RECOGNIZED AT SPORTSMEN'S DINNER — The athletic ability of five area young men was recognized at the annual Lions Club Sportsmen's Dinner, Monday night, and when that was done it was the turn of Angus H. McDonell, perennial chief organizer of the event, to be on the receiving end of a presentation. Proudly displaying their trophies above, are Blair MacDonald of Green Valley, the Campbell MacGillivray Memorial trophy as outstanding hockey player; Marshall McMillan of Martintown, the Rev. Charles Gauthier trophy as football player of the year; Henley Shaw of Williamstown, the Father Duncan MacDonald Memorial trophy as top football lineman; Ivan MacMillan, Alexandria, the Vern DeGeer Memorial trophy, as top Canadian athlete with a Glengarry tie; Donnie Morris, Alexandria, the Jim McCaffrey Memorial trophy as outstanding Glengarry athlete of the year. At left, Henry D. Duggan of Montreal, is seen presenting a souvenir scroll to the dinner's chairman, Angus H. McDonell, who has relinquished his job of chief organizer of the annual event. Mrs. McDonell received a bouquet of carnations.

Ivan MacMillan's Educated Toe Won Him Tributes As Five Young Athletes Honored

It's highly unusual for a high school student to be playing in the Canadian Football League, observed Ottawa sportswriter Eddie McCabe. Several other speakers also paid tribute to the educated toe of Alexandria's Ivan MacMillan that served the Rough Riders so well last year. The occasion was the sixth annual Lions Club Sportsmen's Dinner which drew some 300 fans and many prominent sports personalities to the auditorium of Glengarry District High School, Monday night.

A student at Glengarry District High School Ivan was one of five young area athletes presented with trophies in recognition of their sports ability. He was honored as the outstanding Canadian athlete with a Glengarry tie and was presented with the Vern De Geer Memorial trophy. Ivan is a son of Mrs. Doreen MacMillan and the late Archie MacMillan.

Other winners:

Blair MacDonald, Green Valley, the Campbell MacGillivray Memorial trophy as outstanding hockey player. A student at Iona Academy, Blair is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn MacDonald and played hockey with Cornwall Junior A Royals.

Donnie Morris, Alexandria, the Jim McCaffrey Memorial trophy as outstanding Glengarry athlete of the year. A son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morris, 4th Kenyon, Donnie was top scorer in the St. Lawrence Jr. B loop and also starred in football.

Henley Shaw, Williamstown, the Father Duncan MacDonald Memorial trophy as top football lineman of the year in Glengarry. He is a student at Char-Lan where his father, D. M. C. Shaw is principal.

Marshal McMillan of Martintown, the Rev. Charles Gauthier trophy as outstanding football player in Glengarry. He also played his football at Char-Lan and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McMillan of Martintown.

Presentation of the trophies by Lions President Paul Roy was a concluding feature of the dinner which was MC'ed by Angus H. McDonell, chief organizer of the annual event. Among head table guests in addition to the guest speakers, Russ Jackson and Eddie McCabe, assistant sports editor of the Ottawa Journal, were Ernie Calcutt of CFRA, Billy Cooper of the Rough Riders, Gene Gaines and Terry Evanshen of the Alouettes, Aurel Joliat and Sammy Godin, former Canadiens greats, Ralph MacSweyn of Quebec Aces and Philadelphia Flyers and Si Kelly an Ottawa soccer authority.

A welcome to all was expressed by Lion President Paul Roy and by Mayor J. P. Touchette who rather startled the guests when he informed them our town's spending on recreation last year rose to $73,000. He challenged other towns of comparable size across Canada to equal that expenditure.

With that kind of money to spend, Eddie McCabe thought a few dollars should be spared on sponsoring a golf tournament on an Alexandria course he had heard was challenging.

Life reduces to a pursuit of beauty and sport is beauty in human form, Mr. McCabe philosophised. He has covered sports events all over the world and the Journal sportswriter has found athletics to be an important part of a country's culture. He had anecdotes to tell of the football scene in Ottawa, of Russ Jackson, Gene Gaines and Alexandria's Ivan MacMillan whom he sees as an "outstanding kicker".

The sport scene continually changes, suggested Mr. McCabe, and one of the more recent variances is the hair style of players who would have worn crew cuts a few years back. He warned against judging athletes by their hair, even one so maligned as Sanderson of the Bruins. We are com-

Money Taken In Laggan School Entry

Lancaster OPP are investigating a break-in at Laggan Public School, early Thursday morning of last week.

Police said about $92 and a starter's pistol were taken after the thief gained entry through a window.

School Principal Kent MacSweyn said his office door had been forced and a window was broken. His locked filing cabinet had been broken into and money was taken.

He said police found a rock inside the biulding and believe it could possibly have been used to gain entry. No other damage was evident in the building.

Const. J. O. Robinson of the Lancaster OPP, is investigating.

Inquiry To Await Police Investigation

The Department of Municipal Affairs will do nothing relative to town council's request for an investigation until the inquiry into the police department has been completed. This was the gist of a letter received by Clerk-Treasurer Collin last week from W. H. Palmer, deputy-minister.

Mr. Palmer saw nothing to indicate the need for such an inquiry into the town's finances and in view of "the lack of any apparent financial problem in the town" he suggested that representatives of the Department discuss this matter further with officials of the town following the satisfactory conclusion of the investigation related to the police department."

Souvenir Scroll For Angus H.

Chief organizer of the Lions Club sportsmen's dinners over the years, Angus H. McDonell is stepping down in favor of wintering in southern climes. A group of friends took advantage of Monday's dinner to recognize that fact and Angus H. was presented with an illuminated scroll while Mrs. McDonell received a bouquet of carnations.

Henry D. Duggan of Montreal chaired the presentations which followed the trophy awards and he briefly reviewed 50 years devoted to sports by Angus, in Ottawa over a 31-year period and during 19 years in the glens. Ernie Calcutt added his words of appreciation both for the contribution Angus had made to sports in Ottawa and for the hospitality Mr. and Mrs. McDonell have been extending so generously at Highland Chief Farm through the years.

Campbell Fraser made the presentation of flowers to Mrs. McDonell.

Cherish your sport heritage, Angus cautioned the young people in the audience as he recalled some of the stars and accomplishments of earlier eras from the football days of "Big Dunc" McDonald, the Raysides, the Sullivans, Col. Rory McLennan, the Maxville Millionaires. He had a special word for the Glengarry Soccer League, probably one of the oldest continuing sports organizations in the country and he was proud to have been active in its earliest days.

While he was relinquishing his chairmanship of the annual dinner, Angus H. assured his hearers he expected to be back from Florida in time to assist in future dinners.

Start Erection Of New Building

Euclide St. Denis started construction Wednesday of his new business block on the former Stedmans property adjoining the News office. The basement is being cleared out and the foundations of the former store will be used on which to erect the two-storey building that will house the St. Denis newsstand and an office, with two apartments above.

Raymond Ouimet is in charge of construction.

Jake Gaudaur Coming Next Year

Jake Gaudaur, commissioner of the Canadian Football League, will be the speaker at next year's dinner, Ernie Calcutt reported while lauding the organizational genius of Angus H. McDonell.

The football boss had been scheduled to come to Alexandria last year but broke his hip in a skiing accident. He recently accepted the invitation to be guest speaker at the 1972 dinner.

With Archaeological Team In Iran

Miss Mary McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. McDonald, Concession 4, Lancaster, left on May 11th as a member of a group of University of Toronto students for a 3-months stay in Iran. They will conduct excavations on an ancient site at Godin Tepe. This site was occupied from 6,000 BC to 600 BC. The expedition is promoted by the Royal Ontario Museum, Toronto.

Laggan School Parents Want Gates Installed At Crossing Here

The Laggan Public School's home and school association has asked the Canadian Transport Commission to have gates placed at the Alexandria CNR level crossing in the interests of safety for school bus occupants.

Town Council considered the suggestion at Tuesday's meeting after being advised by the CTC that it will send one of its inspectors down to look over the situation. Council will be represented when that official comes here and will make a submission on the matter.

The counties fire co-ordinator advised that Lancaster Village has withdrawn from the Mutual Aid Plan under which Alexandria and Lancaster came to each others aid. Maxville will now be on first call with Alexandria and Apple Hill will be second call. Councillor Ranald MacDonald recalled the effective aid Lancaster's brigade had provided in recent years and it was decided to seek a mutual agreement for assistance between the Lancaster and Alexandria brigades.

The fire chief recommended that Adrien Menard and Harvey Leduc fill vacancies on the local brigade and council approved. Another applicant, Ernie Gallant, will be put on the stand-by list.

Application for Employment Incentive plan funds to paint the Community Centre and provide new jail facilities has been approved and an early start is expected on the work.

Council has agreed with the Counties Library Board to forego charging of rent for the remainder of this year and a tentative yearly rental has been set at $775 subject to later adjustment. Mayor Touchette expressed warm pleasure in the prospect the library will be ready for use in September.

A copy of the letter from Laurent Sicard appearing on our editorial page was considered by council. He feels taxpayers should receive discounts for early payment of taxes but council is of the opinion no discounts should be offered as they have to be made up by an added impost on the taxpayers. Discounts were given last year, it was instanced, and the $8,000 saved the taxpayers had to be charged up on the other side of the ledger.

Mayor Touchette left the chair in favor of Deputy-Reeve Marcel Ranger when council considered purchase of property fronts on Kenyon St. West that will eliminate the curve. The Mayor explained he had no interest in the properties but was associated with one of the owners, A. W. Hope.

Council approved payment of the sum of $1700 to Ewen McDonald and an equal sum to Wallace Hope for their property fronts ranging from a depth of 19 feet to 12 feet. The Highways Department pays 50 per cent of the purchase price.

Tenders are to be called by invitation for the necessary repairs to the old post office building to provide police quarters.

Mrs. Chisholm Died At 98

Smart and active right up to Sunday morning when she suffered a fatal heart attack, Mrs. James V. Chisholm died in St. Joseph's Villa, Cornwall, little more than a year before she would have reached the century mark. Mrs. Chisholm would have been 99 in July.

A highly esteemed resident of the Alexandria area throughout her long life, she was born at lot 34-1st Lochiel, the daughter, Margery, of John Angus MacDonald and Mary MacMillan. A devout member of St. Finnan's Parish she had been active in the CWL and other church groups. Despite her age, Mrs. Chisholm was still doing needlework and was in apparent good health until suffering the fatal attack.

On Oct. 2, 1916, she married James V. Chisholm and following his death ten years later she had resided much of the time with her brother, the late E. J. A. MacDonald and her nephew, Arch M. MacDonald. The last surviving member of her family, she leaves several nephews and nieces.

Msgr. D. A. Kerr offered the funeral mass at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning in St. Finnan's Cathedral. Present in the sanctuary were Revs. Leo MacDonell, M. J. O'Brien, D. B. MsDougald, and Bernard Cameron.

The pallbearers were, Frank McCormick. Donald E. MacPhee, Alex DaPrato, Eddie MacDonald, Sheldon MacDonald, Angus R. MacDonald.

Among relatives and friends present were Donald J. MacDonald of Winnipeg; Mrs. Rex Laplante of Corunna, Ont.; Sheldon MacDonald of Toronto; Mrs. Peter Levedag, Ottawa; Mrs. Robert LaRue, Hudson; Miss Rita Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. George Terry and Henry D. Duggan, Montreal.

Cash Box Recovered

Sequel to the attempted robbery following a recent auction sale in the St. Isidore area, Albert Faubert, local auctioneer, reports the cash box he threw at one of the robbers was found near the river at Laggan late last week. The $13 in coin was missing but the papers were recovered.

The box was found by a hunter and was turned over to the OPP.

WORKING BLIND—"Doing it yourself" is one way to beat the high cost of living these days but for Armand Boisvenue, 84 Kenyon St. East, it is also the way to fill in the long hours endured by the sightless. Completely blind since 1960, Mr. Boisvenue does all the refinishing and landscaping around his home, relying on the guidance of his wife and family who help him measure, select color patterns etc. Standing on the cement steps he installed last week, he is seen in the act of installing patio doors on the rear of his home overlooking the patio he built last year. Both he and Mrs. Boisvenue are enthusiastic gardeners and their lawn in summer ornamented with rock gardens and ornamental shrubs is a sight for "good" eyes.

High School Levies To Be Reduced In Varying Degrees In Glengarry Municipalities

Alexandria ratepayers will have lower levies for school purposes as will residents of all other Glengarry municipalities at least for secondary school purposes.

The Separate School rates have still to be received but town office has received the Board of Education levies and they represent a considerable reduction over last year. Most Separate School rates are expected to be down this year.

For secondary school purposes the town is being levied for $76,207 compared with $107,569 last year. The reduction works out at 6.87 mills.

For public school purposes the levy is $30,024 as compared to $34,890 last year, one mill lower.

The lower rates result from the amount of surplus turned over by the various school boards when the regional boards were set up. They vary with each municipality and trustees have warned this is strictly a one-year set-up. Higher school rates can be expected again next year.

The secondary school tax bills sent out to area municipalities show these reductions:

The secondary school tax bill going out to area municipal clerk-treasurers will look like this:

Alexandria: $76,207 or 16.71 mills, down 6.87 mills.

Township of Charlottenburgh: $138,140 or 19.71 mills, down 12.38.

Finch township: $38,985 or 13.46 down 4.49.

Kenyon township: Maxville High School board section: $18,047 or 11.46, down 11.72; Glengarry District High School Board returns: $19,668 or 13.64, down 4.56.

Lancaster Glengarry DHSB section: $69,682 or 14.61 mills, down 6.66.

Lochiel: Glengarry DHSB section $51,396 or 14.10, down 5.97.

Roxborough: North Stormont HSB $22,995 or 16.04, down 2.15; Maxville HSB, $12,181 or 11.52, down 8.67.

Lancaster: $10,122 or 15.90, down 9.92.

Maxville: $12,181 or 13.10, down 7.09.

The figures given are approximate and the final mill rate will come from each municipality.

Street Work Delayed Until Next Week

Main Street surgery has been postponed for a week and town hall now figures the work of tearing up the Mill Square area will get underway next Monday.

The Department of Highways has to approve letting of the contract and while this is considered a mere formality the word from Toronto has yet to arrive. Rather than start on a weekend town officials feel Monday will be the better time if DHO gives the green light.

Lions See GM Plant

Some 30 members of the Lions Club of Alexandria, journeyed to Ste Therese, Que., yesterday, where they were to tour the General Motors plant and be entertained by Company personnel. Organizer of the outing was Lion Gilles Roy.

IT'S OUR OPINION

Highway Traffic Should Be Diverted

Hawkesbury had a scare Friday when a fog of ammonia gas forced families from their homes in the west end of town and sent some 150 to hospital for treatment. Liquid ammonia was being transferred under high pressure from a railway car to a storage vat at the Canadian International Paper Company's plant when a valve burst about 9.30 p.m. and the choking fumes spread over a wide area.

No one was seriously injured but ammonia gas can prove lethal and it may be but a whim of fate that there were no fatalities. Had atmospheric conditions been different it is possible those choking fumes might have brought death to entire family groups as so tragically was the case a few days earlier in the landslide at St. Jean Vianney, Que.

Hawkesbury was ill-equipped to deal with its emergency ,as would be almost any other community. There was no proper equipment in that town to be used in closing off the leak and probably no trained personnel to cope with the emergency. Help had to be brought in from Brockville and it was four hours before that escaping ammonia gas had been controlled.

That threatening incident at Hawkesbury is close enough to home to serve as a reminder that we are ill-equipped here in Alexandria to cope with an unusual emergency that might strike at any time. Hawkesbury's police and firemen apparently did a good job in evacuating homes in the area and getting the victims to hospital. But if the circumstances had been more serious, had their been deaths and destruction, would these protective forces largely volunteer, have been able to cope?

We in Alexandria take comfort in the fact we boast a volunteer fire brigade ready to respond in any emergency. They can be counted on when fire strikes and no doubt members of the brigade would be as quick to try and control any other threat to the community. There are so many potential dangers, even in the traffic passing through town, our firemen or police could not possibly be trained or equipped to meet every conceivable threat.

Watching their passage down our too-narrow Main Street, now being rebuilt to repair their ravages, one wonders how lethal are the cargoes those tankers are carrying. Their warning words, "Acid", "Corrosive", "Caution" give no clue to the potential danger within that steel shell, but some unhappy day an accident may headline the fact that those transports were a threat to our well-being each time they passed through. Those huge tandems that seem to skulk down Main mostly at night appear to be carrying some type of ammunition. We can only hope there is no TNT or other explosive ready to be triggered by a traffic accident.

Accidents will happen and every so often we read of communities hard hit by some tragedy almost as inconceivable as was the case with that Chicoutimi suburb where a landslide engulfed entire family units. Other such tragic occurrences are more predictable and we are thinking now of the threat that through traffic poses on our narrow Main Street.

Those tank trucks carrying acid, those ammunition vans (if that is what they are), should long ago have been by-passing Alexandria on a Highway 34 diversion. It would provide a less hazardous junction with Highway 43 than is our totally inadequate intersection of Main and Kenyon Streets. We doubt there is any intersection of two highways in Southwest Ontario that is so much a reminder of the horse and buggy days.

Highways 34 and 43 should have been by-passing Alexandria many years ago but comes another provincial election year with not one word of encouragement from the Ontario Department of Highways. It is to be hoped some provincial government will some day be far-seeing enough to focus on our need to divert through traffic.

Then our newly-surfaced Main Street will be more adequate to local traffic and the threat of a tragic emergency will have been lessened.

Somewhat Out Of Proportion

The new wage agreement which has been ratified by plumbers and steamfitters in the London area provides new evidence that it is not skill and education which are the controlling factors in today's economy. If you want high wages, just seek out a trade where manpower is scarce, suggests an editorial in the Wingham Advance-Times.

The agreement calls for an hourly wage of $8.87 in two years—$2.20 more than the present rate of pay. That will amount to $354.80 for a 40 hour week and $18,449.60 for a 52-week year plus, no doubt, a healthy slice of fringe benefits.

There is no denying the accomplishments of a skilled plumber. His work is necessary in this age of technological advance—but not one whit more so than that of motor mechanics or carpenters or printers. Nor is there a particularly high standard of formal education required before entering the plumber's trade.

As a comparison, welders in London are being offered and apparently are accepting $3.35 to $4.28 per hour; electricians and auto mechanics, $4.11 to $4.45.

Survival in a period of inflation often creates the need for some drastic increases in the prices of goods and services. Unfortunately such periods also cater to the instincts of those who are just plain greedy.

The excessive wages of the plumbers will be paid, not by their employers, but by the little folks like ourselves who must put up the price for their services.

A Forecast Of Worse To Come?

The federal government had better step in and uphold that section of Canada's constitution that calls for no restrictions on trade between the provinces. What is termed the chicken and egg war should never have been permitted to escalate to the point provincial governments are sniping at one another and threatening to bring up the heavy artillery.

"Chicken", we see Ottawa's failure to face up to Quebec last year when that province legislated a ban on eggs entering its markets from other provinces. That was the opening gun of the chicken and egg war and the federal government came up with Bill C176 with which it is trying to control the marketing of all farm produce as an easier out that upholding the constitution.

That bill threatens even more of a mess in interprovincial trade than is the quota system in Ontario milk marketing. And Glengarry farmers are more threatened by restrictions on interprovincial trade than are most other Ontario agriculturists. We have a common border with Quebec and most of our primary produce goes to the Montreal market.

News reports last week brought the ugly word that Quebec agriculture department officials were "seriously considering" the building of border stations to regulate the influx of agricultural products. These "customs posts" would first be erected along the Ontario-Quebec border to put a stop to black marketing and dumping. Similar stations would later be placed at New Brunswick-Quebec border points.

The effect that would have on the Glengarry farm economy could be devastating. Much of our egg market is across that border and area poultry farms would be hard hit. Most of the Glengarry fluid milk market is in Montreal and it would be only a matter of time until dairymen felt the crunch. Livestock and other primary production would no doubt also face marketing restrictions in Quebec.

If Glengarry is now looked on from Toronto as a rural slum it would soon be reduced to the status of a ghetto if ever farm produce was barred from the Quebec market. The same sad consequences could occur if the federal government's Bill C-176 became law and farm marketing became ensnarled in the red tape eleven government bureaucracies might be counted on to raise against the free movement of foodstuffs.

The Supreme Court has been asked by Manitoba to rule on provincial legislation which was drawn up along the lines of the Quebec Marketing Board regulation which bars eggs from that province. The Manitoba Court of Appeals has already ruled that legislation invalid and the Supreme Court has agreed to hear Manitoba's test case. It is expected that the Supreme Court will find the Manitoba legislation violates the British North America Act which guarantees free trade.

Premier Schreyer is hopeful an unfavorable ruling by the Supreme Court will persuade other provinces, including Quebec, to tear down their barriers to interprovincial trade. The Conservative Opposition in the Commons has been delaying the farm marketing legislation until the court will have brought down its ruling on May 31st. That decision could prove their argument that marketing boards that restrict interprovincial trade are ultra vires.

The federal government's reluctance to uphold the free flow of interprovincial trade no doubt was motivated by politicians wary of Quebec's reaction to controls from Ottawa. There are separatist overtones in that province demanding freedom from federal supervision of almost every kind and it seems Bill C-176 was dreamed up as a delaying action by an Ottawa government not prepared to face up to a confrontation with Quebec politicians who are insistent on being masters in their own house.

The Trudeau Government may be smart in playing for time, but meanwhile it is making a mockery of the BNA Act. And playing into the hands of Quebec politicians whose aim may be to destroy the constitution that now governs this country.

Nobody wins in a war; and this chicken and egg confrontation between the provinces could be but a forecast of worse to come. It could be only a matter of years until the majority of Quebec residents have been indoctrinated to the goal of a separate state. If that evil day comes not only Glengarry farm produce may be barred from our neighboring province. One may need a passport to travel the road to Dalhousie.

In the supplementary estimates In the supplementary estimates for the current year, there was included the sum of $5,000 for a public building at Maxville. We understand the amount is for a new post office. — At a meeting held in McLaren Hall, Saturday night, the following were named a building committee to proceed with erection of the Presbyterian Church: H. Munro, John Simpson, E. I. Tarlton, I. B. Ostrom, J. A. McRae, J. D. McIntosh, J. T. Hope, MD, and D. D. McRae.—One of Kenyon's most progressive farmers, R. J. Kennedy, lost a barn on his west property by fire, Wednesday, the loss including modern machinery and implements. — Leonard MacGillivray has arrived from St. Timothee, Que., on an extended visit to his parents, prior to a contemplated trip to the West.

SEVENTY YEARS AGO—

A case of smallpox was discovered here on Saturday, and there are two other suspected cases. A meeting of Council was immediately called. Night and day a guard is kept on the houses quarantined and a building has been erected on the Island for those quarantined. Council has also made vaccination compulsory. — After 38 years' service it was discovered on Sunday that the bell on St. Finnan's Cathedral was badly cracked, and its removal from the tower will soon be effected. — David Rayside, lately appointed Assistant General Superintendent of the Bell Telephone Co., was recently presented with a gold watch by the Montreal employees of the company. — A. W. McMillan, formerly of Lochiel, but now of Ottawa, has arranged with the New York & Ottawa Railway for placing newsboys on their passenger trains. — Dan McLean, who was employed by D. D. McMillan & Son, of this place, has opened out a blacksmith shop in Maxville.

Work Must Be Distributed

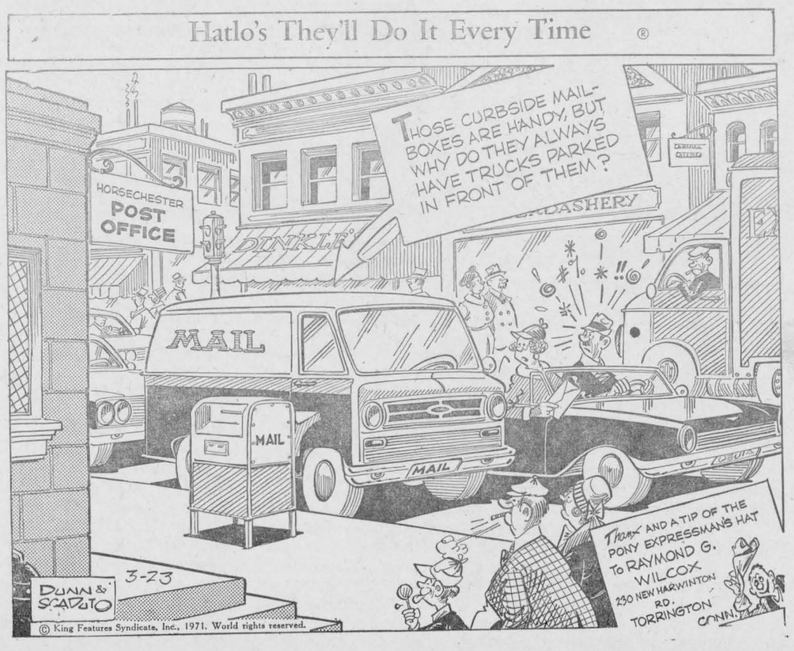
(The Wingham Advance-Times)

So conditioned have we become to the scarcity of trained working people that some drastic adjustments will be needed if a shortage of jobs persists for any length of time. In fact some of the laws which have been enacted recently may need revision before too long.

As one example, take a careful look at the recent legislation on the status of women in the labor force. This law demands that no employer may discriminate against a woman because of her marital status. In other words it is illegal to decide against the employment of a female applicant because her husband is gainfully employed.

On the surface it would appear that this is a very fair regulation — until the economic bind sets in. Consider the case of the several thousand school teachers who will be unable to find jobs this year. Suppose a teacher who happens to be the father of three small children finds he cannot get a job in any of Ontario's schools. Even a casual examination of hiring announcements will tell him that not a few, but hundreds of married women have been engaged. Naturally he will be more than slightly bitter about a system which guarantees that some households can enjoy two incomes while his is left with the alternative of public relief to provide for his family.

Hopefully the situation is not yet so drastic that two-income families will have to be curtailed, but it is not difficult to set the injustice of a law which makes no allowance for a fair distribution of employment.



WITH OUR

by Ed.

Our Sports in the Glens columnist had a special gift for drawing sports personalties to the annual dinner. With no reflections on the chef, Highland Chief was a big attraction.

PLAY-OFFS TOO LATE

They're still trying to find a winner for the Stanley Cup and doesn't it seem more than a bit ridiculous to have a hockey season stretching into mid-May. The NHL players have been going through those same motions since way back in October and the effects were to be seen in the lousy brand of hockey provided Sunday and all the stupid penalties Chicago was taking.

It was much too nice outdoors to be sitting in front of the parlor screen watching a hockey game. And what a doubtful treat that was to serve up to most mothers on their day.

Surely the hockey moguls should be thinking of shortening a too-heavy schedule and getting the play-offs over in April when the fans are still hockey-minded and house-bound. Or is it the television people whose programming needs demand that hockey continue almost until the football season is ready to open?

When the Lions Club started scheduling its Sportsmen's Dinners on the second Monday in May, it figured on the Stanley Cup being over by that time and hockey personalities free to spend a night in our town. It didn't work out that way this year but the dinner was another grand success, even with Canadiens unrepresented.

Our warm congratulations to the budding athletes whose talents were recognized, and to the diner's chief organizer, Angus H., who did another bang-up job before handing over the job of organization he took on six years ago.

The U.S. has been free of slavery for 100 years. But it hasn't caught up with Canada where we let our servants in Ottawa crack the whip over the people who pay their hire.

CRACKING THE WHIP

They used to be known as civil servants until they became so uncivil they came to be called public servants.

Now they might more appropriately be known as the public's masters, especially those overbearing bureaucrats in the Department of National Revenue who appear to get their kicks by slapping penalties on we the people at the slightest excuse.

The editor was in high dudgeon Friday when Her Majesty's mails brought him a Notice of Assessment from the Taxation branch at Ottawa. Your 1970 T4-T4A return of remuneration paid was received late, notes one Sylvain Cloutier, deputy-minister of National Revenue, and so the amount shown as balance is hereby requested.

That amount shown was a cool $50 and that's when the editor blew his top. A penalty of $10 would have been hard to take since the tardiness in forwarding that form was simply an oversight. Employees had received their T-4 forms way back in early February and in the normal course of events the copy to Mr. Cloutier would have been mailed at that time. Somehow it got mislaid and for that minor error of commission the boss is being made to pay through the nose.

We can't blame him for blowing his top and if that sadist who cracks the whip in the Taxation branch could have heard half of it his ears would still be burning. He'd probably have enjoyed it though. Parliament has put much too much power to penalize into the hands of its tax collectors. That power has gone to their heads and they seem to glory in the fact they can play the role of slave master over us who pay their salaries.

What gets the editor is the fact that uncivil servants can throw away millions of our tax dollars in such shady deals as the Bonaventure refit which almost certainly earned handsome kickbacks for the bureaucrats involved. Proven at fault by a Parliamentary inquiry, these servants of the people don't even get their wrists slapped. And yet when the taxpaying citizen slips up on merely a minor matter all the weight of government is thrown at him.

The Deputy Minister for Taxation, our friend Mr. Cloutier, is fully cognizant of the fact there

NO DISCOUNT ON TAXES?

Alexandria, Ont.

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

Town Council at its last meeting passed a By-law authorizing an interim tax levy of 50 mills payable at the end of May with Presumably this interim tax levy is to provide funds in order to save borrowing money at high rates of interest. If this is so, one asks himself, if a saving in interest is to be effected, why can not part of this saving be passed on to the ratepayer by way of a discount if taxes are paid within period allowed. There is no hesitation to charge a penalty if they are not paid. This is a one way street.

The attached tax notices from Charlottenburgh Township show the discounts allowed for prompt payment of regular taxes and also an 8% discount on the interim tax payment.

I feel certain if our Council gave this matter a second thought, they would realize they think as highly of Alexandria ratepayers as other municipalities think of theirs and

IRRESPONSIBLE DUMPING

The village dump has been a headache to the council, and a dreadful eyesore until it was possible to clear it back a bit this weekend. In spite of a large, clearly worded sign requesting citizens to take their rubbish in to the dump most of them carelessly strewed it in the entrance road, right out to the highway. Savages less intelligent didn't bother coming to the dump but unloaded their garbage along both sides of the road south of town for a couple of miles — on what is of course private property. It's a shame these deposits can't be returned to their owners' front lawns, presumably in the middle of some town. This dump is not actually public, and it is maintained at the expense of the village council. If the privilege of using it is continually abused it can be closed.

Wide Sympathy At Avonmore For Young Victim Of Monoxide

The entire community was cast into the state of deep sorrow as news of the tragic death of Miss Linda Mabel Ferguson, 17 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burns Ferguson, Main Street, Avonmore, broke over the countryside early on Saturday morning, April 24th.

Linda, a popular student at North Stormont District High School, was the victim of carbon monoxide poisoning. In the same accident Linda's close friend, Hugh Carruthers, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delburn Carruthers, RR4 Crysler, was overcome by the deadly fumes and remains in critical condition in the Ottawa Civic Hospital.

The sympathy of relatives, neighbors and friends went out in an overwheming manner to the members of the two families so sorely struck by the tragedy.

Linda was 17 years old last November 7th. She was the beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burns Ferguson. Mrs. Ferguson was the former Alice M. Marjerrison, of Apple Hill.

She attended the Avonmore Public School and during the present school year she was a Grade 12 student at NSDHS at Finch. She attended Cornwall Collegiate and Vocational School as a Grade 9 student and for that period she lived with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Myers, in Cornwall.

Linda always took an active role in all the activities of the school.

She was a member of St. James United Church, Avonmore, and a member of the church choir.

In the community her enthusiasm and love of life was evidenced in her position as secretary-treasurer of the Newington and District Junior Farmers and as an assistant leader in the Avonmore 4-H Homemaking Club.

On a part time basis she was employed at the 1867 Restaurant, Highway 401, near Morrisburg.

Her passing is mourned by her aged grandfather, H. S. Marjerrison, Apple Hill; one brother, Earl, and one sister, Karen; several aunts, uncles and cousins.

The body rested at the Brownlee Funeral Home, Finch, where hundreds of sorrowing friends called to pay their respects and to sympathize with members of the family. Several groups, including members of the Finch Legion Pipe Band, called.

The funeral held to St. James United Church, Avonmore, was conducted by the minister, Rev. Henry A. Funge. Mr. Funge brought a comforting message and words of counsel and admonition to the many young people in attendance. The funeral was one of the largest held in Avonmore in many years.

Hymns sung were "All the Way My Saviour Leads Me" and "I love to hear the story". A young people's choir, composed of students from North Stormont District High School, led in the service of praise. Ken Dunlop presided at the console.

Pallbearers were Allen and Glenn Marjerrison, James and Kenneth Marjerrison; all cousins, Andre Baker, president of the Newington and District Junior Farmers, and Dean McIntyre.

Relatives and friends attended from such distant points as Georgetown, Prescott, Smiths Falls, Brockville, Ottawa, Toronto, with other friends present from many points in the three United Counties.

A wealth of beautiful floral tributes surrounded the casket as silent tributes to the memory of one who had endeared herself to all who knew her. Other fitting memorials took the form of donations to the Canadian Bible Society and the Gideons International in Canada.

Interment was made in the family plot in Paul's Hill Cemetery, Avonmore.

PIPES PRESENTED

There was an interesting presentation ceremony at the Maxville Manor on Sunday evening. Miss Lois Emburg of Moose Creek, a Grade XIII student in the high school, has been taking the regular piping lessons, and also works part-time at the Manor. In appreciation of her musical ability resident John Cooper of Lancaster, presented her with a fine set of bagpipes. Mr. Cooper is a veteran of the first World War. Attending the presentation were Lois' family, and many of the residents. Pipe-Major John MacKenzie played the pipes for Lois and her sister Joanne to dance to.

CRAFTS DISPLAYED

The Auxiliary of Maxville Manor held their annual spring tea in the auditorium on Saturday, with a very good attendance. Highlights of the afternoon were a demonstration of pottery made by Mrs. Kay Fjarlie of Athol, and several of her students, and a display of art work by Mrs. A. Gaudet. The latter consisted of paintings and some crayon sketching. The potters had made attractive single flower vases for the tea tables and these were sold to the guests.

Mrs. Arkinstall read an address conveying the good wishes of all present, then presented the "Bride's Book" to her.

The gifts were opened by the bride assisted by Mrs. Jack Shields, Mrs. Gretta Kennedy, Mrs. Earl MacNeil and Mrs. Jack Kennedy.

Miss Kennedy thanked the ladies for the lovely gifts and their kind wishes.

Rambling . . .

are Mafia bosses in Montreal and Toronto making millions of dollars each year out of the drug traffic, gambling and other unlawful practices. In the U.S. the most deadly weapon used against the crime syndicate bosses is their failure to pay taxes on their ill-gotten gains.

If Cloutier and his gang of sadists refuse to move in on the syndicates surely they need replacing by men more motivated to hit the big shots than bully the man in the street.

It is a truism that the only people who never make mistakes are those who do nothing. Ottawa's tax collectors fit into that category in relation to the crime syndicates. They should not be allowed to over-react by hitting the citizen who is powerless to protest.

An editor or a Rambling Reporter can at least do that and thereby get some satisfaction for that 50 bucks he's being robbed of by uncivil servants.

ALL CANADIANS

Alexandria

The editor,
The Glengarry News,

About a month ago the chief of police was let go but he has not been paid or fired and has not had a chance to prove his guilt or innocence. I think it is very unfair to our chief. I don't know him personally but I respect all our police in Alexandria and I think everyone should get a chance.

Why doesn't our mayor, who is on the Police Commission, do something?

Reeve Massie has the guts to want the commission. I and some other Alexandria taxpayers think something stinks. I suppose the chief was just another scapegoat.

It's time for more of our taxpayers to speak up as I understand the chief has spent considerable money in phone calls to no advantage.

I notice that we are trying very hard to get rid of our Queen. Will changing the name from queen to president help our economy? We are crying about the U.S.A. taking over all our resources. Well I suggest let our Canadians put up the money then we will not have an independent Canada.

If we spent more money on the Economy and not on flags and bilingualism we would go a good way. Let us all be Canadians, not French or English or anything else, only true Canadians all with equal rights.

—T. J. Douglas.

Golf Club Opening For Play Though New Home Not Ready

The season at Glengarry Golf & Country Club opens this weekend with Club Manager Vince Barker occupying temporary quarters in the new clubhouse.

The greens are not yet in mid-season form but should be playable. The fairways got their first cutting this week after being rolled and fertilized. More trees have been planted this spring and the grounds staff was doubled this week to get the course in readiness for play.

The new clubhouse was roofed in this week and contractor Remi Poirier hopes to have it ready for occupancy by June 1st or shortly after. Some eight days of work on the building were lost to bad weather but once it is closed in Mr. Poirier expects to make faster progress.

The first invasion by outside golfers takes place Saturday when Royal Bank staff from Ottawa and Montreal meet at the local course for their annual friendly.

The club's season opening dance is being held in Alexander Hall next Saturday night, May 22nd.

ing into a more sophisticated era on the sport scene, the speaker said in conclusion, and it takes a while to get used to the new affluence.

Russ Jackson assured his retirement from football is permanent and he told his audience of the strange feelings he knew at his first game as a spectator in 12 years in Ottawa. Gene Gaines brought greetings from the Alouettes and remarked how nice it was to see the two generations together in this hall. It is the place of sports to bring them together he felt.

The soccer scene in Ottawa was reviewed by Si Kelly who told of the firm basis developed and lauded the Glengarry All-Star team that had played and won there last year. He also told of plans for a soccer tourney at Maxville Fair June 26 and 27 when eight senior and as many under 21 teams will be competing.

Lion Campbell Fraser expressed the thanks of all present to Mr. McCabe and the other speakers. There followed the presentation of trophies after which the chair was taken over by Henry Duggan and Ernie Calcutt for a presentation to Chairman Angus H. McDonell and Mrs. McDonell.

Plans For Benefit Horse Show At Lancaster Virtually Complete

Plans are nearly complete for the Char-Lan Doctor's Committee Benefit Horse Show. To be held at VLN Horse Farm, Highway 34, Lancaster, this show should prove to be a real crowd pleaser. There will be ample ringside parking for all. What could be more pleasant than a warm spring afternoon watching some of the finest horses in Eastern Canada, and their riders, perform.

Both English and Western competitors are very welcome. There are eleven events in all. English and Western Junior and Senior equitation will be staged in two events. There are two Tallyho races for junior and seniors. Two events in jumping will give amateurs the opportunity to try their luck, and advanced riders their skill.

A family class of two riders should be interesting to watch when mother and daughter, or father and son combinations take the field. And finally the games of Musical hats, Cloverleaf Barrel Race and Balloon Busting should be very exciting. In the balloon busting no swords, pins or knives are allowed. This game is to be played by gentleman riders over 16 and bareback.

Refreshments will be served by the Glengarry 4-H Horse Club. Plan to come and enjoy the Benefit Horse Show at VLN Farms, Lancaster. All gate proceeds will go to the Char-Lan Doctor's Committee.

Valley Students Attend Char-Lan

A delegation of 11 parents from Green Valley got no satisfaction when it met with the Counties Board of Education Tuesday night. They sought a solution to the school boundary problem that would permit all their children of high school age to attend school at Alexandria.

A recommendation proposed by the board to allow the students of Green Valley to continue at GDHS until further notice from the board was defeated by a six to five vote.

Several years ago when the boundaries were laid out, somehow the boundaries separating the Char-Lan High School district and the Glengarry High School district fell in the centre of Highway 34, which runs through Green Valley, leaving ratepayers in the small village separated.

Mrs. Henry Ladouceur, speaking for the delegation, said it was ridiculous to send children 12 miles by bus, to Char-Lan High at Williamstown when it was only three miles to GDHS at Alexandria.

She contended many of the ratepayers had been paying taxes to the Alexandria school for years and now they were being forced to send their children to Williamstown.

Events To Mark Char-Lan Week

The annual Cadet Inspection will be the highlight of Char-Lan Week when the school at Williamstown will feature special events. The inspection next Friday, May 21st, is a reminder that Char-Lan is one of the few area schools still boasting a cadet corps and possibly the only one in Canada that is kilted.

It has a tradition the school wants to carry on, in the words of a member of the staff.

The cadet officers' dinner will be held at the school Tuesday, May 18th and that same evening the school will be holding Open House for all interested. The Glengarry Pipe Band and the Char-Lan band will entertain and from 6 to 10 p.m. the public is invited to see displays as varied as gymnastics, judo, signal corps and first-aid, shop displays, photography and audio-visual. The commercial department, the library and even the office staff will be providing displays of their activities during Char-Lan Week.

To Be Minister

Robert P. Fourney, graduate of Glengarry District High School and son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fourney, Lancaster, will be licensed for the Presbyterian ministry by the Presbytery of Glengarry on Friday, May 21st. The public service will be at 8 p.m. in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, South Lancaster.

Won Hockey Pool

Mrs. Claude Belanger, Alexandria, was winner of the $200 prize in the hockey pool organized by the Char-Lan Optimist Club. She bought the ticket with the winning goal in game two of the Stanley Cup finals, 7.27 of the third period.

FFCF Plans To Mark 50th Year

"The FFCF are taking a firm stand on abortion," reported Mrs. Theodore Desjardins, who along with the president, Mrs. Conrad Levert, attended the national convention held in the Chateau Laurier, Ottawa, on April 29th, 30th and May 1st.

The group also decided to commend good radio and TV programs rather than condemn the poor ones.

The report was given at the May meeting held in Sacred Heart Hall on May 4th, at which Mrs. Levert presided.

Roses were made by the ladies for sale on Mother's Day. A program will be set up to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the foundation of the FFCF by Mrs. Euclid Rouleau with a membership of 139.

The attendance prize was won by Mrs. Mederic Derepentigny and the winner of the handmade quilt was Mrs. Donat Martin of Alexandria. .

WMS Rally Set

The 57th annual rally of Glengarry Presbyterial WMS (WD) of the Presbyterian Church is being held in Knox Presbyterian Church, Vankleek Hill on Thursday, May 20th. Main speaker will be Miss Eleanor Knott from India.

New Slate For St. Raphael's CWL

Mrs Robert Chretien will head the new slate of officers for the St. Raphael's Council CWL for the coming year. Vice-presidents are Mrs. Jack McDonald, Mrs. Gerrit Sturkenboom and Mrs. Ewen MacDonald. Mrs. Angus R. MacDonald is treasurer; recording secretary is Mrs. Rudolph Levert and corresponding secretary is Mrs. Paul Valade.

Mrs. Robert McDonell, past president, who chaired the annual dinner meeting at which the officers were installed, thanked members for past co-operation and reminded them there was a need for a united effort in the trying times the parish was going through.

Mrs. Marcel Major represented the Diocesan Council. She suggested that parish meetings be held in the homes since we no longer have a meeting hall.

Father O'Brien suggested that girls over sixteen be enlisted as members as so much of CWL work dealt with youth and its problems.

Mrs. Paul Emile Andre was presented with a souvenir as she is leaving the parish.

AVONMORE

WALK MARATHON SET FOR SATURDAY

In support of the Avonmore Community Athletic Association, young and old alike will take to the road Saturday, May 15th, in the first "walk" marathon sponsored locally.

From the enthusiasm that has been evidenced in the community in recent days, it appears that the project will be marked with great success. Citizens in the community have been quick to respond. Many participants in next Saturday's walk have long lists of sponsors.

The "walk" will get under way at any time between 8 and 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The starting point is the grounds of the Roxmore Public School. The route is a twelve-mile one—westward along Highway No. 43 to the Boundary Road; northward to the Sixth Concession Road; east to the Moose Creek-Avonmore County Road; and return to the village.

Along the way there will be five check points manned by volunteers. An elaborate system of supervision has been set out.

Lunch will be provided at the Roxmore School for participants as soon as they have completed the walk.

Prizes will be awarded to the family with the largest number of participants; to the one completing the walk in the shortest time; to the youngest walker; to the oldest walker; and to the most novel stunt.

Entry forms are still available at Roxmore Public School, the Avonmore Post Office and North Stormont District High School.

After the walk participants will return their pledge forms and cash to the Bank of Nova Scotia, Miller's Hardware Store, Lang's Restaurant or Charles Rielly at the Post Office.

All proceeds will assist the sponsoring Athletic Association complete the financing of the lighted ball park in Avonmore, a project which long has been recognized as a great need in the community.

On Friday evening there will be a "kick off" turkey bingo in the Roxmore Public School in support of the local fastball team.

BOWLING LEAGUE HAS AWARDS NIGHT

Another very successful season for the Avonmore Bowling League was climaxed last week by the annual banquet, held this year at the Country Kitchen Restaurant, Winchester.

The group bowls weekly during the fall and winter months at Shaver's Bowling Lanes at Finch.

There was a full turn-out of members at the banquet. Following the dinner the activities of the past season were reviewed and plans for next year's program initiated.

A highlight of the program was the presentation of trophies.

Awards were made as follows: Team championship, Arlene Wright, captain; Ernest Filion, Alice Miller and Mac MacRae; Team 2, Isabel Smythe, captain; Glenn McIntyre, Janet Filion and Oarn Flanagan; ladies' high average, Iva Bush; ladies' high cross, Ardis McIntyre; ladies, high single, Sarah MacRae; gentleman's high average, Pete Wright; gentleman's high cross, Allan McIntyre; gentleman's high single, Ernest Filion.

The team finishing in first place at the end of the season was that composed of Beth McIntyre, captain, Pete Wright, Sarah MacRae and Kevin Flanagan.

Later in the evening the bowlers enjoyed a few games of euchre. Winners were Miss Ardis McIntyre and Fraser MacMillan.

Miss Margaret Morrison was winner of the door prize.

After the euchre the group was treated to birthday cake and coffee in honor of Dean McIntyre who was celebrating his birthday that day. The cake was made by his mother. All joined in singing happy birthday.

GETS SHARPSHOOTING TROPHY—Private Luc Roussin was awarded a trophy for his excellent marksmanship when graduating from the Canadian Forces Recruit School at CFB St. Jean, Que. The trophy was presented by Lt.-Col. S. R. Comtois, Commanding Officer of the Recruit School, above. Private Roussin is the son of Rolland Roussin of Glen Robertson.

4-H Horse Club Names Officers

The first meeting of the 4-H Horse Club was held at the boardroom of the Agriculture Office. The leaders are John Peters, Mrs. Rothgeb, Gerard Smits, Charles Rodgers, and Peter Van Baal.

The new officers are Rosanne Cumming, president; Ralph Humphries, vice-president; secretary is Karen Brown; Beth Ross is treasurer and Carol Lahnemann will be news reported.

We received manuals about horses and horsemanship and decided a date for our May meeting. It will be on May 23, when we will be attending a horse show at the farm of John Peters for which the proceeds will go to the new medical centre in Lancaster.

The possibility of our club participating in the Maxville Fair on June 27 was also discussed.

ODAF DATA

A report from your Glengarry Agricultural Office

J. Y. Humphries

The corn plant continues to occupy the spotlight in crop programs on many farms and justifiably so. Few crops can compete with it in terms of yield of digestible nutrients per acre. It has placed the county into a comparatively self-sufficient position as far as feed grain reqquirements are concerned and relieved the drain of dollars previously expended for Western grain, freight, brokerage, etc.

While corn is a high yield crop, it does require a high per acre investment in seed, fertilizer and herbicide. Because of this, growers just can't afford to make any mistakes in production techniques that might reduce eventual yields. We are concerned that some corn is being planted on land that is not adapted to the crop. Drainage is a must. Without drainage you may be able to produce the crop but lose it due to inability to get on the field at harvest time.

Plant population is most important if final yields are to be up to expectations. A 75% stand won't yield a 100% crop. Check your planter. Have you the proper seed plates for your 1971 seed supply? Are the cutoff and knockout pawls in the planter box worn or rusted? Are your tires properly inflated? Is the planter hitched at the proper height? What about planting speed? The word here is SLOW. All of these things can affect plant population. For further information, pick up a copy of "Planter Tune-up Time" at the ODAF office.

VITAFLO

This product is being marketed as a drill box treatment for seed borne Southern Leaf Blight spores. It has no effect on wind or trash borne spores. Information just released would indicate that a combination of Vitaflo and D and L or Diazinon and Lindane presents a planting problem due to a build-up of chemicals on planter plates and plateless planter mechanisms. This reduces plant population or stand.

You cannot afford to drop D and L for the control of Seed Corn maggot and wireworms. These insects present a greater threat to your crop than seed borne blight spores.

Forages—Hay, haylage and pasture—The forage crop program on many farms has deteriorated over the past few years due no doubt to the emphasis on corn. A good forage crop program can be integrated with and compatible to the corn crop. Hay and haylage crops are our best source of protein for dairy cattle feeding. A silo full of mature corn silage (to provide energy) and barn or silo full of early cut hay or haylage with a fair proportion of legume (to provide protein) and you are away to a good start for a full milk tank. We made a lot of good early hay or haylage in 1970 and reports would indicate we will make our highest ROP and DHIA herd averages to date in this current year.

Possibly if we managed this hay crop as well as our corn crop, it could be just as valuable or possibly net more than corn. We have too many old, thin meadows. We need "better-not more" hay and pasture.

The Crop Improvement Association selected 25 samples of hay, at random, for testing in 1970. The highest had 13.4% Protein, the lowest 7.3%. With 44%, soybean oil meal at $6.00 per cwt, the cost per lb. of protein is 13.6 cents. The high protein hay was therefore worth $36.56 per ton as a protein source and the low protein hay only $19.96.

Hay isn't just hay—it is your most important and least costly source of protein and its value is dependent on—

—Maturity at harvest
—Legume content
—Ratio of leaf to stem

Don't neglect to innoculate your alfalfa or birdsfoot seed with a nitroculture if reseeding fields. Store this material in a cool dry place until you are ready to use it. (Not on the dash of the truck). Sun, heat and cold can destroy its effectiveness. Be sure to use the proper innoculant. Alfalfa innoculant won't work on trefoil or vice-versa.

Elementary Teachers In Glengarry Had Development Day At Maxville

Elementary teachers in Area 3 (Glengarry) enjoyed a very successful Professional Development Day on Thursday, April 29, at Maxville and District Public School. More than 100 teachers and speakers were present to participate in a wide range of activities.

H. D. Shaw, Director of Education for SD&G County Board of Education addressed the teachers at the commencement of the program. He reminded everyone present of the proud heritage of Ontario teachers and then focused on the basis for having an optimistic outlook for the future.

For the rest of the day, sessions were planned to meet the interest needs of various teachers. Morning and afternoon sessions for teachers in the lower, middle and upper grades covered such themes as: Co-relation of Reading and Writing; The New Social Studies Curriculum; Creative Writing and Incidental Grammar; Reading Skills and Co-relation of Programs; Teaching Language Arts; Drama.

The four kindergarten teachers in Area 3 had the opportunity of visiting a kindergarten class in Chesterville in the morning. Remedial reading teachers travelled to Salmon River, NY, to observe remedial classes in operation there.

Special programs were drawn up for teachers of certain subjects. Conversational French teachers, with the assistance of Jack Whyte from the SD and G Audio Visual Department in Cornwall, observed video-taped programs and centred discussion around these. Music teachers were able to share ideas and meet with Mr. Coles, Music Program Consultant from the Department of Education. Special Education Teachers from Area 3 and a few from other parts of the United Counties participated in a day-long program, calling upon resource people like L. F. Lawson, Area Superintendent for the SD and G County Board of Education in Area 3, and Miss H. J. Hill and Mr. Boisonneault, both Psychometrists for the United Counties Board.

A concluding session of about half an hour was arranged wherein teachers were given an opportunity to sit down together to discuss matters of mutual interest and, where possible, to submit suggestions for consideration of the In-Service Education Committee.

Educational materials displays were set up by Moyer School Supplies, Britannica Encyclopedia and Educational Media, and MacMillan of Canada.

Guest speakers were enthusiastic in their presentations and the teachers in Area 3 were given many fresh approaches to try in their classrooms during the months and years ahead.

The entire Professional Development Day Program was the result of a co-operative effort on the part of area educators.
