Tenders too high for centre at Williamstown

Tender prices almost twice as high as anticipated were unacceptable to Charlottenburgh Township council when bids on the new community centre were opened Thursday night of last week. Council decided to accept neither of two bids and has turned the problem back to the committee for a further study.

Estimated cost was $280,000 and the lowest tender by John Entwistle Construction of Cornwall, had a price tag of $524,313. The only other bid, by Menard Ltd. of Cornwall, was at $529,777.

Located on a 700-acre site the plant will provide 350 jobs. Construction is expected to start next spring and production will begin in mid 1976.

Resurfacing of Highway 34 planned for next summer

Resurfacing of Highway 34 between Alexandria and Lancaster, postponed from last fall, is now slated for next summer, according to word from a senior highways' employee.

A notice of expropriation for several parcels of land fronting on the highway in three townships is published in this issue.

The pavement is to be widened from 20 to 22 feet and there will be some improvement at several intersections now considered hazardous.

The contract may also call for storm sewer installation and sidewalks at Green Valley.

Work on new Highway 417 has been terminated for this year, it is reported. Some paving has been completed in the McCrimmon area and it is expected the new thruway will be open to traffic by next fall.

Child not seriously injured

Lise Ouimet, 11, escaped serious injury at noon Tuesday when struck by a car as she left Perpetual Help School. The child was treated by Dr. Cheung at Glengarry Memorial Hospital for lacerations to the left leg.

According to the report by police, Lise had emerged from school and ran from the walk south of the school onto Main Street and into the path of a car driven by Jack Caley.

Lise is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rejean Ouimet.

Williamstown may drop status

Dissolution of the police village of Williamstown and return to the Township is being considered by the village trustees. At its meeting last week township council debated a letter from the trustees and expressed satisfaction with the contemplated move.

The letter suggested the possibility of amalgamation and asked for discussion of several problems of street lighting, road maintenance and road work on William Street in the village.

Reeve Adrian Gadbois indicated that the procedure would be dissolution of the police village and its becoming part of the municipality of Charlottenburgh. Both Mr. Gadbois and councillors indicated that they welcomed any move in that direction and they plan to meet the trustees in the near future.

A delegation from the Glengarry Historical Society with Ian McMartin as spokesman, and including Mrs. Alice Grant, Archibald MacDonell and G. E. Broomhall, asked for consideration in connection with the Nor'Wester's museum in the village.

The society finds its funds are going mostly into upkeep of the building, Mr. McMartin indicated. In order to increase the value of the museum to the community as well as attract new visitors, the society wants to improve and change its exhibits.

Mrs. Grant explained that the museum had, this summer, begun a series of craft displays and demonstrations on weekends which are a new service, and the museum wants to continue to encourage local craftsmen and artists.

The council expressed interest in the museum's needs and asked for a further report on requirements. The council offered to consider doing some of the maintenance on the building without making any direct commitments. Both the museum representatives and council expressed interest in the riverfront property opposite the building, with the idea of creating a picnic area and small park.

Council plans to explore the possibility of improving this.

Mr. Gadbois also suggested the museum should consider applying for a local incentives project grant for needed work.

Council resolved to purchase a tractor and loader from Laplante Farm Supply for $9,000, which was the lowest tender. An LIP grant for brush removal and some general improvement to municipal property was applied for.

Bad $50 bill

A counterfeit $50 turned up at the Bank of Montreal branch this week and Chief Cleroux warns merchants to be on guard for the bad bills. He reports the phoney a good imitation with number B over H 6712047.

NFU to discuss land use

Bert Rombough of Bainsville and Stanley Fraser of Dalkeith, are two local delegates who will be attending the annual convention of the National Farmers Union in Winnipeg. They will fly from Ottawa on December 2nd and return on December 8th. Any other members interested in attending may contact Allan McCuaig.

Among the policy statements which will be discussed is a land use policy for Ontario. The problems of prime agricultural land being used for industries, roads, airports and being held by speculators have escalated in the past few years. Many urban dwellers are becoming disenchanted with city life and prefer to commute from the country.

The Glengarry local had recommended that certain areas be designated as agricultural and that new farmers be encouraged through government assistance to become established on this land. Other areas should be classified non-agricultural and could be divided into smaller parcels of land for those people who want the fresh air but do not rely on agriculture for a living.

A limited survey was done in this area to prove that a land use policy is necessary to maintain a healthy agricultural economy.

The problem of an agricultural decline has been with us for many years but agricultural groups are now beginning to voice their concern and suggest solutions. This year's convention will consider recommendations made by locals across Ontario and is to develop a concrete proposal to present to the provincial governments and the many interested groups.

Horseplay on ice frowned upon

Public skating on the Community Centre ice is proving quite popular again this year but because of the crowds horseplay on the rink can become very hazardous.

The community centre staff ask the co-operation of parents in educating their children to be more considerate and safety-minded. The public skating period is for people to skate. Tag playing, racing and general fooling around will not be permitted. Anyone found guilty of these will be asked to leave and will be suspended from public skating for a period of time.

Home lost

Fire destroyed the home of Duncan Robinson at North Lancaster, Wednesday evening of last week. The family was away from home at the time except for a daughter Judy, 16.

She told firemen that she was talking to a friend on the phone when cooking on the stove caught fire.

Lancaster fire brigade was called to the scene and Alexandria firemen were also called out because the Lancaster fire truck was out of running order. Local firemen were called out at 9.30 p.m.

Part of the house might have been saved, firemen report, had not the water supply run out. By the time the truck had been refilled at a nearby creek all firemen could do was prevent spread of the flames to the barn.

The loss is estimated at $12,000.

Breath of Scotland was a musical feast

(by Grant MacGillivray)

Since I am only one person, and not a music expert, and also prejudiced, I have, since the big concert, conducted a mini-survey of opinions from people who attended. The general consensus was that this was the best performance that this company has given us, especially with singing of a higher calibre than usual.

Some of the audience , however, missed Wee Alec's usual hilarious skits and while there were plenty of laughs in the program, I found out that Alec gave up some of his time to the younger members. Maybe he shouldn't have been so kind. Others missed the old reliable 'Music Hall' type of song, known and loved by all, and it might have been a good idea to have devoted a few minutes to them to get our feet tapping. I fully sympathize with the above criticisms, although I must admit that I was so impressed with the high quality and the sheer professionalism of the performance that I didn't notice these points till I started asking questions. The blending of voices and instruments was a delight.

The editor told me to keep this article to half a page, so I will just mention the new members of the party, Kirsteen Grant and Grant Frazer. Kirsteen opened with "Westering Home", in English, followed by "Callin mo Ruinsa" in Gaelic after which (for me) the lovely wee lass from the Isle of Skye could have sung all evening. Grant also has a very fine voice and the quality of his singing is above what we are accustomed to. He is also a very pleasant young man, and would rather speak of his wife "and two bonny wee bairns" than his singing.

The Glengarry Pipe Band and Dancers presented part of the performance they did at the NAC two weeks ago, at the Intermission and were very enthusiastically received, one guest remarking that their performance alone was worth the price of admission. The show was taped by CJSS and parts were used on "Scots on Parade" last Saturday, with more expected this weekend.

Top Naylor cow returns to county

The Kengor Holstein herd of Charles Naylor, Lancaster, purchased in August by Messrs. Harold and Newell Brown, was dispersed at Brubackers Sales Arena, Guelph, on Nov. 12. Average price was $1436 on 71 head, or slightly in excess of $100,000.

The top priced animal, a 1970 daughter of Rockdale President, was purchased by Clark MacCuaig of Lancaster, for $8500. This was the only animal to return to the county. Second top was Lochsley Snowflake Linda an Excellent cow at $4,400. A Seiling Rockman daughter bred by Murray Howes sold for $1800 and we understand has since been resold for export to England at $5,000.

Glens posted two lopsided wins over the weekend

(by Gary Shepherd)

Last Saturday, Ken McDonald's Jr. "B" squad travelled to Spencerville for a 7.30 p.m. contest with the Bruins. A small crowd of just over 100 turned out and saw our locals defeat the Bruins by a convincing 12-4 count.

Alexandria took an early 2-0 lead in the first period on goals by Claude Roy and Ernie Larocque.

By the end of the second frame the Glens had built up an insurmountable 10-1 count. J. T. Hay and Tom Ross each scored twice while Rod Shepherd, Brian Reasbeck, Ralph Humphries and Cameron McLeod added singles. John Simpson scored the Bruins' only goal of this period.

In the final period Derek Garant scored twice for the Bruins and Bill Jasman added a single while Claude Roy and Brian Filion tallied for the Glens.

Robert Lajoie turned back 23 shots in the Alexandria goal.

Referee Michel Noel kept the game well under control calling 72 minutes in penalties. Alexandria picked up 32 of these.

On Sunday afternoon at the Community Centre the Glens picked up another two points romping to a 5-1 victory over the rugged Winchester Hawks. Over 300 fans turned out for the game.

The Glens were slow to get going in this contest falling behind 1-0 at 15.28 of the first period when Paul Morgan blinked the light for the Hawks.

It wasn't until 17.00 of the second frame that Ralph Humphries got things rolling for the locals when he blasted a hard slapshot by the Hawks' goalie. At 18.50 Rod Shepherd put the Glens up 2-1 and at 19.10 Shepherd again bulged the twine.

At 1.20 of the final period J. T. Hay scored his seventh goal of the season and at 18.45 Cleary Morris. Dennis Delaney turned back 22 Winchester shots in the Alexandria win.

Referee Jean Blais handed out only five minor penalties with the Glens getting four of them.

This weekend the Glens play host to the Metcalfe Jets at the Community Centre on Friday night and then on Sunday evening travel to Prescott for a contest with the Saints. Game time Friday night is 8.30 p.m.

Expected to be back in the lineup for the locals next Friday is Robert Boisvenue who scored over 30 goals for the Glens last season. Robert, in his fourth season with the Glens, and team officials have been having problems but it is hoped they will be settled by this weekend.

Gaels on the warpath

(by Tish Filiatrault)

Last Tuesday at GDHS our junior girls' basketball team played one of the two decisive games for the basketball trophy against Plantagenet. The girls put up a good hard battle but were defeated 30-24. On Thursday at home, spirited students cheered them on, too, in a very close game. Unable to gain a six-point lead the girls made an excellent showing, tying the game 29-29. This season ended up in fine play, equal in comparison to all of their games. Miss F. Gagnon, coach, and the girls should be congratulated.

On Saturday, in Hawkesbury, our Midget girls' basketball team made apparent their skill and determination by beating out four teams in the tournament to end up in the finals against Hawkesbury.

Although they gave it their best, Hawkesbury managed to take the game by six points. High scorer was Penny Filiatrault. Congratulations should go to the midgets and Miss C. Hughes, coach.

It is evident that the first seven teams this year have shown their talent and skill, representing GDHS well. And although some teams may now be hanging up their uniforms others are being chosen to carry on and attempt to gain victory. Good luck!

The winner of the second prize, a hand-knit stole by Mrs. Calfum MacGillivray was won by Mrs. J. T. Smith.

Lead workshop at Montreal

Mrs. Florence Davies, a former elementary teacher with the Protestant School Board of Greater Montreal and now a resident of Alexandria, was in Montreal to give leadership to some 80 teachers at a Professional Development Workshop there on Nov. 15-16.

The seminar based on "Using Film in Creative English" featured the very extensive and very favorable results obtained from a pilot project of this nature carried out for the Board while Mrs. Davies was teaching a grade 5 class in Dorval. After extensive experience in the art of student film-making with the grade 5 pupils, which included many hours of screening feature-film for class involvement, Mrs. Davies is convinced that the schools have a responsibility to prepare students to respond to the stimulation that film provides with wisdom and creativity, and at the same time the schools should assist the students to accept and understand the discipline of the mind that film demands.

DISTRICT PRESIDENT — Mrs. Reina Galipeau of Ottawa, president of the Hospital Auxiliaries Association of Ontario, District 9, has accepted an invitation to address the November meeting of Glengarry Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. It will be held Nov. 28th.

Farm courses to be held

The Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food has completed arrangements for two ten-week courses to be offered to area farmers this winter. These will be daytime courses, five days per week, commencing January 7th. One course accommodating up to 50 people will be offered in French at Plantagenet. The second with room for 30 people will be in English and will be held in Avonmore.

The courses entitled "Farming As A Business" are sponsored jointly by the Algonquin and St. Lawrence Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology and Canada Manpower and Immigration. Re-training allowances will be available at standard applicable rates for those who participate.

Such courses were held on a twenty-week basis several years ago. Last year, the first ten-week course in this part of the province was held at Avonmore. This particular course was extremely popular with the 30 men who attended.

While last year's participants will not be able to attend this year, the door is open for applications from full time farmers who are interested in updating their knowledge on modern farming practices. Experienced area farmers will be heading up the instruction at these courses and will be assisted by Ministry of Agriculture and Food personnel on special subjects.

There are no restrictions on place of residence or on age though preference will be given to full time farmers who have had a minimum of three years farm experience and who are committed to full time farming.

Interested persons are invited to contact their local Agricultural Representative's office for further details and for application forms.

WHAT DO YOU THINK? WE WELCOME LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

ENERGY

WE CAN'T TAKE IT FOR GRANTED ANYMORE

Recent events in the Middle East have underlined just how essential a dependable supply of energy is to the way we live.
Present indications are that supplies of imported crude oil in Eastern Canada are barely sufficient to meet demand.
If we can't maintain imports, real shortages of gasoline and heating oil could occur here in Ontario.
But uncertain import supply isn't our only concern.
Canada's own oil and gas supplies are being depleted, and cannot be renewed.

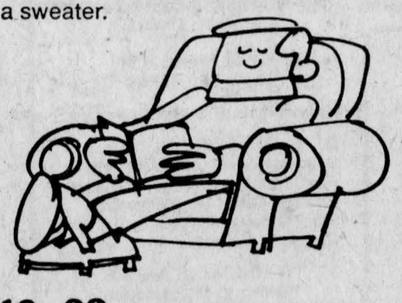
To make sure we have enough energy for the future, and to give us time to develop alternative energy sources, we must make the best use of the sources we have now.
Nobody has the right to waste fuel, or any other form of energy. The time has come to take a good, hard look at the way we use energy, and to use it wisely.
Good energy habits learned now, especially by our children, will bring us comfortably through the winter, and pay off in years to come. Let's get to work.

47 things you can do to conserve energy

1-7 Your heating system.
Clean forced-air filters once a month ☐ Bleed air from hot water radiators, fix leaks ☐ Empty the flue clean-out ☐ Have the system checked by an expert ☐ Insulate ducts and pipes in areas that don't need heat ☐ Glossy white radiators heat best ☐ A gravity air system with a single return works best with interior doors open.

8-13 Keep the heat in!
Insulation pays, especially in attics. ☐ Fit storm windows, weather-strip outside doors ☐ Keep fireplace damper closed ☐ Use range hood ventilators only when necessary ☐ If you sleep with the window open, close the door ☐ Close drapes at night.

14-17 Use your thermostat.
Each degree you lower the thermostat cuts fuel consumption about 3% ☐ It's possible to save by turning the thermostat down at night ☐ If you use a humidifier, you'll stay comfortable with less heat ☐ If there's a Shivery Sam in the family, suggest he wears a sweater.



18-22 Hot water.
Insulate exposed hot water pipes ☐ If your water heater has a dial, try setting it lower ☐ A dripping tap wastes up to 175 gallons of hot water a month ☐ Don't use dishwashers till they're full ☐ Generally, a shower uses less hot water than a bath.

23-32 Around the house.
Are the door seals on your oven, refrigerator and freezer good? ☐ Don't use the oven if a toaster or fry-pan will do the job ☐ If you buy an electric heater, make sure it has a thermostat ☐ Use lower wattage bulbs if you can ☐ Use Christmas lights from 6 pm till bedtime ☐ Use pots that cover stove elements ☐ Thaw frozen food before cooking ☐ Defrost freezers regularly ☐ A pressure cooker saves energy as well as time.

33-39 On the road.
A well-maintained car is an economical car ☐ Check tires and alignment ☐ Prolonged idling wastes gas ☐ Can you use the bus? Or ride with someone else? ☐ Does your size of car really fit your needs? ☐ Over 50 mph, economy decreases ☐ Jack-rabbit starts waste gas 40-44 Around the farm.

A well-tuned tractor burns 10% less fuel ☐ Underground or pressurized storage tanks reduce vapourization loss ☐ Reduce tractor wheel slip and you save fuel ☐ Prolonged idling of engines wastes gas ☐ Can you turn yard lights off earlier?

45-47 At work.
Can the thermostat be turned down? ☐ Can you turn off any lights? ☐ Has your company got an Energy Conservation Suggestion Scheme?

We're taking our own advice.
All Ministries and Agencies of the Ontario Government are doing their bit to conserve energy. Lighting and heating levels are being reduced in government buildings; a new emphasis is being given to economical operation of vehicles; Ontario Hydro and the Ministry of Education are encouraging consumers and schoolchildren to learn good habits in the use of energy. And that's just a beginning!

Save this check list...and save energy!

Industry, business, homeowners, agriculture and government must all work together to conserve energy. If we each save a little...we'll all save a lot.

Hoping the Chinese won't call

By Wayne Mutton, Information Officer, Ministry of Natural Resources

Gary Tupling gets a leery feeling every time he thinks about Prime Minister Trudeau giving those four x-rayed Canadian beavers to the People's Republic of China as an "expression of good will".

Mind you, Gary, Ottawa-Carleton district fish and wildlife supervisor for the Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources, didn't mind that two of those beaver, the females, came from a drainage ditch two miles from his office, trapped by his own men. From April to June his office received more than 80 calls about nuisance beaver. Even today the calls are frequent.

No, Gary wouldn't mind if the Prime Minister took two beavers from his district every time he went to the House of Commons.

It's just that Gary is now "implicated", part of what could turn out to be an international incident. After all, who can forget "the Brazil Incident". Gary knows Canadian beavers. If they can do that to the Brazilians, they can do it to the Chinese.

He didn't realize he was "implicated" until after External Affairs called Parks Canada who called the local ministry office for help with the project and the ball was rolling. By then things got a little rushed. There was only a week left.

Two staff members and two local trappers, "Ed" Narroway and Carson Thompson were brought in and started scouring the creeks and bush in Gloucester township. Ed and Carson were in great shape for the hunt since they'd been live-trapping with the Ministry all summer, providing at least 40 beavers for the new Toronto Zoo and the Ministry's Fur Branch.

By staying out late and starting work at 4.30 in the morning the team managed to come up with four animals in a location just eight miles south-east of Parliament Hill in the Greenbelt Forest which rings the capital.

Making sure Canada was sending a mixed, therefore productive, set of beaver to China was a slight problem. "Sexing" beaver is tricky business, so chances of mistakes were reduced by having the animals x-rayed. That exercise made the National News and almost every daily in the country.

Then hours before take off, one of the four mangled its cage and escaped. Gary was left with three females. No real cause for alarm, though, because the Parks Canada western headquarters came up with two males which were put aboard Air Canada in Winnipeg with their luggage—20 pounds of popular twigs—and sent to Ottawa. Naturally, their "luggage" was misplaced and went through to Montreal before being traced down and sent back to the capital. But, those things happen.

That's when the Beaver Logistics Officer from External Affairs, Information Officer Dave Elder, took over. There was the picture-taking with the press then the hard-chewing quartet was placed aboard an Air Canada jet for Paris. From Paris the beavers travelled in temperature-controlled, pressurized luxury in the storage section of a Pakistani International Airlines passenger-freight plane. The second half of the long trip was just as romantic—Istanboul, Islamabad in Pakistan, and finally the walled city of Peking.

They arrived in mint condition and were presented directly to officials at the Peking Zoo by the Canadian embassy. Prime Minister Trudeau had already left for home, but had mentioned to Chou En Lai, during talks, the beavers were on the way.

According to Chinese Embassy officials the beaver may be kept under observation in the Zoo before being put on public display in proper housing.

Which brings us back to Gary getting leery and "the Brazil Incident".

Everyone had forgotten about the 50 Canadian beavers that had been presented to Brazil way back in 1948 by Natural Resources, then known as the Department of Lands and Forests.

Forgotten, that is, until the Brazilian Embassy phoned the Natural Resources Toronto headquarters just recently to report those 50 innocent beaver had multiplied to "at least a million". Brazil is presumably undergoing the damming, flooding and headaches we are experiencing in some parts of Ontario. They are not amused.

So that's why Gary Tupling, who knows all too well how ambitious our national animal can be, about everything, sits by his phone fighting the feeling it's only a matter of time and hoping the Chinese won't call.

Remembrance day at Apple Hill

Lorne Hall, Branch 312 President, opened the service with the singing of "O Canada", followed by two minutes silence, a prayer and a scripture verse.

Mr. Hall introduced the guest speakers, Osie Villeneuve MPP, Mr. George Tomita, minister of Zion United Church, and Rev. L. Cloutier, St. William's Church, Martintown. All gave inspiring messages.

Wreaths were laid by Mr. Villeneuve, the Provincial wreath, Branch 312 by Peter McBain, Ladies' Auxiliary by Mrs. Evelyn LaPierre, Kenyon Township, Hugh McIntyre, Zion United Church, Keith MacIntosh, and Doctor Vaidya's by Mrs. Violet Benton. The service concluded with the reading of the poem "In Flanders Field" and the singing of the "Queen".

Lunch was served to all back at the Legion Hall by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Couple marked 25th date

The children celebrated the 25th anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Parent, recently. They were married Sept. 18, 1948.

Rev. Gilles Deslauriers celebrated an anniversary mass at 5 p.m. in St. Mary's Church, Green Valley and a supper was served at Green Valley Pavilion where the family gathered.

At the honor table were Mr. and Mrs. L. Gauthier, bridesmaid, Diane Parent, Roger Desforges, Michel Parent, Monique Vicas, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Parent.

Diane read an impressive address and gifts were presented to the jubilarians.

Later a reception was held when relatives and friends spent a very pleasant evening.

EDITORIAL

IT'S OUR OPINION

Bear With Us, Please

A rather messy front page we had last issue, didn't you think? So did we. Heading type was too bold and the total effect was more than a bit overpowering. No doubt you noted as well, a few mistakes that are not customary in your favorite paper.

We'll try something different in heading types this week and hope for an improvement but we can't be sure we're on the right track until we see the finished product; and then it's too late to make changes in the current issue.

Our readers are asked to bear with us for a few weeks or months as we make the transition from printing with hot metal to the more modern offset method. We're doing it gradually as new equipment is acquired and we gain new skills, but it involves a lot of experimentation and the results are not always up to expectation. Like last week, the news of Glengarry may appear in a less attractive form but we'll try to keep you informed.

The changeover is being made in a pre-Christmas period of heavier advertising, whereas we had planned it for early in the new year when the tempo of business is much slower. That adds to our problems and the pace has been hectic around this office in the early days of each week.

Our advertisers could help by getting their copy in early, real early, like the week before publication. That would spread our workload over more days and it would benefit the advertiser, too for we would have more time to produce a more effective ad for him. That goes for classified advertising, too. A flood of small ads on Tuesday raises havoc with our schedule. Do try to get them in no later than Monday.

If your favorite weekly doesn't look quite up to par for a while be consoled by the knowledge we intend to provide a much more readable and attractive paper eventually.

Another Wasted Million

A million dollars is just peanuts from a Parliamentary point of view so who is to bother to question an item in the supplementary estimates, $930,000 which will provide a constituency office for each Member of Parliament in his home riding. These offices may not be needed but they will provide window dressing for the MP and they can be useful at election time as centres of organization, so we foresee little opposition to this item in the estimates.

The plan is to hand over $6,000 to each MP to spend on operating expenses for the office—mainly the salary of someone to answer the phone and make appointments—and up to $200 monthly for rent.

We were critical of the idea back in the spring when Ottawa lofted a trial balloon. The flak must not have been too heavy, though, because financial provision for these constituency offices is being sought in the supplementary estimates that Parliament will be asked to approve.

Ostensibly the offices are to enable the public to have better access to their Member of Parliament. There will be careful little provisions to ensure that MP's wives don't get on the federal payroll in the guise of secretaries. Members will not be allowed to rent their own bedrooms or garages as offices. Financing will stop during election periods.

Everything will be on the up and up except the basic fact that public funds are being used to help re-elect a sitting Member, a person who already has advantage enough over any challengers. These offices will primarily serve the political future of incumbent MPs. They will provide the sitting member with constant visibility in a key area of his riding. The "secretary" will inevitably be a campaign worker.

Public funds will not only be helping the party in power to retain office. These constituency offices will be assisting the incumbent to again win the nominaton from adversaries in his own party. That should not be.

Mandarins in the public service are to get whopping salary increases in the $60,000 a year range. Inevitably that will pave the way for new increases to the MPs. That would be preferable to such devious measures as constituency offices provided in the name of better serving the public. Something they will not do.

Blood?-Who? Why? How Much? Why Not?

(A guest editorial)

The annual Glengarry blood donor clinic will be held at the Glengarry District High School on Friday, November 30th, from 2 to 4 in the afternoon and 6 to 9 in the evening. Many of you may not have yet made up your minds. You are still wondering why you should give, how much of your time will it take, is your blood suitable to donate and many other such questions.

In order to enable you to make your decision and to help us achieve our objective of 500 pints, here is some information that may help to shed light on your problems.

Who can give blood—Most healthy persons between the ages of 18 and 65. Male students of 17 may give with their parents' consent.

How much does one give? Slightly less than one pint at a time.

How often can one give? As much as four times a year, but not more frequently than every three months.

When is one's blood rejected? Here are the main reasons for permanent rejection:

a) Cancer of any kind
b) Diabetes
c) High blood pressure
d) Jaundice
e) Kidney disease
f) Rheumatic fever
g) Chronic disease such as epilepsy
h) Active peptic ulcer
i) Open heart surgery
j) Infectious hepatitis
k) Anyone showing evidence of self-administered injections

How long will it take? 25 minutes for the entire procedure. The actual drawing of blood takes four to five minutes.

How much does one get for giving? No money. Personal identification cards showing your blood group will be mailed to you.

Why give? In order that your blood may help to replace someone's blood which has been lost through an operation, accident or illness.

MPP On Right Track

Jack Riddell, Liberal MPP for Huron, is, we think, on the right track with his Bill concerning school buses. Mr. Riddell suggests young people who are really involuntary passengers deserve special attention from the Government, editorializes The Ridgetown Dominion.

The MPP cites two areas that urgently require action—the school bus driver and the bus itself—and his suggested qualifications for a bus driver make a lot of sense.

"An aspiring school bus driver", he says, "would have to not only pass the present test for school bus drivers, but also have clean driving and police records and take compulsory courses in defensive driving, highway safety and emergency first aid. A school bus driver's licence would need to be renewed every year and the driver would be retested before renewal was granted."

But Mr. Riddell's concern goes even further—the vehicles themselves. He called for increased padding and other safety features for the interior of buses and in emphasizing his remarks he asked his fellow members to consider the inside of a school bus. "Where the law required that private automobiles must be equipped with protective padded seatbacks", he said "the school bus is equipped with a rigid steel bar that runs across the back of each seatback at just the right height to mutilate the face and teeth of a child thrown by a sudden stop or collision."

Extremely critical of those lumbering monsters that defy the elements daily to carry our youngsters to school the Huron MPP brought other important facts into the limelight. "The law requires that private automobiles be equipped with seatbelts" he pointed out "and while seatbelts are probably not appropriate for school buses, padded armrests could be provided to ensure that the child is restrained within the passenger area This feature should be combined with automobile dash-type padding in the passenger area and on seatbacks. The passenger will thereby be held in the passenger seating area and the passenger seating area will be fully padded."

The feeling here is that Mr. Riddell has touched a very vital deficiency in the present system of transporting little ones many long miles to attend school. Fortunately, to date, there has been no disastrous accident claiming the lives of many innocent passengers. Hopefully our government will see fit to heed this warning and take measures before it's too late.

At Saturday's last meeting of Alexandria Cheese Board for the season, it was made known that since July 18, 23,217 cheese were boarded at an average price of 10½ for white, 10⅝ for colored. — Donald McMillan has assumed the duties of ledger keeper in the local branch of the Bank of Ottawa. — Miss Annie McPhee has gone to Ottawa, to attend Gloucester Street convent. — A disastrous fire at Dunvegan, Friday, destroyed the residence of Angus Grant with all contents. — John M. Campbell of Breadalbane, has been visiting friends and hunting in the Nipissing district. — James Falkner, BA, has returned from the Gatineau district and is at his home in Williamstown before joining a survey party on the new Grand Tunk Pacific route. — We learn that Sam Kennedy, who a year ago was a counter-hopper in Rory McDonald's store, has received a 14-month contract for operating one of the shafts in the Payne mine at Sandon, BC.

MUSICAL COMEDY BASED ON EARLY GLENGARRY TALES

Ottawa, Canada

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

A Ralph Connor musical comedy? Impossible. But for the thrill of a lifetime wait until you see the Orpheus Theatre production of "Glengarry Days".

Half to three-quarters of a century ago the English-speaking world was enchanted by tales of the Glengarry wilderness. With brilliant script, imaginative staging, dramatic choreography and superb new music these tales have been transformed into a spectacle of unusual beauty and power.

Glengarry is the matrix of Canada. Populated by pioneers with memories of Glencoe and Culloden, followed by the harsh, long century of "clearances", this Loyalist County gave Canada much of its heroic character. It was this soil that garnered up the best blood of North Britain, the Crofters, elevating these poor exiles by King's Patent to Yeomen.

Later Glengarrians ventured forth throughout the entire brave new world to become Norwesters, to settle the prairies, to build churches and railroads and banks and colleges, to discover

Tire Studs, A Right Decision

(The Smiths Falls Record-News)

Ontario transportation minister Gordon Carton has advanced valid reasons why Ontario should continue the ban on studded tires.

Studs, he said, cause widespread and costly havoc on roads, and far more important, there is no indication that they produce safer driving.

Indeed, Mr. Carton claims that statistics show less accidents on Ontario roads since studded tires were banned. There may be several reasons for this development and Mr. Carton's application of it directly to the studs ban will require verification. But it is nevertheless interesting. It may indicate the use of studded tires produced a false sense of security in drivers which led to casual driving on hazardous roads.

It may also be that the damage to roads from studded tires sets up a safety hazard of its own.

The studded tires ban may be less valid in some parts of the province than others. But the word of the transport minister should be taken that, on balance, it has been the right decision.

GLENGARRY IN MUSIC

A new musical based on the Glengarry tales of Ralph Connor will be presented by Ottawa's Orpheus Society in early December. "Glengarry Days" will have its premiere on Dec. 7th and run until the 15th in the auditorium of the High School of Commerce.

Glengarry residents in the Ottawa area are no doubt already planning to take it in and there will probably be many from this county wishing to see the show.

A man with a Glengarry heritage, Judge John R. Matheson is honorary president of the Orpheus Operatic Society and a letter from him in an adjoining column serves as an invitation to all Glengarrians to take in the musical. In an accompanying note he observes: "I truly believe people will be well pleased with this production. Tremendous effort has been expended on it, and great talent".

A synopsis of "Glengarry Days" has reached our desk from the Orpheus Society and it suggests the musical follows fairly faithfully the early Glengarry scene depicted in Ralph Connors' books. The hero, Rob MacDonald is leaving Ottawa as the curtain rises, on his return to British Columbia with the good word that the Great Railway is to be built. Friends gather at the Ottawa station to see him off and reminisce of the old days. Then comes the flashback to a still earlier Glengarry when the logging gang was driving timbers to Quebec and defending its reputation for fighting with the Gatineau loggers.

There's the expected dash of romance as the city flirt and the steady girl at home vie for the favors of Rob and one can take a fairly good guess as to the winner.

The book and lyrics are by Bob Gardiner and the music is by Bert Carriere They haven't stinted, for the production boasts 17 vocal numbers as disparate as "Song of the River", "Glengarry Women", "Football Fever" and "Saints and Sinners"

Orpheus is reportedly the oldest continuing musical society in North America and it commissioned the Glengarry Days show in 1970. Cost production is $30,000 and there are no covering grants, it says here.

Glengarrians who are musically inclined should be especially interested in taking this show in.

Hard to credit a musical based on Glengarry doesn't feature that song Road to Dalhousie.

COMET'S A-COMING

A comet described by astronomers as the most spectacular in more than a century will appear in the heavens sometime around Christmas. It will be something to see, they tell us; the head is said to be 60 million miles long while the tail will extend over one-sixth of the visible sky.

Since way back the people of this earth have believed that comets were heralds of disaster but in this enlightened age sophisticated man will gaze on that approaching comet without a hint of superstitious dread. Or will he?

That huge comet will become visible about Christmas, or maybe early in the new year. And isn't this the winter we're supposed to shiver through because of the scarcity of oil? Isn't 1974 the year economists have been warning we'll know another depression?

Down in Washington the Congress could be impeaching President Nixon next year, too, but a lot of people might not consider that a disaster. Almost certainly Canadians will be going to the polls again in 1974. While that could prove more catastrophic for one of the older parties than the other, all of us will be the losers as the politicians dream up some more giveaways of our tax dollars with which to bribe the voters.

Mind you we don't for a moment believe a celestial body made up of a concentrated swarm of meteors a few million miles out in space can possibly affect us earth people. But we'll breathe a bit easier next April or May if we can look back on a winter that was as easy to take as the last one. And one in which our furnace hasn't gone thirsty for oil.

This approaching comet could have a disastrous effect on us earthlings, though, if its appearance prompts the prophets of doom to panic the American investor. The Dow Jones averages are anything but firm these days and it mightn't take much to bring the stock market plunging like it did back in 1929.

Seems to us there's something awfully fragile about any economy that must depend on the gambling propensities of the people to keep it buoyant.

The last big comet made its appearance in 1910 and there are older people who still talk of Halley's comet. We weren't around to see that one so we'll have one eye peeled for this coming comet while the other is seeking unidentified flying objects.

Ralph Connor saw courage and compassion and beauty in the hardy people of "the Indian Lands". I think you will too.

We would rejoice to see all the good folk from up and down the Glens at this major production which is taking place at the High School of Commerce Auditorium, on Rochester St., Ottawa, from December 7th to 15th next. Tickets can be obtained by calling 729-4318 at any time. "Glengarry Forever!"

WOEFUL POSTAL SERVICE

Manotick, Ont.

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

After reading the article, "Not Exactly Prompt", on the editorial page of your November 1st. issue of The Glengarry News, I felt I should advise you of a problem with the mail a little closer to home. For the past six months or so, with only one or two exceptions, our copy of the "News" has arrived regularly a week and a day after publication. However, this week we seem to have achieved a new record. The Nov. 1st Glengarry News was not delivered to the Manotick Post Office until yesterday, Nov. 13th.

On two other occasions my brother Stuart contacted you in regard to the above problem. Immediately following each of these complaints, service improved considerably; even to the point when, once or twice, I received my copy of the paper the day following publication. However, within several weeks' delivery was back to usual.

I am sure that poor mail delivery is every bit as irritating for you (in your case, from a public relations point of view) as it is for a reader; but I think you will agree that it is rather ridiculous to pay $8.00 a year to get first hand news from "down home", when my mother in Lancaster can get her copy of the "News", take a couple of days to read it, wrap it up and mail it to me in time to arrive here two days before my copy.

I must apologize for not reporting this problem to you earlier, as it has been going on for some time. However, I would appreciate if you could check into this situation and ascertain if delivery could be improved in any way.

Please accept my best wishes for your continued success with a very excellent newspaper that brings a little bit of home to so many ex-Glengarrians.

SPORTS in the GLENS

by ANGUS H. McDONELL

The sun was easing behind the Indian Lands late Sunday and you could almost hear the champagne corks popping in the Rough Rider dressing room as coaches, players, sport scribes and "mike" men milled around in a joyous Grey Cup entry scene comparable only to that of a group of Arabs finding another oil well.

Alouettes, just down the hallway, were showering for the last football time this year. Once again the theory that $100,000 football players will make a championship team was blasted full of holes by a team that lost their first four games but not the conviction that they were one of Canada's top football clubs.

Up there in the Valhalla of sportsmen, Alexandria-born, and always a faithful friend, Jim McCaffrey would be grinning happily. Jim would be looking back 50 years to 1923 when he moved into Lansdowne Park and Rough Riders humble quarters near the Ex cattle barns beside the Rideau canal, to assume the leadership. Jim brought with him his great Irish sport colleague and "Field General", Sandy Hill's Charlie Connell. Charlie was a Canadian champion boxer, middleweight I believe, and also Canada's top "home", forward today, lacrosse player. On the gridiron Connell was a leader and as much at home as he was in the ring or on the lacrosse field. There were a few more players, we don't recall off hand, from Sandy Hill and Lower Town St. Bridgets to supplement whatever nucleus Riders had.

Folks, that was the beginning of our first trips to Lansdowne Park and 50 years of Ottawa football and now the Golden Jubilee being fittingly celebrated by still another shot at the Grey Cup, and by a typical "Fighting Irish" club not from Notre Dame but the old school of the McCaffreys, Connells and McCanns.

From this shoestring beginning it took only two years to win what was at least an Eastern Canada crown if not the Grey Cup. A noted Montreal coach, Bill Hughes, was leading Queen's University on a record-breaking skein of victories through 1923-24-25. Queen's backfield of "Pep" Leadly and Harry Batstone were supreme until they hit Lansdowne Park on a field frozen like granite in late 1925. We seem to recall that Joe Tubman was kicking for Ottawa and as Leadly and Batstone prepared for their usual tremendous runbacks two young Ottawa outsides, Don Young and Harold Starr cut them down at the knees. Queen's string of something like 23 straight ended and Riders were on their way.

The "Hungry Thirties" were tough and Rider players were thankful for five tons of coal squeezed out of local coal dealers by McCaffrey. It was not unusual for Manager McCaffrey and Coach Dave McCann to sign a personal note in exchange for rail tickets to Toronto and Hamilton, then finger the beads praying for a good home crowd next game.

Among the first imports was Dave Sprague lured from Hamilton while the RCMP just happened to transfer "Tiny" Herman to Ottawa. Even Renfrew helped as Bunny Wadsworth outgrew the biggest desk at St. Pat's to join Riders and chief Duncan (Green Valley-Banker) MacDonell got extra cloth to fit out Bunny for Ottawa's finest.

Another example of developing home brew talent was the case of Tommy Daley a great football player and CFL official. Tommy reported to Glene Collegiate coach R. D. Campbell and was bluntly told his marks didn't jibe with football—he couldn't play. Tom hopped his bike and wheeled 10 blocks over to Lansdowne where McCaffrey promptly saw the potential and signed Daley who became a star overnight.

We could write reams but we trust the foregoing tells of the solid foundation built by Jim McCaffrey and his colleagues that has resulted in envied success. To keep pace with other clubs, players were brought in but within the team's budget. About the best example of import then permanent resident is Bob Simpson. There are a score more like Ron Stewart and Whit Tucker.

To match the U.S. imported coaches, McCaffrey and Riders had a run of unstable leaders until they capitalized on Argos' biggest blunder, among many, by hiring Frank Clair following his firing by Toronto. In something like 20 years, after sacking Clair, the closest Argos came to a Grey Cup was the fumle by Leon McQuay in Vancouver in 1971.

Young News readers are familiar with Rough Riders' accomplishments, like Hamilton, against the odds of St. James (Als) and Bay (Argos) street money. The only time a $100,000 player hits Lansdowne he is wearing an Alouette or Double Blue sweater. As evidence that GM Frank Clair is of the McCaffrey mould we will close on this note by relating an anecdote of Jim and Frank. You Fair and sport fans of the Glens who watch a grandstand show or football game and admire those beautiful graceful popular trees at the west end of the field don't think they were planted to fit a Lansdowne landscape plan. In the old days Bank Street bridge was really the "West End" bleachers. So McCaffrey with one eye on the ticket office and the other on blotting out the bridge view had the trees planted. One afternoon we were sitting in the Towers Hotel, Vancouver, with a few of the Riders just chin wagging and the topic arose of comparing Jim's shrewdness with that of Frank Clair. A young Rider asked an older one who had played for both, "What is the difference between McCaffrey and Clair?" "There ain't any", grunted the veteran Rider, "For instance, all Frank changes on a Vancouver trip is his shirt and a $10 bill".

Who is kidding whom? Would you prefer a humorous shot of the shrewd needle and laugh all the way to the bank and the Grey Cup, or shell out 100 grand for one player who was made to look very ordinary last Sunday.

This will sound like a home town call and frankly it is. Riders all the way.

snowmobile buyer's guide
A few hot features don't make a high performance snowmobile. It's how you put them all together.

There are a lot of snowmobiles around with big, fast engines, slide suspension systems and sleek, racy styling.

And there are a lot of snowmobile buyers who think that's all you need to make a high performance machine. But, there's a little more to it than that.

Power from a reliable source

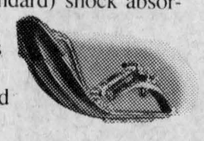
Take the all-new T'NT* from Ski-Doo.

We've got the engines: 3 big twins by Rotax that really crank it out. But, instead of just worrying about the performance you need to get you moving, we also worry about the reliability you need to keep you moving.

So we developed a rugged, Square Shaft clutch that increases available power by reducing power loss. We used a tough, light aluminum-steel frame to keep sled weight down. And on our muscular 440, for example, we chrome-plated the cylinder walls and added two additional transfer ports per cylinder to help it run cooler and last longer. The extra power you get is free.

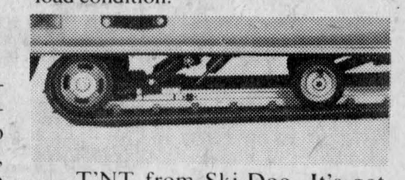
A complete handling package

When we designed a slide suspension system to improve T'NT handling, we didn't stop there. We also incorporated a stable 16-1/2 inch track, a full 28 inch ski stance, mounted the engine low and up front over the skis and added (as standard) shock absorbers and Ski-Doo carbide ski runners to give you a good grip on ice and hard packed snow.



Comfort is part of performance

When we set out to make T'NT look good with its sleek, low-profile styling and handsome sheet-moulded cab, we also set out to make you feel good riding it. With a comfortable 3-layer foam sandwich seat and a 4-way suspension you can adjust for the smoothest ride over any terrain and load condition.



T'NT from Ski-Doo. It's got everything you expect to find in a high performance snowmobile, including a speedometer and tachometer as standard equipment. But T'NT isn't just a few hot features. It's a totally engineered machine. See it at your Ski-Doo dealer's. There are six new models to choose from, including two with electric start. And all have a full one-year warranty.

8—In Memoriam

BLAIR—In fond and loving memory of my husband, Ezekiel Lindsay Blair, who passed away November 20th, 1972.
Just beyond life's gateway,
In a garden bright and fair,
Where again we'll meet our loved ones
And there'll be no parting there.
Pain and sorrow will be vanished
Gone all heartaches and all tears
Just beyond life's gateway
Where they count not time by years.
—Ever remembered by wife, Catherine, Hazel and family, Moose Creek, Ont. 47-1c

MUNRO—In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, Hugh D. Munro who passed away Nov. 25, 1971.
Deep in our hearts
A memory is kept,
To treasure to love.
To never forget.
—Lovingly remembered, Murdena, Eldred, Wendy, Wayne and Alyson.
Maxville.

MUNRO—In loving memory of a dear husband, Hugh D. Munro, who passed away November 25th, 1971.
Memory drifts to scenes long past,
Time rolls on but memories last
Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all.
—Always remembered by wife, Sara,
Apple Hill, Ont. 47-1p

MUNRO—In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, Hugh D. Munro, who departed this life November 25th, 1971.
You never failed to do your best
Your heart was true and tender
You worked so hard for those you loved,
And left us to remember.
—Sadly missed by Lorne, Mamie and family,
Alexandria, Ont. 47-1p

McCULLOCH—In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, John H. McCulloch who passed away November 26, 1966.
I had a wonderful father with a heart of gold
Who was worth more to me than wealth untold
Without farewell he fell asleep with only memories for me to keep
If he could have spoken before he died
These are the words he would reply
This life for me has truly passed
I loved you to the very last.
And weep not for me but courage take,
And love one another for my sake.
—Sadly missed by his daughter Eva MacEachern and granddaughter Shirley. 47-1p

McEWEN—In loving memory of a dear brother, Howard McEwen, who passed away Nov. 21st, 1972.

MacLEOD—In loving memory of my loving husband, Angus MacLeod who passed away suddenly on Nov. 26, 1971.

But no one knows the heartache
As I turn and leave you there.
—Loved and remembered by your loving wife, Tena.
Ville St. Pierre, Que. 47-1c

VAILLANCOURT — In loving memory of a dear son and brother Guy, who passed away Nov. 26, 1968.
Beautiful memories are wonderful things,
They last till the longest day,
They never wear out, they never get lost,
And can never be given away.
To some you may be forgotten,
To others a part of the past,
But to us who loved you and lost you
Your memory will always last.
