Incentive Grant For Major Addition To Local Plant

Square C Textiles Plan $1,404,000 Addition With Prospect Of Some 80 New Jobs Here

An addition to the local plant costing $1,404,000 is in prospect for Square C Textiles and the larger plant may involve another 80 employees, added to the present 200 personnel.

Officers of the parent Consolidated Textile Mills Ltd. at Montreal, are to make an announcement this weekend, we understand, and Laurent Gaumont, superintendent at Square C, was not in a position to enlarge on the report when contacted yesterday.

From Viateur Ethier, MP, comes word that Square C Textiles is to receive a $222,400 grant through the Regional Economic Expansion plan of the federal government. It is to help finance an addition that will cost $1,404,000, reports Mr. Ethier, and which will create 41 new jobs. (The increase of 80 employees in prospect we have heard from another source).

Hon. Jean Marchand was to announce the grant today and that may account for the reluctance of parent company officers at Montreal, to make any statement until this weekend.

The addition to the Alexandria plant will probably provide needed larger facilities for the production of poly-urethane coating introduced at Square C in 1969 and which provides waterproofed nylon fabrics for snowmobile suits, children's snow suits and other sports garments. The coating operation has proved an outstanding success, according to company officials.

The report of the parent company, Consolidated Textile Mills Limited, Montreal (53 per cent owned by Style-Tex Ltd.), says this operation "has enjoyed increasing sales during the past year."

D. Taran, Consolidated Textile president, adds: "The efficiency of the company's coating operation has proven to be greater than anticipated and has prompted us to develop new lines for this equipment. The expected volume of new lines has already necessitated expansion in this area. We look forward to an increasing contribution to the company's earnings from this part of our activities."

The coating operation, added to the weaving, dyeing and finishing facilities at the Alexandria plant, was built 85 to 90 per cent by the local staff. It had a capacity of about 3,000,000 yards annually when it went "on stream" early in 1970.

According to the company, the poly-urethane compound when applied to the nylon fabric will not harden or crack at below zero temperatures. It retains a hydrostatic pressure resistance, after five dry cleanings and five washings, of 100 pounds per square inch which is beyond practical requirements for waterproofing. The coated cloth is marketed under the registered trade mark "Polar Guard."

The Alexandria installation consists of equipment for dissolving, mixing and grinding of poly-urethane compounds, and coloring equipment.

Also located at the Alexandria plant is the North American Water Jet Service. This services and trains personnel for the Nissan water-jet loom in co-operation with the Nissan Motor Co., Tokyo.

Consolidated Textile in its annual report also says the pollution problem at the Square C Textiles plant has been solved in a co-operative move with the Town of Alexandria at a cost of less than $15,000 annual cost to the company.

The company and the town have agreed in principle to a system for taking care of the effluent from the dyeing and finishing operations which has been approved by the Ontario Water Resources Commission. The system "should be adequate for all foreseeable requirements for the next 20 years."

Also, the labor agreement at the Alexandria plant comes up for renegotiation in June.

Three Children Had Minor Injuries When School Bus And Truck Collided

Three of 66 Lancaster Township children suffered minor injuries yesterday afternoon when the school bus on which they were returning from school at North Lancaster was in collision with a dump truck.

Treated for cuts and bruises at Glengarry Memorial Hospital before being released were:

Shaun Ropchan, 5 of Glen Nevis.

Carol Lalonde, 5, Dalhousie Station.

Carol Proulx, 6 of Glen Norman.

According to the report of OPP Constable M. Chernecki, the bus and truck met on a bridge on the Glen Norman sideroad, 1½ miles north of County Road 18. Each driver is reported to have thought the other was going to stop short of the bridge.

The Crevier school bus was driven by George Duperron, Green Valley while the truck was owned and driven by Rolland Martin of Sudbury. Damage to each was estimated at $2500.

Early Complaints On Snowmobiles

The local snowmobile season got underway only last weekend but already the police are receiving complaints and Acting Chief Leo Lemieux has issued a reminder that their use is restricted in town.

Our streets may be used by snowmobilers only when leaving or returning home after enjoying the sport on the lake or in the fields on the town's limit, Chief Lemieux reminds. There have been complaints that Macdonald Boulevard on the western outskirts is being used as a speedway and snow sledders are being reminded this is contrary to the by-law.

SNOW PLOWING UNDERWAY—Late November brought more than a taste of winter as two storms over the past week brought snow plows out to clear some nine inches of snow off roads and streets. Some three inches blew in on Saturday and double that amount in the storm that started Monday night and continued through the last day of the month. New Product At Carnation Plant

A chocolate powder is a new product being turned out at the local Carnation plant. Production was started last week and the new powder is being shipped to Vancouver for test marketing.

The new product is shipped in one-ounce pouches. The consumer simply rips open the pack, empties the powder into a cup of hot water and comes up with what Carnation officials expect will be found delicious hot chocolate.

It is too early yet to judge public acceptance, but local plant officials expect the new product will prove popular and will account for heavy production here.

New Bridge In Lochiel Started

Contract for the construction of a new bridge on the Power House road, 3rd Concession, has been let by Lochiel Township Council to John Chisholm Construction Ltd. of Alexandria. The contract was let at $46,124.70 and council has been notified by the Department of Transportation and Communication that total cost will be paid by that department.

Work has started on the contract and it will include straightening of the road at the approaches to the bridge.

Clerk-Treasurer E. C. McNaughton reviewed a successful year in which approval was received for purchase of a truck and grader complete with V-nose and wings. It was paid for out of current revenues. An additional subsidy was received to help defray costs of snow removal last winter. It was used on road construction culverts and gravel surfacing. Total subsidy for roads was $89,112.

Mr. McNaughton and other area municipal clerks are today attending a meeting in the County Buildings, Cornwall, when a financial adviser from the Department of Municipal Affairs will discuss tax arrears.

In Lochiel, arrears are high, the Clerk reports and tax arrear certificates have been registered against eight properties this year. Taxes in general were lower this year and council expected a greater response in tax arrears than actually was received. Payments have increased, however, in late November and council hopes the trend will continue through December.

Last spring Lochiel council received $10,546 in the Ontario Government Incentive Program and gave employment to 29 residents. A similar sum is expected this year and council plans a program of brush cutting and dead elm clearance this winter.

St. Eugene Youth Killed By Tractor

A St. Eugene youth died Wednesday night of last week after being dragged into the power take-off unit of his father's farm tractor.

Michel Brunette, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brunette, of RR1 St. Eugene, was storing corn in a silo when the incident occurred at about 7.20 p.m.

A power take-off is used to drive farm machinery.

Hawkesbury Ontario Provincial Police said the youth's clothing became tangled in the mechanism and he was crushed between the take-off and the rear of the tractor.

Mr. Brunette, who had been busy with other chores when the accident occurred later found his son trapped in the take-off belt.

Michel was a Grade 10 student at Vankleek Hill Collegiate Institute. No inquest will be held.

Manure Spreader Hit By Train

Raymond McDonald, 29, escaped injury, Saturday, but lost his manure spreader and a full load when it was struck by a CNR passenger train at his farm crossing, three miles east of Alexandria.

Raymond was pulling the spreader behind his farm tractor when it stalled on the farm crossing about 9.30 a.m. Aware that a train was coming, Mr. McDonald unhitched the spreader and pushed the tractor clear of the tracks. He watched helplessly as the diesel engine hurled the spreader 80 feet into a ditch, spreading its load over a wide area.

The $400 spreader was demolished and the diesel engine suffered $1,500 damage.

Kenyon To Have Election For Councillors Reeve And Councillors Contests In Lancaster

Roxborough Returns Same Slate

No elections are needed in Roxborough Township where the entire slate was returned by acclamation at Friday's nomination meeting.

They are: Donald Cumming, reeve; George Crites, Deputy-Reeve; Sesel Wert, Leonard McIntosh and Hector Bazinet, councillors.

They will hold office for one year when the elections will coincide with school board voting.

Monday, Dec. 6th, is voting day in Kenyon Township and Lancaster Village, the only Glengarry municipalities holding nominations this year.

In Kenyon four are seeking the three councillor seats while Lancaster sees an election for reeve and councillors. Lancaster will also require another nomination later to fill a vacancy on the Public Utilities Commission where only three qualified for four seats.

The deadline for qualifying in Kenyon last Thursday night saw Deputy-Reeve John Archie MacLennan returned by acclamation as others nominated for that post decided to qualify for councillor. Reeve Albert Faubert had been unopposed at nominations.

The three incumbent councillors, Norman M. MacLeod, Hugh McIntyre and Lionel Rozon are again in the field with Neil MacLean, a former member of council.

In Lancaster Village, Reeve W. J. Cumming is being opposed by Leonard MacLachlan, an incumbent councillor, and for the first time in the history of the municipality women are seeking office.

Mrs. Jackie Chenier and Mrs. Hector Perrier are among five in the contest for four seats as councillor. Michel Bourdeau is the only incumbent and the other two candidates are Carl Mitchell and Warren Milnes.

Also nominated for councillor at Friday's meeting were Dr. H. K. Abbey and Maurice Menard, incumbents who are retiring, Leonard MacLachlan who is contesting the reeveship and Arthur Lalonde.

Given acclamations for PUC were Bertyl White and Pat Collette, present members, and Milton McDonald. Also nominated, but failing to qualify for the fourth post were Carl Mitchell, Warren Milnes and Mrs. Hector Perrier, all of whom are seeking council seats.

Advance polls are being held Saturday in both municipalities, at Greenfield from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and for Lancaster, at the Village Office from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

A good crowd was in attendance and enjoyed the fine talent in music, song and dance.

Native Of Scotland Rev. J. Mackechnie Inducted As Minister At Dunvegan

At an impressive and well-attended service conducted by the Presbytery of Glengarry in Kenyon Presbyterian Church, Dunvegan, on Thursday evening, November 18th, Rev. John Mackechnie, MA, BD, LB, LLB, was formally inducted as minister of the Dunvegan congregation. Mr. Mackechnie was born in Scotland where for a number of years he served as minister of a Gaelic congregation in the City of Glasgow, and was later a professor of Celtic languages in Aberdeen University. He came to Canada in 1967 and served as minister of Old St. Aidrew's Presbyterian Church, Colborne, Ontario, until he accepted the Call extended to him recently by the Dunvegan congregation. An accomplished linguist and writer, Mr. Mackechnie is the author of a number of books both in English and in Gaelic. He is at the present time engaged in a program of research in connection with old Gaelic manuscripts of Scotland, the results of which will be published in the near future.

The service of induction was conducted by the Moderator of the Presbytery of Glengarry, Rev. Willis E. Sayers, of Avonmore, assisted by Rev. J. A. McGowan, of Vankleek Hill. The sermon, the subject of which was "Evangelism and Social Action", was preached by Rev. William J. Morrison, of Finch, and the Presbytery Clerk, Rev. Iver D. MacIver, of Maxville, who had been Interim Moderator of the Dunvegan congregation since May, 1970, narrated the steps leading to the induction. The Moderator presided at the Ceremony of Induction, and the charge to Mr. Mackechnie and to the Dunvegan congregation was delivered by Rev. Dr. W. L. MacLellan, of Cornwall.

Following the service an informal reception was held in the Dunvegan Orange Hall where refreshments were served by the women of Kenyon Church. Among those who spoke were Rev. Dr. Donald N. MacMillan, Professor of Systematic Theology in the McGill University School of Religious Studies and a former minister at Dunvegan; Rev. W. E. Sayers, Moderator of the Presbytery; and Rev. Dr. W. L. MacLellan, minister of St. John's Presbyterian Church, Cornwall. Duncan N. MacRae, Representative Elder of the Dunvegan congregation, and Dan N. MacLeod, Clerk of the Kirk Session, presented Rev. Iver D. MacIver with a well-worded address and a substantial cheque in appreciation of his services as Interim Moderator during the past 18 months. Mr. MacIver expressed his thanks in well chosen words and Mr. Mackechnie spoke briefly in Gaelic, and then in English, expressing his pleasure in having been called to minister to the people of the Dunvegan community.

The fellowship hour was concluded with a prayer and the benediction by Rev. Kenneth H. McDonald of Martintown and Lancaster.

Curling Season Now Underway

A mixed rink skipped by Kaye Hay won the opening bonspiel at Alexandria Curling Club last weekend as play got underway for the new season. The ice is in fine shape, we hear, even though the new clubrooms are not yet completely ready for occupancy.

Play in the men's London Winery competition got underway Tuesday night and the Christmas turkey bonspiel started last night with mixed play.

Opening Store

The Korner Grocery will be opening Saturday in the Mill Square block formerly occupied by the St. Denis Newsstand. Alex MacDonald and Mrs. Julia Munro, owners of the building, will be joint proprietors.

Townships Share Minor Hockey

Area municipalities have agreed to pay toward ice rental for minor hockey here, according to the involvement of their residents, it was reported at a meeting of the Park & Recreation Committee, Monday night.

As a result the Minor Hockey Association will not be called on to pay a percentage of registration fees as has been customary in the past.

Total cost of ice rental for minor hockey will be broken down into the number of hours of play for residents from each municipality and they will make a grant in ratio to that ice usage.

At Monday's meeting it was decided part of the provincial employment incentive grant will be used for painting and repairs to the arena and the provision of an office for the manager and new benches for the dressing rooms.

Man Of The Year At Trenton Is Williamstown Native, Dr. McDonald

Dr. W. A. Leslie McDonald, MD, FRCS (C) of Trenton, Ont., was given recognition for years of community service in that town in late October when he was named Trenton's Man of the Year. The annual dinner of the Chamber of Commerce, held at the Country Club, took the form of a testimonial to Dr. McDonald.

A native of Williamstown, Dr. Leslie is the son of the late Dr. A. Tupper McDonald.

Councillor F. J. Aziz, "paying tribute to a wonderful man", referred to the many years during which Dr. McDonald, besides his busy life as a surgeon, also finds time to interest himself in community affairs. He noted the doctor's activities on the Trenton and Suburban Area Planning Board, in his church and the governing body of Queen's University.

"He has also a deep social conscience which reflects itself in his concern for the well-being of his fellow men", Mr. Aziz said. There have been many occasions when Dr. McDonald has gone out of his way to deal with community problems which had no relationship to his profession, the speaker added.

On behalf of the town, Councillor Aziz made a presentation to Dr. McDonald that noted, "by his exemplary dedication to the community's development, his profession and his Church, Dr. McDonald has earned the lasting recognition and appreciation of the citizens of Trenton."

Other presentations were made on behalf of the Cancer Society, the Community Concerts organization, King St. United Church, the Kiwanis Club, St. John Ambulance, Trenton and Suburban Planning Board, Trenton Memorial Hospital, the Trenton Victorian Order of Nurses and the Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. D. L. C. Bingham, surgeon of Kingston General Hospital, is a former teacher of Dr. McDonald and he was present to review the 25 years he had known "one of the best surgeons in Canada".

EDITORIAL

IT'S OUR OPINION

Canadian Press Should Know Better

A representative of the Ontario Chamber of Commerce was in town last weekend feeling out the possibilities for a reactivation of the local group. Dead as a dodo our Board of Trade has been for more than a decade and we hope that organizer from Toronto met with some encouragement in his talks along Main Street.

The lack of an active Board or Chamber must be held a black mark by industry representatives sizing up the suitability of our town. It reflects a lack of community spirit among the businessmen who should be in the forefront of those planning for progress.

Our Toronto friend was interested to know a group of businessmen had banded together under the label of Progressive Merchants and that they had been instrumental in having the parking meters removed. The retail merchants do well to have their own organization, he felt, but ideally it should be an active branch of a thriving Board or Chamber.

If our Board of Trade was even the least bit lively surely it would be reacting with wrathful indignation to that Canadian Press story last week that referred to our town as "a hamlet near Ottawa".

If you are a Grey Cup fan you no doubt read that story out of Vancouver headed "The Kid From Alexandria Not Too Excited About It". It was one of many reports out of Grey Cup town that dwelt on Ivan MacMillan, the 19-year-old field goal booter who hails from here. Ivan had been getting a good press coverage and we had been basking in all that publicity until Thursday's Canadian Press story raised our hackles with that reference to Alexandria, a hamlet near Ottawa.

Canadian Press once prided itself on the quality of its reporting but surely its standards have slipped badly. Some of its top men must have been out there covering the Grey Cup festivities and one would expect more accuracy in their reporting. Well aware are we that our town is not too well known outside Eastern Ontario but Canadian Press copy editors were doing a poor job of editing when they let that reference to Alexandria go over the wires.

If our Board of Trade was active a telegram would have been on its way to CP no later than last Friday expressing civic indignation. Canadian Press would have been informed in no uncertain terms that Alexandria has been an incorporated town since 1903 and now boasts 3,220 of the finest. CP would have been reminded a hamlet is a little cluster of houses in the country that has no church and that Alexandria not only boasts three churches, it also had a bishop until recently. In case that CP writer was a local yokel, it might have been pointed out Alexandria gained village status back in 1884, only a decade or so after Vancouver attained recognition.

Not only has our civic pride been hurt, the editor expects to be receiving clippings of that CP slip from equally indignant (or derisive) Glengarrians over a wide area. Last time Canadian Press carried a bit of Glengarryana the clippings came in from Florida, California and many other parts of the continent.

Alexandria needs an active Board of Trade, if only to defend it from such snide references as the Canadian Press wire service was guilty of last week.

An Alternative Is Needed

The right wing of the Progressive Conservative Party plans to make itself heard at the Party's policy conference in Ottawa this month. A group of delegates has issued a statement of principles entitled 'A New Direction for the Conservative Party' and these delegates will be pressing for phasing-out of a number of government programs.

The new direction they will be espousing will not be towards socialism, but away from state intervention. They will be proposing not more legislation, but less. If this group makes hoped-for headway within Party councils the Canadian voter may be given a choice of policies in next year's federal election.

That has been missing since the depression years when all political parties became involved in erecting a structure of "social shelter" around the Canadian citizen whom they have since presumed to be incompetent to manage his own affairs. "All our political parties now disagree only as to the degree of socialism they wish to foist on the country", suggests a brochure forwarded by the group.

Many people must agree with its argument that one of the chief causes of Canada's current malaise is the all-encompassing regulation of the free market by every level of government. These bureaucratic schemes result in ever increasing taxes. They cause a restriction of consumer goods and help to maintain a high rate of unemployment. They fail to achieve their professed aims, leading to further intervention and erosion of the market economy. Most important, they restrict the liberty of the individual.

We find no argument with this concluding thought:

"We must recognize that individual freedom is the natural heritage of each living person and that freedom cannot be separated from responsibility. Government which fails to nurture individual responsibility defeats its very purpose, for by so doing it limits and confines, rather than encourages, the liberty it was assigned by the people to safeguard."

There are suggestions in this right-wing approach we do not fully agree with. A turn back toward the capitalist system of old is called for; but surely not necessarily a full turn of the wheel back to the days of the robber barons. The old capitalist system had its glaring faults and there must be some half-way ground that would not replace those robber barons of the old days with yet more powerful, but less productive, government bureaucracies.

The Conservative Party of Canada must return to the people the legitimate government which is theirs by right, these right-wing Tories conclude. It must take up the challenge of offering an honest alternative to the ruinous self-defeating economic policies of the other major parties.

Party Leader Robert Stanfield might be taking a calculated risk by turning to this new direction and yet his party has been going nowhere through the years it has taken the "progressive" line. A return to Conservative principles might find millions of voters in a mood to get out from under top-heavy government that insists on planning the nation onto a new plateau of poverty for all.

There should be an alternative choice for those sick of socialism. The Stanfield Conservatives could supply it and they have nothing to lose.

We Need The Family Farm

Is agricultural policy in Canada tailored after that of the United States, we are left wondering on reading an editorial in a Missouri weekly newspaper? It is entitled "Who Needs Farm Families?" and the tone of the editorial makes clear they are expendable as far as the U.S. Department of Agriculture is concerned.

It is the same thinking that obviously shapes government policy in Canada.

The total number of farms left in the United States is no longer important, only the total number of acres in production count in Washington, writes the Missouri editor. "This simply means that the government has officially abandoned the traditional concept of family farming, long held vital to the American way of life".

He quotes from a Department of Agriculture magazine article the information that there were 2,924,000 farms in operation in the U.S. last year. That was 26 per cent fewer than in 1960—but the article enthusiastically emphasizes that total farm operating acreage was down only 5 per cent.

In New England, half of all farmers went out of business between 1960 and 1970. In other areas one in every four, or one in every five, farmers were forced to fold.

Family farms don't count for a thing anymore, as far as official Washington is concerned, this Missouri editor writes, "but don't try to sell that baloney to the people in rural areas such as Daviess County. There the population has dropped from 22,000 people, down to 7,500—most of the loss being farm families who were forced off the land by various factors." Not the least of these, he avers, has been rather weird farm policies conceived in the Department of Agriculture, an agency that is supposed to look out for farmers rather than help destroy them.

That kind of thinking must find an echo in the minds of many Glengarry farmers, especially milk producers who see a shortage of milk threatened only two years after they were forced to cut production.

The loss of farm families must have had a serious impact on that Missouri County that has known such a drastic drop in population. The same attrition is underway across Ontario and we can hope government farm policy will become more enlightened before the local economy is too hard hit by this draining away of rural residents.

Dolan has moved into new quarters in the Dever block. — Mrs. J. H. Charlebois and her son, Andrew Charlebois, left on Monday evening for Minot, ND, having been called there owing to the illness of Mr. Charlebois, who is suffering from an attack of pneumonia. — Mr. and Mrs. D. Edgar MacRae on Wednesday of this week, took possession of the commodious brick residence, corner of St. George and Dominion Street North. — Hugh A. Christie and Mary Christena Cameron, daughter of Donald A. Cameron, both of Maxville, were married in Alexandria on Wednesday, November 23rd, by Rev. Donald Stewart. They will reside at Maxville.

SIXTY YEARS AGO—

Friday, December 1st, 1911

The latest industry for Maxville to secure is a canning factory and we would ask the farmers of the surrounding district to call on A. H. Robertson, who is in possession of all information concerning the venture. — Col. D. M. Robertson of Williamstown, received the unanimus endorsation of the Conservatives of Glengarry at the nomination meeting held in Alexander Hall, Saturday last. He will oppose the Liberal standard-bearer, Hugh Munro. — The Moose Creek and Tayside Telephone Co. at the moment is installing some thirty phones in Maxville and it is more than probable that before long the number will be increased to sixty. — The contractor, J. J. McIntosh, with a staff of carpenters, is this week engaged in putting on the roof of the new Presbyterian Church. — After disposing of his somewhat extensive stock of merchandise, etc., to D. F. Jamieson of Vankleek Hill, A. N. Robertson of Maxville, together with his family, left for Kingston.

A Good Choice

(The Trenton Trentonian)

When the Chamber of Commerce decided to revive an old Trenton practice, and honor a local citizen, it could not have done better than to name Dr. W. A. L. McDonald.

Trenton and area citizens have not fully realized how fortunate they are that such a man is in this town. His qualifications are remarkable, and his career as an outstanding surgeon has been augmented by a career of local public service.

He has been one of the originals in Trenton planning and has stuck with it through thick and thin. He happens to be a man of purpose and positive ideas, and this has enabled him to carry on in an unglamorous and often thankless job, in an area where the public is less likely to think it is being served than it is to think it is being had. But planning has become vital, and Dr. McDonald's association with it has been from the day it was a vision until it has become an area matter.

Dr. McDonald has been a good citizen. Fearlessly outspoken, he has not been a mere favor currier. It is good to have this kind of service publicly acknowledged.

MOVE OF DIPLOMACY

There's this to say for President Nixon's decision (to visit China): it may herald the coming of age of U.S. world diplomacy.

STILL OVER-SPENDING

The Unted States has been over-spending and is now hurting. All of us will hurt some. We in Canada too have been over-spending and still are. Some of the things President Nixon is doing now we may have to do, after our fashion, and should have done long before this. A local manufacturer said recently this could leave Canadian production costs higher than American. That's hard on us, but we, not the Americans have built our costs to these levels and against the warnings of Canadian observers ranging in expertise all the way from Louis Rasminsky down to the editors of this newspaper.

BETTER BARGAIN

An even better bargain, as far as taxpayers are concerned, could have been obtained if at the outset the territorial administration had drowned its housing experts in Great Slave Lake and given half the money it spent on prefabricated monstrosities as grants to those requiring improved housing.
—Hay River, (NWT) Tapwe

LONG ENOUGH

Japan's planners are working on a project that would replace fueled cars in the cities with computerized electric cars moving along elevated highways. Long-range plans in Japan envisage city travel in the future by using a combination of moving pedestrian footways, conveyor-belt capsules, unmanned computerized subway trains and the push-button electric cars. The internal combustion engine that has polluted the air in most of the world's cities would face extinction—and of course the sooner the better. The air of our cities has been poisoned long enough.

DOLLARS HEAD SOUTH

Ever stop to think where all your insurance money goes? Yukoners are paying plenty for life and liability and fire protection, and all of those lovely green dollars head south, except for the maintenance of local offices and their employees . . . So, while we're tossing brickbats . . . aim a few at the big insurance companies who are in fact doing the same taking the cream off resources without re-investing in Canada's north. —Whitehorse (YT) Star

WITH OUR

by Ed.

ROTS OF RUCK, MR. MOTO!

He spun his tires a couple of times, maybe to make sure he had traction, kicked her into the overdrive and shot out onto Main Street, skillfully managing to dodge an oncoming car before blasting her north on Main. That car cowboy was doing a fine job of riding and we wondered what motivated him, all that horsepower under the hood or a bottle under the seat.

Could have been the latter for he was heading away from the liquor store.

Whoever he was, he left us thinking maybe he was in need of Japan's latest contribution to road safety. It's a car that can't be driven if the driver's been drinking.

Seems the Honda motor people have developed a sensor that sniffs out drinkers and stops them from driving. At the first whiff, the ignition locks. If the car is in motion there is a 10-second warning before the motor cuts off.

The sensor is located in the steering wheel. It consists of a piece of platinum which reacts to temperature change caused by alcohol in the blood stream.

In a dramatic test at this year's Tokyo Motor Show officials flashed a glass of whisky under the sensor's "nose". Seconds later the test car's engine ground to a halt.

Honda officials hope to start marketing the product early in 1972. Their main problem, it says here, is to ensure that the sensor can't be activated by the beery breath of a passenger, or by any other odor such as a woman's perfume.

They'll have a bigger problem, we'd say, selling that extra-sensory gimmick on the North American market. What red-blooded American or Canadian driver is going to spend good money for a car that will conk out just because he's had a drink or three? So gasoline and alcohol don't mix, eh? That's for the other fellow, Accidents don't happen to us.

Sad to say, we can't see any rush on this continent for those safe Hondas. It's a step in the right direction, though. Some day soon we'll have to separate the nut from the wheel.

Rots of ruck, Mr. Moto!

That sensor may make sense but it won't be guaranteed to make a lot of drivers fonda Honda.

OUR FUTURE IS PAST

This wave of the future washed up on our shores a long time ago, we'd say. What this pediatrician at John Hopkins University sees as the coming thing, has been here more than a decade.

Dr. George G. Graham is looking forward to cheaper housing for the poor by abolishing expensive kitchens. The kitchen will no longer be needed in a day when the hamburger, peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, pizzas, rolls, pastries and other "hand" foods are prepared quickly on a hot plate, with pop to drink.

He recognizes the nutritional deficiencies of such a diet but this doctor thinks a fully nutritional diet can be developed without the traditional kitchen preparation.

Darned if we know anything about nutrition, doc, but these delicacies you mention have been practically standard diet, not only for the poor, for years. We happen to know families that have flourished on a hamburger diet for a decade, and still go for them. As for peanut butter sandwiches. You've missed something, doc, if you haven't tried peanut butter with honey, washed down by a pint of beer.

And you don't mention French fries, piping hot from the chip wagon and popular fare despite that nauseating smell of grease.

These aren't the foods of the future, they're standard today, and we still have the kitchen. What better place to retreat to while the commercials are on.

"Hand" foods on a hot plate, with pop to drink sounds like a menu that could lead pop to drink.

WE LOST, TOO

That highly touted Grey Cup game had its exciting moments but it might have been a lot better spectacle if Vancouver's tartan turf and the ball hadn't been so wet. Conditions favored the defences and both the Stampeder and Argo front walls played well. Calgary's offence, didn't look as good as Toronto's, but the Stamps didn't fumble as often in such critical situations.

It was a rather poor ending of a poor football season in the eastern conference where weak quar-

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM MAXVILLE AND SURROUNDING DISTRICT

Another win in basketball, the Maxville High School midget girls' basketball team played in the elimination tournament in Alexandria on Saturday. They won every game and the championship cup.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Gamble Jr. and family spent the weekend with Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Gamble.

A bus load of visitors from Almonte was in town on Sunday. They had dinner at the hotel and spent the afternoon touring the Maxville Manor.

Winner of the Lions' Club draw this week was Ian McRae of St. Elmo.

The dozen students who have been taking ceramics classes with Mrs. Kay Fjarlie enjoyed a social evening at her home at Athol, marking the conclusion of the fall course.

There was a small party in the auditorium on Saturday afternoon to celebrate the third anniversary of the opening of Maxville Manor. Father Rudolph Villeneuve of Cornwall was the guest speaker, and Osie F. Villeneuve, MPP, was also present. Guests enjoyed a buffet lunch prepared by the staff, and Dave MacKillican provided the music with his organ.

Guest speaker at the Maxville Lions' Club dinner on Thursday evening will be George Eppstadt, and his topic will be "Fifty Years in Maxville". Also expected to be present at ths meeting is Ray Thomas of Stittsville, deputy district governor.

Facilities at the Community Hall have been again improved by the installation of an extensve disposal system at the south end of the bulding.

Santa Claus will make this annual visit to Maxville on Saturday afternoon, December 11th. Meet him at the Community Hall at 1.30.

RECALLS A SIMPLER DAY

"They used lanterns, hanging on posts, to light the streets, and took them in when it got late. When there was a moon, they didn't hang them out," said George Eppstadt, guest speaker at the Maxville Women's Institute meeting on Friday, November 26th, when he talked about the village of Maxville in it's earlier days, and nights.

"Life was much simpler then, no radio, or television, people made their own entertainments. Travelling out of the village was an arduous affair, especially in winter. There were many stores here then, providing for all our needs. We even had a milliner's shop on Main Street, of course, ladies wore hats in those days", George remembered nostalgically, "we had a chinese laundry, no tickee, no washee, two livery stables, and Millie's home cooked dinners sold for fifty cents".

To both the listeners who remembered Maxville's earlier days, and those who didn't, it was an interesting and vivid partrayal of a past era, and left one wanting to hear still more.

Mrs. Rod. McRae, branch president, also gave a talk on the origin of Maxville, compiling her information from the local Women's Institute's book "The History of Maxville".

February, 1972, is the 75th anniversary of the founding of the Women's Institute, and all branches are making plans for celebrating this event. A part of the Maxville branch's commemoration of this milestone will be the presentation of a newly published book, "Ontario Women's Institute Story", to the Maxville library.

The next meeting will be the Christmas party.

SEVENTY YEARS AGO—

Friday, November 29th, 1901

Completely renovated in the Romanesque style, St. Raphael's Church was crowded Sunday morning when His Lordship Bishop Macdonell blessed the handsome edifice. Among improvements made by the new pastor, Rev. D. A. Campbell, were placing of steel joists in the masonry, erection of a three-arch wooden vault, plastering and plaster ornamentation, painting, glazing and a complete new floor. — Damase Vachon of McCormick Post Office, lost his residence and contests last Friday, when fire originated from a coal oil can explosion. — Among those who witnessed the great College-Argonaut football game in Montreal on Saturday, were Messrs. J. A. McMillan, A. L. Macdonald and D. McPhee, Alexandria. — Dan (Taylor) McDonald has moved his family to town and taken up residence in Miss Bella McDonald's home, Kenyon Street. — On Wednesday, November 20th, at the residence of the bride's father, Christie, daughter of John Grant, 12-7th Kenyon and Duncan, son of John McSweyn, 11-9th Kenyon, were united in marriage.

terbacking was the rule rather than the exception. The western teams produced more exciting football so it's probably only fair that the Grey Cup returned to the West.

Our Ivan didn't have too many chances to sparkle and he was close on his missed field goal attempts. He did kick five of his team's 11 points and he won't be held accountable for Argos' defeat.

Neither are we holding it against Ivan that we lost a few bucks and a beer on the game. We shouldda known better than to bet on Toronto.

McHugh Returned As Golf Club Prexy
Best Year Yet Reviewed At Annual

Lloyd McHugh was re-elected president of the Glengarry Golf and Country Club, Saturday, at a meeting of the new executive that followed the annual meeting. Cliff Rae was returned as vice-president and Ronald E. R. Macdonald will again serve as secretary-treasurer.

The new directors include a lady member for the first time, Mrs. H. K. Abbey of Lancaster. Other directors, in addition to Messrs. McHugh and Rae, are Eugene Macdonald, Roma Amelotte, Leo Lemieux and Gordon Gallant. Committees will be named at an executive meeting to be held in January.

Saturday night's annual meeting marked the first such to be held in the clubrooms and it drew a large number of members who later enjoyed dancing and a social get together.

The 10th anniversary year of the club was its most successful yet, according to a review of the financial report. It showed revenue topping the $30,000 mark for the first time, with a new high of more than $13,000 in revenue from green fees.

The year saw the erection of the new clubhouse and a program of fairways improvement at year's end that included enlarging of tees, installation of traps and planting of some 300 trees.

In addition to the reports of the president and treasurer there were brief reviews by Mrs. Abbey, for the ladies' group, Adrien Filion and Emile Hurtubise, chairmen of house and greens committees. Gordon Gallant reviewed match committee activities and Roma Amelotte presented the report of the advisory committee.

Piping School Needs Drummers

The extremely successful Glengarry College of Piping and Drumming will end its 1971 session later this month when it will recess during the holiday season. Chairman Allan Vallance reports that the piping section is so strong that there are enough trained pipers for two bands, and in fact at the last concert they played as two bands, as far as the pipers were concerned.

However, there is a shortage of drummers and anyone, boy or girl, or experienced drummer, who would like to learn, Bass, Tenor or Side drumming, is invited to go to Maxville Hall any Saturday afternoon and talk to "Rick" (Andre Rickard) the drum instructor.

Many people are under the impression that one can pick up a drum and bang away, with very little practice. But to produce a balanced Drum Corps, as Rick does, requires a great deal of instruction and practice. However, one has the satisfaction of knowing that, before one is allowed to play in public, one is a real drummer, and can play anywhere.

Pres-Glen Co-Op Had Good Year

The annual meeting of United Co-operatives of Ontario, Glen-Pres Branch was held Nov. 18, in the Anglican Church Hall in Vankleek Hill with 95 in attendance.

They also showed the Glen-Pres. group had returned to the community in the form of wages, taxes, Hydro, telephone, advertising, donations, etc., an amount in excess of $77,000. At the conclusion of his report the manager presented a 5-year service award to Jacques Dalaire, accountant for the branch.

The chairman of the Council then presented a Safety award to Archie O'Connor, Alexandria Branch, for one year without accidents.

Hugh D. Munro
Apple Hill, Died

A lifelong resident of Apple Hill and the area who had been known for his collection of vintage guns, Hugh Donald Munro died Thursday, Nov. 25th in MacDonell Memorial Hospital, Cornwall, where he had been a patient for only a month. Mr. Munro would have been 82 on Dec. 1st.

A son of Phillip Munro and his wife, Catherine Kennedy, Mr. Munro had operated a blacksmith shop and later a garage as well as a gunsmith shop. An avid hunter and fisherman, Mr. Munro owned a collection of old guns that attracted the interest of many collectors. He disposed of most of the pieces in recent years.

Mr. Munro proceeded overseas in World War I with the 154th Battalion and he had been a charter member of both Glengarry Legion Branch and the Glengarry Historical Society. A member of Zion United Church he had sung in the choir for many years.

To mourn he leaves his wife, the former Sara Stewart of Baltic's Corner, now a patient in Glengarry Memorial Hospital, and two daughters: Murdena, Mrs. Eldred Scott of Maxville and Mamie, Mrs. Lorne Hall of Alexandria.

One brother, John Munro of Apple Hill and one sister, Mrs. John D. MacIntosh of Kingston, also survive.

Members of Glengarry Legion Branch, Apple Hill held a service at the Munro Funeral Home, Maxville, Friday night, and the funeral was held at 2 p.m. Saturday to Zion Church. Mr. Davies, student minister, conducted the service.

Pallbearers were Charles MacDonell, three nephews, Gordon Munro, Douglas MacIntosh and Arnold Munro, and two grandsons, Larry Hall and Wayne Scott.

Interment was in the family plot, North Branch cemetery.

Snowsled Mishap

Snowmobilers were out in force Sunday as the first storm of the season Saturday dumped some three inches of snow across the area.

The first accident involving a snow sled in the area occurred early Sunday morning at Moose Creek when it tangled with a car. Driver of the snowmobile, Maurice Michaud of Maxville, received minor facial cuts in the mishap. His vehicle received $40 damage.

Driver of the car, Gilles Cote of Lachine, was not injured. His car received $200 damage. Const. D. Easton of the Long Sault detachment investigated.

The marriage of Carol Paige of Montreal, daughter of Mrs. Charles Paige of Alexandria, Ont., and the late Mr. Charles Paige, to Mr. Stanley Lewis, Montreal, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Lewis of Sutton, Que., was solemnized in the Sutton United Church, Oct. 9 at 2 p.m. The Rev. K. Thompson officiated at the double ring service. Mrs. S. Pergau played the wedding music.

Folowing the ceremony a reception was held at Auberge De Sutton, where over a hundred guests were present.

The couple are now residing in Montreal.

Charity In Home, Theme Of Homily At Diocesan Meeting Of CWL

The second fall diocesan meeting of the Catholic Women's League, held in Glen Walter, was preceded by a concelebrated mass. The main celebrant was Monsignor J. A. Wylie, and co-celebrants were Msgr. D. A. Kerr, Rev. Leo MacDonell, Rev. Rudolphe Villeneuve, Rev. Gordon Villeneuve. Also on the altar were Rev. M. J. O'Brien, diocesan director, Rev. Roger Desrosiers, pastor of Precious Blood Parish, and Rev. Percy Ste-Croix, a Servite Father assisting in the diocese.

In his homily, Father Ste Croix spoke on charity and enquired if the virtue of charity "is practiced in your home? Does Christ live in your home? You cannot practice that divine virtue by throwing Christ out the back door." The elements that go to build up a good Christian home are unity, tolerance, understanding and harmony, all summed up in charity and love. "Every home is a house, but is every house a home?" he asked. "Is there the understanding of a father, the tender love and care of a mother and the fond embrace of brothers and sisters?" The lack of these factors in our homes is often the cause of its downfall.

The meeting was chaired by the diocesan president, Miss Alice MacGillis, and the roll was called by Mrs. Alex McHugh of Alexandria, in the absence of Sister Catherine. The treasurer, Mrs. Vincent Eastman, requested the cooperation of parish councils to make use of the printed membership forms, available free of charge, from national office.

Several diocesan conveners distributed printed directives and spoke briefly about aspects of their convenerships. Reporting were Mrs. Gerald McDonald, organization; Mrs. Gaetan Langlois, Church Life, Mrs. Arthur Anderson, Christian Family Life, and Mrs. J. J. Fox on Press and Publicity.

ODAF DATA

A report from your Glengarry Agricultural Office

by J. Y. Humphries

Farmers have, on many occasions in the past, been idly ridiculed or scoffed at for being slow to change, inefficient, independent and poor credit risks in business. We likewise in recent years have heard statisticians idly predict that the natural growth in our world population will shortly outstrip our ability to produce food products even here on the North American Continent. Unfortunately these people are not as fully informed or aware of facts as they should be. Our farmers, for the most part, have been quick to change, have adopted new productive technology and have made use of borrowed capital for productive purposes to the point where we are now suffering from over efficiency in our agricultural industry. No other industry has improved its productivity aand efficiency to the same extent. Our ability to produce is rather frightening and fantastic. We no longer have productive problems on the farm. Our agricultural problems are generally associated with marketing and money management.

We hear complaints on rising food prices. Are they justified? Our housewives are purchasing a more wholesome and better quality product than they ever did before and doing it with the wages from fewer hours of their husband's labor. Did you ever watch a housewife go through a checkout counter at a chain store? How much of her bill is actually for food products? The container, which she likes because of size, color or convenience, is in many instances worth more than the product. There are items such as tooth paste, paper towels, panty hose and light bulbs all of which she chalks up as food costs.

The number of commercial farms and the acreage of productive land throughout Canada as well as in this county, is continually declining but volume of agricultural product is certainly showing no decline. Beef, pork, poultry and grain production is at an all time high and only this year did dairy production decline after a period of troublesome surplus.

In 1941 dairy farmers in this county numbered 2091 milked 27,000 cows and produced an estimated 160 million lbs. of milk. In 1970 we only had 803 producers but they still milked 25,000 cows and produced 225 million lbs. of milk. Our farmers are milking better cows, at a higher production level and maintaining them on a reduced acreage of land due to increased crop yields.

These farmers are neither inefficient, slow to adopt productive technology or poor managers. If the urban population continues to grow in number there is little concern that they are apt to starve Our farmers will feed them providing the urban housewife is prepared to pay a fair price for food products.

The annual meeting of the Glengarry Holstein Club is being held this week. The 204 members and purebred breeders in this organization are to be commended on the progress they are making in dairy cattle breeding and feeding. They are taking advantage of all tools available to improve the efficiency of production and market for their cattle. Sixty per cent of our purebred holstein breeders are enrolled on a production testing program of some kind, be it ROP or DHIA. There were 2,048 cows enrolled by 70 members on the ROP program alone. During the year 77 members had 897 cows graded under the official type classification program and of this number 53% graded good plus or better. Cattle from the county are now finding markets in many foreign countries including for the first time in 1971, Holland, the native home of the breed.

The award for the highest herd average in the county was won by Denis Bourdeau, Bainsville, with an average of 16,406 lbs. of milk, 632 lbs. of fat 4.32%. Runner-up was Gerard Smits, Lancaster, with an average of 15,869 lbs. of milk, 608 lbs. of fat 3.83%.

The highest production cow in the county was MacPine Raven Aggie, owned by Robert MacRae, Lancaster, with production of 27,206 lbs. of milk, 1003 lbs. of fat and a BCA or Breed Class average of 214%. One cow Kengor Ideal Aggie owned by Charles Naylor Lancaster, received a Gold Ribbon Production Certificate for exceeding 200,000 lbs. of milk in lifetime production. In 8 lactations she actually produced 221,691 lbs. of milk and 7,400 lbs. of fat. That's a lot of quarts!

Two cows owned by Kenneth McDonald, Dalkeith aand Donald Thomson, Martintown, were recognized with Silver Seal production certificates for having exceeded 150,000 lbs. of milk in lifetime production. Eleven cows this year exceeded 125,000 lbs. and an additional 27 exceeded 100,000 lbs. in lifetime production to date. Most of these cows are still in the county and still adding to their productive total.

It is programs such as production, testing and type classification that aid a breeder in sorting out the good from the bad. Our cattle are rapidly improving in type and productive potential and are commanding greater attention from domestic and foreign buyers.

Canada Works

You can be a moving force in creating jobs for Canadians.

Canada works when Canadians get involved together. So the Federal Government is putting 498 million dollars to work, through a series of specific programs, to help create jobs for Canadians.

CANADA WORKS WITH YOU

You're a major force in making the program work. We're counting on you, either on your own initiative or through your community groups, to come up with ideas for the Local Initiatives Program. For example, you may have a social service project or an idea such as a cultural program, improvements to substandard housing, assistance to the handicapped, or others that create employment and make your community a better place.

The Training-on-the-Job Program will expand opportunities for training for those who are unemployed or have little work experience, and will work through business and industry.

For those with some basic work experience, the Canada Manpower Training Program has been extended to help provide additional learning.

CANADA WORKS WITH BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

A program of tax credits or direct payments to employers encourages them to add trainees to their staffs through the Training-on-the-Job Program.

CANADA WORKS WITH MUNICIPALITIES

The Local Initiatives Program will help municipalities create additional jobs through worthwhile community projects. Provincial governments will work with municipalities to use this program to support and spur community projects.

CANADA WORKS WITH THE PROVINCES

There's a Federal-Provincial Employment Loans Program designed to create jobs by financing additional capital works projects throughout Canada. We'll be speeding up the program of the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation to get more homes, student housing, and sewage treatment projects under way.

Loans will also be made to exhibition commissions, boards and associations to get people working on multi-purpose fair and trade buildings.

CANADA WORKS WITH FEDERAL PROJECTS

There will be more job opportunities in expanded maintenance and improvement activities on Federal buildings; transportation facilities; forest and park projects; and many others.

WHERE IT ALL WORKS TOGETHER

It starts at your Canada Manpower Centre. For advice and assistance on any of the programs you feel apply to you or your community, contact your local Canada Manpower Centre. They'll be happy to help you.

When Canadians get involved together, CANADA WORKS.

Today's Students Must Prepare For Tomorrow's Leisure, Pupils Told

An auditorium filled to capacity with parents, friends and students heard the academic procession piped in for the Maxville High School commencement. The invocation was given by Rev. W. E. Henderson of Maxville United Church, and Gerard Gauthier, who is chairman of the Regional Board of Education gave a bilingual welcome to the gathering and remarked that the nicest part of being a trustee was seeing the tangible results of all the hard work that is apparent at a commencement. Principal L. D. Gauley expressed his appreciation of the parents' support, and his congratulations to the graduating classes.

Mr. Gauthier gave the address to the graduates, stressing the serious efforts being made to bridge the so-called "generation gap" with recognition of the efforts of today's young people to improve the faculty world they are inheriting. The tremendous pace of technology demands that the schools make constant changes in programs and their manner of presentation.

Indications are that there will be fewer and fewer working people in the future, perhaps only a 20 percent employment by the year 2000, and only an excellent education can prepare people for this vast increase in leisure. Success and happiness still remain the goal of academic achievement.

He then presented the secondary school graduation diplomas to 39 students in the arts and science branch, and to 16 graduating in business and commerce. Twenty-seven of these students have gone on into grade 13. Board member Fraser Campbell presented the honor Secondary School graduation diplomas to the 20 students who completed Grade XIII last year, almost all of whom are presently enrolled in various universities.

Urquhart scholarship by Mr. Gauley acting for Cammie MacLeod, and the Osie F. Villeneuve Trophy. This was presented by Mr. Villeneuve who recalled that it was the second time he has presented it to a member of the Barker family. He also expressed the government's deep commitment to education, and its unfailing support of the regional boards. Miss Barker was also presented with an SD and G Board of Education bursary for $200, as was Jack Spinella of Dunvegan.

On behalf of the Maxville Lions' Club Mr. Nevin presented their $200 bursaries to Joanne Thauvette and Lois Emburg. Students' Council bursaries for $200 went to Heather Hill and Maureen MacPhee.

Eleven school letters were awarded for general proficiency and participation in school activities, and these were presented by Mr. Maloney, Miss Locke presented the Dr. Howard Munro Shield to the outstanding girl in school activities, Joanne Emburg.

Chamber of Commerce Shield for outstanding boy was presented by Allan Vallance to Glenn Campbell. Mrs. C. Munro presented the track and field trophies to Janet Vallance and Garry MacKillican. Football coach Don Bond expressed his appreciation to all the mothers of the senior team for so heartily scrubbing the uniforms clean, and took great pride in presenting the outstanding football player trophy to Dale Munro, who was co-captain and a great scorer throughout the season. The outstanding basketball player awards went to Joan Montgomery and Garry MacKillican.

A brisk and entertaining valedictory address was given by Marlene McEwen. She emphasized the importance of being a well-rounded student, not eternally striving for a straight A, but enjoying all the school's varied activities, and getting involved in a variety of projects and endeavors. Not with the goal of becoming a superstar, but to get practice in going ahead on one's own, an invaluable talent after the days of graduation.

St. Raphael's CWL Had Talk On Africa

Her experience as a member of CUSO, the Canadian University Services Overseas, was the topic of a talk by Miss Nancy Eastman of Long Sault, as she addressed the November meeting of the St. Raphael's CWL last week at the home of Mrs. Laurent Major.

Currently teaching at St. Raphael's School, Miss Eastman spent last year in Zambia, Africa, where along with several other CUSO volunteers she taught young African children.

To be a member of this organization, one must have a particular talent to offer. At present there are upwards of 1200 young Canadians working in developing nations in Africa, Asia, the Caribbean and Latin America. Their transportation, medical insurance and training is paid for by the organization but they receive a smaller salary than they would earn for their qualifications in Canada.

Miss Eastman felt the main satisfaction for this type of work was a sense of sharing the abundance of the richer countries with that of the less fortunate. While the languages are different, people soon respond to the friendliness of the CUSO volunteers and communicate in different ways. Nancy is a typical example of this kind of communication as she speaks with such expressiveness and with mannerism indicative of friendly sign language.

Her school was quite a modern building, ungraded, and was supported mainly by fee-paying parents. The inhabitants in this area worked mostly in the copper mines and she had on display some beautiful copper engravings, ebony carvings and tapestries done by the natives.

In computing the frontage charges, provision shall be made for the exemption or partial exemption from a foot frontage rate and for the determination of such exemption or partial exemption in the following manner:

(a) A reduction in the case of corner lots at the junction or intersection of streets of 75 per cent of the flankage and a reduction or increase in the case of triangular or irregularly-shaped lots may be made in the foot frontage rate that otherwise would be chargeable thereon, sufficient, having regard to the situation, value and superficial area of such lots as compared with other lots, to adjust its frontage charge on a fair and equitable basis.

(b) Where a lot is for any reason wholly or in part unfit for building purposes, a reduction may be made in the foot frontage rate that otherwise would be chargeable thereon sufficient to adjust its frontage charge as compared with that of lots fit for building purposes on a fair and equitable basis.

(c) Where a lot, other than a corner lot, has two limits that abut on streets described above and the size and nature of the lot is such that any or all of the works in such streets are not required, a reduction in respect of the works that are not required, so long as they are not required, may also be made in the foot frontage rate that would otherwise be chargeable thereon, sufficient to adjust its frontage charge on a fair and equitable basis.

(d) The reduction shall be made by deducting from the total frontage of the lot liable to the annual foot frontage rate so much thereof as is sufficient to make the proper reduction, but the whole of the lot shall be charged with the annual foot frontage charge as so reduced.

On the basis of these levies a home connected to the water works, and having a frontage of 70 feet and an assessment of $3,500, would pay the following amounts annually after connection has been made to the proposed water works:

70 foot frontage at 50c per foot	$ 35.00
Connection Charge	20.71
Flate rate water bill	65.00
Mill Rate	3.50
Total	$124.21

The connection charge may be prepaid in the calendar year in which such water service connection is installed at a cost of $247.00.

Any ratepayer may, within twenty-one days after the first publication of this notice send by prepaid post to the Clerk of the Village of Lancaster, at the address given below, a notice in writing stating his objection to such approval or to the imposition of the water rates.

The Ontario Municipal Board may approve the entering into of an agreement between the Village of Lancaster and the Ontario Water Resources Commission with respect to the provision of the water service and the imposing of the water rates, but before doing so it may appoint a time and place for a public hearing when any objections will be considered, but notice of such hearing will be given only to those persons who have given notice of objection as provided for above.

Plans, reports and estimates may be inspected at the office of the undersigned during business hours.

DATED AT LANCASTER and first published this 25th day of November, 1971.
