ROW BROTHERS ROW, THE STREAM RUNS FAST—The first of the 93 canoes to leave St. Andrew's are seen winding round the bend and under the bridge last Sunday between banks snow-covered from the Saturday night storm. The intense cold deterred from the pleasantness of the event but participation was keen and excitement ran high as entrants who braved the upsets in the icy water really earned the admiration of the crowds who turned out to watch.

OOH! THE BATH WATER IS COLD—Some of the guys had a frosty dip in their race on Sunday and these two unidentified canoeists shiver as their craft sinks under them and they hit the icy suds. The dress on the onlookers indicates the temperature on land so the water must have been chilly!

Old store at McCrimmon sold

Almost a century old, the store of J. A. McCrimmon and Sons at McCrimmon, will change hands today as Donald McCrimmon sells to John Cadieux. Mr. and Mrs. Cadieux are residents of McCrimmon.

The old store goes back to 1885 when it was conducted by John A McRae who later was Registrar for Glengarry and a resident of Alexandria. Mr. McRae sold in 1890 to Norman McLeod an uncle of Mr. McCrimmon. Another uncle, D. D. MacLeod, operated the business, from 1895 to 1905 when he sold to J. A. McCrimmon.

Mr. McCrimmon was assisted by his sons, Benton and Donald until his death in 1955. Benton died in 1971 after 47 years in the business and Donald has been with the firm for 43 years. He has no present plans.

County stores change hands

Several stores in the county have undergone change in the past week.

The store at Bougie's Corners, east of Martintown which had been operated for the past few years by Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Dicaire has been purchased by Arthur Benton, formerly of Apple Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Benton will be coming from Ottawa and will continue the business in the premises as usual.

Harry Best's Store at Fassifern has also been sold and Mr. and Mrs. Real English of Montreal will be taking over. Mrs. English is the former Theresa Theoret of that area.

Another Montreal couple, Mr. and Mrs. M. Ross D. Robinson have purchased the property at the corner of Bainsville sideroad and the third concession of Lancaster where Roddie Sauve operated a store for some years. Although the store had been closed for some time the new residents intend to try their luck at the business.

The Lochiel store, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Roddie MacDonell was destroyed by fire on Monday of this week.

Family of twelve homeless when Quigley store-home razed

Mr. and Mrs. Rod MacDonell and their ten children are homeless as the result of a fire that destroyed their store and adjoining home at Quigley's, Monday afternoon. Members of the family are staying with relatives and friends until accommodations can be found.

The old frame building was completely destroyed and the family lost all furnishings and personal possessions.

Alexandria fire brigade was called to Lochiel at 2:55 p.m. Monday and the firemen managed to save the adjacent woodshop of Fred Sabourin as well as a garage in the rear despite wind and the lack of water. Hose was laid 3,000 feet to the nearest creek to supplement the 700 gallons carried in the tanker.

Firemen were battling the blaze until 10 p.m. and then left two men through the night. The blaze was still burning Tuesday.

Origin of the fire is unknown, though it is believed to have started in the basement.

A benefit fund will no doubt be organized and ladies of the area already have plans for a household shower to be held Saturday in the Lochiel Township hall. Bedding, kitchen utensils and other household effects are being sought.

Mrs. Edwin MacDonald, Lochiel, is receiving gifts of clothing for the ten children, the youngest of whom is three. The six girls range from 16, 12, 10, 8, 4 to 3 while the four boys are aged 15, 13, 9 and 6.

Alexandria firemen were also called to Lochiel at 6 a.m. Sunday when fire was discovered in the wall in the home of Henry Tittley, Kirk Hill. Originating from an overheated pipe, the blaze was brought under control by the firemen in short order. Smoke damage and fire damage to one wall was estimated at $500.

Sunday's call marked a month in which the local brigade had been free of calls reports Fire Chief Gerald Charlebois.

Freezing temperature fails to halt enthusiasm of entrants in canoe race

The annual Raisin River White Water Canoe Race was held Sunday despite the freezing temperatures, icy waters and a fresh thin sheet of snow blanketing the river banks. The cold weather failed to hold back either crowds or canoeists and those who attended or participated were garbed in hats, hoods, mitts, winter coats, and various combinations of winter and spring fashions.

Experience on the run appeared to be a major factor as Glen Woodcock of Ottawa who placed first last year repeated his feat this time round, only with a different partner. Dave Malcolm of Cornwall and Darcy Gordon of Williamstown who came in third last year this year moved up to second place. S. Klazinga and L. Gordon of Williamstown were sixth. They have been in the top ten since the race started.

Pairs in 92 canoes set out to challenge the grueling course in pioneer determination over the rocky river bed which the freezing waters sparsely covered as the water level had dropped quicker than anticipated.

Slightly over half the participants finished the contest with 54 displaying the courage to challenge the dam at Martintown. The dam here which is usually the highlight of the race provided many of the adventurers with a cold dip into the icy waters of the Raisin, and those who manoeuvred their crafts through the rapids successfully, were amply soaked by flailing paddles and the spray of the water splashing on the rocks.

The entries were from a great variety of places such as Brockville, Kingston, Arnprior, St. Thomas and as far away as Lindsay, Ontario. Montreal and Ottawa were well represented by both viewers and conoeists.

The top ten finishers all jumped the dam with some of them losing time with a quick dip but their stamina and determination paid off in the long run by finishing in the select group.

Glen Woodcock and M. Charon both of Ottawa finished in top spot in canoe number 43. Dave Malcolm, Cornwall and Darcy Gordon, Williamstown, in canoe number 80 finished second. Third place winners were number 68, G. Rouleau and R. Murray of Montreal and W. Leclerc and R. Brunet of Cornwall followed in fourth position. Fifth spot went to #79, J. Fitzpatrick, Cornwall and R. Julien, Summerstown, and sixth were S. Klazinga and L. Gordon of Williamstown in #5. Richard Moore, Alexandria and F. Philpot, Montreal in number 32 placed seventh and J. and L. Strauss of Montreal, No. 87, finished eighth; #53 J. and B. Clover of Williamstown ended ninth and L and B. Bilmer in #51 finished tenth.

Experience '76 will hire 20

The Raisin Region Conservation Authority will be hiring 20 students this year in a program similar to past years, Manager Art Chalk informs.

Application forms are now available at the office in Martintown and the closing date for applicants is April 30th.

The program will be operated under the Ontario Youth Secretariat and students 18 years or older will be given first consideration.

This is program 130 and will be known as Experience '76.

Area woman suffers burns in early Wednesday morning fire

Mrs. Delisca Desjardins, 58, of RR3, Alexandria, is in Hotel Dieu, Cornwall, with first and second degree burns to her face, arms and feet following a fire which broke out in her home about 4 a.m. Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Desjardins discovered the fire but was unable to summon the fire department as her phone was out of order. She took the two children, Diane 11, and Pierrette, five, and walked to her near-by neighbor, Mrs. Bertha Dumont. However, their phone was out of order too, but the residents drove to town to summon help.

Mrs. Desjardins was taken to Glengarry Memorial Hospital and then transferred to Cornwall. The little girls are unharmed and were at Mrs. Dumont's home at press time.

Alexandria firemen were on the scene a few minutes after being summoned and were able to control the fire. The house, a two-storey frame building, owned by Albert Faubert, is still standing although there was extensive fire, smoke and water damage to the interior. Firemen thought the blaze might have started in an ash-tray in the bedroom.

Cornwall-Hawkesbury buses will meet at Alexandria

An early start on the daily bus service between Cornwall and Hawkesbury is expected. Final clearing of legal hurdles is now delaying a start that was planned for late March. The requirement that rate schedules must be approved and published in the Ontario Gazette has caused an unforeseen delay reports a spokesman for Allan J. Macdonald Ltd. bus service of Cornwall.

A late-April start is now contemplated.

The required buses are on hand and plans call for one bus to be located at Hawkesbury and the other at Cornwall. The two will start from their respective home bases at approximately the same time in the morning. They will meet at Alexandria.

The drivers will exchange vehicles and return to the point of origin, driving the opposite vehicle. This will provide a through service without requiring a man to be away from home overnight.

Each bus will carry about 40 people. The exact times of starting the service, the departure and arrival times and the schedule of rates and charges are in the final stages of being worked out. The company expects to announce these details within a few days.

Date set for sports dinner

Tickets will go on sale next week for the annual Lions Club sports award dinner being held Monday, June 14th. Duncan A. Macdonell, dinner chairman, reports considerable interest apparent already. Guest speaker should be known next week.

Something new this year will be tables of ten that will be reserved for teams, industries and other groups. These can be reserved through Lions Mike Barbara, Mike Depratto or Duncan A. Macdonell.

MP to reside at Glen Robertson

Denis Ethier, MP has purchased the Glen Robertson home of his brother, the late Viateur Ethier and will take possession at the end of this month. Mrs. Viateur Ethier is now with relatives at Sorel.

Benoit Duchesne of Dalkeith has purchased the Denis Ethier home at Dalkeith.

Minister coming here in June

Rev. James Thompson of Cobalt has accepted a call to Glengarry East Pastoral Charge and will be coming to Alexandria in June. His wife, Louise, is a nurse and they have just become parents of a new daughter this week. The community is looking forward to having this new family in their midst.

In charge of census in area

Appointed census commissioners for the 1976 census in this riding are: Mrs. Madeleine Lalonde, Cornwall; Mrs. Dianne Lanthier, Dalkeith; Claude Drouin, Hawkesbury; Roger Charlebois, St. Bernardin; Alfred G. Sloan, Fournier; Mrs. Nicole Racine, Casselman; R. Serge Lalonde, Plantagenet.

Lowest bidders for sub-contracts, Ottawa and Cornwall firms

Sub-contracts on the arena building for masonry work, electrical and mechanical trades have been let to Ottawa and Cornwall firms, according to a progress report by Town Engineer Ghislain E. Seguin.

The report covering March notes that progress was reduced considerably since the contractor was able to work only half of the time during that month due to the inclement weather.

General Contractor Admiral Engineering and Construction Limited tested the concrete of the foundation walls for its structural adequacy, and all tests were found to be acceptable except column A-11. This weak concrete pier was removed entirely to the top of the concrete footing, then two steel beams were installed to temporarily support the Armco steel truss after which a new concrete pier was poured.

The masonry work is being carried out by Agostino Masonry Limited of Ottawa, and this sub-contractor has merely worked seven days since he started to lay the concrete blocks. Concrete blocks were not laid on cold days. All exterior walls have been laid except the south wall, and the front of the building is not complete. The three stairwells have been closed in with block work.

The metal siding was attached to most of the north wall only. The purlins have been installed but no roofing has been started yet.

The steel joists have been placed on the auxiliary building, and most of the steel bar joists have also been placed with the metal V pan at the front of the building to support the second floor.

On March 24th, tenders were opened in the office of the General Contractor in Ottawa for the electrical and mechanical trades. Five electrical contractors submitted prices varying between $64,340 and $69,800, the lower being H. F. Electric from Cornwall.

Six mechanical contractors submitted prices varying between $123,000 and $151,900, the lower being Flange Plumbing and Heating Limited from Ottawa.

The General Contractor awarded a contract to the two lower tenderers.

The Ministry of Culture and Recreation has authorized the construction of a hydraulic elevator for handicapped persons and this expenditure of $46,000 will be paid 100% by the Province. Special toilet facilities will also be provided for the handicapped.

To the end of March 1976, Contractor Admiral has carried out approximately $253,000 worth of work and has been paid to date a total of $215,008.77.

Bishop here for Easter

Bishop Eugene LaRocque will be at St Finnan's Wednesday night when he will concelebrate the chrism mass in the presence of all priests of the diocese at 8 p.m.

Bishop LaRocque will also be at the Cathedral for Easter. He will take part in the Easter Vigil ceremonies starting at 7:30 p.m. and concluding with mass. He will also celebrate one of the regular masses on Easter Sunday. They are at 8 and 11 a.m.

Committee named to promote use of ruins at St. Raphael's

Charlottenburgh Township council has appointed a three-member committee to promote St. Raphael's ruins as a leading tourist attraction in the municipality.

The committee consists of Robert McDonell, Helen Kennedy and Art Buckland.

Reeve Adrian Gadbois said the committee has been charged with the responsibility of maintaining and promoting the ruins as a tourist attraction.

He said the committee will be presenting its budget for the year to the council shortly.

Committee members said they feel the site has a great potential of becoming a premier attraction in the area. The ruins, they said, are a majestic sight and a full use should be made of the site.

Possibilities of putting on plays, stage productions and staging a military tattoo will be investigated and a report will be submitted to the council.

Future plans for expansion include installation of public address system, floodlights and adequate washroom facilities.

Centre adopts constitution

A constitution was drawn up for the Human Resources Centre at the last meeting of the directors, Manager Don Grant informed members of Inter-Agency at the April meeting.

Richard Hickerson of the Cornwall Manpower office will be visiting the Centre here once a week to establish a closer liaison between the offices.

There have been 800 inquiries handled since the office opened. In the past month 12 people were placed in jobs, an additional 87 people registered for work and there were 25 referrals.

Good use made Alexandria court

A busy place every week is Alexandria Courthouse, as over 1151 charges have been processed here since January.

Last Monday Judge Lalande heard cases from 10:15 until 3 p.m. when J.P. Nora MacRae then took over for some traffic offences. There were 50 cases on the docket. There is no shortage in sight as dockets are booked ahead; there are already 160 cases listed for May 3rd.

All charges within the county are heard in Alexandria.

There were eight charges of impaired driving heard here on Monday with five fines levied—from $160 to $250. Three were remanded.

Two Alexandria men aged 23 and 26 who had been apprehended last February for thefts from cars were given 18-month suspended sentences with probation.

Textiles workers back Monday

Employees of Consolidated Textiles Ltd. at Alexandria returned to work Monday following settlement of the second wildcat walkout within 10 days.

Accord was reached between union and management over the weekend.

Members of Textile Workers Union of America (TWUA), local 1661, the 125 employees had walked off their jobs March 31, protesting increases in workloads and "intolerable" working conditions.

A similar strike had taken place a week earlier.

Roy Collins, president of Greater Cornwall Textile Joint Board said the management has agreed to give 23 cents an hour increase across the board for office workers. The wage increase takes immediate effect.

From now on, he continued, supervisors will not be required to do any union work.

A union executive discharged for a minor work offence has been re-instated, he said. The name of the executive was not disclosed.

Mr. Collins said management has also assured the union there will not be any increase in workloads throughout the plant. Any increase in workloads will have to be negotiated with the union.

"The management was also urged to suspend all charges instituted against the TWUA and its members," Mr. Collins said.

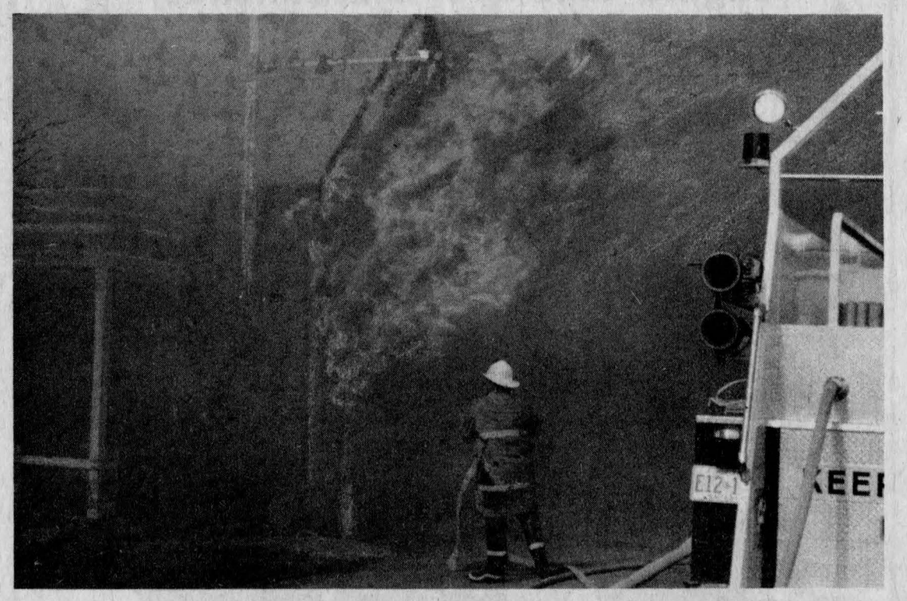
Last week union members were urged to return to work as their strike was illegal. Union members were told the company had instituted a lawsuit against the union for damages.

Mr. Collins said the proposals were ratified by the general membership at a union meeting held Sunday.

"The majority of the members voted in favor of returning to work," he said. "We had one of the largest turnouts of members."

He said several other minor issues were also amicably settled.

The law prohibits the workers from striking during the life of the contract. Negotiations for a new contract are expected to begin soon.



HEAVY FIRE LOSS—Clouds of heavy black smoke almost obscure the flames bursting from the Lochiel store of Roddie MacDonell which was completely destroyed as well as their adjoining home. Alexandria firemen were on hand but the fire had spread within the buildings before their arrival and they were unable to enter. They were however, able to save the garage and adjacent wood shop.

Lay-off 86 teachers among spending cuts of separate board

The SD&G Separate School Board will lay off 86 of its 555 teachers Sept. 1 and cut other staff and programs in an austerity program that could lower the quality of education.

All teachers affected are in their first or second year with the board They were given their notices last week.

Board officials said at a news conference last Thursday that they are suffering the effects of government restraint more than most boards in the province. The local separate board, with a low assessment and steadily declining enrolment, is one of the poorest boards in Ontario.

Business Administrator Pat Cooper said the board entered 1976 expecting provincial grants to increase by $1.6 million (about 12 per cent) over 1975. But because of government restraint and declining enrolment, the grants for 1976 will only increase by about $400,000 (3.5 per cent).

The situation is further aggravated by the government's late announcement of its restraint program. The board is allowed to lay off teachers only twice during the year. Because the government's grant structure was announced only in mid-December, the board has been forced to "carry" until September 1976 some teachers who would have otherwise been laid off much earlier.

The result is that the layoffs and cutbacks are more severe than they might have been had the board been able to absorb its cost-cutting measures over 12 months instead of four.

Board officials admitted the cutbacks will affect the quality of education.

Director of education Charlemagne Lamarche said that many programs will be affected because most consultants will be required to return to the classrooms. "The program won't stop but they will be hindered," he said.

Percy Beaudette, superintendent of the English section, and Jean Guy Gauthier, a superintendent in the French section, said the elimination of consultants will require more ingenuity for both teachers and principals.

Mr. Gauthier said that in many cases, curriculum implementation "will be stymied or slowed down."

"It will definitely affect the quality of education," Mr. Gauthier said, "but to what extent remains to be seen."

Both he and Mr. Beaudette also said that the teacher cuts will require the doubling up of grades in certain classrooms. The higher grades will be more greatly affected by doubling up.

Mr. Gauthier added that the elimination of 16 special education teachers in the French section will mean that children eligible for special classrooms will not receive the service.

Mr. Lamarche said however, that the local board is "a pretty good system. We should be able to absorb cutbacks without immediately decreasing the quality of education too much."

Mr. Lamarche added that a number of teachers laid off could be recalled before September. He said the number recalled will depend on how much the board decides to raise taxes and on the number of resignations. Both Mr. Gauthier and Mr. Beaudette said they hope pending registrations will allow the recall of about half the laid-off teachers.

The situation, however, is not all black. The board at present has one of the lowest pupil-teacher ratios in the province. There is one teacher for each 16.7 pupil. The teacher cuts will increase the ratio to 18 to 1 in the English section and 18.7 to 1 in the French section—still below the provincial average. Because of declining enrolment Mr. Lamarche said about 20 teachers would have been laid off not withstanding government restraint.

The board will save $360,000 with the layoff of 86 teachers for the last four months of 1976. Mr. Cooper said teacher salaries represent 66 per cent of board spending. "If we are able to make substantial spending cuts, this is one area where they have to be made," he said.

A number of other cost-cutting measures have been undertaken.

—Starting April 20, all schools will retain only half of their secretarial services, for a saving of $74,000.

—One secretary at the board office will be laid off May 31. One printing clerk will be laid off. All temporary help and contracted secretarial help has been suspended until the end of the year.

—All principals' school budgets have been slashed by 66 per cent in the English section and 60 per cent in the French section.

—No new materials will be purchased. Old materials will be re-cycled and surplus stock in some schools will be distributed to other schools.

—Travel expenses by trustees and administration will be cut by half, for a saving of $10,000.

—Advertising will be cut for a $1,500 saving.

—No new equipment will be purchased, except to replace worn out equipment.

—Janitorial staff will be reduced seven positions (an 11 per cent cut).

—The hiring of summer students will be reduced by about half.

—The board will try to live within the 1975 budget for renovations and improvements to schools.

—Principals will be required to act as supply teachers when regular teachers are off sick. Teacher aids will also be cut.

The total cuts represent about $1,034,000. The board is receiving $1.2 million less in grants than expected, leaving about $170,000 still to be cut or to be found through an increase in taxes. An increase in expenditure of $170,000 would require a tax increase of about four mills—nearly $20 for the average residential supporter of the separate school system. The budget will be struck in about one month.

SUNDAY SERVICE

The Easter Day service this Sunday at St. Michael's Anglican Church will be Eucharist at 8:30 a.m.

ATTENDED WORKSHOP

Reeve Hubert A. Quart recently spent three days in Toronto attending a workshop on planning sponsored by the Association of Counties and Regions.

EASTER MONDAY AUXILIARY MEETING

The Maxville Manor Auxiliary will hold their regular sing-song and meeting in the Manor on the evening of Easter Monday, April 19th at 7:30 p.m. Remember to keep a free afternoon for the Mother's Day Tea coming up on Saturday, May 8th, from 2 to 4 p.m.

PUBLIC SCHOOL CONCERT

An overflow crowd of parents squeezed into the gymnasium of the Maxville Public School last Thursday afternoon, and thoroughly enjoyed a small concert put on by the teachers and pupils of the Kindergarten and Grades One, Two and Three. Hours of rehearsal must have gone into the presentation, which was given with style and precision. Included in the program were "The Hokey-Pokey Song," a lively Square Dance, the old French song "Le Pont d'Avignon," a and two plays "The Elves and the Shoemaker" and "MacTavish and the Loch Ness Monster."

CARNIVAL '76

Maxville, St. Bernard School, had their annual winter carnival on March 11th and 12th.

Highlight for Thursday was the crowning of the Royal Family. Elected were Stewart Bankley for Duke, Kimberley Aube for Duchess, Norman King for Prince, Tracy Bankley for Princess, Gerry Leduc for King and Carole St. Louis for Queen.

The children were divided in two teams. The Blues vs the Reds.

On Friday, the children participated in many competitions: Color, hat, tug-of-war, amateur talents and posters. Marks accumulated in the competitions went to the Reds or Blues depending in which team they belonged.

At noon, the children enjoyed a succulent bean dinner prepared and served by the mothers belonging to the P.T.A. committee.

The Reds managed to accumulate 18,343 points but the Blues won with a total of 18,776 points.

UCW HEARD TALK

The Easter Thankoffering meeting of the Maxville United Church Women was held in the church hall on Tuesday, April 6th, when over 50 members and friends attended. Mrs. Gordon Winter conducted the meeting. She was assisted in the devotions by Mrs. Archie Campbell and Mrs. Price, and also by Mrs. Robert MacIntosh and Harrison Wright who sang, "The Old Rugged Cross."

Mrs. Howard McEwen introduced the guest speaker, Mahlon Zeron, who gave a most interesting account of his visits to China and Cuba, illustrated by slides. Mrs. Donald McEwen thanked Mr. Zeron and expressed the appreciation of everyone present for a very informative and enjoyable program. A pleasant social hour brought the meeting to a close.

Learning metric not so difficult

The School Committees of all the local Public Schools sponsored a metric workshop for parents last Monday evening in the library of the Maxville Senior Public School. The dutiful but apprehensive group that gathered to hear Doug Anderson, Principal of Monkland Public School, and David Munro, mathematics teacher at Maxville Senior, explain the entire metric set-up were vastly reassured. With infectious enthusiasm Mr. Anderson convinced everyone not only that "Metric is fun" but also sensible, efficient, and going to be relatively painless.

Industry has demanded the change . . . to salvage the hundreds of millions of dollars it is needlessly losing every year by following a system of measurements different to ninety per cent of the rest of the world. Of all the major productive nations, only Canada and the U.S. continue using 83 unrelated units of measurement, instead of the seven in metric.

Many aspects were covered—the spelling to begin with. The correct ending is "re" in accord with all other countries, except the U.S. which continues alone with "er". Without too many people noticing, some things like soft drinks and toothpaste are already sold in metric measure, and many more foods are converting daily. General Motors is starting to change its cars, and so are the clothes pattern makers. Since litres and pounds are not the same the government has appointed 5,000 consumer watchdogs to see that the correct new prices are put on goods newly measured in metric.

As an exercise in measurements the audience was asked to make a list of personal measurements . . . height, weight, hat size, etc., and was surprised to find that height was doubled and weight was halved, and . . . a totally unrelated fact . . . that the length of the arm from wrist-bone to elbow is almost always the shoe size, in case you can't bend over and get to your foot. For more simplicity, a metre is the distance from the doorknob to the floor or the width of a single bed, a centimetre is the width of your little fingernail, and a millimetre is the thickness of a dime. Don't convert to feet or inches . . . think metric.

In weight, the gram is one Smartie, and 500 grams is the closest to a pound, and will be the unit for stores and food sales.

Mr. Munro thanked Mr. Anderson for his interesting presentation, and Mr. Anderson expressed his pleasure in the turnout which was by far the best to date in the district. The evening ended with a lunch hosted by Principal McCormick and several of his pupils.

Seaway Valley Hunt Club prepares for season

A meeting of the Seaway Valley Hunt Club was held on April 4, 1976 at the home of John Peters, Lancaster.

Following the introduction of all those present, a recap of the Club's objectives and past activities was given by Chairman John. These included the promotion of horsemanship and responsibility together with the safety aspects of riding, also the need for trails where horseback riding can be carried on away from the dangers associated with riding on public roads and highways. He also mentioned participation in local shows by members of the Club, and former attempts to meet and ride, in different parts of the country that were made very difficult by the lack of private transportation to such meetings.

The Club affiliated with the Ontario Trail Riding Association but to date no plans have been made to ride the Great Pine Ridge Trail.

With regard to the clearing of green lanes in the South Lancaster area, John Peters has made several gates to put in fences where farmers have fenced and taken over road allowances at the back of their farms. This would permit crossing of their land either by jumping or passing through these gates. It is proposed to use some of the Club's money to assist in clearing road allowances that have become overgrown, and volunteer help in clearing and cutting brush would be much appreciated. This work will have to wait a week or two yet until the land dries up.

Several new members came forward at the meeting and some dues for 1976 were received. There will be a trail ride at VLN Farms on Sunday, April 18th at 2:00 p.m., and it is expected that there will be a good turnout of both new and old members.

Further plans for 1976 will be made at a later meeting. The Williamstown show dates this year are June 5th and 6th.

Glengarry Stars led league

by Carman MacMillan

On Saturday, April 10th the Stars travelled to Ottawa to play their final league game of the season. The opposition was the Ottawa Gaels and this game was to be the highlight of the season. Reporters from the Ottawa Citizen and Ottawa Journal were in attendance at the game as well as four or five photographers from around the community. President of the Ottawa District Soccer Association, Peter Wiley was in attendance as well, as this game would prove to be the league championship of the indoor soccer league for 1976.

The first two games were between Los Latinos and Cosmos Reserve, Cosmos and Scotia were in the second games. These two games were just to finish off the schedule. Everybody knew that the tension was all there for that final match between Ottawa Gaels and Glengarry Stars. Referee Bill Von Esson was to handle the games and he knew that the tension was there.

The game started on time and the Gaels got off to a one to zip lead. The Stars tied it up only to wilt again giving up two quick goals. At the end of the first half the score was five to three for the Ottawa Gaels. The first half was a well played half with a lot of hard tackling by both sides. Referee Von Esson cautioned Jackie MacLean before the half was over.

The boys knew that the only way to win the cup was to win the game. With a lot of desire and determination the Stars took to the floor for the second half. It took only a couple of minutes to get the game tied at five to five but a few minutes later it was again Gaels who drew first blood, but the Stars were not to be denied as they scored two to go ahead. The Gaels then tied it up at seven to seven.

The game at this time was really physical as every tackle was made with a little extra put in it. The Ottawa Gaels then made the first mistake by taking a punch at Jackie MacLean only to have the referee eject him from the game. The Stars took advantage of this and scored the eighth goal of the game. The Ottawa Gaels came back and a little too much muscle was put into a couple of Gaels as Jackie MacLean took both of them out of the play and was then sent to the showers as well.

The teams now at three aside on the floor continued to play. Ottawa Gaels tied it up quickly after the Stars were shaken up a bit by the expulsion of MacLean. The score now was eight to eight. It took the Stars only seconds to go ahead as the Ottawa Gaels seemed to lose their great composure they held during the first part of the game. From that point on the Stars never looked back as Earl MacLennan shone at this time by adding two more goals and Hugh MacGillivray getting our last one. Final score was 12 to 8 for the Stars.

Goal scorers for the Stars in this all-important game were: J. T. Hay 3; Earl MacLennan 3; Norman Laliberte 2; Ian MacLeod, David MacMillan, Hugh MacGillivray and Jackie MacLean all with one each.

The Stars were presented with a plaque after the game by President Peter Wiley who congratulated the boys on a hard-fought game. It was also nice to have a couple of fans there as Gordon MacPherson, Colleen and Margaret McCormick, Gordon MacLeod and Gerald Simpson made the trip also.

The Stars now wait to play in the Royals Indoor Tournament on April 24th and 25th.

The goal scorers for the Stars this year were: J. T. Hay 26; John MacPherson, Hugh MacGillivray, Earl MacLennan, 12 each; David MacMillan 11; Bruce MacGillivray, Jackie MacLean, Norman Laliberte, all with eight; Scott MacMillan 7; Remi Sauve 6; Andre Chenier, Ian MacLeod both with five; Scott Hay, Alan Lowe 4; Leo Seguin, Luc Seguin, Frank St. Pierre, 3 each; Ian MacLachlan 2; Luc Poirier, Allan Byers, one each; Gilles Gareau, Brian Filion—zero. Total goals, 141. Total goals for—141. Total goals against—91.

For the team to win last night, it took a super effort. Our special mention this week is our goaltender Allan Byers who came up with a superb effort. Others were Norman Laliberte and David MacMillan who played an excellent defense. J. T. Hay and Earl MacLennan with Hugh MacGillivray came up with their best effort of the current campaign. The plaque that was presented to us will be on display at the Glengarry Sport Shop next week.

On June 11th the Stars will hold their spring dance at the Bonnie Glen Pavilion with Sylvester MacDonald and the Clansmen.

Char-Lan Rebels capture Jr. C championship

The Char-Lan Rebels of the Jr. "C" hockey league captured the league championship Thursday, April 8th at the Charlottenburgh Auditorium by crunching Finch Twp. 9-2.

Claude Bourk and Denis Jodoin paced the Rebels in the final game with two markers apiece and singles went to Lloyd Fourney, Bruce Cumming, Barry MacDonald, Andre Tessier and George Lunan. Dave Rumer and Pete MacLean replied for Finch.

The Rebels won the final series with nine points to three advantage to come back in the eight-point series. They had started the series off on the wrong foot by losing the first game 2-0 in Finch and tieing 3-3 in Char-Lan. They then recovered face in Finch to romp over them 9-2, and 5-3 back in Char-Lan. When the series returned to Finch, Char-Lan blanked them 3-0 and then finished it at home defeating Finch 9-2.

Coach Carl Rines was pleased with the come-back of his charges and is confident his club can repeat the performance against Chesterville as they are currently down one 1-0 in the O.D.H.A. playdowns. The Rebels host Chesterville in Char-Lan tonight to try and even the series.

Gaels on the Warpath

by Laurie Mitchell

It seems that Spring is here and with it comes the promise of warmer weather and spares outdoors. Our track and field team is starting to take shape and is getting ready for its first meet, a Relay Meet at Seaway School in Iroquois.

Last Thursday, our school hosted the Boys Glengarry Invitational Volleyball Tournament. Teams from Char-Lan, Osnabruk and North Dundas high schools competed against our school's junior and senior teams. Both our school's teams were coached by Mr. Lanthier, and he should be commended for their fine performance. Our senior team defeated all opposition to win the senior title and medals, while our junior team did well but placed third with North Dundas coming in first and Char-Lan second in the junior section.

Winners in the Public Speaking Contest put on by the Francais department of the high school were: 1st in the senior section, France Legault and 1st in the junior section, Carol Duval. Diane Massie and Chantal Whelan placed second in their respective classes.

Mrs. Fraser has been busy since November holding tryouts and conditioning sessions for her Girls' Gymnastics team. There were 11 girls on the team and they participated in one demonstration at Vankleek Hill and three competitions. The first competition was held at General Vanier in Cornwall. In this SD&G Invitational Meet, Kelly Smyth won a silver medal on the box and Ann Morris a bronze on the beam. At the Prescott-Russell Invitational Gymnastics Meet in Hawkesbury, Mary Morris placed first on the uneven bars and fourth on the box, while her sister Ann placed second on the beam. It was a family affair at the Eastern Ontario Gymnastics Meet in Kingston as Mary Morris on the bars, Ann Morris on the beam and box, and Maureen Morris on the floor all placed fifth there. Coached by Mrs. Fraser, all girls performed well at the meets and had a successful gymnastic season.

Hockeyists sponsor draw

Younger players in the Alexandria Minor Hockey Association will be selling tickets on a draw for a side of beef in the next few weeks. Proceeds will go to the new arena fund. The juicy prize will be drawn for at the Lions Club sports award dinner in June.

Minor Hockey officials note that the older boys were implicated in the successful high school draw that netted $2,400 for the arena fund. Now the elementary school age group will get into the act.

Basketball tourney April 21

The Royal Bank of Canada in co-operation with the Canadian Olympic Association is sponsoring a Junior Olympics Basketball Tournament at Williamstown Public School on Wednesday, April 21, 1976.

Four public schools: Laggan, Martintown, Maxville, and Williamstown will be competing in both the boys and girls division. Winners in each division will advance to the SD&G Tri-County Basketball Championships April 28th at St. Lawrence High School.

All participants will receive both a Royal Bank certificate and crest of participation. First, second and third place finishers in each division will receive Royal Bank Community ribbons. Such a distribution of awards deemphasizes winning and stresses participation and sportsmanship.

Bob Nicholls, convener of this event will also convene a Junior Olympics Track and Field Meet in June using the same Royal Bank Canadian Olympic Association format and assistance.

"The Cairn Village"

Mrs. Alex Lalonde—347-3483

Among those who attended the Synodical of the WMS at St. John's Presbyterian Church, Cornwall, were Mrs. John Fourney, Mrs. Margaret McCallum, Mrs. Myrtle McPherson and Mrs. Athol MacDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Alguire of Avonmore called on Mr. and Mrs. Morris Poitras on Sunday.

Grades I and II of the Lancaster Village Public School were recently invited to the Osbourne family sugar camp by Stephanie and Angela to view the work and pleasure which is involved in the manufacturing of maple syrup.

Wayne Theoret, who spent a couple of days in Ottawa, returned home accompanied by his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Andre Maheu who spent the weekend here.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Romanko, Natalie and Anna, spent last Sunday in Montreal.

John Mossop of Montreal and South Lancaster who recently returned from a three-month stay in Bangladesh, attended the funeral of his aunt, Miss Mildred Dunlop.

Mrs. James McCreary has returned home from a vacation in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sharkey and family spent the weekend at their summer home.

Kenneth Caswell, Wilfred Taillon, Morris Poitras accompanied Archie and Ronnie Gauthier last Tuesday and Wednesday when they toured a meat packing plant near Granby, P.Q.

Mrs. Anicet Prieur, Mrs. Emma Lapierre, Mrs. Dorothy Haight and Mrs. Eugene Picard have returned home from an enjoyable two-week vacation in Daytona Beach, Florida.

Meet tonight

Originally scheduled for Wednesday night, the Easter Thankoffering meeting of the UCW of the Church on the Hill will take place Thursday (tonight) at 8:15 in the church hall.

Clean up golf course

Cold weather early this week held up the start of work on the Glengarry golf course which was scheduled to get under way Monday. The clean-up of the winter's debris will begin as soon as weather permits and an early start of the season is foreseen.

The clubhouse will open for the season as soon as weather ordains, possibly this weekend.

Members of the executive met at the club Saturday when activities of the winter cross-country ski club were reviewed. A fairly good season was reported and revenue more than took care of costs of operation, it was reported.

Miss Germaine Lalonde will be chairman of the entertainment committee, with Mrs. Colombe Amelotte, vice-chairman. The opening dance will be held on May 22nd.

Tractor club names slate

The Glengarry Tractor Club had its organization meeting at the OMAF boardroom on April 1st. At this meeting the members met their club leader who is John Peters and activities for the 4-H year were planned.

The club officers were appointed. They are: John Van Loon, president; Joe Krol, vice-president; Graham MacKenzie, secretary, and Don Vallance, news reporter.

Maxville student to represent United Counties

Students from Maxville area were predominant with their entries at the Science Fair held in Cornwall last Saturday at St. Lawrence College.

John Morrow of Tagwi Secondary School, will travel to Brandon, Man., for the Canada Wide Science Fair May 15-23 to represent the United Counties. He took top honors Saturday when he won first prize for best over-all entry in the Counties Science Fair here. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morrow of Maxville.

John also received a $35 cash award and plaque for his project on Solar Energy and won the Chemical Institute of Canada trophy for his school.

First place in the intermediate division went to Bernie Franzgrote, also of Tagwi, for his project, a simple pendulum motor. He also received a $35 cash award and plaque.

Sandra Lovesey and Janet Freeland, students of Maxville Senior Public School, took top honors in the Junior A division for their project, Land for Tomorrow.

Carolyn Smith, Jennifer Freeland and Dawn Davies won first place honors in the Junior B division for their project, Water—God's Greatest Gift to Man.

All of the winners of the different categories received cash awards of $35 and plaques. Two merit awards of $20 each were presented to Maureen Bush of Tagwi and Bill Pearson of Cornwall Collegiate and Vocational School.

Kenyon 4-H had meeting

The organization meeting of the Kenyon Junior 4-H Calf Club was held on April 5th, at 8:00 p.m. in the Maxville Community Centre.

The officers for the year were elected and they are as follows: President—Ian Vallance; Vice-President—Cheryl MacLeod; Secretary—Barbara Ann Van Loon; News Reporter—Rosie Van Loon.

The members were given their record books and then they discussed the topics they would deal with throughout the 4-H year. They also decided upon the dates and places where their monthly meetings would be held.

RENTAL HOUSING FOR FAMILIES RESIDING IN THE VILLAGE OF LANCASTER

—If you have one or more chilldren

—If your present accommodation is inadequate

—If your income is modest

This is of interest to you

The municipal council of the Village of Lancaster has asked the Ontario Ministry of Housing to determine the need for additional rent-geared-to-income accommodation in our community.

Only by completing a questionnaire can you help to determine whether there is a demand for additional accommodation.

For families interested in renting an Ontario Housing unit, additional information and questionnaires may be obtained at the Village Office, Lancaster. 15-1c

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Mrs. Elizabeth Gouthro of Silver Springs, Maryland, is spending Easter week with Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. MacPhee, Alexandria.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Levac and Carol, Brown House, have returned from a holiday in Calgary and Jasper. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Roger Levac of Saskatoon.

Dan F. MacDonell, Montreal, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. D. James MacDonell, Bridge End.

Mr. and Mrs. Emile Hurtubise spent a recent weekend in Toronto with Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hurtubise and took in the WHA game between the Toros and Indianapolis Racers.

Mrs. Bob Cameron, Ottawa, spent the weekend with her father, Rod MacPhee and D. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan O'Halloran and Jennie MacDonald, Ottawa, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. MacDonald, Glen Nevis.

Hilda and Mrs. John Hay, Alexandria, entertained as Saturday dinner guests, Mrs. Tena Mickle of Toronto, Mrs. Sara M. Robertson, Napanee, Mrs. Isabella Benton, McCrimmon and Miss Marion Urquhart, Laggan.

ENGAGEMENTS

LEFEBVRE—GRATTON

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lefebvre of Glen Robertson, are pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter Denise to Denis Gratton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rene Gratton of Alfred. The marriage to take place on Saturday, August 28th, 1976 in St. Martin of Tours Church, Glen Robertson.

Attractive quilt to be raffled Hospital Auxiliary Tartan Tea

A charming thistle quilt is a very special feature to be raffled at the Tartan Tea to be held by the Glengarry Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, Saturday afternoon, May 1, at Alexander Hall.

Mrs. Madeleine MacDonald, president, who chaired the last meeting of the auxiliary in the hospital boardroom, tea convener Mrs. Pierrette Laflamme and members were highly enthusiastic over plans for the annual spring hospital tea.

"It is the social event of the year, ladies of Glengarry," state the tea planners, "so get on the bandwagon and make it a tremendous success. Proceeds, of course, are for our benefit, that is our hospital."

Mrs. Huguette Roy, treasurer, reported a bank balance of $2,866.98 to the 34 members present.

Mrs. Pierrette Laflamme, president MacDonald, Mrs. Marion Armstrong and Mrs. Rose Laporte were delegated to attend the H.A.A.O. Spring Conference in Arnprior.

It was noted that there are 77 paid-up members for 1976. It only costs one dollar this year. It would really swell the work of the auxiliary if every woman in Glengarry would contribute a dollar. This would entitle you to a copy of the Newsletter even if you are not able to be an active member. Memberships will be accepted at the tea.

Mrs. Carol Baxter and Mrs. Madeleine MacDonald spoke of their trip to Montreal for a gift show where they were able to place orders for needed items.

Mrs. Zoe Grant, tuck shop manager, gave a very detailed account of the work being done in that sphere. In the past three months total sales were $3,157 and on this an $830 profit was realized. Of course this is largely due to the handcrafts.

Candy stripers' uniforms are being laundered now by an auxiliary volunteer. Mrs. Nicky Trudel, hospital in-service co-ordinator, will interview future junior volunteers. A visit to one of the large Ottawa hospitals is being planned for candy stripers in the near future.

Due to the Spring Tea being held May 1, there will be no general meeting at the hospital in April.

Friendship Club hears of Aratuba

On Tuesday, April 6, the Friendship Club of St. Raphael's met in the parish recreation room.

The highlight of the program was an interesting talk given by Mrs. Angus S. MacDonell who has just returned from Aratuba, Brazil, where she visited her daughter, Sister Mae Janet MacDonell, of Our Lady's Missionaries.

This was of interest to the people of St. Raphael's because they have adopted the parish of Sao Francisco de Paula in Aratuba. They are supporting their sister parish spiritually and financially. The parish of Aratuba attends about 26,000 people and most of them are poor tenant farmers.

Mrs. MacDonell gave much information concerning this parish. She was impressed by the beauty of the countryside, the flowering trees, abundance of bananas, which was their most essential food along with coffee.

Another aspect was the friendliness of the people, and the sharing of the little that they possessed. For example, one family presented Mrs. MacDonell with 3 hens, one dozen eggs and a pig, when she visited them. She stressed that there has been improvement in the living and working conditions of the people, and much of this is contributed to the missionaries who rely on the generosity of the people of the more developed countries.

In appreciation for the interesting talk, a little gift was presented to Mrs. MacDonell.

Worker for senior citizen projects

Her work as a senior citizen consultant with the Ministry of Social Services was related by Sandy Bickerstaff to the Inter-Agency group in Alexandria on Friday.

In being of service to the aged in the area it is Miss Bickerstaff's responsibility to see that the community is aware of home-maker services, meals on wheels and similar projects so that the aged in the community benefit from all supportive services possible.

The worker can be of help to any organization setting up functions for senior citizens and can supply information regarding grants or programs available. Anyone needing services in this regard may contact her at 2197 Riverside Drive, Room 201, Ottawa, K1H 7X3.

Her work is broad in scope, correlating services in nursing homes and developments that affect senior citizens but she wanted it known she was available as well for minor projects throughout the five eastern counties.

'From the old rail fence'

by Anna Margaret

Easter time has come upon us again and for most of us in this church-going community it is a busy week. Most of our local pastors are holding special services to help remind us to stop, look and listen, and as they remind us of The Risen Christ and the story of the redemption, we suffer the usual pangs of conscience and recall there are a lot of times in our lives when we don't live up to what was done for us.

On the commercial scene the advertisers are busy at us and gradually the picture here is changing. Words flash to mind when we mention the season—Easter ham, Easter bonnets, Easter bunnies, Easter lilies, Easter eggs.

Easter bonnets which were once a big feature at church on Easter Sunday have given way to hair styles—about as varied as the bonnets once were.

Easter ham will probably be replaced by a roast of beef in many households; the price would deem it so. And the price will also cut down on another old Easter custom—the amount of eggs eaten.

And if the weather next Sunday is anything like it was this past Sunday in this area, the Easter bunnies will be wearing their long underwear when they deliver their eggs and the Easter lilies will know enough to stay down below frost level.

However the word-product that always comes to my mind when I hear Easter is one I never see advertised in the same breath. Maple syrup. I reckon that comes from being "born and bred" in an area that produces the delicacy this time of year. And from seeing little moulds of maple sugar in the stores when we were kids and being reminded that come Easter Sunday when Lent would be over we might be blessed with a few little chunks of the stuff.

And then we had an Easter Sunday-maple syrup experience at our house a few years back that kind of indelibly associates the two words for us. It was the kind of happening all families have that gets funnier as it is recalled.

It had come to pass in holy week that a long-legged big black stray dog came by our way. And seeing children thereabout, directed his footsteps in their direction. When a feller needs a friend, instinct tells him where to go.

Unfortunately it had also happened at that lenten season that in some of our pious moments we had mouthed the beatitudes for our young'uns to hear. Not that we thought we had made any impression. But when parents hear the young varmints twisting the phrases about blessed are the homeless and how they hunger and thirst, they know it is no time for arguments. So we gave in—and "Bretta" as she somehow became, was allowed to sleep on the welcome mat for a few days, until we tried to find her owner. But, outside the door!

With all the family home for Easter Sunday there were lots of people, big and little, in and out. Tots get kind of peeved that they aren't getting as much attention as usual at times like this and usually do something about it. Nobody noticed that Tracy was interested in the new gallon of syrup just brought in from Edward Menard's sugar camp down the road. Nobody noticed when Tracy tipped the silver can on its side, unscrewed the little cap and watched the pretty golden stuff spurt out in little rivers. An entrancing pastime for a two-year-old. No tot in her right mind is going to chew on her little chocolate Easter bunnies when life can be so novel.

By the time someone realized Tracy was so quiet, her whereabouts should be investigated, there was a pretty little brown lake of the gooey stuff on the kitchen floor.

Maple syrup is gold in more ways than one and someone tried to be funny and tell the story of how the Scotsman got the sliver in his tongue when his bottle of whiskey dropped on the floor. But before there could be any more suggestions, the back door opened. Elaine had picked that particular moment to carry in the stray dog and introduce her.

Needless to say, the sight of so many strange faces, most of them unfriendly looking, caused Bretta to jump and she and Elaine both slid in the syrup. The poor beastie's long legs were no asset. She slithered and sprawled and in her struggle became completely covered with the stick-um.

There are contests to catch a greased pig but I wonder if it rivals trying to catch, or get out of the way of, a panicky dog covered with syrup going in circles and bumping into everybody.

Happy Easters include different memories for different families.

And a Happy Easter to you and yours!

IT'S OUR OPINION

A good way to keep it

Alexandria's streets are sparkling clean in comparison to the appearance of other towns, a letter to the editor informed last week. We share in the salute paid to our town's road department personnel. They have done a good job of clearing the winter's debris from our streets and we might also observe that they were equally thorough in keeping streets and walks open through a winter that knew an unusually heavy fall of snow and freezing rain.

Our street crew has shown us the way and it will soon be the turn of householders to display a similar zeal for cleanliness. May is only a fortnight away and we should all be making plans to Clean-Up, Fix-Up, Paint-Up, if the ravages of winter are to be replaced by a neat and tidy appearance. Some of our citizenry have already been out in the sun raking up their lawns.

Our streets are so attractive since they lost the last of their ice and snow it would be nice to keep them that way right through the summer. That should be possible but it would demand a public attitude against littering that has been sadly lacking in the past.

The tourist who never came back

Easter has finally arrived and the promise of an early entry of summer on the scene suggests the tourists will be among us again before we know it. Alexandria may be a bit off the beaten track but we do get our share of tourists, especially those with a Glengarry background.

Whether or not these strangers in our midst will gain a favorable impression is primarily dependent on the attitude of those with whom they will make first contact—restaurant personnel, hotel or motel owners, service station attendants and store clerks, usually.

But that vital first contact may be with any one of us and whether the visitor lingers longer in our midst or packs off to a warmer climate of friendliness may depend on the impression any one of us gives. This is true, of course, of not only the tourist from afar but of potential shoppers from a few miles away.

"If she likes you she'll come back," is an old saying favored by the guy in a dice game looking for his number. It is just as true of people. First impressions can be lasting and it is important to the economic well-being of a town that its citizens, all of them, go out of their way to make the stranger feel welcome.

There is food for thought in a tourist pamphlet we published ten years ago and we think it bears repeating. A nice tourist might know these reactions:

"You know me. I'm a nice tourist. I never complain, no matter what kind of service I get.

"I'll go in a restaurant, sit and sit while the waitress gossips with her boy friend and never bothers to see if my hamburger is ready. Sometimes, someone who came in after I did gets my hamburger, but I don't say a word.

"If the soup is cold or the cream for the coffee is sour, I'm nice about it.

"If the service station attendant fails to check my oil or polish the windshield, I don't even raise my eyebrows.

"When I go into a store and get surly treatment and lack of sympathy with my browsing around, I don't make a fuss.

"When I register at a motel or hotel, I'm thoughtful of the other person. If I get a snooty manager who gets nettled because I want to look at my room before making up my mind, I'm polite as can be. I don't believe rudeness in return is the answer. You might say I wasn't raised that way.

"I never kick. I never nag. I never criticize. I wouldn't dream of making a scene as I've seen people doing in public places. I think that's awful.

"I'm a nice tourist! I'll tell you what else I am. I'm the tourist who never comes back!

"That's my little revenge for getting pushed around. That's why I take whatever they hand out . . . I know I'm not coming back. It's true that this doesn't relieve my feelings right off, as telling them what I think of them would. But in the long run, it's a far more deadly revenge.

"In fact, a nice tourist like myself, multiplied by others of my kind, can just about ruin a business. And there's a lot of nice people in the world just like me. When we get pushed far enough we go down the street to another restaurant. We eat hamburgers in places where they're smart enough to hire help who appreciate nice tourists. Together, we do them out of millions every year."

Sniping at gun controls

Canada's gun lobby is in full voice against the measures for stricter gun controls embedded in the federal government's new peace and security program. No doubt you have noted an increase in letters to the editor in daily newspapers, letters that are critical of the legislation. This paper has received its quota, as well, letters that were not published because the printed signatures evidenced the fact the propaganda was being widely circulated to the press.

Only letters bearing legitimate signatures will be published in this newspaper and even when signed the letters may be discarded if they obviously are the work of organized lobbyists.

The complaints boil down to the old refrain that controls are hard on sportsmen and easy on criminals, notes an editorial in The Montreal Gazette. If the present proposals had been in effect last year, Robert Poulin would not have been able to buy the 12-guage gun with which he shot up his Ottawa high-school class. And Michael Slobodian might not have got his hands on his father's rifles for his rampage in Brampton. These two incidents left five dead and 18 wounded.

Sportsmen will be inconvenienced in getting licences, to be sure, but then they should be good sports enough to concede that gun killings are a growing problem in this country—used in half of all murders, a third of all suicides, in addition to causing about 100 accidental deaths a year. And if they really believe in Responsible Ownership, the new bill will help them achieve it, by making owners criminally liable for guns used in crimes.

If the provinces can be persuaded to follow up with civil liability as well, this will bring with it the need for insurance. That cost, added to the licence fee, could dissuade many tempted to keep guns for the fun of it.

There is no reason guns should not be as strictly regulated as automobiles, which at least are not designed to kill and for most are far more of a necessity. Yet even the new bill does not go that far. Only the owners, not the guns, will be registered, and no test of proficiency will be required for the permit.

Perhaps the new law will fail, and guns will not be kept out of the hands of criminals, but only future statistics can tell us that. In the meantime, we must do what we can. The new plan should make it more difficult for unstable persons to obtain guns, and with the added penalties for misuse, it looks like a step in the right direction.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

April 11, 1976

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

On behalf of the Bainsville branch of the Women's Institute I would like to thank your newspaper, most sincerely, for the space you so willingly and graciously allot to us each month.

Organizations such as ours would be hardpressed indeed if it were not for the co-operation we receive from the news media in publicizing our meetings, social and fund-raising events, etc.

Weeklies say . . .

Wrong remedy

The U.S. Mint may start producing a new $1 coin. The most we can say for the idea is that the Mint has proposed an appropriate size for it—larger than a quarter but smaller than a 50-cent piece. That size would bear some relation to what a dollar is worth these days.

This plan comes on the heels of the rebirth of the $2 bill, which the Mint believes may eventually make the $1 bill obsolete. Such tinkering with the currency is aimed at convenience, but the most convenient thing the government could do is provide us with money that is worth as much when we spend it as it was when we earned it.

Problems with inflation were relatively mild when coins were worth their weight in whatever metal they were made of, and paper money was backed by gold or silver stashed in a vault somewhere. Convenient or not, a new dollar that falls with the flat clunk of an alloy is not going to cheer anyone up.

—The Lampasas (Texas) Record

Propaganda

(The Prescott Journal)

Canadians, for the past ten years, particularly under the leaderships of Lester Pearson and Pierre Trudeau, have been influenced by these governments into thinking that big businesses are evil and that profits are immoral and dirty. This constant attack over the past decade on private enterprise has served to severely undermine public confidence and trust in private enterprise and has been a major factor in contributing to the stagnation of industrial growth in Canada today.

Private enterprise has its faults, but it is the best economic system in the world today and it should be promoted, endorsed and encouraged by governments of all levels, instead of attacked and demeaned. Private enterprise still holds the greatest promise for higher living standards and security for the greatest number of Canadians.

It is time labor, governments and particularly consumers, started to support the free enterprise system. If we let it disappear by default, as we have been over the past decade, we will find ourselves locked into a social-economic position that offers no security, no future and no prospects of prosperity or growth.

They'll Do It Every Time

WITH OUR
RAMBLING REPORTER
by Ed.

Easter was late in coming and that weekend trace of winter was just as late going.

HAMPERING ROMANCE

Our observation suggests most drivers are becoming seat belt conscious and are at least trying to remember to fasten their belts each time they step into their cars.

Whether that's true of the young drivers we're not so certain. The nights haven't been warm enough yet to coax us outdoors and so we aren't aware how the car cowboys are reacting to being fenced in by seat belts.

Is the new legislation interfering with young love, wonders the editor of the Dutton Advance.

All of us have met cars in which driver and rider appeared to be blended together. You can't help wondering how it's possible to keep a car on the road under such conditions.

Now, with mandatory use of seat belts, particularly the shoulder harness, it must be extremely difficult if not all but impossible for driver and passenger to be so friendly.

Whether that's good or bad depends pretty much on your age.

Spotting two heads behind the wheel, once upon a time, we were thinking that girl deserved a belt. Now she's got it, but will she use it?

DREAM ALONG WITH ME

Woke up the other morning with a feeling I'd like to kick myself and it was all on account of a dream in which I'd played the boob. Most of my dreams are gone with a blink of the eyes but this one is still sharply etched in my mind.

You say you'd like to hear about it? Well it has to do with our weekly poker party and if you're dead set against gambling, even in its most amateurish forms, maybe you'd better not read on.

Our poker sessions are dealer's choice and include a lot of wild games. This particular hand was high-low and for the benefit of readers unfamiliar with the game I might explain it's a form of seven-card stud with four cards face up. The best or worst five cards may be used to go high or low, or both, after the betting is finished. A royal straight flush is, of course, the best high hand and the lowest is a run of 1,2,3,4,5, known as a "bicycle".

The last card had been dealt and only three players were still alive. I had a cinch "bicycle" and it looked as though Big Mac had another. Pat seemed to be headed for high hand with a full house on queens and the betting was hot and heavy. At $85 (way above normal level) I just called because it looked as if Mac and I were going to be splitting the low and further betting would only be of benefit to the high hand holder. As I had surmised Big Mac and I went low with "bicycles" and had to be satisfied to share half the pot, with Pat taking the high half.

I was all set to divide up the loot when I glanced over at Big Mac. Peering down at his cards he was muttering "Babies must be the smallest thing," and sure enough his cards were spelling out b-a-b-i-e-s. I studied my own and found I had a b-a-i-e and s, but no second b to match Big Mac's.

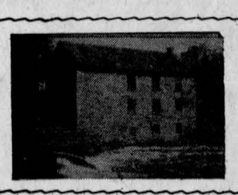
He and Pat were dividing up the big pot when the dealer turned to me: "You must have had a good hand to bet so high?"

"I had a sure thing," I said, "a cinch low, a "bicycle!"

And that's when I woke up.

Magical, isn't it, how one's dreams can transform the numbers on a pack of cards into letters of the alphabet. And permit a six-card hand to win a five-card game. Another rewarding thing about that dream is that I wasn't out all that money, hadn't actually acted as stupid as that dream made out.

The theory that dreams portend what will actually happen was also proven faulty. That very night your Rambling Reporter made a couple of bucks in the weekly session.



Martintown Rumor Mill

Art Buckland—528-4261

A wise Glengarrian (father of five) gave me some advice for a fresh groom. "Never compare your wife's culinary catastrophes to your mother's cooking; otherwise, you might be wearing it."

That good-looking shopkeeper from Maxville (J.D.) answered two calls for help recently. Mrs. Danskin was able to bring back J. McNamara's 12-string guitar from her visit to Scotland. The merry meandering melodious minstrel from Manx had to leave it behind on his last trip over—as payment to his mother-in-law for room and board.

Julia Danskin was also kind enough to select from her newly arrived stock of Scottish jewelery, two presents for dancing teachers Rae MacCulloch and Sybil Cameron. These gifts were tokens of appreciation for their talented efforts in teaching Scottish Country Dancing in Martintown. Somehow I had neglected to buy anything until the eleventh hour; Julia, however, came through superbly. Thank you very much Julia.

The Ruins Committee (please watch your pronunciation), of Chairman Robert (Glen Roy) McDonell, Helen (Glen Brook) Kennedy and Glen Falloch me has been appointed by Reeve Adrian Gadbois and Charlottenburgh Township council to preserve the majesty of St. Raphael's ruins and to solicit activities suitable for this acoustically perfect edifice. Anyone interested should contact Robert (525-3824).

Our Billy goat has made us proud. I don't know whether you noticed this particular birth announcement, but Alec Lagroix's two nannies delivered five kids. A sad story follows though; ask Alec or Stenetta.

I discovered an item of news under the bed the other night. It was next to my midnight snack. The article had been misplaced and I can't understand how with my filing system of saving everything unless my wife makes a midnight trip to the dump. This interesting news tidbit had received the approval of Father Time, through his dust (cleaning under beds is my area), and son Aden, through his felt pen hieroglyphics.

The item concerns a rare happening anywhere; triplets were born to a Van Loon cow some time ago. Corrie and Joanne have that big farming enterprise north of Martintown, the one surrounded by silos.

Recent reductions in income have forced a local school board to decide whether we need education or administration. I hear that school libraries will be closed; fortunately with the saving, there will be more money for books; teachers will be fired, classrooms will be closed, students will be jammed into larger classes.

One of the secrets of education is the number of students each teacher has in his classroom. Releasing teachers may be saving money but it is throwing away much potential in students, particularly those with a learning difficulty. I suggest that the board and their high priced help attempt to teach under their "new" educational standards, with all the "frills" of library and remedial and special education eliminated.

Last Saturday those stalwarts of the Glengarry Pipe Band John MacKenzie and David Danskin, and I were at the Maxville Lions Spring Dance, discussing education and in particular Ontario education. They were both pointing out the practical aspects of an education in Scotland, in that vocational graduates can actually do something. Our schools seem to prepare students for more schooling only.

The area of special education concerns me a great deal. There are many students with learning problems, yet we seem to do little for these students. One school board's approach to the problem is to assume that it is a luxury and is thus to be eliminated in hard times. What foolishness. Anything which takes a qualified teacher out of the classroom is foolishness. Sometimes we forget that the prime agent in education is the student, not the administrator or the size of offices, but the student.

Martintown Mac suggests that you boil sap to realize that it may take a long time to get what you want, but if you are prepared to spend time and effort you will end up with what you want.

E. A. Hodgson, the enterprising manager of the boot and shoe factory, has decided to enlarge his business. A joint stock company is to be formed, to be known as the Alexandria Boot and Shoe Co., which will give employment to between 150 and 200 hands.—We learn that A. H. McDonald is making preparations for the opening out of bath rooms in the Grand Union block at an early date.—Tenders are being asked for the construction of a two-storey building, balloon frame veneered with brick, to be erected on the lot of Dan P. J. Tobin, corner of Main and South Terrace Streets, Lancaster,—At the usual monthly meeting of village council held on Tuesday, Angus P. McDonald was appointed collector of electric light dues and the engineer in charge of the light was instructed to run till 1 o'clock each morning instead of 11:30 p.m., as heretofore. Reeve McArthur was delegated to go to Ottawa and interview the officials of the C.A.R. with a view to supplying the railway with water. —We learn that the carcasses of a number of dead cattle and horses have been placed on the ice west of this village. It is the intention of Policeman McDonald to see that a stop is put to this kind of work before ice breaks up.

THOMPSON—To Reverend and Mrs. James Thompson in hospital in Haileybury on Tuesday, April 13th—a daughter, 6 lbs. 6 oz.

MacMILLAN—To Brian and Tena (Acker) at Humber Hospital, Weston, on Tuesday, March 23rd, 1976, a son. Kristopher Ian Ewen.

Cards of thanks

LAPIERRE—I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to all my friends, neighbors and family for their cards, gifts and concern while I was a patient at Glengarry Memorial Hospital. A special thanks to hospital staff, Dr. MacLean, Dr. Nadeau and Dr. Bourdeau.
—Laura Lapierre,
Alexandria. 15-1p

MOORE—I would like to thank the hospital and IGA staff for their concern while I was a patient at Glengarry Memorial Hospital. Special thanks to Dr. Cheung.
—Keith Moore. 15-1p

In Memoriam

GAREAU—In loving memory of a beloved wife, Yollande Gareau, who passed away April 15, 1974.
My lips cannot tell how I miss you
My heart cannot tell what to say
God alone knows how I miss you
In a home that is lonesome today.
—Remembered by husband,
Royal Gareau. 15-1p

GAREAU—In loving memory of a dear mother and mother-in-law, Yollande Gareau, who passed away April 15, 1974.
Mom, if we could only have one lifetime wish,
We'd pray to God with all our hearts,
To bring you back in our life.
—Loved, remembered and longed for, daughter and son-in-law Emile and Denise St. Denis,
Alexandria. 15-1p

DOWNEY—In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, James Downey, who passed away April 20, 1975.
—Sadly missed by his wife, Naomi, children and grandchildren,
Verdun, Que. 15-1p

MacRAE—In fond and loving memory of a dear sister and aunt who passed away April 22, 1974.
—Always remembered by the MacRae family,
Glen Sandfield. 15-1c

In Memoriam

CONSTANT—In loving memory of my dear husband, Ovila who passed away April 18th, 1975.
Deep in my heart you will always stay,
Loved and remembered every day.
—Sadly missed by his wife, Evelina. 15-1p

LAPIERRE—In loving memory of a dear brother, Elmer Lapierre, who passed away April 17, 1974.
Though his smile has gone forever
And his hand we cannot touch
Still we have so many memories
Of one we loved so much.
His memory is our keepsake
With which we'll never part,
God has him in His keeping,
But we have him in our hearts.
—Sadly missed by sister Audrey and brother-in-law Robert, nieces and nephews,
Williamstown. 15-1c

DECOEUR—In fond memory of a dear friend and neighbor, Marcel Decoeur, who died accidentally April 18th, 1975.
—Always remembered and sadly missed by Mr. and Mrs. P. Mulcahy,
Green Valley. 15-1p

ROSS—In loving memory of my husband, David A. Ross of Moose Creek, Ont., who departed this life on April 12, 1968.
There is a home that lies beyond
And past its golden door
Awaits the one who's now away
Not lost—just gone before;
And in that home that lies beyond
The Master will prepare
A place for me and when He calls
I'll meet my loved one there.
—His wife, Mary A. Ross,
Moose Creek, Ont. 15-1p

Old age security pension payments rise in April

Increases in the Old Age Security Pension, Guaranteed Income Supplement and Spouse's Allowance, effective in April 1976, were announced by Health and Welfare Minister Marc Lalonde.

Increases in Old Age Security Pension and Guaranteed Income Supplement payments represent the tenth quarterly escalation based on the cost of living, as provided for in the Old Age Security Act.

The new monthly total at the single rate for persons receiving both the basic Old Age Security pension and maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement will be $230.42.

For a married couple who are both pensioners, the combination of the basic pension and maximum supplement will provide a payment of $439.56 for the couple monthly.

The basic Old Age Security pension will rise in April to $135.43 from the present $132.90.

The maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement for a single person, or a married person whose spouse is not a pensioner and is not receiving a Spouse's Allowance, will go up in April to $94.99 from its current $93.22. The maximum supplement for a married couple, both pensioners, will increase to $84.35 each from $82.78. Added to the basic pension, this will give each married pensioner $219.78 monthly, or a total of $439.56 for the couple.

The maximum Spouse's Allowance will increase to $219.78 from $215.68. The maximum Spouse's Allowance is made up of an amount equivalent to the basic Old Age Security pension and an amount equivalent to the maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement at the married rate.

Tony Oetelaar died suddenly

A well-known and progressive farmer of the Glen Robertson area, Anthony (Tony) Oetelaar died suddenly at his home on Thursday, April 8th. He had been in apparent good health and his unexpected death, the result of a heart attack, was a severe shock to his family and friends.

Mr. Oetelaar was born in Holland the son of the late Theodorus Oetelaar and his wife Anna Boselie. He came to Canada 23 years ago and for the past 20 years had farmed just east of Glen Robertson. He had taken an active interest in local affairs and had been just recently elected chairman of the Glengarry County Milk Committee. He was also prominent in the local branch of the National Farmers Union.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, the former Antonia van dan Alebeek, five sons and three daughters. They are: Theo, a teacher at Rouleau School; Gerald, University of Calgary; Eddie, McMaster University, Hamilton; Anthony, Ottawa; Michael and Debbie at GDHS; Joanne, Glen Robertson and Linda, Carriere School, Glen Robertson.

He also leaves six brothers and five sisters. They are: Mike, Alexandria; Theo, Bainsville; Hendrikus and Antonia, Mrs. Hendrikus Den Otter, Glen Robertson; Casper and Riek, Mrs. Harry Hellings, of Holland Landing, Ont.; Martin of Durham and Adrianus Oetelaar, Mrs. Johannes van dan Heuvel, Mrs. Leonardus Kerkhof and Mrs. Wilhelmus Janssen, all of Holland.

A large family connection as well as area neighbors attended the funeral which was held in Glen Robertson Church on Monday, April 12th. Rev. Bruno Pilon offered the funeral mass and burial was in the parish cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Maurice Montpetit, Paul Decoeur, Evariste Decoeur, Gilles Joanette, Lynus MacPherson and Arnold MacRae.

Craft show to be held in Cornwall April 24

Glengarry Craft members will be holding their Spring Festival on April 24th. Members of this craft group derive so much satisfaction and joy from their crafts, that they sincerely want to see other people experience the same pleasure.

With this in mind the craft show on April 24th will find the members, wherever feasible, actually working on their crafts, demonstrating their skills.

Included in the show will be macrame, weaving, ceramics, tin craft, copper tooling, jewelry, tole craft, dolls, pillow dolls and doll furniture, home crafts, stained glass light catchers, liquid embroidery, wall hangings, and a real live rock hound.

The Glengarry Crafts' Spring Festival, April 24, at the Church of the Good Shepherd, corner of First Avenue and Marlborough Street, Cornwall, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Auditor's Report
TOWNSHIP OF LOCHIEL

To: The Members of Council, Inhabitants and Ratepayers of the Corporation of the Township of Lochiel.

We have examined the consolidated balance sheet of the Corporation of the Township of Lochiel and the balance sheets of its local boards as at December 31, 1975, and the supporting financial statements for the year then ended, as listed on the attached index. Our examination included a general review of the accounting records and other supporting evidence as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion these financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Corporation of the Township of Lochiel and its local boards as at December 31, 1975 and the results of their operations for the year then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted for Ontario municipalities applied after giving retroactive effect to the changes referred to in note 5 to the financial statements, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES
a) BALANCE SHEET
The Balance sheet reflects the combined assets and liabilities of the revenue fund and the capital fund.
b) FIXED ASSETS
No value is attached to fixed assets for municipal reporting purposes. Expenditures on fixed assets are charged against current revenues unless the expenditures are financed out of long term debt. Debt retirement costs are charged against current revenues in the periods in which they are paid.

c) PROVINCIAL ROAD SUBSIDY REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE ON ROADS
Provincial subsidy programs are on a "receipt and disbursement" basis which does not recognize accruals. The municipality has expended amounts for which the road subsidy will not be eligible for claim until the succeeding year. Such future subsidy revenues have been accrued in the current year.

d) CHARGES FOR NET LONG TERM LIABILITIES
Charges for net long term liabilities include principal and interest. Interest charges are not accrued for the period from the date of the latest interest payment to the end of the fiscal year.

2. CHARGES FOR NET LONG TERM LIABILITIES

Total charges for the year for net long term liabilities were as follows:

Principal payments	$14,900
Interest	5,828
	$20,728

Of the total charges shown above, $4,390 was paid from the revenue of the municipality and is included in expenditure, classified under "Health Services", and $16,338 was recovered from ratepayers for which the related net long term liabilities were incurred.

3. NET LONG TERM LIABILITIES

Total long term liabilities incurred by the municipality and outstanding at the end of the year amount to $200,803

4. CAPITAL OUTLAY TO BE RECOVERED IN FUTURE YEARS
Some capital outlay does not represent a burden on general municipal revenues, as it is to be recovered in future years from other sources:

Special charges on benefitting landowners $171,803

5. COMPARATIVE FIGURES

Certain accounts of the previous year have been reclassified to conform with the presentation adopted for 1975.

The accumulated net revenue at the beginning of 1974 and 1975 on the statement of revenue and expenditure has been restated to give effect to the inclusion of the over or under levies for county and school board purposes.

The effect on the accumulated net revenue has been an increase of $1,164 from the amount reported for the 1974 opening balance and a decrease of $34 from the amount reported for the 1975 opening balance.

Emily Marquis to address Seaway Valley UCW annual

"Fifty plus One" will be the theme of the talk given by Mrs. Emily Marquis when she addresses the annual meeting of the Seaway Valley Presbyterial United Church Women to be held on Wednesday, April 21st, at St. Paul's Church in Cornwall.

During her travels around Canada as Associate Secretary with the Department of Stewardship Services, (the first woman appointed to the United Church's Board of Finance), Mrs. Marquis finds "a new and healthy mood and a greater interest again in maintaining the establishment and structures. Church buildings are being used in new ways and the 'whole cause of Christ' is in the midst of it."

Also at the meeting, which begins with registration at 1:00 p.m., will be Lynne Francis to lead the singing in her own happy and persuasive way, and Mrs. Carl Hunter will have all the latest books and resources on display on her 'literature table.'

Delegates from all of the 67 local U.C.W.s throughout the Seaway Valley are expected to attend the meeting which will continue after supper into an evening session until approximately 8:00 p.m. Supper will be available at 5:45 p.m. at a cost of $2.75, served by the ladies of St. Paul's U.C.W.

All in all the day should provide fellowship and a rewarding, learning experience, worship, a chance to relax with a little music and good humor, and, all women of the congregation are welcome.

Early diagnosis is important for arthritis

For the past few years, The Arthritis Society has been emphasizing the fact that arthritis is a disease which can strike at any age. In attempting to inform the public that arthritis can and does affect even children, the Society may have played down the fact that rheumatoid arthritis first attacks most of its victims in the twenty to forty-five age bracket. It robs many of the most productive and enjoyable years of their lives. This is one of the great tragedies of this number one crippler of the world today.

Deprived of the capacity to work normally, bread-winners must see their families go without many of the comforts in life which we take for granted. Arthritis does not usually kill, but it can be a life in prison.

The Arthritis Society is providing much-needed money for research into the cause and cure of arthritis and somewhere someone will find the answers which will loosen the bonds and allow those afflicted with arthritis to become, once again, fully capable of doing a day's work—or enjoying themselves at play.

The economy, which now must sacrifice $500 million a year in lost wages and in productivity will benefit as well.

It has been said that most of the information required to find the cause and cure of arthritis is probably already in existence but the big job will be to draw together all those bits of knowledge. It will probably take considerable time and study, but medical scientists feel they are close to the key.

By supporting The Arthritis Society now you bring that break-through closer.

The president of the local branch urges you to seek treatment from your doctor if you suspect you may have arthritis. Early diagnosis and treatment are effective in preventing crippling in most cases.
