SEAWAY NEWS
NOVEMBER 10, 1996 VOLUME 10, ISSUE 46 SERVING CORNWALL AND AREA

Cornwall's Lilac Memorial Garden

Alderman Naresh Bhargava, Chairman of the Lilac Festival Committee is pleased to announce the dedication of a Lilac Memorial Garden located in Lamoureux Park just west of Cornwall's landmark Clock Tower. Conceived over two years ago by Alderman Bhargava, the purpose of this Garden is to permit the residents of Cornwall and area to contribute to a living memoriam in honour of those loved ones who have passed away. After initial discussions with Cornwall's Funeral Homes, who were prepared to offer this opportunity to their clientele, Alderman Bhargava approached the Waterfront Development Committee for seed funding.

This Committee subsequently offered $7,500.00 in support of this worthwhile project. With these funds in hand, the Lilac Festival Committee applied for and received an additional $3,500 from Friends of the Environment Foundation, Canada Trust. As well, most of the work in constructing this Garden was done by a group of young people coordinated by the Education and Employment Resource Centre and sponsored under a Federal Government Youth Services Canada Grant.

Designed by John deRonde, Cornwall's Waterfront and Parks Planner, and Karen Carriere, Centre Commons Perennials in Newington, this unique Garden is called an "xeriscape" or low water garden because it demonstrates gardening techniques which can significantly reduce the need for water other than natural rainfall.

The Lilac Festival Committee would like to encourage anyone interested in contributing towards the expansion of this garden to contact one of Cornwall's Funeral Homes. The Lilac Festival Committee would also request that each contribution be a minimum of $150 for which plants will be purchased and a plaque honouring the memory of a loved one will be placed on our beautiful Lilac Memorial garden Sign.

Church Choir Makes Recording

The Church Choir from Blessed Sacrament Church has released a recording titled "We're Ready For The Journey". All of the songs on the CD, which is available locally, were composed by Nancy Beaudette who has been composing songs for many years. The reaction of the parishioners to the music being sung in church, prompted the choir to record their songs this past summer.

Festival Of Trees Needs "Elves"

The Festival of Trees organizers are looking for some "elves" to help them with the Festival this year. There will be 35 trees, each sponsored and decorated by a local business. The business can either decorate the tree themselves or enlist some help. The Festival, sponsored by the Lung Association, will take place the weekend of November 22 - 24. The organizers needs help in making bows, wrapping presents and selling tickets. There will be a special area for children, as well as a tea room at the Festival. If you are interested in helping out, please call 932-4999.

Legion Events for November

The Legion will be hosting many events in November, beginning with the annual parade to Honour Fallen Comrades on November 11th. November 16th will feature a Western Night Dance, free of charge with everyone welcome. A General Branch Meeting will be held on November 20th at 7:30 pm. There was a very pleasant surprise for the members of Branch 297 at the District "G" Convention held in Bell's Corners in October when it was announced that the Branch 197 Record had been awarded first place in the District "G" Competition. Bulletin Editor Joyce Killoran was presented with the District "G" plaque for the "A" group. Congratulations Joyce. There are dances held every Friday and Saturday nights and everyone is welcome. As well, there are delicious meals served every Sunday from 4:30 pm to 7:00 pm, with music for your listening or dancing pleasure. Everyone is welcome.

United Way Dress Down Promotion

During the next few weeks, the local United Way will be actively promoting the Friday "Dress Down" for the United Way. Employees who are required to report to work dressed in a specific attire each day of the week are pleased when management accepts a "dress down" program and this can do no more than enhance the environment of the workplace. If your group wishes to implement the "dress down" day, please feel free to call the United Way office at 932-2051 any hour of any day. There is no cost to you or your employer to review this program and consider it as a program for your workplace.

Working Towards Policy Change

What a difference a full day workshop can make ... That's what the Eastern Ontario Health Unit (EOHU) and the Ontario Public Health Association are hoping for with the third in a series of Making A Difference! workshops. Designed for community and public health professionals interested in developing skills in policy change, the workshop includes problem analysis and ideology, trends affecting public policy, argument framing and tactical planning. A French language workshop is slated for Nov. 21 from 9 am to 4 pm at Club de Golf Casselview, Route 700 in Casselman. The English language workshop is on Nov. 22 from 9 am to 4 pm at Days Inn (Jazz Magnolias), Sunrise Hall on Vincent Massey Drive. There is no registration fee and participants are responsible for their own lunch. Registration is limited to 30. Call Diane Bowen at 933-1375 or 1-800-267-7120, ext. 210 before Nov. 15.

Christmas Basket Program

The St. Lawrence Centre has teamed up with the Salvation Army again this year to assist them in collecting new gifts for their annual Christmas Basket Program. For years the Salvation Army has collected and distributed food, clothing and toys for the less fortunate families in our area, so they too could enjoy a Merry Christmas. To generate more new items, the St. Lawrence Centre developed a program called "Gift From The Heart". This program generated over 600 new gifts for the Salvation Army. While shopping at St. Lawrence Centre simply pick up an extra gift for any age, bring it to the Customer Service Centre, unwrapped and in its original package. For making the donation you can enter to win over $2,500 in prizes. Draw to be held Dec. 18 at 4 pm.

Silver Jubilee for Santa Claus Parade

The 25th Annual Santa Claus Parade, sponsored by the Cornwall Chamber of Commerce, is scheduled for Sunday, November 17th, starting at 1 pm from the parking lot of the Civic Complex and ending at the Royal Canadian Legion Hall. The theme of the parade is "The Joys of Christmas On Our 25th Anniversary" and the parade is expected to be the biggest ever. Entry forms are available at the Chamber office. The parade will proceed east along Montreal Road to Marlborough, north on Marlborough to Second Street, west on Second Street to the Royal Canadian Legion.

United Way Promotion Wins Big!

ERIC HARPS

Mr. Eric Harps, Chair of the Canadian Tire/United Way Promotion is pleased to advise the community of the final results from this promotion which was held from October 30th through 'til November 2nd, 1996. We received a total of $4,946.00 made up of $497.00 cash and $4,449.00 from the "Canadian Tire Money."

Mr. Harps stated that he was very pleased with the monetary results of this special activity but further states that the exposure the United Way volunteers were given was a tremendous boost to our overall fundraising campaign currently underway to raise $450,000 for our sixteen (16) agencies under our umbrella of support.

During this special promotion there were over three hundred (300) volunteers required to handle this function and they came from all walks of life.

Special credit will be given to this group of great workers at a later date.

We are also thankful to the management of this store for making this promotion available to the local United Way.

Frank Mills
A Celebration of Christmas

Tickets go on sale Friday, November 8th, for a concert with Frank Mills, performing at Cornwall's Aultsville Theatre on Wednesday, December 11th, at 8 pm.

What better way to get in the holiday spirit than with Frank Mills' "Celebration of Christmas"! Last here in December 1993, the creator of such classics as Peter Piper, Sunday Morning Suite and Mary Queen of Scots, has once again invited Cornwall's Centennial Choir to sing along with a host of seasonal and audience favourites ... and yes, there will be an audience sing-along as well. Of course, the evening wouldn't be complete without the award-winnning pianist and composer playing his ever-popular Music Box Dancer!

CORRECTIVE NOTICE BY ST. CLAIR PAINT & WALLPAPER CORPORATION

The Director of Investigation and Research (Competition Bureau, Industry Canada) has informed us that the representations published by St.Clair Paint & Wallpaper Corporation between February 1, 1994 and February 1, 1995 promoting savings claims based on the "after sale price" of paint products have raised questions under paragraphs 52(1)(a) and 52(1)(d), the misleading advertising provisions of the Competitions Act.

The advertisements contained representations such as:

"1/2 Price", "40% OFF" and "Save $ 5"

that were based on the after sale prices of paint products. The Director has indicated that she has reason to believe that the majority of sales of the paint products occurred at the special prices and not at the "after sale prices".

St. Clair Paint & Wallpaper Corporation undertakes to ensure in all future advertising that any savings claims are based on the normal or regular selling price of the paint products it offers for sale.

$25,000 Won in Morrisburg

A scrap iron and metal dealer, Randy Richmire of Iroquois, won $25,000 last Sunday after his son Jamie scratched an Ontario Instant Millions $5 ticket. Richmire bought three tickets and gave one to his son to scratch for him. Mr. Richmire says he'll spend most of the money renovating his house, except for $100 which he gave to his son ("that was all he asked for").

Christmas Exchange Getting Ready

The South Dundas Christmas Exchange Co-Operative is getting ready for another Christmas season. Supported by church groups, local businesses and community organizations, the Co-Operative attempts to make Christmas a little better for needy family in South Dundas. Last year the organization was able to provide food baskets for 200 families needing help. They also provided approximately 300 gifts for local children. Donations this year are off to a good start with a generous donation from the Bank of Montreal staff in Williamsburg, the Morrisburg District Lions Club and The St. Mary's, St. Cecilia's Catholic Women's League. Families wishing to register for assistance may do so by calling 543-3193 between 1 and 4 pm Monday to Friday from November 11 - 29th. If you wish to make a donation, you may also call 543-3193.

Health Services Sharing Office Space

The Eastern Ontario Health Units will be sharing office space with the SD&G Developmental Services, Tri-County Mental Health Services and Para-Med Health Services. The combined health services office will be at 457 Main Street, Winchester, in the revamped OMAF building. The new arrangement will reduce costs as well as provide better organized health services to the area.

Ministry of Transportation Cuts

The Ministry of Transportation will be cutting eight jobs in Morrisburg due to privatization of road maintenance contracts. Eighteen Ministry jobs will be lost in the region, with 76 lost across the province.

$100,000 Raised for World Aid

More than $100,000 was raised for world aid during the second annual Char-Lan Foodgrains bank harvest last weekend. The six combines took 1-1/2 hours to harvest a 40 acre crop of corn to be donated to the fight against world hunger. At approximately $155 a tonne, the Foodgrains harvest is worth more than $20,000. The Canadian International Development Agency will match funding at a 4:1 ratio, making to crop increase to 655 tonnes worth $100,000. Most of the donations have come from members of 16 churches, which includes almost all the churches from every denomination in the two townships and villages.

Alexandria Rejects Casino

The town of Alexandria voted NO to a possible casino recently in a referendum. The no side won 827 to 753, a narrow margin in a referendum that saw only 53 percent of 2931 eligible voters. The no side won every poll except the advanced poll (Oct. 26). Supporters of the casino say that it would have done the town a lot of good and brought new business.

Student Needed For Exchange Program

The Chesterville & District Rotary Club is hoping to find a local candidate to take part in its student exchange program for the 1997-98 school year. Interested students should be going into grade 11, 12, or 13 next year and can suggest the three countries they would like to visit. If you are interested, call Rob Saunders at 448-2580. Deadline for submissions is November 23.

Riverbank Gets New Look

The Chesterville riverbank is getting a new look thanks to an improvement project taking place. The improvements are sponsored by the village, South Nation River Conservation Authority, Nestle and the Rotary Club. 240 different shrubs have been planted beside the Municipal Building and boat launch, including chokecherry, dogwood and pussywillows. The riverbank beside the municipal office has already been regraded and a retaining wall built. More improvements are planned for the spring.

Blood Donor Clinic

The Red Cross will be holding a blood donor clinic on November 13 at the Winchester Public School from 2:00 pm to 4:30 pm and from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm. Donors are advised to bring identification with them.

Thank A Veteran

You know he was in World War II
Whether or not he's related to you
Take this opportunity to,
"Thank A Veteran".

Your present life is worry free
And we hope that it will always be,
No war to fight, no enemy,
"Thank A Veteran".

They were there together one and all,
To serve their country, at the call,
To make sure your future woes are small,
"Thank A Veteran".

There are many stories they can tell,
As their thoughts go back to those who fell,
The price they paid, so you'd live well,
"Thank A Veteran".

Don't make a fuss, or hire a band,
Just let them know that you understand,
They were there when needed, to lend a hand,
Just "Thank A Veteran".

Leo Butler, Cornwall

Remember

She sits in a house alone again,
And the memories slowly and softly creep in.
She holds his picture in her tired, old hands,
She thinks of the war that was spread over lands.
The men and the women, courageous and brave,
About the fight only peace could save.
A tea falls down her withered old cheek,
She tries to brush it away but she is too weak.
Suddenly a knock interrupts her tears,
She gets up with the slowness she has gained over years.
She opens the door and there they stand,
Three young children with poppies in their hands.
She smiles kindly and motions them in,
They pull out a poppy on a pin.
And tell her the story of the horrible war,
And tell her why we should remember more.
Then they hand her a poppy and slowly propose,
That she buy one in remembrance of those,
Who fought and were buried in far away places,
Of the poppies that now cover their young faces.
She smiles and gives them the change she can find,
They thank her and praise her for being so kind.
She closes the door and walks back to her chair.
It makes her feel better to know young people care.

CANADA REMEMBERS
LE CANADA SE SOUVIENT

The essay "A New Look At Remembrance Day" and the poem "Remember" were the first place winners in the Royal Canadian Legion Remembrance Contest for 1996 in the Intermediate Category.

A New Look At Remembrance Day

As I bowed my head in silence, my brain went blank. Wasn't I supposed to feel something? Maybe, my soul was suppose to reach out to all those soldiers who died fighting, but I felt nothing. Guilt swept over me, I knew I was suppose to thank those soldiers, but how could I if I thought Remembrance Day was a good way of missing school? Boy, was this going to be the longest minute of my life. After the silent minute was over I sat down on the hard, old, wooden bench and tried to concentrate. I watched as the choir sung with such passion, I almost started to feel something. But all too soon, the singing was over and some kids went up on stage to read their endless speeches. I was just about to fall asleep, when something caught my eye. A man in a wheelchair rolled into our gymnasium. Everyone's eyes followed this one legged man as the principal rambled on. The principal's voice boomed over the microphone, "And now I'm very pleased to introduce, Mr. John Kampen."

I watched, along with the whole school as Mr. Kampen rolled up to the stage and began with, "Good morning ladies and gentlemen". We responded quite enthusiastically, "Good morning Mr. Kampen". This assembly could be interesting after all. He started off by saying how his leg was lost. That grabbed everyone's attention. He had been out on the warfield and was too near to a bomb and his leg had to be amputated. He then went on to explain how he had lost his wife and children in World War II. All of a sudden, the snickering stopped and the room was silent. He explained the casualties of war. Soon I began to feel something, this frail old man touched my heart. He left the stage and some people began crying. We were instructed to go to our classes but I stayed. I bowed my head in silence for as long as it took to thank those who brought the freedom I have today, but not only did I thank them I also let all my sympathy and love to all out there who were involved in the wars. As I raised my head, tears streaked down my face, and there before me was Mr. Kampen. He understood what I was doing and a smile swept over his face, he whispered softly, "Thank You". I stared at him as he wheeled out of the door. I stood up and left the room with a new perspective of Remembrance Day.

TARGETING YOUR EMPLOYMENT NEEDS

O.S. Plastics Inc., a local manufacturer of corrugated plastic sheets, called Plasticor, opened for business in 1986, in Brossard, Quebec. Its' founders, Mr. Bob Livingstone and Ms. Anne Fontaine started the business with one plastic extrusion machine and workforce of less than ten employees. The company experienced significant growth in its' first four years of operation and its' founders chose to seek the involvement of a major partner, to assist with the financing of a second extrusion machine, in order to meet the increasing demand for their product.

With a very clear business development plan in mind, the partners, focusing on customer service, quick and efficient delivery and a good quality product relocated their manufacturing facility to the Cornwall area in 1994, carrying with them eight weeks of orders in house. Their plan was clear; to secure a larger facility and install a third extrusion line, with the intention of creating a fourth line should the market demand for their product continue to grow. Of significant importance to O.S. Plastics Inc. was the location of their new facility, due to the fact that the volume of raw materials purchased per year continued to grow. The availability of rail car delivery directly to their site had to be seriously considered. Fortunately, a location meeting their needs was readily available.

In 1995, O.S. Plastics Inc. acquired their third extrusion machine, fully equipped with the latest computer technology. This third line allows the company an annual production in excess of 52 million square feet of Plasticor in various colours and thicknesses. Today, the company employs 50 employees and operates seven days a week, 24 hours per day.

The need from their larger customers for a quality commitment has prompted O.S. Plastics Inc. to begin the process of ISO 9002 certification. The company feels that they will be ready to conduct an external audit in early 1997.

This year, O.S. Plastics Inc. will be celebrating its' 10th Anniversary. The company's management and share holders wish to thank all of their employees who have helped them attain their goals. This is why SOLUTIONS salutes O.S. Plastics Inc. for the month of November, 1996.

Understanding Equity Investments!

by Timothy Ming, P.Eng., M.B.A.

In spite of being the one investment that truly out distances the others, many people are afraid to invest in equities and a large source of this fear is due to lack of knowledge.

Who ... needs equities? Everybody! Whether you are 25 or 55 your investment goal should be to produce the greatest possible total return. Equities are a must even in the most conservative portfolio. A conservative portfolio will be the one which is most vulnerable to the inevitable risk of loss of purchasing power. The following will explain why.

What ... are equities? In effect, equities are ownership in companies and businesses. This ownership is represented by common stocks. There is a common perception that ownership is only for the rich. That's not necessarily true. What is true is that the rich often display a high percentage of ownership in securities in their portfolios. The wealthy understand that ownership is really ACTIVE capital producing a profit, while loanership is a much more passive use of funds which produces "guaranteed" interest income. Not only does ownership of businesses produce superior returns before tax, but the after tax return is even more appealing as compared to interest yielding investments because of their tax-favoured treatment upon redemption.

When ... should you invest in equities? Ideally whenever you have the money and a reasonable understanding of your long term financial goals. Equities are excellent for long term wealth building for the purposes of retirement, children's education and financial independence. The earlier you start in life the better you will be able to take advantage of the time available for you to collect equities at a lower cost. Remember, equity investing is more about time and not so much about timing.

Where ... do you find the right equities to invest in? Unless you have a large amount of money getting an adequately diversified portfolio of stocks can be quite difficult. Diversification reduces the risk associated to owning a single business. Through equity mutual funds, investors can have instant diversification and enjoy the expertise of the astute money managers who will search out opportunities and decide which businesses to own on your behalf. They are an excellent way to diversify not only among companies but also among industries and countries.

How ... to get started investing in equities? First determine the amount of money you have available to invest. The money should be an amount you can invest for 5 years or longer. An excellent source of long term funds is your RRSP. Also, set aside 10% of your net income on an on-going basis and use that money to invest. Also, ensure you develop a diversified equity based investment strategy based on the large number of top flight equity funds available.

A Few Tips?

1) Canada has never lead the world in equity market performance in the last 20 years. Even the mighty United States has come up number one only once in that same period. Therefore wise investors should diversify outside of North America for above average performance.

2) Preferred shares are a special class of equities. They are also an excellent alternative to traditional interest bearing investments. Because of the dividend tax credit and the preferential tax treatment associated with Canadian dividend funds.

3) Most well structured mutual funds allow for systematic monthly withdrawals. Past records clearly illustrate that quality mutual funds far outperformed GIC's. Due to inflation over time and the fact that we are living longer, even older people should consider equities as a portion of their portfolio to avoid running out of funds.

Proper execution is the key. Be sure to discuss your strategies with a financial consultant.

CORNWALL AND AREA HOSPITAL RENEWAL PROJECT

HOW CAN THE COMMUNITY PARTICIPATE?

Last week's insert on the subject of the Hospital Renewal Project introduced the health care system and briefly explained why changes to this system are currently being considered across the province. The project to restructure Cornwall's two hospitals is now at the stage of consulting the community in order to obtain input and feedback.

The Hospital System Renewal Project is reviewing four options. They are:

Option "S"
Resembles the current situation except that each organization would operate with thirteen percent reduction in revenue from the Ministry of Health.

Option "O"
All hospital programs would be offered at one site (McConnell Street or Second Street location).

Option "T"
This option provides for two hospital sites where continuing care would be offered at one site and acute care at the other site. Two separate management structures would be maintained.

Option "C"
This option offers the same division of services as in Option "T" but both sites would operate under one management structure.

Throughout the following weeks, there will be many opportunities for you to express your views on the Hospital System Renewal Project. The Steering Committee will then carefully study your suggestions and will address your concerns in their decision of which option should be chosen. The overall objective of the Hospital System Renewal Project is to maintain excellence in health care services, to achieve operational efficiencies while ensuring accessibility of a full range of health services to the community. The major goal of the community consultation process is to identify needed service improvements for our area.

HOW & WHEN YOU CAN PARTICIPATE

FOCUS GROUP SESSIONS

Nov. 18 (Alexandria) French & English, Nov. 19 (Cornwall) French & English, Nov.-20 (Winchester and Akwesasne) English Only: A focus group session is a structured process where people meet for approximately two hours in order to discuss a specific question. If you are interested in participating, you must meet all of the following selection criteria: 1) resident of S.D. & G. or Akwesasne; 2) 18 years and up, 3) have used CGH and/or Hotel Dieu Hospital (RHSJHC) in the past 36 months, 4) placed your call to register between November 11 and November 14 and, 5) willing to provide name, address, phone number and reason for participation. Please call the District Health Council at (613) 933-9585 to register. Candidates will be notified November 15.

OPEN HOUSE - December 10, 1996

An Open House is an informal drop-in format where members of the community can review the options on a one-to-one basis with members of the Steering Committee and obtain a consultation document. It is an opportunity for citizens to raise concerns and obtain clarification. The Open House will take place from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. and from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. at the Civic Complex, Gallery 1.

PUBLIC FORUM - January 7, 1997

The Public Forum session will be from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. This session is reserved for individuals or interest groups who will give a 10-15 minute presentation to voice their concerns and provide suggestions. Each group or individual will need to register and provide a written submission of their oral presentation at the Forum. Please call the District Health Council at (613) 933-9585 to register.

Hospital Staff Consultation: A consulation with hospital staff is scheduled for early December.

There are four other ways for you to share your views, concerns or suggestions. Please note that you must provide your name, phone number and address to validate your input.

- Phone Line Message Centre, December 11 to December 20: Phone # (613) 933-9249.
- Fax Line and E-Mail Input Centre: November 11 to December 20: Fax line # (613) 933-1987. E-Mail: dhc@cnwl.igs.net
- Mailing address: Hospital Renewal Project, 7-841 Sydney Street, Suite #312, Cornwall, Ontario, K6H 3J7
- Consultation Document: Copies can be obtained after December 6. Please call (613) 933-9585.

This is a paid advertisement by the District Health Council of Eastern Ontario.

PROJET DE RENOUVELLEMENT DU SYSTÈME HOSPITALIER DE LA RÉGION DE CORNWALL

DE QUELLE FAÇON LA COMMUNAUTÉ PEUT-ELLE PARTICIPER?

L'encart de la semaine dernière sur le Projet de renouvellement du système hospitalier donnait des renseignements généraux sur le système de santé et expliquait brièvement les raisons pour lesquelles ce système est actuellement à l'étude à l'échelle de la province. Le projet de restructuration des deux hôpitaux de Cornwall est maintenant rendu au stade de la consultation populaire en vue de recueillir des commentaires et des suggestions.

Les quatre modèles suivants sont actuellement analysés dans le cadre du Projet de renouvellement du système hospitalier :

Le modèle «S»
S'apparente à celui actuellement en place, sauf que chaque organisme fonctionnerait avec une coupure de 13 p. 100. Imposè par le ministére de la santè.

Le modèle «O»
Tous les programmes hospitaliers seraient offerts à partir d'un seul établissement (celui de la rue McConnell ou celui de la Deuxième Rue).

Le modèle «T»
Ce modèle préconise l'exploitation des deux hôpitaux, l'un réservé aux soins continus et l'autre aux soins actifs. Deux entités administratives demeureraient en place.

Le modèle «C»
Ce modèle préconise la même répartition de services que celle proposée pour le modèle «T», sauf que les deux établissements relèveraient de la même entité administrative.

Au cours des prochaines semaines, vous aurez de nombreuses occasions d'exprimer vos opinions sur le Projet de renouvellement du système hospitalier. Le Comité directeur étudiera ensuite vos suggestions soigneusement et tiendra compte de vos préoccupations au moment de choisir le modèle de prestation. Le Projet de renouvellement du système hospitalier vise, dans l'ensemble, à maintenir l'excellence des services de soins de santé et à atteindre la rentabilité opérationnelle tout en assurant l'accessibilité à une gamme complète de services de santé aux membres de la communauté. La consultation populaire vise essentiellement à cerner les services qui doivent être améliorés dans notre région.

QUAND ET DE QUELLE FAÇON POUVEZ-VOUS PARTICIPER?

Réunions des groupes de discussion : le 18 novembre (Alexandria, en français et en anglais), le 19 novembre (Cornwall, en français et en anglais) et le 20 novembre (Winchester et Akwesasne, en anglais seulement) - Une réunion de groupe de discussion est un processus structuré permettant aux intervenants de se rencontrer pendant environ deux heures en vue de discuter d'un sujet en particulier. Toute personne intéressée à y participer doit satisfaire tous les critères d'admission suivants : 1) habiter dans les comtés de SDG ou encore à Akwesasne; 2) être âgée de 18 ans ou plus; 3) avoir utilisé les services du CGH ou de l'Hôpital Hôtel-Dieu (CSRHSJ) au cours des 36 derniers mois; 4) avoir soumis votre demande de participation entre le 11 et le 14 novembre; 5) accepter de fournir votre nom, votre adresse et votre numéro de téléphone, puis de préciser la raison de votre participation. Pour vous inscrire, communiquez avec le Conseil régional de santé au (613) 933-9585. Nous aviserons les candidats le 15 novembre.

Journée portes ouvertes, le 10 décembre 1996 - Une journée portes ouvertes est un processus de consultation sans formalité qui permet aux membres de la communauté d'étudier les modèles envisagés, de façon individuelle, avec les membres du Comité directeur et d'obtenir le document de consultation. C'est le moment idéal pour les membres de la communauté d'exprimer leurs préoccupations et d'obtenir des précisions. La journée portes ouvertes aura lieu de 14 h à 16 h, puis de 19 h à 21 h au Centre civique de Cornwall, salle Gallery I.

Forum communautaire, le 7 janvier 1997 - La réunion organisée dans le cadre du forum communautaire aura lieu de 9 h à 16 h. Cette réunion est réservée aux personnes et aux groupes d'intervention qui y feront un exposé de 10 à 15 minutes en vue de présenter leurs préoccupations et leurs suggestions. Chacun des groupes et chacune des personnes devra s'inscrire et soumettre un plan écrit de l'exposé oral qu'il aimerait faire dans le cadre du forum. Pour vous inscrire, veuillez téléphoner au Conseil régional de santé au (613) 933-9585.

Consultation auprès du personnel : Une séance de consultation est prévue avec le personnel hospitalier en décembre.

Vous pouvez également exprimer vos opinions, vos préoccupations et vos suggestions de l'une des quatre façons suivantes . N'oubliez pas que pour valider vos commentaires, vous devez fournir votre nom, votre adresse et votre numéro de téléphone.

Centre de messages téléphoniques - du 11 décembre au 20 décembre : (613) 933-9249

Centre de télécopies et de courrier électronique : du 11 novembre au 20 décembre :
Télécopieur : (613) 933-1987

CRIME STOPPERS

STORMONT

Seaway Valley Crime Stoppers needs your help in solving a smash and grab at a local clothing store which occurred at 7:00 am Thursday, the 31st of October 1996.

Two thieves smashed a window at Kastner's Clothing Store and stole $2,700 worth of coats and jackets.

Suspect #1: white male, 5'11", 170 lbs., pointy nose, sandy coloured medium length hair, wearing a yellow & black jacket.

Suspect #2: driver: male, white, 5'8" to 5'9", heavy build, 170 lbs., short dark hair, wearing blue jeans.

The suspects were seen loading the coats into a fairly clean white four door car, mid size with Ontario plates, with the back of the car being described as square shaped. Vehicle was last seen travelling eastbound on First Street.

Plants Have Many Powers

by Lyne Carrière
Youth Services Council

There is a benefit in preserving the knowledge of plants and increasing the public's appreciation, in the wild and in our yards. Most medicines, past and present, are derived from plants. Yet, the art of folk medicine is slowly disappearing, which creates the loss of an important part of our heritage.

Local folk medicine practitioners and herbalists have identified the healing powers of the plants. Some are used for their symptomatic basis and others play a role in divination.

Symptomatic plants help cure mild discomforts such as fevers, diarrhea, weakness, chills and vomiting. They have a preventive value. They are blood purifiers, diaphoretics, or laxatives. Yarrow, blood root and dandelions are thought to cure vague internal pains, swellings, sore eyes, blindness, cysts, boils and piles.

Medicine plants used in divination are more powerful than the symptomatic basis. The same diseases, having an increased intensity or duration, can be cured with these types of plants. They are also used in the spirit world to determine events from the past or the future.

In the area, there are still some people who practice folk medicine or have knowledge in botany. Vince Fiorito has designed a rock and medicine garden for the Cornwall Ecology Park. To create the climate needed for longevity and low maintenance, Vince has chosen to incorporate rocks into the garden because of their natural look and permanence. Come visit the park and learn about our native heritage. For more information about the medicine garden or to volunteer at the Ecology Park, contact Melissa Earle at 933-9675.

You've waited all year for this.
Your patience will be well rewarded.

Quebec's Ex-Nazi Past Rises To Surface Again

PERSPECTIVE

By Bob Roth
SEAWAY NEWS

It is a time many Canadians - particularly Quebecers - would like to forget: the 1930s and 40s when fascism was alive and well in this country.

Although it is seldom discussed in polite circles today, there was a significant pro-fascist, anti-semitic movement in this country, and it was strongest in La Belle Province.

That sordid past, like soured cream, rose to the top again this week when it was revealed that Prime Minister Jean Chretien had appointed an ex-Nazi sympathizer to the post of Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec.

At press time, it has just been announced that Lieutenant-Governor Jean-Louis Roux was tendering his resignation, following the startling revelation that he wore a swastika and attended a pro-Nazi rally in Montreal during the Second World War.

This was the best person that Chretien could find to represent the Queen in Quebec.

Coming as it did, on the eve of Remembrance Day, the revelation was simply too much of an offence to common decency.

For those of you who missed the story, the background is such: Roux was appointed in September. A week or so ago, "L'Actualite, a French-language news magazine, interviewed Roux where he admitted he wore a swastika on his clothes during the war and participated in a 1942 demonstration in downtown Montreal where the windows of stores with foreign sounding names, "mostly Israeli", were broken. (In fact, he means mostly Jewish, because the State of Israel didn't come into existence until well after the war).

Roux was quoted as saying that during a stay in France after the war, he "could see the devastations of a war caused by nationalist ambitions. Immediately, nationalism became detestable in my eyes."

Isn't that an expression of insight? "Immediately" after six million Jews were fried and millions of allied soldiers left their blood on the fields of Europe, this master of 20/20 hindsight decides that the war was a bad idea. So did every other Nazi collaborator, apologist and dupe.

Surely we could have found someone to fill the symbolic office of lieutenant-governor who did not have such a tarnished past? Surely, we could have found someone who wore the Distinguished Service Cross during the war, rather than the swastika.

Roux's unsavoury past once again focuses on the pro-fascist movement that existed in Quebec during that time. Many of the "intelligentsia" in Quebec were openly anti-Jewish. The St. Jean Baptiste Society, for example, took an official stand urging Canada not to accept Jews fleeing Europe.

In this historic context, the appointment of Roux was offensive enough, but it was particularly contemptible in view of the continuing expressions of racism and anti-Semitism that emanate from that province.

Who can forget, for example, former Premier Jacques Parizeau's comment that the "ethnic vote" cost francophones (the only "pure" master race of Quebec) to lose the most recent referendum? Also, on more than one occasion in recent years, other Quebec leaders have specifically singled out Jews for their unwillingness to acquiesce to the separatist cause.

If ever there was a time to appoint a lieutenant-governor of Quebec with an unblemished record on this issue, it is now.

A person who was wearing a swastika three years after we declared war on the Nazis is hardly someone who deserved to be lieutenant-governor - not to mention his participation in the Canadian version of "Kristallnacht" (night of broken glass), where young Germans ran through the streets of Berlin smashing the windows of Jewish shops.

This November 11, many of us will remember.

Let's hope the PM does too. And this time, makes the right choice.

SEAWAY NEWS
LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Setting The Record Straight

Dear Editor:

On reading your Scuttlebutt column of November 2, 1996, it is apparent that there is some grave misconceptions being passed on to your readers regarding the snowsuit fund by your column.

The first question posed in the column asks "Why so many snow suits are required when social service recipients receive clothing allowances for their children." My reply to this is to simply ask the poser of this question to price a good quality snowsuit or jacket in the stores and then discover how much will be left over to buy underwear, pants, sweaters and boots with what is left over from the $102.

Further to the above, not all applicants to the fund get the mentioned clothing allowance. We are also serving clients, who for want of better words are the working poor. A large number of our population are trying to get along working for minimum and near minimum wage with no clothing allowance benefits. These people we also serve and wish to continue to do so. However, with negative publicity as printed in your column, the finances for doing so will not be available.

The second question posed "Why are the citizens of Cornwall donating money to the snow suit fund to clothe the children of Cornwall, when carloads of people from the province of Quebec are getting their snowsuits from the fund. This is totally false. There have been however, over the past few months, an influx of people to the city of Cornwall from Montreal who are now bonafide residents of the city. This is verified at the fund office by social service documents, Ontario drug benefit cards, and Cornwall Housing cards. These people are your new neighbours and like any good neighbour, the Cornwall and District Snow Suit Fund, while it is able to do so, will try to help those that need help. Again, however we will not be able to do so if published misinformation is to be believed and our campaign efforts are destroyed by the publishing of same.

In summation, I would request that if any further information may be required on the operation of the Snowsuit Fund, the courtesy of a call to our organization would be appreciated prior to publishing.

Yours Respectfully,
Robert C. Dulmage
Treasurer
Cornwall & District
Snowsuit Fund

Three Cheers For Mr. Bob Roth!

Dear Mr. Roth:

Thank you Mr. Roth for continuing your "one sided" debate with these radical feminists. I would have continued to do the same, but let's just say I grew tired of fighting "what seems" to be an impossible battle. I haven't run out of things to say (just the opposite), I can't keep up with the injustices I've found.

First of all, I would like to state a couple of "facts" before I go any further.

1) Men are the primary victims of all violent crimes except for rape (surprise, surprise).

2) If we could stop this abuse "that men suffer" our world would truly be a safe place to live. "It is" the real cycle of abuse that needs to be broken.

So why don't we have "violence against men" marches? Is this not a problem or what? I think they're just afraid that men would take advantage of a "victimization status" just like women have. There's never an excuse to hit a woman (but hey), there's always an excuse to kill a man, right? Now who's going to tell me that this isn't taking advantage, and that women (never) take advantage of this special privilege?

Mrs. MacMillan's statement that all forms of violence are equally important just didn't connect with me at all. First of all, if violence against men was as tragic as violence against women, then why am "I" the only one who ever seems to talk about it? Secondly, Mrs. MacMillan said "Yet most men have died at the hands of men". In other words, men are murdered about three times more often than women, but women are still the greater victims because it's "them against us", you see. I see all right.

Mrs. MacMillan also said "we walk with our heads high and our fists ready". Congratulations. You've just accomplished something that men have been doing since the beginning of time. Now just shut up about it and "take it like a man" if you truly want to be equal to us.

United Way of Cornwall & District

Mr. Eugène Cardinal, Campaign Chair of the United Way of Cornwall and District is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Tim Kirkby as Chair of the Government Division which includes federal, provincial and municipal offices in the Cornwall and District area.

KIRKBY

This is Mr. Kirkby's first year as a Division Chair and from early returns the indications are that this important area will show gains, despite the downsizing that has taken place during the past year.

In making this announcement, Mr. Cardinal states that he is pleased to have an enthusiastic and skilled fundraiser like Tim Kirkby on his Campaign Team.

Who is Monitoring The Advertising in Local Daily?

Cornwall's daily newspaper, the Standard-Freeholder, got its fingers burned recently when it published a libelous advertisement about Mayor Ron Martelle.

From September 17, 1996 to September 19, 1996, the paper printed an advertisement under the heading of "Wanted - RESPONSIBLE CANADIANS" from a man who identified himself as "Stan Body" and said his advertisement was run on behalf of a group called the "Association of Canadian Independents Responsible Action Party".

The ad, which was pure gibberish to start with and contained some ridiculous political ideas which just can't be done - like legislating a maximum five percent prime interest rate - took some unwarranted, misleading and untrue shots at the mayor.

Some of the accusations were so outrageous that Mr. Martelle was forced to hire a lawyer, obtain a legal opinion as to his rights and threaten the local paper with a lawsuit if the harm wasn't corrected.

The paper, which is often quick to jump on the mayor without much reason but equally fast not to part with its profits, quickly saw the error of its ways and printed a formal apology. Lawyers can do that to you, you know.

The paper said it "sincerely regrets" the publication of the ad, admitted that it contained allegations there were "untrue, without factual foundation and unfair."

It then extended its "apologies" to the mayor.

No wonder.

What the ad had to say about the mayor - aside from its equally ludicrous political ideas - was so blatantly libelous that anybody - repeat anybody - should have seen it before it went into the paper. Why the paper's advertising department was asleep is hard to tell. It makes you worry about what else they may be missing.

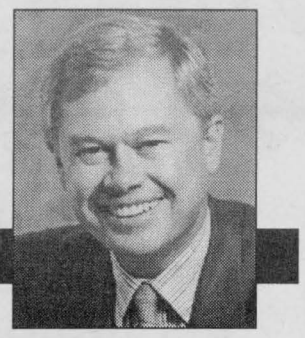
The mayor, being a decent sort, didn't insist on damages - to which he had a perfect right - but asked instead that the paper print an apology and pay his legal costs of about $1,700, which the Standard-Freeholder did.

You have to wonder why an ad like this went into the paper in the first place and just how well the paper watches what it prints before it accepts copy.

Anyway, after having acted in several libel cases for newspapers when they were sued, I can tell you this: there's nothing like having your fingers burned in atrocious mistakes like this to make you humble. The paper should be lucky that the mayor is a nice guy and didn't institute a full blown lawsuit which he would most certainly win.

MEANWHILE...

Fred Sagel



Speaking of the mayor, it is interesting to note that he has his sights set on higher political office - maybe.

He's had recent talks with Reform Party leader Preston Manning and will soon be talking with Progressive Conservative leader Jean Charest. Both want him to run for federal office.

When I heard about the rumour, I called the mayor and asked him about it. In his usual forthright manner, he didn't deny it, confirming that he had talked to Mr. Manning and was going to be meeting with Mr. Charest to see if he was interested in representing the Stormont Dundas riding in parliament.

My sources in Ottawa tell me that both parties are very keen on having Mr. Martelle throw his hat in the ring. They say he is seen as bold and courageous, a fighter for the little guy, a principled politician and somebody who isn't afraid to get into trouble if there's controversy.

"He's a fighter and people like that in him," a friend in the Conservative party told me, warning me that "we just hope he doesn't run for the Reform Party. We'd rather have him."

And don't count him out when it comes to winning the riding from the Liberals.

Although the do-nothing Liberals are still popular for the very reason that they are not offending very many people, the tide is beginning to turn. The party's lies on the GST issue, its outright fraudulent behaviour on the NAFTA issue and its string of broken promises may come back to haunt it.

The Reform Party's platform, which looks relatively appetizing, may well catch fire among the dispirited and those who recognize just how badly the country is in debt. While the federal Conservatives had their chance in government for a decade, they failed to do much about the fiscal situation. They will still, however, be a force to be reckoned with in the upcoming election.

My bet on the mayor? He'll run for the Conservatives.

BASIC BLACK

SEAWAY NEWS

I was in a lineup at my supermarket the other day when my eye fell on the front page of one of those trash tabloids they keep near the checkout counters. There was a big colour photograph of some decrepit old guy who looked spaced out and forlorn. I squinted a little closer.

It was Bob Hope.

The famous comedian is in his eighties now and he looks old and feeble, with rheumy eyes and crepe-like skin. He looks like a cruel parody of the Bob Hope I carry around in my mind. My Bob Hope has glistening, slicked-back hair and a ski jump nose. His black-button eyes are alert and piercing. His lips are curled in a wisecrack grin.

That's the Bob Hope who imprinted himself on my brain, back when he was middle-aged and I was a kid.

Well, now I'm middle-aged and Bob Hope is a geezer. It's difficult to get used to. Just like it's hard to get used to the idea of Roy Rogers with arthritis or Elizabeth Taylor as a pudgy grandmother.

Of course a lot of my childhood heroes are even further down Life's road than that. Remember curly-haired Dean Martin? A guy who never seemed to have his photo taken unless he had a cigarette in one hand and a drink in the other? Dead. And everybody's favourite redhead? Married to that crazy Cuban? Everybody loved Lucy. She was immortal, right?

Wrong. Lucille Ball is gone. So, for that matter, is the crazy Cuban.

Bogey. Clark Gable. Marilyn Monroe.

Makes a guy feel old.

And that's just the humans - how about the animals that were supposed to live forever. Where are the Lassies and Rin Tin Tins of my youth? Gone, long gone. To the Big Doghouse in the Sky.

Thank heavens for Cheetah?

You don't remember Cheetah? My, you're young. Cheetah was Tarzan's sidekick - a goofy chimpanzee who followed the apeman through the jungle. Cheetah didn't have a lot of lines to memorize. Usually he just had to jump up and down and scream EEK! EEK! EEK! But he did it well and endeared himself in the hearts of moviegoers everywhere.

I never did figure out why they gave a cat's name to a chimp, but they did and the whole world learned to accept it. And unlike Lassie and Rin Tin Tin, there was only one Cheetah. His career outlasted that of several Tarzans, including Johnny Weissmuller, Lex Barker and Ron Ely.

Cheetah was in the movies even before I was a kid. 'Way back in the early forties when Bob Hope was a spunky up and comer and even Elizabeth Taylor had only been married maybe three or four times.

He had an incredible career for any Hollywood actor, never mind a chimpanzee, but do you know what's even more incredible?

Cheetah's still around/ He's 64 years old, retired and living a life of ease in Palm Springs, California. Cheetah is owned by a fellow named Dan Westfall - if "owned" is the correct word. Westfall's main function seems to be to keep Cheetah amused. And the best way he's found to do that is to make sure Cheetah never runs out of beer or cigars.

Cheetah, it would seem, is a bit of a souse. He cracks a dozen Budweisers every day and manages to puff his way through about ten stogies as well.

"If he behaves himself," says Westfall, "I give him a bottle of schnapps once a month too."

Of course, being retired, Cheetah does his smoking and boozing in Westfall's backyard, out of the public eye.

Just as well. He'd make a helluva role model for the worlds young, impressionable chimps.

Women in Business

A Monthly Review of Entrepreneurial Women in Cornwall and Area

Barbara's Flower Boutique

A Cornwall woman who made her mark in the local flower business and is well known in the community for her volunteer work, is working now to match people with similar interests.

Barbara Collette owns and operates Barbara's Flower Boutique located on Cumberland near Second Street West. She also arranges dances and introductions for those in the singles scene.

Barbara is a native of Cornwall and completed her secondary school education at Cornwall Collegiate and Vocational School. All through high school she helped her mother with floral design work.

"I really wanted to be a phys ed teacher, but I suffered a sports injury in Grade 12 which prevented me from teaching phys ed," she says. "So I realized flowers were a new way of life for me, so I decided to change careers."

On completing high school, Barbara went to work for a Cornwall flower shop, but eventually decided to go on her own in 1975, opening Barbara's Flower Boutique on Augustus Street. Business went well and she moved to her current location in 1987.

She says that, like many people, she realized that it would be better to own the building that the business was located in and the location on Cumberland was ideal for her purposes.

Barbara feels the best part of the business is working with the customer. She says when a person orders flowers from her, she is really attempting to satisfy two customers, the one sending the flowers and the one receiving them.

"I was extremely lucky because I learned that very quickly, being in business for myself," she says.

Interestingly, the biggest challenge came when she became a single mother. She says the business became more important to her because it was the family's only source of income.

The business itself has been up and down through the years, reflecting the changing economic conditions. Today Barbara's Flower Boutique employs five people.

Like any business, Barbara uses satisfied customers to attract business, and she tries to accent the unusual or different - for example this month she has cuddly bears and all stuffed critters on sale for 25 percent off.

As if the flower shop wasn't enough, Barbara also got involved in running Barb's singles dances, usually on Saturdays at the Navy Club. She says many of the people who attend her dances participate in other activities such as a scavenger hunt which benefits the annual toy drive and snowsuit fund.

Most recently, Barbara has started an introduction service called, appropriately enough, "Introductions".

"A person will come in and register and fill out a form," she says. "This allows us to match people based on their interests and hobbies. After the two meet they usually go for coffee and it is up to them how far it goes from there."

While most people are looking for a romantic relationship, Barbara says she has found many people also join just to meet new people and get some new friends.

For Barbara though, that is hardly a problem.

She was Big Sister of the Year in 1987, is an active member of the Rotary Club, past co-chair of the Seaway Arts Council, chair of the Cornwall Art Board, a member of the Lung Association Festival of Trees Committee and is a past-president of the Cornwall Ad and Sales Club.

"I think that this is going to be the year for me," she says. "I'm going to do something for myself."

And she did - she joined the Curling Club for the first time this year.

S.L.H.S. Student In The Spotlight

Christine Lamarche

by Paula Tchen

Most of us dread the thought of returning to school in the fall and would never be caught the week before school even begins, carrying an armful of books ... But the week before school, when most people were trying to make the most of their last week, by sleeping in (etc.) Christine was not to be found hanging out at the mall or at the beach ... Unlike the rest of the students who avoid school as much as possible, Christine was busy fulfilling her job as this year's student council vice-president. She will be in grade 12 this year and will be juggling a heavy courseload as well as many responsibilities as the vice-president. This shows perfectly her genuine dedication towards our school. Before you know it, Saintsational (a leadership conference) will be here and it wouldn't happen without someone like Christine organizing it. A lot of planning is needed to make a workshop like this successful.. This is Christine's second year on student council.

She's also planning on taking part in the senior girls basketball team and will also be a member of the Prom Committee. Last year, Christine was a peer helper and attended a peer helping conference.

Christine keeps herself very busy out of school as well. She is a lifeguard at the Kinsmen Municipal Center and her job involves working with people of all different age groups, from teaching the basics of swimming to younger children to teaching water aerobics. Christine also babysits for her neighbours - whenever she has a chance, that is.

When Christine does have a precious spare moment you'd think that she would just stop and relax, but she likes to make the most of her time and enjoys staying active by rollerblading. And of course, she always makes time for her friends and for her family.

Christine's best advice for the new students this year is to get involved and I'm sure that you would all agree that Christine follows that philosophy perfectly.

Driving Conditions

How and where you drive will also have a great effect on your service requirements.

For example, if you generally drive in dusty or sandy conditions, you should change the oil, the oil filter and the air cleaner more often than called for in the maintenance schedule.

If most of your driving is short, local trips, the engine never really warms up, so water vapour and unburned fuel are not purged from the crankcase and dilute the engine oil. That's why engine oil should be changed according to the maintenance schedule or sooner.

City driving in the winter is very hard on your vehicle. Cold weather, low speeds and short trips combine to tax virtually every system and component of your vehicle. After three or four months of this, a little maintenance is called for. Remember; oil, filters, inspections and minor checks are all quite inexpensive - especially when compared to the cost of major repairs that result from neglect.

If you maintain your vehicle according to the maintenance schedule, seasonal needs will not mean major service, nor will your vehicle need much attention before a long trip. You'll always be ready to go.

Helping The Children

The people and businesses of Cornwall have once again opened their hearts and purses to make the wish of a young boy come true. Eddie Fedor, 6 years old, suffers from Ewing's sarcoma, a degenerative form of cancer. The Children's Wish Foundation will be sending Eddie and his Mom to Disney World. Friends of Eddie's gathered at the Rat's Nest on October 24th to present him with his second wish - his own dirt bike. Pictured above are Eddie Fedor with his dad Greg.

Congratulations to SONYA, who has opened Top Notch Designs at 1916 Pitt Street ... from Barb & Clayton at Rack 'm Up Billiards.

Are you sensitive about your height? Well don't be! New research has shown that short people live longer because of a lack of growth hormone.

Many questions were raised last week over the reliability of the City's public opinion survey. Casting doubt on the survey's validity was the fact that apartment renters were excluded. Another spurious finding is that 85.9% frequently get their city information from the Standard Freeholder. With only 65% of Cornwall homes subscribing to the Freeholder ... this is a mathematical impossibility.

A. Lalonde wishes to thank the person who returned sentimental articles accidentally left in purse when purse was returned to store. Merci.

Great entertainment at the Snow Suit Fund Gala from the CFLG - Variety 105 team. They did a "different" version of the Macarena, led by Paul.

We are advised that contrary to our statement last week, all snow suit applicants are approved by the social assistance department.

How fast does three years go by ... just ask Harry, Mike, Janet, Dale and Al ... Congratulations to Future Office Products on your 3rd Anniversary!!

Rumour has it that "THE JERSEY FARMER" has been having a few problems lately. It seems he's been told to quit playing tennis and also to have his carpets cleaned. Funny, you would think his elbow would be feeling rather lazy lately ... SEEMS HE'S BACK ON THE WAGON!!

Hats off to all those who contributed to the United Way through the fundraising campaign held during the Grand Opening of the new Canadian Tire store. A total of $4,946. was collected consisting of $4,449 from Canadian Tire money and $497. in cash donations.

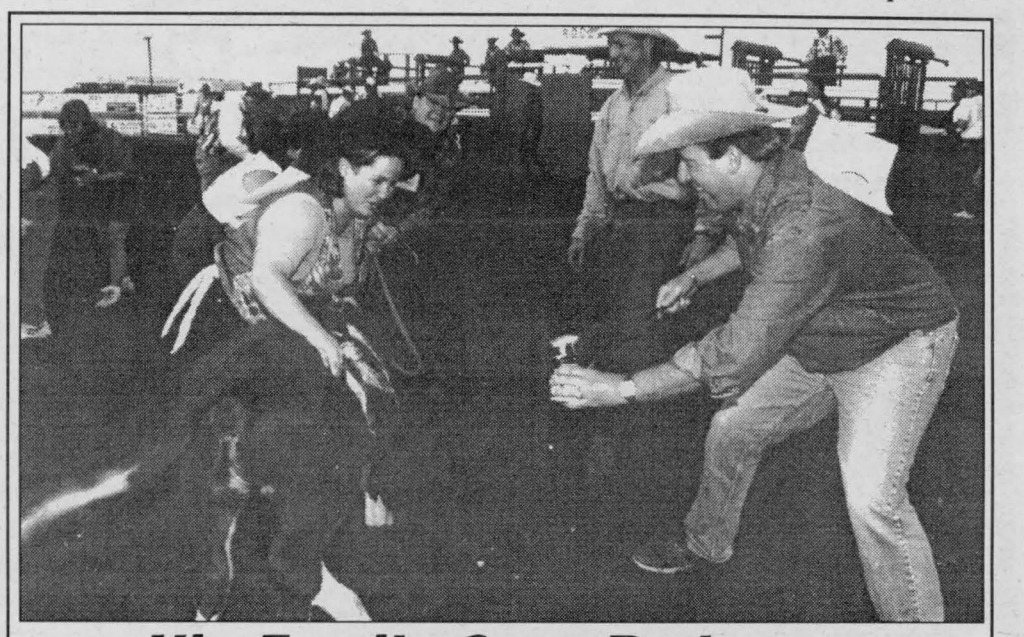
A tip 'o the hat to the thirty senior high school students for giving their time and energy to volunteer as youth leaders for the sold out, 6th Annual Dating & Relating Conference, being held on November 8th & 9th. Best wishes for a successful event.

Thought for the week: In life, you can either look at the gutter, or at the stars.



Kin Family Goes Rodeo ...

Cornwall Kinsmen and Kinettes recently packed their bags and headed out West to Medicine Hat for the Annual Kinsmen National Convention, attended by more than 600 Kinsmen and Kinettes from across Canada. Kinsmen President Rick Shaver shows his cowboy experience by trying to brand (paint) a calf while cowgirl Kinette President Melissa Morgan holds on. Melissa did a much better job at this event that the bah ... sheep milking contest. Melissa also won the Kinette National Bulletin Award.

PROGRAMMER TAKES ON AN ENGINEER

A Programmer and an Engineer were sitting next to each other on an airplane. The Programmer leans over to the Engineer and asks if he wants to play a fun game. The Engineer just wants to sleep so he politely declines, turns away and tries to sleep. The Programmer persists and explains that it's a real easy game. He explains, "I ask a question and if you don't know the answer you pay me $5. Then you ask a question and if I don't know the answer I'll pay you $5." Again the Engineer politely declines and tries to sleep.

The Programmer, now somewhat agitated, says, "O.K., if you don't know the answer you pay me $5 and if I don't know the answer I pay you $50." Now, that got the Engineer's attention, so he agrees to the game. The Progammer asks the first question, "What's the distance from the earth to the moon?" The Engineer doesn't say a word and just hands the Programmer $5.

Now, it's the Engineer's turn. He asks the Programmer, "What goes up a hill with three legs and comes down on four?" The Programmer looks at him with a puzzle look, takes out his laptop computer, looks through all his references and after about an hour wakes the Engineer and hands the Engineer $50. The Engineer politely takes the $50, turns away and tries to return to sleep.

The Programmer, a little miffed, asks, "Well what's the answer to the question?" Without a word, the Engineer reaches into his wallet, hands $5 to the Programmer, turns away and returns to sleep.

For the tightwad: Unclaimed clothing accumulates at dry cleaning establishments and is often sold just for the price of cleaning. Similarly, repair shops often have abandoned items for sale for the price of the repair.

Did you know that St. Raphael's was recently visited by British Heritage Conservationalist John Ashurst and pronounced the ashlor facing masonry as "of the finest workmanship" and the edifice itself as "the best monument of its type in Canada."

To the person(s) who complained re: Wheels to Meals. This is not Meals on Wheels. We go and pick the seniors up and take them out for their meal. The fees were suggested to us by the seniors. "Methinks" you got your wires crossed.

An innocent remark by a youngster in the checkout line of Farmboy (4:10, Friday) had two women almost hidden under their shopping carts, each of which were occupied by a young tyke. After chatting briefly about losing weight and touching where (the region) they wanted to lose weight, one tyke chipped in, commenting to the other tyke, as well as shoppers within earshot, "My Mummy got a bigger bummy than your Mummy!"

Of all the things you wear, your expression is the most important.

Caller wonders how do hunters get their licence when they can't read signs? Also, it's a real mystery how hunters can come off the 401 and say, it's crown land when it's private and has signs to say "No Trespassing". We know, we pay the taxes.

Make sure you drop in to Cornwall Square on Saturday, November 16th, for the unique arrival of the jolly old man himself. Santa is expected to arrive at 10:30 Saturday morning. We hear there will be magicians on hand as well. Hope they don't make him disappear ... I've been working on my list for weeks.

Congratulations to all those who took part in the S.D. & G. an Prescott-Russell Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society's fundraising campaign for 1995-96. A total of $521,000 was collected, surpassing the previous years total by $4,500. The efforts of all volunteers and donors were greatly appreciated.

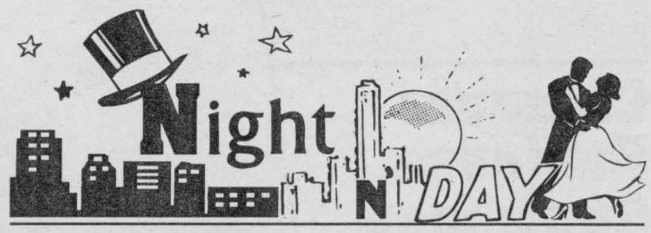
ENTERTAINMENT



Entertainment - Special Events & Restaurant Review - By Bill Gallant

With the cooler temperatures and frequent rain and snow showers these days, many of us look for the indoor types of entertainment. There's plenty to choose from over the next few days. You can enjoy some down east music with Cape Breton's BARBARIANS appearing at THE GLENGARRIAN PUB & RESTAURANT on Saturday, November 9th. On Sunday it's a Remembrance Celebration starting at 2 pm with GLENGARRY STRATHSPEY & REEL SOCIETY. There will be pipers and an "open mike" sing a long. BOB & DUCKY will be in on Friday, November 15 and MCCORMICK & MACLEOC on Saturday, November 16.

Tickets for that FRANK MILLS CHRISTMAS CONCERT are now on sale. The concert will also feature the Cornwall Centennial Choir and is slated for the Aultsville Theatre on December 11th at 8 pm. Music World have tickets. This Saturday (November 16) at Aultsville Theatre, it's ANGELA HEWITT in a piano concert as part of the Cornwall Concert series.

Following a couple of road games this weekend, the CORNWALL COLTS of the CJHL will be back on home ice for a 7:30 pm tilt this Thursday, November 14 when they host Gloucester at the Si Miller Arena.

This Monday, November 11 is REMEMBRANCE DAY and we remind you about the Legion's Branch 297 annual parade to honour fallen comrades.

Coming to the Legion Hall on Saturday, November 16 is a fun-filled WESTERN NIGHT DANCE. Everyone welcome. No charge.

Good luck to the CORNWALL OLDE CAR CLUB and their banquet and dance this Saturday, November 9 at Jazz Magnolias. Music by Willie After Dark featuring some "car tunes" and old 50's hits. Get ready to rev it up gang.

They are planning on another full house at the R.C.A.F.A. on Sunday, November 17 as Wing 424 celebrates members birthdays with music, cake, sandwiches, prizes and lots of fun. Members and guests welcomme.

THE OLDTIMERS are coming! The Greatest Hockey Legends on Ice will play the Law Enforcement Torch Team at the Civic Complex on November 22. In town will be fan favourites like Norm Ullman, Eddy Shack, Marcel Dionne, Frank Mahovlich and others.

This is a big month for food specials at EAST END RESTAURANT at Eastcourt Mall. The special prices on roast beef dinners, Italian - Greek buffet and other dishes is available all this month.

Until next week G'Day and G'Night.

Colts Battle Division Leaders

by Ken McLaughlin
Director of Public Relations

A big week of hockey is in store for the two time defending CJHL Champions, with important games against the team we defeated in last year's CJHL finals and the team that leads the league this season.

The Gloucester Rangers visit the Si Miller Arena this Thursday, November 14th at 7:30 pm. Everyone remembers the thrilling seven game final series these two teams produced last season. Expect more of the same this Thursday, as the Rangers and Colts are meeting for the second time in five days. Memories will be long and tempers will be short. Tickets for this game will be on sale Monday to Wednesday, from 10 am to 5 pm and Thursday from 10 am to game time. Call 930-9300 for more information or to reserve.

Next Sunday, November 17th, the CJHL leading Smiths Falls Bears will make their second trip to Cornwall. Please note the afternoon start time of 2 pm. Last month, the Bears and Colts hooked up for the most entertaining game played on Si Miller Ice this season. The ticket office will open at 10 am Sunday morning. A great opportunity to bring the whole family for an afternoon of inexpensive entertainment.

All fans are reminded that, because of the Santa Claus Parade, those who are driving must enter the Si Miller Arena Parking Lot from the First Street entrance. Your cooperation is appreciated. This applies to the Sunday, November 17th game only.

Your Colts are also busy in the community next weekend, with appearances at the Domtar Christmas Party and the Howard Smith Credit Union Skating Party.

We hope to see you this Thursday and next Sunday afternoon, as your Colts play two of our most important pre-Christmas home games.

Colts hockey at the Si Miller Arena .. come out and experience Colt commotion.

Transcontinental Printing Royals

In league action, South Grenville scored with only seconds remaining to defeat the Royals 2-1. Matt Tyo had the lone goal for Cornwall.

In Potsdam, Marc Labelle had 1 goal and 1 assist to help his team tie the game 3-3. Ramsay Trew and Matt Tyo had singles. Dan Martin collected a pair of helpers.

In a re-match at the Si Miller, Potsdam beat the Royals 2-1. Martin Hébert scored on a penalty shot but the clock ran out before the Royals could try for a comeback.

Delaney Bus Lines Midget "A" Post Wins

In regular season action, the Delaney Bus Lines Midget "A" team faced last year's champs, the Nepean Raiders on the weekend. They took the lead 2-0 in the first period with goals from Jason Leduc and Terry Tillaart. Nepean countered in the second with two goals and Terry Tillaart scored his second of the game to retain the lead. It was all Cornwall in the third period when they went ahead with three more goals, these coming from Ryan Riviere, Carson Runions and Josh Labelle. Nepean closed out the scoring by adding a goal, making the final tally 6-3 in favour of Delaney.

In other action, the team travelled to Ottawa on Monday night to meet the Cumberland Barons. Delaney came out strong and took a 4-0 lead in the first period. Jason Cholette posted the hat trick with the other goal coming from Adam Vachon. Both teams each scored a goal in the second period, Delaney's marker coming from Josh Labelle. Delaney Bus Lines Midgets added two more in the third period from Chad Nixon and Trevor Ashby, while Cumberland crossed the goal line one more time to make the final score 7-2 in favour of Delaney's Bus Lines Midget "A" team.

Designers Choice Atom "B" Royals

The Atom "B" Royals opened the 96-97 season with two games versus North Dundas and suffered two disappointing losses.

In the first game the Royals came out really quick and took a 1-0 lead in the first 12 seconds on a goal by Andre Bellemare. However, that was the only scoring both teams could muster and the first period ended at 1-0. The Demons managed to score midway through the game with two goals 16 seconds apart. These goals seemed to knock the Royals out as they could not capitalize or manage any more offensive threats to even the score up. North Dundas in turn, scored a couple more goals late in the third to make the final score 4-1. Matthew Van Egmond played strong in goal for the Royals keeping them in contention as he faced 35 shots.

In the second game, North Dundas continued where they left off in the previous match as they recorded a 3-0 shutout victory over the Royals. Once again, this game was much closer than noted as both teams put in a strong effort. Matthew Leroux put in a superb effort as he saved numerous break-aways and came away with some great saves.

In their next game against North Dundas, the Demons scored a first period marker early to take a 1-0 lead. Andrew Bissonnette scored early in the 2nd for the Royals to tie the game at 1-1. The Royals seemed to fall apart midway through the game and North Dundas scored 5 unanswered goals in the second half. Along with 3 more goals in the third period, the final score was 9-1.

In a game against South Stormont, the Selects maintained a 1-0 lead until midway through the game, before erupting with three more unanswered goals late in the second period to take a 4-0 lead. Three more goals in the third period brought the score to 7-0. The Royals fought back and scored two goals within 20 seconds, however a late goal by the Selects ended the game at 8-2. Andre Bellemare and Jonathan Bissonnette scored the Royals goals with Joel Langlois recording 2 assists in the game for the Royals.

Lally Blanchard Rounds The Corner

The Rapids continued their slide in league play, dropping a 4-3 decision to the Gloucester Rangers. Despite solid goaltending by Bryan O'Shaughnessy, sloppy defensive play and lack of scoring punch contributed to the setback. Nathan Beausoleil, Peter Barnett and Steven Jarvo provided the Rapids' scoring with Sean Amelotte, Ryan Roy and Barnett each assisting once.

All team members picked up their game a notch on home ice and found their way back to the win column, handing Ottawa West Golden Knights a 6-1 defeat. Patrick Turcotte was a strong presence, registering two goals and two assists, while dishing out punishing checks. Alex Gray also had a fine showing, scoring a goal and two assists. Barnett and Jarvo continued their impressive play with Jarvo getting two goals and Barnett scoring one goal and one assist. Marc Filliol, always a physical presence, delivered several bone-jarring hits and assisted twice. Amelotte and Beausoleil each contributed single assists. Puckstopper Nick Timmers was on top of his game, making many key saves.

COMPLETE Sharp, Wax, Base Repair and Stone Grind $29.99
Sharp & Stone Grind $19.99
Sharp and Wax $14.99

X-Country Complete Tune Up $14.99

Sportec prides itself on finding the best ski for their customer ... the best of the best ... Take it a step further by ensuring the tune on the ski matches the manufacturers specs and the individual skiers needs.
The first step in tuning after base repair is to flatten the base full length with a stone grinder (only Sportec has one). Recessed edges will take additional passes using increasingly faster feed speeds and slower stone speeds, with lighter weight (pressure) applied. A fine linear structure on the base enhances gliding.
After following the manufacturers guidelines for base edge and side edge angles, a ski tune may be personalized by considering the following:
• the skier's ability level and skiing style (kinds of turns, skiing speed, typical terrain skied).
• current snow conditions (ice, hard pack, powder, etc.)
• type of ski (Sl, GS, all mountain, etc).
• the manner in which the skis have been previously tuned.
Proper tuning makes for better skiing.

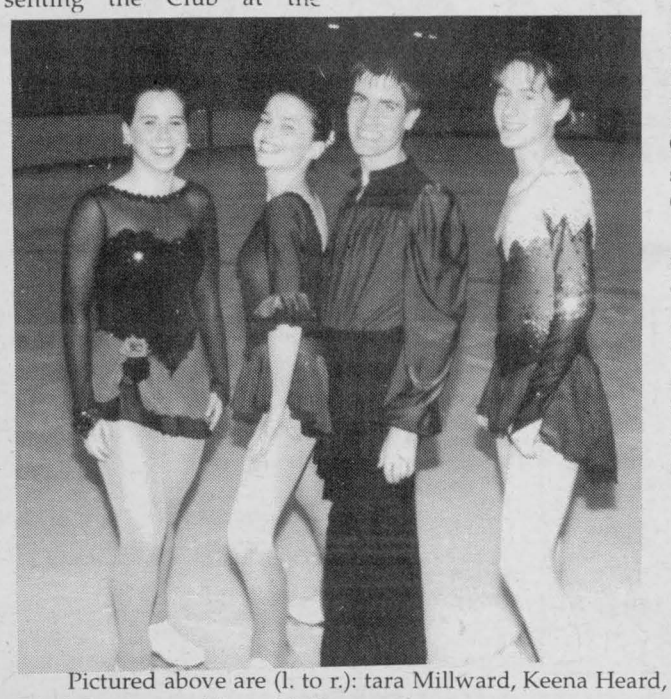
Local Figure Skaters

Two members of the Township of Cornwall Figure Skating Club will be representing the Club at the Eastern Ontario Sectional Competition to be held November 7 through 10th in Ottawa.



Pictured above are (l. to r.): tara Millward, Keena Heard, Mark Lauzon and Janet McKeown

Keena Heard, with her partner Mark Lauzon of the Gloucester Figure Skating Club, will be competing in the Novice Competitive Dance category. Janet McKeown will compete in Pre-Novice Ladies singles. As well, Long Sault resident Tara Millward, who like Lauzon skates with the Gloucester Figure Skating Club, will join the others, skating in the Junior Ladies Group.

Each sectional competition is sanctioned by the Canadian Figure Skating Association; qualifiers in each category go on to Divisional competitions. Divisional finalists earn the right to skate at the Canadian National Championships.

A do-it yourself funeral is one of your

CHOICES

Always been a take-charge type of person? Believe the only way to get things done right is to do them yourself?

While a funeral is for the living, preplanning it yourself means you can have it done your way, plus save your family from the financial burden and additional anxiety of making all the arrangements.

Here are some other good reasons to preplan your funeral:

- The Plan is a Tax Shelter in accordance with the Income Tax Act (all interest earned is income tax free)
- The current price is frozen and guaranteed by contract, accrued interest offsets inflation
- You can make easy installments to suit your budget
- The Plan is transferable between our east and west branches at time of need at no additional costs

You can pre-arrange and customize all aspects of your funeral, including casket selection, type of service, and all financial details.

Preplanning will save your family money, relieve them of a great deal of difficult decision-making, and allow you to have the last word!

HOROSCOPES

November 10-16

Aries – March 21/April 20
An introduction to a new work associate could make a difference in the near future. Opportunity for advancement is near. If finances are an issue this week, you may want to devise a budget that works for you. Being realistic is the way to go. Romance highlights the weekend.

Taurus – April 21/May 21
Don't be afraid to say "no" or you could find yourself being spread too thin. It may be time to bury the hatchet in a strained but meaningful friendship. If you let pride stand in the way, you may live to regret it. Your drive for success will make it especially hard to relax this weekend.

Gemini – May 22/June 21
Take a firm stand and your opinion will be respected. Showing any form of self-doubt could be detrimental to your goals. A quiet family weekend helps ease the tension of the week. There's nothing wrong with putting your feet up and taking a break. Steer clear of Leo's advice.

Cancer – June 22/July 22
Domestic affairs take priority early in the week. You may have to put work and social activities on the back burner. Later in the week, a rare opportunity could come your way. Be sure to act quickly or it will be lost. An introspective mood leads you to solutions for a long-term problem.

Leo – July 23/August 23
Stand up for your rights when it comes to your career. Don't be afraid to point out your accomplishments and contributions. Counting all your chickens before they're hatched is a bad move with finances. Tuck enough cash away for a rainy day. On Friday, don't let emotions rule your day.

Virgo – Aug 24/Sept 22
Don't let things you can't control get the better of you. A positive attitude gets you through. Taking a stand in an unfair situation makes the difference. If work projects seem overwhelming, don't be afraid to ask for help. Scorpio's behavior may be the source of aggravation later in the week.

Libra – Sept 23/Oct 23
If your nerves feel frayed lately, it could be time to treat yourself to a weekend getaway. Forget about work and the daily grind and do something for yourself. Look to Cancer for some ideas. Is there an important date you're forgetting? Better check the calendar. Scorpio asks your advice on an important matter.

Scorpio – Oct 24/Nov 22
Find a polite way to say "no" to an overly-demanding boss. You need to set a limit to the time and effort you're willing to give. A change of heart could put you in a strange position on Wednesday. Think before you act out on a whim. Friday is a good day to start new projects.

Sagittarius – Nov 23/Dec 21
Facing the truth may be hard, but it's the only way to solve a problem in a troubled relationship. Give it a try. If you've been unusually forgetful lately, it could be a sign of stress. Meditation and/or exercise can help you achieve peace. Avoid risky financial ventures this week.

Capricorn – Dec 22/Jan 20
If you're a typical Capricorn, you probably don't like change. But if you welcome it this week, it could be of benefit. You have a lot to gain. Unexpected interruptions could cause delays at work. You may have to work extra hard to catch up —especially if you deal with deadlines.

Aquarius – Jan 21/Feb 18
A project you thought would require a great deal of time and effort turns out to be a snap. Celebrate by doing something for yourself. A difference of opinion with Libra could lead to World War Three if you're not careful. Keep an open mind when discussing controversial issues.

Pisces – Feb 19/March 20
Stop worrying and start taking action. Don't be pulled down by your deep, dark side. Look towards positive ventures and realistic goals. A Taurus who you've known for some time will do something totally out of character. Perhaps the Bull is full of more surprises than you know.
