'Counties' councillors are a trusting lot. They get around to 'watching' the warden about the time he's due to make his adieus.

ONE OF CANADA'S AWARD-WINNING WEEKLY NEWSPAPERS

VOL. LXXIII — No. 47 * * * ALEXANDRIA, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1964 * * * SINGLE COPY 10c

New Township Public School Boards Being Elected To Take Office January 1st

All existing boards of Public School trustees in Ontario are abolished as of December 31st and in Glengarry four township boards will take over administration of all public schools with the new year.

The new set up, under Bill 54 passed by the Legislature earlier this year, ordains the end of Alexandria's board which will be merged with Lochiel Township. The town will elect three members to a new seven-man board, with four being elected from the township.

All new public school boards will be elected exactly as are other municipal officers and the new set-up is demanding nomination meetings in two Glengarry townships which in the ordinary course of events would not be preparing for elections this year.

This is an off year in Kenyon and Charlottenburgh which voted last year on a two-year term basis. In these townships nominations will be held only for public school trustees. If more than the required number are nominated and qualify elections will be held as they would normally for council seats.

Bill 54 does not affect Separate Schools, which do not come under the Public Schools Act and which will continue to elect their trustees as at present.

The new set-up is designed to foster larger central schools which will provide rural pupils with more of the advantages now enjoyed in urban schools.

The township school board, points out Harold Barber, inspector of Public Schools, is something of a reversion to the early days of 1841 when five or seven school commissioners were elected to administer all schools in the township.

PASSED RN EXAMS—Miss Carol Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Bradley, Maxville, has successfully passed her Registered Nurse's examination. A graduate of Maxville High School, Carol is now on the staff of Hotel Dieu, Cornwall.

Heifer Shot By Jacklighters

J. Daniel MacDonald, 4th Kenyon, lost a two-year old Holstein heifer, Monday night, when it was shot by jacklighters while in pasture.

This was but one of several such cases of fast triggers reported in recent days and Game Warden E. W. Munro confirms the fact that since close of the deer season there have been at least six such instances reported to him.

A sheep was shot in the 3rd Kenyon during the deer hunting season, he reports, and since then he has heard of cows, heifers and one horse being either killed or wounded by irresponsible or vengeful nimrods. Some were the work of jacklighters, as in the 4th Kenyon shooting, but others have occurred in broad daylight. Such instances have been reported from scattered sections of the county, according to Mr. Munro.

The MacDonald heifer was shot about 9 p.m. Monday. Mr. MacDonald received a phone call from a neighbor reporting a car parked near a field where young stock was pastured. As he investigated the car sped away and next morning he found one of the heifers dead from a rifle wound.

From the Laggan area, Harry Franklin also reports an incident about 4 a.m. Sunday when some "poor sports", as he describes them, were heard shooting at deer. He believes they were also using lights to blind the deer and make them easier targets.

Game Warden Munro reports 57 deer were shot in the area during the four-day open season, one less than the tally reported a year ago. Most were killed within a few miles of the Loch Garry Game Reserve and a large number were fawns or young animals below the age of 18 months.

He sees rapid depletion of the deer population in this area and Mr. Munro feels a closed season for deer is needed over at least a three-year period.

WON NURSING BURSARY — Miss Vivian Nan Blair, a third-year student nurse at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, was among 18 student nurses chosen by the Association of Nurses of Quebec to receive an undergraduate bursary from the Quebec Floral Industry. Bursaries were presented at the first annual Bal des Fleurs held in the Windsor Hotel when each recipient also was presented with a bouquet of red roses. Miss Blair is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Blair, Dalkeith, and a graduate of Glengarry District High School.

Technical Course To Grade 10 Planned At Char-Lan High

Installation of television facilities to meet new techniques in education is being contemplated by the Char-Lan school board, according to Roy Nichol, chairman of the board. He was speaking at the annual commencement exercises of Charlottenburgh-Lancaster District High School, held Friday night at Williamstown.

Mr. Nichol said the Board plans to institute a technical course up to Grade 10 and then provide further technical education through other district high schools.

He reviewed the many problems and challenges facing Char-Lan.

The school building must be expanded; commercial facilities are over-crowded; gymnasium, library and cafeteria are used for classes.

"We have reached a stage in the school's development," said Mr. Nichol, "where any increase of students at the Grade Nine level will make overcrowding a serious problem."

Calibre of teaching staff has improved, he said. Ten of 19 teachers took extra training last year; 14 have more than the basic Bachelor of Arts degree.

"In a province where one-half the secondary school teachers have less than five years experience," said Mr. Nichol, "11 of our teachers have more than five years experience, six of them with 10 years or more, two of the remaining eight with four years."

The principal, D. M. C. Shaw, said the Robarts Plan has placed a great onus on teachers and parents because students must decide in Grade Eight, Nine or 10 whether to enter the four-year or pre-university course.

The "pressures", the "heavy load" of work done by students especially in Grade 13, will not become lighter.

Valedictorian Garry Legault, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Legault, RR 1 Martintown, is studying applied science (engineering) at Queen's University.

He called on his fellow graduates to be true to themselves.

This, he said, simplifies life, although challenges and times of uncertainty must still be overcome.

His success at school, he attributed to good fellow students and teachers always prepared to sacrifice their own time to help a student in difficulty.

"I have learned," he said, "that when a class works together in unison, relentlessly striving to benefit each one of its members, the results cannot be other than beneficial to everyone involved."

Inscribed Watch Presented Warden

Counties Council will conclude its 1964 sittings, Friday when it is expected work of the November session will have been completed.

Warden Lloyd McHugh received the traditional gold watch at Wednesday afternoon's session when a Bulova President, suitably inscribed, was presented him on behalf of his confreres.

Roxborough Township Reeve Charles Blair took the chair for the brief presentation ceremony. Don Kyle, reeve of Williamsburg Township, read an address and the presentation was made by Archibald MacDonell, reeve of Charlottenburgh.

The address expressed thanks and appreciation for the Alexandria reeve's able leadership of council and pointed out that the qualities of leadership shown by Mr. McHugh as reeve of this town had satisfied his fellow members of counties council of his fitness for the warden's chair. He had ably upheld the many worthy traditions of the office, he was assured. The fine and lasting friendships he had made during his years at the council table would long endure and he was wished well in the years to come.

The inscription on the watch reads: "Presented to Warden Lloyd McHugh by the members of the Council of the United Counties of SD & G, 1964".

Crowded Hall For Ottawa Gathering

The Glengarry Club of Ottawa held its first big gathering last Friday night at HMCS Carleton and the hall proved inadequate to handle comfortably the some 300 who attended. Glengarrians from Montreal, Cornwall and this area were among the large turnout, it is reported.

Club President Ambrose McDonald reports a larger hall will be sought for the next gathering.

Something of the same problem was faced by the Glengarry Club of Montreal at its November 6th gathering. The large turnout taxed the facilities of the Blue Bird Reception Hall where that gathering was held.

Toronto Glengarrians have their turn next Friday night, the eve of Grey Cup day, when they hold their buffet supper and dance in the ANAVIC Hall on Dufferin Street.

First Weaving This Afternoon

First weaving of cloth in the new Square C textile plant is due to get underway about 3.30 this afternoon, according to plant officials. Two looms are now operational and they will start producing today.

Some 60 looms have been moved in and are being prepared for operations.

Company officials have received approval from the Education Department for the second class under Plan 5 and men were being interviewed today. It is expected 45 to 50 will start the training course Monday.

Town Assessment Tops $2,500,000

Alexandria's assessment is now over the two and a half million mark for purposes of the 1965 taxation roll according to figures supplied by Clerk-Treasurer Don Collin.

Assessment rose by $85,814, to a total of $2,502,800 on the new roll on which next year's taxes will be based. This will be still further increased by year's end, it is expected. Square C Textiles and other new building now in process of completion will be added to the taxable assessment as they become operational.

There will be no fixed assessment for purposes of 1965 taxation, both Carnation and Brown Shoe plants reverting to the ordinary assessment.

The 1964 taxes were based on an assessment value of $2,416,986, with the fixed assessment at $2,179,936.

Brigade Helps Check Farm Fire

Alexandria firemen were successful Sunday afternoon in checking a fire on the farm of W. E. Deguire, 9th Lancaster.

The blaze broke out in a shed near the Deguire house which was used as a garage. The flames had reached the shingled roof by the time firemen arrived but they succeeded in controlling the outbreak without further spread.

Origin of the fire is believed to have been from a box stove in the shed. The call came in about 4.15 p.m.

Sister M. Edwin Was 69 Years In Holy Cross Order

The funeral of Sister M. of Et. Edwin was held at the Mother House of the Sisters of Holy Cross, Saint Laurent, Que., on November 10th.

The deceased religious was born at lot 33 in the 5th Lochiel, on the third of November, 1877, daughter of John McDonald and Janet Macdonell. She was christened Christina Teresa on November 10 by her uncle, Alexander Macdonell, later Bishop Alexander Macdonell of Alexandria.

Sister M. Edwin entered the Holy Cross Congregation in September 1895 and made profession of perpetual vows in 1903. Hers was the joy of celebrating the Golden, Diamond and Ruby Jubilees of her religious profession in 1948, 1958, and 1963 respectively.

Sister M. Edwin devoted fifty years of her life to teaching, retiring from the profession in 1948. These years for the greater part, were divided between Alexandria and Renfrew where she lived her last 28 years of active life in the field of education.

Following her retirement Sister spent six years at St. Margaret's Convent, Alexandria, and in 1957, after a serious fall, was removed to the Mother House infirmary where she continued to enjoy comparatively good health until her last brief illness.

One brother, Alex. B. McDonald, of Lochiel, survives. Sister M. Willibrod, also of the Holy Cross Order, died in 1948. A nephew, Edwin McDonald and two nieces, Mrs. J. J. McCormick and Mrs. Omer Poirier, also mourn the loss of a beloved aunt.

Veteran Choir Member Feted At Kirk Hill

On Saturday evening Nov. 14th the members and friends of Kirk Hill United Church Choir met at the Church hall to honor E. L. D. MacMillan who took an active part in the choir for over fifty years.

Rev. John Hurst was chairman for a musical program of pipe and drum selections by Edwin Sproule and Gail Campbell; accordian music by Charles MacLeod; violin selections by Mrs. Clarence MacMillan and Gail Campbell, a piano solo. Everyone then joined in community singing with Mrs. C. MacMillan at the piano and Mr. MacMillan singing My Bonnie Native Glen.

Rev. John Hurst spoke of Mr. MacMillan's interest in the choir and all activities at the church. He then called on W. R. MacLeod who presented him with an engraved, gold-banded cane. Mr. MacMillan fittingly replied and spoke of the happy recollections he had of choir practice in different homes over the years. With the singing of "Will Ye No' Come Back Again" and "Auld Lang Syne" the program was brought to a close.

Lunch was served by the ladies and a social hour enjoyed by all.

Organ Traced

Who won the Bell organ at the St. Raphael's Picnic in 1889?, we were asked last week. And two of our readers have come up with the answer.

John S. McDonald, Glen Roy's walking encyclopaedia, phoned in Friday to tell us it had been won by Catherine McDonald, an aunt of the late John Archie Kennedy of Glen Roy. He could even tell us it had been a fixture in the Kennedy home for decades and only in recent years had been transformed into a desk by Robert McDonell.

His report was confirmed Monday by John D. MacRae, St. Raphael's, who reported it had gone to the home of his grandfather, Alex Roy Kennedy. Mrs. McDonald was a member of that family.

Sold Share In Glengarry Gardens

One of the seven owners of Glengarry Gardens, Louis Shepherd last week sold his share to Raymond Ouellette, electrician. The deal involved Mr. Shepherd's purchase of the building which houses the Dairy Queen on Main Street South.

Another recent purchase by Mr. Shepherd was the lots adjoining the Curling Rink and fronting on Kincardine St. West, from the A. G. F. Macdonald estate.

Marked Golden Wedding Date

The first couple to be married in the newly organized St. Anthony's Parish at Apple Hill in 1914, Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. (Hughie Philip) MacDonald marked their golden wedding date on Sunday.

They were "At Home" to some 200 relatives and friends during afternoon and evening. Their six children were with them for the occasion and made a presentation to their parents.

Mrs. MacDonald is the former Mary Belle MacLennan of Apple Hill and they have been lifelong, respected residents of the area.

The children are: Glenn of St Andrew's; Hugh Allan of Alexandria; Norma, Mrs. Arnold Pulfer; Roseal, Mrs. James Bentley and Phyllis, Mrs. John Francis MacDonell, all of Cornwall; Hazel, Mrs. Noel Casgrain of Summerstown.

Dr. Baker Died On 91st Birthday

Dr. James Y. Baker who had practised medicine at Dalhousie Mills and later in Alexandria over a period of 63 years, died Monday in Cornwall General Hospital following a ten-day illness. Death came on Dr. Baker's 91st birthday.

Despite his advancing years Dr. Baker had remained in good health until his final illness and had continued to treat patients at his home here since retiring from his practice at Dalhousie Mills in 1946. He was always available in an emergency and many who had benefitted from his long experience in medicine learned with regret of his death.

One of the oldest practicing physicians in Canada, Dr. Baker was honored by the Counties' Medical Association in 1951 on attaining his golden anniversary in medicine.

A native of Summerstown, Dr. James Yeo Baker was a son of Captain A. J. Baker and his wife, Elizabeth Cameron. His father had spent his life on the St. Lawrence-Great Lakes system where he had served as captain of both passenger and cargo vessels.

After graduating from Williamstown High School, Dr. Baker attended Queen's University where he was awarded his Arts degree in 1896 and his MDCM in 1899. He came to Dalhousie Mills in 1901 and served residents on both sides of the border over a period of 45 years. At one time Dr. Baker kept two teams of horses for use in covering his large practice.

A member of the United Counties Medical Association, Lancaster Masonic Lodge and other organizations, he had concentrated most of his activity on his professional duties. Always interested in athletics, Dr. Baker had held an intercollegiate boxing championship while a student at Queen's.

To mourn he leaves his wife, the former Mary Sharkey, two sons and two daughters: James, a teacher at Glengarry District High School here; Andrew of Cornwall; Patricia, Mrs. Harvey Hassard of Ottawa, and Mary, Mrs. Frank McLeister, Alexandria. Twenty grandchildren also survive as does a brother, John Baker of White Rock, B.C.

A sister, Miss Harriet Baker of Summerstown, died in April.

The largely attended funeral was held Wednesday, leaving the family home, St. George Street for Dalhousie Mills United Church, where the service was conducted by Rev. L. S. Woolfrey.

The pallbearers were: Captain Ronald Baker of Air Canada, Montreal; Dr. Allan McLeod, Cornwall; Arthur Gunn, Chesley, Ontario; Mayor Raymond Periard, Alexandria; Harris Bathurst and Walter McCuaig, Dalhousie.

The United Counties Medical Association was represented in the large cortege. Relatives and friends were present from Montreal, Ottawa, Cornwall and many other points.

Form Scout Group At Sacred Heart

A new Boy Scout troop has been formed in Sacred Heart Parish here and it will be affiliated with Les Scouts Catholique du Canada.

Meetings have been held over the past six weeks and have been well attended by enthusiastic youngsters who have already started their tenderfoot tests. Plans for an initiation ceremony are now being made.

Troop colors of the 1st Alexandria Troop will be red, gold and blue.

Lucien Chenier is Scoutmaster and his assistants are Yvon Lalonde and Raymond Gauthier. Troop leaders are Paul Rochon and Jean Marc Boisvenue.

Drive Underway

"No Christmas card or parcel mailed without the Christmas seal."

That is the slogan adopted by the St. Lawrence Tuberculosis Association for their Christmas Seal campaign which got underway Monday.

At a meeting held at the Cornwall Health Unit, William Legault, president of the association, said this year's goal is $20,000. The seals have been sent out with instructions for returning donations.

Kenneth McKinnon, Christmas seal campaign chairman, explained that the Christmas seals you buy this year will be used to support tuberculosis surveys such as the one recently conducted in Dundas and Stormont Counties.

Christmas seal donations are also used to help in the rehabilitation of patients after they are released from St. Lawrence Sanatorium and to support the free chest X-ray services available to all.

Mrs. Alice McCanse, executive secretary of the association, said a party will be given for sanatorium patients Dec. 9 and gifts will be presented.

Siren Now Ready

The new fire siren was hooked up on a permanent basis Monday and it will be in use from now on.

Many Mourn Mrs. D. Jeaurond

A large family connection which includes one hundred grandchildren and 120 great grandchildren mourn the death of Mrs. Denis Jeaurond, 2nd Lochiel. Her death, at 91, occurred Sunday at the Racine Nursing Home, Casselman.

Mrs. Jeaurond had been in ill health for some time.

Born at Pointe Fortune, she was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jeremie Quenneville. She was married to the late Denis Jeaurond who predeceased her three years ago.

She is survived by seven sons and seven daughters. The sons are Andre of Dalkeith; Jeremie, St. Catharines; Ferdinand, Little Long Lake, Ont.; Joseph and Isaiah of Cornwall; and William and Evariste, both of Alexandria.

Outdoor Work At Hospital Completed

Outside work at the Glengarry Memorial Hospital has been completed for this year and only landscaping and sodding remain to be done in the Spring.

Laundry equipment is being installed this week and a start is being made on painting the downstairs area. Work on the floors and electrical connections is virtually completed.

Alexandria Nominations To Be Held In Alexander Hall Next Wednesday

Municipal nominations in Alexandria next Wednesday evening will be held in Alexander Hall, town council decided at its meeting, Tuesday, when the necessary by-law was passed. Nomination of candidates will be between the hours of 7 and 8 p.m., following which nominees will be called on to address the meeting.

The decision to hold the meeting in Alexander Hall was made in light of crowded conditions in the courtroom where previous nominations have been held.

Clerk-Treasurer Don Collin reminds that Tuesday, November 24th, is the last day for filing appeals by those qualified voters whose names may have been left off the voters list in error. He suggests all should check to see that they are properly listed.

At Tuesday's meeting Board of Trade President John G. Proulx, was present to outline the board's plans for the Christmas season. Council authorized the board to erect a Christmas tree on each side of the Mill Square at Main, rather than the single one in the centre of the Square which was a traffic hazard. The board is also authorized to use one of the parking spaces on which to erect a snuggery for Santa Claus to occupy during the six shopping days preceding Christmas.

The usual light and evergreen decorations will be put up on poles through the Main Street business section and on other streets where there are places of business.

The tender of J. E. Ranger for snow removal was accepted. He will be paid $9 per hour, with no minimum, for use of tractor and blower.

The construction by-law for water mains on Glencoe and Kenyon Streets was passed, pending approval of the Ontario Municipal Board. Estimated cost is $13,810.

Mayor Raymond Periard reported he had received quite a few complaints of indiscriminate dumping of fill and sand on the lake borders. Council passed a resolution prohibiting the dumping of any matter in the Old Mill lake without prior permission of building inspector and council.

IT'S OUR OPINION

Strong Leadership Needed

Nomination night in Alexandria is less than one week away and this year it is particularly important that our citizens take a considered interest in what transpires at Wednesday night's municipal nominations.

On the type of citizen nominated for council and Public Utilities Commission Wednesday, will in large measure depend the quality of leadership our town will have over the next two years. And these years will demand leadership of a high order. Our town is on the move and if our growth is to be orderly and sane, planning and foresight of a high order will be needed.

If Alexandria is to double its population over the next five years, as is being predicted, expansion of our boundaries will be involved. The expert advice of a qualified town planning consultant should be made available to council before any move for expropriation of suburban areas is even considered. There must be planning of through streets to cope with the heavier traffic of a larger town; parking will be even more of a problem than it is today; water, sewer lines and other services will require forethought if we are to avoid costly duplication and the replacement of existing lines.

The town council that we elect on December 7th will be called on to deal with problems as diverse as police and fire protection, recreation facilities, new housing, the opening of new streets. As our assessment rises, council will be expected to adapt itself to the broadening base on which our mill rate depends. Inevitably the cost of municipal administration will go up, but careful planning by a capable council can minimize our growing pains. If we continue to develop willy-nilly, costly foul-ups lie ahead and our future progress will be impeded.

As with the council we elect this year, so must the Public Utilities Commission be made up of men with vision and sound business ability. Our water and power needs must be planned with an eye for future requirements, the problems of maintenance will multiply.

There are good men on both town council and the PUC now. They have put us on the road to progress this year and there have been many extra demands on their time and services to cope with the problems that arose. This has been but a sampling of what is to come, however. The problems will be tenfold in the years ahead and if they are to be dealt with to our mutual benefit there is no room on either body for deadwood. The least their fellow citizens can do is to provide complete slates of capable men or women to cope with our municipal growing pains.

The important first step to election of progressive people is to ensure their nomination and their willingness to serve. Then we must see that they are supported at the polls.

Our town of tomorrow depends on the type of leadership we give it today.

To Help Stamp Out TB

A reminder that Christmas is coming closer arrived in Saturday's mail, that packet of Christmas seals sent out by the St. Lawrence Tuberculosis Association. On the generous response of residents of these United Counties depends to a large extent the continuing fight to eradicate tuberculosis from this area of the province that suffers most from its scourge.

That the fight must go on is evidenced by the fact that 62 patients were admitted to St. Lawrence Sanatorium this year. That at least one of the objectives of this Association is being met, is shown by the fact 67 patients were released from the San this year and are being rehabilitated.

That is not the primary purpose of the St. Lawrence Tuberculosis Association. Its first concern is with uncovering possibly unsuspected cases of the disease and thus preventing its spread through entire families and neighborhoods. To this purpose mass chest surveys have been held in Cornwall and throughout the three counties over the past two years.

Your purchase of Christmas seals helps finance these surveys and the rehabilitation of those afflicted. You are asked to spread the gospel of TB eradication by seeing that no Christmas card or parcel is mailed out without its quota of Christmassy seals.

Your donation to the Christmas seals' fund can help wipe out that stigma. Send it now, before the many other demands on your Christmas charity become pressing.

Their Education Is Being Neglected

For the moment at least, our town has given up its plans for a centennial project that would have included a public library.

There is only a limited demand for a library, it seems, and we could wish for a more widespread appreciation of what reading can do to make for a fuller life, to broaden the horizons of the mind, to entertain, to educate. Since before the one-room school flourished, reading has been the first of the three R's. Before one learns to write or to calculate, one must be able to read. This is the basic skill, primary to any other, and the more one reads the better educated one must become, inevitably.

The omniverous reader absorbs a fund of knowledge from the pages his eyes peruse. People who seldom, if ever, read must be less imaginative, more narrow in their outlook. The town, then, that encourages its citizens to be well-read must boast a superior type of being to one that lacks the facilities for education that broad reading can bring.

Young Canada Book Week is being observed across Canada this week; but not in Alexandria where our young people are not being encouraged to reap the benefits of wide reading. The following Book Week message was written by Dr. John B. MacDonald, President of the University of British Columbia. We reprint it in the hope some of its appreciation of reading will rub off:

The world of books
Is the most remarkable creation of man.
Nothing else that he builds ever lasts
Monuments fall
Nations perish
Civilizations grow old and die out
And after an era of darkness
New races build others.
But in the world of books are volumes
That have seen this happen again and again,
And yet live on,
Still young
Still as fresh as the day they were written
Still telling men's hearts
Of the hearts of men centuries dead.

Wars have been fought over books, men have burned at the stake along with their books. Some people in North America work overtime at banning books. A catalogue of forbidden volumes would have some surprises in it, such as Alice in Wonderland being condemned at one time in Japan.

But what is needed in this equation to endow books with the power to move mountains or the power to change history? A reader! Perhaps just one reader, or alternately, millions of readers. In a single instance — Michael Faraday in England in the last century. Faraday, a book-binder's apprentice with little formal education, was a prodigious reader, despite warnings not to waste his time on the contents but to attend only to the covering of the volumes with leather. History does not record how trimly and solidly he bound the books entrusted to him, but his later discoveries in electricity and chemistry are what we live by today.

I think also about the Wright Brothers and the significant role one particular book played in their lives. They happened to have in their home an English translation of "Animal Motion" by Professor Marey, of Paris. Marey had been a pioneer in the study of birds' wings and their curvature in flight, and is still known for some of the medical research instruments which he invented. How did this particular book get into this particular home? We only know that the Wright Brothers studied it until they knew every page. At all events, it was an important factor in an invention that helped to create the world of aviation and to change the course of history itself.

Just as surely, however, the failure to read books will change history, — for the worse. A generation of children raised without books would not be a lost generation but a dangerous generation. Children robbed of books can be children robbed of their birthright.

In a world where the work week is ever-shortening, and where leisure presents an ever-broadening opportunity, adults need books to keep them sane. Only if they have come to know the pleasure inherent in good books in childhood, are they likely to turn to them for refreshment, inspiration and enjoyment in adult life. Therefore, during Young Canada's Book Week, let us rededicate ourselves to opening new doors to the world of books for all children in this country.

A HUNTER IS A HUNTER

Alexandria, Ont.

The editor
The Glengarry News,

For the past few weeks you have had items in the Glengarry News about idiots who go around causing damage with guns. I agree with you that a lot of damage is done this way. What I disagree with is your use of the word hunter in describing these people. Hunters who are serious about their sport do not cause damage; vandals and hoodlums cause damage. You are classifying anyone with a gun a hunter; a gun does not make a hunter, just as a golf club or curling stone makes a golfer or curler.

The enclosed editorial I think explains a hunter and his sport. I would like to see the positive side of hunting get a little good publicity. If you print the editorial please credit the Ontario Fish and Wild Life Review and I hope you print it.

Yours truly
A. Peterson

Editor's note: Sorry, the enclosed editorial was most interesting but more than a bit too long for copying here.

It may seem harsh, but a lot of our newspaper men seem disappointed over the Queen's visit to Quebec. Nothing happened to make them bring out their red ink. Remember the field-day some of them had after the Dallas incident?

PARENT COACHES

Summer or winter it is the same hard core of dedicated and tireless parents who turn out to coach and manage their own and other-parents' children in the various sports of the season . . . It is time we doffed our caps to these people who are helping our kids to stay on the court rather than in the court.

SADDER SERVICE

According to the old riddle there were three ways of spreading the word — telephone, telegraph and tell a woman. Now there are only two for many people in the small towns at least.

It's not as easy to send a telegram as it used to be. For instance you can't file a telegram from our local station after 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Ours has deteriorated to a one-shift station and the wire is closed off at 4 p.m., not to resume its circuit until next morning at 7.

With the closing down of stations and entire lines across the country there must be a lot of towns one can no longer reach by telegram.

This deterioration of a once-sol-

WHERE THERE'S SMOKE THERE'S FIRE

Isn't it funny how some incident that happened many years ago will suddenly, for no reason at all, reappear in one's memory.

A few days ago I recalled a most trivial incident that took place about 1940, that puzzled my friend Leslie Dalvine and me but afterwards gave us a good laugh. We were driving in the neighborhood of Stanstead on a combined business and pleasure trip. In Sherbrooke, on a Saturday in May we bought some loose raisins and shelled walnuts for emergency rations, for we intended to fish on Sunday, probably at some place where there were no restaurants . . .

On the Monday, returning via Ayer's Cliff, we smelt smoke while driving. It had a suggestion of burnt sugar and presumed it came from some farmhouse. But the smell persisted. Something in the car was burning! Leslie was smoking but this was no tobacco smoke. I stopped the car. We got out and inspected the rear seat, under the seats, and under the car. Everything seemed to be in order. Then Leslie noticed his cigarette, and the mystery was solved. A single raisin had got in with his tobacco and he had rolled it into the cigarette! When the fire hit it, it swelled up like a Christmas pudding!

Which goes to show that there is a material explanation for every puzzling situation, and also shows that the most trivial and long-forgotten event is permanently stored away in some remote brain cell, not to be recalled at will, but to snap into focus by itself, any old time!

Be seein' ya!

RINK PACKED FOR OPENING NIGHT

Maxville's skating arena held "Opening Night" on Tuesday, November 10th, with an attendance that taxed the capacity of the building as fans came from the east, the west, the north and the south for their first glimpse of the artificial ice recently installed in Jubilee Rink.

Maxville has long been regarded as a hockey center with open-air rinks since the turn of the century; one was in the vicinity of the present Community Hall; another was to the north west of, and not too far from the CNR station.

Citizens who saw the village take shape and grow and with churches and schools adequately completed, had further interests in the well being of their young people and another dream — a covered rink.

Whole-hearted co-operation soon made this dream a reality and in the fall of 1931 Jubilee Rink was built and officially opened with Hon. George Challies as guest speaker.

The better players of former years had been induced to other towns but despite this, the Millionaires came into being, and within a short period of time put Maxville on the map.

They distinguished themselves for fast play and clean, manly sportsmanship and won the Citizen Shield in the first year it was open to competition.

Time and circumstances brought many changes. This year of 1964 sees said rink modernized and on a par with those in the Ottawa Valley.

Lorne Lawson, principal of the Maxville and District High School, presided for the brief program on opening night with the Glengarry Pipe Band playing the opening number. Reeve Hugh Smith voiced a warm welcome to all and declared the rink with its newly installed artificial ice officially opened. Osie F. Vilieneuve, MPP and Manager Romeo Poirier extended greetings both in English and French.

Roderick MacLennan, on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, presented a cheque for $500.00. The flowers in the rink that evening were a gift from Wilkinson's Florists.

Following the singing of "God Save The Queen" Reeve Smith made the opening face-off for the first hockey game on the new ice with Montreal Junior Canadiens meeting and winning over Little Nation League All-Stars.

Rambling . . .

vent service has come about in the name of progress — progress for one small segment of society, the railway employees, at the expense of all the people. The railway unions, with a big assist from government due to public ownership of the CNR, have priced their members out of jobs and the nation out of service, through too-high wage demands and a multitude of featherbedding practices.

The current fight over featherbedding is taking place at the divisional points of Nakina and Wainwright. In the interests of efficiency the CNR planned to run through these points where once steam-engine crews had to be changed. A work-stoppage followed. CNR employees who have been moonlighting, doing other work during long time-offs from their railway employment, refuse to move and so there was a mass stoppage of service as train crews reported "sick".

As usual the politicians lined up on the side of the labor vote, to protect the CNR's move for more efficiency of operation.

And so the railways continue to be priced out of service. Soon we'll have no telegraph service at all; ultimately we'll have no railways.

Maxville High School Retains Junior Interscholastic Title With 13-0 Win

Undefeated in league play for the second straight season, Maxville District High School retained the junior interscholastic football league championship, Saturday. Playing on their own gridiron, before a large turnout of fans from both schools, the Maxville juniors turned back Alexandria's challenge with a 13-0 victory.

Donald Pilon scored both majors for the home team, one on a 55-yard pass and run from Quarterback Dave Munro and the second on a recovered Alexandria fumble.

The first convert was blocked but Munro made sure of the second.

Terry Brennan, coach of the junior champs, is hopeful the Maxville school will be able to field an entry in the senior league next year.

Minor Leaguers To Play At Maxville

Minor league hockeyists from Alexandria have accepted an invitation to use Maxville arena ice. At a meeting last Thursday it was decided to ice one team in each age group for play at Maxville. The teams will be of the all-star variety.

Try-outs are being held at Maxville Saturday afternoon and boys wishing to play are to gather at the Hub at 2 p.m. Volunteer transport is needed.

Sprites, Peewees, bantams and midgets will have the ice for an hour in that order, from 2 to 6 p.m.

LEGION-AIRES

It was gratifying, indeed, to see the large number on parade on November 11th. It was the largest turnout in a good many years, and our heartfelt thanks are extended to Parade Marshall John G. Proulx, the Glengarry Highlanders Band, the organizers of the program which was carried out with precision and decorum and the Ladies' Auxiliary, Veterans, citizens and those who participated and helped to observe another year of Remembrance.

The ladies are to be congratulated again for the wonderful lunch and their names should be submitted for the award of "The Hostess With The Mostess".

Congratulation to Donald John MacGillivray, veteran of the South African Campaign, our 84-years-young comrade who breezed in and helped make the social the grand success it was.

Florient Lecuyer was the seller of winning ticket for the $1000.00 draw won by Mrs. Alfred St. Louis of Maxville. Good going Florient.

Figures on the Poppy Blitz will be available for our next column.

Dates to Remember:

The annual banquet of the Glengarry Ayrshire Club will be held on Tuesday, November 24, 1964, at 7.15 p.m. in the St. Andrews United Church Hall, Martintown. The guest speaker for the evening will be John Dalrymple of the Kemptville Agricultural School, a former agricultural representative in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. MacIlwraith of the Balig Ayrshire Herd in Scotland, who are currently visiting the area, will be attending the banquet. Mr. MacIlraith has been a particularly successful breeder of Ayrshire cattle, Leicester sheep and Clydesdale horses. It is also hoped that Allan Barr of Hobsland, will be able to be present. It is planned to present a number of trophies and certificates won by Ayrshire Breeders and 4-H Calf Club Members in 1964.

The Ayrshire Cattle Club of Ontario has made available a ball point pen for each 4-H club member in the county who exhibited an Ayrshire calf at their Achievement Day. These pens will be available for the members or their parents at the banquet.

The annual meeting of the Glengarry Ayrshire Club will be held on Tuesday, December 15, at 1.30 p.m. in the Charlottenburgh Township Hall in Williamstown.

Youth Caught After Fast Chase

A spectacular chase Saturday along Highway 401 at speeds reaching 100 miles an hour has resulted in the arrest of a Montreal man who is facing a total of nine charges.

Richard Mertick, 19, of 7752 Outremont Avenue, Montreal, was remanded in Magistrate's Court at Alexandria Tuesday. He faces counts of speeding, careless driving, operating a vehicle without a driver's licence and possession of a firearm in an automobile.

Police said Mertick also faces a charge of car theft in Toronto and will likely be charged on four counts of theft under $50.

Investigating officer OPP Cst. L. C. Kell of Lancaster detachment, said the incident began at about 1.50 p.m. Saturday.

The 1963 model car involved was reported stolen in Toronto and was bearing licence plates reported stolen in London township.

The driver was being sought for non-payment of gasoline purchases at Woodstock and Odessa. Police were alerted when a car left a Long Sault service station without paying for gasoline.

After it left Long Sault the licence number was checked and it was discovered the plates had been stolen.

Cst. Kell was west of the Westley Creek overpass when he spotted the vehicle in question and flagged it to stop.

But instead of stopping the car sped off down Highway 401 at a speed of 100 miles an hour. Cst. Kell gave pursuit at the same speed. The chase continued for some five miles.

At the entrance ramp to the Curry Hill Sideroad the driver attempted to enter the ramp at 100 miles an hour, lost control and skidded for some 300 feet along the ramp, then left the road skidding for another 140 feet.

Damage to the car was estimated at $25.

Mertick was subsequently arrested and taken to United Counties Jail in Cornwall to await appearance in court.

Many Mourn Accident Victim

The esteem and sorrow shown in the untimely death of a young Cornwall man were exemplified at the funeral of Leonard Donald Martel which took place from Miller's Funeral Home to St. John Bosco Church and St. Columban's cemetery. He was a son of Donald Martel and the late Sadie MacMillan, formerly of Strathmore.

Relatives and friends who attended were from Alexandria, Apple Hill, Greenfield, Monkland, Moose Creek and the surrounding districts. Also attending were relatives and friends from Syracuse, Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto.

He leaves to mourn his loss his father, two brothers, Glenn and Cameron, and his step-mother, the former Agnes Kennedy.

WHO PAYS

if you are responsible for an automobile accident after your insurance policy has lapsed?

You do!

When you allow your insurance policy to lapse you immediately become an uninsured motor vehicle owner. Before you drive, you must either pay the $20 uninsured motor vehicle fee at a Department of Transport licence agency office or renew your insurance, or you will be liable to a fine of up to $500.

The $20 fee gives you NO protection whatever. If there is a claim against you as an uninsured motor vehicle owner for which you are liable, it will be paid by the Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Fund, but you must repay the fund. You will not be allowed to own or operate a motor vehicle until you make arrangements to do so.

Judgments up to $25,000 are not uncommon. A debt of this size could seriously hamper your family's future. Protect your future. The wisest course is to buy automobile liability insurance and keep it in force. Always carry your insurance card in your automobile.

SPORTS in the GLENS

by ANGUS H. McDONELL

While ivisiting recently in Scotland, we were told frequently that Glengarrians are really more Scottish than the Clans in the Highlands.

There was further evidence that this reasoning is true when the Ottawa Glengarry Club held their first entertainment last Friday night. Glengarrians from the Glens, Cornwall and Montreal joined their Ottawa kinfolk in such large numbers that the HMCS Carleton Recreation Hall was far too small.

The lack of space did not create a lack of enthusiasm as all realized the executive underestimated the attendance. It was heart-warming to those of us who have been around for a while to witness this fine response in acknowledging a young, vigorous Club bent on maintaining for another cycle Highland traditions.

While on this theme it is pleasing to note that energetic citizen and businessman of Ourtown, John Proulx, and his Board of Trade executive, are reviving St. Andrew's Ball. Following World War One a St. Andrew's Ball in the Armouries was not only a fashionable event but the social highlight of the year.

Although the date is Monday, November 30, and our usual quota of weekend guests will be unable to attend, however, the Board of Trade deserve patronage as the proceeds are to be turned over to the Memorial Hospital Board.

St. Andrew's weekend appears to be on the hectic side. Father McPhail's Friday and Saturday night annual concerts; St. Andrew's Friday night dance in Dunvegan sponsored by the Glengarry Pipe Band; the Grey Cup play on Saturday, and St. Andrew's Ball in the Armouries on Monday. Tuesday's breakfast may be similiar to that noted quip by a Glengarry sportsman, when he suggested to his wife following an Ottawa football victory soiree that all he wanted for breakfast was a cup of coffee and a few kind words.

Regardless of this Saturday's football final results, Ottawa's 30-13 clipping of the Ti-Cat claws in the first round may silence, at least for another year, the claim by some fans that Frank Clair should be fired, not rehired, and Rough Riders made a mistake in keeping Russ Jackson instead of Ron Lancaster.

Sport fans pay the freight and it is their prerogative to become disgruntled when their favorite club is not producing. However, we don't go along with the thought that Frank Clair is not a capable coach. Toronto has not recovered from the day Argos fired the same Frank Clair. Montreal fans wanted the scalp of "Peahead" Walker and this was granted with that infamous Canadian sport trade (Etcheverry, Patterson) thrown in for good measure. True, from what we heard authentically, Walker was losing favor, however, he did lead Alouettes to Grey Cup finals. Wasn't that important? When we read or listen to those reports that outstanding coaches, in any game, of the Frank Clair calibre should be fired due to a mid-season slump and player tension for a few games, we think this is grossly unfair to the clubs concerned in particular, and sport in general.

Lately we have sat in on more than a few discussions, not to mention direct inquiries, relative to the Alexandria Council — Glengarry Gardens controversy. What bugs the consensus opinion of sport fans in and out of the Glens, especially those interested in the welfare of our youth, is the refusal of Town Council to permit a vote for or against the purchase.

Similar to this writer, many outspoken citizens and sport fans are not tax payers of Alexandria, hence whether or not the Town buys the Gardens is none of our business. However, once any individual or group trespasses on the right to vote, then that is a different matter.

Quite a number from the Glens lie in Flanders Fields, having paid the supreme sacrifice in two World Wars so that we could maintain two of Democracy's basic principles — freedom of speech and freedom to vote.

In this case, the majority of an obviously divided council has refused their electors' demand to exercise one of man's greatest privileges — the right to vote.

This smacks of behind the Iron and Bamboo Curtain dictatorship, not democracy, especially as outlined by one of United States' immortal presidents, Abraham Lincolm, who declared at Gettysburg that government of the people, by the people, for the people shall not perish from the earth.

Sport fans extend to Jim and the Baker families sincere sympathy in the death of the late Dr. Baker, one of Glengarry's grand old men.

HITHER AND YON

That indomitable sportsman, Bill Cumming, and his Dodgers are faced with a tough schedule this week following their opening loss by a narrow margin . . . thanks to Bill and his Lancaster associates for keeping the Glens in Senior Hockey . . . Ben Villeneuve and new rink manager, Romeo Poirier, Maxville, delegates to the Little Nation Hockey League . . . Ben tells us they are lining up a contending squad . . . we venture to say that come Springtime playoffs the Maxville rink will be reminiscent of Millionaire Club days.

Ottawa Glengarry Club President Ambrose (Farmer) McDonald and his sprightly executive were fine hosts last Friday night at their initial "do" . . . a bigger hall and a bigger crowd next time . . . Past President (by about 15 years) Murray MacQueen wearing a Top Brass smile . . . Folks were there from the four corners of the Glens besides Montreal, Cornwall and similar flag stations . . . Cliff Britton on hand and what would a Glengarry Night be without Cliff and his violin . . . Mrs. Britton, too, of course . . . best wishes from all of us to the Brittons who celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary this Friday, November 20, at the Bonnie Glen.

The current drought is so severe that not only have Glengarry wells gone dry, but also the HMCS Carleton bar went dry last Friday night one half hour before closing time . . . Obviously, the sailors underestimated the extent of the thirst and depth of Glengarrians' capacity . . . Guy and Mrs. (Lancaster-Ottawa) Bougie were hosts to friends holding quite a "Kaylee" after the party . . . Nurse Jean McIntosh was honored with a birthday cake, candles and all . . . Switching to football, when Sam Scoccia (pronounced Scotia) was helped off the field the same Guy Bougie chuckled, "Wonder if Frank Clair will send in Nova" . . . Once again, we now buckle the saddle on the Chrysler and accompany the Rough Riders on that long trek from Bytown to Tigertown . . . Many similar journeys down through the years have ended in gloom, but not all . . . This Saturday could be the game when a still fired up football team makes the law of averages, that you can't always lose in Hamilton, come true . . . So, with a smile and an encouraging pat on the back from one of Rough Riders' greatest fans, Mrs. Duncan (Sadie the Banker) MacDonell, we will concede that Ti-Cats could win the game, but not total points.

News from Here and There . . .

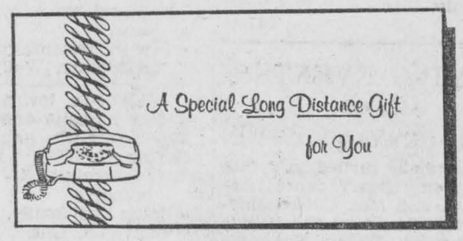
BELL LINES

by L. M. Holtby
your telephone manager



Would you be surprised to open your Christmas mail next month and find a card like this. I'll bet you would be, and very pleasantly, too. And you'd soon find that a gift of Long Distance service has a pleasant "rebound" effect: making your calls, for example, will not only please you, but those you call.

And it's all so simple! To give a gift of Long Distance service, Alexandria customers need only call our Business Office at Zenith 60000 to give us the name, address, and telephone number of the recipient, and state the amount ($2.00 minimum) to be credited to his or her account for Long Distance calling. We look after it from there, and will even send out the card ourselves, if you wish! There's no fuss, no bother, and . . . no extra charge!

GOT YOUR NUMBER

Have you ever wondered why telephone repairmen and service representatives always ask for your telephone number, even after you've given your name and address? Here's the reason: Since names or addresses are often duplicated, but telephone numbers are always unique, telephone people file records according to telephone numbers. This method guarantees accuracy and insures faster service.

SUPER SLEUTHS

Not all detectives visit the scene of the crime. Nero Wolfe solves murders from his penthouse conservatory. Hercule Poirot retires to exercise "the little grey cells" and telephone men track down reports of trouble from their testboards in the central office. If a telephone man reports that your line has been "fixed" without a house visit, telephone detectives have painstakingly followed clues and located the difficulty, not in your instrument, but in miles of telephone cable or in the complicated switching equipment. And, of course, there's no extra charge . . . prompt, efficient repair work is part of our commitment to provide each customer with good telephone service.
