, 1971, Osie Villeneuve, MPP, Fern Guindon, then Minister of Tourism, and members of the Heritage Foundation in Toronto as well as local municipal officials made an official visit to the site and since that time, progress has been steady.

The ruins have been turned over to the Township of Charlottenburgh and will be one of its historic attractions.

Progress on the new church is slow but steady, with delays from lack of materials due to strikes, etc., but already offers of furnishings are coming in from former parishioners and friends from a distance anxious to maintain their ties with this historic spot.

Mrs. MacGillivray Died At 90

The death of Mrs. Malcolm MacGillivray of Dalkeith, occurred at MacDonell Memorial Hospital in Cornwall, on Friday, October 13th. Mrs. MacGillivray had suffered an injury to her hip last April and had been hospitalized since that time. She was in her 91st year.

The former Isabelle (Bella) MacDonald, she was the daughter of the late Roderick MacDonald and his wife, Christie Ann McLeod. Born at Glen Sandfield, she lived in that area throughout her lifetime.

To mourn her loss she leaves one son and four daughters: Donald MacGillivray; Bessie, Mrs. Donald Fraser; Anna, Mrs. Gordon MacDonald; Rhoda, Mrs. Kenneth MacDonald, all of Dalkeith and Sarah, Mrs. Ivan Mennie of Huntingdon, Que. One brother, Donald MacDonald of Maxville, also survives.

The funeral was held from the Hillcrest Funeral Home in Vankleek Hill to St. Columba Presbyterian Church on Sunday, October 15th. Rev. William Scott conducted the funeral service. Burial was in the family plot in Kirk Hill cemetery.

Pallbearers were Grant MacMillan, John D. MacMillan, Donald MacKinnon, Willie MacGillivray, Lynus and A. K. MacPherson.

Plan Sod Turning For New Clinic

Sod turning to mark the start of construction of the new Lan-Char Medical Clinic at Lancaster will be held Monday, Nov. 6th, Dr. H. K. Abbey, chairman, has announced. The informal event will be held at 2 p.m. that day on the site of the new clinic on the Williamstown road.

Invited guests will include representatives of the councils of Charlottenburgh, Lancaster Township and Village, as well as the contractor, J. Couture of Cornwall, and others.

The share-selling campaign has gone over well, reports A. D. D. MacDonald, drive chairman, but there are still a few shares available.

New County Engineer Has Area Connection

Donald J. McDonald of Cobourg, who will replace A. R. Ferguson as county engineer, is a grandson of the late Dr. Tupper McDonald of Williamstown. A son of Dr. and Mrs. W. A. L. McDonald of Trenton, Mr. McDonald is now serving as assistant county engineer for Northumberland-Durham. He will take up his duties at Cornwall about Nov. 1st.

Announcement of his appointment was made at the recent meeting of Counties Council.

Financial Position Of Parishes Detailed By Bishop With Plea To Work Together

New Dentist To Open Practice Here

Dr. J. H. A. Senecal of Dorval, Que., plans to open a dental practise in Alexandria in mid-November. His office will be located in the former Lalonde Wholesale Tobacco premises, opposite the old post office. The building is now owned by Philip and Henry Arvith of Montreal.

A classmate of the late Dr. Bernard Villeneuve at the McGill School of Dentistry, Dr. Senecal plans to phase out his present practise at Dorval while operating, temporarily, on a part-time basis here. Later the local practise will be full-time.

Lost Second Home

For the second time since last December, a house occupied by Denis Dionne, in the Dalkeith area, was lost to fire on Sunday. The house was located one and a half miles north of Dalkeith, in the same neighborhood in which his first house was situated.

Dalkeith firemen fought the late afternoon blaze before calling Alexandria brigade shortly before 6 p.m. By the time the local firemen reached the scene the blaze was beyond control.

Members of the Dionne family were away at the time of the fire and lost all the contents.

Representatives from all the parishes in the Diocese of Alexandria met in Cornwall on Sunday to discuss the financial situation of the Episcopal Corporation.

Bishop Proulx felt the meeting was necessary to inform the parish committees, and in turn, the average layman, of the financial state of the diocese and how the money collected was distributed.

The Corporation is responsible for the debts of the parishes, the Bishop informed the gathering. The principal income comes from the interest paid by parishes in debt and from interest on investments made by the diocese. The latter in 1971 amounted to $110,-062.

The expenditures on the other hand involve interest on loans from parishes with surpluses and payment to cemetery perpetual funds.

Rev. Aime Leduc, Diocesan Bursar, stated revenue of the corporation totalled $220,122 and expenditures were $172,290.

Unless the diocese works together for the overall common good, several parishes will face bankruptcy, the report indicated.

The present state of affairs was the result of a miscalculation Bishop Proulx felt, as it was impossible a few years ago to foresee how the area would develop economically. Currently the diocese is in debt $875,423.

The Roman Catholic Episcopal Act of 1891 states that the Bishop of the Diocese has the sole legalized authority to have, hold, purchase, acquire, possess and sell all church property, assets and debts.

On the other hand, parishes have a moral right to their property and assets, Rev. Rudolph Villeneuve, Vicar-General of the Diocese informed the meeting. But, he added, this moral right can at times be in conflict with what is necessary for the common good of the diocese.

St. Andrews Parish, for example, has taken legal action against the Bishop for contributing to the Diocesan Account by selling a parcel of land they felt belonged to the parish unit.

At least one parish out of 31 is inextricably in debt: Blessed Sacrament owes $255,875.

Three others have incurred serious deficits: Canadian Martyrs, $127,709; Ste Therese, $109,049; Holy Cross, $93,822.

Four of the remaining six urban churches have also run up bills; St. Jean Bosco, $79,000; Nativity, $66,000; St. Columban's, $34,466; Christ the King, $11,900.

St. Francois de Sales and St. Felix de Valois enjoy surpluses of $52,000 and $23,000, respectively.

In Alexandria, Sacred Heart is under with $23,802 while St. Finnan's is over with $418.

The rural parishes are suffering as well but their wounds aren't so deep.

In Glengarry, nine of 13 are in the red: Glen Walter, $60,500; Lancaster, $60,000; Green Valley,

IT'S OUR OPINION

Can We Do Even Better?

It's blood bank replenishment time in Glengarry next Friday, October 27th, and officers of Glengarry Red Cross have set their sights on equalling or even exceeding last year's fine response. It will be recalled that Glengarry donors turned out in record numbers last October and a generous 440 pints of blood went to replenish the blood bank.

Another one hundred pints of blood might have been donated had not the facilities of the donor clinic been over-taxed by the unexpectedly large turnout. Some people who had to wait in line for a bed found it impossible to stay on because of other commitments and left without having gone through the clinic.

That should not happen this year, officials report. The clinic will have more beds and student donors are to be handled before the public time. This time the blood clinic will be geared to cope with a large turnout of donors and it is to be hoped the public response will not be disappointing.

Most persons in good health, between the ages of 18 and 65, can become regular blood donors. If all those who responded last year decide to give blood again there should be no shortage of donors but the big success of that clinic might lead people to the conviction there is no urgency to their return. It is to meet that possibility Red Cross officials urge you to become a donor this year.

The same format that proved so successful a year ago is being followed. The canvass for funds for the Red Cross will be held across Glengarry starting tomorrow and canvassers will be spreading word of the blood donor clinic and asking for your response.

The canvass for funds works similarly to the blood bank. Donations to the Red Cross go into a money bank from which the Glengarry branch can draw to finance its homemaker service, welfare assistance, loan cupboard and other activities. If Glengarrians swell the blood bank by four or five hundred pints, much of that may return in a year to meet the requirements of our hospital for blood transfusions.

Glengarry Red Cross will be seeking your support next week, both in the matter of money and blood. Some of us are in a better position than others to donate dollars, but few are incapable of giving a pint of their blood, which nature will quickly replace.

Your blood could save a life. That is a thought that should put next week's clinic across.

Poll Can Be Misleading

This is probably the weirdest federal election Canada has known, or at least the quietest, most somnolent one. This campaign that now should be reaching its climax continues a dud and it must be a measure of its lack of newsworthiness when an Ottawa daily reaches back four weeks to find election news it can feature.

Saturday's Ottawa Citizen carried a banner line across the top of page one. The NDP moves up, but the Liberals are holding their own, was the gist of that report which turned out to be a Gallup Poll finding. And these sensational statistics were based on interviews made in the third week of September; just about the time the campaign was getting started and NDP Leader Lewis was making big news with his verbal attacks on the corporate welfare bums.

Since those Gallup interviews took place, party leaders and their lieutenants have been crisscrossing the country mouthing platitudes and new promises. The opposition attack has switched from corporate bums to high living costs and the unemployment insurance fund deficit.

If all this electioneering is not completely futile surely some of these messages have got across to at least some of the voters. What party they may have favored a month ago may be irrelevant to their thinking today. And yet we find the daily press blowing up out of all proportion something that is stale news, if it rates as news at all.

There have been arguments, both here and in the United States, that political polls should not be permitted during an election campaign. There is no way of judging their accuracy and it is argued that polls can conceivably affect the results of an election. It is human nature to want to ride with the winner and opponents of these political polls have some logic when they suggest voters could be influenced to climb on the bandwagon when polls indicate one party is far in the lead. That argument is buttressed when we see the leading party flaunting the results of that favorable poll, milking it for all the votes it may bring into the fold.

Polls have been known to be way off the beam and the manner of their presentation can also prove misleading to the casual reader. That banner line in Saturday's Citizen probably was given weight by many readers who failed to digest the small print that noted it was based on month-old interviews.

We take little stock in the results of these public opinion polls but we can understand that another newspaper finds itself hard up for election news in this campaign that is notably dreary.

Here in Glengarry-Prescott-Russell we find ourself totally at a loss when it comes to informing our readers on the progress of the campaign. There are more than the usual number of candidates but what they are doing to win friends and influence people is beyond our abilities to ascertain. For the first time in Glengarry's history, so far as we know, there is not even a public meeting at which we can meet all the candidates and judge for ourselves their merits.

Perhaps we should have conducted a poll among Glengarry voters, but then we doubt if most know even now whom they are going to vote for.

A Community Divided By Bell

Pity the plight of residents of Cassburn, in neighboring Prescott County. Neighbors in that community, half-way between Vankleek Hill and L'Orignal, have to pay long distance charges each time they have something to discuss over the telephone. And those toll charges hit much more heavily since Bell Canada changed its long distance rate structures. Where formerly they were based on three minutes, long distance charges now increase sharply after the first minute of contact.

Advising the News of this unhappy situation, Rev. David F. Fearon, minister of Cassburn United Church, points out that because of its location midway between the two towns, residents of Cassburn carry on business in both Vankleek Hill and L'Orignal. Much of that business involves the telephone and of necessity long distance calls are required whenever the Bell subscriber happens to be "on the wrong line". (The Vankleek Hill and L'Orignal exchanges bisect the community, with the Cassburn church and Hydro sub-station the dividing line).

Cassburn is an old settlement with a strong community life, Mr. Fearon notes, "but across all this community life cuts the ever-dividing influence of the long distance toll charge from one part of Cassburn to another". The parish priest at L'Orignal is subject to toll charges whenever he wants to reach a member of his parish living in Cassburn, but on the "wrong line".

One can visualize the frustration of Cassburn residents, especially in view of the fact Bell Canada is now in the process of installing Direct Distance Dialing equipment in the various exchanges of their region. Since May there has been pressure for a free-calling area but Bell's District Manager holds out no hope of changes taking place in the foreseeable future. The matter is under annual review, he advises, but Mr. Fearon gets the impression Bell Canada is too short of money to be able to install the necessary equipment. First things should come first, in his opinion, and his community would gladly postpone Direct Distance Dialing in favor of a free-calling area.

There may be other communities facing the same problem Cassburn is burning to erase and Bell Canada undoubtedly has other priorities it must meet with due regard to its financial position. We can sympathize, however, with Mr. Fearon's plea for publicity "so that this unresponsive attitude of Bell Canada will change".

Bell Canada has treated us well in the matter of an enlarged free-calling area over the past year. We await the day when all of Glengarry will have been brought closer together by the abolition of toll charges.

Now that we have been made aware of the unhappy situation in Cassburn, though, we are willing to put off that happy culmination. Telephone wires should bring people closer together, not divide a community. Cassburn should have first priority. Surely Bell Canada can find a way.

EVER HEAR THIS ONE?

386 Larsen Avenue,
Winnipeg, Man.

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

I seek your assistance, or that of your readers, as a folklore buff and native of Glengarry.

I would like to know all anyone can tell me about the legendary Fr. John MacDonald who is reputed to have walked barefoot from St. Raphael's to Montreal to exorcise Loyola College of the devil in the 1840's or 1850's. I would like to know if his family has any descendants now living, wherever they may be. Also what if any substance there is in this legend.

Neil J. MacDonald.

DIDN'T LIKE COMMIE

Cornwall, Ont.

Rambling Reporter,
The Glengarry News,

I read with interest your column entitled Anthem Without Words in the September 28th edition of the News. It was an opinion that is shared by many.

However, one word that was used, perhaps innocently, made me sit up unbelievingly to read

Solving The Litter Problem

(Smiths Falls Record-News)

Ontario's Environment Department recently announced it would spend $150,000 on advertising to get people to pick up their litter. Shortly afterward the Consumers Association of Canada criticized this method of controlling litter and asked for legislation instead. However, unless the legislation was enforced it wouldn't work either.

We have anti-noise laws but do not ever see a policeman stopping a car racing and roaring up the street without a muffler, or are there any fewer noisy motorcycles or sports cars disturbing the peace in residential areas? Unless some attempt is made to enforce legislation by authorities such as the police or by citizens groups through protest, the problem will continue.

We have highway signs now reading "$50.00 Fine for Dumping Trash" or some other such warning. Does it stop people from dumping trash? Obviously not. Most intelligent people today are aware of our serious environmental problems and are likely to regard the Ontario Environment advertising campaign as a feeble gesture in the wrong place.

If, instead, they spent the money on cooperative programs with industry to recycle tin cans, bottles and paper, offering some benefit to the public for collecting these and turning them in at government supported depots, in turn to be transported to industry, this service would benefit everyone. Without intelligent planning to follow up litter collection, although unsightly, it might just as well lie on the camp ground, the park, or the ravine to be recycled eventually by Nature. The problem is disposal and $150,000 of taxpayers money should be directed towards the solution to THAT rather than into advertising to tell us that we are litter-bugs.

RAMBLING REPORTER

NOTHING WRONG WITH COMMIE

Your Rambling Reporter gets so few letters in connection with his column he's not out to discourage the practise. While appreciating receipt of the letter to be found in an adjacent column, though, he feels impelled to defend his use of the word Commie to describe a Communist.

He sees nothing derogatory in it and is surprised to find it associated with any form of bigotry or prejudice.

Mind you he wasn't aware that Commie is Archie Bunker's favorite adjective, which he uses in a disparaging manner. Believe it or not, your Rambling Reporter has never seen the famous Archie Bunker in action on the parlor screen, though he has read some reviews critical of the said Mr. Bunker's bigotry.

Actually, the only bunkers we've ever run into are those sand traps on the golf course and we've got to admit we're prejudiced against them. We've even been known to whack their sand more than once while trying to get our ball on the green.

It wasn't carelessness on our part, or bigotry, that led us to use that expression Commie and Archie Bunker notwithstanding, we intend to use it again if ever the occasion arises. Before Archie Bunker was ever heard of Commie was in frequent use to describe a citizen of a Communist country. If he uses it in a disparaging sense that's his hang-up. When we made mention of Commie anthem we were giving it faint praise because of the absence of words. We could have spelled it out Communist, but we didn't; just as we sometimes refer to Yankees or Dutch, Poles or Newfies. There's no offence intended, or taken, as far as we know.

That letter has your Rambling Reporter almost convinced he'll have to waste more time watching the boob tube, if only to keep up with the modern scene. If he'd been an Archie Bunker fan, for instance, he might have associated Commie with other derogatory terms. He doesn't, though, and he has no intention of studying up on the new use of language as exemplified by Bunker.

While we're on the subject of letters we might as well refer to another in the next column that deals with Glengarry folklore. A Winnipeg reader seeks confirmation of a tale he's been told of a St. Raphael's pastor who in the 1840's or 50's is supposed to have walked barefoot to Montreal to exorcise the devil from Loyola College.

It's a new one to us and we doubt the good Jesuits at Loyola will be happy to hear that the devil once had a foothold in their school.

There was a bit of folklore to that effect, we learn from that walking history of St. Raphael's parish, John Sander the Farmer. He doesn't put too much stock in the story but it was in circulation many years ago. If the good Father John walked all the way to Montreal in his bare feet, he supposes, it must have been a penance imposed on himself.

Perhaps some one else can trace family descendants of Father John for the writer of that letter.

In the wake of that recent hockey series we're wondering whether the Commies need anyone else for their defence.

THE BIGGEST OFFENDER

Darned if we can see how the new postal code is ever going to work. We can't see the day when individual letter writers will have mastered the codes of everyone they correspond with. And how will a big business office be able to keep a record of all its customers and suppliers?

If it actually can move the mail faster we're all for this move to mechanization; but we have our doubts.

Now the post office people have developed a set of standards for size of envelopes and post cards to be processed by its new mechanical equipment. It will continue to handle mail of any size, but the new equipment can take only mailings no smaller than 3½x5½ inches, nor larger than 5⅞x10 inches. Out-sizes will continue to be sorted manually.

Post office officials have been working toward standardization of mail sizes for two years and say they are encouraged by the promise of co-operation from mailers, envelope manufacturers, etc.

We're left wondering if they've sought the same co-operation from other departments of government, from the office of Jean Marchand's Ministry of Resources, for example. Several of our mailings each week include a big

Service at St. Michael's Anglican Church this Sunday, Trinity Twenty-One, will be Holy Communion at 9 a.m.

On Saturday, October 28, at 9 p.m., there will be a Hallowe'en party at the Maxville Curling Club. sponsored by the Club. With or without costume—but preferably with since there will be prizes in various categories.

TWO CHRISTENINGS

The church families of St. Michael and All Angels, Maxville, met to celebrate tht Pastoral Festival. Members of the choir of Christ Church, Long Sault, augmented the Maxville choir and there were members of the Church of St. Mark, Avonmore and Christ Church.

Two new christians were welcomed into the Church when Father Kent Doe, baptised Teresa Elizabeth, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith and Lorraine Heather, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Derick Maynard.

Father Allan Rogers of Ingleside was guest preacher.

After the service of Holy Eucharist, a social evening was enjoyed.

WI HOSTED COUNCIL

The September meeting of the Maxville WI was held at the Community Hall, with Mrs. George Matsell presiding. Mrs. Matsell and Mrs. Keith McDougall will be leaders for the Leadership Training Course "Ontario Fruit". Mrs. Matsell said that the $50 bursary for the girl with the highest standing in Home Economics would be continued.

A discussion was held on the Tea, Sale and African Violet growing demonstration to be held on October 27th, at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Gordon Munro, the hostess, spoke on the motto "Citizenship, like charity, begins at home, but also, like charity, does not end there". She stressed the fact that the family is the basic unit of society.

Mrs. Robertson McRae introduced the members of Maxville Council, Reeve Hubert Quart, town clerk Mrs. Verna MacGregor and Gordon Winters. Mr. Quart explained some of the workings of the council and how the different duties are shared. Mrs. MacGregor spoke of the finances and where the money comes from and goes.

Members, then fired questions at the council. Mrs. Matsell asked what the WI could do to improve the community. Council suggested some improvements for the community hall and new street signs, after the road goes through. So members will have to work extra hard on the Bazaar to pay for these projects.

Mrs. Gordon Munro thanked the Reeve and Council members, after which lunch was served.

Soccer President Asks Forget '72 Work Together For The League

The editor,
Glengarry News,

After so much gossip in the Glens regarding the windup of the soccer season, it was refreshing to see a knowledgeable soccer man such as Robert McLachlan put his opinion in print. The cancellation of the banquet due to insufficient ticket sales was the final blow to what had been a most successful season, at least, up until almost the final whistle had blown.

In order to keep the records straight and to put our tarnished image in its proper perspective, I would like to bring out a few facts. The Glengarry Soccer League was comprised of six divisions this year. There were five Sprite teams, six Peewee teams, five Bantam teams, five girls' teams, four Intermediate teams and five Senior teams. This means that roughly 500 people were playing soccer. Out of this, five of the divisions finished without a problem of any kind. Not a bad average I would say. What happened in the Senior league is ancient history and the sooner it is forgotten the better. However, I must defend the directors of the league both for the two year suspension to a McCrimmon player and for the decision not to award the historic silver cup in 1972. Each year, an annual meeting is called and well advertised. The purpose of this meeting is to elect a board of directors for the coming year and any resident of the county is eligible to serve. Each year it is the same story—only a few show up and fewer still are willing to serve. I believe that those who do donate their time and energy certainly have the right to make any decision they see fit regardless of what goes on in the Ottawa League or any other league.

The two year suspension was the stiffest penalty ever given in the history of the league and remember, Mr. Editor, this decision had to be taken by men who at any other time are personal friends of the player involved. As a matter of fact, the automatic eight year suspension in the Ottawa League does not seem to be much of a deterrent. In the last six years in the Glengarry Soccer League, one referee has been punched. In 1972 alone, there were three such cases in the Ottawa League. Mr. McLachlan implies in his letter that the Char Lan team will play elsewhere next year. I would suggest to him that he investigate thoroughly any league they choose to enter. Three referees were attacked in the Ottawa League this year and in the final game one of the members of the Glengarry Stars suffered a broken leg—apparently the result of foul play. I would also suggest to him that outside of himself and a few of the other better players, he do some house cleaning in his own team. I have on file the referees' reports on every game played in 1972 and the worst report as far as poor sportsmanship, foul play and foul language is concerned is directed at the Char Lan United Soccer Club. I bring this out not to cast any shadow on this team but more to point out that perhaps for too long one team and one family has borne the brunt of blame for all that is wrong with the league. I think every team, every player and every member of the board including the secretary-treasurer must take their share of blame for the failure of the Senior League this year. The big team from McCrimmon has been guilty of many rule infractions that is certain but so has every other team, player and coach in the league.

The Glengarry Soccer League is 48 years old and I am sure this is not the first crisis it has faced. No useful purpose can be served by any further gossip or criticism or threats to abandon the league. I appeal to everyone who has the slightest interest in the game of soccer or the history of the league to forget 1972 and work together to make the next 50 years bigger and better than the first 50.

Ron Allison,
Secretary-treasurer,
Glengarry Soccer League

THE TREES ARE GONE

Tues., Oct. 10, 1972

The editor
The Glengarry News,

Trees help people to breathe; people help trees to breathe. Why are modern builders so insensitive to the mutual affair which has sustained man through the ages. The bulldozer continues to ravage the landscape in order that the monotony of brick bungalows can go on.

Does anyone remember the corner of Gauthier St. and East Boundary Rd.? My cat remembers the summer shade of the cedars; some small boys remember an often re-built tree house; I remember the spring fragrance of apple blossoms and the pleasure of picking wild strawberries at the trees' edge.

Now get in your car, drive south on Main St., turn right at the bowling alley, and drive the short distance to the end of Gauthier St. Is what you see pretty? Will little brick homes make up for the loss?

I was having an affair with those trees; now it's over and I'm hurt. So are a few other people, not to mention the birds, the crickets, the squirrel and my cat Max.

Gauthier St., who could ever really love you?

A resident,
Anne Baker

ELECTORS OF
Glengarry Prescott Russell

BERNARD PELOT
Canadian — Liberal — Independent

Whether you are senior citizen, first time voter, Liberal, Conservative, etc., if you take a hard look at the reasons for the lack of progress in this Riding over the past decade you will undoubtedly come to the conclusion that voting along party lines is NOT THE ANSWER.

The ONLY SOLUTION is a COMPETENT MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT to ensure that existing government programs are implemented in Eastern Ontario.

BERNARD PELOT is exercising his right as a CANADIAN CITIZEN to stand for election and offer a good alternative to the voters. He has personally financed his campaign to prove that DEMOCRACY IS NOT OBSOLETE and it can prove advantageous provided the democratic system is respected. YOUR RIGHTS to EFFECTIVE REPRESENTATION are protected under the CANADA ELECTIONS ACT:

BERNARD PELOT
Canadian — Liberal — Independent

66. (1) Every one who corruptly, by himself or by any other person, during an election, directly or indirectly offers, procures or provides or promises to procure or provide money, valuable consideration, office, employment, food or drink to induce any person to vote or refrain from voting, and every one who corruptly accepts or receives or agrees to accept or receive any such money, valuable consideration, office, employment, food or drink, is guilty of an offence against this Act.

66. (3) Except as provided by subsection (2), every candidate or official agent who, by himself or by any other person, directly or indirectly, during an election before the close of polls on ordinary polling day

(a) offers, procures or provides or promises to procure or provide alcoholic beverages to any person, or

(b) pays or indemnifies or promises to pay or indemnify any person for loss of wages or other earnings suffered by that person in going to, being at, or returning from a polling station, with intent to influence any person to vote or refrain from voting is guilty of an offence against this Act.

69. Every one is guilty of an offence against this Act who, by intimidation, duress or any pretence or contrivance

(a) compels, induces or prevails upon any person to vote or refrain from voting at an election; or

(b) represents to any person that the ballot or the manner of voting at an election is not secret.

78. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, every one who is guilty of an offence against this Act is liable

(a) on summary conviction, to a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for not more than one year, or to both; or

(b) on indictment, to a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for not more than five years, or to both.

(2) Any candidate at an election or the official agent of a candidate who commits a breach of any of the provisions of section 66, 68, 69 or 71 is guilty of a corrupt practice.

BERNARD PELOT is doing his part in this election . . . what are YOU PREPARED TO DO? You should at least ensure that your rights under the Canada Elections Act are respected by reporting contraventions to the Chief Electoral Officer or, in the case of alcoholic beverages in a vehicle on election day, to the nearest detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police.

BERNARD PELOT has been advised that organizers in this Riding have convinced Electors that the ballot is not secret and that each vote is known. The very suggestion is of course in direct contravention to Section 69 and should be enforced as outlined above.

For additional information on the provisions of the Canada Elections Act, please contact Bernard Pelot, Box 244, Russell, Telephone 445-2889.

Let us all make this a Democratic Exercise . . . Don't send your family, friends and neighbors to the polls on election day . . . TAKE THEM.

Gaels Still Runners-Up To Maxville As Both Teams Won

by Angus H. McDonell

Maxville and Alexandria senior school football teams continued their one-two march through the EOSSA "B" league by winning their games last Friday. Displaying scoring punch when needed GDHS won over VCI here 13-6. In Plantagenet the Indian Lands' crew combined their usual offence with an outstanding defence job to post a 20-1 score, and keep Maxville in first place. In the third game Hawkesbury defeated Casselman 26-6, while in exhibition play in Williamstown Char-Lan K.O'ed Lachute seniors 41-6.

Not since the era when Burns (GDHS-St. FX) McPherson was galloping over school sod like Northern Dancer in the Kentucky Derby have Gaels shown such desire to win with headsup football backed by kicking that would make many CFL and U.S. coaches drool, as they did on Friday in their 13-6 win over VCI. Gaels have a one-arm clutch on second place and will be tough to dislodge.

In the first quarter the battle was in the front trenches both ways as the only score was a three pointer by J. T. Hay for Gaels, near the end of the first. The second was more of the first and nearing half time VCI were forced to retreat an added 15 yards for rough play. Gaels bucked for yards but were stalled. Here you expected a punt but J. T. Hay set his marker on the 42 (we stood directly opposite the ball) and he side wheeled a boomer into a fairly stiff breeze. The ball sailed through the uprights with a yard to spare over the cross bar. This tremendous effort is an indication that another Lochiel star is glimmering especially when you add J.T.'s fine punting and kickoff and short run back to open the final round. Gael's Roch Lajoie hit Danaher with a first down pass but on the next call VCI broke through to deck Lajoie for a big loss. VCI were hungry to take over and almost blocked Hay's punt that was short.

VCI moved the ball and the sticks aided by a Gaels' penalty for too many on the field. Danny Conway then broke through the GDHS line and churned his way to the eight. QB Jeff Bradley crossed up all with a keeper instead of a second handoff to Conway and struggled through the eight yards with only inches to spare over Gaels' goal line. The convert was blocked and the game tied 6-6. Both teams, eager for that tie-breaking score, were overanxious, with resulting fumbles. Gaels recovered a VCI fumble on their 47 moments before the change ends whistle. Early in the fourth there was another turnover when VCI grabbed a Gael TD pass on the goal line. The visitors worked their way out but came up with still another goof that was alertly scooped up by Gaels' Rejean Poirier. They moved a bit down field and into a punting situation. Again into the fairly still breeze J. T. Hay spiralled the cowhide over the coffin corner for a single that gave Gaels a 7-6 lead with six minutes to play.

Ourtown's headsup play paid off further in the closing time. Rod Ewing snared a VCI pass and scurried to the visitors' 20. Roch Lajoie then sent Allan Laframboise around right end into pay dirt for a major, not converted, that won a 13-6 fine game by both school teams.

In Plantagenet Alan Marjerison put Maxville on the board with a first quarter single. Early in the second Glen Taylor evened the score with a Plantagenet counter. Garry MacIntosh added a TD for Maxville that Wayne Sproule converted to give Maxville an 8-1 half time lead.

Early in the second half opener, Marcel Dupuis blocked a Plantagenet punt and as Dupuis goes both ways QB Garry MacIntosh gave him the mail right back and Dupuis was over for six. Convert try wide.

In the final quarter Garry MacIntosh, on his keeper specialty, scored the last TD that was not converted. Plantagenet found defensive back Don Munroe a tough guy to try and take out and Eric Groves was another that broke up plays before they got started.

In the exhibition (Williamstown) game Bernie Chisholm had a "(Garney (Ticat) Henley" day scoring three majors for Char-Lan that scuttled Lachute 41-6. Don McCuaig counted two more, one a spectacular fake punt that turned into a 60-yard run while Mike Taillon got the game underway with a first quarter touchdown. Bryan Gordon was good in five of the six convert tries. Danny Hall on a pass and 70 yard run in the final minutes scored Lachute's only TD.

Gaels travel to Hawkesbury tomorrow (Friday) and as they have only one other game of the schedule to play obviously a win over Hawks is a must for a shot at the championship final. Maxville is in Casselman and Don Bond's crew should secure first place by sundown although strange things happen on football fields. Plantagenet travels to Williamstown and as Gaels have already won over Char-Lan this game will hardly affect the final standing.

Curling Ice Ready

Ice lanes at Alexandria Curling Club are just about ready for play. Rings were to be painted in last night and curlers expect to be trying the ice this weekend.

Glens Get First Test This Weekend

The Alexandria Jr. Glens will open their 1972-73 hockey season this weekend with three exhibition games. Friday night, Oct. 20th, the Glens will be in Embrun to take on the St. Lawrence Jr. League new entry Embrun 72s. On Saturday night at 8.15 p.m. at the Glengarry Gardens the Glens will go against Vanier City 72s, also a new entry in the Ottawa Valley Jr. B League and Sunday afternoon, at 2.00 p.m. the Embrun 72s will be making their first appearance on Alexandria ice.

With league schedule games to open the following week, coach Boisvenue has local talent making up three-quarters of his team.

Maxville also puts a couple on the club. Boisvenue a newcomer to coaching, will have quite a few rookies in the fold. This weekend will be a good test for the new group.

Minor Hockey Starts Saturday

The Alexandria and District Minor Hockey Association has been meeting the past few evenings preparing for the 1972-73 hockey season. Some 360 boys have registered to date and 26 teams are formed.

Ice is ready and minor hockey wants to get an earlier start this year. All boys are asked to show for their respective teams this weekend.

A schedule is worked out for this Saturday and Sunday showing the division and name of coach. Each coach will phone the boys of his team.

Because of late registrations and other factors a number of adjustments will be necessary. It is also possible a few boys may be omitted in the phoning process. If this occurs, please phone one of the coaches in the appropriate division.

In an effort to provide more skating time and develop skating ability ice time has been booked as a power skating period. This is open to registered minor hockey boys and more information will be forthcoming.

If this proves to be a popular and successful program it may be subsidized at a later date. In the meantime, 25c is asked from each participant to help defray expenses.

Tour Numbers To Be Among Attractions

Besides the usual contests in fiddling, piano, unior piping and step-dancing, the Glengarry Historical Society's 13th annual fiddling contest and music festival will also feature several entertainment numbers, to break the tension of the contests, and add to audience enjoyment. As well as "The Sound of the Pipes", the Glengarry Dances and Robin Upton, the well-known singer, formerly of Lancaster, will offer some of the songs and dances they recently presented on their Scottish tour.

Malcolm Dewar is planning a rousing finale of good Scottish fiddling. Then, there is the Ceilidh at the Hub Hall, where the entertainers can really let go.

The contest judges will be, step-dancing, Mrs. Wallace Lawford; piping, Charley Bell; piano, Paul MacMillan and violin, Leo Browne.

Financial . . .

$55,000 Glen Robertson, $37,501; Martintown, $36,500; Curry Hill, $31,000; Glen Nevis, $16,000; Maxville, $1,500; Dalkeith, $1,470.

St. Raphael's is ahead of all others; in the black with $174,750. Also in Glengarry, Lochiel has $11,200 in the bank; Williamstown, $6,000; and Apple Hill, $4,400.

No financial statement was available from Greenfield.

In Stormont, Moose Creek is in the red with $23,192; Crysler, $18,-000; Finch $13,839.

St. Andrew-s is in the clear with $6,400 and Ingleside with $3,288.

The Episcopal Corporation Act of 1891, which designated the bishop as sole legalized authority of the diocese, was for the financial protection of the Roman Catholics in Ontario who were, and still are, a minority group where often legislation favors other denominations, Father Villeneuve stated.

"This law," he claimed, "is as necessary today as it was in Bishop MacDonell's day.

Most Rev. Alexander MacDonell was first bishop of Alexandria.

Father Villeneuve blamed the critical financial situation of the diocese on the low market value of churches, a dwindling population causing a reduction of offerings of the faithful, and an increase in the upkeep of churches.

It was also noted churches are not taxed and the possibility exists in the future. Rectories are taxed.

Father Villeneuve said it costs $15,000 a year to administer a parish and added that 17 of 31 parishes in the diocese receive less than $15,000.

Wedding Trip To Maritimes

McMENAMIN—FAUBERT

A lovely fall wedding was held in Sacred Heart Church on September 16th when Miss Madeleine Faubert became the bride of Brian McMenamin. Msgr. D. A. Kerr of Cornwall, officiated at the double-ring ceremony at 4 p.m. and Paul Viau was organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Faubert, Alexandria, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony McMenamin of Montreal.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lagoda cloth fashioned on an A-line with empire waist, with Victorian sleeves and panel train under a pink Dior cape with maribou trim. Her jewellery was a charm bracelet, the gift of the groom. Marguerite flowers secured her veil of double tulle illusion and she carried a nosegay of pink and miniature roses and carnations.

Miss Diane Faubert, sister of the bride was the only attendant, and Peter McMenamin, brother of the groom was usher. Mrs. Gilbert Gravel, also a sister of the bride, was usherette.

Angus H. McDonell was Master of Ceremonies at the bridal supper and reception which followed at the Bonnie Glen. Guests were present from Cochrane, Montreal, Chesterville, Vaudreuil and Cornwall.

For their wedding trip to the Maritimes, the bride wore a grey and white pantsuit with red suede accessories and corsage of red carnations.

They will reside in Montreal.

Curlers Mark 10 Years, Lancaster

A meeting of the ladies' executive of Lancaster and District Curling Club was held in the club rooms. The President, Pat Shennett conducted the meeting. Reports and recommendations for the coming season were tendered by several committees. It was noted that club sweaters had been ordered and a few are still available to members. Ice-time for ladies' scheduled curling will be Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Date for the annual fall meeting was set for Tuesday, October 24, at eight o'clock.

President of the men's division, Duncan McArthur, spoke to the ladies regarding several matters. He reported that the engraving on the trophy donated by the late Mrs. Alice Rutley had been completed, courtesy of Bert Light Registered, Montreal.

Mr. McArthur called attention to the first that the club will be celebrating its tenth anniversary and asked for the co-operation of the ladies in making this a memorable season. Keeping the anniversary in mind he pointed out that plans are underway for a Hallowe'en masquerade party on October 28th. In November the club will play host to the annual open house, the exact time to be announced at a later date.

Roxborough Fire Brigade Making Detailed Map Buildings In Area

A project, initiated by members of the Avonmore and Monkland Unit of the Township of Roxborough Fire Department as its contribution to National Fire Prevention Week, may indeed be the basis for similar action by departments across the country.

The projects involves the mapping of the entire area, excluding the villages, under the Unit's jurisdiction, the assigning of a code number to each and every property, and the plotting of these code numbers on master maps at the local fire stations. In the Avonmore and Monkland area the whole scheme will be the work of 16 men, two men to each of eight teams.

The men will make a thorough survey of the area, recording in their survey such pertinent information as the location by concession and lot of every property, its position in relation to the nearest road, its distance from the road, detailed information concerning wells that may be on the property and nearby ponds and creeks.

Each survey sheet will also have a map showing the relative positions of the buildings on the property.

By the time the survey is completed by the end of October, the local Department will begin its task of assigning code numbers. In turn these code numbers will be transferred to the master maps and to paper discs with gummed backs. These discs in turn will be given to each and every property owner to be attached to his telephone. In the case of a fire the owner in reporting the emergency to the Fire Department will need only to give the code number of his property.

As soon as the call is received the Fire Chief and his men will be able within seconds to determine the exact location of the fire. As the fire truck speedily leaves the station, the fire-fighters in charge will be able to refer to a duplicate set of survey sheets which will remain in the truck at all times. While the truck speeds along the country roads, the men will be formulating their plans for combating the outbreak. They will know exactly what to expect. Especially they will have knowledge as to the water supply which is so vital in fire-fighting in rural area.

In the present survey at least 300 rural properties will be studied. The area will include lots A, B, C, D and 1 to 18, Concessions One to Four in the eastern half of the Township of Roxborough and on the west side of the Township Lots 18 to 36, Concessions One to Five.

It is believed that a similar program for the rest of the Township will be undertaken by the Moose Creek Unit of the Township of Roxborough Firefighters' Association.

John E. Miller, local fire chief, who is also president of the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Mutual Aid Association, indicated that at the moment the local project in no way involves the Mutual Air Association but he agrees that the scheme has interesting possibilities for the wider area of this part of Eastern Ontario.

The local Unit is particularly enthusiastic with the project and look forward with satisfaction in making known their local observance of National Fire Prevention Week to the national association.

In addition to the work involved in the organization of the local project, members of the local Unit have found time to check local schools and to conduct fire drills.

Last week in an unannounced visit to Roxmore Public School in Avonmore, the building was evacuated by students and teachers in 45 seconds.

The local Unit is hopeful that its project may be studied by other local groups and that the pattern in Roxborough Township will be the facsimile of similar projects across the country.

News, Lancaster Scouts And Cubs

Miss Diane Latreille, Lancaster has joined the staff of Scouters of the First Lancaster Cub Pack. This brings the staff to five, the highest number in the pack's history.

Dale Lefebvre, a new addition to the staff which will direct the affairs of the scout troop, was erroneously listed last week as Dale Dufresne. With apologies for his error, the secretary of the group committee mentioned that Dale Dufresne, a scout, might well be commended for having worked at the Long Sault camp site on clean-up day.

All scouters plan to attend the first study session of the newly formed "Service Team" of the Cornwall and district boy scouts. This group of experts in all phases of scouting, headed by Colin Marshall, should effect great improvement on the quality of scouting in the district.

The Lancaster Cubs and Scouts will have their own camp site next year through the generosity of Gerald Girling whose farm is on Highway No. 2, just west of the Raisin River.

New cubs this year are: Ken Bullett, Ron Dufresne, Allan Cayer, Mario Cayer. There is still room for four more boys. Registration may be made by telephoning the Cub Mistress 347-3444.

The next meeting of the group committee is set for the week of October 15th.

Guest From England Spoke To Martintown W.I.

The Sepember meeting of the Martintown WI was held at the Public School with two guests attending. Mrs. Reginald France of West Suffolk, England, is visiting with her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. W. Johnston on the River Road.

The roll call, "Should a Woman Be On The School Board and Why?" had 19 members answering.

The branch has entered Mrs. George Kinloch's name in the area elections for office of district convener of agriculture and Canadian Industries, family and consumer affairs.

Mrs. Douglas Murray and Mrs. Ray Markell will be delegates to the district convention in Hawkesbury in October.

Mrs. Alex Lagroix introduced her guests, Mrs. Frances and Mrs. Johnston. Before showing slides on Brenman College, a college for WI members only. Mrs. Frances gave a run-down on how and what the WI does in England. Mrs. Johnston assisted her mother. It was a very interesting evening and Mrs. Frances was a marvelous speaker.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Leslie Lewery, Mrs. Rupert Newbury and Mrs. Ray Markell.

The grandmother's evening will be held over till the Oct. 26th meeting which will be in the Public School at 8 p.m. Roll call then will be "A Wise Proverb".

Life Memberships Presented To Four

At their 75th anniversary celebration the Martintown WI had 30 members and two guests at dinner on Wednesday, Sept. 6th. Mrs. Donald MacLachlan of Williamstown, and Mrs. MacArthur of Martintown, were the guests. After an enjoyable turkey dinner at the Torch Room, Mrs. MacLachlan presented the 25-year pins and certificates to four branch members. The recipients were Mrs. Stewart MacIntosh, Mrs. Salem Thomson, Mrs. Harvey MacMillan and Miss Clara Murray.

Mrs. MacMillan gave a short history of the branch's activities through the years. Pictures were taken and an enjoyable evening was had by all.

Local Clergymen's Interest In Maxville Manor Expressed

A large number of visitors gathered in the auditorium of Maxville Manor for the annual clergymen's dinner. Present were Rev. and Mrs. Willis Sayers of Avonmore, Rev. and Mrs. William Scott of Kirk Hill, Rev. and Mrs. McGowan of Vankleek Hill, Rev. Bernard Lajambe of Maxville, Rev. and Mrs. Wallace MacKinnon of Ingleside, Rev. Kent Doe of Long Sault, Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Davies, Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Henderson and Rev. and Mrs. Iver D. MacIver of Maxville, and Rev. and Mrs. Montgomery of Vankleek Hill.

Also guests were Mr. George Patrick of the CNIB, Cornwall, Mr. and Mrs. Howard MacGillivray of Cornwall, Mr. and Mrs. Morlin Campbell of Laggan and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Averil of Cornwall, along with members of the board of directors and senior staff.

Following introductions by administrator Archie Hughes the reeve of Maxville, Hubert Quart, expressed the compliments of the council on a very fine dinner. Chairman Allan Vallance officially thanked all the members of the clergy for their unfailing interest and assistance at the Manor. Howard MacGillivray brought compliments from the Cornwall Optimists Club, who put on an annual Christmas party here. Mr. Patrick mentioned the talking books and special timepieces provided for the three blind residents in the Manor.

Librarian Mrs. Norma Benton expressed her appreciation of bookmobile service for the many active readers and made an appeal for volunteers who would read to those residents whose eyesight was fialing them. Morlin Campbell expressed the pleasure of the Pipe Band in being able to provide tickets for residents for various concerts.

Father Doe spoke for the clergy, thanking the Manor for the fine dinner, and mentioning that when they come to minister in the residence they gain experience and sympathy with the problems of the aged. Osie Villeneuve thanked Mr. Patrick for his 25 years service on behalf of lonely people in this district, and the members of the clergy especially when they help an elderly person adjust to a new kind of life in the Manor. The senior citizens in this district number more than twice the national average, over 16 per cent of the population.

Ronnie Clare, who often entertains at the Manor, played his accordion for the tap dancing of Donrey and Debbie Guindon, and Cynthia and Kimberley Clare. Kimberley also played her violin while her father accompanied her on the piano.

A special guest for the evening was introduced by Mrs. Kowalski. Mrs. Elspeth Mehlorn, a professor of music and classical violinst from Germany, who is on her way home following a concert tour in Canada. Mrs. Mehlorn uses the Bach bow, which gives a very full sound in violin music. She played selections from Handel, Brahmma waltzes, Bach and Kreisler, on her violin, then on the piano, then, coaxed by a delighted audience, she took out her violin again, accompanied by Mrs. Helen MacIver. Mrs. Mehlorn enjoys bringing music to the shut-in, and she had taken the trouble to come to play for the residents in the afternoon also.

the column again. The offending sentence was as follows: "The first time we heard that Commie anthem . . ." I had to reread it a third time to prove to myself that it actually was Archie Bunker's favorite adjective "Commie" that disparagingly used adjective which, in our modern mature society, denotes a person who has chosen the Communistic way of life or who lives in a country whose government is such.

I am certain, hopefully certain, at least, that we will not be subjected to the other similar adjectives—ie—"wop", "frog", etc., while reading your newspaper.

I sincerely hope that it was carelessness on the part of the Rambling Reporter and not the attitude of a bigot. I sincerely hope, also, that no one felt the slight as he read your column—no one who, perhaps is a new Canadian, recently arrived from a Communist country; a new Canadian who chose this part of Canada because of the friendly, accepting ways of his new neighbor.

I apologize for having made an issue out of one word, but I felt it should be brought to your attention.

Yours truly,
Arlene Fitzhugh.

LODGE AUXILIARY SEEKING NEW MEMBERS

Sept. 19, 1972

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

The following is a short story which I hope you will read and enjoy.

John Smith is 94 years old. He is in good health physically and mentally. He is a resident in a home for the aged. Ask John how he likes living in the home. His answer probably will be, "It's a good place to live. They treat me well. I get good meals; a clean place to sleep and entertainment is provided but it does get lonely at times."

How could it be lonely living with 200 other people? Well after a time even 200 people form a reasonably small family, that is if you are together 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

It's a little too far for John to walk downtown, even a couple of times a week. What's the answer? What can be done to relieve John of his loneliness? Ask John that question too. He'll probably answer this way:

"There must be a lot of younger folk who still have an hour or two to spare each week or even each month. I know we have a good staff here who chat with us while they work but that's hardly enough. They are too busy to spend much time idly but if some of those young folk outside would drop in for a game of checkers, or cards, or even a little chat, it would be different.

I'll tell you one thing, that Home Auxiliary does a terrific job. Not enough of them though. If they had more members, we would see more of them. We would have more variety in our visitors, more books to read and heaven knows what else."

Yes, that probably would be John Smith's answer to that question and who knows better than him. John Smith is just a name I have picked for one person but it applies to 199 others. Maybe one of the others is a friend or relative of yours. Why not give a little more freely of some time even one hour each month?

The Home Auxiliary at Glen Stor Dun Lodge is in need of more members. Give them your support even for that one hour per month. If interested just drop a line to me at the address below.

Remember—some day I may be able to call you John Smith!

Yours truly
Mr. G. E. McGregor,
Administrator,

A report from your Glengarry Agricultural Office

by J. Y. Humphries

The Ottawa Winter Fair opensnew management. This is the next week under new format andshow window and "Show of Champions" for the Eastern Ontario Livestock Industry and we believe it deserves the support of all rural people in the area. This show has encountered some problems in the past, but it would appear that it is on the road to recovery and will better serve the livestock industry in the future.

Cattle will be shown and stabled in the "Cattle Castle", formerly the manufacturers building. A notable change in this section will be a better use of exhibits of interest and educational value to the public.

The Eastern Ontario Championship Holstein Show is on Tuesday, October 24, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. We expect a good representation from the county. Jerseys and Ayrshires will be judged Thursday, October 26th. The Steer Show and Sale is on Friday and the 4-H Show on Saturday, October 28. Eighteen boys and girls from the county will be exhibiting their calves at this event and an additional five will be exhibiting in the field crop section. We hope our 4-H'ers can do as well as last year when they dominated the corn and dairy classes.

Sheep have again been included in the prize list with special emphasis on market classes and sales. Market lambs will be shown on Thursday between 7 and 9 p.m. and sold Friday.

The Swine Show is confined to barrow and market classes with judging on Tuesday at 9.30 a.m.

Don't forget tie Horse Shows each afternoon and evening. If you want a steer or lamb for your freezer, be at the sale on Friday. We hope you can find time to attend at least one day of this event.

Applications for guaranteed adverse weather loans can now be accepted at OMAF offices. We hope these can be processed rapidly and with as little inconvenience as possible to borrowers. These loans are secured by note and carry interest at one per cent above prime rate or a total of 7% at the moment. They can be used to purchase feed, seed, fertilizer, farm supplies or pay farm operating expenses such as mortgage payments, taxes, rent, etc.

WHAT'S UP?

Ottawa Winter Fair, October 24 - 28th.

8—In Memoriam

CAMPBELL—In loving memory of a dear husband and father who passed away Oct. 17, 1964.
Precious forever our memories of you
Today, tomorrow and all life through,
Till memories fade and life departs
You will live forever in our hearts.
—Sadly missed by wife Cassie, Allie, Grant.
Dunvegan. 42-1c

MacDONALD—In loving memory of James Ranald MacDonald, Vankleek Hill, who passed away October 17, 1971.
No need for words except to say,
Still loved and missed in every way.
—Lovingly remembered by his wife May, and family. 42-1c

SPROULE—In loving memory dear mother passed away at Roxborough Township, Stormont Co., on October 22, year of 1966 at Moose Creek, Ontario, Mrs. C. Sproule.
When ties of love are broken
And loved ones have to part,
It leaves a wound that never heals
In an ever aching heart.
The world may change from year to year
And friends from day to day from memory pass away,
In my heart your memory lingers
Sweetly tender, fond and true.
—Sadly missed always by son, I. M. Sproule,
Vancouver, BC. 42-1p
