Council Passes Agreement To Purchase Arena After Receiving Favorable Price Appraisals

Town Council passed the necessary by-law agreeing to purchase of the Glengarry Gardens at Tuesday's meeting. The mayor and clerk-treasurer were authorized to sign the agreement of purchase with the arena directors.

The only hitch to immediate completion of the deal is the necessity of receiving approval from the Municipal Board for the issuing of debentures to cover part of the purchase.

Council's decision to proceed with the purchase of the arena followed presentation of two appraisals by the town solicitor, G. W. Gorrell of Morrisburg, which he had been asked to obtain independently.

An appraisal of the present value of the Gardens' refrigeration system, made by Creamery Package Manufacturing Co. of Toronto, was approximately $11,000. The appraisal of the building was made by Lyle McLaren of Cornwall, who estimated its present value at $60,000.

The actual purchase price is to be $56,000.

Mr. Gorrell also presented an agreement to purchase and the supporting by-law which authorizes signing of the agreement. These were approved without a dissenting vote.

Bill Gallant approached council on behalf of the Pioneer Days committee of the Lions Club. He informed council the club was not seeking a donation of money but it would like council's co-operation in traffic control, the provision of a platform at town hall for the Countdown to Confederation and in other minor details. That co-operation was assured the Lions Club and Mr. Gallant was asked to forward a written request detailing what would be required.

Duncan Morris, chairman of the centennial group's decorating committee, asked council to issue a proclamation for a Clean-Up Campaign from May 22 to June 10th that would include a request to decorate homes and business-places.

Larry Sicard also addressed council on the beautification theme. He pointed out that many backyards should be cleared of old jalopies and car wreckage and suggested council should prohibit the dismantling of cars or the parking of unusable cars within the town limits. The clerk was instructed to look into the matter and see what council could do.

Mr. Sicard also suggested council might secure a ceremonial chain of office for the mayor which could be worn at council meetings and on special occasions.

Jean-Marc Boisvenue, president of Jeunesse 225, informed council permission had been received from the trustees to hold an outdoor dance on the St. Joseph's School playground the night of June 16th. The proceeds are to go to the School for Retarded Children. He asked that the PUC floodlight the grounds and that the local police be asked to provide traffic control in the area.

EN ROUTE HOME—After three years of missionary teaching in Nigeria and other African countries, Miss Helen Leblanc is en route home and expected this weekend by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Leblanc, RR2 Alexandria. Miss Leblanc was teaching at Perpetual Help School when in 1964 she accepted a two-year assignment to the mission schools which she later extended an extra year.

Fireworks Display Set For Lancaster

A fireworks display will be held Monday in Lancaster to mark the Victoria Day holiday.

It will be staged by the Lancaster Village Centennial Committee at the ball park after dark and will be preceded by a gymnastics' display starting at 7.30 p.m. Arthur Lalonde, instructor of the Boys Gymnastics' Club, has a group of 40 boys to put through their paces.

Plans Made For Farmers' March

Support will be given by the farmers of Glengarry County to a march on Parliament Hill on May 24th. William van der Byl of Quigley's Corners, co-ordinator of the project for this county, chaired a representative meeting held at the High School here on Monday night.

Letters signed by Lionel Sorel, president of the Union of Catholic Farmers, Charles Munro, president Ontario Federation of Agriculture and John Dalmer, president Ontario Farmers Union, were read stating that the march was a demonstration against a lack of proper agricultural policy in Canada and against the inequities in the dairy support program.

Mr. van der Byl stated that buses would be available in Alexandria at 9 a.m. on May 24th if sufficient interest were shown by the weekend. Major Hill Park in Ottawa is to be an assembly point for the marchers. Placards and arm bands would be issued there. Marchers were to be properly dressed and no drinking would be tolerated.

The following organizers were named: Charlottenburgh Township, Angus MacDonald, Lancaster Township. John McLeod, Lochiel Township, Rolland Massie, Kenyon Township, Fraser Campbell.

Double Funeral Being Held Here Friday Of Ottawa Mother And Son

The double funeral will be held here Friday morning of Mrs. William Kemp, 78 of Ottawa, and of her only son, Claude Kemp, 54, who died as the result of heart attacks within hours on Monday. Both were natives of Alexandria and they resided together at 33 Patterson Ave., Apt. 3, in Ottawa.

The former Annie (Grove) McDonald of Alexandria, Mrs. Kemp had been in failing health for the past 17 years and had been partially crippled since suffering a fall ten years ago. She suffered a heart attack Monday afternoon and died within hours at the Ottawa Civic Hospital.

The death of her son Claude occurred that evening at the home of an aunt, Mrs. Margaret Kiggins following a heart attack. He had been in ill health for the past two years.

Mrs. Kemp was born in Alexandria 78 years ago, a daughter of Alex S. (Grove) McDonald and his wife, Sarah Small. She was married here to William Kemp and they removed to Ottawa some 50 years ago. She had been active in Blessed Sacrament Parish before failing health curtailed her movements.

Mrs. Kemp was a sister of the late Major Angus McDonald, a former reeve of Alexandria and she is survived by one grandson and four sisters. They are: Mrs. R. A. McLean, Mrs. Margaret Kiggins and Mrs. Edith Belway, all of Ottawa, and Mrs. Arnold Weir of Alexandria.

Her son Claude Kemp was born here 54 years ago and had been employed with the Department of Health and Welfare at Ottawa until going on sick leave two years ago. Surviving him is one son, Michel, 11 years old.

The bodies are resting at the Marcoux & Morris Funeral Home and the double funeral will be held at 10 a.m. Friday to St. Finnan's Cathedral and cemetery.

Flying Own Huge Hand-Made Flag

A 72" x 36" hand-made Maple Leaf flag was hoisted on its flag pole last week at the home of Mrs. Helen Kaufmann after she had completed her centennial project. The huge flag is completely hand sewn. Mrs. Kaufmann is presently completing a second Maple Leaf flag to be flown at her Landis, Sask., home later this summer.

A previous project by Mrs. Kaufmann was realized at the end of World War II when she made a complete set of flags of the Allied Nations.

Hospital Day Was Second Anniversary Glengarry Memorial

Hospitals across the country celebrated their own special day last Thursday, May 12th, which is traditionally observed in Canada as National Hospital Day. May 12th is the anniversary of the birth of the legendary Florence Nightingale, the English nurse-heroine who revolutionized nursing in hospital techniques in the last century.

It is no coincidence that this was also Glengarry Memorial Day, marking the second anniversary of the opening of our local hospital. Several thousands of Glengarrians have been treated over the past two years in our own institution.

J. A. E. Comeau, hospital treasurer, reports that donations to the hospital's Compaign for Funds are still coming in at a steady rate.

Saw Hometown After 43 Years

Mother Bea Macdonald, a member of the Sacred Heart Congregation, now stationed in Montreal, revisited her native Alexandria for the first time in 43 years last Friday.

Mother Macdonald was en route to Ottawa to attend a Librarians' Conference and was given special permission to leave the train here and visit with members of her family who later drove her to Ottawa.

She much enjoyed a tour of the town and found the new schools and many modern homes quite a change from the Alexandria of the early '20's.

Several old friends met her at the station and Mother Macdonald had lunch with her sister, Mrs. Alex G. Maclaren and brothers, Ronald and Eugene Macdonald, and their families.

Badmen Will Be Here During Pioneer Days To "Rob" Banks Or Post Office

The town will really be jumping during Pioneer Days, June 29-30 and July 1st, members of the Lions Club heard at a special meeting Monday to further plans.

Committee chairman Bill Gallant reported a gang of badmen will be zeroing in on town, possibly to rob a bank or the post office. And there'll be a posse intent on rounding them up.

The honky-tonk saloon of pioneer days may also be revived in the local drink dispensaries with draught beer being brought back for the duration.

A pancake breakfast will open proceedings on June 29th and the plan is for pipers to tour the streets in early morning to remind residents breakfast is being served. A walk-a-thon, teen dance, street dancing, fun auction, fiddling and amateur show will be other features building up to Friday night's torchlight parade to the town hall for the Countdown to Confederation.

Ronald Robinson, 20, of Laggan, was knocked unconscious, but escaped injury at 5.40 p.m. Saturday when the Honda he was riding south on Main Street struck the side of a car.

Police report Richard Vaillancourt, 21, was turning into the parking lot near the Brewery Warehouse when his car was struck by the motorcycle. Robinson was thrown to the road and was conveyed to Glengarry Memorial where X-rays disclosed no injuries.

Constable Bernard King investigated.

Antique Fair, Nor'Westers' Museum Plans Discussed By Historical Society

A meeting of the Glengarry Historical Society was held on Wednesday evening, May 10th, in the Board Room of the Agricultural Office, Alexandria. Mrs. W. A. MacKinnon, president, presided.

Mrs. MacKinnon reported that the Ontario Heritage Foundation had shown interest in the preservation of MacLennan Manor, Lancaster.

The Dunvegan Museum will be open May 20th, 21st and 22nd, for the convenience of visitors during the holiday weekend.

Hugh P. MacMillan reported that extensive publicity regarding the Nor'Westers' Museum and financial campaign, will shortly appear on the financial pages of 17 newspapers. ACBC film crew will be present at the official opening of the museum, on September 2nd. The Hudson Bay Company is sending a fur press and a quantity of furs for display.

Mrs. Duncan Grant, convener of social committee, Nor'Westers Museum Fund Campaign, reported on future plans for fund-raising and on results of recent ventures.

The Antique Fair, to be held at the Maxville Spring Fair, June 23rd and 24th, will be advertised in "Canadian Collector", and be widely publicized in the press. Several well-known dealers in Ontario and Quebec will be taking exhibition space. Members of the Society or local friends who wish to display their antiques (not for sale) may avail themselves of exhibit space, free of charge. Those interested should contact Mrs. W. C. Scott of Maxville, Chairman Antique Fair committee, for further information. Transport will be available for these articles if owners are unable to arrange personal delivery and pick-up. There will be many displays of pioneer activities, such as spinning, quilting, cheese-making, etc., which should prove of great interest to fair-goers.

With the many engrossing activities of the Glengarry Historical Society to take place during 1967 and future years, it was suggested that perhaps many residents of Glengarry County, and the surrounding district might like to avail themselves, at this time, of membership in the Society, which is $2.00 yearly. Applications for membership and dues, may be sent to either the treasurer, Mr. W. A. MacKinnon, Alexandria, or the secretary, Mrs. Cecil MacRae, RR1 Maxville.

It was reported that Mrs. MacKinnon, accompanied by J. T. Smith, had made presentations of the money prizes to the 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners of the recent Historical Essay Contest, sponsored by the Society, at their respective schools.

EIGHT WOLVES LESS—Bill Kennedy of the Third Kenyon went hunting Friday and Glengarry lost eight of its wolf population as a result. Bill's trusty rifle pulled down a large brush wolf southeast of Greenfield and he found it had recently littered. Returning to the area Saturday, Bill, his brother Lloyd and Stanley Bradley located the den and picked up six live cubs and one dead one. Game Warden Murray Martin of Harrison's Corners, picked up the cubs and the nimrods will collect a $10 bounty on each, as well as $25 on the mother. Stanley and Bill are seen above with the cute pups.

IT'S OUR OPINION

A Good Start On Street Paving

Bishop Street is lost to traffic for much of its length this week but few citizens will murmur against this temporary inconvenience in face of the permanent improvement promised. The prospect of a smooth asphalt surface that will require no annual patching of potholes is one to delight the motorist. It should also satisfy the thrift-conscious taxpayer who for decades has seen a big bite of the municipal budget wasted on temporary patching each summer.

This street-paving program with its accompanying drainage and sewage work has been long overdue and we foresee a demand from residents not directly affected that it be extended to encompass their streets too. No doubt members of council have that in mind as soon as the debenture debt picture permits.

The Bishop Street program includes a new sidewalk as well as the street, we note; and that's to our liking. Most of our walks have long needed renewal. Particularly is that the case along the Main Street business section.

Only a few weeks ago we stopped a group of the visiting choristers from Smithers, BC to get their impressions of our town. They liked what they'd seen of it and found our people friendly and hospitable. But one of those youngsters added a note of criticism that we well merit: "Your sidewalks are terrible", was her comment. Perhaps she had lost a heel in one of the cracks.

No program of street renewal can be complete until the most-travelled portions, those urban sections of highways 34 and 43, have had a face-lifting. Main Street is steadily going to pot and Kenyon St. West has never been up to highways' standards. With a fall election now in prospect Queen's Park might be in just the frame of mind to see the need for renewal.

Seems not even patching of potholes is ever done on these stretches of streets that are highways.

When and if our Main Street is resurfaced we might add two or three needed feet of width to a dangerously narrow thoroughfare by borrowing from sidewalks that are impractically wide in much of its length. We see a twofold benefit in such a program. The driver would find more fender room and though pedestrian space would be lost our town would boast new sidewalks that are long overdue.

A Drim Kum Tru

We might by now be well on the way to a phonetic alphabet for the English-speaking peoples if a suggestion made by the Smithsonian Torch had been acted upon a decade ago. The Torch, a slim house organ put out by the Smithsonian Institute for the museum set, suggested that if George Bernard Shaw had not tried to rush it, he might have succeeded in giving us a simplified alphabet.

Instead of immediate drastic legislation that article of ten years ago advocated a modified plan which we are reprinting now because we think you'll enjoy visualizing the mess our language would be in if ever such a plan was adopted. A secondary reason for running the droll bit is to provide a headache for our linotypist and proof readers.

Follow these phonetics if you will, from the 1957 article in The Torch outlining its "plan" to "simplify" our language:

"In 1957, for example, we would urge the substituting of 'S' for soft 'C'. Sertainly students in all sities of the land would be reseptive to this.

"In 1958, the hard 'C' would be replased by 'K' sinse both letters are pronounsed identikally. Not only would this klarify the konfusion in the minds of spellers, but typewriters and linotypes kould all be built with one less letter and all the man-power and materials previously devoted to making the 'C's' kould be used to raise the national standard of living.

"In the subsequent blaze of publisity, it would be announsed that the troublesome 'PH' would henceforth be written 'F'. This would make words like 'fonograf' 20 percent shorter in print.

"By 1959, publik interest in a fonetik alfabet kan be expekted to have reatshed a point where more radikal prosedures are indikated. We would urge at that time the elimination of al double leters whitsh have always ben a nuisanse and desided deterent to akurate speling.

"We would al agre that the horible mes of silent 'E's' in our language is disgrasful. Therfor, in 1961, we kould drop thes and kontinu to read and writ merily along as though we wer in an atomik ag of edukation. Sins by this tim it would be four years sins anywun had used the leter 'C', we would then sugest substituting 'C' for 'TH'.

"Kontinuing cis proses year after year, we would eventuali hav a reali sensibl writen languag. By 1975, wi ventyur tu sa cer wud bi no mor uv ces teribli trublsum difikultis. Even Mr. Shaw, wi beliv, wud bi hapi in ce noleg cat his drims finali kam tru."

There Can Be Compassion

The case of Steven Truscott is closed. The court of last resort, the Supreme Court of Canada has taken special cognizance of the case at the request of the Government of Ottawa. It has reviewed evidence at the original trial and has permitted new evidence to be presented, including testimony by Truscott himself.

Eight of the nine judges looked at the original verdict of the jury and decided that there were no grounds for finding it unreasonable. They then found that the Ontario Court of Appeal was right in refusing to allow an appeal under the reasons offered by the defence. New evidence was placed before them and they decided that Truscott, testifying personally for the first time, could not be believed. They then said they would have rejected the appeal.

The ninth member of the Court, Mr. Justice Emmett Hall, dissented from this decision and his conclusion was that a new trial for Truscott was necessary. In his opinion the judge's conduct of the original trial was wrong in 25 stated particulars. Without weighing the guilt or innocence of the accused, Mr. Justice Hall felt the medical evidence might have increased the doubt a juryman might honestly have had as to the time of death if the jury had been properly charged by the judge, which he said it had not.

It may be simple sentiment on our part, but we find it easier to accept the judgment of Mr. Justice Hall than that of the great majority of the Court members. We are not learned in the law and our conviction springs from a reading of the book by Mrs. LeBourdais. Her contention that a 14-year-old boy should not have been tried in criminal court we have not seen refuted by the Supreme Court majority.

We were left with the conviction that there was prejudice shown by judge and prosecuting attorney in that Truscott trial and that if there had been a change in venue young Steven Truscott might not have been so severely sentenced to death row.

That trial jury was unanimous in its verdict of guilty. There is not quite the same unanimity in the Supreme Court decision. Mr. Justice Hall remains unconvinced that Steven Truscott received the full measure of protection from the Court that is the right of any citizen of Canada. Justice Hall is in a position to study all the evidence and he is qualified to judge whether or not justice was done a 14-year-old boy who is still serving a life sentence in penitentiary.

The decision of the Supreme Court must stand and Steven Truscott has been confirmed as guilty. There was no miscarriage of justice we must believe, and yet there remains the disquieting doubt that there may be flaws in our system of justice that should be eradicated.

There is still compassion for Steven Truscott and the way is still open for its exercise, suggests the Montreal Star. In comment on this aspect of the case, the Star editorializes:

"Much has been made in the last few days of the fact that young Truscott would be eligible for parole within a year or so, whatever the verdict of the Supreme Court. What is perhaps not generally known is that the decision to parole him does not lie with the parole board but with the government itself. The Criminal Code provides that where a sentence of death is commuted to life imprisonment the prisoner may not be released during his lifetime "without the prior approval of the Governor in Council."

"The decision, then, is the government's to make. In all the circumstances surrounding this case it would not offend public opinion or the proper administration of justice if the government should decide to free Steven Truscott soon."

FARMERS IN GLENGARRY!

Lochiel, Ont.

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

May 24th will see the protest march to Ottawa. Everybody who is not pleased with the present farm policy should participate in this and I am certain that not very many are satisfied. Especially the small farmer who ships less than 50,000 lbs. of milk. He either has to enlarge or will not receive any subsidy in 1968. Also there is a ceiling of 300,000 lbs. If you are exceeding this and you were below this level in 1966 you will not be helped with subsidies in 67. Fluid shippers must be not too happy that they do not receive subsidies for there surplus milk.

This means that practically everybody is either worried or dissatisfied, especially the farm housekeeper who gets what is left after all farm expenses are paid and cannot make ends meet.

You are asked for once to support your farm organizations; do not let them down.

The march organizers expect four to five thousand people but the press and radio have this blown up to 20,000. If we are below this our organizations will be bear handled and will have a hard time to better the farmers' income. Go everyone, get down to Ottawa and be counted!

The editor,
Glengarry News,

I like your weekly editorials which I always find very interesting. But sometimes you go just a little too far, especially when you just hit too hard against socialism, unionism, and again, just lately, another altogether too big a "job" against Quebec's new labelling law and in which you seem to be afraid that a lot of Quebecers' might come and buy a lot of goods that would be for sale in Glengarry and Prescott

LET THERE BE LIGHTS

Christmas comes but once a year and one of the warming aspects of the yuletide is the outdoor lighting and decoration of homes and business places.

The colored lights are usually stored away soon after New Year's, but in this summer of Canada's centennial in many areas the lights are in use again to lend a holiday air to communities.

Plans for Pioneer Days and the July 1st Park Opening include the decorations of homes and places of business and Alexandrians are being asked to get into the spirit of the promotion. No doubt ingenuity will see the lights of Christmas rearranged to suit the centennial theme and we understand there will be prizes for the best decorated homes.

The snow will not be here (we trust) to background the lights, nevertheless they should add a warming note to the local scene. And when, in late May, did we so look forward to a bit of warmth?

And why confine it to town? The entire county might look merrier if the lights of Christmas were turned on again in the concessions.

FARMERS FORCED TO MARCH

Canadian farmers will be marching on Ottawa, May 24th, and among them will be a contingent from Glengarry organized jointly by the local branches of the Federation of Agriculture, the Farmers Union and L'Union Catholique des Cultivateurs.

Some 16,0000 farmers are expected to flood onto Parliament Hill, most of them from Quebec and Ontario. The farmers' brief will use dairy policy as an example of the problems facing the industry and its ten specific requests will include those for an aggressive program of export marketing and for a statement of plans for import regulations and equalization subsidies.

The farmers will ask adequate provision for those moving off farms and those remaining; a realistic minimum level of income for agriculture; a standard of living equal to that of comparable managers in industry, and public formulation of policies that affect farmers.

Farmers should be given advance notice of changes in government programs that affect them, the brief says.

Next Wednesday's influx of farmers isn't being looked forward to by government leaders. In fact this march on Ottawa is on despite a request that its sponsors postpone it to a more suitable time, or call it off altogether.

We imagine most of the farmers who will be taking part in that march would much prefer to stay at home and tend their own acres.

MRS. JOHN ANGUS CAMERON

She was a genuinely Christian lady of Baptist faith and always played an active part in all organizations pertaining to the good of the church and the community.

Following her marriage to Mr. Cameron she resided at their farm home at St. Elmo until Mr. Cameron's sudden death in 1943, after which she made her home in Maxville.

Rambling . . .

Probably the biggest lure to farm life has long been the individual freedom to manage his own affairs the farmer knew. He would like to preserve it, but economic pressures in an era of socialistic planning by government are forcing farmers to unite their voices in their own defence or lose ground to more vocal segments of our society.

Ottawa isn't warm to this march on Parliament Hill and truth to tell we like not the picture of tractor demonstrations and farmers massing to make demands, even when they ask only their fair share of the national income.

Our governments would prefer to have the farmers stay home and suffer in silence but it is their fault if the primary producers are now in a mood to march. The politicians' abject surrender to organized labor whenever it chooses to threaten strike action has set a pattern that the farmer must follow if only in defence of his own interests. The reaction of government affirms the old saying that "in union there is strength". The protests of the individual carry no weight in an era when big government is oblivious to any but the big voting block. He is akin to the voice crying in the wilderness.

Farmers are being forced to march, if only to keep in step with organized labor which is now calling the tune in the halls of government.

SPORTS in the GLENS

by ANGUS H. McDONELL

The sport year, like the fiscal year of many a business enterprise, does not coincide with the calendar year. As a result of the Lions Club Sportsmen's Dinner timing, this is the New Year of sports in Glengarry.

When the local Lions embarked on a stepped up dinner program last year little did we think the bearing this would have on at least the next few years. (We hope many, many years.)

As of now, a close survey will be kept on Glengarry athletes in each field until the hockey finals are played next April. Then the surveys will be reviewed and the next holder of the Jim McCaffrey trophy will be chosen. The choice will be kept confidential only to be announced at the dinner.

The track and field athletic brigade welcomed the new year in Williamstown last Saturday. We mention this having in mind that track stars, at times, outshine those of say hockey or football and this writer hopes that our youngsters with the spikes will feel that in their ambition to win points for their school they are also earning notice of being possible trophy candidates.

On Monday, in football weather, four young golfers, all students, Ken Parsons, Hubert Morris, Jim Nyman and Neil Macdonald made a creditable showing on the Brockville fairways as they finished third in the first EOSSA golf competition destined to become an annual event.

The late Jim McCaffrey was a better than average golfer and filled all executive posts at Ottawa's Rivermead, so golf, like track and field, could very well produce an award winner.

Little League baseball, due to cold wet weather, has been delayed. That hard working leader, Gerald (Moose Creek) Emburg, tells us Maxville and Moose Creek will get the schedule under way by next week. Pendleton has replaced Fournier, however, the keen disappointment is apparently Alexandria's forced withdrawal due to lack of a diamond.

Ourtown's youngsters under the capable guidance of "Hoppy" Gallant were a popular first year entry last year and prexy Emburg is now forced to try and balance a schedule by inserting exhibition games with Cornwall teams. Can't something be done in Alexandria to assist our youth in such a fine entertaining sport as baseball? Come, come, Alexandria, shake off the lack of interest and do something.

Stanley Fraser is nightly drilling the lacrosse juniors who will represent the Glens in the ELA League. Other teams are two from Cornwall, an RCAF club drawing players from St. Andrews and Long Sault. Morrisburg is also in the group.

At present Coach Stanley has two experienced juniors, at least, to start as a nucleus, Burns McPherson and Allan O'Brien.

In addition to such a noted football and basketball coach as Stan Fraser joining the lacrosse camp, it is good to see veteran campaigner Biel Poirier at the helm. Cameron McCormick and his colleagues did a great job in reviving the game the past few seasons and having laid the ground work lacrosse fans should have in store an enjoyable summer of the gutted stick sport, especially if we have that new outdoor box by June 1st.

We were invited by secty. Morlin Campbell to attend the reorganization meeting of the Glengarry Football (soccer) League on Monday night when the pitch was cleared for another season.

Keith McMillan was returned president and two new clubs, Dunvegan and Vankleek Hill may join the four veteran teams from McCrimmon, Lochiel, Glen Sandfield and Greenfield. The league hopes to kick off on Saturday evening, May 27.

There was considerable discussion relative to a minor association, junior and intermediate which is a healthy development sign for the future. Even the girls are interested in playing soccer.

So there you are sport fans in the Glens, track and field, golf, Little League baseball, lacrosse and soccer all getting away with the new year here in sport and to later move on to football and hockey in the closing. We should have an interesting year of top athletes vying with each other to be the next holder of the Lions Club Jim McCaffrey trophy.

MEMO TO HUB

That encyclopedia of sport out of Crysler and Ottawa, Saskatoon and Regina, Hub Bishop, was mentioned aplenty during the Sportsmen's Dinner meet. Old buddies like Hank O'Day, Bill and Bun Cook, Vern DeGeer and Frank Boucher were commenting on Hub's photographic memory and his typewriter skill of recording just about any data mentioned in sport.

May we add that this writer not only concurs but wishes to thank you, Hub, for your valuable long range assistance.

LETTERS

Counties for example!

Well, Mr. editor, supposing that did happen. I see no wrong in that, as it would just mean a further increase in internal trade in Canada!

Another most important problem is the fact that the Anglo-Saxon minority in Quebec have had the privilege of having their own all-English schools in Quebec Province ever since 1867. But that has never been allowed to the French-Canadian minorities in any one of the other provinces; probably you are just another one of those who are calling this manoeuvering "just British fair play", well, if so I call this, LESS THAN FUNNY FAIR PLAY and on top of that, Mr. editor, did it ever come to your mind that ever since the very doleful battle of the Plains of Abraham, just about two hundred years ago we French Canadians have ever since been considered as just second class citizens by all the English speaking population of our beloved country which is Canada.

To sum up the whole problem let me tell you once and for all, that if all those transgressions against the French Canadians are going to keep on, well I am much afraid that it is very liable to mean some day or other in the future, a complete separation of all French Canada from confederation.

Marcel Lambert

le 14 mai, 1967

Cher Monsieur Macdonald,

Pour faire suite a la lettre de Monsieur Marcel Lambert . . . sorry you are not in Quebec but in Canada so I will reply in your Queen's English.

Don't you ever forget Mister, that what is good for you may not be good for me as we are not really of the same nation; you are a Canadian and I am a Quebecois. Don't you ever forget this?

While Mr. Lambert still thinks there is a little chance for a great Canada (English and French) I am sure that Quebec will not be part of Canada in a few years.

See you at our Expo.

Mrs. A. W. Brodie Elected President At County Convention Of WCTU

The annual county convention of Stormont and Glengarry Women's Christian Temperance Union was held at Maxville United Church on Tuesday, May 2, 1967. The theme was "Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit saith the Lord of Hosts".

The convention was opened at 1.15 p.m. by the president, Mrs. James McMillan. The worship period was in charge of the Lochiel group, under Mrs. W. A. Brodie and Mrs. Wm. Jamieson.

Mrs. Henderson, wife of the minister of the church, welcomed the delegates to the convention.

The recording secretary, Mrs. Alpin McGregor, read the minutes of the last meeting and also the roll call.

A courtesy committee consisting of Mrs. Robert Black and Mrs. Crowder, was appointed.

The provincial convention of the WCTU will be held in St. Catharines, June 20-23, 1967.

The Bainsville group under Mrs. R. Black was in charge of the memorial service for the following who had passed away during the year: Mrs. Hilda Derry, Picnic Grove; Mrs. Geo. Barrett, Maxville and Mrs. H. McLean, Maxville.

Prizes for the winners in the Scientific Temperance Instruction were distributed by Mrs. Helena McLeod, Cornwall. Awards for the posters and reference books were given out by Mrs. Wm. Jamieson, Glen Sandfield.

Resolutions to be sent to the provincial convention were in charge of the Lochiel Union.

The speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. E. C. Smith, Renfrew, provincial president of the WCTU. She stated that alcohol is robbing homes of happiness and love. One drinker in every five becomes an alcoholic. Alcohol is responsible for the spread of many diseases and is indirectly the cause of many deaths. 50 per cent of fatal accidents are caused by drinking. It was corruption from within that caused the downfall of Greece and Rome. The biggest difficulty is the apathy of the citizens.

Miss M. J. McLennan of the nominating committee read the names of the new slate of officers and Mrs. Henderson presided for their installation.

Officers for 1967-68 are as follows: past president, Mrs. Jas. McMillan, Cornwall; president, Mrs. W. A. Brodie, Glen Sandfield; corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. H. McKelvy, Glen Sandfield; treasurer, Miss M. J. McLennan, Lancaster; superintendents of departments, Evangelism and Christian Worship, Mrs. Jas. McMillan, Cornwall; Canadianization and citizenship, Mrs. Wm. Jamieson, Glen Sandfield; fairs and exhibits, Mrs. Alpin McGregor, Williamstown; flower mission, Miss Mina McMillan, Maxville; non-alcoholic fruit products, Miss Sarah Campbell, Maxville; press, Mrs. W. H. McWhinnie, Williamstown; world and Canadian missions, Mrs. L. Handy, Cornwall; outpost members, Mrs. Wm. Jamieson, Glen Sandfield.

Mrs. Black gave the report of the courtesy committee and Rev. E. C. Smith pronounced the Benediction.

A delicious supper was served in the church hall.

MAY MEETING OF BAINSVILLE WI HELD

Fourteen members and three guests were present at the May meeting of Bainsville Women's Institute in the Institute Hall.

The roll call was name a province and say why it is important; the motto, the beauty of the home is order and the life of the home is love. The commentary was prepared by Mrs. A. Robertson, in her absence given by Mrs. S. R. MacLeod. Plans were discussed for a centennial dance to be held in the hall in September, suggested date, September 22nd.

The guest speaker, Mr. J. C. Douglas was introduced by Mrs. J. P. Sangster. Mr. Douglas spoke on Canadian Industry and things necessary for orderly industry development, available markets, necessary buyers, also skilled laborers.

He spoke of the vast natural resources of Canada forest, mineral, agriculture, land and power. It was a very interesting and informative talk and from it we came to a greater realization of the vast potential wealth of Canada. Mrs. John Kerr thanked Mr. Douglas.

Bulbs and plants were sold among members after which delicious refreshments were served by hostesses Mrs. H. J. McCuaig, Mrs. J. Kerr and Mrs. Hilda McVichie.

St. Raphael's CWL Marked 10 Years

The tenth anniversary of St. Raphael's CWL was marked recently at the annual meeting in the parish hall. The president, Mrs. Donald MacCulloch chaired the meeting and Rev. M. J. O'Brien led the opening prayer. Mrs. Leo Thauvette gave the financial report. Mrs. Donald Emberg, spiritual convener gave a talk on Our Lady of Good Counsel.

Mrs. Cameron MacDonald educational convener spoke on St. Raphael's, the seat of Catholicity in Ontario, and the plaque that is to be erected at the centennial picnic on Saturday, July 15th. The Historical Branch is erecting this plaque to commemorate the Blue Chapel. John S. McDonald spoke on the very limited historical data available on that first church. Mrs. Marcel Major, diocesan first vice-president and spiritual convener, spoke on retreats and reminded members that the next CWL retreat is to be held on the weekend of May 5th to 7th.

Mrs. Mervyn MacDonald introduced the guest speaker, Rev. Cleary Villeneuve, who recently returned from Japan. "Christ said 'Go and teach all nations' but in the affluent society of Japan, there is little time for Christianity", said Father Villeneuve. "Ordinary parish life is tough going but the Japanese people have a tremendous power of self esteem. As we slowly get across to them the meaning of Christianity, we can expect at some future date to have a strong Christian nation. Every Catholic boy and girl should ask themselves 'Why can't I be a missionary'?"

Mrs. Alex Kennedy thanked Father Villeneuve and presented him with a cheque.

HOLIDAY IN HISTORY

UPPER CANADA VILLAGE

ONTARIO'S LIVING HERITAGE

(see it on your way to Expo)

It is 1784-1867. You are there. A time machine has drawn you back into the 19th century, back to the days before Canada's Confederation. You will see the smithy's shop, demonstrations of spinning and weaving, the Upper Canada mail coach clattering over the corduroy roads of yesterday. You will enjoy home-cooked meals in the 1850 surroundings of Willard's Hotel. History comes magically to life at Upper Canada Village. You will love it.

Close at hand are lush green parks, sandy beaches, marinas, fully equipped camping and trailer sites, an excellent golf course, riding stables and all sorts of outstanding recreational facilities. Come to Upper Canada Village and help celebrate Canada's Centennial. It's located just off the MacDonald Cartier Freeway (Highway 401) on your way to Expo.

Upper Canada Village on Highway 2 near Morrisburg is open daily from MAY 13 UNTIL OCTOBER 15

8—In Memoriam

HAY—In loving memory of a dear mother, Mrs. Angus Hay, who passed away May 17, 1961.
She left us quietly,
Her thoughts unknown;
But left us a memory
We are proud to own.
So treasure her Lord,
In your Garden of Rest,
For, when on earth
She was one of the best.
—Lovingly remembered by daughter, Dorothy and son-in-law, Tom McBride.
Toronto, Ont. 20-c

URQUHART—In loving memory of William Urquhart who passed away May 20, 1966.
The midnight stars are shining
Upon your silent grave;
Beneath it sleeps the one we love
And the one we could not save.
—Always remembered by Archie and Sarah MacLeod and family. RR1 Dunvegan, Ont. 20-1p

URQUHART—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, William Urquhart who was called to eternal rest May 20th, 1966.
Not till the loom is silent,
And the shuttles cease to fly,
Will God unroll the canvas
And explain the reason why.
The dark threads are so needful
In the skillful weaver's hand
As the threads of gold and silver,
In the pattern He has planned.
Thy will be done, seems hard to say,
When one we loved, has passed away.
Some day perhaps, we'll understand
When we meet again, in that promised land.
Softly the leaves of memory fall,
Gently we gather and treasure them all,
Unseen, unheard, you are always near,
So loved, so missed, so very dear.
As time goes by the memories stay,
As near and dear as yesterday.
May the joys that he missed on life's highway,
May he find in God's Garden of Rest.
—Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by wife Agnes, Dryden, Ont., and son Dale, Ottawa, 20-p
