It's St. Valentine's Day. People who are very shy or cannot express themselves in words -face to face- can buy cards that express their innermost feelings. Be very happy and grateful if you are a recipient. That gal or guy who gave you a card to express loving emotions is every bit as sincere as a smooth talking Romeo, probably more so. Think how many lunch times, and times spent perusing through racks of cards have gone into that final choice and bought especially for you. When I hear some one say "Well, I only got a card," I think, aren't you the lucky one. Read the words over very carefully and know they are meant just for you and come from the heart.

In these times of watching diets or being allergic to flowers, a card is a wonderful gift. A card last long after the roses have faded or the candies have added pounds. Cards don't add weight, they are non-allergenic (mostly) and are wonderful keepsakes.

What is more precious than the heart shaped drawings and crafts that your children bring home from school. The look of love in their eyes and pride on their faces when they give Mom and Dad that special Valentine card, finger painting or pasta craft. Isn't a child's love worth far more than roses or candy and it lasts much longer.

The middle of February is the time when we are fed up with the everlasting icy weather. The time when we need a little special love

Heart Month Officially Started ... City Hall Marks The Start Of "Heart Month"

Gisèle Hayes is one of the volunteer captains of the door-to-door Heart and Stroke campaign. Gisèle will be covering twenty-three blocks to raise money for Heart and Stroke Research in Ontario. She, and other volunteers just like her, will be braving the cold weather this month to greet you at your home. She is the lady behind the flag, sandwiched between Mayor Martelle and big Bob Taylor, the local Vice-President of the foundation.

A love that money cannot buy. A love that even the coldest winter cannot cool. We who are blessed with the love of friendships can also rejoice on this special day.

There are conflicting versions about St. Valentine. Who? Where? etc. Why worry, when you know to bring warmth into our hearts. A time to realize that we are loved in a special way, by our husbands, wives, children and grandchildren. that it is a time to count your blessings.

It's a time to remember all the people whom you have loved and who loved you. They may not be here but they are not forgotten. Know that you love and are loved and if you can't afford flowers or candy, a phone call or a card will be just as much appreciated, probably more so.

St. Valentine's Day is depicted as heart shaped because the true meaning is love from the very heart of us. A day to give thanks for the people who love us, in spite of all our weaknesses. A time to rejoice with, or remember all those we hold dear in our hearts.

There is nothing wrong with being sentimental or "sloppy" or devoted. Maybe if we all were more tolerant and expressed our love more often we would all be better off. A wise man once said, "there is so much good in the worst of us and so much bad in the best of us, that it doesn't behoove any of us to think the worst of the rest of us." How true.

Love takes many forms. Kindness, caring, a quiet word, a smile or just being there when needed to give a helping hand. It's a form of what this day is all about.

I love you, are only three little words spoken in intimacy or in friendship, but they must be sincere. Better with a big hug and a gentle kiss. Happy Valentine's Day to all the friends and lovers and those who are going to be.

Sharon, Lois & Bram On March Break Tour

Tickets go on sale Mon., Feb. 14 for a brand new Sharon, Lois & Bram concert coming to Cornwall during March break!

Over the years, the trio has strived for the very highest calibre of stage, recording studio and television presentation. And, over the years, production has naturally evolved to become bigger, more staged and more complex. But for North America's most popular children's entertainers, bigger does not necessarily have to mean better.

So the trio has decided, for a time, to return to their roots with this brand new concert intended for cozy, more intimate theatres. It's called 'All The Fun You Can Sing!', a wonderfully interactive musical experience. Families can expect lots to sing and do, lots of actions, and lots of old favorites.

As usual, there are plenty of surprises as new medleys and "rootsy" arrangements make "old songs new, and new songs familiar".

So come along, join Sharon, Lois & Bram with Elephant for 'All The Fun You Can Sing!'

"Lungs Are For Life Workout"

Marilyn's Aerobics and the Lung Association present the "Lungs Are For Life Workout" coming March 2nd, 1994.

This workout is a fun-filled aerobic event where participants collect pledges from their family, friends and neighbours for taking part in two hours of exercise. This event promotes active living through healthy lungs and the funds raised will be used for local programs and education to increase awareness and help prevent chronic lung disease. For more info call the Lung Association at 932-4999.

Mayor's Task Force For Healthy Lifestyles Receives Grant

The Mayor's Task Force for Healthy Lifestyles is pleased to announce that the Ministry of National Health and Welfare has approved a $48,000 grant for the operation of Centre 208 (The Youth Drop-In Centre), a project of the high risk youth committee.

Centre 208, located at 254 Pitt Street, has been in operation for one and a half years. Staffed only by volunteers, the centre was kept alive through community support, corporate donations and a tremendous drive to succeed from the high risk youth committee. This committee is made up of local professionals who work with youth in different areas and different capacities. They are aware of the problems and needs of local youth and through the youth drop-in centre, they have created a vehicle to respond to those concerns.

This funding from the community support program of Canada's drug strategy will allow for the recruitment of one full-time staff, the purchase of program materials as well a consulting serves for evaluation of the project.

Global Perspectives

A boost for the rattan industry

(NC)—Thanks to research supported by Canada's International Development Research Centre (IDRC) Asian countries may soon be able to produce and export more high-quality rattan and bamboo products such as these chairs in Malaysia. In one project at Malaysia's Forest Research Institute, for example, a technique was developed for cloning rattan seedlings, making it possible for thousands of farmers to plant fast-growing, disease-resistant varieties.

An international research network was also set up earlier this year to promote joint studies of bamboo and rattan. This is crucial because wild stocks of the plants are threatened by largescale forest cutting. Revenues from the industry in Asia now total about $11 billion US. Bamboo and rattan also grow in Africa and south America.

DOUG & MAGGIE'S CORNER

Doug & Maggie Fobert of St. Clair Paint & Wall Paper

This column continues from last week regarding the complete painting of a renovated home.

Other tools used to paint the home included extension handles, two step ladders with tray, ShurPatch spackling compound for filling nail sets in wood trim and shellac for sealing a few knots. Fine sandpaper was used to scuff sand existing cupboards and also for sanding the trim after the primer coat. We used T.S.P. to wash the cupboards before priming and finish paint. (Some of the cupboards were dark olive green which required a primer coat before we applied the white latex semi gloss).

We also used a small quantity of Super Adhesion Primer. This special primer was used to prime some existing trim on the interior doors and window jambs which appeared to be coated with a high gloss urethane. We wanted to ensure excellent adhesion for our latex semi gloss on all the trim.

The ceilings in the renovated home were a combination of existing ceiling tile and existing drywall (all in pretty good shape). We repainted the ceiling tile with Luxury Velvette Latex ceiling paint. The paint was applied with the 10mm pile roller sleeve and covered in one coat.

Mike and I stuccoed two bedrooms over existing drywall. This required a latex prime coat first and application of the ready mixed stucco by roller using a special nylon loop stucco roller. This turned out very good, the second room better that the first, as we applied the stucco more generously. We discovered that application at 90 sq.ft. per gallon (versus 120 as per label) resulted in a more even surface.

All and all Mike, Maggie and myself had a good week last fall doing this painting job. We met our schedule except for second coat on some trim (we ran out of this colour). Moving the furniture from room to room was the hardest part. Now Maggie has planned some wallpaper and borders and of course verticals and decorative valances.

CCVS Report

By Lara Smiltnieks

Well here we are, a week and some odd days into second semester and it's lookin' mighty fine; the cafeteria tables are facing a new fresh direction and everything. Last Tuesday, students were called down to the cafeteria for a very hype assembly. Even though the seniors missed their morning break because of it, I think they'd all agree that seeing "90210" druggie, Brian Green's face on a giant screen was well worth it. Actually, the 40 minute film called "Higher Ground" spread out over three giant screens, was excellento.

It was all about self-motivation and used stars as well as ordinary people for examples. I was just blown away by how recent all the movie and TV clips were. And the music too. It was all from like 1993! The company that made it, Multimedia Productions, had to come all the way from Calgary; I'd like to thank our school president, Chantelle Dunlop, for getting them to come here and inspiring our little heads.

With Valentine's Day making its move tomorrow, CCVS has done lots to get us all in the mood. First there was the computer matchmaking service, which was a big hoot and then there was the semi-formal dance on Friday. What a chance for romance!

That's the schmooze for this week. I hope y'all have the best dang Valentine's Day of your lives!

BASIC BLACK

By Arthur Black
SEAWAY NEWS

It could happen to you the next time you pick up your mail.

There, nestled in among the grocery store flyers and the dreaded envelopes with ominous cellophane windows, you spy a letter with a strange postmark and an unfamiliar return address.

Curious, you tear it open.

And find yourself reading a chain letter.

But this one's a different kind of chain letter. It doesn't promise you untold riches or a fabulous sex life or an eternity of foul luck, if you don't send off copies of the chain letters to six other unsuspecting saps.

No, this chain letter tells you the heartbreaking story of little Craig Shergold. Craig is a seven-year-old British school boy, says the letter. It also tells you that Craig has an inoperable brain tumour and only one wish in the world.

Craig wants to be in the Guinness Book of World Records. He hopes to get there by becoming the human being to receive the most mail in history.

And you can help, the letter says. Just drop him a line ... or just address an envelope and pop your business card inside.

Jeez, it's little enough to ask for a kid who's dying, right?

Well, I've got five words of advice for you should you receive this letter.

Throw it in the garbage.

Sound heartless? Hey, if Craig Shergold could talk to you he would beg you to throw it in the garbage. Yes, there really is a Craig Shergold, and he really did have a dream of getting into the Guinness Book of World Records. But that was away back in 1989. Before the dream turned into a kind of nightmare.

Craig's letter touched a lot of hearts. Within weeks of sending his request to a few local newspapers, the lad's local post office in Carshalton, England was inundated with letters addressed to Craig Shergold.

Before long the post office was receiving 600 sacks of mail.

Every day.

Part of the problem was that Craig wasn't just a U.K. phenomenon. His letter came to the attention of a group called the Children's Wish Foundation in Atlanta, Georgia which tries to grant the wishes of terminally ill children. It decided to alert the business executives of the continent to Craig's project.

That was five years and tens of millions of cards and letters ago.

"We've got a 10,000-square-toot warehouse that is stacked to the ceiling with mail that still hasn't been opened" moans Arthur Stein, president of the Foundation. "There's no way to stop it. Everyone keeps saying quit, and people ignore the pleas."

It's become so bad in Britain that British Post has assigned Craig Shergold his own personal postal code ... an honour usually reserved for large towns or countries.

So has the Craig Shergold letter just been a giant migraine for all concerned? On the contrary. This is one chain letter that actually delivered ... albeit in ways no one ever intended.

For one thing, Craig Shergold did make the Guinness Book of World Records. It happened in 1991 when his mail topped the 30 million mark. (Guinness authorities shrewdly retired the category so they wouldn't have to go through this again).

For another thing, it looks like Craig's condition is cured. An American billionaire, John W. Kluge, read of the boy's plight and paid for him to be flown over and treated by a neurosurgeon in Virginia. More than 90 per cent of Craig's brain tumour was removed and the doctors pronounced him cured.

That was three years ago. But the mail just keeps on flooding in.

So if you get a copy of the Craig Shergold chain letter, do the world a favour. Chuck it in the recycling box.

Craig Shergold would thank you for it if he could.

So would the besieged employees of the Children's Wish Foundation.

Not to mention the forests of the world.

Union Man Disagrees With Sagel

Dear Editor:

The Canada Charter of Rights and Freedoms is a wonderful Government Legislation effort for the use and protection of all Citizens of Canada. It allows individuals to attain whatever level of intelligence and understanding they choose. It allows them to use their intelligence and understanding to form and express their opinions. In Mr. Sagel's circumstances, it allows him to present the level of intelligence and understanding he has achieved in the form of published opinion for a remuneration.

Mr. Sagel's opinion of Unions and Member Parasites was found worthy of being published in our well circulated community Seaway News publication, in a full quarter page editorial. Now that Mr. Sagel is a paid/published writer, it would seem reasonable to expect that he would be a well educated; well informed and a very perceptive individual. Besides his vast knowledge, he would have respect and appreciation of History and the developing world around him including Canada. He would appreciate the intelligence of the country's Business People, "hosts" I believe is the label he uses for them, instead of smothering them with union "parasites" who he considers too smart and too strong for simple "hosts" to work with.

Did Mr. Sagel apply for application in the Writers Guild and get turned down? Why did he leave his day job as a lawyer? Is it possible that Mr. Sagel has been submerged in some tank to long? Is he suffocating in stale waters and has misunderstood somebody else's thoughts? Is it possible that if he were to take himself and his opinion one step farther, that step might lead him to a better understanding and appreciation of the partnership and trust shared between all working people and their employer's?

Mr. Sagel, there is a real world. But brace yourself. There is no Santa Claus, no Easter Bunny and no Tooth Fairy. The irony of your circumstance Mr. Sagel, is that you don't keep up with the times, the time might come when everything catches up to you and you will have change to careers again. It will be a Blue Collar Union person who will provide the help you will need! Not someone from your "added value service sector."

As a proud union member of 35 years and a participating union activist for 27 years, I have actively participated as an equal in my workplace and in this Eastern Ontario, Canadian community where your "parasite" opinion was distributed. The right to express opinion, also belongs to me. In my circumstances there is no need for any remuneration, I enjoy the benefits of a Union Shift Job and this effort is not lacking in pleasure for me!

I must tell you, it was certainly a shock to learn from a lawyer turned editorialist, turned union and business expert, that I was participating in some kind of class struggle and was nothing more than a parasite, feeding off my employer. There goes 35 years of pride! It is a fact of life Mr. Sagel that some Canadians are more affluent and self sufficient than others. However, the shirts we all wear are hopefully Canadian made, multi coloured, and have the same collar whether held together with a tie or not!

We read the same Canadian newspapers and magazines. We decide which movies and television programs we will view, and we have the same responsibility and right to develop the knowledge and intellect necessary to evaluate what is in the crock being presented to us by people like you, Mr. Sagel.

Meanwhile ... I'm wondering whether your buddies from the Fraser Institute tank, or Professor Leo Troy of Rutgers University or our Canadian Statisticians shared any thoughts with you regarding the current world economic condition in which Canada is a partner?

I'm wondering if you considered the fact that when apples and oranges are squeezed together the result is a lot of fluid crap that few can stomach, and always leaves a smelly sediment in the bottom of the tank, or crock, whichever you prefer?

I'm wondering if any though was given to the premise that an organization is only as good as the people who belong to it?

I'm wondering if any thought was given the job loss resulting through Free Trade with the Americans you prefer to quote?

I'm wondering if any thought was given to the fact that one of the partners in the new North American Free Trade Agreement is a country that also has no use for unions? They will attract lots of people like you Mr. Sagel! It would be a shame if your tank sunk on the way.

Not so fast Mr. Sagel. Canada is still the best place to live. Remember the Charter of Rights and Freedoms and there might just be some your "value-added" service sectors in Mexico whose members are more educated and less susceptible to the class struggle upon which your vision is based!

I'm wondering if there was any thought given as to why the Blue pages of the telephone book have listings for a Human Right's Commission; Environmental Agencies; Federal and Provincial Labour Ministries; Employment Standards; Health & Safety; Worker's Compensation Boards; and on and on? In the real world Mr. Sagel, there is a very real reason.

In Canada there is always hope for people like you! Over many years, union members have taken the challenge! Our knowledge of job responsibility, of employment, health and safety; of working conditions; of the environment and of employment/worker value has in some views, grown faster than some individuals with opinions find acceptable.

Our interest in family, community, province and Mr. Sagel, in the unique industrial circumstances we share throughout our country of Canada remains the basis of union focus! I sincerely hope the working people of Canada never have to live in a small new world such as you have obviously chosen to create and develop for yourself to hide.

Mr. Sagel, you should find a new tank to share; change you focus drastically; become better informed; retrain yourself and try to adapt yourself for the real world you may some day have to join!

As a word of caution Mr. Sage, while you remain at your career as an editorialist, you should be more specific in regards to the politicians and union leaders you trash. On an individual basis, that is exactly what union working people do! You have a right to express your opinion, but with that right comes the responsibility of knowing what you are talking about so your opinions are creditable!

It is also noted that the Seaway News did not publish any "disclaimer" regarding the content of Mr. Sagel's editorial.

And Fish Can Fly!!

If you thought the cigarette companies don't believe their own advertising, read on.

The mentality of the companies' leaders was recently revealed by a transcript of examinations for discovery taken in a lawsuit brought by airline flight attendants who contend that their exposure to cabin smoke caused them to develop cancer and other illnesses.

The first question by the flight attendants' lawyer was directed to William I. Campbell, the president of Philip Morris:

"Q: Does cigarette smoking cause lung cancer?"

"A: To my knowledge, it's not been proven that cigarette smoking causes cancer."

"Q: If somebody is a two-pack-a-day smoker for 20 years and they get lung cancer and every medical person is satisfied the reason that the person got lung cancer was because he smoked, you are saying it is not proven?"

"A: That is correct. That is what I am saying."

"Q: Can you name a single scientist or medical doctor who has — who today will publicly say that he or she doesn't believe that it's been proven that cigarette smoking causes cancer? Somebody not employed by the tobacco industry or never got money from the tobacco industry?"

"A: I can't answer it."

Then there was the testimony of Andrew H. Tisch, the chairman and CEO of Lorillard. He was asked:

"Q: Does cigarette smoking cause cancer?"

"A: I don't believe so."

"Q: Based on what?"

"A: Based on my understanding of the scientific and statistical evidence that's been presented."

"Q: What is your understanding of the scientific and statistical evidence that's been presented?"

"A: There's been no conclusive scientific evidence that's been presented that convinces me that cigarette smoking causes cancer."

"Q: As far as you're concerned Mr. Tisch, as chairman and chief executive officer of Lorillard, this warning on the package which says that smoking causes lung cancer, heart disease and emphysema is inaccurate? You don't believe it's true?"

"A: That's correct."

"Q: Because if you believed it were true, in good conscience, you wouldn't sell this to Americans, would you, or foreigners, for that matter?"

"A: That's correct."

And then Bennet S. Le Bow, head of the company that owns Liggett, was questioned. He said:

"Q: Is it fair to say then, that since you're satisfied that you have a legal right to sell cigarettes, you have never really explored or studied the issue of whether or not cigarettes cause disease?"

"A: That is absolutely correct."

"Q: If I asked you, does smoking cause lung cancer..."

"A: I don't know."

"Q: O.K., and you really don't care because you're selling a legal product?"

"A: Correct."...

When you read this testimony, it makes you understand what's in the heads of these people — and how they view the hazards of smoking.

Tobacco Tax Cut Is A Cave-In To Crime, Stupidity And Politics

It's clear that a provincial election is looming in Quebec. And it's also clear that the federal Liberals are interested in helping their provincial Liberal counterparts get re-elected.

What else would explain the bizarre, contradictory and unconscionable behaviour of the federal government in engineering tax cuts on cigarettes that will chop the cost of a carton in half in the Province of Quebec?

The move will undoubtedly force others provinces to make similar cuts since there is no practical way of setting up internal borders to keep cheap Quebec cigarettes out of the rest of the country.

After years of promoting health consciousness through an anti-smoking campaign, the government has taken two steps backwards.

To briefly summarize, this is what happened last week:

• The federal tax on a carton of cigarettes was cut $5. Ottawa will also match any provincial tax cuts of more than $5 to a maximum of another $5.

• Quebec reduced their provincial tax $11, cutting the price of a carton to $22.73 from $47.

As Ontario Premier Bob Rae has pointed out, Quebec and the federal government have effectively conspired to force every other province to cut taxes.

Rae, who was opposed to tax cuts - because it makes tobacco more accessible to children and will increase health care costs - rightly says it was totally inappropriate for the federal government and one province to set policy for the entire country. There should have been more debate and discussion before Ottawa acted (in league with Quebec).

Canada has been a world leader in its campaign to stop smoking, which is the single major source of preventable disease. Cutting the cost of tobacco in half will be a disaster.

The federal government says it has taken this action in response to the smuggling problem. The government simultaneously announced a $150 million enforcement program, including 350 more customs inspectors and doubling of the RCMP anti-smuggling brigade to 700 agents.

The $8 a carton export tax was also re-instituted on Canadian cigarettes destined for abroad. Also, tobacco manufacturers have to pay a $200-million profit surtax over three years to pay for a $185-million anti-smoking campaign aimed at teenagers and their parents.

In addition, the tobacco industry's income tax rate rises from 21 to 30 per cent.

The legal age to buy cigarettes increased from 16 to 18 and the maximum fine for selling to minors rises to $10,000. So-called "kiddie packs" of fewer than 20 cigarettes are to be banned.

Now, does that all make sense? To think that teens are not going to be able to get their hands on these cheap cigarettes is a pipe dream of incredible proportions. Making cigarettes real cheap for teens and then spending tax dollars telling them not to smoke is transparently contradictory.

Also, why did the government wait till now to step up its anti-smuggling activities. Why wasn't this avenue tried first, without any tax cuts?

What we have here is a clear capitulation to crime. The government's simple (minded) logic is: in order to stop smuggling we'll make the crime less profitable. That's an interesting principle. Perhaps we should cut the price of automobiles to reduce car theft. Or, why not abolish banks; that would put an end to bank robbery. Better yet, why not abolish all of our laws; that way we'd have a crime-free society.

How many others laws and taxes are we going to change to accommodate criminal activity? What's next, reductions in the price of alcohol? Smugglers have been making about $8 to $10 on a carton of illegal cigarettes. A 1.75 litre bottle of rum or rye can produce a profit of up to $20.

Nobody likes paying taxes, but it is those taxes which support our social system, including our world-renowned health care system. I take a nip from time to time - and I'm more than prepared to pay high taxes on a luxury item like alcohol. I have a choice as to whether or not to buy it; it is not a necessity. I do not have a choice if I get sick; I need health care. Or, to put it another way, I'd rather pay more for my liquor than my health care, because I can always make a choice with the former.

A tax structure that reflects such an approach, is one I fully support.

In my view, the government has made the wrong decision for the wrong reason.

Reader Wants To Know Why Info. Was Witheld

Dear Editor:

Bob Roth of the Seaway News offered some interesting points in the January 24th editorial in regards to the current police/church cover-up. I am wondering if the Cornwall Police Department have a copy of the Ontario Family Services Act?

For their information, the Act reads in short; Chapter 55, Section 68 "Duty to Report"

(2) A person who believes on reasonable grounds that a child is or may be in need of protection shall forthwith report the belief and the information upon which it is based to a Society.

(3) Despite the provisions of any other Act a person who through the course of his or her professional or official duties, has reasonable grounds to suspect that a child is or maybe suffering or may have suffered abuse shall forthwith report the suspicion and the information on which it is based to a Society.

(4) This applies to every person who performs professional or official duties with respect to a child, including: a priest, clergymen, solicitor, peace officer and other professionals ...

Considering the severe gravity of this current investigation, could someone please explain to me what possible excuse ex-chief Claude Shaver and his police department had for withholding and delaying their information to the Children's Aid Society for over 9 months?

Is this common practice? Are charges only laid if the Chief of Police believes the credibility of the complainant? Are our children being safely protected by a Police Department unable to make such important decisions? Why are they upset with one of their own officers who was obviously performing his professional duty?

As a concerned citizen and parent I am waiting for some responsible and truthful answers.

Sincerely,
Sharon Dawson.,

Political Rights - How Much Is Too Much?

Dear Editor:

Don't they remember? Canadians voted against Native Self-Rule in the referendum last year!

Our Premiers do not have the authority, do not have the power to OK self rule for natives.

Our elected politicians do not have the right to slice Canada or its resources up. They do not have the right to sell or give away jobs to China.

They do not have the authority to license monopolies for whole industries like cable rights to Rogers. They do not have the power to allow foreigners to take over our domestic markets for apples or textiles. Then give away our Canadian businesses and now our Canadian jobs.

Our Cornwall politicians don't have the right to use taxpayers money for hockey teams.

But just like cigarette smugglers they keep doing it because we don't disapprove strongly enough!

Come on, Canada, wake up! We don't have to stay on this disastrous "Sellout" road or the suicidal "Giveaway" road. We still have a choice. Time is running out.

I'm afraid Chretien is not our man. I'm afraid that continuing abuse, misuse of power and corruption is canceling democracy.

Sincerely,
Stan Body,
Martintown.

Construction Barriers Update

Last fall, there was a great deal of controversy over the mobility of workers in Ontario and Quebec, especially in the construction sector. Many Cornwall and area residents told me of their frustration over trade barriers in the province of Quebec, which effectively banned them from taking up work there, while their counterparts from that province were relatively free to accept jobs here.

Throughout 1993, I had been calling NDP Economic Development and Trade Minister Frances Lankin to take action to eliminate this discriminatory practice, so that an even playing field could be established in the mobility or workers and goods. However, it was not until late September of last year that the Minister finally introduced measures to mirror Quebec's existing restrictions; the rationale behind such a move was to provide an impetus for the Quebec government to negotiate, in good faith, the eventual disappearance of the trade barriers that had prevented companies and workers from taking up work anywhere in Canada.

When the Minister made this announcement, I stated very clearly that I was not usually in favour of trade barriers between provinces, but given the Quebec government's unwillingness to settle the matter once and for all, I applauded Ontario's tough stand. Therefore, when Ontario and Quebec signed an agreement on December 24, 1993 to end the three-month long dispute, I was glad that some progress seemed to have been made.

I remain firm in my position that every province's workers should be able to compete for the jobs that are available in this country. The agreement contains a number of important measures that should satisfy any workers who are currently affected by the Quebec government's policies. They include:

• any qualified Ontario construction worker will be allowed the opportunity to gain employment in Quebec, effective March 31, 1994.

• the Quebec government will eliminate residency as a prerequisite for employment in the industry, effective March 31, 1994.

• there will be no residency requirement in either province for contractors and subcontractors who wish to bid on business in either province,

• neither province will discriminate against companies from the other province over bidding on government contracts, effective December 24, 1993,

• the Quebec government promises to eliminate preferential margins for Quebec goods and services included in construction procurement,

• both the governments promise to advertise government construction tenders in excess of $100,000 in at least one daily newspaper widely available in the other province.

In addition to these items, the provinces will negotiate a procurement agreement to cover goods, services and construction purchases, with a deadline of March 31, 1994. The other major issue addressed by the negotiations, attended by all of Canada's provincial trade ministers, involved the area of municipal bus procurement. By way of background, the Quebec government had been preventing municipalities from buying buses made outside of Quebec, which had been a major cause of concern. The December agreement produced the result that beginning in 1996, Quebec will no longer direct its' local governments to buy from Quebec manufacturers, opening up the market to Ontario bus makers.

I am pleased by the Ontario government's actions in negotiating the end to Quebec's discrimination against both goods and workers. I am disappointed that it took the NDP government so long to realize the seriousness and widespread nature of the problems, especially for Eastern Ontario. My colleagues and I in Opposition raised the issue by introducing private member's bills in the spring urging the NDP to move toward the elimination of the unfair trade practices. I spoke in the Legislative Assembly on the matter on more than one occasion, demanding that unemployed construction workers in the Cornwall area be given fair treatment by our neighbour to the east, and wrote many letters to the Minister demanding an equitable system for our workers.

The government must follow through on its' commitments to continue to monitor Quebec's adherence to the terms of the agreement and foster further negotiations between the two governments to ensure that any new issues that arise can be dealt with swiftly. Given that trade between Ontario and Quebec amounts to more than $34 billion annually, it is good to know that the province has finally moved to establish an open market.

1994 Big Brothers / Big Sisters Bowl For Millions

This year's Big Brothers and Big Sisters Bowl for Millions has raised $65,377.75 in pledges.

Bowl for Millions chairperson Norma Lucas has announced that Feb. 5th's Bowl for Millions at Olympia Bowl and Nativity Lanes brought in $60,277.75 in pledges. Another $5,100 will be raised in the Counties' Challenge Cup at the Chesterville Bowling Lanes on Sun., Feb. 13.

Lucas said, "We are very pleased by this year's results, especially considering the hard economic times we are experiencing. The results have been super". She thanked Cornwall and S.D. & G. residents for their continued support of the local Big Brothers/Big Sisters agency, and, in particular, those who bowled and their sponsors, the committee members, the 40 volunteer workers, the bowling lanes, local businesses, and the local news media.

This year's Bowl for Millions has attracted 210 teams, made up of 1,280 bowlers.

The top team overall in the Challenge Cup was G&S General Contractors, which brought in $4,000.

The winners in the various divisions were as follows: Celebrity division, Family and Friends of Reta Rogalsky; service clubs, Knights of Columbus 5068, Glen Walter; professional, Parks Canada; restaurants, Mark's Fifth Wheel Truck Stop - Spare Wheel; financial, National Trust; media, CJSS; school staff, General Vanier Secondary School; social services, Big Brothers & Big Sisters #8; industrial, G&S General Contractors; small businesses, Balloons & Bouquets; students, T.R. Leger Alternative School - Deaf Power; life insurance, London Life Insurance; health care, Chateau Cornwall - Antique Treasures; stores, Loeb Seaway.

Executive Director Brian Lynch stated that bowl for Millions has been the major fundraising activity for the local agency since 1979.

Lynch said, "Funds raised in this year's Bowl for Millions will enable our agency to continue the work of matching children from single-parent families with caring, responsible adult volunteers who serve as a friend and role model".

At the present time, the Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Cornwall and District has 118 children matched, and a waiting list of 111 children.

Lynch reminded bowlers who did not hand in their money at the bowling lanes to do so at any branch of the Bank of Montreal in Cornwall, Ingleside or Morrisburg, or at the Big Brothers/Big Sisters office, 101 Third St. West, by March 4th, in order to qualify for the various prizes.

Feeding Wild Birds In Winter

Those of you who have coniferous trees on your property are fortunate. On these cold winter weekends, when the kids are bored out of their minds (and driving you out of yours), haul out the popcorn and string. The time honoured tradition of stringing popcorn can now also benefit our wild birds. Or you may wish to use peanuts (in their shells), and make "peanut kabobs". These can be hung vertically from a tree branch. Chickadees are crazy over these! Make sure the popped corn is plain; no butter, salt, etc. Stringing it, however, can be a frustrating endeavour, especially when the popcorn breaks when the needle is inserted. However, don't despair! When I start seeing the popcorn as a fiendish invention designed to give an adult a severe migraine, I simply declare defeat ... and leave it to the kids. This makes them very happy, for it means that without mom's supervision more popcorn can be eaten, rather than strung. A hint to those parents who refuse to admit defeat: insert the needle through its puffy middle. When finished, they can be put on the tree like garland. Make sure you tie the ends so they won't fall off. If you really want to get decorative with your garlands, you can use cranberries, grapes, apple, and dried fruit.

Make sure you use heavy-duty thread. On the sturdier tree branches you can tie (or nail) pieces of orange and grapefruit. Corn-on-the-cob is a special treat for the birds. Special holders for the cobs can be purchased at stores specializing in wild bird products. Below you will find the promised recipes. Happy birding!

Hard Peanut Butter Mix
2 cups suet
1 cup peanut butter
2 cups yellow cornmeal
2 cups fine cracked corn

Melt the suet, allow it to cool completely then re-heat it. Add the peanut butter and stir until it's melted and blended. Add the dry ingredients to liquid and blend well. Then pour into forms or suet feeders, and cool until hardened.

DOGS

The Doberman Pinscher

by Petronella M. Dana

In Apolda (Thueringen), Germany, in the mid 1800's, a tax collector felt threatened due to his unpopular profession. This one Friedrich Louis Dobermann wanted an intelligent and fearless dog to protect him as he did his rounds. He selectively bought or captured various dogs and bred them. He was not entirely successful thus, after his death in the mid-1980's, a certain Otto Goller (or Gollner) continued what Herr Dobermann had started.

Goller (or Gollner) selected breeds that would improve the character of the dog Dobbermann had created. The Greyhound, Manchester Terrier, Rottweiler, Weimaraner as well as shepherds and pointers are all thought to have contributed to the development of the Dobermann Pinscher.

The breed quicky became popular during both world wars, supporting the German army as guard and message dog.

Nowadays the Doby (as it is sometimes called) is often used as a police dog. If you keep one, you certainly don't have to worry about robbers.

The Dobermann Pinscher has many excellent qualities but one must be wary when other dogs are around. It is very territorial and protective of its' master; not recommended as a 'first dog', it is usually better off with an experienced dog owner. These dogs need firm and careful training early in life to keep their often-aggressive nature at bay.

Description:

The 'Doby' is quite a large breed with males standing ideally twenty-seven-and-a-half inches at the withers, and bitches stand at twenty-five-and-a-half inches; a little leeway in either direction is allowed. Males usually weigh from 70 to 75 lbs. and females about 10 lbs. less.

The ears are cropped at eight to 12 weeks old, although it is now no longer a necessity for entering the show ring. The coat is short and smooth, the hairs are fine permitting the dog to support high temperatures. The tail is cropped when a few days old leaving only a little stub.

Coloring may be jet black, deep red, blue or fawn colored. All colors must have rust markings above each eye, on the muzzle, chest, legs, feet and below the tail.

Care tip:

When buying a Doby puppy check that the coat doesn't have a blueish tinge to it as this could mean a skin condition. The adult Dobermann Pinscher needs much exercise, and running with a bicycle or jogger is an excellent workout for the dog and the master.

Cornwall Residents Go Hungry To Fight Hunger

The Cornwall area has become part of World Vision Canada's 30 hour Famine to help end world hunger and suffering. Groups from Glengarry District High School, General Vanier Secondary School, St. John's Evangelist Youth, Nationside Pentecostal Church and Osnabruck Rothwell School are now collecting pledges for the annual event to take place on Feb. 25 and 26.

Participants go without solid food for 30 hours to raise funds for World Vision's emergency aid and long-term development projects in countries like Sudan where civil war has displaced 220,000 people and famine has killed thousands.

By fasting for 30 hours, young people and adults from Cornwall identify with the millions of people who face hunger daily:

• In Sub-Saharan Africa, 4.4 million children die before the age of five. That is 33 times the total number of children who die in all industrialized countries combined.

• Only 39 per cent of the population of Haiti has access to safe drinking water, compared to almost 100 per cent in Canada.

But Canadians can make a difference. Participants in the 30 hour Famine will raise funds for projects such as the one that is planting 1.8 million tree seedlings in Ethiopia, reversing the effects of the devastating drought that killed thousands of people in the mid 1980s.

World Vision is an international Christian humanitarian relief and development agency, assisting people regardless of race, religion or gender in over 5,000 projects in more than 90 countries around the world.

LifeLine

by Dr. Carolyn DeMarco

What is homeopathy?

Homeopathy is the science of using natural substances in minute doses to stimulate a sick person's natural defences.

It is used to treat a wide range of symptoms from flu, allergies, PMS and headache to arthritis and chronic pain.

Is it science?
In over 100 studies, 81 indicated positive results from homeopathic treatments.
The placebo effect – due to the patient's and doctor's positive expectations – contributes up to 40% of the effect of any medicine.

Remedies are extracted from plants, animals and minerals, and made into pellets or liquid.

TREATMENT

- Remedies chosen for their ability to cause the same symptoms in a healthy person that the sick person has. Works like a natural vaccine inducing the body to heal itself.
- Remedies unique for each person – detailed emotional and physical history taken first.

FIRST AID

Arnica (plant extract): For trauma, injuries, bruises, after surgery or childbirth.
Apis (honey bee): Swelling and redness, insect bites.
Calendula (marigold): Antiseptic for scrapes, scratches, burns.
Rhus tox (poison ivy): Sprains, joint stiffness, poison ivy rash.

Who uses homeopathy?

- About 4,000 medical doctors, naturopaths, chiropractors and licensed homeopaths in North America.
- In Britain, nearly 50% of doctors refer patients to homeopaths.
- In France, 25% of prescriptions are for homeopathic remedies.

'Doin' It For Heart'

"Canada's number one killer continues to be among Canada's most readily preventable causes of death," says local internist Dr. Tom Baitz. "Research shows that lifestyle changes, which include weight control and moderate physical activity, may lessen the risk of heart disease and stroke for a large percentage of the population."

This perception has led to the launching of a fundraising campaign which links the Heart and Stroke Foundation with one of Canada's best know advocates of a healthy lifestyle, Weight Watchers.

During National Heart Month, February, Weight Watchers members in Cornwall will be logging the time they spend engaged each day in physical activity and collecting pledges from supporters. Dubbed 'Doin' It For Heart', the campaign seeks to raise much needed funds for heart and stroke research and education as well as raise awareness of the importance of lifestyle changes to the promotion of a healthy heart.

"Increased physical activity of any kind, combined with healthy eating habits, are integral components of the Weight Watchers program," says Pam Allen, Public Relations Co-ordinator of Weight Watchers. "Organizations such as the Heart and Stroke Foundation recognize this and welcome our support and that of our members."

Dr. Baitz, Health Promotion Consultant with the Cornwall and District Chapter of the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Ontario, stated that monies raised will be used for a variety of research and educational projects that will benefit all Canadians. "However, benefitting the most will be Weight Watchers members and others who actively lessen their own risk of heart disease," he said.

"Doin' It For Heart' continues throughout the month of February. For information, to make a pledge or to start Doin' It Yourself, call Weight Watchers at 1-800-267-9939 or contact your local Heart and Stroke Foundation of Ontario office at 938-8933.

Here's a recipe for bananas, Worcester sauce and rhubarb. Don't worry ... it's a cleaning recipe!

In your search for environment-friendly cleaning products you don't have to look too far. Probably as far as your fridge or pantry. "But that's where I keep my food!" you exclaim ... Well that's exactly what I mean! Today I'm going to tell you about some clever cleaners that you would normally have for dinner!

Let's start with shoes and boots. Instead of using shoe polish every time, you can raise a really good shine from your leather by giving you footwear a good rub with a banana peel. Yes, I'm serious. Use the inside of the skin and then buff with a clean dry rag. This will get rid of any small pieces of skin left behind and bring up a nice shine.

And if you're bothered with rust stains on your clothes why not try the old "rhubarb trick". Boil two cups of chopped rhubarb in about a cup of water, until the rhubarb is really tender. Scoop the rhubarb out and pour the hot left-over liquid onto the rust stains. Then wash as usual. If you save the cooked rhubarb and add some sugar you also have a quick dessert! If you're not worried about calories, I'd even add a little ice cream ... to the dessert ... not the rust stain!

Now let's say you've just run out of brass cleaner. Your visitors are arriving any minute and you want them to see your new brass dooknocker looking its best. Well if your run into your kitchen and grab a bottle of Worcester sauce from your pantry, your troubles are almost over. Pour the sauce into a bowl and dip a damp rag into it. Rub the brass well with the rag ... you might want to use an old toothbrush to reach into those crevices ... and then wipe off with a clean damp cloth. Buff the door-knocker up with a dry cloth and that should do the trick. The only problem now, is that your visitors may be afraid to use it because it's too shiny. But you can live with that!

ENTERTAINMENT

Most of the dining spots in the city and area have created special Valentine's Day menus and side attractions and some extend from Friday through Monday. So if you read this early enough you can still take your special friend to one of the following spots. GEDORO'S weekend special features a great Sweetheart Dinner For Two that includes tossed salad, shrimp cocktail, surf 'n turf platter, two filet mignons, two lobster tails, fresh veggies, potato and bread bar. Or try the Feature Dinner of the filet mignon with the salad, fresh veggies and the bread bar. On Monday, February 14th GEDORO'S has scheduled an added attraction with a Dinner & Dance featuring the Carm Aube Trio and Debbie Fernandez on vocals from 7 pm - 11 pm.

The NEW GARDEN Restaurant & Dining Lounge invites everyone to their All-You-Can-Eat Chinese Buffet served from 11:30 a.m. - 2 p.m. & again from 4:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. NEW GARDEN is at 315 Montreal Road.

You probably won't have time, as you read this, to catch the offer from BEST WESTERN PARKWAY INN for this Valentine's Weekend, but they still have special buffets, Lovers Platters for Two and their A La Carte menu served all weekend including Monday, February 14th.

There are some special heart-shaped items prepared for you and your Sweetheart at FREDDYS at 348 Montreal Road too. Choose form the Steak & Seafood for Two, to the Steak Tip Champignon with tender strips of sirloin steak with onions & mushrooms in a red wine sauce, or the Shrimp Linguini of Jumbo Shrimps in a creamy white wine sauce served on a bed of linguini noodles and then there's the Chicken Tetrazzini expertly done and served with all the love and tenderness you would expect on this special day. All of these dining specials at FREDDY'S are specially priced too.

And speaking of money, time out for a small poetic break. Money, Honey ... isn't it funny. We earn it, many burn it. Some lend it, others spend it. Forgers fake it ... taxes take it. Misers crave it ... bankers save it. Robbers seize it ... rich increase it. Gamblers lose it ... I COULD SURE USE IT.

Here is a reminder again about upcoming stage attraction coming on February 20th to Aultsville Theatre. It's the JOHN ALLAN CAMERON concert with his Gaelic package of fiddle tunes, 12-sting guitar, with his son Stuart on guitar and Gord Sampson on piano. All the warmth and those wonderful Cape Breton songs that usually highlight the CAMERON concerts are there. Call for tickets at Ran-Gal Photofinishing at 938-7779.

Back to the foodtable again to tell you about the tasty specials offered by THE TOWN HALL Restaurant & Pub at 169 Pitt Street. Try their famous English Fish & Chips or any of the other specials like Cajun Shrimp served with rice, Scampi Linguini with garlic bread, Veal Parmesan or Steak & Scampi. All of these specials are served with soup or salad, rolls, tea or coffee at the THE TOWN HALL. They also feature a Businessman's Lunch served Monday through Friday for $3.95 to $5.95. LIVE music is also featured on Friday and Saturday evenings. Appearing this weekend is PAUL SMITH.

Still time to catch the popular GLEN THEATRE production of the musical CAROUSEL at Aultsville Hall Theatre. It runs until February 19th with show at 8:00 p.m. Call 937-GLEN for info.

After some great performances by our very own DIRTY MOTHER and ILLEGAL LIMIT, this Saturday night the LAKESIDE INN will present the talented, four piece new county group YOUNG COUNTRY. With the latest country hits performed by their female lead singer, there will be no better place to be than at the LAKESIDE INN on Hwy. #2, Ingleside on Saturday, Feb. 19th.

Gotta go. Please remember Don't take life too seriously ... you'll never get out of it alive. G'Day and G'Knight.

Hot Goalies Stymie Healy Rapids

It took nothing less than phenomenal goaltending on the part of their opponents to keep the Seaway Valley Healy Motors "AA" Minor Bantam Rapids out of the playoffs of the Gloucester Tournament.

Indeed, the Rapids spent most of their time in their North Bay opponents' zone, setting up play after amazing play, and outshooting their adversary at a 3:1 ratio, only to see their efforts collapse in the last five minutes of the game and result in a misleading 7-3 final score. Goal-or-assist credits in this game went to Yves Ruest and Miguel Lafleche, Stephane Loyer, Kevin Wright and Pierre Tranchemontagne and to the Kurt MacDonald - Nick Grady tandem.

The Kitchener - Seaway encounter proved another nail-biter as the Green team's Cerberus kept the unrelentingly menacing Rapids at by, allowing only a MacDonald-Tranchemontagne combination to return a final 1-1 verdict, a score which hardly reflected the Rapids' domination in terms of fire power and puck possession time. Netminder Jared Gray was up to the situation when the Rapids had to do 3-on-5 battle and when a Kitchener maverick broke loose and showed up at the gate.

The Rapids' superb performance in these two games contrasted with their admittedly poor showing in the tournament opener ... an embarrassing 4-0 loss to the Kanata Blazers.

Selected game MVPs by the tournament organizers were Bubba Ferguson, Yves Ruest and Pierre Tranchemontagne.

Chumps Split Pair Of Games

The Chumps "AA" Major Atom Rapids split a pair of games. Losing 8-3 to Ottawa Valley and beating South Ottawa 5-4.

Ottawa Valley opened up a 3-0 lead before Chumps could get on the board. The Ottawa Valley Titans have lost only twice all season and are alone in first place. Scoring for Seaway were Adam Beehler, Cory Hector and Jesse Winchester. Craig Helmer took the loss in goal.

South Ottawa came to Maxville looking to move up in the standings while Chumps Seaway was trying to lock up a play-off spot. Chumps started strong as Jess Winchester scored from Jason Vickers and then Jason Vickers scored from Louis King before the end of the first period. Twenty eight seconds into the middle frame Jonah Leroux made it 3-0 Chumps on a pass from Matt Groulx and then 4-0 when Jason Vickers converted from Louis King and Jesse Winchester. Then South Ottawa came alive with two goals in the second and another early in the third to narrow the gap to 4-3 Chumps, but then Vickers completed his hat trick with a beautiful assist from Jess Winchester. South Ottawa pulled their goalie and made it a one goal game again but were unable to pull even. Jeff McIntyre got the win in goal.

Walker Contractors End Streak

The Walker Contractors Atom "A" Royals completed an unbeaten streak of nine games, in league play, with a 5-3 loss to the Kanata Blazers. The Royals fell victims of a potent Kanata power play surrendering three goals with players serving penalties. Cornwall's Miguel Delisle netted two unassisted goals, with Scott Champagne adding a single with an assist from Marc Bonville.

In previous contests the Walker squad recorded a 2-2 tie against the Nepean Raiders and a 1-0 win over Ottawa South. Against Nepean, the Royals fell behind 2-0, however, a pair of goals from Delisle in the third period salvaged the single point. Marc Lapointe was a mainstay in net repelling numerous Raider offensive attacks. Cornwall, amidst a rugged road schedule, squeezed out a win over Ottawa South. The only goal of the game was scored by Shawn Chartrand and assisted by Jamie Patenaude. Grey Fargo was instrumental in the win with several crucial saves to ensure the victory and record a well deserved shut-out.

by Ken McLaughlin
Colts Director of Public Relations

This Thursday, February 17th, the Robinson Division leading Gloucester Rangers visit the Water Street Arena at 7:30 p.m. Gloucester has led the division since the first week of the season and have not looked back since. The last time the Rangers visited, your Colts pasted them 6-1, in a game that we dominated from start to finish. Hopefully there will be more of the same treatment this Thursday night. The game is sponsored by the sports cards specialists at Rookie Season Sports Card Shop. Be sure to buy a program to have a chance at a $25.00 Rookie Season gift voucher.

The second game of this important home and home series goes on Sunday, February 20, at the Earl Armstrong Arena in Gloucester. Game time is 1:30 p.m. Your Colts have won one of three games played there this season. With our continued strong play, we have a good chance at taking four points from one of the strongest teams in the league.

Be sure to tune into Colt's Talk this Tuesday, February 15th, live on Rogers Community Cable 11 at 8 p.m. I'll be welcoming Colts players Marc Lamontagne to the show, along with bringing you up to date on all the news and information from Cornwall's Junior "A" Hockey Club. This show will be a live phone in. We invite you to call in with your questions and comments. All callers will have a chance at two tickets to our home game on February 17th, against Gloucester.

Don't forget about Colts bingo, every Monday at Nativity Hall at 10 p.m. Be sure to join us for fun and prizes.

We'll see you this Thursday at the Water Street Arena, as we take on the Gloucester Rangers. Come out for a night of exciting Junior "A" Hockey in Cornwall's grand old hockey home.

Colts hockey at the Water Street Arena, you can't get any closer to the exciting action!

Un-Finn-Ished Business For Hunt

On Saturday, Feb. 5, the Hunt's Bantam "B" Royals played host to the Maxville N.G.S. at the Cornwall W. S. A. First period action, Royals were down by two goals before the team erupted for three goals of their own. The spark plug line of Jason Cholete, Wayne Disotell and Jonathan Pitt fired the first three goals with one each. In the second, Maxville came on strong firing shot after shot. In nets for Cornwall, goalie Joel Peterson kept grasping everything and he was simply spectacular. Royals clipped their fourth goal, Jason Cholette his second goal of the game, at the 3:39 mark of the second period. In the third with goalie Peterson still making great saves, Royals Randy Rogers connected on big mean machine Dan Pelletier super pass and Vachon neat assist to make it 5-2 at the 13:16 mark of the third. The royals out worked and doubled them in chances to score. Final score, Cornwall 5, N.G.S. 2.

On a great Sunday afternoon, Feb. 6, at the Finch Arena, Royal's first major hurdle came at the bargaining table, where N.G.S. played out their options in scoring four quick goals to Royals one big opening goal of the game. Wayne Disotell's momentum came at the 11:56 mark of the game opening, on a devestating play by Jonathan Pitt and Jason Cholette. Royals had to play catch-up hockey, still behind by three goals. The first dazed and delirious Cornwall team had yet to touch a second marker. The Royals trio of Nick Dixon, Chad Nixon and Wayne Disotell really started it all. Royals second marker counted at the 10:41 span of the second period, taking count 4-2. Maxville reacted quickly with another goal, topping it 5-2. But the Royals last goal of the second period, shocking us all, Shawn Labelle on a neat set-up from Matt McKinnon and Nick Dixon a 5 to 3 Royals trailing it. The third period opened on a scheming goal by Shawn Labelle created by Leduc at the 8:40 point of the third, claiming it 5-4. Still behind by one, Cornwall had to maintain their cool. Maxville surprisingly scored another quick goal at the 8:41 mark, now a 6-4 at that point of the game. Royals never gave up and counted one in at the 6:26 mark, by Royals hot winger Cholette assisted by Labelle. The highlight of the game, the equalizer came at the 5:57 point, by young blood player Leduc on an assist by hot Labelle. Royals now dealing with a 6-6 draw over N.G.S. Final score N.G.S. 7, Cornwall 6.

PeeWee "A" Royals Come Home Winless In Longueuil Tournament

The Pee Wee "A" Royals participated in the annual Longueuil Tournament and came away with no victories in two games.

In the first game, the Royals battled the Chevaliers De Lachenaie and were defeated by the score of 3-0. The game was scoreless after one period of play, before Lachenaie scored two goals in the second to go into the intermission leading 2-0. Cornwall came out strong, but could not capitalize and pulled their goaltender in favour of an extra attacker. However, this allowed Lachenaie to score into the empty net and seal their victory over the Royals. Michael MacDonald was named the MVP in the game for Cornwall.

In the second game, Cornwall was thrashed 9-1 by the Royaux De Ste. Foy. Cornwall never got untracked from the beginning and trailed early on by a large margin. The royals only goal was scored by Joshua Labelle. Scott Chenier was named MVP in the game for Cornwall.

In other action, the Royals fell to the Nepean Raiders 6-1 in regular season play. The goal was scored by Nolan Garrow on a hard effort displayed by Scott Chenier to force the Raider player into a mistake, which led to the goal. Also, the Kanata Blazers were in town to visit for a regular season match-up and were not very friendly guest as they manhandled the Royals 13-1. The game was close for one period which ended at 2-1 after 12 minutes. The Royals goal was scored by Ryan Trew on a nice set-up from Nolan Garrow.

Transcontinental and Body Shop Continue Winning Ways to Force Showdown Next Tuesday at Par-T Golf

Gord Kelly and Larry Ducharme defeated Rod Rivette and Kirk Penell respectively, on the framed Pebble Beach layout, to lead Transcontinental to a 10.6 win over Showtime. Kelly with a 93 and Ducharme with an 89, each clinched their match on the 17th hole.

Reg Kelly (95) took the other 3 points for the Printers, as he edged Denis Sauve (84) on the final hole of Quinta Da Lago. Mike Marier prevented a sweep as he defeated a faltering Dan Robidoux by winning the last 3 holes to clinch their match.

The Body Shop remained in contention for the first place with Transcontinental, as they defeated a beleaguered Bank of Montreal team 10-6. Hale Irwin clone, Andy Briffet missed a 5' putt on the last hole of Doral enabling John Mason to escape with a one hole victory and the 3 points for the Body Shop team. Marc Bigras provided the Bankers with their only victory as he defeated John Lambert on the Blue Monster layout.

Sean Scrivin and Kevin Fisk swept Todd Papineau and Tom Ayerst on the Pebble Beach course to force a showdown for first place next week with Transcontinental.

Cornwall Kohler Royals

In league play the Novice "B" Royals just keep rolling along. Two recent victories brings our Royals record to 15 wins and 1 loss.

The first game against NGS saw Patrick Turcotte lead the way with 5 goals. Two of which were exciting end to end rushes. Troy Sinfield added a single from the slot. Final: Royals 6, NGS 1

At Alexandria, Patrick Turcotte once again led the way with 4 goals. Troy Sinfield potted 2 with singles going to Ryan Freeland and Dan Roth. A strong game was turned in by winger Scott Bonneville with 3 assists. Once again a shutout escaped the goal tending duel of Brian O'Shaughnessy and Chris Kaddie as Alexandria slipped one by in the middle frame. Final: Royals 8, Alexandria 1.

Scott Champagne and Mario Bissonnette each contributed three assists. Fred Pletsch added a pair of helpers and Stephane St. Denis recorded a single assist. On the Money

with Gordon Pape

PAPE'S TIP: "When interest rates are low, even a fraction of a per cent will magnify your return."

Doing better than GICs

Up to 70% of RRSP funds are held in guaranteed investment certificates.

With GIC rates near their lowest levels in three decades, you can improve your return by moving some of your funds.

If your rate increases just 1 percentage point from 5% to 6%, your return on investment goes up by 20%!

SOME ALTERNATIVES

- Mortgage mutual funds: Excellent low-risk investment. No fund has ever had a losing year.
- Bond mutual funds: Easier than buying bonds and they'll provide you with diversity and security.
- Mortgage-backed securities: Pools of residential first mortgages held by banks and guaranteed by Canada Mortgage and Housing Corp.
- Stripped bonds: Bonds bought at a discounted price. They pay no interest but are redeemed at full face value at maturity. Best to buy when rates are high. Give better returns than GICs if held to maturity.
- International bond funds: Best choice for this year. Invest in foreign currency bonds. Offer protection against volatile Canadian dollar, and potential capital gains as interest rates decline overseas.

To the teenagers who were rude to the elderly and disabled in Cornwall Square Food Court. Did you ever stop to think you may one day be in our shoes and have the same thing happen to you. What goes around, comes around!

According to a report by Professor Peter Morris of Oxford University at a Conference in Melbourne, Australia, "Of all patients with a functioning transplant over 20 years, 60 per cent will develop some form of cancer, and 30 years after a transplant, 100 per cent will have cancer". Questions are now being raised about giving organs to young people who will die in 20 to 30 years with cancer anyway. This reader believes that 20 to 30 years of life is better than no life at all.

Ottawa Police conclude "noticeable lack of senior management direction and support" on Cornwall Police Dept.'s ten-month marathon investigation. We hope ex-chief Shaver does not feel exonnerated by their (Ottawa's) so-called investigation.

Many thanks to the Seaway News for your excellent paper. Finally, a city paper willing to allow normal, everyday people who aren't politically connected, a chance to air their views and vent their feelings on many of the hot issues concerning all of us. You're doing a wonderful job and a service to the community. Keep up the good work!!

Happy Valentine's Day to Edgar Giroux, the man of my dreams and who has made many come true! Love always, Carol.

Look at that nice tan on Gailand Poapst, just returning from a relaxing trip to Florida.

To my husband Dwight, wishing you a "Happy Valentine's Day". Love Bern.

Is it true that a Stress Massage Studio will be opening soon in Rosedale Terrace? Mayor Ron won't be cutting the ribbon at this one!!

Caller says the Federal Government didn't go far enough with its' new tobacco laws on Feb. 9. It should have banned all promotions by cigarette companies for public events such as tennis tournaments, hockey games, golf tournaments, music festivals, etc...

What is this business with the School Trustees abstaining from voting?? They should, just like City Council, be required to vote on all issues, except where a conflict of interest exists.

Rumors abound that the Cornwall Aces deficit could hit one million dollars. Mayor says he's going to reveal all in two weeks time.

This reader feels that the term referred to as being "politically correct" would better serve the country if it were changed to being "morally correct". Perhaps our politicians and other professionals would make better decisions for us and our country if they used their conscience a little more.

Don McPherson says... What is the definition of the ground hog when he sees his shadow on Ground Hog Day? The answer, six more weeks of starvation!

If you didn't attend the Downtown Treasure Hunt last week, you sure missed a good time. Lucky winners were: Ginette D'Aoust, Sandra Donnelly and Scott McCue ($500 shopping spree); and Mary Anderson, Adam Zulinski and Wendy Dawson ($200 shopping spree).

Things are really tough at City Hall these days. They're short on coat hangers... so if you have a lot of them and are going by the place, drop a few off.

We understand that it is a well-known fact at City Hall that the secretary to the CAO does a pretty mean imitation of Stomping Tom Connors!

My hat is off to Father Kevin Maloney for delivering a message of hope to his parishioners during last Sunday's mass. At long last the silence has been broken and there is at least one priest willing to talk about the alleged Catholic priest sex scandal which has hurt so many people in the congregation. To admit there is a problem is always the first step in any healing process. Accepting responsibility and being accountable are equally important facets of healing if we, as committed Christians, are ever to convince ourselves and others that wrongs have been righted.

Truth in advertising??? The young girl in the TV ad keeps falling while doing her turns in figure skating. However, as soon as McDonald's and their twist fries come on the scene... presto, no falls. Wow!!!

Cancer Centre To Get New Radiation Equipment

The Ottawa Regional Cancer Centre has received approval to replace radiation therapy equipment and upgrade machine sites, Health Minister Ruth Grier announced today.

"This investment is part of our planning to improve cancer care and long-term access to services," said Mrs. Grier. "It means the Ottawa Centre can offer better care now and in the future."

The Cancer Centre will receive more than $3.5 million in funding from the Ontario Cancer Treatment and Research Foundation to replace two linear accelerators. As well, the Ministry of Health approved a $530,000 capital grant to upgrade two bunkers what will house the new machines.

"The Centre treated almost 4,000 new cases last year, and more that 2,735 patients with radiotherapy treatment alone," said Dr. Bill Evans, Chief Executive Officer of the Centre. "We will now have a full range of state-of-the-art equipment at our Civic Division that guarantees excellent treatment over the next decades."

The Cancer Centre now has seven radiation therapy machines at its Ottawa Civic and General Divisions. An eighth machine will be in service within two years.

The Ontario Cancer Treatment and Research Foundation operates the Ottawa Regional Cancer Centre, one of eight centres in Ontario and the largest in Eastern Ontario. It provides diagnostic and treatment services to patients at its Ottawa Civic Hospital and Ottawa General Hospital locations. It is currently undergoing a $28 million expansion of its General Division to meet the growing demand for cancer treatment facilities in the region.

HOROSCOPES

February 13-19

ARIES – March 21/April 20
Take the initiative to patch things up with a family member you have been on the "outs" with for some time. If you don't make the effort now, the relationship could be severed permanently. The weekend will feel like an emotional rollercoaster ride. Good news comes in the mail.

TAURUS – April 21/May 21
This will be a good week all around. Something you've been waiting for will finally be yours. This will give you reason to celebrate. You will realize, once again, that hard work does pay off. Romance looks good, too. Expect to meet a fascinating Scorpio of the opposite sex.

GEMINI – May 22/June 21
You'll find satisfaction in planning ahead and taking control of upcoming events. With a little more time on your hands, you'll be able to get things done the way you want. Time spent with friends and family will be enjoyable. The advice you give a friend will be very encouraging.

CANCER – June 22/July 22
Because of an unexpected delay, your weekend plans may have to be cancelled. Although this may be disappointing, you'll be happy with the money you saved. An unfair decision at work has you angered. Keep your cool, since there is nothing you can do to change matters.

LEO – July 23/August 23
A pleasant surprise will make the weekend more interesting. Accept social invitations that involve activities that are new to you. Your sense of adventure could use a boost. A Virgo of the opposite sex wants to get to know you better. If you're not interested, simply say so.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22
Share your knowledge and expertise. You could be a big help to someone who's looking to follow in your footsteps. You will finally be introduced to a person you've been hearing about for years. You'll feel as if you'd already met. Expect to have a busy weekend socially.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23
Watch your diet! Now that the holiday festivities are over, it's time to get back into shape. Consider joining a health club. A formal social gathering will make the weekend extra special. A new romance could happen when you least expect it. Aquarians and Geminis are likely candidates for new love.

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22
You'll be able to get through work assignments more quickly and easily than you have in a while. Tackle the personal projects you've been putting aside. Don't let jealousy get in the way of a good thing. Your partner is not likely to understand the intensity of your feelings.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21
You will get encouragement and appreciation for all the hard work you've been doing. A Pisces friend will play an important role in the week's events. You will see this person in a different light. Unnecessary family quarrels get in the way of an otherwise happy weekend.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20
Be prepared to make an important decision. Weigh pros and cons carefully, but don't take too long to decide or an opportunity could be lost. Seek the advice of an expert if you feel it could benefit you. Don't divulge personal information to people you hardly know.

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18
Your optimistic attitude cheers up a friend who's been feeling down. You will find enjoyment in your work and may come up with a very clever idea. A social function this weekend could lead you to an important business contact. Your natural curiosity could get you in trouble on Saturday.

PISCES – Feb 19/March 20
Prepare yourself for a busy week. If working under deadline pressure, be sure to keep your priorities straight. Social engagements may have to be cancelled in order to get your work accomplished. By the end of the week, you can breathe a sigh of relief for a job well-done.

YOUR BIRTHDAY THIS WEEK
The next 12 months:
This year will be a happy one. Your health will be better than it has been for some time. You'll feel much more energetic and fit. A family member will reach a major milestone. This happy event (probably a wedding) will bring you much joy. Many of the worries you've had throughout this past year will be eliminated by the onset of spring. Taking a class for enjoyment will be good for you. Consider learning about astronomy, philosophy or something else that fascinates you. Romance looks promising. A Sagittarius of the opposite sex will play a significant role in your personal life.

Hats off to a fine officer who was the silent type, a humble and fair man whose Police Act was never altered by personalities. Yet, this man walked in the shadows... difficult to replace let alone try to follow in his footsteps. Yes, Deputy Chief Poirier will be long remembered, admired and missed.
Still miss you Pops, your wife, Dolores, and family.

Music Notes

by Morley Seaver

Eurythmics - Live 1983-1989 (BMG)

Eurythmics were the biggest selling male/female duo in music history. Their six albums were always best sellers and each record contained at least one killer single. Unlike other mega-huge recording stars who were duds live, Annie Lennox and Dave Stewart were a successful performing act. Live 1983-1989 is a double set collection from 21 concerts in 10 countries. This is a very strong set of songs and Lennox's voice is simply ethereal. Even though Stewart is still recording and producing and Lennox has begun a brilliant new solo career, we will miss these two together. Eurythmics Live is a nice epitaph.

Donna Summer - Anthology (Polygram)

Donna Summer dominated the charts for a very concentrated time during the late seventies. As is pointed out in this record's liner notes, Summer was the only super-star to come out of the disco era. Blessed with a glorious voice, Summer can purr and growl or let loose with full-blown expression. This is a two-set package that is just crammed full of great stuff. All the big hits are here like "Love to Love You Baby", "MacArthur Park," "Bad Girls" and more. Donna Summer is an under-valued commodity. This proves it.

Soho 69 - Scatterbrain (A&M)

As former fans of Coney Hatch know, Soho 69 was known this time last year as Andy Curran and Soho 69. Since the other band members contributed more than expected, Curran dropped his name from the marquee. This is a straight-ahead rock album, surprisingly better than anything else he has recorded. Mike Borkosky shares lead singing duties with Curran this time out. The material is hard-rocking but melodic and very much a more rock and roll effort than anything Curran recorded with Coney Hatch. Hard rock fans take note. I bet this will surprise you as it did me. Pick it up.

Phil Collins - Both Sides Warner Music)

There used to be a great band called Genesis. They were masters of their instruments and wrote adventurous songs unlike anybody else. After Peter Gabriel left, Collins filled the vocals spot. From there Genesis nudged ever-closer to the mainstream. Then Collins started his solo efforts and has gone down-hill ever since. Now I love Collin's voice but the material from this record is strictly out of Johnny Mathis territory. Maudlin ballads dominate this record, wringing every bit of life out of it. Let's hope two guys by the name of Rutherford and Banks give this guy a kick in the rear before the next Genesis record!

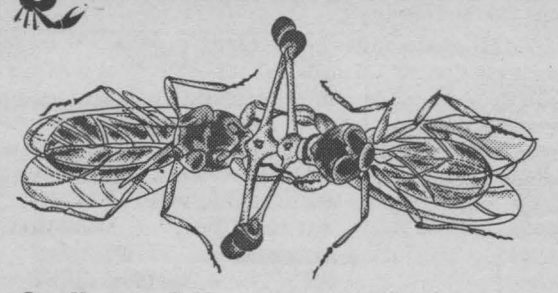
Crowded House - Together Alone (Capitol)

Continuing in the great tradition of Split Enz, New Zealand's Crowded House makes perfect pop-rock material. Their three previous records have all garnered accolades from fans and critics alike. For their new record, they are joined by a keyboard player, Mark Hart. Once again, their radio friendly songs are all winners and passionately delivered. The title track is particularly great as is "Fingers of Love."

Celine Dion - The Colour Of My Love (Sony Music)

We always knew that Celine Dion has a wickedly powerful voice. Unfortunately, producers such as David Foster have clogged up the alleyways and have not allowed her to soar. This time out, the lush arrangements have been toned down and the voice is front and centre. The material is excellent, from the sultry-New York rave -up of "Misled", to the laid-back "Think Twice". Of course, the big single is the cover Jennifer Rush's "The Power of Love" and of course Celine just excels in this terrific showcase. A great set of songs.

Creature feature



Stalk-eyed fly

(Diopsidae family)

Home: Tropics, except for one rare North American species ranging from Quebec to Colorado and North Carolina.

Habits: Larvae breed in decaying vegetation. Adults sometimes found on skunk cabbage. Males use their eye-stalks as yardsticks to assess their relative sizes in territorial contests.

Claim to fame: Head extended on each side into an eye-bearing stalk. Stalks are short in North American species, long and slender in some tropical ones.

New Life Covenant Church
(A Spirit-Filled New Testament Church)

"Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be put into your bosom. For with the same measure that you use, it will be measured back to you." (Luke 6:38)

Notice the order of this scripture in that it says that if we give (first), then it will be given to us. Our mentality is, if people give to us first, then we will give. But the Bible tells us the opposite; that is that we first must give. Give what? Let's start with love. If we want love, let's first give love. If we want to be understood, let's first start by being understanding. Whatever we ourselves have need of, let's first give it out to others and the Bible says (God says) that it will be given unto us. Not only given to us, but pressed down, shaken together and running over. That means, we will receive a super abundance of what we need.

The verse goes on to say that with the same measure that you use, it will be measured back to you. That is, if you use, let's say, a teaspoon of love to give to someone, that's the same measure of love you will receive in return. If you use a shovel of love to give to someone, again that's the same measure that you will receive in return.

The Bible is full of wonderful promises, wonderful principles and points us to God and His wonderful love to you. Open your life to Him and allow His Spirit to teach you His wonderful ways.

As always, remember God loves you. He really, really does.

THOUGHTS TO LIVE BY:

1. We can do no great things - only small things with great love. (Mother Theresa).

2. God gave you the gift of 86,400 seconds today. Have you used one to say "thank you"?

BIRDS OF A FEATHER

by Debra Gillet

The Spruce Grouse

There is another name for this bird: "Fool Hen". It received this nick-name because of its lack of fear for people. The spruce grouse is so tame, it can often be killed with a stick or stone. Because of this it disappears rapidly as people take over their habitat. The spruce grouse is now gone from most southern parts of its former range.

The Spruce Grouse is a widespread resident of northern spruce and pine forests and bog edges. They can be seen either on the ground or in trees.

During the winter and summer they feed on the needles and buds of coniferous trees (pine). In the summer they will enjoy various types of berries.

This bird is about 16 inches long. Their legs fare feathered right down to their toes. The male's upper parts are grey-brown, with a black throat and breast. During courtship and display, the males sport bright red eye-combs. The tail is black with a chestnut tip.

Females can be either reddish or grayish-brown, with heavy bars of black, grey, and rust. Their tail is also barred. The under parts are barred black, white and rust.

During breeding the male gives a very low-pitched booming sound. The female's call is quite different; a series of rolled, clucking, and honking notes.

The nest is a depression on the ground, usually under a small isolated pine or spruce tree. The female lines it with grasses and leaves.

She will lay 4 to 7 buffy, brown marked eggs. The incubation (by the female) will take about 24 days.

The spruce grouse is a permanent resident in pine forests from the tree limit in Canada and Alaska, and south into the United States.
