Funds available to build two new French schools

By Pete Bock
News Correspondent

The money is in place for the French Catholic Board to build both a new secondary school and a new elementary school in Glengarry, slated to open in the 2003-2004 school year.

École Le Relais Principal, Colin Geoffrion, "is absolutely excited about the idea," saying, "this is something we have been working on for years." News on the location for the new secondary school and the budget for its construction are not available from the school board at this time.

A new elementary school is also to be built, somewhere in Glengarry, to replace the three existing schools in South Glengarry.

The new structure will accommodate 300 to 350 students, combining those who attend Saint-Joseph in Lancaster, Saint-Marie in Green Valley and Sainte-Thérèse in North Lancaster.

The enthusiasm for this project is more guarded, due to the closing of the three existing schools.

Area trustee Georgette Sauvé, was unable to comment on the new school due to board policy.

A new bigger school will provide students with better programs according to Jean-Jacques Legault, the director of education for the Conseil scolaire de district catholique de l'Est ontarien.

"These three schools have numbers that are very low," Mr. Legault said.

"Where viability is concerned, we will definitely be able to effectively offer better quality services and programs with a school of around 300 to 350."

Students at the three schools have endured triple and quadruple classes.

This practice comes to an end during the upcoming year, as the board plans to follows through on a commitment made to parents in the spring, when it announced its intention to seek funding for a new school.

At the February meeting held at the Community Centre in Green Valley, the board agreed to hire new teachers if the money came through.

The board is scheduled to meet with members of the three elementary school councils in the next week to discuss further details on the building project.

A construction committee is being put in place, but budget figures are not being released and the site of the new school is still to be determined.

Town gets break as N. Glengarry brings in budget

By Kristina Wilson

Alexandria residents will see a 2.63 per cent decrease in their tax rates compared to last year, as North Glengarry council passed its 2002 budget Monday night.

As reported in The News on February 20, the efforts of United Counties treasurer Vanessa Bennett in straightening out provincial errors in attributing costs of policing mean taxes in Alexandria will be decreased.

Ms. Bennett's persistence in pointing out the province's error results in the same tax rate now being applicable throughout North Glengarry, as Alexandria will be charged the same policing rate as the rest of the township and all of SDG.

This means a residential property assessed at $100,000 will pay $1,596 in taxes, a 2.63 per cent decrease from $1,639 in Alexandria, but a 6.75 per cent increase from $1,495 in Kenyon, Maxville and Lochiel wards.

Kenyon, Maxville and Lochiel wards will get a break on large industrial, industrial, industrial vacant land and large industrial vacant unit excess land, all four categories seeing a 4.29 per cent decrease.

North Glengarry treasurer Annie Levac told council the township expects to collect $8,461,602 in taxes in 2002.

Of that total, nearly $2.8 million, or 33 per cent, is turned over to the various school boards and $3.4 million, or 40 per cent, is collected on behalf of the United Counties, leaving the township with $2,239,310 for its own use, up from $1.9 million last year.

With total revenues – which do not include taxes – slated at $3.7 million, the township finds itself with a net requirement of $2.2 million. This is how tax rates are set, Ms. Levac explained.

Total expenses, which include operating and capital, for 2002 are budgeted at nearly $6 million, a decrease on paper from last year's $8.5 million, due to the sale of the PUC.

Transportation services remain relatively stable at $1.68 million, up slightly from last year's $1.63 million.

Environment services, including the RARE plant, are slated to cost the township nearly $1,2 million.

General government, which includes a $44,473 deficit from 2001, is pegged at nearly one million dollars, while the recreation and culture budget comes in at about $605,000.

That amount does not include the Island Park project, for which SuperBuild funding will be finalized shortly. Park money is in a reserve fund.

Protection to persons and property is expected to cost nearly $500,000, while planning and development will cost $227,000.

The township's reserves as of December 31, 2001, were at $1.2 million and remained unchanged as of the date of the budget.

'No negatives' for school site

By Sue Harrington
News Correspondent

A parcel of land in South Glengarry earmarked by the Catholic School Board as the proposed site of a new high school, fits the bill, according to a planning consultant.

Dave Krajoefski, of TROW Consulting Engineers, Ltd., said he saw "no negatives" to prevent the construction of the school on the 17 hectare (42 acres) site located at the corner of Tyotown and Boundary Roads.

Mr. Krajoefski was addressing a public meeting, Monday, at South Glengarry Council, concerning proposed amendments to the official plan and to the zoning bylaw. An application has been made to re-designate and rezone the lands from industrial to institutional, to permit a school and accessory uses.

The application has been made by the Catholic School Board, although it does not yet own the land in question, according to ReMax realtor, Terry Landon, who was present at the meeting. According to the assessment roll, the land is owned by Steland Holdings Inc. (Robert Gauthier).

Mr. Krajoefski said that there was a demonstrated use for changing the designation to allow for the school. The other high school operated by the board, St. Joseph's in Cornwall, is greatly overcrowded.

"St. Joe's has 880 places and currently has 1300 students," he said, adding that the proposed new school would likely be full upon opening. Target date for opening is September, 2003.

Mr. Krajoefski also said that the school board had followed proper procedures in determining that there were no other school boards in the area with extra space.

"The board undertook an extensive process to get this site," he said.

A site search was commissioned in June, 2001, and the geographic area best suited for the school was determined. While the majority of students at St. Joseph's come from Cornwall, 25 percent are from SDG.

Twelve sites were examined, and of them, "the subject site best meets the needs," said Krajoefski.

Planners from the City of Cornwall do not necessarily agree. A report sent to South Glengarry Township, from Stephen Alexander, Manager of Planning/Housing, and Ken Bedford, Senior Planner, outline several issues bothering the city.

Technically, "a very small sliver" of the proposed site (just less than three feet), is actually located in the city.

The main concerns from the city planners are in the area of land use compatibility.

"All of the land between the 401 and Montreal Road in the City of Cornwall, is zoned for industrial uses. The site is adja-

MP 'mum' on cabinet demotion

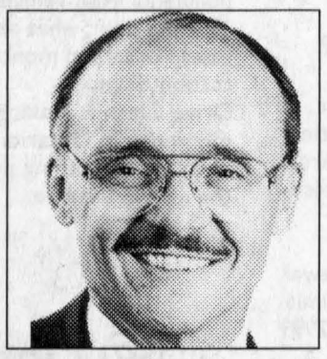
By Kristina Wilson
News Reporter

Glengarry-Prescott-Russell MP Don Boudria has been uncharacteristically tight-lipped this week following his demotion from Public Works.

Callers to his office this week were told that the MP was not available to comment on the weekend's developments.

One of Prime Minister Jean Chrétien's most trusted cabinet ministers, Mr. Boudria had been given the job in Public Works only four months ago, to clean up scandals which erupted under former minister Alfonso Gagliano.

Instead, he found himself embroiled in a scandal of his own, the first of his long political career.



DON BOUDRIA, MP

The controversy surrounds a weekend Mr. Boudria and his family spent at the Eastern Townships chalet of Claude Boulay in March.

Mr. Boulay is the president of the advertising firm Groupe Everest. The company has made substantial donations to the Liberal party and has been awarded many government contracts.

Mr. Boudria claims his family paid for the stay but the cheque was not cashed until after

Fundraisers gear up for CHEO

By Pete Bock
News Correspondent

Students at École St. Bernard had their chairs rocking last Thursday, in an effort to raise money for the Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario (CHEO).

Getting pledges from friends and family, 105 kids collected over $1,300, said Linda Lapointe, organizer of the Maxville school's fund raiser.

They are one of a number of groups in Glengarry trying to contribute to the hospital's telethon, which takes place this weekend.

Last year more than 55,000 patients passed through CHEO's emergency room doors, close to 5,000 went through surgical daycare.

CHEO had more than 1,500 visits from Glengarry residents last year.

The director of communications for its foundation, Len Hanes, said the hospital tries hard to put children at ease.

"CHEO is specially designed to treat kids and kids' problems," Mr. Hanes said

"We take great care in making the children's visit as positive as can be in a child's eyes."

Elementary schools in the French catholic board are donating pennies and change to a wishing well for CHEO. Last year the board raised $12,000.

They are hard at it again this year. Elda Rouleau in Alexandria collected $393.78; Laurier-Carrière in Glen Robertson, $160.50; St. Joseph in Lancaster raised $410; Ste. Marie in Green Valley took in $156.18; Ste. Thérèse, $312.89; while St. Bernard in Maxville raised $85 in change to go along with its rocking contribution.

Alexandria musician Jean Lajoie is holding a Music-thon for the hospital. It got under way May 24 and continues through June 2.

He is at Alexandria Restaurant, doing breakfast, lunch and dinner sessions in the non-smoking room until Friday.

A special menu is available, with a portion of the price going to CHEO.

Mr. Lajoie performs June 1 at the Sacred Heart Parish Hall in Alexandria, from 6 p.m. until midnight.

A spaghetti and ham dinner will be served.

Operator warned MTO of danger before crash

By Kristina Wilson
News Reporter

Ten days before a fatal accident on Highway 417 claimed three lives, Herb's Truck Stop owners Herb, Joanne and Natalie Vinks met with the Ministry of Transportation (MTO) to express their concerns over the unsafe transfer points from two lane to one lane traffic.

At the May 10 meeting – which was held with four representatives from the MTO office in Kingston – Mr. Vinks told the MTO the traffic flow design of the construction project contains "all the ingredients to have fatal accidents."

A little over a week later, he was proved right when a collision between a car and a tractor-trailer travelling in opposite directions occurred at a transfer point, leaving the three occupants in the car dead.

Mr Vinks held a press conference Tuesday afternoon to inform local media of the dangers of the 417 construction.

"It's a funnel of death," he said, referring to the cement guard rails located at transfer points. "There is no way to correct from a bad manoeuvre. Just one mistake and the tragedies could multiply."

Mr. Vinks outlined a number of concerns at the press conference, including the lack of barriers dividing the two lanes of traffic, particularly at the transfer points.

"With tourist season coming up, we need a solution before more people die," he said.

Another of his concerns is that emergency vehicles must take the detour at the McCrimmon exit to gain access to accidents on the highway.

"Even if the ambulance is on standby in my yard...it will take 15 to 30 minutes at minimum to respond to this accident. A normal response time is within eight minutes," he told them.

Among Mr. Vinks's recommendations to the MTO to rectify the problem include removing of misleading signage so that drivers do not attempt to exit illegally, dividing traffic so there is no potential for head-on collisions at the two transfer points and constructing a temporary off-ramp so that eastbound traffic can access the service centre.

He said the MTO has not been receptive to the suggestions.

"The most feasible is the temporary off-ramp," he said, noting it would only take from a few days to a week to install it.

An independent engineer consulted by Mr. Vinks has confirmed that the off-ramp is a viable solution.

If nothing is done, Mr. Vinks said, "come September, we'll count the body bags."

Also present at the meeting were North Glengarry mayor Bill Franklin and Sylvie Wilson on behalf of Glengarry-Prescott-Russell MPP Jean-Marc Lalonde.

Mayor Franklin said the municipality is behind Herb's Truck Stop.

Because Highway 417 is provincial, North Glengarry council "can't do anything because we don't have the authority, but we can add our voice to Herb's in pointing out the inadequacies," he said.

Mayor Franklin said council has visited the problem areas as has roads superintendent Jean-Guy Levert.

"We've reached the same conclusion as Herb."

He added the safety reasons are not the only ones which concern council.

"Economically, we can't afford to lose jobs, and Herb's provides 40. It's about safety and economy for the community and for Herb's. Everyone is getting clipped by this," he said.

Mr. Vinks said he is not worried about any financial losses due to the construction because the provincial government has programs which will compensate his business.

cent to that and is downwind given the prevailing winds. Although industrial controls are better today, and the immediately adjacent industrial uses are low intensity, the zoning could allow more intensive uses in the future," reads the report.

Mr. Bedford addressed these issues at the meeting, as did concerned city resident, Heather Moore.

But Mr. Krajoefski had determined that the suggested separation distances for "sensitive" land uses near industrial uses, more than met Ministry of Environment (MoE) standards.

Mayor Dave MacDonald asked Mr. Bedford if the city, itself, had not rezoned land in the industrial zone to allow for an institution.

"Lincien College was rezoned on Campbell Ave.," admitted Mr. Bedford. "But there was a lot of linkage there with industry."

South Glengarry resident Peter Greene said he thought the site would be "terrific" because co-op education students could walk to work at the nearby industries. This brought up another city concern.

"There is no walkway system in proximity," said Mr. Bedford. "What are the expectations?"

Traffic impact was also a concern. The access to the school will be off Tyotown Road. Mr. Landon said there would be approximately 13 school buses and 60 to 70 staff and student vehicles, and a lay-by had been designed for city buses to drive in.

"We think the traffic impact is going to be minimal," said the realtor.

The application cites that the property will be run on private services, prompting South Glengarry Councillor Janette Abbey to ask whether the site was large enough to meet MoE standards.

"You could put two schools on a site this size," replied Mr. Krajoefski.

The issue of water and sewage services to the site, has been a contentious one. Earlier expectations were that the city would extend its services to the east side of Boundary Road.

"Is it a definite no [that the city won't service the land]?" asked Mayor MacDonald.

Mr. Bedford said the application had been made proposing private services. However, according to a report in a local daily on Monday, Mr. Landon said that the school board had not yet heard definitively on its request to connect to city services and that a meeting between the city and the board on the issue would be held

No decision will be made at present about the OP and rezoning amendments. The township's planning report and the comments made by those with concerns will go to South Glengarry's Planning Advisory Committee (PAC) for review and then will return to council at a later date for its decision.

Admission is $15 and reservations are required.

The fund raiser wraps up on June 2 with a brunch, again at the parish hall, from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Admission is $5 per person and children eat at a discounted price.

CHEO is dear to Mr. Lajoie's heart, as he witnessed his granddaughter recover in their care a couple of years ago.

The Brandi MacDonald golf tournament enters its 10th season this year and is Glengarry's biggest fundraiser for CHEO. It is held the last Saturday in August, taking place this year on Aug. 24.

Tournament organizer Dan Giroux said a cheque for $65,000 from last year's tournament will be presented at the telethon on Sunday at 2:21 p.m.

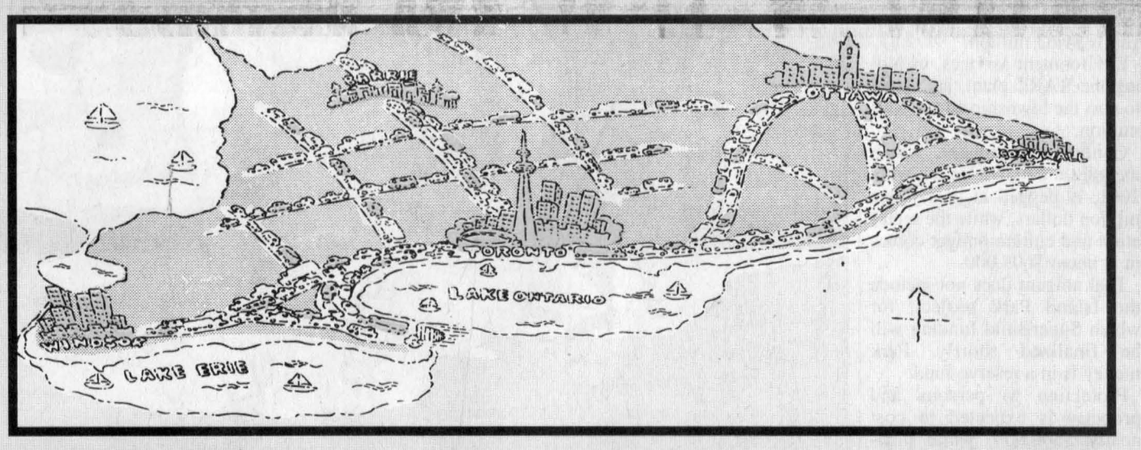
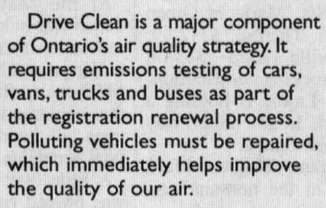
Smog is more than a Toronto problem.
That's why Drive Clean is coming here.



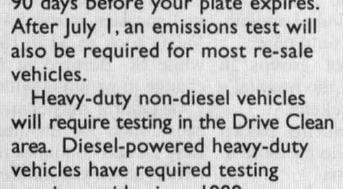
As many as 1 out of 5 vehicles isn't up to standard.
Smog is everyone's concern. In Ontario, the largest local source of smog-causing pollutants is vehicles. By properly maintaining them, we can all do something positive for the air we breathe.

On July 1, the Drive Clean program is expanding to reduce smog-causing emissions and other pollutants throughout the southern Ontario smog zone from Windsor to Ottawa.



Drive Clean is a major component of Ontario's air quality strategy. It requires emissions testing of cars, vans, trucks and buses as part of the registration renewal process. Polluting vehicles must be repaired, which immediately helps improve the quality of our air.

Will your car need a test?
If you have a light-duty vehicle more than three model years old and less than 20 in the Drive Clean program area, you will require an emissions test every two years to renew the licence plate. In the expansion area, this applies to vehicles with licence expiry dates on or after July 1.



You will receive a notice of the emissions test requirement up to 90 days before your plate expires. After July 1, an emissions test will also be required for most re-sale vehicles.

Heavy-duty non-diesel vehicles will require testing in the Drive Clean area. Diesel-powered heavy-duty vehicles have required testing province-wide since 1999.

How to get a Drive Clean test.
Once you receive a notice that your vehicle requires a test, or if you want to sell a vehicle, take it to an accredited Drive Clean facility. These facilities will begin operating in the expansion area in April.

What happens after the test?
If you pass, you're ready when it's time to renew your licence or transfer ownership. If your vehicle does not meet emissions standards, it will require repairs and a re-test.

If it fails the re-test, the Repair Cost Limit may help you get a conditional pass for licence renewal. You can look for Repair Cost Limit information by calling 1-888-758-2999 or by visiting our website.

Will Drive Clean really work?
Drive Clean is already working – and this new expansion will make it work even better. In its first two years in the Toronto and Hamilton areas, it has reduced smog-causing pollutants from vehicles by 11.5 per cent, while also reducing gases like carbon monoxide and carbon dioxide.
Drive Clean is making a real difference in Ontario by letting us all do something positive for the air we breathe.

Pioneer museum gears up to celebrate its 40th year

BY PETE BOCK
News Correspondent

A man from as far away as Minnesota was on hand as the Glengarry Pioneer Museum, in Dunvegan, opened its doors Saturday for its 40th season.

"There are probably 120 Rowes out of Riceville," said Bob Rowe, who lives in St. Paul, and is vacationing in the area.

"My great-grandfather married a Cameron out of Roxborough, so I'm here studying my family, especially the Cameron side.

"I think the museum is wonderful, I'm standing in a building (The Star Inn) that no doubt my ancestors visited. I'm getting a kick out of it."

Those with ties to the museum encourage everyone to enjoy its offerings. Dane Lanken, who chairs the local historical society believes, "the founders would be delighted to see all the progress that has been made over the years."

To celebrate the 40th year, the museum is pulling something from its past and preparing to put something away for its future.

Clay figurines depicting the settlers, done by the museum's first curator, Christine Ferguson, have been borrowed from their home at Laggan School and are on display.

The museum is also hosting a time capsule contest. They plan to accept submissions throughout the summer of artwork, stories, ideas, small objects, and photos for placement in the time capsule.

Residents and visitors are being asked to record what life is like today, so that it can be celebrated during the museum's 80th anniversary in 2038.

Chosen participants will be posted in the museum on the Thanksgiving weekend.

A variety of events take place this summer including special family gatherings.

The Clan MacLeod Picnic is June 9, while Clan MacMillan visits Sept. 28.

The annual book sale, the museum's major fundraiser, takes place July 13-14. Last year it featured 15,000 titles.

Olivier Hamelin and Horse Day is Aug. 25. The late Mr. Hamelin had the last operating blacksmith shop in Eastern Ontario, according to Pioneer Museum volunteer chairperson, Bonnie Lang. She said the blacksmith shop was moved from Apple Hill last year, and that a blacksmith was on hand at last year's event to demonstrate the art.

Feis Glengarry, a Celtic festival will be held Sept. 14 and the museum's Fall Festival takes place Sept. 29.

The closing weekend is Oct. 12 to 14.

Until July, the museum is open weekends and holiday Mondays from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. During July and August, it is open daily, except Monday s from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

From Labour Day to Thanksgiving, the weekend hours return.

Admission is $3 for adults, children under 12 are free.

The museum is located in Dunvegan at the crossroads of Greenfield (County Road 30) and Dunvegan (County Road 24).

YOUTH CENTRE CAR WASH: With plenty of elbow grease and the generous support of both the Alexandria Richelieu Club and the Alexandria Canadian Tire Store, The North Glengarry Youth Centre benefitted from the proceeds raised at a car wash and barbecue held Saturday. Over $1000 was raised. Hard at work were Terra Sabourin, Alysha Lalonde, Andrew Collard, Stephan Fortin and Lisa St. Denis.

THE RCMP MUSICAL RIDE: Well over 2000 people filled the grandstands at the Kenyon Agricultural Fairgrounds in Maxville, Sunday. Performing a variety of cavalry drills choreographed to music, the troop of 32 horses and riders delighted the crowd with their skill and an abundance of colour. Retired major, Grant MacGillvray, who served in World War 2 and who now resides in the Maxville Manor, was an honoured guest at the occasion. He gave the ride pass salute. Proceeds from the event are to be used to assist with Glengarry Highland Games' infrastructure improvements.

Mixed reaction to new school

BY PETE BOCK
News Correspondent

The construction of a new French Catholic elementary school in Glengarry is being met with mixed emotions by parents and school councils.

The new structure, to accommodate 300 to 350 students, will include space for those who currently attend Saint-Joseph in Lancaster, Sainte-Marie in Green Valley and Sainte-Thérèse in North Lancaster. These three schools will close.

Some are thrilled with the news. School council president of École Sainte-Marie, Sylvie Cadieux believes it is great for the community. "I'm totally in favour of it," she said.

"It is better for the students. They may be able to have things like a music program and better extra-curricular activities with more students attending."

Others, like council president for Sainte-Thérèse, Diane Glaude, are upset and frustrated. She worked on a viability report for the North Lancaster school. The study showed that the school population was growing and that it was a profitable operation, according to board numbers.

"I am very disappointed," Ms. Glaude said. "We thought our input had some value on the decision-making process. I feel as though I wasted my time.

"Trustees voted in December not to close the three schools, but then the school board came back and said we won't close them, but we will try to get funding to build a new school. I definitely feel betrayed."

Pat Dussault, president of the school council at Saint-Joseph in Lancaster, feels the school board had a tough decision to make and avoided it.

"A couple of years ago the board came to us to explain a school needed to be closed," Mr. Dussault said. "Everybody was asked, and then worked at (justifying), why their school should be kept open. In the end everybody agreed one needed to go, but said don't close mine. My personal feeling is the root of the problem hasn't been addressed, because the board should have shut one school and left two open."

Mr. Dussault is concerned about the dent put on a community with the loss of a school adding, "with the present situation, two or three areas may lose. What if they put the new school in Williamstown."

Diane Glaude is a believer in small schools. She asked, "Where does it say bigger is better? In a small school, the students feel as though they are in a big family. I don't think that sense of bonding will happen in a bigger school."

The director of education for the Catholic board, Jean-Jacques Legault says there is no overturning the decision to close the three schools and open the new one.

Many parents including Julie Rouette Hope, who has a child attending École Sainte-Marie, feel the board made the proper decision and that bridges need to be mended.

"I sympathize with the parents who are emotionally attached to their schools," Ms. Rouette-Hope said. "I think we need to regroup and understand there are not enough of our kids for the three schools.

"With the new school, there will be many more resources available for our children. As a parent, I'd much rather see my children in a single level classroom," she continued.

"The new curriculum is much more demanding, it is practically impossible for the teacher to fulfill the demands of the curriculum with the triple level. Such a set-up is not advantageous to our children.

"Some parents call a school with 300 students a mega-school, but I see it as a medium-sized school. With that size, I think it is possible to make a new school family."

An excess of deer on the roads make for dangerous driving conditions

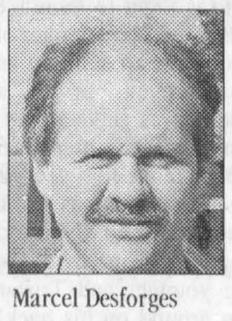
STRAIGHT TALK

Accidents on the road involving deer are up 100 per cent. Are you seeing more deer and/or wildlife by the roadside? What is your opinion of the idea of culling the herd?

— Pete Bock

Richard Fenwick



Marcel Desforges

Debra Aitken

Al Evans, Greenfield

My sister hit a deer. It cost her $5200 in repairs to her Suzuki – it is like a small jeep.

I live on the 6th of Kenyon and there are lots of deer. A neighbour had a deer walk by his living-room window. The same neighbour was working in the garden, when his dog started barking. He looked up, a moose was coming up his driveway.

I think it is a good idea to cull them, because if the herd gets too big come winter time they will be starving. This is a kinder way to do it.

Gerald De Repentigny, Apple Hill

Yes I'm seeing more deer this year. I spend time in the bush cutting trees. My mother has a woodlot that I manicure.

If I go to the bush, I'll see deer four out of 10 times, on average.

I'm seeing them on the road too, especially on my drive to Cornwall. There were two killed south of Apple Hill on the s-curve, around May 18.

I think the way they should control the herd is by giving out more doe tags.

Catherine Van den Oetelaar, Alexandria

Yes for sure, more than last year. Last weekend I saw four on the side of Highway 43 near Lakeshore Road.

My mom saw close to 20 also on 43.

I don't think they should take steps to reduce the number of deer. Drivers should be more cautious, I like having the wildlife around.

Richard Fenwick, North Lancaster

I have an apple orchard, I have seen them on occasion on my own property. Several hunters take deer off my property in the back.

My wife points out deer when we are driving. I have seen them between here and Maxville when I go to work.

I have been away for 11 years, so I can't compare one year to the next. I lived near Sudbury where there were horrific accidents with moose. So if the Ministry of Natural Resources thinks the numbers are high, I am for culling the herd.

Marcel Desforges, Summerstown

I see a lot of deer. I've seen them on Airport Road and Paragon Road and the 401. I see two or three or four at a time.

I think the numbers are up. I think it would be a good idea to extend the hunting season. I slow down when I see them. I also have whistles on my truck and car, that I got at the Dollar Store – apparently they work.

Debra Aitken, Brown House

I do see a lot of deer. I don't know why they are coming out more – maybe it is the weather, maybe it is to search for food and our roadways are in their way.

I love my wildlife. I also know people who hunt deer for food. The people I know are old-timers, who know what they are doing in the bush, they make clean kills.

My friends are saying there are more deer, but they don't think it is up where they used to be.

I believe people should be more cautious.They should be understanding they are sharing the road with wildlife.

I enjoy going out for a drive and seeing the deer, that is why I live in the country.

Our man in Ottawa

"I am hurt but I am not slaine;
Ile lay mee downe and bleed a-while
And then Ile rise and ffight againe."
– Sir Andrew Barton

Call our MP Don Boudria what you like, but one thing he is not, is a quitter. The fact that he has stepped aside – appropriately we might add – as Public Works Minister is a blip in a career that otherwise had known few setbacks.

Now that he has been returned to his posting as House Leader, however, we expect that he will soothe his wounds by throwing himself even more so – if that's possible – into the work of his constituency.

And that's good news for Glengarry-Prescott-Russell as we suspect that there are few among the 299 MPs currently in the House of Commons who devote as much of their time and energy to the needs of their constituents.

As mentioned on occasion in this space, it is well-known that Mr. Boudria is not a man burdened by issues of policy. But if you want something done – whether it's as mundane as attending a golf club's 40th anniversary on a summer Saturday night, or as all-consuming as driving endlessly through those dark days of winter during the Ice Storm to deliver much-needed supplies to the stricken – Mr. Boudria is the man to call.

He knows which levers to pull in Ottawa and he is not afraid to use them at the behest of his constituents.

That, unfortunately, is one of the few tangible jobs that MPs actually perform, once elected.

Other than those select few, like Mr. Boudria, who receive cabinet positions, most MPs unfortunately reflect the derisive definition once made by the late Prime Minister, Pierre Trudeau, who demissed them as "nobodies" once outside the House of Commons.

The sad reality is that while many of them talk about the important issues of the day while on the campaign hustings, once in office they are reduced to that of being mere puppets, voting by rote at the the Prime Minister's direction.

In that regard, Mr. Boudria is not unlike any of his contemparies in the House, past or present. He has been a good foot soldier and undoubtedly that spared him the total indignity of being relegated to that of being a mere backbencher as is the case with Defence Minister Art Eggleton.

At the same time, there are some who will find comfort in the knowledge that the man who made his mark as a member of the infamous Rat Pack, relentlessly dogging the Brian Mulroney government for its shortcomings, has been struck down by the same process.

Although it may seem trite at times, the popular saying, "what goes around, comes around," has always been particularly apropos in the world of politics. In that regard, we expect it will also hold true in this riding. Mr. Boudria may drop some support in the short term but most of his constituents will not soon forget all the good he's done.

The Imperial PM

One of the most contradictory elements of our system of federal government – known quaintly as a parliamentary democracy – is the absolute power vested in the office of the Prime Minister.

Prime Ministers are not elected directly by anyone, much less the people, but once they are vested with the powers of the office, nothing short of a full-fledged mutiny or the limitations of minority government can bring one down until they decide to call an election or have used up the full five years allotted to any one government.

It's not without reason that most all of the holders of the most powerful, elected office in the world – the American presidency – have lamented the fact that they hold much less tangible power than their obscure Canadian counterparts.

Part of the curious relationship between Members of Parliament (MP) and the Prime Minister (PM) is that a PM is totally beholden to MPs during the process of winning office but rarely demonstrates much gratitude once comfortably ensconced in power.

During an election they may be the leader of their party but on the ballot in their constituency they appear simply as another candidate for election as Member of Parliament.

Then everything changes, even the letters referring to their political station. They are no longer just an MP but now PM, but the transposition of the letters is the least representative element of the change in position and authority.

Like a Queen Bee living off the avails of her drones, the Prime Minister becomes totally omnipotent by virtue of the power vested in the office.

Unlike the U.S. President who must share power with the Congress and the Judiciary, Prime Ministers know few such constraints. There is an Imperial quality to the manner in which ministers are summoned and dismissed, not unlike that which royalty once employed in dealing with members of their court.

Still it could be worse. As our Prime Minister alluded to this past week, his position has powers similar to that of a dictator. Hopefully he was just sending a warning to cabinet members to shape up.

Thorns & Thistles

THORN – Students protest new curriculum.

The walkout at Le Relais and, to a lesser extent, Glengarry District High School reminds us of our misspent youth in the 60s – students manning the barricades to protest war in Vietnam and other big issues.

Thankfully the walkout wasn't over something quite as significant, not that the school curriculum shouldn't be 'top of the list' for students.

Still, making secondary school tougher is not entirely a bad thing, given the significance it will play in future life.

We need to make our kids more competitive with their counterparts in other countries because they are going to have to do compete in the future at the job level.

As well, Ontario is the last province to adopt a four-year high school curriculum.

It's going to be a tough world out there, kids. You may not have it quite as easy as your parents did. Better you get some grounding now rather than when you get older and it's tougher to deal with change.

THISTLE – OPP to have in-car, life-saving equipment.

Some time in the next couple of months, members of SDG OPP will be better equipped to save lives on this area's roadways thanks to plans to install defibrillator's in police cruisers.

The defibrillator is a life-saving tool which restarts hearts that stop and can be used to monitor individuals en route to hospital giving doctors a head start upon arrival in treating patients.

Given the distances that must be covered in this area, both factors alone could make the difference between life and death.

Hopefully implementation of the program will be sooner than later, given that it's a matter of life or death.

THORN – Deer accidents on rise in SDG.

As if there isn't enough mayhem on the roads these days, what with aggressive drivers and their like, now we have to keep an eagle eye or two out for deer.

The worst part, as anyone who has encountered deer on a road can tell you, is that it's next to impossible to predict what will happen.

At the very least, it seems likely that an increased hunt may be needed. If that's the case, we like the idea proposed by South Glengarry Mayor Dave MacDonald that certain deer tags be allotted for use to provide meat for the local food bank.

Ironically, some of the reasons given for increase in the deer population include the ice storm, which destroyed many mature trees making way for smaller trees and bushes to grow – the type of vegetation that deer thrive on.

And then there are new rural residents who don't farm and are allowing their fields to grow wild to the benefit of the deer population.

Clearly, nothing related to nature happens in a vacuum. There are always some unanticipated results.

THISTLE – R.A.R.E. gears up for garbage tags.

Most of Ontario has been living with tagged garbage for some time so it should come as no surprise that North Glengarry is joining the parade.

The idea, of course, is not to make residents pay for garbage but to encourage them to be more pro-active in terms of recycling.

The more garbage that is recycled, the less that will have to go into the landfill dumps.

By giving residents two tags per week, the onus now shifts from the municipality to the citizen. And that's the right approach in the long run.

Naturally, there will be some adjustment and there is concern that some families will need more than two tags per week. To make it easier R.A.R.E. has even expanded the list of products now eligible to be recycled.

Still, it's only fair that those who create more garbage should have to pay for it.

Regardless of how much one pays in taxes, whether directly as a resident-owner or through one's rent, there can be no correlation between total taxes and how much garbage is produced at each residence. And that's the way it should be.

IMAGES FROM OUR PAST: Gas prices aren't quite the same today as they were back in the 1950s when Albert Aubin operated his garage and sold BA gas in Martintown. Back then both 88 (regular) and 98 (super) were sold in gallons and the price was at most a tenth of what you pay today for the much smaller litre.

He ain't Evvy, he's my brother

BY ROBIN MORRIS

I'm dedicating this week's screed to my younger son, Evan, who is undergoing a profound change in his life and in the process is losing his best friend. He's just turned 13, is in grade seven, and for some reason completely unfathomed by him, his world has been turned upside down.

It's all because of his older brother, Tristan, 17, a grade 12 student has just been discovered by the opposite sex, although why it's taken this long is anyone's guess.

He's a strikingly good-looking kid. Dark flashing eyes hooded by lashes that a model would kill for. Square-of-jaw with a pronounced cleft and dimples as deep as sinkholes when he smiles. Which is a lot. Solidly built but without any pretensions of athleticism. Kind, thoughtful, quiet, generous and honest to a fault. Just like his old man, except for the good looking, kind and honest parts.

He is night to Evan's day. Wally to his Beaver. The younger one is as brash as summer, all sunlight and blond hair and blue-eyed, but with a temper that comes on as suddenly as a July thunderstorm. Takes after his mother.

Despite the four years between them they are as tight as brothers are supposed to be, no Cain and Abel under this roof. We used to joke when they were younger and Tristan would cart Evan around on his back, telling him, "He ain't Evvy, he's your brother." What larks, eh Pip?

But a wedge has been driven between them and will continue to push them apart until Evan's hormones turn into the maelstrom that is adolescence.

In short, girls have started coming to our house. Telephoning at all hours of the day and night. E-mailing and ICQ'ing as they strive to be Isolde to our Tristan.

A pair of little grade nine Jezebels have insinuated their way to our dinner table on a couple of occasions, much to Evan's disgust. As president of the local chapter of the Manly Woman Haters' Club, Evan and his grade seven buddies do what little boys are supposed to do: they play video games. They watch the WWF and their conversations are earnest discussions of the merits of N64 over Sony Playstation and whether Steve "Stone Cold" Austin could take the Rock in a street fight.

Their world excludes persons of the opposite gender, except for their mothers, who have no gender, and their teachers, who, yecchh, are TEACHERS, not people.

It's not that he hasn't been the object of affection of some of the little vixens in his class, but he won't answer the phone now until Caller ID is activated and if we answer and it's a girl from his class, he'll roll his eyes, make motions of sticking his finger down his throat, tell them he's gotta go and then high-tail it back up to the den to watch Raw is War for the thousandth time.

He's on the Internet at 7:30 a.m. every day to get the overnight update on professional wrestling so that when his buddy calls for him for school promptly at 8:15 they can discuss the latest developments in that special world peopled by pre-pubescent boys.

But now this world is under siege.

Until a few months ago, Tristan was, if not a card-carrying member, at least an affiliate of the MWHC, preferring a bowl of Kraft dinner and a Seinfeld re-run to female company. But now the worm has turned. Turned so far, in fact, that on Saturday he went shopping for clothes for the first time in his life, coming back from a mall with bags of what passes for fashion among 17-year-olds these days. (Oddly enough, orange seems to be making a comeback. I had fervently hoped that it had gone into permanent hiatus after the '70s but what can you do when one of the biggest hits on television is That '70s Show?)

Given the choice of going to the States for supper with Tristan's lady friends in tow or staying home and microwaving a TV dinner, Ev recently opted for the Salisbury steak and apple crumble rather than share a car ride over and back with these interlopers. (We made it up to him the following week, taking him and two of his buddies on a Three Amigos trip to Sholette's where they gorged themselves on giant soft pretzels and pizza washed down with endless glasses of Pepsi in the confines of their private booth while I watched from a safe distance – safe, that is, in that it was closer to the draft taps.)

He just can't get his mind around the fact that his older brother would prefer the company of outsiders, people who know absolutely nothing about wrestling, who don't understand the intricacies of the two handed grip on the game controller, and who fail to find his supper table monologues hilariously funny.

Why would his brother abandon him, forget all the good times they had together and throw him over for some mindless giggling bimbo?

Has the bond of brotherhood been so weakened that it can be snapped by alien beings, creatures so strange to his understanding that they could have come out of an episode of the X-Files, except this is a case in which truth is stranger than fiction? Does the innocence of youth count for so little that it can be cast aside so thoughtlessly?

Jeez, Ev, ask me in a couple of years. I figure you'll have the answers by then. And gimme that controller.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Compassion, yes...

In reply to Ms. Bentley's letter of May 15, I'm no authority on the matter and admit my beliefs don't seem to fit today's perceptions, but I do not believe a majority of those who espouse the alternative lifestyle were born that way.

The onset of puberty is a traumatic experience for most children. Self-consciousness, self-doubt, fear and embarrassment are an acute part of this experience. At this period of their lives, many are especially vulnerable to predators.

I believe many of these young people have been severely traumatized from contact with a pedophile. As such we agree they need sympathy, compassion and all the help we can give. In reality it frequently happened that people they depend upon refuse to believe them and order them to remain silent. They must learn to cope with it on their own.

Victims of pedophiles have no standing in today's judicial system. The only fallback they have is their parents. As a concerned parent and grandparent I react with anger to the constant barrage of propaganda society is being subjected to on behalf of the alternative lifestyle. Compassion and tolerance I have in plenty. Approval is something else.

A. Macdonell / Williamstown.

No proof

I would like to answer the letter of Mrs H. Bentley headed "Not a Matter of Choice" in The Glengarry News of May 15.

Up to the present time, there has been no proof of any kind that homosexuality is something a person is born with. In spite of great efforts to find a "homosexual" gene or any other preconditions leading to homosexuality, none has ever been found. It, like other sexual perversions, is developed after birth through social and psychological developments which are often unpredictable. At the present we cannot say how a person develops homosexual tendencies. However, many who wished to get rid of thses tendencies have been cured through specialized counselling and therapy. It is very much in the interest of society that this be encouraged.

Although there is no scientific evidence of how exactly, a homosexual develops, nevertheless it is the task of all responsible adults to do whatever they can to make a child grow up normal and happy. It is no kindness to let a child grow up as a homosexual. Any homosexual or organization of homosexuals engaged in "normalizing" or encouraging their way of life is guilty of great injustice.

To give just a few examples of why the homosexual life should not be followed: Diseases, including sexually-transmitted diseases, are much more common among homosexuals. We only have to remember AIDS which, in North America, is pretty well a homosexual disease; homosexuals as a group are disproportionately over-represented among pedophiles (sex with boys under 16). Studies have shown that homosexuals are about 30 times more likely to offend in this respect than non-homosexual pedophiles (sex with girls under 16); the suicide rate among homosexuals is higher than that among normal people; the life span of homosexuals is much shorter – due to their hazardous lifestyle, they die much earlier than the gener-

Local talent helps new division grow

By Todd Anderson
News Reporter

In its first year of operation, a local business-to-business telemarketing team of five agents completed 25 projects, and made more than 150,000 outbound phone calls for clients in the Canadian hospitality and tourism industry.

The teleservices operation is a division of Greenfield Hospitality Services Inc., which relocated in Alexandria a year ago after partners Doreen Ashton Wagner and Heinz Wagner moved back to their home area in 1999 following a 14-year stint in Toronto.

"We named the business after Greenfield because that's where we're from," said Mrs. Wagner.

Mrs. Wagner said there is another huge benefit to having the business located in Alexandria.

"One of the largest advantages is the availability of bilingual people here. We have people who can speak French confidently to clients from Quebec. New Brunswick businesses have a large bilingual base too but we have an advantage being so close to Ottawa and Montreal."

The role of agents Louise Gauthier, Brenda Hay Reis, Melissa Lowe, Corrina DaPrato and Glengarry District High School student Melanie MacCulloch is to collect information in databases provided from clients and schedule conferences and other meetings.

From there the agents do various things such as set up meetings or conventions for their clients.

Greenfield has worked with companies across Canada including Atlantic Resorts in the Maritimes and Tourism Whistler in British Columbia.

Other Greenfield clients include notables such as Rogers Media, Kostuch Publications, the Renaissance Hotel at Skydome, the Ottawa Marriott, the Toronto Marriott Bloor-Yorkville and Meetings Prince Edward Island.

Greenfield is striving to continue to serve the needs of hospitality and tourism organizations and also plans to venture into the American marketplace.

"We anticipate doubling our business levels in the next year," said Doreen Ashton Wagner, managing director, marketing services for Greenfield.

"With publishing, for instance, we will build on the experience we earned executing data verification projects for the likes of Rogers Media and Kostuch Publications. The association market is another natural; our services are ideal for organizations looking to sell booth space at tradeshows, support a membership recruitment campaign or survey members on a critical issue. And our lower cost of operation in Eastern Ontario does mean that we are extremely competitive, not only in the Canadian market, but also for U.S. clients."

Greenfield is currently searching for new premises in Alexandria because their current office at 139 Main Street South has been sold.

al population. Also, violence among homosexuals is widespread, most of it violence inflicted on homosexuals by each other.

What I would like to know is why anyone would want to encourage a child to become part of such a hazardous and and life-threatening way of living. We don't encourage our chiuldren to become drug addicts, to smoke and drink or become criminally active. Let us not close our eyes to the harm that will come to our children when homosexuality becomes an option. Mrs. Bentley's advice would lead some of our young people to lead a life of unhappiness, disorder and ill-health.

Boudria

opposition members raised the issue in the House of Commons.

Denis Ethier, former Liberal MP for the area, told The News he feels Mr. Boudria will bounce back from the controversy.

"I'm not disappointed in him, but disappointed at what happened. I still say he is one of the most honest politicians we've ever had. I think it was an error in judgment to accept that (the chalet)," he said.

"Well, we lose in one way because he was one of the most influential ministers, (being) in public works, but we gained in another way for the riding because he'll be closer to us."

While Prime Minister Chrétien and Mr. Boudria deny any conflict-of-interest on the former Public Works minister's part, both agree Mr. Boudria did use poor judgment by staying at the Boulay cottage.

"I'm glad at least (Prime Minister) Chretien recognized his value and kept him in cabinet," Mr. Ethier concluded.

"It is my sincere hope that after a certain time he'll get back into the higher echelon of cabinet. I'm sure of that."

OPP's 2002 business plan presented

By Kristina Wilson
News Reporter

SDG OPP will continue to target speeding in built-up areas and preventing break and enters.

This is the message Staff Sergeant Mike Aho delivered to North Glengarry council when he presented the OPP's 2002 business plan.

As with their highly successful 2001 business plan, the OPP will continue to focus on reducing speeding as well as educating the public on the prevention of break and enters. An additional focus will be to increase police presence in the communities through foot patrols.

Sgt. Aho also asked for council's support in implementing a false alarm bylaw at the United Counties level. In 2000 and 2001, 100 per cent of the alarm calls to which SDG OPP responded were actual false alarms. Usually, he explained, three-quarters of a per cent turn out to be actual alarms.

"It's often human error," he said, "and alarm owners have to be accountable for their own alarm system."

Sgt. Aho estimated false alarms cost SDG ratepayers $190,000 a year.

"We have to dispatch two cars, check the scene, wait for the key holder to arrive if they are not already there, make our report and clear it through the communication centre. If we had officers responding to false alarms full-time, we would have to hire two people."

The proposed bylaw would see alarm owners register their alarm systems and pay a fee of one dollar a month over 3 years, or $36.

Sgt. Aho said the money would cover all costs involved with responding to false alarms without driving up the cost of policing services for all residents.

By registering their alarm systems, owners would also have to inform police if they own firearms or dogs.

"It's for officer safety. In case it is a real break and enter, we have to know if there are firearms in the building the criminals could have access to."

Council passed a motion supporting the proposed bylaw, which will be forwarded to the United Counties.

Details emerge in fiery 417 crash

By Kristina Wilson
News Reporter

All three occupants of the vehicle which swerved into the path of a tractor-trailer on Highway 417 last Monday evening have been identified.

A 1994 Honda Civic was carrying driver Margherita Rapagna, 33, of Beaconsfield and passengers Lara Riente, 32 of Montreal and Kavita Kulkarni, 22, also of Montreal. Dental records were used to identify the victims.

The three were retuning to Montreal from a weekend stay in Ottawa, when, for unknown reasons, the vehicle veered into the path of a 1999 Freightliner tractor-trailer.

The tractor-trailer was driven by Archibald Aubin, 42, of Lunenburg, Ont. Mr. Aubin sustained a fracture to one of his arms and was transferred to Ottawa hospital from Glengarry Memorial.

The accident occurred at 4:45 p.m. on May 20. A stretch of Hwy. 417 between the McCrimmon and County Road 34 exits was closed for more than 24 hours.

The road surface where the collision occurred had to be resurfaced, as the fire caused considerable damage to the asphalt. The vehicles were not removed from the scene until 6:30 a.m. on May 21.

Although the collision took place in the westbound lanes, Ms. Rapagna's vehicle was eastbound as the area is currently under construction. The westbound lanes are being used as a two-lane east-west access as the actual eastbound lanes are under repair.

When the Honda Civic veered into the path of the tractor-trailer, both vehicles erupted into flames and were destroyed.

The investigation is ongoing. Police are asking any witnesses to call 1-888-310-1122 or 613-828-9171 with information.

HÔPITAL GLENGARRY MEMORIAL HOSPITAL
Ranked 4th most cost efficient hospital in Ontario

A summary of 2000-2001 financial data was recently released to hospitals by the Joint Policy and Planning Committee (JPPC). This Committee is a partnership between the Ministry of Health and the Ontario Hospital Association. One of the main goals of the Committee is to provide comparative reports indicating a hospital's cost efficiency in order to encourage cost effective practices.

For the 2000-2001 fiscal year Hôpital Glengarry Memorial Hospital was ranked 4th best amongst 150 hospitals. This was an improvement from the 1999-2000 fiscal year where Hôpital Glengarry Memorial Hospital was ranked 14th best amongst 148 hospitals. The formula developed by the JPPC is so sophisticated that all hospitals, no matter the size, can be fairly compared.

The formula not only takes into account the total volume of patients treated, but also the acuity of all patients treated. Every diagnosis is reported to the government, plus demographic information of the population served such as age, gender, economic status, all of which affects the formula. Hospitals submit financial and patient data to the Ministry of Health on a regular basis. Strict reporting guidelines exist for this data.

The overall result at Hôpital Glengarry Memorial Hospital indicates that the actual cost per case was $634 or 29% less than the expected cost. There were 2,644 cases. Multiplying these figures means that Hôpital Glengarry Memorial Hospital saved the Government of Ontario $1,676,296 in 2000/2001.

These excellent results are directly related to restructuring initiatives that the Board of Directors implemented in 1993 followed by continued team efforts by both hospital and medical staff that all led to better use of our health care dollars. Fortunately, these initiatives coincided with the eventual and unprecedented funding cuts by the Ministry of Health in 1996/97 and 1997/98.

Last year the Ministry of Health funded hospitals based on efficiency as recommended by the JPPC. Hôpital Glengarry Memorial Hospital was rewarded for its efforts and will finish the year with a small surplus. However, in the fiscal year that started April 1, 2002, expenses will continue to increase from new union and non-union settlements, plus, costly new drugs and point-of-care testing are utilized more often. Subsequently, additional funding will be required because there are no more departments within the hospital that can be reduced without affecting patient care.

The Board is hopeful that the Ministry of Health will continue to reward hospitals like Hôpital Glengarry Memorial Hospital that are deemed to be efficient but are still struggling financially before allocating across-the-board funding increases to all hospitals.

Congratulations to all hospital staff, medical staff and volunteers for a job well done.

COMMUNIQUÉ
Le 29 mai 2002
L'HÔPITAL GLENGARRY MEMORIAL HOSPITAL
s'est classé 4e pour le rapport coût-efficacité en Ontario

Le comité mixte des politiques et de la planification a présenté un sommaire des données financières de 2000-2001 aux hôpitaux récemment. Ce comité est un partenariat du ministère de la Santé et des Soins de longue durée et de l'Association des hôpitaux de l'Ontario. Un des principaux objectifs du comité consiste à fournir des rapports comparant le rapport coût-efficacité des hôpitaux avec celui de leurs pairs dans le but d'encourager les pratiques rentables.

Pour l'exercice 2000-2001, l'Hôpital Glengarry Memorial Hospital s'est classé 4e sur 150 hôpitaux. Il s'agit là d'une amélioration pour l'Hôpital Glengarry Memorial Hospital par rapport à l'exercice de 1999-2000, où il s'était classé 14e sur 148 hôpitaux. La formule utilisée par le comité mixte est tellement perfectionnée qu'il est possible de comparer équitablement tous les hôpitaux entre eux.

Non seulement cette formule tient-elle compte du volume de patients traités, mais elle tient également compte du degré d'acuité de tous les cas. Chaque diagnostic est signalé au gouvernement, tout comme les données démographiques relatives à la population desservie comme l'âge, le sexe et la situation économique, car ces données ont toutes une incidence sur la formule. Les hôpitaux présentent des données financières et des données sur les patients au ministère de la Santé et des Soins de longue durée de façon régulière. Il existe des lignes directrices rigoureuses pour la présentation de ces données.

Les résultats globaux pour l'Hôpital Glengarry Memorial Hospital indiquent que les coûts directs réels des soins aux patients étaient de 634 $, soit 29 % en deça des coûts prévus. Il y a eu 2 644 cas. Si l'on convertit ce pourcentage en dollars, cela signifie que l'Hôpital Glengarry Memorial Hospital a économisé la somme de 1 676 296 $ au gouvernement de l'Ontario en 2000-2001.

Ces excellents résultats sont directement liés aux initiatives de restructuration entreprises par le Conseil d'administration, en 1993, ainsi qu'aux efforts déployés par la suite par le personnel médical et hospitalier. Tous ces efforts ont permis de faire une meilleure utilisation des fonds affectés aux soins de santé. Heureusement, ces initiatives coïncidaient avec les réductions financières ultérieures et sans précédent mises en oeuvre par le ministère de la Santé et des Soins de longue durée en 1996-1997 et en 1997-1998.

L'année dernière, le ministère de la Santé et des Soins de longue durée a subventionné les hôpitaux en fonction de leur efficacité, selon les recommandations émises par le comité mixte. L'Hôpital Glengarry Memorial Hospital a été récompensé pour les efforts déployés. De plus, nous terminerons l'exercice avec un léger surplus. Par contre, les coûts continueront de croître au cours de l'exercice financier qui a débuté le 1er avril 2002, en raison des conventions conclues avec les syndicats et le personnel non syndiqué ainsi que du prix des nouveaux médicaments et des analyses effectuées au point de service qu'on utilise maintenant plus souvent. Des fonds supplémentaires seront donc nécessaires, car toute autre réduction de service à l'hôpital s'avère impossible sans que cela n'ait une incidence sur les soins aux patients.

Le Conseil d'administration espère que le ministère de la Santé et des Soins de longue durée continuera à récompenser d'abord les hôpitaux comme l'Hôpital Glengarry Memorial Hospital qui sont jugés efficaces, mais qui continuent à éprouver des difficultés financières avant d'aller de l'avant avec le financement général sans distinction à tous les hôpitaux comme c'était le cas dans les années passées.

Nous félicitons tout le personnel médical et hospitalier ainsi que les bénévoles pour ce beau travail.

Firefighters wanted right here in Martintown

MARTINTOWN
VIRGINIA WINN
528-4379 uwinn@cnwl.igs.net

Here is an opportunity to serve your community and be trained for a potentially hot career! The Martintown Fire Department is looking for new Auxiliary Firefighters. Those interested must be eighteen years of age or over. All training is provided by qualified personnel and no previous training is required. All Auxiliary Firefighters will be trained on the basic fire fighting curriculum which consists of safety, ropes and knots, fire streams, etc.

The objective is to create the thirst for knowledge and a possible career choice. If interested in helping out your community and learning first hand many aspects of firefighting, please call Chief Brian Hope at 528-4943, Deputy Chief, Byran Kyer at 931-3377, or one of three Captains, Allan Barton at 528-4924, Dave Mason at 528-4250 and Rodney Kenny at 528-4907. The training officer is Gaetan Ouimet, 528-4690, the Fire Prevention Officer is Van Rankin, 528-4352 and the safety officer is Ryan Allaire, 528-4551. Please do not hesitate to call one of these people for more information.

Give yourselves a pat on the back

Chief Brian Hope of the Martintown Fire Department is very pleased to report that there were no grass fires in the community this year and wants to thank all local residents for practicing great fire prevention tactics and complying with the new municipal (no) burn bylaw. The lack of smoke in the air made for easier breathing for us all, and the firefighters were able to go about their business without having to battle unnecessary grass fires.

Goodtimers

The Martintown Goodtimers are holding a pot luck lunch today, Wednesday, May 29 beginning at 11:30 a.m. with a show and tell and other activities following. Everyone is welcome.

Horticultural society

The Martintown and District Horticultural Society will be holding the next meeting on June 5 at the Martintown Community Centre beginning at 7:30 p.m. The topic will be something about dried (or how to dry) flowers. Sorry to be vague, and I hope to have more information after the fact, but if you are interested and don't want to wait two weeks, go to the meeting! New members are always welcome and encouraged to attend. The speaker at the May meeting was Mr. Gordon Winter of Maxville who showed slides and gave a very interesting talk on birds and bird feeders.

Condolences

Sympathy is extended to the family and friends of former Martintown resident, Laurette Keir who passed away on Thursday, May 23 in Cornwall. A funeral was held in Cornwall on Monday, May 27. She is survived by her son, Ronald, daughter-in-law, Jennith (Sansom), two grandsons and two great-grandsons.

WI meeting

Twenty-two members of the Martintown Women's Institute and two guests met on Thursday, May 16 at the Martintown Community Centre for a muffin morning. A muffin recipe was the roll call and many recipes were collected. I forgot to ask when the cookbook is coming out.

The Institute has made a contribution towards the purchase of a wheelchair for a former Martintown resident now living in Maxville Manor. After a short business meeting the guest speaker was introduced by Del Roulston.

Betty Giffin is the President of an organization called Victoria's Quilts Canada which makes hand-made quilts for cancer patients and for use in treatment facilities. Victoria's Quilts was begun in 1998 by Deborah Rogers in the name of her sister-in-law, Victoria Ann Morrison, herself a quilter who made Love Blankets for others while she was undergoing chemotherapy. The quilts are not for sale and are not for profit, only comfort. Mrs. Giffin told the members how the group in Ottawa was established and how it grew to the current number of 15 groups making quilts to be given to cancer patients.

The next WI meeting will be held on June 20 at 1:30 p.m. at the McLeod house on the King's Road.

Tweedsmuir books

The curator of the Martintown Tweedsmuir history books, an invaluable contribution to local history maintained by members of the Women's Institute, is Bev Runions, and she is seeking assistance from area residents in updating the histories. She specifically requests recent updates from the three Martintown churches, St. William's Roman Catholic Parish, St. Andrew's Presbyterian and St. Andrew's United for information about clergy, renovations, anniversaries, etc.

Recent information about Martintown Public School, again renovations and principals, local businesses both old and new, farms, the Martintown Mill, the Post Office and the Bank (soon to slip into the pages of history books) is required. Other areas needing updates are the Cemeteries, the Horticultural Society, milestone birthdays, and recent 50th Wedding Anniversary celebrations, quilting and biographies of W.I. members.

To date very little has been written about the Martintown Seniors groups, the Martintown Community Centre, the Martintown Fire Department, the Martintown Masonic Order, the hockey stick factory owned by the Flaro family, and those followers of the Baden Powells – Brownies, Guides, Cubs and Scouts. Pictures and write-ups of the Ice Storms of 1942 and 1998 are also requested. If you think you can be of any help in adding information on any of the above topics, or if you have pictures, letters, or clippings, please call Bev at 931-3110. Someday your grandchildren and their children will thank you.

St. Andrew's UCW

The St. Andrew's United Church Women will be attending the annual Ladies Dinner night out next Tuesday at Summerheights Golf Links on South Branch Road. The social hour will begin at 6:30 p.m. and dinner at 7 p.m. The menu is a choice of pork tenderloin medallions with apple cider sauce or fillet of salmon with lemon butter. The popular local all-girl band, The Aidans will be entertaining that evening. Contact Pearl Murray at 528-4967 or Sylvia Thomson at 528-4578 for more information.

Graduates

Don't forget to call or e-mail me with news about college and university graduates from the Martintown area. Their accomplishments deserve to be recognized and congratulated within the community.

Duplicate bridge

The results of Martintown Goodtimers Duplicate Bridge for May 21 are as follows: North/South, 1. Jean and Jim Campbell, 2. Claudette and Marie Arsenault, 3. Jean Forbes and Charles Lawn, 4. Grace Leroux and Evelyn McPhail. East/West, 1. Audrey Blair and John Roulston, 2. Allan McLeod and Henryk Rzepczyk, 3. Joan Turner and Penny McLeod, 4. Gerrie Tibbals and Ron Allison. The Bingo Bridge winner this week was Russ Surtees.

Everyone was glad to see Doris Lambert back again after her long illness. This week the players welcomed Claudette Arsenault's sister Marie Arsenault, who is visiting from Quebec City. These sisters, coming in second to the Campbell team, certainly gave a run for the money. And finally, that remedial training at Kingston did wonders for Audrey Blair, enabling her to take first place for the second week in a row.

Party bridge

The winners of the party bridge held at the Martintown Community Centre on Monday, May 27 were Lorna Snow, Larry Downs and Marjorie Mertl.

A READER'S PARADISE: On May 18 Onagh's Book Nook in Martintown held a sale with proceeds going to the Martintown Optimist Club. Onagh Ross, with Candy, and Jean Butler were met with several customers throughout the day.

Choir to perform in Alexandria

On Friday June 7, at 7 p.m., the Amaryllis Women's Choir of Vankleek Hill joins with the Georgian House Restaurant in Alexandria to present an upbeat entertaining choral/musical dinner show with the theme of "Pops Through the Ages; From Madrigals to Musicals", a concert program of songs including Renaissance madrigals, French chanson, Broadway show songs and hit parade numbers from the 60's to the 90's.

This year the Amaryllis choir of Vankleek Hill is the happy recipient of an Ontario Trillium Foundation Grant. An award of $12,800 was received to purchase risers, a digital piano, and music.

Amaryllis Women's Choir was formed in September 1995, and is based in Vankleek Hill, Ontario. They prepare for two concert seasons per year, during the Spring and at Christmas time. For additional information about Amaryllis, or if you are interested in joining the choir, please call Shirley Tremblay at 632-2441.

Pipers, drummers wind up 2001-2002 season

By Bernice Coleman

The Glengarry School of Piping and Drumming had its annual spring recital on May 16 at the Sports Complex in Maxville.

Emcee for the evening was Rob Wilson, our new school president. The evening was full of activities, entertainment by several solo pipers – Christian McCartney, Erin Bell, Geoff Goddard and Ryan Ross.

Each piping and drumming class presented a piece of music led by their teacher to the delight of the audience. From beginning chanters and drum pads to beginning piping and a progression to our Grade 5 band under the direction of Shelley MacPhee mapping the progression undertaken during the year by students and staff.

We were further treated to performances by our Grade 4 Pipe Band under the leadership of Ross May and the finale was the grade 2 Pipe Band.

Awards, trophies

Awards, trophies and scholarships were handed out by teachers to many students. The evening came to an end with a light lunch, lots of laughter and a great time.

Our last class of the year was last Saturday. It has been a great year and we thank all our students, teachers and parents.

Appreciation

The Glengarry District High school was very gracious to the School of Piping and Drumming and we sincerely thank them. It takes lots of cooperation, volunteerism and dedication, and we had it all!

Montreal trip offered taste of farming in the 'good ole days'

GREEN VALLEY

MARGO PEPIN
525-3581

On May 19, Rejeanne and 56 other people enjoyed a great trip to Montreal to see the Cirque du Soleil. But first they got to visit an agricultural farm that only uses farm machinery from the time of our grandparents. It brought back memories to a lot of people who were on the bus. Then it was a stop for supper at a restaurant, then off to the spectacle. I'm told it was worth every penny.

On the way back three young children who accompanied their parents and grandparents surprised Rejeanne by thanking her over the bus P.A. system and presenting her with a small gift. They were Derek and Julien Legault and Amanda Vachon. Rejeanne reminds everyone not to forget the cruise from Trois Rivieres to Montreal on June 22. She says there are still a few places left. If interested, call now 525-3700.

Bazaar

The Daughters of Isabella held their bazaar and sale this past Saturday at the Salle Sacre Coeur, Alexandria, followed by a spaghetti supper with music.

The 50/50 draw was held and the winner was Claudette MacKay of Kenyon Street, Alexandria. She won the nice sum of $1,208. A big thank you to Lise Larocque who was in charge of this task. Prizes were also given to the Daughters who sold the most tickets. They were Doreen Johnson who earned $100; Rita Carriere and Edna Lalonde who each received $50. Regente Monique Keeler would like to thank everyone who came out, to all the members who helped in any way. It was a great day.

Visit to Europe

Enjoying a great trip to London and Paris was Woodstick Wines owner Betty Vowles and her daughter-in-law Kim Yates. It was Kim's first trip to Europe. While there they visited with an aunt and uncle who are respectively 91 and 92 years of age. In London, they visited The Tower, took a trip up the Thames, changing of the Guards at Buckingham Palace and so much much more and while in Paris, the Eiffel Tower is a must, so is the Arc de Triomphe, the Louvre Museum and as before so much much more. These two ladies surely give us the urge to want to take a trip like this.

Sympathy

Deepest sympathy going out to the family of Lise Theoret who died on May 23. She was the mother of Richard and Sylvain, her funeral was held on May 25 in Cornwall.

Also sympathies going out to the family of George Lajoie who lives on the eighth concession who passed away this past weekend on May 24. He leaves his wife, Marguerite, his children Ron, Maurice, Nicole, Cherryline and their families. His funeral was held on Monday, May 27 at Eglise Ste. Marie.

Students and staff at Ecole Ste. Marie would like to thank Glengarry Aggregate for their donation of sand which was unloaded at different locations in the school yard for the children's enjoyment.

Agathe Binette was to have open heart surgery last week. It was rescheduled for the first week of June. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Agathe. She is a member of the Daughters of Isabella of Alexandria.

Happy birthday

Happy birthday to Roch Lajoie on May 28. His mother Rejeanne says he turns 48 and not 50 as some seem to think. She should know.

God bless and have a safe week.

Reptile rainforest draws youngsters

WILLIAMSTOWN

SUE HARRINGTON
347-2279

They walked, they crawled, they slithered on their bellies, but 42 round-eyed, open-mouthed youngsters packed the Williamstown Library on Saturday for an hour in the Reptile Rainforest.

So did some parents. And so did most unwitting visitors to the library, who got totally absorbed in Darren Boyd's show and couldn't leave.

Darrèn, who runs the Reptile Rainforest from his home in Kemptville, is a soft-spoken gentleman, with years and years of experience working with creatures some of us see only in our nightmares.

Being soft-spoken is a plus, according to Darren, because loud noises frighten the reptiles, and they could, (oh no) bite! Of course, Darren told his audience this right off the bat, with the result that the children were quiet as mice. (Not the best thing to be as quiet as, considering the number of rat snakes in Darren's repertoire.)

One of the most fascinating things about that repertoire was the writhing pillow cases which rippled like water beds, prompting a concerned patron to think that one of the creatures was about to break loose.

There were snakes, salamanders, geckos (Gary), frogs, lizards, scorpions, and the biggest, fattest, slimiest cockroach you could ever, ever, imagine. Came all the way from Africa, it did, and despite teasing hints about leaving it behind in the library, Darren didn't. I hope.

Kids' comments ranged from "One day I found an ant in my Lucky Charms," to a wow of appreciation for one of the critters called "Dr. Teeth," (for a reason, you know.)

"It's a dinosaur!" said one little one as Dr. Teeth was shown around.

The reptile show marked the third, and final offering in the SDG County Libraries Children's Festival 2002.

Soccer season

Soccer season has started here in Williamstown and it is so good seeing the young people out running the length of the field in the fresh air.

One of the Char-Lan teams – the boys' under 14 years – in the Glengarry Soccer League (GSL) was too big. So it was split into two teams, and guess what? Now the two teams are too small.

Hence this news item. More boys are needed. If you were born (or know some male who was) in 1988 or 1989, and would like to play soccer this summer, please phone Jim McDonell at 347-1800.

Referees needed

Jim is also looking for referees for minor soccer. If you are 12 years of age or older and have a knowledge of soccer and a fairly thick skin (or are hearing impaired when you want to be), and would like to earn $10 per game, give Jim a call.

A clinic will be held on Thursday to acquaint you with the do's and don'ts of refereeing.

The referees are still able to play soccer themselves, as an attempt will be made to work out scheduling conflicts.

Mexican soccer players

Still on the soccer subject, something exciting is happening in Glengarry this summer. A group (four teams) of Mexican soccer players is heading our way for 10 days (the 10th day being the day following the Highland Games).

Billet homes are needed for some of the players in the Williamstown area – boys or girls, aged 12 to 16 years.

If you are willing to host some of these young people, please call Jim McDonell (347-1800).

New baby

There's a new baby at the corner curve on the outskirts of Williamstown and Jane and Robert McDonell are another pair who have joined the exclusive grandparents' club.

Margo (McDonell) and Dean Poirier became parents on May 15 with the birth of their daughter, Isabella, who weighed in at an amazing nine pounds, two ounces.

Congratulations to the Poirier-McDonell families on the new arrival.

VON volunteer awward

Congratulations to Bette Miller, who was the recipient of the VON's Community Volunteer award at a special banquet held in Morrisburg on May 22.

Bette was chosen from among nine nominees from all over SDG and Prescott-Russell.

The VON Caring for Life Awards are tributes to women who willingingly give of their time and resources to care for others. There are four categories: caregiver, young women's leadership, community volunteer and lifetime achievement.

Bette was selected because, "as a front line volunteer, she has made a significant contribution in such areas as social issues, recreation, sports, economic issues, or health. She has dedicated many hours behind the scenes to ensure the quality of the program or function."

First Green Thumbs stroll

The first of the Green Thumbs Horticultural Society's garden strolls takes place this Saturday, June 1, from 2 to 4 p.m. in the garden of Janet Bratberg. It will be a Teddy Bears' Tea. Refreshments will be served and donations of new teddy bears will be gratefully received. All donations will be given to Baldwin House.

The garden is located at 5639 Hwy 34, just north of Lancaster village.

Rain date is the following day.

Museum workshop

Following up on the museum's bird exhibit – on Sunday (June 2), there will be a kids' nature and craft workshop at the Nor'Westers and Loyalist Museum.

Bruce Thorn, a naturalist/botanist from the St. Lawrence River Institute of Environmental Sciences will be hosting a nature walk and craft workshop on birds.

The workshop, from 1 to 3 p.m., is aimed at children from five to 12 years of age, but parents are welcomed to participate.

The joy of bird watching

For those whose birds have flown the nest (or wish they had), a bird watching discussion will take place at the same time this Sunday (1 to 3 p.m.). Martin Bowman will lead the discussion about the joy of bird-watching.

This event is also being held at the Nor'Westers and Loyalist Museum in Williamstown, and everyone is welcome to attend.

B for bullying

A likewise universal invitation is extended to the community to see the "'B' is for Bullying" play being performed tonight (Wed) at Char-Lan High School, beginning at 7 p.m.

Although the play is located at the high school, it is being put on by students from Williamstown Public School under the direction of teacher, Donna Marleau.

Sparring medalists

Williamstown young people did extra well at the Canadian Tae kwon doh Championships held at the University of Ottawa last weekend for the Tae E. Lee Cup.

Meaghan Henderson won a silver medal for sparring, while her brother, Lukas, won a bronze for sparring. Kaiti Hones won a silver for patterns.

The students belong to the Cornwall Tae kwan doh Club and are instructed by Rodney Degray.

The Hendersons, both black belts, have been studying the sport for about four years.

Congratulations to you all!

Apologies

In the apology category now: so sorry for being so unavailable of late. First there was a very crippling computer virus; then a corrupted e-mail in box which, when cleansed, erased all my messages (including this week's bridge scores).

Add to that, busy events at this time of the year, extensive dental work, physiotherapy, and student message takers who seemed to have done better on their exams than they ever do in giving me my news!

Retired major saluted at Musical Ride

MAXVILLE
GORDON WINTER

There was a great show at the fairgrounds on Sunday afternoon when the Glengarry Highland Games and the Kenyon Agricultural Society sponsored the R.C.M.P. Musical Ride. And a highlight of the Ride was the honour awarded to Major Grant MacGillivray as the one to receive the salute prior to the commencement of the Ride. At 95 years old, Mr MacGillivray, a Manor resident, stood as straight as always, on the stand, as the 32 black horses were itching to get started.

Another feature of the afternoon under the sunny skies and ideal temperature, was the performance of the Ottawa Police Services and the R.C.M.P. Highland Dancers. One of the dancers was Heather MacLeod who has worked her way up in competitions to become recognized as one of the best. She is the daughter of Lois and Campbell of Dominionville.

Of course, the MacCulloch Dancers were appreciated as usual as were the massed bands and the demonstrations of the O.P.P. canine unit.

It was a good afternoon, and it was encouraging to see such a large crowd which meant that a sizeable sum would go into the fund for the further improvement of the fairgrounds' facilities.

Proud grandparents

Joan and Len Siwik have become first time grandparents with the birth in Edmonton of Samuel Siwik Bennett. The proud parents of the bouncing baby boy are Paula and Ron and to them go our very best wishes.

Mrs. Siwik, who is a nurse at Glen-Stor-Dun Lodge, was out in Edmonton for a visit and offer of help, and came home last week.

West coast visit

Carole and John Williams have been out to the West Coast for a holiday and visit with friends and on the way home stopped in Lethbridge for a visit with Dr. Danny and Julie LeRoy. Mrs. Williams remained for a week longer in Lethbridge.

Of significance

I was pleased to read in the Ottawa Citizen that Mayor Bill Franklin's concern over the large and expanding snow geese population was considered sufficiently significant to be printed in this widely circulated newspaper. It is hoped that our municipal politicians will be able to do something about this problem along with the excess numbers of Canada geese and white-tailed deer. The deer are a problem, for certain, when the numbers of damaged cars are counted up after collisions with the deer on the roads. What will be said when a rider in one of these cars is injured or killed?

Home for a wedding

John Wensink has been home from near St. Louis, Missouri, with his mother, Nellie, and other family members. This was a special trip in order for John to attend the marriage of his niece, Patty, daughter of Nellie and Glen MacKay, in Kingston. Our best wishes go to the newly wed couple, too.

New business

Marian's Garden Centre is a new business started by Marian (Vander Wielen) MacLellan at her home on the Dyer Road, near Highway 138. We wish Marian well as she works hard to build up the business with sales of trees, shrubs, perennials and annuals.

Baptism

Last Sunday in the United Church, the sacrament of baptism welcomed into the Christian Church, Morgan Joyce Margaret, daughter of Mike and Carol Jarrett who live on the Loch Garry Road. Keith Forrest, a church elder and a neighbour of the family, made the introductions and carried Morgan through the church for all to see. Brother Dylan was very well behaved among the many family members who were in attendance.

Bowling feast

Last Thursday at noon, many of those who had enjoyed bowling over the winter with the teams of seniors' sponsored by the Seniors' Outreach Services program at the Manor, feasted on a delicious dinner.

Afterwards, trophies and awards were presented by Margaret Fraser. Bill Bailey had the highest single male score with 274 while his counterpart was Dolly McConnell with 260.

Mr. Bailey also had the high triple with 597 and Mrs. McConnell with 634.

The high triple average score was earned by William Grimm with 181 and by Mrs. McConnell with 148.

Now for an award that is not understood by most, the high average for a male was earned by myself with a score of 119 and by Helen MacLeod with 110.

The best team plaque went to the Tuesday team consisting of Darlene and Bill Bailey, Helen Baker, Alice Grimm and William McDonell.

A fancy basket of treats was the door prize and I was lucky enough to have my name drawn for it.

A vote of thanks was expressed to Margaret for keeping us organized all year and for organizing the dinner. A meeting will be called in the early fall for the bowlers and that will be the time for new members to get their names on the list. There are more vacancies on the Thursday morning teams. Also, those who would spare should let Margaret know.

An hour to spare?

Phyllis Burtenshaw-Lalonde requires for the Keno and Bingo games at the Manor, some volunteers. If you have an hour or two to spare on Tuesdays or Fridays in the afternoon, Phyllis would be pleased to hear from you at 527-2170, ext. 228.

Harry Potter comes to Maxville

The Maxville Recreation Committee is holding a dinner and a movie on Friday, May 31. The feature will be Harry Potter and The Philosopher's Stone. Dinner starts at 6 p.m. and the movie at 6.30 p.m. While the admission to the movie is free, the food, consisting of a hot dog, pop and chips may be purchased for $2.

The event is held at the Complex and all are welcome to attend.

Euchre results

Catherine MacRae explained to me that I could pick up the euchre results from the jar on her veranda which I pass daily, but I forgot. My apologies for this and as a result, I have two sets of winners at the euchres sponsored by the Young-at-Heart Seniors' Club.

On May 6, Eileen Johnston, Gloria Rolland and Judy Johnsen earned the top scores for the ladies while the men were represented by Chester Valley, Hormidas St. John and Bill Johnston.

The lucky ones in the 50–50 draw were Mrs. Johnsen, Cecile Currier, twice, Elizabeth Briere, Onagh Ross, twice, Rita Lalonde and Christine De Repentigny, who also won the door prize.

Then on May 20, most of the names on the winners' lists did not appear above. For the women, they were Claire Van Putten, Rita Seguin and Mrs. Ross while for the men, they were Mac O'Byrne, Mr. St. John, and Ed Ukrainetz.

The 50-50 draw winners were Peggy Gates, twice, Mr. St. John, Gloria Snow, Erma Bradley, Oliver Gates, Mrs. Briere and Mrs. Currier. Mr. St. John also received the door prize.

The next euchre will be held on June 3, in the Anglican Church Hall at 8 p.m.

Bridge

The reason for two sets of results from the Saturday afternoon bridge party is not my forgetfulness but because my last week's column had to be written on the Friday before.

On May 18, high scores were held by Barbara Surtees, Barbara Lariviere and Mary Nutter. Last Saturday, Mrs. Surtees repeated her accomplishment, followed by her husband, Russ, and by Donna MacInnes.

Birding news

The birds continue to make news. A blue goose was observed with a pair of Canada geese on Con. 6 last week. Apparently that species is known for crossing with snow geese and apparently this one was being tolerated by the pair of Canada geese.

A caller did not know what to do about a robin who built her nest on the floor of the veranda. All the lady could think of was to post a sign to have all visitors use the back door.

John Filiol has worked very hard at building nesting boxes for blue birds and for installing them on posts along the roadsides. This year he is being rewarded by having five nesting pairs using his boxes. John is to be congratulated for this work and it is really good news to see the numbers of these birds increasing.

I am continuing to feed niger seed. We did try the black sunflower seeds for a couple of days but found that the grackles were dominating that feeder.

We have at least one pair of rose breasted grosbeaks enjoying the niger seed and lots of finches and some sparrows. Even a mourning dove has learned how to use one of the feeders. Usually, the doves just clean up under the feeders.

First curator's clay figurines on display

DUNVEGAN

PEGGI CALDER
527-5293

The Glengarry Pioneer Museum opened last weekend, with exhibits celebrating the 40th anniversary this year. On loan from Laggan School and on display in the Roxborough Hall is the collection of figurines made by Christina Ferguson, the first curator of the museum. Included in the anniversary display are a number of items donated during the first month of the museum's existence.

A number of events are planned over the season.

Curator Karen Williams reports that a time capsule is open to receive memorabilia and stories of life today, or memories of family or village life in past years. It will be formally sealed for forty years at the closing ceremonies in the fall. So be sure to add your own bit of history anytime over the summer.

Memorial service

Kenyon Presbyterian Church was full last Saturday afternoon for Millie Randall's memorial service. The community showed their compassion and support for the family by packing the church to celebrate Millie's life and her caring and concern for neighbours in the Dunvegan area. There had been a private committal service just before the memorial, and family and close friends gathered at home following.

Evening wedding

On May 19 in Ottawa, former Dunvegan resident Lee Ann Whealon, daughter of Sheila and Don, was married to Ben Harris in a beautiful evening ceremony conducted by Rabbi Bulka.

Lee Ann has converted to the Jewish faith, and had thoughtfully prepared a wedding program that explained each facet of the ceremony for those on her side of the family who were unfamiliar with the proceedings. A number of Glengarry friends attended.

Get well

Get well wishes to Flora Chisholm who recently broke her wrist, and is now sporting a cast for a few weeks.

Bird of silken plumage

Brynn Carson reports an Indigo Bunting inspecting the manse feeder. This beautiful bird was once described to me by Joyce MacKinnon as having the colour of shot silk. It can show the incredible iridescent blue, or can appear almost black.

Dandelion jam

It's so nice to see all the flowers in the village – beautiful tulip beds are everywhere, and even the yellow dandelions in the fields look pretty.

If you have a patch of persistent dandelions, try making some dandelion flower jam. Cut all the green back part off of the flowers, and measure two cups of the yellow parts (gently packed) into a large enamel or stainless steel saucepan. Add 1 1/2 cups water, 1/4 cup lemon juice and one package pectin crystals. Mix well and bring to a boil. Add 3 1/2 cups white sugar and bring back to a full rolling boil, boil for one minute, then pour into sterilized jars and seal.

Quite delicious, and a treat on toast.

HOLY COW!: On the last day of Education Week Friday, students of École Ste-Thérèse in North Lancaster brought in collections to display in the school's gymnasium for all to admire. Here, Grade 3 student Catherine Glaude cuddles with her collection of stuffed cows.

...Introducing... silhouette esthetics studio

Alain Theoret of "Alain's Haircrafters" in Lancaster is pleased to announce that "silhouette esthetics studio" will be open for business on Wednesday, June 5. The studio is located above the hair salon on Military Road across from Rozon's Insurance. Esthetician Sandra Wickware will offer many services, which include skin and nail care, waxing, make-up artistry, and eyelash tinting as well as an inviting array of spa treatments and relaxing massage. Theoret says that a number of his customers have been requesting these services and believes that "Silhouette" will complement his own thriving hairstyling and tanning salon. "It only makes sense," says Theoret, "the two businesses go hand in hand and will provide more variety for our clientele."

The grand opening of "silhouette esthetics studio" will take place between the hours of 7:00 and 9:00 pm on Tuesday, June 4. Wickware invites the public to join them in a wine and cheese party to celebrate the opening of her business. "Come see where we are and discover what we're all about," says Wickware, "We want our clients to feel beautiful inside and out. Plus we're going to have a lot of fun doing it."

OBITUARIES

Marie Rita MacKinnon

Rita MacKinnon (nee Lecompte) passed away peacefully with her family by her side, at the Starwood Nursing Home, Nepean, Ontario on Saturday, May 11, 2002, age 81 years.

Loving wife and best friend of 61 years to Wallace. Dear mother of Diane Roberts (Lloyd); Bill MacKinnon; and Debra Lee Kirk (Robert). Loving grandmother of Christopher, Michael, and Tyler Kirk. Loved daughter of the late Ulrich and Marie-Anne (Lalonde) Lecompte. Dear sister of Rene (Kay), Claude (Denise), Jean (Della), Guy, and Lise Lecompte.

Rested at the Wilson Funeral, 822 Pitt Street, Cornwall, Tuesday, May 14. The Mass of the Resurrection with Commendation and Farewell was celebrated in St. Francis de Sales Roman Catholic Church on Wednesday, May 15 at 11am. Rite of Committal will be at a later date in Woodlawn Cemetery, Cornwall. If so desired, contributions to the Alzheimers Society would be appreciated by the family. Funeral arrangements were under the care of Wilson Funeral Home, 822 Pitt Street, Cornwall.

Claire Leroux

The Leroux family regrets to announce the death of Mrs. Claire Leroux (nee Duval) who died on Friday, May 24, 2002, after a long battle with cancer at the Glengarry Memorial Hospital, Alexandria surrounded by her loving family.

Claire is the cherished daughter of Ronald Duval and Noella Dewar, the beloved wife of Gilles Leroux, and loving mother of her two children Eric (Danagh) and Melanie (Nicholas). Caring sister of Noel Duval (Claudette Villeneuve) and Marcel Duval (Joanne Brown). Dear sister-in-law of Francoise Lamoureux (Roger), Nicole Leduc (Gerard), Denis Leroux (Jocelyne Lafranchise), Colette Leroux (Nick), Luc Leroux (Lorraine Leduc), Michel Leroux (Sylvie Timers), Claire Leroux (Raymond Timbers), Monique Bray (Roger), Adrien Leroux (Marie-Claire Bertrand), and Hubert Leroux (Lorraine Levac). Claire will be lovingly remembered by her two Godchildren Pascal Duval and Jocelyn Leroux and by her numerous nieces, nephews and friends.

Claire is predeceased by her father-in-law the late Lucien Leroux (Therese Bougie).

Family and friends were invited to call at Munro & Morris Funeral Homes, 114 Main Street South, Alexandria, Ontario (613)525-2772 on Monday.

A Mass of Christian Burial was held at L'Eglise Sacre-Coeur Tuesday, May 28, 2002. Interment followed in the Parish Cemetery.

The Leroux family would like to personally thank Dr. Claude Nadeau and Dr. Ghislain Marleau, Francine Sabourin and all the staff of the Glengarry Memorial Hospital for their kindness and compassion at a very difficult time. And a special thank you to Father Marcel Larouche for his spiritual guidance and support. Donations to the Canadian Cancer Society would be greatly appreciated by the family.

Lucien Theodule Labelle

Mr. Lucien Labelle of 139 Jobin Avenue, Cornwall, on Thursday, April 11, 2002, age 73 years. Former employee of BCL Cornwall, longtime parishioner of St. John Bosco and Member of Knights of Columbus Ontario Council #755.

Beloved husband of 53 years to Irene Longtin. Loved father of Robert Labelle (Linda), Cornwall; Richard Labelle, Toronto; Nicole Fister (Lester), Bengough, Saskatchewan; Denise Labelle-Gelinas (Daniel), Cornwall; Andre Labelle (Christine), Grimsby, Ontario; and Reverend Jacques Labelle, Moose Creek, Ontario. Sadly missed by nine grandchildren, Rachel, Guillaume, and Genevieve Labelle; Isabelle and Catherine Gelinas; Danielle and Rebeçca Irvine-Labelle; Martin and Stephanie Labelle; and one great-grandchild Benjamin Irvine.

Loved son of the late Leopold and Laurette (Berriault) Labelle. Dear brother of Marcel Labelle, Kelowna, BC; Yvette Blue (Clifford), Prescott; and Pauline Williams (Melvin), Cornwall. Predeceased by one brother Maurice Labelle.

Rested at the Wilson Funeral Home 822 Pitt Street, Cornwall. A Knights of Columbus prayer vigil was held during the visitation.

The Mass of the Resurrection was co-celebrated by his son Reverend Jacques Labelle assisted by Monsignor Rejean Lebrun PH, Reverend Laurier Rivet as Homilist, with Archdeacon Gordon Bryan offering the gospel readings. Commendation and Farewell presided over by Bishop Eugene P. LaRocque in St. John Bosco Roman Catholic Church on Monday, April 15, 2002. Musical offerings for the funeral were performed by the St. Joseph's High School Choir and Ms. Helen McAlear. A Knights of Columbus Honour Guard was present at church for the processional and recessional. Members of the Diocesan Catholic Women's League were also in attendance at church. Rite of Committal took place in St. Andrews Parish Cemetery, St. Andrew's West. The pallbearers were members of the Nativity Guard. Funeral arrangements were under the care of Wilson Funeral Home.

Plenty of programs and activities in Lancaster

LANCASTER

MARG MILLETT
347-2207
FAX 347-1297

Where is Lancaster?

Yes Virginia, there is a Lancaster, I believe. Actually I was browsing through the lovely booklet from the Township of South Glengarry and was disappointed to note some glaring omissions. Under the "Celebrations" page there is not a single mention of our Canada Day celebrations. Also the Lancaster Antique Car Club has held a Car Show, I think for eight years, with proceeds always going back to South Glengarry and they are not included. That was disconcerting but you can imagine my surprise when I read the "Trails & Outdoor Activities" and saw nary a mention of Cooper Marsh and the on site Education Centre. Mmmm, not good!

However, the Municipal Open House was very interesting and it was nice to meet the people we elected and the staff who manage our county for us, along with some volunteers. That is where I picked up this Recreation Guide along with helpful literature on handling hazardous wastes, maintaining shorelines, our South Glengarry Child Care Centre and even how to compost with worms!

Marcel Lapierre gave me a good picture of the plans for the development of our garbage dumps. (Sorry, that's the old fashioned term) The landfill sites at Martintown and North Lancaster should see continuous development to meet the needs of the future. I guess the more educated we become about this subject the better we seem to recycle and dispose of our garbage.

It was also interesting as Ewen MacDonald explained to Janice Montreuil and myself the ongoing plans to combat erosion along the Raisin River, now and in the next few years.

Getting back to the book on recreation, in spite of those omissions there is a wealth of good information about programs and activities for young and old in our county. They are printed for distribution.

Guests at St. Andrew's

The congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, South Lancaster, is getting ready to put on happy smiles and to extend the warmest welcome possible to a number of visitors who will be attending worship on Sunday morning, June 2.

The 128th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada is meeting for the week of June 2-6 at NAV Canada in Cornwall for their yearly assembly. This meeting usually draws close to 500 delegates from across the country.

The congregation of St. Andrew's is pleased to be welcoming a number of these friends on Sunday. During the special service the Lord's Supper will be celebrated, special music will be offered and a bountiful luncheon will be served in the church hall to all of our guests and the congregation. Members of St. Andrew's are reminded to keep this important date on their calendars.

Summer park program

I have mentioned, more than a few times, the Eco-Friends Camp and here is another opportunity for you children for the summer. The Township of South Glengarry will be holding summer Day Camps under their Summer Park Program. I quote, "This is a camp offering children a creative learning experience in the visual arts, games, and activities for children ages 6 to 12 years."

There will be 3 sessions of two weeks. They will run from 9 to 5, Monday through Friday. Session 1, July 1 – 13 at Glen Walter and Green Valley. Session 2, July 15 – 26 at North Lancaster and Lancaster. Session 3, July 29 – August 9 at Glen Walter and Williamstown. Before and after child care is available for an extra fee.

Registration will be ongoing at the Char-Lan Recreation centre on May 29, and will continue until sessions are full. Call 347-2411 for information.

I might mention that the fees are very reasonable.

Players, referees wanted

From councillor, Jim McDonell, comes this request.

We are looking for the following:

1) The Char-Lan U14 Boys and U14 Girls teams (14 and under as of Dec. 31, 2002) are still looking for players for GSL (Glengarry Soccer League).

2) The Char-Lan Minor Soccer Association is looking for anyone 13 and over to referee its Thursday night games. We will be running a training session if required. Peewee Boys and Girls who play Thursday, can also referee the other time slot.

3) The Char-Lan Minor Soccer Association, in association with the Glengarry Soccer League, will be hosting a number of soccer teams from Mexico this summer, between July 25 and August 4, 2002. We are looking for people to billet these players.

Anyone interested in the above, please call Jim McDonell @ 347-1800.

Hey, soccer is one of the best games for kids and gets them in great shape for other sports. Join up!

Plans for competitions

The South Glengarry Club Council sub committee is meeting on Tuesday night to finalize games and prizes for our Canada Day celebrations. This committee would like to see various family members taking part in many games such as a family relay race, an egg rolling contest and perhaps a Lancaster version of Survivor. All events are free and a point system will be used to determine the winning family who will, of course, win the biggest prize.

There will also be a fishpond with a small price of $.50 to fish for a prize. This is not to make a huge profit but to finance next year's "pond".

In the meantime gear up your float ideas for the parade and plans for the Childrens' Parade. The theme is Sharing Your Pride. For information on anything to do with Canada Day 2002 call Audrey at 347-2667.

Father's Day workshop

No, it's not for fathers. Yes, it is for fathers, a gift that is.

Calling all children, ages 7 to 12 years. For $10 you can go to North Lancaster Optimist Hall on Saturday, June 15th and make a nice present for your dad. While there, from 12 noon until 2 p.m. you can decorate a picture frame, but don't forget a good photo of your father to put into the frame. For information, or to register, call 347-2411 any weekday from 8 a.m. until noon.

Chateau raises money for Alzheimer's

Well done, Chateau Gardens! In the recent run, walk, bike fund raiser the volunteers, staff and residents raised $825 for Alzheimer's. Actually, some of the residents took part and made $433 themselves.

Remember the Yard and Bake sale this Saturday at Chateau Gardens. It starts early, at 8 a.m. and runs until 1 p.m.

Reserve Tour Tickets

Don't forget to reserve tickets for the Nor'westers & Loyalist Museum Home, Garden, and Historical Landmark Tour on Saturday June 8. Along with the tour, from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m., you can enjoy a delicious lunch and see the wonderful new bird exhibit as well. As I mentioned, tickets must be purchased before June 8. Call Kim at 347-3547.

Jena Lapierre a winner

Congratulations to Jena Lapierre of Lancaster who was a winner of the Just Say No colouring contest sponsored by the RCMP. Jena and two other winners were present with their families at the Musical Ride in Maxville on Sunday and received their awards. Jena is in grade 4 and attends Iona Academy.

It wasn't until the show had started that Jena and the two other winners were informed that they would be receiving their prizes officially in front of a crowd of over 3000 people. Jena's colouring ability is not a secret and her friends and family were not surprised that she won. Her prize? A lovely stuffed RCMP Bear, a stamp collection, a Just Say No certificate and a flag.

As for the Musical Ride, Barry, Ian and I were there. It was all that we expected, a wonderful show with three excellent Pipe Bands including our own Glengarry Pipers, Highland Dancers and a canine, or should I say K9 demonstration. I came to see the musical ride and as always was impressed and amazed to see the riders and those beautiful Hanoverian horses go through the drills. Good show and from what I hear a very successful fund raiser for the Highland Games

Have a super week everyone!

Congratulations

Congratulations to the winners of draw prizes at the Lancaster Spring Tea. Collette Elie won an afghan, M.A. Velgos won a basket and Theresa Borland won a lovely tea cup. For the door prizes, Rita Hurtubise won the flower arrangement and Cathy Jarvis an apron set. Many thanks to all who gave their support.

Softball, teeball registration

From May 25 until June 1 parents of children ages 4 to 16 may register at the Lancaster Legion or at the UPI gas station. The season for this sport runs from June 8 until August 22 . Call 347-3313 or 347-3373 for information.

Retiring S.J. McLeod teacher treated to big send-off concert

NORTH LANCASTER

INEZ FRANKLIN
347-7666

An affectionate tribute was paid last Saturday night to Mr. Walter Nowickyj, the popular S.J. McLeod P.S. teacher who retires this June after a 31-year career in education.

Sherry Davis, former pupil and current School Council Chairperson, organized the lovely evening's concert held at the Char-Lan High School Auditorium.

Mrs. Davis' hard work and dedication to the event paid off handsomely as a surprised Mr. Nowickyj entered to a standing ovation by the assembly.

Among the guests were Mr. Nowickyj's girlfriend Jocelyne, his daughters Kim and Tanya, his sister Zenia and her husband Hugh, his brother Mike and his wife Gail. Many present and former staff members were also in attendance.

Opening remarks were presented by Principal Kieran Kennedy after which the school band performed several selections from its musical repertoire under Sherry Davis' direction.

The students then presented a comical skit and a number of student tributes were read. Former pupils Jana (Halberg) Davis, Katie Munro, Emily Carr and Angela Brown performed with the band and as soloists. Angela Carriere, a high school student who is currently doing her co-op studies with Mr. Nowickyj, wrote a letter which was read by her sister Stephanie as Angela herself was attending her high school prom.

Mr. Nowickyj's dedication to the music program at S. J. McLeod School is legendary and this group has made many appearances at local homes, schools, community centres and parades. Former principal, Huntly McDonell, summed up for everyone the respect and affection for this teacher whose accomplishments earned him the honour of his peers with the Teaching Innovation Award in 2001.

Mr. Nowickyj himself took to the stage to receive a brass music stand as a farewell gift and delivered a touching thank-you speech. A lunch was organized by the retired teachers following the concert.

Many thanks to Sherry Davis , her helpers and her young performers who worked so hard to bring to fruition a great evening of entertainment. A fund has been started at the school in Mr. Nowickyj's name which will be used to purchase new band instruments. In the interest of continuing the music program at the school and as a personal thank you to Mr. Nowickyj you are welcome to make a donation to this worthy cause.

On behalf of parents, students and school staff, congratulations, Mr. Nowickyj for a job well done! The school's tradition of music excellence will, we hope, continue in the years to come. A standard has been set to which future directors can only aspire.

First communion

The grade two students from Ecole Ste. Therese received the Sacraments of the Holy Eucharist and Confirmation in a special Mass last Sunday. The ceremony at St. Margaret of Scotland Church was well attended by relatives and friends of Danick Bourdeau, Anne Campeau, Jason Chamberland, Mario Chamberland, Melina Decoeur, Mariepier Glaude, Ryan O'Connor, Kara Sinnott and Andreanne Veilleux.

Congratulations to these young people who received the sacraments from Father Daniel Gauthier who was assisted by Father Eric Roy.

The offertory gifts and readings were presented by the students who have been preparing for this special day throughout the year.

On Monday Monique Bourdeau brought a cake to Ecole Ste. Therese to celebrate the occasion with the school population. Many thanks for your gift, Monique!

Bike Rodeo

The North Lancaster Optimist Club held its annual bike rodeo at Ecole Ste. Therese last Saturday. During this event over 70 children were put through their safety paces on bicycles and in-line skates.

A list of winners will be published next week. Meanwhile congratulations to both participants and organizers for a fun and successful day!

Parent Council Meeting

The monthly meeting for the School / Parent council will be held today (May 29) at Ecole Ste.Therese. Anyone interested in school affairs is welcome to attend this meeting which will be at 7 p.m.

Bishop's farewell

Several local citizens attended the Mass of thanksgiving and farewell at Nativite Co-Cathedral last Wednesday. Bishop Larocque retired from his 28-year tenure as sixth bishop of Alexandria –Cornwall. A capacity crowd attended the ceremony. Fathers Dan Gauthier, Eric Roy and Eric Robichaud of Glen Nevis were accompanied by seventeen members of their order for this occasion.

It was a memorable evening and the parishioners of St. Margaret's join their Diocesan members in extending best wishes to Bishop LaRocque for a long and healthy retirement.

Social Notes

Chantal (Decoeur) Florestal is "home" this week from the Dominican Republic where she lives and works. Her vacation was timed to include a birthday party for her niece Melina and the First Communion ceremony last Sunday where Melina received her sacraments.

Best birthday wishes are extended to Melina Decoeur who turned 8 last Saturday and to her mother Tanya who will celebrate on June 3 as will Brent Vachon and Marina Gareau.

SPORTS BRIEFS

Softball registration

The Glen Robertson softball league 2002 season registration is under way.

The division are: ages four to six (tee-ball), seven to 11, 11 to 15 and 16 and over. For more information call Liliane Diotte at 874-2052 or Brian Jodoin at 874-2365.

Archery tournament

The Border Bowhunters 3-D Archery Club will be hosting their first outdoor tournament of the season this Sunday.

The tournament takes place behind the Bonnie Glen and registration runs from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Call Emile St. Denis at 525-3093 for more information.

U12 Blazers win 2-0

The season opener for the Timothy Ming & Associates SD & G Girls U12 Blazers was played Monday night and resulted in a 2 - 0 victory over Carleton Place in the Blazers' first game away from home. Both goals were scored by Allison McCormick who also shared in the shutout with Jenna Baldree, goalie.

Annual carp shoot

The third annual carp shoot sponsored by Dan's Outdoor Passion Plein Air will take place June 9.

Fish entered must be shot, alive, during the legal hours on June 9.

All carp must be shot with a bow and arrow and will be weighed in prior to 5 p.m. at the Royal Canadian Legion 119 Military Road, Lancaster.

Registration ($20) is up to June 8 at 4 p.m. and all participants must be registered before the competition.

Weight will determine the winners of cash prizes.

Only three fish are allowed to be entered per participant.

The shoot will be restricted to the St. Lawrence Watershed only.

Learmonth third

Glengarry Golf and Country Club pro Chris Learmonth placed in a tie for third place at the Vivarts Spring Open at the Beaconsfield Golf Club Friday.

Learmonth shot a 3-under 68 to finish four shots behind winner Marc Girourd at the first major of the Quebec golf season.

Last year Learmonth shot the same score but lost a five-way playoff.

Learmonth was featured on Sunday morning in an interview on a talk show on CFRA 580. He spoke about the tournament as well as the various changes made to GGCC this season.

U15 Blazers are 1-0

The SD&G U-15 Premier Division Girls Blazers got off to a good start to the 2002 season by beating the host Ottawa Internationals 3-1.

The Blazers started a little sluggish and gave up the first goal of the game around 25 minutes into the first half. This acted as a good wake-up call for the Blazers who turned their game up a notch and netted the tying goal several minutes later when Jaymie Baldree found herself on a breakaway and made no mistake in burying the ball.

The Blazers continued to have the better of the play in the second half and Christina Julien finally put in the go ahead goal halfway through the second half. Jenna Boulanger converted on a corner kick several minutes later to secure the victory for the Blazers.

The Blazers' next action is next Wednesday when they host arch-rival Carleton Place at 7:00 p.m at the Alexandria Park .

U12 Blazers earn draw

The SD& G Blazers "Innovative Converting " under 12 boys premier team started off the season with a well earned tie 2-2 against South Nepean May 20.

Scoring for the Blazers were Jordan Lefave and Christian Searle. It was a strong performance in net by Tyler Jones. Other players include TJ Woodbeck, Matt Daalder, Kristopher Cholett and Jeffrey Hebert in the backfield, Olivier Roy, Jean-Sebastien Pepin, Simon Jeffreys, Shawn Lebrun and Justin Poitras in the midfield, Sam Burleton, Joey Porporo, Scott Sanderson, Clay Chadsey, and Matt Jacobs as forwards. Players come from Avonmore, Maxville, Alexandria, Vankleek Hill, Glen Walter and Cornwall. Next home game is Thursday at Optimist Park at 6:45pm.

Glens bench clears as Sauve and Savard resign

Alexandria Glens' coach and general manager Marc Sauve told the team last week that he's taking a year off from hockey after a five year stint as head coach and general manager. Assistant coach Martin Savard has also gone.

BY TODD ANDERSON
Sports Editor

There will be an entirely new coaching staff behind the Alexandria Glens' bench this season.

That came to light last Tuesday when head coach and general manager Marc Sauve informed team president Robert Lajoie of his resignation.

Assistant coach Martin Savard won't be back either. He made that decision immediately at the end of the past season.

Sauve actually told Lajoie three weeks ago that he wouldn't be back but Lajoie didn't accept it.

"I refused it," said Lajoie.

"He wasn't decided yet because he is so involved in hockey. He's so attached to everything so he's letting go something he loves. I figure it's a one-year sabbatical."

Sauve and his wife Melanie are expecting their first child this fall and the former Glens' offensive star said that was a big reason for the decision.

"I'm sure it's going to be time consuming and hectic. I don't know what to expect because it's our first, it's a new chapter in my life. I want to be there to go through the steps that need to be taken."

A busy work schedule also was in mind while choosing not to return.

Sauve works in production control at Bombardier Aerospace in Dorval. He works from 6:30 a.m. to 3:05 p.m. and has been there for 10 years.

"During the winter with the snow storms the road trip takes its toll," said Sauve. "I'm expecting some sleepless nights this winter so when you take into consideration some of those trips to place like Gananoque, it would be hectic."

Sauve said he didn't consider dropping one of either his coaching or general manager duties.

"I'd rather be there and do both."

While Sauve said he's going to take a year off to reassess his situation, there's a chance he would return to coaching next season.

"If there is a junior A offer I will really consider it. I won't though if I can't give the job 100 per cent. If not, returning to junior B would not be a problem. I enjoyed the people I worked with."

Sauve said he appreciates the efforts of Leo Poirier, Robert Lajoie, Archie Stewart, Roch Lajoie, Guy Quesnel, Mike Owens, Savard and his coaches from his playing days, Kirk Anderson and Peter DeRooy, to help him become the coach that he is.

Martin Savard

Marc Sauve

"They made my chores a lot easier."

Sauve added it would be hard to return as an assistant coach in junior B but not at the junior A level.

"You're always looking to move up to the next level. The assistant coach doesn't have to be there all the time and doesn't have to be the last one there. Right now it would have to be in Cornwall or Hawkesbury though and I think their staffs are pretty intact. If I was going to go to Ottawa I might as well return to junior B."

Meanwhile Sauve is looking forward to the break.

"I've been at it for a while. It's been a long time since I've had a winter free to myself. I'll probably miss it in September when the season starts. I'm going to keep in touch and I have told Robert I'm only a phone call away if they need help."

Sauve said this year will be a vacation for him away from the game. Exciting things are ahead of him and he wants to make sure he's able to fully appreciate the birth of his first child.

"Like someone told me, hockey will still be there in a couple of years," said Sauve.

"I enjoyed my time with the Glens and deep in my heart it hurts to say no to such a good organization but I'm going to step away from the action for a little while."

Lajoie said he will accept applications for the vacant coaching and managerial position up to June 19 and will make a decision on the new positions by June 26 with club treasurer Pierre Vaillancourt.

The Glens' president thinks there will be a lot of interest.

"The way our whole town supported us last year, I feel that will help us attract coaches."

As of Thursday, Lajoie said he had no leading candidates and all three positions were completely open.

Lajoie added that he is hoping to bring in local people to fill the positions and that he would prefer to have two separate people as head coach and general manager.

He's hoping for people like Sauve.

"Marc maintained a certain level of discipline and we're looking for that again. He knew what winning was like and we need that. We have big shoes to fill. It's unfortunate he has to move on but it's for good reasons."

BIG RELIEF: Glengarry District High School junior girls soccer defender Kacie Lancaster leaps into the arms of keeper Courtney Pattyn after GDHS won a shootout over Tagwi in the SDG championship final. After a scoreless regulation and overtime, GDHS won the shootout 2-1. They will compete at EOSSAA tomorrow in Brockville.

GDHS' SDG winning streak continues

It didn't come as easily in the past though as Char-Lan and Tagwi were formidable opponents

BY TODD ANDERSON
Sports Editor

It was the best game of the local soccer season.

The senior A SDG high school girl's soccer final was a remarkable display of the talent pool in Glengarry as Char-Lan and GDHS edged their arch-rivals 1-0 Monday at GDHS.

The deciding goal came off a lengthy free kick from probably GDHS most talented player Gillian McCauley.

It took some time for the floating ball to find the back of the net over Renee Beaupre's head, it felt even longer for Gaels coach Marc Sauve for the final whistle to blow.

It finally did and the Gaels captured another SDG title.

It was their first at the A level since dropping from AA two years ago.

Char-Lan has capured seven SDG titles since 1990.

The two teams finished 1-2 in the regular season and after a 1-0 win by GDHS last Thursday in Alexandria it was apparent the two teams would likely meet in the final.

The game had its share of momentum swings and a Jenny Larkin crossbar strike earlier in the game was the difference between overtime.

It was a display of talent that was impressive but that was overshadowed by the two teams' desire to win.

Not one player on the field backed down when crashing into each other in anticipation of playing the ball.

Several players were nursing bruises Tuesday with the knowledge that they left everything in the field.

GDHS will compete in A event at Brockville on the same day.

To reach the finals, GDHS had their way with Tagwi winning 4-0.

Kristy Kennedy picked up her first of two shutouts on the day and goals were scored by Leanne Duval, Emmaly McCorkell, Tina MacDonald and McCauley.

Char-Lan blanked L'Heritage 2-0 as Veronica Poitras had the shutout and Megan Jarvo and Christine Sandilands scored.

Junior Gaels win again

The GDHS Gaels losing an SDG championship doesn't come often.

In fact without knowing exactly how many championships have been won in a row, coach Wendy Lang said she knows it's not too far away from 30.

The streak continued Monday as the Gaels got past an impressive Tagwi squad in a shootout.

The win avenged a loss to the Warriors in the first game of the regular season during a snow-filled day in Avonmore.

NOT ENOUGH: Despite making a spectacular diving save on this shootout attempt, Anne Marie Wheeler and rest of the Tagwi junior Warriors were not able to get past GDHS in the SDG championship final.

World Cup streak alive for Payer

One of Glengarry's most passionate soccer observers, Rudi Payer, will attend his fifth World Cup soccer tournament this week. He left Monday for Korea and will attend three games.

By Todd Anderson
Sports Editor

For the fifth time in his 66 years, Williamstown soccer guru Rudi Payer will attend a World Cup soccer tournament.

Payer left Ottawa Monday via Air Canada on a journey that will culminate in two and a half weeks of soccer and sight-seeing.

The owner and operator, along with his wife Sue, of Rudi Payer Sport is attending three games in Korea and will also spend a lot of time taking in the atmosphere of Seoul.

There will be three games on the schedule as Payer snagged tickets (by purchasing them off the internet) to watch defending champion France (ranked # 1 in the world) against Senegal (ranked in the 40s) in the opener on May 31. Next he will attend the United States (ranked # 13 in the world) against Portugal (ranked # 5) on June 5 and then France versus Denmark (ranked in the 20s) on June 11.

Payer also hasn't ruled out purchasing a ticket for an additional game.

This will mark the former semi-pro soccer player's fourth consecutive World Cup and fifth all time.

His first experience came in 1974 in Germany when he watched two games.

He and Sue started their family shortly after that first World Cup and it was a weekly chore to figure out how to pay the bills let alone attend a World Cup or two.

Twenty years passed until Payer was ready for his next attendance at the four-year treat for soccer enthusiasts across the world.

In 1994 Payer along with good friend Gerry Simpson of Alexandria, attended the World Cup held in Detroit, USA.

ANOTHER CUP: Williamstown soccer enthusiast Rudi Payer will be attending his fifth World Cup this week in Korea. He predicts Portugal will be the team hoisting the trophy this year.

TODD ANDERSON PHOTO

The duo took in four games in Foxboro.

In 1998 Payer attended his third World Cup in France.

It was the most memorable tournament so far.

Payer, a Vienna, Austria native, was delighted to have the chance to observe his home team Austria play Italy.

"I was very moved to see the player's hands on their hearts during the national anthem," he said.

Austria lost that game 2-0 but Payer said the $400 he paid scalpers for the ticket was well worth it.

"I had to see my old country."

Payer was forced to buy tickets through scalpers after he was robbed of his wallet while riding on the metro.

Despite warnings posted on the metro and at the station of professional pickpockets Payer said he should have been more careful.

Someone had unzipped Payer's money pouch which was held by a belt around his waist and stole his wallet.

Although he was crushed by the incident Payer said he was generally treated well in Italy.

"One guy accompanied me for 10 to 15 minutes as he showed me which street I was looking for."

The next World Cup event was in 1999 when for the first time women took to the field.

The event was held at Giant's Stadium.

Payer and Simpson attended a game between Russia and Canada and another between China and Australia.

He was quite impressed with the women's game.

"Women play pure soccer. There's no diving like the prima donnas in the men's game. That's one thing I hate about top soccer."

There's some time in between games on this trip to tour the city of 12 million.

"I arranged my own tour. My wife helped a lot, she's an excellent travel agent. I can hardly wait to check out the temples. I get intrigued when I think of the gourmet foods I'll be trying. I plan on doing a lot of sight-seeing between games."

Payer's accommodations will be less than exquisite but that wasn't the priority.

"In France I paid $100 Canadian a night for a room. I'll pay $60 Canadian a room a night in Seoul."

Payer originally looked into attending games in Japan but said he would have had to fork over around $11,000.

The Korea trip will cost him about half that.

Although Payer is upset that Austria will not compete in this year's event, he has adopted Portugal as his team of 2002.

"I feel they're going to win. Argentina looks like they could be favourites too."

Payer left Ottawa Monday at 7 a.m. and will reach Toronto in about one hour. After a one hour lay-over he'll fly for 5.5 hours to San Francisco. A stop over of two hours will give Payer a chance to prepare for the 12.5 hour ride to Seoul where he will arrive at 7 p.m. on Tuesday.

In total the trip will take 22 hours of actual time. There's a 14 hour difference between Eastern time and Seoul.

As France looks to win their second consecutive World Cup this year Payer has his own trend he would like to continue.

In four years Germany will be the host of the 2006 World Cup and at 70 years of age you can't count out Payer's chances of rolling his World Cup totals to six.

Ball hockey season begins

The new Glengarry Ball Hockey League kicked off its regular season and it already looks like the Atlantic and Champions will be the teams to beat.

Champions scored a 9-1 win over Alexandria Athletic Club as Dominic Decoeur led the way with four goals and two assists.

Joel Quesnel and Dan Jeaurond each chipped in with two goals and Pat Campeau added a single.

Sebastien Cholette had the lone AAC goal.

In the other match the Atlantic scored a 5-0 win over Farley's as Sylvain Lavigne was perfect in goal.

Steven vanden Oetelaar and Sylvain Lobb each scored twice and Nick Quennville added a single.

Heart of Glengarry win again

The expansion Heart of Glengarry U12 girls team won their second game in two chances in the Ottawa Carleton Soccer League Monday.

Sara Sonnel was flawless in goal in a 2-0 victory over South Nepean Black. Kalica Koggel and Lindsay Boisvenue were the goal scorers.

Char-Lan wins first two games this year

The Char-Lan and Alexandria B squads each won a couple of games in last week's Glengarry Soccer League senior women action.

Char-Lan opened the season with a 5-4 victory over a much-improved Glen Nevis squad.

Vanessa VanSleeuwen returned to her old self scoring four goals in her first game this year. Nicole Melnyk had the other Char-Lan goal.

Jenna Sauve with three and Luanne Nadeau replied for Glen Nevis.

In Char-Lan's next game they shut out Greenfield 5-0.

VanSleeuwen with two, Mandy Larocque with two and Calla Humphries scored in the victory.

Alexandria B enjoyed the return of Rachel Denner to the lineup as she scored once in a 4-0 win over Greenfield in their first game of the season.

Laine McDonell added two and Josiette Laferriere potted a single.

In Alexandria B's next game they lost to a revamped Vankleek Hill team 4-3.

Ashleigh Tolhurst with three and Anne Marie Laliberte scored in the victory.

Michelle Owen, Laine McDonell and Mallory Werely scored in the loss.

Defending champion Alexandria A doubled Glen Sandfield 2-0.

Beth Depratto and Melissa MacDonald scored in the win.

Last year's playoff finalists Laggan had their way with Vankleek Hill.

Carol MacLeod with two, Nancy MacLeod, Mandy Taylor, Shonna Atchison and Meghan Waters scored in the win.

Tolhurst replied in the loss.

Men's division

In a replay of last year's playoff semi-finals the two teams who made it to the finals won a pair of regular season games last week.

The defending champion Stars defeated McCrimmon by a 3-0 score.

John MacCulloch, Tim VanOverbeek and Jonas Eidvall scored in the win.

The Drillers scored a 3-1 decision over Greenfield in the other men's match.

Mike MacKinnon, Karl Hehn and Gary Lee scored for the winners while Rodney Benton replied for Greenfield.

No scoresheets or call-ins were made for any other games.

Tier II

L'Orignal has taken early bragging rights as championship favourites.

The team defeated last year's winners Hearts 5-1.

Patrick Labre with three, Pierre Antoine Pinard and Sebastien Duval scored in the win while Andre Chenier replied in the loss.

Then with only seven players in the lineup L'Orignal earned a 2-2 draw with Glen Sandfield.

Pinard and Carlo Caporicci scored for L'Orignal while Evan Koronewski and Mark Burleton replied for Glen Sandfield.

The Hearts did win their game over expansion SCM 3-0.

Richard Willard with two and Robbie Starkauskus scored in the win.

Glen Nevis earned a win in their first game 4-1 over the Flames.

Kennedy McDonald with two, Glen Campbell and Findlay MacLeod scored for Glen Nevis. Josh Wensink had the lone Flames goal.

Ladouceur, Doiron early leaders in Cornwall

By Todd Anderson
Sports Editor

Alexandria drivers Joel Doiron and Laurent Ladouceur have an early jump in the standings at Cornwall Motor Speedway.

After two races the duo find themselves tied for first atop the modified division point standings at the track they've called home for some time now.

Last week Ladouceur finished fourth and Doiron fifth as veteran Dave Heaslip took the checkered flag after leading throughout the 30-lap feature.

Luc Plante and Chris Herbison finished second and third respectively.

Other local results had Lee Ladouceur placing 10th while Simon Marcoux was 12th.

In the first edition of the late model four-race Mr. Radiator Series, Dave Bissonette out-dueled Mitchell Jock in a 50-lap feature.

Bissonette and Jock battled throughout the race until the winner took a lead in the final 10 laps.

Jock crossed the line second with Alexandria's Marc Therrien placing third just in front of fellow Glengarrian Joey Ladouceur who had to pass through the field of cars three times after a couple of incidents.

He fell just short after an impressive recovery.

In the 15-lap duke stock feature, Robin Laframboise placed first followed by Richard Turcotte, Gaetan Amesse, Randy Andre and Tammy Jalbert.

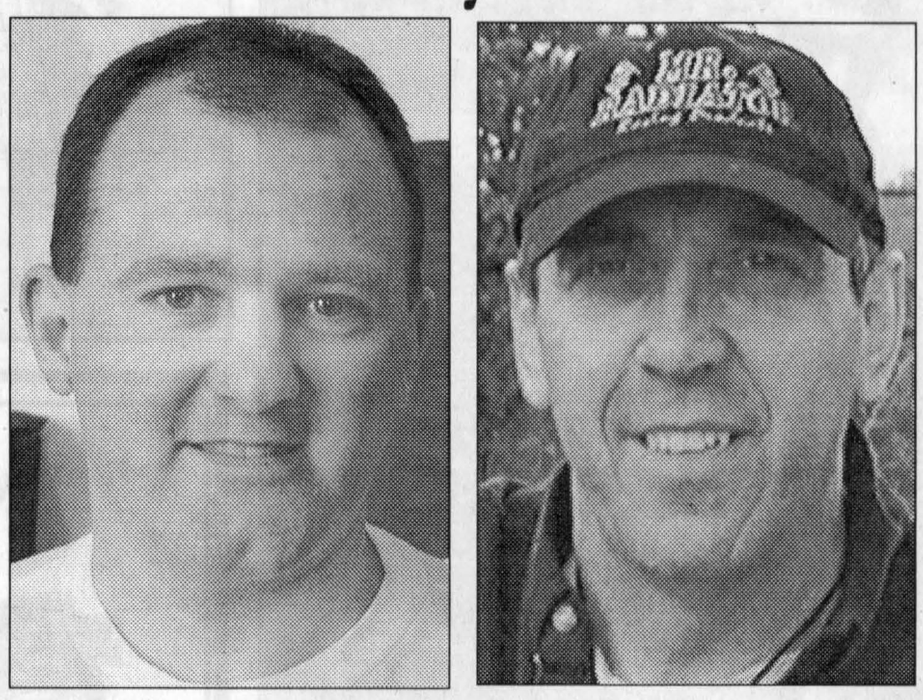
The first few laps of the rookie stock event were filled with incidents involving several drivers.

After things calmed down on the track Alexandria's Rosco Garreau was a convincing winner.

He was followed by Nico Leblanc, Dan Lortie, Kevin Fetterly Jr. and Danielle Legault.

Next Sunday is photo and autograph night with a full race program.

The green flag drops at 7 p.m.



A GREAT START: Alexandria drivers Joel Doiron, left, and Laurent Ladouceur are on course for great individual seasons at Cornwall Motor Speedway this year.

Soccer: GDHS coach predicts shootout at morning practice

After a scoreless regulation the Gaels outscored Tagwi 2-1 in the shootout to clinch the title.

Down 2-1 Tagwi sniper Tricia Leduc hit the crossbar on the last attempt to award Glengarry the winners.

"I really expected a shootout," said Lang, a first year coach.

"We met at 7 a.m. this morning to practice them and other weaknesses."

Lang had some praise for the improved team from Tagwi.

"All their sports teams are getting better. They get to the ball quickly and they were tough."

Courtney Pattyn was solid in goal for GDHS and battled through a nervous start to the deciding format of penalty kicks.

On the first Tagwi attempt Pattyn made the save but another shot was awarded because she left the line early. She turned away the next shot again.

"I was thinking how could he do that to me," Pattyn said of the referees decision to award another shot.

"We deserved to win. This is Glengarry and we have a reputation to uphold."

On the other side of the field was keeper Anne Marie Wheeler. She did all she could to give her team a chance to win.

After allowing the first two shots into the goal, Wheeler turned away the next three.

Kacie Lancaster and Rachel MacPherson scored for GDHS in the shootout while Liane Jeaurond replied for Tagwi.

To reach the finals GDHS had an easy time handing Seaway a 6-0 defeat.

Mary Jane O'Shea, Alicia McDougall, Rachel MacPherson, Melanie Hamilton and Michelle Filion scored in the win.

Tagwi reached the final after defeating Char-Lan 1-0 on a goal from Jessica Morin late in the game.

Last week's action

During the final tournament of the regular season Glengarry clinched first place in both divisions after wins over Char-Lan.

The senior Gaels got a goal from Emmaly McCorkell and a shutout from Kristy Kennedy in a 1-0 win.

In their other game Kennedy was perfect again and Laura McCorkell with two, Gillian McCauley and Leanne Duval scored in a 4-0 win over CCVS.

Char-Lan beat CCVS 3-1.

Amy Palmer, Juliana Richard and Kim Lebrun scored in the win.

The junior Gaels defeated Char-Lan 3-1.

Tagwi finished off a strong regular season winning their final two games finishing just two points behind GDHS.

Tagwi beat North Dundas 2-1 on goals from Amanda Chisholm and Katherine Warwick.

Against Seaway Ann Marie Wheeler had the shutout and Kelsey Benson and Erin Klimas scored in a 2-0 victory.

The senior Warrios earned a 1-0 victory of Seaway in their last game of the season to leap frog the Spartans for the opportunity to play GDHS in the SDG semi-finals.

Sakic to attend hockey camp breakfast

By Todd Anderson
Sports Editor

Participants of the inaugural Bob Hartley High Intensity Hockey Camp will get the opportunity of meeting one of the best hockey players in the world.

In an interview conducted last week The News learned that defending Stanley Cup champion Colorado Avalanche captain Joe Sakic, who also played in an integral part in Team Canada winning the 2002 Olympic gold medal in hockey, will attend a breakfast on Aug. 7.

"He's coming down to have breakfast with all the kids," said Hartley, the head coach of the Avalanche and a Hawkesbury native, Thursday.

"Joe isn't going on the ice but he'll be there just before the camp. The breakfast will be held in the room upstairs at the Bob Hartley Recreation Centre in Hawkesbury and is open only to participants of the camp.

Hartley said there is still room for participants and that there is already a strong representation from Glengarry.

Hartley played goaltender for the Alexandria Glens in 1978 and continues to associate with several people in the area. Other National Hockey League notables who will attend the camp and teach the participants on the ice include: Michel Therrien, Martin Lapointe, Denis Hamel and of course Hartley.

For more information or to book a spot in the camp call 613-936-9335.

Char-Lan sending seven athletes to EOSSAA

GDHS's Jeremy Lefaivre and Natasha Neumann will move on, but Le Relais and Tagwi fail to send any athletes past the East Regionals in track and field.

By Todd Anderson
Sports Editor

Char-Lan District High School once again is leading the way in local track and field participation.

Seven students from the school will take part in the East Regionals which will take place at the Terry Fox Centre in Ottawa Thursday.

Leading the way once again is track veteran Calla Humphries who finished second in both the 800 metre and 400 metre races at the East Regionals at Grenville Christian College last week.

The senior was clocked at 1:03.65 in the 400 metre and 2:32.40 in the 800 metre.

Wayne Lee, another senior, was fifth in the high jump with a leap of 1.65 metres.

Junior Nathan Poitras will attend his second consecutive EOSSAA championships after he placed fourth in the shot-put with a toss of 12.65 metres.

Midget Kathleen Peddell had a strong showing in the high jump. She placed second with a leap of 1.41 metres.

The midget girls 4X100 metre relay team also qualified for EOSSAA as Sapphire Van Loon, Jessa Millar, Hannah Humphries and Kathleen Peddell placed fifth in a time of 58.2 seconds.

GDHS sends a pair

Seniors Natasha Neummann and Jeremy Lefaivre seem like they will have good shots at continuing their track and field seasons tomorrow in Ottawa.

Neumann was a bright light for GDHS at the East Regionals last week as she finished first in the senior girls' javelin and fourth in the high jump.

Lefaivre had a good run in the senior boys' 1,500 metre race placing third.

Despite sending over 20 athletes to the East Regionals those were the only two to move on.

"It was a disappointing day," said coach Phyllis Nielsen.

"It was very windy and the competition was very stiff."

Both Tagwi and Le Relais failed to send anyone to EOSSAA despite a handful of athletes just missing the cut.

Tom Too: thief, rascal – traits of an orange cat

HIGHLAND PATHS

KEN MCKENNA

I was surprised at the positive reaction from so many readers regarding my cat articles which appeared here last year. At that time I wrote about the four stray cats we have adopted over the years and I finished up by telling you about a fifth cat, Tom Too, which we had just taken in. As I explained, Anne claims he is too little to spell "two" properly. I agree that this is becoming a little obsessive but as I explained, he stole our hearts because he is a dead ringer of our first Tom of fond memory. Tom was a big part of this family for sixteen years and, as orange cats are wont to be, he was an accomplished thief and rascal.

Tom Too has taken up where Tom left off. While all the other felines in the house are comparatively well-behaved, in this one we see the orange genes coming through loud and clear. As our vet, Janet Lalonde, explained, orange tabbies are usually very smart and, believe me, this imp is no exception.

So far he has managed to steal some of Anne's jewelry, any food in sight (as did the first Tom) socks, and unmentionables. He carefully hid them in his secret cache and it took us some time before we found it and retrieved our belongings. He was somewhat miffed about the whole thing and proceeded to find another hiding place. It has become a very interesting and somewhat frustrating game to find our stuff.

It never ceases to amaze me just how different cats can be – each one with their own personality and very definite habits. It was a revelation to us that all the other four cats took to him immediately. It is usually advisable to keep the newcomer in its own space for a day or two until the others get used to the intrusion. This was not the case with Tom Too. Samantha, Malcolm, Miss Daisy and Finn all seemed to welcome him with open paws and no hissing or annoyance was at all discernible. Keep in mind that our cats never get outside – males neutered and females spayed – so he had had no contact with them at all.

Tom Too's arrival at Kintail Farm was a little different from all the others. He was born in our barn and when his mother and siblings left, he stayed. For what reason is still a mystery but I have an idea that he was smart enough to know a good thing when he saw it. He was quite wild and would run away very quickly and hide in the bushes or the barn if we tried to approach him. It took Anne three weeks to finally teach him to trust us. She put food and water out on the lawn and every day brought it closer to the house. But as soon as she appeared in the window to watch him eat, he would run away again and hide in the bushes with only his nose sticking out. During a very rainy day, Anne saw him in hiding with the rain dripping off his nose and ears but even that didn't deter him, As soon as she was out sight, he came to gobble up the food and gobble he did.

She finally decided to bring the cat carrying box to the back door and put the food and water inside it with the idea of getting him used to the box so that eventually she could get him to the vet for a general clean-up and shots. The plan worked. With the help of our grandson, Michael Sandy, they got the cage closed and off to Janet Lalonde they went. Much to their surprise, he never made a sound and upon arriving at Janet's, he behaved like a perfect gentleman. Whether it was abject fear or common sense, who knows. It was probably the latter because he never stopped purring. As I said, orange cats are smart.

He also has a very expressive tail. We have a feeling that when he grows older, it will become more prehensile, helping him to steal things from both ends. I jest, of course.

Tom Too has become an important part of this household and his antics keep us well entertained. We're glad he decided to stay.

History reveals itself in old news clippings

GLEN SANDFIELD

LORNA CHAPMAN
874-2408

We are renovating the kitchen and my step-son made an amazing find in the walls of the room. Newspaper had been used to insulate part of the kitchen and it is dated 1907. The Montreal Herald, which is no longer in existence, had been mailed to Mr. McCrae and he used it to good advantage it seems. The paper advertises a contest and the first prize was a "handsome writing desk" with a value of $18. An elegant gentleman a knee-length fitted overcoat and top hat is illustrated as being the very height of fashion for a well-dressed man.

The paper itself is in remarkable shape having been enclosed tightly in the wall and we can open it gently without breaking the pages. The date told us that the addition had been built after the house, which was constructed in 1893. The bare boards had been white-washed and some of them are 16 inches wide so the owners lived with it unfinished for a while and probably used it as a summer kitchen. It was finally finished in narrow tongue and groove boards and painted, however there was no insulation. This was the way we found it in 1959 when we purchased the house. So a bit of history has been revealed and some of the articles are most interesting. The paper speaks of Sir. Baden Powell travelling to England. More about the contents at a later date.

Birthdays

Nancy and Michel Sabourin, Carl and Jamie attended the 90th birthday gathering last weekend at a mountain lodge north of Joliette, QC for Michel's mother, Mrs. Wilfred (Philomen) Sabourin of Chateauguay. She and her husband, with all ten of their children and families on hand, made about 45 people present for the celebration.

Last Sunday, Christena MacLachlan accompanied her son, Kevin, to Manotick to a birthday celebration for her granddaughter, Cheri, hosted by her parents Alida and Murray MacLachlan at their home. Isobel and Lloyd MacLennan accompanied their son Earl, his wife Janice and daughter Britany of Maxville to the celebration.

My step-son, Ed Chapman, took his daughter Lynn of St. Calixte, QC out to dinner in St. Linn on her birthday, May 18. Isabelle Chapman from Longueil, another daughter, had lunch with him on May 19 to celebrate her belated birthday

Toastmasters

The Glengarry Toastmasters met upstairs at Priest's Mill on May 22 with an excellent turnout for their dinner meeting. Mary McDonald was toastmaster and she kindly arranged for me to read an original poem called The Birthday Present before the regular meeting started, and it did get a laugh. I remained at the meeting for 45 minutes before joining three of my daughters downstairs.

Charlotte Hillier from St. Lambert, Bonnie Chapman from Brossard, and Nancy Chapman from Alexandria treated me to a birthday dinner. It's not often that we have a girl's night out and we all really enjoyed the evening together.

Ottawa wedding

Della and Clifford MacDonald were among the guests at the wedding of Mark Barlow and Debra Diane Goodright at St. Marks the Evangelist Anglican Church in Ottawa on May 11. The reception was held at the Chateau in Aylmer, Quebec. Alan and Bernice Barlow, the grooms' parents, lived in the Glen Sandfield area for many years before moving to Chapel Road near Apple Hill. It was a most joyous occasion and a grand time to renew friendships.

GEPC meets

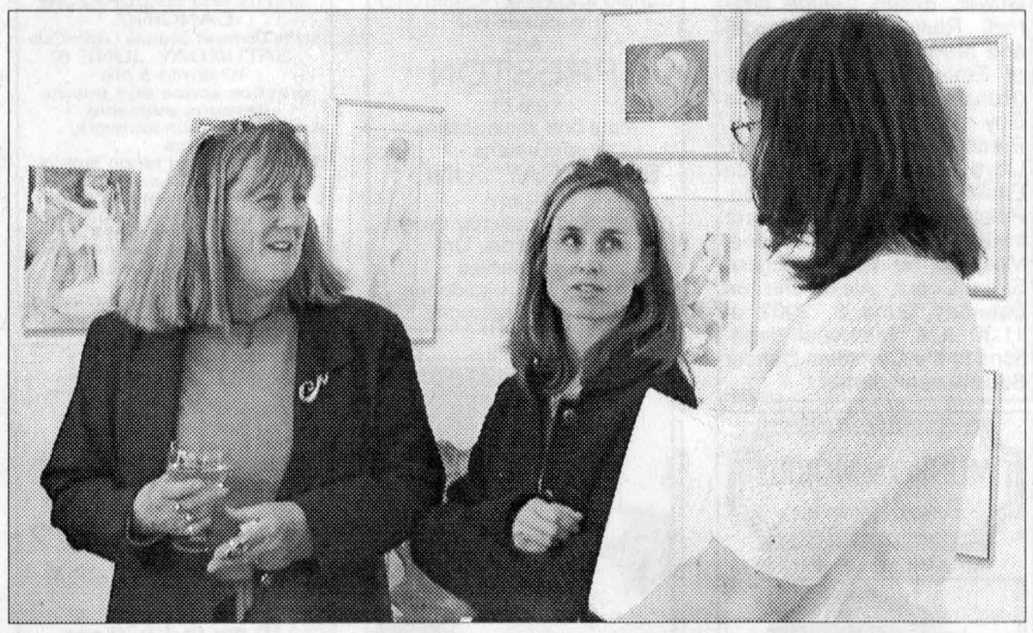
The GEPC met in Glen Sandfield United Church on May 21 for the official board meeting. The Rev. Elisabeth Brookham of Kirk Hill United Church officiated. Stanley Fraser accepted the chair for the meeting.

The best news was that GEPC's request for a newly-ordained minister to be placed here has been fulfilled. No name has been revealed as yet and won't be until presbytery has made it official but it is known that she is a young woman, single and 29 years of age.

She is reported to have abundant energy (which she will need in such a large charge) and is most eager to begin her service here. The members agreed to accept Maureen O'Neil of Ottawa as half-time minister. Although she is not ordained, the people felt that her long-term service within the United Church as pastoral care worker will surely stand her in good stead. So GEPC is to have a minister as of July 1. It's official.

Church services

Sunday morning worship services are celebrated each week at 10 a.m. in Glen Sandfield United Church and at 11:15 a.m. in East Hawkesbury United Church. Visitors are always welcome.



FINE WOMEN IN ART: Local artist Deborah Kerr, right, chats with two visitors at the Arbour Gallery's art exhibition held earlier in May. Entitled A Feel for Sensuality, the exhibition showcased the talent of local women artists and reflected a wide variety of styles, techniques and mediums.

Storyteller's inspiring performance

DALKEITH

JEAN MACLENNAN
874-2385

Muriel McCaskill and grandson, Daryl, visited the Williamstown Library May 18 to hear Linda Mikolayenako, a member of The Storytellers of Canada Guild. What a superb performance. Later, they called at Onagh Ross' Book Nook in Martintown. Did you see Onagh's picture in the May 15 edition of The Glengarry News?

Visitors to Dalkeith

Dorothy Derry of Lancaster, recently spent a day at our house.

Recently, Jamie, Tony McCormack and family have been entertaining their relatives. First Jamie's mother, Faye Bothie was here for a month from Victoria. Tony's father, Robert McCormack, from Dorset, England, spent a couple of weeks in the area.

Bermuda buddy

Last weekend, Malcolm Martine, a school friend of Joseph Fraser who just happens to be from the warm clime of Bermuda, came to visit and the two had lots of fun in the big metropolis of Dalkeith while they were down for break from Albert College in Belleville. Joseph Fraser had this report about their stay.

The very first day, upon setting foot in Dalkeith, we rushed out to find my friends. Once we found them, I introduced him and everyone hit it off from the beginning. We played basketball and just hung out pretty much the whole weekend. He liked it so much that he came back this weekend and we engaged in a most delightful game of golf in Alexandria. Now it's his turn to let me stay at his house.

Peacock lost

A blue-shouldered peacock has been lost in the Brodie area. If you see Comet, please contact Diane at 874-9990.

Book sale

A sale of used books will be at the Dalkeith Library on June 22 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Great assortment.

Euchre

Euchre at Laggan ended for the season on May 23. It will likely resume for the season in the fall. Winners were: Ladies 1st – Marion MacGillivray, 2nd – Murielle Poulin; Gents 1st – Gordon Sharpe, 2nd – Roger Brazeau; Door Prize – Isobel MacLennan; 50/50 – Alec Tittley, Berthe Sauve, Tonie Oetelaar, Gordon Sharpe and Isobel MacLennan. Convenors were Lucie Seguin-MacMillan, Tom Webster and Catherine Fraser.

Keep practicing during the summer and have a happy holiday season.

Sandbags tourney

On May 11, the Optimist Club and the Sandbag league organized a sandbag tournament for children. The team of Elisa Cousineau, Nancy Carriere, David Perreault and Phillip Desmarais won the gold medal with a score of 20,570.

The team of Darryl Taillon, Meagan Lapensée. Sarah Perrault and Angela Cousineau won the silver with a score of 17,140.

The team of André Perrier, Paul Dufresne and Sebastien Lemay won the bronze with a score of 16,400.

The children enjoyed themselves. See you next year for another day of fun for the children.

The Bible tells us, "Those who trust in the Lord for help will find their strength renewed. They will rise on wings like eagles; they will run and not get weary; they will walk and not grow weak," (Isaiah 40:31).

JOHN WARDEN SEPTIC TANK PUMPING

931-2813
RR 1, Summerstown

Country living at its best sometimes means, providing some of your own services, such as a sewage system. A septic tank is an underground sewage-collection system. The tank itself is a watertight container constructed of a sound, durable, material resistant to corrosion or decay.

Septic tanks require maintenance. As you use your septic system, sludge will accumulate in the tank. Properly designed tanks have enough space for up to three years of safe accumulation. Once the sludge has reached this level, the separation of solids and scum no longer takes place, and sewage may overflow into the absorption area. This can create an unsafe and unhealthy condition, but can be prevented by periodically pumping the accumulated sludge.

JOHN WARDEN SEPTIC TANK PUMPING are experts in septic tank pumping & commercial and are fully licensed and insured. This business guided by John Warden also rent and service portable toilets. No requirement is too great or small. They supply toilets to meet all kinds of needs. From weekend get-togethers, to construction sites, they have the equipment and people to satisfy virtually any requirement. John also operates JOHN WARDEN FUELS INC. providing all your home heating and air conditioning and fuel service requirements. Now is a good time to have your oil tank checked for compliance of new regulations in effect.

How often should pumping be done? Every 2 to 3 years are most common. Learn how to recognize problems with septic systems. For example, unusually lush and green grass over your drain field may indicate trouble. Also, pay attention to slow-draining toilets or drains, sewage odors, or sewage backing up into the house or over the drain field.

If you are experiencing these symptoms, it's time to have your septic tank pumped. Call JOHN WARDEN SEPTIC TANK PUMPING or JOHN WARDEN FUELS INC. Their excellent business policies have enabled them to become one of the most reputable organizations in the business.

Births

NURSE–Bruce and Helene (nee Titley) are proud to welcome to their family a third son, Samuel Charles, born on Thursday, March 21, 2002, a brother for Matthew and Dakota. They reside in Newton, Manitoba. This is a 3rd grandchild for Michel and Muriel (Ouimet) Titley of Athabasca, Alberta (formerly of Green Valley), and a 27th great-grandchild for Mrs. Constance Titley of Glen Robertson. 22-n/c

MacLACHLAN–Julie (nee MacDonald) and Andrew are pleased to announce the birth of their first child, Andrew Jack on Wednesday, May 8, 2002 at Hotel Dieu Hospital, Cornwall, weighing 8 lbs. 4 oz. Proud grandparents are Ken and Norma MacDonald and Lyall and Elizabeth MacLachlan, all of Williamstown. 22-n/c

BELLEFEUILLE–Michelle (nee Masson) and Serge are pleased to announce the birth of Frederic on Tuesday, May 21, 2002 at Hawkesbury General Hospital weighing 8 lbs. 6oz. A brother for Alexandra and Dustin. Proud grandparents are Ron and Gisele Masson and Guy and Claire Bellefeuille, all of Alexandria. 22-n/c

Card of Thanks

MacGILLIVRAY–Thanks to all those who helped to make the celebration of our 65th wedding anniversary so special. Your cards, flowers, best wishes, gifts, phone calls and visits were much appreciated and have given us very happy memories.
–Evans and Mora MacGillivray 22-1p

WE would like to thank all the helping hands and giving hearts who made our annual garage and bake sale such a super success. A very special thank you to the Simons family for their thoughtful generosity in Astridas' memory.
–S.T.A.R. 22-1p

SHAYNE–The family of the late Jim Shayne who passed away May 25, 2002 would like to thank family, friends and neighbours, staff at Paramed and Bradsen and all who helped over the years.
–Pat 22-1p

McDONALD–The family of the late Irene McDonald (McDonald's General Store), would like to thank family and friends who offered their love and support during the recent loss of our mom. Thank you to Dr. Shah who looked after his friend and HDH 4th floor staff who met her every need. A special thank you to the caring and faithful folks of Greenfield. What a tremendously dedicated community. With your love and support it was possible for Mrs. McDonald to stay at home for as long as she did. It was her wish and you enabled her to fulfill it.
–Forever grateful, Carol and Wilbert.
22-1p

MARC LEGER
Alice and family wish to express their sincere appreciation to all who visited or attended the funeral of Sgt. Marc Leger. Many thanks to those who brought flowers to the Lancaster and Williamstown cenotaphs. 22-1p

IDA and DON BEATY
Wish to thank our family Hilary, Jenni and Paul and also all the wonderfully generous friends who joined together with them to give us the lovely reception to celebrate our golden wedding anniversary. Including Shirley and Lorne MacDonald and family, Karen Kingston and girls, Vicky Hardy, Billie and Rodney Nixon, Judy and Daryl MacLeod and family, Helen Kaufman, Diane Edwards, Camille Campeau, Lynne McNab. Your kindness made wonderful memories for us and warmed our hearts.
Luv, Bubba and Pops 22-1p

In Memoriam

MASSIA, Florence–In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, who passed away May 29, 1996.
Six years have passed Mom
Since you were called away,
Like falling leaves the years slip by
But loving memories never die.
To those who have a mother,
Cherish her with care,
For you'll never know the heartache
Until you find she is not there.
Till memory fades and life departs,
You live forever in our hearts.
–Love always, Shirley, Eugene, Maureen, Wayne, Amy. 22-1p

le 27 mai, 2001
Déjà un an. Pour moi c'est comme si tu m'avais quitté hier pour cette nouvelle vie.
Ton visage, ta voix et ton sourire sont gravés à jamais dans mon coeur.
Continue de bien veiller sur moi comme tu le faisais si bien sur cette terre.
Je t'aime Pépère
ton petit-fils Michel xx 22-1p

DANIELLE LAUZON (LALONDE)
In loving memory of a dear daughter who passed away May 31, 2001.
In my dreams you are alive and well
In my mind, I see you clear as a bell
In my soul, there is a hole that can never be filled
But in my heart, there is hope cause you are with me still.
In my heart, you live on
Always there, never gone
Precious Child, you left too soon though it may be true we're apart
You will live forever, in my heart.
God knows, I want to hold you, feel, touch you and maybe there is a heaven and someday
I will again
Please know you're not forgotten until the end.
We miss you. Your light will always shine.
Mom (Jocelyne), and family

$700 bingo planned for Sunday

GLEN ROBERTSON

COLETTE SAUVÉ
874-2076

A bingo is planned for this Sunday at the centre at 7 p.m. Organized by the Optimists with a jackpot of $700, all the profits will go towards World Youth Day.

A lucky person will win the $1,000 Optimist monthly draw. Welcome to all!

The canteen profits of the bingo on April 7 and of this Sunday, which usually go to the recreation centre, will all go towards the WYD.

A car wash will be held on June 8 in the church parking lot from 10 to 4. All donations will go towards the WYD. Hot dogs and drinks will also be sold.

The community yard sale is also on that day. Let's just hope that the weather will co-operate.

Local talent show

This should be a fun night with all local talents entertaining us. Everyone is invited to attend on June 14 at the church hall at 7:30 p.m. Admission will be $4 for adults and $2 for children.

Coffee will be served with dessert. This is another fundraiser for WYD. For more info, please phone Theo at 874-2052.

Get well

Get well wishes go out to Béatrice Lalonde who is back home recuperating after spending a few days at the General Hospital in Cornwall lately.

Welcome Vincent

At last Sunday's mass celebration, a very special event took place. Father Eric Robichaud baptized Vincent, son of Daniel Dumont and Michelle St. Pierre. Proud godparents were Manon Chenier and Marc St. Pierre. Emilie, Melissa and Karinne are very happy to welcome their new little brother. Congratulations!

Club 65

Club 65 is presently looking for a physical fitness instructor to give courses. If interested, please contact Rita at 874-2783.

Sympathy

Sympathy is extended to the family of Louis Lefebvre, 70 years old, of Cornwall who died last week. He was the brother-in-law of Pauline Roussin and Florence Montpetit of this parish. Mass of Christian burial was held in Saint-Thérèse-De-Lisieux church in Cornwall.

Condolences also to the family of Elizabeth Théoret of Cornwall, 51 years old who passed away. Mass was celebrated at the Blessed Sacrament Church. She was the mother of Richard and Sylvain Théoret who are both members of the Glen Robertson Optimist Club.

Canada Day

Tickets are now on sale to raise funds to help purchase new equipment for the playground at the centre. Air conditioning is now another improvement at the centre and if you rent the hall on hot days or nights, it will surely be a plus.

If you would like to have tickets, please phone François at 874-2739 or any member of the social centre. Some are available at the Basic Needs Depanneur.

A $1,000 ticket will be drawn on June 29 when a mini-social will take place on the centre grounds. There will be a live band, booths and outside activities. I f you are interested in having a booth on June 29, please phone Sylvie at 874-2048. Everyone who uses the centre facilities whether it is inside or outside should encourage the sale of the tickets.

Brunch

Circle this date on your calendar June 30 when a Canada Day brunch will be held in the church hall where all the organizations in the Glen will be working together. The OPP will be serving as $300 will go towards to sponsor a youth for a summer camp and the remaining profits will go to the WYD. More details later!

Foot care clinic

A foot care clinic will be held on June 5 at the centre. Diners' Club will also take place on June 13 at the centre. Please phone ahead for both activities at 525-4443.

WYD receives financial boost

By Todd Anderson
Sports Editor

The Government of Canada is lending a hand to the World Youth Day projects in the Diocese of Alexandria-Cornwall.

Don Boudria, Minister of Public Works and Government Services and Member of Parliament for Glengarry-Prescott-Russell and Bob Kilger, Member of Parliament for Stormont-Dundas-Charlottenburgh were on hand Friday as the WYD office in Alexandria officially opened.

Mr. Boudria had some positive news to go along with the visit.

He announced on behalf of Jane Stewart, Minister of Human Resources Development Canada, that funding of $137,713 would be given to the Diocese Alexandria-Cornwall for the development and organization of World Youth Day.

It's planned that two positions will be employed at the office in Alexandria while the other five will work at the Cornwall office.

"This is a unique opportunity for us to be associated with World Youth Day," said Mr. Kilger during the proceedings.

"The experience in the work force will be a benefit for the people chosen for this position and it should also be a good growth experience."

Mr. Boudria said he thinks that World Youth Day provides an opportunity for Canadians to realize how lucky they are.

"People are coming from all over the world. I think that's great. It rekindles the spirit of generosity and that's something we need to keep. Hopefully our visitors remind us that we can make the world a better place for poorer countries."

The Government of Canada support for the project if provided through HRDC's Job Creation Partnership program which provides jobs for Employment Insurance participants.

In addition to the government's contribution, the Diocese and others will invest $199,000 to $337,613.

The participants will support the organization of WYD 2002, a 10-day event for 16 to 35-year olds from around the world culminating in a WYD Mass with the Pope on July 28 in Toronto.

The participants will develop and implement marketing strategies, plan and organize events and promote the event to young people including young Francophones.

Over 500 young people are expected to visit the area over the 10-day period.

Value and Variety

When it comes to value-priced 30-hp tractors, no one offers more choices than New Holland with the TC30 compact tractor. Stop in and we can help you choose a TC30 to fit your needs. You'll select from features you won't find on competitive value-priced tractors - like a hydrostatic transmission and mid-mounted PTO. Or choose the 9x3 gear transmission that offers more flexibility than the 8x2 transmission offered by competitive tractors.

No matter how you equip your TC30, you'll get exceptional performance at a price that fits your budget.

Strong local participation at Maxville Holstein Show

By Pete Bock
News Correspondent

A farm from Nova Scotia proved to be the big winner, as the Kenyon Agricultural Society hosted another successful Maxville Spring Holstein Show, last Thursday.

Tension and anticipation spilled over into excitement when the winning entries were announced. Cobequid Holsteins' owner Brian Yuill planted a big kiss on Marie-Eve Véronneau, who showed Grand Champion senior 3-year old, Bozen Nicolas Nina, as the cattle left the judging circle.

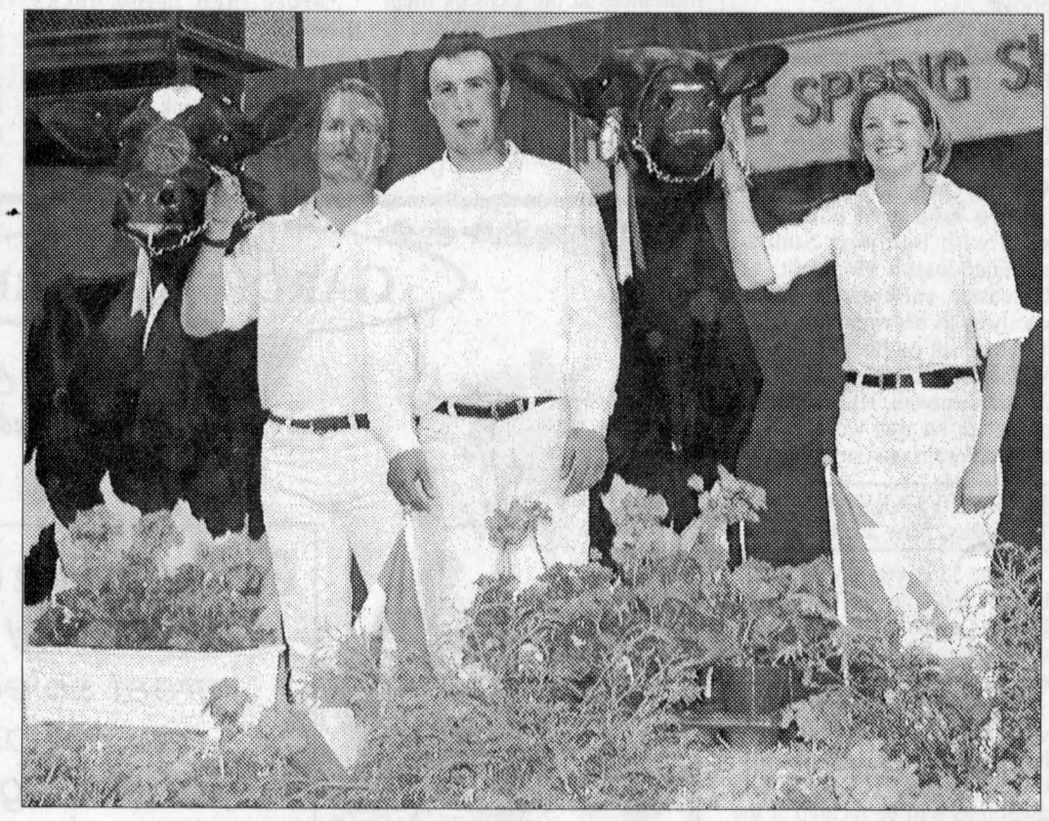
The Truro, Nova Scotia farm took home the show's top two honours – Awesome Marble Japhia was Reserve Grand Champion. They also collected the titles of Reserve Premier Breeder and Premier Exhibitor.

The other top awards went to Herb Henderson of Ashton, Ontario for Premier Breeder, and to Breeze Hill Holstein in Winchester, for Reserve Premier Exhibitor.

The Holstein Show, which used to be part of the Maxville Fair, ran this year on its own as the fair has been pushed to a later date.

Although the top prizes were not won locally, there was strong local participation, with a number of solid finishes.

Don Johnston and Nancy Beerwort's Cherry Crest Farm in Martintown had eight entries. Their top finisher was a second in the junior 3-year old class, which ranked as Glengarry's highest placement.



CHAMPIONS: Cobequid Holsteins, a farm from Truro, Nova Scotia, was the big winner at the Maxville Spring Show last Thursday, taking the two top awards. Tom Pasco's Glenhaven Farms in Williamstown entered a 2-year old who took sixth place in her class.

David and Ann Marie MacMillan, of Lochdale Farms in Lochiel, had three entries.

Their top finisher was a fifth in the 2-year old category.

Neil and Ian Fraser, of Gleneil Farm in Dalkeith had seven entries. Their top finishers were fourths, in both the junior herd category and the senior 3-year old category.

Carmin Howes, of Lochill Farm in Dalkeith, had a fifth place finish in the senior yearling class.

Robert and Nancy MacDonald, of Kirklea Farms in Dalkeith had three entries. Their top finisher was an eighth place in the senior yearling category.

Chairman of the Maxville Spring Show, Alain Legault, had two entries. A senior calf, from his Domar Farms in Moose Creek, took fourth place.

"It was a very successful show, we had good numbers and good quality," said Agricultural Society secretary, Janice Blaney.

"There were 114 cows, 16 classes, and cows from as far away as Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia."

Ms. Blaney added that there were people in the audience from England, France and the United States.

Agricultural stats not news for farmers

By Ron Bonnett
Vice-President, Ontario
Federation of Agriculture

Canada's urban media found a lot of news value in the information released last week by Statistics Canada about changes taking place in this country's farming industry. For farmers, it wasn't news – we've been personally involved in the downward spiral of farm and farmer numbers for a number of years.

The Statistics Canada figures reflect the farm response to changing economic conditions. New technology, improved farm management, trade agreements, food safety costs, environmental costs and government support levels are all factors which have led to declining margins for farmers who grow commodities that are traded internationally.

We are starting to see a split in the way farmers deal with these economic situations. The choice is becoming clear – farmers are choosing to become either a large volume, low margin producer, or concentrate on higher margin niche market opportunities.

In order to have a strong economy in rural Ontario, we need to maintain a proper mix of both types of farm operations. Unequivocally, a strong economy in rural Ontario is dependant on a strong agricultural economy.

Farmers, especially the smaller ones, have taken off-farm jobs as a means of hanging onto the way of life they prefer for themselves and their families.

At the OFA, we are concerned that regardless of which focus a farmer has chosen, government policy has a direct impact on profitability. For the large farm, government policy must address issues of international competitiveness – U.S. farmers have recently received a huge injection of cash which will artificially drive down world commodity prices.

Our governments must respond with policies and programs that address the inequities of government support between Canadian farmers and their competitors.

When Statistics Canada released the agricultural figures, the urban media wanted to know why the changes are taking place. There have been weak signals that some of the urban politicians are beginning to understand.

Hopefully the figures released by Stats Canada will paint a much more vivid picture for them. If they have any desire to reverse the current trends in the farming communities across Ontario and Canada, they should start listening to the few remaining farmers and the organizations that speak for them.

Lawn tip of the week
What are the advantages of a residential front mower?
A residential front mower has some of the best features of both riders and lawn tractors. It offers the up-front visibility of the rider and the larger mower decks and higher horsepower of the lawn tractors. Its superior maneuverability is very beneficial when mowing highly landscaped or wooded areas.

County WI holds annual meeting

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in South Lancaster was beautifully decorated for the recent annual meeting of the Glengarry District Women's Institute annual meeting.

"Focusing High with W.I." was the theme of the day as President Alison Murray chaired the day's activities. The highlight of the day was our keynote speaker, Esther Bryan and her story behind her project "Invitation-the quilt of belonging."

This quilt, when finished, will be 140 feet wide and hopefully, will have blocks representing all nationalities that make up Canada. Esther had on display many beautiful blocks already completed but more important than the stitches are the stories and the sharing of these tales. After a delicious lunch prepared by the Bainsville branch, reports were presented and greetings were extended from Frankie Higginson, Provincial Advisory Councillor.

District secretary, Pat Ager, made a very moving plea for all Women's Institute members and concerned citizens to write our local members of Parliament to pass legislation to clearly outlaw child pornography and the sexual exploitation of our children.

The following is the list of officers for the coming year. Past president, Pat Ager; president Alison Murray; first vice-president, Wendy Wert; secretary-treasurer, Pat Ager; public relations, Barbara Graham; education co-ordinator, Ina Byatte; resolutions/lobbying, Jan Buckland; Tweedsmuir History curator, Nancy Woollven; scholarship committee, Nancy Woollven, Joanne Stevenson, Jan Buckland; financial examiners, Agnes Petrie, Pat Yellenik. The afternoon concluded with a draw for many lovely door prizes.
