HOME FROM NIGERIA IN MID-SUMMER—A medical teacher in University College Nairobi, in Kenya, for the past two years, Professor H. S. Mitchell hopes to be back in Glengarry by mid-summer when his term will be over. Montreal surgeon and part-time farmer at Dalkeith for several years, Dr. Mitchell went to Kenya, East Africa, two years ago with the McGill University medical teaching project, one of several areas of education there in which Canada is making a contribution. Mrs. Mitchell went overseas with her husband but since taking ill last year has been in hospital at Waterloo, Que. Dr. Mitchell reports the university has a diversified faculty with teachers from the United Kingdom, the U.S. and several European countries. Our students compare very favorably with any of their age and experience elsewhere, he reports, and the development of the university is proceeding rapidly. Undoubtedly on his return home he will be missing new friends like the young patients shown with him here.

New Post Office Occupancy Uncertain

Occupancy of the new post office may be held up for another week while last minute finishing touches are completed, Postmaster Jacques Joly reports.

He had expected to make the move this weekend for a Monday occupancy but the transfer may be delayed a week to March 23rd. All the furniture is in place, reports Mr. Joly, and the change could take place during next week.

An official opening of the new building will be held later.

Died Accidentally While At Play

Leslie MacLeod, 13, met accidental death Monday afternoon while playing with a younger brother in his father's barn in the 7th Concession Lancaster. The elder son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. MacLeod, Dalhousie Mills, Leslie accidentally strangled himself while playing with a piece of binder twine.

The youth was a grade 7 student at the 4th Concession school in Lancaster Township.

To mourn his tragically sudden death he leaves his parents, his brother Lance, 7, and two sisters Elizabeth and Linda. Mrs. MacLeod is the former Lorna Isabel Watt of Lancaster.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from his late home to Dalhousie Mills United Church where Rev. W. H. Baugh of Alexandria, conducted the service in the presence of many neighbors and friends.

The pallbearers were Kenneth McLeod, Stephen and Randy McDonell, Bruce Cumming, Leighton McDonell and David Scott.

Interment was in Dalhousie Mills cemetery.

Maxville Volunteer Brigade In Process Of Building Own Fire Truck

Maxville Volunteer Fire Department has had a special project under way since last September.

This group of 12 men and a fire chief is responsible for fire protection in the village and a large surrounding area of northwest Kenyon Township. The equipment at present is a fire truck built in the early 1950's which is becoming obsolete.

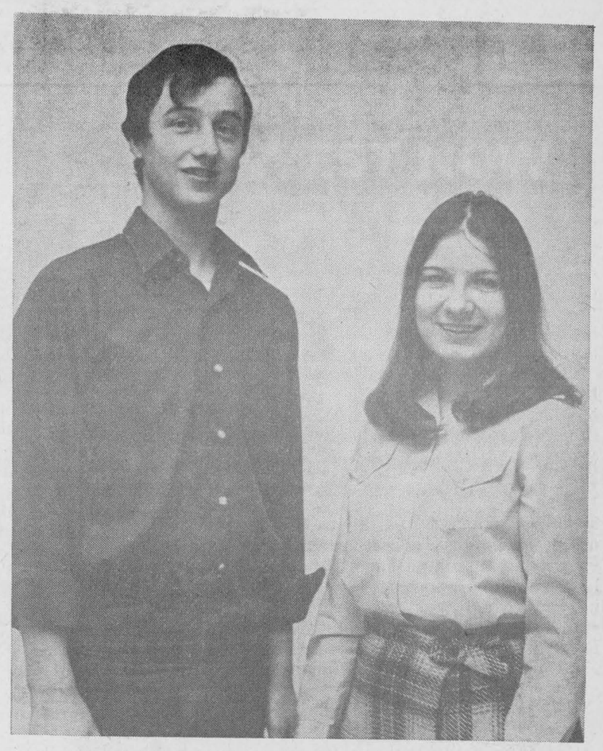
Faced with the prohibitive cost of a new truck, around $25,000, and encouraged by the village council which bought all the equipment, four volunteers have devoted most of their spare time this winter to building their own fire truck.

A new chassis was bought, along with new pump, hoses, and flashers, and the new tank was built there. The men now are assembling the truck in the fire hall and expect to have it ready by May.

Fire Chief Merton Casey expects the new truck to be a vast improvement over the old one. The tank has a capacity of 800 gallons, which is double the original, and the truck carries 1,500 feet of hose, instead of 500.

Of particular importance is the pump which is front-mounted, enabling the outfit to continue pumping while in motion. This is an advantage in rural areas where the fire truck may be carrying all the available water.

The fire department's project will result in a saving to the village council of about $10,000.



NOT AVERSE TO VERSE-SPEAKING—Talent was shown by these Glengarry District High School students at Toronto, Saturday, when they took part in the O.E.A.'s Verse-Speaking Festival. Recreation Aides To Be Recognized

Cornwall Figure Skating Club will stage their Ice Follies in the arena Friday night, March 20th, Recreation director Bill Upper reported at a meeting of the Park & Recreation Committee last week. He also reported the Trade and Sportsman Show will be held June 5 and 6.

Mr. Upper suggested the Committee might present service certificates to persons in town and area who assist in key roles the minor hockey and other recreation programs. The committee agreed and it is probable first such presentations will be made at this year's minor hockey night.

Last spring sand was placed on the ice over half the beach area to provide soft underfooting for swimmers. The other half of the beach area will be similarly treated now.

Mrs. Elizabeth MacDonald marks her 91st birthday today, March 12th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. A. MacDonald and Mr. MacDonald, Glen Nevis. A resident of the Williamstown area through most of her lifetime, Mrs. MacDonald has spent the last few years with her daughter.

Still quite active about the house, Mrs. MacDonald does her own cooking and her chief pastime is making quilts.

McPherson Signed By Alouettes

Montreal Alouettes of the Eastern Football Conference have signed their first and second choices from this year's Canadian college draft, it was announced late last week.

Burns McPherson, a 21-year-old cornerback and wide receiver from St. Francois Xavier University, Antigonish, NS, and Andy Smith, a 21-year-old linebacker from Mount Allison University, Sackville, NB, were the players signed.

McPherson, five-feet-11 and 195 pounds, is a native of Alexandria, a son of Ranald J. McPherson, 3rd Kenyon. He was voted the most valuable player in the Maritime Bluenose Conference ast season.

Smith is a resident of suburban Verdun. He stands 6-1 and weighs 210 pounds.

Will Support Library Service

The Library Committee of the Dunvegan Women's Institute presented a petition to Kenyon Township council at the March meeting in the township hall, Greenfield. The petition requested council to support continuation of the Regional Library Service when the pilot project expires next year, and vote the necessary funds thereto. There were 378 adult signatures and 38 student signers, a general representation of Kenyon from Apple Hill, Dunvegan, Laggan, Greenfield and McCrimmon.

Mrs. Marion Loewen read the petition and presented it to Reeve Albert Faubert and his council. Mr. Faubert emphatically stated that, contrary to report, he had never expressed opposition to library service for Kenyon. He pointed out that specific discussion and a vote if necessary on the project will come up later at Counties Council. However he and the members of his council viewed the petition with favor, as being the expression of interest and concern on the part of a large number of residents and rate-payers of Kenyon Township. They would support continuation of the rural library service, provided the cost was not exorbitant and within what they felt the township could afford.

Stopped School Buses

High winds, almost constant this week, have caused heavy drifting and poor traffic visibility. Icy road surfaces have been an added hazard and school bus transportation was interrupted yesterday. Maxville school buses did not go out and at Glengarry District High School, here students who reached school were sent home in the late morning.

Twelve Charged Here Since Breathalyzer

Twelve drivers have been charged with impaired driving in the area covered by Lancaster OPP detachment since the breathalyzer test became law three months ago, reports Sgt. H. T. Buttle of Lancaster. Some cases have not gone through the courts yet, but most drivers paid fines and had their driving permits suspended for three months.

Sgt. Buttle reports his officers have been very busy this week investigating minor accidents, almost all caused by poor traffic visibility.

Local Students Rated Well At Verse - Speaking Festival

The Ontario Educational Association's Verse-Speaking Festival was held at Harbord Collegiate in Toronto on Saturday, March 7. Two grade thirteen students from Glengarry District High School's Drama Club, Diane Laflamme and Danny Theriault, participated.

Danny, in the Lyric Poetry Section, was commended for sustaining the mood of pity in his presentation of Wilfred Owen's "Anthem for Doomed Youth."

Diane, in the Dramatic Poetry Section, was a winner for her presentation of Ophelia's mad scene from Hamlet. The ajudicator, Mrs. P. Aymong of the Royal Conservatory of Music, commented as follows on Diane's dramatization: "A very good interpretation of Ophelia. Suggested her madness very well both through action and voice quality. Movements were excellent." With these words of encouragement Diane proceeds to the Ontario finals to be held in Toronto on March 24.

Robert MacLeod, Head of English at GDHS, reports he is pleased with the growing general interest in drama. In order to further foster this interest he hopes to establish a preliminary Verse-Speaking Festival in the immediate area next year. More local students could thus become involved and the winners from this regional preliminary could then proceed directly to the Ontario finals in Toronto.

Francine Beauclair Crowned Queen At Glen Robertson Carnival

Francine Beauclair was crowned queen of the carnival at Glen Robertson over the weekend and the sponsoring Glen Robertson Recreation Centre report the event most enjoyable and successful.

An exciting and eye-catching procession of snowmobiles, lighted by torches completed a one-hour excursion in the surrounding hills Friday night, ending up at the church hall where more than 200 enjoyed a plate of beans with all the trimmings.

Though some of the less hardy lasses reneged on the girls' broomball tournament, Glen Robertson and Green Valley did get the ball rolling at three o'clock in the morning.

Saturday night's dance had the largest attendance ever in the parish hall to see the queen and her princesses chosen. Francine Beauclair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleophas Beauclair, won the crown and her princesses were Monique Cuierrier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Euclid Cuierrier and Joan Hagen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hagen.

Gerard Roy, MC'ed the event and Reeve Gerard Massie brought greetings from Lochiel Township Council. Louis Fraser of Glen Sandfield, was winner of the $100 draw.

Five teams participated in the men's broomball tourney Sunday with Gerard Tittley's Upper Glen team beating the Gore team coached by Theo Van den Oetelaar.

Among the six members is O. F. Villeneuve of Maxville, MPP for Glengarry. Mr. Villeneuve will also serve on the following other committees: education and university affairs; private bills; and social family and correctional services.

Others from Eastern Ontario who will serve on the highways and transportation committee are Maurice Hamilton, Renfrew; Erskine Johnston, Carleton; Harold MacKenzie, Ottawa; Jules Morin, Ottawa East; and Paul Yakabuski, Renfrew South.

Class For Emotionally Disturbed Among Priorities In Plans Of School Board

A classroom for the emotionally disturbed will be set up in Alexandria to serve the French section of the County Separate School Board, according to priority plans announced last week by Board Chairman Patrick Beavers. Another such class for the English section will be established at a location yet to be determined.

The special classes may be delayed reports area trustee Raymond Rochon because of the scarcity of teachers for this type of class and a lack of space here.

An upgrading of the entire separate school system is the intention of the board. A special closed meeting lasting seven hours, on Feb. 24th, studied the total needs of the system, set priorities and adopted those items which the board hopes are financially possible in 1970.

The board started with a set of 24 priorities and ended up with eight, the most it can afford. Their cost will be revealed in the 1970 budget, due in three or four weeks. All 24 would cost about $1 million.

All but two involve hiring highly trained specialists, as well as extending the new religious education department. Several positions are new also.

The following priorities are included:

—One area superintendent for the English section and another for the French section: (This brings the superintendent staff to a total of five);

—Two professional development programs, one existing, one new. The current budget ($7,000) sponsors delegations, seminars, conferences, workshops and professional literature. The new one would pay for in-service training of principals and teachers.

—Training courses from university or the department of education will also be encouraged.

—Nine librarians will be hired for both sections, raising the total from 19 to 28, or one for every 500 students.

—Two new classrooms for emotionally disturbed children, one for each section. This brings the total to three.

—Five curriculum advisers, three for the French section and two for the English. This is a new position, aimed at helping teachers to follow course outlines prepared by the education department in Toronto.

Passed Away At Burlington, Ont.

Word has been received by William J. MacGillivray, Kirk Hill, of the death on March 6th in Burlington, Ont., of his cousin, Robert Malcolm (Bert) MacKenzie. Mr. MacKenzie has many relatives and friends throughout Glengarry, who will regret to hear of his sudden passing away.

He was a frequent visitor to this county and enjoyed renewing acquaintances. Especially did he enjoy attending services in Kirk Hill and Dunvegan churches. In his boyhood days, he spent much time at the homes of his maternal and paternal grandparents at Kirk Hill and Breadalbane, respectively.

He was born at Eganville, where he attended public school and later Renfrew High School. He graduated as an electrical engineer from Queen's University. On his return from service in World War I Captain MacKenzie received an executive position with Ontario Hydro in Toronto where he worked until his retirement several years ago.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife Ruth, two sons, William and Ian, and one daughter Frances and a number of grandchildren, as well as one sister, Mrs. Roy MacGregor of Douglas, Ont.

Mrs. MacMaster Died At 95

On Thursday, March 4th, at the home of Mrs. Dolly MacCaskill, Vankleek Hill Mrs. John James MacMaster passed peacefully away. She was born on July 19, 1874, the daughter of Angus MacSweyn and his wife, Rachel MacGillivray of the 7th Con. Lochiel.

She leaves to mourn her loss, one niece Mrs. Agnes Darling and daughters, Ruth, Andrey and Joan, of Montreal.

Three sisters, Mrs. H. A. Bell (Kate) Montreal, Mrs. A. Yeats (Christy Ann) Montreal, Miss Maggie MacSweyn, Laggan, and one brother, Donald MacSweyn, predeceased her. Several nieces and nephews survive on her husband's side.

Mrs. MacMaster attended public school at Pine Grove and studied at Alexandria High School and Vankleek Hill Collegiate. She received her Provincial Arts Certificate in 1891 and graduated from Cornwall Normal School in 1900.

She taught in several Glengarry schools, and many have gone forth into the world to do honor to their childhood teacher.

On November 18th, 1914, she married John James MacMaster of Laggan. They resided on the family farm till Mr. MacMaster's death when she stayed with John D. MacMaster and family, Laggan till going to Vankleek Hill. Her remaining years were spent at the home of Mrs. Dolly MacCaskill.

Hers was a life of devotion to her church. She was a faithful attendant and member of Kirk Hill United Church, a life member of the Women's Missionary Society and later the United Church Women and kept in close touch with interest and gifts till her death.

Though nearing the century mark she retained her alert mind, remained interested in the everyday happenings and enjoyed renewing acquaintances with former pupils, relatives and friends.

The remains rested at the Vankleek Hill Funeral Home until Saturday when they were conveyed to the Kirk Hill United Church. There friends and relatives paid their last respects at the funeral service in charge of Rev. Lloyd Hylton.

The pallbearers were Kenneth MacCaskill, John Thomas MacDonald, William D. MacNeil, Evans MacGillivray, Dougal MacMillan and Keith MacMaster.

Friends from Montreal, Point au Chene, Brownsburg, Lancaster and surrounding districts attended. Her body was placed in the vault to await burial in the spring.

Died In Mississippi

Friends here have received word of the death of Mrs. Mary Bonelli of Vicksburg, Mississippi, which occurred Feb. 19th. The former Mary McDonald of Greenfield, she was the widow of Dr. Vincent Bonelli of that city.

She is survived by one son and two daughters, as well as by a sister, Julia, Mrs. Arthur Weld of Morongo Valley, California. Mrs. Weld is the last surviving of a family of 14.

Received Guests On 95th Birthday

Tea was served Friday and Saturday afternoons to the many relatives and friends of Mrs. Emma Lagroix, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Althea Dupuis, in Cornwall.

The special occasion was Mrs. Lagroix's 95th birthday which fell on March 6, when she received many cards and telegrams wishing her a happy birthday.

Flowers and a well-appointed tea table created a festive air for the occasion.

Mrs. Lagroix, who spent most of her life in Martintown, is the last surviving member of the Sigouin family.

Her three daughters and four sons were brought up in Martintown.

Mrs. Alex Dupuis (Cora) died in 1960. Another daughter, Mrs. H. Attfield (Alice) resides in Ottawa, and the celebrant lives with a daughter, Mrs. Dupuis. Alex lives in Martintown, Oswald and Ed in Ottawa and Harry in Chauvin, Alta.

Mrs. Lagroix has 21 grandchildren. 66 great-grandchildren.

The young-looking monagenarian keeps herself busy reading and enjoys a frequent game of cards with her friends.

Alexandria Legion Branch Reports Year Of Activity To Zone Meeting

A successful and active year, highlighted by the fact there were no financial problems, was reported by Alexandria Branch No. 423, Royal Canadian Legion, at the Zone G-4 annual meeting held Sunday at Finch. The report was prepared by Branch President John G. Proulx and presented by Past President D. O. Collin.

Attending the zone meeting with Mr. Collin were Donald McDougall, Gavin McDonald, Angus McBain and Conrad Lajoie.

At the zone meeting preparation was made for the District Rally to be held next month at Hawkesbury. The Dominion Convention is to be held at Ottawa, opening May 31st, and plans for this event were also discussed.

Legion Branch officers were urged to contact their municipal councils with a view to passage of the necessary by-law legalizing the holding of lotteries, raffles, bingos, etc. in each municipality.

The president's report noted that the Branch concentrated last year on improving the picture of Alexandria Branch, both physically and socially. Among improvements to the building were acoustic-tiled ceilings in clubroom and hall, other major repair jobs and a fresh coat of paint, both inside and and out. The expenditure totalled $4,300, with the Ladies' Auxiliary contributing $1,200 of that, the cost of improvements to the public hall.

On the social side, the report noted the hall is headquarters for Alexandria minor hockey and many other sports groups and associations. It is also used regularly by other non-profit organizations. Many Legion members are active, too, in sports and other activities. The Branch donated a set of sweaters for minor hockey and provides three $100 bursaries.

Weekly visits are made to Glengarry Memorial Hospital by Comrade Jack Reid who distributes cigarettes, chocolate bars, etc., to veterans and other male patients. Another $250 was spent on the public speaking contest and other worthy causes.

Paid-up membership now stands at 76 and that committee is now working on delinquents among last year's 139 members. The clubroom facilities are not used by members to the extent the Branch officers would like to see, the report concludes, but they are there to be enjoyed.

First Meeting Held At Maxville To Form Senior Citizens' Club

A preliminary organization meeting for the proposed Senior Citizen Club was held at Maxville Manor, Saturday, March 7th.

The guest speaker was Robert Kreem, MSW.

The meeting was opened by Archie Hughes, Administrator of Maxville Manor, who defined the object of the meeting and introduced George Matsell, a member of Maxville Manor Auxiliary, as proposed leader of the Senior Citizens' club and chairman of the immediate meeting.

Mr. Matsell, on behalf of the Maxville Manor Auxiliary, thanked Mr. Hughes for the use of the Manor's auditorium. welcomed those present, and introduced Mr. Kreem.

Mr. Kreem noted that this was his second visit to Maxville, and how impressed he was by the tremendous progress that had been achieved from the occasion of his first visit, which was scarcely more than a year ago, when the Manor was only just completed.

He congratulated the auxiliary members who after all their tremendous efforts on behalf of the home, were now endeavoring to extend those efforts to those senior citizens who were still active in their own homes. He found Maxville far out in front of many others in community spirit, and stated that such togetherness makes for strength.

He went on to say that one of the biggest problems of the retired man or women was loneliness. After busy years of working they now faced a changed focus of life. New ways must be found, that these people might still be active, and useful, both in their homes and the community.

The senior citizens' groups were planned with just such an object in view. He pointed out there is no specific program that a club must follow, this is decided by its own members. Some were purely social, others combined social activities with crafts, hobbies etc. Senior Citizen clubs give new hope to the retired, new ways to be happy and useful.

Mr. Kreem then invited questions from those present.

Closing the discussion period, Mr. Matsell thanked Mr. Kreem for his most interesting talk.

It was suggested objectives of the club should be to:

—help the older person to reach the maximum fullness and wholeness of life of which he is capable.

—promote mental and physical alertness.

—provide the opportunities for self-expression, creativeness and education.

—substitute for the family in the lives of those who are alone in the world.

—help the members feel needed.

ROYALTY AT GLEN ROBERTSON—A big success, Glen Robertson's carnival was rated as village and district caught the carnival spirit over last weekend. Queen of the carnival was Francine Beauclair, here flanked by her princesses, Joan Hagen and Monique Cuierrier. A torch-lighted parade of snowmobiles was the opening feature, Friday night.

IT'S OUR OPINION

How Large A Unit Of Government Do We Want ?

Members of Alexandria's council took time out from routine business at last week's meeting to discuss the future of municipal councils. The subject is one that is of particular interest to holders of elective office at the local level whose seats would be wiped out by a regional form of government.

It should concern everyone who values local autonomy. Municipal taxpayers who have seen the free-spending proclivities of the new regional school boards will hesitate to endorse as large or larger a unit of municipal government.

The regional form of government may make sense in metropolitan areas where suburban developments create problems and service requirements perhaps more economically provided by an area administration. That need not hold true for sparsely populated rural areas of the province and when the Robarts Government decrees regional units right across Ontario the aim probably is still greater centralization of power in Toronto.

Delegates to a workshop of the Association of Ontario Counties and Regions, held in Cornwall in early February, frowned on this regional concept of government and evidenced a preference for the amalgamation of smaller municipalities into tighter area units. Groupings of from eight to 20,000 people, they felt, would prove more practicable.

In their discussion last week most members of town council appeared to favor merger on an area scale if larger units of government there must be. It is possible feelers will go out to other municipal councils to ascertain their thinking and discussions on the subject might follow.

Once Queen's Park is firmly set on herding us into its concept of a regional government it probably will be too late to suggest any alternative. It might be smart for area municipalities to work out a larger unit of government more to their liking rather than wait for Toronto to ordain the form of regional government we must embrace.

A Day For Remembering

A letter to the editor in the March issue of Legion, the national magazine of the Royal Canadian Legion, reinforces our thought that Remembrance Day should not be shifted to the nearest Monday for convenience. The 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month with its somber and prophetic significance happens only on November 11th, not a few days fore or aft, writes one H. A. Hunter of St. Stephens, NB.

The additional firepower he brings to bear on the argument should have some significance for Glengarrians. Not only did November 11th mark the ceasefire in World War I. On that day in 1813, at Crysler's Farm, a force of 800 gallant British and Canadian troops defeated over four times their number of invading forces. Glengarry militiamen were among the doughty forces that turned back the invaders, not only at Crysler's Farm but at Chateauguay and Queenston and a lot of other border points during that war.

The Legion letter writer also reminds that November 11th could be a day ultra-nationalists should cherish. It was on that day in 1871 that the last British troops marched out of the Citadel of Quebec. That signified the de facto assumption of the defence of the Dominion of Canada by our Parliament, he concludes.

November 11th is a day for remembering not only the dead of two world wars, it seems. It should not become simply part of another long holiday weekend. We have argued in fact, that it should not become just another holiday. It should remain a time for remembrance.

What Will Our Assessments Be ?

Our town has already been reassessed under the new plan of full market value and though the new valuations will not be used until the entire province is ready it would be interesting for property owners to learn what they may expect under the new assessment plan.

The ratepayers are mad in Mississauga, just outside Toronto, where their area assessment director faced some one thousand of them last week to explain the new system. He was booed for three minutes, we read, when he asserted his staff had done a good job.

A widow grabbed an audience microphone to declare her assessment on 6½ acres had jumped to $122,590 from $2,990. This mother of three said her taxes had increased from $366 to $2,356. "There is an inequity in the Assessment Act," the director admitted, "but there is nothing we can do until the Act is revised".

In the Legislature, the Minister of Municipal Affairs said the government is considering possible relief for residential property owners subjected to "unusual tax increases" as a result of re-assessment. There are substantial increases in some 40 per cent of residential units, he admitted, and taxes are dramatically high on properties with large lots. Some change in legislation may be introduced before June to ameliorate some of the more difficult situations, he concluded.

Another assessment director in the London area thinks that many home-owners worry unnecessarily when they hear that the assessed value of their homes may double or triple under the new market value plan. It does not follow that their property taxes will also double or triple, he points out. The mill rate struck by the local council would drop by the same proportion to produce the same tax revenue, he maintains.

In theory he is quite right. If the total assessment of a municipality is tripled in value, the tax levy may be lowered to one-third of last year's to produce the same revenue. But it does not always work out that way. Councils in the happy position of being able to levy at a lower rate than last year are apt to get extravagant ideas.

Over the past forty years or so we have watched Alexandria's mill rate crowd the 100 mark at least three times. At that unappetizing level we have seen it lowered drastically by way of a higher assessment that produced the same revenue. Inevitably, year by year, that mill rate increased until it was again embarrassingly high for those seeking re-election to office. Then followed a new, higher assessment and a steadily escalating mill rate as new demands were made on the civic treasury.

It seems it will ever be thus. Egged on by high educational spending, municipal mill rates right across the province are now well over the 100 mark and so this drastic new assessment at market value has been dreamed up. To make certain every property owner in the province pays his full share, the Ontario Government has taken over all assessing and an expensive new set-up is even now working toward that happy day when all Ontario property will be assessed at its market value.

The problem is to reconcile what the assessor estimates as the market value with what the owner may believe it to be. From the experience at Mississauga it would seem six acres of vacant land near Toronto have a value a widow owner should not be taxed on at full rate though speculators in land, may well deserve to be hit for its full worth.

Assessment is a tricky business. The reaction to the new valuations at Mississauga leaves us wondering how happy Alexandria property owners will be with the work done here. As we recall, the then Counties Assessment Commissioner promised us he would call a public meeting when the assessment was completed in Alexandria. Citizens would receive an explanation of why their properties were valued at what amount.

If our town's new assessment is complete the present Director of Assessment might follow through with just such a meeting even though the future valuations are not being used. It would give us time to shriek to high heaven and the Legislature.

The Good And The Bad Of It

We get so few chances to compliment the big city post offices on their service we hasten to pass on to the Ottawa distribution office the good word that one of our readers at Stittsville was happy with last week's delivery. Mrs. Laurette Jette of Stittsville, drops us a note to say the March 5th issue reached her at noon, Friday, March 6th.

"I would say there is no slowdown of work in the post office in this part of the country", she suggests.

We agree that her service last week was exceptionally good and we could wish all Ottawa area readers were being treated as well. However a note last week from a subscriber in Pointe Gatineau, Que., was not so satisfying. "The postal services are still the same", wrote Vianney Leblanc, "I receive my paper one week after it is published".

Both these papers travel to Ottawa in the same bag and one would suppose if some of the papers are processed for delivery all those due for Ottawa Distribution would get simultaneous attention. Stittsville is only a few miles south of Ottawa and Pointe Gatineau about the same distance north. One is left wondering then, why one paper takes an entire week longer in reaching its destination. Might the hold up occur in Hull?

Some big city readers get fairly satisfactory service and others wait a week. It must be that some city postal workers are doing a conscientious job while others have no incentive to service. Would that the post office could weed them out and restore good service for everyone.

Cameron, assistant to Right Rev. Msgr. Corbett, VG, St. Columban's, Cornwall, goes to Moose Creek; Rev. D. A. McPhee of Finch, fills the vacancy at St. Columban's. — Sale of a carload of horses brought here from Western Canada by Forbes Chisholm of Naco, Alta., formerly of Dunvegan, attracted a large number of buyers to Alexandria on Saturday. — Among those who have completed their course as nurses-in-training in the Civic Hospital, Ottawa, are Miss Ethel Cluff of Maxville, and Miss Catherine C. MacLeod of Dunvegan, who are holidaying at their respective homes.

The Weeklies Say

NEGOTIATIONS HELD UP

External Affairs Minister Sharp has indicated that fruitful negotiations toward the diplomatic recognition of Communist China are being held up because the Chinese are too preoccupied at the moment with the continuing series of Chinese-Soviet border clashes. Surely Mr. Sharp doesn't expect us to believe that Chinese leaders have such one-track minds they can't deal with more than one subject at a time.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

INFORMATION WANTED

Fort Chipewyan
Summer 1790

The Honorable Senior Partners,
Nor-West Co.,
Williamstown,
Gentlemen:

Both the letters from Finnan the Bufalo and Gelleasbuig are wondering where I am now. Well I'm still out here in the Pays d'en Haut attending to business and not carousing in the fleshpots of Summerstown, when there is trading to be done. I don't expect to sit here at Chipewyan for too much longer but mail sent by the courrier this season will eventually find me.

The "Hundred Thousand Welcomes" extended to me by Gelleasbuig prompt me to ask how much wampúm is involved and how much 'pull' in the form of good connections. In short, would you be good enough to have the courrier, (The Glengarry News) publish some of the details of what is involved besides willingness to be interested, which I am whether I want to or not, after all I had no say in the blood that flows in my veins. But there are others out here in the wilderness that are potential—if we can find out what we would be making the long trip down to Glengarry for. Nothing personal, you know, but remember our public relations and Simon never was interested in what sort of a hat a man wore—if he was a man.

Now tell us the story and restore communication; I always was a bit sorry I left you for the "Bay" and

Local High School Leads Again

(The Ridgetown Dominion)

An article in the Glengarry News tells of the adoption by the Students' Council of Glengarry District High School, of an eight-year-old Vietnamese boy. It is interesting to note that this good work done by many of the High School students continues to spread.

The students of the Ridgetown District High School were among the first to adopt youngsters in war torn areas and having educated one boy until he was able to set up in business for himself as a barber, last year adopted a second child in the hope of continuing his education until he is self-supporting.

Such practical application of the ideas of Brotherhood is perhaps the greatest hope for the world around us. And such items concerning the work of young people in these matters should be given greater publicity in the newspapers. The Glengarry students did not have a riot, they did not have a sit-down strike, they adopted a child. Congratulations might be sent from the Students' Council of the Ridgetown District High School, to this newest member of Foster Parents.

ADVICE TO WRITERS

There are a few four-letter words we don't use in this family journal but your Rambling Reporter prefers to use short words in his writings rather than those of many syllables which might serve the same purpose less clearly.

We trust none of our readers would think it necessary to give us this big mouthful of polysyllabic advice that M.E.D. of the Prescott Journal received from a friend. Actually, if you can wade through its verbosity it adds up to good advice for any writer. Here 'tis:

"In promulgating your esoteric cogitations, or articulating your superficial sentimentalities, amicable, philosophical or psychological observations, beware of platitudinous ponderosity. Let your conversational communications possess a clarified conciseness, a compacted comprehensibility, and a coalescent consistency. Let your extemporaneous decanting and unpremeditated explanations have intelligibility, veracious vivacity without rodomontade bombast. Eschew all conglomerations of flatulent garrulity, jejune babblement and asinine affectations. Sedulously avoid all polysyllabic profundity, pompous prolixity, psittaceous vivacity, clumpish jocosity, and pestiferous profanity. In other words, make it brief, clear, crisp and truthful."

Traffic must be quite a hazard in Los Angeles. Its ball teams are the Dodgers and the Angels.

ON WITH THE NEW

We'll probably get used to it in time but our rambling feet are going to think it rather strange when we propel them down Catherine Street next week to get our mail. Over the years they've become accustomed to taking those post office steps in stride about three times a day. The new location won't add too many steps down Catherine Street but these tired feet of ours may resent the additional demands on their services until they grow accustomed to that turn off Main.

A lot of people are going to have to adapt to the change and those who drive to the post office will probably find it a nuisance that Catherine is a one-way street. A lot more cars will be using the Dominion Street crossing of the Garry and that deplorable stretch will require major surfacing and perhaps sidewalks for school students. Parking near the new office will remain as much a problem as it was on Main Street, we would think.

A peek through the front windows Sunday suggested Postmaster Jacques Joly and his staff are going to enjoy the shiny new interior which no doubt is planned to better cope with today's mail traffic. The old office was apt to be cold in winter and much too hot in summer. Modern heating and air-conditioning will probably make for a healthier, more contented post-office staff who'll be providing service with a smile even larger than we knew in the old building.

It'll be sad to see the old building empty and it's to be hoped red tape won't delay too long its sale to the town for library or other purposes.

No doubt the girls will be running down Catherine when the mails are all going there.

FOR MEN ONLY

Kay Kay's column in the Iroquois Post passes on an idea to his male readers that might not prove as popular with their wives:

"Every now and then we read of some poor boob sent down to the cooler to think things over, his only offence being that he had two wives. Of course present day laws do not look too kindly on such behavior. But it wasn't always so. If our memory serves us, we can recall having read somewhere about a guy called Solomon, Ebenezer, or something like that who not only had two wives, but twenty and two. And quite often those old patriarchs as they were called, held high and influential positions in the land.

"All of which brings us to wonder quite frequently if a lot of us are really as smart as we let on that we are.

"What an advantage it would be for instance, to have several dames bustling here and there all over the house, flecking the bit of dust off the mantleplace, picking up the odd toys off the floor, putting the garbage out, even shoveling the driveway. So why not, instead of putting the old girl out to fodder, when her teeth commence to loosen a bit — why not "invite" her to stay on and then bring in a few extra helpers

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM MAXVILLE AND SURROUNDING DISTRICT

Miss Muriel McDermid and Mrs. Jessie Batson of Toronto, were guests of their brother, C. B. McDermid and Mrs. McDermid last week.

Miss Isabel MacRae recently spent a few days visiting in Montreal.

Mrs. J. N. Fitzgerald spent the weekend in St. Eugene with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Leroy and Danny.

MANOR AUXILIARY MEETS MONDAY

There will be a general meeting of the Maxville Manor Auxiliary on Monday, March 16, at 2.00 p.m. in the Manor auditorium. Members please note the change of day and hour — this was to accommodate members of the CWL who have their tea scheduled for Tuesday, March 17. The Dutch members of the auxiliary are presenting the entertainment at this meeting. They will have a display of crafts and other articles that they brought with them from Holland — coins, dolls, table linens, plaques and wooden shoes. And some Dutch cookies just freshly made.

DAY OF PRAYER HELD

A good congregation attended the service for the World Day of Prayer on Friday, which was held for the first time in St. James Roman Catholic Church, Maxville. First readers were Mrs. Neil Bourgon, representing the French women of the parish, and Mrs. Edna Rolland for the English women. Second reader was Mrs. Rod. F. MacRae, Presbyterian, third Mrs. John Sinclair, Anglican and forth Mrs. Harold Willis, United. Mrs. Cameron MacGregor represented St. Elmo Presbyterian, and Mrs. Donald Dewar the Baptist congregation. Betty Blair was organist, and Nancy Haramis and Rachel Leduc sang four hymns which consisted of sacred words set to popular music, which were very effective and enjoyable. Mrs. Gerald Jans and Mrs. Domina Carriere took up the collection, which is sent to the Inter-Church Council of Women in Toronto, for a great variety of projects in participating countries. Ushers were Mrs. Ovila Doth and Mrs. Duncan McDonald.

The address was given by Mrs. Nick Haramis on the theme of "Prayer and Christian Unity". She emphasized the application of these moral values right at home in our own small communities, and the bigotry that still has to be overcome. The best sign of change and progress was the witness of the large interdenominational congregation to whom she was speaking. Mrs. Haramis particularly emphasized the importance of instilling a sense of discipline and moral value into the youth of today. We should stop grumbling about teenagers attending church without hats, and be thankful that they do attend — and perhaps spend more time censoring some of the evil influences of TV and movies, and setting a better example of conduct at home.

UCW UNIT TWO MET

The Easter meeting for Maxville UCW Unit Two was held on March 3 at 8.00 p.m. in the church under the capable leadership of Mrs. W. E. Henderson. Following opening devotions, Hymn No. 86, "When I survey the wondrous Cross" was sung by all 17 members present. The worship scriptures were taken from Matthew 27, and Luke 23, and Mrs. Henderson led a resume of the study of these passages "Women at the Cross", assisted by Mrs. Hector Runions and Mrs. Donald Munroe. The offering was received and dedicated.

A solo "Were you there when they crucified my Lord" was sung by Mrs. Robert MacIntosh, followed by thoughtful prayer given by Miss Hattie Cheeseman. Roll class was answered by 17. Announcements were the following: World Day of Prayer, Friday, March 6th at 2.30 p.m. in St. James RC Church, Maxville.

Reminder of still vacant seat of president for general meetings of UCW Maxville. The Seaway Valley Presbyterial report of the day's events at St. Paul's United Church, Feb. 25, was given by Mrs. Robert MacIntosh, one of 12 members who attended that rally. The Chapter "From Racism Toward Full Community" from the study book "Dare To Reconcile" was led by Mrs. W. E. Henderson and nine readers played respective parts demonstrating three different life-like situations of prejudicial racism. An article from the Canadian Weekly Star emphasizing the essence of this study was shown by Mrs. Henderson. Lunch was served by Group III and a social hour followed.

AUXILIARY MET

The Afternoon Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Maxville, was held on March 3rd at the home of Mrs. W. A. MacEwen. The leader of the meeting was Mrs. I. D. MacIver who opened the meeting with Hymn 582. Mrs. A. N. Stewart read the scripture lesson. Mrs. J. Cummings led in prayer.

Mrs. MacIver presented a paper on "Reconcilliation in the bold world". Others taking part were Mrs. R. F. MacRae and Mrs. R. T. O'Hara after which a very informative discussion followed. Mrs. MacIver closed the devotional part with prayer.

The President, Mrs. W. S. McLean, conducted the business portion of the meeting. The members were reminded of the World's Day of Prayer which was held in the Roman Catholic Church on March 6th.

A very enjoyable social hour followed.

FOOD POLLUTION

Alexandria, Ont.
March 10th, 1970

Dear Sir,

We hear a great deal today about the pollution (poisoning) of our air, water and soil. But the thing that bothers me most is the deliberate poisoning of our food. According to statistics some time ago, there were 300 poisons permitted as additives to foods in Canada, and approximately 600 in the U.S. — as bleaches (as in flour) preservatives, coloring, etc., as well as the anti-biotics in meat, eggs and dairy products. Is it any wonder more hospitals are needed?

And now two new ones have appeared: butylated hydroxytoluene and butylated hydroxy anesole. Two cereal companies are using them in their packages, and they are also being added to lard so it will "keep" without refrigeration. These substances are hydrocarbons which are proven carcinogens (cancer causers) as are saccharin, aspirin and mineral oil. Is it any wonder the cancer rate is rising so fast?

All detergents are hydrocarbon compounds also, and I have seen dishes washed and left to dry covered with suds. Is it really true, as many now say, that the Bible prophecy — that ⅓ of the people in the world will suddenly die — will soon come true?

Haven't we Departments of Health whose members are well paid to protect the Canadian and Ontario people against such wickedness? Why haven't they done something about it?

Sincerely,
Dorothy Hope Graham.

TO INCREASE PUMPING

Alexandria, Ont.
March 6, 1970

The editor,
Glengarry News,

Regarding your editorial "Saving on Sewage" the following facts should be noted:

1. Mayor Touchette and most of our councillors have demonstrated consistently fair and progressive attitudes and a sense of fiscal responsibility. No doubt this latter will prevent them from face-lifting Main Street, at least until some of the property owners and occupiers see fit to develop a sense of cleanliness and tidiness both inside and outside their establishments.

2. The detouring of sewage into the Garry River at the pumping station is caused when peak loads activate a by-pass valve. The peak loads are normally a result of rainstorms or run-off. The new design includes increased pumping capacity to cover this exigency.

3. The effluent from Square C over the past 2 years may have offended the eye by its visibility but the offensive odors were from other sources.

4. We agree heartily that the editor's fears "are grounded on ignorance".

Yours respectfully,
P. W. Benn,
Plant Manager,
Square C Textiles Ltd.

P.S. We envy the editor his ability to visit the golf course frequently.

AERIAL SURVEY NEEDED?

Glen Robertson

The editor,
Glengarry News,

I was rather surprised to read that Town Council had ordered an aerial survey of Alexandria.

I for one, remember well the huge photograph which graced (?) the town office wall some time in the past and have yet to hear that it has served a purpose.

Aerial surveys may be useful in rural areas but the town council can get the same results at less cost by co-operating with the Dept. of municipal affairs whose personnel are presently at the Registry office in the process of plotting every inch of land in the United Counties.

As a non-resident I may not be entitled to such criticism. But considering the trend towards centralization, I may end up paying my share of someone else's mistake.

Yours truly,
Lochiel ratepayer.

Five-Goal Spree For Peewee As Lochiel Juniors Won Title

by Angus H. McDonell

The shortest way to any given point is a direct one and this was the chartered course followed by rookie-coach Ivan MacMillan and his Lochiel Loks as they defeated St. Raphael's three straight games in the best of five finals to become 1969-70 holders of the Contant trophy emblematic of local minor hockey junior "C" championship.

Lochiel won the opener 3-0, then on Saturday night made it two in a row by the slim margin of 3-2.

Sunday's game became the final as Lochiel upset the defending champions, St. Raphael's 7-4.

The series was well played and despite the competitive spirit shown by both clubs there was no undue roughness and penalties were, generally speaking, of the variety handed out in any junior playdown.

In the first of the finals Sunday, March 1st, Lochiel were the underdogs as they had played the night before, eliminating Alexandria in the semi-finals. Loks showed no ill effects, in fact were still fired up and Paul Poirier scored the opening goal followed by two more by Donnie Morris that gave Lochiel game one by a 3-0 score.

Saturday night's meeting was just about anybody's game until the final whistle. At the 13-minute mark of the opening period Donny Morris, who was really flashing old time form, set up Paul Poirier and Lochiel went into the lead 1-0.

Just 40 seconds later that budding star from down Green Valley way, Blair MacDonald, was sent flying by his defence player, Garry MacDonald, and after two strides inside Lochiel's blue line Blair pulled the trigger on a smoking drive that hit the hemp behind Gerard Kennedy in the lower right hand corner, a carbon copy wrist shot a la Gordie Howe.

Early in the second period Blair was set up, this time by his brother Jim, and he made no mistake to give St. Raphael's the lead 2-1. There was no more scoring until the 4 minute mark of the 3rd period when Donnie Morris tied the score for Lochiel on a double assist by brother Billy and Peewee Poirier.

With overtime looming Peewee Poirier broke away alone from about center ice, cut through close enough to fire one past St. Raphael's Bill Jacobs and gave Lochiel a one-goal lead that they maintained until the final whistle.

Despite the prevailing snow storm, there was a large crowd in attendance Sunday as the teams met for what turned out to be the final game.

Shortly after the opening whistle Garry MacDonald, the rugged St. Raphael's defenceman, worked his way into the clear in front of Lochiel net and on a double pass by Jacques Cusick and Melvin McLeod fired home the opening goal.

Just five minutes later Peewee Poirier was sent in the clear by his brother Paul, another of several brother acts, and the little Eigg pinto made no mistake as he scored the first of five goals that were enough, as the final count turned out to be, to win the game single handed.

Before the first period ended Peewee again scored on an assist by Donnie Morris. Then another Donny, this time MacRae, slipped a nice pass to Duncan McLeod who tallied for St. Raphael's and brought the first period to an end all tied up.

The second frame was all Lochiel. On the first shift of forward lines Morris McCormick passed to Billy Morris who tallied as he was standing in front of the St. Raphael's net to give Lochiel a 3-2 lead. Late in this middle frame, Donnie Morris and Paul Robinson combined to assist Peewee Poirier with another goal and moments later on digging work by Paul Poirier and Donnie Morris, Peewee raised the count to 5-2 in favor of Lochiel.

For most of the 3rd period the play was evenly divided. At the 14 minute mark Edwin Sproule handed the puck to Peewee Poirier who scored his 5th of the game and gave Lochiel a 6-2 lead. Two minutes later, after some fine puck juggling, Donnie Morris passed the rubber to Paul Poirier outguessing Bill Jacobs who had no chance.

With the clock moving into the last minute of play and a five-goal margin Lochiel began to coast and the first one to not only sense the obvious letdown but capitalize on it was young Blair MacDonald who took a pass from Wally MacDonald and rifled the rubber with smoking speed and accuracy. Just after the face off Blair again got the puck, took a few strides and drilled St. Raphael's last goal in an expert way just before the bell rang and a final of 7-4.

The presentation of the Contant trophy followed the sportsmanlike ending of hand shakes.

Although the series was run off in three straight, there well could have been at least another game.

There were two significant phases that were a let down to St. Raphael's. In Saturday's game with the score 3-2 in favor of Lochiel, "Peewee" Poirier earned a hooking penalty with one minute left to play. St. Raphael's are dangerous on any thrust over the blue line but they were all the more a threat as coach Cameron MacDonald quite logically pulled his goalie and sent six attackers into the Lochiel end zone. But just 30 seconds later Garry MacDonald was tagged by officials for holding. Lochiel then hung on to the bell.

A tieing goal in that last minute by St. Raphael's would have meant overtime and they just might, in such a case, have scored the winner.

In Sunday's second period, Lochiel scored three unanswered goals to move into a commanding lead while St. Raphael's tied Lochiel in the first and third periods.

These are turning points that are a part of sport and always will be, whether it is junior "C" hockey, a World Series, Grey or Stanley Cup play.

Referees Burke and Lefebvre of Cornwall, kept play under control and they were tired officials as they had to skate miles in two games within 24 hours.

Family Court Sitting

The first sitting of the new Family Court in Alexandria will be held Wednesday, March 18th, Police Chief Cleroux reports. Judge J. L. Clouthier of Hawkesbury, will preside.

Windows Broken At Cottages

Five summer cottages at Westley's Point, east of Lancaster, had their windows smashed Saturday night by a group of Lancaster boys reportedly holding a party in the area. The cottages were those of Ambrose Lalonde and Mrs. Julia Munroe, Alexandria; Laurent Crevier, Green Valley; Lionel Major, North Lancaster and Lucien Dubeau, Montreal.

Paul McKinnon Pioneer In Minn.

Funeral services were held from St. Joseph's Church in Williams, Minnesota, for Paul McKinnon, the border country's only bagpiper and one of the county's earliest hockey players, who died Saturday, Dec. 6.

Death occurred at Winnipeg General Hospital where he had been taken the previous Tuesday for treatment. He had been a patient at Trinity Hospital in Williams for almost two weeks prior to that, and during that time all nine of his sons and daughters had been home.

The Rev. Donald Archer offered the Requiem Mass. Three sons, Gordon, Dan and Paul N. McKinnon and three sons-in-law, Melford H. Olson, Levi Anderson and Gerald Pearson, carried the casket. Honorary pallbearers were Alvin Francisco, John Gillie, Maurice Benson, George Hartnell, Carl Lundsten and Clarence Johnson.

Paul McKinnon was born in Alexandria, on March 3, 1892, the second eldest son of Daniel McKinnon and Margaret McDonell. He lived here until leaving home to go to work in the Canadian woods while still in his early teens. From there he went to work on a farm in North Dakota and it was at Grafton that he was united in marriage with Ida McIntyre Feb. 15, 1911. They made their home in the Minto area until 1918, when Paul took his family back to Canada for a year. In the fall of 1919 they moved to Williams and there the family home has remained.

In addition to his farming and lumbering activities, Paul worked for the Canadian National Railroad until his retirement in 1958. Three years later he and Mrs. McKinnon celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with all of their family at home.

As a young man Paul had mastered the playing of the bagpipes, and he was much in demand for various performances. In full Scotch regalia of vivid tartan and swinging kilt, he was a picturesque figure at amateur shows and parades for many years.

Another of his early pastimes, skating and hockey, was put to use again when he helped to introduce hockey in the Williams area. Although nearing his fortieth birthday, he proved himself a stalwart defenceman for several years on their town team while teaching his sons the rudiments of the game that would take them to regional and state honors in high school, and to berths on college, semi-pro, and even one on U.S. Olympic and World Hockey teams.

Survivors in addition to his widow include six sons — William of Mt. Vernon, Ore., Gordon of Pasco, Wash., Daniel of Warroad, Paul of Forest Lake, John of Kennewick, Wash., and Malcolm of Plains, Mont., and three daughters — Mrs. Melford H. Olson (Mae) and Mrs. Levi Anderson (Florence) of Baudette and Mrs. Gerald Pearson (Margaret) of Minneapolis. There are also 26 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Two brothers and a sister survive in Canada. They are Alex McKinnon of St. Catharines, Ont., Charlie McKinnon and Mrs. Frank Moore of Sudbury, Ont.

Interment was in the Catholic cemetery in Williams, Minnesota.

sultant for the English section; one French Consultant (Co-ordonnateur de Francais) for the French section.

These are both new positions arising out of the Brockville think-in last year. There the idea of a comprehensive program in oral French from Kindergarten to Grade 8 was first adopted.

—New material and equipment for special education classes (for slow and fast learners).

Absent from the list was the hiring of an educational psychologist. Deemed a necessity by many special education teachers, it is beyond the financial reach of the board and appears as number 23 on the list of 24 priorities.

To strengthen the Religious Education department, Rev. Kelvin Maloney and Rev. Rejean Lebrun will become full-time employees in 1970-71.

The two priests are now directors of the newly-formed department and part-time employees of the board.

The department began as a pilot project last year and is considered unique in the province.

GM MARK OF EXCELLENCE

10 resounding reasons why you should buy a new Chevrolet instead of a new something else:

1 High resale value. Year after year, Chevrolet offers high resale value at trade-in time. It's a Chevy tradition.

2 Deep down value. Flush-and-dry rocker panels and an extra set of fenders keep Chevrolet looking good longer.

3 Smooth, smooth ride. Because of Chevrolet's computer selected springs, Full Coil suspension and advanced body mounting system.

4 Impressive styling. The impression is that it's an expensive car, if you want to make an impression.

5 Massive interiors. Plenty of inside room, and 18 cubic feet of usable trunk space. Stretch out or sit tall, and pack what you need for the roomiest trip you've ever had.

6 Side-guard beams. Chevrolet puts more between you and the outside. Steel beams built into every door.

7 A finish that lasts. It's unfortunate other manufacturers don't have a Magic-Mirror finish because it sure keeps its shine.

8 Exceptional engines. Chevrolet's standard 350-cubic-inch V8 runs on regular fuel. Plus there are five more engines—it's your choice.

9 Tremendous selection. Of colors. Of accessories. Of engines. Of transmissions. Of fabrics. And of models. There are 14 big Chevrolets alone.

10 Canada's favorite. Something else a new "something else" can't claim: Big Chevrolet is Canada's most popular car.

ODAF DATA

A report from your Glengarry Agricultural Office

by GLEN SLATER

Farmers should find ways to cut costs instead of the present overemphasis on demanding higher prices for products; the government should act now on some of the recommendations made in the Royal Commission's Special Report on farm machinery prices. Do we need Royal Commission Reports on other agricultural materials as well as farm machinery? Dealers will in the future become the agents for more than one company.

These were the comments of the four guest speakers at an open meeting of the St. Lawrence Branch of the Ontario Institute of Professional Agrologists. The comments came respectively from Roy Coulter, past director of the Canadian Wheat Board, past director of the Federation of Agriculture and presently executive in charge of importation of farm machinery, Harold Danforth, Federal Member of Parliament for Essex, Kent and "Front Bencher" on the Agricultural Committee of the Opposition Party, Neil Williams, beef and corn farmer from Dundas County and Don Graham, International Harvester dealer in Chesterville. These men were invited to give their views on how the Barber Report would affect their agricultural concerns.

One method of cutting costs says Mr. Coulter is for farmers to simply pay less for the machinery they buy. Over 300 tractors have presently been purchased through the newly-formed Company "The Ontario Farm Machinery Agency Ltd." and an unknown number of private deals have been made. This is not hurting your Canadian Industry states Mr. Coulter, because at the present time there is only one firm, based in Winnipeg, which makes a Canadian tractor. At present all our tractors are imported from the United States.

The Royal Commission on Farm Machinery Prices was initiated in 1966 stated Mr. Danforth, to investigate facts which were pointed out by different farm organizations. It has taken four years to come to this stage and he is not convinced that the government need waste more time in setting up another committee to determine the farmers' feelings on the situation, when it was the farmers' organizations which brought the situation to light. Mr. Danforth feels that the government should presently implicate some of the recommendations made by Dr. Barber.

Tractor prices are definitely higher in Canada than in Britain stated Neil Williams, but this is not the only agricultural commodity where we can see this differential. At times, pesticides here have cost nearly five times the amount as in Britain and the cost of our herbicides is double that of Britain.

The hardest hit of all, due to the report, could be the present machinery dealers says Mr. Graham. Their investments are high with a relatively low net profit. The parent companies could pull out of Ontario and leave a very small dent in their world-wide market. Mr. Graham sees the dealers of the future handling four or five different lines of equipment and a very large inventory of parts for all makes. The dealer, like the farmer, is going to have to become bigger in order to compete. On the brighter side, Mr. Graham feels that the American made tractor will be able to compete in the 80 hp plus market.

If the ladies in the county, whether in town, country or village, would like to obtain some information on the use of accessories in the home, you should attend the meeting to be held at the Sacred Heart Church Hall in Alexandria on Tuesday, March 17 at 1.15 p.m. Miss Jeanne Armor, Home Specialist, with the Home Economist Br. of ODAF will be there to discuss the subject and the ladies will be able to exhibit their knowledge on this subject in the form of an Exhibit, Demonstration or Skit during the program.

Israeli Policy In Middle East Attacked By Speaker At Seaway Valley Annual

Guest speaker at the second annual meeting of Seaway Valley Presbyterial, United Church Women, was Dr. A. C. Forrest, editor of the United Church Observer. Close to 300 women attended the meeting, which was held in St. Paul's United Church in Cornwall.

Mrs. Clifford Larmour, president of Seaway Valley Presbyterial, opened the meeting, and Mrs. Ross Price, president of St. Paul's UCW, welcomed the guests. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Moorhouse, secretary; Mrs. Alan VanAllen, treasurer; Mrs. Dalton Docksteader, chairman of finance; Mrs. F. W. B. Shaw, literature; Mrs. Hanna and Mrs. Wilfred MacNaughton, nominations and election of officers.

Mrs. David Frappier of St. Paul's Cornwall, brought greetings from Montreal-Ottawa Conference on behalf of Conference President Mrs. J. M. Harrington, who was unable to be present due to urgent business elsewhere.

The In Memoriam service for those members who died during the past year was given by Mrs. Lloyd Martin of Prescott.

Members of the panel discussing "Crisis in the Faith" were: Mrs. D. J. Cooper of Kemptville, moderator; Dr. Forrest; Mrs. Arthur Woodland of Spencerville; Mrs. A. A. Morrison of Ingleside; Mrs. Robert Allum and Mrs. Leslie Harris of Cornwall.

The Rev. George Clifford of St. Paul's United Church and chairman of Seaway Valley Presbytery, welcomed the guests at dinner. Others at head table were Dr. Forrest; Mrs. Larmour, president; Mrs. Morrison; Mrs. Shaw, incoming president; Mrs. Price, president St. Paul's UCW.

Conveners were Mrs. R. M. Scott and Mrs. Keith Sullivan of St. Paul's.

The evening session opened with a worship service conducted by Mrs. Lorne Dool and Mrs. J. Sissons of Kemptville. Mrs. Eric Reid, also of Kemptville, added much to the worship service with her solo. Organist for both afternoon and evening was Miss Winnifred Jerrom. In her brief talk Mrs. Dool stated that peacemaking is perhaps the most important role of Christianity — and that the only cure for war making is in the spread of God's love throughout the world.

The new slate of officers, who were installed by the Rev. George Clifford, is as follows: Past president, Mrs. Clifford Larmour; president, Mrs. F. W. B. Shaw; vice-president, Mrs. Robert Allum; recording secretary and archivist, Miss Ethel Whitteker; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. A. Morrison; treasurer, Mrs. Alan VanAllen. Regional vice-presidents are: Mrs. Milton Hillis for region 2; Mrs. Frank Casselman for region 3; Mrs. Ross Somerville for region 4. Chairmen of committees are citizenship and social action, Mrs. D. J. Cooper; co-operation in Christian and missionary education, Mrs. Gerald McFarlane; finance, Mrs. Arthur Woodland; nominations, Mrs. Clifford Larmour.

Portfolio secretaries are community friendship and visiting, Mrs. Betty Forward; literature, Mrs. Keith Brownell; assistant literature, Mrs. H. Bockus; public relations, Mrs. Leslie Harris; stewardship and vocation, Mrs. Wilbur Garlough, supply and welfare, Mrs. Leslie Eamer.

Dr. Forrest spoke on the Middle East situation to a large crowd during the evening session.

He cited several reasons for our concern over this conflict. This is the Holy Land, and is sacred not only to Christians, but to Jews and Moslems. We are concerned for the million and a half Palestinians who have been driven from their home of 1400 years to make way for the returning Jews. There is our concern for peace—this area is the most strategic in the world today—a crossroads between East and West, with one foot in Africa, and with access to huge sources of oil.

Dr. Forrest unleashed a stinging attack on Israeli policy in the Middle East, which he said had savagely driven the Arabs from their homeland and would not permit their return. The Zionist movement for the past twenty years has been waging a continuous propaganda campaign which has come to make the world believe that the Arab is lazy and would sooner live in a refugee camp. Nothing could be further from the truth, he stated.

Dr. Forrest paid tribute to the Jewish race which has suffered more than any other race in history,and has made great contributions to the world. He stated that anyone showing disapproval of unjust treatment of Arabs and who offers unflattering comment on Israeli policy is immediately labelled anti-semitic. Dr. Forrest, who spent a year in the mid-east recently, studying the situation and getting to know the Arabs in their refugee homes, feels compelled to speak out on their behalf, and to do what he can to bring about a just settlement of this very dangerous situation.
