Skeptical audience questions reeve on airport

A fairly subdued but skeptical audience gathered at the Charlottenburgh Township Hall in Williamstown on Thursday to hear a proposal for the expansion of Summerstown Airport.

Although most of the 40 people listened attentively, about a half a dozen peppered Reeve Adrian Gadbois with anti-airport questions.

Most of the questioners argued that the airport would primarily serve the City of Cornwall while at the same time disturbing the township countryside and farming interests.

"The City of Cornwall won't have the airport sitting in their back yard, but they'll put it out our way," one resident complained.

Larry Gordon questioned the wisdom of creating an airport east of Cornwall since "it's only a 50-minute drive to Dorval Airport."

Reeve Gadbois said he is keeping an open mind on the airport question and wants to obtain more information before taking a stand.

He predicted that the estimated cost of the airport would double to $2 million before the project is completed.

Airport construction and land acquisition is expected to total $1 million, but Gadbois and several audience members noted that a new road would have to be built to serve the area since the existing road would be permanently closed to allow an expanded runway.

The reeve said a 50-acre dump in the vicinity would also have to be re-located to another part of the township since birds—a danger to aviation—were attracted to the site.

He said 80 per cent of the cost of the project would be picked up by the province. The rest of the expenses would be shared by the municipalities.

He said a cost-sharing formula would have to be developed to cover annual operating expenses estimated at $60,000.

"As far as I'm concerned, the best cost-sharing formula would be one based on population," the reeve said.

Roland Lefebvre noted that his farm would be "wiped out" by the airport expansion.

"The proposed airport will separate my two properties and there is no way I could move my machinery."

Another farmer said he was worried about the effect on his cows of noise from increased plane traffic.

Judy Coward and Murray Davenport of the consulting firm, Greer, Galloway and Associates which did the $10,000 study, said plane noise would not be excessive because the airport would not be big enough to accommodate larger jets. Most of the aircraft would be propellor-driven craft, they said.

The master plan also makes provision for a second 1,500-metre airstrip.

"An airport such as this doesn't produce a lot of noise because it isn't a jetport," Miss Coward said.

She noted that a similar type airport in Peterborough "has produced a significant economic benefit."

Reeve Gadbois said he was "not prepared to say whether the airport is going to be built or not. It's nice to have a Cadillac if you can afford it."

He suggested, however, that an airport might be necessary to encourage development in this part of Ontario.

"If you don't grow today or progress, you go backwards," Reeve Gadbois said. "You just can't stand still in this township because if you do, you start going backwards."

"I'm not trying to sell an airport, because I'm not sold on it yet myself," he said.

Despite the reeve's and consultants' assurances, the questioners were skeptical that costs and noise pollution would be kept under control.

"It will be an airport built in Charlottenburgh, paid for by Charlottenburgh and used by the City of Cornwall," Mr. Gordon said.

"I've never heard of any silent planes yet," another person remarked.

Vandalism hits bakery

The Lanthier Bakery in Alexandria was broken into, either on Saturday night or Sunday morning. The culprits broke into a Coke, coffee and peanut machines, causing total destruction to all three. The damage was estimated at "at least $1,000" by Alexandria Police Chief Sylvio Cleroux.

Also on the weekend someone broke seven windows in private residences. Police told The News that the broken windows were in a definite pattern, indicating all were caused by the same person or group.

On Hallowe'en night two Alexandria youths were charged under the town's new fireworks by-law. According to the by-law no fireworks or firecrackers are allowed. Flares can get you in trouble too, if used improperly.

An Alexandria woman is charged in connection with an accident on Monday in town. Approximately $1,750 damage was incurred by two cars when they collided on Lochiel Street at Sandfield.

A Maxville man has been charged by Alexandria police following a three-car accident at the intersection of Macdonald Boulevard and Main Street. The accident, which occurred in the early afternoon on Saturday, caused an estimated $2,900 to the three cars involved. One man is charged with failing to yield the right-of-way.

An Alexandria teenage boy has been charged with dangerous driving following a high-speed chase along County Road 10 and a Lochiel side road. Arresting officer Paul Deveau says in his report that the man was travelling along Lochiel Street at speeds of 140-150 kilometres per hour.

Minor injuries were sustained by Manon Taillefer, 17, of Alexandria and Malcolm MacKinnon, 31 of Alexandria, when their cars collided on Friday. The accident, which caused an estimated $1,900 damage, happened on Main Street at the intersection with Lochiel Street. Brake failure has been listed as the cause of the mishap.

Opposes secrecy

An argument over secrecy has resulted in the cancellation of a proposed meeting between the City of Cornwall, the Raisin Region Conservation Authority, Charlottenburgh Township and the Cornwall District Office of the Ministry of Natural Resources.

The meeting, called to discuss the boathouse-marina issue at Gray's Creek, was cancelled after City officials insisted the joint gathering be closed to the media and public.

Authority Chairman Bob Roth, in a letter to Cornwall Mayor Gerald Parisien, said he wanted the meeting open since the Conservation Authority has a policy of holding open meetings.

(The letter is reprinted in its entirety on The News' letters page).

Charlottenburgh Reeve Adrian Gadbois and Ministry District Manager Richard Morin said they were not opposed to an open meeting.

In his letter, Mr. Roth said he could see "no legitimate rationale for discussing this matter behind closed doors" and suggested the "public has a right to know what is going on."

MAY COME DOWN—The newly erected brick facing at Char-Lan Auditorium will come down if a recommendation from the consulting firm is accepted. The architectural firm which designed the building says the facing is not straight.

Tear down brick wall, firm says

An entire wall of brick facing on the new Char-Lan Auditorium in Williamstown should be taken down, the architectural firm involved with the project says.

In a letter to Charlottenburgh Township Recreation Committee Chairman Lloyd Rozon, Mac Thompson, of the firm, Dominik, Polson, Thompson, Laframboise and Mallete, says the two-storey wall has been surveyed and is not straight.

"Measurements taken by H. B. Meldrum Ltd. confirmed that the outside face of the brick was out-of-plumb up to one inch or more in some areas," Mr. Thompson states.

"These measurements also confirmed that the variations did not follow a consistent pattern.

"In view of the foregoing we recommended that all brick be removed and replaced."

Mr. Thompson notes that one alternative is to replace the brick with "stone face panels of the same type as specified elsewhere on the front elevation."

The letter says Mr. Thompson met with the contractor, Remi Poirier Construction Co. Ltd. and brought the problem to his attention. Mr. Poirier "has asked for a meeting with the (recreation) board to suggest that only part of the presently installed brick wall be demolished and replaced with the stone faced panels," the letter notes.

"This proposal is unacceptable to this office . . ."

Wally Hope, spokesman for the contracting firm, said yesterday he could not comment on the situation until a meeting is held between the architect and himself next week.

The recreation committee, meanwhile, has gone on record as stating that the wall is unacceptable in its present state, Mr. Rozon confirmed.

The issue came to light about a month ago when several people questioned the degree to which the brick wall overhung the foundation.

A two-by-four was strapped to the foundation and the brick laid on top of the wood.

According to Mr. Rozon, the construction contract is about $472,000 and the architectural fee is "between $30,000 and $34,000."

The architectural fee includes an allowance for the architectural firm to regularly inspect the site.

Local women's auxiliary gets fresh outlook at convention

by Marion Armstrong
president, Glengarry Memorial Hospital Auxiliary

No Challenge No Life was the heading given one of the sessions at this year's Hospital Auxiliary Association Convention held at the Royal York Hotel in Toronto. The speaker for this session was Elaine Baillie, activation consultant, Health Program Division, Ministry of Health for Ontario.

I found this seminar to be extremely interesting, as we now have volunteers working with the aged in the continuing care section of our hospital. We were informed that Ontario is one of the most institutionalized places in the world.

"All too often, elderly people, when entering a nursing home or hospital become objects or small children to those caring for them. We must always remember they are people like ourselves. Time should be taken to understand them and never assume, because they are elderly, that they do not hear or comprehend, as we do not really know this. Give them the time and courtesy to express themselves to the best of their ability," the consultant advised.

Elaine would like to have the words "senile" and "chronic" removed from the dictionary. She demonstrated what tunnelling vision was and placed two ladies from the audience in restraints and purposely forgot about them until the end of the meeting.

One should never ask demoralizing questions of a patient in public, she said.

Another demonstration done was the placing of gloves on a person and blind-folding her to illustrate the loss of sensitivity of touch and sight at the same time.

We were told that one's basic personality is formed early in life and does not change with the aging process. "It is often said that old people cannot change their ways or habits, but this is not true. Most are able to change but not willing, as over their life span they have had to make so many changes."

We all lose our five senses with age. Vision—age 50, hearing—age 40, touch—age 55, taste—age 55 to 59 and smell—age 70. We are all guilty of making many mistakes when caring for the aged and must try to learn more about this natural process, we learned.

Our Director of Regions reported there are 219 auxiliaries across Ontario and five and a half million dollars was raised over the past year.

One highlight of the convention is always the presentation of the Life Membership pins at the banquet. There were 52 presented this year and we were so proud when our chairman of Region 9, Mrs. Olive Cass of Chesterville was one of the recipients.

Glengarry High graduates take last walk through halls

Saturday night the Grade 12 and 13 graduates of Glengarry District High School took their last trip through the cafeteria as students. As parents proudly looked on, the young men and women wound up their formal education on the local scene.

Father Gary Ostler opened the ceremony with the invocation, followed by greetings from Principal P. T. Lloyd and the school board, represented by Lucien Chenier.

After the presentation of bursaries and awards, valedictorians Donna MacGillis and Carol Depratto bid adieu to the school on behalf of the English and French students respectively. Father

Farmers hog wild over yard

Just where are the little piggies going to market ? And which little piggy will stay home ? Will all the little purchasers be buying roast beef ? When it comes to a hog marketing barn, both the producers in Prescott and Glengarry are protesting "we got none" and are going "wee, wee, wee" all the way to Toronto.

That's where Ontario Minister of Agriculture Lorne Henderson reigns and here MLAs Osie Villeneuve and Albert Belanger are supposed to be able to pull some strings.

Petitions have been sent to them by the concerned farmers in the two Eastern Ontario ridings.

Remembrance Day

"Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the din which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us."

They were too young, too beautiful to die;
They press us from the earth, the sea, the sky
Young voices, eager, earnest, calling still—
It was not theirs, the urge to fight and kill,
Demanding explanation, asking why.
And can we fail the dead, and dare we lie?
The lovers' kiss, the sacred family tie
Will stir our memory and steel our will.
They were too young.

Too young to perish; leave the tender sky
Glances of women, or the tracery
Of sunlight through the branches on a hill,
The clear, sweet throbbing of a whippoorwill,
The fragrance of a rose, the west wind's sigh,
They were too young,
But not too young to save a world.
Oh God: let us remember them, and evermore
Build here for them a world worth dying for!

—Dorothy Dumbrille

Services scheduled

Alexandria's observance of Remembrance Day will be held next Sunday, November 11. This ceremony, as usual, will be organized by Col. A. G. F. Macdonald (Alexandria) Branch, Royal Canadian Legion, under the presidency of Comrade Jack Reid.

The public ceremony will be at 3 p.m. at the cenotaph, but veterans (and all veterans are welcome) should report to the High School at 2:30, to parade to the cenotaph.

After the service, the parade will be formed, and led by the Glengarry Pipe Band, performing in its third parade of the day, will march down Main Street. The salute will be taken, opposite the former armoury building by Col. H. P. Ward.

Refugees coming to town next week

The "Boat People" sponsored by the Alexandria District Refugee Association Group are to arrive in Alexandria this week.

Dr. Ajay Varma, chairman of the group has been informed that the incoming people will consist of one father and mother and their two children, a three-year-old girl and one-year-old boy; while the second group will be a 17-year-old boy and four girls ranging in age from 18-26.

Sam Sultan, proprietor of Alexandria Drug Mart is offering free accommodation in an apartment over his drug store and the second family will be housed in the Graham apartments.

SATISFACTION HIS GOAL—Helping happy customers into their newly serviced vehicles is what Gilles Roy, right, specializes in. Gilles has won all-expense paid trips for himself and his wife from General Motors Canada for his record of customer satisfaction in his job at Roy's Garage as service manager. The Roys have just returned from their 1979 award trip to Hawaii. Other trips have been to Monaco in 1978, Jamaica in 1977, France in 1973 and Spain also in 1973. (Staff Photo—Rothgeb)

Members of the Polish Community of Maxville and district will be saddened to hear of the sudden death in Montreal of Father Jan Bogudzinski. In recent years Father Bogudzinski occasionally had a Polish mass at St Catherine's in Greenfield, and was a weekend guest with Mr. and Mrs. Stan Jasiewicz.

LIONS WINNERS

Recent winners in the Lions' Draw have been; Peter McDerby of Cornwall, $153; Ann Martel of Cornwall, $156; and Mrs. A. Hill of Monkland, $149, and Mrs. Enid Kiteley of the fifth, Roxborough, $148.50. This means an average ticket sales of 300 a week, which shows great appreciation for the efforts of the local Lions.

VISITED

Mrs. Gil Leek of Mississauga was an overnight guest with Mrs. J.N. Fitzgerald on Peter St. Mrs. Caroline Clay of Ingleside also stopped in for a visit.

TEEN DANCE

There's another Teen Dance this Friday evening, November 9, eight to twelve, in the Sports Complex hall. Sponsored as always by the thoughtful Maxville and District Community Association. Music this time by the Disco Empire from Moose Creek-the same group that played for the Hallowe'en Dance.

BACK HOME

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Elliott have returned to their home in the village after spending some time visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lewis in Hamilton.

CHOIR PRACTICING

The Maxville United Church Junior Choir has resumed its regular Monday evening practices at 7:30 p. m. in the church. Mr. Andrew Thornton, and Mrs. Marilyn Cotton provide the Musical leadership, and all children from eight and up are welcome to join.

RAISED FUNDS

The Maxville Brownies, Guides and Pathfinders did very well with their Rummage sale, which was heartily patronized by their local community. They raised nearly four hundred dollars, including the salvage bales of wipers sold to the garages, MacEwens, Blairs, and Michaud. Two Boat families obtained much needed items, and a large donation was sent to another organization.

SERVICE AT APPLE HILL

On Remembrance Day, which is next Sunday, November 11, the Brownies, Guides and Pathfinders will be participating in the annual service at 2:00 p. m. at Apple Hill. There will also be an ecumenical service afterwards at St Andrew's Church, Apple Hill.

Maxville Manor had Hallowe'en party

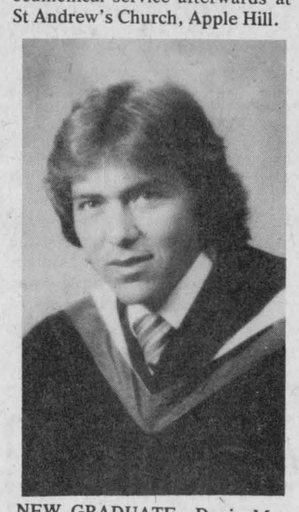
by Diana Lascelle

The Maxville Manor auditorium, decorated with a Hallowe'en atmosphere, was the scene of our annual residents' costume party. Kevin Parkinson acted as emcee. Mrs. Hilda MacLean, the staff and Manor Auxiliary were instrumental in encouraging and dressing up most of our residents. The judges were: Mrs. Lorna Winter, Mr. and Mrs. John Jamieson, Mrs. Olive Shields, Marilyn Guindon, Grant Buchan and Mrs. Diana Lascelle.

The prizewinners were: best ladies, Duncan MacRae, best gent, Philippe Denis, best couple George Begg and Anna Delaney; most original, Mary MacLean; funniest, Dalton Ross; best costume in wheelchair, Hazel Hume.

Mrs. Wilma MacGregor and Leonard Robinson supplied the music. Mrs. Jack and eight students from the Maxville Senior School visited the residents' rooms and distributed masks the students had made.

After the costume parade Mrs. Buzek and the kitchen staff served orange ice cream and organge punch.



NEW GRADUATE—Denis Massie graduated in landscape design at Fanshawe College in London, on November 2. Denis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Massie. He was a winner at the contest for the logo of Raisin Region Conservation Authority. He also made a plan for the landscaping of the Island Park.

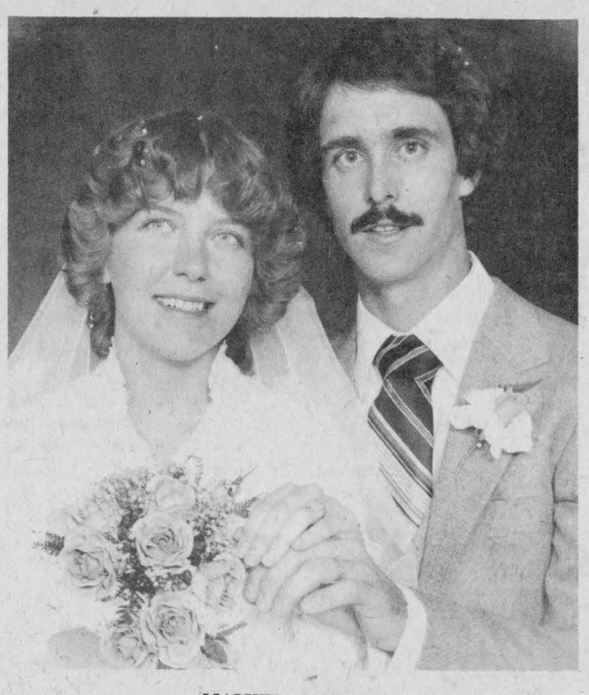
The Project Parade—featured a film on a doll house by Saugeen Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, Southampton. This auxiliary built and furnished a doll house and after completion sold raffle tickets. The money raised from this was far beyond all expectations. Another idea shown was a Coffee Blitz by the Auxiliary to Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario, Ottawa. Over a period of approximately six years almost $60,000 was realized in this way to help build the hospital.

This writer and Mrs. Donald Johnston attended the convention as voting delegates, representing the Glengarry Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. We returned home tired but enriched with knowledge gained from this experience which we will attempt to pass on to our fellow members.



MALKIN—STICKEL

Wed in Ponoka

A marriage of local interest took place recently in Ponoka, Alta., when Bonnie Lynn Stickel youngest daughter of Clarence and Hilda Stickel of Ponoka became the bride of John Graham Malkin, eldest son of Alastair and Nancy MacKenzie of Ponoka, formerly of Alexandria, and the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Graham of Alexandria.

The ceremony was held in the First Baptist Church, Ponoka at 3 p.m. on August 4. The groom's sister, Kate Malkin was soloist and organist was Doug Schalin.

The bride was attended by her sister, Edith Alexander of Edmonton as matron of honor and another sister Phyllis Dick and cousin Cheryl Stickel of Ponoka, as bridesmaids.

Attending the groom was his twin brother Jim as best man and Gary and Jim McCormick of Alexandria were groomsmen.

Ushering guests were Bruce and Keith Malkin, brothers of the groom.

The couple will reside in Edmonton where John is with PW Airlines and Bonnie is continuing her studies at Grant McEwan College.

Farmers go hog wild . . .

are unhappy about a recent decision of the Ontario Pork Producers Marketing Board to build a new hog-marketing yard and barn at the junction of Highway 417 and McCrimmon Road overpass.

They learned of this decision, they claim, through the media and feel unjustly treated because they did not have input on the decision.

The farmers had originally been promised two barns, one at St. Isidore and another in the Alexandria area, preferably south of the town.

The decision to purchase land in the McCrimmon area was made by the OPPMB and Mrs. Myers, one of the directors representing this area was one of the directors who approved the decision.

The decision was made, Mrs. Myers told The News because it would cost in the neighborhood of $200,000 to build two facilities and it was felt the one location was reasonably accessible to both county producers, and an excellent building could be provided for less money.

Kitty Ewaschuck who contacted The News this week was in possession of a petition from Glengarry producers which at that point contained 39 names protesting the McCrimmon location.

"We do not want to just find fault with Mrs. Myers," it was explained by Mrs. Ewaschuck. "She has a difficult job to do. But we felt we should have been notified before the final decision was made."

The Glengarry producers have not held a meeting since February, she said, but added that one of the producers had contacted Charles Myers, the Glengarry president, and he had immediatley agreed to chair a meeting on Thursday.

The Prescott producers have a petition with 92 names signed in protest, Mrs. Ewaschuch said.

The petitions have been sent to Toronto. Already Minister Lorne Henderson has called for an investigation into the facts surrounding the cancellation of the previous plans and the decision to buy the property for the proposed barn. The land cost $40,000, and a permit has not yet been obtained for the construction.

More meetings and investigations will evidently have to be completed before a satisfactory decision is finalized.

Many in costumes

The fact that Hallowe'en Night in Maxville turned out to be a pleasant social evening for the children instead of an occasion for marauding vandals to prowl the village was in large part due to the efforts of the Maxville and District Community Association.

They staged their second big annual Party at the Sports Complex with lively decorations, generous costume prizes, games and lots of treats and food. Over two hundred and twenty children attended, nearly all of them in costumes of an amazing and impressive variety, making the task of the judges no easy one. M.C. Noble Villeneuve, assisted by the Lady in Black organized the parade immediately, and Mrs. Fay Wright, Mrs. Claire Besner, and Mrs. Lorna Winter contemplated the assortment of clowns, dancers, donkeys, bears, devils, bees, and wandering hobos.

In the youngest group the winners were Stacey Hanniman, Matthew Cotton, Blair Munro and Lorna Scott. Four and five years, Angela Dewar, Michelle Champagne, Dale Symons, and Lee Ann MacEwen. Six and seven, Angela Lacroix, Heather Williams, Christa Montgomery, and Joseph VanLoon. Eight and nine, Jodi McDonald, Tracey Symons, John D. MacLeod, Murray Bond, Pierre Villeneuve and Natali Cadieux. Ten and eleven, Cara Bankley, Janet Baxter, Diane Ferguson, Bruce Blaney, Sonya Montgomery, and Kim Aube. And in the twelve to fourteen, John McCarthy, Tibiki Cappuccino, Brent Tait, and Lizanne Cadotte.

All these prize winners were called up on the platform so that their costumes could be admired.

From the entire group, the grand prize winner was John D. MacLeod of Dominionville in a marvellous zebra costume, complete with red-lit eyes and nose, and a mouthful of willow branch. Nancy Cadieux came closest to guessing the number of the beans in the jar, and the door prizes went to Marina Rolland and Ralph Williamson. Claudia Cuillerier received a round of applause for coming to the party in her wheel chair. A chamber of horrors had been set up, and the more venturesome got a tour through this. The balance of the evening was devoted to a Disco dance for the teenagers, Robert Goyette of Moose Creek providing the music Members of the community association put a great deal of work into making this party the success it was , they spent two days beforehand at the Complex caramelling apples, popping corn, decorating, and doing the bags. In spite of requests for help, only a handful of volunteers turned up to lend a hand. Remember next year that a generous donation isn't quite enough, somebody has to put the whole thing together.

Ottawa QB speaker at Maxville

"First enjoy the game and then be a loyal football fan supporting the team of your choice," were the initial words of advice spoken by Condredge Holloway, obviously parlaying his own exemplary sportsmanship, to an enthusiastic dinner meeting crowd, upwards of 150, hosted by the Maxville and District Lions Club last Thursday night in the Community Hall of the Maxville and District Sports Complex.

Rated among Canada's all-time great quarterbacks, this distinguished guest was given a standing ovation as he stepped up to the rostrum. Another round of boisterous applause rewarded his reference to his great friend J. T. Hay. "I was very sorry when I learned that J.T. had been traded to Calgary. We were truly great friends on and off the field. However," Condredge added, "sometimes those trades are mutually beneficial, as J.T. is having a great year with Stampeders and Tommy Clements with Hamilton. Tommy became unhappy in Ottawa and I don't know why."

Instantly realizing the warmth of his reception the guest remarked that he also enjoyed being informal so he doffed his jacket, straightened his tie and suggested that he dispense with an academic talk relative to his birthplace in Huntsville, Alabama, and University life at Tennessee and replace this part of the program with questions from the football fan audience. In return he would answer to the best of his ability.

This innovation turned out to be most informative and entertaining as the guest speaker injected a lot of his becoming natural wit with a vast store of football knowledge delivered in a lofty, articulate manner. As one football fan was overheard commenting with baseball overtones,

"He fielded those questions like a World Series second baseman playing errorless ball."

In his concluding thank you remarks, Condredge Holloway said that he had heard a lot about the good sport fans down this way, how he enjoyed the evening and hoped he would be invited back again. The guest was given another standing ovation.

Lion Barry Hanniman of the Maxville OPP detachment thanked Condredge for taking time out to be their guest. Also the public relations officers of the Rough Rider Football Club for their co-operation.

Richard Getz, assistant to Don Courtney, who heads Riders' publicity and public relations work, also thanked the Lions for their thoughtful invitation to be present and there was no doubt they would be back again at a future date.

Two autographed footballs were auctioned along with a Murray MacQueen gift to help defray expense items, thus adding to the coffers of the club's charitable objectives.

Angus H. McDonell, historian of the Glengarry Sports Hall of Fame, before introducing the guest of honor briefly reviewed Glengarry's football association with Ottawa College and Rough Riders that dates back beyond the turn of the century hence "Football Night" in Maxville is the welding of another link that binds the Glens with the glory days of the past.

GREY CUP TIME

Maxville and area football fans can enjoy the coming Grey Cup game in almost the same atmosphere as if they were in the Big O in Montreal.

The Curling Club doors, like the Big O, will open at noon. The Lions are the sponsors, much the same as commissioner Jake Gaudeur and his CFL members. The big difference is in the seating. At the Curling Club attendance is limited to 100 at five bucks a chair. Quite a contrast to Montreal's 60,000.

Should a football fan check in without having had lunch, a pot luck meal will be served. But first you must declare your allegiance, East or West. Thus adding to the game's real rivalry.

There will be plenty of give-aways for fun making, except at the oasis. That's cash on the barrel head. A great afternoon of community good fellowship and sportsmanship.

Rebels still undefeated after four

by Stewart Fourney

The Char-Lan Junior B Rebels blasted Smiths Falls 11-6 on Sunday to extend their unbeaten streak. So far the Rebels have yet to lose in their first year as Jr. B hockey players.

Defenseman Steve Smith led the Rebels in the home game with five points. The game was delayed one-half hour due to the late arrival of the Smiths Falls team.

Kenton Spink set the stage for the high-scoring game after only one minute of play by putting the home team ahead 1-0. Harvey Primeau and Steve Smith assisted on the power play goal.

Blake Hull, son of the Golden Jet, made his Rebels debut in the game by drawing a high-sticking penalty that resulted in a tie game after a power play goal.

Kevin Holmes put the visitors ahead 2-1 minutes later.

The game then opened up with end-to-end hockey. Steve Smith tied the score for the Rebels from Marc Seguin and Mark Thomas (who came with Hull from the Cornwall Royals).

Just 18 seconds later Kenton Spink connected for his second goal to put the home boys back in the lead. Primeau and Luc Richer assisted.

Ray Bourdon jumped on the scoring bandwagon a minute later after a pass back to the blue line from Spink and Primeau.

With 6:33 left in the first period, Randy Bernicky got one back for the visitors, only to have the Rebels net two more quick markers.

Dale Lafave made it 5-3 on assists from Primeau (his fourth) and Thomas. A scant eight seconds later Mark Thomas put one in himself on a play from Kevin McRae and Marc Seguin. The goalies each made 13 saves in the action-packed first period.

In the second period the Rebels easily dominated, scoring four times to Smiths Falls' once.

After just 40 seconds Blake Hull and Kevin Fontaine set-up Dean Bourgon in front for the seventh Rebels goal.

The home team kept going with another marker 10 seconds later. Blake Hull, in the spirit of his father, let go a booming slap-shot from the face-off to mesmerize the goalie. Rebels 8, Smiths Falls 3. Steve Smith assisted.

Pat Foster made it 8-4 at the midway mark, beating Doug Spink after a nice passing display.

Steve Smith came right back for the Rebels with an unassisted goal, his second of the game.

Smith picked up his fifth point with three minutes left in the period as he sent Blake Hull and Kevin McRae in two on one. McRae netted the goal with a high shot to send the team to the dressing room after the period with a 10-4 lead.

The final period was all Smiths Falls as they threw everything they had at the Rebels. Larry Leach and Randy Bernicky each put in one for the visitors to make it 10-6.

The game ended on a positive note for the home crowd, however, when Marc Lalonde made it 11-6, with an assist by Hull.

Char-Lan took 12 of the 24 penalties handed out in the game by referee Carman MacMillan. The team now plays three away games before returning for a home encounter on November 18. Brockville will be in town for the game at 1:15 p.m. in the Williamstown arena.

Local student wins meet

Linda Vanderwielen capped a winning year on the Tagwi girls' cross-country team by dominating her class at the 1979 All-Ontario Cross-Country meet in Kingston on the weekend.

Linda, 14, beat out 196 other midget girls who finished the 3,000 metre race at the Glen Lawrence Golf Club. Sonja Blanchette of GDHS also did well, finishing well within the top third of the girls.

Linda is the daughter of Antoon and Johanna Vanderwielen of the Dyer Road, Maxville.

Bainsville takes lead Intermediate League

by Mike Depratto

The Bainsville Bombers scored 21 goals in two games over the week to move into first place in the Intermediate Hockey League. Lancaster and St. Raphael's both lost two games.

On Thursday, November 1, Chris MacDonell's Glen Nevis team came up big to down Lancaster 4-2. Lancaster's second defeat in nine starts was engineered by Glen Nevis scorers Finlay and Ewen McLeod, David MacDonell and David Hanson. Mike Tessier netted both Lancaster markers.

In the second game of the night Bainsville went on a scoring spree to blast St. Raphael's 13-1. Bob Hope picked up the lone Ruins goal, while for Bainsville it was Sally Shepherd and Pat Bingley each with hat tricks, a pair each from Mike Conway and Ross Laframboise and singles by Maurice Andre, Lyle Ross and Marc Carriere.

Glen Nevis picked up its second win of the week on Sunday by an easy 10-2 score over St. Raphael's. Warren MacKinnon got a pair for the Glen, with Robert MacDonald, Lee Taillefer, Stephen MacDonell, Mike MacDonald, Tom McRae, Lyndon Jackson, Findlay McLeod and Steve Leduc getting singles.

The St. Raphael's club got markers from Kennedy MacDonald and Andy McRae.

Sunday's second game saw Bainsville double Lancaster 8-4 to take over first place in the standings. Robbie Bingley put in four goals for the winners, with Mike Conway and Brian Filion each netting a pair. For Lancaster it was Brian Fisher with a pair and Gerald Bardon and Kerry MacKay with one each.

Jr. B Glens forfeit game

The Alexandria Junior B Glens lost their first game of the season on Sunday to Vanier. The game was forfeited by the Glens in the third period after both goalies had been ejected from the game.

Robert Hartley, who put in a spectacular performance for a home crowd on Friday night, will serve a three-game suspension following a spearing call in Sunday's game.

Hartley was Alexandria's second goalie to get the boot in the controversial game. Earlier Alain Giroux had been ejected for a fighting penalty.

Under the league rules, when both goalies are thrown out of the game and no back-up is available, the team is given two minutes to decide a course of action. If the decision is made to dress another player as goalie, the team is allowed 15 minutes.

When the second Alexandria goalie was ejected, the Glens were down 7-3 with 15 minutes remaining. Manager Billy Gebbie told The News that with so little time and no real back-up goalie the team decided to just "pack it in and go home."

The first period of the game was all Vanier as the home team blasted in four goals to take a commanding lead. Paul Gauthier, Luc Guindon, Richard Legault and Jean Levasseur were the 72s' goal getters.

Gauthier put his second goal in after only 37 seconds of play in the second period to put Vanier on top, 5-0.

After two minutes in the second period Mike Crack drew first blood for the Glens on an assist by Carter MacDonald.

Levasseur netted his second goal for the 72s with about six minutes left to make it 6-1. Four minutes later John Larose fired Vanier's seventh and last marker.

Less than a minute later Brian Wensink put the Glens' second goal on the board assisted by Norman Blankley.

Mike Crack connected at the end of the period for what proved to be the last goal in the game. His second marker of the match and fifth in two games was unassisted.

Mike Sullivan will also miss the next game for the Glens as he was issued a one-game suspension as a result of a fighting penalty.

GLENS 8, EAGLES 4

On Friday night, the Glens ran away with an 8-4 win over the St. Isidore Eagles. The game was a clash of the only two undefeated teams in the league at the time.

Mike Crack and Frankie St. Pierre were the big guns for the home game before a near-capacity crowd at the Sports Palace. Both players recorded the hat tricks in the one-sided victory.

The first period was a goalies' battle, with Bob Hartley for the Glens stopping 13 shots and letting one in, while Daniel Lauzon for the Eagles stopped 14 and let one in.

For the Glens in the first period it was Mike Crack from Laurie McRae and Carter MacDonald. Gaby Bourgon netted the St. Isidore marker.

The Glens exploded for three goals in five minutes in the second period to take a lead sufficient for the game. After less than two minutes Marc Lauzon made it 2-1 on a goal from Frankie St. Pierre and Leo Seguin.

Next it was Crack's turn again as he blasted one in, again from McRae and MacDonald. Frankie St. Pierre made it 4-1 to end the home team scoring in the period. Lauzon and Gilles Depratto picked up assists on the play.

The 72s came back with two goals in the dying minutes of the period to narrow the gap to 4-3. Bourgon with his second and Daniel Lafleche were the scorers.

Despite some questionable referee calls, the Glens came out and scored four more goals in the final 20 minutes to put the game away. Frankie St. Pierre picked up his hat trick, with assists going to Leo Seguin (2), Brian Wensink and Jacques Lajoie. Mike Crack rounded his night, with Mike Sullivan and Lajoie getting assists. Marc Lauzon netted his second goal to round out the Glens' scoring. St. Pierre and Lajoie assisted.

For Vanier in the final period it was Marc Lacroix.

Bob Hartley in Glens net stopped 40 shots, compared to 52 shots turned away by Vanier's Daniel Lauzon.

GLENS 6, CANADIANS 6

Last Tuesday the Glens travelled to Ottawa to do battle with last year's league champions, the South Ottawa Canadians. The game was close throughout and ended in a 6-6 tie.

The Canadians took the lead after only 15 minutes of play as Brad Jotham beat Alain Giroux in Alexandria's nets.

The Glens came right back, however, on a goal by Mike Sullivan from Luc Poirier and Norman Blankley.

Ottawa went back into the lead with a goal by Mike Marta.

The period ended tied after Leo Seguin took a pass from Brian Wensink and made no mistake.

The Canadians took the lead again in the second period on goals by Bill Kilrea and Ed Sunstrum.

The Glens' only goal in the middle period came from Leo Seguin, with an assist going to Andre Cholette.

The Glens dominated the third period, scoring three times to Ottawa's twice. Ottawa's goals both came from Marc Martin.

Carey Cameron drew first blood in the period for the Glens, putting one in from Brian Wensink. Leo Seguin then completed his hat trick, with an assist going to Frankie St. Pierre.

Jacques Lajoie banged in what proved to be the tying goal on an assist by Luc Poirier.

The Glens' next home game will be this Friday night at the Glengarry Sports Palace. The mighty South Ottawa Canadians will be in town for a return match to try and be the first team to beat the Glens in a full game.

Char-Lan Minor Hockey is underway

The Char-Lan Minor Hockey League's 1979-80 season is now underway. Weekly results will appear in these pages for the Atom, Peewee, Bantam and Midget divisions.

ATOM

The Atom GTL team got off to a good start this year with a 5-1 win over D&R Rose. Gilles Richer led the scorers with a pair. Adding singles for the trucking company were Ken Hall, Andy Shaver and Eddy Swerdfeger. Orey St. Onge netted the lone D&R marker.

In the other Atom game Lalande Camping edged Claude Nunney Legion 3-2. Angus Mc-d Donald, Jason Fraser and James McDonald each scored once in the victory, while Ronnie Lefebvre chalked up the only Legion goal.

PEEWEE

Ties were in style in Peewee action this week, with Rozon Insurance matching Lancaster Recreation 2-2 and Jean's Grocery splitting with Amell Landscaping 4-4.

For Rozon it was Robert Chretien and Cameron Nice. Lancaster's two goals both came from Dean Cameron.

Jeff Watson led the Jean's Grocery scorers with a pair. Glen McDonald and Billy Voutianitis rounded out the game. For Amell it was Robert Lambertucci with two and Darin Hill and Daryl Menard with one each.

BANTAM

Impala Motel goalie Sean Sullivan earned the only shut-out of the week as his team blanked Gauthier's Greenhouse 2-0. Dwayne Benson and Sandy McLennan were the sharpshooters for Impala.

In the other Bantam game Grant Brothers and Lancaster Pizzeria battled to a 1-1 tie. Pierre Collette tallied for Grant while Ronald Lapointe netted the marker for the Pizza men.

MIDGET

Dan's Place and Wereley's Esso were the winners in Midget action this week. Dan's got three goals from Chris Eamon, the only hat trick of the week. Ricky Byatte and Mike MacDougall netted singles in the 5-3 win over the Lancaster OPP. John Lafave put in a pair for the policemen and Shawn White added one.

Wereley's got two goals from Shawn Casey and singles from Roland Schroeder and Mark Drouin to double Chafee Sports 4-2. For Chafee it was Robert Kitchen and Michael Riley.

Junior C Glens drop first game

After battling through 59 minutes of play the Alexandria Junior C Glens were defeated in the final minute by Finch at the Sports Palace on Saturday night.

The game was tied 4-4 until the final minute on Glen goals by John Ross with a pair and Sylvain Gareau and John MacSweyn with one each.

Michael Kuhn and Michael O'Donahue each netted a pair for Finch in the win, with singles coming from Edward and Bill Dewitt.

This Junior C Glens team will be playing at the Sports Palace this Saturday night against Chesterville. The hockey is fast and exciting, and the team can best be supported by lots of fans cheering them on.

Curling News

Regular league play started Monday evening at the Alexandria Curling Club. The ladies have 12 teams in the running for the Alexandria Business Peoples Trophy while the men's league of 10 teams will play for the Founders Trophy with the runner-up receiving the London Winery Trophy.

Mixed curling will start this weekend for the IGA Trophy.

Experienced junior curlers met for the first time Sunday evening. New juniors, young people age 12-18 who wish to start the game of curling, are invited to the club at 2 p.m. Sunday when instructors will be on the ice.

Sealtest leads broomball

Sealtest won its second straight game in Alexandria Ladies' Broomball to lead the league. Last Wednesday evening the team blanked GTL 4-0.

Cathy McDougall led with a pair of goals and an assist, while Lorraine Grant and Pam MacCulloch netted singles.

In the second game of the night Hope's Auto Parts tied with Glen Robertson 1-1. Debbie Robinson tallied for Hope's and Ginette Decoeur replied for the Glen.

Starr Taxi and Glen Nevis tied 1-1 in the third game. Scoring for Starr was Henrietta MacSweyn. For Glen Nevis it was Candice MacDonald.

Tonight, at 8 p.m. Glen Nevis will tackle Sealtest, at 9 p.m. Hope's will battle Starr Taxi and at 10 p.m. Glen Robertson will go against GTL.

MOOSE CREEK NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McLean spent last weekend visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Burns McLean and daughter of Sterling, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenzie MacCuaig visited for a few days last week with their cousins, Mrs. Duncan MacDonald and family of Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldege Gravel of St. Isidore, visited with her sister Mrs. Martine Boisvenue on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Durivage of Pincourt, Quebec and Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Prevost of Casselman were weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boisvenue.

Mrs. Ella Gough is at present a resident in the Lisieux Nursing Home, Cornwall.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boisvenue attended on Friday evening the graduation of their granddaughter, Miss Patricia Villeneuve of Maxville which was held in the Tagawi High School at Avonmore.

We regret to report that Mr. Lynden Campbell is a patient in the Cornwall General Hospital. We wish for him an early recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leroux visited relatives in Montreal on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lalonde of Cornwall visited with Mr. and Mrs. Philippe Dore on Sunday.

Play is a success

The first activity presented by the newly formed cultural centre was a grand success. More than 225 showed their support by attending the play on November 1 at Rouleau School.

The play "Les Murs de nos Villages" was meant for everyone to recognize oneself through the 92 different characters performed by the actors.

The play is a production of "La Troupe d'la Vieille 17" which is composed of Robert Bellefeuille of Alexandria, Lise Roy, Roch Castonguay, and Jean Marc Dalpe.

Coffee was then served and the audience had a chance to get acquainted with the comedians and exchange ideas while a few tunes were played in the background. The grand success can be attributed to all the voluntary help, to the great acting and most to the huge support.

Les Trois P'tits Points . . .was created by a government project to stimulate involvement among Franco-Ontarians. The headquarters is on Mill Square.

Weather

by George Hambleton

October was 1½degrees celcius cooler than normal. The low was -5.5 (22) on the 17th and the high was 27(81) on the 22nd and 23rd. Frost was recorded on 12 nights.

Rain fell 16 times (91 mm 3.6 in.) and snow six times for a total of 6 cm (2½in.).

One year ago, October was even colder than this year with a high of 23 (73) and a low of -7(16). Frost occurred 10 times and only a trace of snow was noted.

No thunder was recorded in October '78 or '79.

Presbyterial meeting held

In keeping with the International Year of the Child appeal, the Glengarry Presbyterial chose as the theme of the Fall one-day meeting, "Children are a heritage of the Lord." The entire afternoon was devoted to a children's program under the direction of Mrs. Wilma Vanderwal of the Finch Auxiliary who was hosting the meeting at St. Luke's Presbyterian Church.

Approximately 60 young folk from Avonmore, Finch, and Moose Creek congregations entertained their audience with a varied program of singing and acting. Assisting in the direction of their respective groups were teachers and parents: Mrs. Jean Canham and Mrs. Beverley Campbell of Avonmore; Mrs. Janet Robertson and Mrs. Lorna MacGregor of Moose Creek; and Mrs. Joyce MacIntyre and Mrs. Christena Dunbar of Finch with Mrs. Brenda Ouderkirk as pianist. Appreciation for this delightful program was fittingly expressed by Mrs. Dorothy Stewart of Ingleside.

The morning program was devoted primarily to Presbyterial business and missionary endeavors with the president, Mrs. Barbara Ewing of Vankleek Hill, presiding. Inspiration for the day's deliberations was presented by two members of the Maxville Auxiliary, Mrs. Bertha Carter and Mrs. Catherine Munro, in a period of devotion. Rev. Ross MacDonald, Moderator of Glengarry Presbytery, brought greetings. When responding to the roll call each of the auxiliaries present had one representative express some particular thought related to the IYC theme.

Speaking on the study for this year, Dimensions of Human Rights, Miss Margaret Boyd, area consultant, brought attention to some prime questions and concerns which should be helpful in directing the study at the local meetings. She brought attention to the fact that the entire August-September issue of Glad Tidings has been devoted to a comprehensive guide for this year's program. Other resource materials and audio-visual aids are also available.

Announcement was made of a weekend conference for women to be held at Carleton University next May under the leadership of the Ottawa Presbyterial. This forum with the theme, "Our Faith in Action" will be open to women of all denominations.

Lunch was served at noon by the hostess Finch group, and then following the afternoon program, tea and refreshments were enjoyed by all with well-deserved treats for the participating children.

Representatives of the Glengarry Presbyterial attending the meeting of the Synodical of Quebec and Eastern Ontario held at Smiths Falls the following week were: Mrs. Mora MacGregor and Mrs. Dawn Blackadder of Martintown and Miss A. McNaughton of Bainsville. Due to the illness of the president, Miss Dorothy Dodds of Perth, Mrs. MacGregor, who is the first vice president presided.

Choir formed

A group representing three East Hawkesbury churches namely St. David's United Church, St. Eugene, St. Paul's Anglican Church at Barb and the East Hawkesbury United Church at Ste. Annes met on Sunday evening last, after the evening service at Ste. Anne's and formed a choir consisting of members from each charge.

The aim of the group is to meet occasionally in the different churches and present an evening of singing everyone's favorite hymns followed by a fellowship hour.

This is an informal group and anyone wishing to join in will certainly be welcome by contacting someone from the above churches.

Next Sunday, Nov. 11 the group will be at the Armistice Service in St. Paul's Anglican Church at Barb at 8 p.m., to which everyone is cordially invited to attend. There will be refreshments.

RECEIVES RN—Miss Jocelyn Taillefer, a graduate nurse of St. Lawrence College and former student of Glengarry District High School has successfully completed her Registered Nurse exam from the College of Nurses of Ontario. She is presently employed in the Neonatal Unit at the Pitt County Memorial Hospital in Greenville, North Carolina. She is the daughter of Mrs. Andrea Taillefer of Alexandria and the late Lucien Taillefer.

NEW RESIDENTS

We welcomed new residents to the village this past weekend. Gordon and Beverley Hardy and their son Grant have moved into the Tenger place. We hope they will be very happy in the village.

IN HOSPITAL

We are sorry to hear that Neilena MacRae has not been too good, and Cecil was in Kingston on Sunday to visit with her. We hope there will soon be an improvement and she will be getting stronger.

HOME FOR WEEKEND

Murdie and Louise Clark of Kemptville were home for the weekend and to attend the turkey supper in the hall on Saturday evening.

VISITORS

Doug and Grace Hogg of Ottawa were in the village for a while on Monday.

SUCCESSFUL SUPPER

There was a good turnout for the turkey supper at the WI Hall on Saturday night. The weather was just right for such an outing and many people took advantage of the opportunity for a good home-cooked dinner.

REMEMBRANCE DAY SERVICE

"A Question of Loyalty" will be the title of Mr. Fresque's Remembrance Day sermon to Kenyon Church Congregation next Sunday, Nov. 11. The tenor solo "God of our Fathers' will be sung by Mr. Robert Cherry. The organ voluntaries will include "Jerusalem" "And did those feet in Ancient Times" and the hymn tune Simeon "These Things shall be a Loftier Race." The Kenyon township wreath will be placed by Norman M. MacLeod, deputy reeve. The congregation are reminded that the service will begin two minutes earlier so that the silence may be observed at 11 a.m. A warm welcome is extended to all.

Do's and don'ts of heating with wood.
How to heat your home safely with wood fuels.

With energy costs rising, many Ontarians are rekindling an old flame—wood fires. Wood used properly can provide a cheap, clean renewable heat source. Used improperly, however, wood burning can be dangerous. Whether your stove is of ornate design or a more modern stove, they both have one thing in common; they each need proper installation. Here are some of the do's and don'ts on heating with wood:

☐ DO — BUY only units which have been certified for wood use, by the Canadian Standards Association (CSA), or the Underwriter's Laboratories of Canada (ULC).

☐ DO — HIRE an expert to certify that your flue pipe and chimney are in good condition to handle the higher temperatures.

☐ DO — CONTACT your insurance agent before installing the system. Be sure you're covered in case of fire.

☐ DO — CHECK with your municipality before any work begins. You'll probably need a building permit.

☐ DO — ENSURE adequate clearances are provided as listed in the Ontario Building Code and other guides available at your local library.

☐ DON'T — USE flammable liquids when lighting the fire ...like gasoline, kerosene or charcoal lighter fluids. Wood chips, kindling, shavings or newspapers are the safest startup materials.

☐ DON'T — KEEP any flammable materials near your wood burner.

☐ DON'T — FORGET to clean your stovepipes and flues regularly to avoid dangerous flammable build-up.

☐ DON'T — TAKE CHANCES WITH FIRE. Teach your children about fire safety too.

If you have any further questions about heating with wood fuels, contact your local Fire Department, or write for the free guide titled:

ATTENDED SEMINAR

On October 22 our vice-principal, J. R. Lecompte, attended a seminar entitled "Survival Skills for the Classroom," given by Dr. William Maynard.

Survival Skills for the classroom is a one-day workshop to give new skills and techniques for generating enthusiasm and respect in students.

Dr. Maynard's workshop is basically activity-oriented and input is directed to the application level. Resources included lectures, transparencies, films and printed material.

MEETING HELD

On October 22 at Elda Rouleau School, a meeting was organized by the Commission of Inquiry on Communications. Aime Marcoux, trustee and Jean-Guy Gauthier, superintendent of Education for the SD&G Roman Catholic Separate School led the meeting.

HIGHLIGHTING THE CHILD

October 24 was a day especially set aside to underline the International Year of the Child. It was highlighted at Rouleau with the following positive reinforcement program for the day.

a) Each teacher was asked to write three positive re-inforcements to three different students in the form of a sunshine note.

b) Each teacher was asked to write three positive re-inforcements to three different colleagues in the form of a sunshine note.

c) Each teacher was asked to phone three parents of three students to give a positive comment on their child.

DODGE-BALL GAME

On October 29 in a noon-hour extra-curricular activity, our Grade 8 students challenged the Grade 8 students from Alexander School in a friendly dodge-ball competition.

Alexander lost the first encounter to Sylvain Jeaurond's and Julie MacDonald's team with a score of 3-0 and 1-0 respectively.

Congratulations to the participants for the effort and the fine sportsmanship qualities displayed.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE MET

On October 31, the Rouleau Foyer-Ecole held its first meeting. Following the presentation of the staff, principal Claude Brunet extended a warm welcome to the many parents present while vice-principal Jean Lecompte informed parents on the school's positive re-inforcement program.

Parents were grouped into workshops to express their concerns on different aspects of the school. These concerns will be used as guidelines in the program to be adapted by the Foyer-Ecole committee.

The new executive for the Foyer-Ecole Committee is as follows: President Nicole Trudel, Alexandria; Vice President Guy Besner, North Lancaster; Secretary Michel Lacombe, Alexandria; Members, Anita Claude, Glen Robertson; Michel Bourdeau, Lancaster; Rollande Seguin, Green Valley; Lorraine Lacombe, Alexandria; Jean-Yves Jeaurond, Alexandria; Marcel Boileau, Alexandria; Jacques Paquin, Alexandria; Chaplain Father Raymond Dumoulin, Alexandria; School Representative Claudette Wallace, Alexandria; Administration Vice Principal Jean Lecompte and Principal Claude Brunet.

Afterwards parents were invited to meet the teachers to discuss the interim report which had been issued to students beforehand.

Le centre culturel de Glengarry called "Les trois p'tits points," recently established to foster activities for Francophones in the area has brought together "La troupe d'la vieille 17," to perform for more than 225 persons last Thursday in a play entitled "Les murs de nos villages" in the auditorium of Rouleau School.

The play was sponsored by "Les trois p'tits points" under the direction of Michel St. Pierre.

BURSARY AWARDED—For the first time in years a student of GDHS emerged to claim the $200 Glengarry Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Bursary. Kathy Brown, centre, will be continuing her education in medicine and has already contributed many hours of volunteer work. The daughter of Mrs. Mary Brown of Dalkeith is being presented with the award by Bursary Committee Chairman Bernice Epp. Auxiliary President Marion Armstrong is at right. (Staff Photo—Rothgeb)

News of Laggan School

Soccer is the big news around Laggan School these days as Laggan teams won the rights to represent Glengarry County in all four soccer divisions and then went on to defeat the Stormont and the Dundas representative in each of the divisions and thus lay claim to an unprecedented four Tri-County Championships in a single sport.

HAD DINNER

Mrs. Lloyd's annual Thanksgiving dinner again proved a big success as the Grade 3 class enjoyed a delicious turkey dinner served up in the classroom with all the trimmings.

SCHOOL PHOTOS

School photos were recently taken of all students and we expect to have them back and ready for purchase early next week.

NATIVE PEOPLE EXHIBIT

Mrs. MacMaster's Grade 7 history class has recently completed a classroom unit on native people and as part of their assignment have set up an interesting display in our front display case.

WEEKLY MOUTHWASH

A program of fluoride rinsings that has proven to reduce cavities by twenty-five per cent will be implemented on a voluntary basis at Laggan School. Under the program, pupils will rinse once weekly with a fluoride solution.

LAGGAN

Mrs. Alex MacCuaig

Mr. and Mrs. Rodger Nefstead, Hawarden, Sask., visited with relatives in the area last week.

Mrs. R. Desjardins, Sussex, N.B., who was visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Neil F. MacCrimmon and other friends returned home.

Mrs. Malcolm N. Grant attended the funeral of her brother-in-law the late George Fuller Brantford last week.

Sandra MacMaster, Guelph, was at her parental home for the weekend, and attended the graduation exercises at GDHS where she was the recipient of the St. Columba Presbyterian Church Ladies Aid Award of $100.

Another Glengarry descendant is playing with the NHL—Brad MacCrimmon, Plenty, Sask., is playing for the Boston Bruins. He is a relative of Neil F. MacCrimmon and Dougal MacMaster.

What a pleasure to travel to Laggan now since the long awaited bridge on the Seventh Concession road is finished. Thanks to Kenyon Council.

Wishes for a speedy recovery are extended to Wilfred Dufresne a patient in Hotel Dieu Hosptial, Cornwall.

REPORTED ON OTTAWA CONVENTION

The October meeting of the St. Lawrence WI was held at the home of Mrs. Anicet Prieur with Mrs. J. B. Wight presiding.

Following the opening ceremonies nine members and one guest answered the roll call by naming the prime minister of Canada at the time of the member's birth.

Mrs. Alex Lalonde gave a report of the Ottawa Area Convention which she had attended as branch delegate.

Mrs. Hector Leblanc read an item regarding the sale of evaporated milk to Mexico with the main supply coming from Ontario.

Mrs. Elise Garneau advised members to be on the watch for clothing and other items bearing a made-in-Canada label but which on further investigation are found to be made in a foreign country.

Miss Bessie Cumming posed a question "What kind of member are you?" and read "The History of Denham College in England," which was purchased with donations from WI members in that country and is used to promote adult education.

Mrs. Leblanc and Mrs. Euclid Labelle reported on the "Crewel Embroidery" course and stated promotion day for this event will be held December 10.

Mrs. Garneau and Mrs. Dorothy Haight were in charge of the program. Winners of prizes were: Mrs. Dorothy Seguin, Mrs. Garneau, Mrs. J. B. White, Mrs. Leblanc, Mrs. Prieur, Mrs. Labelle and Miss Cumming.

LACOMBE—LACOMBE

Wed in St. Raphael's

The marriage of Denise Lacombe and Michel Lacombe took place in St. Raphael's Church on Saturday, September 1, at 4 p.m. Reverend Gary Ostler officiated at the ceremony and organist was Christena McDonald while Sister Kathryn Cameron was soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Real Lacombe of RR 1, North Lancaster and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lacombe, RR 2, Green Valley.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white silk designed on princess lines. A band of silk secured her veil and she carried a bouquet of red and white roses.

The maid of honor was Suzanne Lacombe and the best man was Jean Pierre Lacombe. Flower girls were Anik Lacombe and Helene Garreau and ring-bearer and page were Marc Lacombe and Stephan Menard, respectively. Amedee Garreau, a brother-in-law acted as usher.

The dinner was held at Chez Paul in Dalhousie where music was provided by the Rubies. Out of town guests were present from Uxbridge, Montreal, Napanee as well as the surrounding area.

For their wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the bride wore a navy blue pant suit with striped blouse.

The couple are residing at RR 2, Green Valley.

Area native dies at 51

A long time resident of Timmins, Mary Margaret MacLennan, beloved wife of Ernest Whitney, died on Friday, October 26 in the Toronto General Hospital at the age of 51.

She was the younger daughter of the late Hugh John MacLennan and his wife, the late Jessie MacDonald of Baltics Corners.

Upon graduating from Maxville High School, she attended Queen's University and worked in Toronto until her marriage to Ernest Whitney in 1952.

The family moved to Timmins in 1957, where she was employed by Ross, Pope and Company, chartered accountants.

Mrs. Whitney is survived by her husband Ernest of Timmins and by two daughters Catherine Jean (Mrs. Douglas Evetts) of Timmins and Christine Anne, a student at Princess Margaret Hospital, Toronto.

She also leaves a sister, Annabelle, Mrs. Dan J. Hartrick of Dunvegan, and a brother John Archie MacLennan of Maxville.

The largely attended funeral was conducted in the chapel of the John Stephens Funeral Home in Timmins by her pastor, the Rev. Donald A Codling of MacKay Presbyterian Church.

Later, the remains were transferred to the Munro Funeral Home in Maxville. On Tuesday, October 30 the Rev. Dr. Donald N. MacMillan officiated at the burial services with interment taking place in Kenyon Church Cemetery, Dunvegan.

The pallbearers were four nephews Norman and Hughie MacLennan, Ian and Ewan Hartrick and cousins Donald and Wilmer McRae.

Mrs. William MacCuaig dies

A resident of St. Polycarpe, Que., Mrs. William MacCuaig, the former Isabel Fraser, died on Friday, October 26, 1979 at General Hospital in Cornwall.

Mrs. MacCuaig was born at Lochinvar, a daughter of the late Alexander Fraser and his wife Margaret MacPhee.

Isabel received her early education at Lochinvar, attended Vankleek Hill High School and later received her RN at Cornwall General Hospital where she nursed for several years, as well as at Maryvale Nursing Home, Glen Nevis, and Glengarry Memorial Hospital.

In addition to her husband William, Isabel is survived by her family of four: sons Keith, at home, Gordon of Calgary, daughters Margaret of Ste. Anne de Bellevue, and Catherine (Mrs. Garry MacArthur) of Cornwall and two granddaughters Tracy and Tara.

Also left to mourn her loss are her sister, Annie (Mrs. Roy Barton) Dalkeith, and brother, Donald S. Fraser, Lochinvar.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. Jim Thompson at St. Andrew's United Church, Dalhousie Mills, with interment at St. Andrew's Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Dan McKay, Ian MacCuaig, Arthur MacCuaig, Donald McCrimmon, Carlyle MacMillan and Manson Barton.

The large number of floral tributes, donation to the Cancer Society and persons attending both the home, funeral home and church, attested to the esteem in which Isabel was held in the community. A friendly and cheerful personality she will long be remembered by her family and friends in her church and community for her ready acts of kindness throughout her years there.

Friends and relatives were in attendance from Ottawa, Montreal, Calgary, Windsor, Chatham and Toronto.

RECENT GRADUATE — Isabel Blair Kinnear of RR 1, Curran, graduated from Ottawa University with her Bachelor of Arts in Home Economics at the Fall Convocation held at the National Arts Centre. A graduate of Kemptville Agricultural College, she is the wife of Don Kinnear and the mother of Blair and Rhonda Lee. She is the daughter of Mrs. Neil Blair of Dalkeith and the late Mr. Blair.

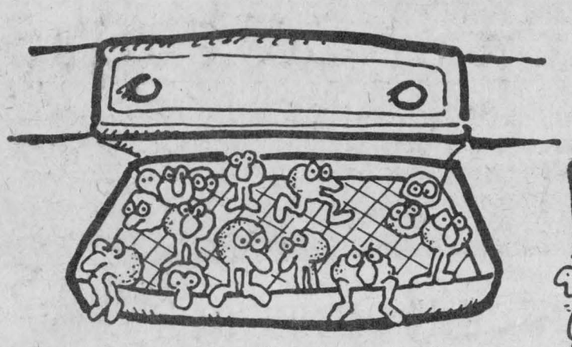
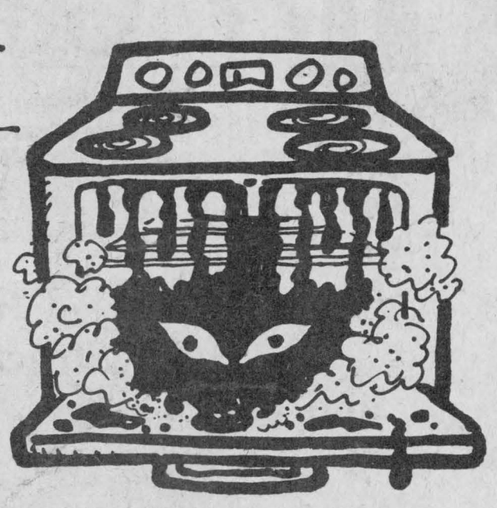
Look who's stealing your electricity.



A stove exhaust fan filter clogged with grease and grime makes the fan motor work longer and harder to draw air through. Just soaking the filter in mild soap or detergent will fix this energy waster.



Grease and burnt-on food really reduce your oven's efficiency. A clean oven works better and uses less electricity. Try putting tin foil on the oven bottom. It catches bits of food and grease for easy cleaning and it's a good heat reflector too.

Use Energy Wisely

Tune-up, clean up. It's simple. Appliances that are clean and well-cared for last longer and use less electricity. Over the long run, you can save money on appliance replacement. And of course, the less energy you waste, the more dollars you save.

Don't waste your energy.

On such a beautiful day as it was yesterday, everyone was looking for a chance to get outside. Wasn't it lucky the United Counties Road Committee had that day scheduled a road tour of Glengarry County? When we ran into them at luncheon they were grateful for someone's good planning.

While Dr. Donald MacDonald and his wife, Carol were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McLeod, Sixth of Lancaster and attending the 50th anniversary party of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh James MacCuaig, someone broke into their Ottawa home and stole several valuables. This was the second time in two months they have had burglars visit.

People familiar with the grandeur of the old Alexandra Hotel in Ottawa will be happy to learn that an exquisite portion of it has been preserved—the entire 4-storey staircase. Ewen and Agnes McDonald, proprietors of the Hub Restaurant have it all intact. No, they weren't in Ottawa to rescue it the night of the fire; they had purchased it in advance and intend to install it in the old Co-op building on Mill Square as they continue renovations. Now wasn't that foresight!

Road Superintendent Jean Guy Levert says he is a patient man, but after nine years, sometimes the patience runs out. The bylaw warning people not to throw their snow on streets or sidewalks was passed in 1970 in Alexandria and on the whole, most people have observed the law. However, as usual, a few people abuse the privilege, so this year charges will be laid.

O'BRIEN-LAUZON

Wed at Sacred Heart

Joanne Lauzon and Danny O'Brien were joined in marriage at a bilingual mass held at Sacred Heart Church on October 13.

Joanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Lauzon and Danny is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roderick O'Brien.

The bride was dressed in a floor length, white nylon gown with a white pleated cape and had flowers in her hair.

The bouquet was white, pink and red carnations.

Rev. Raymond Dumoulin officiated and the maid of honor was Jean Shago.

Bridesmaids were Margo Flaro the groom's sister; and Suzanne and Lise Lauzon, the bride's sisters.

Best man was the groom's brother, Allan O'Brien while ushers were the bride's brother, Bruno Lauzon, Luc Desjardins and Marien Major.

The reception was held at the Glengarry Sports Palace.

Out of town guests came from Pittsburg, Sudbury, Kingston, Calgary, Candiac, Lasalle and Ottawa.

The honeymoon was in Orlando and Daytona, Fla. The bride wore a burgundy two-piece suit and the groom, a grey suit.

Seniors seek support

The members of Fraternite Alexandria, Inc. met on Sunday, October 21 for their annual meeting.

Eugene Ouellette, president, chaired the meeting. It is the time of year to explain the financial report. Jean Pierre Claude, accountant, was present to answer questions.

The new slate of officers was also presented: President Eugene Ouellette; First Vice President Jean Paul Touchette; Second Vice President Omer Claude; Secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Yvonne Roussin. Directors are Germaine Vaillancourt, Nora McRae, Theodore Desjardins, Omer Quesnel, Lorette Viau, Alfred Sabourin and Fred Vander Haeghe.

Mr. Ouellette thanked the out-going members for their co-operation and wished a cordial welcome to all the officers.

A vote of congratulations to the new officers was proposed by Elie David and seconded by Arthur Trottier.

Mr. and Mrs. Georges Quenneville were presented with a plaque in recognition of their continuous work with Fraternite before their leaving to reside in Cornwall.

That same afternoon we were honored with a guest speaker, Maurice Berthiaume, Hawkesbury, who is in charge of New Horizons program for the eastern part of the province.

He urged all the members present to keep up the good work and to make a special effort to reach out to those who lived alone. In the future the government would like more of the elderly people to live in their own homes where feasible, rather than in institutions. They feel they would be happier.

Therefore it should be our objective to enroll more and more members relatively young or old so as to reach out to each and everyone in need of moral support.

Mrs. Germaine Vaillancourt thanked the speaker and presented him with a silver letter opener on behalf of all the members of Fraternite.

A substantial lunch was served and a social gathering followed.

Community action is discussed

On October 18, Mrs. Vernon Crowley, president of McCrimmon Women's Institute welcomed 19 members and three visitors, two of these being from the Young Farmers' Club, Scotland. The meeting was held at Lochiel Township Hall.

The roll call "One thing I would like the public to know about the WI" was well answered, while the motto "Action in the community begins with you," was commented on by Miss Flora A. MacGillivray.

Due to a move to Saskatchewan, Mrs. D. W. MacLeod's resignation was accepted regretfully and Mrs. Munro MacCaskill was elected to fill the office.

Mrs. Vernon Crowley and Mrs. Lloyd MacLeod, leaders of the crewel embroidery course, taught 12 ladies this course.

Mrs. A. E. MacMillan will be the leader of the making of a quilt. She will be assisted by Mrs. Keith MacMillan.

A successful bazaar and tea brought an enjoyable afternoon to a close. The next meeting will be in Lochiel Township Hall on November 15.

DEER PEOPLE

Here are some intellectual gleanings from the following area people knowledgeable on hunting and firearms: Douglas Murray, Clark Burton, Elias Kitts and Irwin Cain. These notes are for the instant deer hunter. You are better off (and so are dedicated hunters) if you stay home with the dear you've already got rather than going out to try to harvest a deer. Point the part of your gun with the hole in it away from you and the ones you love. If your downed game has shoes on it, do not bring it home to mother. Sound shots are legal, if you're hunting mice in your living room. Remember that getting half shot before hunting may be more than that when you trade the shot glass for the shot gun.

Hallowe'en is over and we have all put away our Hallowe'en Cadillacs in the closet. In the Grand last week a police officer masquerading as a thief, got confused, dropped his mask and arrested himself.

GOOD SaMARITOWNER

A Martintown resident found an intricate needlework pattern, three-quarters finished needling, on the highway. It was left with a nearby merchant and eventually picked up by the grateful owner.

"I'm so happy to get my Glengarry Sugar Bush needlework pattern back. I've been working on it for two years."

WORDS OF WISE

Minister of Agriculture, Mr. John Wise spoke recently to the Stormont Federation of Agriculture. He said that he was warned about Stormont.

"Unless you are a Baptist, a Holstein farmer, and a Liberal, you just don't go into Stormont."

He recounted the tale of the first time Pierre visited Wise's rural riding. Pierre with his aplomb for bannister sliding and other sporadic outbursts of energy in public, leaped up onto a wagon for farmer's gold at an auction.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I must say that I've never had the opportunity to speak to you from the conservative platform."

A Tory wit retorted, "Start her up, Pierre, she never had a bigger load."

Mr. Wise told us something which will spell bad news for the farmers. In the past, he stated, the Ministry of Agriculture was always the Farmers Advocate, solely. Now the Ministry must encompass the interests of the whole food chain, i.e. producers, processors, marketers, distributors and consumers. With just six per cent of the population in farming, the lobby may become weaker than it ever has been; this is what one may infer from his remarks. The whole food chain from producer to retailer also has the farmer in a minority.

Mr. Wise pointed out that Agriculture Canada must work toward a more stable income, must improve efficiency and must create new markets.

And it is happening, in the export field, for example, he said, that the new milk facilities in Quebec are the largest in the world. In the income area farmers net income increased 29% in 1978 over 1977.

Glengarry native, Allan Blair dies in St. Albert Alberta

St. Albert, Alta., lost a well-known and respected citizen on October 28, 1979, when Allan Bryce Blair passed away at the age of 80 years, after a lengthy illness.

He was born in North Lancaster, Ont., on November 4, 1898, the eldest son of the late James H. Blair and Annie McDonald. Upon the death of his mother, he made his home with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John P. McDonald of Green Valley.

He received his education in North Lancaster Public School, Alexandria High School and graduated from Ottawa Normal School. He taught in Glengary County before he came West in 1926 to visit uncles in Stettler, Waskatenau and Warspite, Alta. The lure of the country was strong enough to hold him, and he spent the next 18 years as principal in schools in Warspite, Waskatenau and St. Albert.

Ill health forced him to leave teaching in 1944, but he was able to continue the next few years in a number of areas of service to the community.

He held life membership in the St. Albert Community League of which he was a charter member. He became its first secretary-treasurer, a position he held for seven years.

He was a member of the St. Albert Town Council for several years, and was then on the Board of Administrators of the new town of St. Albert, making a significant contribution through his practical approach to problems, and his sound business sense.

While a member of the St. Albert Lions' Club, he served one term as president.

Mr. Blair was a trustee of the St. Albert Roman Catholic Parish for 19 years, and then served on the First Parish Council. He joined the Knights of Columbus in 1919, in which fraternity he became a 4th Degree Knight in St. Joseph's Assembly.

Before he retired, he owned the Blair Insurance Agency for 11 years.

Allan was keenly interested in sports, as a hockey player for several years and as a member of the original St. Albert Curling Club.

He faced his last illness with the same fortitude and courage he displayed throughout his life.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his wife, Cecilia; his daughter and son-in-law Anne Marie and Marcel Venne, St. Albert; four grandchildren, Maureen, Scott, Bruce and Amy Venne; one sister, Catherine Blair, Green Valley; two brothers, Albert, Smiths Falls; Gordon, Hillingdon, Middlesex, England; and a brother-in-law, James H. McDonald, Green Valley. He was predeceased by a granddaughter, Lorrie Venne in 1964.

The Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus formed an honor guard at the St. Albert Church for the Vigil Mass, and also for the Requiem Mass on Wednesday morning, which was concelebrated by Rev. J. Joly, Rev. M. Lafrance, Rev. John Hamilton and Rev. F. Thibault. In the sanctuary were Rev. J. H. Burke and Rev. R. McLellan.

Pallbearers were Robert Gillies, Stanley Gillies, Scott Arthurs, William Lazaruk, Martin McRae and William McLaughlin.

Burial was in the family plot in the St. Albert Cemetery.

Following the services, luncheon was served in the Church Hall by members of the Women's Institute and the Youville Auxiliary and was attended by scores of local and district people who were privileged to know Allan Blair and proud to call him friend.

Glengarry Memorial Hospital News

by Barbara Menard

Glengarry Memorial Hospital Auxiliary needs more volunteers. Do you have a few hours a week that you could spare to this organization—ladies and gentlemen?

GIFT SHOP

In the Gift Shop the auxiliary presently has a staff of about 50 volunteers. This shop is open every afternoon, every evening except Saturday, and three mornings—Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Besides offering many gifts and other items for sale, the gift shop also has a limited food service. Extra staff could be used on all shifts, especially weekends.

WARDS

In the hospital wards, volunteers are needed, especially in the mornings and afternoons. Presently there are 12 volunteers working in Continuing Care. These volunteers work directly with patients—primarily entertaining them and helping them with small tasks they are unable to do for themselves. The Physiotherapy Department, a very busy area, could use a volunteer in the afternoons.

CANDY STRIPERS

Also the Junior Volunteers, commonly known as Candy Stripers, need more helpers. Currently there are about 10 of these young people who do a tremendous job helping with patients—after school and on weekends.

VOLUNTEERS

Volunteers find their few hours a week enjoyable and rewarding.

If you have some time you would be willing to donate, phone the Gift Shop at the hospital (525-2222, extension 66) any afternoon, 1-4 p.m., leave your name, the time you could be available, and the area in which you would like to assist. Your call will be returned as soon as possible.

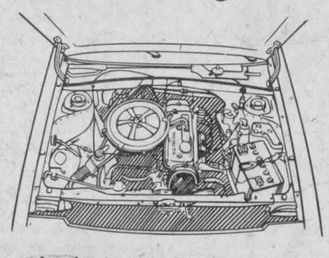
TOYOTA TERCEL. The first perfect small car?

Total Economy Project.
Toyota will be the first to tell you that there's no such thing as perfect, that they will never stop trying to perfect, to improve the automobile.
Introducing Tercel, the Phase 2 Economy Car for the crucial years to come.

Front Wheel Drive.
Toyota's Tercel combines front wheel drive with a new 1.5 litre SOHC longitudinal engine, 4-wheel independent suspension, direct transmission linkage, 2500mm (98") wheelbase and special suspension geometry.
The Tercel has been designed to reduce to a minimum the tendency of some front wheel drive vehicles to veer with acceleration or deceleration.

Longitudinal Engine.


In designing Tercel with a fore-and-aft (longitudinal) engine, Toyota has created a powerplant which is exceptionally easy to service.
This ease of access will help keep the cost of operating your new Tercel to a minimum.

4-Wheel Independent Suspension.
For years racing cars have used a 4-wheel independent suspension. Naturally, Tercel has 4-wheel independent suspension with MacPherson front strut and pure trailing rear arms. There are stabilizer bars both front and rear. To improve steering stability and brake efficiency, to reduce to a minimum snatching and torque steering, Toyota has ingeniously employed slightly positive – offset kingpin geometry on Tercel. Thus shock transmitted from the road to the steering wheel is efficiently supressed and steering balance is maintained.

The Lineup.
The four Tercel models (Sedan, Sedan TG, Liftback and SR5 Liftback) require very little by way of options.

The Economy Story.
1980 Toyota Tercel 1.5 litre Fuel Consumption in litres per 100 km.

Urban	Hi-way	Comparative Rating
8.6	5.8	6.9*

Estimates

6.9 litres/100 km equals approximately 41 m.p.g. 1 gallon equals 4.5 litres.
Numbers based on laboratory tests using approved Transport Canada test methods. Actual consumption will vary. Urban winter consumption will be significantly greater. Consult the 1980 Transport Canada Guide for details.

The automatic Tercel is the lowest priced front wheel drive automatic sold in Canada. In fact, the lowest priced Tercel costs less than the lowest priced Honda.

GLEN SANDFIELD

GO SLOW — PROTECT OUR CHILDREN!

by Lorna Chapman

The many friends of Fred and Helen Waltho are all wishing them much happiness in their new home in Cornwall. They will be leaving the area next week. Poor health has made it necessary to get a smaller place.

We'll miss you at the euchre parties and the 39ers, do try to get back and see us when you can and the best of luck to you both.

The monthly meeting of the Glen Sandfield UCW was held the afternoon of November 1 at the home of Mrs. Munroe MacCaskill.

Mrs. Margo MacRae opened the program with words of welcome to all present, and taking the theme of "Remembrance" continued with the devotional period. Articles and passages of Scripture were read on the theme, but concerned more with the aspect of peace rather than war were chosen. We were admonished to be peacemakers, and to try to have peace of mind, in our own small corner of the world, since it is not given to us to be leaders elsewhere.

A "17 Goals Poster" was shown and we were given a theoretical $2,000 to spend towards any of the 17 goals we would like to attain. Some were the desire for great wealth, unbounded wisdom, total truth in the world, the chance to have true insight into religion and the chance to meet great religious leaders, to name but a few. Oh, let us not forget the one about living to 100 years old (in good health), the perfect lover or the one about being a breathtaking beauty, or having a complete library of good books. In short, all and everything one might aspire to one day, were mentioned. A commentary was read, telling us something about our personalities according to the ones we chose. Amusing and interesting and revealing. Hymn 285, "Peace, Perfect Peace" was sung with Mrs. Angus MacLennan at the piano.

A short course in Human Relations, six choice items almost guaranteed to keep peace at home, was read. After the singing of "We Give Thee but Thine Own" this portion was closed by the prayer of St. Francis of Assisi "Make us Channels of Thy Peace."

The reading in unison of the Members' Purpose opened the business section. Mrs. Lorna Chapman read the minutes and Mrs. Angus MacLennan gave the financial report. Our president reported that four big boxes of baby clothing had been sent to Rev. Fiddler, for the nursing station.

A nice variety of bazaar items were brought in and Mrs. Wm. MacLennan took charge of them.

The offering was received and dedicated in prayer.

The December meeting will again take the form of a pot luck luncheon at the MacRae home after which Christmas carolling will be the order of the day. Nothing formal in the way of dress this year, whatever suits you will be fine. Each person is requested to bring along an item for the program, a favorite poem, a reading or song, all of which you should be able to leave with Mrs. MacRae to be placed in a Christmas Scrap Book.

On a motion by Mrs. Wm. MacLennan and seconded by Mrs. Munroe MacCaskill, the same slate of officers will continue for one more year. All members of the executive were in agreement.

After the benediction repeated in unison, our hostess served a tasty lunch amidst much laughter as we discussed our choices of the "17 goals" for life. We all learned something about ourselves and enjoyed it all immensely.

DECOSTE—SEGUIN

Wed in Green Valley

Suzanne Seguin of Green Valley was married to Guillaume Decoste of RR 3, Alexandria, Saturday, July 7, at St. Mary's Church.

Suzanne is the daughter of Mrs. Berthe Seguin and the late Claude Seguin. Guillaume is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Decoste.

Officiating clergyman was Rev. Gerald Poirier of Green Valley. Organist was Noella Crevier and soloist was Dianne Poirier.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother Andre Seguin, wore a white outfit of nylon chiffon trimmed with chantilly lace.

Flowers were red roses with baby's breath.

Bridesmaid was Denise Seguin, sister of the bride, and junior bridesmaid was Chantal Bellefeuille, niece of the bride. Flower girl was Sylvette Decoste.

Best man was Richard Theoret, cousin of the groom while Yvan Viau, another cousin, was junior best man.

Ushers were Marc Delorme and Robert Decoste.

The reception was held at the Green Valley Pavilion.

The wedding trip was to Penn Hills in the Poconos.

The couple will reside at RR 3, Alexandria.

Tax change sought

The Association of Counties and Regions of Ontario has backed a resolution from Charlottenburgh Township urging the provincial government to pick up 100 per cent of education costs.

ACRO rejected a suggestion, however, that school boards not be allowed to tamper with the school year.

Reeve Adrian Gadbois said the association supported the shift in tax burden at its annual convention held in Ottawa last week.

The reeve argues that education is the responsibility of all of society and should be paid for with provincial dollars, not local property tax dollars.

Reeve Gadbois also believes school boards should not be allowed to alter the school year since this will lead to a loss of conformity in education.

"If every school board is going to make its own rules, what kind of system are we going to have?"

Want increase blocked

The Association of Counties and Regions of Ontario is urging the provincial government to rescind new equalization factors that would see dramatic increases in rural taxes.

More than 500 delegates attending the annual ACRO convention in Ottawa adopted a resolution to that effect Thursday after grilling provincial cabinet ministers on the issue.

The resolution states that the new system is unacceptable and asks that the old formula be maintained until a more equitable solution is found.

Revenue Minister Lorne Maeck blamed the New Democrats and Liberals for the changes, arguing that the opposition parties had pressured for the changes.

The old formula has been unchanged since 1970.

Three weeks ago, Intergovernmental Affairs Minister Tom Wells announced that the province will provide $50 million next year to help municipalities who face large tax increases as a result of the new formula.

He said no municipality will have its portion of regional or county costs increase by more than five per cent next year.

Wells refuses to commit the government to anything beyond one year, however, which means rural tax increases would only be postponed until 1981.

Last week Wells said he would be willing to meet with municipal officials to see what could be done in 1981.

IT'S OUR OPINION

We are all boat people

Perhaps it was the advent of "All in the Family." We aren't sure. But one thing has become evident over the past few months—it's cool to be a bigot.

Nothing has highlighted this growing attitude more than the unhealthy amount of criticism being directed at Canada's policy regarding the so-called boat people.

In Toronto, one group ran a full page ad warning that the country would soon be overrun by these Oriental immigrants and the relatives they would subsequently sponsor. Were Canada admitting 50,000 people from Britain or the United States, we doubt the ad would have appeared.

We seem to forget that our ancestors, too, were 'boat people', a local clergyman reminded us just last week. They too, were persons driven from their homeland by economic circumstance or political and religious persecution.

Canadians are among the wealthiest people in the world. Much of our wealth results from being able to purchase cheap commodities—such as Korean shirts or Taiwanese shoes—from Third World countries. But, in fact, somebody is paying for this wealth. In the above case, it is the Third World factory worker who gets cheap wages so that we can buy cheap clothing.

Sooner or later, we are going to have to realize that our prosperity has not been generated solely by virtue of our superior technological know-how. It has also been derived from the deprivation of other people in far away lands.

Once we come to that realization, perhaps we will also have acquired the humanity to welcome, not reject, those who come to our shores in search of hope, as did our forefathers.

Interest rates are dangerous

While major corporations can usually weather short economic squall, small businessmen tossed upon a similar sea of financial instability can very often find themselves at the bottom of the lake.

Such is the concern of small businessmen following the most recent hike in the interest rate.

Many small businesses order stock about three months in advance and pay with money borrowed from the bank about 30 days after delivery, one such businessman pointed out.

However, the interest rate paid on the borrowed money increases automatically with the bank rate and most small businesses are paying about 16 per cent interest on their loans.

Since small businessmen do not usually have vast amounts of cash on hand to float them over troubled waters, such sharp hikes in the interest rate over such a short period of time can be fatal.

By following the former Liberal government's policy of raising interest rates as a matter of form, the new Conservative administration has shown a comparable disregard for the welfare of our small business sector.

The irony of this interest rate policy is that it penalizes those who are doing the most to alleviate one of our major evils—unemployment.

Despite our high level of unemployment, it is a fact that Canada is creating jobs at a faster pace than any country in the world. Most significant is that the majority of these new jobs are being created by small and medium sized businesses, most of which employ fewer than 20 people.

In other words, we are killing the goose that lays the golden egg.

"HOW DO YOU FEEL ABOUT MORTGAGE DEDUCTIBILITY?"

Warning issued over propane

Workers engaged in repairing domestic waterlines during sewer and watermain trenching operations are being alerted to the extreme hazard of using propane gas.

A construction safety flyer recently appeared on our desk and warned that such workers stand the risk of becoming human torches if they do not exercise extreme caution.

Since many people in our area use propane torches in their work, we felt the warning should be passed along.

Although propane is used to save time, it can have very grim results, the flyer points out.

For example, a worker connecting a new waterline to an existing one used propane from a cylinder through a dispensing line and valve to freeze the water in the existing line. He then joined the new line into place. When work was completed, he ignited the propane and used the heat to thaw the connection. The worker was turned into a human torch with more than 75 per cent of his body being severely burned.

Propane, being heavier than air, and its expansion from liquid to gas being in the order of 270 times in volume, settles in the bottom of the trench. If a workman is in the trench, his clothes will become saturated with propane. Should a single spark occur, he will ignite immediately.

The association is again urging all management and personnel involved in work with waterlines to first call the utility and avoid creating risky circumstances.

Perspective

by Bob Roth

Politicians not trusted

According to several polls and studies, most Canadians don't think much of their politicians.

In fact, respondents to these public opinion surveys indicated that they viewed federal politicians as "terrible," "crooked," "doing a bad job," "out for themselves," "wasting the money we pay in taxes," "serving the big interests" and "generally ineffectual."

Details of the survey were published last month in the first edition of a new magazine, Parliamentary Government. The magazine is dedicated to making people more aware of the workings of Parliament.

The magazine quotes polls and surveys, including the recently published "Political Choice in Canada," in making its assertions about public attitudes.

Political Choice in Canada was based on 2,562 interviews conducted following the 1974 elections. Authors found that over half of the general comments about politics had a negative tone and 78 per cent of comments about politicians were also negative.

Half of the respondents believed government doesn't care what "people like me think." Less than half (44 per cent) believed they had a say in what government does. Only one-third believed they could truly understand what happens in politics and government.

Political Choice in Canada is not the only study which documents the disfavor in which politicians are held.

In 1966 a voter sample showed that 36 per cent of those interviewed felt that "political favoritism" and "corruption" in Ottawa were on the upswing. By 1974 the percentage who held this view had climbed to 42.

Another 1974 poll asked people to compare the respect they held for the Supreme Court, the churches in Canada and Parliament.

Those with a "great deal" of respect for churches totalled 35 per cent; for the Supreme Court, 25 per cent; and for Parliament, only 17 per cent.

When people were asked in 1974 which MP they admired most, 41 per cent said they did not know of any MP they admired.

All of these statistics demonstrate that public cynicism about our political structure has reached record proportions.

The magazine suggests that press and television coverage and general misunderstanding of the traditions and operation of Parliament have created an unfair image of the federal politician.

Politicians, themselves, will have to accept some responsibility for the blame, however. Indecision, flip-flops on major policies and a general inability to find fundamental solutions (rather than piecemeal stop-gaps) to crucial issues like inflation, unemployment and energy needs have seriously reduced the public's faith in parliament.

Nothing, however, arouses public cynicism more than the way political parties criticize certain government policies while in opposition, only to carry on with similar policies once they take power.

If people have little faith in the integrity of their Parliamentarians, there is some justification for such a jaundiced view.

They'll Do It Every Time

'From the old rail fence'

by Anna Margaret

In New York City a movement is afoot to air the indiscretions of the high and mighty in a bid to enforce morality. The idea is if anyone gets caught in dealings with a prostitute it will be given publicity through the media, regardless of his position. This is expected to bring about a change of some kind, supposedly for the better.

Which brings me to reflect—are we akin to New York City and the people who run it? Should we do something similar here?

All newspapers must have a policy. This is influenced by several factors. Some editors may set their own rules, some must bend to management of the paper, some to their advertisers. Sometimes also to readers, since they buy the paper for certain reasons, gossip being one of them.

We here in Glengarry do not in too many ways resemble the New York metropolis. Is this because we haven't caught up with the more advanced centres or because we value certain privacies in a small community?

For example, at this time, The News does not print the names on the police blotter of people "charged" in automobile accidents and the like. Unless of course it is a major incident where the names are already made public in the dailies or radio stations. We do report the names when people are injured in accidents and in these situations the drivers' names may also be included but for the most part we try to keep names of fender-benders and minor accidents out of the gossip column.

The decisions are difficult to make. If someone is charged with impaired driving but later is cleared of the charge in court have we injured his reputation by reporting the original charge?

Although a person is innocent until proven guilty do we not automatically consider an offender guilty as soon as we hear he is charged?

We have had several discussions about it here. There are a lot of pros and cons.

There is the argument that if someone is holding down a position of high public trust it behooves him to behave in accordance and if he violates that trust, for example by drunken driving, he should darn well be reported.

There is the argument that some big officials know how to circumvent the law in such a way as to get away with major offences and not be caught.

There is the argument that it is always the poor little defenseless guy who gets his name printed because he can't afford a smart lawyer to bail him out of trouble.

There is the argument that the police work hard to defend the public and the media should report their "catches" as an aid to their department and a warning to others.

There is the argument that we did nothing to cause the offenses and in printing the police reports exactly as they are, we are doing no picking and choosing, just reporting what happened.

I personally do not like to see names reported, unless the misdemeanor is going to have an effect on the public. If for example, a person is repeatedly caught for stealing, mugging, vandalism, etc., he is a public menace and people should be warned. If two people have a fender-bender collision at a corner I do not feel it is of major concern to the community unless this particular intersection is the centre of several accidents and is therefore a public hazard.

But how do our readers feel? What do you want to read in The Glengarry News? Will you please let me know? Will you write or phone me here at The Glengarry News Monday to Friday, 8 a.m.-4 p.m. or after hours at my home at Green Valley 525-1174. I would like some sort of reader poll.

Your names will not be reported in the paper unless you wish, but you must identify yourself to me so I know I am not getting duplicate calls. I would appreciate hearing from you, in consensus if need be from a school classroom, church group, service club or coffee klatch. But especially as individuals.

Visitors welcome at the Maxville Manor

October 29, 1979

The editor,
The Glengarry News:

I would like to express my appreciation for your newspaper's article concerning Maxville Manor in the October 24, 1979 edition. The article explained the need for volunteers at the Manor in general, and dealt with the role of co-ordinator of volunteers, in particular.

One of the objectives of our volunteer program is to increase public awareness of the role and function of Maxville Manor so that we can become an integral part of community life. This objective can be met by encouraging interested persons to visit Maxville Manor as a volunteer to assist residents in various activities.

Your article provided essential background information for our prospective volunteers. Our thanks for your concern and interest.

Yours gratefully,
Kevin Parkinson,

Resident says hunters should observe changing conditions

Green Valley,
October 31, 1979

The editor,
The Glengarry News:

Maybe as recent as fifteen or twenty years ago, Charlottenburgh township did not have the population of today. A lot of farmland, open and bush country. A fair area, not too far away from the big city where wild life may have been abundant. Good country for those who wanted to "rough-it" for a day or more to follow their desire to hunt.

That was fifteen or twenty years ago.

Along with normal growth of cities and assets of industrial development, came noise, pollution and traffic jams, all leading to a population expansion in rural areas. A common phenomena all over North America. Farming has been ever decreasing either because of economic feasibility or, because the later generation did not take to farming as they used to. This too is quite common since all of us promote the idea that our

Opposes closed meeting on marina-boathouse issue

Mayor Gerald Parisien,
City of Cornwall,
360 Pitt Street,
Cornwall, Ontario

Your Worship:

On Thursday, your Chief Administrator, Mr. Adams, contacted me on your behalf regarding the possibility of holding a joint meeting this week between the City, the Raisin Region Conservation Authority, the Reeve of Charlottenburgh Township and a representative of the Cornwall District Office of the Ministry of Natural Resources.

Mr. Adams indicated that the meeting would discuss the boathouses at Gray's Creek, the question of expansion of Gray's Creek Marina and the Ministry's overall outlook on the boathouse situation along the St. Lawrence shoreline.

Mr. Adams indicated that this proposed joint meeting would be closed to the press and general public.

While I am certainly prepared to participate in a joint gathering to examine matters of mutual concern, I am afraid I must object to the idea of a closed meeting.

As you may or may not know, it has been the policy of the Conservation Authority under my chairmanship not to hold closed meetings. This was a policy also followed by the previous chairman, Mr. John Cleary.

As you may also recall, only three short years ago, the Conservation Authority was under heavy criticism for being unaccountable to the public. Since that time, the board has made a concerted effort to erase that image by adopting a totally open approach to government. As a result, today all our meetings and correspondence are open to public scrutiny. In addition, we have never turned down a request from any delegation to address the Conservation Authority.

I cannot, therefore, in any way jeopardize the Conservation Authority's stance of public openness by endorsing, or seeming to endorse, a secret meeting.

I appreciate that the marina-boathouse issue is a controversial one, but I do not believe this is justification for secrecy. On the contrary, I would suggest that the more controversial an issue has become, the more important it is to maintain a posture of openness in order to assure members of the general public that everything is being done above board and nothing is being hidden from them.

Naturally, I have heard the argument that some officials are reluctant to speak as freely at an open meeting. I do not consider the argument valid. When I accepted the position of chairman of the Raisin Region Conservation Authority, I realized that as a public servant it was my duty to be accountable to the taxpayers. They pay the shot. People who do not feel comfortable dealing openly and honestly in front of the electorate should simply not seek positions of public trust. As far as I am concerned, a public official who is afraid of public debate makes about as much sense as a lifeguard who is afraid of water. It all goes with the job. I firmly subscribe to that old saying, "If you can't stand the heat, stay out of the kitchen."

Personally, I can see no legitimate rationale for discussing this matter behind closed doors. In fact, the Conservation Authority has debated the issue several times at open meetings in the presence of the media and general public.

I would further remind you of our telephone conversation prior to your closed meeting of October 29 at which time you gave me your personal guarantee that an open meeting would follow and that the Township of Charlottenburgh and Glengarry Marina Operators Association would be able to make representation at this open meeting.

Should you wish the Conservation Authority to attend such a public meeting, I would be only too happy to recommend this course of action to my fellow board members. However, with all due respect, I must decline your offer to take part in a closed meeting. Not only do I believe that participation in such a meeting would do irreparable damage to the reputation of the Conservation Authority, I also believe that the public has a right to know what is going on.

I might point out, that the board's vice-chairman, Mr. Cleary, shares my belief that the meeting should be open.

Yours sincerely,
R. M. Roth, Chairman

Auld Lang Syne . . .

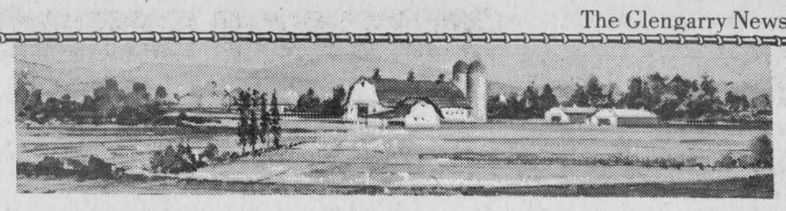
AN AGENCY OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO

Agricultural News

by Glen Smith Glengarry agricultural representative



CORN BEING HARVESTED

Corn harvesting is continuing slowly, difficult as it may be. Untiled land may have to wait until freeze-up. Even on tiled land harvesting has been no picnic. Wet holes continue to suck machines in and bulldozers, or other heavy equipment, are required to get them out.

PLOWING DIFFICULT

We are continuing to see more land "turned back" as the weather continues to be favorable. We are hearing a number of complaints regarding plows plugging with corn stalks. Some are using coulters on their plows and some are not. I am not sure what the answer is but I would surmise that some brands of plows are better trash plows than others.

I would also surmise that some plowmen are better than others, paying more attention to the setting of the plow and fine adjustments. Corn stalks do contain more moisture than last year and as they continue to dry out they will break up and turn under better.

SALE WAS SUCCESSFUL

The 1979 Eastern Ontario Stocker and Feeder Sale at Galetta was successful this year with 844 head bringing an average of $80.84/cwt. compared with $73.00/cwt. at the 1978 sale. A top price of $107.75/cwt. was paid for a lot of 16 Charolais steer calves averaging 424 lbs. Directors of the Eastern Ontario Stocker and Feeder Sales Association are hopeful that because of the success of the past two years, and the excellent facilities available, cattlemen will continue to support these annual sales to benefit both cow/calf operators as well as feeders in the future.

TEST YOUR SOIL NOW

Fall is the time of year for applying limestone. What you need to find out first is whether or not you really need it. This can only be determined by a soil test. Limestone is required to correct the increase in acidity that naturally occurs in soils. Intensive cropping speeds this natural process. The most common reasons for increasing acidity in soils are leaching and the use of nitrogen fertilizers.

When Ph of the soil drops below 6.0, limestone is required for most crops. Corn can withstand a Ph level down to 5.5. The rates of limestone required will be determined by the Ph. Soil analysis will also determine the type of limestone to use. Dolomitic should be used on soils with a low magnesium test (below 100). Use calcitic limestone on soils with high magnesium tests (above 200).

Most of the soils in Glengarry County have a high magnesium rating. It is recommended that when applying limestone that it be worked into the soil with a disc or cultivator before plowing. Do not plow deeper than five or six inches. In most soils in Glengarry, a four inch depth is adequate. Limestone should be applied in the fall in order that the neutralizing effect is realized before your crop is planted. Phosphorous becomes less available in low Ph soils.

In acid soils, phosphorous may be present but in forms unavailable to plants while the solubility of elements such as aluminum and manganese are increased, both elements which can be toxic to plants in excessive amounts. Soil test to be sure. Liming is expensive if not necessary and cheap if needed. We have a list of lime haulers for this area in the office.

TRAINING PROGRAM IN KEMPTVILLE

A Swine Farm Worker Training Program is being offered at the Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology as part of its program in Continuing Education.

This course is being offered to meet the demand for trained people in the expanding pork industry. This 12-week program has been approved by members of the Federal-Provincial Manpower Committee and is offered in co-operation with the Canada Employment and Immigration Commission and the Ontario Ministry of Colleges and Universities, and Canada Farm Labor Pool Offices in Ontario.

The 12-week program consists of four weeks in the classroom at the College alternating with a total of eight weeks practical training on three selected training farms. The classroom sessions deal with topics such as breeding, feeding, farrowing, safety, and employer and employee relationships. During the sessions on the training farms, the trainee will receive instruction on a one-to-one basis. It is here that he/she will gain the practical experience in practicing the basic skills required on a swine farm.

If you are interested in attending this course contact Andy Hughes, Manager of the Eastern Counties Canada Farm Labor Pool in St. Eugene, and request an application form. If after reviewing your application and talking with you, Mr. Hughes considers you have an aptitude for this type of career, he will assist you in getting on the course. Since class size will be limited, eligible applicants will be accepted in the order their applications are received. The course will commence on Monday, January 21, 1980 and concludes on Friday, April 11, 1980.

ANNUAL MEETING

The Glengarry Soils & Crops Annual Meeting will be held on December 4, at 10:30 a.m., at the Alexandria Pizza Restaurant. Karl Bereza, Soils & Crops Specialist for Niagara North and South, has been invited to speak on the insect problems we are experiencing in Glengarry County. Bill Curnoe, Agronomist with the Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology has been invited to provide an up-date on fertilizer recommendations and the fertilizer situation.

AYRSHIRE BANQUET

Tickets are available from the Directors of the Prescott/Glengarry Ayrshire Club and the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food Office in Alexandria, for the Annual Ayrshire Banquet and Awards Night to be held on November 21, at the Bonnie Glen.

JUNIOR BOYS' SOCCER

The Char-Lan junior boys soccer team won the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Junior Soccer Championship title for the second year in a row. The Char-Lan boys won their final game over La Citadelle by a score of 3-1. The scorers for Char-Lan were Andy Bronzan, Ricky Wood and Bruce McRae.

The next day, the team travelled to Kingston for the EOSSA tournament. In spite of a good performance, they were unsuccessful in all of their games.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

This past week Char-Lan girls' teams played St. Lawrence High School. The junior girls won with the top scorer being Natalie Chafee. The senior girls lost and the top scorer was Dawn MacDonald. In an exhibition game on Thursday, against Bishop MacDonell, the junior girls lost in a very close match. On Friday both girls' teams played in Vankleek Hill in exhibition games. Both junior and senior teams were successful. Monday Char-Lan hosted Tagwi and again both teams were winners with Dawn MacDonald and Natalie Chafee top scorers.

HALLOWE'EN DANCE

On Friday, there was the annual Char-Lan Hallowe'en dance. The band that played for the night was "August Night." There were prizes for the best costumes in the three divisions: single was John Lafave as Frankenstein, couple was Roberta Pidgeon and Karen Smith, as an old man and women. The dance was very successful.

CONFERENCE

Three students left Friday and returned early Sunday morning for a conference at Sturgeon Falls sponsored by the "Federation des Etudiants Franco Ontariens". Students from all parts of the province with a concentration of Francophones attended seminars and conferences discussing problems in their school and what they could do to help. The students were Marcel Valade, Anne-Marie Peterson and Suzanne Dicaire and this was the first time we have had students attend this conference. Anne-Marie Peterson also attended earlier in the year a leadership camp at Lake Couchiching for Francophone students.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Char-Lan junior and senior boys' basketball teams are starting to hold tryouts and practices. Mr. Coombs indicates that the teams promise to be very competitive again this year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

On Wednesday there was a Student Council meeting. Among other usual business, there was a special announcement from Mr. McCabe. The Candle Drive netted $800 profit.

MID-TERM EXAMS

All through last week, mid-term exams were held. The marks have to be in by November 5, and mid-term reports will be given out November 12 followed by parent interviews on Wednesday, November 14 in the afternoon and evening.

Sports in the Glens

ANGUS H. McDONELL

"Just imagine a great guy like Condredge Holloway coming down to little old Maxville for a night like this, fantastic, unbelievable." That was Maxville and District Lions president, Bill Campbell, talking. And as Bill spoke to a few of us he sparkled like a Christmas tree with justified gratitude of the club's success in staging their first "Football Night" after he had bid adieu to the distinguished visitors as they left for Ottawa.

I didn't blame prexy Bill for being ecstatic. He and his colleagues sponsored a social even leagues sponsored a social evening filled with friendship and entertainment that, in part, was different to the usual sport patterns.

films without a whimper for an extra half hour while waiting for the arrival of Holloway, who had to first take part in Riders' practise drills. Arnold Munro piped in the head table guests, a delicious roast beef dinner was served and then what was unusual began to unfold. A question and answer period would replace the customary after-dinner speech.

Among the opening questions was a reference to his mother being his contract agent. Condredge explained that when he first signed with Riders in 1975 his mother and Frank Clair made the deal. Condredge said he wasn't too happy as he felt he was worth more money. And right there folks, we listened to one of the most respectful tributes to a mother ever uttered by a son: "I signed because my mother thought I should do so. I was still young." I am relating this point because of its significance in the light of the era we are living in. Condredge Holloway didn't say to his mother, "I have my rights" or "I am going to do my thing my way." No folks, that was respect in capital letters. God bless you Condredge.

As you would expect, most of the questions were relative to football mechanics on the field. His answers were clear explanations supplied with physical movements in illustrations. A case in point was an imaginary line and facing Als' Carl Crennel a middle linebacker before being traded to Edmonton. "C C" as he is known, just couldn't be outguessed. Time after time he knew the play I was calling before I had the ball. He is brilliant," remarked our guest. He was then asked how did Als' replacement, Tom Cousineau, compare to Crennel? "He is a good ball player but he is a rookie. Crennel is a nine-year veteran and the best middle linebacker in Canada, however, Cousineau is improving in every game."

Another example of the Holloway character was his reply to the query, "Was he disappointed when he didn't play in last fall's final against Montreal?" Answer. "Sure I was, but look, I am an employee of Riders, not the employer, so I had to and I did abide by coach Brancato's decision." And finally another proof of class character, "What was the rapport between you and Tom Clements?" "Friendly at all times. Our friendship started at Notre Dame and I'll tell you how strong it still is and always will be. Recently I was the godfather of Tommy and his wife's baby girl."

The foregoing is only excerpts from 45 minutes of interesting repartee between a great crowd and a great guy on a great night of sport entertainment.

HITHER AND YON

A couple of staunch Rider fans represented the ladies . . . Mrs. Howard O'Hara and Mrs. Don McIntosh . . . next "Football Night" the Lionettes will be hosting the lady fans, so we hear . . . 20% of Ottawa fans are the "gals."

Alouettes and N.Y. Rangers had dinner representatives . . . from the fringe of Kenyon-Caledonia Angus MacQueen was flashing a buck or two that said Als would go all the way . . . Maxville's genuine sportsman, Bernie Robinson, was Rangers' delegate . . . what a Lion Bernie would make.

Alexandria Lions' president Mike Depratto headed a delegation of Lions from Ourtown . . . ditto Doug Hall and his Cornwall Lions . . . Lions from Finch, too, despite the fact they had a meeting and bingo at home . . . great spirit always prevails in Lionism.

The Maxville club came right back Sunday a.m. with an appetizing breakfast . . . heading those from down our way was the Glens' veteran sportsman Adelard Sauve and his missus . . . enjoyed meeting and conversing with Cornwall's Bob and Audrey Young . . . Bob told us that "The Glengarry News is the best little paper anywhere" . . . on behalf of the staff thank you Bob . . . the only food item missing on our sumptuous plate was a slice of moose meat courtesy of Ian (Duncan Angus Katie) MacDonald.

The pride of Glengarry horsemen in general and Glen Robertson in particular, George Hope, is at the Toronto Royal showing six of his prize horses . . . we hope that Hope comes back to the Glens with ribbons fluttering in the breeze.

present generation attend high school and college or university.

For these reasons, more and more land has been broken up, severed and used for real estate purposes. It served to cater to this new growing rural population, created by the big city out-flow. With this demand came bulldozers, trucks and construction. More and more houses are going up. More and more hunting grounds saw their once abundant wildlife reduced almost to the point of non-existence.

One such typical road is Charlottenburgh VIII. In just three years (1976-1979), within a distance of approximately one mile, more than a dozen homes have gone up. Ours is one of them. With this new community of people came a new kind of animals. Pets and small farm animals. In our own case, we have a dog and three cats. The latter all "foundlings." Fortunately for us and for them, they do not have to rely on outside sources for meals. However, their combined presence in the area, has driven the former wildlife still further away.

At this time then, we do not have the good hunting ground anymore. Yet, hunters are still coming to hunt what remains of the game, for the exercise or to clean out their barrels.

Over the past week, we have, after an operation, been nursing one of our cats with a gunshot wound in the head. He is pure white. A perfect standout against all the fall colors the bush offers. Maybe he was aimed at with intent or maybe, hit accidentally. We'll never know.

One thing we do know. This is not the old hunting area it once was. The game is rare and in its place we have people. Old and young who are living, walking and playing in the area daily. There are still some farms left with their cattle as well as all those with their pets.

I have been given to understand that, without posting against hunting, the Ontario Provincial Police are powerless. Posting signs does not stop lead or bullets. This happened last year when lead zoomed across our property from church property across the road. It happened this year, with people in the building process. It happened with our cat, Saturday, October 20. When will it happen with a child or grownup? Unintentionally!

This address is not to advocate gun-control to the point that the hunters can't hunt if that's what they like and enjoy. They have their rights.

The intent of this address is that within confined areas of build-up, the law outright prohibits hunting.

Through all levels of government we propose and pass zoning by-laws segregating residential from industrial environments. For all sorts of reasons: health, economic, etc. and whether we admit it or not, so that homes do not depreciate in their market value. Why not then "hunting" and "no hunting" zones in the interest of human and other lives.

This address is asking the hunter to find areas of game abundance and nothing else to avoid worse. In their interest as well as ours.

Is this asking too much?

H. Vermeeren,
Green Valley,
Charlottenburgh VIII
