Town grieving for deputy-reeve

Alexandria residents were saddened to hear of the death of their Deputy-Reeve Yolande Viau who died suddenly at Hotel Dieu Hospital, Cornwall, early Tuesday morning, May 18. She was 58.

About midnight on Friday she suffered a heart attack and was admitted to Glengarry Memorial, Alexandria. After examination she was transferred immediately to Hotel Dieu and suffered a second attack early Saturday morning.

She was born at Glen Nevis a daughter of the late Adrien Beauchamp and his wife the late Armantine Pilon. She was educated in Glen Nevis and in 1941, she married Zepherin Viau and came to live in the Alexandria area. In 1953 she opened a hair styling salon which grew and expanded and was popularly known as Yolande's Beauty Salon. In 1978, after 25 years in successful business she sold her business and retired.

Shortly before retiring she showed interest in local politics and in December 1976 she was first elected to serve as councillor for the 77-78 term.

YOLANDE VIAU

In 1978 she was re-elected for the 79-80 term.

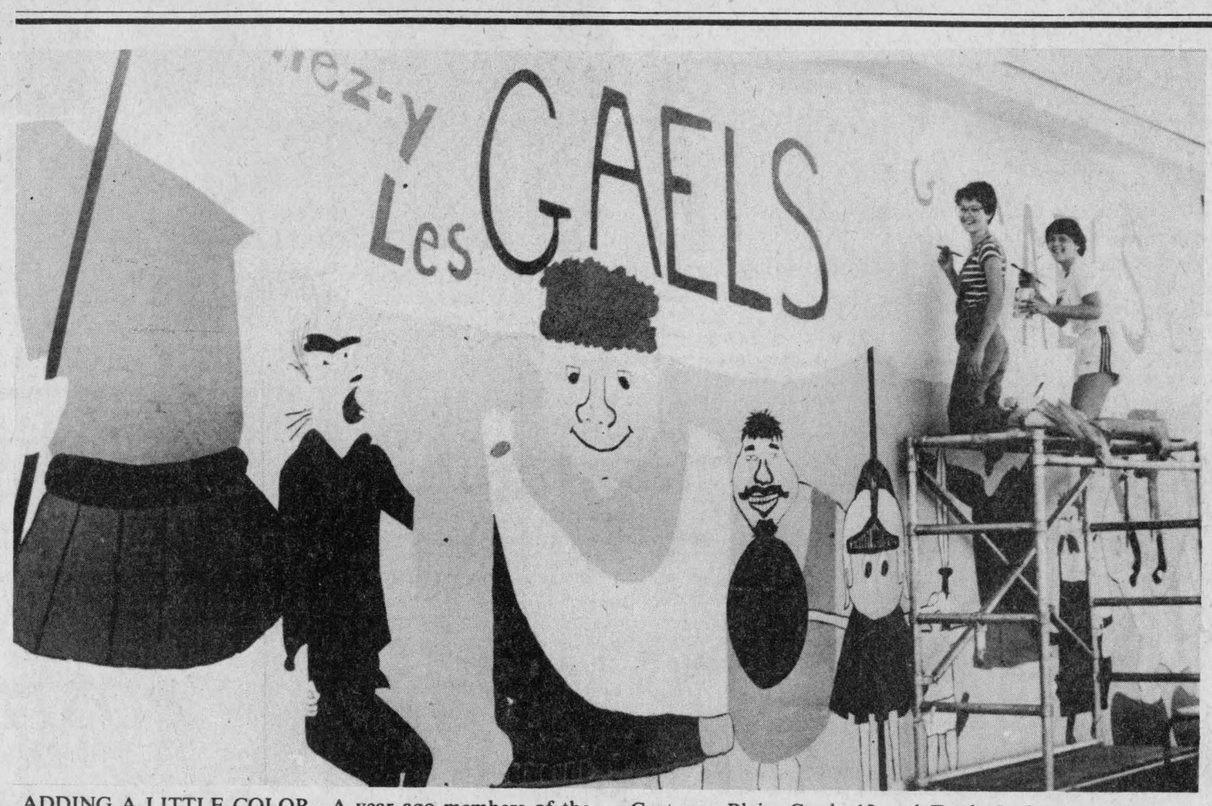
On the death of Deputy-Reeve Florence Villeneuve in August '79 she was appointed to fill the vacancy and assumed office as Deputy-Reeve on September 11, 1979.

At the 1980 election she was re-elected by acclamation to carry on as Deputy-Reeve.

To mourn the passing of a beloved wife and mother she leaves her husband Zepherin and her two daughters Miss Ghislaine Viau of Hawkesbury and Pauline, Mrs. Glen Slater of Lochiel.

One sister Therese, Mrs. Al Bytalon of Montreal also survives.

Her funeral will be held on Thursday, May 20 at 2 p.m. Interment will be in the parish cemetery.



ADDING A LITTLE COLOR—A year ago members of the Glengarry District High School Athletic Association decided the backyard of their school needed a little color so they opted to paint a "Gaels" mural on the storage shed. The mural became a reality this Spring. Two members of the executive, Gaetanne Blais, Grade 12 and Trudy Ladouceur, Grade 13 were found putting the finishing touches on the masterpiece on Monday afternoon. The mural was designed and drawn by Elizabeth McCormick.

Businessmen upset

A couple of town businessmen are discovering that a teenage hang-out is no haven for their businesses.

The four-unit mall located at the intersection of Main and St. George Streets has become a gathering point for a group of youths; their cars, motorcycles and bodies. The activity, concentrated in the parking mall, has not had a positive effect on at least two businesses.

"I'm losing business," said Raymond Lemieux flatly, manager of the Mac's Milk Convenience Store. "People over 40 refuse to come here at night."

Mr. Lemieux said the performance of squealing tires, tape decks playing loud music and youths throwing frisbees deters people from entering the store.

The store manager adds that he has lost $600 to shoplifters over the past four weeks since the rowdy mall activity picked up with the warm weather.

Mr. Lemieux has now taken over the night shift at the store in an attempt to keep a better eye on things.

Bruce Picher, owner of the Town Laundromat, located at the north end of the mall, admits there is a serious problem but did not want to discuss the matter until after a meeting, between the businessmen concerned, and the Alexandria Police, scheduled for this afternoon.

The third businessman renting space in the mall, Gilles Imbeault, co-owner of Alexandria Billiards and the G&G Charcoal Pit Restaurant and Dining Room, has had the finger pointed in his direction. Some say the arcade and pool hall Mr. Imbeault operates, has attracted the youths to the location.

Mr. Imbeault admits that the arcade attracts youths, as does Mac's Milk, but adds there are certain individuals hanging around with no money that are not helping his business either.

"There are only about 15 causing problems," states Imbeault.

The restaurant and pool hall manager suggests that "no loitering" signs should be posted and be enforced by the tenants of the mall. He would also like to see more policing in the area.

Gary Shepherd, owner of the apartment block across the way on St. George Street, said he didn't have any complaints but a number of his tenants have voiced their displeasure over noise levels and scenes in the parking lot across the street.

Many town folks feel the matter is a policing problem.

Police Chief Normand Mailhot reports that the town does have a loitering bylaw but it is difficult to enforce.

"It is my view that the bylaw is ultra vires," said the chief—meaning the bylaw was beyond the scope of legal power or authority.

He suggested that the businessmen concerned warn the "undesirables" to stay off their property and if the warning is not adhered to, charge the individuals with trespassing.

Mayor Touchette, whose residence is located across Main Street from the mall said the tire squealing was distracting and he hoped the meeting with police would solve the businessmen's problems. The mayor said he also hopes the Main Street hangout is just a "passing fad."

Kenyon woman in freak accident

A 25-year-old Kenyon Township woman, Mrs. Andree Lobb, is in Hotel Dieu, Cornwall, with serious injuries suffered in an accident at her residence on Saturday.

A tenant, on the farm of Gerald McKinnon, Lot 16, Concession 6, Mrs. Lobb was sunbathing on the grass alongside a building in the back yard of her home when a car was backed over her.

According to Constable Barry Hanniman of the Maxville OPP, Mr. McKinnon had driven into the yard of the farm about 11:40 a.m. to pick up a few bags of feed. After placing these in the trunk of his car, he backed from the north side of the building and around to the south side where he backed over the victim, unaware that she was lying on the grass. Upon hearing her scream he stopped the car but the woman had already been caught in the back undercarriage of the vehicle and had been rolled beneath it although not run over by the tires.

She was taken to Glengarry Memorial Hospital and then transferred to Cornwall where she is in the intensive care unit.

According to a spokesperson at the hospital, Mrs. Lobb is suffering pelvic injuries and serious "road burns" to her face, head and different areas of her body, but is recovering favorably.

Andree is the wife of Rejean Lobb and has a six month old daughter, Melissa.

Industry bypasses Town

A heavy machinery industry which showed more than a passing interest in the Alexandria area has decided to settle in Cornwall.

Kershaw Manufacturing Ltd. Canada, builder of railway maintenance machinery, has opted to settle in the Cornwall Industrial Park at 3300 Marleau Avenue, the former home of Atlas Hoist and Body, instead of constructing a proposed 20,000 square foot plant in the north-west corner of the town.

The firm expects to hire in the neighborhood of 20 people in its first year of operation and intends expanding the work force to 50 people within the next five years.

"Somebody missed along the way", said Councillor John Cormier, chairman of the Industrial Committee. "I think we could have kept this industry".

Councillor Cormier said that the industry was interested two years ago and "somebody was not doing their homework".

"I was flabbergasted and disappointed", said Mayor J. P. Touchette in reference to the company's announcement to locate in Cornwall.

Dawson Burwash, general manager of the company, said the Cornwall building was secured for a good price after being frustrated with delays in the proposed building site in Alexandria.

The manager said that money and time had been lost over various delays and certain conditions set by the Raisin Region Conservation Authority.

The Authority set certain hazard land restrictions because of the Marcoux drain which runs through the property.

The 40 acres of property which the firm has purchased is a continuation of the Industrial Park on the north side of the CN tracks running east to Highway 34. Half the land is located within Lochiel Township.

The company first approached the two municipalities in early June but zoning changes were not approved until late December.

The Authority was only made aware of the proposed amendment to the Official Plan in September because of an oversight by the Ministry of Housing while all the other agencies were alerted in June, explains Andy Code, the Authority's Resources Development Co-ordinator. The Ministry of Natural Resources brought the amendment to the Authority's attention, recognizing the location of the Marcoux drain. The Official Plan amendment was passed on December 10.

"It was the fastest land-use designation amendment of this type that I have seen approved since I have been here," said Mr. Code. He added it was "totally unfair" to blame the Authority.

The Authority was concerned over flooding of the proposed building to be constructed near the Marcoux drain. The building site was close to the railroad track at the end of Linsley Street West.

Kershaw had originally chosen Alexandria because of its central location between Montreal and Toronto.

Alexandria man charged following apartment fire

An Alexandria man has been charged with arson following a Saturday afternoon fire that left four people homeless.

Richard Ingola, 22, has been taken into custody in connection with the fire in the apartment building owned by Jean Clement at 228 Main Street North.

According to police, the culprit had broken into the apartment and fire had been set in three places. Damage to the building and household furnishings is estimated at $15,000.

Tenant Mrs. Noella Massie had been out for the afternoon and returned to find the Alexandria Fire Department already had the blaze under control.

She and her three children, Michael 17, Joanne 16 and Linda 14, are currently staying with relatives and are looking for accommodation. They lost clothes and home furnishings in the fire.

Ingola had previously been charged with related offenses at Rouleau School and St. Joseph's School.

Fire Marshall Marcel Lalonde is investigating the fire.

This is the fifth incident attributed to arson this year in Alexandria.

Relatives are organizing a fund to help the fire victims and anyone with assistance may call Rita Taylor at 525-3290.

Stray bullet wounds child

Six-year-old Serge Taylor of the Martintown area is in Ottawa Children's Hospital recovering from bullet wounds to his face.

According to a Lancaster OPP spokeperson, the child, the son of Linda Taylor, ran into the pathway of a discharged .22 rifle at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday evening.

The accident occurred at the child's home, Lot 9, Concession 10 of the Indian Lands, between Martintown and Apple Hill. A friend of the family, Larry Shelp, 22, of 450 Eighth Street East in Cornwall had been seated on a lawn chair in the yard aiming at a target on a tree when the child reportedly dashed into the path of the bullet which entered his face on one side and passed through the other side.

The young victim was taken to Glengarry Memorial Hospital where he was treated by Dr. John MacMillan before being transferred to Ottawa.

A spokesperson from the hospital yesterday described the child's condition as "stable."

Newspaper staffers win editorial awards

Glengarry News Assistant Editor Bob Roth and reporter Brian Filion have captured top awards in the 1982 Ontairo Reporters' Association competitions.

Roth won top prize for editorial writing, bringing to three the number of provincial awards he has won this year.

Earlier this year, he won the best editorial award and received an honorable mention in news writing competitions sponsored by the Ontario Community Newspapers Association.

Filion won the best sports story award in his first try at ORA competitions.

Roth entered last year and won three awards—best editorial, best column and most hard-hitting news story.

To win the editorial writing award, candidates must submit three editorials "displaying writing excellence and clarity of thought".

Candidates for the sports award can submit one to three stories.

The ORA consists of reporters from both weekly and daily newspapers.

Area break-ins solved

Lancaster Provincial Police are hoping the arrest of a Montreal man, Edouard Gozzi, will put an end to daylight break-ins in the area.

An alert passerby had notified police when he became suspicious of a man seen entering a Summerstown residence.

Police traced the suspect back to Montreal where he was arrested by Montreal police and turned over to the Lancaster detachment.

He has been linked through fingerprints to the scene of other area residences which had break-ins.

Gozzi is in custody awaiting trial.

Receives honorary degree

Dr. Russell Harper who Glengarry is proud to have as one of its adopted notables has become the 12th recipient to receive an Honorary Degree of Fine Arts from Nova Scotia's College of Art and Design.

He has been the recipient of many honors and awards including the Order of Canada 1975 and Royal Society of Canada Fellowship 1956.

Dr. Harper was history professor at Sir George Williams University and has written several publications and books. Included in his works are: Painting in Canada, a history; A People's Art; Paul Kane; Early Painters and Engravers in Canada; Wm. G. R. Hind 1833-89 and Definitive Study of Kreighoff.

RUSSELL HARPER

His lifelong interest in Canada's cultural and historic past is reflected in the various positions he's held as: Keeper of the Lee Collections, University of Toronto 1947-52; Archivist and archaeologist of New Brunswick Museum, St. John's 1952-56; Curator of Lord Beaverbrook Collection 1958-59; Advisor to Canadian Government on restoration of Louisburg 1960; Curator of Canadian Art at National Gallery Ottawa 1960-64 and Chief Curator of McCord Museum, McGill University 1966-68.

Mr. Harper formerly lived on Marcoux Road in Second of Kenyon. He is now retired and living in South Lancaster.

Mayor, Reeve attack Roth

Alexandria's two top municipal politicians vehemently attacked The Glengarry News' assistant editor at the last council meeting.

"He is bent on destroying the town, that is all I can see from his articles", said Mayor J. P. Touchette referring to stories written by Bob Roth from The News and as correspondent with the Ottawa Citizen.

The most recent controversy between the Mayor and Mr. Roth was over a lack of communication.

The mayor failed to return five phone calls addressed to him by Mr. Roth for a comment of the Anti-Inflation Board fine assessed the town.

"I know I was phoned five times", said the Mayor. "I will never phone this person".

The Mayor said that every time that he is called, he is misquoted. The Mayor added he would answer phone calls from other employees at The News.

The Glengarry News story on the AIB fine carried in the May 5 issue had the following lead: "Mayor J. P. Touchette has drawn a curtain of secrecy around the town's dispute with the Anti-Inflation Board".

"We are not hiding anything from the AIB, we have a wide open policy, anybody can see anything anytime", said Mayor Touchette.

"My father told me never to get into a ------- contest with a skunk," said the mayor. He later qualified his remark, "I don't get into useless arguments."

"I don't talk to skunks", said Reeve Bruno Lalonde later in the meeting.

Mayor Touchette said the conflict between the local paper and council began over the Alexandria Lions Club's proposal to build a stage in the Island Park. A story carried in The News and based on committee meeting minutes said the town had shunned the club's proposal.

"It may have sounded that way but the night the minutes were adopted, no News' representative was here and an agreement was made with the Lions concerning the stage", said Touchette.

Another story headed "Council against housing" which appeared in the Citizen was inaccurate said the Mayor because the opinions stated in the context of the story were those of the Reeve, only. The story pertained to Reeve Lalonde's attack on geared-to-income housing.

Reeve Bruno Lalonde said a later Citizen story on the issue was "twisted" by the journalist.

He accused Mr. Roth of getting comments contrary to his comments from people in geared-to-income housing when he was never referring to these individuals.

"I was talking about the influx of people moving in", said Lalonde.

The Old Mill Stream

by Anna Margaret

It's a pleasure to welcome a new business to our Main Street. Michael Madsen of Martintown has opened Millstream Insulation. Michael will be selling a complete line of energy-saving home improvement items. He plans a grand opening for June 1. (We must congratulate him in his choice of name for his new business!)

The SDG unit of OECTA is conducting a professional development day for its members on Friday, 21. The day will involve electives lead by Provincial resource personnel. The topics to be highlighted will range from P.D. to teacher liability. On the 21st teachers will be dining together at the Seaway Motor Inn at which time they will be honoring 25-year teachers and the retiring director of education, Charlemagne Lamarche.

The local IGA store has joined the price war, an attempt to compete against the warehouses while still maintaining complete lines of produce. "I won't say that all our items are reduced," says the Alexandria proprietor, Marc Lalonde, "but we have lowered many prices and customers are evidently looking for this because already this week we have been very busy."

Funerals held accident victims

Members of the Glengarry District High School Band played three selections at the funerals of their associates, Kelly Epp and Allan McRae on Thursday.

The teenagers had been fatally injured the previous Monday.

Band leader Pierre Vaillancourt adapted the music to fit the instrumentation available for the rendition of "The Lord's my Shepherd," "Steal Away" and "Morning has Broken."

Five members of the Oliver Mowat High School Band in Toronto with whom GDHS had exchanged visits, were here in tribute to the accident victims and formed an honor guard at the funeral.

Pallbearers at the funeral of Kelly, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Epp of Alexandria were: Daniel Charlebois, Martin Binks, Randy MacLeod, Donald McLaughlin, Neil MacDonell and Andy Lawson. The funeral was held at the Church on the Hill in Alexandria.

Pallbearers at the funeral of Allan McRae, the son of Mrs. Frances McRae of Lancaster and the late Melville McRae were: his brothers, Melville, Geoffrey and Francis; brother-in-law, Marc Chan, Tony Laguisto and Marc St. Denis. The funeral was held in St. Joseph's Church, Lancaster.

The two GDHS Band concerts presented in Sacred Heart Church on Monday and Tuesday were dedicated to the memory of the two youths who had been such a contributing force to the band during their high school years.

Roxborough Council says "no thanks"

Roxborough Township Council has said "no thanks" to provincial grants under the Ontario Home Renewal Program.

Councillor Bill Williams, who moved the motion, said it was time for municipal politicians to take the lead against the growing trend of government "give-away programs".

The motion, seconded by Deputy-Reeve George Crites says "that we do not agree with the 'provincial give-away program' (Ontario Home Renewal Program) and since our taxpayers are already overburdened with taxes, we recommend this program be cancelled immediately."

The township will no longer apply for the money, Clerk W. E. Wright said.

The money, which is to be put towards structural repairs of substandard houses, is provided by the province and administered by the municipalities.

The grants to individual homeowners vary according to the applicant's income level and part of the loan can be forgiveable.

Councillor Williams said he is particularly opposed to "the approach to the forgiveable loan".

He said in the long run, the taxpayers are footing the bill during a time when government's should be cutting back on expenditures.

He said he has "compassion for those with a genuine need" but feels the program is open to abuse by people.

He said he objects to the entire government trend towards giving people money instead of teaching them to be self-sufficient.

"I'd far sooner teach someone how to fish rather than give him a fish each day," he said.

He said the trend towards increased social assistance "encourages people to sit back and let it come in".

"We're drifting into giving things away and encouraging some members of society to expect and look for handouts."

He said often the issue is, how you use your money, not how much you have.

Some people cry poor and then you see them "out riding around in a new car."

Instead of just looking at how much money someone has, it is necessary to look at "how you spend your money", he suggested.

The anticipation of government handouts can discourage thrift, he noted.

He said people should not expect assistance "if you misuse the small, meagre income you have."

He emphasized, however, that some people do need assistance.

"I'm certainly prepared to help where there is a genuine social need," he said.

He said government handouts are creating a society of dependent people, however, who feel they have no responsibility "to take care of themselves".

Instead of living "according to their income", some people spend money "as quickly as it comes in".

He said his motion was to protest the general "philosophy" of government handouts.

Co-op conference planned

United Co-operatives of Ontario will be offering the fourth annual Young Couples Conference July 14-16 at the Muskoka Sands Inn, Gravenhurst, Ont. The Vankleek Hill and Alexandria UCO branches will be sponsoring an area couple for this conference.

The conference enables UCO to learn of services needed to serve young people and for participants to learn about co-operatives in general and UCO in particular. Couples must be between 20 and 35 years of age and have leadership potential for our co-op. The program will help to educate both the husband and wife on co-op's so they can discuss intelligently their co-operative purchasing and marketing decisions. There will be 20 couples enrolled in the conference from across Ontario.

Last year's participants were Neil and Chris Anderson, Vankleek Hill. Neil said that during last year's conference they had a great opportunity to meet people from across Ontario and exchange ideas on farming and lifestyles. Also developed was an understanding of the Co-Op system, how it supplies Ontario farmers with inputs and markets, grains and livestock.

Couples interested in attending this year's conference should contact their local co-op councillor immediately for further information.

Allan Simpson, chairman; Neil Anderson, secretary.

In Alexandria call, Mathieu Charlebois, Lionel Quesnel or Roger Leblanc.

Char-Lan Crusades

by Nicole Parette

On May 10 the Canadian Armed Forces were at school with a display which consisted of pictures and actual equipment the army uses. Students were invited to view the display.

The Student Council made $324 clear profit on the raffle of the radio-cassette. The lucky winner was John MacDonald of Apple Hill.

The following Student Council executive has been selected for 82-83: Stephanie Eamer, president; Rosemary van Rooi, senior vice-president; Andrea Buckland, treasurer; Heather Viscount, secretary and Alana Lafave, junior vice-president. Good luck to next year's executive. The Student Council constitution was revised to meet the changing needs of the school. Only the junior students can vote for junior vice-president. The treasurer is now appointed by the Student Council advisor.

Special congratulations to the 11 members who will represent SD&G at the EOSSA track meet in Brockville. They are Cecilia Cornelissen, Wendy Flaro, Cathy Jarrett, George Lang, Denis Lapierre, Kevin Lapierre, Shauna Lucey, Shelley MacDonald, Tracy McArthur, Bruce McRae, and Chris Smith. Special-special congratulations to Cecilia Cornelissen for winning the top senior girl trophy. She came in first in the 800, 1500 and 3000 with new records in two of them.

On Friday, May 14, the Big Bad Boomers, Grade 11 students, challenged the teachers to a softball game. In the last inning the Boomers were losing badly but with a great recovery they managed to tie the teachers at seven all. Needless to say the teachers are Expo fans!

See you next week.

News from Maxville

by Velma Franklin

A very successful Mother's Day Tea, sponsored by the Maxville Manor Auxiliary was held last Saturday afternoon at the Manor.

This was convened by Mrs. Charlotte Kennedy and Mrs. Agnes Campbell, and Mrs. Ruby MacGregor and Mrs. Claire Besner arranged the decorations in a beautiful spring theme.

Music was provided through the afternoon by a talented succession of musicians—Sandra Campbell, Anne Leroux, Iva Bush, Mabel Watkins and Marie Campbell.

The winner of the beautiful quilt was Neil MacLean of St. Elmo, and the attractive braided rug went to Joyce Helmer of Newington.

The help provided by ladies from Avonmore, Gravel Hill, Maxville, Moose Creek, Apple Hill, Strathmore, Vankleek Hill and Dunvegan was enormously appreciated and it is wonderful to see how many people from all these communities can work together to bring a little bit of happiness into the lives of the residents of the Manor.

TRIP TO OTTAWA

On Wednesday a busload of residents went to Ottawa for a lunch-out treat, a tour of the city, and to view the tulips. With Mrs. Anne Leroux organizing things this was an interesting day.

The weather was lovely, the greens unbelievable. Lunch was at The Corkscrew, a buffet in what appeared to be the surroundings of a medieval castle.

The bus then picked up an official guide from the NCC—Mr. Mooney, who conducted a fascinating tour through the historic part of Ottawa, the magnificent homes and the daffodil beds of Rockcliffe and then a particularly interesting drive through the winding streets of Hull, a district unfamiliar to nearly everyone.

Philemon Wright's house still stands, he is buried in the nearby cemetery, and a bit further on is a memorial to the upper end of the portage around the rapids.

With a final look at the brilliant scarlet beds along the driveway a busload of contented people headed for home.

FAST FOOD

The Chip and Quick Lunch stand opened by Bert Clouthier of St. Isidore just beside Yvon Leblanc's barbershop is certainly doing a land-office business these days. The crowds lining up at the counter indicate a strong public demand for good hot food in a hurry.

WMS HEARD LYNN CAMPBELL

The May meeting of the Evening Women's Missionary Society of St. Andrew's, Maxville, was held at Donnie Vallance's.

Murdena Scott opened with a reading "Who is my Neighbor?" Marion Cumming had the Bible reading "The Story of the Good Samaritan", and Shirley Ferguson read an Indian prayer.

Other participants in the devotions were Donnie Vallance and Wendy Scott.

Donnie Vallance introduced Lynn Campbell of Moose Creek, who has completed her Bachelor of Nursing Science, and while at Kingston spent six weeks at the hospitals in Moose Factory and Moosenee working among the Indians.

She found the Indians a strong and sturdy people with large families. They did need guidelines about nutrition and dental work.

There was not as much fishing and hunting as previously, and many families were on welfare. Lynn ended her talk with a display of some Indian arts and crafts.

Joyce Ferguson thanked her and presented a token of appreciation from the WMS.

President Helen MacLeod opened the business meeting with a Mother's Day poem. Hostesses for this evening were Cheryl Munro and Helen MacLeod.

MAXVILLE PUBLIC SCHOOL INVOLVED ON MANY AREAS

April was a very busy month at the Maxville Public School—14 students participated in the Science in Fair in Cornwall, with Patricia Freeland winning first prize and a trophy in the life science section.

Under the guidance of music teacher Mary Barkway 85 students participated in the Music Festival, with many winners.

Dental Health sponsored a poster contest—Larry Guindon received an honorable memtion in 1,000 entries.

In the Multiple Sclerosis Read-A-Thon the children raised $422.82, with a total of 475 books. Robert MacLennan read the greatest number of books, 45, and Dominique Dewar raised the most money, $34.26.

Mrs. Goulder's Drama Club will be participating in the SD&G Drama Festival in Cornwall May 13 and 14.

The School Consultant for bright children has begun to organize special events for them, and many of the students travelled to Cornwall for a program exploring the many facets of friendship put together by the Women Teachers Association.

HELD CEILIDH

There was a lively old Glengarry Ceilidh at the Maxville Manor a week ago Friday—this is the annual entertainment put on by the Kirk Hill area residents under the direction of Major Grant MacGillivray, and he opened the show with his usual blend of humour and good will.

There were selections by the Kirk Hill choir, and a set by Pipe Major MacKenzie, then Cheryl Ann McDougall and Diana McBean danced "Highland Heather".

Melissa Howes sang, then did a violin duet with Campbell MacLeod.

The MacPherson family entertained with their pipes and the piano and Ruthanna played her accordion.

The dancers did their Medley, the choir sang again, and all came on stage for the closing "We're No Awa tae Bide Awa".

It was mentioned that our cousins in the Royal Navy, the Royal Marines, and the Royal Air Force were in action in the Atlantic, and the choir sang the hymn "For Those in Peril on The Sea" and Pipe Major MacKenzie played "Amazing Grace".

MUSEUM OPENS

The Glengarry Pioneer Museum in Dunvegan opens this weekend for the new season—hours are 1-6 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays only through May and June. Visitors or school groups wanting to visit the museum through the week can call Mrs. Franklin at 527-5533 for a special tour. The museum is not open every day until July, is spite of information to the contrary published in the Small Museums in Eastern Ontario brochures.

RECITAL

The School of Piping and Drumming is having its annual Spring Recital next Tuesday, May 25 at 8 p.m. at the Maxville Sports Complex. This is a chance for the parents of the pupils to come and hear the progress that has been made through the year.

Won festival prizes

Maxville Junior Public School won two classroom choir titles and two students placed first in solo efforts at the Kinsmen Music Festival held recently in Cornwall.

Both the Grade 5 and Grade 2 classes placed first while in solo competitions Dene Wright was tops in the girl's solo, six years and under, and Ursula Schweitzer came first in the girl's solo, seven years and under.

Several students collected second place standing: David Rolland, boy's seven years and under; Laurie Fergusson, girl's eight years and under and Paula Siwik, girl's 10 years and under.

Other students participating in the solo competitions were: Kerri Dickson, Christopher Munro, Tina Vibert, Josee Laferriere, Wendy Fusee, Christopher Rae and Dominique Dewar who came third in the girl's 10 years and under class.

Student singing teams entered in the junior double duets were: Carol Seguin and Carrie Fusee, Natalie Quesnel and Michelle Vibert, Terry Findlay and Kelly Dickson, Julie Williams and Veronika Jones, Wanda Cooper and Patricia Freeland, Sharon MacKinnon and Terri Conners.

School Principal Mel McCormick said over half the school entered the competition and he commended the efforts of music teacher Mary Barkway for the school's success.

Char-Lan senior runner rewrites record book

Cecilia Cornelissen, running in her last SD&G track and field meet on Thursday in Cornwall, shattered two senior girls records and won three races to capture the senior girls championship title.

The Grade 13 student from Char-Lan District High School shaved 12 seconds off the 3000 metre mark, running the event in 10:43.43 and 2.3 seconds off the 1500 metre race, finishing in 4:56.7. Cecilia also won the 800 metre race in convincing fashion.

Linda Vanderwielen of Tagwi, the county's junior elite runner, equalled Cornelissen's performance by winning three firsts in the junior girls division. Linda broke her own record in the 1500 metre race with a sizzling pace of 4:40.5. She also swept the 400 and 800 metre events to win the junior girls title.

Although Glengarrians made their mark as individuals, the team titles were all but swept by Cornwall's La Citadelle High School. The Cornwall school won its second consecutive school title with 234 points more than their nearest competitor, General Vanier Secondary School. La Citadelle accumulated 678 points, GVSS picked up 443 points and Glengarry District High School came third with 376 points.

Rounding out the top six schools were North Dundas with 300 points, CCVS with 256 points and Tagwi, the top "A" school, with 187 points, placed sixth. Char-Lan placed ninth with 130 points.

La Citadelle also won both the overall girls and boys championship and five of six divisional championships.

GVSS prevented a clean sweep by La Citadelle by winning the junior girls team trophy. Glengarry District came third overall in the boys and girls total team tally and second in all the girls team division classes and the senior boys class.

Other individual trophies beyond Cornelissen and Vanderwielen went to Benoit Scheffer, La Citadelle, senior boys; Dave Davies, CCVS, junior boys; Michel Lauzon, La Citadelle, midget boys; and Dale Dulmage, St. Lawrence, midget girls.

Outstanding Glengarry performances at the SD&G meet included Kennedy MacDonald's record breaking discus throw in the senior boys event. Kennedy broke the previous mark of 40.2 metres on all six of his attempts. His winning toss of 42.09 metres beat Serge Godard of La Citadelle by more than two metres, avenging an earlier loss in the shot put event which Godard won over MacDonald.

A total of 15 records were broken at the field day.

Other Glengarry athletes to collect first-place ribbons were David Filion of GDHS in the 3000 metre senior boys event, Sean Sullivan, GDHS, in the junior boys 3000 metres; Michel Campeau, GDHS, junior boys discus; Alain Menard, GDHS, 1500 midget boys; Cathy Jarrett, Char-Lan, midget girls shot put and Suzanne Schroeter, GDHS, midget girls javelin.

Glengarry League opens with finalists kicking off

The Glengarry Senior Men's Soccer League will be kicked off this Friday evening with the defending-champion Greenfield Marauders hosting Glen Sandfield, last season's penant winner and playoff finalists.

Greenfield will play the home game and first part of their scheduled games on the Lochiel field because of work being done on their home pitch. The game is slated for an 8:30 start.

The 60-game schedule will see each of the eight senior clubs play 15 games plus the Greenspon Challenge Cup, held from July 2 to July 10.

The senior girl' schedule will get underway on Tuesday, May 25.

At a league meeting held on Wednesday night the league decided to affiliate with the Eastern Ontario Soccer Association after listening to the Association's Chairman Mike Palme outline the advantages.

Mr. Palme explained that by joining the association the league would now be eligible for referee and coaches clinics; all teams could enter district tournaments and playdowns and players would be eligible for all select squads.

The affiliation for all the league teams cost the Glengarry Soccer League $355.

The league also voted to increase the referee fees from $18 to $20 and linesmen fees from $7 to $10.

UPCOMING GAMES

Friday, May 21, Glen Sandfield vs Greenfield; Saturday, May 22, Pine Grove vs Stars; Monday, May 24, Alexandria vs Glen Nevis; Tuesday, May 25, Lochiel vs Dunvegan; Wednesday, May 26, Glen Sandfield vs Stars; Thursday, May 27, Greenfield vs Glen Nevis.

SENIOR GIRLS

Tuesday, May 25, Greenfield vs Glen Sandfield "B"; Wednesday, May 26, Glen Sandfield vs Dalkeith; Thursday, May 27, Laggan vs Maxville; Friday, May 28, Dunvegan vs Alexandria.

Bonnie Glen drops opener

Bonnie Glen Fastball squad, Alexandria's representative in the Cornwall Sportsmen Softball League, dropped their home opener 2-1 to Fifth Wheel in extra innings on Friday evening at the Island Park ball diamond.

The winning run came across the plate in the top of the eighth inning as a result of a series of errors by the home squad. The extra inning run spoiled an excellent pitching outing by Serge Vaillancourt who took the loss. His performance was equalled by Fifth Wheel pitcher Chris Nicholl who picked up the win.

Bonnie Glen took the lead in the fourth inning when Serge Vaillancourt bounced to short with one out and the bases loaded to score the man from third base but Cornwall tied the game 1-1 in the next inning.

Motocross opens up

Saturday, May 22 sees the official opening of the Gartree Park Motocross '82 season. The ceremony will take place at 2 p.m. at the park on County Road No. 29, just north of Long Sault. The promoters have invited the Honorable Edward C. Lumley, P.C., M.P., George Samis M.P.P., Cornwall Township Reeve John Cleary and a representative of City Council to attend.

The opening ceremony will take place as part of a three-day Motocross and Endure School, the first such school to be held in Eastern Ontario. The occasion will provide the public with an opportunity to get a free preview of what Motocross is all about as no charge for admission will be made.

Interview continues

by Angus H. McDonell

This week we conclude our interesting and informative interview with the venerable senior citizen of Apple Hill—Alexander A. Fraser, affectionately known for almost 100 years as "Alex."

First we will right a wrong the typesetting gremlins did in our last issue column. We referred to Mrs. Allan Fraser directing the mail until 1906; obviously not 1960, as typed.

A brief repeat of the post office sequence. On July 25, 1898, Sandy Kennedy retired. Mrs. Allan Fraser housed the post office and directed the mail in her dwelling. This is now the Keith Darling home and lot.

Following Mrs. Fraser's demise, May 1906, the post office was moved (diagonally) across the road to Duncan Grant's store. Now we will record the Grant family line, thus avoiding confusion. Duncan Grant senior owned the 100 acres bordering the east side of the road north to Third Kenyon. Duncan Grant's son, Murdie, founded the first store in the north end of the hamlet. The lot was the northwest corner of shall we say Main Street and the Loch Garry road. Murdie Grant died a relatively young man. He was succeeded by his younger brother Duncan Grant junior who had been working in Martintown. "Duncie" Grant, as he was popularly known, was a legendary Apple Hill character and lived until he was 94.

The north end of the hamlet was now booming. There was the Grant store and post office, Dan McIntosh's hotel and livery stable and east on the "hill" Zion Presbyterian Church. Donald MacDonald's hotel southeast corner. And about where the Wilmont home is today, Alex Fraser recalls, Dr. Lynden McIntosh from Strathmore opened his office. Dr. McIntosh moved on to greener fields and was succeeded by Dr. McMillan from Finch.

In the vicinity of this north end intersection Glengarry's "Cheese King," Lancaster's D. M. McPherson, launched Apple Hill's first cheese factory. William Hayes could have been the first cheesemaker followed by Duncan Ferguson.

Nearly as possible in recollections, another first was barber Jim Patenaude and his brother Oliver who worked on the CP section.

Among the first blacksmiths were Alex Biette and Hector Dumoulin. There was keen competition within the cattle buying drover ranks. They were headed by: Lancaster's McGregor; Martintown's Joe Beckstead; Maxville's Jim Burton and Apple Hill's "Ranald Billy Jim" MacDonald.

By this time Antoine Dancause's store had outgrown its founding, the flimsy summer-kitchen woodshed this Acadian descendant had bought from Sandy Kennedy.

Again, turning over the pages of time, Alex Fraser recalled that among the pioneer mercantile business enterprises, although small in volume, there was a man named Livingstone operating a store where Debbie Raymond lives. He was followed by Pete Conroy from Cornwall and he in turn was succeeded by J. P. McIntosh from Martintown.

A Rod McCuaig for a while had a store where Bernie Raymond lives. Then he took over a wood business after renting his store to Willie Creswell. The next operators were Alex McMartin and St. Raphael's Tom Shea in partnership. They in turn sold the premises to the Jacques brothers, Joe and Jim, tinsmiths, from Martintown.

Thus those business lots and homes were being sold by Sandy Kennedy. Well many of them. That was part of the west side of the dusty Main Street road before wooden sidewalks.

Sandy Kennedy was the central figure. He sold the right of way and station site plus being the author of the name Apple Hill; he housed the post office and he sold the building that founded the Dancause mercantile dynasty. Now he was disposing of building lots. This writer is struck with the thought that should Apple Hill win a Wintario someday, they then could have a community complex that they richly deserve. Take a leaf from the U.S. capital Washington and name it "Kennedy Centre."

In the midst of this once hamlet that is now a bustling village, athletics and sport activity in general is marching along stride for stride with trade and commerce. There was a hockey rink near the present Rene Lalonde's store. John Berry was the caretaker.

There was no electricity but light was provided by fibre bags soaked in coil oil that would burn in torch fashion in metal containers hanging from poles and wires strung across over the ice.

Among those pioneer Apple Hill players we note, not surprisingly, that Horace Marjerrison was among the leaders. Bob and George Stirling were stalwart athletes on and off the ice. But oldtimers will tell you that their younger brother Sandy was possibly the best player of the three. Of course there was Alex Fraser and Frank McNairn—a classy player who continued that way after moving on to Saskatoon. Archie MacRae, son of Danny Archie MacRae was another of note as was J. P. McIntosh a next-of-kin of John D. McIntosh of Alexandria's Munro and McIntosh Carriage Works. There was another McIntosh, Hampden, from Strathmore and (M.P.) Wilfred Kennedy's brother Stuart.

Apple Hill is justified in laying claim to an unheralded and unsung Canadian champion of Scottish Games and heavy events competitions. I refer to "Big Sandy Archie" MacDonald a brother of the "Hill's" pioneer hotel keeper Donald MacDonald and Third of Kenyon's Archie "Baldy" MacDonald.

"Big Sandy" followed in the foot-steps of Williamstown's Glen Donald "Big Rory" MacLennan, the 1865 world's champion in the hammer throw. He preceded "Big Alex MacIsaac" MacDonald in his world caber toss feat in England, 1919.

Somehow "Big Sandy's" achievements have not been recorded as they were created in that era before the Glengarry News came into being. "Big Sandy" won many awards in Western Canada especially in Vancouver where he spent most of his life.

We closed our interview with Alex Fraser as he told of the Canadian Pacific having to extend the right of way and road bed to accommodate a double track system because of expanding freight and in anticipation of this passenger traffic, extra work activity in the Apple Hill area, a new hotel was planned to replace the original Sandy McIntosh house that was now obsolete. This eventually became Willie Lalonde's and is now the King Edward. (More re the hotel and Main Street through the '20s.)

We will continue our Apple Hill thesis as we chat with a few of the younger "oldtimers" like Cyril, Charlie and Angus R. MacDonell, Ivan Grant, Fern Guindon and Hugh Allan (Philly Hughie Philip) McDonald.

In conclusion and in retrospect I will always be grateful and cherish the assistance by the Fraser girls, Alice and Gwen, for arranging this unique and historical walk down memory lane with their dad, Apple Hill's Grand Old Man—"Alex Fraser."

GDHS Newsline

by Todd Hambleton

Positions on the 82-83 Student Council were set last week after student body elections were held. President for this term is Diana McBean, along with first vice-president Joanne Ouellette and second vice-president Jossee Sabourin. Paul Vaillancourt is next year's treasurer. Richard Cormier rounds out the Student Council executive.

Track and field practices are continuing nightly for the 34-team members that have advanced to the EOSSA championships by virtue of strong performances at last week's SD&G meet. The EOSSA meet is Friday, May 21 in Brockville.

Ticket sales for a chance to win $150 worth of records are going well, with the draw to be held on Friday. The $150 gift certificate is courtesy of Flipside.

The "Agricrew" summer job program for students is back again this year. A number of jobs have been created for students interested in employment with a farm business. More information can be obtained by contacting the guidance office at GDHS.

A reminder that the "prom" is rapidly approaching, just a little over a week away. It will be held on Friday, May 28. This year's theme is "Over the Rainbow" and will feature the music of Photograph.

CLERGY COMMENTS

From The Glengarry Christian Council

The Rev. Gordon H. Worden,

A parishioner had a question for me the other day. She had been looking at her Church Calendar for May and noticed three "Rogation" days. She wanted to know what "Rogation" meant.

Rogation means "asking," and it is on the three rogation days and the previous Sunday, Rogation Sunday, we ask God to bless the earth and make it fruitful so that there will be enough food for all of us. It is natural to ask this in the spring when seeds are beginning to sprout. We want good crops and we know that it is by God's goodness that we have them.

Following an ancient custom, the Rogation Day prayers are sometimes said outside. Usually led by a minister and perhaps a choir, the people march in a procession around the fields and through the gardens to bless the crops. When this is done around the perimeter of a parish, it is called "beating the bounds."

After I had explained all this to my parishioner, I realized how much emphasis is sometimes placed on asking in our prayer and devotional life. We ask for a lot of things. We ask for health, strength, protection, safety, victory, etc.

Rogation then reminded me of a poem that I had recently read called "The Gimme Prayer" by Kathy Tapley:

I was touched by his desperate need
So I gave him all that I had.
But instead of a "thanks"
He stretched out his hand for more.
Outraged, I vowed never to give
So sacrificially again!
But then I realized—
Sometimes a gimme prayer
Is all the thanks I give to God
For all the blessings
He has given me.

Perhaps I should have shown my parishioner another day on the calendar: Thanksgiving Day. Rogation must always be followed by Thanksgiving. Asking should always be followed with thanks.

Correction . . .

We regret that transposed lines in a paragraph of Reverend Clifford Evans "clergy comments" last week distorted the sequence of thought. The paragraph should have read:

Christians in general and preachers in particular, bear some of the blame for this state of affairs. Christianity has not been made so clear and real and vital to non-churchgoers that they feel they must support organized religion because it matters so supremely. If a car breaks down outside your house you might feel it wasn't your concern if the driver was on his way to a restaurant and theatre show, but you'd really be concerned if he was on his way to fetch the doctor for his wife who was ill and you would lend a hand. The right way to try to tackle this question is to try to persuade you that Christianity is out on the most vital errand, and that its breakdown, such as it is, is the very reason why you should come in and help.

Group had meeting

Members of Tri-County Group, Alcohol and Drug Concerns, met Friday afternoon at the Elma Public School to give and hear reports, view educational films, and plan future strategy and organization.

The Reverend Thomas Lowery of Williamsburg chaired the meeting, assisted by the Reverend William Smith of Cornwall.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Garlough of Williamsburg gave the secretary's report. Reports from the recent Ottawa seminar were given by delegates who attended.

Matters for discussion included "Hole in the Fence" program for children, PLUS (Positive Life Using Skills) for young people; programming in schools, and parents' co-operation.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Marjorie Levan of Kingston, Eastern Ontario program director. Her subject was "Prevention." She said: "We have a mandate, a purpose, a territory. We need support, co-operation, training, interest, enthusiasm, dedication."

The Reverend E. Earle Eaton of Chesterville, one of the delegates to the Ottawa seminar, covered the meeting for the press.

CUB CORNER

by Raksha

Apple Hill Campground is a 300-acre area that has a little of everything—trees, fields, a stream, a small pond, plants, birds and many other hidden surprises. There are also two buildings on the land which at one time were well equipped with a woodstove and piping as well as many other objects. These buildings also had windows and doors as well. But due to vandalism over the years, they no longer can be called well equipped. It's not bad enough, moveable objects are stolen, but in the last little while several sheets of ceiling tile have been removed.

Many trees have been cut down and removed from the grounds as well. There has been a lot of discussion on the developing of Apple Hill. But is it really worth developing? Will these young people forget what we've repeatedly tried to teach them? Both these questions deserve answers.

The Regional Kubkar Rally took place in Deep River on Saturday, April 24. There were 77 boys racing. Philippe von Allmen placed first in all races except the last one in which he was dealt a fourth. Philippe took fourth place over all and Rae Upton placed eleventh. Well done boys!

Apple Hill

by Aline Gormley

OPENING DAY CEREMONY

The ceremony for the opening of the Centennial Park on Thursday, July 1, 1982 following the church service at St. Anthony's will consist of representatives from the township council, Reeve Hugh MacIntyre and the Apple Hill councillors; the village trustees, centennial committee members and all present will march with piper David McKilligen leading the group.

Father Charles MacDonald will open the dedication ceremony by unveiling a stone with commemorative plaque. A commendation to the members of the township council will follow. The planting of a flowering crabapple tree and the raising of the flag will indicate its live aspect. Reverend Arnold MacDonald of Zion United Church in a fraternal gesture will make closing thanksgiving remarks.

CHILDREN'S FIELD DAY

The Field Day for children scheduled for Friday, July 2 is sponsored by the Apple Hill Legion Branch 312. The games will open at 10:30 a.m. with the national anthem followed with a message by Lorne Hall, president.

Wilfrid Rozon, member of the Legion, submitted a program for these events. Races of all types for different age groups will comprise: a three-legged race, a wheel-barrow race, a sack race, a relay race (four on each team) and straight races for short, medium and long distances. There will be high jumps, hops and skip jumps, ball throws, a one-and-a-half-mile cross country race and a one-hour scavenger hunt. Ribbons will be awarded to winning contestants. The games will close at 4 p.m.

WELCOMING COMMITTEE

During the festivities all local residents and visitors will be greeted by senior hosts and hostesses. They will be asked to sign our Centennial record book and to include their personal comments. To facilitate recognition and friendliness a name tag will be issued to each. Admission fee is $1 per person, per day; free for younger children.

The committee has determined to award a trophy donated by Osie Villeneuve MPP to the oldest citizen who has travelled the farthest distance to attend the festivities.

LOTS OF PUBLICITY

The St. Lawrence Seaway Valley Council having agreed to cover our Centennial event will have press releases ready for distribution by the end of May. They will be distributed to eight Seaway Valley Tourist Council Information Centres from Lancaster to Kingston as well as to all Travel Information Bureaus from the Quebec border to Kingston and to Western Ontario. This publication will be included in the monthly calendar of events which is sent to all information centres mentioned above. This information has already been sent to the Ontario government and will be included in the summer events brochure.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

We have discovered that the song title written by Ken MacRae is "My Home was Apple Hill." June Raymond told the committee that a record will be struck and will sell at $3 each. Sounds terrific, doesn't it?

Other items to be added to the souvenirs' list we were told by Sue Stelmach will include glasses with the imprint of an apple and glass ash trays imprinted with the centennial crest donated by Donald and Thelma Colbourne.

SOME VERY SPECIAL QUILTS

The quilts we previously spoke of will soon be on display with some of the tickets now available.

Agatha Lauzon in describing the double-bed size quilt she is making for the centennial fund raising campaign said it is truly a family affair project. The centre design is done on a white background with three blocks on the upper section reproducing copies of St. Anthony's Church, Zion United Church and St. Michael's Chapel. The middle section carries a replica of the centennial crest. The lower portion also done in three blocks reproducing copies of the former St. Stephen's Church, the Hamelin blacksmith shop and the former CPR railway station. A three-inch border done in blue is inserted around this pattern. Then comes a two-inch white border, completed with a border done in blue.

Cassie Welsh who donated her 84"x92" quilt to increase St. Anthony's funds chose the ever familiar dresden plate pattern and designed it in beautiful pastel colors.

The double size quilt made by Charlotte Bender and Ruth Singleton will raise proceeds for the Apple Hill Legion branch. It can best be described as 12 even size blocks edged in brown with beige background. At the centre a white apple tree trimmed in green is sitting on a hill while a miniature train motif embroidered in black is sweeping through. The four corner blocks depict a green tree with red apples on the slope of a hill. Centre upper and lower blocks carry the theme of the little red engine crossing by. Side blocks are ingeniously done with the figure of a little boy carrying his sling-pack. Other blocks have the red apple glowingly sitting on top of a hill.

Melba Murray's large double quilt is a smashing apple design symetrically arranged in approximately 20 or so blocks of three raised multi-colored apples and leaves comprised in each block designed on a white background bordered in peach color. It does sound yummy! The edging is done in alternate white and peach picot. A four by six foot afghan done in white, pale green and grey wool in double crochet stitch forming a lace ripple pattern throughout was made by Margaret Darling. She completed the afghan with a one-inch green border. These two items will go to increase the Recreation Club fund raising needs.

These gorgeous quilts on which countless devoted hours were spent will be drawn for on Sunday, July 4 at 11:30 a.m. A painting of the former CPR station done in oils by Anthony Pascal will also be drawn at that time.

FRENCH FOLKLORE GROUP

The French Folklore choral group will be giving two presentations during the Centennial celebrations and will enter a float in the parade.

Raymond Lacroix of Martintown is music director. Anyone who is familiar with this type of folk song or can play this music on violin or accordion can get in touch with me at 527-5692. If you are adept at step dancing you are welcome to join the group. Practices are held every Tuesday at 8 p.m. at St. Anthony's Parish Hall.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Marc Guindon will be on the prowl to enlist volunteers. Much concentrated effort will have to be raised so let's hope no one in the village will hesitate to give his or her name.

CLEAN-UP DAY

The Centennial Committee and the Apple Hill Village Council has declared Monday, May 24, 1982, as general clean-up day. On Tuesday, May 25 the Kenyon Township trucks will be in the village to pick up any household garbage you have been wanting to get rid of. A good opportunity to clean up our village before Centennial.

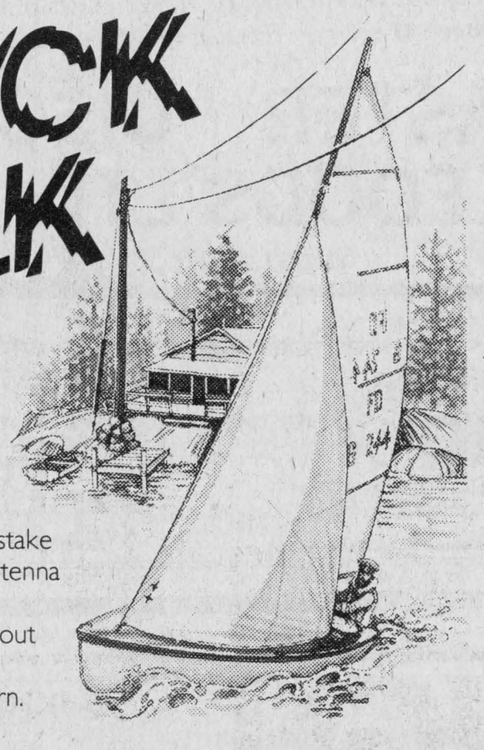
SHOCK TALK



Sailing safely through summer means watching for overhead powerlines.

When you're launching your boat or when it's on the water, don't make the fatal mistake of letting the boat's mast or antenna touch overhead wires.

It could knock the wind out of your sails, forever.

Your safety is our concern.

FOCUS

The not-so-honorable members

Fifty-two per cent of the Canadian population was insulted last week.

Miss it? Don't know what I'm talking about?

Ask me if I'm surprised.

The insulted 52 per cent is composed of women.

That's probably why you missed it. Most papers didn't consider it exactly front-page news.

I am referring of course to the jeering laughter with which some male "honorable members" greeted MP Margaret Mitchell's questions about battered wives. That laughter echoed throughout our House of Commons while our 15 female MPs looked on in stunned incredulity.

One out of every 10 Canadian women is victimized by her partner. That makes for an awful lot of battered wives.

Those jeering boors that represent us are totally insensitive to one of our most fundamental social problems. If they can laugh at it—and get away with it—how can we expect anyone else (include wife-batterers themselves) to take the issue seriously?

Wife abuse in this country, as well as others, is a problem of such magnitude that we have to set up special escape houses for the victims and their children. What a sorry situation.

There is such a house in Cornwall.

Probably someone you know had had to use it. With a statistic like "one out of every 10" there's a good chance.

Women's organizations periodically issue a call across the country for a national women's party, claiming that women will never be taken seriously otherwise. The lack of seriousness with which male members of Parliament greeted this issue certainly makes the call sound like a good alternative. As the song goes, "If we ain't got nothin', we got nothin' to lose".

Another alternative is that every woman and every woman's group across the land register a protest with their MP via petitions, phone calls and letters. Inundate them.

Listen ladies, these guys may think wife abuse is a joke, but when 52 per cent of the population decides to vote for someone else come next election they won't be laughing any more.

When 52 per cent of the population gets angry and stays angry, that will be taken very seriously indeed.

We must disabuse ourselves of the notion that we don't count. We've put up with enough abuse already.

BAINS—STANLEY

Wed in Oshawa

Joan Elizabeth Stanley of 482 St. Clair Ave. E. Toronto and Christopher Allport Bains also of Toronto exchanged marriage vows at Christ Memorial Church Oshawa on Saturday, May 1, 1982 at 5:30 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Willard Hodgins Stanley and the late Dr. Willard Hodgins Stanley of Oshawa and is the granddaughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Demoulin of Lancaster. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton Baines of Toronto.

Canon Donald Beatty officiated for the ceremony.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by Dr. Jack Hodgins and given in marriage by her mother. She wore a gown of white goergette, featuring a sweetheart neckline, bishop sleeves and Venice lace trimming. Her veil was held in place with a half moon comb trimmed with lily of the valley. She carried a tear shaped cascade of white portrait roses and king lilies.

The bride's attendants were: Mrs. Sue Mowat, Oshawa; Mrs. Peggy McGibbon Simpson, Toronto; Mrs. Ester Jackson, Oshawa and Mrs. Kathy Sunday, Clayton, Georgia. They wore silver grey georgette dresses with crystal pleated skirts and tie jackets and carried cascade arrangements of king lilies in shades of burgundy and pink with trailing sprigs of lobelia.

The groom was attended by Peter Baines and Robert Baines of Toronto; Craig Bowden of Mississauga and John Gropp of Richmond Hill.

The groom and attendants wore director's suits.

The reception following the ceremony was held at the Oshawa Golf Club.

Their honeymoon weekend was spent at the Millcroft Inn, Alton, Ont.

The bride teaches at Glengrove School, Pickering and the groom is executive assistant to the Parliamentary Assistant in the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing, Queen's Park, Toronto.

Guests from the east were Mrs. John Ewen Demoulin of LaSalle, Quebec; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Ross DeMoulin of Chateauguay; Miss Dawn DeMoulin of Chateauguay; Mr. Brian DeMoulin of Chateauguay and Dr. and Mrs. Jack Hodgins of Hudson Heights, Que.

Club met

by Denise Dorie

Our May meeting was held at the farm of Lionel Dorie. Guest speaker was Mrs. Rothgeb, who gave us a very informative talk on the different parts of a horse.

Our leader Charlie Osborne discussed with us the "nutrient requirements" a cow needs to produce milk and stay healthy. The president closed the meeting by thanking the Dories for hosting the meeting.

Our next meeting will be at the farm of Robert McRae.

Due to lack of membership 4-Hers from Charlottenburgh Township have now joined our club. Welcome!

Museum opening May 21

The Nor'Westers and Loyalist Museum, Williamstown, will open for the 1982 season on Friday, May 21 with an open house to celebrate International Museum Day.

The opening will be marked by two new exhibits, one by students from Williamstown Public School and the other prepared by the Ontario Heritage Foundation.

The school exhibit, called "The Williamstown Project," is the outcome of work by students in Grades 5 and 6, which was begun last September and completed this week. The children were divided into groups, with each group having a separate assignment. The results are a map of the village, a survey of the houses, interviews with various residents, rubbings of some of the stones in the cemetery, several family trees and a series of photographs. The highlight of the project has been the making of a quilt to illustrate the history of Williamstown, with the students being paired off to make the quilt blocks. This exhibit will be at the museum until June 4.

The Ontario Heritage Foundation exhibit has been designed to show the results of the work done in the past two years at the Bethune-Thompson house in Williamstown, by the archaeological team and by the architectural worker. On display will be the artifacts found by the archaeologists, photographs and text to illustrate the very early construction of the house. The exhibit will be at the museum for the whole season.

Opening hours will be the same as in previous years: Daily, May 21 to Labor Day, then weekends only to Thanksgiving. Sunday to Friday, 1:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.; Saturdays and holiday Mondays, 10:30 to 5:30 p.m.

The program for the season is as follows: May 21, open house to mark International Museum Day. "History of Williamstown" exhibit by students of Williamstown Public School. "The Bethune-Thompson house" and exhibit produced by the Ontario Heritage Foundation.

June 5 and 6: Exhibit and sale of watercolors by Esther Bryan.

June 12 and July 4: Exhibit and sale of watercolors and acrylics by Alan Bain.

August 6-8: Williamstown Fair Photographic Exhibit.

August 10-Sept. 19: Royal Ontario Museum travelling exhibit. "The Shadow Catcher" photographs by Edward Curtis.

August 18: Annual wine and cheese party.

October 2-3, 9-11: Exhibit and sale of watercolors, oils and acrylics by Ted Sonne.

October 16: Craft Fair.

SAVOIE—HURTUBISE

Residing in Montreal

Lynne Hurtubise of Alexandria and Robert Savoie of Laval, Que., exchanged marriage vows in a late spring wedding at St. Martin of Tours Church, Glen Robertson, on Saturday, May 8.

Lynne is the daughter of Emile and Rita Hurtubise of Alexandria and Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Savoie of Laval, Que.

Reverend Raymond Dumoulin of Dalkeith officiated, Mrs. Christena MacDonald was organist and Henrietta O'Neill was soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white satin back crepe gown fashioned by the bride herself. Her headdress and veil were made of the same lace as trimmed her gown.

Helen Hurtubise, the bride's niece, was flower girl.

The reception following the ceremony was held at the Sports Palace at 8 p.m.

For their wedding trip to Orlando, Florida, and Disneyworld, the bride wore a red ensemble, another of her creations.

The couple will reside in Montreal.

Out of town guests came from Toronto, Montreal, Quebec, Laval, Ottawa, Gaspesie, Mississauga, Brossard, Que., Pickering and Halifax.

CWL hosted party

by Marguerite Seger

The Ladies of the CWL St. Raphael's Parish, hosted the May birthday party for the residents at the Community Nursing Home in Alexandria, on Monday, May 17, 1982. The gathering was held in the cafeteria of the nursing home which was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Those celebrating birthdays were: Mrs. Cecilia Allison, May 5, 48; Mrs. Ada Deer, May 10, 86; Rosario Deschamps, May 12, 78; Ethel Thauvette, May 13, 92; Cecil Wilson, May 24, 65 and Gladys Duchesneaux, May 27, 84.

Mrs. Marcel Major and the ladies presented gifts to those celebrating and Mrs. Sharon Cameron delighted everyone with lovely piano airs. A lovely birthday cake was cut and served with refreshments.

A very enjoyable party was held to the delight of everyone.

Tribute paid to Ethel Ostrom

Final tribute to the memory of a great and gifted lady was paid on Monday, May 10 when the funeral was held at the United Church on the Hill, Alexandria, at 2 p.m., for the late Miss Ethel Luella Ostrom, who died at the Maxville Manor on Friday, May 7, 1982 in her 101st year. She had been a resident of the Manor for the past eight years.

She was born at Martintown on February 23, 1882, the only daughter of the late Isaac Brock Ostrom and his late wife the former Margaret Jane MacGregor.

The family came to Alexandria where she grew up and attended the Alexandria schools, graduating from high school at the age of 16 years. She took a business course in Ottawa and worked briefly in Alexandria. In 1900 she entered Queen's University and graduated in 1905. In 1905-1906 she attended Teachers' College in Hamilton and graduated in 1907. She attained her BA degree.

For six years she taught in public schools in Western Canada at Yellowgreen, Milestone and Yorkton, Sask. In 1914 she began teaching high school at Haileybury and in the fall of 1916 she began a long and illustrious career of teaching in old Alexandria High School where she taught for 24 years, retiring in 1940 at the age of 58 years. As a dedicated teacher of the Arts and English language, she staged several pageants and concerts which won acclaim.

She was an ardent gardener, loved her vegetable garden as much as her flower garden and apple orchard.

She was the true chatelaine of the spacious Ostrom home on Bishop Street North where hundreds of friends, relatives and admirers called to chat with her from far and near, and were always welcomed with open arms and a warm and friendly handshake.

Although of Dutch German descent on her father's side she was a true Scot on her mother's side. She was highly versed in poetry and enjoyed Shakespeare and Pratt.

Left to mourn her passing are her brother Harold of North Vancouver, his wife and family, her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harriet Ostrom, nephew Lowell, all of Kingston, and her very dear cousin Mrs. Maude Lawrence.

She was predeceased by her parents and her three brothers Stanley Ames, Ernest Blackwood, and Clarence, all of Alexandria.

The funeral rites were presided over by Rev. Janice Stevenson, minister of the church who read the 23rd psalm and delivered an eloquent but touching eulogy on the rewarding life of the late Miss Ostrom.

Mrs. Helen Upton was organist, soloists were Mrs. Jane Wightman and Howard Morris, a former pupil.

The active pallbearers were Grant MacGillivray, John Munro, Henry Ladouceur, Edwin Hay, Ewen Ross and Lorne Hall. The honorary pallbearers were C. Campbell Fraser, Henry D. Duggan, Angus H. McDonell, Earl Bradley, Harold Stimson and James Baker, all former pupils, and Bruce Sova.

Burial was in the family plot in the United Church Cemetery.

Relatives and friends attended from North Vancouver, Toronto, Ottawa, Woodstock, Galt, Montreal, Cornwall, Pointe Claire, Maxville, Martintown and other area points.

Mother's Day visitors with Bill and Peggi Calder were Bill and Sue Calder, Art and Betty Racey, Dorothy Wickson, Murray and Didi Calder, George and Pierre, and Gordon Racey and Stella Bouchard.

Visitors at Betty Kennedy's on Sunday, May 9 included: Duncan and Katalin Kennedy of Maxville, MacRae and Kathryn Kennedy, Elma Kennedy, Lidia Andras, George Andras, Jacqueline Burley, Muriel Stewart, all of Ottawa; Mary and Norman Benson of Montreal; Harriet MacKinnon of Alexandria; Sheila and Donald Campbell of Glen Nevis and Ann MacRae of Maxville Manor. Sara and George Andrews of Lachine also attended the ordination service held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening (May 9) when Duncan Kennedy became an ordained missionary to the Maxville church.

Mrs. Catherine Ververs of Rochester, NY, visited with her brother Wesley Chisholm and family over the weekend. Anne and George Robinson of Montreal visited on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Garry Chasse and family of Chateauguay, Que., visited with Weldon and Doris MacIntosh on the weekend and were guests at the Ryan and Shane wedding at Fournier. Mr. and Mrs. Rae MacLeod were also in attendance.

Archie MacRae and Ian MacLeod are still patients in Glengarry Memorial. We hope they will soon be home and feeling much better.

Congratulations to Noel and Annie Ladouceur on the birth of their grandson, born to Michel and Patsy Ladoucuer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken MacEwen of Ottawa were Sunday visitors with their aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Don Urquhart.

For the past 16 years Campbellcraft has been placing a copy of the Glengarry News in the bottom compartment of their clock cases. As these copies always include items from Auld Lang Syne, the owners of these clocks will have a history of Glengarry in their living rooms. Mr. Campbell has now been adding a copy of the 1982 Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms in with the Glengarry News in each clock case.

May 15 was the birthday of Simonne Cadieux. All her children wish her a happy birthday.

St. Margaret's reaches 100

by Marguerite Seger

In June of this year, St. Margaret of Scotland Parish, Glen Nevis, will be celebrating the 100th anniversary of its founding.

After several years of trudging to St. Raphael's Church, many times in bare feet, in order to preserve their shoes, members of the community petitioned the Bishop of Kingston to have a church of their own.

Long discussions followed and finally in 1845, a first church was partially built at Bridge End, near the Quebec boundary, but it was never completed as the site was condemned.

In 1881 Bishop Cleary decided on the site at Glen Nevis and here the church was erected. Today Father Witold Mazurkiewicz and his parishioners are preparing centennial celebrations.

All friends, relatives and acquaintances of parishioners and former Maryvale Convent students are invited to participate in the following list of events which has been planned:

June 6, a Memorial Service at 10:15 a.m. at St. Margaret's Church, followed by service in the cemetery. Would you like to place flowers on a friend or relative's grave?

June 12, dance with the Clansmen at the Alexandria Sports Palace. Admission $2.50, lunch included. Old Country Dancing Group in attendance, square dancing and a sing-along.

June 13, Eucharistic celebration, 3 p.m. at the church with Bishop LaRocque officiating, followed by a banquet at the Sports Palace at 7 p.m. Ewan Ross will be the guest speaker. Tickets $12.50, must be purchased in advance and may be obtained at The Hub in Alexandria, Lucky Dollar at Green Valley, The Brown House Store, The Clansmen Shop in Cornwall, and Quinn's Store at St. Andrew's West.

June 20, children's folk mass at 10:15 a.m., followed by a family picnic on the church grounds.

The Glens & the Valley

by Dawn Moynihan

GLEN NORMAN

Pat Carpenter has returned from Brockville where she attended a three-day conference on the Mentally Retarded, 'Interaction '82, sponsored by the St. Lawrence Regional Centre. It was held at the Skyline Hotel. During the conference a boat tour of the Thousand Islands was arranged and everyone attending the conference enjoyed it. They were all still able to walk when they got off the boat, reports Pat.

GLEN NEVIS

Centennial Committee member, Micheline Samson of St. Margaret of Scotland reports the latest details on the upcoming celebration: On June 6, the Memorial Mass will start at 10:15 a.m. for the deceased parishioners.

The dance on June 12 starts at 9 p.m. and will feature the music of the Clansmen followed by a late lunch which will cost $2.50 per person. There will be old country dancing and old fashioned sing-songs.

The special mass on June 13 at 3 p.m. will be followed by a banquet at the Glengarry Sports Palace starting at 7 p.m. For tickets contact Micheline Samson at 347-2907 or Bernadette Campeau at 347-2575 before May 31. Tickets are $12.50 per person or $25 per couple. They may also be purchased at The Priest's Mill in Alexandria, Quinn's Store in St. Andrew's or at the Clansmen Shop in Cornwall.

The Centennial Picnic on June 20 will begin at noon, ending at 4 p.m. The cost is $2 per person, children under 12 are free. There will be games organized for children of all ages and entertainment will be provided. A quilt booth will raffle and sell quilts. The special centennial quilt will also be raffled. The quilt is on display at Lalonde's Ladies' Wear in Alexandria. In case of rain, the picnic will be held the following Sunday.

GREEN VALLEY

Kim Menard and Laurie Preston travelled to Lindsay, Ont. recently to represent the Glengarry District High School for the OFFSSA Gym Meet. They were accompanied by their coach, Mrs. Jackie Fraser. Everyone had a good time and the girls came home exhausted from a very stimulating experience.

Mrs. Irene Menard was voted Mother of the Year by her associates of the Union Culturel Franco Ontario. She was presented with a souvenir plaque. She was chosen by the group for her work within the group.

P.S. GLEN NEVIS

Remember everyone is welcome to come and help Glen Nevis parishioners celebrate their centennial.

WITH SYMPATHY

We wish to extend sincere sympathy to Chris Frigo of Montreal, whose wife Hilda passed away recently after a long illness. The funeral is to be held on Thursday, May 20 at 10 a.m. in Montreal. Interment will be in Dalhousie Mills. Mrs. Frigo was the daughter of D. M. and Bella MacRae, long-time store owners in Glen Robertson.

GUESTS

Dennis and Jean Huckvale of Blackpool, England, and Neera and Tara Huckvale of Ottawa, recently visited with Lloyd and Sara MacMillan.

Elsie and Sara MacMillan spent a few days with Bessie and Ernie Wiggins in Cobourg.

ATTEND WI ANNUAL

Eighteen members of McCrimmon Women's Institute attended the annual meeting in Dunvegan. Four of these were delegates. They all spent a most enjoyable day.

BON VOYAGE

PRAYER IS POWERFUL!

What do you think of the "power of prayer"? Perhaps you don't give it a second thought. Some do not. Others have faith in it. Mull this over a bit. Last Saturday we were to go singing (Centenary Choral Group, that is). I phoned the choir director, Margaret Cox (Sam we call her) and said, "I'm in; when do we leave?" "Oh, about 6:30 and you can come with us if we have room, so call me about then," she replied.

With my usual brilliance, I thought she was to phone me, so of course, no call came. Dashing out and taking off for the church at 6:25 p.m., I arrived at 25 minutes to seven. No Sam; nobody else either. I waited until 7:15, then desperate, I decided to try and find the place myself, in Greenfield Park. That meant going over the Champlain Bridge. As I took off, I breathed a little prayer, "Oh Lord please let me meet up with them somehow."

The approach to the bridge is a left swing off Wellington St., the continuation of Lasalle Blvd., which loops up on the same road, then cuts back to Wellington St. As I turned onto the approach, I saw a little yellow Datsun come on from west. You guessed it! It was Sam, and two of the other singers. I thought surely no one else would have the yellow car, the bright red blazer and be barely able to see over the dash (she's five foot nothing) so I took a chance and followed them back down to the church. At the light, I peeped the horn and was delighted to see her wave to me. All was straightened out and we did indeed go to sing, with no more mishaps. However, they were not singing in Greenfield Park at all, but in St. Lambert, so I never would have found them.

Coincidence? Pretty broad chance! I prefer to think of it as an example of the power of prayer, even such a little prayer as that.

News from Glen Robertson

by Paul Lacombe

FAREWELL TO PASTOR

Reverend Bruno Pilon was tendered a farewell on the evening of his departure as pastor of St. Martin of Tours. It followed the celebration of his last mass here.

He was presented with a lazy-boy chair, an engraved plaque and a large framed picture showing the inside and outside of St. Martin of Tours church.

Farewell messages were delivered by John Van Nooten and John L. Larocque.

Among those attending were Father Desrosiers of Sacred Heart Parish and Denis Ethier MP.

Although Father Pilon was not in the best of health when he was assigned to minister in the Glen in 1974, he was able to carry on until the recent more serious deterioration of his health. We wish him well.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Susan and Doug Kelly, Ottawa, on the birth of their first child, a baby daughter, Erin. Elated grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Angus Lyman.

GUESTS IN THE VILLAGE

Pat Leonard visited Cassie MacLennan and dropped in on Paul L. Lacombe last week. As a young man, Pat used to spend his summers in the Glen with his grandparents who were neighbors of the MacLennans. He is a long-time radio announcer at radio station CHOV Pembroke and was headed for Cornwall where he performed as one of the singers and emceed a one-hour show "A Night on Broadway." This hour's entertainment thrilled the entire group of teachers who were out to the SD&G women teachers annual dinner at the Parkway on Thursday evening, May 12.

Doug and Barbara Robinson and children, Gordon, Peter and Sarah of Ottawa visited their grandmother Annie Robinson, who is presently a guest of her sister Cassie and her son Stanley.

Bainsville W.I. had April meeting

by Mary Thompson

The Bainsville Women's Institute met at the church hall, Curry Hill, for the April meeting. The president, Mrs. Oliver Legroulx, welcomed visitors present.

There was a letter read from the Food and Agriculture Minister which told of improvements in the system and we'd be assured a Home Economist in our area.

Mrs. Harold Fourney is to purchase a dictionary to be presented to an outstanding student in our area that is finishing elementary school.

Mrs. Harold Fourney volunteered to have her name sent to the district as a replacement for the late Mrs. Markell as the Public Relations officer.

Being it was so close to Mother's Day, Mrs. J. M. Petrie had a reading "What is a Mother?"

Mrs. Rena Upton conducted a quiz on royalty and this was won by Mrs. J. M. Petrie.

Mrs Upton read a humorous poem "I dreamed death came."

We were honored by having Constable Andrew Rever. from the Lancaster detachment, as a guest speaker. He explained the breathalizer test and how it is used very often instead of a blood test to determine the amount of alcohol one has in their system.

His message was humorous as well as informative and he stressed that people should not fear they'll be dragged into court if they give information to the police.

He informed us how one can make a civilian arrest if the occasion arises. Quite a discussion on child abuse followed between the members and the constable.

In appreciation of him coming to us he was presented with a gift of Ontario Maple Syrup.

IT'S OUR OPINION

Bigger is not always better

It's time to dispel once and for all that bigger is always better, particularly when it comes to farming and other small business ventures.

Statistics released by Roger Worth of the Canadian Federation of Independent business show that smaller enterprises are, in fact, more efficient.

For years, Worth notes, Canadians have been told that huge farms (many of them operated by big corporations) are needed to keep food prices at reasonable levels. The most efficient and lowest cost producers, we are told, are those with mammoth operations. Yet that's not necessarily the case.

Recent studies have unearthed some good news for the families that produce the vast majority of the nation's produce.

Consider one example. On wheat farms, maximum efficiencies are achieved on farms of 1,476 acres, but farmers with only 232 acres operate at 90 per cent of the maximum.

The point, of course, is that time after time, in all parts of the world, it has been proven that a farmer, together with his or her family, and one additional worker, can produce food as cheaply or cheaper than their agribusiness competitors. The same is true of many other smaller businesses.

Yet while Ottawa is busy bailing out the likes of Chrysler and Massey-Ferguson with hundreds of millions in taxpayer dollars, little is being done for entrepreneurs (be they farmers, manufacturers, or retailers) who create a clear majority of the country's new jobs.

In fact, the opposite is happening. Even though business failures are at near-record levels as a result of sky-high interest rates, the federal government clobbered entrepreneurs in the last budget. The decision makers in Ottawa took away a successful program that allowed smaller firms to expand, and effectively raised taxes for virtually all small businesses.

The mandarins, bureaucrats, and politicians can't seem to understand such actions are tantamount to hitting farms and businesses run by families and risk-taking individuals when they're already hurting.

Their actions are not in anyone's best interests.

With more than one million Canadians unemployed, we badly need the jobs our smaller firms could be creating.

Energy alternatives crucial

While many of us lament the rising cost of gasoline and home heating oil, there are measures underway to remove us from the burden of dependency on these fossil fuels.

In fact, hydrogen could become a major energy form of the future—perhaps even replacing gasoline in our automobiles.

According to Energy Ontario, results of a recent study are positive.

The Ontario Hydrogen Energy Task Force was appointed last year to determine the potential role of hydrogen in Ontario's energy future.

One of the first things most of us learn in high school chemistry class is that hydrogen is the main ingredient of water.

You may remember the experiment in which you used electricity to separate water into its two component parts—hydrogen and oxygen.

At this point, your teacher probably told you that hydrogen is one of the most abundant elements in the universe—something we will never run out of.

But you probably were not told that hydrogen could soon become the energy form of the future. Or that someday, it could even replace the gasoline in your car.

That's one of the recent findings of the Ontario Hydrogen Energy Task Force, which was appointed last year to determine the potential role of hydrogen in Ontario's energy future.

The task force pointed out that we have to make hydrogen. Unlike oil, it is not a natural resource. Instead it is made from natural gas, the sun, the tides, uranium—in fact, any primary energy source that can be converted to electricity also can be used to make hydrogen.

There are two preferred ways to make hydrogen in Ontario. One way is to extract it from a hydrocarbon such as natural gas. The other method is through electrolysis. Just as in high school chemistry class, electricity is used to separate water into its two parts—hydrogen and oxygen.

And while Ontario has very little oil or gas, it does have lots of electricity from hydraulic and nuclear power.

Long distance buses and transport trucks are the most likely vehicles to use hydrogen. But it could be used to fuel trains, ships, airplanes and even cars. Right now one of the major problems is that compressed hydrogen tanks are extremely heavy. So the challenge will be to develop a small-scale, on-board storage system suitable for smaller vehicles.

After all, we do not have an energy crisis in Ontario—we have an oil crisis. And in the long run, as the price of oil and natural gas continues to climb, the development of hydrogen could well be one of the most effective ways to combat the depletion of our conventional energy resources.

Perspective

Government advertising

If you've had this nagging feeling that you're seeing more government advertising all the time, your suspicions have just been confirmed by Bryan Johnson, a feature writer for The Globe and Mail.

Johnson did some research into the issue and discovered that the federal government is the largest single advertiser in Canada. Last year, it pumped at least $65 million into direct ad campaigns, more than doubling its nearest competitor in the private sector.

Quebec and Ontario also rank in the top 15 spenders.

And those figures do not count the millions being spent on advertising by Crown corporations such as PetroCanada or CN.

By contrast, Johnson's research shows, "the U.S. government ranks 24th on the country's list of advertisers, with a per capita expenditure less than one-quarter of what is spent on every Canadian."

There has to be something terribly immoral about governments which spend millions telling everyone what a fine job they are doing in the middle of a recession.

Although government apologists claim Canada has more social service programs than the U.S. and, therefore, must communicate these programs to people, much of the advertising currently being done is purely political.

The prime example of this new propaganda arm of the government is the Canadian Unity Information Office (CUIO). It was hastily assembled with a $32 million budget to fight Trudeau's constitution opponents. This money was used to bring us such substantive ads as the one depicting geese flying through the air. (You didn't know that geese could fly through the air until the government told you. Right?)

Perhaps the most obscene aspect of government advertising is that it is often contradictory.

While the federal government tossed a fortune out promoting its "truth" about constitution, the British Columbian government handed out one million copies of an eight-page tabloid newspaper denouncing the federal position.

In the end, the entire affair is reduced to absurdity. The message is different, the funding heavier, but what it all boils down to is a glorified version of the familiar laundry soap commercial where two housewives argue over whose wash is the whitest.

This is not education. It is hucksterism, with each side trying to say its product is the best.

What is even more concerning is the CUIO did not wither on the vine after the constitutional grapes were harvested. The outfit has reincarnated itself, or as one official said, "has just evolved" into a more "flexible" government information system.

One of these "flexible" policies, as many will recall, was having local newspapers flown into the office at $95 each, when at least one of the papers was available for $1 at a nearby newsstand.

The fact that this new ministry of propaganda is not really a public agency—as manifested by obedience to Parliament—is that it refused to release the results of $61,000 public opinion survey.

Only the governing Liberals have access to the results which means they can use the information acquired at public expense to promote their own party interests.

In other words, you by-pass parliament with orders in council, suppress publicly funded studies and then set up your own information system.

Dr. Goebbels would marvel.

'From the old rail fence'

by Anna Margaret

With all the editing I must do I find there is very little time to write about many things I would like.

So while I do appreciate many items sent to me for this column, there are very few I reproduce, as I like to reserve this space for my own pen. From some of the contributions though, I do get inspiration and appreciate the thought of the sender.

Occasionaly though, I come across articles I think our readers might enjoy and break my own rules.

Since many people are at loss for new words to expound when things go wrong, I think this article taken from the May 1 issue of "War Cry" is thought provoking.It follows:

JUST SHOUT IT OUT! HALLELUJAH!

If the carpenter misses the nail when he strikes, Hallelujah!
And bruises his finger, a thing no ones likes, Hallelujah!
Instead of his cursing with might and with main,
At the innocent object that caused him such pain,
He smiles, while his heart says again and again, 'Hallelujah!'

And now let me tell you what meaneth this word: 'Hallelujah!'
From those who live closest to God it is heard; Hallelujah!
'Tis Hebrew and means 'Praise the Lord' so I'm told,
You will never enjoy it if spiritually cold;
So now, if you have one, just shout it out bold: 'Hallelujah!'

While rambling through Glengarry News files searching for material for Glen Nevis and Apple Hill, I found the following article carried back in July 1921.

THE LOST BOY

Lost, but not kidnapped by bandits and hidden in a cave to weep and starve and rouse a nation to frenzied searching. Were that the case one hundred thousand men would rise to the rescue if need be. Unfortunately the losing of the lad is without any dramatic excitement though very sad and very real.

The fact is, his father lost him! Being too busy to sit with him at the fireside and answer his trivial questions during the years when fathers are the only great heroes of the boys, he let go his hold on him.

Yes, his mother lost him. Being much engrossed in her teas, dinners and club programs she let her maid hear the boy say his prayers and thus her grip slipped and the boy was lost to his home.

Aye, the church lost him! Being so much occupied with sermons for the wise and elderly who pay the bills and having good care for dignity the minister and elder were unmindful of the human feelings of the boy in the pew and made no provision in sermon or song on manly sport for his boyishness.

So now the church and many sad-hearted parents are looking earnestly for the lost boy.

Rather a dour warning that, but I thought it was rather consoling to know that it is not just "today" that young people are blaming society for what happens to them.

Makes parenthood and I suppose too, "grandparenthood" a might responsible state of affairs.

The Catharine Traill Naturalists Club which attempts to foster conservation and understanding of the environment has in its May newsletter this list of commandments taken from the 1980 "Wildflower" calender:

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS OF WILDFLOWER PROTECTION

Learn to know the flowers of your land.
Love them and cherish them.
Consider the places where they grow as gardens and make it your aim to protect them.
Do not gather wildflowers unless they are truly weeds.
Remember the joy of others who may look upon them in years to come.
Pass along your knowledge of them that they may find favor with the careless observer.
Seek to learn from them grace of line and harmony of color.
Consider carefully how the sun, wind and rain join hands to create their beauty.
Remember their seedtimes and use your knowledge to bring forth two blossoms for the coming year where last year saw but one.
Keep them as pictures, not as dried and dead specimens, that their offspring may again color the land.

Sister Maejanet is an inspiration

May 15, 1982

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

Your story on Sister MacDonell's missionary work in Brazil was extremely interesting and informative. It is not often enough that we can gain first-hand exposure to what is happening in less affluent countries. In spite of our seeming economic difficulties we are still better off than 99 per cent of all humanity.

I don't think we can be proud of the record of such companies as Coco-Cola in Brazil or of ITT in the downfall of a democratically-elected government in Chile.

But while Sister MacDonell condemns capitalism and the profit motive she also supports a land reform which would allow peasants to own their own plots of land. What would result from this? Why of course the peasants themselves would be seeking to make a profit from their land, and justifiably so.

The point is that the profit motive is not inherently bad, that it is perfectly natural to want to progress, to do better, to become better. But when the wider public good (be it local, national or international) suffers from the practice of free enterprise and profit-seeking, there must certainly be reform. This is obviously the case in Brazil's oppressive land tenure system, or in the case of multinational companies or totalitarian governments operating in Third World countries. In the final analysis it is not profit but people which are important.

Sister MacDonell's story and her practical, down to earth work in Brazil should serve as an inspiration to us all to finally grow up and recognize that we are all neighbors in the 'global village'. We must begin to treat our neighbors in other countries as we would our neighbors next door or across the road if they needed our help.

Sincerely,
Jim McRae

Agricultural News

by Glen J. Smith,
Agricultural Representative,
Glengarry County

On Monday, May 17, Dennis R. Timbrell, Minister of the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food, announced a $5,000,000 program designed to encourage farmers to make improvements to fences and outbuildings and at the same time stimulate local employment.

The Ontario Farmstead Improvement Program will provide grants to cover 50 per cent of the cost of eligible improvements to a maximum of $2,000 per farming operation. The program is effective May 13, 1982 and will conclude December 31, 1982.

Wages paid to non-family labor or a contractor's labor costs, costs for materials and services up to an amount equal to the wages paid or a contractor's labor costs will be eligible for the grants.

Eligible improvements will include installation of new wire fences, replacement of old fences, removal of old fencerows and replacement with new wire fences and divisional fences for rotational grazing of livestock.

Grants will also be eligible for the improvement of farm structures (out-buildings). The following improvements will be covered: painting exterior of farm structures, installation of new siding on existing structures, repairing or replacement of foundations and installation or repair of roofing on existing buildings. The grant will also be eligible for removal of derelict buildings.

The following eligibility criteria must be followed: materials used in making improvements must be purchased during the term of the program, improvements will be completed on farms owned by the applicant, all fencing installed must be wire and must comply with local fencing bylaws (electric fencing is not eligible), in cases where labor is hired directly by the farmer, the employer must comply with the appropriate federal and provincial employment legislation.

Farmers whose value of farm production is at least $12,000 or who own and farm a minimum of 40 hectares (100 acres) are eligible for the program. A partnership or corporation which satisfies the income or ownership requirement under this program is also eligible. For all partnerships and corporations, the maximum grant is the same as for an individual producer. A producer may claim the maximum grant as an individual or as a member of a partnership or a corporation, but not both.

APPLICATION FORMS

Application forms for this program will be available after may 25. The application form will be in two parts. There will be an "Intent to Construct" which must be filed with this office before improvement work is started. After the work has been completed, submit application form and invoices to this office. After the application has been received an inspection of the work will be carried out.

More information on this program can be obtained from this office.

TILE DRAINAGE PROGRAM

Agriculture and Food Minister Dennis Timbrell has also announced an additional six million dollars to be added to the 1982 Ontario Tile Drainage Program. The additional funds will supplement the 40 million dollar allocation. Mr. Timbrell is very aware of the importance of tile drainage to agricultural production. Municipalities have been asked to submit drainage requirements by June 1 to permit early adjustments and to ensure that final allocations better reflect actual needs. This may be the year for you to tile drain. Contact your township immediately for drainage assistance.

Calf draw tickets for a calf or $500 are available from the directors of the Glengarry Holstein Club or the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food Office. Draw to be held at the conclusion of the Eastern Ontario Spring Holstein Show on Friday, June 4.

CP will stage emergency derailment program

CP Rail will hold a 90-minute presentation in Alexandria on railway safety in the case of an emergency derailment for municipal authorities, fire, police departments and other personnel involved in emergency planning.

The company letter to the town states that recognizing that a derailment involving dangerous commodities could occur, we have planned a course of action to be taken.

The presentation will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, May 27 at the Alexandria Royal Canadian Legion Hall.

CP Rail officers will be on hand to answer any questions.

Gets support

On Friday, May 7 the Athletic Association which consists of a representative from every home form in the school, painted a mural on the storage barn.

The mural consists of a number of characters from a comic book, our school mascot and a banner which reads, "Allez-y les Gaels" and "Go Gaels Go."

The kids took in a lunch and drinks were served. The mural was the idea of Gaetanne Blais and was drawn by Elizabeth McCormick. The Athletic Association would like to thank Francois Seguin of Pro Hardware at 33 Main Street and Bruno Lalonde from the General Store at 117 Main, for the supplies and a special thanks to Miss Tina Cairncross for the work she put into the special activity.

DR. GABE SLOWEY GIVES FARM SAFETY TIP

Farmers wearing jeans while working with machinery, is dangerous. This past winter, Dr. Gabe Slowey was a speaker at a Farm Women's Course at Kemptville College that I attended. One thing he stressed was—Do not let your husband or son wear jeans on the farm while working. Jeans are so strong that if caught in machinery, the material will not give and the limb goes with it.

With the lighter work clothes, the material is not as tough and is most likely to give way and save a limb or even a life. Practise safety this busy season, and make sure all safety shields are in place. The life you save may be your own!

RECENT VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stuart Urquhart, Schumacher, Ontario visited Mr. and Mrs. Salem Thomson. Mrs. Urquhart left earlier in the week to visit their two sons in Toronto and Kitchener, and Mr. Urquhart stayed on to visit his two brothers and relatives in the area.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug West, Pembroke and Marion West, Ottawa, spent last weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie West. Doug West attended at the Aubin-Van Bergen wedding.

Mrs. Lil Fox, Mississauga, Ontario, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ramsay and family for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Boyd, Kilbride, Ontario, visited their daughter, Mrs. James Algire, Dr. Algire and family for several days.

Jimmie Lalonde, stationed in North Bay with the Air Force, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lalonde.

Mr. and Mrs. Brent Jones, Rhyl, North Wales, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marland Murray. Mr. Jones is a member of the Trewlynd Male Choir, North Wales, who performed in Cornwall in '79 and was here attending a wedding in Cornwall.

Mrs. Vivian Rublee and Mrs. Jim Strathard, Woodstock, Ontario, visited with Miss Marjorie McMartin, Island Road. Their mother, Mrs. Mabel (MacIntosh) Thompson was a former teacher at the school in Glen Falloch.

ATTENDED STRATFORD SPRING SHOW

Mr. and Mrs. Marland Murray travelled to Stratford, Ontario, to attend the annual Holstein Spring Show held in May.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Margaret Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winn was baptized by Rev. Gordon Worden at St. John's Anglican Church, Lancaster, on Mother's Day, May 9. Present for the service were grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Winn and Mrs. Agnes Bohn, all from Montreal. Mrs. Winn's sister, Mrs. Rosemary Sherman from Six Penny, Hansley, England, spent a week with the family and was also present for the christening. Godparents were Rosemary Sherman, Karen McCuaig and Trevor Winn.

GARDENER CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Finley MacIntosh celebrated a very special birthday of four score years and plus on May 13 and is busy getting his gardens in tip-top shape once again.

Visit the MacIntosh home this summer, and the beautiful roses, begonias and flowers will captivate you.

Belated birthday wishes are sent to the avid gardener and member of the famous Martintown Quartet.

SENIORS ELECT OFFICERS

Strong interest was shown when senior citizens met in the Martintown Community Centre to discuss plans for the formation of a Senior Citizens' group. The following officers were appointed:

President: Mrs. Stennetta Lagroix; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. Norah Girdle; 2nd Vice-President Mrs. Susan Clark; Secretary, Mrs. Irene West; Treasurer, Mrs. Penny McLeod; Membership convener, Mrs. Charlotte Sansom; Ways and Means Committee: Mrs. Onagh Ross, Mrs. Loretta Keir, Mrs. May Thompson.

The executive has planned to meet again on Tuesday, May 18, at 2 p.m., to draw up a constitution, and arrange future events for the group. Watch for future date announcements.

BUS TRIP TO EXPERIMENTAL FARM

The Women's Institute and friends travelled by bus to Ottawa to tour the Experimental Farm. The trip was organized by Mrs. Ray Ramsay, convener for Agriculture and Canadian Industries.

The morning was spent shopping and the afternoon at the farm. The timing of the trip was a little early as most of the blossoms on the rows and rows of apple and flowering crabapple trees were just beginning to open. However, many tulip beds were very picturesque. The fields were being made ready for the experimental crops and the group toured the barns of dairy cattle and the beef barns. While at the farm, a relaxing tour was made on a tourist wagon drawn by two beautiful Belgium horses.

The trip takes the place of the May meeting. Next Institute meeting is at the home of Mrs. Art Buckland at 8 p.m. on June 17. The roll call is "A government office I would like to hold." The program is on citizenship.

GLENGARRY DISTRICT WOMEN'S INSTITUTE ANNUAL

At the District WI annual meeting at Dunvegan this week, Mrs. Harvey McMillan was elected president for 1982-83. The Martintown Branch is proud to have their member elected to this office and know she will carry out her duties well. Congratulations!

Darrell Aubin married Diane Van Bergen a farm girl from St. Agnes De Dundee, Quebec on May 8. Upon their return from a honeymoon in Florida, the couple will take up residence in St. Andrews, Ontario. Darrell is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Aubin and many guests from Martintown attended the wedding in St. Agnes De Dundee. Best wishes are sent to the happy couple.

YARD AND BAKE SALE

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Martintown Fire Department is holding a yard and bake sale on Saturday, May 22 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Support this important sale which will be held at the fire hall. All proceeds will go towards equipment for our local firemen. For donations or more information please telephone 528-4363.

St. Jean Baptiste Day plans underway

The Alexandria French cultural centre "Les trois p'tits points" plans festivities for St. Jean Baptiste that will compare with any celebrations held in town throughout the year.

St. Jean Baptiste Day which falls on Thursday, June 24, will be marked over the weekend of June 18, 19 and 20.

Events get underway on Friday, June 18 with the film "Tintin" being shown throughout French primary schools in Glengarry. On Friday evening the Jean-Pierre Frechette Blues Band will entertain at the Glengarry District High School.

The following morning the Alexandria Canoe races will start at 9:30 a.m. and run through until noon. While the racers are circling Alexandria Lake a frog jumping contest will be held and a beauty contest for cats and dogs.

The highlight of the day will be the St. Jean Baptiste parade which will start at 1 p.m. from Rouleau School on Sandfield Avenue. The parade route will be from Rouleau, north to St. Paul Street, west to Bishop Street, north to Kincardine, west to Main Street, south on Main Street to Lochiel Street and back to Rouleau School.

For the remainder of the afternoon the Mill Square area will be the focus of activities featuring an art exhibition, clowns, dancing and music while Main Street merchants hold a sidewalk sale. The entertainment will continue throughout the evening with local and professional talent entertaining at the Mill Square.

Also on Saturday night awards will be presented to the winners of contests held throughout the week for poems, a theme song for St. Jean Baptiste Day and for drawings. The contest will be open to French elementary and high school students.

A giant bonfire in the vicinity of the Glengarry Sports Palace scheduled for 11 p.m. will mark the end of festivities. Should rain marr the planned outdoor activities, events will be held in the Glengarry Sports Palace.

Learn to judge cows

by Robert MacCaskill

On April 29, the second meeting of the Strathmore Calf Club was held at the farm of Elwyn Bender.

Our meeting was opened with the 4-H pledge. Then Steven Norman, vice-president pointed out different parts of the cow while the other club members had to name them.

Leader, Elwyn Bender told us different ways to tell a good rump on a cow. After learning some of these good and bad points we got to judge three different cows to find the best.

The next meeting of our club will be held on May 25, at the farm of Irwin Bender.

—The family 20-1p

VILLENEUVE—We wish to thank friends and relatives who expressed their sympathy at the death of a dear son and brother Claude Villeneuve on May 2, 1982 in Cornwall for masses, flowers, messages of sympathy, visits or assistance at the funeral. Special thanks to the KofC 1919 and pallbearers Germain Claude, Mike Gibbs and wife, Valaire L'Ecuyer also Gilbert Sauve.
—Mr. Jean Baptiste Villeneuve, Vankleek Hill. Ms. Jacqueline Bissonnette, Alexandria. 20-1p

EPP—We would like to thank all our friends here as well as our relatives and friends who came from quite a distance for their emotional support following the death of our son and brother, Kelly Epp. The expressions of love shown through food, flowers, donations to the Foundation for Ileitis and Colitis, music and cards will never be forgotten. Kelly will certainly be missed by our family as well as the many friends whose lives he touched. Special thanks to Rev. Janice Stevension, Rev. Gordon Saville, the GDHS Senior Band and the UCW for their contributions at the Church on the Hill. Also thanks to the Morris Funeral Home.
—The Epp family. 20-1p

McRAE—The family of the late Allan P. McRae would like to sincerely and gratefully thank all the many relatives and friends whose kind and thoughtful presence and gestures have supported and comforted us during the loss of a dear son and brother. Special thanks to the clergy who conducted the service, the choir of St. Joseph's Church. Pierre Vaillancourt and members of the High School band. The Ladies Auxiliary of St. Joseph's Parish for the buffet and the teachers and students of Glengarry District High School and band members of Sir Oliver Mowat Collegiate in Toronto for their presence and support.
—The McRae family. 20-1p

Cards of Thanks

McLENNAN—I wish to thank my neighbors and friends, for cards and visits, while I was a patient in Glengarry Memorial Hospital. Special thanks to Dr. Roman and nurses.
—Cassie McLennan. 20-1p

In Memoriam

MacGILLIVRAY—In loving memory of a dear husband, Callum MacGillivray, who died May 19, 1981.
His memory is as dear today,
As in the hour he passed away.
—His wife, Lizzie MacGillivray. 20-1p

WILLIAMSON, David Lawson—In loving memory of a "special" dad and granddad who passed away May 24, 1981.
We often sit and think of him
When we are all alone
For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.
—Loved and remembered by Eric, Margie, Wayne, Cindy, Brian, Susan and John Reasbeck. 20-1p
