Put some fellows in charge of 85 hostesses and they'd probably get more interested in dating than accommodating.

Top Job In Expo Information Centre In Hands Of Henry D. Duggan

Retired from the Bell Telephone Co. earlier this year, Henry D. Duggan will be busier than ever for the next six months in a new role, as manager of Expovox, the telephone information centre for the Corporation of the World Fair.

In his new post, Alexandria-born Henry Duggan has 85 telephone hostesses working under him, conversing in 14 languages with all parts of the world where interest in Expo is beginning to snowball.

"We are receiving 5,000 calls a day now, about half of them from the United States where enthusiasm for Expo is mounting steadily," Henry reported in a telephone interview last night. He feels Canada's World Fair is certain to be a big success, if one can judge from the increasing interest being shown in every corner of the globe.

His information centre is located in the old Barcley Bank building on St. James St. which has been taken over by Expo and where all monies from the Fair will be stored in the former bank vaults.

In the centre 40 hostesses on each shift accept a steady flood of calls with the aid of visual and audio connections. Requests for information on accommodation within a 14 day period are fed into a computer and are instantly available. If beyond the two-week period the requests are passed on to Logexpo for confirmation within ten days. All the hostesses are fluently bilingual, as is the manager of Expovox, and many are multilingual.

Mr. Duggan was on a holiday trip to Florida when contacted in St. Petersburg by Expo. He took up his duties April 1st and there will be no letup until October's end, though he expects to be free to enjoy his weekends at his South Lancaster summer home.

Lost 100 Pigs In Fire

William van der Byl, Lochiel farmer, lost his piggery and 100 pigs to fire last Thursday afternoon. The building was located in rear of Quigley cheese factory.

A few pigs were saved in the blaze discovered about 4.30 p.m. Alexandria fire brigade was called but at the time was fighting a serious grass fire on St. Paul St.

It was the second loss by fire for Mr. van der Byl whose barn was destroyed by fire six years ago. Faulty electrical fixtures may have caused the blaze. The loss was partly covered by insurance.

Milk Producers Hear From Marketing Board Officials At Regional Meeting

The Ontario Milk Marketing Board does not support milk strike action, because in general it neither believes it to be in the best interests of the producers or that it will work. "In the short run, it believes the main losers in a milk strike are those producers whose milk does not get to market, and in the long run it believes milk strike action, if prolonged for any length of time, could well lead to the more general use of additional substitute products or a public clamour for imports. George McLaughlin, chairman of the board detailed board attitude at a regional meeting of county committee members at Alexander Hall, Thursday of last week.

Mr. McLaughlin spoke to about 70 milk producers from Russell, Prescott, Glengarry and Stormont. Thirteen of these regional meetings are being held in Ontario in an endeavor to interpret proposed quota policy to committee men who may then return to their own local groups with a clearer explanation of what the board is trying to do. Mr. McLaughlin invited them to send their suggestions for criticisms.

Elphege Lefebvre, St. Eugene, chaired the morning and afternoon sessions. The Milk Marketing Board team that took part in discussions were E. C. Rouse, secretary; Robert Mercer, public relations director; John Shuster, quota supervisor; Orville Guy, vice-chairman, Winchester.

Grant Cameron, Milk Marketing Board fieldman for Region 1, was host to the group. Members of the dairy branch of the Department of Agriculture attended including J. Y. Humphries, agricultural representative.

Mr. Rouse said the nine meetings held have been very gratifying. "When the farmers have a chance to listen to Mr. McLaughlin outline the board's plans and ask questions, the majority accept enthusiastically."

The morning's meeting was devoted to a discussion of the board's policies, practices and operation during the past 18 months. Mr. Guy gave a paper on the methods of selling industrial milk.

The quota proposal was defined as group one pool for fluid milk which will be shared among producers on a quota basis; industrial producers who qualify will be eligible to receive payment for the Grade A milk in accordance with quota policies. Negotiability of quotas was discussed. Quotas are not pool is possible by February, 1968.

The fluid milk shipper is seeking an increase in the wholesale price of milk equivalent to one cent a quart which will partly offset his increase in costs but not cover his loss in income on a provincial average due to the change in the federal

Council To Get Appraisals Of Glengarry Gardens

On the advice of the Municipal Affairs department, town council is arranging for two appraisals of Glengarry Gardens before applying for approval from the Municipal Board for its purchase.

Council has been informed that the Municipal Affairs department received a letter from a local citizen complaining that the price of $56,000 was too high and that certain relatives of councillors were among the arena owners. In view of the letter the department suggested two independent appraisals.

Town Solicitor G. W. Gorrell of Morrisburg has been asked to get two such appraisals. He is also to prepare an agreement to purchase and the necessary by-law.

At its meeting Tuesday, council passed a Daylight Saving Time by-law. Fast time will be in effect from midnight April 29 to October 28th.

Requests by two local businessmen for parking meter exemptions were refused because they operate no pick up and delivery transfer service.

EDITORIAL

IT'S OUR OPINION

Might We Be Sending Good Money After Bad?

Our sewage lagoons are already overloaded and council has authorized the town engineer to estimate costs of enlarging the system. At least part of the problem is the dye from Square C Textiles which the present lagoons apparently are unable to cope with. The Company has received estimates on the cost of a pre-treatment plant calculated to relieve the strain on the lagoons but it might prefer to assist financially in extending the lagoon system if this would more economically serve the purpose.

We are left wondering if the lagoon system is the answer to our sewage problems. Is it possible we will be throwing good money after bad if the decision is to enlarge the lagoons? Might we not have been further ahead five years ago to embark on the more expensive installation of a sewage treatment plant rather than follow the advice of the Ontario Water Resources Council?

If we recall correctly, the then Water Resources Board guaranteed our lagoons would be adequate to cope with town sewage for a period of at least ten years. There was no Square C plant here at that time, of course, and there has been considerable new housing since. Nevertheless it would appear OWRB promises as to the capacity of the lagoons were not too reliable.

From personal observation through last summer either the lagoons themselves or the pumping station proved inadequate to the flow of sewage. On several occasions the effluent had to be returned to the Garry River for brief periods.

Alexandrians are probably fortunate in the fact that the prevailing winds here are from the west and that our lagoons are located east of town. Many other Ontario centres having similar lagoon systems are reported suffering from a smell we were assured might be present only for a week or so in the spring. At Almonte, where the Water Resources Council has recommended installation of a fourth lagoon, one councillor is quoted as observing: "Why should we send good money after bad?"

That could be the case here if the decision is made to enlarge the present lagoons. Council might be well advised to compare notes with other towns having similar systems before any action is taken.

Welcome Our World Fair

The Universal and International Exhibition of 1967, to give Expo its official name, is only one week away from its curtain raising. Opening ceremonies will be held next Friday and from then on the Exhibition will be in full swing for six months. Expo will be open seven days a week, from 9.30 a.m. to 9.30 p.m., with the restaurants remaining open until 1 a.m. and the amusement area, La Ronde, active until 2.30 a.m.

Expo planners are optimistically forecasting 50 million visits to the fair and our figuring works that out to an average of more than a quarter-million paying customers each day, no matter the weather. Unless the weather soon warms up early comers to the islands of Expo may find themselves discouragingly exposed to chill winds off the St. Lawrence. July and August may then be called on to make up a daily deficit at the turnstiles through an uncomfortably cool spring.

Expo is an expensive proposition according to a report tabled in the House of Commons last weekend. Capital costs are estimated at a cool $222 180,290 and the operating costs add another $157,266,390. A loss of $138,000,000 is estimated but the crown corporation is counting on an estimated $135,000,000 to be collected in sales taxes by the federal and Quebec governments to almost meet the deficit.

These are figures signifying little or nothing to the average Canadian and we doubt anyone in government is optimistic enough to believe a World Fair can be staged with a loss of only three million dollars. The actual cost to the Canadian taxpayers will probably be many times that and we doubt those fortunate enough to be able to visit Expo will begrudge the cost.

It promises to be a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for most Glengarrians to see a segment of the world scene right on their own doorsteps. In addition to Expo itself, there is the World Festival, a program of the performing arts which will bring many of the top spectaculars from 70 countries to the Montreal stage.

Our problem here in Glengarry over the next six months will be the matter of budgetting time and money in order to take in Expo and those festival features which most appeal to each of us. Each visit we make to Montreal from now on we will be adding to that bite of the special sales tax which is calculated to reduce the national loss on Expo.

This will be a relatively painless way of paying for a World Fair that promises to be a thrilling experience.

They Get Their Grants

A former minister of finance, Donald Fleming, feels recommendations of the Carter commission on taxation could be the ruination of the mining and petroleum industries. In a speech at Calgary, Friday, he expressed the hope the commission's proposals "will be sfoutly resisted".

In the oil and gas capital of Canada he was referring to recommendations by the Carter commission that would cancel the depletion allowances now granted mining and oil companies and phased withdrawal of a three-year tax exemption now given new mines. He termed these recommendations "far too drastic" and expressed the belief the commission had seriously underestimated the extent to which these special tax provisions have contributed to the fruitful and beneficial development of Canada's natural resources.

We are left wondering how many millions of dollars in tax exemptions escape the revenue department at Ottawa through these artificial aids to big corporations and the fly-by-nights who infest the mining market with their penny stocks. Hundreds of millions more of potential tax dollars escape the Receiver-General through tax exemptions to other industries, lowered tariffs and other such devices.

When our primary industry, agriculture, asks for help it is almost impossible for a finance minister to find available funds. Perhaps if the rich mining and petroleum interests were paying their share of taxes, as the Carter commission recommends, there would be millions more available to lift dairying out of the doldrums.

Driving Under The Inference

Driving while under the influence is frowned upon as a prime cause of traffic accidents. Driving under the inference can also be highly hazardous, according to an editorial in The Gananoque Reporter.

"Too much of our driving is done 'under the inference'. So we get involved in those unexpected unpleasantries called 'accidents'. So says Donald S. Buck, Safety Director U.S. Army's Continental Army Command, who has often lectured in Toronto for the Ontario Safety League.

Accidents are caused by people who drive under the inference. They are not necessarily bad, stupid or reckless people. But they rely on the inference that all is well. This is almost a prerequisite to getting involved in an accident.

So, many of us pound along the highways on worn or underpressured tires, serene but unsafe under the inference that the tires won't blow. When we are going slowly, we infer that we won't have an accident—yet most accidents occur at slow speeds. We infer that instruments are reliable, that brakes will not fail, that lights will not go out. And since our inferences are usually correct, we repeatedly get away with them. At least until the inference proves wrong.

Accidents files are crammed with sad lessons learned from faulty inferences—that vehicles ahead will not stop suddenly, that pedestrians won't step out into the path of an oncoming vehicle, that the other driver will honor a signal to turn left. We infer along until we're wrong.

Can we define safety as freedom from accidents? No! Asserts Don Buck. Some drivers specialize in causing accidents, while avoiding being in the actual crashes themselves. Real safety is not freedom from accidents. Rather it is freedom from the things that cause accidents.

There's nothing really wrong in making inferences while driving—the real danger lies in not recognizing them as inferences. Drivers need to preface their inferences: I wonder if? . . . Will he stop? . . . Is someone coming? . . . Is the road clear?

Don't drive under the inference."

A. D. McPhee's sawmill, here, started on Monday and is now in full operation. P. J. Grant of Moose Creek, is sawyer. — Mrs. Gaudaur has opened out her dressmaking shop on Ottawa Street this week. — A public notice of a meeting of the License Commissions of Glengarry, informs us that 24 Tavern Licenses but no Shop Licenses were granted during the current year 1896-7, and that applications have been received for 25 taverns in 1897-8. — The season's building operations in Maxville have begun already. Chas. P. Robertson is completing his spacious new residence on Main Street north, while R. McCrimmon has begun erection of a dwelling house on Marlborough Street. — Dan McRae, Dunvegan, who had charge of Messrs. Hodgson Bros.' store at that place, leaves soon for Rat Portage, Ont. He will be replaced by Fred Parson of Como, Que.

NEED NO NUDISTS

Long Sault, Ont.

The editor,
Glengarry News,

Should the nudist colony to which you referred recently in your columns become established in Glengarry, I would suggest that at the level of local Government regulations be made to compel the adherents to wear clothing during all of the spring, summer and early autumn months.

Such regulation might protect against more than sunburn, because the public concept of decency and propriety in Glengarry must yet be strong; it was formed when four townships, one town, and several well known villages comprised an electoral riding with a capital "G" and, a high regard for integrity.

While this year 1967 marks the centennial of Confederation, it does appear that at the higher levels of Government many of the old safeguards are being let down; this is done for various excuses, "a better image", "broadmindedness" or, "the 20th century" to name a few. What the professional hirelings of power seekers advance as reasons worthy of inclusion and support in any partisan program may often be mere vote catching devices wherein are obscured, the very real dangers

A THOUGHT ON FARM SAFETY

Fatigue is your foe — take a break

Glengarry Farm Safety Council

WITH OUR

by Ed.

A SPRING FOR SPRUCING UP

Montreal and Expo this summer will be the mecca of hordes of people who never heard of Glengarry and a lot of them will be traversing this county to get there. Hopefully we feel many will be stopping over in Glengarry, if only to be certain of accommodation.

It behooves us then to spruce up this spring on a special scale, on farm, in town and village. Each of us should have as a personal centennial project the intent of putting the best face possible on his property so that the general impression of Glengarry left on newcomers to our county will be a favorable one.

This should be the spring of all springs for all of us to be cleaning-up, painting-up, freshening up, planting those centennial trees and bushes and flower beds.

There may be those snide enough to wonder when the editor of this journal is going to get into the swing. After all his office has been a real eyesore since fire threatened it early last year.

We have his word, though, that things will be different as soon as the weather warms. There are plans for a new front, a more attractive side and things are taking shape in the rear.

As soon as this cold spell lifts, let's all get into this business of face-lifting.

Some learn from experience—others recover from it.

NONE TO KEEP UP WITH

If our town and county are looked down on by Toronto folk as a rural slum perhaps one of the reasons is that we have not one family by the name of Jones resident in Glengarry. At least there's nary a Jones listed in the county's phone exchanges.

Might we not have more impetus toward self-improvement and better homes and gardens if there was even one family of Joneses around for the rest of us to be keeping up with? Sounds reasonable to your Rambling Reporter and so he's suggesting the Board of Trade get busy and round up such a family.

To lure them here, of course, the Board would have to buy them the most attractive home in town and perhaps give them an allowance generous enough for them to live right royally. They'd have to boast the finest lawn and flower garden, get a new paint job on their house each spring, have a well-stocked library and more than a touch of culture. The family would have to be rather carefully selected, mind you, so they'd be setting an example worth emulating. The parents would be active, responsible, church-going and the kids real chips off the old block. The boys would pay regular visits to the barber; the girls would disdain miniskirts and wouldn't be caught dead chewing gum on the street.

Might be difficult to come up with such a family in this day and age but wouldn't it be a real tonic for our town if all our womenfolk could be needling their menfolk to keep up with the Joneses?

Many people not only believe the world owes them a living but they imagine themselves to be preferred creditors.

KICKING CONVERTS

Winnie Nute passes on this one in her column in the Renfrew Advance:

Several members of the Notre Dame football team had an audience with the Pope. He confessed he didn't understand the game of American football and they happily explained it to him.

"It sounds very interesting," he told them, "but I don't like that business of kicking converts."

60 YEARS WITHOUT A WIN

We were offered a ticket on the Irish sweepstakes on Saturday and just for a switch we turned it down. Can't recall how many years ago we started buying those chances for untold wealth but there must be at least one hospital ward in Erin papered with tickets we bought.

It came as something of a shock to read in our 60 years ago column that "tickets for a lottery in Ireland are being circulated in this town". That's even before we were born and we've never heeard yet of a major prize coming to Alexandria.

Those hospitals in Ireland must be fully equipped by now and isn't

Maxville Takes Trophy Though Deciding Game Will Not Be Played

The ODHA Junior "B" hockey championship trophy will rest among the silverware in Maxville Community arena for the 1966-67 season.

The seventh game of this championship series, unfortunately, wasn't played on ice but as has happened so often down through the years was settled via telephone, telegram and committee room.

Hawkesbury won at home last Saturday night and their next win 4-2 over the Highlanders in Maxville last Sunday tied the best of seven series for the ODHA Junior "B" championship at three games each.

Bill Coleman, coach, and "Doc" Munroe, manager, lost the coin toss to Hawkesbury and the choice of home ice for the final game.

Justin Burwash, of the Hawks, following the toss win made it known that Hawkesbury's choice of "home" ice would be Rigaud.

Basil Dawley, convener of the St. Lawrence Junior "B" league and member of the ODHA, discussed the matter with Lloyd Laporte, Winchester, president, ODHA and Hawkesbury officials.

The Glengarry News understands that Hawkesbury officials were asked by ODHA president Laporte if ice would be available in Hawkesbury any night this week. The answer was "no".

The only alternative was, due to the fact Rigaud was outside the ODHA jurisdiction, the game must be played in Maxville or preferably in Water St. arena, Cornwall, neutral ice.

The News further understands that Hawkesbury's answer was play the seventh and final game in Rigaud, or else.

Lloyd Laporte, president ODHA, told the News finally, "We (the ODHA) didn't award the championship to Maxville Highlanders. Hawkesbury conceded the title by stating the seventh game was to be played in Rigaud or not at all."

Curling Season Ends On Weekend

The ladies' games at the Alexandria Curling Club ended last week with the winners of four trophies being decided. The "Habitant" was won by Mrs. Aime Menard, with Mrs. Jas. Hubbard playing lead, Mrs. Lyall Costello second, and Mrs. Eldege Vaillancourt third. Mrs. Menard also took the Charlottenburgh Trophy with Mrs. Hubbard playing lead, Mrs. Rose McDonald second, and Miss Germaine Lalonde third.

The President's Prizes were won by Miss Jean McIntosh, Mrs. Rene Gauthier, Mrs. Leopold Lalonde and Mrs. D. A. Macdonell, skip, while Miss Jeannette Crevier, after several months of challenge and defence, finally landed the Challenge Cup. Her players were Miss McIntosh, Mrs. Costello and Mrs. Donat Boisvenue.

With the weatherman co-operating, the men will finish their competitions this week, and two bonspiels on the weekend—one for the men and one mixed—will wind-up a very successful season of curling.

dances bring to the fore how lovely and graceful the ladies look in their gowns. Granted we do not expect them to go around doing housework or sports in these long dresses, but I'm sure that a large majority of the men would have nothing else but formal dresses at all dances or at least the formal ones. OK, OK, so we'll settle for three-quarter lengths. But not an inch shorter.

April was a busy month socially, Vimy night, centennial dance, bingos, and to top it off the executive meeting, scheduled for Thursday, April 20th and the 50/50 event Friday, 28th.

The last general meeting was, indeed, a most interesting one. The discussion on finances and the general welfare of the branch was intended to jar us out of our lackadaisical state, and by the time the executive meeting rolls around each member of the executive should be ready with his suggestions and recommendation. We have already past the 1st quarter mark, and it is suggested that we review our accomplishments and prepare for the future. Will you be ready? This is not a challenge but a few ideas advanced as food for thought.

The month of May looms ahead, and so far the activities on the calendar are not too numerous—General meeting, Wednesday, May 3rd; then on to Thursday, May 18th, another executive meeting; then Saturday, May 27th honors and awards, and to top it off, and a bit of back-tracking Friday, May 26th the 50/50 event.

Well cheerio for now—See you all at the Legion Hall.

Milk . . .

dairy policy whereby milk shipped by fluid producers in excess of bottle requirements no longer receives government subsidy.

Producers in Ontario will lose $8,000,000 because of this change in the federal dairy policy. This is why the Board is seeking a price increase of 35 cents a cwt to the farmer, which would raise the price to $6.10 cwt for fluid milk. Mr. McLaughlin explained that the provincial average for fluid shippers is only 75 per cent of their production. This means that the average price would be about $5.40.

The larger percentage of the producers in the audience were industrial milk shippers. Methods of breaking into the fluid milk market were discussed.

Mr. McLaughlin said that milk dumping could lead to court action. He also said that a union must become certified, according to Ontario law, to represent its members before it can call a strike.

Gerard Massie, chairman of Glengarry County Committee, thanked the board members for inviting the members of the county committees for the study session.

April seems to be a favorite month for many people. In spite of a few sudden, mad, final bursts of winter, spring does seem to promise that the warm weather of summer is really on its way. In many communities Daylight Saving Time brings a few extra hours of daylight and most property owners are anxious to begin work out of doors. In fact, during the blustery months of winter, many of us seem to spend a great deal of time dreaming of the shrubs or trees we plan to plant, fences or patios we plan to erect or other home improvements. Before you begin to put these plans into action, could I ask you to give us a call at Bell Canada. We can then tell you if there is any buried cable on your real estate. You see, to protect our telephone cable from most hazards, we bury much of it underground. This usually helps us to give uninterrupted service to you, as well as keeping overhead wires to a minimum. However, all it takes is one hefty thrust of a shovel or a well-sunk fence post to damage a buried cable, if by chance, you should pick a spot above that cable. This damage could disrupt regular telephone service, long distance, data-sending facilities or even emergency communications that might be transmitted by telephone wire. We're happy to check to see if any such cable is located on your property, free of charge. Just Dial "O" and ask for Repair Service. We'll get the information to you as quickly as possible. Oh yes, if fire regulations permit you to burn brush or grass on your property, please make sure you don't build the bonfire beneath telephone wires. Flames, too, can quickly put part of the system out of commission.

Long before Alexander Graham Bell—in 1667 in fact—an eccentric Englishman named Robert Hooke developed a primitive device whereby lovers could exchange tender messages through two tin cups connected by taut string. He called his invention, appropriately enough, "Cupid's Telegraph". Today, 300 years later, a phone call ranks as the third most popular method of proposing marriage. Mister Hooke had the right idea. As we've said before—Long Distance really is the next best thing to being there!

Our language with its many different words from the one derivative, can be confusing for young students. A teacher in class occasionally interrupted the reading of an essay to quiz the pupils on the meaning of certain words. One of the words was "operetta" and she wanted to know if everyone recognized the word and knew what it meant. "Sure," piped up one lad. "It's a lady who works for the telephone company!"

SPORTS in the GLENS

by ANGUS H. McDONELL

Just about every descriptive adjective that Webster has defined was used following last Saturday's Leaf-Hawks Stanley Cup semi-final game relative to the goal tending display by Terry Sawchuk in Toronto's net.

Twenty four hours later right here in the Glens, a Junior "B" goal tender, in his own right, was another Terry Sawchuk.

Nineteen year old Wayne Villeneuve of Moose Creek, and ironically with quite a background of Maxville's east side neighbor, Greenfield, playing goal for Hawkesbury last Sunday in Community Arena, held the Highlanders, like Sawchuk did to the Hawks, to a 4-2 score and this might have been the turning point in the ODHA Junior "B" championship so far as Maxville is concerned.

As we write we don't know of the final game site. A change was necessary as the ice was drained from the Hawkesbury arena following last Saturday's game won by the Hawks. This win lifted the Hawks to a 3-2 standing in games and Sunday's win by the same Hawks tied the series at 3-3.

The Canadian Press report out of Chicago said, "Terry Sawchuk. That's the story of the fifth game of the Stanley Cup semi-final series between Chicago Black Hawks and Toronto Maple Leafs". By the same token we can say that Wayne Villeneuve was the story of the Hawkesbury win over Maxville.

This game earned the rating of being about the best of the year. It is a pity the ODHA ignored for so many years junior "B" hockey, however, those youngsters playing in this series must be grateful for the privilege restored this year.

Besides Wayne Villeneuve, Ian MacRae of Vankleek Hill has come a long way and the Hawks' Brunet brothers, Gilles and Jacques, could well be tagged by an "A" scout.

Ken MacDonald from Williamstown is about the fleetest in the circuit. We were told by quite an astute judge of young players on the hoof that Rondo MacSweyn is a better player today than his brother Ralph was at the same age. Those are opinions worthy of discussion and we add that Bill Coleman, who took over as coach late in the season, made quite a hockey team out of the Highlanders and all deserve credit as this was really a team representing the Glens.

SAD SITE

The folly and lack of foresight by Alexandria Council in their negotiating approach with the Gardens' executive some months ago not only resulted in a minor hockey total loss but their ineptness has included Little League baseball as well.

Little League president, Gerald Emberg of Moose Creek, called the circuit's reorganization meeting this week. However, Alexandria's trojan worker in the interests of minor baseball, Hoppy Gallant, had only one answer for president Emberg and that was, "We have no ball diamond."

Goodness knows last year's ball grounds were a disgrace to a town like Alexandria boasting of industrial, housing and economic growth. But now take a look at that diamond and see the result of Council trying to prove that an outdoor rink was good enough until something better was available.

Mr. Mayor, you and your colleagues justifiably earned commendation for solving the Gardens problem; now make a deal with one of the school boards for permission to use a diamond and back stop on their playground for Little League baseball. This may require a few yards of fine fill for levelling purposes but that is not costly; certainly less than trying to restore the former one. It is not the fault of Ourtown's youngsters that council ruined the make shift diamond the boys used last year; that is your fault. Now let us see you earn added support by cleaning up this mess. There are enough young anxious ball players in Alexandria to make up a playground league as well as the team in the Little League group. Furthermore, what about that outdoor box for lacrosse?

LEAGUE FOUNDER

Last Friday in Dunvegan the last rites were held for an outstanding sportsman and Dunvegan-Ottawa citizen, Alex Grant.

We lingered in the cemetery for a while chatting with the thinning old guard of football in Glengarry. There was "Little Willie" and John D. MacLeod, Donald Rory Campbell, Fergie McRae and Billie "Bonnie Brier" MacLeod. In the setting sun we looked across at the Orange Hall and each in his own way recalled that rainy night in April, 1923, when Alex Grant called an organization meeting of the various clubs (soccer) in Glengarry. Alex was assisted by Rev. Mr. MacLean.

That was not the beginning of soccer in Glengarry; but it was the founding of the present organization that we believe must hold a record of continuity in Canada.

In addition to football and its future welfare; Alex Grant was a rifle shot enthusiast. In fact Alex competed several times in rifle marksmanship trying to earn a place with Canada's Bisley team.

Alex was also a keen admirer of horses in any class. More than once we sat together at Ottawa's Coliseum during a horse show and Alex had quite a flair in pointing out to us in a capable and interesting way the finer points of ribbon-winning horses jogging around the tanbark.

Alex Grant, as you would expect hailing from Dunvegan, was always a Scottish lad. He was among the first, some years ago, to wear the "kilt" dress at a Gathering of the Clans.

It was good to have known Alex Grant.

HAWKS FOLD AGAIN

Once again when the blue chips were on the line, Chicago Hawks failed to pick them up. Individually the players deserve top rating, however, as a team NHL history will hardly record that the Hawks are on a par with some of the past and present great clubs. Why? What is lacking? We haven't got the answer.

In Tuesday's game next to the pleasing factor that Terry Sawchuk maintained his stellar net work was the hero role of Brian Conacher. When Brian belted a Chicago check just like his dad, the Big Train, did countless times, then pulled the trigger on a 303 hemp target shot just as his uncle Charlie scored many winning goals; all this was truly history repeating. It couldn't happen to a more deserving family. Possibly that extra bit of desire and drive is one of the reasons that Leafs are in the finals, and not the Hawks.

8—In Memoriam

ALGUIRE—In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother Mrs. Henry Alguire, who passed away April 19, 1967.
Sometimes an old-fashioned song
Brings us a thought of you,
Sometimes a flower as we pass along
Or a sky that is azure blue.
Not dead is Mother but sleeping
In her Father's Home above
Rewarded for her suffering
Rewarded for her love.
—Sadly missed by daughter, Henriette and family.
Ottawa, Ont. 16-c

LAROCQUE—In loving memory of dear Bobby who passed away April 21st, 1966.
Day by day our thoughts do wander
To the grave not far away,
Where they laid our dear son
Just one year ago today.
—Ever remembered by Mommy and Daddy.
Alexandria, Ont. 16-p

LAROCQUE—In fond memory of Bobby who passed away April 21, 1966.
Just when your life was brightest,
Just when your years were best,
You were called from this world of sorrow
To a home of eternal rest.
—Ever remembered by Evelyn.
Alexandria. 16-p

LAROCQUE—In memory of dear Bobby who passed away April 21, 1966.
God knew that he was suffering,
That the hills were hard to climb,
So he closed his weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
Away in the beautiful hills of God,
By the valley of rest so fair,
Some day, we know not when,
We will meet our loved one there.
—Ever remembered by Garth.
Alexandria. 16-p

LAROCQUE—In loving memory of dear Bobby who passed away April 21st, 1966.
The blow was great, the shock severe,
We little thought the end was near,
And only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell.
More each day we miss you Bobby,
Friends may think the wound has healed,
But they little know the sorrow
That lies within our hearts concealed.
—Ever remembered by Grandma and Grandpa.
Alexandria. 16-p

LAROCQUE—In memory of dear Bobby who passed away April 21, 1966.
We love to think of you dear Bobby,
In mansions bright and fair;
There Jesus reigns in glory,
There is no sorrow there.
—Always remembered by Alice.
Alexandria. 16-p

MacPHEE—In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, Alex William MacPhee who passed away April 23rd, 1964.
The depths of sorrow we cannot tell,
Of the loss of one we loved so well,
And while he sleeps a peaceful sleep
His memory we shall always keep.
—Fondly remembered by his wife, family and grandchildren.
Lochiel. 16-1p

ROBERTSON—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, George Robertson, whose death occurred suddenly at Moose Creek, April 24th, 1965.
