Williamstown leaves crowds entertained

by Lesley Cadham
News editor

Williamstown almost became a bustling metropolis as carloads of spectators flocked in to taste for themselves Ontario's oldest continuously running fair.

And the conditions for a perfect 176th edition of the Williamstown Fair were in place: Good weather, strong participation and of course, almost record-breaking crowds.

Fair board officials, who were taking a small well-deserved breather Tuesday, unanimously agreed that three-day fair was ''super''.

It didn't matter that they expected to break last year's phenomenal record of 9,000 visitors — 2,500 more than in 1986 — but that attendance fell short by about 150 people. They were pleased anyway and will meet Thursday to discuss snags in this year's fair and to talk over plans for next year.

Fair board President Garnet MacDougall attributes the slight drop to Friday night's and Saturday's cloudy skies and to rain in surrounding areas. The heat probably didn't help to draw the extra crowd either, he surmised.

But the weather in Williamstown co-operated for the most part and there were only a few momentary showers throughout the entire weekend.

And some fair-goers are reported to have come from as far away as England, but many others were from the area, Montreal, Ottawa and northern New York.

Some new additions to the festivities were the beer garden, the petting zoo, the knobby knees contest and the men's fashion show, which replaced last year's popular Mr. Wonderful Williamstown contest.

The fair opened Thursday night with the judging of exhibits in the show hall and Vivian Trudel of Williamstown emerged with the title of Premier Exhibitor. Starting this year, the title and a plaque will be bestowed on an exhibitor with appealing displays in the most categories.

Friday, there were the 4-H horse shows, horticultural exhibits, the horse-pull competition and the Glengarry Dairy Princess competition. Williamstown's Heather Pasco succeeded Denise Dorie and assumed her new role at the fair on Saturday.

Saturday, the fair opened with many delights for children such as the Kid's Parade, costume competition, frog-jumping contests, baby show and pet show, to name

Little Jamie Vogel might have left the crowd at the Williamstown Fair believing that perhaps babies do come from the cabbage patch. Jamie, 11 months old and his brother David, 2 1/2, competed in the fair's costume competition and mom Cindy reported that the little character in the garden was supposed to be a stalk of celery. The children are from Williamstown and their dad is Tony Vogel.

Lancaster Township reverses decision on pool donation

Lancaster Township council reversed a decision not to donate funds to the Glengarry Pool Foundation Aug. 3, two weeks after a delegation of angry supporters demanded the funds for a feasibility study.

Council voted 2-1 in favor of the donation during the regular council meeting. Deputy-Reeve Charles Sangster was absent but had earlier stated he was against contributing. Councillors Roch Major and Richard Vaillancourt voted favorably while Roger Brazeau remained opposed.

Reeve Bernie MacDonell said he ''did not like'' the way the foundation ''demanded'' support at the meeting.

''I feel that instead of making a decision we're just passing the buck to get out of it,'' said Mr. MacDonell.

The reeve originally suggested council donate $400; $100 less than Lochiel Township's donation of $500. The funds would go toward a study to determine whether there is a need for an outdoor swimming pool in Alexandria.

The foundation had asked Lancaster council for $625.

Mr. Vaillancourt argued that ''$625 is not that much. I think we will satisfy at least 50 per cent of the municipality by making a donation.''

On Aug. 3 Mr. Brazeau stated that he was still opposed to the study.

Clerk-Treasurer Mike Samson called The News Thursday regarding his statement at an earlier council meeting that he disagreed with the construction of a pool. However, he says that at the time he was speaking as a ratepayer of Alexandria and not as the clerk-treasurer of Lancaster.

Mr. Samson added that the only reason he spoke out was because one of the councillors asked for his opinion.

The foundation is asking five Glengarry municipalities to cover 25 per cent of the $15,000 study; $3,750. If the municipalities share 25 per cent, Alexandria has promised to donate 50 per cent.

A group of 30 pool supporters confronted council during the July 20 meeting and demanded a donation. The township had previously refused to meet with the foundation at Alexandria town hall, June 29.

MNR cleaning up weeds washed ashore at point

By Janet Clermont
Staff writer

The clean-up of a mile-long weed mass along the shore of the St. Lawrence River commenced Saturday after the Ministry of Natural Resources (MNR) announced plans to fund the operation.

The MNR reached its decision to provide $25,000 for the project, Friday, after being persuaded by local politicians.

Residents of Westley's Point notified Glengarry-Prescott-Russell MP Don Boudria July 29, who responded quickly by meeting with the group the following day. Mr. Boudria contacted SD&G and East Grenville MPP Noble Villeneuve. After surveying the area, they contacted the MNR and ''convinced'' the ministry to allocate the necessary funds.

''Am I ever pleased for the residents. There were 70 families in my riding that were subjected to considerable discomfort that was totally beyond their control,'' said Mr. Boudria, Monday.

Mr. Boudria said he felt the ministry was not totally responsible for the ''mess'' and they were a little apprehensive about funding the clean-up. He explained that the MNR is responsible for live game and would not be liable for the dead fish that washed up on shore.

The weeds which settled at Westley's Point two weeks ago were brought in by strong winds.

The Raisin Region Conservation Authority (RRCA) is in charge of overseeing the clean-up. Authority Project Manager Roger Houde said Monday, the project should have been completed by yesterday (Tuesday).

The contractor, West Front Construction of Cornwall, used a bulldozer and shovel to collect the weeds and push them on to shore. From there, the weeds were to have been loaded on to a tractor and transported to the landfill site in Lancaster.

Mr. Houde said that once the $25,000 funding runs out, the removal of the weeds will stop.

The Ministry of Environment will oversee the disposal of the weeds.

District Officer Gerry McKenna said Monday, the ministry was on site last week and took bacteriological samples. The readings showed a level of bacteria above what would be considered safe for recreational activities.

''When the weeds floated in, it prevented the circulation of the water and once the weeds decayed there was an odor. It could be a health problem but I can't really comment on that,'' said Mr. McKenna.

He said that once the weeds are removed, the water will begin to circulate and will be safe for swimming and boating. He suggested that people wait about three or four days after the weeds are removed before entering the water.

Mr. McKenna explained that the MOE was not responsible for the clean-up because the weeds did not pose a serious threat to the residents.

''If it was a discharge of sewage into the water then we would have been responsible but this was a result of warm weather. The weeds just thrive in these conditions.''

Mr. Houde said there are other locations along the shoreline in Stormont County that are ''problem areas.''

''A lot of people think it's caused by our weed harvester. I try to convince them that it's not. We cut the weeds and grind them into fine pieces and they settle along the bottom. The weeds at the point are long and were uprooted by the wind,'' he said.

Heather Pasco chosen Dairy Princess

Heather Pasco stepped under the crown to succeed Glengarry Dairy Princess Denise Dorie, Friday night.

The 17-year-old Miss Pasco of Conc. 3 of Charlottenburgh was chosen from three candidates to take over the reign at the Williamstown Fair, during which the crown is traditionally passed on every year. And several other princesses from surrounding counties were there to show their support, as was Ontario Dairy Princess Andrea Lang.

Saturday, Miss Pasco began the flurry of events and activities which will become a large part of her life for the next year. Beginning with officiating at the Williamstown Fair Cattle Show, she will spend the next 12 months spreading the word: ''Milk.''

As airy princess, she will be asked to visit area schools, attend cattle shows and dairy-related events and basically represent the wholesomeness and purity of nature's nutritious drink.

Apprehension mounted when it took longer than usual to make their decision. Miss Pasco later said she felt sure that one of the other girls would win. The competition was tough, she admitted.

And yes, she was nervous. ''When I saw the judges come out of the hall I thought, this is it. When you're sitting up on stage, it seems like a long time,'' she said.

But congratulations and hugs from friends, relatives and the other dairy princesses calmed her down and before long, she seemed to fit right into her new role.

Miss Pasco is the daughter of George and Audrey and a part-time student at Char-Lan District High School. She also works at the Bank of Montreal in Lancaster. The new job has increased her need for workwear and in her spare time, Miss Pasco sews; one of her several hobbies.

She also enjoys cooking and singing and performed ''Daddy's Hands'' for fair-goers on Saturay.

Raised on an Ayrshire dairy farm which now accomodates 80 head of cattle, she refuses to drink anything but Ayrshire milk; anything else doesn't taste quite right, she said.

Looking forward to the next year because she enjoys meeting people, the new dairy princess explained that she overcame her shyness when she was employed for over a year, delivering singing telegrams.

She has also been in theatre productions such as ''Hello Dolly'' and most recently Char-Lan's excellent staging of ''The Sound of Music''. She played Sister Bertha.

Miss Dorie, who succeeded Colleen Kennedy in 1987, said Friday night, ''I can't believe how fast the year went.''

''I remember last year when it was me up there.'' she said, pointing to the stage. ''But it's not over until I compete in Toronto on Aug. 24.''

County dairy princesses will have the opportunity to compete for the title of Ontario Dairy Princess.

Miss Pasco said she coudn't have done it without everyone's encouragement.

Get us to work on time, Glengarrians tell VIA

By Lesley Cadham
News editor

Glengarrians want a train that will get them to work in Ottawa or Montreal on time, the Save the Train committee has found.

The results of a survey carried out over the last several months reflect that Glengarrians who work in the urban centres would use VIA Rail if the schedule allowed them to get to work on time. The first eastbound train arrives in Montreal at 9:10 a.m. and the earliest westbound train reaches Ottawa at 9:55 a.m.

The committee compiled results of 254 surveys; 62 respondents claimed to use the train to get to work and six to go to school. Another 74 used the train at least four times a week and the remainder travelled for personal reasons or pleasure.

And in general, improvements

The weather report gets top billing this week for obvious reasons: it was incredibly HOT.

Those of you who were lucky enough to be sheltered within comfortably air conditioned rooms probably noticed passers-by melting into the sidewalks. By Friday afternoon, we found that people were noticeably on edge, probably due to the heat and high humidity.

Enough commentary. Our weather man from North Lancaster, George Hambleton, informs us that July was only 1-1/2°C warmer than normal. Hard to believe. The high was 34°C and nine days of the month brought with them temperatures of 30°C or over. Rain fell 11 times for a total of 60mm, 15mm short of normal.

Mr. Hambleton reports that last July was just as hot (though I don't remember walking around like a soggy tea bag last year) with a high of 33°C and 150mm of rain, twice what is normal.

Ligue La Leche

Expectant women or new mothers interested in breastfeeding are welcome to attend the monthly Ligue La Leche meeting on Tuesday, (Aug. 16) from 8-10 p.m. The meeting place is 85 Massie Crescent in Alexandria and for more information contact France Desjardins at 528-4462 or Paulette Lefebvre at 525-2870.

We were sorry to learn that Edna MacMillan, a fine lady who has kept up her interest in the town and in music has undergone surgery at Hotel Dieu Hospital in Cornwall. We're sure her many friends will join us in wishing her a speedy recovery. Also, her many friends are invited to drop in to visit her.

Chamber luncheon

The Alexandria and District Chamber of Commerce is holding a special luncheon today (Wednesday) at the Candlestick Restaurant. "Ontario's Business, More than Competitive" is the theme and Maurice Leblanc, B.L.A., M.B.A. (Wow!) a business counsellor with the Ontario Ministry of Industry, Trade and Technology will be the guest speaker. The meeting starts at noon on the nose.

Sheila Olson of Town and Country Flowers and Gifts proudly received her certification as a senior designer from the Florists Transworld Delivery Association (FTD) recently. To achieve this title, Mrs. Olson had to complete flower identification and design style identification tests. She also had to design floral arrangements at the speed of light (or so the rumor goes). Congratulation, Mrs. Olson!

Another of our treasured readers, Jamie McInnis, who now lives in Etobicoke, wrote to let us know that she'd moved and that her husband, who is not a Glengarry native, "thoroughly enjoys reading The News. Keep up the good work!" You made our day, Jamie!

Train survey conducted

most frequently suggested were that VIA create a more convenient commuter schedule and lower ticket prices.

VIA Rail Public Affairs Officer Marcel Bordeleau told The Glengarry News, Friday, that VIA had only received the document the previous day and there hadn't been time to give it close consideration. He added that Reginal Director Tony Kyffin would take a "close look" at it when he returns to the office Aug. 15, to see if "there is something we can do to fulfill the needs of these people."

He said there is a possibility VIA will seriously consider scheduling a train which would get people to work for 9 a.m., but explained that VIA's hands are tied with regard to lowering ticket prices. The decision as to whether VIA will be permitted to develop a two-tariff system-lower prices for off-peak periods is still to be decided by the National Transportation Agency.

Mr. Bordeleau called the survey "interesting". Perhaps an encouraging statement was, "I'm sure we can take advantage of it. If it increases the number of passengers, we should go with it as much as possible."

The Save the Train committee determined that there is an untapped potential for pleasure trip travellers which include senior citizens and students who do not have cars. Families who would prefer to leave their cars home would probably use the train if it left at convenient hours and was less costly.

People who responded to the survey also indicated they would like to see the midday train on weekends stop in Alexandria. They felt it would draw a "substantial number of passengers." It now stops in Casselman.

It would attract both visitors from Montreal and potential travellers from the Alexandria area. No one wants to leave early on a weekend if he can avoid it, but we are certain that a midday train, if properly promoted, would attract a considerable ridership," the committee reports.

Requests that VIA establish additional stops in Glen Robertson and Maxville were also received.

Many VIA users also expressed frustration at the frequent changes in schedule approximately every six months, the dependability of the service and frequent breakdowns.

The committee reports that commuters who travelled on trains that had been more than 15 minutes late never received the 50 per cent refund promised by VIA Rail last year. Save the Train members had personally spoken to passengers who found that technicalities and complications had prevented them from actually receiving a refund.

Other suggestions included better food on the trains, more courtesy on the part of ticket salespeople in Montreal and Ottawa, excursion trains from this area, special rates for children and senior citizens and more effective non-smoking regulations.

An Alexandria resident was disturbed that there is only one car specifically for non-smoking passengers while other cars divided between smoking and non-smoking commuters. She also felt smoking should be banned in the Central Station in Montreal; the Alexandria station is already designated a non-smoking area.

Help for the elderly to embark and disembark trains would also be appreciated, wrote one respondent.

Two members of the same family were disturbed that the trains ran backward during changeovers. The people believed the services provided by VIA were fine; they hoped VIA would keep up the good work.

Few passengers suggested the addition of a late evening train.

The committee concluded that the growing population in Glengarry would welcome the opportunity to put the train to better use. In fact, people and businesses locate in the county because there is train service, the committee determined.

a few.

Also featured was the English horse show, Gymkhana Rodeo and a special treat; parachutists from Waterdown, Ont. leaped from an airborne PA-12 to land squarely in the cattle exhibition field. The divers were John and Anne Glover and the pilot was Barry Franklin.

And several officials were on hand to declare the fair open at 1 p.m., Saturday. Glengarry-Prescott-Russell MP Don Boudria, Stormont-Dundas MP Norm Warner, Cornwall Township MPP John Cleary and an official from Kemptville College joined Fair President Garnet MacDougall, Fair Queen Margo McDonell, runner-up Jennifer McLachlan and Glengarry Dairy Princess Heather Pasco on stage.

Also on Saturday were the 4-H cattle, Holstein Ayrshire and Jersey shows carried out simultaneously.

Saturday night, a dance at St. Mary's Centre drew tired but festive fair-goers.

And on Sunday were a number of attractions such as dog obedience demonstrations, the Western Horse Show, Highland Games, Greased Pole Competition and a performance by the Vankleek Hill group Silk and Steel. There were also antique cars to view, arts and crafts to buy and highland dancing competitions to watch.

And let's not forget traditional attractions such as the Junior B Rebels dunking tank.

Next year, Mr. McDougall hopes to include the times of all events in advertised agendas. He feels that it was a mistake this year which led to some confusion, but the board learned from it. Perhaps there will be a grounds-wide speaker system over which all events will be announced as they start.

Results of some events appear this week in the Williamstown column. Other results will be printed in next week's Glengarry News.

VIA will accommodate weekend travellers with late train

VIA Rail has added a late evening train for weekend travellers from Montreal.

People who travel from Montreal to Alexandria on Friday or Sunday will now be able to stay in Montreal as late as 10 p.m. The train arrives in Alexandria at 11:15 p.m.

Weekend travellers have the choice of returning on the early evening train at 5:50 p.m. or to wait for the later train.

The schedule from Ottawa to Montreal remains the same.

VIA Rail Public Affairs Officer Marcel Bordeleau last week told The News the corporation will release its new fall schedule to be effective October 30 later this summer.

The new schedule appeared in a Montreal daily newspaper.

Clergyman dies at 77

St. Raphael's native who was ordained in Glengarry and later went on to serve overseas as a missionary and chaplain died on August 1 at Hotel Dieu Hospital in Cornwall. He was 77 years old.

Born and raised on his family's farm in St. Raphael's, Rev. Allan McRae remained in the county until graduating from high school. He was ordained in St. Raphael's Church by the Most Rev. Felix Couturier, Bishop of Alexandria.

He had earlier completed studies at St. Auustine's Seminary for Scarborough Foreign Missions.

Before taking up missionary duties, he served in parishes in Sault Ste. Marie, and Oshawa and briefly in China with Msgr. John Fraser, founder of the Scarborough Foreign Missions Society. But their mission was abruptly halted by regular invasions by the Japanese. Battle in the area had escalated to the point that the missionaries decided to return to Canada.

Upon his return, he joined the Canadian army and served as an army chaplain to soldiers stationed in Kingston and Vancouver. In 1948, he returned to the Orient as a civilian and opened the society's first mission in Tokyo, where he remained for four more years. He served briefly in the Bahamas before returning to Canada to re-enlist in the armed forces. He was quickly stationed in Seoul, South Korea as a chaplain for Canadian soldiers.

He retired from the armed forces with the rank of major in 1966.

After his return from the east, he served for more than a decade at Our Lady of Grace Parish in Angus, Ont.

After his 1980 retirement, Rev. McRae performed weekend ministry for parishes in Florida, where he spent his winters. While in Canada, he assisted in Toronto and the Diocese of Alexandria-Cornwall.

He was predeceased by his parents Duncan Angus and Catherine Kennedy. He is survived by his sisters Mrs. Janet Mahoney and Eliza McRae of Detroit.

Wake was held Aug. 2 at the Morris Funeral Home in Alexandria.

A mass of resurrection was concelebrated by Msgr. D.B. McDougald, Fr. Garry Ostler and Fr. Gault. Interment was in the family plot at St. Raphael's cemetery.

Friends from Detroit, Toronto, Angus, Oshawa, Renfrew, Kingston and Ottawa were in attendance.

Pallbearers were Michael McRae, Terry McRae, John McRae, George Lunau Jr., Francis McRae and Jeffery McRae.

Alexandria firefighters keep an eye on smouldering hay for seven hours

Alexandria firefighters who responded to a call for a barn fire, Monday, remained at the scene for seven hours to ensure the smouldering hay did not re-ignite.

A neighbour spotted the fire and called the department at approximately 5 p.m. The owner of the barn, which is located on Conc. 9 in Lancaster, is Camille Deguire. He was out of town at the time of the fire.

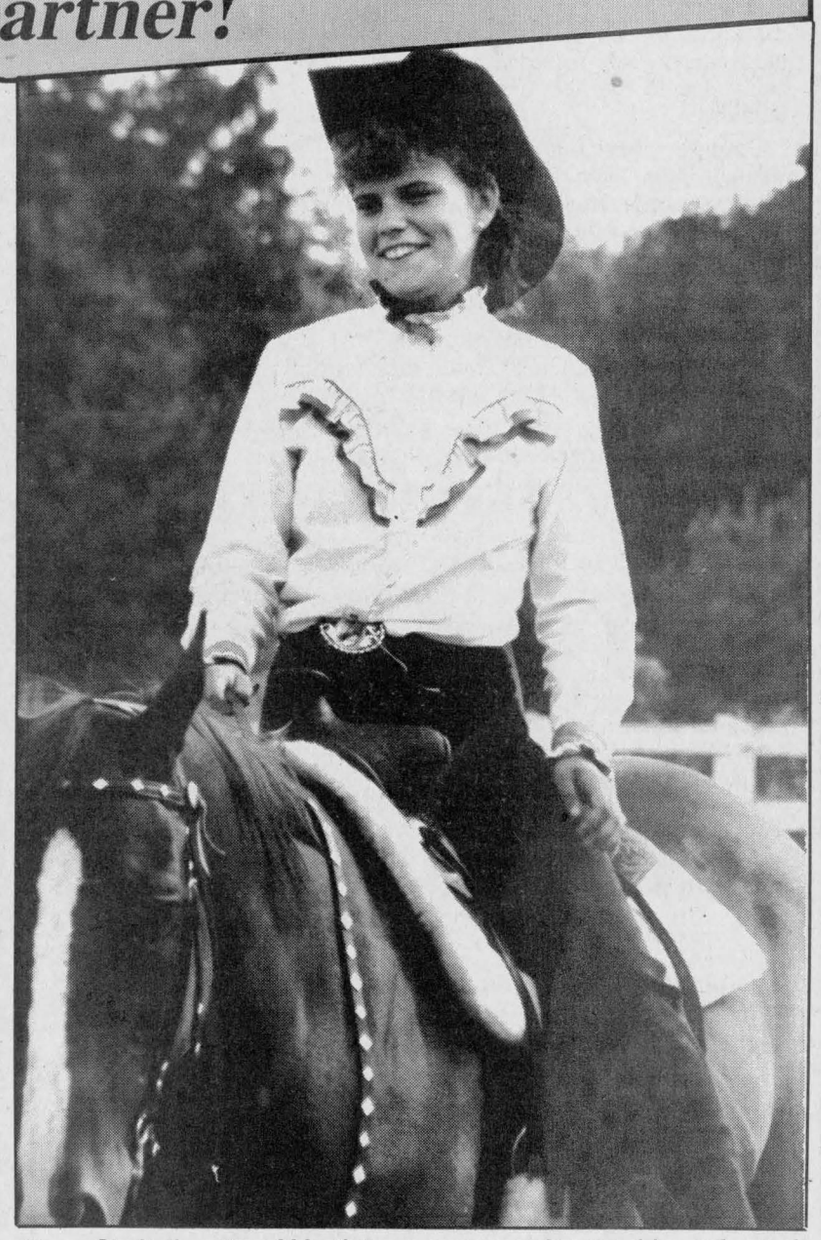
No damage was reported.

When the firemen arrived, a stack of hay was burning on the second floor of the building. A tractor was used to remove the smouldering hay. About 50 cows were forced out of the barn.

A spokesperson for the fire department said the firefighters remained for several hours because the smoke forced workers to take turns removing the hay.

Round-up in Williamstown was great fun, partner!

Mitzi Howes of Lochiel Township earned the title of Grand Champion Showman and shared honors with Valley Vue Majesty Jo An who walked her way into the judge's heart and took home an award for Grand Champion Calf. The two competed during the Williamstown Fair 4-H Dairy Competition Saturday afternoon. Mitzi is the daughter of Carmen and Doreen. Judging was carried out by Jim Adams of Brinston.



Alana St. Andre, 17, of Martintown was one of many riders who took part in the Western riding show at the Williamstown Fair, Sunday afternoon. And though Miss St. Andre had considerable trouble getting her horse to behave, she never stopped smiling.

Court Briefs

The following are cases dealt with by Judge Reginald Levesque in Alexandria Provincial Court, Aug. 4.

A Hawkesbury man was fined $1,000 after pleading guilty to charges of leaving the scene of an accident and failing to appear in provincial court.

Robert Dupelle, 27, was arrested by Lancaster OPP May 26, six days after he was involved in a two-vehicle accident on Hwy 34 near Hwy 417 junction.

Mr. Dupelle was driving north on Hwy 34 when he collided with a vehicle he was following. The vehicle went into the east ditch and rolled a couple of times.

There was extensive damage to both vehicles. Mr. Dupelle and two passengers were not injured in the mishap.

The driver of the other vehicle and his passenger received minor injuries. They were taken to Glengarry Memorial Hospital, treated and released.

When police arrived at the scene, Mr. Dupelle had left the area. Police questioned the other passengers, issued a warrant and found Mr.Dupelle six days later.

The offender promised police he would appear in Alexandria Provincial Court June 2, but he failed to appear.

Judge Reginald Levesque suspended Mr. Dupelle's licence for one year.

Licence under suspension

An RR 1 Williamstown man was fined $1,000 after pleading guilty to charges of driving a motor vehicle while his licence was under suspension and for failing to appear in provincial court.

Donald Desrouchie, 19, was arrested June 28 by Lancaster OPP in Charlottenburgh Township. An officer had stopped his vehicle because it had only one functioning rear tail light.

He was then charged July 14 for failing to appear in Alexandria Provincial Court after signing a ''promise to appear'' statement on June 28.

Mr. Desrouchie was stopped by the officer on Boundary Road near the Glendale Subdivision. While talking to the officer the offender could not produce a driver's licence.

It was then learned that Mr. Desrouchie's licence had been suspended for one year in January after he was found guilty of impaired driving.

Judge Levesque fined the man $800 for driving with a licence under suspension and $200 for failing to appear in provincial court. He was given seven months to pay the fines.

Fine, probation for theft

An RR 2 Maxville woman was fined $50 and placed on probation for one year after she was found guilty of theft.

Donna Marie Gauthier was arrested by Lancaster OPP, Jan. 1 in Charlottenburgh Township after an individual told police she had stolen a freezer from his apartment building on Tyo Town Road.

At an earlier court appearance, Miss Gauthier pleaded not guilty to a charge of theft.

During her trial, Thursday, she testified that she had taken the freezer when she moved out of the building on Jan. 1, but said it was a gift from her landlord, Michael Massia and she had no intention of stealing it.

Mr..Massia, however, told the court he had bought the freezer for $125 for her apartment with the understanding she would use it or perhaps even purchase it.

''She asked me a couple of times about buying it, but no arrangements were made. I met her in the apartment when she was moving and there was no freezer,'' said Mr. Massia.

Miss Gauthier, who moved the freezer to her new residence in Dominionville, said she called Mr. Massia twice to inquire if he wanted the freezer and on both occasions he refused.

''I called him twice and he said he didn't want the freezer. I didn't steal the freezer and I was accused of doing so. He had bought the freezer as a gift for me,'' said Miss Gauthier.

Both Crown Attorney Mel Masse and Judge Reginald Levesque agreed Miss Gauthier and Mr. Massia's testimonies centered around credibility.

During his submission, Mr. Masse said Mr. Massia treated the freezer as his own at all times during his testimony and not a gift.

''The accused's story is not credible because she has constantly said she would pay the victim for the freezer, but still hasn't. All she had to do was bring it back to the victim if an arrangement couldn't be made,'' said Judge Levesque.

Miss Gauthier was ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $125. She was given four months to pay the fine and one year to make restitution.

Postmistress appointed

Canada Post has appointed a new postmistress to assume the full-time position at the Alexandria post office.

Ann Germain of Long Sault was officially appointed to the position on July 27. The Alexandria post office had been without a permanent postmaster for over one year.

Former postmaster Hubert Dubois has been on sick leave since June 1987.

Ms. Germain said she was thrilled when she heard that she'd been appointed postmistress.

''I really enjoy the work. It's challenging. You get to work with the customers and solve any problems.''

Ms. Germain, a native of Cornwall, began working for Canada Post in 1985 as a casual employee at the Long Sault post office. She was then employed as a part-time worker in 1987.

Anne Germain

Ms. Germain was offered a job at the Maxville post office in May while she was still acting postmistress in Alexandria, but never assumed the position.

Ms. Germain has also worked in the Martintown post office.

Seven-year-old cyclist hit by auto

A Martintown boy suffered internal injuries when he was struck by a vehicle while riding his bicycle in Alexandria last Wednesday night (Aug. 3).

Julian Sarda, 7, was taken to the Children's Hospital in Ottawa where he remains in stable condition.

The 1985 2-door Buick driven by Burns Cameron, 32, of Dunvegan, was southbound on Main Street when the bicycle drove off the sidewalk and onto the roadway.

No charges were laid.

Damage to both the vehicle and bicycle were light.

Break and enters being investigated

Police briefs

Alexandria police and Lancaster OPP are investigating two break and enters that occurred last week.

Offenders broke into the Chuckwagon on Main Street in Alexandria Saturday night and stole several cans of pop, a calculator and a number of other items. The victim, Walter Nagy of Maxville, reported the incident the following day.

The value of the merchandise is not know.

Lancaster OPP are searching for individuals who broke into the Laurier Carriere School in Glen Robertson and smashed three windows on Thursday night.

The school was also broken into the previous night and the offenders stole $65 in sporting equipment.

Window smashed

A real estate sign was thrown through the window of a car parked on Dominion Street early Sunday morning, causing an estimated $200 damage.

The vehicle, a 1988 4-door Chevrolet, is owned by Leopold Quesnel of Alexandria.

Police say a neighbor observed three youths leaving the scene.

Boats collide

Two boats which collided in the St. Lawrence River a half-kilometer west of Lancaster netted $4,000 damage on Saturday.

The boats were driven by Adrian Andre of Rockland and Jean Clements of South Lancaster.

Drivers charged

Alcide Sauve, 76, of St. Telesphore, was charged with ''turning not in safety'' Friday night, after the vehicle he was driving collided with the vehicle travelling behind him.

Mr. Sauve was eastbound on Cty Rd. 18 in a 1983 4-door Chevrolet when he crossed over the center lane and attempted to swerve back into the proper lane.

The driver of the other vehicle, a 1987 2-door Ford was Daniel Seguin, 24, of Alexandria.

Damage to both vehicles was light.

James Maling, 68, of Dalhousie Station was charged with failing to yield from a private driveway Friday afternoon.

Mr. Maling, who was driving a 1976 4-door Ford, pulled out of a private driveway in Alexandria and struck a southbound 1987 4-door Cadillac on Main Street driven by George Shanaker, 58, of Cornwall.

Damage to both vehicles was light.

Charlottenburgh appoints administrative officer

Charlottenburgh Township's new chief administrative officer will begin his duties with the municipality, Aug. 15, according to an announcement made Friday by Reeve Morgan Major.

Merlin J. Dewing of Barrie, Ont. was selected for the position from a field of 48 applicants.

Mr. Dewing has been employed by the City of Barrie as operations manager of public works for the past six years.

The new CAO is a certified civil technician and has post-secondary education in public administration, computer programming and municipal law.

He replaces Charlottenburgh's first CAO, Jay Currier, who resigned in May to accept a similar position in Aurora, Ont.

Mr. Dewing, 36, is married and has two children.

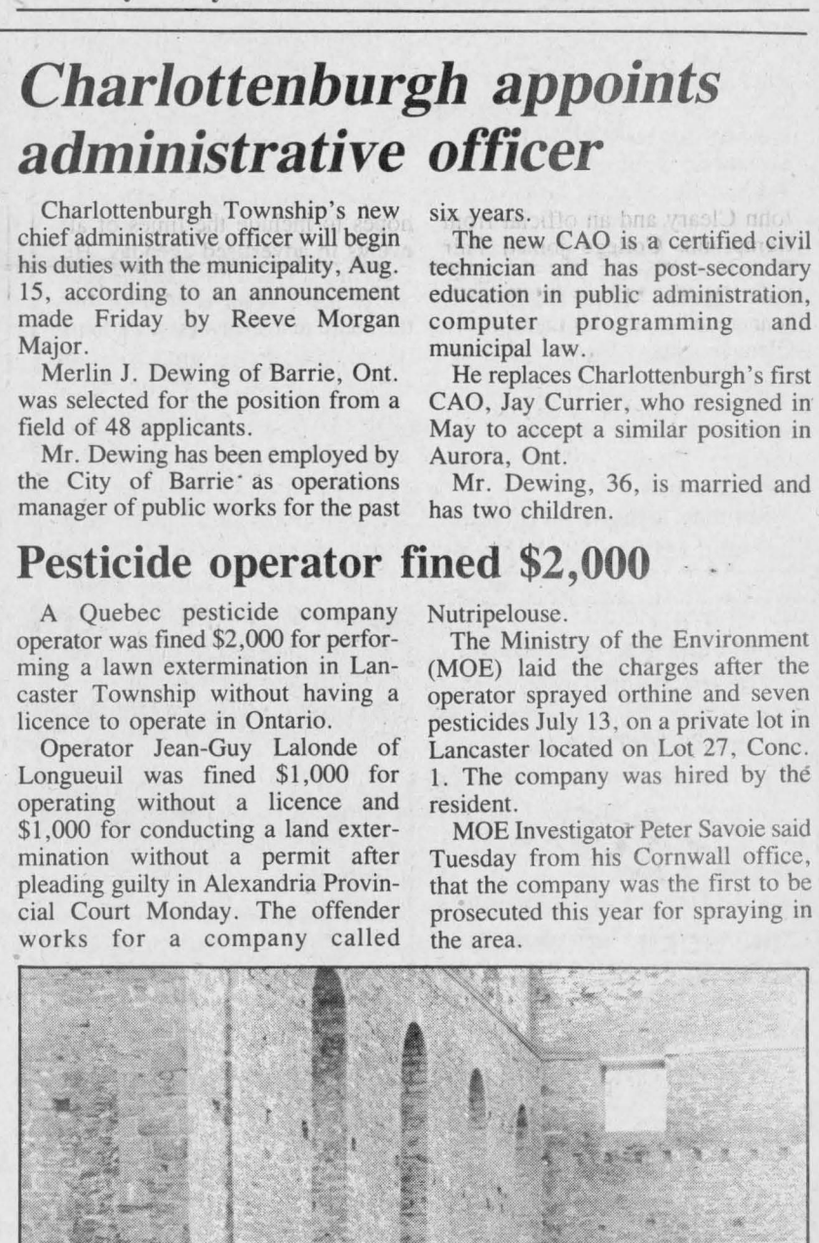
Pesticide operator fined $2,000

A Quebec pesticide company operator was fined $2,000 for performing a lawn extermination in Lancaster Township without having a licence to operate in Ontario.

Operator Jean-Guy Lalonde of Longueuil was fined $1,000 for operating without a licence and $1,000 for conducting a land extermination without a permit after pleading guilty in Alexandria Provincial Court Monday. The offender works for a company called Nutripelouse.

The Ministry of the Environment (MOE) laid the charges after the operator sprayed orthine and seven pesticides July 13, on a private lot in Lancaster located on Lot 27, Conc. 1. The company was hired by the resident.

MOE Investigator Peter Savoie said Tuesday from his Cornwall office, that the company was the first to be prosecuted this year for spraying in the area.



The roll of the drums and the sweet sounds of bagpipes filled St. Raphael's Ruins, Sunday afternoon, when Mount Carmel House held its annual fundraising Concert in the Ruins. Protecting heritage

Last week, we published a letter to the editor from a reader who objected to the bulldozing of a ''fine old house'' in the village of Maxville, apparently before anybody had a chance to notice it was going on. His concern about the architectural heritage of the village is one all municipalities, their councils and ratepayers should share for many reasons.

The beautiful old buildings which still adorn the towns and village of Glengarry are the only visual ties we have to the past. They are reminders of a day when structures were more than functional enclosures. They were statements about the residence or business, about the people who ran it, or the people who lived in it.

More than this, these structures represent living museum pieces, examples of architecture which, like dinosaur bones or artwork, provide us with an aesthetic slice of life from another era.

For these reasons and many others, local councils should begin waking up to the fact that historic architecture is in danger of disappearing every day, if they are not protected by the community and the owner. Cheap siding and an over-enthusiastic renovator can go a long way in taking away a significant part of our heritage.

The province of Ontario allows for the establishment of municipally appointed local architectural conservation advisory committees (LACACS), made up of concerned citizens. LACACS advise councils which buildings need protection under the Ontario Heritage Act, and subsequently, which are eligible for funding under heritage preservation programs.

The funding assists historical building owners in renovating the exterior of the structure and restoring its historic character. In return, the property owner agrees not to make substantial changes to the building's character in the future which would render its character lost.

Councils should consider this alternative. It's a better option than sitting idly by while another piece of Glengarry history crumbles in to dust, or is covered up with siding.

Appeal the rules

You can fight city hall — and sometimes win.

That's the lesson of the week following separate incidents involving two levels of government and their decisions. It's also a lesson of how subsequent appeals by people found their way through the often frustrating tangle of bureacracy — and paid off.

A few weeks back, we raised our objection here to the provincial government's budget move to remove the tax exemption status of locally produced special advertising section distributed exclusively with newspapers. We went a step further, and wrote letters to the retail sales tax branch, our MPP's office, both the provincial and national weekly newspapers associations and other representatives. The publisher talked at length by phone to various government bureaucrats, arguing a case that appeared increasingly futile.

We even mailed the government department a copy of our 'Salute to Glengarry Agriculture' supplement, which was the first one taxed under the new regulations.

Last week, we received a letter from A.B. Williams, director of the Retail Sales Tax Branch for the Ministry of Revenue. He said in the letter that the supplement met the definition of one of the exempt items under the Retail Sales Tax Act, and can be produced exempt from tax. He enclosed a copy of a sales tax refund form.

Score one for small business.

Last week, the Glengarry pool committee got some good news, too. It found out that Lancaster Township council pledged to provide it with $500 to help offset costs of the feasibility study to determine whether the pool can be built.

Anyone who has been following the issue through the pages of The News will know the township council has been opposed to providing the committee with any money whatsoever. Council seemed firm; no taxpayer's money would be spent on programs outside of the township.

Well, following some aggressive lobbying by area township residents including committee chairperson Jocelyne Brunet, council last week relented. Some people might say it's because council faces re-election this November, and it didn't need the campaign headaches of pro-pool forces.

It's our belief, however, that councillors were convinced their contribution to the study simply made common sense. Their ratepayers, as much as those living in Alexandria, Lochiel and Kenyon — whose councils did not hesitate to give to the cause — stand to benefit by the construction of a swimming pool in the town.

Both of the above examples may not be earth-shattering displays of government backtracking, but they do serve to show in a small way that involvement and lobbying can work.

They are reminders that no person who treasures life in a democratic society should feel otherwise.

Common Utterances On Those Real Swelters

The fearless foursome flog their way to the 19th hole

AFTER THOUGHTS
Joe Banks

As a long-suffering, odd-time player of the game, I always thought it appropriate that the world "golf" spelled backwards is actually "flog." Thrashing the ground and scarring the ball — flogging — seemed a much more accurate description of the rounds I'd played in the past.

Last Saturday was no exception when The Glengarry News and its Fearless Foursome took to the lush fairways and greens of the Glengarry Golf and Country Club, there to bean a ball (or anything else that happened to get in the way) for a good cause, namely the Heart and Stroke Foundation.

Now I imagine our sports scribe and event co-chairman Peter Conway will be filling in the details of the tournament for you on the sports page, but he knows he would be taking a big risk by printing my score, so I thought I would tell you myself; sort of journalistic masochism, I guess.

But I do so not to boast of my sizzling 118 (no that wasn't in nine holes), but to assure all you other duffers out there that your clubs needn't be wrapped around a tree after every hole. Surely, it's not whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game, right?

How did we play the game? I asked that very question to my golf clubs, a second-hand set of Burkes that hadn't seen the light of day in over two years, after completing the 18th hole. The balls must've been so grateful to feel a tee once again, eight of them escaped, three into the winding Delisle and the rest into the trees along various holes.

Even if their scores were higher, I couldn't match the good sportsmanship and downright honesty — a precious commodity in golf — that two of my teammates, Lorna Macleod and Barb McCormick showed throughout the tournament. I won't tell you their scores, but I will say they came close to matching the body weight of yours truly.

Lorna and Barb weren't intimidated by the expansive par 5 on holes 2 or 3. Instead, they short-hopped both with good humor and, luckily for my male ego, missed my line-drive on 2. That one hit the facing of the footbridge crossing the river, and dropped like a rock into the murky river below. Previous to that brilliant shot, which sent teammate Conway into convulsions of laughter, I'd five-ironed two other balls into the river and sent the crayfish scurrying for cover.

Meanwhile, the leader of the Foursome, Peter, patiently wandered along with us, unaccustomed to such unique playing styles. As the scorer, he knew I had to be civil to him, lest he add strokes onto my already growing score. He, however, obviously did not understand that the boss always wins at golf, as he whipped me by 28 strokes. He got a little help on 2 when his hooking fairway shot deflected off one of the mighty poplars lining the driveway and bounced out onto the fairway. I swear I heard the tree giggling as I walked by.

We were rained on a couple of times, which was cooling if nothing else. But as we closed in on the final holes, the humidity was again on the increase. Our tongues began to drag alongside our golf carts, lathering in anticipation of sustenance at the 19th hole.

Yes, we made it before anyone lost the last ball in their bag, better off for the exercise and no worse for the wear. I noticed no one's appetites suffered from the ordeal, as food disappeared from our plates at a blinding pace. And I must say that betwen the bites, I did take some solace in the fact that I parred one hole that day — hole 7, known by long-time club patrons as 'Gene's Green'. That's a reference to club founder the late Eugene Macdonald, who enjoyed sitting more than under the trees above the green that he'd envisioned long before he'd helped make the course a reality.

Was it enough to bring this duffer out of "retirement?" Let's just say the inspirations were few and far between Saturday, but the beauty of the course has convinced this Glengarry Golf and Country Club "firsttimer" that he'll be back and "flogging" before the season's out.

It was too enjoyable a day to say goodnight to the clubs for another two years.

Aging is a fact of life we all experience at the same rate

LIFE WORTH LIVING
Rev. Peter Crosby

There was a time when you ''couldn't keep a boy/girl down on the farm.'' In the past, people have flocked from the country to the bright lights of the city; now, they' re returning in droves, particularly retirees and people anticipating retirement. This new urban-rural shift brings both problems and possibilities.

Recently a conference at the Aurora Centre sponsored by the Rural Workers Fellowship addressed the theme: ''Issues of Aging: the Challenge to Rural and Small Town Churches.''

Aging is a fact of life which we all experience and at the same rate — ''one day at a time.'' But when does aging become old? ''The aged'' are considered to be those persons over 65 years of age.

''You're not getting older, you're getting . . . ?'' Greta Riddell-Dixon, a Toronto gerontologist, pointed out that ''aging is a very individual process,'' and that persons ''become ''more unique'' as they age.'' Dixon joked that ''once you've reached 65 and you're not eccentric, you've got no personality.'' Learning, growth and change continue to take place until the day we die. Old people must not be treated as if they are all alike, they are not.

An old expression reads that ''men work from sun to sun but a woman's work is never done.'' Because of differing mortality rates, aging is largely woman's work. Women live an average of six years longer than men (age 78 versus age 72), and because women often marry men four or more years older than they are, women often must face old age alone. For both men and women the loss of a spouse can raise painful questions of identity and self-worth. After the companionship and role of being a husband or wife for 40—50—60 years, singleness can be terribly difficult. Retirement can also be a time of crisis. If a person has been known largely according to their work, what happens when that work identity comes to an end?

According to Greta Riddell-Dixon, personal choices and self-worth are two issues bound as one. She argues that when people are young, society insists on their independence ''even if it kills them,'' but as soon as Granny boils the kettle dry, pressure is brought to bear to lessen or remove independence — in the name of caring. When people no longer have choices' their self-worth and identity suffers. Clearly there are tough moral dilemmas in what Dixon is saying — when does caring become controlling? When does granting independence become neglect? Every situation is different, but choices both great and small support personal self-worth.

Greta Riddell-Dixon and other speakers made the point that what we are about in the Church is not ministering to but ministry with elders. All age groups need to be able to share in the life of the Church without artificial physical or attitudinal barriers. Elders

A fair so fair

THAT'S LIFE
Lesley Cadham

It was all a country fair was supposed to be and more.

Just about worn thin from my first few days back at work after a week's holiday, I drove home feeling that I was more than ready to embark on another vacation. I was already exhausted.

And then I saw it.

The fair. Still in preparation. Still being erected. A few final touches being added here and there. But some of it already underway. I felt like a child looking at the circus big top for the first time. I had been energized.

Standing at the end of my driveway, staring across the street in anticipation, I remembered last year's Fair; the Mr. Wonderful Williamstown contest with Gary O'Connell in his wife's bathing suit; the sweetest Mini-Mouse I'd ever seen in the kid's parade and the best hamburger I'd ever tasted from one of the food concessions.

(But food always tastes better at the fair probably because I don't have to cook it.)

And this year, change was on the horizon. The following night, a first-ever beer garden would open at the Williamstown Fair, Ontario's oldest continuously running fair. The event had always been considered a ''family'' outing; not to be tarnished by the threat of drunken brawls or over-zealous fair-goers staggering among the children.

And somewhere along the line, I'd picked up on the rumor that some people felt the beer garden would be a haven for just that sort of decadence.

But in reality, the garden turned out to be more of a place to sit down in the shade, away from the bustling crowd, to put down a cool one and chat with a friend.

At one point, a couple of musician/singers who had performed on stage Saturday afternoon had been coaxed to play a few for the patrons. Nothing could have been more sedate and more relaxing.

Something else I couldn't help noticing was that the Williamstown Fair, while geared toward Glengarry's undeniable agricultural slant, was also homespun for children. There were rides and games and a petting zoo; tons of cotton candy and for those youngsters who really wanted to get involved, there was the children's parade and costume competition, the baby contest, the pet show and the frog jumping competition.

No one could complain that there wasn't enough to do.

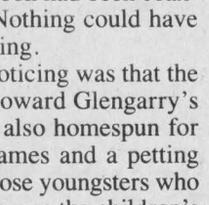
There was also a multitude of exhibits in the show hall, ranging from baked goods to hand-knitted sweaters.

But most important of all, was the unmistakable presence of that ''country fair atmosphere''. Participation by Williamstown and area people was evident. Everyone was having a good time.

It was a great three days, Williamstown, and we're looking forward to next year!

Why 2,000 were missing

WORD SKETCH
Sybil Carello



Now that the haunting, shrill-toned musical sounds of a field full of bagpipes are but a pleasant, auditory memory, let's take a serious look at the Glengarry Highland Games, ''the world's largest Scottish gathering'' and try, if we can, to determine why 2,000 of the expected 24,000 didn't attend the gala affair.

It was impossible, naturally, to contact and quiz everyone, but with the help of a crack, award-winning, investigative team, we managed to track down a good cross-section of the would-be-crowd.

Hardhitting questions like, Didn't you know Maureen McTeer, wife of External Affairs minister, Joe Clark, and author in her own right, had been dragooned to officially open the games? This was ruthlessly followed up with, How do you feel about missing the OPP Golden Helmets and their 1,300 cc Harley Davidsons, doing an uncanny rendition of Easy Rider?

No feelings were spared in our quest to ferret out the truth. Following, then, is a brief, but exclusive report on the 2,000 who didn't show. In their own words, here is what they said:

''Sorry, but I'd already made plans to be in Trois Rivieres for the 39th Annual Oldtimers Bathtub Races.''

''Pipe music, while tremendously, inexorably melodious — in a keening kind of way — is not a music preference of mine. I've always been dead keen on Calypso. It's so much easier for one's feet to pick up the rhythm. And have you ever noticed, even though kilts, thick-soled shoes and wool knee socks are neat and tidy and picturesque, they don't evoke the same kind of excitement that brightly colored, jumbo-patterned island shirts do.''

''I'm on the wagon.''

''I'm still recovering from a fractured skull and facial lacerations. I'm one of those big burly fellows who had a go at tossing the 19-foot, 200-pound ''super'' Caber at last year's heavy weight competitions. Got the telephone pole up and sailing all right, but then, just as it was beginning to turn end-over-end, something went wrong — a shift in air currents maybe — anyway, it came crashing down on my head. My doctor said I was lucky. If it had smashed me across the brige of my nose, I would have been killed on the spot.''

''I went to Philadelphia instead.''

''I ...blah, blah, blah...

Unwanted babies could bring joy to adoptive couples

Dear editor:

I am writing to state my beliefs on the abortion issue. I believe I have to offer some novel ideas on the issue instead of old arguments which seem to offer little solution to the real problem of unwanted pregnancies. I shall call my approach "pro-adoption" as opposed to "pro choice" or "pro life".

When visiting some friends who had recently adopted a baby girl, I was totally amazed at the in-depth examination that my friends underwent before they could adopt. I was much more amazed at the shortages of babies available to approved prospective parents. Apparently it was a 15-year-old girl who decided with her parents' approval to give her baby up for adoption. Whatever adjustments that girl and her family made for nine months seem very small when compared to the happiness that baby girl is giving to and receiving from her new parents. Also, with the very tight screening process the new parents went through, I can say with a lot of confidence that this baby could not have chosen a better home to be brought up in.

With some higher profile publicity as to what is involved in adopting children, I believe the problem of unwanted pregnancies could become a very temporary nine-month problem which would end up in a solution lasting a lifetime for couples trying to adopt. With good counselling, mothers giving their child up for adoption because it is not wanted or they do not presently have good means to raise it could realize that it is not something to be ashamed of but to be very proud of. The other approach to an unwanted pregnancy is I am sure, somewhat more difficult for a woman to be proud of.

Instead of one group advocating free abortions at any stage of pregnancy and the other group doing such stupid things as knocking the contraceptive industry, we need people to organize and develop an intelligent solution to the problem. Any one with a touch of common sense and with even a small sex drive would find making contraceptives less available as being a poor response to the problem of unwanted pregnancy. Anyone with a touch of morality would have real trouble dealing with a normal pregnancy ended for no other reason than the child was unwanted by the mother when there are so many parents wanting children.

In summing up, I have presented the following ideas: The real problem requiring answers is that of unwanted pregnancies. Adoption, if properly presented in a high profile form, is a real solution to this problem and can be beneficial to everyone involved in the process.

My personal belief on the legality of abortion is that it should be allowed only at any time where the life of the mother is threatened. To allow it for other reasons will not only cost potential lives, but it will lessen the quality of life for everyone. I would welcome any comments on the above.

Government placing world's ills on smokers

To the editor:

We are a newly formed organization, attempting to secure amendments to many of the recent bylaws concerning smoking.

We are considerate, responsible, taxpaying citizens, who feel the present bylaws contravene all democratic rights and principles.

We do not wish to offend non-smokers who are truly bothered by second-hand smoke, not do we wish to argue that smoking is good for you.

We would point out that smoking is recognized as an addiction by the World Health Organization, and as long as smoking continues to be a legal product, smokers must be given consideration.

Toronto has recently passed a "smoking in the workplace" bylaw, smoking has been banned on buses and on airline flights of less that two hours. Hospitals are making patients stand outside, regardless of the weather, in order to smoke. Many government offices, where we are forced to wait for hours on end, have banned smoking.

We feel that there are many other factors contributing to many of today's ills, including automobile emissions, toxic waste dumping, acid rain and general pollution, however, these things are ignored by the government.

Since smokers are a largely unorganized, unrepresented group in the government, they have quietly decided to place the ills of the world on our shoulders.

It is time for smokers and sympathetic non-smokers to show their leaders that they do object to what is going on.

We are presently collecting names on petitions, in order to present them to our politicians, and if you would be interested in signing, or having a petition sent to you, we would ask that you drop us a line. Don't forget to include your name and address.

We would also like to point out that just because these laws may not have affected your area yet, don't feel too secure. Many municipalities and cities are awaiting the effects before deciding if they will follow suit.

Issues of aging

have as much to give to the Church as younger folk have to give to seniors.

Studies show that people do not become more religious as they age. It has been suggested however, that there is a spiritually inherent in aging in the sense of "life review" — a gathering and weaving together of the threads of life's meaning.

The Church can offer seniors a ministry of accompaniment as they reminisce and reflect on their joys and regrets, their peaks and valleys.

The conference touched on many of the practical issues of aging and rurality, more than can be mentioned in one article. Of pressing concern are issues of transportation, housing and medical services. There is a growing need for seniors' apartments in our country villages and hamlets. Transportation is a problem if people can no longer drive in areas where there is neither bus nor taxi. Adequate funding of home care medical services is essential in areas of small widely scattered populations.

Some questions which the conference raised and which might be profitably discussed in parishes are:

1) What is the most common spiritual concern raised by older members of your parish?

2) What do elderly members in your parish think are the most serious problems in the Church?

3) What roles do the elderly play in your Church? What roles could they play?

Change of heart on abortion issue

In a 20-minute speech to the House of Commons, July 26, Glengarry-Prescott-Russell MP Don Boudria explained why he had a change of heart on the abortion issue.

"I make my remarks perhaps being in an unusual, some would say unorthodox, position of being the only Member of Parliament who has changed his mind, or who has admitted publicly to having changed his mind, on this issue," said Mr. Boudria in his address to the House.

The Member of Parliament changed his stand in mid-April from abortion on demand for women in their first three months of pregnancy to abortion only when the mother's life is endangered.

Mr. Boudria cited that there are live births at 18 or 19 weeks after conception, yet there are abortions at 20 weeks.

He also said that an abortion law is necessary for Canada: "If we as a nation fail to legislate on abortion, I believe that we are allowing society to crumble and we would be contributing toward it."

Mr. Boudria's speech was one of hundreds that took place in a marathon session of the House, which went late into the night and early into the morning of July 26.

"We need a strong law to protect a human from the time of conception," the MP concluded. "I say only one thing to my colleagues that, before they vote, they relect upon the following, and I ask them to let them live.

Reader never noticed double-sided bag

To the editor:

The article "Puffed Wheat Firm at Home in the County" of July 7, 1988 on The Glengarry News proved quite interesting to me, especially so since that product is frequently used in my home.

However what was of most interest to me was the fact that I had never noted the two addresses on the bag before, so I decided to check. One side read "Jackson Newport Foods Limited, North Lancaster, Ont. K0C 1Z0 Product of Canada". The other side read "(Limitée) Jackson Newport Foods Limited, St. Telesphore, Quebec, J0P 1Y0 Produit du Quebec".

Is this hisotry in the making or has it been made' Figure it out yourself?

Many area youths return from summer camps

NORTH LANCASTER
Diane Roy
347-3553

The popular round of parish harvest suppers will soon be starting and Glen Nevis parishioners are in the process of organizing this annual event which will be hosted at Ste. Thérèse school on Sunday, August 28. Keep the date open and bring your friends to this delectable feast!

Summer camps

Last weekend, Gilles and Betty Glaude motored to north of North Bay and then took a ferry to reach the island of Temagami to bring back their daughter Suzanne who had been attending the Canadian Adventure Camp for the past two weeks. Suzanne is content with the experience which showed her new gymnastic moves and water-skiing techniques but is sure glad to be back home to her family and friends . . . On their way back, the Glaudes stopped in Petawawa to visit their daughter Joann who will be completing her military training this week. Also returning with them from the gymnastic camp was Stephanie Fraser of Alexandria.

Marc Campeau and Stephane Elie, two area air cadet members returned last Friday from a two-week air cadet camp in Trenton. The boys gained practical experience with first aid and survival courses and enjoyed exciting outdoor sports such as sailing, canoeing and air gliding. Rosaire, Barbara and son Alain Campeau travelled to Trenton to bring back the tired but happy boys.

Super barbecue

Friends, relatives and co-workers of Paul-Emile and Cécile Campeau gathered at their hosts summer cottage and sugar camp near Glen Roy last Saturday night. Close to 100 guests indulged in a delicious pork and chicken barbecue and corn roast and later sang and danced to the lively music of two local orchestras. The weather co-operated and a great time was enjoyed by all!

Travel bits

Normand and Bernadette Campeau and sons Richard and Patrick enjoyed a few days last week touring beautiful Lac St.-Jean, Que. commonly known as "blueberry country." They were impressed by the warm, friendly atmosphere offered by the region's inhabitants and by the breathtaking mountainous scenery. They encountered a bit of wilderness while travelling as two deers crossed their path.

On their way back, they stopped at the world famous shrine of Notre-Dame du Cap at Cap de La Madeleine, Que., and spent a day with friends in Montreal where the boys learned to water-ski.

Mixed party

Despite last Friday's sizzling heat, many gathered at the Sports Palace in Alexandria for a mixed party in honor of Carol Glaude and Theo Oetelaar. Both Carol and Theo are hoping for "cooler" weather for their wedding day on August 27.

Birthdays

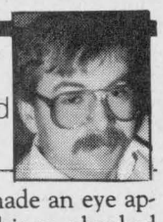
Last Saturday, Cécile Ouimet hosted a double birthday celebration for her son Paul Ouimet for Aug. 6 and for her husband Donat who was 80 years old on Sunday Aug. 7. Mr. Ouimet was particularly pleased upon receiving a framed message of good wishes from Prime Minister Brian Mulroney. Among the friends and relatives gathering for the happy event were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ouimet of Ottawa, Hebert Rusdeuf and his wife from Greenfield and neighbors , Bill Mersereau and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Redpath.

Birthday greetings and happiness to two fine neighbors, Normand Campeau who will be starting a new decade on Saturday Aug. 13 and to friendly Valerie McCormick who will celebrate on Aug. 15.

This week's reflection, "The beginning of wisdom is silence; the second stage is listening."

Time for eye examination, says correspondent

MARTINTOWN
Lorne MacDonald
528-4378



Maybe it's time I made an eye appointment to get things checked out. In last week's column I somehow overlooked Mary Murray's name when I was reporting on the volunteers who worked so hard in collecting for the Cancer Society. And wouldn't you know it Mary was the first one to volunter her services for this drive. My apologies for this oversignt on my part. Footnote: I have an eye appointment with Dr. Guindon (ophthalmic surgeon) on Jan. 9, 1989 at 10 a.m. (he's a busy man). Please bear with me until then!

Get well

Get well wishes go out this week to Grace Kinloch who is in hospital. Hope you're out and about in no time. Glad to hear that Remi Aubin was released from hospital in Ottawa, here's hoping you're all healed.

This Saturday night there will be a reception in honor of Michael and Shelley (Benton) Boyd at Charlottenburgh Arena in Williamstown. There will be music by Scoundrel, lunch, and everyone is welcome. Shelley is the daughter of Gwen and Art Benton of Martintown.

Welcome home to May Thompson and her grandson Jamie, who just returned home from spending the better part of the summer in and around Manchester, England.

Heat-wave brings out truth

I like my job, I enjoy going to work, putting in 12 hours a day, picking up a paycheque every week, even though it's in one hand and out the other. There is a great deal of satisfaction in being a working person, paying one's dues. It's the greatest feeling in the world returning home after putting in a shift and having your family greet you at the door! I could go on and on extolling the virtues of working, and the joy it brings. But to be totally honest, after spending six days off in this recent heat-wave I couldn't wait to get back to my job and the air-conditioned panel room I work out of. I know I'm not alone after talking to friends of ours the other night. The wife who had been on two week's holidays couldn't wait to get back to her air-conditioned surroundings at work. Yes indeed I like my job... but I love my air-conditioned panel room.

Macdonalds reunite here

They came to Alexandria from points across Canada and the United States, and when it ended, family members declared the reunion of the descendants of Col. and Mrs. A.G.F. Macdonald an unforgettable weekend.

About 100 people came together ttravelling from British Columbia, the U.S., Alberta, Quebec and Ontario, in the family's first reunion, organized to celebrate the family of the distinguished Colonel.

He was editor and publisher of The Glengarry News since 1892 for more than half a century until a few years prior to his death on June 24, 1948. As a soldier, his record of service over a period of 28 years included raising of the 154th Battalion in the First World War and taking the unit overseas in 1916.

He and wife Eugenie Hubert raised their large family at the historic Garry Fen residence in Alexandria, now inhabited by the family of Arthur Maclaren and family.

The reunion began with a kick-off luncheon at the Alexandria Curling Club, Saturday, with three of the Colonel's grandchildren declaring it had been "long overdue". A bus tour took the reunion participants to St. Raphael's, the pioneer home of ancestor Allan Sandfield Macdonald, onto Fraserfield, where Eugenie was born, and then to St. Andrew's in Williamstown.

The tour culminated at Garry Fen and a sit-down meal was held at the curling club with a dance following.

On Sunday, all of the relatives attended mass at St. Finnan's Cathedral, the long-time spiritual home of the Macdonalds in Alexandria. The family gravesites in the cemetery were visited in a large group, and another lunch was held at the curling club and friends of the family dropped by for a visit.

Some of the family members toured The News office on Main Street on Sunday.

One of the highlights of the weekend came when the only surviving offspring of Col. and Mrs. A.G.F. Macdonald, Ron, entertained the family with his banjo in a sing-song. Mr. Macdonald is a resident of Maxville Manor.

Other activities included a popular review of old family photographs. Family members had sent in recent and old pictures of family members prior to the reunion.

The reunion was organized by the three grandchildren of A.G.F. Macdonald, Arthur Maclaren of Alexandria, Frances Lafave of Martintown and Louis Sabourin, with help from Eugene Macdonald's family.

"We, the family, had such a good time, we encourage other families to do the same thing," Kevin Macdonald said in commenting on the success of the gathering. "It was worth the effort and no-one should feel daunted by it."

Marked Golden Date

A 50th Wedding Anniversary was held at the Alexander Hall on July 31st to honor Arcade and Cordelia (Dumouchel) Trottier, both from Alexandria.

This event was organized by their daughters Colette, (Jim Rowly of Long Sault,) Doreen of Palm Beach and son Gerald of Rimouski.

A wine and cheese was served from 2 to 4 with over 150 relatives and friends gathered, a testament of Arcade and Cordelia's strong love for each other, family and friends. The hall was nicely decorated for the occasion. The wine and cheese was catered by Mary Prevost of Cornwall.

Following was a mass at Sacred Heart Church with Father Claude G. Thibault celebrating. Mass was served by Mr. and Mrs. Yves Trottier of Montreal, their nephew, Colette, Jim and family Doreen and Gerald. The organist was Claire Lanthier and Jean Paul Touchette was soloist.

Following was a delicious dinner served at the hall where 110 relatives gathered at the place they had their wedding reception 50 years ago. Afterward was a social evening with Mr. and Mrs. Omer Claude playing melodies of music from the 40's to 50's, enchanting the hall for the afternoon and evening.

The guests of honor were the recipients of lovely gifts, cheques and cards. Some of the well-wishers were Brian Mulroney, Town of Alexandria, Fraternite 73, Don Boudria, MP, Noble A. Villeneuve, MPP and John Turner.

Friends and relatives came from Montreal, Rimouski, Ottawa, Quebec, Cornwall, London, Laval, Vanier, North Bay, Rigaud and Verdun.

Lefebvre family reunion draws 150 descendants at Sabourin home

GREEN VALLEY

Evelyne Secours
525-1350

Attending the 50th wedding anniversary of Arcade and Cordelia Trottier (Dumouchel), former neighbors and old friends of the 9th of Lancaster last Sunday were friends I hadn't met or seen for at least 30 years. Gee! It was nice to shake hands with those special friends. It would be nice, if somebody in the years 40s would make a friendly reunion. Let's think about it, before there are too many gone.

Let's all wish the best for Arcade and Cordelia. May God give you health and happiness for a long, long, time to come.

Congratulations to Richard Bourcier who graduated from St. Lawrence College with a diploma in mechanical engineering technology last June. He is a grandson of Wilfrid and Cécile Cuierrier (Emond) of Green Valley. Félicitations Richard! He was a former employee at Canadian Tire (Alexandria).

Wedding

Wedding bells will be ringing Aug. 12 for Aline Théoret of Green Valley and Serge Lefebvre. Hoping you'll have a nice day!

Also, Carter MacDonald, son of Anna Margaret and Mervyn MacDonald of Green Valley will be wed Aug. 13 to Judith McGregor, daughter of Mrs. Kay McGregor. Good luck with your new life.

Remedy for earwigs

Dilute any kind of detergent with a little water to make a paste. Place this paste here and there on your lawn, and around the house. In a few days you'll find a big change. I tried it.

Gardeners

Never pick up yellow beans, when wet; they will become rusty.

* * *

The more you pick cucumbers, the more you will have.

Vacationing

Gilles, Denise, Rachel, and Sylvain Lortie of Green Valley spent a few days in the Laurentians last week.

Visiting

Sister Jeanne Secours of the Grey Nuns Order of Sudbury is vacationing in Montreal with members of her family, and then will be among a family reunion on Sunday, Aug. 7 at her sister's, Berthe Ouellette of Alexandria.

Birthdays

Members of L'Union Culturelle that had their birthdays in July were: Lucette Campeau, Marguerite Lajoie Maria Lefebvre, Rita Millar and Cécile Poirier.

Birthdays for August are: Lucie Dumouchel, Aug. 7; Denise Lortie, Aug. 4; Marthe Filion, Aug. 10; Pauline Quesnel, Aug. 24 and Réjeanne Lajoie, Aug. 28.

July news

A gathering which will be long remembered by Hubert and Cécile Sabourin's family, took place on July 1 when 150 descendants of the Lefebvre families reunited in a family gathering at their home on Hwy. 34 near Green Valley. The purpose of this get-together was to meet and have a chit-chat about their families. home hadn't met in 18 years. Each one brought a cooler to make the task easier for Cécile, so they could enjoy the day themselves.

The day was spent inside because the weather wasn't favorable.

In attendance were grand-nephews and nieces with their families. What a gathering! In these days if you want to know your cousins and relatives you must set a date to meet. Keep it up Cécile. It was a nice gesture.

Anniversary

Coming up is the 25th wedding anniversary of Hubert and Cécile Sabourin on Sept. 2. Let's all join in and celebrate. We wish you both many more years of good health and happiness together.

Visiting

Josée Sabourin of Ottawa was visiting her parents Hubert and Cécile Sabourin and her brothers during the long weekend.

Isidore and Evelyn Secours visited her mother, Mrs. Eva Gareau, at Maxville Manor on Sunday.

Anniversaries

Best wishes to Hortense and Paul-Emile Charbonneau on their 30th wedding anniversary on Aug. 9. These wishes came from close friends in Green Valley.

Also to Emile and Colette Viau on their 25th wedding anniversary, Aug. 10. May these two couples from Green Valley have long happy lives together, so they can see their 50th and 60th anniversaries.

Birthdays

Belated wishes to Yvan Viau on his 24th birthday, Aug. 4. and his grandmother, Mrs. Alexandrine Deschamps (Lajoie), who will be 77 years old Aug. 25th.

Hope you had a nice day Yvan, and best wishes to Alexandrine.

Poirier achieves golf dream

GLEN ROBERTSON

Colette Sauvé
874-2076

André Poirier, while playing golf at the St. Zotique Golf and Country Club Aug. 1, had what every golfer dreams of; a hole in one! Witness to this feat were Marc Sauve and Michel Rozon of Glen Robertson, and Paul Major of North Lancaster. André's name will be eligible in a draw to win a trip to St. Lucie in the Caribbean this fall.

$1,000 draw

Winners ofthe Optimist $1,000 monthly draw held Aug. 1 are Diane Levac and Lorraine Desrochers of Dalhousie Station. Seller of the winning ticket receiving $100 is Levac Chip Stand of Dalhousie. The draw was made by Pierre Felx of Glen Robertson.

Happy birthday wishes to Lucienne Lacombe who celebrated yesterday (Aug. 9) and also to Angus Lyman who will be a year older this Saturday (Aug. 13).

Glen Robertson has a Mary Kay beauty consultant. Ruby McIntee has been with Mary Kay for one year!

Marcel and Polly Vaillancourt from South Carolina were here last week to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Réal Vaillancourt. Being in the area, they dropped in to chat with his aunt, Cécile Lortie.

* * *

We extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Napoléon Legault who passed away last week. He was a brother of Mrs. Blanche Pigeon of Alexandria.

* * *

John and Paula Harden, accompanied by Paula's mother, Molly Peel enjoyed their summer holidays sailing the St. Lawrence River around the Thousand Islands and up to Kingston.

Mrs. Peel returned to her home in Knaresborough, England last Monday.

Dorothy Rickerd and Paul Lacombe embarked at Glen Robertson to be among the passengers on the highlander steam train which took them to Hawkesbury on the old "hill train line." Their families were much involved in the operations of the Canadian National Grand Trunk and Canada Atlantic Railways which used the rails through Glen Robertson.

Paul's father was water boy when the Canada Atlantic rails were laid and he received a new $10 (yellow) bill for his work.

English

Rhonda MacInnes received her Master of Arts in English at Carleton University's spring convocation in Ottawa on June 9, 1988. Rhonda is the daughter of Harold and Marjorie MacInnes of RR1, Maxville. She works for the National Library of Canada.

Two Lancaster families recently held successful reunions

LANCASTER
Janice Montreuil
347-7464, 347-2420

Did you know that today is the birthday of one of the really great ones? Yes, it true, folks — today the other half of the Montreuil team celebrates his special day — so next time you see my Wilfrid, say happybirthday honey! I'd also like to wish Tammara Vanasse — my son's fiancee (Aug. 9) and Ron Sinnott (July 30) belated best wishes.

United Church services will be held at St. Andrew's Church in Bainsville on Aug. 14 at 10:30 a.m. and will be led by Eric Urquhart. Worship will be held on Aug. 21 at Knox Church in Lancaster at 10:30 a.m., also led by Eric Urquhart. On Aug. 28 services will again be at St. Andrew's in Bainsville at 10:30 a.m.

The descendants of Kenny John and Mina Urquhart held a reunion at Eric and Sheila's on Sunday, July 31. About 110 people gathered for a gala day of swimming, horseshoes, tug-of-war and closed with various of the family members displaying their talents; singing, acting and playing instruments. It was easy to see that the musical talents of Kenny John and Mina were inherited. During the roast beef dinner, the crowd was welcomed by the eastern chief, John Urquhart, who had also acted as emcee. The western chief, Mike Molloy, accepted a gift and invited the Urquharts to Calgary for a reunion in 1990. At the same time prizes were given to the oldest and youngest female and male. The oldest overall was 87 and still going strong. The youngest was three months old. The person who travelled the furthest was from Whiterock, B.C. (Vancouver) and Jimmie's granddaughter, Tami, received the prize for coming from a foreign land — Colorado, U.S.A.! The group insisted on Tami accepting the gift in her foreign tongue!! Mae's family received a prize for being the most productive of the clan. Members received awards for carrying on the Scottish tradition of dancing and piping. Everyone left well-fed, in very good humor and vowing to attend the next reunion in Calgary in 1990.

The Seyeau family reunion was held on Saturday, July 30 at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Cornwall with relatives from near and far attending. The family history was given by Bernie Couson of St. Mary's, Ont. Beverly Gaucher of Lancaster gave the blessing. Fourteen children, 34 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren meant that four generations were present. A cold buffet and dancing completed a very happy get together.

Teen dance

A 'Rock Til One O'Clock' teen dance will be held on Saturday, Aug. 20 starting at 8 p.m. in the Legion hall. This event is sponsored by the Lancaster Air Cadet Squadron and they invite kids 12 years of age and up to come and dance to the music of D.J. Frank Gautier. There is a small admission fee.

The annual 'Kids Fun Day' at Smithsfield Hall in Lancaster starts at 12:30 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 21. There will be hot dogs and drinks for the children. Races and games will take place all afternoon with prizes galore. Even the adults will be able to participate in lawn darts and slo-pitch ball at 3 p.m. This event is sponsored by the Lancaster Legion fraternals and members of the Branch 544 and the Lancaster Recreation Association. Plan to attend and bring the whole family.

Pacemakers news

The new executive of the Legion 'Pacemakers' Club for 1988/89 are: President—third term—John Sandilands; first vice-president—Harold Lauzon; second vice-president—Lloyd MacDonald; third vice-president—Janette Lyons; secretary—Flo Ellis and treasurer—Dorothy Fawthrop. Executive members are John Wadsworth, Jim Thomson, Alice Leger, Pierette Primeau, Ina Davies and Nellie Barton. On Wednesday, Aug. 17 at 1:30 p.m. the group will be hosting the 50-member Beauharnois Wednesday Seniors Club. Dinner will be at 5:30 p.m. Pacemakers regular monthly meeting will be held Friday, Aug. 19 at 3:30 p.m. in the Legion hall. The group will also organize and run the annual wine and cheese party for the Legion on Sunday, Sept. 11 at 2 p.m. for members and invited guests only. To date since April 1988, Pacemakers have purchased $10,000 worth of items for the Legion including a copier, new sound systems in both the old and new buildings, dishes and a piano.

Legion week

Legion Week will be the week of Sept. 1—17. Branch 544 in Lancaster will again start off the week with a wine and cheese party (mentioned above) followed by the hosting of Alexandria Branch and Chateau Gardens residents. All members are asked to keep the week open.

We welcome to the Breadalbane area, Diane Coombs and family. Diane is co-publisher of The Review and featured Dalkeith in her ''Sunshine Sketches'' on Aug. 3.

Travellers and visitors

Margery and Heather MacCaskill and Viola Hope went on a Trentway Tour for 12 days through Vermont, Maine, the eastern provinces and back to Quebec City for two days.

Bernice, Joe, Shawn and Phillip Gomes of Toronto spent some days with Maureen and Albert Tessier.

Debbie, Ed, Amanda and Elizabeth Hodgson spent some time with her parents Stella and Lewis Fraser and now have gone to Thorne, Ont.

Hazel and Wallace Holmes of Whitby visited her brother Vincent and Kathleen McPherson and family.

Yvette and Gerald Goulet had an enjoyable holiday at Ste. Agathe.

Recent visitors with Phyliss and Melvin Terry were Anna Beck and Marjorie McDonell of St. Catharines and Ella and Billy Muir of Orleans.

Marge, Fred and Sandy Wayte had a visit of her mother, Leona Kenchan of Kingston. Marge and Sandy returned home with her and spent a week among Marge's sisters and brother in the Kingston area. At the same time Fred went to Glenboro, Man. to visit his parents, Lena and Norman Wayte. During his stay there, they visited Wayte Lake, named in honor of Tom Wayte who was killed in the Second World War.

Cheryl and Sue Caryle of Kingston have visited the Waytes. This past weekend Marge, Fred and Sandy were in Kingston to visit with Terry and Shayna who have recently moved there.

Couple meet friends they hadn't seen in years

GLEN SANDFIELD
Lorna Chapman
874-2408

Tom and Jackie Brown have had a number of recent visitors. Doug and Oleepa Brown and Tracy and Kim of North Bay, were down to pick up Linda who spent the month of July with her grandparents. Kenny and Scott Sauk of Montreal are vacationing with their grandparents. Scott was responsible for making four goals for the Glen Sandfield Peewees soccer team recently. Congratulations Scott; keep up the good work!

* * *

Lionel and Perle Brunet were happily surprised by four recent visitors whom they hadn't seen in 14 years. They were André and Claudette Strasbourg of L'Assomption, Que. and Robert and Louise Strasbourg of Chambly.

* * *

Lucy and Michel Racicot and Monica stopped in to see her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brunet on the way back home to L'Orignal from Niagara Falls. They really enjoyed their vacation there and a special highlight was their visit to wonderful Marineland.

* * *

Sincere sympathy to Sam and Monique McCracken on the recent death of her mother, Mrs. Seville.

Sincere sympathy also to Carey and Sylvia MacMillan on the recent demise of their little son Gordon. Condolences also to the other family members at this sad time.

* * *

Timmy Brun of Ste. Anne de Bellevue spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. Royce Fralic.

Gladys MacRae, in hospital, is about the same.

Friends of Edna MacMillan were concerned when they learned that she is in hospital in Cornwall. Remember them in your prayers.

* * *

Thirty-five to 40 guests attended the ''after the games'' barbecue at Margo and Arnold MacRae's on the Saturday evening. This annual ceilidh is always much enjoyed by the participants.

UCW news

The members of the Glen Sandfield UCW met on Wednesday afternoon at the church. President Lorna Chapman welcomed the group and opened with the call to worship and a poem, ''Widen my Vision'' by H. S. Rice. The scripture was a unison reading of Psalm 23. The meditation was taken from a Readers' Digest reprint, The Basque Sheepherder and the Shepherd's Psalm, written by J. K. Wallace. Readers were Margo MacRae, Lorna Chapman, Sadie MacDougall, Sara MacMillan and Bessie MacLennan, who also led in prayer. Hymns accompanied by Mrs. MacLennan were ''The Lord is my Shepherd'' and ''Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing.''

The Members Purpose opened the business portion. Margo MacRae read the June minutes and gave the financial report. The Evening Hymn Sing Service of Sept. 4 was discussed and sweets only will be served. It has been suggested that blinds would save the pews' finish from further damage by strong sunlight. Margo MacRae is to make some inquiries. After the benediction, the ladies took the time to write the church name in each of the new Hymns for Gospel People books.

Soccer races heat up

As the regular season draws to an end, some interesting playoff races have developed in the Glengarry Soccer League's senior divisions.

While the Glengarry Stars, Glen Nevis and defending-champion Greenfield battle for first place, Alexandria and Pine Grove are involved in a struggle for the fourth and final playoff position.

The Stars have been the surprise senior men's play. They have a few veterans from years past, but the club consists mostly of youthful players.

Glen Nevis also has a number of veterans (Bert MacDonald) but there is also a mixture of youth on the club. Glen Nevis has enjoyed successful campaigns the last couple of years, but for one reason or another, it has come up empty in its bid for the title.

I don't know what it is. Maybe it's the Glen Nevis curse, or the Russell Raymond hex.

Speaking of Greenfield Coach Russell Raymond, he told me recently his club has a few nagging injuries which could hurt its chances of finishing on top after the regular season.

And he said he had a shortage of players for a recent contest. Nothing like trying to keep the opposition off guard, eh Russell?

It seems Greenfield has had a slew of winning clubs over the years. Every year Greenfield appears to be the team to beat in the senior men's loop.

Well, with the likes of Donnie and Frank Morris, Johnny Charlebois, Herb Maley, Benny Phillips and young bloods in Trevor Allen and Robert Wensink, it is highly likely the Greenfield colors of black and red might still be on the soccer pitch early fall.

What makes the Glengarry Soccer League unique is that most of the talent is home grown, with the exception of a few players from fringe areas on the Glengarry border such as the Vankleek Hill area.

In the senior men's loop, competition is keen to say the least. For the remainder of the regular campaign, Pine Grove and Alexandria will slug it out for a berth in the final post-season spot.

In the senior ladies' division, six of seven teams are battling for four playoff positions. When league stats were released Aug. 1, only five points separated fifth-place Greenfield from first-place Glen Sandfield. Alexandria A, Laggan, Alexandria B and Dunvegan are locked in a tight race to determine playoff positions.

The road to this year's ladies' championship appears to be up for grabs. The four clubs who qualify for the playoffs will have earned their way. And that should provide well-balanced playoff series.

The Glengarry Soccer League is the oldest soccer loop in North America, operating since the early 1920s. And as another season winds down, league officials should be congratulated for their effort in running a sound and enjoyable league for its players, coaches and the parents.

Here and there

North Lancaster resident Mike Sauvé has been invited to the Ontario Hockey League's Windsor Spitfires training camp.

Mike played last season with the Alexandria Junior B Glens. He's also been invited to the Hawkesbury Hawks training camp.

A new career

After watching Expos' Hubie Brooks slug it out last week with a Pittsburgh hurler, I'm convinced Hubie might be the next two-sport athlete (Bo Jackson).

Hubie should consider pro boxing in the off-season. After watching his upper cut, he might last longer in the ring with Mike Tyson than most of the champion's opponents.

After all, most of Tyson's ring opponents have been ring bums. I'm sure Hubie would last a little bit longer that 91 seconds.

Heart tourney successful

By Peter Conway
Sports editor

The Ontario Heart and Stroke Foundation came away the big winner at the Glengarry Chapter's annual golf tournament at the Glengarry Golf and Country Club, Saturday.

For the third consecutive year, the tournament has surpassed the previous year's total amount of money raised during the fundraising event.

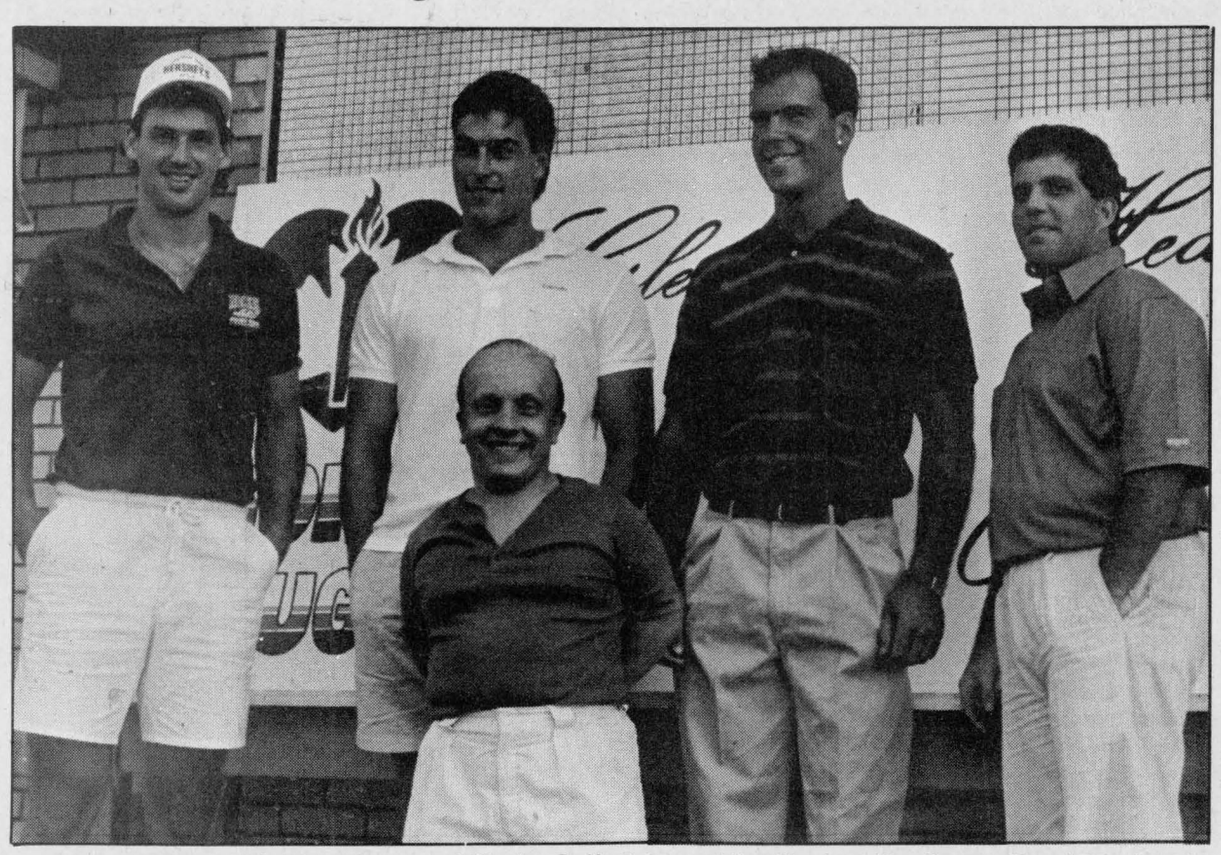
About $2,800 was raised a year ago for heart and stroke research and Saturday's event netted approximately $3,700.

The third annual affair also had its largest field ever, as 100 golfers participated in the 18-hole tournament.

Les Kimbell walked off with top honors, while the top female golfer in the field was Phoebe Hay. Guy L'Heureux won the closest-to-the-pin competition, while Julie Rouette was the lucky winner of a draw for a television.

For the first time in the history of the tournament, organizers held an auction sale of sports items and clothing which raised $740. Some of the more popular items which raised the most money included a Larry Robinson sweater, NHL referee Andy Van Hellemond's sweater and a portrait of Edmonton Oilers Wayne Gretzky, Kevin Lowe and Mark Messier holding the Stanley Cup.

Head table guests included Jeff Brown and Ken McRae of the Quebec Nordiques, Denis Larocque of the Los Angeles Kings and Randy Taylor of the Pittsburgh Penguins.



The third annual Glengarry Heart and Stroke Golf Open raised about $3,700 for heart and stroke research, Saturday. Standing in the back row, left, are Ken McRae of the Quebec Nordiques, Jeff Brown of the Quebec Nordiques, Randy Taylor of the Pittsburgh Penguins and tournamant co-chairman Peter Conway. Standing in front is tournament co-chairman Wally Hope Jr.

Organizers of the event were extremely pleased with the amount of money raised and they are confident next year's tournament will be even more successful.

Next year's tournament is tentatively scheduled for Aug. 12 at the Glengarry Golf and Country Club.

Pine Grove battles Alexandria for spot

Pine Grove continues to battle Alexandria for the fourth and final playoff spot in the senior men's division in the Glengarry Soccer League.

After Pine Grove's 6-1 win over Martintown Sunday night, Barry MacSweyn's club trails fourth place Alexandria by three points in the race for the final playoff spot.

Roy MacMaster and Kenny Barton tallied twice each for Pine Grove, while singles went to Glen Hay and Shawn MacLeod. Philip Poitras was the lone marksman for Martintown.

Richard Daniels fired a pair of goals to spark the Glengarry Stars to a 3-2 squeaker over Glen Nevis Saturday night. Steven Cameron completed the scoring for the Stars.

Replying for Glen Nevis were Bob Lancaster and Chris McBean.

Alexandria and Glen Nevis settled for a 2-2 draw last Friday night. Glen MacMillan scored both goals for Alexandria, while Keith McDonell and John Wood replied for Glen Nevis.

The Glengarry Stars nipped Pine Grove, 2-1 last Thursday night. Mark Barlow and Richard Daniels were the marksmen for the Stars, while Darrell Hay tallied for Pine Grove.

In a game played Aug. 2, Pine Grove and Glen Nevis battled to a 4-4 draw. Lucien Koggel sparked Glen Nevis with a hat trick, while Keith McDonell chipped in with a single.

Darrell Hay led Pine Grove with a pair of markers, while Hugh MacMaster and Bruce MacGillivray added singles.

In another game the same evening, Alexandria nipped Martintown, 2-1. Glen MacMillan scored both goals for Alexandria, while Joey Wallis tallied for Martintown.

Donnie Morris scored three times to spark Greenfield in a 5-0 win over Glen Sandfield, Aug. 1. Cameron McLeod rounded out the scoring with a pair of markers, while David Wensink earned the shutout between the pipes.

Senior ladies

The Van Loons provided the scoring punch in Greenfield's 2-1 win over Glen Sandfield, Aug. 3. Kathy and Shirley Van Loon were the Greenfield scorers, while Micheline Paquette replied for Glen Sandfield.

In a game played Aug. 1, Alexandria A received shutout goaltending from Jocelyn Roman in a 2-0 win over Maxville. Diane Lefebvre and Jenny MacDonald accounted for the Alexandria scoring.

Bantams

Hugh MacLeod and Joe Fournier scored a pair of goals each as Laggan blanked Greenfield Saturday night in a Bantam contest. Scott McIntosh rounded out the scoring.

Three games resulted in default victories last week. Alexandria blanked Glen Sandfield, 2-0, Glen Sandfield beat Laggan 2-0 and Alexandria defeated Greenfield, 2-0.

In a contest played Aug. 2, Alexandria and Greenfield fought to a 3-3 draw. Marc Seguin paced Alexandria with two goals, while Brian Cameron added a single.

Norman Derepentigny fired a pair of goals for Greenfield, while Daniel

Roy's, Chez Paul in final

It's becoming old hat to determine the finalists for the league championship in the Alexandria Ball Hockey League.

Defending league-champion Roy's Express will again meet Chez Paul for the league championship.

Leonard Seguin scored a pair of markers last Tuesday night to lift Roy's Express to a 5-2 win over Jake at Work to advance to the final.

Rounding out the scoring for the winners were Gilles Massia, Grant Crack and Frank St. Pierre. Richard Picard and Yves Poirier were the marksmen for Jake at Work.

After scoring with 1:18 left on the clock to send the game into overtime, Chez Paul's Kennedy MacDonald scored three minutes into the extra session to give his club an exciting 3-2 win over Robert Lajoie Tire Service.

Andy McRae rounded out the scoring for Chez Paul, while Marc Sauvé tallied both goals in a losing effort.

In the opening games of both A Division semi-final series, Roy's Express beat Jake at Work, 4-1 and Chez Paul dumped Robert Lajoie Tire Service, 6-2.

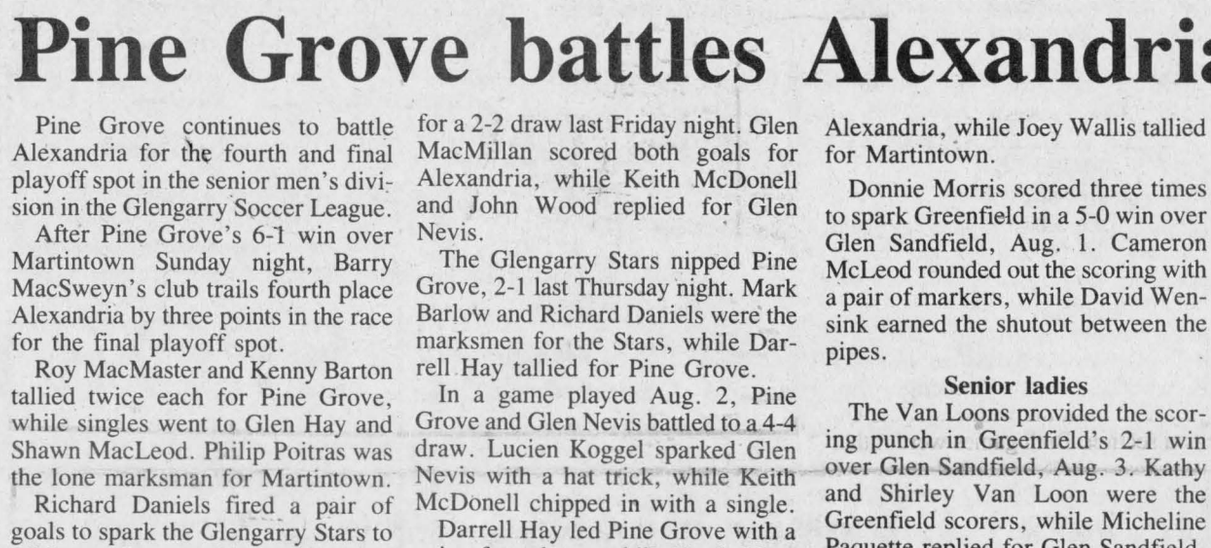
Greenfield and Mike Gibbs will meet for the B Division championship. In a round-robin contest last Wednesday night, Greenfield and Glengarry Trophy battled to a 5-5 draw.

Greenfield's goals came off the sticks of Larry Smith, Kevin Villeneuve, Dave Leroux, Phil Lewis and Allan Robinson.

Scoring for Glengarry Trophy were Bill McLean, Andre Paquette, Gerry Blanchette, Marc Duval and John MacSweyn.

In a contest the previous night, Greenfield doubled Mike Gibbs, 4-2. Kevin Villeneuve and Allan Robinson led Greenfield's scoring with a pair of markers each.

Tom Pasco and Don Wightman were the marksmen for Mike Gibbs.



Provincial champs

The Glengarry Junior Farmers soccer team came home with the provincial soccer title after competing in a tournament in Guelph over the weekend. Standing in the back row, left, are Shirley Van Loon, Marnie MacRae, Wendy Hay, John MacSweyn, Diane Lefebvre, Fiona MacDonell and Anne Ferguson. Kneeling in the front row, left, are Hugh MacMaster, Darrell Hay, Trevor Allen, Lyndon MacNaughton, Millan MacPerson, Stanton MacDonald and David Filion.

Junior Farmers win tourney

By Peter Conway
Sports editor

The Glengarry Junior Farmers soccer team is once again the top club in the province.

After losing to Stormont County at the regional games in Kemptville a year ago, Glengarry bounced back to win the provincial soccer title at the Junior Farmers Provincial Summer Games over the weekend in Guelph.

The provincial championship was Glengarry's eighth in the last nine years. Glengarry opened the six-team tournament with a 4-0 win over Haldimand County.

Scoring goals were David Filion, Millan MacPherson, Wendy Hay and Hughie MacMaster.

The local squad then received a bye into the championship game. Though the opening moments of the final saw both clubs exhibit a cautious style, Glengarry took command and went on to win the championship with a 6-0 win over North Simcoe County.

Glengarry received solid goaltending from John MacSweyn. While he didn't handle many shots in both games,there were a few occasions which required big saves from the Glengarry keeper.

"He didn't have too many shots, but he was there to make the big save when we needed him," said Millan MacPherson, the club's captain.

MacPherson spearheaded the offence in the final, scoring three times, while singles went to Wendy Hay, Hughie MacMaster and Stanton MacDonald.

MacPherson said his club had plenty of offensive firepower, but he praised the effort of the defence for the club's success.

"The defence played really well in both games. People like Stanton Macdonald, Lyndon MacNaughton and Anne Ferguson had strong outings for us on defence," said MacPherson.

Beaupre Construction stretches series with first victory

Defending league-champion Beaupre Construction is still alive in its quest to repeat as the Glengarry Slo-Pitch League champion.

Beaupre Construction scored twice in the fourth inning and hung on for a 6-5 squeaker over Dunvegan, Sunday. Dunvegan still leads the best-of-five semi-final series, 2-1.

Blake Hambleton knocked in three runs for the winners, while Richard Prieur had a pair and Mike Prieur, one RBI.

Lionel led Dunvegan's attack with two RBIs, while Mike Duval and Mark Duval had single ribbies.

Alexandria Pizza swept its A semi-final series following a 10-9 win over Decoste Welding. Spearheading the offence for the winners was Gerard Gareau with four RBIs. Knocking in one run each were Brent Caskenette, Bob Boisvenue, Rejean Duperron and Rejean Dupuis.

Daniel Brunet and Michel Lefebvre sparked the Decoste Welding attack with two RBIs each. Michel Gauthier and Yves Decoste each had one RBI.

AJK Video leads the B final, 2-1 following a 12-7 loss to Baker's Pride. Jacques Deguire knocked in three runs for Baker's Pride, while Andy Leblanc had a pair of RBIs.

Robert Decoste provided the offence for AJK Video with three RBIs, while Kenny Tyo and Doug Ellison had one RBI each.

Looking for hockey clubs

Border Hockey League officials are looking for anyone interested in entering a team in the loop for the 1988-89 season.

Anyone wishing to assist the league in any capacity can call Jim McDonell at 938-5115 during the day, or 931-1797 at night.

Six athletes to be inducted

by Angus H. McDonell

The summer schedule of major Glengarry entertainments is on the wane. The beginning each year is the staging in early June of the Kenyon Agriculture Society (Maxville) Fair. There is a gradual county build-up to the climax, the world renowned Glengarry Highland Games. Then tapering down with the religious heritage annual Kirkin' O' the Tartan, Kirk Hill, Galarama and Mount Carmel Concert in the Ruins, St. Raphael's, and celebrating the oldest Agriculture Fair in Ontario at Williamstown.

The series of autumn attractions will be launched in the Charlottenburgh Recreation Centre, Williamstown, Wednesday, September 7, with the annual athletes induction dinner for the Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame. This is a change from the usual early July date as has been the custom and is due to the usually uncomfortable warm weather prevailing, especially in the arena areas of the sports complex buildings of Alexandria, Williamstown and Maxville, where the dinners alternate each year. A September date just previous to ice making will likely become permanent.

Another reason for switching dates was due to the feasibility study being conducted in July and it is anticipated that the investigation would be completed by September and possibly the long awaited results presented as part of the dinner program.

The six candidates recently selected by the directors to be inducted represent various areas of Glengarry and in diversified achievements from World Lacrosse Championships of the 1890s to the current International powerlifting exploits of a local athlete.

The inductees were chosen from a lengthy list of nominees, however, those deferred always remain on file and are subject to review the following year.

The Williamstown athletic family name of Sullivan heads briefly those to be enshrined. The Sullivans have been prominent in Glengarry sports ever since Jeremiah ("Jerry") Sullivan played lacrosse with the Cornwall World Champions Lacrosse Club in the 1890s. This legacy was carried further by six sons in both lacrosse and hockey.

Another lacrosse stalwart playing with the same Cornwall team "Centennial" Grant, hailing from the Lancaster area, was rated by his peers as one of the all-time great Canadian lacrosse players and surely deserves a niche in the Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame.

T-ball squad

Calfacacos scores five goals in minor soccer victory

Dean Poirier and Jeff Lapierre scored for Glendale Greens in the team's 2-1 win over Coca-Cola in a recent Bantam game. Greg Deschamps replied for Coke.

Rob McIntosh and Munro Feed battled to a 1-1 duel with Innes Fraser scoring for McIntosh and Dave McDonald for Munro.

In games played July 28, it was the Deschamps brothers, Brian and Greg, each with a two goal performance, leading Coca Cola to a 5-2 victory over Rob McIntosh. Kirk McDonell also scored for Coke, while David Algire and Innes Fraser had McIntosh's goals.

Joshua Harrington's three-goal effort combined with two markers from Jeff Robertson, led Munro Feed to a 5-2 win against Glendale. Kurtis Latreille and Jeff Lapierre scored for Glendale.

Mosquitoes

Action July 21 saw Emard Lumber defeat Char-Lan All-Stars 3-1. Spencer Roberts scored twice for Emard's, while Gary Benson replied for Char-Lan.

The duo of Katherine MacLachlan and Perry Calfacacos was too much for the Yellows as it was defeated by the Blues 8-3. Katherine had four goals while Perry had three and Jason Alguire, one. Marty McDonell did it all for the Yellows with a hat-trick.

Emard Lumber blanked Team 2 in a game played July 28. Spencer Roberts scored three times, Nicholas Parisee, twice and Jason McCallum, once.

Perry Calfacacos' five-goal performance plus one from Katherine MacLachlan led the Blues to a 6-1 rout over the Greens. Scott Giroux had the Greens' lone goal.

Sprite

Dean Fraser scored for Soccerfest White and Michael Belmore for Bolger Steel as the two teams played to a 1-1 draw.

Gwen Tuppert had two goals, Ryan Gillespie, Shonna Atchison and Jesse Wenkiewicz, one each as Camco blanked Laframboise 5-0.

Kent McDonell with three goals and Patrick Dubeau with one helped Laframboise Reds to a 4-1 triumph over Bolger Steel. Kirk MacMillan scored for Bolger.

Gwen Tuppert had three goals for Camco in its 3-2 decision over Soccerfest White. Jason Flaro and Oliver Barrie scored for Soccerfest.

Tyke

Jean-Normand Giroux and Jordy Flaro had three goals apiece as Soccerfest Blue whitewashed Rozon Insurance 6-0

Wasco and Soccerfest Red played to a 2-2 tie with Nicolas Currie getting both goals for Wasco and Derek Wagar and Clayton Delaney answering for Soccerfest Red.

The July 28 match between Soccerfest Red and Soccerfest Blue ended in a 2-2 tie. Joseph Sugden scored both goals for the Reds and Jordy Flaro had two for the Blues.

Graham Charbonneau with two and Angie Allaire with one goal scored for Wasco in its 3-1 win over Rozon Insurance. Katie Cumming scored for Rozon.

Six athletes to be inducted

Classified as one of the most courageous athletes in the realm of weight lifting sport anywhere in the world is Maxville's John Baxter. He is to be enshrined for posterity in Glengarry athletic heritage.

Rifle shooting in Glengarry is a long gone sport that was popular in the fall as competitors held ''turkey'' shoots in gravel pits. A few continued in the sport and reached the lofty level of fame.

Among those in that class is Wm. ''Bill'' Ewing, a Glengarrian by adoption since 1955 when he settled in the McCrimmon area, as the old folks would say, ''The 18th of Lochiel''.

Young Bill Ewing enjoyed better than a gravel pit beginning. As a student he joined the M.A.A.A. (Montreal) Revolver Club, then on to the rifle class in international competitions that will be reviewed in a later biography.

Alexandria's nominee hardly requires an introduction to Glengarrians, in particular older residents — Dave Lalonde. Dave was a journeyman class player in hockey and lacrosse but more must be added. He was a curling enthusiast, both in the game and a builder. The same can be said about lawn bowling. In retirement he was still active until illness prevented his long standing support.

Complying with the request of younger sport fans that a member of their generation be among the inductees, the Hall of Fame directors appreciated the suggestion and trust the the selection of Greenfield's all-time great athlete and sportsman Gerald (Ranald Hughie Ranald) McDonald will prove a popular selection. More anon.

Junior Girls

Alexandria squeaked past Laggan, 3-2 last Thursday evening. Rachel Denner scored all of the Alexandria goals, while Tammy MacSweyn and Erin Graham replied for Laggan.

In a game played Aug. 2, Meghan MacPherson scored the only goal as Glen Sandfield nipped Alexandria, 1-0. Polly Johnson earned the shutout between the pipes.

Sprites

Glen Norman posted a 2-1 squeaker over Apple Hill, Friday night. Scoring for the winners were Stuart Rutherford and Tim MacCuaig, while Ian Wilson replied for Apple Hill.

In a contest played Aug. 3, Alexandria nipped Laggan, 3-2 as Jamie Ladouceur scored a pair of goals. Chancey Lajoie rounded out the scoring for the winners, while Jeremy Dubeau scored both goals for Laggan.

Craig Calvank's hat trick sparked Glen Sandfield to a 5-0 win over Apple Hill ina game played Aug. 1. Nick VanderByl and Jason Poll completed the scoring, while Neil Decoeur earned the shutout.

Peewees

Mathew Steiche and Scott MacPherson scored two goals each to lift Laggan to an easy 8-0 win over Glen Norman, Saturday night.

Rounding out the scoring for the winners were Ewen Kennedy, Jamie McRae,Chris Van Drunnen, Kent O'Shea and Daniel Steiche. Tim Walker earned the shutout.

Liam Kemp's two-goal performance lifted Alexandria in a 2-0 win over Greenfield, Friday night. Jeff Johnson earned the shutout.

In an Aug. 3 contest, Mathew Steiche and Jamie McRae tallied twice each as Laggan defeated Glen Sandfield, 8-1. Daniel Steiche, Scott MacPherson, Kent O'Shea and Steven McIntosh completed the scoring with singles, while Scott Sauk replied for Glen Sandfield.

Intermediate Girls

Alyson Graham scored all of her team's goals as Laggan squeaked past Alexandria B, 3-2 Friday night. Brenda Taylor replied for Alexandria.

The big catch

Alexandria resident Gary Harris landed a 47-1/2 pound carp while fishing on the St. Lawrence River near Charlottenburgh Park, Thursday, July 28. The catch is believed to be only a few pounds off the world mark of 50 lbs. for a carp. A bow was used to harpoon the mammoth fish.

Doiron continues hot streak in modified race

By Peter Conway
Sports writer

The Ovide Doiron-Pat O'Brien Show continued at Cornwall Motor Speedway, Sunday night. And as was the case a week ago, the script remained the same.

Doiron, the veteran driver from Alexandria, left the field of drivers behind him early in the modified feature and held off O'Brien to take the checkered flag. It was Doiron's third consecutive feature win.

Doiron's recent success comes on the heels of his spectacular mishap only three weeks ago at the Cornwall oval track.

Competing in the Miller Lite Summer Nationals, the vehicle was severely damaged from the mishap, but he took it to Rochester, N.Y. to have it repaired.

Since his return to the circuit with his new vehicle, Doiron has been in a class by himself. He won at Frogtown Speedway, Friday night and placed second the following night at Can-Am Speedway in Lafargeville, N.Y.

Other finishers behind Doiron and O'Brien in the modified feature were Leon Gonyo, Bill Munro, Bob Savoie, Alexandria's Marc Lalonde, Skip McKenzie, Sandy Roberts, Alexandria's Laurent Ladouceur and Mark Hitchcock to round out the top 10 competitors.

Despite his second-place finish, O'Brien still leads the points race in the Player's Series Championship.

Massena's Kevin Fetterly edged Sylvain Latulippe to win the semi-pro feature race. Hawkesbury's Jean Larocque finished in third position, while Robert Levac placed fourth.

In the Duke Stock class, Mike Bulanda crossed the finish line first, while Jasmin Laframboise and Mike Theoret were second and third respectively.

Marc Lalonde's sixth-place finish vaulted him into eighth place overall with 207 points in the Player's Professional Series. He continues to battle Stephane Lafrance for the top rookie driver award in the modified class. Lafrance is in sixth place in the standings with 219 points.

Alexandria's Ron Valade won his heat and placed 12th in the modified feature. He has moved into the top 10 in the points standigs with 198 points. Dave Heaslip of Smiths Falls and Alexandria's Laurent Ladouceur are tied for third position with 318 points.

The top six drivers in the Miller Super Series are Pat O'Brien, 172, Ovide Doiron, 137, Dave Heaslip, 122, Laurent Ladouceur, 114, Charlie Wilbur, 110 and Bill Munro with 102.

The Riverview Dodge Series for semi-pro drivers has Guy Brisson in first place in the points race with 325. Rounding out the top seven drivers are Sylvain Latulippe, 305, Kevin Feterly, 274, Jim Malloy, 264, Robert Levac, 263, Glen McHugh, 219 and Jean Larocque, despite missing the first five races, is in seventh position with 182 points.

Track officials are expecting a large crowd Sunday night when Fan Appreciation Night is held at Cornwall Motor Speedway. The racing program begins at 7:30 p.m.

Alexandria Lanes wins title

Alexandria Lanes captured the Alexandria Men's Softball League championship with a three-game sweep over pennant-winning Giroux Sport, Monday night.

Alexandria Lanes secured its championship with a four-run sixth inning during a 9-6 win over Giroux Sport. Donald Carriere provided the offensive attack with two RBIs.

Alexandria Moulding evened its best-of-five B final following a 5-4 squeaker over Home Hardware. Moulding's marginof victory came in the fifth inning, scoring a pair of runs.

RBIs for the winners went to Doug Meldrum with a pair, and singles from Eric Hamelin and Bernie Menard.

Atlantic Hotel stretches lead

The Atlantic Hotel continues to run away with first place in the Glen Division, following 11 weeks of play in the Men's Twilite League at the Glengarry Golf and Country Club.

Atlantic Hotel leads with 42 1/2 points, while Gerry Deguire Plumbing and E.R. Campeau Lumber are tied for second place with 34 points each.

Alexandria Moulding is next with 30, while Dick's Paving Stone is in fifth position with 24 1/2.

Menard Lumber sits in top spot in the Garry Division with 43 points, followed by Titley Chev-Olds with 40 1/2. The Bookies sit in third place with 38 1/2, while the Sports Bar and Grill is next with 24. Roy's Pontiac-Buick occupies fifth place with 15 points.

IGA squeaks past Stedman's

Spectators watching the Alexandria Youth T-Ball League contests were treated to four exciting games at the GTL and Lions' ballfields, Thursday night.

IGA squeaked past Stedman's, 20-18 in the opener, while Sultan Drugs slipped past Remax, 18-16.

In the other two contests, MJTT beat Royal Bank, 24-21, and Home Hardware nipped Tapis Richard, 15-14.

First inning lifts Lalonde's

Lalonde's General Store scored seven first-inning runs and went on to post an easy 31-5 victory over Sultan Drugs in the Alexandria Ladies Softball League last Wednesday night.

Manon Carriere knocked in six runs to pace the offensive attack for the winners, while Johanne Menard and Joanne Lauzon had three ribbies each. Sue Borris scored five times, while Lynn Lauzon crossed the plate four times.

Martine Theoret knocked home two runs for Sultan Drugs, while Julie Viau scored twice.

In the opening game of the evening, league-leading BMR posted a 15-0 win over Roy's Garage. Sylvie Menard and Naomi MacKenzie knocked in two runs each for BMR. Menard crossed the plate three times, while Linda Lanthier, Line Brabant, Sue Decoste, Chantal Legault and MacKenzie scored twice each.

Two games were played last Tuesday night. In the nightcap, Caisse Populaire defeated ABS, 29-2.

Sparking the offence for the winners were Roxanne Lauzon with six RBIs, while Elaine Oetelaar had five ribbies.

Jocelyn Marleau and Denyse Lambert scored the runs for ABS.

In the opener, Caisse Populaire easily defeated Sultan Drugs, 16-1.

Powerlifting at GDHS

The third annual Eastern Ontario Open Powerlifting Contest will be held Aug. 27 at Glengarry District High School.

Organized by Pattyn's Gym, the event is open to any male and female registered powerlifter. Local lifters will compete in the one-day affair.

The event is sanctioned by the Ontario Powerlifting Association. Trophies will be awarded to the top three competitors in the men's and women's class.

Obituaries

Stanley Dean Reid

A native of Maxville, Stanley Dean Reid died in Saskatoon, Sask., on July 1, 1988. He was the son of George Wesley Reid and his wife Catherine Margaret Robertson, both deceased.

The late Mr. Reid served during the Second World War with the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards in England, Italy and Sicily. On his return from overseas in 1946, he attended the Kemptville Agricultural College where he received several athletic awards. In 1947, he moved to Saskatoon, his home until his death. He retired from Labatt Breweries in 1983.

Left to mourn his death are his wife, the former Dorothy Anderson, a brother Ian Edward, Saskatoon, and sisters Eileen McNeill, Kenmore, Doreen Wallace, Ottawa and Catherine Leadbetter, Edmonton and several nieces and nephews. A sister, Eleanor Nora, predeceased her brother.

Gordon Alan MacMillan

Gordon Alan MacMillan, son of Carey and Sylvia MacMillan of RR2 Dalkeith, died at the Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario in Ottawa, August 2, 1988. He was 16 months old.

He leaves to remember him with love his parents, older sister Kara, grandparents Grace and Gordon MacMillan of Glen Sandfield, Thelma (Doreen) Lewis of Montreal, Phillip Lewis of Cornwall, uncles Darrell Lewis and his wife Joanne of Alexandria, Phil Lewis of St. Elmo, Lyndon Lewis also of St. Elmo, Robert MacMillan and his wife Shirley of Lethbridge, Alta., Scott MacMillan, also of Lethbridge, and an aunt, Brenda MacMillan of Glen Sandfield.

He is also remembered by his great grandmothers Greta MacMillan of Maxville Manor and Rose Ledoux of Cornwall, and many loving cousins.

Gordon's wake was held August 4, 1988 at the Munro and Morris Funeral Home. A private funeral service was held at the funeral home on August 5, 1988, conducted by Rev. Karen Hincke. Interment was at the Kirk Hill United Church Cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Phil Lewis, Lyndon Lewis, Hugh MacLeod and Campbell MacLeod.

Rod R. (Sandy) MacRae

Rod R. MacRae, formerly of the Glen Sandfield area (Brodie) died on July 25, 1988 at the Pleasant Rest Nursing Home in L'Orignal. He had been a resident for the past five years and was 81 years old.

For most of his life, Mr. MacRae farmed at Brodie with his father. After his marriage to Helen Durant, they moved to Vankleek Hill and he was employed with an ammunition company in Brownsburg, Que. He later returned to his farm.

He was the only son of the late Alexander MacRae and the late Mary Ann Carkner.

He was predeceased by his wife Helen Grace Durant and earlier, a daughter, Patricia Heather and sister Mary Curran.

Left to mourn his passing are a son, Howard of Vankleek Hill, and daughters Ruby Cullen of Red Lake, Ont., Ann Cousineau of Alexandria, Lily Bissonnette of Greenfield and Alexina McPherson, Claire Hunter and Heather Golding, all of Vankleek Hill.

He is also survived by two sisters: Beth MacRae of Montreal and Verna Dewar of St. Telesphore, Que., as well as many nieces, nephews, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Visitations were held at the Noel Berthiaume Funeral Home in Vankleek Hill and the funeral service was at the Knox Presbyterian Church on July 28, 1988. The service was conducted by Rev. Robert Martin. Burial was at the Presbyterian Church Cemetery at Kirk Hill.

Pallbearers were Kenneth MacDougall, Lynus MacPherson, Howard Noble, Raymond Conway, Ron MacRae and Kevin Cousineau.

Mary Ann Brown

Mary Ann Brown died at Hotel Dieu Hospital in Cornwall on July 27, 1988 at the age of 81.

Daughter of the late Julien Belair and the late Matilda Seguin, she was also predeceased by her husband Joseph Brown.

An Alexandria native, she made her final residence at the Glen-Stor-Dun Lodge in Cornwall.

She leaves to mourn her passing one son and one daughter: Gerald of Ottawa and Mary (Mrs. George Gosling) of Cornwall.

She was predeceased by three sons: Daniel, Joseph and Aldebert.

She is also survived by sisters Laurette (Mrs. Paul Dore) of Alexandria and Rosana (Mrs. Albert Lacombe) of Ottawa.

Funeral services were officated by Rev. Norman Loney of St. Francis de Sales at the Wilson Funeral Home chapel on July 28, 1988. Burial was at Woodlawn Cemetery in Cornwall.

Pallbearers were George Gosling, William Gosling, Perry Gosling, Michael Gosling, Thomas Gosling and Kevin Gosling.

Mauno Kalervo Veltheim

Mauno Kalervo Veltheim died at his Maxville home on Aug. 1, 1988. He was 69 years old.

Beloved husband of Ethel Sapmann, he moved from Finland to Canada where he established a small wood-carving business in Maxville.

He was predeceased by his parents Bror-Rollf and Helmi Veltheim.

He is survived by three sons and three daughters: George of Lunenburg, Ont., Earl of Cornwall, Tor of Maxville, Kristina (Mrs. Peter Overton) of Toronto, Doris (Mrs. David Bourbonnais) of Maxville and Ingrid (Mrs. Michael Hughes) of Cornwall.

He also leaves to mourn 13 grandchildren.

A private ceremony was held at the Veltheim home. Cremation was at the Munro and Morris Funeral Home in Maxville.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Heart and Stroke Foundation.

NOTICE

TOWNSHIP OF KENYON

SWIMMING POOLS

By-Law #35-88 states in part that:

1) No privately-owned outdoor swimming pool shall be located closer than 1.5 metres to any rear or side lot line.
2) All privately-owned outdoor swimming pools shall be protected by a fence and locking gate which shall be not less than 1.5 metres in height and made of sturdy material such as board or chain link and all openings shall be of a size to not permit a sphrical object of 10cm to pass. The gate shall be kept locked when not in use.
3) The walls of an above ground pool can be considered as part of the overall height requirement for the enclosure.
4) Permits for the installation of pools shall be obtained at the Township Office from the Chief Building Official.
5) This bylaw applies to the whole Township.
6) Any person who contravenes any section of this bylaw and who is found guilty of an offence in a court of competent jurisdiction is subject to a fine not exceeding $2000.00 exclusive of costs as authorized under Section 321 of the Municipal Act, RSO 1980.

Corporation of the Township of Kenyon

SALE OF LAND BY PUBLIC TENDER

Municipal Tax Sales Act, 1984

TAKE NOTICE that tenders are invited for the purchase of the land(s) described below and will be received until 3:00 p.m. local time on August 30th, 1988 at Clerk's Office, Greenfield, Ont.

The tenders will then be opened in public on the same day at 7:30 p.m.

Description: Part of Lot 1, Con. 9 described as Firstly and Secondly in Instrument No. 18981 registered in the Land Registry Office of the County of Glengarry, Township of Kenyon.

Minimum Tender Amount: $2,500.84.

Please refer to TR files 86-06 and 86-07.

NOTE: The property herein described comprises 0.11 acres and is not large enough for a building lot.

Tenders must be submitted in the prescribed form and must be accompanied by a deposit in the form of a money order or of a bank draft or cheque certified by a bank, trust company or Province of Ontario Savings Office payable to the municipality (or board) and representing at least 20 per cent of the tender amount.

The municipality makes no representation ragarding the title to or any other matters relating to the land to be sold. Responsibility for ascertaining these matters rests with the potential purchasers.

This sale is governed by the Municipal Tax Sales Act, 1984, being chapter 48 of the Statutes of Ontario 1984 and the Municipal Tax Sales Rules made under that Act. The successful purchaser will be required to pay the amount tendered plus accumulated taxes and the relevant land transfer tax.

THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF KENYON NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING

The Council of the Corporation of the Township of Kenyon intends to pass a Zoning Bylaw for the whole of the Township. Pursuant to Section 34 (12) of The Planning Act (1983), Council will hold a public meeting on August 16, 1988, at 7:30 p.m. to outline the content, effect of the Bylaw, as well as showing the lands affected. All those interested are hereby invited to attend the meeting and express their view on the amending Bylaw. A public meeting with respect to the draft zoning bylaw has already been held.

PURPOSE OF THE BYLAW

a) Relationship to Official Plan
The purpose of Zoning Bylaw is to implement the policies contained in the Official Plan of the Township of Kenyon (Section 9.1; Zoning Bylaw).
The Official Plan is a document which establishes overall policies for growth to ensure that development is consistent with good planning principles and the Township's ability to provide the necessary services. The Zoning Bylaw, in implementing the Official Plan, must be in conformity with the Official Plan.

b) Zoning Bylaw
The purpose of the Zoning Bylaw is to regulate the use of land and the character, location and use of buildings and structures, prohibit incompatible uses of land and the erection and use of buildings and structures within the various areas (or zones) of The Corporation of the Township of Kenyon except as specifically permitted in the Bylaw. The Bylaw, by regulating and restricting development within the Township, provides a vehicle which permits the evaluation of new development proposals to ensure they are in keeping with the Official Plan and represent an orderly development of the Township.
The defined area provisions of the proposed Zoning Bylaw will apply to all of the defined areas within the Corporate limits of the Township of Kenyon. After the Bylaw is in force, no land may be used and no building or structure may be erected, altered or used in any manner except in conformity within the provisions of the Bylaw.
The Bylaw does not apply to prevent or hinder the continued use of any land, building or structure which, on the date of the passing of the Bylaw was legally erected or used for any purpose prohibited by the Bylaw, so long as it continues to be used for that purpose.
It is strongly urged that every property owner examine the text and schedules of the Zoning Bylaw to determine the status of his/her property and how he/she is affected by the Bylaw. The importance of checking the regulations affecting your property cannot be overemphasized.

EFFECT OF THE BYLAW

The Zoning Bylaw will implement the Township's Official Plan through regulation of the use of land and construction of building and structures.

PUBLIC MEETING PLACE

Township Office, Greenfield, Ontario, August 16, 1988, 7:30 p.m.

For further information, or to review a copy of the Bylaw being considered, contact Mrs. Mary J. McCuaig, Clerk-Treasurer, Township of Kenyon, Greenfield, Ontario K0C 1A0, or phone (613) 527-2090 during regular business hours.

The cream of the crop blessed the Williamstown Fair fashion show

WILLIAMSTOWN
Sue Harrington
347-2279

The crowds were there. The dignitaries were there. The queens were definitely there, and so were the BEES! The 176th edition of the Williamstown Fair is now history, but we still long remember the moments precious to it.

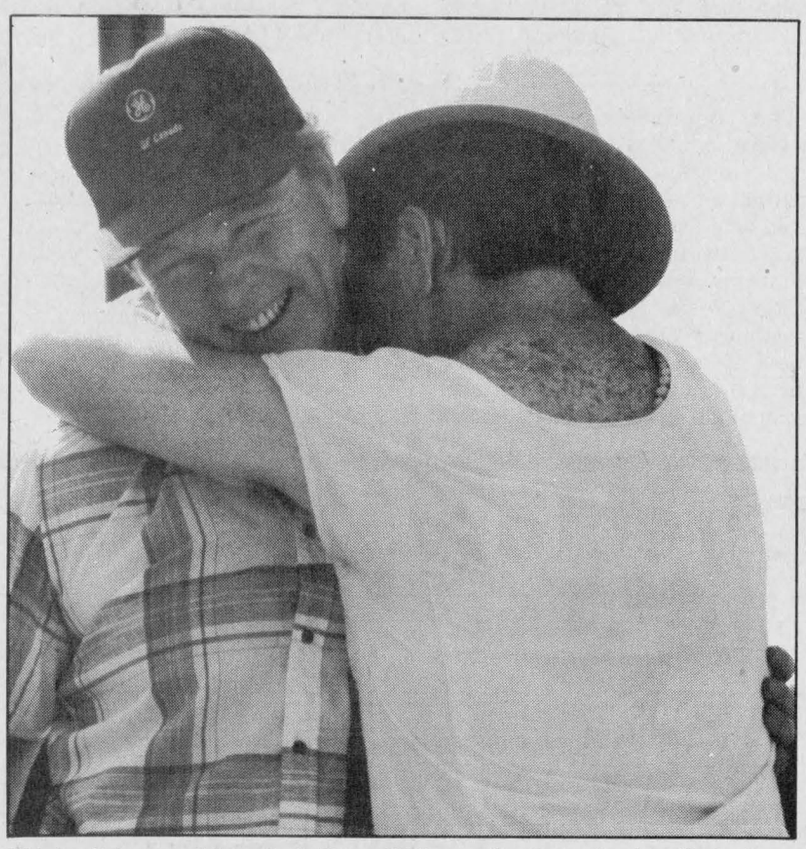
Who will ever forget the fashion show on Sunday — that parade of sultry beauties with their exotic sounding names? Jaylene, with her 59 cents a pair at Freshmart tip; the poised and sophisticated Veronica; the voluptuous Bertha; Rosy Yumskie in ethnic dress with edible jewellery; Roberta, Mona, Ramona, Loretta. And then there was Glen Falloch's Arlene, she of the haggis teeth earrings and the pre-acid rain blue sun hat, representing the pre-Neet era. "She's a friendly little thing," said emcee Sharon MacDonald as Arlene was presented with the Miss Congeniality award.

Overall winner, continuing the Duvalier tradition, was the fair Helga, who, for one frightening moment, was in danger of showing us the stuff of which she was made.

We will long remember the Pet Show and "That's not my dog". We will think of Roger Rabbit in his little outfit and of Vennie, who did Elizabeth proud.

Flip Flockton's off-the-cuff commenting during the Saturday morning events have become something of a fair tradition. "She's great," announced one first-time fair-goer.

Little Josée Giroux, dressed as a scarecrow, was awarded the Best Costume award in the Children's Parade, for the third time in the last four years. Proud father Normand Giroux told me it was a personal victory for him. Seems he dresses Josée, while his wife is responsible for Jean-Normand's costumes.



"Helga" hugged her dad, Gary O'Connell, after winning first place overall in the Williamstown Fair fashion show on Sunday afternoon. Helga looked divine in her yellow sundress, matching earrings and straw bonnet. Under all that makeup, Williamstowners probably knew that Helga was really none other than Gary's son, Darcy.

Barbara Grant and her side-kick judge will no doubt be dreaming of knobby knees for nights to come, especially the kind with little white dancing faces on them.

The greased pole claimed many an entrant before it was mastered en masse, but special mention should be made of the climbing abilities of Marty McDonell, who clambered up it "no sweat" and was one of the first to conquer.

And then there was the crafty Joanne White who dunked Scotty when he least expected it!

Elizabeth Chatfield, Wendy Bougie and Sheila Wilcock were all honored for their show hall exhibits which they were asked to display in Toronto during the Fair Board's Convention in February.

Cotton candy, candy apples, and sausages "Fritz"; we will long remember this year's fair.

Congratulations to Heather Pasco, Glengarry's new Dairy Princess, first ever from Williamstown. We're proud of you!

Whether or not the fair lured them back, I don't know, but last week brought several of our locals home from abroad. Garry and Elin O'Connell, Chris and Fred Klazinga and Lee, and Bill Mowat.

Bill spent his holiday travelling from one end of Great Britain to the other, lingering in Scotland, where he managed to unearth a nest of Mowats up in the islands.

From the wooden shoes that Lee Klazinga was wearing at the fair, it looks as though Fred and Chris went to visit relatives in Holland for their vacation. As for the O'Connells, could it have been Ireland?

A lovely shower was held on the weekend for Angela Major who is being married on Sept. 2 to Dave Fontaine. About 35 relatives and friends attended the event which was held at the home of Angela's sister, Patrice Hall, in Glendale.

Taking advantage of Sunday's pleasant weather, Patrice decided to hold the gathering out of doors, decorating trees and gateposts for the occasion.

Angela was truly surprised, according to her mother, Karla.

Miss Lizzie Sandilands is a patient in the Cornwall General Hospital at the moment. Miss Sandilands fell recently and broke her hip and we wish her well in her recovery.

One way to beat the heat is to head north, I guess. Colleen Smith left Saturday for a visit to Whitehorse in the Yukon. While there, Colleen will be staying with Raymond and Anne Marie Chretien.

Green Thumbers and all flower lovers are reminded that the group's annual Flower Show will be held on Sat., Aug. 20, this year at St. Mary's Centre. Members are asked to refer to their yearbook for information on entering. "Make it a good show," says Lyall.

Matthew John Joseph Krol arrived on earth on Friday, Aug. 5. He is the son of Michael and Heidi Krol and the brother of Sarah Krol. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Krol of Lancaster and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Oeggerli of Bainsville. Congratulations to all.

Three young ladies have been home for visits recently. Christine Cattanach and Kim Carey were both spotted enjoying themselves at the fair, while Brenda Sandilands-Murray was home from Milan, Italy, for two weeks.

Brenda is presently at the University of Reading in England, where she will spend six weeks teaching English to students from third world countries, before returning to her position at the University of Milan.

A family of wild turkeys has been spotted on the King's Road. According to the sighter, there are 10 of them in all, including a mother.

Susan Edwards has received word that she has been named a university scholar at McGill University. Susan has just completed her first year at McGill and placed in the top 10 per cent in her faculty. Keep it up, Susie!

Dot and Ken Taylor will be hosting the fourth annual corn roast for the International Retreads on Sun., Aug. 21. Anyone who rides a bike is welcome to attend.

The Retreads is a family oriented group which promotes bike safety and the image of biking.

Davidson Moore resident celebrates 80th birthday, Sunday

GLEN NORMAN
Mary Lacelle
525-1372, 525-4998

Best wishes to Donat Ouimet on his 80th birthday. A barbecue was held at the Davidson-Moore Lodge for the jolly-good fellow on Sunday.

A wonderful day was spent surrounded by well wishers: Cecile his wife, friends Bill and Mary Mercereau and Ross and Irene Redpath of Conc. 7, son Robert Ouimet and wife Fay and grandson Michel and his friend Wendy of Ottawa. A teacher friend from North Bay and Leon Ouimet, a brother, were there, as were Maria Morrison, Rosemary Jardin, Mary Bathurst, Mr. Frank Brooker and Fritz Mitchel, Arnold Wenger and Maureen Seymore. Howell and her son Kearon dropped by in the evening. Many thanks to the Moore's who made this day so enjoyable for Mr. Ouimet.

On Saturday Mr. Ouimet was visited by his grandson Richard Ouimet and his wife Dorothy of Ottawa.

On Sunday Richard Patrick spent the day with his son Jack and family.

There are still a few seats empty in the painting class that takes place free of charge on Thursday afternoons at the Lodge. Winnie Wilson would welcome anyone interested. There is still time to complete a masterpiece as this course is available until the end of September.

Henry and Thelma Johnson had a lovely visit on Sunday from niece Joyce and her husband Leo Van Gelder of St. Bruno, Que.

Crops doing very well across Glengarry, several events planned

GLENGARRY FARM REPORT

by Glen J. Smith
Agricultural Representative,
Glengarry County

There is little I can add to the crops situation that already has not been reported in the local media. Weather statistics are not yet available to determine precipitation and heat unit levels for July. With the extremely warm days and warm nights our heat units to date should be normal or slightly above. In general, the crops are dong very well. Fall wheat was being harvested last week. The spring grains appear to be advanced more in maturity than normal. Some spring cereals may be harvested this week.

This year the Ontario Large Dairy Herd Operators' Tour will be to the St. Hyacinte area and will be held from Aug. 30 to Sept. 1. Emphasis on the tour will be on large dairy herd management but all dairy farmers are invited to take part. The tour will be visiting herds in the Victoriaville and Granby areas, as well as the C.I.A.Q. Bull Stud, the largest in Canada, and the Macdonald College research facility at Ste. Anne de Bellevue. Participants may meet the tour at Macdonald Collee as it will be the first stop. The price of the tour is $10 which includes first class accommodation for twonights, travel by air-conditioned coach, breakfasts and lunches. Registration is on a first-come basis and shold be sent to the Ontario Large Dairy Herd Tour, c/o Blair B. Murray, Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food, P.O. Box 2004, Kemptville, Ontario. The Glengarry Catlemens' Association and the Glengarry Beef Herd Improvement Club have oranized a bus trip to Bruce Bounty to be held from Aug. 19—21. They will be visiting beef herds in that county as well as the Grey/Bruce Nuclear Power Station (10 acres of greenhouses producing vegetables). There are six seats remaining. The cost of the trip is $75 which includes accommodation and bus. If you are interested contact Gilles Roy or the OMAF office.

The Harvest Showcase of Ontario Foods will be held at Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology on Sunday, Sept. 11, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. This agricultural awareness event is presented by the Ontario Ministry of Aricultural and Food, Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology, Ontario Federation of Agriculture and Eastern Ontario commodity groups. The purpose of this event is to give our urban neihbors a chance to talk to the people who grow their food. It is also an opportunity for the people involved to boast about the "good things that grow in Ontario." There will be tasty foods, musical entertainment, wagon tours, demonstrations and open house. Admission is free, parking is free and everyone is invited to attend.

Farm Credit Corporation interest rates have changed. Effective July 25 the interest rate charged for five-year, fixed interest term loans is now 12.50 per cent, up from 12 per cent. Loans with terms of 10 to 15 years or more are now at 12.75 per cent.

Maxville had annual opportunity to put on display of hospitality

MAXVILLE
Gordon Winter
527-2888

Residents of the community opened their hearts and homes to many visitors over the Games weekend. It is the holiday and event of the year which draws our young people home and which gives each household the opportunity to demonstrate the ultimate in hospitality.

Catherine and Dan MacRae had their daughter Eileen and Richard Cherry, Ian, Ryan and Jonathon home. Also on Games day they had Richard Thornton and Jeffery, friends of the Cherrys.

At the John Williams home, visitors for a week were Carole's sister, Dawn Thomson and aunt, Vivian Klein, both from Toronto.

It was like old times at the Dingwall home with Margaret having a full house. Her sister, Isabel Kerwin was there from St. John, N.B. as were Mrs. Kerwin's son Bill also from St. John and his son Gard. Then there were nieces Barbara Dingwall and Margaret Goodman and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Wilson of Kemptville.

Mrs. O.F. Villeneuve entertained her son F.B. and family, Brian and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Claymore and family of St. Adele, Que., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Murphy of Quebec City and Ida Cowan of Vankleek Hill.

We extend sincere sympathy to the family of the late Mauno Veltheim who died last week. Mr. Veltheim will be remembered as a wood carver of note and his pieces will be a lasting memorial to this gentleman.

Services for the month of August will be in the United Church with the Rev. Gary Van Bruchem of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in charge.

Dave and Barbara Dragone and family of Maxville entertained his brother Frank and Heather (nee MacDonald) from Montreal for the Games weekend. The visitors were much impressed with the area, and with Barbara being a MacDonald she felt right at home. Apparently many plans were discussed for the future and we will be hearing more about this newly-married couple.

The old post office has been taken over by Merydie Fjarlie who will use it as her work place for the production of her well-known line of ladies clothes and designer accessories. We wish this local girl the very best with her move from Ottawa to the village.

Art show

Don't forget the art show in Catherinee McEwen's lawn at 25 Peter Street. The work of local artists will be on display from 1-5 p.m.

Allison Wilson reports that a Board Sailing (wind surfing) course will be held from Aug. 15-17 on Mill Lake, Alexandria for all those 10 years and up who are interested in the sport.

Preliminary work on the new sewage system got underway last week. The actual digging will be starting any day now.

I hope travellers have time to slow down and enjoy the beauty of the wild flowers, blooming in profusin along the roads.

On a more practical note, gardeners can prune all new blossoms off their tomato plants now. Unless you can use green ones, since it takes six weeks for a blossom to produce a ripe fruit, there is only slim chance that a fruit beginning now will not be destroyed by a September frost.

It was regrettable that the old Sam Henry house had to be torn down. But what was the alternative? Leave it in a state of disrepair like other buildings in the neighborhood? Perhaps we should have a volunteer to offer guidance to our village council in the preservation of our historic buildings (there are very few because of the fires). We celebrate our centennial in 1991.

We wish Gerry and Barbara Leroux, David and Chris the very best as they move into their fine new home which replaces the former McEwen home destroyed by fire last winter.

Dancers in frist place

Two local girls, Cynthia Wilson, daughter of Allison and Hugh, and Heather MacLeod, daughter of Lois and Campbell came first in overall points in their classes at the Games. Also, Erin McConnell of Ottawa, granddaughter of Alex and Dolly and of Lloyd and Eunice Nixon of Dunvegan accomplished the same. We congratulate these girls and take special pride in having local dancers earning top prizes.

Another contestant at the Games who deserves mention is Kylash Cappuccino. Not long ago, he was a very sick boy, and it was great to see him competing in the races and doing well.

Maxville, not Maxwell

The travel section of the Toronto Globe and Mail contained a "plug" for the Highland Games. However, it made that familiar mistake of having the Glengarry Highland Games held at Maxwell, north of Cornwall.

Guindon reunion

On July 22, 120 descendants and their spouses of the late Phil and Dora Guindon held a family reunion at the sports complex. The family consisted of 15 children; Beatrice and Eileen are deceased and Phil of Prince George, B.C. and Jean of Nanaimo were unable to attend.

Four local sisters, Doreen Haymam, Shirley Villeneuve, Sylvia Douglas and Lorraine Besner led the organization for the event and attending from a distance were the Rev. Sister Phyllis of Toronto, Bert (Sonny) of Surrey, B.C., Charles (Buddy) from Florida, Claire Lefebvre and Martine McDonald from Ottawa, Mary Lasalle of Manotick, and Peter of Hamilton.

Members of the next generation attending included Nancy and David Campbell of Edmonton, Jacqueline and Yvon Deschamps from Princeton, Donna Douglas from Banff, Trevor and Philip Lefebvre from Florida, Paul Besner of Edmonton, and Elaine and Douglas Emgberg from California.

After a 12-day tour with Trentway Tours which took them through the Eastern states, the Maritime provinces and back by Quebec City, Heather McCaskill, her mother Mrs. Munroe McCaskill and Viola Hope have returned.

Albert St. Louis was given a special 71st birthday party by family members with best wishes for good health. Outside visitors were from Montreal, Hawkesbury, Merrickville, Alexandria, Crysler and Cornwall, to swell the crowd to over 30.

Young-at-Heart euchre

Our senior citizens club held its regular euchre in its room in the basement of the Anglican church on Aug. 1. Two McMillan ladies, Myrtle from Apple Hill and Muriel from Finch came first and third with Gladys Barton of Vankleek Hill dividing them.

For the men, winners were Howard Eamon of Morrisburg, Kenneth MacLeod of Dunvegan and Homer MacLeod from Maxville Manor.

The door prize was won by Dave Valley and the 50-50 draw winners were John McMaster of Laggan, Norman MacLeod of Dunvegan, Dorothy McCormick, and Mrs. Theoret of Alexandria, Fraser McMillan from Moose Creek, Herbie O'Byrne, John Coleman and two wins for Ann Michaud, again.

Alma and Howard Umphrey were joined by a large crowd of visitors to help them celebrate their 50th anniversary in their spacious retirement home on Peter Street which Mr. Umphrey built mostly by himself. Grace McKercher Sweet and her daughter were there from Montreal as wer Nettie and Eben Franklin from Ottawa. Relatives from a distance included Nancy Leonard and Deidra from Peterborough and Gladys McDonald from Ottawa. There were also many friends made while Mr. Umphrey was with C.I.L.

* * *

The Allan Crites family enjoyed a week's vacation in P.E.I. The highlight for the "men" was a deepsea fishing experience.

* * *

We wish Mac and Herbie O'Byrne much happiness in their recently acquired home on Mechanic Street East.

* * *

Stanley McDonald was in Toronto to attend the wedding of his granddaughter, the former Judy Campbell.

* * *

The Calorie Counters who meet regularly at the Manor were responsible for the July 26 birthday party at the Manor.

* * *

Audrey and Bob McKillican are home from Regina to visit his sister Margaret Munroe and other relatives and to attend the Games.

* * *

Much credit for the fine appearance of the village this summer goes to Linda Vander Wielen who keeps much grass cut and everything looking tidy. Thanks, Linda.

* * *

Ten-year-old Jason Williamson came by himself from Germany to visit with his grandparents, Helen and Ian MacRae and other relatives. He is the son of the former Mavis McBain and her husband.

* * *

Jeanie and Ivan Coleman and three boys are back from P.E.I. for their vacation time.

Law

Glenda MacInnes was called to the Bar of Ontario at the convocation of the Law Society of Upper Canada held at the National Arts Centre in Ottawa on April 18, 1988. Glenda is the daughter of Harold and Marjorie MacInnes of RR1, Maxville. She is practising law with the firm of Goss, Warren, Chan and Dickie, in Ottawa.
