Warden Cumming sees control of inflation ahead

"The United Counties handles a budget of seven million dollars," Warden William Cumming informed his 450 guests at the annual Warden's Banquet held at the Glengarry Sports Palace, Saturday night.

"Of this amount $1,600,000 has to be collected from the local municipalities and the remainder comes from government grants.

"Our largest expenditure is the road budget which requires three and a half million. With 444 miles, we maintain the longest mileage system in Ontario apart from the provincial government.

"Our social services also take a large part of the budget, about two million.

"During the past year, we have revised committee structures, reduced the standing committees to four and also reduced the number of conventions attended. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Marin have been engaged to carry on the writing of counties' history, a sequel to the Harkness work.

"True value assessment will commence in 1978 and current proposals re tax equation are being investigated by the Blair Commission.

"In 1949 there were 800 acres of marginal land owned by the Counties. We now have over 6,000 acres under reforestation and are in the process of acquiring another 280.

"The council expects to win an appeal of the fine levied by the AIB regarding employees' wages. This board gave the department and staff a great deal more work.

"Overall, we foresee inflation coming under control.

"We do not see restructuring as a great saving in an area such as ours. This seems more pertinent where the population is growing rapidly. Ours isn't.

"On our own initiative we have co-operation among municipalities. Examples of this are the Char-Lan Medical Clinic and Char-Lan Animal Control, the Glengarry Sports Palace. On a wider scale we have the Glen-Stor-Dun home for the aged, the St. Lawrence San, the Children's Aid Society, the health unit in which we unite with Prescott and Russell and the City of Cornwall, the library board, Seaway Valley Tourist Council, etc.

Mr. Cumming introduced representatives in the audience from all across the United Counties as well as neighboring municipalities. He offered special thanks to Alexandria Reeve Jean Paul Touchette and "the only woman Counties Councillor," Alexandria Deputy-Reeve Florence Villeneuve, for their assistance with banquet preparations.

The warden was introduced by Chairman Edwin Waldroff, Reeve, Township of Osnabruck. Reeve Touchette welcomed all to the new Sports Palace. Reeve Ewart Simms of Mountain Township, introduced the head table guests and Rev. J. Skues offered grace. Maxville Reeve Hubert Quart proposed the toast to the

Awards from PM for local talent

Federal MP Denis Ethier appeared onstage at the conclusion of Glengarry '76 last Friday night to personally congratulate the people who organized and performed in the show. He said that the greatest day in his life was "the day his father moved to Glengarry."

On behalf of Prime Minister Trudeau, Mr. Ethier made presentations of community awards and letters signed by Prime Minister Trudeau to the MacCulloch dancers and the Glengarry Pipe Band.

The Community Awards were in recognition of outstanding services to the communities of the Glengarry-Prescott-Russell constituency. They were inscribed "For your participation on behalf of our country in the Bicentennial celebrations in Washington, DC and Pasadena, California."

Mrs. Rae MacCulloch and all the dancers who participated, Pipe Majors MacKenzie and Danskin and the participating pipers all received framed copies of the community awards and copies of the prime minister's letter.

The letter congratulated the "excellent Canadian ambassadors for their outstanding performance during the Bicentennial celebrations."

Farmer has new way of storing silage

For lack of a better name it could be called a horizontal silo, but it's officially known as a silo press, and Ernest Sauer, Conc. 3, Lochiel, has started using one for corn storage on his farm.

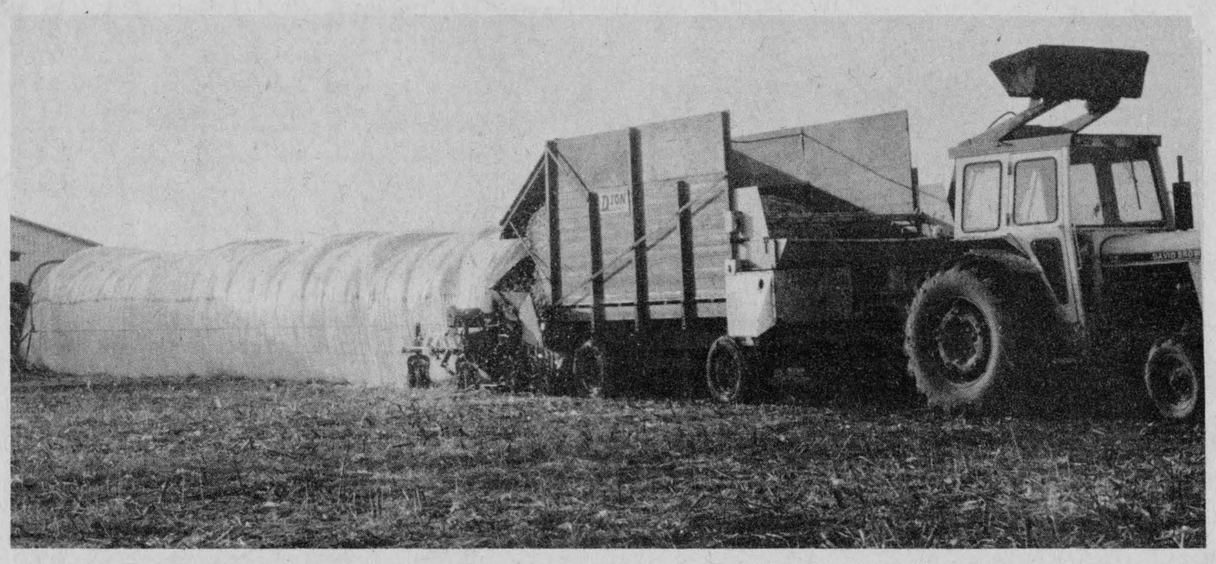
The unit is nothing more than a very long heavy guage plastic tube, which is attached to a packing apparatus. The packer takes the silage, corn, hay or whatever and forces it into the horizontal tube. The pressure of the packing is predetermined and when it is reached the unit moves the bulk wagon and the power take-off supply forward an inch at a time.

The main advantage to this type of system, said Mr. Sauer, is the initial expense. Plastic tubing is nowhere near as expensive as a silo. Plus the fact that individual tubes can be used for individual types of silage.

Once a tube has been completed and sealed off, a farmer has only to cut it open and use a front-end loader to distribute the feed, which can be stored at any place on the farm and not necessarily near the barn.

Each unit will hold a maximum weight depending on what type of silage is being stored. However, Mr. Sauer is storing corn and has estimated that in one tube he has approximately 90 ton put away for the winter.

The unit is unique to Glengarry County but Mr. Sauer, who came here from Germany, said it is in fairly common use back there where it is manufactured.



HORIZONTAL SILO—Unique to Glengarry and most of Eastern Ontario is this system of storing silage for the winter months. Manufactured in Germany, it is presently in use on the farm of Ernest Sauer, Conc. 3, Lochiel. Consisting of nothing more than a heavy plastic tube and a packing system, it affords farmers the opportunity of storing more than one type of silage in separate tubes at a fraction of the cost of constructing individual silos. Officially titled a Silo Press, this particular unit is holding approximately 90 tons of corn silage.

Glengarry show at N.A.C. supported by 2,200 fans

(by Art Buckland)

Glengarry '76 played to a near capacity crowd of over 2,200 in the opera house of the National Arts Centre in Ottawa last Friday evening.

The responsive audience enjoyed two and a half hours of Canadian-Scottish music, dance, and song.

The Glengarry Pipe Band opened the show with the skirl of pipes resounding melodically throughout the acoustically-perfect opera house. Walter Stewart, president of the Glengarry Club of Ottawa, then welcomed everyone to the show and introduced the master of ceremonies, the well known Max Keeping, executive producer of CJOH television news.

Max made every Glengarrian proud with his sincere introductions of the various groups. He pointed out that for the very first time, the National Arts Centre, designed as a theatre for the people "was seeing a show put on by local amateurs, and wouldn't you know it, it took the people of Glengarry to do it."

Glengarry '76 then moved from one exciting professional performance to another as each act in the show came onto that gigantic stage to make its own special contribution.

The Glengarry pipe band concert party led by Pipe Majors David Danskin and John MacKenzie demonstrated why they won Firsts in the World Scottish Festival and the Canadian championships last year. Their discipline, combined with their talent and showmanship, made it easy to imagine why the Federal government selected them to be part of the U.S. Bicentennial celebrations in the Rose Bowl parade and in Washington and Philadelphia. The drum salute to open the second half brought the crowd to their feet. Pipe Major John MacKenzie was spotlighted in several tunes as he slow-marched across the stage. He also combined with Garry Matthews to dramatically present "Shenandoah" and "Northern Lights." Robin Upton sang "Gallant Forty Twa" and "Barren Rocks." Sharon Metcalfe of Maxville, was the accompanist, a creditable last minute replacement for Jackie Denovan.

The MacCulloch dancers made four separate scintillating appearances, each time with a different musical group, each time in a different costume, each time in an original dance choreographed by Rae MacCulloch; each time pleasing the audience

Broke hip in fall

Mrs. Lorne Hall, Bishop St. North, suffered a severe fracture of the hip, Thursday night, in a fall on the street near her home. She is undergoing treatment at Cornwall General Hospital.

Charge laid

A charge of attempted murder has been laid against Raymond Andre, Lancaster, police report, following his discharging of a firearm in the vicinity of his wife Helen on Saturday, Oct. 24th.

Mr. Andre has also been charged with discharging a firearm dangerous to the public and pointing a firearm at a person. He will appear in Alexandria Provincial Court on Nov. 8th to face charges, and is presently being held in custody in Cornwall.

Blood clinic next week

The second blood donor clinic to be held here this year will take place at Glengarry District High School on Tuesday, November 9th. Hours are 2:30—4:30 in the afternoon and 6—9 p.m. in the evening.

Anyone over 18 may donate or boys of 17 with their parents' consent.

The Lions and Richelieu Clubs will be joint sponsors of the event. They will be providing a baby sitting service at the school while parents are donating. They are also providing free transportation which can be obtained by calling Rene Gauthier at 3111.

At least 300 donors are needed to keep our hospital supplied. At the March Clinic sponsored by the Knights of Columbus at Rouleau School 306 volunteers were registered with 275 of these able to donate.

It has been found preferable to have the clinic twice a year as it is easier to schedule the blood when received in smaller units.

Big fire loss suffered in Martintown garage

Heavy loss was suffered by Donald Ross of Martintown on Wednesday of last week when fire completely destroyed his garage and its entire contents.

Mr. Ross and his employees, Mike Dupuis and Glendon Lafave were working with an acetylene torch when a spark flew and ignited some oil. Within seconds the whole building was on fire and the owner was able to grab only the cash register before escaping from the blazing inferno.

Equipment lost included a scope and wheel balancer valued at $4,000, the garage equipment valued at $5,000 and entire stock worth over $4,000. The building was a frame structure and Mr. Ross feels it will cost about $20,000 to replace it. A customer's car in the garage at the time was also lost.

The proprietor who also owns a garbage collection business had just opened the garage last December. "I intend to rebuild as I have already built up a considerable clientele," reports Mr. Ross, "but it is a big blow. I don't have a usable wrench left."

Red Storey guest speaker at opening banquet

Red Storey will be the guest speaker at the official opening banquet of the new Sports Palace in Alexandria on Saturday, November 13th. Confirmation of the engagement was received by Robert Leroux, chairman of the arena board, on Tuesday.

Fresh from her championship of Skate Canada 76, Kim Alletson will also be here from the world of sport to lead the beautiful Minto Skaters in the impressive ice show following the banquet.

And for the baseball fans, the well-known first baseman of the Montreal Expos, Mike Jorgensen, will be here among the headtable guests.

Moe Racine, former captain of the Ottawa Rough Riders, many times a guest in this area will also be among the sport notables at the dinner.

Local nominations only one week away

Municipal nominations are only a week away in the seven municipalities that make up Glengarry. The nominations will also include those seeking seats on the two area school boards and members of public utilities commissions in some instances.

Under the new system of receiving nominations those seeking office must file nomination papers with the clerk of the municipality over a five-day period from Thursday, Nov. 11th to Monday, Nov. 15th. Municipal offices are closed Saturday and Sunday (and some on Nov. 11th) so the time for filing is often reduced to the two days, Friday, the 12th and Monday, 15th, during regular office hours.

These hours for each municipality are to be found in the Nomination notices advertised elsewhere in this issue.

Nomination papers must be signed by ten electors qualified to vote for the nominee and those seeking office must provide a consent and a declaration of qualification for office.

Where elections are required they will be held on Monday, Dec. 6th and there will be an Advance Poll 10 days earlier, on Saturday, Nov. 27th.

In addition to the filling of offices, there will be voting in Kenyon and Lochiel under the Liquor Control Act of Ontario.

There is little or no election talk to indicate what area municipalities will be having elections but all heads of municipalities have indicated they will be in the field again.

NOW A REGISTERED NURSE—Patricia (Tish) Filiatrault, elder daughter of Mrs. Mary Filiatrault of Alexandria and the late Gordon Filiatrault, has been successful in her recent RN exams. She is a graduate of GDHS and St. Lawrence College School of Nursing.

Most municipal heads will stand for office

The heads of most municipalities in Glengarry will be standing for office once again, they confirmed by telephone this week. Most of them have a record of several years of municipal office behind them.

In Alexandria, Mayor Bruno Massie has served four years as mayor, six as reeve and four as councillor.

Reeve Jean Paul Touchette of Alexandria served the past two years as reeve, four years as mayor and six years as councillor.

Kenyon Reeve Albert Faubert has been in office for the past 19 years, 11 as reeve, four as deputy-reeve and four as councillor.

Warden William Cumming, currently reeve of Lancaster Village, has also been in office for 19 years, eight as reeve and 11 as councillor.

In Lancaster Township Alex McNaughton has served 16 years of continuous tenure. He has been reeve for the past 11 years which included service as warden in 1970. He was deputy-reeve for four years and councillor for three. At press time his future plans were still uncertain.

Maxville Reeve Hubert Quart has 15 years of service to the village behind him. Reeve for the past six years and councillor for nine, he also served as trustee on the public school board for several years.

Adrian Gadbois has been reeve of Charlottenburgh for the past six years. He has also been councillor of the municipality for six years and served for three years as trustee of Tyotown School.

In Lochiel, Alex McDonald has

Importance traditional values stressed by banquet speaker

"If there is talk of separation there are enough people who will put this back together again. We are not separated from one another. We are not only related by common blood but because of what we believe and what we will die for."

Thus spoke the Hon. Judge John R. Matheson, calmly, deliberately and with convincing sincerity at the Warden's banquet on Saturday night where he was guest speaker.

Judge Matheson related incidents from Scottish and French history traced back for many years up to the present to illustrate the interwoven pattern of these two races and the resulting influence on the people of this area. "The Scots with their great love of loyalty and the French with their great love of family life have produced in this area a banner element of the nation."

"In speaking with army buddies back from Africa and Cyprus and other parts of the world, I understand problems are the same the world over. We must have enough people to have enough love to withstand all this."

The judge brought greetings from a "Lancaster boy"—Gov. Gen. Jules Leger. He finished his speech with a recitation of his own poem.

Lancaster Township Reeve Alex McNaughton introduced Judge Matheson whose father was a native of Maxville and mother a Bainsville "McCuaig." Keith Graham, Reeve of Chesterville Village expressed thanks and presented a gift on behalf of the Counties.

Pledged vows at Guelph

McCORMICK—PALMER

Two baskets of white gladioli, mums and yellow centred daisies graced the chancel of St. Joseph's Church, Guelph, on September 11 for the wedding of Janice Palmer and Jim McCormick, both of Guelph. The double-ring ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Father Victor McNamara, Guelph.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Palmer, Goderich. The groom is the son of Mrs. Genevieve McCormick, Guelph.

Special wedding music was supplied by organist Lois Huffman, a friend of the couple, Toronto, and by a folk singing group from St. Joseph's Parish.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents. She wore a nylon jersey gown, champagne in color, featuring an ivory lace inset at the neckline with tiny pearls sewn in. The same lace and pearls were used in the deep fitted cuffs at the wrists of long full sleeves. The fitted bodice was accented by long bridal train which fell from her shoulders. Her Juliette-style headdress of the same lace as in the dress, held a three-tiered full-length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of orange sweetheart roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Karen Baechler, Toronto. She chose a jade green crepe floor-length sleeveless gown with a blousy bodice, fitted waist and full skirt. The simple gown was accented by a bow at the neckline. She carried a bouquet of white mums, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were the bride's two sisters, Tanya and Sandra Palmer, Goderich, and the groom's niece, Anne Marie Dawson, Guelph, was junior bridesmaid. They were gowned alike in jersey print empire-styled dresses in many hues of green and ivory. The sleeveless gowns had teardrop cut-aways in back. They carried white mums, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Groomsman was Terry Connolly, a friend, Brockville. Ushers were Terry Lazar, a friend, Walkerton, and Bill McNaughton, a friend, Guelph.

For a honeymoon spent cottaging in Northern Ontario, the bride changed into a going-away dress of a steel blue polyester in a street-length, with a neckline tying into a bow, a fitted waistline, a tiny belt and cap sleeves. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Mr. and Mrs. McCormick are living in Guelph.

The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. Florida Thauvette, Alexandria.

Resolutions topic at D of I meeting

Resolutions passed at the provincial convention of the Daughters of Isabella were the main topic of discussion at the meeting of the Alexandria Circle held on Wednesday, October 20th at the K of C Hall.

Members who attended the convention which was held in Hawkesbury on October 8th, 9th and 10th were Regent Annette Desrosiers, Rita Filion, Eva Lefebvre, Rosabella Sauve, Irene Menard and Gertrude Lalonde.

One resolution dealt with the 10-15 per cent of the population who have learning disabilities. Members feel services for these students in schools are inadequate and more money should be spent for special needs. They want comprehensive testing done on kindergarten pupils which would channel into classes where they will receive adequate attention. This would be more beneficial than money spent for benefits for them as they grow older, members decided.

The ladies also took exception to proposed taxing of churches and charitable institutions and will express their displeasure to government officials.

Emphasis on prayer will be stressed in the coming year's program, with emphasis on devotion to Mary and recitation of the rosary.

A special program has been planned for Sunday, November 7th when members will include their husbands and families in the day's proceedings. Sister Lucie Charest of Shalom House will be the guest speaker at a luncheon at Green Valley Pavilion following the celebration of mass in St. Mary's Church, Green Valley at 11:30 a.m.

At that time, Miss Laura Sabourin of Cornwall, a former provincial regent will preside at the installation of officers who were chosen at the October meeting as follows:

Past Regent Doretta Trottier, Regent Annette Desrosiers, Vice-Regent Yvonne Carriere, Financial Secretary Annette Rozon, Recording Secretary Eva Lefebvre, Treasurer Laura Marcoux.

Trustees are Antonine Decoeur, Claire Dumouchel and Edna Dubois and other officials are: Scribe Therese Lavigne, Chancellor Rita Filion, Custodian Aurore Emond, Monitor Monique Dallaire, Banner Bearer Ada Carriere, Guides Lucille Lacombe and Yolande Decoeur, Inner Guard Yvonne Girard, Outer Guard Colette Maisonneuve, Organist Cecile Poirier and Spiritual Director Father Gilles Deslauriers.

Fisticuffs and temper tantrum spoiled Saturday's game

The Glens played what could have been an excellent hockey game, Saturday, against Navan, if it weren't for the unnecessary and excessive fighting. Navan won 8 to 6.

It was a very close and hard pressed game with the score changing and the possible winner with it, to the point where both teams had held the lead equally until the last part of the third period.

This was when the fighting got the better part of the game and drained the Glens of any cool they may have had, causing their eventual loss.

Fisticuffs became so much a part of the third period that with Navan leading by two points, and nothing to gain by losing their temper, their goal tender, John Parish, blew his cool.

Evidently a spectator had shouted something to him which he took to heart. He left his crease and with an anger that showed even through his protective face mask, began flailing away at the glass between him and the spectators.

The end result of the goal tender's temper tantrum was his being given a two-minute penalty for leaving his crease. There were only a few minutes left in the period but unfortunately for the Glens they were unable to capitalize on the one-man advantage.

Mike Beauclair and Frank St. Pierre were able to put a pair of points each past the Navan goal crease and Richard Depratto and John Charlebois got credit for one apiece.

The Glens won't have another home game before Nov. 12th when they play Embrun in the Glengarry Sports Palace.

NOT ENOUGH—Forced into a rough game Saturday night, the Glens were able to keep their cool but keeping the puck out of their own goal was another matter. The home town team was able to put this one past the Navan goal crease for their final point, however the clock was against them and Navan came out victorious 8 to 6. —Staff photo

Hector Major died at 68

A resident of Alexandria, Hector Major died suddenly in Hawkesbury on Sunday, the result of a heart attack.

Mr. Major was born at North Lancaster, on February 26th, 1908, the son of the late Henry Major and his wife, Dolores Rozon.

On July 14th, 1930, he married the former Yvette Lortie in St. Martin of Tours Church, Glen Robertson, and they farmed at North Lancaster until moving to Alexandria in 1957. He was employed with the Department of Highways until his retirement three years ago.

In addition to his wife he is survived by two sons and one daughter: Jean-Guy of Chateauguay, Hubert of Hawkesbury and Mrs. Rheal Houde, Madeleine, of Cornwall. There are 17 grandchildren.

He also leaves two brothers and two sisters: Ernest, Montreal; Wilfred, North Lancaster, Mrs. Yvon Perreault, Beatrice and Mrs. Paul Boulay, Laurette, both of Montreal.

The funeral was held on Tuesday to Sacred Heart Church where Rev. Raoul Poirier, p.p., and Rev. Morisette of Montreal concelebrated the mass assisted by Rev. Denis Vaillancourt, Alexandria and Rev. Patrick Breton, Glen Nevis.

Interment was in Sacred Heart Cemetery. Pallbearers were the Nativity Guard, Cornwall.

Special rail fare effective

A new ruling by CNR officials will permit train travellers out of Alexandria to take advantage of special one-day round trip excursion fares instituted by the railway.

The new one-day return rate embraces a saving of $2.65 on a trip to Montreal and is good any day except on holiday weekends.

Local ticket issuer Lucien Chenier protested to the CNR that a technicality prevented travellers from Alexandria taking advantage of the reduced fares. Peak hour travellers out of Montreal did not qualify and Mr. Chenier pointed out the only daily train back to Alexandria came within that 4 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. period. He argued the lack of later service made it impossible for local train travellers to take advantage of the new rate, down from $9 regular to $6.35.

CNR officials agreed to make an exception and as a result people who are visiting the city just for the day may save on a return ticket. These are not obtainable on the train.

Mr. Dutrisac has been elected for Region 1 which includes Russell, Prescott, Glengarry and Stormont counties. He has been a member of the Milk Committee in Russell from 1965 to 1971, and is also President of Eastern Breeders of Ontario, which includes the area from Toronto east to the Quebec border.

The elected position will begin in January, 1977.

Maxville arena ready for play

The Maxville arena received its first coating of ice this week allowing the start of the town's minor hockey season.

Officers of the Maxville Minor Hockey Association this year are Dale Munro, President; 1st Vice-President, Stuart Arkinstall; 2nd Vice-President, Jack Robinson; and Secretary-Treasurer, David Munro.

All players interested in joining the association may do so at the arena. Final registration will be held prior to ice time Saturday at 9 a.m.

Remembrance Day observance Sunday

Glengarry's dead of two wars will be recalled Sunday afternoon when Remembrance services will be held at the Glengarry War Memorial here.

The parade will form up at Glengarry District High School at 2:45 p.m., according to Jim Baker, president of Alexandria Legion Branch which will be in charge of the ceremony. The Glengarry Pipe Band will head the parade which will be made up of veterans, members of the Auxiliary, boy scouts, girl guides, etc.

Members of Lancaster Legion branch have been invited to join in the observance. In turn, members of Alexandria branch will participate in the Lancaster Remembrance service one week later, on Sunday, Nov. 14th.

Following the service at the cenotaph the parade will march to the Legion hall. A feature that night will be the drawing for a $1,000 bill.

Sunday's all-day rain forced postponement of the Poppy Blitz planned by Alexandria branch. Legion members were out in the south end of town Monday night and they hope to canvass the rest of town at night this week.

Members of the branch may be seen on television over Channel 4, Ottawa, on the "Country Report" program at 6 p.m. Friday, Nov. 12th. A CBC camera crew visited the local Legion branch on Tuesday to report on "a typical country Legion branch."

Char-Lan United win International soccer

Char-Lan United of the Ottawa District Soccer Association celebrated the end of the 1976 soccer season by winning the International Oktoberfest Tournament in the snow-covered New York State mountain resort at Lake Placid over the October 24th weekend.

Three Canadian and two American teams participated in the two-day round-robin tournament. Char-Lan and hosts Lake Placid Gorillas finished with identical 3-0-1 won-lost-tied records, but the Williamstown-based club was awarded the championship on goal average, having conceded only one goal in its four games.

Other teams participating in the event were Prescott RCA of the Ottawa District Soccer Association, Seaway Valley Soccer League champions Cornwall United and Saranac Lake of the Upper New York Soccer League. Prescott finished third with two wins and two losses, Cornwall United wound up fourth with one win and three losses and winless Saranac Lake finished in last place.

On Saturday, Char-Lan defeated Cornwall United 4—0 in the opening game. Goals by left winger Pat Oathwaite and centre-forward Don "Boom-Boom" Kannon gave Char-Lan a 2—0 halftime lead, and second period markers by inside forward Paul Owen and Kannon sealed Cornwall's fate. Rudi Payer recorded the shutout.

In the second game on Saturday, Char-Lan came up flat but a first period goal by Kannon provided the Canadian visitors with a 1—0 win over Saranac Lake, with Oathwaite picking up the shutout. In other Saturday games, Prescott edged Cornwall 1—0 before bowing 3—2 to Lake Placid.

On Sunday, Char-Lan United and Lake Placid met in the most exciting game of the tournament. The hosts dominated the game for most of the first half, but strong defensive work by netminder Oathwaite, fullbacks Chris Ropchan, Robbie McLachlan and Hugh MacGregor kept them off the scoresheet.

Lake Placid took a 1—0 lead midway through the second half when Mark Driscoll scored from close range. This was the signal for an all-out attack by Char-Lan. Midfielders Denis Carr and Billy Shields combined forces with hardworking inside forwards Owen and Mark Gareau, and Lake Placid were locked up in their own half of the field. Two minutes from time, right winger Dave Brown was brought down by two Lake Placid defenders at the edge of the penalty area, and Carr made no mistake on the free kick, firing a low drive into the corner of the net.

In the championship-clinching game, "Boom-Boom" Kannon, Char-Lan's offensive star of the tournament, completed a dream weekend when he bounced in his own rebound to give United a 1—0 win over pretournament favorites Prescott. In other Sunday games, Cornwall defeated Saranac Lake 2—0 before losing by the same score to Lake Placid, and Prescott edged Saranac Lake 2—1.

Fullback Alan MacGregor and wingers Eric Brown and Dale Monroe were also in the lineup of Char-Lan's winning team. Amongst the players missing from Char-Lan's lineup were Peter Graham, who was voted the club's MVP for 1976, and Darcy Gordon, who shares the club's Most Improved Player trophy with Mark Gareau.

POWDER PUFF PUFF PUFF—With a shortage of equipment, most of which was too large for the wearer, the GDHS girls appeared to thoroughly enjoy themselves in their annual Powder Puff football game Oct. 29th, between the junior and senior girls. The entire game was loaded with comedy and the occasional hard tackle. The end result was a tie score of 8 to 8. —Staff photo

Girls had try at football

"Powder puff," in most cases would be associated with make-up and perhaps that's where the name of the game originated for a female form of football held at GDHS Friday, Oct. 29th.

The junior girls challenged the senior girls to a game of honest to goodness football, however abilities and knowledge of the game weren't taken into consideration and the two 20-minute halves turned into a more humorous than spectacular game.

Firstly there was a shortage of helmets and with each change from offence to defence head gear had to be passed back and forth. Not to mention the tidying of hair and re-adjusting of apparel by those heading for the sidelines.

Long hair, one would suppose to be an advantage since a five-yard penalty was given the juniors for pulling someone off their feet with it.

In the rough house department no quarter was given, considering the fact that few, if any, of the players had ever been coached in the proper way to tackle, or fall.

The last two plays of the game turned out to be the most exciting moments of the entire fiasco. The seniors had already gone ahead 8 to 0 in the early minutes of the game and had been able to hold off the juniors until the last minute.

In a last ditch effort and on what would have been the last play of the game the juniors were able to get a touchdown and six points.

Since a game can't end on a touchdown the juniors had to be allowed one more play which they turned into a run across the goal line for a two-point convert and a final 8 to 8 tie.

Gaels on the Warpath

(by Warren Everson)

The autumn season is a short one and players who sweated under a blazing sun during the tryouts now wrap themselves in layers of cloth for each practice. The coming of winter also signals the end of the regular schedules and those teams that have not qualified for the play-offs must turn in their uniforms and console themselves with dreams of next year.

Into this category, unfortunately, fall the girls' basketball teams, both junior and senior. Though both squads had excellent seasons under Coaches Kelly and Quesnel, they were unable to catch the momentum of championship teams. There is an elusive feeling, borne on confidence and team spirit, that can carry a winning squad, even if they play poorly. While the girls displayed plenty of talent, the air of champions just didn't seem to be there. Consequently, they will have to retire for the season, disappointed of course, but not ashamed.

The soccer teams have no such disappointment to bear. On the wave of an undefeated season the senior team has clinched first place for the finals and could certainly take the title this year. The juniors, too, are finalists securely lodged in second place, behind undefeated La Citadelle. After the finals, if the Gaels win, the boys will have a long winter break before the EOSSA meet in the spring.

Another team is capturing great honors for our school, the cross country team. Under Mrs. Fraser, the Gaels have scored extremely well in both the South Grenville and also the SD&G meets. The senior girls especially have done us proud, winning first place last Saturday at EOSSA. Now they prepare for the grueling OFSSA meet at St. Catharines.

The football squad has also had its success and the Gaels have clinched home field advantage for the finals. With the first-place finish comes the MacArthur trophy, and should we win this Friday against La Citadelle, the Gaels will have the first undefeated season in this league's history.

The autumn season is traditionally the most exciting in our school, and it is with regret that most students settle down into the winter routines. Still, with the football and soccer final coming up, there is plenty of excitement left before we go on to new victories in other sports.

Dr. Stuart to address CNIB

The public is invited to attend the annual meeting of the Glengarry County Advisory Board of the CNIB to be held at Alexander Hall, corner of St. Paul and Bishop Streets, in Alexandria, on Wednesday, November 10, beginning at 8:00 p.m.

Guest speaker will be Dr. John C. Stuart of Ottawa, who is a highly respected specialist in corneal surgery and has done some very unusual work in this field. He is also Director of the Eye Bank for Eastern Ontario. Since the Glengarry County Advisory Board is very much concerned with the prevention of blindness, Dr. Stuart's address should be found very interesting.

The canvassers have almost completed the CNIB campaign for Glengarry and the returns are very gratifying.

The following students made a blitz for the school area at Char-Lan under the direction of Maurice Gauthier:

Bea Feilotter, S. Seguin, Kathy Fawthrop, Sue Proulx, Lynn Cooper, Lise Leroux, Bonnie Howells, Jennifer Gordon, Norman Blanchard, Sue Lalonde, Ellen Kristiansen, Carol Lapensee, Marion MacDonald, David Cumming, Alex Cumming, Darcy Gordon, John Kitchen, Nancy Lauzon, Nicole Theoret, Marc Seguin, Shelley MacNaughton, Ronnie Brunet.

Glengarry District High School student canvassers worked under supervisor Mrs. Therese Whelan as follows:

Roxanne Prud'homme, Natalie Ranger, Diane Claude, Jocelyne Trudel, John Bathurst, John McRae, Louise Lanthier, Agathe Bellefeuille, Rachel Delorme, Johanne Leroux, Louise Ouimet, Suzanne Belanger, Francine Belanger, Linda Goupil, Sharon Bathurst, Mona Pedersen, Joyce Major.

He was predeceased by two brothers, Roch and Kenneth Major.

Award for area cow

Hilyo Apollo Thola, a purebred Holstein cow bred by John Yocum, Toledo, and now owned by Gerard Smits, Lancaster, has received a Gold Seal Lifetime Production Award from the Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada for a total of 11 lactations on twice-a-day milking, yielding 180,047 lbs. milk testing 3.84% for 6,906 lbs. fat. Thola was Reserve Junior Champion Female at the Leeds Black and White Show in 1963. She is classified Very Good for type and has two Very Good daughters and one Very Good son.

Thola is sired by Whirlhill Olympian Apollo, classified Very Good. Her dam is Symbol Windylea Candy, classified Good Plus.

Holstein breeders awards night

The annual awards night banquet of the Glengarry Holstein Club will be a ladies' night at the Bonnie Glen next Tuesday night.

President William Van Loon will preside and a very productive year will be reviewed reports J. Y. Humphries. He notes that Glengarry had more Superior Production cows last year than any other east of Toronto. There were 75 such cows in the county in 1975 and next week's meeting will hear that has reached 88 this year.

Glengarry is fortunate to have a good group of young farmer breeders, Mr. Humphries concluded.

McPHERSON—KEMP

St Finnan's Cathedral was the scene of a lovely September wedding on Friday, October 15th at 7 p.m. when Cindy Kemp became the bride of Garry McPherson. Rev. Leo MacDonell officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kemp of Alexandria, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent McPherson of Dalkeith.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon sheer styled with long skirt ending in a built-in train, full sleeves and high round collar. A garland of flowers held her waist-length veil and she carried a bouquet of red roses and baby's breath.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Susan McPherson, as maid of honor, by her sister Donna and her niece Debbie Kemp as bridesmaids. Scott and Tammy McPherson were ringbearer and flower-girl.

The best man was Donald McPherson, brother of the groom, and ushers were brothers of the couple, Ronnie Kemp and Keith McPherson.

The reception following the ceremony was held at the Alexandria Sports Palace where the couple were piped into the hall by Roger Martin.

For their wedding trip the bride donned a beige dress with corsage of yellow roses and brown accessories.

They will reside in Alexandria.

Chairman group

The joint committee of the Lancaster Township School and Lancaster Public School was held Oct. 5th, when officers were elected.

Arthur Craig was named chairman and Mrs. Carolyn McRae vice-chairman. Susan Corput will be secretary.

The bus situation was discussed and it was decided to take action if found necessary at the next meeting to be held in early November.

Mrs. Fourney died at 91

A highly respected resident of the Lancaster area, Mrs. George Smith Fourney died on Thursday, October 21st at the MacDonell Memorial where she had been confined for the past four years.

Mrs. Fourney was the former Doretta (Dora) Roberts and was born in Cardiff, Wales on May 14th, 1885, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roberts. She was the last surviving member of her family.

On June 12th, 1907, she married George Fourney and they farmed throughout their lifetime in the Fourth of Lancaster. She was a life member of the Women's Missionary Society, the Picnic Grove Women's Institute, a member of the church choir for many years and was active in mission band work throughout her lifetime.

She is survived by one son John R. Fourney of Lancaster and two daughters, Edna, Mrs. J. R. Black of Bainsville and Marguerite, Mrs. Donald Ross of Lancaster. There are eight grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, South Lancaster, on Saturday, October 23rd, when Rev. Ross MacDonald and Rev. Jack Skues officiated at the service.

Pallbearers were four grandsons and the husbands of two granddaughters: Glenn and Garry MacLeod, Robert and Edgar Fourney, William Condie and Donald Cameron.

Burial was in the church cemetery.

Wed at Ancaster

WARD—CRAIG

A pretty fall wedding took place on Oct. 9, 1976, in Marshall Memorial United Church, Ancaster, Ontario, when Kathie Craig became the bride of Gerald Ward. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Craig, Ancaster, formerly of Summerstown, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ward of Weston, Ontario.

The church was beautifully decorated with fall flowers and leaves.

The officiating clergymen were Rev. Robert Johnston, Ancaster, and Rev. Ben Morewood of Streetsville, Ont. Mrs. Beverly Craig was organist and Arthur Craig was soloist. They are brother and sister-in-law of the bride, from North Lancaster.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a floor length white polyester jersey gown, with train, high neckline and long sleeves, trimmed with lace applique, as was the fingertip-length veil. She carried a bouquet of white stephanotis, yellow and white daisies, orange roses and baby's breath.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Heather MacGregor of Ottawa, sister of the bride. She was attired in a yellow floral empire waist styled gown and was carrying a nosegay of fall-colored flowers, similar in color to those in the dress. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Jane Shoney, Kitchener and Miss Debbie Wood, Toronto. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Catherine MacGregor, Ottawa, niece of the bride. Their gowns were identical to that of the matron of honor.

Best man was Mr. Bruce Shorney of Kitchener. Ushers were Mervin Craig of Brampton, brother of the bride; Ian Ferguson, Toronto, and Jim Ward, Weston, brother of the groom.

A reception following the wedding was held at the Holiday Inn, Hamilton.

For travelling the bride wore a deep pink double knit wool suit with black accessories. The couple went to Niagara Falls and Northern Ontario on the honeymoon.

They will reside in Richmond Hill, Ont.

Out of town guests attended from Cornwall area, Ingleside, Summerstown, Lancaster, Bainsville, Huntingdon, Ottawa, Toronto, Brampton, Kitchener, Ingersoll, London and Montreal.

Butter-making demonstrated

Mrs. Lloyd McRae was hostess to the Bainsville branch of the Women's Institute on Wed., Oct. 6th. Sixteen members and eight visitors answered the roll call by donating 25 cents for a secret WI recipe. Mrs. Rufus Carr commented on the motto "Honest labor disgraces no one."

Mrs. J. M. Petrie presided in the absence of Mrs. Fred Ager who is touring Europe on vacation. It was announced that our guest speaker, Rev. J. Skues, was unable to attend and will be present to demonstrate baking at the November meeting which will be held in the hall of St. Andrew's United Church, Bainsville, Nov. 3rd.

An invitation was extended from the Bainsville 4-H Club Girls Entertain to attend a Tea served by the club in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church hall, South Lancaster Nov. 6th at 2 p.m.

The short course "Bedroom and Bath" will be held Nov. 10th from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Blessed Sacrament Church hall, Toll Gate road. Transportation will be arranged at the Nov. meeting.

It was decided that Mrs. Fred Ager act as delegate to the Eastern Ottawa Area Convention at the Talisman Motel, Ottawa, Oct. 28th and 29th.

Business being completed, all members and guests retired to the kitchen where Mrs. Mac Robertson demonstrated buttermaking. This was a very interesting procedure for many of the younger members, but there were several members present who had used the wooden and crock churns in previous years. The modern method is much quicker as an electric blender is first used to compile the butter granuals and then finalized in a glass churn with a beater equipped with wooden paddles. This churn is also equipped with a

Mrs. J. M. Petrie and Mrs. Mac Robertson, spread this delight on sweet breads served with tea.

A quiz conducted by Mrs. Harold Fourney was won by Mrs. John Kerr.

A poem entitled "To Keep Healthy—You Starve" was read by Mrs. J. Cusimano. Mrs. J. M. Petrie thanked the hostess, Mrs. L. McRae, for the use of her home Just before the meeting was adjourned a candled cake was brought in and set before Mrs. H. J. McCuaig, wishing her a happy birthday to music.

UCW had October meet

The Bainsville United Church Women met in the Church Hall for the October meeting on Oct. 21st at 8 p.m. Mrs. May Laws, Vice-President, opened the meeting with a verse "Being Kind" she also extended a welcome to all there. Several visitors were present, making an attendance of 22.

Mrs. H. Fourney led in the Worship Service, the theme being "It's Up there alright." The offering was dedicated by Rev. Skues. Mrs. Muriel Robertson gave her treasurer's report. The program followed with Mrs. May Laws showing slides of her recent trip to England and Scotland, assisted by Rev. Skues showing slides of Gaspe. All were very clear and interesting. Rev. Skues closed the meeting with Prayer and Benediction.

A social period followed. Lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. D. Kerr, Mrs. G. Sangster and Mrs. H. McVichie.

— PAPEC —

For the past 11 years, we have been successfully

SELLING and SERVICING

Papec grinder-mixers, forage boxes, forage blowers and harvesters in Ontario under the trade name of Glengarry Farm Supply. One of those years, we enjoyed having the largest Papec volume in Canada. To be in business for that length of time, one makes a lot of pleasant connections with the company that one does business with and also one's customers.

For the past few years, Farmhand have been the Canadian distributor for Papec forage harvesters and forage wagon fronts which they sell bolted on to their 16' Farmhand boxes. They haven't and don't pretend to market the Papec grinder-mixer or 14' or 16' permaply forage wagons as they already had these items of their own for sale in quite large numbers.

Moreover, when we as dealers ordered Papec grinder parts or Papec grinders from Farmhand, they were invariably "back ordered" or we were told bluntly "There won't be any Papec grinders sold in Canada." In order to ensure a constant flow of grinder parts for our customers, we were forced to which have proven to be much quicker and more direct with less freight charges.

We have the largest stock of Papec parts in Eastern Ontario which have been and

WILL CONTINUE TO BE AVAILABLE WITH SERVICE and WARRANTY TO ANY PAPEC CUSTOMER, WHETHER HE BOUGHT THE MACHINE FROM US OR FROM ANOTHER DEALER!

Our service has been and will still be handled by mature, competent mechanics who have helped greatly with our sales by to the best people in the world, Our Customers.

VERY OFTEN GIVING "SAME DAY" SERVICE

Since Farmhands' 1976 volume of Papec business in Canada has dropped to quite a low figure we hope to have a further announcement in the not too distant future.

Residing at Glen Robertson

DECOEUR—MacDONALD

St. Margaret's Church, Glen Nevis was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, September 11th at 4 p.m. when Deborah Ann MacDonald became the bride of Michel Decoeur. Rev. Patrick Breton officiated at the ceremony and Hubert Lalonde played the organ music while Brian McDonell was soloist.

Debbie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard MacDonald of Glen Nevis and Michel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Decoeur of Glen Robertson.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white floor length nylon sheer styled with round collar, full long sleeves with deep cuffs and built-in extended train. A cluster of red carnations secured her waist-length veil and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

The maid of honor was the bride's sister, Lucille Decoeur and bridesmaids were Mrs. Joan Decoeur and Miss Helen MacGillis. Luanne Decoeur, the groom's niece, was flower girl.

Allan MacDonald, brother of the bride was best man and the ushers were brothers of the couple, Allan MacDonald and Yvon Decoeur.

The reception following the ceremony was held at the Bonnie Glen, after which the couple left for a tour of the Maritimes. The bride travelled in a dark pink dress with matching jacket and corsage and white carnations.

They are residing in Glen Robertson.

Wet and cold was October

The weather was much cooler and wetter than normal in October, reports George Hambleton, weather observer at Dalhousie Mills. Almost 5" (13 cm) of rain fell on 12 occasions and 1" (2.5) of snow fell on five days. The average temperature was 7° (3°) below normal with nighttime lows averaging at the freezing point.

The high was 73° (20°) on the 6th and the low 16° (-9°) on the 24th. Thunder was heard on three occasions.

Last year the temperature was exactly normal with 3.75" (10 cm) of rainfall with a trace of snow on one day.

'From the old rail fence'

by Anna Margaret

"Drinking. If we don't talk about the problem we'll never start to solve it." So runs an ad in the recent papers sponsored by the national ministry of health and welfare and the provincial government.

The ad goes on to advise the drinking problem "has everything to do with you, even though you are not a problem drinker or even a drinker. The drinking driver could be driving home when you are. The "alcoholic" could be your mother, or father, or brother, or sister, or whatever.

It concludes with the message: "We believe that if people talk about the problems we're that much closer to solving them."

Well, now. I'm not sure what inspired the government folk to think this way. The idea could be from Glengarry Inter-Agency who did a survey on the county last year which received some notable publicity.

The idea behind Inter-Agency's project was simple—to solve a problem, it must first be recognized, and ideas contributed from many sources may help to provide a form of control.

Some people feel the report gave the county a bad name. Inter-Agency feels the "drinking" problem concerns many countries not just our county, and if other counties or towns or cities want to pretend the problem does not exist, that is their misfortune.

Liquor has a big "for and against" argument and the best version of this I've seen to date was an excerpt from a recent copy of Readers' Digest. Attributed to a politician, it had to be, of course, the excerpt follows:

"A campaigning politician was asked, 'Are you for or against strong drink?' The politician replied:

"If you mean, sir, the devil's brew that causes an untold number of auto accidents each year which kill and maim thousands, that costs the public billions through loss of work, that causes men to fight with their neighbors, wives to leave their husbands, men to lose their jobs, then I, sir, am strongly against it."

Getting no response, he continued: "But, if you mean the bottled spirits that give men temporary relief from the world, ease the aches and pains of the aged, bring men together in fellowship, provide work for thousands of farmers, distillers, bottlers, shippers and storekeepers; the mellow brew that brings in billions in taxes and helps pay for defence, education and many other good things in life, then I, sir, am "for" it."

Father Kevin O'Brien of Detroit took a bit of a roasting at the Andy Lamothe—Natalie McDonell wedding when Bob Harrison acted as toastmaster.

Bob told how Father Kevin was addressing a group and inquired "Can you people at the back hear me?"

One of the audience at the rear of the hall called back "I can't hear you!"

Whereupon one of the folk at the front of the room announced "Come up here, I'll trade places with you."

Bob went on to remark on how Father Kevin comes over to Glengarry to marry his cousins. The thought suddenly struck me if he married them all he could start a shuttle service between Detroit and here.

I decided to pursue the matter to check on his family connections. On his mother's side, Stella (Gill) McDonell, he has 40 first cousins. On his dad's side, Michael O'Brien, the number is 35. While a great many of them are already married, some of their children are approaching the marriage stage so if Father Kevin keeps returning to Glengarry where the majority of them are situated, we will see him often. He is the type we like to meet so Father Kevin, we hope you can reserve the dates.

We in the newspaper world who handle cards of thanks all the time find them rather stereotyped. Not so, a recent item in the Standard Freeholder from the St. Andrew's resident who expressed his thanks to all at the Cornwall jail for their kindness to him during time served there. It produced quite a chuckle from the many acquainted with him, which I presume, was his main reason for the item.

SECOND SECTION

Time to choose

Municipal nominations are only a week away and it is time for the citizenry to be thinking in terms of those they hope to have as members of their councils and school boards. Those who intend to seek office should be seeing it an obligation to make their intentions known to the voting public so that some thought can be given to the calibre and record of each individual.

Heads of all municipal councils in Glengarry have indicated they will be in the field again for the December elections, according to a news report in this issue. Most have had considerable experience at the council board and there may be a tendency to leave them unopposed. That could result in entire slates being returned by acclamation.

That is not a healthy condition, in our opinion. There is nothing like competition to keep office-seekers on their toes and especially is that the case when elections are for multi-year periods.

Some elected bodies may be performing so solidly they deserve to be returned to office en bloc. There may be also-rans in the make-up of other elected bodies who attained office obviously because no others offered themselves in opposition.

These should be weeded out if our local governments are to administer our affairs efficiently. The new electoral system for Ontario municipalities provides additional time for nominating and electing local administrations. We should be making the most of that extra time to ensure we will be well served over the next two years at the local level.

A potential for accidents

The proliferation of nuclear generating plants to fill North America's electric power needs is a prospect we see as a threat to the future wellbeing of people on this continent. Where are we to dispose of the radioactive waste that such stations produce? And is it not inevitable that some day one of these reactors will run wild, contaminating the area in which it is located?

It is not a pleasant prospect and we share with more knowledgeable conservationists the conviction that our governments and public utilities should be researching safer forms of energy production than the nuclear reactor.

Ontario Hydro has plans for a number of additional nuclear power plants across the province to meet future demands for power. Its spokesmen were in Cornwall recently informing officialdom that two such plants would be needed in Eastern Ontario before the turn of the century. They were vague as to the location of these plants, one of which might be on the St. Lawrence, between Gananoque and the border; the other probably on the Ottawa river.

Their very vagueness left with us the impression that these generating stations are coming our way, perhaps sooner than these officials suggest. We see their announcement as a bit of kite-flying to test the local reaction. If that is what it was, we proffer our answer to Hydro. It can be put in a short sentence: "Take your nuclear generating plants where they are needed!"

That gut reaction stems from a wariness as to this method of generating electric power and a fear it might devastate a large area within its radius. It is also formed from the recollection of how Hydro misused our area when it produced millions of killowatts in the St. Lawrence Power Project twenty years ago. That power was channelled to the Toronto area as was the new industry Eastern Ontario hoped to lure because of the new power source.

We are still without those jobs and deplore the possibility Hydro has plans to set up nuclear power stations in this area that would again be supplying industry elsewhere.

Not an attractive prospect

The new sports palace building is the scene of much activity since the winter season got underway. Residents of the general area are noticing a big change in the traffic flow as streets leading to the arena gain a new two-way flow of both vehicles and pedestrians.

They also see the potential for accidents in traffic because of the absence of adequate street lighting and the lack of sidewalks in that area.

Town council has decided to add two more street lights in the arena parking lot and this will be a needed improvement in the immediate area. Almost as badly lighted, though, are the streets leading to the Sports Palace and the hazard will be more acute when winter sets in and both cars and kids are sharing the streets. The accident potential will be even worse when the snowmobiles also jockey for position. Kincardine Street and Macdonald Boulevard are widely used by the snowsleds heading to and from the lake.

It is too late in the year to build sidewalks on those two streets but there should be planning and preliminary work on such an improvement next year. Better street lighting and more frequent police patrolling on those streets might be a help this winter.

Lotteries pose a threat

Drinking and drug-taking have become major problems in Canada but gambling has become as serious a disease, in the view of Gamblers Anonymous, the gambling equivalent of Alcoholics Anonymous. And you can bet on it getting worse. Much worse.

The introduction of government-sanctioned lotteries in Canada could lead to an epidemic of social problems suggests GA.

The Toronto-based body says there are already hundreds of compulsive gamblers in the Ottawa area—gamblers who couldn't stop if they tried—and thousands more across the country.

But many organization members believe that the mushrooming popularity of provincial and federal lotteries will create far more big-time losers—losers hooked on gambling—than winners.

"Gambling is a disease . . . not just a social disease, but a medical disease too," a GA spokesman suggests. "Once you're hooked, you can't stop. You start going down the drain looking for the big win.

"But the government is helping rather than preventing its spread. There's no way any government is going to throw away the revenue it gets at the racetracks. And there's no way it's going to stop lotteries. We're convinced compulsive gambling is going to reach epidemic proportions before too long. And nobody is doing a thing to stop it."

Gamblers Anonymous says that gambling on racing and other sporting events is now the worst problem of all, with poker-playing, card games in general and other forms of betting becoming almost as serious.

But it says that lotteries could become the most serious problem of all within one or two years: "You only have to look and see how much money people have spent on Wintario and the Olympic Lottery (now Loto Canada) to see how much people enjoy gambling. "But enjoyment is one step on the way to a living hell," said the spokesman.

It makes sense

(The Dutton Advance)

It appears that an increasing number of municipalities are deciding on more frequent collection of taxes.

For many years collecting in June and December was the general policy, but with municipal taxes rising rapidly and the cost of municipal borrowing also increasing it's reasonable to go for collecting three, four or even more times annually.

From the taxpayer's standpoint he pays most of his utilities on a monthly basis and persons such as pensioners collect the majority of their income under the same arrangement. Thus it makes sense to apportion property tax payments on a monthly or tri-monthly basis rather than every six months.

On the other hand, under the six-month payment plan, municipal councils had to borrow substantial sums at high interest rates between tax collection dates. More frequent payments should ease this considerably and provide funds to meet education and county levies as well as general operating costs.

Considering all the angles, more frequent collection of municipal taxes, while it no doubt will involve higher administration costs, such as more frequent billing and collecting, seems to be a smart move and in keeping with the times.

A FUTURE IN TOURISM

Dalkeith

The editor,
The Glengarry News:

Your recent editorial "No Future in Tourism" should not go without comment.

Our counties have been based primarily on agriculture and almost 100% related to dairy farming. However, with recent developments in the dairy industry, marketing boards regulations, the uncertainty of milk quotas and particularly the increasing number of smaller farmers being forced out of farming, it seems many local farmers and their children would endorse the availability of alternate opportunities still related to farming. Abandoned marginal farm land would less likely be left unused and deteriorated.

A multi-purpose racetrack could benefit our entire area in many ways. Marginal farm land could be used for semi-recreational purposes, growth of simple hay and oat crops to feed and pasture the various breeds of light legged horses which are becoming more popular than ever before. There are many times more horses today than in the "horse and buggy era." These horses are being developed principally for recreation.

Our counties are ideally located for a secondary industry—tourism. Our proximity to major Canadian cities, highways and populated area of the U.S. would draw tourist revenues to our area and provide needed work and opportunities to our youth and the population who can no longer depend on dairy farming.

A major track facility could be used for many summer and winter activities, i.e. standardbred, thoroughbred, quarter horse and pony racing and other

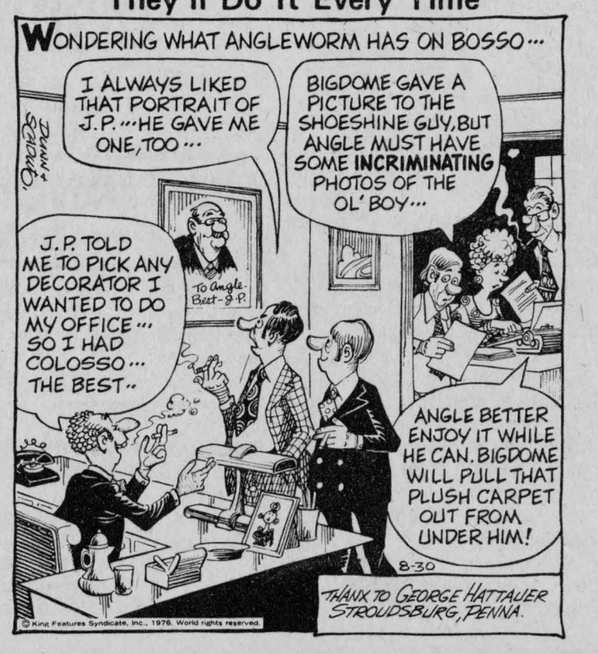
They'll Do It Every Time



WITH OUR RAMBLING REPORTER
by Ed.

Hallowe'en is a time you don't mind it if the wolf is at the door.

THEY TURN US OFF

We've been watching more television lately than in the past and that may account for the antipathy we're developing for commercials. Now we're learning how come so many people get so sick of the commercials they hesitate to turn on the boob tube.

The most tiresome ones might not be so hard to take if they weren't being repeated so often. Now we're thinking of those anti-perspirants, the dry look and such, those silly beer commercials that insist drinkers will be happy and smiling at the mere sight of a pint bottle. Even harder to take because of the blaring sound are those high-pitched come-ons for Ka-Tel long plays. They can be so hateful we find ourself breaking a record to get to the tv to change the channel.

Commercials don't have to be obnoxious and there are some that bear repetition, including most of those for CPR. Some of our pet peeves involve children who chorus the fine points of a product or service they must be totally ignorant of.

We detest some of those commercials so much we find ourself making a mental note not to buy the product again. If most television viewers shared that reaction there would soon be an end for most of those obnoxious commercials as the sponsors got the message at the market place. Sales would fall off so fast they would no longer be able to afford advertising.

That's not to suggest we're against advertising in any of its forms. We would like to see the great unseen audience make its feelings felt to the point television commercials might become more entertaining and in better taste.

Anti-perspirants may do something for the nose . . . to our ears they stink.

HARD TO UNDERSTAND

With the change back to Standard Time, the CNR has seen fit to restore its former service between Cornwall and Toronto. There must have been an awful lot of criticism from a lot of prominent people. Certainly it would have been hard to find anyone in favor of such a stupid idea as installing a special bus service to Kingston so travellers from Cornwall could go half way to Toronto by bus in order to use the Turbo train the rest of the way.

That summer bus service was hardly used and we're wondering how CNR officialdom dealt with the "brain" who came up with that bright idea. It must have cost a pretty penny and most companies would get rid of the dim wit who was responsible. That's not necessarily so in the ranks of Canada's railwaymen. They're committed to ridding the lines of all passenger train service so maybe the guy who came up with that lousy summer service out of Cornwall received a well-deserved promotion.

The workings of the "official" mind are hard to follow at best and at other times are totally impossible to comprehend, suggests an editorial in the Wingham Advance-Times. Take the CNR:

A new series of TV advertisements is now being flashed on the nation's screens, a costly and colorful pitch to tell us all how wonderful it is to travel by Canadian National. CN has even developed a new logo, a stylized version of the word "via," which, presumably means "Let's go!" The only question is, "Go where?"

We shouldn't quarrel with CN's efforts to brighten its already tarnished image. But somehow we get the feeling that all the image-polishing is not much more than window dressing. As the TV commercials are being rolled out CN is applying to the government for permission to abandon or curtail its services to Northern Ontario, which is served with their precision of individual and group movement and with their liveliness.

The Brigadoons, led by the accordion playing wizardry of Glengarry's Jimmy Shand, Rob Taylor, had never been better. Bob Burnie and Jamie Wood combined in beautiful harmony on many numbers such as "Danny Boy," "Irish Rebel" and "Land of the Leal," while Jamie was featured in "Bonnie Wee Jeanie MacColl" and Bob in "Heather." Guy Leroux provided drum background.

The old-time fiddlers were led by Malcolm Dewar in several nostalgic tunes familiar to all Glengarrians. Clif Britton of Monkland, Allan MacPhail and Lucien Ranger of Cornwall, were the other violinists. Hugh Allan MacMillan of McCrimmon was the accompanist.

John Michael McNamara entertained with the songs, "Parcel of Rogues," "I once loved a Lass" and others. His excellent introductions to his tunes added extra enjoyment for the audience.

An unknown Irish piper made a brief appearance, but when it was noticed that he was only putting on a front, he was quickly whisked away.

Andrea and Trudy Buckland brought a loud cheer from the audience when they walked across the stage with signs which asked "Is there anyone here from Glengarry?"

The show was very well received by all. Max Keeping as Master of Ceremonies, was an excellent choice. There are already, apparently, plans for Glengarry '77.

The Glengarry Pipe Band consisted of:

Drummers—Drum Sgt. David Danskin, Lee Ann Burton, Francis Martin, Beth Danskin, Ronnie Allison, Ian Kennedy, Chris Cameron, Rory MacDonald, Sandy MacQueen, Janet Kennedy, Ann McIntosh and Eileen Franklin.

Pipers were Pipe Major David Danskin, Pipe Major John MacKenzie, Lynn Campbell, Frances McCormick, Beverly Blair, Cathy Hay, Kathy MacDonald, Diane MacMillan, Darlene MacLennan, Sheila Chisholm, Alan Blaney, Billy Allison, Bruce Bateman, Ray Brodie, Roger Martin, Howard Pollack, Peter Ewing, Arnold Munro, Erin Blair.

MacCulloch dancers who took part in the show were:

Linda and Brenda Denovan, Mary McDonell, Deborah and Lindsay John MacCulloch, Donna Kemp, Marilyn MacMillan, Sally Laplante, Janice MacKenzie, Lori McGregor, Patricia Campbell, Brenda Kippen, Rhonda Munro, Kimberley Clare, Cheryl MacLeod, Laurie and Brenda Condie.

PM John MacKenzie, according to Max Keeping, was stopped by a young lady who asked the classic question, "Now tell me sir, what is worn under your kilt?" John straightened up and as only John can do, replied quietly, "Madame, I'll have you know that nothing is worn under the kilt; it is all in good working order."

Max emphasized that since Canada joined Newfoundland, Newfoundland has contributed greatly to Canadian unity. The one thing which we have all shared is "Newfie jokes" and without them how could we have put up with Trudeau and Davis for so long.

Denis Ethier said that perhaps we should change the name NAC to "Glengarry Place." After all that immersion in Scottish music and song, I thought I detected a brogue in Mr. Ethier's speech.

Walter Stewart looked like Bonnie Prince Charlie himself about to attend a Scottish ball. He was dressed from head to toe but more than that—dressed in hunting Stewart trousers, tie and bonnet.

Glengarry '76 organizers sincerely appreciate all those many wonderful people who showed that country boys can go to the city and make them sit up and take notice.

Clif Britton was very moved by the standing ovation at the end of the show. "The last time I remember so many people clapping and jumping up and down in the aisles was when Sam McLeod and I put on a show in the Arctic circle. Man it was cold up there!"

Eugene Macdonald received a sincere round of applause when Max mentioned Eugene's wholehearted support of cultural activities in the area. "Those away from home," Max continued, "receive a weekly letter from home in the News."

competitions as well as chariot, chuckwagon and boat races; in winter, dog sled, ice boat and snowmobile races as well as other popular year 'round outdoor activities.

The development of a secondary industry to agriculture in our area is certainly a reasonable prospect. But, the initiative must be taken locally and developed by local people.

I certainly would support such a project. My family is content with rural country living and our growing children do not want to work in the big cities. I am sure there are others who would support the prospect of increased opportunities in this area.

A wedding which was of much interest to Glengarry, took place on Wednesday morning in St. Margaret's Convent Chapel here, when two of our most popular young townspeople in the persons of J. A. McMillan, MLA, and Miss Flora A. Macdonell, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.—Business is more than brisk at the Munro & McIntosh Carriage Works. Last week this firm shipped eleven carloads of cutters, averaging thirty cutters per car.—A Grant, who for some time has been actively engaged in the milk business here, this week disposed of his business to James A. and Donald A. There is every prospect of a firstclass skating rink being in existence in this town during the coming winter. It is also proposed to run in connection with the ice rink, a curling club. Before winter season closes, many of our citizens may have proved themselves adepts at the roarin' game.—A large number of lights have been placed in several buildings in town and it is estimated that by Christmas upwards of 800 lights will be in use.—We understand that the Village of Williamstown expects to have a strong hockey team to the fore this coming winter. The agricultural building is to be turned into a first class ice rink and the boys should make it interesting for outside clubs.

by the Ontario Northland Railway, in which CN is a partner. Thus isolated communities such as Cochrane and Kapuskasing would find themselves without any worthwhile means of communication with the outside world.

Since there is no viable alternative in Northern Ontario it must be presumed that most people who want to go south to Toronto or North Bay can go back to snowshoes and dog teams.

No sensible person wants to pay taxes for unprofitable rail services if there is a useable alternative, but this nation is spread so thinly across such a broad land that many communities, particularly in the north and out west, are being cut off from their neighbors and the rest of the country as the railway abandons its responsibility.

As far as we're concerned CN might as well save the treasure it is pouring into TV advertising to tell us all about its excellent passenger service. It just ain't true!

Suggest care

Ontario Provincial Police at Lancaster, say they are being kept quite occupied with calls from weekend cottage owners suffering from break, entry and theft.

According to Const. Hugh McClements cottagers neglect to board up their summer residences adequately enough to prevent the eventual loss of sometimes valuable items.

Radios and televisions are a favorite with thieves, however any other item which can be moved easily and sold is also fair game in the mind of a thief.

Const. McClements suggests that cottagers spend a little more time securing their homes if only to prevent people from seeing what is available inside.

Core subjects to be stressed

Education Minister Thomas Wells recently announced an expanded core curriculum for Ontario secondary school students.

Starting next September, grade 9 and 10 students will be required to take two credits in English, two in mathematics, two in Canadian history and/or geography, and one credit in science. The new core, coupled with the existing requirements for two additional credits in English for senior students, means that the basic core curriculum will consist of nine mandatory courses, one third of the minimum credit requirements for the secondary school graduation diploma.

Mr. Wells said that the emphasis was being placed on the grade 9 and 10 level because "we believe that students in the first two years of secondary school need a greater degree of direction and guidance than students in the senior years."

"We believe that these required courses represent essential disciplines which all students must experience if they are to graduate from an Ontario secondary school."

"I believe that in some respects the pendulum of change in education all across North America swung a little too far during the 1960s. Today, in mandating a basic core of required subjects, we are easing the pendulum back to a more balanced position that will be to the advantage of the vast majority of students."

Mr. Wells said that the Ministry's curriculum guidelines for the mandatory core subjects will become much more comprehensive and of greater assistance to teachers. As an example English guidelines will be revised to ensure that every student receives a good grounding in essential communication skills, including the traditional concepts of English composition, grammar and literature. The same approach will be taken with Canadian history and geography, ensuring that every student is aware of Canada's identity, Canada's place in the world, together with a knowledge of how government in Canada's democratic society works.

Mathematics and science guidelines will also be revised to give teachers and others involved in curriculum planning more direction and more practical assistance.

Mr. Wells said the Ministry stands firm on its commitment to the young people and their parents that the secondary schools will serve all teenagers of Ontario, not just the academic elite. There will be no return to the rigid lock-step curriculum of previous years, which he said, caused many students to drop out of secondary school because they were unable to cope with a curriculum that "was geared to the cream of the crop who were headed for university."

The new requirements, he said, will ensure that all students receive a solid grounding in the essential basics of education, while at the same time allowing ample scope for a balanced selection of optional courses to provide a well rounded secondary school program.

LAST OF $25,000—Denis Vaillancourt, left, President of Alexandria Richelieu Club, made the final presentation of $2,000 recently to Robert Leroux, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Glengarry Sports Palace. The presentation marks the completion of a $25,000 pledge by the Richelieu Club to the sports palace building fund.

First Eastern Ontario stocker and feeder sale big success

The first special sale of stocker and feeder cattle sponsored by Eastern Ontario Stocker and Feeder Sales Association held at Galetta on Monday, October 18th, was considered most successful by both buyers and consignors. Nine hundred and fifty-two cattle were sold in less than four hours in 65 large lots of uniform well packaged steers and heifers.

The capacity crowd in attendance contained many buyers who went away without cattle as bidding was keen and prices compared well with Northern Stocker Sales. Top price of $42.25 per cwt. was paid by Carman Mills of Arnprior for an excellent lot of 32 red, white-faced steer calves averaging 499 lbs. Highest price for yearlings was $41.25 for a lot 20 red, white-faced steers averaging 700 lbs. purchased by Donald Armstrong of Carp, Ont.

Top price for heifers was $34.25 paid by Rayburn Evans of Pakenham, for a smaller lot of crossbred heifers averaging about 770 lbs. United Co-operatives of Ontario bought the top ten in the 500 to 750 lb. heifer weight at $33.25. Highest price for heifer calves was $33 for crossbred heifers averaging about 413 lbs. selling to Ken Clark of Millbrook, Ont.

Thirty-one buyers, all except two from Quebec, were from various parts of Ontario and paid a total of $188,553 at this first special consignment sale. The weighted average price of $34.17 included all groups in the sale comprising 58.5 per cent Yearlings.

Children's service at Kirk Hill

Sunday, October 31st marked the end of the summer Sunday School schedule of classes at St. Columba Presbyterian Church, Kirk Hill. The young people led the worship service with Sandra MacGillivray giving the Prayer of Invocation, and Kirsty MacLeod reading the Scripture lesson. Mrs. M. Howes led in the pastoral prayer.

Jennifer Lynn, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McNaughton, was received in the Sacrament of Baptism.

Hugh and Glen MacMaster, Brent McMeekin and Bonnie MacLeod were the offering ushers. Colin Fraser led in the prayer of dedication.

D. J. MacMaster, S.S. Superintendent, distributed St. Andrew's pins for perfect attendance to many of the boys and girls, as follows: 1st year, Hugh MacLeod and Katie MacLeod; 2nd year, Alison MacGillivray, Kevin MacGillivray, Craig MacSweyn and Kerrie McMeekin; 3rd year, Peggy Campbell, Lorna Howes, Mary Beth MacLeod, and Kirsty MacLeod; 4th year, Campbell MacLeod; 5th year, Michael MacGillivray; 6th year, Heather MacGillivray, Bonnie MacLeod, and Brent McMeekin; 7th year, Kathy Howes and Colin Fraser; 9th year, Sandra MacGillivray.

Children's Church for the younger children will continue during the winter months at St. Columba Church.

McCrimmon WI met

At Lochiel Township Hall on October 21st, 16 members and one visitor were welcomed by Mrs. V. Crowley, 1st Vice-President, as Mrs. A. MacLeod, President, was absent. Due to the absence of Mrs. A. McRae, treasurer, her report was given by Miss M. McRae.

The Motto: "Reckless driving never determines who's right—only who's left," was commented on by Mrs. C. MacDonald, while the roll call was: "An accident I could have avoided."

The program on "Safety" was in the form of a quiz by Mrs. N. Blair and Mrs. L. MacPherson. Mrs. Crowley was named the delegate to the Area Convention on October 28th and 29th.

The Achievement Day for the 4-H Clubs on "The Club Girl Entertains" will be held in Glengarry District High School on November 20th. Visitors are welcome in the afternoon. Mrs. MacPherson will take the knitted articles to Cornwall and get more yarn.

A successful bazaar and tea followed. The next meeting will be at Lochiel Township Hall on November 18th.

Met at Dalkeith

Meeting five of the Dalkeith Elegant Entertainers was held October 12, at Mary MacCrimmon's home.

The business consisted of plans for achievement day. Our club has a skit titled "Packing a Weekend bag."

We discussed "Types of parties," "Invitations and replies," "Entertainment," "Decorations," and the role of the hostess and of the guest.

For the group work we divided up into groups and made plans for our club party for the last meeting.

Also sentenced for non-appearing

Found guilty of two counts of benefit fraud from the Unemployment Insurance fund, Richard Gareau, 21 of Alexandria, was sentenced to four days in jail to be served on weekends. The fraud was in the value of $223.

The sentence was made concurrent with an 11-day sentence also imposed by Judge White on two charges for non-appearance in court to face the original charges.

Unacceptable mercury levels

The Ontario Ministry of Health has warned that some species of fish in Lake St. Francis and Lake St. Lawrence should be eaten only occasionally because of their mercury levels.

Recent test results obtained by the Ministry of the Environment show that fish mercury levels in those waters generally exceed the acceptable standard of 0.5 parts per million.

In Lake St. Lawrence, northern pike generally exceed the 0.5 ppm guideline, as do pike and pickerel in Lake St. Francis. Although only three smallmouth bass were sampled, the mercury levels in these were high. Largemouth bass and muskellunge also are suspected of having elevated mercury levels.

The Ministry of Health advises anglers that, while it is probably safe to have an occasional meal of these fish, they should not be consumed on a regular basis. Women who are pregnant, or may become pregnant, and nursing mothers are advised not to eat any of these fish.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PRESENT—Warden William Cumming left was pleasantly surprised following the banquet on Saturday when he was presented with a birthday cake carried into the hall by the six Glengarry reeves; on the left side, Adrian Gadbois, J. P. Touchette and Albert Faubert, while bearers on the right are Hubert Quart, Alex McDonald and Alex McNaughton. Greetings from under the Prime Minister Trudeau mask came from Reeve George Crites of Roxborough. Mayor Bruno Massie, on stage, also enjoys the episode which was organized by Mrs. Florence Villeneuve.—Staff photo

SPORTS in the GLENS

by ANGUS H. McDONELL

While Gaels rested last weekend, CCVS and Tagwi won their SD&G school football games and Vanier Vikings posted their second win of the year defeating La Citadelle 28—8. On consecutive Fridays there was a one-game complete reversal of play and again Char-Lan was involved. Two weeks ago the Williamstown students waffled (quoting Jim Trimble—remember TiCat coach Jim?) Tagwi 40—6. Last Friday Char-Lan couldn't muster a single point, losing 27—0. The Raiders ordinary super star, Glenn Dick, quickly recovered from a sprained ankle and hauled the mail for two majors. Lee Thompson and Bob Stidwell each added a td. Pat Paulin was good on three of the converts.

Obviously still smarting from the Char-Lan scalping, the Warriors held a wide margin of play over St. Lawrence, winning 26—9. Allan MacDonell, a standout in this league, scored two six-pointers while Richard McPhail and Brian Wensink each contributed a major. Dave Rumer salvaged two of a possible four converts. Gerry Aubin counted the only touchdown for the Saints. The other three points were booted singles.

Like the CFL battles this weekend for play-off positions, our SD&G league provides the fans with a similar battle tomorrow (Friday) at CCVS. Right now the Golden Raiders are in second place with four wins and a loss. Warriors have won three but lost to both Glengarry teams, Gaels and Char-Lan.

A Tagwi win over CCVS in the final scheduled game would give Warriors the nod by virtue of this win over Raiders. This is a league rule when two teams are tied for second place, or first for that matter. Should three teams be tied, a further rule governs such a finish.

Our Cornwall scouts tell us that the Golden Raiders are not only gearing to eliminate the Warriors but are certain this momentum will carry CCVS to a win over Gaels in the championship final next week. (Memo to Warrior and Gaels' coaches and players—you can't say that we didn't warn you.) We repeat what we wrote this time last year, "How to keep from growing old—just follow those great young football players."

STRONG DEFENCES

Both Gaels and CCVS are thought to field the toughest defences in the league. GDHS has given up only 23 points in five games. The CCVS record is much the same. The winner of the trench warfare could be the 1976 champions.

While dwelling on those sturdy young defence athletes it is often unfair that they receive so little ink and commendation. This matter was perhaps best summed up many years ago by the immortal U.S. college coach of Notre Dame—Knute Rockne. It was the era of the Fighting Irish and their famed Four Horsemen. Surrounded by sport writers following a championship game, Rockne was asked if this had been the best game ever by the Four Horsemen? There was a pause. Then the reply, "Possibly so, but what would they have done without the seven mules?"

This is not to infer that the GDHS defence forces are mules. It is meant to bring out the importance of a tough and stingy ground-yielding defence. Among the student athletes who have done so much to gain a first-place finish are ends, Jim Labonte and Raymond Gibbs who usually flank Mark Werely, Cameron McCormick, Herbie Seguin and Jeff Marshall.

Danny McPherson is the key to the line backers. This is McPherson's final year and don't be surprised if he picks up at St. F. X. where his brother Burns was a four-year luminary. Danny is flanked by Mike Willard, John MacLeod, Brian Danaher and Gordon MacDonald. In the backfield you will find Warren Everson, Gilles Gareau and Andy Bellefeuille. And when an opposing kickoff or punt return player streaks through the front lines, you pin your hopes on safety Terry Epp and Jeff Russell.

Next week we will give you a rundown on the stalwarts who greatly assist Luc Poirier, Johnny Charlebois and Wayne Lee put points on the score board.

CONGRATULATIONS

Last Friday's spectacular concert, Glengarry '76, in the National Arts Centre was almost unbelieveable. That is, to this writer, when we compare nostalgia notes of some 30 years ago.

It was post-World War Two. A few of us living in Ottawa thought it would be appropriate to show that we believed in a revival of our Scottish heritage that like many, many other phases of life, had been dealt body blows by a depression and a world war. Older News' readers at home and away will recall Glengarry St. Andrew's balls in the staid Montreal Windsor Hotel, in Ottawa, Winnipeg, Edmonton and Vancouver.

So the "us" were Nora MacRae, Marguerite Kavanagh, Murray MacQueen and this writer. We had no pipe band because there wasn't any by today's standard. We had no MacCulloch dancers to headline our revival movement. We rented the small IOOF hall on Somerset street. We brought in by taxi the old tyme fiddlers of that time, Father J. D. McPhail, Neil "Austin R" MacDonald and Allan "Alex Malcolm" MacDonald who were accompanied by Vince Cameron on the piano. Dr. "Bernie" Villeneuve, John and Howard Morris sand Scottish ballads as only they could do. Our skilled dancers were Edna (Mrs. Adrien Filion) McDonald and Joan (Mrs. Howard O'Hara) Gormley.

We salvaged about $35. But we ignited the revival flame that spread to Montreal, Toronto and back to Ottawa. We repeat, the professional presentation was unbelieveable. Congratulations and may your future be lengthy and as star-studded as it is right now.

AUNT ANNE

We are always indebted to old friends who drop us a note of interest in the mail. Recently we received a Parish Bulletin from St. John Fisher parish, Pointe Claire, in which we note that following the Olympic medal winning swim for Canada by Anne Jardin, our Glengarry granddaughter was presented with still another medal. This time by Our Lady's Guild of the parish, a gold medal of Our Lady and a gold chain.

Anne Jardin also excels in the classroom as well as the pool. She has been awarded a Scholarship and is presently attending University of Texas in Houston.

To add to the Olympic excitement in the Jardin family, on the eve of Anne's brilliant accomplishment Pat (Gordon) Jardin gave birth to a baby girl, making Anne an aunt for the first time.

Want sports equipment bought locally

A resolution from Markham, Ont., was presented at last week's meeting of the Alexandria town council asking co-operation in presenting a request to the Ministry of Culture and Recreation, regarding Wintario grants.

Evidently the Ministry of Culture and Recreation, which distributes Wintario sports equipment grants, has a practice of purchasing its sports equipment from one primary source.

This being the case, the Town of Markham council has requested that whenever a grant is being given a particular municipality or district in the line of sports equipment, the necessary supplies be purchased in that area or community, rather than sent in from an outside source.

Markham council has asked that support be given their request in the form of a resolution by each Ontario community and the Tuesday meeting of council saw fit to do so and unanimously accepted the following resolution presented by Reeve J. P. Touchette: "That the council of the Town of Alexandria in open council, concurs with the resolution of the Town of Markham, regarding Wintario Grants for local sports organizations and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Minister of Culture and Recreation and to Osie Villeneuve, MPP."

TEMPORARY DETOUR—Highway 43 is blocked to traffic at Monkland since Monday afternoon when a CPR freight train was derailed right at the level crossing east of the village. Railway work crews reached the scene in late afternoon to begin the long job of removing wrecked railway cars and laying a new rail bed. Looking west toward the village, our camera on Tuesday caught a messed up highway though much improvement had already been made. Traffic is presently being detoured on the concessions north and south of Highway 43.

BEST OF COMPETITION—GDHS senior girls' cross country team proved to be the best in Eastern Ontario, Saturday, when they placed first out of approximately 300 competitors at Plantagenet. Girls' cross country team tops in meet

The senior girls' cross country team from GDHS justified all their hard training Saturday when they walked off with first place over all at the Eastern Ontario Secondary School Association meet in Plantagenet.

Over 300 competitors entered the contest which included categories for junior and senior boys and girls. The meet serves as an elimination run for the Ontario Federation of Secondary School Athletic Assoc. meet to be held in St. Catharines, at Brock University, next spring.

The GDHS first place winning team was made up of Yvette Blanchette, Sonja Blanchette, Heather Mitchell and Florence MacCrimmon.

Yvette proved especially superior over the 2¼ mile run when she finished two minutes and 45 seconds ahead of the second place runner.

Midget girls placed fourth in their event. They were represented by Diane Claude, Colette Poirier, Brenda Golden and Madeleine Huot.

A 7th place finish was recorded by the Junior boys, represented by Marc Huot, Michael Crack, Tommy McLeister and Mike Sullivan.

HELICOPTER PILOT — Keith McPherson, 3rd Kenyon, has received his pilot's licence as a helicopter pilot after graduating from the Aston Helicopter Training School at Oshawa. He is now spending a few days with his father, R. J. McPherson.

Postpone program

The program, The Sun a Provider, which was to be presented on Monday, Nov. 8th, at the Alexandria Public Library has been postponed to Saturday, Dec. 4th.

Hockey gear stolen from car

Saturday night proved costly for Bruce McLeod, 17, of RR4, Alexandria, when thieves are reported to have taken an estimated $250 worth of hockey equipment from his car.

Bruce had left his car in the parking lot of the Glengarry Sports Palace which is where the theft occurred, report police.

Farm course set for Dalkeith

Courses in Management of the Farm Business are to be held at Dalkeith and in Kemptville. The course will begin January 10th and will involve six hours of daily class time over a five-week period.

Only candidates with a firm commitment to agriculture and a minimum of three years' farming experience will be chosen. Canada Manpower will pay a training allowance.

Application forms must be completed by Nov. 19th and they are available at the Ag. Rep's office. The course will be taught in the old school at Dalkeith and a co-ordinator has yet to be named reports J. Y. Humphries, ag. rep.

It's not exactly the 3 R's. But for farmers who enrol in the upcoming courses at Dalkeith and at Kemptville it will be a return to the basics.

The Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology, through Canada Manpower, is providing courses for full time farmers in livestock management and crop production. Says the Co-ordinator of Continuing Education at the College, John Gardiner, "The purpose is to assist farmers concerned about improving the economic position of their farming operations.

Since World War II, technology and improved farm management have been the factors most responsible for increased productivity.

Five weeks in duration, the course will involve six hours of class time a day. Emphasis will be placed on calculation of input costs, land management, record keeping as well as herd health and productivity.

Hallowe'en was quiet in Alexandria

Hallowe'en in Alexandria was almost nil in the vandalism department, according to Chief Sylvio Cleroux.

There were a few exceptions, he said, but generally the town was quiet.

The only reported case of property damage was that at the White Rock Motel where police estimate damage to the motel fence at about $375. There was also some egg throwing and some of the town's windows, including those at the post office, were spattered.

As it was snowing Sunday evening, one group of pranksters attempted to have Christmas come a little early. They relieved the town of its Santa Claus cabin, stored at the town garage, and erected it in front of the old mill on Mill Square.

Chief Cleroux felt that thanks should be given the town's C.B. operators who continually had at least four cars patrolling the town to assist police in their surveillance.

Old-Timer hockeyists to play Britain

Members of the Glengarry Old-Timers Hockey team will be heading for Scotland and England next March in hopes of continuing their winning ways in another hockey tournament.

The team, which recently won its first annual Old-Timers Hockey Tournament in the Glengarry Sports Palace, will be leaving for Scotland, March 17, 1977, from Mirabel airport.

Initially they will be staying at the Clydesdale Palace Hotel in Edinburgh, following which they will travel to Kirkcaldy and their first game against the Fyfe Flyers March 19th.

The following evening, and after a scheduled day's rest and relaxation they will take on a team from Edinburgh for the second game of the series.

On the 21st, the team members who will be accompanied by their wives, will charter a bus to Newcastle and play the Whitley Bay hockey team that same evening.

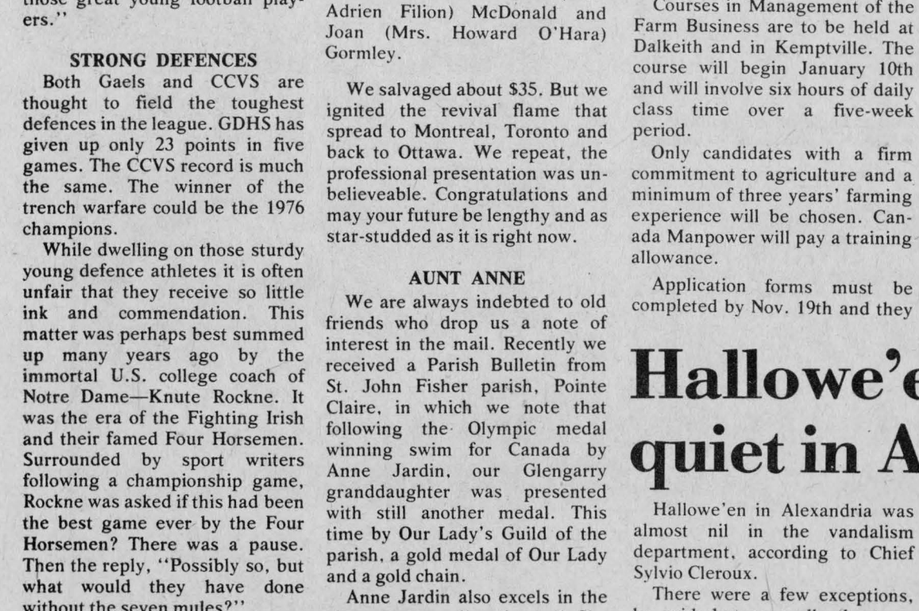
The Glengarrians are then scheduled to travel by bus to London and play a team in that city on the 25th, however this game has yet to be confirmed.

All things being normal they will return home March 27th.

The club was fortunate in receiving a grant of $1,500 from Wintario to cover their charter bus service in Britain. An equipment manufacturer was also kind enough to furnish them with 18 equipment bags.

Players, and their wives, planning to make the trip are: Denis Martin, Gerard Beauclair, Glen Slater, Andre Seguin, Roger Levert, Gaetan Giroux, Stanley Fraser, Raymond Legault, Robert Leroux, Gilles Lefebvre, Guy Cholette, Jean-Yves Jeaurond and Roch Lajoie.

Joining in on the trip as what will eventually be a cheering section are the husband and wife teams of Ronald Cholette, Maurice Gauthier, Garnet Lajoie, Raymond Lajoie, Royal Lefebvre, Duncan Macdonell, Bruno Massie, Gerard Roy, Pierre Thibodeau and Emile Viau.



PRIME REAL ESTATE—Glengarry Memorial Hospital was apparently for sale in the wake of Hallowe'en. Among pranks that were harmless and showed originality was this posting of local realtors' signs at the entrance to the hospital grounds. Police report only one instance of serious property damage here.

Won draw

Alice Brown of Ganges, B.C., was winner of the 50-50 draw conducted in conjunction with the Open House of Charlottenburgh Township Nursery School on Sept. 30th.

Trucks collided

Fortunately no one was injured Sunday evening, when two pick-up trucks were in collision on the Glen Robertson road in front of the Sky-Hi Drive-In.

Police report that Bertram Brandon, Conc. 2, Lochiel, had backed his truck out of a private driveway when it collided with another vehicle driven by Lionel Beriault, Glen Robertson.

No one was injured in the accident, say police, however Mr. Brandon's truck suffered an estimated $1500 damage and there was approximately $1,000 damage to the vehicle driven by Mr. Beriault.

TOURNAMENT CHAMPS—Organizers and winners of the first annual Old-timers' tournament were the members of the Glengarry Hockey Club. The tournament, which took place in the Glengarry Sports Palace, Oct. 21st to 23rd, hosted 16 teams and received its official opening and face-off from Dr. D. J. Dolan who was the series guest of honor. Members of the team are, back row, Denis Martin, Maurice Payment, Gerard Beauclair, Glen Slater, Andre Seguin, Roger Levert, Gaetan Giroux, Stanley Fraser and Roger Richer; front row, Raymond Legault, Roger Menard, Leo-Denis Payment, Robert Leroux, Gilles Lefebvre, Guy Cholette and Jean-Yves Jeaurond. The tournament also allowed the hockey club to raise $2,200 which it plans on donating to the Glengarry Sports Palace to help meet its deficit.

Glen Sandfield

Mrs. Lorna Chapman
874-2408

Everyone would like to extend a hearty welcome home to Clifford Bickerstaff, who has been in hospital in Cornwall for some time. He had an unfortunate accident a while back when he was pulled into a turning power-take-off. The wind caught his clothing and whipped them into the machine, shattering his thigh and crushing his knee. Hope he will soon be his old self again.

On behalf of her friends and former neighbors, a sincere get well wish goes out to Miss Hannah Chisholm, who is in hospital.

Frederick Twining has recently returned to Centennial Farm 1967, after a visit to Toronto, where he stayed with friends Mr. and Mrs. George Falconbridge. Both going and coming home trips were pleasantly interrupted by stop-overs with Col. and Mrs. Wm. Hockney at Carrying Place, Ont.

UCW BAZAAR

There was a good turnout for the UCW bazaar last Wednesday afternoon at Glen Sandfield hall which was decorated with colorful autumn leaves and pictures. There were overflowing tables of home cooking, handiwork and candy, which went quickly. The tea table looked most inviting, with yellow floral centre pieces, contrasting nicely with the rosy red apples, the colorful salads, and the golden brown rolls. All were pleased to welcome Miss Mary MacKenzie, who is now living in Maxville. To all who worked so hard to ensure this day's success—thank you.

MOOSE CREEK

UCW rally at Apple Hill

Eight-nine United Church Women gathered at Apple Hill Church on October 13 for the Fall Rally of Region 2. The theme was "Getting to Know You" and Miss Lena McLaren of Ingleside, enlarged on that as she conducted a sing-song and worship service. She was assisted by Mrs. Joan McEwan and Mrs. Muriel Dickson.

Rev. Harry Funge, Chairman of Seaway Valley Presbytery, brought greetings and Mrs. Jean Scott, President of the Presbyterial, spoke briefly. News of new books and study packs was given by the Literature Chairman. Mrs. Mary Loree gave her impression of Summer Event, which she had attended as a Region 2 delegate.

Mrs. Verna Gallinger, regional vice-president, chaired the business meeting and introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Ida Welland of St. Catharines, formerly of Cardinal. St. Catharines, Ont. and Port of Spain, Trinidad, are twinned cities and Ida and her husband, Bob, had hosted a Trinidadian family at their home. Later, they were guests of a family in Trinidad. She told about the customs, food, entertainment, etc., native to that country and pointed out that love for one's fellow man is much more important than race, color or religion.

Mrs. Susan Clarke of Martintown, gave the concluding reading, "The Person Next to You." Newington UCW offered to host the next Fall Rally of this region.

Couth youths

The Bainsville 4-H Club has resumed its fall session, the theme being "The Club Girl Entertains." The Club has 17 members, under the leadership of Mrs. Agnes Petrie and Mrs. Sheila Urquhart, and they have called themselves the "Couth Youths." The first four meetings, held at the leaders' homes, have covered the topics of flower arrangement, table etiquette, packing and storage, and formal invitations.

400,000 acres is a fair slice of Canada's corn cake

There will be close to 2.6 million acres of corn grown in Canada this coming year.
More than 400,000 acres will be planted with Pride varieties.
And that's a fair slice of the cake.
No-one gives you that sort of market share,
It's not magic and it's certainly no accident. It has to be earned the hard way - like 25 years experience in the corn business, a continual research and development program and an aggressive expansion program into the new corn areas of the Maritimes, Quebec and Western Canada.
You can buy seed corn from more than 18 different sources,
each with a network of dealers,
but you cannot escape the facts.
There's no substitute for experience.
Let us prove it to you.

Avonmore couple wed 60 years

On the occasion of their approaching 60th wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Delaney, highly respected lifelong residents of Avonmore community, were honored by a host of relatives, neighbors and friends at a gala party in the Avonmore Community Centre.

During the early part of the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Delaney were "At Home" to many friends who took the occasion to visit with them and to extend their congratulations and best wishes.

Later there was dancing to the musical artistry of Carol and Peter Dawson, Pembroke. There was music for young and old alike, including a few much appreciated square dances. Allen McIntyre was the caller for the squares.

During the course of the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Delaney were escorted to the platform where Sesel Wert read a congratulatory address and David Heuston, on behalf of all the assembled friends, presented Mr. and Mrs. Delaney with a well-filled purse.

Both the bride and the groom of three-score years thanked one and all for the honors conferred upon them and for the party that had been arranged by members of their family.

On the insistence of many of the friends, Mr. Delaney, accompanied on the piano by his son Hubert, favored with a violin solo. Climax came with Mr. and Mrs. Delaney dancing "The Anniversary Waltz."

A sumptuous lunch was served by the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Delaney were married in Our Lady of Angels Church, Moose Creek, on Nov. 13, 1916. Rev. Charles McRae officiated. Their attendants were William McPhail and Kathleen Gagnon.

Following their marriage they took up residence on the family's farm where they have since resided. They have been active over the years in all respects of the community's life.

Mr. and Mrs. Delaney have two children (Lillian) Mrs. Moe Segal, Cornwall, and Hubert Delaney, Avonmore. One son, Vincent, died a number of years ago. They have 13 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Mrs. Delaney was the former Annie M. Barker, a daughter of the late Alexander Barker and his wife, the former Margaret Alguire. Mrs. Delaney has two sisters—Mrs. William McPhail and Mrs. Bernard Maloney, both of Cornwall, and one brother, Edward Barker, St. Andrew's West.

Mr. Delaney is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Delaney. His mother's maiden name was Annie Campbell. Mr. Delaney has one brother, Edward Delaney, Vancouver.

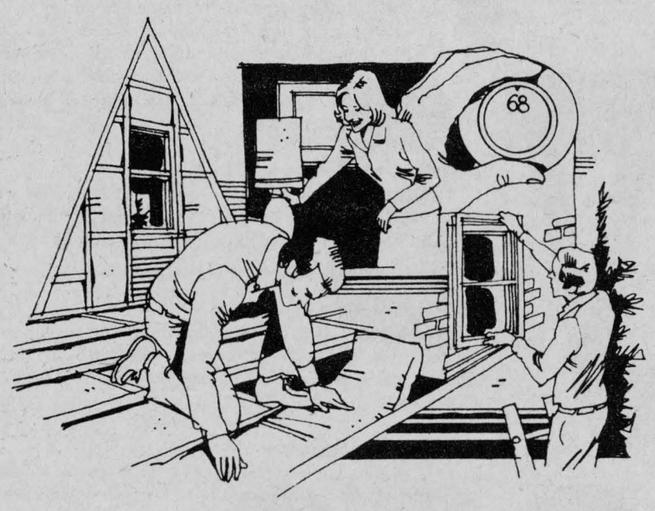
This is Energy Conservation Week.



Here is what you can do to help Ontario conserve energy.

Energy. It will cost us $7.5 billion province-wide this year.

To help cut that cost, your Ontario Government established the Energy Management Program. The goal is to save $1 billion a year on energy bills throughout Ontario by 1980.

Ninety-five energy management research and demonstration projects are underway to help you use less energy at home and at work.

You too can conserve energy and save money by:

- Insulating and caulking your home
- Lowering daytime temperatures to 68°F (20°C) and nighttime temperatures to 63°F (17°C)
- Closing drapes on all windows on winter nights
- Replacing air filters on warm air heating systems once a month
- Using 40 watt instead of 60 or 100 watt bulbs where practical
- Keeping the damper closed when the fireplace is not in use
- Installing storm windows and doors
- Turning off lights and TV when not being used
- Warming up your car's engine gradually
- Avoiding idling the engine while waiting

SPORTS in the GLENS

by ANGUS H. McDONELL

Family relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie "The Farmer" McDonald from near and distant points, scores of friends and well wishers braved the rigors of a recent rain and wind storm to converge on Maxville and spend the afternoon and evening at the King George hotel where official opening ceremonies were held by the new owners in a traditional Glengarry custom and atmosphere.

Recently Charlie and Donna McDonald purchased the venerable landmark and moved to Maxville from Edmonton. Those present were liberal with their favorable comments that the McDonalds will be successful not only in a mercantile way but also prove a contributing asset to the progressive community spirit that always prevails in this sector of the historic Indian Lands.

Mrs. Charlie McDonald is the former Donna Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnston from Portage La Prairie. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston were present, as well as next of kin, Mr. and Mrs. Gar Ash, Jim and Greg of Belleville.

Of course Charlie needs no formal introduction via the media or otherwise. He is the youngest son of Ella and the late John Sander "The Farmer" McDonald of Glen Roy. Charlie's mother headed members of the family Farmer Clan (not unlike a Clan Chieftain) who were in attendance from Detroit, Ottawa, Cornwall and local points.

The reception lounge was tastefully adorned with autumn flowers that presented a homey setting. Guests were welcomed by pipers playing familiar numbers and concluding with a very appropriate selection—"For He's A Scottish Soldier." The masters of the chanter were John MacKenzie, Dave Danskin and Roger Martin.

An older brother of our new hosts, one of Ma Bell's boys from an upper level, Ambrose McDonald, Ottawa, capably filled the role as chairman for the official ceremonies. After introducing the honored guests Ambrose called on the veteran of Queen's Park, our MLA Osie Villeneuve to address the gathering. Osie responded in his usual interesting way stressing the importance of sound hotel leadership in any community and that knowing the McDonald family since his early political days there was no question but that a bright future was in store for both Charlie and Donna and the community as well. Reeve Hubert Quart also extended greetings on behalf of the Maxville citizens.

Following the traditional cutting of the ribbon held by the McDonalds and snipped by "Osie," guests were served with appetising hors d'oeuvres and any desirable beverage. The musicians then took over. This portion of the program was highlighted by stirring violin music rendered by two veterans of the bow, Charlie "The Farmer" McDonald from Detroit and nephew Duncan (Royal Bank-The Farmer) McDonald from Ottawa.

Before leaving, this writer spent a delightful short time reminiscing with first Osie Villeneuve and then Charlie the Farmer from Detroit. Our first recollections of Maxville hotels go back to the early Golden Twenties. In May, 1921, late on Sunday (Osie recalled the date) Main street south of the tracks, both sides, was swept by fire to the present Bank of Nova Scotia.

Previously there were three hotels in Maxville. Osie's father and mother, "F. B.," operated the Villeneuve hotel on Mechanic street where the Adolphus and Benny Villeneuve homes now stand. The original King George was on the east side of Main street where the LCBO store is. On the present site of the King George was the pioneer Commercial Hotel.

Following the fire Donald Duperron built the present King George on the Commercial site. From that day on this noted building has been a popular rendezvous for travellers, service clubs, sportsmen and of late the modern lounge entertainment. To an older generation the era most remembered were the days when the present lounge housed Laurie St. John's barber shop and each morning after the mail was sorted Dr. "Will" MacDiarmid held forth with his endless mirth-provoking tales as only the noted country doctor could do.

Finally we conversed with Charlie the Farmer, visiting from Detroit with his daughter, Norma McDonald. It is common knowledge that the McDonald home at Glen Roy always exemplified Scottish hospitality that of course included violin music. We asked Charlie if there was any particular reason for this enviable state. We gather that this tradition was brought from Scotland, including a violin, by the great grandfather of the King George's new owner, John Ranald MacDonald. (Somewhere along the line Mac became Mc as in the spelling of our own name). John Ranald was born in 1807. The McDonalds first settled near Dalkeith where son Hugh was born in 1852. A few years later, in 1865, the family moved to Lot 17 in the ninth concession of Charlottenburgh, about a mile west of Glen Roy. The land was cleared and soon became productive in a generally successful farming way. So much so that Hughie McDonald became "Hughie the Farmer" and that has been a family trademark ever since and will continue on to posterity.

Knowing Charlie McDonald to be a knowledgeable personality in many matters especially Glengarry music we asked Charlie who would he single out as Glengarry's all time great musicians, violin and piano. There was no hesitation. John Ranald "Claverest" MacDonald from the Sixth of Lancaster could play beside all the Chisholms, Fitzgeralds and Little Jack MacDonalds that came out of Cape Breton and he wouldn't be found wanting. And did you know that a little girl not more than 12 years of age was taken out of Alexandria Separate school to give a piano recital before Royalty in Montreal's Windsor Hotel. And that brilliant pianist was Agnes Sandy Ranald (MacDonald).

Charlie and Donna have quite a responsibility in carrying out the traditions of hotel success but with that bit of family history background they will help to keep Maxville, The Highland Games and the welfare of the community including the sport realm to the fore.

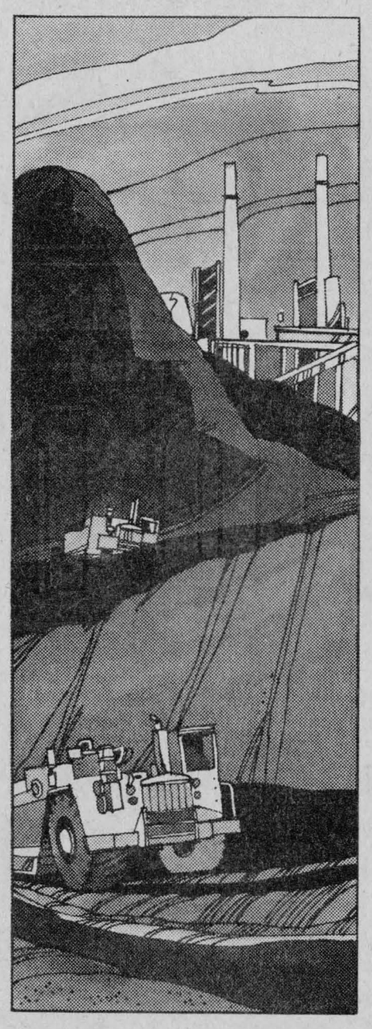
Save electricity, save natural resources.



About a third of Ontario's electricity is generated by burning fossil fuels... coal, oil, natural gas. The price of all these natural resources is increasing rapidly. The price of coal, for example, has tripled over the last five years. Higher fuel costs inevitably show up in the price you pay for electricity.

Save electricity, and you'll save money. You'll also be helping to conserve dwindling natural resources for other important uses... transportation, agriculture, chemicals.
