Three couples killed in Bonville car crash

Six people met instant death early Saturday morning in an appalling mass traffic fatality that took the lives of three area couples and left three children orphaned. All natives of the Monkland-Maxville area, the six were occupants of a car involved in a crash with a second car on Highway 138 near Bonville, north of St. Andrew's West.

A particularly tragic aspect of the crash saw Michael Villeneuve, 21, of Maxville, driver of the car that struck the death car driven by his brother, Bernard of Moose Creek. Michael survived but a third brother, Gerald Villeneuve, also died in the crash.

The victims also included two sisters.

Dead are:

Bernard Villeneuve, 27, of Moose Creek, and his wife, Linda (Cameron), 26.

Gerald Villeneuve, 34, of RR2, Monkland, and his wife, Mary (Grant), 26.

Ronald Bender, 35, of Ottawa, and his wife, Doris (Cameron), 32.

Mr. Bender was a native of Strathmore and his wife was born at Newington.

Three occupants of the second car are listed in satisfactory condition in Hotel Dieu, Cornwall.

Michael Villeneuve, the driver, suffered a fractured right arm and right leg, and abrasions. Cathy Bilmer, 15, of Strathmore, sustained a fractured left arm and possible fractured pelvis. William Blair, 20 of Maxville, escaped with multiple abrasions to his face and a fractured wrist.

According to a police report of the accident the three couples were travelling west on the 8th Concession Road and the car driven by Bernard Villeneuve went through the Stop sign at Highway 138. Northbound on the highway, the car driven by Michael Villeneuve struck Bernard's vehicle in the intersection.

Visibility was good, police report, but it had been raining during the late evening and the roads were wet. The accident occurred at 1:50 Saturday morning.

Constable Doug Moir of Long Sault OPP was the investigating officer.

The three children who survive are Joanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Villeneuve and Karen and Scotty, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Villeneuve. They are all preschoolers.

Bernard Villeneuve was in charge of the stockroom at MacEwen Motor Sales, Maxville and Gerald Villeneuve was operator of a butcher shop on Main Street, Maxville. They were sons of the late Sylvia Villeneuve and Mrs. Beatrice Villeneuve of Maxville, who survives as does their step-father Adolphus Villeneuve. They also leave four brothers: Maurice of Cornwall, John of Apple Hill, Raymond of RR1, Maxville and Michael of Maxville.

Doris, Mrs. Ronald Bender and Linda, Mrs. Bernard Villeneuve, were daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Cameron of Newington. They are also survived by four sisters and two brothers. They are Barbara, Mrs. Ken McIntosh, Ottawa; Beverley, Mrs. Gordon Campbell, Avonmore; Doreen. Ottawa; Donna and Barry of Newington and Winston of Guelph.

Mrs. Gerald Villeneuve was the former Mary Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grant of Monkland and was well known at Mary's Restaurant, Monkland, where she worked. In addition to her parents, she leaves two brothers, Stanford of Monkland, and Rodger of Ottawa.

Ronald Bender was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bender of Strathmore, who survive, as does his grandmother, Mrs. Laura Brassard of Ingleside. He also leaves three sisters and one brother: Marlene, Mrs. Larry Feek of Avonmore; Connie, Carolyn and Dwayne of Strathmore.

The mass wake was held at the Munro Funeral Home in Maxville from whence the funerals were held on Tuesday.

The funeral of the two Villeneuve couples was held at 10:30 a.m. to Our Lady of Angels Church, Moose Creek where Rev. Thomas Villeneuve, Long Sault, offered the funeral mass. Assisting in the service were: Rev. Charles MacDonald, Apple Hill; Rev. Claude Halle, Moose Creek; Rev. Denis Lefebvre, Maxville; Rev. Don Scott, St. Raphael's; Rev. Leo MacDonell, Alexandria; Rev. George Tomita, Cornwall and Rev. John H. Wiseman, Avonmore.

The service for Mr. and Mrs. Bender was held at 2:30 p.m. in Maxville United Church with Rev. George Tomita, Cornwall and Rev. John H. Wiseman, Avonmore, officiating.

Pallbearers were as follows: Ronald Bender—Thomas Papps, Elwyn Bender, Leonard Bender, Darcy McGee, David Coleman and Milton McIntosh.

Doris Bender—Erwin Bender, Harold Steel, Clare Fykes, Douglas MacMillan, Earl Canham, Peter McLellan.

Gerald Villeneuve—Six Lions members—Gilles Aube, Bruno Besner, George Currier, Barry Hanniman, Dunc McDonald, Ralph Pomeroy.

Mary Villeneuve—Bernard Villeneuve, Jacques Villeneuve, Noble Villeneuve, Leo Villeneuve, Harvey Villeneuve, Ernest Villeneuve.

Bernard Villeneuve—Members of Moose Creek Fire Department: Emile Quesnel, Richard Sabourin, Donat Bray, Gerard Lajeunesse, Hubert Sabourin, Fern Bazinet.

Linda Villeneuve—Members of Moose Creek Fire Department: Duncan McRae, Cliff Valley, Harry Valley, Percy Belair, Alcide Allaire, Victor Lafrance.

Protest board decision on buses

The parent-teacher-student committee of GDHS has sent a letter to the SD&G County Board of Education asking it to reconsider the cancellation of late buses.

The committee feels this severely limits the use of school facilities by non-town students and discriminates against rural schools as the majority of students require busing; it severely hampers athletic and cultural activities such as: all athletic programs, driver education, year book, drama, student council activities, field trips and excursions. These activities are an important part of the children's education, the committee emphasized.

Summerstown resident was drowning victim last week

A resident of Summerstown, Cornwall Police Constable William Vipond, 35, lost his life by drowning off Ross Island in Lake St. Francis, Wednesday of last week.

Constable Vipond and his wife were at their hunting shack on Ross Island when their boat drifted off from shore. A good swimmer, Constable Vipond went into the water after his boat but got into difficulties and drowned. Mrs. Vipond was picked up by passing boaters and taken to Dan's Place where police were called.

Members of the OPP searched for the body which was recovered on Thursday.

Born at Summerstown, Constable William Vipond was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Vipond. He had been a member of the Cornwall Police Force since 1962 and had returned to duty last week after completion of a course at the Ontario Police College. Commenting on his tragic death, Cornwall Police Chief Earl Landry declared Constable Vipond was an excellent policeman and he had great compassion for his fellow man.

"Constable Vipond had a great love for the youth of our community and had just completed a three-week youthful offenders' course at the Ontario Police College on May 7. His death is a great loss to the force."

Active in the Masonic Order at Lancaster and Cornwall, Constable Vipond was also a singer with The Tartans orchestra.

He married Elizabeth McLean of Ottawa, who survives with four children at home, Deirdre, Jennifer, John and Laurie.

The funeral was held at 3 p.m. Sunday to Salem United Church in Summerstown where Rev. Jack Skues conducted the service. Members of Cornwall Police Force and of the Ontario Provincial Police formed an honor guard.

Active bearers were fellow members of the Masonic Order: Cecil Runions, Stuart Buchan, Allan Blair, George McLean, Bert Irwin and Doug Seller.

Interment was in Salem United Church, Summerstown.

Mrs. Hilda Scott feted

Some 45 members of the nursing staff of the Glengarry Memorial Hospital gathered at the Highland Lounge in Maxville to honor their Director of Nursing, Mrs. Hilda Scott, on the occasion of her retirement. Mrs. Scott had been director of nursing at Glengarry Memorial for some 10 years.

The surprise event began with a tasty smorgasbord, followed by several brief speeches and then a presentation was made to Mrs. Scott of a beautiful original painting of the home, buildings and grounds where she was born, brought up, and resided during her school days until she entered her nursing training. It was indeed a touching moment to her, as for most of those present. The balance of the evening was spent in fun, games, and musical entertainment.

Mrs. Scott is well-known, loved and respected by her staff and all who knew her. She was very dedicated and loyal to her profession and her work and gave unselfishly of her spare time to her friends, neighbors and anyone who needed her, without any monetary gain.

Prior to this gathering she was honored at a dinner in Alexandria held by the entire staff of the Glengarry Memorial Hospital, at which time she was presented with a gold chain and engraved bracelet, and a purse of money.

ALREADY THINKING ABOUT NEXT SEASON—Char-Lan has elected its student council for next year and their smiles indicate they are looking forward to the job. Ice time already being sought though arena far from complete

Completion of Alexandria's new arena is still months away but its facilities are already in demand. More than 50 hours of ice time is already being asked for reports Michel Depratto recently appointed Director and General Manager of the Sports Palace.

Mr. Depratto made his report at a meeting of the Sports Palace board, Wednesday night of last week. The requests for ice time are reaching him, reports Depratto, although no advertising has been done nor approaches made to prospective clients.

Rates were established at last week's meeting. They will be made to prospective clients.

Rates were established at last week's meeting. They will be based on a general rate of $30 per hour of ice time as a basic level. Women's broomball will be charged $25 an hour; teams outside the district $35 an hour and the school rate $12 an hour.

Mr. Depratto said he expects to get many more calls now the rates are made public. The board may eventually set a wider range of rates but those are the basic ones for the coming season. The arena is expected to open in late summer.

J. P. Touchette, chairman of the arena board, said that the board was strongly sympathetic to the position of the village of Maxville, where it is feared the long-established Maxville arena will have to close.

"They were awfully good to us last winter," Mr. Touchette commented. "We're in a position to return the favor as best we can."

In passing, Mr. Touchette mentioned that when Alexandria was faced with a similar problem, the possibility of removing the roof of the old arena and maintaining the use of the artificial ice surface and machinery was considered, but the suggestion was rejected because removing the roof without demolishing the building, in order to keep the ice surface intact was so costly that it would have amounted to a significant portion of the cost of a new building.

"We considered that, but it wasn't practical for us," Mr. Touchette said.

Lochiel council preps for zoning

Lochiel Township council has entered into an agreement with J. L. Richards and Associates Ltd. of Ottawa, to prepare a set of zoning by-laws. The Richards firm had been serving as consultants to the Glengarry Area Planning Board which recently received approval of its proposed plan.

Council also completed sale of two lots at Guaytown, at last week's meeting. The preliminary report on the Smith-Jamieson drain was also adopted.

Delivery has been received of a new truck with snowplow attachments, Reeve Alex McDonald reports.

A joint meeting of the Lochiel and Kenyon township councils was held in the Lochiel Township Hall last Thursday night to discuss plans for development of the Spring Creek drain which has its start in Kenyon and extends into the Dalkeith area to an outlet in the Rigaud River.

The more than $250,000 project was referred back to the consulting engineers, Stidwill and Associates, for minor changes.

Villeneuve replies

A reminder from MPP Osie Villeneuve was received by Alexandria Town Council at its last meeting.

It was in response to a letter sent to the Liquor Commission Board of Ontario by Council requesting that the store in Alexandria might be changed into a self serve unit. A copy of the letter had been sent to Mr. Villeneuve.

The member reminded Council that while this change-over might be possible it would reduce the number of employees in the store on weekends.

This would mean more people in town out of work.

Observe holiday

The Retail Business Holidays Act which requires retail business establishments to be closed to the public came into force on January 1, 1976 and the public must expect most stores to be closed, reminds the local police chief.

Some businesses can be open but with certain reservations: car dealers may serve gasoline and repair cars but cannot sell cars; car washes must be closed; as well as milling establishments, barber shops and stores containing more than 2400 sq. feet and which employ more than three employees. Beauty salons may operate by previous appointment only.

Small stores whose principal line is food stuffs, newspapers, tobacco, antiques or handicrafts may be open.

No raise for PUC

Members of Alexandria PUC decided not to increase their allowance for attending their meetings. They have been receiving $30 and will continue this for the coming term.

Members of Town Council had previously voted themselves an additional 10%, but the PUC decided against a similar move.

Maxville parents and education director discuss problems

The library of Maxville Public School was well filled one evening last week when members of the school committee, teachers, and parents gathered to hear an address by Rosaire Leger, director of education for the SD&G Board. Also present was Fraser Campbell, chairman of the finance committee. Mr. Leger was introduced by Stan Jasiewicz, chairman of the school committee, who gave a thought-provoking little address of his own, outlining the problems concerning schools that are causing the greatest anxiety to parents today. Chief among these he considered the lack of outdoor activities, and the lack of organized programs after school hours. He regretted that this was due entirely to the non-participation and non-support of the parents . . . most of whom unfortunately still regard school as little more than a baby-sitting service.

Mr. Leger began by pointing out that ours is one of the most affluent societies in the world, and our expectations have risen beyond all reasonable likelihood of satisfaction . . . and directly into the present socio-economic crises. Inflation, labor unrest . . . we are second only to Italy in the number of strikes . . . our "Work ethic" has been smothered and we now consume more than we produce. And our expectations for our children have become unrealistic. Blaming the teaching system is no answer . . . although under the laws governing accountability, teachers have been sued in the United States for malpractice. The local board plans and directs, under broad guidelines from Toronto, since its formation in 1959. After several years of a stationary mill rate, it has had to be raised this year, and the ceiling of grants is also considerably lower this year. The Board has 17,000 students in 54 schools over a very large territory, and has to cope with an inflation rate of 12%. Operating costs have had to be pared to the absolute minimum. For example the Board does permit community use of its buildings where feasible . . . this cost it $55,000 last year for heat, lights, etc. for which there is no government grant. Groups using the schools will have to be charged this year. Mr. Leger was glad to see active school committees in operation . . . a practical link between Board and local citizen.

Mr. Leger spent some time refuting the charge that the basic skills are not being taught today, pointing out that too many parents have unrealistic memories of the past . . . when actually only four present of all students made it through to university. Professors dealing with this highly-motivated, intelligent elite had an easy time of it . . . teaching them being mostly a matter of getting out of their way. Universal education has meant that 85% of the country's children now go to high school, instead of 20% as before, with a correspondingly broad range of abilities and talents, and a great diversity of courses has to be offered.

Still on the subject of basic skills, Mr. Leger pointed out that proficiency in these depends on good teaching, which he felt was being provided, and to an equal degree, on parental encouragement and discipline at home. Are children encouraged to read, to bring books home . . . is the wretched television turned off? The difference between a fair reader, and a good reader depends on the home environment entirely. Also, mathematics is taught in school . . . calculators are purchased only by parents. Students doing math with calculators never get the required practice in basic routines. Is local history understood and appreciated by parents? Good work

Bus service awaits approval

Everything is ready for start of the Cornwall-Hawkesbury bus route except the final legal requirements. Tariff schedules have to be approved and published in the Ontario Gazette and that is all that is holding up the inaugural runs of the daily service, a bus line spokesman asserts.

Plans call for two buses to handle the route, one leaving Cornwall and the other Hawkesbury, with the vehicles meeting at Alexandria. The drivers will exchange, taking the vehicles to their destination. Passengers will have a through service.

Chief recommends forming club

"It would be a good idea if the local motorcyclists would form an association," recommends Alexandria Chief Cleroux. He feels this would be the answer to a lot of complaints about noise and racing that people call the police about.

"We used to get complaints all the time about snowmobiles," explains the Chief, "then the owners formed an association, laid down their rules and there were no more problems. The trouble is, only a few motorcyclists are responsible for the unnecessary noise and careless driving and this gives the whole crowd a bad name."

Dog licences up

It is going to cost more for a dog license in Alexandria. The fees for a male have been raised from four to six dollars and each additional male will now cost $12 instead of six. A female will cost even more as the price has been raised to $12 from the previous eight and each additional will be $16 instead of $10. Pups under three months old are not taxable.

There was some discussion on the shooting of dogs. A town by-law has been in existence for years which states that any dog which cannot be apprehended can be shot. However, the town has been using tranquilizer guns to apprehend dogs so this law has not had to be enforced very often.

Dogs would require a pound if apprehended, council noted, and this it does not have. As most dogs wear a tag, the owner can usually be contacted by calling the municipality where it is registered, Clerk-Treasurer Don Collin notes.

Funeral Friday

The death occurred Tuesday night at Hotel Dieu, Cornwall, of a former resident of Alexandria, Mrs. John Lawrence MacDonald of Cornwall.

The former Frances MacDonell of Greenfield, Mrs. MacDonald leaves her husband, three sons and one daughter.

The funeral will be held at 11 o'clock Friday, from the Morris Funeral Home, to St. Finnan's Cathedral and cemetery.

habits are absolutely fundamental, and the worst mistake parents can make is to give a child everything. This destroys his ability to find out how to get it for himself . . . and rules out of his whole life anything his parents cannot obtain for him, however much he might want it. What the community should be involved in today is the search for contentment, and the realization that this will come with wanting and demanding far less in the way of material goods than we think we have to have now. Mr. Leger sat down to sustained applause for his thought-provoking address.

There was a brisk question and answer period after a coffee break. Some parents stated that they too often felt like intruders in their child's school, and this denoted a lack of communication between school and home. It was expected that an active school committee would remedy this. The present one consists of four teachers and four parents, and it is hard to find parents willing to become involved and give up some of their leisure time for the sake of their families. A periodic newsletter also might further a sense of contact . . . There is no librarian at present in the school, and volunteers might help here.

Five classrooms in this school will be closed next fall, and four consultants and two teachers let go . . . due to the transfer of pupils to the new Plantagenet school in Prescott, and the country-wide problem of declining enrollment. There are fewer and fewer children each year . . . fewer and fewer kindergartens each year. Smaller classes at every level now. The rate of decline has been unexpectedly swift . . . the enrollment in some of the scores of diversified classes the Board originally thought necessary has dwindled to a scant half-dozen in many cases. These classes will not be offered again at the grade 9 and 10 level, but the Board has a commitment to see the students presently enrolled through to grade 13.

The serious decline in population is a threat to job security for all kinds of people besides teachers. Doctors and lawyers will soon be missing patients and clients. So will social workers, and bus drivers.

School had visitors from Quebec and Caughnawaga

There were two particularly interesting events involving the Maxville Senior Public School recently. During the week of May 3rd eight specially chosen grade seven students participated in an educational exchange with eight students from the Dorion Gardens Elementary School in Dorion, P.Q. This was the second year for this annual project, whose main purpose is to give the students a controlled but totally different experience to their everyday activities . . . in this case from rural Ontario to urban Quebec. Each student spent two-and-a-half days in the Dorion school, matched with a compatible student there, boarding with their families at night, and enjoying various tours and outings in the evenings. These included tours of the Olympic site, visits to the Metro, etc. The students then returned to Maxville with their new friends who spent their two-and-a-half days here in school and being taken to various local sites of interest. And everybody enjoyed the exchange.

May 11th was another busy day . . . Principal Mel McCormick welcomed twenty-five principals and vice-principals from the West Island area of Montreal . . . his own former school district. The visit was co-ordinated by Pat Baker, vice-principal of Beaconsfield High School, and the purpose was to permit an exchange of views and information between the working members of two large regional school boards whose territories adjoin each other, and are separated incidentally by a provincial border. There are no senior elementary schools in Quebec . . . since the late sixties the grades in Quebec schools have been divided as follows . . . elementary, kindergarten to six, high school seven to eleven, CJEP twelve and thirteen, and then university.

A single mark of co-operation between the two boards is that students in the very western end of the district who would be faced with a very long bus ride to West Island schools are sent to schools in Ontario, and the required fees paid by the Quebec government.

The visiting teachers spent the whole day in Maxville comparing their systems and seeing how they work. There were of course, advantages and disadvantages on both sides, but the main impression on the Quebec visitors was made by the independence and autonomy in the local schools, which operate with a great deal of freedom under broad guidelines from Toronto. They felt the amount of local freedom under amount of local control was a tremendous advantage over their system. As one visitor expressed it . . . "What your district in Ontario has is a capitalistic system of operation . . . which is totally different from the socialistic system we have where all decisions are made by a central authority in Quebec City."

There was another visitor at the school recently too . . . Chief Ron Kirby of the Caughnawaga Indian Reserve came to talk to the students. This was in conjunction with a special display of False Face Society Indian masks and weapons which were loaned to the school by the New York Museum. After a considerable wait, new library books and some science supplies are on their way, and Home rooms 7-1 and 7-3 are busy ordering books from the Scholastic Book Club. The Students' Council would also like to obtain books by Glengarry authors, and wants information as to where these can be obtained. For anyone who missed seeing the fine exhibits at the Science Fair, these will be on display at the Maxville Fair next month.

The visit from the "Christian Athletes in Action" group which was planned for May 6th has had to be postponed . . . a later date will be announced. These visitors include Gerry Organ, Ron Woodward, and Wayne Tosh of the Ottawa Rough Rider Football Club who will be talking about the deeper meaning of athletics, and will put on a display for the students and any parents or relatives who wish to attend.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Stan Jasiewicz and family were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Galuszka and family of Toronto.

Glengarry Stars win and lose in weekend games

by Carman MacMillan

On Saturday, May 15th the Glengarry Stars entered the Los Latinos Tournament. Last year the Stars won the event in the "A" division but this year lost out in our third game.

Our first game was at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday against Nepean Royals. The tournament games were 30 minutes long and the Stars came out on top by a 2-0 score. John MacPherson came up with both goals.

Our second game was played at 1 p.m. against Centennials and again we the Stars came out the victors, winning 3 to 1. John MacPherson, Earl MacLennan and Hubert Massia scored our goals.

The third game we weren't so lucky losing a close 1-0 decision to Blue Hawks who eventually went on to defeat the Royals 4-3 to win the tournament.

It was a good opening tournament and the boys played really well. Allan Byers came up with numerous saves. The only injury of the day was Earl MacLennan who injured his ankle.

Also another bright note for the Stars was that John MacPherson won the plaque for top goal scorer in the "A" division.

EXHIBITION GAME

On Sunday the Stars travelled to Char-Lan for an exhibition game against the Char-Lan United soccer team. Stars came out the victors by a 5-2 score. Goal scorers were J. T. Hay and Ewen MacLeod with two each and John MacPherson with one. The first half Gerald MacDonald played goal and allowed the first two goals. The United team seemed tired in the second half and the Stars came on strong, scoring five times while in the second half Donald MacNaughton held Char-Lan scoreless.

It was a disappointment to see such a poor turn out at either game. Hopefully it will get better as the season goes on but you can't learn anything sitting in the living room watching TV. The only way to improve on your soccer is to come out and play. Sometimes you may have to watch, but you can also learn.

Ladies' compete Molson bowling tournament

On Saturday, April 24th, 12 ladies from Alexandria participated in the Molson Award Tournament and took home first and second place trophies.

The trophies and cash prizes were presented by Jim Baker (Legion President) and Henry Dumouchel (tournament organizer).

The next event at the Legion is the Millionaire's Night on May 28th and the next tournament will be in July, with horseshoes to be the game played.

May separate two positions

Recreation Director Michel Depratto is also Director and General Manager of the new Glengarry Sports Palace as of May 1st. He will hold both positions at least until the end of the year when it could be decided to have two separate posts.

It is explained his salary is being paid by the town for the first six months and the arena board will assume the expenditure for the balance of the year. The rate of pay was to have been set at last Wednesday's meeting of the board.

Golfers enjoy first tourney

Some 40 members of the Glengarry Golf Club participated in the Early Bird tournament on Sunday. Men, ladies and juniors took part and scores will be the basis for handicaps to start the season.

Rejean Theoret's 82 was the low gross of the day and Richard Scott had the low net at 65.

Lloyd McHugh was runner-up in low gross while Ricky Descheneau and Don Prevost were runners-up at low net.

Helen Dunsmore had low score among ladies playing and low nets were marked up by Cecile Sabourin and Nicole Vincent. Michel Bellefeuille was low gross among juniors with Alain Menard and Andre Cholette at low net.

The club will boast a record number of junior players this year and overseeing their activities will be Richard Bellefeuille and Wayne Crack. Their twilight league will get underway after the school year. Four girls hope to form a girls' section.

Bob Brunet will be president of the junior club. Other officers are: Vice-President—Richard Aubry; Captain—Michael Crack; Co-Captain—Mike Bellefeuille; Sec.-Treas.—Alain Menard.

Stress value of hockey and arena at Maxville

Parents and friends of the Maxville Minor Hockey Association gathered in the Community Hall on Saturday evening with their sons for the annual pot luck supper and awards night. Chairman Allan Vallance introduced the head table—Mr. and Mrs. Osie F. Villeneuve, Reeve and Mrs. Hubert A. Quart, President and Mrs. Dale Munro, . . . and the special guest for the evening, Doug Wilson, chief scout for the Ottawa 67s.

President Munro thanked the ladies for the organization of the excellent dinner, and expressed the deep appreciation of the Association for the parents' contribution through the winter in driving, helping with tournaments, and general support. Reeve Quart remarked that he always enjoyed the "Hockey Banquet" and he placed hockey among the most worthwhile sports, for the training it gives in so many character-building traits. Boys learn to skate and play the game of course, but they also learn promptness, co-operation, reliability, good sportsmanship, responsibility, and self-discipline. He referred briefly to the current state of the Maxville arena, and stated that village council is presently awaiting the report of the examining engineers before deciding on further action.

Osie F. Villeneuve, who was the coach of the famous Maxville Millionaires and has had a life-long association with local hockey, elaborated on the probable effects of this unexpected disaster. He reminded his audience that enormous community effort had gone into the building of the original rink forty-six years ago. Labor was a dollar a day, and very poor people built that rink for their children. Shares were ten dollars apiece, and nearly everybody had at least one. There were only three people in the whole village who could put in one hundred dollars. Not too long ago the Maxville Manor was built with the same kind of community spirit, and he could see no reason why a similar effort could not be made for another good cause.

Secretary Dave Munro introduced Mr. Wilson as a sportsman with a long record in track and field and university football, the father of two sons currently playing hockey, and with a present career in scouting. Mr. Wilson came right to the point, finding good hockey players is the name of the game, and the Association has 17 scouts covering four sections of the province, prospecting constantly at local games for talent, and reporting such to central office. Maxville and St. Isidore were quite well known to them. According to his experience, appraising a human being is the most difficult thing to do. And most scouts prefer small town hockey players, who have a steadiness and discipline and self-confidence that is in sharp contrast with some of the ugly tensions that occur in city hockey leagues.

A good hockey player must have three fundamental characteristics—One a desire to play the game, above every other activity. In minor hockey there is a sharp drop-off of players after the age of 14, when many boys become involved with more schoolwork, girls, broadening interests. A strong sense of self-discipline is necessary to stay with the game. Education is furthered by the Association as much as possible, but this is hard in high school with a daily 4—6 practice and evening weariness. The second requirement is aptitude, talent, the ability to play good hockey. And this ability in a boy shows up much more easily in a small town, where his talents and good sense are not obscured by the directions of a sophisticated coach. The third necessity is plain strength, not size, but muscle and the power to skate long and hard. And the good sense to be realistic, there is only one Bobby Orr, but scores of minor defensemen whose jobs have to be well filled too.

A lively question and answer period followed, which brought out more interesting points about professional hockey, that there are no bad professional players, not in that league. Stewart Arkinstall brought up the subject of violence in hockey, and Richard Scott mentioned the idea that scouts look primarily for a "scrapper". Mr. Wilson pointed out that hockey is a rough man's game, with legitimate checking and falling. But he felt very strongly that high-sticking and fighting with intent to maim is plain assault and intimidation. Regrettably, crowds love it, the 67s were playing clean hockey to small barely-break-even crowds when the arenas in Hull were filled to capacity for the violence offered at every game. High-sticking cost 57 eyes last year in hockey, and a dreadful price for a sport. Very few men ever make a dollar playing hockey, and there are only about twenty players all over the world. For his very interesting talk Mr. Wilson was thanked and presented with a gift by Stewart Arkinstall.

Dale Munro announced the presentation of a special prize for the hockey player who raised the most money in the winter skate-a-thon. There was a small stir but nobody appeared in view until a very small boy reached the space in front of the head table and became visible among all the big people. This was five-year-old Shawn Robinson, the youngest skater in the event, who had managed 52 laps, and brought in the astonishing total of $121. He had no big sponsors either, he had just kept patiently walking about the whole village and getting a penny or two from everybody.

The coaches presented crests to all their players, Ralph Pomeroy the Beginners, Stewart Arkinstall the Atoms, Richard Massia the Peewees, Dave Munro, the Bantams, and Richard Scott, the Midgets. And the boys presented their coaches with tokens of their appreciation also.

Coach Arkinstall had some special recommendations for members of his team—Wayne MacCuaig the best scorer, Billy MacLean the most valuable player, Scotty McDonell, captain and most gentlemanly player, Arden and Christopher Clemens the goalers, and Eric Metcalfe and Billy MacLean for scoring in the fathers' game. Richard Massia gave special mention to Willy Kippen, top scorer with 54 points, Ronnie Besner for defense, Gerry Leduc for the greatest improvement, Robert Andrew for dedicated player, and Ricky Villeneuve for most valuable.

Chairman Vallance wound up the evening with a further reference to the question of a skating rink in Maxville. The population of the village has, as is well-known, a preponderance of elderly ratepayers. The cost of a new arena will be forthcoming in the engineer's report which is expected soon. Repairs to the old one are out of the question. The cost of a new one will be very high, far beyond the means of the village alone. Nor does the council see such a project as a strictly local matter. Boys from Roxborough and Kenyon have always used the facilities of the local rink, and an arena to replace the old one will only be possible with very widespread and substantial support from all the surrounding communities.

A very great community effort built the Maxville Manor for the elderly residents of this area. The same kind of spirit could build the arena for the young people.

Char-Lan Crusaders

by Debbie Johnston

The Students' Council and students of Char-Lan have completed their voting and polled that Sue Proulx and Darcy Gordon, both Grade 11 students, take their positions of Head Girl and Head Boy for the next year's school semesters. Diane Binette, a grade 12 student, will be Treasurer; Margaret MacDonald, a grade 10 student, will be Secretary.

On the 14th, Char-Lan participated in the track and field meet in Cornwall at General Vanier High School. The following students place in 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and will participate in the EOSSA track and field meet in Kingston on May 21st. Girls' Midget: Cynthia Gordon, 2nd place, 800 metres; Barbara McCuaig, 2nd place, high jump. Girls' Junior: Sue Proulx, 3rd place, high jump. Boys' Midget: Paul Shoniker, 1st place, high jump; James Lalonde, 4th place, long jump. Boys' Junior: Darcy Gordon, 3rd, 800 metres; Marc Major, 3rd place, shot put; Bill Glover, 3rd place, pole vault; Bruce Dubeau, 4th place, pole vault. Boys' Senior: Glen Shoniker, 1st place, high jump.

May 21st, Char-Lan springs into action with their Spring Prom, and this year the Decorating Committee have really let the colors and beauties of spring come to life. The music will be provided by a group called "The Sounds of Time".

The music program at Char-Lan High School will be presenting a tour of the familiar musical events in Glengarry, in the form of a concert, called "The Sounds of Music". It will take place in the gymnasium of Char-Lan DHS on the evenings of May 25th and 26th. They will commence at 8 p.m. and will be featuring Char-Lan's Junior, Senior and Dance Bands, as well as the Choir, with pipers and dancers. There are other attractions, which will remain a secret until the nights of the performances, that will surely bring a smile and a chuckle from each and everyone of you. The performance will not be the same on both nights.

Bottle drive for junior band

The GDHS Junior Band will be holding a bottle drive on Monday, May 24th, for their musical instrument fund.

Anyone in the Alexandria, Glen Robertson, Green Valley, Lancaster and surrounding areas, who has bottles to give away is reminded that some of the members of the band will be at your houses to pick them up sometime that day.

Lancaster News

"The Cairn Village"

Mrs. Alex Lalonde—347-3483

Miss Jozette Wygergangs, Second Concession, has been hired by the Ottawa Board of Education and is teaching French Immersion classes. Her sister, Clasina, will also be working in Ottawa for the summer. She will be with the bilingual exchange program.

Mother's Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Leblanc and Colette were Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Laframboise of Glen Walter; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Leblanc and family of Martintown; Mr. and Mrs. Gaetan Dubeau and family of Moose Creek who also visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Dubeau, Second Concession.

George Alenik of Toronto is spending a few days with his mother Mrs. Maria Alenik and family and grandmother Mrs. N. Kurda.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nolan have returned home to Carleton Place after spending a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Osborne and family, Second Concession.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gauthier of Montreal and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dubeau, St. Luc, attended the Poulin-Dubeau wedding last Saturday.

Boy Scouts bicycle rodeo

The first Lancaster Cubs and Boy Scouts are extremely grateful to Constable Hughie MacClements of the OPP for his co-operation and assistance at their bicycle rodeo held last Sunday.

All participants had their bicycles safety checked and all passed inspection. The winners of the six-to-eight-year-age group were: first, David Cusimano and second, Scott Roy. In the nine years and over group, Ronnie Dufresne was first, Dale Dufresne was second and Joe Raymond Deroche placed third.

Three merits were awarded to Burton Girling, Robin Smith and Daniel Rose.

Knox UCW met

The May meeting of Knox UCW was held at the home of Mrs. D. A. Fraser. The devotional portion was led by Mrs. Mabel MacIntosh who spoke on a stanza of the Mary Stewart Collect. Fourteen members answered the roll call with a Bible verse containing the word "star." The word for June will be "father."

The minutes were read by Mrs. Amy Cullen and the financial report by Mrs. Kenneth MacLeod. It was decided to give a donation to Camp Kagama.

Mrs. Fraser extended thanks to those who helped decorate the church at Easter. Some suggestions were given regarding the anniversary supper which will be held August 14th. This event will be discussed further at the June meeting.

An item pertaining to Christian Stewardship was given by Mrs. Cecil Shennett. A report of the sick committee was given by Mrs. Albert Seguin who also read an item pertaining to Mother's Day.

During refreshments served by the hostess, best wishes were extended to Mrs. MacIntosh. A gift and a special cake were presented to Mrs. MacIntosh from her friends of Knox UCW in honor of her approaching marriage. She expressed thanks to all for their thoughtfulness. A social period was enjoyed.

WI hears talk on welfare

With Mrs. Fred Ager presiding, nineteen members and a visitor answered the roll call "How to lick chores you dislike" at the May meeting of the Bainsville WI. The majority of the members agreed that if a chore one disliked was accomplished first, it solved many problems.

Mrs. J. R. Petrie commented on the motto "Measure your health by your sympathy with morning and spring."

The minutes were read by the sec.-treas., Mrs. Archie Robertson. A newsletter from FWIO was read stating the date—Oct. 28-29th of Eastern Ont. Area Convention at the Talisman Motor Inn, Ottawa. Each branch is requested to donate three articles for the bazaar table. The president announced the fact that as many members as possible should attend the Glengarry District Annual in Alexandria May 18th.

Needlepoint summary day, May 11th, at 1 p.m. in Green Valley Pavilion; 4-H Achievement Day in Glengarry District High School, Sat., May 15th. A trip this summer was discussed. It was agreed to hold a bake sale in Lancaster, Sat., July 10th, under convenership of Mrs. Harold Fourney, Mrs. John Cuisamano, Mrs. C. T. Upton. Mrs. Ager commented on the meeting she attended concerning the future suggested project "Meals on Wheels". Bainsville WI is gleaning information and discussing this project for 1976.

"Cutbacks in Health" was discussed and the president was asked to compile information to be presented at the District Annual.

Mrs. Ager introduced Malcolm Hart, Cornwall, of United Counties Social Services who presented the facts about welfare—where it should be donated to do the most good, as, he stated, every individual has to be dealt with in a different way. Many unwed mothers are given pensions to enable them to continue their education. Children left homeless or where one parent is deceased and the other parent is struggling to educate a family. "Of course," Mr. Hart states, "we do run up against a problem occasionally and have problems solving them." This organization provides VON service where necessary and Family Counselling . . . it takes from 3—6 months after an application has been received before any payments are donated but in cases of severe poverty families are aided. Mr. Hart answered questions and a very interesting discussion was held in the short afternoon. In summing up Mr. Hart said "Ours is an interesting organization. Human life is displayed in so many ways. Some persons are very appreciative and others . . . Mrs. Ager thanked the guest speaker and invited him for tea.

Mrs. Ager moved a vote of thanks to the hostess, Mrs. Mac Robertson and lunch conveners, Mrs. Archie Robertson and Mrs. Donald Ross served tea.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, June 2nd, in the form of a picnic at a member's home. The delegate to the Officer's Conference at Waterloo, May 4-6th, Mrs. Eric Urquhart, is requested to give her report and a tour of Chalet Glass, Cornwall is scheduled.

G. Poirier died at 74

A resident of Glen Robertson, George Poirier died on Thursday, May 6th at Glengarry Memorial Hospital. He was 74.

Born in St. Philippe d'Argenteuil, he was the son of the late Pacifique Poirier and his wife the former, Philomene Poirier. He had farmed in Glen Robertson area until his retirement ten years ago when he moved into the village.

He is survived by his wife, the former Bertha Cadieux and three brothers: Emmanuel of Alexandria, Dieudonne of Vankleek Hill and Joseph of Glen Robertson.

The funeral was held on Saturday, May 8th to St. Martin of Tours Church in Glen Robertson where Rev. Denis Vaillancourt offered the funeral mass. Burial was in Glen Robertson Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Rolland and Claude Poirier; Real and Samuel Cadieux, Arcade Seguin and Noel Theoret.

Plan for entertainment

"Magic Tom" Auburn, widely known TV personality, will headline a variety show in the auditorium of Glengarry District High School, June 12th. The show is sponsored by the ladies of Dalhousie Mills United Church and is being organized by Audrey (Johnson) MacDonald in aid of the Building Fund of the church.

It will be a return engagement for Magic Tom who filled a similar engagement a few years ago and he is donating his services. There will be local talent, too, and Mrs. MacDonald will bring along some of her marionettes. A plant sale, home-baking sale and fish pond will be other features.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Rev. Allan McRae, Angus, Ont., is the guest of Mrs. Margaret Dupuis at St. Raphael's while visiting area relatives.

Mrs. Florence MacDonald, Kenyon St., entertained Rev. Forbes and Mrs. Forbes and Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacDonald on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Gertrude Lea and sons Robert and Peter of Montreal visited the Misses Georgina and Angeline Sabourin on Monday.

Miss April Anne MacDonell has returned to her home, Fifth Lancaster, after spending the past year in England.

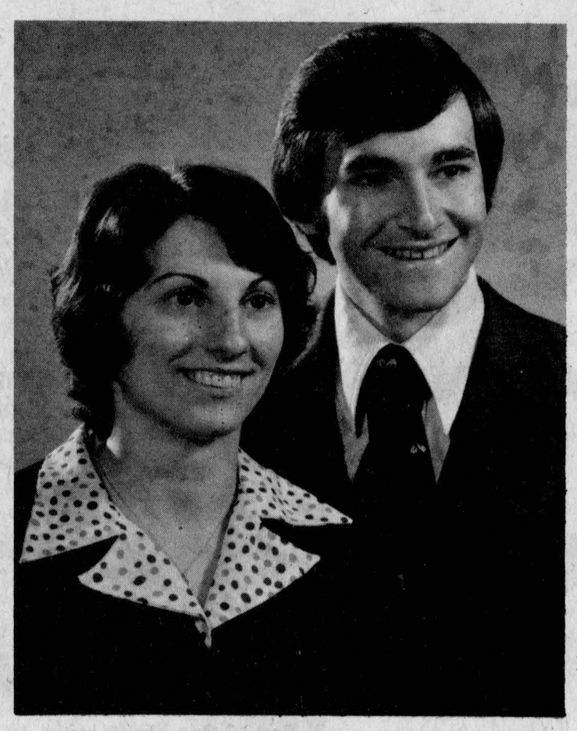
Miss Carol Ann Seguin of Vancouver spent three weeks in the area visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Seguin, Alexandria, her sister Yvette and husband Sheldon McLeod in Winchester. She also visited relatives in Cornwall, Vankleek Hill and Hawkesbury, and accompanied by her mother and sister Yvette, motored to Newmarket to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Seguin and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Alphee Campeau and Mrs. Marie Campeau, Lasalle, attended the wedding in Cornwall on May 8th of their nephew and grandson, Ronald Campeau, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Campeau. Ronald's marriage to Miss Frances Elizabeth Abernathy, RN, daughter of Mrs. George Abernathy, took place in Blessed Sacrament Church.

Mrs. Harry Watts, Verdun, and her sister Miss W. Harkin, accompanied a group who spent the past week in Washington, Philadelphia and New York City. One of the highlights was a tour of the Whitehouse and Arlington Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hill have rerturned to their home in Williamstown after spending the winter months in Fort Pierce, Florida.

Mrs. Harold Lapierre spent the past few days with Mr. and Mrs. Angus H. McDonell.



KING—BEARDSLEY

The engagement is announced of Dianne Yvonne King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander King of RR 2, Williamstown, to Glenn Beardsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Beardsley of Verdun, Quebec. The marriage will take place on Saturday, June 12th, 1976, in St. Raphael's Church.

Guide and Brownie notes

In a few weeks the Guides and Brownies will be ending their weekly meetings and thinking about camping and holidays, reminds Mary Lambert, District Commissioner.

It has been a busy year and very satisfying in many ways. The leaders have worked extremely hard to make the meetings pleasant and meaningful for the girls and we should all be grateful to them for the time and effort they have put into their jobs.

Unfortunately, we will be losing some of them next year for various reasons—new babies—moving away, etc.—and we will need replacements. We feel it would be to the advantage of new volunteers to visit their local packs and companies now and see what goes on. That way they will be more prepared to take over in the fall. Training and individual help is always available—you will not be left on your own!

Our District "Highland" covers Alexandria, Lancaster, Green Valley/St. Raphael's, Maxville, Williamstown and St. Andrew's. If you do not know where or when the meetings are held, please call the District Commissioner, Mrs. C. T. Lambert at 525-3628 who will be only too pleased to help.

There is a "Brownie Revel" for all the Brownies of the District at Iona Academy, St. Raphael's on Saturday, June 19th from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Green Valley/St. Raphael's Brownies held their Mother and Daughter Banquet on Friday, May 14th in Green Valley Pavilion.

The Commissioner Mrs. C. T. Lambert (Mary) attended a weekend training course which was held at Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology recently.

F. MacLeod died

A Glen Nevis native, Frederick Corran MacLeod, died following a short illness on April 16th at his residence in Pointe Claire. Of a quiet nature, his ready smile and wit endeared him to all who knew him.

Born at Glen Nevis, he was the son of the late John Roderick (John Duncan) MacLeod and his wife Margaret Ann MacLennan.

Following his education at the local schools, like so many other Glengarrians he followed the mining industry. He worked at Cobalt and Sudbury before going to Tsumeb, South West Africa, where he worked until he became Superintendent of all works. Following his retirement after 22 years in South Africa, he returned to Canada and took up residence in Pointe Claire. He spent much of his free time at the family farm in Glen Nevis. He was an avid sportsman, and in his early years an enthusiastic hockey player. While living in Sudbury he was a very active member of the reserve army.

He is survived by his wife, the former Gertrude Murray of Sudbury; one daughter, Wanda, Mrs. John Casey, Pointe Claire and two sons: Gary of Port Elizabeth, South Africa and Murray of Pointe Claire. There are five grandchildren, Kevin and Steven Casey, Pointe Claire, and Gavin, Catherine and Fiona MacLeod of Port Elizabeth. Two sisters, Ruth and Evelyn of Montreal also survive.

Following cremation, the funeral service was held at the Round Church, Dalhousie Mills, with Rev. F. Tees conducting the service. Bernard Besner carried the urn.

The honorary pallbearers were Chris MacRae, Roy MacLeod, Harry MacDougal, Alphonse Besner, Donald MacGregor, Clarence Morrison, Walter McCuaig and Dan McKay.

Auxiliary to meet

The Glengarry Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will meet in the hospital cafeteria Wednesday, May 26th, at 8:15 p.m.

'From the old rail fence'

by Anna Margaret

Alas, my favorite hug-and-kissing game ended with a flourish on Sunday with the Memorial Cup and Stanley Cup both won on the same day. Only the WHA left to wind up and we don't see too much of this on TV.

I suppose it's a good thing we don't all see things from the same point of view. So many people today repeat the words hockey and violence almost in the same breath.

Personally, I get a real kick out of all the lovey-dovey acts. Where else can one see big hulky he-men hug and kiss and pat and love-tap so publicly without getting labelled names not usually associated with he-men.

It has become legion that nary a goal shall pass without the follow-up love cluster. Their staid old grandfathers must be scowling in their graves! Take heart, British royalty, even your day may come!

* * * *

'Ere the subject of hockey pass into oblivion for a few weeks, Sister Kathryn Cameron who attended the Eastern Ontario Arthritis Convention in Trenton came back with a hockey story told by the Convention Chairman, well-known Syl Apps.

He was emphasizing the use of team-work in organizations and used as an example the winning of the Stanley Cup in four straight games by the Toronto Maple Leafs in 1948, when he was a member of the team . . . "When time came round to pick the all-star team not one of our players was selected," the veteran reported. "We had won the major trophy on team-work alone!"—Good advice for would-be super-stars.

* * * *

The cheques keep rolling in! Organizations, one after the other, have kept us in pictures almost endlessly since the drive for the new arena started last Fall.

Oddly enough, there has not yet been a walk-a-thon in support of the great project. May is the favorite time of the year for walk-a-thons and I was rather surprised that none of the organizations got one going this year. Not only surprised, but disappointed.

When it comes to putting a project over the top, community involvement is the name of the game. And special government departments are promoting participation. What better way could there be than this?

Benefit games used to be popular for raising money. Somebody would get a hockey game set up, or maybe a broomball game—about 30 players got in on the action and everyone else was invited to watch for a fee. These games sometimes still go on, the participants usually donate their talents, and are a good way for a group to raise money.

But today everyone would prefer to get in on the action and whoever thought up walk-a-thon was smart. Most people can walk. Some people can play hockey, tennis, broomball, basketball, swim, skate, cycle, dance or jig but more people can walk than anything else. So why not have a "thon" where the most people can do their thing and those who can't do their own thing too—bend their elbows, reach into the hip pocket and pull out the greenbacks for the money-pot.

This involves a lot more people—the remainder of the community in fact, who can't or prefer not to, walk.

It's a real community day—from kids to grandparents. Some of the kids make about double the mileage required—in and out of ditches, round and round the wayside bushes, back and forth to see who is coming. There are some of the older generation who have kept in first rate physical condition and it is a great challenge for them to step out and show the young overweight blubberbellies how it's done. The competition lies in the mileage covered, knowing at the same time someone is going to pay up and the fun comes in watching the gambler victim pay off.

There are few hazards involved—maybe skinned heels, blistered feet, aching muscles and exhausted physiques. But with roadside hospitality, watering-troughs and pick-up patrols, the jaunt has its merits. It's less of a risk than missing teeth, broken bones and the bruised anatomies that come out of the more violent sports.

So where's our local walk-a-thon this year, or has it not yet been announced? What other sport nets up in the thousands for a day's activity?

IT'S OUR OPINION

It may be now or never

Long needed improvements to Alexandria's sewage lagoons were to have been completed this summer but plans are now stalled by the Ontario government's austerity program. Tenders were to have been called this spring but the ministry of the environment has advised that the project is being shelved at this time because of the restrictions on Queen's Park spending.

Town council decided at last week's meeting to request reconsideration of that decision and it is to be hoped the funding will be found. Otherwise the Garry River will have to continue to carry our town's sewage each time dye is dumped at the textile plant. The present lagoon system is not adequate to absorb the level of dye now being discharged into our sewer system and so the Garry must suffer.

This pollution problem should long ago have been cleared up but the added delay could result in another lengthy hold up. It took seven years of sometimes acrimonious argument before an agreement for sharing costs was finally reached last fall. Those costs had multiplied through years of inflation until a relatively small contract was reaching toward the half-million mark. It may be even more difficult to reach an agreement on cost-sharing if further delay jacks up the bill still further.

For that reason it is to be hoped the Davies' government will find a place for our lagoon improvements on its priorities list. Surely such projects are more deserving of Wintario funds than some of the recreation facilities now getting the green light.

Lost elms need replacing

All of ten years ago we were editorializing on the need for replacement of the stately trees we were even then losing to the Dutch Elm disease. Glengarry's elms had already been hard hit by the terminal disease and we were suggesting that property owners might make it their individual centennial projects to cut and burn their once healthy trees and replace them.

Tree-planting programs at the municipal level were also suggested.

A lot more of our elms have succumbed in the interval until few if any healthy elms are left to grace the skyline. There have been some winter works programs aimed at removing dead elms but few complementary projects have been instituted to restore trees to the depleted countryside.

One heartening exception is the Township of Charlottenburgh where Reeve Adrian Gadbois has in recent years been spearheading a tree planting program each spring. Township council secures the trees from government nurseries and arranges their distribution to residents of the municipality.

Charlottenburgh will be the better for such a program and it is one other area municipalities might emulate.

Out of touch

Of all the political mistakes made by the Conservative government of Ontario we consider the closing of hospitals and the cutting back of health services all over the province to be the worst, writes the editor of the Renfrew Mercury.

With little regard for what the people in Ontario communities want for themselves, this government clamps down on the operations of an institution that is usually considered the most important place in town. The hospital is not the property of the government of Ontario but it is treated as such. The fact that the community has a big stake in the construction and the operation of the hospital doesn't seem to count with Premier Davis' planners at Queen's Park. The directives come out from Toronto with statistical coldness. The community isn't even asked whether it wants less nurses and fewer beds.

He who pays the piper calls the tune.

This same government cut taxes on cars a few months ago. The argument was to save jobs. This same government rakes in $500,000,000 a year from taxes on alcohol and tobacco but wants to take $50,000,000 off the cost of health.

This whole business of cutting back on health costs makes us think back to the 60's when medicare was the politician's dream. There was opposition and warning from the medical profession. There was the sad example of national health in the United Kingdom. But the federal Liberals brought every province into medicare. The warnings came true and now the federal government is backing off. It is going to limit its health contributions. Ontario follows by cutting service. There surely is a moral here, the same old tale of politicians promising and bureaucrats taking control.

Had the Ontario government undertaken its ham-handed cuts in health costs after it had cut every other expenditure, most of us would be prepared to go along.

But it didn't and many of us have been upset by the restraints put on local hospitals. There is reason to think that this government is truly out of touch with people.

International idiocy

This column has mentioned on previous occasions what appears to be an act of irresponsible recklessness on the part of the federal government, notes an editorial in the Wingham Advance-Times. Plans are still going forward to sell a nuclear reactor to Argentina, despite the fact that a similar piece of equipment sold to India some years ago has already been used to make a nuclear bomb.

Is Canada so desperately hard-up for cash that all the laws of common sense can be disregarded? Have we any right to place the potential for nuclear disaster in the hands of governments which may at some future time trigger a nuclear war and the eventual destruction of life on this planet?

The government officials who are negotiating the sales of these reactors speak of "adequate guarantees" provided by their customers—promises that the by-products of these power plants will never be used for other than peaceful purposes. Of what value is the guarantee of a government which has just seized power in its own country by force of arms and which may be deposed in six months' time by another and stronger and more ruthless junta?

Canada has already forgiven India for fooling around with nuclear bombs and is going to get back into the atom business with that country—a nation which has recently thrown out all democratic processes in favor of one-party rule. Another prospective customer for our nuclear hardware is South Korea, where a virtual dictatorship has been established with the aid of American arms.

Our government may have other and unknown reasons for deciding to sell these potentially destructive power plants abroad, but if so, the Canadian people have every right to know what those reasons are.

Another look

(The Prescott Journal)

Headlines in dailies and weeklies across the province this past month have reminded us of the rising costs of education in Ontario, and have emphasized the added burden property owners have had to assume on their municipal tax bills to provide educational facilities. In Leeds and Grenville the story is the same. Municipal councils have cut expenditures and delayed projects in order to hold the tax line, and then taxpayers are hit by anywhere from 10 to 20 extra mills on their tax bill by the school board levy.

We have all been so busy complaining about the school tax increase that few of us have stopped long enough to try to figure out why school costs keep going up and up and up. We know there is no fat in the Leeds and Grenville school board budget and that in some cases costs have been cut so drastically that the quality of education in certain areas will be affected. The answer, the provincial government has put a lid on its spending from its own tax sources and has made the municipal property owner responsible for a larger share of educational costs through his property taxes.

In other words, Queen's Park thinks it can no longer afford the expensive system it has established, and has pulled out of the game, leaving the property owner holding the bag.

Instead of our municipal councils in Leeds and Grenville offering their criticisms and complaints of the cost of operating our schools, they should be organizing, in co-operation with the school trustees, major opposition to the Ontario government's abrogation of its responsibilities. Divided as we are at present, our protests are meaningless, but the united municipal onslaught on Queen's Park will get educational spending priorities back into perspective. One area that should be tapped exclusively for education is Wintario profits. Right now this lottery windfall is being spent to satisfy our wants and not our needs.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

WRITING HISTORY OF GLENGARRY

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

Two pieces of information that have crossed my desk recently, prompt this letter.

One was the recent review by Mrs. MacKinnon of Marion MacRae's Hallowed Walls, a well-deserved tribute to an interesting and informative piece of writing, with much local interest, both because of the content of the book and because Miss MacRae is a native of Glengarry.

The second one is of no less interest locally. It too is a review of a 'learned work,' Restoration Historians and the English Civil War, whose author is Professor Royce MacGillivray, a native of Skye, (not the one in Scotland) who got his high school education in Alexandria and earned more than his fair share of scholarships as he passed through.

Professor George Drake, writing in the University of Chicago's Church History, an excerpt from which is enclosed with this letter, attests to Doctor Royce MacGillivray's scholarship and ability as an author.

What Professor Drake didn't say and likely didn't know is that Royce MacGillivray is currently working very hard on another book, a history of Glengarry and its people.

During his years at Waterloo University, Doctor MacGillivray, professor of history and author of international stature has maintained his interest in the people from whom he is sprung and who lived around him the days of his youth. He has amassed extensive files on our county which are still open.

It is a coincidence that I should

RAMBLING REPORTER

Peter Puck is at last on holidays. What a pleasant prospect!

DEATH DETERS

Capital punishment is not a deterrent, they argue, those politicians and permissive people in law enforcement who would do away with the death penalty. Never before have we seen that illogical argument so effectively shot down as in a letter to the editor of another journal.

"Death deters" is the pointed refutation of that argument that heads this brief letter:

Sirs: I am fed to the teeth with the utterly illogical—nay, stupid—statement that capital punishment is not a deterrent.

When my little girl broke a rule, I punished her in order to deter her from committing the transgression again. I did not punish her to deter her sister and her brother from committing the offence. If it happened that they were deterred, then that was a lucky side effect. The transgressor was punished to prevent any further offences of a like nature.

Now consider the murderer. He is punished in order to deter him from committing further such offences and if you can think of any more effective, practical or surer deterrent than his execution, I would like to know what it is.

The writer of that letter was not arguing for or against capital punishment but he certainly proves his point that capital punishment is a deterrent.

In other words—once you're interred you're definitely deterred.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

In the line of incidental intelligence this week we bring you an excerpt from the column of W. P. Telfer in the Humboldt Journal. Walt has come up with some terms for "schools" of animals and birds you may not have been aware of. He writes:

We had always thought that groups of animals were mostly "herds", groups of birds were "flocks" or "flights", and groups of fish were "schools", but we find that, if you want to be perfectly correct, you must know what kind of a bird or animal you are talking about.

You know, of course, that a male adult pig is a boar and the female is a sow. But did you know that the same terms apply to badgers. And a group of badgers is a "cete". The young boar is called a "squeaker" and a group of them is known as a "sounder".

If you want to show how knowledgeable you are, you can refer to ducks as a "team" if they are in flight and a "paddling" if they are on the water.

We had always associated the word "Convocation" with the event at which university degrees are awarded. But it can also mean a group of eagles.

A male ferret is properly termed a "dog", the female is a "bitch" and a group of them is a "business".

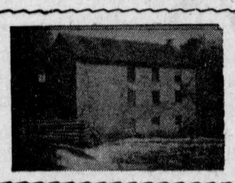
Whoever selected or decided on these names must have had a reason, but it's rather hard to understand why a group of ravens should be called an "unkindness", a "crash" is a group of rhinoceroses, a "dray" is a group of squirrels, and a bunch of turtles is a "bale".

We were taught in school that a female fox was a "vixen" but never knew that the male was, simply a "vix", and a bunch of them—of either sex or both—is called an "earth" or a "skulk".

Some of the really strange terms are those that describe varieties of birds in numbers. For instance: finches are "Charms", herons in numbers are a "seige", pheasants are a "nye" if they are young while the older birds are a "brood", the opposite of what we would have thought.

Some of the terms are very simple, like a "colony" of gulls and a "flight" of hawks. Others are very descriptive and apt, like a "charm" of hummingbirds, an "exaltation" of larks, a "watch" of nightingales, and a "chattering" of starlings.

But we've saved the best one for the last. Are you ready?—A group of crows is known as—get this—"murder"!!



Martintown Rumor Mill

Art Buckland—528-4261

Debbie Johnston, daughter of Billie River Road Johnston, sends along the following information:

The music program at Char-Lan High School, will be presenting a tour of the familiar musical events in Glengarry, in the form of a concert, called "The Sounds of Music". It will take place in the gymnasium of Char-Lan D.H.S. on the evenings of May 25 and 26. The program will commence at 8:00 p.m. and will be featuring Char-Lan's Junior, Senior, and Dance Bands, as well as the Choir, with bagpipers and dancers. There are other attractions, which will remain a secret until the nights of the performances, that will surely bring a smile and a chuckle from each of you. The performances will not be the same on both nights. The admission is 75c.

Sounds like a great evening.

Art and Gweneth Benton have arrived in Martintown from Ottawa's upper class suburbs, to run the corner store bought from the Dicaires. Art has some items for farm use which he wants to move; perhaps you can make a deal.

Art is quite a ball pitcher I hear, and when the news was out that he was moving down to Glengarry, three teams were bidding for him. He will be playing for Martintown this year.

The Clansmen have their record for sale. "Shenandoah" is my favorite selection.

Brigadoons played at Duncan's Atlantic last weekend to a full house. Their next engagement is a trip to Quebec City as part of the hoopla in the big Lions convention.

Glengarry Concert plans for October 29th, (maybe you should mark this date on your calendar) are moving ahead. Brigadoons, MacCulloch dancers, Glengarry pipe band will be featured in the Opera House at the Ottawa National Arts Centre. At a recent meeting in Ottawa at Gordon MacRae's magnificent new home, a name was selected for this great concert. Keep your eye on "Glengarry '76" for the best in Scottish entertainment; that's our title. Everyone connected with the event is excited about it.

Sam Cain recently visited the heart of American country music down south. I haven't talked to him yet but I saw him yesterday, wearing a Stetson, strumming a fiddle, yodelling in a culvert and putting the horse whip to his backhoe. What an influence music can have, even on young sober intelligent men.

The Cornwall Hotel Dieu has announced the end of personal hospital service for children. Cornwall childbirth and children's wards will be closed (I've forgotten the medical terminology for it.) Apparently nurses at both hospitals in these departments will be let go. Any nurse may then apply for the remaining positions. "You're fired, but you may re-apply for your job."

I wonder what the criteria for employment will be? Wish I could serve on that hiring committee. Is there any point to nurses over 40 applying? How much is experience worth? Will bilingualism count? There are so many questions to be asked and answered. Why, indeed was the Hotel Dieu chosen for the obstetrics department?—Is the General really closing? I'm sick just thinking about the heartache this is causing.

A farmer friend is asking for 100 lbs. of quota for Father's Day. The milk issue is another thing which has soured people on autocratic and bureaucratic government control. Entrepreneurs who have gone in and out of milking depending on quota prices have done well. One solution I see is for farmers to buy out dairies, and Kraft. We need more hay power.

Garlic season is over—you can tell by the wrinkled noses returning to normal.

Mrs. Clark (Glen Falloch) is canvassing the area for the Cancer fund.

Last Saturday a successful hockey banquet was held at Charlottenburgh arena. Barbecued meat, the recognition of achievement by players, coaches, officials and executive, pipe music and MPP Villeneuve were all part of the event. The Cornwall Optimist pipe band led by pipe majors Lawrence Smith and Robert (Cornet Camera) Kitts piped in and piped out our favorite hockey players, as well as entertaining in between.

Osie Villeneuve pointed out that nothing is impossible in a small community—"Where there is unity, there is success."

Martintown Mac says to respect your own culture and respect another man's culture; in Canada we have unity through diversity.

Letters . . .

be prompted to write this letter at this time as Royce is presently holidaying in Alexandria, the guest of his mother, Mrs. Rory MacGillivray, Apt. 11, 40 Kincardine St. Also I know it is a 'busman's holiday' as he will spend more time on Glengarry research than he will on visiting and sleeping combined, because Royce with his local farm background and training learned how to work. His academic training in some of the best Universities in the English speaking world has taught him how to make good use of his material as well as his exceptional talents.

Royce is another person of whom Glengarry may well be proud. His best years are still ahead of him; he is still only forty and you lassies frae the Glens take note, he is a very eligible bachelor, good material to work on. Who knows, he might be another George Munro Grant if moulded by the right hands, an educator to remember.

Sincerely,
Glen Scott

SOCCER SET-UP

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

In reply to a column that appeared in the May 6th issue of your News, regarding soccer, may we, the executive of the Glengarry Soccer Organization, publish Part 4 of Constitution 1975, which states:

Officers: The officers of the organization shall be a Board of Directors consisting of one representative from each of the following areas, providing the area has a team playing in the GSO. Dunvegan, Lochiel Glen Sandfield, Greenfield, Laggan, Maxville, Alexandria.

The area representative is to be appointed by the local Recreation Association, if one exists, or at a public meeting called within the area.

Teams entered from areas other than those listed above will be eligible for representation on the Board in the year following their second consecutive year of play in the league. For purposes of this constitution, a team consisting of players from several of the above listed areas will not be considered eligible for representation on the Board.

The Board of Directors will appoint an executive (from within or without) which will consist of a chairman, vice-chairman and secretary-treasurer."

Secretary-Treasurer.

TARTANS TO CONTINUE

Cornwall, Ont.

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

The Tartans orchestra will continue with its bookings as usual. The band has suffered a great loss with the sudden passing of their singer Bill Vipond.

Glen Cameron, accordionist, is very versatile, playing the Scottish, Irish and popular music. He is the proud owner of a new accordion. Ronnie Bissonnette, drummer, sings all the popular songs and a few Scottish and Irish. Ellen Cameron, the electronic organ player, provides music that blends well with the accordion and drums.

The band will adopt a motto from the famous song of Sir Harry Lauder, "Keep right on to the end of the road".

Mrs. Hubert Cameron.

Mrs. Norman M. MacLeod
Tel: 527-5468

Mrs. J. W. Fraser, P.R.O. for the Dunvegan WI, attended the Federated Women's Institute of Ontario at the 28th annual Officer's Conference which was held at Waterloo. The convention was held on May 4th, 5th, 6th, and she reports a very good turnout from all.

Don't forget the Ham Supper which will be held in the Dunvegan WI Hall on Saturday, May 22nd, from 5 to 8 p.m., sponsored by the Kenyon WA.

RURAL LIFE SUNDAY

On Sunday, May 16th, Kenyon Presbyterian Church held a service called Rural Life Sunday. The Dunvegan Christian Youth Fellowship took charge of this service with the Rev. D. R. Chatreau and organist Mrs. A. R. Campbell. Ewen Hartrick had charge of the program papers.

Call of Worship and the Invocation by Joyce MacLeod; responsive reading based on Proverbs 30, 24-28 and James 3, 3-4 by Lois Nixon; reading "In Praise of Small Things" by Terry MacLaughlin; responsive reading "The Litany of Appreciation" by Lorna Campbell who also led the congregation in the Lord's Prayer.

D. R. Chatreau took the Sunday School children to the front of the church and told them their children's story. Reading "Our Saviour was Country Bred" was by Susan MacLaughlin. Scripture lesson, St. Luke 19-12-16 led by Gordon Campbell; general prayer for rural life Sunday by Janice Hartrick; the hymn "A Farm Hymn".

The sermon by Rev. D. R. Chatreau; gathering and dedication of the offering Susan Duval, Glen Nixon, Norma MacLeod, Douglas Clark; The Acts of Dedication, using as symbols, the soil, the seed, the tools, the hay, by Norman Clark and prayers by Rev. D. R. Chatreau.

The hymn "The earth is Thine, O Lord" was followed by the benediction.

Kenyon Presbyterian Church was decorated by the Young People containing, hay, milk can, milk pails, tools used in the olden days, seeds, corn, grain and soil. Our Youth Group gathered this and selected the material they had liked best for this service. Rural Life Sunday.

At the annual meeting of Dunvegan WI 17 members answered the roll call.

To stage night

The Glengarry Old-Time Fiddlers have a school for young fiddlers that holds a session every Wednesday night in the Highland Games' room at the fairgrounds in Maxville. The school was started last fall and in return for use of the Games' facilities the Glengarry Fiddlers group helps out at the pre-Games concert.

The school is staging a night for the Fair Board on Saturday, May 22nd, a fiddlers' party featuring Ron Clare of the Glengarrians' Tap 'N Chanter show. Young violinists and accordionists will entertain and the talent will include tap dancers, violin music and piping.

Mr. Clare now teaches the violin class at the night school in Vankleek Hill Collegiate.

Inquest set for Wednesday

An inquest was held Wednesday night into the death of John Sallery, 33 of Cornwall, who lost his life in a fire in his room at the Glen Robertson Nursing Home, the night of Feb. 3rd.

Dr. D. F. Conway of Lancaster, presided in his capacity as coroner.

The quiet usually apparent at this time of year was rudely broken on Saturday last when word was received here that the body of a woman had been found floating in Delisle River just at the head of Ridley's Rapids by Edward Paterson and Arthur Daprato who were going fishing. John D. McMillan, a farmer, was brought to the scene. Local authorities coupled the finding of the body with the robbery about the first of the year of the vault at Rigaud, Que., when three corpses were removed and the fiends traced as far as Glen Robertson. Their conclusions were verified when the body was identified as that of Madame Rozon of Rigaud. The river is being dragged in the hope the other two bodies will be found there.—Joseph Lalonde has had placed in his barber shop a very neat shoe shining chair. —George A. Campbell of the Union Bank, has been appointed to the managership of the Roblin, Man., branch.

June 1 is Census Day and everyone counts.

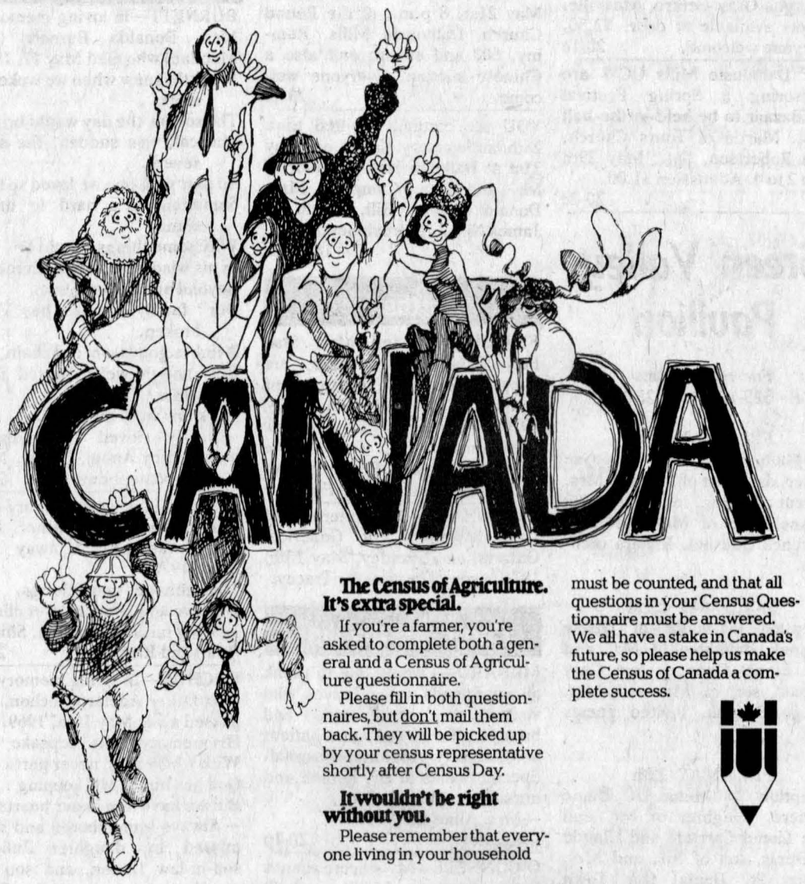
The Census of Canada will be taken on Tuesday, June 1, and Canada is counting on you to count yourself in. The questions are easy to answer, and it doesn't take long to fill in the questionnaire.

Why we take the Census.
The facts only you can provide on Census Day are needed to update a statistical picture of your community, and your country. Census information will be used in the coming years for the planning of social services for all Canadian communities.

How we take the Census.
Within the next few days, a census representative will deliver a Census Questionnaire to your home. You can choose to have yours in either English or French.

All you have to do is use a pencil to answer all the questions. If a pre-paid envelope was included in your census package, mail back the completed questionnaire. If you don't get an envelope, simply keep the completed questionnaire, and a census representative will pick it up after Census Day.

Our lips are sealed.
Only Statistics Canada personnel who are sworn to secrecy see your completed questionnaire, and they are subject to severe legal penalties if they disclose your answers to anyone else.



The Census of Agriculture. It's extra special.
If you're a farmer, you're asked to complete both a general and a Census of Agriculture questionnaire.

Please fill in both questionnaires, but don't mail them back. They will be picked up by your census representative shortly after Census Day.

It wouldn't be right without you.
Please remember that everyone living in your household must be counted, and that all questions in your Census Questionnaire must be answered. We all have a stake in Canada's future, so please help us make the Census of Canada a complete success.

In Memoriam

BURNETT—In loving memory of Mrs. Donalda Burnett (Alda MacRae) who died May 17, 1975.
We little knew when we woke that morn
The sorrow the day would bring
The call was sudden, the shock severe
To part with one we loved so dear
Sometimes it's hard to understand
Why some things should be
In his wisdom God has planned
Beyond our power to see.
Our family circle has been broken,
A link is gone from our chain,
But though we're parted for a while,
We know we'll meet again.
—Dearly loved and deeply mourned by Annie, Cassie, Nina, nieces and nephews. 20-1c

NIXON—In loving memory of a dear dad and grandfather, Kenneth, who passed away May 22nd, 1975.
Time changes many things,
But love and memory ever clings.
—Sadly missed, Ransom, Shirley, Brian and Ricky. 20-1c

ROCHON—In loving memory of a dear father Adelard Rochon, who passed away May 10th, 1969.
His memory is our keepsake
With which we'll never part.
God has him in His keeping
But we have him in our hearts.
—Always remembered and sadly missed by daughter Juliette, son-in-law Lucien, and son Edmund. 20-1p

BERTRAND—In loving memory of a dear father Lionel Bertrand who passed away May 23, 1942, in Alexandria, Ont.
You never held me on your knee
Or kissed my tears away tenderly
You did not see me start to walk
Or laughed when first I tried to talk.
You didn't live to hear me say
I love you daddy in my baby way,
As you died before I was born.
But I'll cherish your memory my next of kin hold dear,
Till God calls us to heaven and we meet you there.
—Sadly missed by son Lionel Bertrand. 20-1c

Ontario
ONTARIO LOTTERY CORPORATION
INVITES
APPLICATIONS FOR DISTRIBUTORSHIPS

The Ontario Lottery Corporation from time to time has territories come available in various parts of the Province for the distribution of Wintario tickets.

A distributor is required to be actively engaged on a full time basis in the operation of the distributorship, each distributor must employ adequate sales personnel, and maintain sound accounting and clerical office practices.

Wintario distributors are independent businessmen working on a commission basis. A distributor is required to pre-pay for Wintario tickets and re-sell them to the 500 or so Wintario retail outlets in his territory. The current commission structure for each draw is 2 1/2 cents per Wintario ticket for the first 100,000 tickets and 2 cents each on the remaining Wintario tickets sold.

In accordance with an agreement with Olympic Lottery, Wintario distributors presently act as wholesale distributors for Olympic Lottery tickets as well.

Sales reports and audited financial statements will be required by the Corporation.

At present vacancies exist in territories centered in Toronto, Paris and Windsor. Others may arise in the future and all applications received will be kept on file from which any future vacancies could be filled without further public notice.

Interested individuals can obtain further details and application forms by contacting the Corporation at [416] 961-6262 or writing to:

Building by-law invoked in difference between neighbors

Town Council has instructed Chief Cleroux to lay charges against Jack Trudel under the town building by-law, No. 865. The by-law states that buildings must be constructed no closer than four feet from the property line. Mr. Trudel's tool shed encroaches eight inches beyond that limit; his shed is three feet, four inches from the property line which divides his land from his neighbor, Leo Lauzon, on St. George St. West.

Mr. Lauzon has approached Council on several occasions to have it take action on the matter. Council, in turn, has been urging the two neighbors to try to come to some agreement on the matter between themselves.

Mr. Lauzon has gone to the expense of hiring an engineer to survey the property line and has engaged Jean Marc Lefebvre, an Alexandria attorney, to pressure council for action against Mr. Trudel.

Mr. Lefebvre appeared before Council again at its last meeting and it was finally agreed that the matter must be resolved. While there are other cases in town where the four foot clearance has been disregarded these have usually been settled amicably between neighbors. It appears this one is not going to be, so Council decided to take action.

We understand the charge has been laid against Mr. Trudel but council may have second thoughts against muddling in what it feels is essentially a spat between neighbors.

Second bingo in Apple Hill

Apple Hill Recreation sponsored its second Bingo of the year on May 11th. The inclement weather and televised hockey play-offs did not deter the avid supporters.

Cash prizes were won by: Margaret Darling, Luc Besner, Glen MacDonald, Eddie Beriault, Diane Ingram, Mrs. Clarence Ingram, Mrs. D. Brabant, Mrs. Shirley Lapierre, Mr. Beverly MacLennan, Virginia Levac, Mike Riley, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean.

Magazine blitz began this week

The Glengarry District High School Association is out to raise money. This is to help with our intramural program and the purchase of cross-country skis, interscholastic expenses and a canoe-carrying trailer.

The method being used is a magazine subscription blitz. One hundred and fifty magazines will be made available—you may renew current subscriptions, subscribe to new ones or take advantage of any special offers that the various magazines contain. Our goal is to reach seven thousand dollars in total sales.

As you can see, this is an enthusiastic undertaking by our students and in order to reach this goal, your help is greatly needed. We hope you will support us in this endeavor.

Skits-exhibits mark progress Achievement Day

Glengarry District High School, Alexandria was the site of the Glengarry 4-H Homemaking Achievement Day for the project "Taking a Look at Yourself". This day was held on Saturday, May 15th.

Each member had completed a record book as well as a special project. Some of these special projects were in the form of a research on such topics as make-up and hair styles. Other special projects included laundry bags, covered hangers, shoe bags, some sewing kits and some covered boxes. All of the work completed by the girls was well done.

One part of the afternoon program was the presentation of three skits and four exhibits. The exhibits were put on by Martintown #1 with Mary Van Loon commenting, by Picnic Grove with Sandra MacPherson as commentator, by Bainsville with Heather Mitchell commenting, and by Alexandria #1 with Helen Morris as commentator. The skits were presented by Lochiel, Alexandria #2 and Martintown #2. All members participated in each of the various skits and did a good job of presenting their material.

All of the 4-H Leaders and Members who completed the project were given a silver spoon upon conclusion of the Achievement Day.

Miss Helen Aucoin, Home Economist for Russell and Prescott Counties, helped with the morning activities and commented on the skits and exhibits the girls presented.

Miss Mary Michels, County Home Economist, conducted the entire day's program. When concluding the day she reminded the girls that the summer project "Gardens, Preservation of Fruits and Vegetables" was already in progress. She also informed the girls that the fall project would be "Club Girl Entertains," and encouraged and welcomed all members to attend. New members who have turned 12 by September 1, 1976 are welcome.

HAPPY ACHIEVERS—A special highlight of the afternoon program was the presentation of awards. This included the presentation of eight County honor awards and two Provincial honor awards. The girls who received their County Honor certificates and pins for having successfully completed six 4-H Homemaking units were in the upper photo, left to right, front row: Kathy Evans and Bea Detlass of the Martintown Club; Miriam Wygergangs, Picnic Grove Club and Claudette Theoret of the Lochiel Club. Back Row left to right: Norma MacPherson, Picnic Grove Club; Lesley Myers, Lochiel Club and Brenda and Inez McDonell of the Bainsville Club. In the lower photo, Cheryl Wightman, left and Mary Van Loon right flank the area Home Economist, Mary Michels. They received Provincial Honor certificates and pins for having completed 12 4-H Homemaking projects. —Staff photos Anna Margaret MacDonald
